Anderson To Leave Sanford; Accepts Lakeland Position

Elery B. Anderson will leave Sanford April 1 for Lakeland, where he will assume management of two Mather's furniture stores.

For the past 11 years, Anderson has supervised Mather of Sanford. He came here from Burlington, N. C., after 20 years as manager of the Manufacturers and Stores Corporation.

Although he was born in Chattanooga, Tenn., Anderson attended school and was married in Lakeland. He will return after an absence of 32 years. Mrs. Anderson's mother and brother are residents of that city.

The couple has one daughter, Mrs. Frank Roberts of Ormond Beach, and three grandchildren.

"We regret leaving Sanford, and the many friends we have here," Anderson said, "but when a promotion is offered it is foolish to turn it down."

Chester Muse will become manager of Mather of Sanford after Anderson's departure. Muse has been assistant manager for more than two years.

South (New York) Ready To Secede

NEW YORK (UPI) — If a growing group of New York City residents has its way there will be a 51st star on the U. S. flag before long—for the state of South New York.

Present indications are that it will take New York City considerably longer to get its own star than it took Hawaii and Alaska.

Nevertheless, some tax-weary residents of the nation's greatest city are whooping rebel yells and holding secessions.

State Sen. Joseph Zaratecki, a key boy and Democratic majority leader in the state Senate, takes seriously enough to have offered an amendment to the state constitution setting up the city as a separate state.

Unfortunately for the cause, his proposal fared badly in the Senate Tuesday. It was brought to a vote and just about everyone voted loudly and whimsically for it, but Speaker Malcolm Wilson ruled that it had been voted down.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner said recently that secession would have a "great deal of benefit for the city and should be given thought" despite the obvious difficulties such a move would have.

New York City is having trouble getting enough funds to keep going. Wagner has proposed various new taxes but must get consent of the Legislature, meeting in Albany, to levy them.

Several of the mayor's pet schemes have been turned down by the Legislature, dominated by upstate interests and the Republican Party.

New York City pays between 55 and 60 per cent of the state's total revenue, according to Wagner, and gets back only about 35 per cent of that revenue. When a state budget exceeds two billion dollars, as this year's does, that gets into the vicinity of big money.

Washington Window

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robert Amory Jr. probably is the second-best or third-best informed American on what the Russian Communists are doing, thinking and planning.

Amory is deputy chief for intelligence of the Central Intelligence Agency. CIA is the United States spy apparatus or, in more polite language, it is a counter-intelligence organization.

This well-informed American was making a speech the other day in Columbia, S.C. Amory's speech did not get the publicity it deserved despite the fact that what he had to say was pretty good news for U. S. citizens.

His story was that the Soviet Union is neither ready nor preparing for a war; that the Kremlin does not want a war although Communist Russia would fight if it must. Amory said the Russian leaders decided 18 months ago that their Communist economy had to have 15 years of peace to achieve their internal development plans.

"Their economy is by no means mobilized for war or preparing for war," Amory said. "They strike a balance between military and other expenditures just as we do."

He believes the Soviet Union is not ready to risk a nuclear war over Berlin. Nikita Khrushchev, Soviet premier, can force the West to "chicken out."

"If the West is resolute," Amory said, "then I believe that the Soviet Union will be the ones to back down."

During the 15 years of peace which Amory is convinced the Soviet Union must have and urgently wants, the CIA expects the Kremlin to follow this general pattern:

Play its Sputnik diplomacy to the limit.

Stand pat against all pressure in the areas now dominated by communism.

Insist either upon two-nation talks between the Soviet Union and the United States or demand that satellite powers sit beside Soviet conferees in numbers equal to the number of allies sitting beside the Americans.

Maintain at high pitch work of trouble-making among the peoples of non-communist nations.

But softening this Fifth Column activity with some show of willingness to cooperate with governments over which the Kremlin exercises no control.

Continue an effective foreign policy of "no strings" foreign aid toward nations which neither are Communist allies nor expected to become allies.

Egyptians Suspect Soviet Doubletalk On Israeli Issue

CAIRO (UPI) — The Egyptians suspect they are getting diplomatic doubletalk from the Russians.

No matter what other preoccupation may occupy the Arab world, there is one that is constant—their enmity for Israel.

And it is in the matter of Israel that they think they are getting double talk from the Soviet Union.

The Israeli issue was at the top of the agenda of this spring's meeting of the Arab League.

The league headquarters sits in the middle of downtown Cairo. It is a solid-looking building of yellow stone set in the midst of a sandy courtyard. Spring flowers line the driveway approach to the entrance. There is a reception hall and high-ceilinged rooms on either side.

In one of these rooms is the office of Abdul Halek Hassouna, secretary general of the league which ranks Israel as its bitterest enemy.

The main topic was the flow of Jewish refugees from Romania.

Russia, he said, has given the league blanket assurances that no Russian Jews would be permitted to emigrate to Israel. Romania has said its emigration is limited and is for humanitarian purposes.

"But," he said, "when we hear Mr. David Ben-Gurion (premier of Israel) asking for more refugees and planning to get into Israel 100,000 in 1959 and know of the existence of receiving centers in Vienna and the activities of agents in Italy looking after them and facilities for their trip to Israel, we cannot help but feel there is a planned program for this purpose."

An Egyptian government official echoed Hassouna but in stronger language.

"The Russians may say they are not permitting emigration," he said, "but we don't believe them."

Thirty-five per cent of U. S. married couples spend more time at home gardening than at any other pastime, according to a survey report by the American Association of Nurserymen.

Chiang Promises Aid For Tibet

Nationalists Plan Fight On Mainland

TAIPEI (UPI)—President Chiang Kai-shek said today he would lead his Nationalist Chinese forces against the Communists if the Tibetan rebels carry on their fight.

Chiang, in his first statement since the anti-Communist revolt broke out in Tibet, said the Nationalists are "making every possible effort" to aid the revolutionary forces.

Coffee Club Hears Speech By Wright, Manager Of Plant

James Wright, manager of the Ox-Fibre Brush Co., Benson Junction, spoke to members of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Coffee Club this morning.

The Ox-Fibre Company is celebrating its 75th anniversary, although Wright hastened to say that he was not celebrating his.

Wright thanked Sanford for being such a friendly neighbor. Sanford was once the home of Ox-Fibre. His amusing remarks caught the interest of Coffee Club members and held them spellbound, until he left the microphone in a hearty round of applause.

Charlie Morrison introduced guests and new members of the club. Among them were Ward Goodrich, business manager of the Sanford Greyhound, and Ashton, manager of Food Fair, Mayor Al Lorman of Longwood, Bob McKee, of McKee Motors, Harry Val, secretary-treasurer of Jet-Vac Cooler Inc., and field director Joe Karmil.

Others included Cecil Tucker, county agent; Bob Carroll, associate of Harold Kautner; Milton Stua, new owner of Celery City Printing Co.; John Piro, owner of Piro Manufacturing Co.; his associate and son-in-law, Jerry Ferraro; Marvin Meltzer, manager of Sanford Manufacturing Co. and Roy Wright, of the Sanford Atlantic Bank.

Chiang's declaration followed reports from Nationalist intelligence sources that the insurgents have cut the two mainland routes from Red China to the remote Himalayan kingdom.

Chiang addressed his 500-word message to the people of Tibet.

"If you remain firm and courageous and if you continue to carry on the fight soon I shall lead your compatriots, civilian and military alike, to join forces with you on the mainland and to fight shoulder to shoulder for the successful fulfillment of our sacred mission of national salvation," Chiang said.

The 70-year-old generalissimo said "the government of the Republic of Nationalist China is making every effort to give you continuous and effective aid."

He did not disclose what the aid was. But key Nationalist officials have been meeting day and night during the past 72 hours to find ways to help the uprising.

The Chiang statement came as the London Times, in a dispatch from Kalimpong on the Indian-Tibetan frontier, said the Khabag, Supreme Tibetan Cabinet, had declared itself independent of Chinese Communist control.

Reports reaching New Delhi indicated Lhasa was quiet but that there was widespread fighting in other areas of Tibet and that the rebels were holding the town of Gyantse which controls an important road through Tibet.

Adenauer Worried About Red Parleys

BONN, Germany (UPI)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was nagged by fears today the Western powers might weaken West Germany's position in negotiations with the Soviet Union.

