

Legislators Will Gather In Capital To Discuss Roads

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16—Ten legislators will gather here this month to begin with Chairman Arthur B. Hale a comprehensive study of the State Highway system and its future requirements. Their operations will be financed from a $10,000 appropriation voted by the 1937 Legislature. Statistical information and engineering records on existing roads and construction plans for the future will be supplied by the road department. Hale, as chairman of the road department, will serve as the 11th member and as chairman of the special survey committee. Other members are Senators Kelly of Clearwater, McArthur of Callahan, Sharit of Port St. Joe, Beacham of West Palm Beach and Westbrook of Clermont, and Representatives Burks of Pasco, Ties of Columbia, Wood of Liberty, Rogers of Broward and Leidy of Orange. Senator McArthur and Representative Ties and Rogers will not be members of the 1938 legislature, but Chairman Hale said this fact would not affect their participation in the highway system study. Rep. Burks chairman of the House Public Roads and Highways Committee, sponsored the legislative resolution for the special committee. The com-

Epidemic In India Spreads Over Vast Area

16,500 Die In United Provinces As Cholera Extends Into Nearby Afghanistan

LUCKNOW, India, June 17.—(AP)—India's cholera epidemic, already having taken an estimated 16,500 lives in united provinces, was reported today to be spreading over the vast area of north-western India.

BEANGHAI, June 17.—(AP)—A hundred mile long blanket of muddy water spread rapidly southward through Honan province as half-naked Japanese engineers, aided by thousands of Chinese peasants, labored desperately in the rushing currents to mend broken dikes of the yellow river.

CHOWKILAW, on the Tasha and vast areas of Anawel province there were threatened with flood devastation, although for the moment the flood waters were swirling around Chowkilaw directly westward toward Yancheng, on the important Peiping-Hankow railway.

With fighting seemingly still being waged in the Chengchow sector around the junction of the railway and the Yellow River, the Japanese were continuing their offensive through the mountains of Honan and Anawel province, where they reached beyond the flood waters.

McCall Taken To Raiford By Dade Deputies

Kidnaper's Family To Seek Commutation Of Death Penalty; Wife Affirms Love

MIAMI, June 17.—(AP) Sheriff's deputies removed Franklin Pierce McCall from the county jail today and took him in an automobile to the State prison at Raiford while his family began fight to save the confessed kidnaper of Jimmy Cash from the electric chair.

McCall began a belated fight for his life after listening without a flicker of emotion while Circuit Judge Atkinson sentenced him to die in the electric chair.

The family feels that the extreme penalty of death ought not to be imposed under the circumstances in this case, Mr. Avriett said, adding that the state's kidnaping statute was designed to "reach a class of predatory and organized criminals."

Avriett conferred with McCall in the latter's solitary cell after the death sentence was pronounced. He quoted the kidnaper as saying he did not want to die unless necessary.

The attorney indicated he would file a petition with the pardon board within a few days in an effort to delay signing of the death warrant by Governor Cone. If that fails, he said, he will appeal to the Supreme Court on a writ of error.

LAWYER 'GETS IN HAGUE'S HAIR'

Attorney Morris L. Ernst, shown here with Attorney Harriet E. Pipel, has managed to "get into the hair" of Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, N. J., with his insistence on direct answers to his questions during the "free speech" trial at Newark, N. J.

The mayor asked the presiding judge for "protection," charging that Ernst was trying to "throwback" him in cross-examination. Hague, New Jersey's No. 1 Red-hater, often has referred to Ernst as a Communist.

Boat Trip On St. Johns River Is Enjoyed By Kiwanis Club Members

Members of the Kiwanis Club, their wives and friends boarded the St. Johns River Line boat "Lark Dexter" at the St. Johns River Line dock about 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening for a cruise down the St. Johns River.

Members participated in dancing ranging from an old-fashioned waltz to the modern big apple following the supper. The music was furnished by Roy Young, versatile Orlando pianist, and Mr. Stevenson, also of Orlando, who played a saxophone. J. L. Marentette was chairman of the entertainment committee.

