EVENING WEDDINGS PLACED UNDER BAN

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—Evening weddings at Calvary Protestant Episcopal church here are banned under an order of Rev. E. J. Van Etten, the pastor, made public today. This action conforms with Rev. Etten's New Year sermon, when, in a review of the times, he paid much attention to evening gown worn by women. He commented on the "lack of decorum often manifested" and said some of the gowns did not conform with the sacred character of marriage.

POST ADJUTANTS OF LEGION WILL HOLD CONFERENCE

PALATKA, Jan. 12.—Next Saturday Bert Hodge Post of the American Legion will be host to upwards of 100 officers from various parts of the state, the meeting being a conference of post adjutants. However, it is understood that in some instances the entire official personnel of some of the posts will be in attendance. It is reasonably certain that State Commander Billingsley, State Adjutant Sumpter L. Lowry and National Organizer H. G. Creviston will be present.

According to scheduled matters pertaining to national legislation will be thoroughly discussed, and that an effort will be made to stimulate membership in the organization throughout the state.

The conference of the adjutants will be held in the Woman's Club building, Reid street, beginning at 8:30 a. m. At 4:30 in the afternoon the visitors will be given an automobile ride over the city, and at 7:00 in the evening a banquet will be tendered them at the Elk's Club hall, followed by a dance.

One way for the incoming administration to defray a part of the inauguration expenses would be to sell the motion picture concessions.

BANQUET TO AMERICAN NAVAL BALLOONISTS IS CALLED OFF

TORONTO, Jan. 12.—The Aero Club of Canada here announced it had called off the official banquet to the three American naval balloonists in view of the incident at Mattice yesterday when Lieutenant Farrell knocked Hinton down on account of a letter Hinton had written home.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Decision as to the appointment of a naval court of inquiry into the personal clash between Farrell and Hinton is being withheld pending further and official reports, Daniels said today.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—John Thomas Taylor, vice chairman of the national legislative committee of the American Legion, presented yesterday to President Wilson a memorial adopted by the American Legion suggesting changes in the present system of relief for disabled soldiers. BALLOONISTS ARRIVE AT OUTPOST, HAD FIGHT THERE

MEN WHO FACED DEATH TOGETHER IN FROZEN NORTH STAGE FREE-FOR-ALL

(By The Associated Press) MATTICE, Jan. 12.—Naval balloonists after first night's sleep since leaving Hudson Bay regions planned to leave here late today for Toronto. To all appearances a dispute arose between Farrell and Hinton after arrival yesterday which culminated in Farrell knocking down Hinton, but the affair has been settled today. The men arose early and had breakfast together and all regretted the incident. Farrell and Hinton are reticent regarding the occurrence.

(By The Associated Press) MATTICE, Ont., Jan. 12.—The three American naval balloonists—Lieutenants Farrell, Hinton and Kloor—broke camp at Skunk Island, 20 miles north of this town early today and started on the last leg of their long trek back to civilization, according to reports brought here by Indian runners. If all goes well the trio should reach this little frontier settlement by nightfall and a royal welcome awaits them. The men are reported to be in good health and spirits and eager to return to their homes.

The airman and their Indian guides reached the island last night after traveling over a hard trail for nearly 15 days from Moose Factory, where the craft was wrecked in a forest after a wild flight from Rockaway, N. Y. No further details of the men's thrilling experience were received here from the runners early today.

Until it was definitely established that the party reached the Indian settlement at Skunk Island last night, anxiety had pervaded the town's population and the corps of newspaper correspondents and photographers that some accident might have befallen them. Special interest was attached to the report that the men were in good health, for it is known that Lieutenant Stephen A. Farrell, the eldest of the trio, suffered severely from frostbite and exposure. He is traveling by caribou, the others mashing through treacherous snows on snowshoes. When the men arrive at the rail head here, they will be met by town and Dominion officials and afforded every courtesy. A special train has been provided for their convenience.

THE HOSPITAL MADE A FINE SHOWING FOR FIRST YEAR

LAST NIGHT BROUGHT FORTH FACT THAT NO DRIVES BEEN MADE IN YEAR

The regular monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Fernald-Laughton hospital was held at the hospital last night and many matters of importance discussed by the committee.