He was reported particularly worried that the Western powers will accept something less than general controlled disarmament—a settlement that might weaken West Germany defensively.

His aides and others who see him regularly said this explains the 63-year-old Adenauer's extreme suspicion of and extreme sensitiveness to public statements by other Western leaders.

Adenauer's suspicions, which have infected many of his advisers and most of the newspapers which normally stay close to his foreign policy line, have caused a series of crises in German-British relations.

Only this week Adenauer instructed his ambassador in London to determine the truth about reports Britain was considering some kind of "freeze" on atomic weapons in central Europe.

Mother Confined For Tots' Deaths

HIDDERNA, N. J. (UPI)—Mrs. Ellen Church, who told police she bludgeoned two of her children to death with a toy tomahawk and a hammer, was confined to an institution today as insane.

"I thought we were all insane," she told officials Wednesday in explaining why she took the lives of two of her children and tried to kill two others by feeding them overdoses of sleeping pills in fresh raspberries.

Mrs. Church, a den mother for Scout Cub Pack 62 in Rockaway township, also had tried to commit suicide by taking sleeping pills after the attack on her children.

Mrs. Anna Minor, Ex-Resident, Dies

Mrs. Anna Kathryn Minor, 68, former Sanford resident, died Tuesday in a Winter Garden hospital. She was born in Ovidio, and moved to Winter Garden from Sanford in 1936.

Among her survivors is one brother, Lewis M. Leinhardt, Sanford. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Ocoee Christian Church. Dr. Paul H. Packard will officiate. Hawthorne Funeral Home, Winter Garden, is in charge of arrangements.

Dynatronics Given $192,000 Project

Dynatronics Inc. has received its first defense contract to be developed and manufactured at the Seminole County plant.

The $192,000 contract calls for the design, development and manufacture of a pulse code modulation recording system. The system will be used at the Atlantic Missile Range.

The transaction was handled through Brig. Gen. William L. Rogers, vice commander of the Air Force Missile Center, Georgia.

F. Anderson, vice-president and general manager of Dynatronics, accepted the contract.

The project, first of its kind in Seminole County, will be under the direction of Robert P. Bishop, senior production engineer for Dynatronics.

Otham & Tudor, Sanford, has cleared the ground and completed preliminary work for construction of the plant in Spring Hammock, near the Big Tree in Seminole County. Actual construction is scheduled to begin Monday.

The building is scheduled for completion by June 15. Dynatronics plans to occupy spacious new quarters by July 1. Work on the government contract will begin immediately, Dynatronics officials said.

The electronics firm announced a couple of weeks ago that it would move into Seminole County. Parker Palmer Jr., president of the firm, said at the time that it would create employment from "the current 100 to about 400 in the next three or four years."

Local officials have predicted that the young firm will become one of Central Florida's largest employers.

Decision Delayed On Plea By Plant

A decision on the re-zoning of the area around Five Points yesterday was postponed until next Wednesday by the Seminole County Zoning Board.

Residents in the area protested plans to construct a paint and plastic plant. The decision was postponed since only three members of the board were present.

John Krider, chairman of the County Commission, said this morning, "We shouldn't let a few homeowners prevent us from putting an industry in this obviously desirable location. Already, the area contains a large fertilizer plant, a cow pasture and a beer tavern. I won't tell the Zoning Board what to do, but I'm disappointed that they did not approve the change to industrial."

Summit Proposed By Western Notes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U. S., Britain and France sent notes to Russia today proposing a summit conference which could deal with a peace treaty with Germany and the Berlin crisis.

The notes insisted that a foreign ministers' meeting precede the summit and that it "justify" such a top-level parley.

The separate notes to Russia suggested the foreign ministers discuss "questions relating to Germany, including a peace treaty with Germany and the question of Berlin."

The U. S. note said the purpose of the ministers' meeting "should be to reach positive agreements over as wide a field as possible, and in any case to narrow the differences between the respective points of view and to prepare constructive proposals" for a heads of government meeting later.

"On this understanding and as soon as developments in the foreign ministers' meeting justify holding a summit conference, the U. S. government would be ready to participate in such a summit conference," the U. S. note said.

Truck Hits Auto; Parked Car Is Hit

No arrests or injuries were reported in two automobile and truck accidents yesterday.

The first, at 4:36 p. m., occurred at the intersection of Southwest Road and 13th St., when Floyd Earl Heran, plumber for Wall Plumbing and Heating, ran into the rear of a car driven by Betty Jean Roberts, 22-year-old school teacher.

Ralph Edward Wright, 41, backed into a parked car at 16th St. and Strawberry Ave. at 8:14 p. m. The car was owned by Delores Walden Shambray, school teacher. All are Negroes.

Farmers To Meet, Plan Pipeline Fight

Seminole County farmers will meet in the courthouse tomorrow morning to discuss strategy in their battle to prevent a natural gas pipeline company from "chopping up some of the best farms in Florida."

Ways and means of combating a decision by the Houston, Tex. Gas & Oil Corp. to take rights-of-way through local farms was discussed. The pipeline company has filed suit against Herbert Behrens for a right-of-way across a field which Behrens values at $50,000.

Meanwhile, John Krider, chairman of the Seminole Board of County Commissioners, said that the Board had passed a resolution to allow the company to lay the pipeline, bringing natural gas to Central Florida, along county roads.

PRE-COOLER OPENS — Jet-Vac, Inc., today opened its huge vegetable pre-cooling plant in Sanford. Located on Seminole Blvd., the plant can cool vegetables in truckload lots. Looking at the tall structure are Cecil Tucker, county agent; Harry Valdou, secretary-treasurer of Jet-Vac, and Joseph Kuramal, Jet-Vac field director. (Staff Photo)

Pre-Cooler Plant Starts Operating

The giant pre-cooler on Seminole Boulevard went into operation today.

Built by Jet-Vac Coolers Inc., of Philadelphia, the plant can process a full trailer load of vegetables within minutes.

Brokers and growers in the Central Florida area will utilize the service to remove moisture and cool crops of celery, corn, cabbage, lettuce and beans. The plant is expected to boost area vegetable production and bring better prices for vegetables.

The automation of pre-cooling machinery allows one man to operate the process. A trailer load of vegetables is driven into a large steel chamber. The doors of the chamber are closed and sealed.

A mobile power plant creates steam through jets. The jets create a vacuum in the chamber, pulling all air and moisture from the vegetables. Then the power plant refrigerates the contents of the chamber to 35 degrees. The doors open and the load is ready to go about its business—north, south, east or west—the vegetables will remain in fresh condition for a minimum of ten days.

The jet process pulls moisture from the very heart of the vegetable. Many pre-cooling plants simply demisterize the first few layers or leaves.

Two similar plants now are in operation in Cedarville, N. J. and Oswego, N. Y. Another is under construction in Pine Island, N. Y.

The Sanford operation was built at a cost of $150,000, according to Harry Valdou, secretary-treasurer of Jet-Vac Coolers Inc. Valdou is in town informing growers and brokers of the new service.

The local operation will be handled by Joseph Kuramal, field director of the Philadelphia firm. Valdou said Sanford was chosen for its central location. He added "We know the truckers have to come through Sanford to deliver their produce to the north. Also, it is just between the large centers of Hastings and Zellwood."

Charlie Morrison, public relations director of the Chamber of Commerce, made the presentation. Stekley was chosen from registered students at the school who make a practice of courtesy and safety rules on the highway.

Protestants Start Easter Observance

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Protestants begin their Easter weekend today with a Communion service and a pilgrimage from Bethany to Jerusalem along the route taken by Jesus on his march to the crucifixion.

The pilgrimage begins in a basement crypt reached by descending a narrow stone staircase. In the center of the room is an altar of remembrance built of 12 stones from Bethel, untouched by tools according to the Biblical injunction.

This crypt is called the Oratory of Reconciliation Room. Around the walls are four bas-reliefs illustrating the story told in Matthew 5:23-24 of the two quarrelling brothers whose sacrifice was accepted by heaven once they had made their peace with each other. A worship service will be held here emphasizing reconciliation as the way to God.

The worshippers will then ascend to the Last Supper Room on the second floor of the building. Here a Communion service will be held with fellowship the predominant theme.

Then the worshippers continue their pilgrimage, ascending to the Silent Room directly over the 152-foot Jesus Tower.

