Convention Begins In Atmosphere Of Har- mony As Dickinson Praises President

CHICAGO, June 14.—(A.P.)—In an orderly and almost solemn mood the Republican convention began today as calm and harmonious on the surface as it was divided and disturbed beneath. Routing was carried out and Senator Dickinson started his long keynote speech.

The platform committee probably will meet late today to begin to wrestle with prohibition and other issues. The convention hopes to have a platform adopted by tomorrow night to renominate Hoover Thursday and be on its way home Friday. As it met for the first time last night President Hoover still considering a compromise prohibition plank proposing reamendment.

Administration leaders are intent upon defeating the forces of repeal by drafting an acceptable plank for reamendment and predicted its success just ahead after consulting the White House and spokesmen for the drys. Senator Dickinson brought the delegates to their feet in a wild demonstration almost at the outset by a tribute to Hoover. He read his speech with a vigorous impetus. The address was entirely silent on the thorny prohibition issue.

The Democrats were severely criticized by the Farm Board delegates and the Republican party called the "Prohibition Friends" of the farmer.

The Smoot-Hawley tariff bill was defended as the bulwark against cheap foreign products. The lowest reviewed the steps taken toward relieving the depression on "a hundred fronts." (Continued on Page Five)

Tex Hook Rows To Jax At Average Of 30 Miles Per Day

Score another point for eager youth in a friendly combat with the St. Johns, Florida's mightiest stream. Word was received here yesterday that Tex Hook, young son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hook, of this city, had successfully completed his lone attempt to row from Sanford to Jacksonville, 180 miles, in nine days or less.

Leaving here last Monday morning with the intention of making the trip in nine days, or averaging 30 miles per day, young Hook former football star at Seminole High School, propelled his small rowboat at the rate of 30 miles per day and reached his destination Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, slightly more than six days time.

Young Hook was accompanied by his pet terrier, "Booker T." and carried a supply of groceries and camping equipment. He spent his nights along the river camping out on the shore, or finding accommodations at the home of persons interested in his venture. He wrote his parents here that he is in perfect condition after a trip that he enjoyed thoroughly, and he is now on his way back down the river.

Excerpts from his letter, written from Jacksonville shortly after his arrival are as follows:

"I breezed into this big city just a few minutes ago, bought a bite to eat, and am writing to let you know that I am well and sound and in splendid condition. The only thing in the world wrong with me is that I am a little punch-drunk, as I didn't get foot on dry land for the last 30 hours, my peculiar sensation is easily explained. I am proud to say that I rowed every foot of the way here. One of the hardest things I ever had to do was to pass up a low of about 75 miles behind a fast-moving yacht. I have seen some mighty pretty places and the trip has really been great."

"Just as I entered Jacksonville harbor a squadron of airplanes flew over in a perfect V formation, and I will always believe that it was intended for me, meaning welcome, Hook."

Block Resents Inference That His Gifts To Walker Had Any Ulterior Purpose

NEW YORK, June 14.—(A.P.)—An assertion that Samuel Seabury's "analysis" of the Mayor Walker testimony contained "wholly unwarranted inferences" with respect to his dealings with the mayor was made last night by Paul Block, the publisher.

He asked the counsel to the Hofstadter Legislative Committee investigating Walker's city administration to "amend your statement to Governor Roosevelt insofar as their inference to me applies."

Coinciding with Block's announcement, a new set of charges against "Jimmy" Walker was made public by the "No Deal" Party, a group of Democratic business and professional men.

Their petition to the governor asked for the mayor's removal "or misconduct and misfeasance in office."

Block's protest against the Seabury "analysis" was the second made by men whose dealings with the mayor formed the basis for Seabury's contention that Walker was "unfit" to continue as mayor. Samuel Ungerleider, broker, Sunday protested to Governor Roosevelt against what he called "unwarranted inferences" contained in the analysis.

Block, who explained in public hearing that Mayor Walker drew

MOORE DEFENDS CITY ACTS TO PUT JERSEY POLICE STIFF FINE UPON IN KIDNAP CASE DRUNK DRIVERS

British Parliament Is Aroused Over Suicide Of Miss Sharpe

ALPINE, N. J., June 14.—(A.P.)—Repercussions, state and international, rumbled in the distance yesterday as the state police investigation of the Lindbergh kidnaping and murder reached an apparent dead-end and Gov. Harry A. Moore came to the defense of the police handling of the case.

An investigation of the police tactics in the case was said to be a virtual certainty by Senator Emerson L. Richards, Republican leader, who asserted the case "has been slaughtered to make a Democratic holiday."