A statement of President Lawton was read showing the hospital to be in excellent shape but several items are badly needed such as the enlargement of the operating room and a tiled floor for sanitary measures, something will have to be done in a few weeks and the building and floor will be quite an item of expense. The regular annual drive for membership this year was not put on by the committee as it was thought the people had been driven to death all during the war and afterward but the idea of the annual drive should not be altogether abandoned as this membership fee of $1 is due and payable each year in August. If there are any members of the hospital association who wish to pay their membership dues and will send in their dollar or bring it to T. W. Lawton it will be accepted any time as there are many things badly needed by the hospital all the time. The annual linen shower for the hospital in January will also be given some time this month and with several changes in the building that are necessary the money on hand will be exhausted but the executive committee will not make any drive for money any time soon as they do not wish to burden the people with any more expense. Many members have paid their dues and others have donated sums of money during the year and all of this helps immeasurably. The hospital has been the means of succoring many people who heretofore were obliged to go to other cities for treatment and our own hospital is now in first-class shape and is making a fine reputation as being one of the best in the state.

LIEUT. W. B. CONEY, OF THE AVIATION CORPS WILL START SOON

WILL FLY TO JAX

BROTHER OF H. B. CONEY OF THIS CITY AND IS WELL KNOWN HERE

(By The Associated Press) SAN DIEGO, Jan. 12.—Attempt to establish new continental airplane speed record San Diego to Jacksonville, Fla., will be made February 21 by Lieut. W. B. Coney, plan on making only one stop, Fort Worth, Tex., on two thousand mile dash. Coney said he would leave here sundown of twenty-first and fly all night, landing at Fort Worth, eleven and one-half hours. Expects to fly from Fort Worth to Jacksonville in nine and one-half hours.

W. B. Coney is the brother of H. B. Coney of this city and formerly resided here when the parents of the Coney boys had a farm on the east side on Celery avenue. W. B. Coney joined the army at the early outbreak of the war, taking up aviation and made a fine record in his chosen profession. After the armistice had been signed he decided to stay with the game and since that time he has made several good records for speed and altitude. He will receive a warm welcome in Jacksonville when he completes his trip and especially since he is recognized as a former resident of this state.

AIRPLANE HERE FROM ORLANDO

AVIATOR PIERSON WILL FLY HERE SEVERAL TIMES A WEEK WITH PASSENGERS

D. H. Pierson, one of the best aviators in the country, and his assistant, Eddie Dalley, also one of the good ones, were here yesterday from the Orlando Flying Field and were here again today. They took Miss Annette Walker for a flight yesterday and expect to take many of the Sanford people and visitors while they are here. They are flying the new Averow ship, which is said to be one of the finest that is made and as they are comparatively new in this country the one here is a subject of much attention. They are making landings on the lakefront which shows the remarkable power of this airplane as it can go up and also make a landing in less space than any other plane. It makes no difference about the heavy sand of the short landing when a good man is at the helm of the Averow.

They will have the ship here Saturday afternoon and Sunday afternoon on the lakefront near the court house and anyone contemplating a trip can go for $10.

American Fruit Growers Are Among Those Who Are Active

WANT EMERGENCY RATES

WOULD SOLVE THE QUESTION FOR THE GROWERS DURING PRESENT SLUMP

ORLANDO, Jan. 12.—J. S. Crutchfield of Pittsburgh, president of the American Fruit Growers, Inc., here tonight in consultation with local officials of the American Fruit Growers, gave an interview in which he discussed the present freight rates in application to fruits and vegetables. He pronounced the existing freight rates prohibitive in marketing of Florida fruits and vegetables and stated that the American Fruit Growers, Inc., is seeking to secure from the railroads an immediate reduction of the existing freight rates on fruits and vegetables.

Mr. Crutchfield termed the rates for which they asked as emergency rates, which would not necessarily mean a lowering to a pre-war charge, but one that will enable growers and shippers to move their product at a profit to the present market.