A small gate opens to a stairway leading to the Silent Room where the pilgrimage ends in meditation.

On the morning of Easter Sunday, members of the Protestant denominations in Israel Jerusalem will attend a sunrise service on the terrace of St. Andrew's Scottish Presbyterian Church just across from Mt. Zion. With Gethsemane and the Mount of Olives clearly visible, the worshippers will face a deep purple horizon lighting up in pink and gold, and exult in the joy of Easter morning coming up over the city's spires and domes.

Guns going off at the same time will remind the followers of Mohammed that this is the penitential month of Ramadan and the sunrise to sundown abstinence from food, drink, and tobacco begins.

'Inspector' Takes Joy Ride In Wagon

RACINE, Wis. (UPI) — Downtown post office employees who didn't inspect their "inspector" were red-faced today when they learned he drove off in a red, white and blue station wagon to Oaksh, Wis., and surrendered to police.

Described as looking like a postal inspector and "distinguished," Thomas Millett, 39, Scranton, Pa., engineered the theft Wednesday. Police said he had recently served a federal term for a Tallahassee, Fla., truck theft.

Textile Plants Need Qualified Employes

Sanford's textile plants once again are flexing their muscles.

Brookfield Mills, which manufactures bathing suits for Allx of Miami, has been given orders to double its present output. Next year, it will be doubled again.

Pierro Manufacturing Co. has received an order to produce dresses for Florida Fashions, once a Sanford industry. John Pierro said he is attempting to "bring Florida Fashions back here."

Sanford Manufacturing is planning to expand. Eventually, all the firm's operations will be located here.

The local textile plants are growing. The only roadblock appears to be experienced personnel to operate sewing machines. Even the free classes for instruction apparently will fall to supply minimum requirements.

The Sanford story has been told to textile manufacturers in the east and north. There is a strong possibility that at least one new plant will be added to the local garment family. Others well might move here.

This, of course, would add to the strain on personnel supply. There appears to be a solution, however.

Many experienced workers in textile plants in the north and east have been cut off due to decreases in production. Most of these would be very happy to move to Seminole County.

These workers would not find the same pay scale prevalent in textile areas in the north and east. But, neither would they be looking for work. They also could have all of the advantages which Florida offers, such as recreation, sports, a year-round climate.

Local manufacturers prefer local employes. So do we. However, if they cannot be obtained here, this might solve the problem.

Beggars 'Assorted'

Beggars come in assorted sizes, shapes and financial conditions.

Sanford, in recent weeks, has asked several to leave town. The city even has purchased tickets, one-way, for a couple that became somewhat obnoxious in asking for hand-outs.

The city isn't attempting to run "poor people" out of town. The Herald isn't criticizing the severely handicapped, the lame and others who really need aid.

However, we don't think Seminole residents should have to put up with cases like that which came to light Tuesday. Two deaf mutes were told to leave Sanford after one was found soliciting funds in City Hall. The two did not have a permit to beg.

And how did they depart? In a 1959 model station wagon, of course.

Iraq's Withdrawal Won't End Alliance

LONDON (UPI) — The Foreign Office said today that the work of the Baghdad Alliance would not be affected because of Iraq's withdrawal.

A spokesman said the remaining members of the pact would continue but he did not indicate whether the alliance would be re-named. Baghdad is the capital of Iraq.

The foreign office also disclosed it received an assurance from Iraq Tuesday that nothing would happen in the immediate future to the British position in Habaniya, a strategic point for Britain's Middle East communications.

Iraq has been discussing with Britain the future of this base and other problems arising from Iraq's withdrawal from the pro-Western Baghdad defense alliance.

Iraq's armed forces are largely equipped with British-made weapons. Diplomatic sources suggested that if Britain were to halt shipments Iraq might turn allegiance to Russia for future equipment.

The United States and Britain prepared to shore up the defenses of the remaining Near East members of the pact — Pakistan, Turkey and Iran — against the threat of Communist encroachment.

In The Nick Of Time

ANDALUSIA, Ala. (UPI) — The local Kiwanis Club purchased a $1,000 rain insurance policy for an outdoor circus which went into effect at 6 p. m. Tuesday. Rain fell at 6:10 p. m.

Assignment Washington

By Ed Kester

WASHINGTON — What the Congressmen wanted to know was what do you do with a Russian who disobeys a traffic signal in outer space?

Our lawmakers also asked such searching questions like, would it be possible to bar taped singing commercials in orbiting things?

Then there was the ponderous problem of what to do in case the Soviets turned the moon red. For this, so help me, they did have an answer.

Before them, at the House Space Committee, the gentlemen had two of the country's top experts on what the law should be where there isn't any air.

The sorry truth is there are no space laws now, and the Congressmen wanted to know why somebody doesn't hurry up and develop some.

So they called up Francis Wilcox and Loftus Becker, head men in international organization and law from the State Department.

Mr. Wilcox said yes, there would be a traffic problem up there one of these days since other nations besides the United States and Russia will be sending up satellites in the future.

So he suggested that a United Nations central depository could handle the traffic up there.

But suppose, said chairman Overton Brooks (D., La.) that we have a blinking traffic light system in orbit and a Russian comes swooping along and fails to heed it. What then?

Well, now, that was the problem. The Russians, said Mr. Wilcox, have a habit of ignoring international laws.

Rep. Brooks envisioned a flock of spheres and cones clattering the radio frequencies with a lot of gibberish. The depository, said the State Department man, would try to control that, too.

This drew a plea from Rep. George P. Miller (D., Calif.) that somebody certainly ought to pass a law prohibiting anybody from sending up satellites with singing commercials.

Now it was Mr. Becker's turn. He's a young man who described himself as a slightly negative lawyer. He said he wasn't worried about our Pioneer IV colliding with Russia's Solnik, and things like that.

But what would happen, Rep. James Fulton (D., Va.) wanted to know, if Russia put a red flag on the moon? Or worse yet, he said, "What if Russia hit it and kicked up a lot of dust and turned the moon red?"

Mr. Becker poo-pooed that. Just hitting the moon, he said, doesn't give Russia a right to it. To gain possession, he said, would take a great deal more than just putting an object on anything. But he didn't elaborate.

Mr. Fulton, however, worried still. What would probably have to do to oust the Russians, he mused, would be put a red, white and blue band around the moon.

Rep. Frank Omer (R., N. Y.) saw grave implications in all this. "I hope," he said, "they let our song writers know well in advance whether it's to become a red moon instead of harvest moon."

Rep. Fulton wondered what recourse we would have if the Russians sent an X-100-type plane sailing over our country at an altitude of, say, 100 miles?

That, said Mr. Becker, is the nut of the whole problem — where does sovereignty and in space? He said international law ought to determine just what type of orbiting objects may be permitted to go sailing over anybody's property.

That got back to whether the Russians would obey the restrictions. The gentlemen, it seemed, gained little ground in their probe of space. So the matter will go ahead to an 18-man United Nations committee sometime in May.

I'd say they'll have themselves a king-size headache.

Fright Is Blamed In Death Of Calf On Seminole Farm

A calf died of fright yesterday morning on the George Simmons ranch, two miles west of Sanford on State Road 46.

The four-week-old calf apparently was "bashed by a wild animal until it dropped dead of exhaustion and fright. During the chase it leaped through four strands of barbed wire and two boards surrounding the corral.

Then the calf jumped into the cow pasture and ran around the field; five acres of land. It hid from the calf was found on all four fences in the pasture.

The only injuries sustained were a large gash on its nose and cuts from the barbed wire. Dr. Raymond Bass told Mrs. Simmons the calf was not sick, or suffering convulsive fits.

The dead animal was considered a prize calf, weighing 130-175 pounds. Mrs. Simmons said they planned to put all the calves in the barn at night from now on. No tracks were found in the pasture, but a panther or bobcat is suspected, she added.

Lebanon Struggles Toward Normalcy

BEIRUT (UPI) — Almost exactly six months after the last U. S. troops left Lebanon, this little nation still is feeling its way back toward normalcy.

But there is an undercurrent of tension which rises partly from the still-unforgotten revolt against the regime of former President Camille Chamoun and partly from the tensions gripping Lebanon's neighbors.

Part of the tension here is the result of an early lack of confidence in the new regime of President Fuad Chehab. Confidence only now is being restored.

