BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

SIMPLICITY OF RELIGION: Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.—James 1:27

Let's not forget about the trailer camp.

What Fred Lane needs is a Jimmy Roosevelt.

The City Commission is going to battle for completion of East Mellon Park this year.

The citizens of Key West are planning to build a new hospital with WPA funds.

Most of us don't get particularly excited about the Manchukuo-Siberian border fighting. It is such a long way off. But so is the kick of a mule when it starts.

A number of persons killed by lightning in the last few days tends to prove that while lightning may not strike twice in the same place it can strike double hard.

That warlock from a Japanese schooner that the Harvard Clipper had been found turned out to be a mistake. As usual the Japs were doing things. So sorry, please.

Some people seem to think that the time-honored slogan of "Trade at Home" means to buy from itinerant peddlers. Sanford Herald. And also to patronize fly-by-night advertising salesmen.—St. Augustine Record

Florida played host to President Roosevelt for a few hours Tuesday afternoon. The President landed at Pensacola, inspected the fort and air field there and after making a rear platform speech departed on his train for Warm Springs, Ga. There he will tell the people what they already know that he doesn't want Senator George returned to the Senate.

In Miami an Acting City Manager makes his first act in his new office the removal of the fire chief, and the appointment of another to take his place. Fire Chief No. 1 refuses to get out, successfully contends in court that no ACTING city manager can so arbitrarily remove the head of a city department. So now there are two fire chiefs. And if a serious fire broke out causing millions of dollars worth of damage, there probably wouldn't be any.

Mr. B. H. Guthrie in his letter to The Herald today suggests that Branch Cone be a "clerk" office worker but a solid and dependable man with administrative ability. Would it not be a good thing then if he were a Lieutenant Governor so as to be in a legal position to take the Governor's place whenever necessary? The lawyers may be sticking their noses in where not wanted, but if Branch Cone's acts while the Governor is incapacitated are of doubtful legality, wouldn't it be better to strengthen them?

It was a strange coincidence that side by side in many newspapers the other day the funeral story of Pearl White and a notice of the death of Warner Oland. The "Charlie Chan" of the movies first gained public notice as the villain in Pearl White's early picture, "The Perils of Pauline" always got the worst of it while she was always saved from his diabolical schemes just in the nick of time. They died almost at the same time, thousands of miles from the Hollywood which gave them fame and fortune.

Trying To Make Money

Bill Jones and John Smith were standing together at a street corner talking.

"Have you heard about Sam's latest scheme?" Bill asked John.

"No, I haven't," said John. "What is it?"

"Well, he is giving away a token with every dollar's worth of merchandise purchased at his store during the month and the person who brings in the largest number of tokens at the end of the month will be given a brand new radio."

"Stinks," said John, as if Sam had been plotting a particularly offensive murder. He's just trying to make some money."

Now this particular incident did not happen here in Sanford. But it might have. How many times in the last few years have you heard every business proposition that has been made in this city branded with the derisive comment, "So-and-so is just trying to make some money?"

Say, what's wrong with trying to make some money anyway? It used to be considered quite a decent sort of thing to do. Time was when every young man who had finished high school or college was expected to try to make some money. As a matter of fact, it was not unheard of for boys of eight or nine to pick up a few odd dollars in a more or less inconspicuous way.

Nowadays if a man tries to make some money he is apt to be looked upon with suspicion, if not with downright contempt. If he puts on a job in order to keep his income from going into hand-to-mouth, if he plans a community-wide "dollar day" in the hopes of stimulating a little extra business for everyone during a dull season of the year, if he undertakes to build a few new houses for rent, why shucks, the towns is just trying to make some money."

What do you want him to do, close up his shop and go on government relief? Is that the only way left in his day and time for a man to remain respectable? If he tries to make a little money in a decent and honorable way and managers to stay within the millions of laws which which our benevolent saviors have cluttered up the statute books, is he to be condemned for that if he were a common thief?