Stress was laid by Mr. Crutchfield on the fact that this rate would not necessarily have to be reduced to a pre-war level. The railroads, he said, were asked to assume the initiative, any reduction of rates they might put into effect being subject to the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Asked if what the American Fruit Growers, Inc., is agitating for was the same as what the Florida Citrus Exchange sought in urging pre-war rates, he again emphasized that it was an emergency rate and not a pre-war rate which his concern was after. Mr. Crutchfield pointed out that what would benefit the growers and shippers would of necessity benefit the railroads. The present rates, in

LUMBERMEN CAN DO MUCH TOWARD BUILDING BOOM

PRICES LOWEST SINCE ARMISTICE, SAYS HEAD OF MANUFACTURERS' ORDER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—More than 40,000 lumber manufacturers and dealers now are in a position to do more than their share in terminating the nation-wide dwelling shortage, L. C. Boyle of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association announced here today at the same time "justice" department officials were conducting an investigation of high lumber prices which are blamed in part for the stoppage of building operations.

"Lumber prices now are lowest since the armistice," said Boyle. "Prices have been slashed an average of 40 per cent. Stocks of lumber are piling up and many mills are being forced to close for lack of orders. "Now is the time to build if fair wage scales can be put into operation. Labor costs represent more than two-thirds of the cost of erecting dwellings." Boyle said lumber manufacturers are not anxious about the report sent to congress yesterday in which the Federal Trade Commission made charges that lumber manufacturers through their associations control the output and prices of lumber throughout the entire United States. "Evidence presented to Senator Calder's committee now investigating the lumber industry contradicts the charge of the Federal Trade Commission," said Boyle. Boyle also called attention to an investigation made last summer by the factory bureau of the agricultural department, which he said, showed the real cause of high prices of lumber as being shortage of stocks. While Boyle was discussing the situation, Judge Nebeker, assistant attorney general and William Hand, New York attorney, were making plans for their investigations of lumber prices and profits which Nebeker said would be "vigorous." Anti-trust action would result, he promised, if evidence was produced to show that lumber interests had conspired to control prices or prevent competition.

BRITISH GOVT. GETS COPY OF ALL OUR CABLES

CARLTON ADMITS THAT ENGLAND CONTROLS NEWS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Charges that the British government exercises surveillance over American cable business, officially as well as private, passing through the British Isles and that the state department had extended its controversy with the Western Union Telegraph & Cable Company to bring in the Cuban government came up today before a senate committee considering cable legislation.

Norman H. Davis, acting secretary of state, and Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union, conducted a cross-table argument over the Cuban allegation when Mr. Davis flatly denied it. Chairman Kellogg ended the hearing by questioning Mr. Carlton as to the English practices.

Clarence H. MacKay, head of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, another witness, told the committee that English secret service authorities were obtaining copies of all cable messages.

Mr. Carlton several times expressed reluctance to discuss the subject of English surveillance because "it would make trouble," but at last yielded.

"Ten days after messages have been transmitted," Mr. Carlton explained, "our copies of them are turned over to the British secret service, which keeps them for a few hours, and then returns them. No exception is made, and the American official dispatches, the dispatches to all other countries to and from England, are included, but I have reason to believe that no examination is made of them. I have been assured that the official messages are not even inspected, but they are in the physical possession of the authorities while other messages are being inspected."

The orders for the surveillance were issued, Mr. Carlton explained, because of disturbed conditions in Great Britain and Europe. He indicated that other European countries took more complete control over American cable messages passing through their territory than did England.

Mr. Davis and President Carlton argued with considerable heat over the state department's opposition to the Western Union's attempted connection with the British cable system in Brazil via the Barbadoes cable. Mr. Carlton declared the state department had "made threats to the Cuban government" to prevent the connection going through that island, and that President Menocal now had before him the question of revoking a license already granted for landing of the Barbadoes cable in Cuba.

"The state department has done nothing of the kind," Mr. Davis said, and President Carlton promptly broke in to characterize this statement as "diplomacy."

Frederick Roy Martin, general manager of the Associated Press, told the committee that any increase of communication facilities aided the dissemination of American news.

"The government can aid only by facilitating private interests in extending cable facilities," Mr. Martin said. "The Associated Press does not want any government subsidy. We would like to see direct cables to Italy and the Scandinavian countries."

"We have had our troubles with government ownership during the last few years, I will say for our English friends that their censorship is no narrower than our own. Only last Saturday we found that the navy department was censoring a dispatch from San Francisco."