But in its early months, the Chehab government refused to use the means at its disposal to crush the bickering which sometimes led to fighting between the almost evenly divided Christians and Moslems.

Strangely, one of the factors leading to an upsurge of confidence has been the government's vigorous handling of a kidnapping case here.

No such vigor had been demonstrated in the days during and immediately following the revolt.

Now it is expected the government also may move more vigorously to maintain peace between the Moslem Basia section of Beirut and the Christian sector.

The American troop landings are seldom mentioned now. There are too many other problems.

American prestige is not particularly high but it is higher than it was. Even the most rabid nationalist admires the United States because it got out of Lebanon when it said it would.

Radars Being Used To Warn Of Floods

CHICAGO (UPI) — Though flash floods can strike a community only an hour after a storm, U. S. weathermen, through radar observation, are able to warn residents in advance.

Max A. Kohler, chief research hydrologist for the weather bureau in Washington, said today that 30 new radar stations are being installed in danger zones along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts and in Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska.

He said the stations will be especially effective in flood forecasting for small streams where flood crests can rise in a few hours. Already weather bureaus in Oklahoma City and Des Moines have issued numerous flood warnings on the basis of radar information, Kohler said at the 178th meeting of the American Meteorological Society.

The larger the river, the longer the time between the storm and the flood crest, Kohler said. The bureau is able to predict a flood in the Ohio basin days in advance and on the lower Mississippi a month ahead.

Family Planning?

CARMI, Ill. (UPI) — Little more than 30 minutes after Mrs. Andrew Leithiller gave birth to a son, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Leithiller became the mother of a baby girl.

More than two billion dollars worth of plastics were sold in the U. S. in 1957.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — Indignant Senators may demand an investigation of what they consider a classic example of the manipulation of top-secret information to influence high policy.

The example Senators have seized on is the leak to The New York Times of Project Argus, the 300-mile high explosion of three small atomic bombs. Members of Congress entrusted with the information under a top-secret label several months ago were cautioned that secrecy was vital to America's security. Then they read the same information in the newspapers.

The leak coincided with the arrival of Prime Minister Macmillan for talks with President Eisenhower. He was known to be bringing a compromise proposal for agreement on a suspension of atomic tests. The news of Project Argus was leaked in such a way as to make it seem that tests would have to continue and the British compromise, therefore, would have to be rejected.

Even after the news had been printed and Deputy Secretary of Defense Donald Quarles had issued a statement on it, Senators were told by Pentagon officials that the information was still classified. They are acutely aware of the absurd and impossible position this puts them in when they undertake to legislate on or even talk about atomic matters and national defense. Senator Clinton Anderson, chairman of the Congressional Joint Atomic Committee, has suggested an investigation, with principals from the Defense Department and the Atomic Energy Commission summoned to explain what happened.

Anderson says that when it was known the Times would print the story the White House in the three-hour interval before actual publication telephoned top officials in the Defense Department and the Atomic Energy Commission to give them the official line. Members of the Congressional Joint Atomic Committee were not informed.

This fed the wrath that has long been smoldering. One immediate consequence was that Anderson demanded the release of so-called confidential letters sent to him showing a marked difference between the Defense Department and the AEC on the rate of nuclear fallout. In his statement releasing the conflicting correspondence Anderson said AEC Commissioner Willard Libby should try to explain contradictions in his recent pronouncements on fallout.

For Anderson and others on the committee the villain of the piece is still former AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss, whose name is now before the Senate for confirmation as Secretary of Commerce. They believe that Strauss set the policy of telling the public as little as possible about fallout and making that little sound as innocuous as possible.

They see Strauss as still the dominating force in high policy in the atomic field. This is one element in the concerted effort to block Strauss' confirmation.

Senators say they want to look into the records of the Lewis and Rosa Strauss Foundation, named for his parents and of which he is president. Last year the foundation awarded $5,000 and the Albert Einstein medal to Edward Teller, popularly known as the "father of the H-bomb." Teller has been one of Strauss' closest collaborators in resisting any curb on nuclear testing and in playing down the possible effects of nuclear fallout.

This year the $5,000 and the medal went to Libby. Does this represent, Anderson and others are asking, a way of rewarding loyal supporters of the Strauss line. Awards from foundation funds are exempt from personal income tax and, therefore, have a greater value than such a sum would otherwise have.

But quite apart from the personal bitterness injected into this controversy, the stakes are fantastically high. The correspondence released by Anderson, after repeated demands on the Defense Department, shows that the fallout of strontium-90 is greater in the United States, and earlier reports indicate it is heaviest in the northern tier states. The concentration is contrary to previous assurances from AEC. No one can really be sure of the long-term effects of this pollution. On the other hand, most military men insist that to halt tests now, particularly in the light of the Project Argus experiment, is to endanger the national security. With the act of secrecy growing ever tighter, these are issues the Democratic press is ill equipped to resolve.

Dixie's Lighter Side

United Press International

The lighter side of Dixie: Want a commission in the Confederate Army?

These already are available in Georgia, and probably soon will be in other parts of Dixie.

In the Cracker state, the Chamber of Commerce is trying to re-mobilize units of the gray formed in Georgia during the War Between the States. The troops are to be used in re-staging battles during the Civil War centennial in 1961.

The chamber (which does not deny having an eye on tourist trade) is offering full information on old units, and will award commissions to "commanding officers" who recruit units.

This idea of re-enacting old battles also is being discussed at Ft. Sumter, S. C., where the whole thing began, and at Manassas, a N. L. town. Chattanooga, Vicksburg, Iva Ridge, Ark., and Philippi, W. Va. And in Atlanta, of course.

Silence no longer is golden, but its worth has been measured in silver certificates, otherwise known as dollars.

James W. Porter, tired of hearing rock and roll music on the radio station at Ripley, Tenn., persuaded the station to sell him 15 minutes of silence. Price: $14.

John Stewart, manager of station W T R B, said there were many protests. So silence is no longer for sale there.

To keep the record straight: Fred Brown, a Tennessee highway patrolman, has been acquitted on a speeding charge.

Brown is the officer who arrested Oliver Anderson near Clinton, Tenn., some weeks back.

Anderson charged that while Brown was driving him into Clinton to file a speeding charge, he (the trooper) exceeded the speed limit.

Brown accused Anderson, Anderson accused Brown.

Proved to be a legal standoff, since Anderson also was acquitted.

One thing you can say about Booker Wright: Matrimony holds no terrors for him. Wright, 35, is honeymooning in Miami with his seventh wife. He married Mrs. Elsie Pickle, 68, at Cintwood, Va.

Persue Caples, 70, also has had considerable experience with wedlock. He filed suit in Forest, Miss., for three divorces.

Turns out he took four mates, the last three without benefit of divorce.

He wanted the divorce, Caples said, so he and his remaining wife would be eligible for welfare payments.

Robbery Try Costs Would-Be Bandits

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two men gained entrance to the home of Mrs. William Goldstein Tuesday by pretending to be delivering a gift basket of fruits and jellies.

Once inside, they told her it was a holdup. Mrs. Goldstein began screaming and the men fled, leaving behind the beautifully decorated gift.

Police estimated that the "hold-up" cost the men $15 to $20.

Troop Of The Week

By JANE FLETCHER

Tonight we'd like to have you get acquainted with sixteen more of our little girls in the brown uniform. Here's Terry Chevalier, Connie DeLong, May Rae Hite, Mary Ellen Hoffman, Dixie Holmes, Diane Huskin, Joyce Jones, Janet Lewis, Mary Ann McInnis, Karla McNair, Sharon Pariani, Mary Margare Reynolds, Mary Lou Shuman, Kathy Todd, Susan White, and Margaret Wilson eager to tell you about their doings as Scouts.

In meeting with Troop No. 378 I realized a piece of the hardship of the split session school program... half of these third graders go to school in the morning and half in the afternoon, and meeting this late in the afternoon makes many of the Scout outdoor programs and activities almost impossible to undertake except on an occasional Saturday. However, in spite of time limitations, the girls are enjoying their taste of scouting.