Meanwhile in London, labor members of the parliament, aroused by the suicide of the English waitress, Violet Sharpe, in the Morrow home Friday, signified an intention to ask the British government to make representations to the United States government over the suicide.

Newspapers here expressed indignation against New Jersey police, some accusing them of driving the girl to suicide by their questioning.

Governor Moore took cognizance of the situation in an official statement in which he said he stood "squarely behind" Superintendent H. Norman Schwarzkopf of the state police.

Ernest Brinkert, the New Rochelle taximan whose police was identified before her suicide by Miss Sharpe as the man with whom she went to the Peanut grill the night of the kidnaping but who later was cleared by the statements of two other members of the party that he was not in the group, was preparing a written statement for police.

British authorities in the United States were said in London not to have been empowered to lodge a complaint in the suicide case. The British embassy added it had received no instructions from London.

ABBAILANT SENTENCED

MARSEILLES, France, June 14.—(A.P.)—Gonzales Maccanore, who struck former King Alfonso of Spain several times in the face, upon Alfonso's arrival here from Malta on May 13 was sentenced to six months imprisonment yesterday.

MRS. PUTNAM BAILS

HAVER, June 14.—(A.P.)—Amelia Eshart Putnam, the first woman to fly the Atlantic alone, sailed with her husband today for the United States. Before her departure she was the guest of honor at a reception by representatives of the municipality.

TALLAHASSEE—Wid opened for construction of about 27 miles highway in three counties during recent day.

BOTH WETS AND DRYS GIRDING FOR BIG FIGHT

Mightiest Prohibition Struggle Expected To Take Place In G. O. P. Convention

CHICAGO, June 14.—(A.P.)—The roll of drums and the blare of bands resounded through Chicago streets last night as wets and drys came together in the mightiest prohibition tussle that the Republican party has seen since the dry laws were put upon the statute books.

Demonstrations, parades and mass meetings were the outward manifestations of the dispute but its full bitterness found an outlet in the numerous conferences that wet and dry leaders held behind closed doors.

While party leaders sought in last-minute meetings to find a point upon which the two sides could agree, statements from prohibition and anti-prohibition leaders emphasized the wide gap.

Senator Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican national committee, said these would be a prohibition plank which would please everyone, yet not evade the issue.

On the one extreme is the demand of such drys as F. Scott McBride, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., and the national prohibition board of strategy for a continuation of the present laws with a pledge of vigorous enforcement.

On the other extreme is the demand of such opponents as Pierre S. DuPont, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and the United Repeal Council for straightforward repeal. The Oregon delegation voted for a plank providing reamendment of the prohibition question to the people but no return of the open saloon.

Former Governor Fuller of Massachusetts, who is being put forward by his own delegation for the vice presidential nomination, said he favored modification.

The Missouri delegation voted 23 to 9 to ratify a resolution of its state convention calling for a national constitutional convention to deal with prohibition.

The New Jersey delegation arrived with a plank for submission to the people of an amendment to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment, but providing federal police protection for states desiring to remain dry.

Outright repeal was favored by a majority of the Arizona delegates. Walter A. Dull, delegate from San Francisco, said he would ask the Republican service league to fight to adopt a resolution calling prohibition a failure, and would urge the group to work for repeal.

A mass meeting of anti-prohibitionists, preceded by a parade of hundreds of floats and motor cars, was the final blast last night of the crusade and the Republican citizens' committee against prohibition.

LEHMAN, MEISCH TO HEAD SHOLTZ GOVERNOR CLUB

"Pep" Speech Is Made By City Attorney Of Daytona Beach

Formation of the Sholtz for Governor Club was effected last night at a meeting held by local supporters at the Hill Cafe when it was announced that H. J. Lehman had accepted the presidency of the club and that John Meisch, Jr., and Mrs. J. J. Leonard had been named chairman of the men's city committee and the women's city committee respectively.

The meeting was presided over by Hugh Lator, secretary of the club, who introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Millard Cunkin, city attorney, of Daytona Beach, and assistant father of Mr. Sholtz.

Referring to the public apathy towards politics during the hour period, the prodigious spending and extravagance in the state government at that time, Mr. Cunkin launched the his "pep talk," by declaring that Florida's citizens are to make to the need of "honest, conscientious, and constructive service" in the interest of the common people and for relief of the taxpayer.