RUBE ALLYN REFUSES TO MAKE STATEMENT

ATTORNEY JOHN B. SINGLETARY WILL DEFEND HIM.

BRADENTOWN, Jan. 11.—There were no new developments of importance today in the case of Rube Allyn, eccentric newspaperman, charged with the murder early Friday morning at Siesta Key, near Sarasota of Harry L. Higel, former mayor of Sarasota and one of that community's most noted business men.

In his cell at the county jail, to which he was taken after being arrested at his home on Siesta Key a few hundred yards from where Higel was found mortally wounded from blows on the head with some heavy weapon. Allyn maintained a calm demeanor and was non-committal in his talk with a Tampa Tribune representative and scores of friends who visited him.

Dr. Chrales Ollyn, of Tampa, Rube's brother, came here Saturday morning and consulted with him at the jail and was present when the sheriff read the warrant to Rube notifying him that the coroner's jury had held him for the murder of Higel. He received the news with no comment and consulted with his brother about counsel.

Later in the day Col. John B. Singletary was engaged by Dr. Allyn as the counsel for his brother.

Attorney Singletary would make no statement as to possible procedure and did not commit himself whether a preliminary hearing would be held.

Scores of friends of the accused man have been to the court house to see him and he has received them all with the same manner he would as if they were calling at his home.

During the afternoon a rumor was started that Allyn had confessed to the crime. The Tribune representative called on him again and took copies of several of the state papers and Saturday's Tribune and asked him whether the rumors were true, and he simply smiled and said there was nothing to it. He said after he had thought things over and consulted with his attorney he might make a statement, but at the present he felt that he must be silent and not hinder anything his attorney was doing.

AT PUBLICITY MEETING CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DECIDES TO GET BUSY

with that of Orlando, "the City Beautiful," and Palatka, "the City Industrial," without any fear of it being questioned as a misnomer. The business men of Sanford are asked by the local Chamber to use this slogan on their correspondence and advertising matter.

The publicity committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce met last evening to arrange for the printing of a new booklet for Sanford and Seminole County. The old booklet, printed four years ago, is now obsolete and there are but a few copies of this left to mail out to parties making inquiries relative to this section.

It is the intention of the Publicity Committee to have this new booklet snappy and up-to-date, one that will compare with any piece of advertising compiled by other progressive towns in the state, containing all possible statistics relative to Sanford and Seminole County and give information that is generally contained in the inquiries received by the Chamber of Commerce.

While Sanford has never been considered a tourist town in the strictest sense of the word, the booklet will show the pleasures afforded those who come to this city for recreation. In addition to this information it is intended to show the miles of paved streets, bank clearings and deposits, taxable values, schools, income from various crops grown in the county, freight rates and other data that will appeal to the capitalist and which will prove conclusively that Sanford is the logical distributing center for the south central section of the state, and affording greater opportunities from an investor's viewpoint.

The secretary has been instructed to secure bids for the printing of this booklet and it is hoped to have this work completed in time to have these booklets distributed to the delegates of the National Editors' Convention which will be in Sanford the latter part of March.

There were a number of members of the old Board of Trade whose memberships expired January 1, 1921. These members were carried over into membership into the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, as the committee who had this matter in charge realized that it would be unfair to assess them additional dues in as much as they had paid for membership in the old organization to January first.

In order to expedite and efficiently execute the constructive program which is before the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, it is absolutely necessary that the organization receive the fullest support from the business interests of this city so that committees can be appointed to carry out this program.

The secretary has notified all members whose membership in the old Board of Trade expired on the first of the month, and enclosed an application card of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, with the request that these cards be returned promptly to him, together with check for $25, representing a year's dues. It is absolutely necessary that the secretary receive these application cards without further delay so that these committees can be organized and put to work. If the business interests of the city demand 100 per cent results from the Chamber of Commerce it is obvious that they will have to line up 100 per cent behind this organization.

The membership committee of the Chamber of Commerce are out after the commendable distinction of making Sanford a 100 per cent Chamber City.