To date their most memorable activity was a cookout in Mrs. Margaret Reynolds (Pinecrest School principal) backyard. This was followed by games and left a vivid impression on the girls that they are hoping for an early repeat. At Christmas they made calendars, and Christmas cards, and made little stuffed cats of which the children were quite proud. For valentines day they made their own valentines, then made little baskets to hold their goodies, and had a lively party with the exchange of the cards and the candy filled baskets. Their leader Mrs. C. A. (Marie) Lewis, along with assistant Leader Mrs. C. W. Todd, are beginning to concoct plans for a trip to Ponce de Leon Springs, when the weather is more reliable. This troop also has reservations in to appear on POP-EYE Playhouse, television program from Orlando, on March 20th, and are elated at the prospect.

The troop is organized in the usual club system with regular election of officers. And I was told by one of the little girls as a matter of interest and importance that as part of their home-making projects they'd each had to thread a needle and sew on a button... mamas please take note.

Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Todd cope very pleasantly with this troop. Cookie chairman for this year was the charming Mrs. E. A. Chavaliere.

Cook Out

Intermediate Girl Scout troop of Lake Monroe held a cookout at the home of their leader Mrs. James Giles in Lake Monroe on Wednesday, March 11th, as their troop meeting and to celebrate Girl Scout Week.

Before the cookout, they held their regular meeting at which Mrs. Fran Abrams, assistant leader, showed the girls the fire-building flip chart, and gave instructions on safety in use of fire. Their representative to the Citizenship Program held this past Girl Scout week was Charlene Abrams, and she gave a report on the work done at the Agricultural Test Center, and also

Plans For Saturday Skating Party

Arrangements have been made for all girl and boy scout troops in the county to join in a roller roundup, Saturday morning, March 28th, at the Coliseum in Orlando from 9:00 A. M. until noon. The price is 50c per person which includes skates, and the skating rink will be reserved for just the troops of this county during that period. This is especially directed to the Brownie troops as they are hesitant about taking the little ones over to skate with the general public.

If your troop plans to go contact Mrs. D. H. Fletcher FA 2-4089 so that an approximate number attending can be made. Each troop will have to provide its own transportation.

Shrimp-stuffed mushrooms are good as canapés or as the entrée at a meatless meal. Remove stems from 15 to 20 small fresh mushrooms. Chop stems fine, combine 2 tablespoons with equal amounts fine dry bread crumbs and grated sharp American cheese. Add 1 teaspoon grated onion, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, and ½ cup minced cooked shrimp. Fill mushroom caps with mixture, broil on baking sheet about 5 to 10 minutes or until browned.

Story League Has Program

The regular meeting of the Sanford Story League was held Monday evening at the Episcopal Parish House.

Mrs. E. C. Williams gave an interesting report on the service work of the Junior Story League and she told of the Easter program given by the Little Women for the children of the Methodist Orphanage at Enterprise.

A program of stories was given with "Florida, Land of Nature's Enchantment" as the theme. Mrs. R. F. Moulde read a poem "God's Autograph" and Mrs. W. L. Roche told the story of "Hespera and Her Red Hand of Destiny". Mrs. E. C. Williams told of the "Legend of the Spanish Moss".

Mrs. F. L. Crosby, Mrs. C. E. White and Mrs. C. C. Welsh served cake, coffee, nuts and Easter candies to the members and two guests, Mrs. J. Husk and Mrs. Eva Williams, who were present.

The refreshment table, overlaid with a lace cloth, was centered with a low arrangement of pink flowers.

Reception-Shower Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keogh, Lake Mary, entertained with a shower-reception Saturday evening for Miss Mary Grace Hobby and her fiancé, Alvin Wright who will be married in a late Spring wedding.

The 175 guests who called during the appointed hours of eight to ten were greeted by a receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gleason, aunt and uncle of the bride-elect; Sheriff and Mrs. J. L. Hobby, her parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wright, parents of the groom-elect.

The guests of honor greeted their friends in another room where they opened and displayed the many lovely gifts presented to them. Miss Hobby wore a striking black lace cocktail-length gown and pinned a corsage of wild violets at her shoulder.

Miss Gwen Yates was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Eileen Willard and Mrs. Ida Keogh assisted in the gift room.

High African violets, a favorite of the bride-elect, were used throughout the home and an outstanding violet plant was used on the refreshment table which was overlaid with a handmade cut-work cloth. A lavender, purple and green color scheme was used in party appointments and decorated petit-fours, served with punch and coffee, carried out this motif.

Presiding over the silver service were the Meses, John Pelley, Ted Brooklyn, Joe Smathers, Miss Guyman, Damon Scott, Walter Gardner, Harold Hockersmith, Robert Rugenstein and Chester Guerry.

Sanford Pilot Club Has Guest Speaker

Mrs. P. J. Westgate, who recently visited Poland, was the featured speaker, Tuesday evening, when the Sanford Pilot Club met at the Civic Center.

Mrs. Westgate showed slides while she talked on the customs of the Polish people, their present life and political set-up and the amusing preparations that took place for her cousin's wedding.

The meeting was presided over by the first vice-president, Mrs. Raymond Ball in the absence of Mrs. Walter Carter.

The annual Easter Egg sale was brought to the attention of the club and members were urged to have their eggs ready for the sale to begin Friday, two o'clock, at the French Avenue Winn-Dixie store.

Kilclines Entertain

Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Thomas Kilcline entertained with a dinner party at their home recently.

The dinner was served buffet style from a table covered with a handmade blue tulle cloth trimmed with satin. Light blue candles in silver candelabra flanked a centerpiece of white gladioli.

Dinner guests were Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. J. P. Cullen, Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Harry Bryant, Lt. and Mrs. Jack Youngblade, Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Ralph Mattius and Lt. and Mrs. Roger Miller.

Shower Given Bride-Elect

Miss Mary Grace Hobby, bride-elect, was feted with a linen shower Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Davis with Mrs. Chester Guerry and Mrs. George Chapman, Jr., as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Davis greeted the guests at the door and the other two hostesses presided over the silver service in the dining room. A silver and white bridal motif was used in decorations and a large circular floral arrangement, with umbrella effect, centered the white linen covered table. A double ring cake, symbolizing the double-ring ceremony to take place in late Spring, was served with coffee to the guests attending.

The only time an Army football team went through a season without winning or tying a game was in 1890, its first-year. But the team played only one game, losing to Navy 24 to 0.

Phoenix Defeated; Games Slated Here

The Phoenix Giants today sought their initial win of the 1936 spring training grind, the Corpus Christi Giants their second.

Phoenix yesterday bowed to the Minneapolis Millers, 9-3, in its first baseball game here. Today, the Pacific Coast League champions were to host Houston of the Texas League.

Corpus Christi, which has a 1-1 record, traveled to Kelly Field in Daytona Beach to do battle with the Tulsa Oilers, a league rival.

Both teams take the day off Friday. On Saturday, they play each other in Sanford. Corpus Christi has an open date Sunday, but Phoenix journeys to DeLand to play Minneapolis.

Phoenix Manager Red Davis threw a complete rookie team at the hard-hitting Millers yesterday afternoon. Three youthful hurlers, each working three-inning stints, were shelled for 12 hits by the Millers. Phoenix garnered nine off the offerings of a trio of Miller pitchers, but couldn't make them count.

The Giants committed two miscues affixed in their first exhibition game of spring training. The shelling, while not reason for joy, gave Davis and Giant coaches a chance to look at some of the question marks on the roster.

Veteran performers were used sparingly. They are known quantities. What Davis, coaches and scouts want to know is how much help some of the rookies can be expected to give the Giants in defense of their PCL title.

Gaylord Perry, after a shaky first inning, blanked the Millers for two frames. Minneapolis hopped on the Jamesville, N. C., right-hander for two runs in the first inning and never was headed.

Mike Lee came on in the fourth and surrendered one tally in the three innings he worked. Relieving him in the seventh was Andy Yelcho, who gave up two runs in the eighth and one in the ninth. In the seventh, he handcuffed the Millers.

Minneapolis also used three hurlers. Thiel started and gave up one run in the second. Stabelfeld hurled scoreless ball during his stint and Hurd was nicked for singletons in the eighth and ninth.

Television To Pay Teams $10 Million

NEW YORK (UPI)—Major league baseball's 1936 "a.k.a." radio and television will be about $10 million—roughly the amount four million "live" fans would shell out in the ball parks, according to a survey today.