There seems to be a substantial demand in this country for the return of prosperity. We hear it on every hand that what the people want is better business, higher wages, safer interest and more dividends. But now in the world of business, going to pay higher wages, to protect the people's investments without making more money?

So if Sam is trying to make a little money, more power to him! God bless him, and those like him! What's this country needs is a few more people who earn their own living and less criticism for them when they do.

Slightly Exposed

Most of us have had the occasion this summer of wondering if we look as badly in the new bathing suits, which expose all the bones and joints and misplaced rolls of fat on every part of the anatomy, as we feel. According to George Anichini, who writes a newspaper column on "What the Young Lady Will Wear", we do; particularly women.

"If I had my way," he means, "I'd see to it that every bathing beach, public and private, was supplied with full length mirrors not over 50 feet apart. In addition, every female skin exposurer over 11 would be required to have a moving picture taken of her as a requisite for using the beach.

"At least twice each season, she would be obliged to attend a movie, showing her arrival at the beach, and from rear and side views of her getting into and out of her slacks as well as the water. In addition, there would be shown a few candid camera strips of film revealing her as she lolled on the sands or otherwise disported herself.

"I sincerely believe that only in this way would it be possible to make the modern girl come to her senses and realize what an awful looking mess, she is, as a rule, on the beach. Statistics seem to be lacking but I think I will err on the side of conservatism when I state that for very good-looking feminine figure in a one-piece bathing suit, one's eyes have to put up with a hundred walking, lounging and awkward envying reasons why girls look better in ankle length skirts."

Now personally we think Mr. George is unnecessarily hard on the girls. It has been our experience that not nearly so high a percentage of them are bad looking, as he seems to think. As a matter of fact if they are as unappealing to the eye as he says, why does he look at them? If there are any unsightly figures in one piece bathing suits at the beach besides our own, we never see them.

Sanford Drops 4 To 3 Decision To De Land Reds

Four Unearned Runs Are Scored In 5th By Reds

Schmidt Hits Home Run In First Inning; Billy Moore Gets Double And 2 Singles To Lead Hitters

The Sanford Lookouts went down to defeat last night before the DeLand Reds 4 to 3. The Reds scored their four runs in the fifth inning as Hank Basner, Sanford hurler, received poor support from his team mates. All DeLand runs were unearned.

Basner, tossing carefully, held the Reds to eight hits, while Rice for the Reds held the Lookouts to a like number.

Sanford's Schmidt led a home run in the first frame for the only earned tally of the game. Billy Moore, Sanford center fielder got a double and two singles to lead the batsmen of both clubs at the plate.

Rutledge of DeLand followed on Moore's heels with two hits in three times up. Decamio, Stith, Pitman, and Adz also hit safely for the Lookouts, getting one each. Every man on the Reds hit safely except Jackson and Rice.

Although the game could hardly be called a pitchers' duel both Basner and Rice, permitting eight hits each, kept them well scattered and remained unnerve each other. Rice gave one base on balls and struck out five while Basner issued four bases on balls and struck out two.

Orlando Senators Lose To Leesburg By Score Of 7-3

Gondoliers Climb To Within 1 1/2 Games Of League Leadership

In state league battles last night Leesburg defeated Orlando 7 to 3; Palatka won over Gainesville 7 to 1; and St. Augustine took the decision from Daytona Beach 5 to 4.

The Senators' victory over the Orlando Senators enabled them to climb to within one and one-half games of a tie for the leadership as the G-Men lost.

Three Leesburg hurlers limited the Senators to six hits all told. The Senators also used three pitchers but the Leesburg players garnered 13 safeties off the Senatorial gentlesmen.

ROOSEVELT RESTS In Warm Springs Preparing Talks

Such tactics could be more effective than singling out individuals in southern Democratic primaries for his favor or disfavor. The fact that Roosevelt deemed it necessary to interrupt his vacation trip, even before he landed, to work on his Georgia addresses intensified the impression that those speeches are of more than usual consequence in his eyes.