A special meeting has been called by the Board of Governors this evening in the Court House for the Sanford Chamber of Commerce. The charter of the corporation has been recorded by Judge Housholder and all legal technicalities complied with. Notices have

The first impromptu dance of the season was given at the Longwood Hotel last Monday night, those who enjoyed the pleasant evening are looking forward to a regular series.

During the cool weather is the time for farmers to be on the lookout for hog cholera. Hogs are down in price, but it is no time to be discouraged.

The colored boys and girls of Florida have their "farm-makers' clubs" and "home-makers' clubs. Interested persons should write to the Agricultural and Mechanical College for Negroes at Tallahassee for detained information.

CABBAGE GOES BIG AT PLANT CITY

The sale of cabbage on the express company's platform assumed some importance during the last three days. Seventy crates were sold there Friday, Saturday and Monday. Five crates sold early this morning at $2 a crate.

English peas are bringing a good price and moving in fairly large lots. Since Thursday, 51 hampers have been shipped from here. They sold for $2.50 a hamper yesterday.

Lettuce is being shipped regardless of the discouraging prices. There have been 24 hampers shipped from here since the last issue of this paper. Lettuce will bring about $1.25 today, according to buyers. It is said to be selling for 60 cents in Manatee county. The last peppers sold here brought from $2.75 to $3, according to some of the buyers. Eighteen hampers of peppers have been handled from here by the express company since the last issue of this paper.

The only other vegetables on the local market right now are celery, carrots, turnips and beets. There have been only a few of these so far. Ten containers of beets sold here yesterday at around $1.75. Only seven crates of celery have been shipped since Thursday. This is said to have brought from $3 to $3.50 a crate. Turnips are selling for $1. The few carrots on the Plant City market last week are said to have sold for $2.—Plant City Courier.

Rupert Hughes Paid for Damages.

The "cold spine" has been taken as the last word in literary effect, but Rupert Hughes seems to be able, on the rare occasions when his genial nature grows bitter, to make people faint in a good old-fashioned way. When his story, "The Butcher's Daughter," was published in a magazine, the editor received an indignant letter complaining that it "caused a perfectly healthy, normal young woman to faint, a practice to which she is not in the least addicted." An additional penalty paid for its perusal was the doctor's fee of $5 for a night visit and his taxi fare of $2. Mr. Hughes promptly wrote a profound apology, and inclosed his check for $7.25, the extra sum being the price of the magazine. The young woman replied that the letter "was a source of great delight, and that the most she hoped for was an autographed copy of his recent book."—From a Bulletin of Harper & Brothers.

Good Fuel From Lignite.

The chairman of the Canadian lignite utilization board has announced that the experiments of the board have resulted very satisfactorily and it is hoped soon to make a briquet from this material which will be equal to the best grade of anthracite of the United States and much more satisfactory for domestic use. It is expected that this will be done at a cost of about $7.50 per ton on board the cars. This work was conducted jointly by the Canadian government and two provincial governments at a cost of $400,000.

The Day of Short Clothes.

A woman may be both fashionable and economical this fall. The "short clothes" she wore when a baby of six months, with a little letting out under the arms, will be found to be just about the modish length for street wear.—Leslie's Magazine.

The Kansas Industrial Relations Court has ruled that employers in essential industries must arrange to take care of skilled and faithful employees over periods of depression.

In Circuit Court, Seventh Judicial Circuit, in and for Seminole County, State of Florida, fall term, A. D. 1920. In Memoriam:

ALEXANDER KENCHIN, POWERS
Whereas, The Divine Ruler of the Universe in His Infinite Wisdom has called from his earthly labors Alexander Kenchin Powers, a member of this bar, and,

Whereas, for many years Alexander Kenchin Powers actively practiced his profession at Sanford, Florida, and,

GEO. A. DECOTTES,
THOS. EMMET WILSON,
E. F. HOUSHOLDER,
SCHELLE MAINES,
Committee.

Whereupon Hon. Mallory F. Horne, judge presiding at this term of this Court, ordered an adjournment of this Court to 9:30 o'clock A. M. Wednesday, January 12th, A. D. 1921, in Memoriam of Alexander Kenchin Powers.

Filer's Good Work.