Those making the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Washburn, Capt. and Mrs. Ralph E. Rose and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Judson West, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas G. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Coleman, Mrs. Mary Hommel, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Workman, Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. L. Marentette.

Over 50 Bombs Dropped By Big Planes; Valencia Attacked In Late Afternoon

MADRID, June 17.—(AP) Fifteen persons were killed and 35 injured in a 20-dawn insurgent air raid on Valencia, Valencia also was raided in the late afternoon and reported several casualties.

Insurgent land forces met with stiff government resistance along Spain's eastern coast. The government managed all available men and munitions to prevent the continued march on Valencia but this weakened government defenses in south where Generalissimo Franco's men were reported to be gaining ground steadily.

French Parliament Adjourns But Will Meet In November

PARIS, June 17.—(AP) The French government today adjourned Parliament until November, gaining a free hand to run the republic until then by decree without interference from chambers.

Senate Condemns Inhuman Bombings In Wars

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP) The Senate before adjourning, adopted a resolution condemning the inhuman bombing of civilian populations in wartime after Senator William King, Democrat, Utah, demanded "assurance of diplomatic relations between the United States and Japan."

Adoption of the resolution, introduced by Chairman Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was a compromise between the extremist stands of King of the chamber's neutrality bloc led by Senator Clark, Democrat, Missouri.

Final Gavel Sound For Long Session Of 75th Congress

Senate, House Approve Huge Appropriation For Relief Program In Final Session

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP) More than 500 members of 75th Congress adjourned a long session last night and hurried home to ask voters to send them back next January. The gavel whirled out adjournment they wrangled over Roosevelt proposals just as they had done ever since court reorganization bill was submitted 16 months ago.

The Senate and House in a last meeting approved the President's $3,750,000,000 relief and public work program but ended over his veto a bill for continuing low interest rates on government bonds to farmers.

President Signs Resolution For Anti-Trust Probe

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP) President Roosevelt yesterday signed the O'Mahoney resolution for the most sweeping investigation of monopoly and business practices in the nation's history, designed ultimately to result in the framing of anti-trust legislation.

Requested by the President in a special message to Congress, the inquiry will be conducted during the summer and fall by a 12-man economic committee comprising three senators, three representatives and one representative each from the Departments of Labor, Commerce, Justice and Treasury, the Securities and Exchange and Federal Trade commissions.

Immediately after Roosevelt had signed the bill, Vice President Garner named Senator O'Mahoney, Democrat, Wyoming, author of the resolution, Senator King, Democrat, Utah, and Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, to the committee.

For, it has become obvious that, regardless of President Roosevelt's personal attitude, highly-placed officials of his Administration are determined to strike down those members of Congress, Democrat or Republican, who have opposed Administration policies.

Shell Purchased For Walkways In Fort Mellon Park

Necessary Material For Park Project Costs City $1,638

Eight hundred and forty cubic yards of DeLeon Springs shell will be delivered here for use in Fort Mellon Park beginning with the first of next week. City Engineer Fred T. Williams announced today.

The shell, which will cost $1,638 per cubic yard delivered, will cost the City $1,638.

The City Commission authorized City Clerk Frank Lammont Monday night to make arrangements for the purchase of the shell. Previously the Commission had considered using small for walkways to be laid in the new park. Cement walks had also been discussed but shell was advised as the best material for the walks at the cheapest price.

Roosevelts Gather For Approaching Marriage

NAHANT, Mass., June 17.—(AP)—The sign Roosevelt camped on this sea-surrounded town last night to attend the wedding Saturday of the only unmarried son of the presidential family, John Roosevelt.

A round score of those bearing the Roosevelt name by birth or marriage were present in or behind banded Nahant when the bride-to-be, Anne Lindsay Clark, the prospective bridegroom and their bridesmaids and ushers met last night to another of the scenes in their honor.

The good hope of President Roosevelt's arrival remained uncertain, dependent in part upon the whims of Congress, but the final pre-wedding party aboard the presidential yacht, Palomares, off the Nahant tonight was held as usual.