He called the vote received by Sholtz, Caldwell, and Durbin one of protest against "warped" (Continued on Page Two)

THREE CONVICTS ESCAPE

TALLAHASSEE, June 14.—(A.P.)—The state prison bureau here was advised yesterday of the escape of three negro convicts. Percy Brown, serving three years from Duval county for breaking and entering and James Hicks, serving five years from Duval county for manslaughter, escaped from a camp near Cottondale. Richard Curry, sentenced to a life term for murder in Jackson county fled a camp near Bushnell.

TELEPHONE INCOME DROPS

NEW YORK, June 14.—(A.P.)—Consolidated net income of the International Telephone & Telegraph Corporation for the first quarter of this year amounted to $489,188, or 11 cents a share, compared with $532,301, or 43 cents a share, for the same period in 1931. It was shown in the company's quarterly report issued yesterday.

Penn Delegation Is For Dry Law Repeal

CHICAGO, June 14.—(A.P.)—Pennsylvania delegates to the Republican convention voted 40 to 13 today for reamendment of the prohibition question to state conventions and the immediate modification of the Volstead Act. The delegation recommended that Congress pass a law to regulate the sale of liquor if the Eighteenth Amendment be repealed.

Dawes States He Does Not Aspire To Vice-Presidency

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(A.P.)—Charles G. Dawes, said formally last night that he was not a candidate for the Republican vice presidential nomination and requested his friends not to embarrass him by their support.

After press reports that the Illinois delegation to the Chicago convention was considering presenting his name for the nomination, General Dawes issued the following statement:

"I am not a candidate for the nomination for vice president. No one is to be authorized to present my name to the convention and I request my friends not to embarrass me by their support."

After his resignation unexpectedly last week as president of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to return to private business in Chicago, General Dawes again was drawn into speculation as a possible successor in Vice President Curtis.

His statement was the second yesterday from a cabinet member disclaiming a nomination for the vice presidential nomination. Secretary Hurley having said earlier that he was a candidate and would not be.

CHICAGO, June 14.—(A.P.)—

Charles G. Dawes' announcement he was not a candidate for presidential nomination was believed today, to have overturned one of the main obstacles to Vice President Curtis' re-nomination. Some of Dawes' friends may continue to urge his selection but an organized move for him seems unlikely. The Illinois delegation met yesterday with the question of endorsing the former vice president before it when news of his statement reached Chicago.

MARTIN CLUB IS FORMED AT MEET IN COURT HOUSE

Stevens Is Chairman; Bishop And Holly Are Other Officers

Declaring that the Martin administration was "not extravagant" but rather a "benefit to the state" Claude Ogilvie, former Sanford High School principal, before a crowd of approximately 125 persons who gathered last night at the Seminole County Court House to form a "Martin for Governor Club," gave one of two speeches in behalf of the Martin campaign.

A. O. Kanner, former Sanford man and now a representative from Martin county in the state legislature, was the second speaker.

Dr. Ralph E. Stevens was unanimously elected chairman of the "Martin for Governor Club" and George D. Bishop was chosen vice chairman. R. J. Holly was elected secretary-treasurer.

Immediately after the election of officers, Chairman Stevens called the meeting to order at exactly 8:20 o'clock. He first called on Mr. Ogilvie to speak.

Mr. Ogilvie recalled his speech at Chuluota several weeks ago when he predicted that Mr. Martin would win and that "ary Hardee would run second in the first primary. He said that the Martin committee "paid no attention to any other man in the race except Hardee" and he doubted that Mr. Martin ever mentioned the name of Sholtz in any of his campaign speeches.

He said that either Mr. Martin or his representatives plan to go into every populous section of the state in quest of some of the votes cast for one or more of the other candidates, now no longer in the race. "Nearly 1200 voted for their native son, Gomez, down in Key West," he said, "and we plan to go after those votes."

Referring to Martin himself, Mr. Ogilvie said, "Martin is a man who has lots of personal friends. Few of the others in the race for governor had any or speak of except Caldwell and now Caldwell is campaigning for John W. Martin." He said that since the primary Tom Watson and Tom Hart have both come out for Martin and that one other former candidate is supporting Martin but had asked that his

MEANS GUILTY OF LARCENY IN STRANGE PLOT

Former Justice Agent Convicted In Fan- tastic Plan To Re- cover Lindy's Baby,

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(A.P.)—Gaston B. Means last night was found guilty in the District supreme court of larceny of $104,000 from Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean in a fantastic plan to recover the kidnaped Lindbergh baby.

Two hours after it had been given the case, the jury of 11 men and one woman returned verdicts of guilty on two counts of larceny of the $100,000 ransom money and of $4000 expense money.