An A. C. Nielsen survey for Television Age magazine estimated that the total cost of televising major league baseball this year would be a record $36.5 million. The actual cost of producing the telecasts was estimated at $2.5 million with a final $18.5 million estimate for national, regional and local sponsorship of programs and post-game programs.

The New York Yankees will televise more than any other team (123) games and also receive the biggest income—an estimated $40,000—from the TV business also estimated that the Los Angeles Dodgers would get $300,000 in radio and TV income, although the Dodgers are listed for only 11 telecasts.

The Milwaukee Braves and the San Francisco Giants are the only clubs which are not televising at least some of their games.

Baseball Meet Set At Florida State

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Florida State meets North Carolina and Illinois opposes the University of Florida today in Florida State's Fourth Invisational Baseball Tournament.

Other entries in the 10-day tournament are Duke, Michigan State, Michigan and Western Michigan.

Duke and Michigan don't join the round-robin event until Saturday with Michigan State and Western Michigan making their appearances Monday.

Rathmann Breaks Mark At Daytona

DAYTONA BEACH (UPI)—Racer Driver Jim Rathmann Wednesday set a new national record for a closed track run, averaging 172.80 miles an hour over the new Daytona Beach International Speedway.

Rathmann, former Indianapolis 500 champion, was driving a special car built to test tires for the Firestone Corp. His performance bettered the 171.82 miles an hour set by Marshall Teague last February in a Sumar Special.

Teague was killed on the same track two days later in an effort to surpass his own mark.

Track Team Takes Tavares; Sweeps All; Second Win

By JERRY COVINGTON

Coach Jim Pigott and his Seminole track team all but shut out Tavares here Tuesday in the second meet of the young season.

The Seminoles piled up 71½ points to the visitors 1½ while taking every event. Monday they won a triangle meet against DeLand and Eustis here.

In the opening event two Seminoles tied a school record in the 100-yard dash. Bob Day and Richard Laney both crossed the stripe in 10.6 seconds and Cecil Dandridge was right behind in 10.8 seconds.

Coach Pigott has 55 boys participating in track this season and he feels that they have plenty of material to go all the way in the conference meet next month.

Summary:
 100-yard dash—Day, Laney, Dandridge (all Sanford), 10.6; 400-run—Fawley, Lundquist (Sanford), Jenkins (Tavares), 58.1; 180-yard low hurdles—Allred, Mann, Roberts (all Sanford), Flake, Tavares, 23.5; sprint medley relay—Sanford (Laney, Mann, Lovelace, Fawley), 2.22.
 220-yard dash—Day, Dandridge, Furman (all Sanford), 25.6; discus—Fox, Lake, A. McKibbin (all Sanford), 124 feet; broad jump—Day, Laney, Gracey (all Sanford), 18 feet, 11 inches; shot put—Lake, Fox, Alfred, Ross (all Sanford), 38 feet, 3 inches.

Happy Joe Picked In Track Feature

Sanford greyhound racing fans have only three more days of action left on their kennel club's 90-day meet, but some of the season's top thrills lie ahead.

For instance, tonight Happy Joe Lucky will gallop in the Derby Consolation race, the 10th event. Action will cover the marathon three-eighths-mile distance, and will feature an unusual octet of stars who just missed nabbing spots in tomorrow night's Central Florida Derby.

Happy Joe is given two-to-one morning line odds from the fifth post position. The big dark brindle racer slipped into overdrive during the club's closing weeks and was expected to be a top contender for the Derby.

To win the Consolation competition, Happy Joe will have to best the always-tough efforts of Little Black, Edge Of Nile, who drew the next door spot, the four box. The other six standouts in the long 10th are Joan Owen, Oklahoma Sue, Fable Skirts, Limber Timber, Small Money and Rata.

Tonight's ninth contest also will be Grade-A strutting, with romping Randy Rock given best early figuring from the third post position. Glen Colson, in the seventh spot, is another top huster in the ninth event. It's the club's last Ladies Night offering, and once again, all women will be admitted without admission.

Lopez Says Sox To Beat Yanks

(EDITORS NOTE—This is the 10th dispatch on the prospects of the major league clubs in 1936).

By LEO H. PETERSEN
 UPI Sports Editor

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI)—Al Lopez, who has beaten the Yankees only once in eight tries, claims he is going to do it again in 1936.

As manager of the Cleveland Indians he beat the Yankees in 1934. In five other seasons with Cleveland, and the last two years with the Chicago White Sox, he always has finished second.

He thinks his third White Sox club is going to do the job.

"I figure we have the best shot at them, with Detroit right up there, too," Lopez reasoned. "One of us is going to beat the Yankees this year. I honestly feel we're the club that is going to do it."

He likes his pitching, his down-the-middle combination of Luis Aparicio at shortstop, Nellie Fox at second and Jim Landis in center field when the week of rain set in so they had to pass until a later date. Coach Dave Laude wasted no time in scheduling a fill-in game with Edgewater.

Action will get under way tonight at Memorial Stadium with a full pep band and cheering squad. The tilt will begin at 8 p.m. Opening festivities will get underway at 7:30. The Seminole Boosters Club is sponsoring the opener and has urged all members to attend.

The Seminoles have had rather a tough go in trying to open the season. They were scheduled to play Lyman last week, but rain prevented them from getting the game in. The only action they have seen was a practice tilt Monday in Daytona against the Mainland Bucs, where they lost 8-7. The weatherman has promised a fine night for baseball and it looks as though they will be ready to go tonight.

Laude will start righthander Richard Barnes on lefty Bob Day against the Eagles here tonight. Barnes started against Mainland Monday and was shelled for five runs in the first inning, but settled down to throw very effectively after that. Day threw two innings and was very effective with rookie John Callison in left, Landis in center and Al Smith, who appears to have recovered from his leg injury of last season, in right.

"I'm going all the way with Callison," Lopez explained. "Last year I decided to do the same with Landis. He was hitting only .200 in July, but I stayed with him and he turned out to be the goods. I'm going to stay with Callison the same way."

Callison hit .283 at Indianapolis in 1935 with 29 home runs and 93 runs batted in.

For outfield reserves, the White Sox have the veterans Jim Rivera and Don Mueller. Lou Skizas will stay on as a pinch-hitter and can play third or the outfield—neither very well.

Lopez will start out with Billy Pierce (17-11), Dick Donovan (13-14), Early Wynn (14-16), Ray Moore (9-7), Bob Shaw (3-4) with Detroit and Chicago) and Barry Latman as his first-line pitchers. Latman won three games while losing none for the White Sox last season after they called him up from Indianapolis, where he had a 9-11 record.

Might Take Some Doing

Turk Lown, the ex-national leaguer who was 3-3 with White Sox last season, will be the No. 1 bullpen man unless the club makes a deal. The other hurlers will be veteran Gerry Staley (4-3) Don Rudolph, an 11-game winner who won only three games at Indianapolis; Claude Raymond, Wichita last season but who has impressed Lopez this spring and rookie Rodolfo Arias, up from Havana where he had a 7-7 record. Lopez is hoping that Arias will give him the left handed relief pitching he lacked last season.

While Lopez is optimistic and the White Sox have changed ownership, they don't appear to have changed too much on the field. It might take a lot of doing for them to finish as high as second again.

Seminoles To Host Edgewater Tonight

By JERRY COVINGTON

The Sanford Seminoles will open their 1936 baseball season here tonight as they go against the Edgewater Eagles of Orlando.

The game originally was to be played against Oviedo, but the Lions had just returned from the state basketball tourney in Gainesville when the week of rain set in so they had to pass until a later date. Coach Dave Laude wasted no time in scheduling a fill-in game with Edgewater.

Action will get under way tonight at Memorial Stadium with a full pep band and cheering squad. The tilt will begin at 8 p.m. Opening festivities will get underway at 7:30. The Seminole Boosters Club is sponsoring the opener and has urged all members to attend.

The Seminoles have had rather a tough go in trying to open the season. They were scheduled to play Lyman last week, but rain prevented them from getting the game in. London Shrugs Off British Bout Ban

LONDON (UPI)—British boxer Brian London shrugged off the power of the British Boxing Board of Control today and went ahead with plans to fight world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson in a title fight at Las Vegas, Nev., April 21.

The board turned thumbs down on the proposed match Wednesday and said it will refuse London's application for permission to meet Patterson. The ruling was that the bout wouldn't be "in the interests of British boxing."

