Investigation of the Defunct Bank of Commerce, Okmulgee

MASS MEETING ACTS

AND DEMANDS IMMEDIATE RESIGNATION OF JUDGE-COUNTY ATTORNEY K. K. KID

(By The Associated Press) OKMULGEE, Okla., Feb. 10.—Petitions requesting new grand jury be called to replace the one discharged yesterday by Superior Judge Christopher on the ground that it was illegally drawn, and investigate affairs of the defunct Bank of Commerce of Okmulgee, being checked by officials today to determine whether they carried the signature of required number legal voters. Petitions filed after mass meeting at which action of Christopher in discharging the grand jury was denounced and his immediate resignation demanded. The meeting followed a demonstration in superior court where spectators applauded an attack upon the decision of County Attorney Hepburn and some spectators shouted "Take him out and hang him," referring to the judge. No statement from Christopher, whose friends said he had left the city, Hepburn is silent and declined to comment on the demonstration last night when three hundred white-robed Ku Klux Klansmen paraded through the streets with him in their midst.

DEATH LIST HOTEL FIRE HAS INCREASED

Two More Bodies Are Found, Making Six Victims Known.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 10.—Recovery of two bodies today from the wreckage of the Lexington hotel, destroyed by fire two days ago, brought the known dead to six, with ten still listed as missing. These ten persons, according to the police, have not been heard from since the fire.

Borned beyond recognition a headless body, thought to be that of a man, was taken from the wreckage at 10 o'clock this afternoon, while this morning the body of E. J. Bush, a salesman of Cincinnati, was found in the rear of the hotel. The body was identified by several letters found in the pockets.

Hundreds of workmen continue to probe the wreckage in an effort to recover at least two persons known to be in the debris.

Andrew Calles, Buffalo, N. Y., died from internal injuries, and three others, N. J. Fox, Williamsport, Pa., C. M. Thompson, sheriff of Albemarle county, Va., and Hiram S. Austin, Finley, were killed by leaping from windows. Three persons are in a critical condition in local hospitals and the ten missing are:

B. E. Ames, Sam Ash, R. Kessler, S. H. Poinier, C. W. Hawthorn, B. O. Taylor, E. S. Harrall, J. R. Jones, E. T. Cox, and C. E. Eborley. Poirer and Cox are the two believed to be still buried in the wreckage.

Police declared tonight that four of those missing are buried in the ruins of the hotel and announced they had abandoned all hopes of finding any now on the missing list. They believe the death toll would reach at least 15.

SEMINOLE COUNTY CONSERVES ALL COUNTY ROADS NOW LAID A MATTER OF GOOD BUSINESS

Would Sell Time Warrants for Purpose Resurfacing Old Roads

BUILD D'AWBRIDGE

AT OSTEN FERRY AND REPAIR AND RESURFACE ROADS THAT AND BADLY IN NEED OF IT

A meeting of some twenty citizens of the city and county among them being four of the county commissioners and representatives of the banks and citizens from the county at large was held in the court house last night to take preliminary steps looking toward the issuing of time warrants by the county for the resurfacing and relaying of the roads of Seminole county already built. By a special act of the legislature done while Forest Lake was Seminole's representative, the county is allowed to issue time warrants up to the sum of $100,000 for emergency cases such as the present case happens to be. In other words Seminole county has many miles of brick and oil surfaced roads that need attention now and if they do not receive this attention they will go to pieces and eventually cost the county five times as much to make them over. There is no money available to make these much needed improvements among them being the building of a drawbridge at Osten Ferry, one of the greatest improvements that our county can make. The only way in which these improvements can be made is by the time warrants and it is up to the people of the county to read the statement of the improvements below and do their own thinking, always remembering that the county can do nothing toward saving our good roads except issue the time warrants and make the improvements at once. Materials and labor are much cheaper now and these extensive improvements can be made cheaper now than they could have been made at any time in the past four years. With all of these roads repaired, the bridge built and paying toll and the main road question solved for several years to come the county commissioners can then turn all their time and money toward building and repairing lateral roads that are badly needed in many parts of the county and that should receive their attention.