Plan To Help South Is Told By Roosevelt

New Deal Would Lift Purchasing Power And Thereby Create "New Wealth" President Asks Camp's Election Avoids Direct Mention Of George But States Preference

NO NEW DEALER

Eugene Talmadge, former governor of Georgia, and one of four candidates for U. S. Senate in the coming Georgia primary.

ATHENS, Ga., Aug. 11.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today reasserted his desire to raise purchasing power in the South.

Speaking at the University of Georgia stadium, the Chief Executive received an honorary degree of doctor of laws.

He was introduced by Gov. F. D. Rivers, who with Lawrence S. Camp conferred with the President at Warm Springs, yesterday.

The President, in a brief talk at Warm Springs, gave Camp a straight out endorsement in the race for Democratic senatorial nomination against Senator Walter F. George.

The President did not mention Camp or George in his talk here. He gave a broad re-assertion of the Administration's asserted desire to lift purchasing power and thereby "create wealth" in the South.

Leaving here, the President went to Barnesville, Ga., where he planned to deliver another address this afternoon.

At Warm Springs last night President Roosevelt stood squarely against the renomination of Senator George, of Georgia, and openly carried forward his "purge" of New Deal foes in the heart of the Democratic Solid South.

The President put the finger on George, who opposed the court plan, wages and hours and other "must" measures and called for election of Lawrence Camp, United States district attorney, as the next Georgia senator.

His remarks at a luncheon given in his honor by patients of the Warm Springs foundation were interpreted as but the fore-

84,000,000 Trees Already Planted In Shelterbelt

Area Covers Strips With Total Length Of Over 7,000 Miles

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—For four years the hooters—including many congressmen—have been trying to kill that shelterbelt idea in the western plains country.

But there stand the shelterbelts—84,000,000 trees—swaying surely in the prairie winds. Trees have been planted on 13,000 farms, in strips 115 feet wide. The total length of these strips is 7,000 miles—in a north-south line 100 miles wide.

And now the government has announced it plans to plant trees this year in 6,000 more miles of strips.

Trees—Not No Forests. You don't hear so much hooting these days—perhaps because the government isn't going in for so much publicity. Most of the jeers came from people who thought there was going to be a solid, 100-mile-wide forest stretching from Canada to Texas. Because of that misconception, the forest service had to do a lot of explaining.

It explained that shelterbelts are really short strips of trees and shrubs usually planted 10 rows wide. From a quarter to three-quarters of a mile long, they run along the side of a farm from which the most damaging winds blow. The purpose is to deflect the wind so it won't blow the soil away, to lessen extremes of temperature, and to save the moisture.

The fact is, the forest service pointed out, that prairie farmers for generations have been doing haphazard shelterbelting on their own.

Farmers Must Help. Now the forest service supplies the trees from its own or leased nurseries. The government, using relief labor, plants the trees. The farmers and the communities in the shelterbelt zone supply the land and cultivate the trees.

On a typical 160-acre farm, there will be about 8,000 trees, occupying about 10½ acres. Trees have been planted in North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

The Central Florida Osteopathic Association will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Mayfair Hotel with Dr. M. G. Hunter of Leesburg presiding.

About 20 members are expected to attend. Officers of the group are Dr. M. G. Hunter of Leesburg, president; Dr. W. D. Gardner, Sanford, vice-president; and Dr. E. C. Vanigriff, Ocala, secretary.

Chief speaker will be Dr. A. C. Becker of Water Haven who will speak on "Diseases of the Throat." Discussion will also be held on activities of the national convention which was held from July 11 to 15 in Cincinnati.

T. E. Simpson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will officially welcome members of the association to Sanford.

Corrigan Will Take Job As Air Co-Pilot

Flier Tells Government Official It Will Be Long Time Till He's Big Shot

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Douglas Corrigan said he planned to return to New York immediately to reassemble the 1938 airplane in which he flew alone from New York to Ireland and then prepare for a regular job.