For revealing details hidden from horizontal observation, the value of the "bird's-eye" view was demonstrated anew in Iowa not long ago. The attention of a flier, circling about near Des Moines, was caught by various ribbons of smoke arising from apparently deserted regions, and closer inspection revealed a number of autos hidden in the brush, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. When the airman returned with a companion and made a landing, a large copper still was discovered, attended by four men and fed with corn from a wagon.

January promises to break all Plant City strawberry records. Nearly 50,000 quarts were shipped in the three days ending late Friday.

WHAT IS A ONE CENT SALE? It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price—then another item of the same kind for 1c. As an illustration: The standard price of Rexall Tooth Paste is 30c. You buy a tube at this price, and by paying 1c more, or 31c, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as we sell you every day at a regular price and have sold you for years.

A NEW WAY OF ADVERTISING This sale was developed by the United Drug Company as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full-size package of high standard merchandise for 1c. It costs money to get new customers, and the loss taken on this sale will be well spent if the goods please you.

Looks like some other fellow killed Higel at Sarasota and that Rube Allyn might know about it but did not commit the deed. It is rather difficult for his fellow publishers to ever think that genial Rube Allyn would murder anyone.

The editor of the Sanford Herald says he does not expect to leave Sanford "now or ever." Won't Bob Holly be surprised one of these days—Tampa Tribune.
-Don't suppose we will know anything about it, Jawn, when that time comes.

We like the way Harding talks about cutting out the fancy stuff at the inaugural ball and other ceremonies. He seems to be a hard headed business man, a good newspaper man and a man of the people. And then he must be a good one having been an editor at one time before he fell from grace and became a politician.

Line up behind your Chamber of Commerce and show Sanford 100 per cent pure in the spirit that builds cities. We can never expect to accomplish those big things here without the undivided support of all the people standing behind the Chamber of Commerce. It is only through this body that these things can be accomplished. Send in your subscription and membership and help boost in a co-operative way.

When those 500 editors that are coming here in March get back home and start writing about Florida this state will get more real advertising than it has ever had before and it will be the best kind of advertising. When a newspaper man writes about any action of the country that he happens to be visiting he writes something that is read by the people who are seeking information and Florida will be better known after all of those newspaper men get started on the subject of Florida, past, present and future.

THE WORLD NEEDS MEN WHO TAKE LIFE STANDING UP

"I doubt if either life or death can do much to us if we take them standing up."

The remark was made by a well-known American author and indeed there is food for thought in it. The man who squarely toes the line and offers blow for blow to the problems which daily confront him, fights each of them as it faces him, never sidesteps or calls for time, much less beckoning his seconds, if he is fortunate enough to have those near who are interested in the fight, to toss the sponge into the ring; that man is a credit to the race. Even if he never wins a contest, the glory is his.

The late Theodore Roosevelt's great desire was that he should be fortunate enough to die with his boots on. He took life standing up and wanted to welcome death in the same way. Men who live standing up usually entertain the desire to grapple with the inevitable in the full possession of their faculties.

The world today needs more men and women with the inclination to tackle life standing up.

J.P. SAYS: A share of stock in a public utility company, serving the public, is more than an investment of a sum of money upon which dividends are being paid quarterly or annually. It unites the energies of a large number of men and women in the performance of a great public service. It also fuses the strength and hopes of the present with the needs of the future. The investment in SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY'S 3 PER CENT CUMULATIVE PRIOR PREFERRED STOCK keeps men at work, money at work and progress at work and the man with a SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY'S STOCK CERTIFICATE is as useful as a man working with a hoe. This stock can be purchased for cash or on the installment plan. There is none better.

There are too many "riders," that class who are satisfied if their selfish and personal appetites are satisfied and who have no interest in the events going on about them. If there was ever a time in the history of mankind when fighters were the crying need of the hour, that time is now. We are overloaded with parasites. Ne'er do wells and non-entities. Life can't do much to us if we will take it standing up! There is no place for the "scared babies" in the present order of things.

This country particularly needs workers, who are merely lighters in the normal state. The labor of reconstruction is difficult in that the results must create their own inspiration; there is no exterior excitement of unnatural stimulation; it is a question of pulling against a cold collar. "God give us men!" was the old cry. This might be changed a bit. "God give us men who are not afraid to take life—and I death standing up!" We have men all right, but the time has come when they must apply themselves.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

NECESSARY BUYING AND SELLING

The condition throughout the country are so serious just now that they are well worth considering from every angle that can be thought of.