Below is the list of the roads to be repaired. They have been carefully investigated by County Engineer F. T. Williams and the board of county commissioners and the work can be done for about $98,500:

Resurfacing of the old brick—Beardall avenue the entire length from Celery avenue South.
Geneva avenue from Beardall east to the grouted brick.
Celery avenue from Beardall east to the ferry.
First street or Gertrude avenue west from the Monroe crossing to the grouted brick at Wilson's corner.
Rock shoulder three and one-half feet on each side on Beardall avenue from Celery avenue to Geneva avenue.
The relaying of the brick on Monroe road from First street to Harden's bridge at river, brick to be asphalt filled. Rock shoulder on this road three and one-half feet on each side, making a sixteen foot road from First street to the river.
Resurfacing thirty-three miles of the meandering road with tarvia or asphalt cured with granite chips.
Building of complete drawbridge at Osten ferry.

At the meeting last night of which O. P. Swope was elected chairman and D. L. Thrasher, secretary, it was also decided to take up the matter with the Chamber of Commerce today, with the Rotary Club Tuesday, the Kiwanis Club Thursday, the Woman's Club and all the other organizations of Seminole county at once explaining in detail just what the exigencies are, the need for quick action, the need for spending this money to preserve our roads, the whys and wherefores of the entire transaction and call the election as soon as possible.

The meeting petitioned the County Commissioners last night to call the election at once and while the call was being published to bring the matter to the attention of every voter in the county.

GOVERNMENT PLANS LOAN FOR RAILROADS

Would Guarantee Security of Investments Through U. S. Endorsement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Means of lending the aid of the government's credit to the railroads of the country are under consideration in administration circles, it was indicated today by high government officials. Any such plan, however, it was stated, would not involve the use of government money for rendering financial assistance to the carriers but the use of Federal credit.

SECRETARY HOOVER SUGGESTED TODAY THAT A GOVERNMENT GUARANTEE OF RAILROAD EQUIPMENT TRUST CERTIFICATES WOULD MAKE THEM ATTRACTIVE TO INVESTORS AND ENABLE THE ROADS TO RAISE MONEY FOR NEEDED ROLLING STOCK WITHOUT THE EXPENDITURE OF FUNDS FROM THE TREASURY.

Secretary Mellon is also understood to regard favorably the idea of lending the government's credit to the carriers on the theory that better business conditions generally would result from improvement in the railroad situation. If any such step should be taken, however, in the opinion of Attorney General Daugherty, legislation probably would be necessary and in this case difficulty might be encountered in congress.

The need of the railroads for more equipment is their own difficulty, in the opinion of Secretary Hoover, who said it was up to the railroads to take the leadership in presenting some conservative plan for providing funds.

The bond election recently held at Wauchula for $80,000 for municipal improvements was carried by a good majority.

He has photographs of them. The Bureau of Criminal Investigation, Washington, today ordered postal inspector here to send photographs of the prisoners to Washington. Temporarily Laid Off by Secretary Denby on Furloughs BUT WITHOUT PAY

INSTRUCTIONS ACCORDING TO PLAN OF PRESIDENT HARDING'S ORDER

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—The first effects of the armament conference on the employment situation were felt today when several thousand mechanics and artificers in navy yards were temporarily laid off after Secretary Denby had ordered suspended all ordnance work designed for "scrapping" under the naval limitation treaty. The instructions were issued in line with President Harding's order of yesterday suspending work on the vessels under construction affected by the treaty. The navy yards affected are those at Washington, Philadelphia, Norfolk, Mare Island, Calif., and possibly Boston. The ordnance plant at South Charleston, W. Va., was also affected similarly. While these instructions were being sent out President Harding was receiving the report of the American arms delegations together with the treaties growing out of the conference. After receiving these documents, from Secretary Hughes, the president had the four delegates at luncheon guests at the White House. The president has not decided whether he will deliver to the senate the treaties in person, it was said later.