Justice James M. Proctor recommended the former department of justice agent and ex-counsel to custody after T. Morris Wampler, defense counsel, made a plea that Means be freed under $50,000 bond, the same amount on which he had been at liberty during the trial.

Falling to get favorable action on this plea, Wampler and his associate, J. William Tomlinson, said they would try for a writ of habeas corpus from some other justice.

Defense counsel has four days beginning today, to move motion for a new trial if this is not done, Justice Proctor will then set a date for sentence.

The maximum penalties possible on each of the larceny counts is 10 years imprisonment, or $1000 fine.

The world plan to recover the kidnaped baby means began May 8, when Means was arrested and negotiations between himself and Mrs. McLean, stretching back to three days after the child was stolen from his crib in the Lindbergh's New Jersey estate, were revealed.

A tale of trips by Mrs. McLean, estranged wife of the Washington Post's former publisher, to Aiken, S. C., and El Paso, Tex., to receive the baby, was unfolded. There were negotiations with a mysterious "Fox" who in the trial was also given the name of "Neil Williams," though this was stated by witnesses as not being his real name.

A $100,000 ransom fund was turned over to Means who later claimed he paid it over to a mysterious "No 11," whom he described as an agent of Mrs. McLean, early one morning on a railroad bridge at Alexandria, Va. A further sum of $4000 had been given to Means by Mrs. McLean as "expense money."

A Good Way To Help

Under the auspices of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, a Clean Up, Paint Up, Plant Up, Fix Up Campaign gets under way tomorrow morning which should keep many persons busy during the usual dull summer months and find Sanford by the end of the summer looking cleaner, fresher, and prettier than ever before.

We hear a great deal about economy and economizing these days. Every candidate for public office is pledging economy. Every stockholder of a corporation is seeking economy. Every family head is demanding economy from his wife, his sons and daughters. Economy is looked upon as the exit sign of the depression. Economizing is the way out.

There never was a time in the history of the country when economy could be practiced with such success as in a "Clean Up, Paint Up Campaign" today. There never was a time, in comparison with the total wealth of the country, when the dollar had so large a purchasing value, when labor was so cheap.

Those who are penny wise and pound foolish may think they are economizing when they allow their houses to go unpainted until the raw wood is exposed to the wind and rain. But a good coat of paint applied in time will save many a window sill from rotting and many a pillar from decay. A few dollars spent today in repainting leaky roofs may save a platter job later on. A little oil and a little elbow grease may keep a rusty lock from breaking.

And there are many in Sanford who need these jobs.
There are many who have no work at all to do who are depending entirely upon charity for their living. These people have got to be fed, if not through the revenue of occasional odd jobs, then through charitable contributions.
It is better to keep these people gainfully employed than to have the unrest of idleness a constant source of trouble in the community.

We hope that the people of Seminole County see this as we do, and as the Chamber of Commerce heads see it, and cooperate to the full extent of their ability in an effort to make this campaign a complete success.

A Machine Of Mercy

A press dispatch yesterday reported the use of a seaplane as a flying ambulance in the rescue of two men who had been seriously injured in an explosion aboard an oil tanker 45 miles out at sea. The huge plane took off from the shore base upon receiving an appeal for assistance, flew to the designated location of the tanker, alighted on the water, took aboard the two men, and brought them back where medical assistance was rendered.

The whole procedure required but a few minutes, while a similar rescue by boat might have required a whole day.
Thus again is brought out the great advantages and far-reaching possibilities of airplanes in rendering succor where a question of time is a consideration. Other instances have been recorded where planes have saved lives by the favorable speed element.

Aside from this factor, however, there is the advantage of reaching inaccessible spots by plane where other means of transportation have failed. Communities cut off from the outside world by floods, storms, and earthquakes have been brought assistance quickly and easily by means of aviation.
The immediate transportation of serum to an isolated and plague-infested Alaskan village by an airplane is an record.
The carrying of food to stranded people in the Mississippi flood area is a matter of flying history.

The airplane has played a great part in reducing travel time throughout the country, of speeding up the mails, and of facilitating the transaction of business demanding quick action, but it has been even more conspicuous in its use in the humanitarian field of relieving suffering.