But this official pronouncement, coupled with the possibility that he might be banned from fighting again in Britain, didn't seem to faze London very much. He called the ruling "just too bad."

"If the Americans still want me, I still intend to go," he said on a television program.

Cerv Gives Athletics Win Over Yanks

By FRED DOWN

United Press International

Bob Cerv is flexing his muscles again and so the Kansas City Athletics figure they're no longer the "patasia" of the Grapefruit League.

Cerv, one of the American League's top sluggers last season, could lead the Athletics into the first division this year, according to manager Harry Craft.

Both Cerv and the Athletics got off to a poor start this spring but Bob took charge all by himself Wednesday when the Athletics scored a 3-2 decision over the New York Yankees. It was only the Athletics' sixth victory in 14 Grapefruit League games.

Cerv singled home one run in the first inning and tripled home another in the third in addition to clouting a double. Ned Garver pitched the first five innings for the Athletics and held the Yankees to three hits.

hit homers and drove in three runs each to lead the Braves' 14-bit attack against Johnny Podres, Clem Labine and Bill Harris. Itoh Hartman, who pitched six innings, and Joey Jay limited the Dodgers to eight hits.

Homers by Wally Post and Ed Bouchee and a triple by Stan Lopata were the big blows in the Phillies' seventh victory in 13 games. Gail Harris and pinch-hitter Niel Christley drove in all Detroit's runs with homers. Don Cardwell and Jim Owens held the Tigers to five hits.

Don Hoak had two singles and a double for the Pirates but Early Wynn and Dick Donovan held his teammates in check. The White Sox scored all their runs off 23-game winner Bob Friend who went seven innings for Pittsburgh.

The Giants sent the Red Sox to their fifth straight loss with a lousy 13-hit attack but had a scare when shortstop Andre Rodgers, one of the sensations of their spring camp, was "beamed" by Tom Brewer in the second inning. Rodgers, who was hit on the left side of the face, was forced to leave the game and probably will be sidelined several days.

Jim Norris Wins 'Matching' Battle

MONTREAL (UPI)—Fight promoter Jim Norris today chalked up his first victory since the courts disbanded his International Boxing Club—the signing of lightweight champion Archie Moore and Yvon Durelle for a July 15 repeat of 1934's "fight of the year."

Norris, now operating through the National Boxing Enterprises of Chicago, pulled out this big plum at a time when rival promoter Bill Rosenzohn in New York was trying to line Moore up against Sugar Ray Robinson. Truman Gibson, president of the Norris-backed NBE, called the signing "a major move by the NBE." He insisted that the signing didn't mean the NBE had given up trying to match Moore and Robinson, either, but said a Moore win over Durelle "would make a Moore-Robinson fight even more attractive."

And Gibson made it plain he thinks the NBE would be the outfit that would land Moore-Robinson, too.

Both Received Surprises

The Washington Senators and Cincinnati Reds each enjoyed a pleasant surprise when Chuck Stobbs and Orlando Pena turned in nine-inning performances.

Stobbs, traded to the St. Louis Cardinals last season and then reacquired for nothing when he received an outright release, scattered eight hits to beat the Baltimore Orioles, 5-1. He has yielded only one run in 18 innings this spring and attributes his comeback to the fact that he is wearing glasses.

Pena, who had an 11-10 record for Havana of the International League last season, pitched a five-hitter to become the first Cincinnati pitcher to go nine innings this spring in a 4-3 win over the Cardinals. Frank Robinson's second homer in as many days and his fourth of the spring broke a 1-1 tie in the fourth.

The Milwaukee Braves beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 8-4, the Philadelphia Phillies shaded the Detroit Tigers, 4-3, the Chicago White Sox downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-2, and the San Francisco Giants clubbed the Boston Red Sox, 8-4, in other exhibition games.

Mystery Man Guides Italy Comeback

ROME (UPI)—An international mystery man is the spark behind one of Italy's most dramatic post-war economic developments.

He is Enrico Mattei, 52-year-old head of the Italian oil monopoly. And he is a mystery man only in the sense that he is regarded with a certain disquiet both by government and international business.

The U. S. government keeps an eye on his activities out of a fear that his steadily pyramiding activities might prove to be a two billion dollar bubble which could blow Italian prosperity to smithereens.

International industry watches him because he has not hesitated to under-cut world markets in order to force his own entry. In any event, he is one of the most powerful men in Italy. Mattei has acquired the art of wearing his clothes well and being at ease in any company.

At 14, he went to work as a painter in a bed factory in his native northern Italy. At the age of 19, he was a director of the company, in charge of 150 men. His father was a low-placed member of the Italian police.

At 20, Mattei was ready to found his own chemical factory. Then the war intervened. Toward its end, Mattei fought as a Christian Partisan against the Germans, commanding 8,000 men. Those forces later added their peace-time strength to Italy's Christian Democratic Party, the post-war governing force.

With this political and economic background, Mattei was called upon to eliminate the oil monopoly set up under Mussolini.

It was then a collection of buildings with no oil and physical assets worth about a million dollars. It was Mattei's job to liquidate those holdings.

But he reversed his field. Instead of liquidating the holdings, he utilized them to begin intensive explorations.

He found extensive deposits of methane natural gas and began building an empire.

So far, he has been fantastically successful. Holdings originally valued at one million dollars now have been expanded about two billion.

And whatever disquiet Mattei causes, an critic said: "You can't quarrel with Santa Claus."

Speaker Thomas Brasley, in making the appointment Wednesday, instructed Sweeney to throw out any proposals for new taxes. The people of Florida are paying all the taxes they can bear, Brasley said.

Brasley added that with a little thrift in state government, present taxes will provide adequate income to operate the state in the next two years.

Sens. Tom Adams of Orange Park, another opponent of new taxes, is chairman of the same committee in the Senate.

Brasley appointed Rep. Howard Livingston, Highlands County, as vice chairman.

Two Men Escape In Navy Jet Crash GAINESVILLE (UPI)—A Navy jet plane crashed near here Wednesday, but the two crewmen ejected themselves and parachuted to safety.

Lt.(jg) William W. Haire, 24, was unhurt. Lt. Cmdr. Joseph S. Reedy suffered a minor arm injury.

The Jacksonville Naval Air Station said the pilots were on a routine training flight in their trainer when it developed a flame-out.

Lowell Thomas Describes Tibet Tour

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lowell Thomas, noted newscaster and world traveler, is probably America's leading authority on Tibet. In 1949, Thomas made a 300-mile journey across the "roof of the world" accompanied by his son, Lowell Jr. They were the only American citizens ever granted permission to visit Tibet. During the expedition, the Thomases visited the capital city of Lhasa and were received by the Dalai Lama, spiritual and political ruler of the country. The book "Out of This World," written by Lowell Thomas Jr. after their return to the United States detailed the life and customs of Tibet and its people as seen by an American newscaster. The description of the country and people follows.

By LOWELL THOMAS
Written For UPI
LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Recent news dispatches from the Himalayas tell us that the Chinese

Communists have bombarded or dropped bombs on two of the great monasteries near the city of Lhasa. These two are the Drepung Gampo and Sera Gampo. If they have destroyed these monasteries, in a way it would be comparable to the destruction of the great so important in the ancient city of Alexandria at the mouth of the Nile. For Drepung and Sera are two of the most important centers of Tibetan Buddhism. When Lowell Jr. and I visited Lhasa just before the Chinese Communists overran Tibet, we spent some time in these two monasteries. They are the largest in the world — or were. In Drepung we were told there were some 10,000 monks, in Sera approximately 8,000. There is a third large monastery on the outskirts of Lhasa, Ganden Gampo—Ganden meaning the "joyous." The total number of monks in these three is around 25,000, and the civilian population of Lhasa, the Dalai Lama's capital, is another 25,000.

If Drepung and Sera have been destroyed by the Reds, it would be like demolishing two towns. Drepung, for example, is a vast honeycomb of buildings, all tied together in one mass at the foot of a mountain. On the roofs of these structures are scores of towers and towers sheathed in gold. And each monastery is a depositlory for large stores of Tibetan treasures — sacred books and sacred images and objects of many kinds covered with layers of gold. We were told by the chief abots both at Sera and Drepung that there were more than a quarter of million monks, or 150,000, in Tibet. As a rule, one boy from each family goes into a monastery. The boys do this for a number of reasons. For centuries it has been traditional for at least one son to devote himself entirely to religion. And then, it is one way for a boy of low birth to become an important man in Tibet. Naturally, Lowell Jr. and I are wondering how greatly these huge monasteries have been damaged in the recent fighting. We also are wondering about the incredible building, the Potala, Palace of Gods, which dominates the scene at Lhasa. This structure is one of the wonders of the world.