FIRST NATIONAL OFFERS MAMMOTH SUPER-DRAMA

It is not often that any film concern can essay really mammoth screen productions in this age of mounting prices, because at the outset the cost is prohibitive. David W. Griffith's "Intolerance" was the last photoplay of this class and proportion. But now comes the First National with what is claimed to be perhaps the biggest super-drama of them all. It is entitled "Passion," and is described as "the foremost screen epic." Some idea of the size of this production can be gained by contemplating the fact that five thousand persons are in the cast. A further insight to the immensity of this feature spectacle is given in the claim that the ordinary motion picture camera was too limited in its scope to photograph all the action of certain of the unusual mob scenes in this release and consequently an ingenious new invention had to be devised with surprisingly gratifying results. Further, the introduction of Pola Negri the famous Continental star, in this elation in the depth and power of the silent drama. It is enthusiastically claimed for her that she has set a new high standard in character delineation in pantomime.

"Passion" is announced as the attraction at the Star Theatre for two days Friday and Saturday and the management has made arrangements for a record-breaking business in view of the exceptionally brilliant reputation this feature has attained in the other cities in which it has been exhibited. The story is said to be replete with subtle thrills and it unfolds one of the most appealing love stories yet recorded, if one can judge by the advance press sheets giving the synopsis. The fact that the principal character is a little French milliner who rises to such a place of prominence that she is able to rule the king of her land is sufficient inkling of the interesting potentiality of the narrative. She rises only to fall again and the depicting of her downward journey is even more thrilling than her climb up the ladder of fame. Once she is brought back to her old ground among the lowly masses, she finds her self the helpless target for universal hatred which knows no mercy. Her ultimate fate is inevitably tragic.

And we would like to say to General Khan that the less he says about the farmers and Henry Ford getting control the less risk Mr. Khan runs of being "kanned" at the next election. The common people will have a "look in" from this time forward and they will be heard and seen at the polls. The war is over and it is over for good and the echoes that come from headquarters about the mismanagement of the government control is sufficient to last us for the next 200 years. Let Henry Ford and other successful business men take the reins for awhile.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

For some time and especially since Roscoe Arbuck's came in for so much adverse press notice the movie colony at Los Angeles has come in for much discussion and it has been the opinion of the American people as a whole that a bunch of those "ham actors" out there ought to be told just where to head in and the way to tell them is to refuse to see the pictures of any of them that flout public opinion and public proprieties and go as far as they like. It will be up to the public to place them where they belong and in placing them it is always well to remember that all of the movie colony at Los Angeles is not bad. It is just a case of a bunch of floor sweepers and kitchen maids and former janitors and hangers around theatres getting rich in a day and the money going to their brains. The Tampa Times sums up the situation as follows: The glamour which has hung about the moving picture colony at Hollywood, is being rapidly dispelled by the atmosphere of intrigue and criminality, which is being developed in these later days. It was to be expected that it would be so. It was the inevitable result of putting a lot of beggars on horseback. The old adage says they will ride to the devil and the proof of the saying is being shown daily. Take a multitude of humans gathered from the slums and barrel houses of the cities, whose only claim to amusement consists in some trick of gesture, or peculiarity of figure or feature, set them to using slapsticks or throwing custard pies into the faces of their stage partners, at exorbitant salaries, which are widely advertised as part of their attraction; or feature them in sex dramas, which come perilously near to the line between decency and vulgarity, at times even crossing it, and in their hours of ease, they will certainly revert to their normal instincts, and crime and immorality will result. Of course it is not fair to condemn the movie as a whole. They can be made a great educational and uplifting institution of our daily life. They can bring to the eyes of the people the great facts of nature, of science and of art, and the great dramatic works of the writers of all the ages. They can bring before our eyes, if not to our ears, the work of great actors who have won lasting fame. This is legitimate and commendable work, and the field is as wide as the world is.