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

Pursuant to a call from the Commercial Club yesterday afternoon a representative crowd of citizens of the new road district met at the City Hall and being called to order by President Forrest Lake, the object of the call was explained, and the necessity urged of every citizen working for the passage of the bonds at the special election to be held on the 13th of July. The following campaign committee was elected: A.
T. Rosetter, D. L. Thasher, P. M.
Elder, W. N. Leffler, Forrest Lake,
T. K. Bates, and G. W. Spencer.
The following committee was appointed to solicit funds for the campaign: W. T. Field, I. P. Mc-Culler, and R. J. Holly. A map showing the new road district and the sections reached by the brick roads will be made at once and literature explaining the bond issue fully will be printed and nounced that the Commission will 8:00 o'clock in the morning of July 4, date set by law for the gathering of the Commissioners for such purpose.

It was also announced that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad had paid $18,600.16 into the city treasury, covering the balance owed by that firm on assessments for paving against its "Various properties throughout the city.

Upon learning that blanket insurance policy on the lives and health of city employees is about to expire, the Commissioners ordered that it be renewed, declaring it a vital need during the present time. It was reported that the insurance firm had so far spent a large sum of money in the case of George W. Gray, city motorcycle officer, injured in a collision with a truck some wood, was then introduced and stated that he had listened to Mr.

Conklin give the reasons why he was for Dave Sholtz and that he now was going to give the reasons why he was against John Martin.
He charged the former governor with conducting the most extraordinary administration in the history of the state and with being responsible for the oppressive taxation existing now. He also laid the blame for most of Florida's banking troubles at the door of Martin because, he said, Martin vetted a bill which would have given the comptroller wider and more discretionary power in the closing of banks.

Mr. Lator concluded the meeting by urging those present to volunteer their services to get out and actively work in behalf of Mr. Sholtz's candidacy. "Let's don't sit down now believing that victory is already won, but let's get out and hustle and put Dave Sholtz over."

Mystic Will Present Milane Theater Act

Exhibitions which apparently belie the known laws of nature gave renown as a mystic to Dr. U. L. di Ghilini, appearing at the Milane Theater today, tomorrow and Thursday, and he long has been known as a mystifier of world famous scientific investigators.

In a recent issue of The Palm Beach Post, the following report is given of a private seance held by Dr. di Ghilini for a prominent group of local residents who were interested in physical research:

"Dr. U. L. di Ghilini amazed the audience with what he termed a physical demonstration of a mental delusion. John W. Zimmer, the subject was placed in a cabinet which consisted of a frame, covered by a light cloth. Then his hands were tied securely and the coat sleeves sewn to his trousers by C. W. Carroll and J. B. McKinley. Only Mr. Zimmer's head protruded. There followed a baffling waving of hands above and on both sides of Mr. Zimmer's head, the tossing of flowers outside, ringing of bells and the moving of a tambourine across the cabinet."

Mrs. Strong Hostess At Tea On Thursday

Announcing the recent marriage of her daughter, Miss Winnifred Laffer Strong, to Allan Ingram Moseley, of Fort Myers, Mrs. Mary Laffer Strong entertained with an informal tea on Thursday afternoon at her home, 1209 Magnolia Avenue, with about 75 guests in attendance. Mrs. M. S. Wiggins received the guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Strong, and Mr. and Mrs. Moseley.

Mrs. Strong wore for the occasion a flowered chiffon afternoon dress in tones of blue and yellow, while Mrs. Moseley greeted the guests wearing a blue and rose flowered crepe dress having a lace yoke. Completing the costume was a short blue coat.

The guests were escorted to the dining room for refreshments by Mrs. Minnie Jones and Miss Virginia McDaniel. Mrs. E. A. Douglas and Mrs. W. A. Laffer presided at the tea table which was overlaid with a lace cover and centered with a silk basket of pink roses and fern. White candles in silver holders cast a soft glow about the table. Refreshments were served by Dorothy Wiggins, Elizabeth Laffer, and Mary Wiggins, who all wore long pink and green net dresses adorned with satin sashes.

The living rooms of the Strong home were decorated for the occasion with a profusion of pink gladioli and roses arranged with fern in baskets and vases, and similar flowers were used in various parts of the dining room. During the afternoon, Miss Carmen Guthrie rendered piano selections for the entertainment of the guests.

Do you inhale?

"Let sleeping dogs lie"

Why should smokers accept this old-fashioned notion of the cigarette trade?

BY this time you must be pretty well convinced of the fact that other cigarettes do not like to talk about inhaling. And yet—this subject—so "untouchable" in cigarette advertising—is very close to your welfare! For you do inhale—we all do—knowingly or unknowingly, every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette. "Let sleeping dogs lie" may be the cigarette trade's answer to us! But what's their answer to you? Do you inhale? Lucky Strike does not avoid this vital question. It meets the issue fairly and squarely—because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Lucky Strike's famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it! "It's toasted"