From its base to its golden dome it is nearly as tall as the Empire State Building. One remarkable thing about this picturesque structure of 1,000 rooms, is that no steel was used in its construction. During winter months the Dalai Lama lives in an apartment near the top of the Potala. During the summer months he lives in a lesser palace, on the outskirts of Lhasa, a place called Norbu Lingka, in a park of poplar trees. Dispatches say this has been bombarded by the Reds in the recent fighting.

Pope Washes Feet To Keep Tradition

ROME (UPI)—Pope John XXIII today humbly washes the feet of 13 priests representing the 12 apostles and Christ himself.

The rites marking Holy Thursday before Easter were being held at the major Basilica of St. John in Lateran, known as the mother church of Christianity, and the Pontiff's own church as bishop of Rome. The washing of the feet commemorates that act of humility by Christ himself during the Last Supper, the night before his crucifixion. Pope John reinstated the tradition for the first time this century.

Early popes performed the commemoration by washing the feet of 12, the number of the apostles. But at the turn of the sixth century, according to a Roman Catholic tradition, Pope Gregory the Great found a 13th pair of feet before him.

He washed them, too, without question, and according to tradition Christ then appeared to the Pontiff in a vision and told him the feet were his own. Since that distant day, up to 1870 when the Italians stormed Rome and placed an end to the temporal power of the popes, popes carried out the hallowed rite listing the number of persons chosen for that honor as "12 plus one."

Paper Says Church 'Vetoes' Wedding

LONDON (UPI)—The Conservative tabloid Daily Sketch said today the Roman Catholic Church has "vetoes" Ramonondo Orsini's rumored plans to wed Iran's ex-Empress Soraya.

A front-page story quoting "reliable reports" said an unidentified cardinal told Orsini the church could not approve the wedding because Soraya is not a Catholic and because she has been divorced.

Rumors that either the Shah or Soraya was considering an Italian remarriage have been denied by all concerned.

Not Right Clubs, She Gets Divorce

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Mrs. Zee Slater, 44, today had a divorce from husband John, 59, on charges the right clubs didn't belong to him.

Circuit Judge Michael T. Sullivan accepted her complaint that her husband, a golf pro, quit the game after their marriage and sold her clubs without her knowledge.

Hi-Jackers Take $100,000 in Loot

NEW YORK (UPI)—Hi-jackers took $100,000 worth of dresses Wednesday night by seizing a truck and tying up its driver.

Fred Torbach, 50, told police two men jumped into the cab of his truck at 37th St. and Broadway in Manhattan about 9 p. m.

They bound, gagged and threw him into the rear of the truck and then made two stops to unload the dresses.

The truck was abandoned about midnight at St. Mark's Place in Brooklyn. Torbach worked himself loose and called police.

Record Field Set For Florida Relays

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—A record field of 1,250 college and high school track stars is expected to do some record busting here Saturday in the 16th annual Florida Relays.

University of Florida Track Coach Percy Beard said Wednesday he had received 1,248 entries from 28 colleges and 65 high schools. And late arrivals were expected to boost the total even higher.

Three of the nation's fastest sprinters will vie in the 100-yard dash.

The probable favorite in the century dash will be Don Styrom of Northeast Louisiana College, who earlier this month tied the junior world's record of 9.4 seconds.

But Styrom will face stern challenges from Billy Cannon, the all-around athlete from LSU, and Bobby Joe Green of Florida, both of whom have been clocked at 9.5 seconds in the 100-yard dash.

Cannon, an All-American half-back on the LSU football team, is given a good chance to win the Kearney-Rayburn Trophy which goes to the outstanding performer in the relays. The strapping 200-pounder is a crack shot putter and could win two or more places for the Bengals.

Eleanor Attacked in Jordan Paper

AMMAN, Jordan (UPI)—The Jerusalem, Jordan, newspaper Daily Falastin yesterday demonstrated against the government decision to permit Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt to visit the Holy Land on Easter Sunday.

"Don't let her in," it said. She is our biggest enemy."

Communists Grab Iraq; 'Purge' On

EDITOR'S NOTE: UPI Middle East correspondent Larry Collins was expelled Thursday from Baghdad with two other American newsmen in a move that draws further an iron curtain around Iraq. In the following dispatch he says the Communist takeover appears almost complete.

By LARRY COLLINS
BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—Communists have seized control of much of the Iraq government and jailed thousands of persons in the greatest purge ever seen in the Middle East. The Communists appear ready to take over the oil-rich nation.

There is almost open anarchy among student groups who howl through the streets in violent demonstrations against the West and Arab nationalism. Workers drop their tools and join any passing mob.

Iraqis live in a world totally isolated from their Arab neighbors and from any vestige of non-Communist thought. The press and radio are controlled by the Communists who publish only what the Reds want the people to know.

Catholics Complete Building Campaign

The building campaign for All Souls Catholic Church has gone over the goal of $100,000.

The campaign began Feb. 15. The minimum goal was reached March 22, when volunteer workers conducted an intensive door-to-door solicitation of parishioners who had not been contacted previously.

Construction on the new parish addition will begin immediately. The building will house four classrooms, an auditorium, kitchen facilities, clinic and principal's office.

The addition to the All Souls School has been designed for future expansion. The building is expected to be completed before the fall semester.

Despite adverse weather, about 20 parishioners helped as volunteer workers. Contact was made with every Catholic family registered in Seminole County.

Legion, Auxiliary To Install Tonight

Installation will be preceded by a covered dish supper at 7 p. m. in the Campbell-Lossing Post 33 meeting hall.

Republican Urges New Post Office

U. Harold Alexander, chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee of Florida, is carrying the ball for a new Sanford post office.

In a letter to Joseph Saunders, of Sanford, Alexander said that a recommendation had been made in the Post Office Department to vacate the present building in Sanford. The recommendation advised that adequate quarters for the main post office be obtained in a new leased facility.

Alexander said, "In view of the deplorable condition of the present building, I know that something will be done in Sanford in the immediate future."

Saunders informed Alexander of the cramped and structurally inadequate facilities of the present office.

Navy Jet Arrives Via River Barge

A Navy jet plane, destined to become a part of the Elks Playground ground equipment in Sanford, came up the St. Johns River from Jacksonville today.

The barge which brought it here will not return empty. Three jets from the Sanford Naval Air Station will be loaded for a downriver ride to the Jacksonville Naval Base.

Although the plane is here, it will be some time before the craft will be the red fire truck on the playground. Personnel at the Naval Air Station have volunteered to take the jet, paint it, work it over and make it completely safe for children to "investigate" and play around.

Local Farmers Ready To Battle

Seminole County farmers rallied this morning to stand united against the declaration of taking filed against one of them by the Houston, Tex., Gas and Oil Corp.

The gas company filed the declaration against Herbert Behrens, and proposes to run its line beneath 40 acres of his farm land. Conservation officials say the line would break the hard pan surface of the property, ruining forever the vegetable crops.

Forces Organized To Fight Pipeline

The meeting was called by Harold Kastner, chairman of the Chamber's Agricultural Committee, and a large group of more than 40 farmers, attorneys and county officials attended.

The company has said that it must go through private property because heavy equipment would tear up the roads. Rights-of-way along county roads and the railroad have been granted to the company, which holds a certificate of eminent domain.

Reds Offer Tibet 'Friendly Deal' To Stop Revolution

NEW DELHI (UPI)—The Chinese Communists have offered the Tibetan rebels a new "friendship agreement" in hope of putting down the revolt.

Tibetan noblemen fleeing to Kalimpong from the Tibetan capital of Lhasa said the Communists themselves ceased firing in Lhasa after offering to make a new deal with the Tibetans. The revolt was reported still going on outside Lhasa, however.

MOSCOW (UPI)—Western diplomatic circles predicted today the Soviet Union would quickly snap up the Western offer to hold a pre-summit foreign ministers conference in Geneva May 11.