The trouble is that these screen lords themselves as readily to the portrayal of vulgar and sensational immorality as it does to the higher things of life, and there are always men and women ready to take advantage of this facility for the sake of gain. They pander to the worst instincts of the people, and patrons. What is needed is a strict and impartial censorship in the interests of morality and decency. If the moving picture companies sense this, and provide of themselves the necessary censorship, well and good, they will reap their reward, if not immediately, at least eventually. If they neglect this important duty they will make work for future legislatures, congresses and city governments. It is up to the duty of government to protect the people against these things of vice and immorality, as it is the duty of them against the midnight rap on the highway bandit. And the government will get no help from the movie industry in this regard.

WATER POWER FOR SANFORD UTILITIES

The Herald has from time to time mentioned the fact that water power could be found near Sanford that would be of great benefit to the city and the state and make Sanford one of the greatest manufacturing centers in the state. This may or may not be feasible but we would like to have competent engineers turn it down before we shall cease talking about it. There is plenty of water and plenty of fall in the Wekiwa river a few miles from this city on the north-west. There is plenty of water and plenty of fall in the Econlockhatchee Creek in the southeastern part of the county. If it is feasible to dam either one of these streams and get the electric power and lights for Sanford at a cheap rate the future of this city would be assured.

A few days ago this paper spoke about soft water for Sanford. This has already started a train of thought in regard to testing the water supply in and around this city. Regarding the water power of Florida read the following that appeared in the Jacksonville Metropolitan:

The Panama City Pilot thinks Florida should pay more attention to the development of its water power, and in discussing the possibilities in West Florida says:

With the difficulty of securing coal, why not use the water? Locally, in West Florida, there is much of this power going to waste. It is only recently that any of the large source of water power on the Chipola river has been utilized. Marinanna is about to be supplied with power from this source. But this is but a fraction of what could be created. This power, unlike coal, can be used over and over, and is never exhausted, as it comes back to the source of supply in the shape of rain, thus forever and ever resupplying the source of the power.

The United States engineers state that the Look and Tremble shoals on the Chipola river have a fall of five feet in forty, with an inexhaustible and steady supply of water. Here is an enormous amount of power going to waste which could be most inexpensively distributed all through this section. The Econfina, entering the north end of this bay, has also a large amount of water in it, which falls rapidly for many miles.

And there are other smaller streams that offer equally as advantageous opportunities for producing power, as all of the streams in West Florida have their rise in the highlands of this section, and some fall over 200 feet in reaching tide-water.

Florida's water power is a tremendous asset and will be important in the development of the state, for water er power is destined to be the great source of energy of the future. It is inexhaustible. It does not deteriorate or become less effective with use. It is all-powerful and everlasting. If plans materialize, and there is no reason why they shouldn't, Florida will be one of the great manufacturing centers of the Union in a few years. Nature has equipped the state to this end and no stone should be left unturned in realizing it. Blessed with many streams, which are to be found in every section of the state, we must harness them to carry the burdens of progress.

THE SUBLTLE ART OF "VAMPING A KING"

"Vamping" as an acceptable art has been in vogue almost since human beings began to tread upon this mundane sphere. So far as records indicate, women have always "vamped", seasonally if not continually, and effectively if not always spectacularly. Perhaps there has been more "vamping" in the last few years than ever before, but it has never been any more artistically done than it was in ancient times. No station of life has ever been sufficient to make man immune to the wiles of the gentler sex. In fact, there seems to be a great deal of truth in the slang expression which, in the vernacular of the street, is "the higher they come the harder they fall." Kings as a rule are easy victims and we still have fresh in our mind the memory of King Manuel's fate as a result of losing his equilibrium over the haunted Gaby Deslys.