Feted here, Corrigan told a group of government officials he intended soon to accept a regular job with an American airline company.

"Co-pilot" one official asked "though you'd be a bigger shot than that?"

"No," smiled the unassuming flier, "I got off to a long time before I'm a big shot."

Corrigan conferred with Don Mulligan, director of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, relative to securing an early flying permit for his plane.

Mulligan said he expected no difficulty in granting the request. Mulligan had suspended Corrigan's license for flying to Ireland without a permit.

U. S. Airforce To Be World's Most Modern In 2 Years

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The United States army air corps, at a cost of hundreds of millions of dollars, will be the most modern and powerful military striking force in the world by 1940, according to the consensus of foreign military observers here.

By June 30, 1940, the army is scheduled to have a total of 2350 "first line" fighting and bombing planes. In addition there will be more than 700 other planes of the "second line" that would be advantageously pressed into service in an emergency.

One of the outstanding features of the "first line" division will be its inclusion of at least 52 "flying fortresses" of the type which recently made a record one stop mass flight from Miami, Fla., to Buenos Aires 5200 miles in 27 hours and 50 minutes flying time.

These streamlined, all-metal monoplane, with a gross weight of more than 20 tons, a wing span of 105 feet and length of 70 feet, have established themselves as one of the most important cog in the American defense machine. Military observers believe they are superior to any bombing planes possessed by foreign powers. They are powered by four 1000-horse power Wright "Cyclone" engines.

The army is experimenting with a much more powerful bomber than the "flying fortresses," but has not yet put it into production. Experiments have shown that the latter type—said to be the most powerful military plane ever constructed—needs some changes, but generally has proved satisfactory and will be produced in increasing numbers next year.

The war department recently placed an order for 13 additional "flying fortresses," of the B-17 type. Thirteen of these ships were delivered to the army in 1937 and 26 more are in process of production, with deliveries scheduled to begin early in 1939. Delivery of the 13 additional fortresses just ordered will follow completion of the present order of 26. The entire fleet is expected to be completed early in 1940.

However, in view of their outstanding performances on one flight to and return from Buenos Aires and many recent transcontinental flights, it is considered likely that President Roosevelt may ask the next session of Congress for funds to increase the "fortress" fleet above 52.

Camping Season At Winona Is Closed With Boys' Return

The 1938 camping season at Camp Winona in Volusia County and adjoining H. F. Morrey local country, closed today as the most successful of recent seasons.

Many activities occupied the time of the boys including hikes to Delton Springs, Skull Lake, Taylor Lake and other places of interest. Other activities included treating their hands, hair and faces, archery, football, baseball, basketball, tennis, checkers, reading and story-telling.

A fine parking lot next to the store is to be maintained for the benefit of customers.

In announcing the opening of the store, the local manager, Mr. Ginn, said he was happy to have the opportunity of serving Sanford customers and pledged his cooperation in all civic affairs with the hope of helping to build the community in which we live.

A. D. Davis, who has charge of the Table Supply Store, was in Sanford today afternoon looking after final details incident to the formal opening. Friday he declared that all stores and market managements of the Table Supply Company operate under a profit-sharing plan. A store manager who shows unusual ability will naturally profit under such an arrangement, he pointed out.

The late W. M. Davis opened the first Table Supply Store in Miami in 1925. Progress was made without any outside capital and as more stores were added to the group, Mr. Davis took his four sons into the business. With his death in 1936 the operation of the stores was taken over by the four brothers and their mother. All stock in the stores is owned by the Davis family and store employees.

It was stated that 60 percent of the company's employees are stockholders.

Each of the four Davis brothers owns and operates a grocery unit of stores. Austin Davis has charge of the Jacksonville stores; A. D. Davis has charge of the Tampa group, and J. E. Davis and Tine Davis have charge of the Miami and West Palm Beach groups. Their mother, Mrs. W. M. Davis, also is active in the affairs of the organization.