Although many lines of goods are so short that there is not enough in stock to meet the normal demand, still factories are closing down because people are not buying. Their excuse is that prices are too high and they are going to wait until they come down.

If this policy of no buying is carried to extremes it may mean that the public will not only economize themselves out of work but that, with more shops shut down, greater shortage will result and prices may become higher than ever. We can scarcely afford to have this happen.

This is a matter that we are all vitally interested in. We realize that more goods must be seen or many factories will have to quit for want of orders for spring shipment, and this will create more trouble and hardship in the industrial sections. There must be more buying in order to make more selling and more manufacturing and this must be realized both by the buying public and the retail stores. The latter should shave the prices as close as possible in order to meet the demand for lower prices and then the public should buy as freely as it can afford to.

Florida has been unusually prosperous for several years and it will feel the present depressed conditions less than many other sections of the country, still it behooves us to study carefully all of these conditions as this state is dependent, to a certain extent, on the rest of the country where we sell our products and from which comes the tourists and winter residents, who spend a great deal of money here every year and form one of our most important sources of income.

If the dealers are willing to take close profits in order to encourage buying and the public will take advantage of prices that are the lowest in several years, the demand for more goods will soon be apparent and the factories will resume operations, the industrial workers will again draw wages, suffering will be alleviated, panic will be averted and normal conditions will be resumed in a few months all over the United States.

This is a case of where co-operation all along the line is necessary to achieve results and our people will be among the first to exert the effort as we have learned the value of co-operation in Florida, probably more thoroughly than any other section in the country.—Times-Union.

We clip the following from an exchange: "A business house, having been solicited for some advertising by a newspaper, wrote back asking what territory the paper covered. The editor replied, 'This paper goes from New York to San Francisco, from Canada to the Gulf, and it keeps me working until two o'clock in the morning to keep it from going to hades.'—Ocala Star.

The chief reason the oldest inhabitant is so often the champion liar is he has only had more opportunities.

WHAT THE FARMERS' APPEAL TO CONGRESS MEANS

There have been many loud and indignant protests in this country against the manifest tendency of manufacturers in the same lines of business, to combine and raise the prices of their products above their normal and legitimate levels. It has been declaimed against as detrimental to the interests of the consumer, which it undoubtedly is, however satisfactory it may be to the manufacturers themselves. Laws have been passed to check this growing tendency, but they have generally been pro-void of little or no result. Shrewd lawyers have found a profit in showing the combines how to evade the law, and escape the penalty. Among all the protestants the farmers have been the most vigorous and emphatic, as they have usually been the greatest sufferers from these illegal combines.

Consequently, there is a touch of humor, or would be if it were not so serious, to find the farmers, the wheat growers and cotton planters, joining in a great combine to force the price of their products up to a satisfactory point by withholding them from the market until an artificial scarcity results, and prices advance to meet their views. To a man on the outside looking in, it is difficult to see the difference between this combination of farmers and planters and any other combination of merchants and manufacturers, or bankers, and business men, with the same end in view, except in point of numbers. The farmers and planters number millions, and when they come before congress demanding relief from their troubles in the way of a prohibitive tariff against the importation of wheat or cotton until prices shall have reached the point they have set as satisfactory, that body is inclined to sit up and take notice.

Of course we all sympathize with the farmers in their troubles and would be more than glad to see them prosperous and happy, but we cannot help remembering that the number of bread-eaters and clothes-wearers in this country vastly exceeds the number of farmers, and if prices are advanced sufficiently to pull them out of the hole they have fallen into, the rest of us must do the major part of the pulling. We are all rejoicing at the tendency of prices toward normality again, and we cannot think of a return to bread and clothing to war time prices with any pleasure. Congress owes a little consideration to the ultimate consumer, even though he is unorganized. Here is what the National Wheat Growers' Association proposes to do as stated by their secretary, Mr. W. H. Greevy:

"The purpose of the National Wheat Growers' Association is to control the distribution and marketing of wheat through financial and selling agencies of its own selection at a price based upon cost, plus a fair and reasonable profit. Not only the wheat growers in general are refusing to sell any wheat at present prices except in cases where financial conditions force the sale. For more than 30 days we have withheld our wheat from the market until now a large number of flour mills are idle and the local and terminal elevators are nearly empty. The wheat grower feels that he has practically accomplished what seemed at first impossible and is now encouraged to continue withholding his wheat from market in order that a price which is fair and just shall be paid to him for his labor and the money invested."