A thrilling example of what happens when a king "falls for" a grand lady of winning ways is set forth in the super-dramatic success, "Passion," which is now playing at the Star Theatre, where it is entrancing capacity houses nightly. As the story goes, a little French milliner through sheer pettiness and charming ways attracts the eye of the king of her country and she experiences little difficulty in "vamping" him into making her the real ruler behind the throne. Forsooth, the king is so enamored of her that he defies all obstacles to his pursuit of her smiles. The final results of the whole affair are not very happy for the two principals, but it is certainly not a waste of story-telling ability, because not only does the plot afford most engrossing diversion, but it drives home plenty of food for thought for people in all stations of life. Mainly it goes to show what wilful caprice and an inherent ability to "vamp" men—kings or truckmen—can do towards changing the destinies of whole masses of people. It drives home the point that it is a pretty good idea to think twice and thrice ere proceeding upon any campaign fraught with precariousness such as inevitably characterizes professional flirtation. In short, it is patent to all that the art of "vamping" is too prone to become a public menace when it is practised in high places.

NEW INVESTIGATION IN TAYLOR MURDER

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 13.—A new and comprehensive investigation into the circumstances surrounding the slaying of William Desmond Taylor, noted film director, was under way here today, directed by the district attorney. Yesterday and today the district attorney pruned into his hands the scattered threads of evidence that had been drawn out by the police, the sheriff's office and independent investigators, and tonight he was attempting to weave them into some sort of pattern that would disclose what took place just before Taylor last his life. One item gathered for this prospective fabric of facts and deduction was a packet of letters written by Mabel Normand, motion picture actress, and which disappeared from Taylor's home after his death. These letters were discovered yesterday concealed among Taylor's effects. Their contents were not disclosed, and Miss Normand, who was in seclusion today declined to comment on the new turn of affairs.

TIME CLAUSE IN FORD'S SHOALS OFFER DISCUSSED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The advisability of reducing the time clause in Henry Ford's offer for the lease of the Muscle Shoals, Ala., Government owned lands, from 100 to 50 years, was questioned indirectly today by Major General Lausung H. Beach, chief of army engineers, in testimony before the House military committee. Referring to the general policy of the Government not to lease its properties for a period exceeding 50 years, General Beach, in his testimony at the second day of the hearings of the committee on the Ford proposal, said that "it is not always advisable to apply one general rule to things big and small. Secretary Weeks, who was heard by the committee yesterday at its opening session, declared emphatically that in his opinion it would be unwise to permit the lease of public lands or properties to private interests for so long a period as 100 years." General Beach, however, said today that it is tant a matter as this whether the 50 year rule would not work a hardship. It was his belief, the general continued, that in disposition of the properties at Muscle Shoals the paramount consideration should be the effect upon the Nation's defense rather than the manufacture of fertilizer. The country, he said, should not be "caught again" without an adequate nitrate supply.

H. Salvotto, of Baltimore, made his headquarters at the Montezuma while in the city on business.

AMUSEMENTS AT THE ORLANDO FAIR

Recognizing the fact that a well rounded fair in addition to displays of fruits and vegetables, farm crops, stock, poultry, art, domestic, industrial and other features must have ample provision has been made, plenty along the line of amusements, among them the races noted in separate articles, the famous "Ward Flyers," and acrobatic company of great merit, composed of nine men and ladies who do some astonishing high trapeze work fronting the grand stand; also other thrilling free acts on the track, such as chariot races, Cow Boy Wild West riding, etc. Johnnie J. Jones' deservedly famous Shows have been wintering on the Orlando Fair Grounds for several years past, and it is known as the home of these Shows. All of them center here for the Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter Fair, and in the Spring they go from here on their long tour through this Country and Canada.

Therefore, it goes within the saying that they are in the pink of perfection at this fair. Other amusements are added as the fair approaches

CON MEN'S HEARING IS SET FOR TODAY

FORT LAUDERDALE, Feb. 10.—Circuit Judge E. C. Davis will tomorrow hear the application of twelve alleged confidence men for their release on habeas corpus proceedings. Their leading counsel, Judge Price, of Miami, decided upon this method of attempting to effect the band's release yesterday after they were ordered held in bonds ranging from $7,500 to $15,000 by Judge Shippey in county court.