Approximately 200 bottles of champagne were used for the celebration, which followed the ceremony on Saturday.

Seminole Future Farmer Chapter Awarded Trophy

The Seminole chapter of Sanford yesterday was awarded the cup as the best Future Farmer group in the state, and 10th best in the United States at the annual convention of the Future Farmers being held at Gainesville.

Attorney General George Cooper Gibbs urged the Future Farmers last night to strive for greater co-operation "which is not a new thing but is essential for success."

"Many problems confronting agriculture can be solved only through collective efforts of a large group," he told the young farmer's organization at its tenth annual banquet. "There can be no ultimate security for agriculture if the industry continually swings from boom to depression."

Senate Condemns Inhuman Bombings In Wars

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP) The Senate before adjourning, adopted a resolution condemning the inhuman bombing of civilian populations in wartime after Senator William King, Democrat, Utah, demanded "assurance of diplomatic relations between the United States and Japan."

Adoption of the resolution, introduced by Chairman Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was a compromise between the extremist stands of King of the chamber's neutrality bloc led by Senator Clark, Democrat, Missouri.

Clerk charged it would be "smug hypocrisy" for congress to deplore the use of bombs while "we go on selling the products from which the bombs are made, and the machines with which they are used."

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

The Lions Club held a picnic at New Smyrna Beach yesterday. Secretary John Douglas reported that members enjoyed themselves a great deal.

The leopard's cage that is being constructed at the zoo has received a coat of aluminum paint inside while the outside has been painted green. James Moughton, superintendent of parks, declares that this will enable people to see the leopard's better.

INCOME HIGHEST

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP) The Commerce Department estimated yesterday that the nation produced $69,817,000,000 of income in 1937, the highest since 1929, in spite of the recession in the last few months of last year.

The total was about $6,400,000,000 larger than 1936, $29,500,000,000 larger than the depression low year of 1932, and was about $11,500,000,000 below 1929.

West Palm Beach And Charlotte To Play For Title

Winners To Be Named Southeastern Prep School Champions

(Special to Herald)
West Palm Beach, June 17.—The Southeastern Prep School championship football, the first of the year, which is scheduled for holders of North and South titles, will meet the champions of Florida and Georgia at West Palm Beach.

The winners of the North and South titles will meet in the semifinals on Saturday at West Palm Beach, and the winners of these games will meet on Sunday at Charlotte, N.C., for the championship.

The American Legion regional championship was held in Florida last year, and the winners, the Florida team, will play the Georgia team in the semifinals.

The winners of the semifinals will play the championship game in Charlotte, N.C., on Sunday.

RESUME
Gilbert Brouard, called Froufrou because of her irresponsible gaiety, marries Georges Bastien, serious young lawyer. Louis, her stater, has loved Georges since childhood. After five years of marriage, Georges begs Louis to live with them because Froufrou's whims and caprices are ruining his career and the upbringing of their child. Froufrou soon realizes that her stater has usurped her place in the affection and esteem of her husband and little son. And so she leaves, New Orleans binds who has always loved Froufrou, returns to Louisiana. Froufrou attempts to retrace a Georges' love. Discouraged, she returns with Louis. In New York she develops a wrecking cough. A year later, lack of money forces her back to New Orleans. Froufrou's desperate plea that Georges will challenge her due to a duel as soon as she returns.

Chapter Ten

FIELD OF HONOR

Froufrou's cough grew worse throughout their trip to New Orleans, but once there the warm air and comfort of Andre's town house renewed her hopes of getting well. As soon as he was convinced that she was sufficiently recovered to be left to the care of Pique and Brutus, Andre set out on horseback for his mother's plantation.

None of his intended visit had widely preceded him. En route he met Judge Rondell and his two sons who greeted him coldly and informed him that someone awaited him in a carriage down the road.

"Remember to stay quietly in your carriage — no matter what happens," Andre said.