Sounds fair enough, but it means a return to $3 wheat and 40 cent cotton, and you can judge what that means to the rest of us.—Tampa Times.

P. A. Van Agnew, an attorney known over the entire state as having few if any superiors, has decided to change his location from Jacksonville and will open early during the coming week a suite of offices in Orlando. Mr. Van Agnew possesses a host of friends in this section of Florida, having been long a resident of Kissimmee and there will be a feeling of satisfaction that he will once more be so near his former home. Until his family shall remove from Jacksonville, at an early date, Mr. Van Agnew will visit Kissimmee each night, making his home with his brother, E. G. Vans Agnew.—Kissimmee Valley Gazette.

Oreomargarine output has shown a large volume for the year past, according to the records of the U. S. Commissioners of Internal Revenue. Total production as reported by seventy-three factories has been 391,279,512 pounds, or an increase of 32,062,941 pounds over the production of the year previous.

It is not enough to urge the farmer to produce bigger crops, he must understand the true value of what he grows through correct marketing. Regardless of glutted markets, good stuff properly graded and packed will sell, as people must eat.

GUEST CHARGED FOR INSULT

This French Hotel Proprietor Surely Went the Limit in the Matter of Extortion.

"Many stories are told," said Col. Elliston P. Masters at a Fort Sheridan tea, "of French extortions. But the worst I have heard was related to me by an army friend.

"He went to a hotel in Paris without making a bargain about rates and dined altogether at restaurants with friends.

"One evening, as he was starting out as usual, the proprietor accosted him in the hall and inquired: "I hope you're dining with us tonight, monsieur?"

"No," my friend answered, "I have an engagement."

"The proprietor, with a despairing gesture, exclaimed: "It is an insult to the establishment, monsieur, never to dine here."

TREASURE IN NORTH AFRICA

French Writer Declares Land is a Storehouse of Historical and Archeological Beauties.

North Africa—Morocco, Algeria—comprises, according to Louis Bertrand, writing in L'illustration (Paris), a storehouse of historical and archeological treasures unsuspected by the great majority of Frenchmen. France's tripolar floats over these storied lands washed by the Mediterranean.

M. Bertrand concludes that most of his countrymen visit the colonial possession much as they would visit a spectacular review or something of the sort, as a bizarre experience of strange sounds and colors and muscle dancers; whereas, if they would but open their eyes, they might behold dead cities raising up their heads and almost hear the echoing footsteps of the Roman legions. He points, in fact, to North Africa as the richest museum of Latin antiquity in the world, where the ruins of the imperial occupation are thickly strewn for leagues, crying out for the pick and spade of the excavator. "From Volubilis in Morocco to Ghath in Tunisia," declares the writer, "on a line 2,000 kilometers long, the Roman ruins are landmarks in Africa. With their triumphal arches, colonnades, pagan temples, basilicas and Christian burial places, they outline a shattered royal road without a peer."

May Combine Languages.

It will be of interest not only to students of philology in general but to anyone who has wondered why Norway, Denmark and Sweden waste so much time through having three different languages to know that Adolf Noreen, long professor of philology at Upsala, has started a movement to bring the three languages more closely together. His task is stupendous, but since he is a philologist himself he may usher in the day when a drama written by a Dane can be played in Stockholm without being translated.

The Viciously Valuable Shark. Sharks are now prized for their skin by manufacturers of shoes and leather articles. Special seines have been constructed with which to catch the man-fish, and as many as 200 a day have been captured. One hide, says Experimental Science, will produce 10 to 40 square feet of leather. The liver of the shark yields upon boiling with water a valuable oil, used in making glue, soap, paints and medicines. The meat is white, resembling halibut, and is edible.