Andre made at once for Georges. "I understand you're looking for me?" "Yes," Georges answered shortly. "You will be at my disposal?" "Naturally," replied Andre. "Tomorrow, at dawn—at the Oaks?" "Georges nodded. "And the weapons, Monsieur?" "Andre looked at Georges to his three friends as if lost in thought. "It's your privilege to name the weapons, Monsieur," Judge Rondell reminded him sharply. "Froufrou!" The word burst from Andre.

DE VALERA IN TEST
DUBLIN, June 17.—(AP)—Eamon de Valera, Ireland's American-born leader, today faces a crucial test for the first time in his career. He is taking a crucial test in the form of a general election which will determine whether he will remain in power or be forced to resign. The election is expected to be held in the next few days.

Britain Leads U.S. In Laws For Labor Peace

U. S. Commissioners To Find Big Pile Of Laws In Survey

By MORGAN M. HEATY WASHINGTON—When the President's special labor commissioners call up their sleeves in London in this summer, and plunge into the British labor law of 1927, they will discover, first off, what a lot of law it takes to keep a semblance of peace in the British industrial family.

For the British have been hammering out laws in one or less months for nearly 150 years. The 1927 law, while extremely important, is merely one statute among dozens.

This stack of laws does not mean that the British have carved out an industrial Utopia, where employees and employers lie down like the lion and lamb of Biblical fable. Only last year on the eve of the Communist London labor strike there was the devil to pay because they climbed behind their steering wheels again.

But the big pile of British labor laws does mean that the British have accumulated a vast store of valuable experience worth anybody's time and study.

The British were wrangling over collective bargaining in George Washington's time.

Sentiment was so strong against group negotiation that parliament passed in 1799 a law to bar collective bargaining. That was the year George Washington died. Strikes destroyed property and general confusion led to repeal within a few years and thereafter collective bargaining was generally accepted.

So in Great Britain now, no political party regards a guarantee of collective bargaining as an essential labor law. Many authorities agree it is practiced in about 90 per cent of British industry.

The question of hours and wages came up over there a long time ago.

While we were fighting a Civil war, parliament was about to consider eight-hour laws. Some British industries at that time were bargaining over reduced hours of work, the first national eight-hour law reached the statute books in 1916 and it applied only to railroad workers.

Furthermore, our legislators have spent the last 11 months fighting back and forth over the question of whether we should pass a national law regulating wages and hours of such industries as congress may see fit.

One reason why the British have beat us to some sort of a solution of the labor problem is a simple one—that of reaching the crossroads first by virtue of an earlier start. After all, the British had 800 years or more of exciting history—labor along with the rest—before America became a nation.

But the most important reason is the essential difference in the history and size of the two nations.

It is 3,000 miles from San Francisco to New York, and only a few hundred between the opposite shores of the British Isles. There are 48 states in the United States, each still jealous of its statehood and the power the Constitution confers upon a state.

In Great Britain the whole business is, symbolically, the business of one king, and when his parliament passes a law—that's that. The law applies from end of the realm to the other, in uniform, even pressure. In this country, Congress presumably cannot regulate the candy store proprietor and his salesgirl in Waterloo, Iowa, because that's the state's and city's business.

As for our recently enacted Wagner labor act or collective bargaining, and the British law of 1927, they were the product of exactly opposite situations.

The British law got on the statute books by the wish of a general strike that practically paralyzed the British Isles. In the view of the conservative government then in power the strikers gave an exhibition of too-much pressure for collective bargaining.

The American law was proposed by a political party (the Democratic New Deal) which professed to see in this country too much pressure by industries against workers who wanted collective bargaining.

Collective bargaining is standard practice in Great Britain, and the law assumes the worker's right to it. The act also outlawed general strikes and strikes in one industry in aid of another, forbids "employees' lockouts" and makes picketing illegal when it fails to cover disturbance in legitimate business.

Who will now help Froufrou? Will Andre live or die? How will Froufrou be able to continue her life? Do you need tomorrow's stirring edition?

does for political purposes unless members consent, and permits interested parties in a labor dispute to obtain an injunction against use of union funds in support of an illegal strike.

And it makes it a criminal offense to break a labor contract with the government, while prohibiting civil servants from joining any union not composed solely of government employees.