Much interest attaches locally to the result of tomorrow's hearing. Leading citizens who were instrumental in ridding a residence occupied by the men and used as headquarters last night urged Governor Hardee to inform Judge Davis of the inadvisability of granting their release.

When Telephone Numbers Change

Every new issue of the telephone directory contains hundreds of changes in telephone numbers.

Between directory issues many telephone subscribers do not make a record of the changed numbers they call frequently.

This necessitates the frequent calling of the information operator and unnecessary work on the part of both subscribers and operators.

You can assist in maintaining good telephone service if a record of such number changes is kept near your telephone—

And if telephone numbers, particularly party line numbers, are eliminated from letter heads, business cards and advertising.

WEATHER AND CROPS

Temperature: The temperature averaged from 4 to 7 degrees, daily, above the seasonal, but a cold wave swept eastward during the night of the 6th, with much colder weather during the 7th.

Precipitation: The percentage of sunshine was much below the normal over the northern and western portions of the section, being the feature of the week's weather. The cloudy weather did not envelop all of the central division, and but little of the south, the sunshine being above the usual amount in the extreme south. Showers were frequent in the north and west, heavy and locally damaging in some localities west of the Suwanee and Apalachicola Rivers. More rain is needed locally in the central, and quite generally in the southern, division.

Condition of Crops: General farm work was delayed in much of the north and west, as a result of unsettled and showery conditions; activities continued, however, elsewhere in the section. The week's weather favored the rapid growth of truck, except that cooler weather is needed for celery, lettuce, and cabbage; much of the lettuce crop has been shipped, and cabbage is being marketed generally. Tomato planting has begun in northern counties; plants are doing well with moderate shipments from the southern and central divisions. The planting of melons continued; some melons and early corn are "up". The Irish potato crop is doing well—some plants are six inches high. Oats are generally in good condition. The mild temperature was favorable for citrus trees. Bedding for sweet potato slips continued during the week. Highways are in good condition in the peninsula, but recent rains affected the clay roads unfavorably.

CALIFORNIA ASKS PRICES ON CROPS OF FLORIDA MEN

BRADENTOWN, Feb. 9.—I. T. Williams, manager of the Manatee County Grower's association, last night received a telegram from a prominent commission house in Los Angeles, California, asking for quotations on Manatee county celery, egg plant and peppers and particularly on car lots of Florida celery.

In the opinion of growers here the reports of the damages done by the severe weather which recently swept the Pacific coast, were not exaggerated.

Growers here say that California was evidently hard-hit by the smashing blows which the Weather Man dealt that state. They anticipate that further inquiries will be received and believe that the damage done California crops may prove even greater than had been anticipated.—Tampa Times.

VISION GIVEN BACK TO BLIND CHILDREN

AMAZING AND MAGIC-LIKE RESULTS FROM PRECIOUS FOOD ELEMENTS—THE VITAMINES

Vitamines are mysterious. No one has ever seen one. Yet science knows definitely what they will do.

The knowledge of vitamines has been a godsend to countless sufferers of certain diseases which are caused by a lack of one or more of the three vitamines, A, B, and C in the regular diet.

While experimenting on small animals learned doctors found that omitting Vitamine A in their food caused an eye disease that was as bad as the length of its name—xerophthalmia. Giving back Vitamine A to the tiny sufferers cured them of the eye disease.

Not long afterward a Danish doctor found the same kind of eye disease in children whose war diets gave them little or no A vitamines. He fed these children cod-liver oil, which is rich in Vitamine A, and they were cured.

During the war Dr. H. Gideon Wells, an eminent Chicago pathologist, who was in Rumania for the American Red Cross, saw hundreds of Rumanian children going blind. Their food had been only cornmeal and a soup made from bran and vegetables. This diet was lacking in Vitamine A.

A shipment of cod-liver oil was commandeered by Dr. Wells, who had learned of the valuable vitamine content of that substance. He fed it to the suffering children and is credited with performing more miraculous cures of blindness than are recorded in the Scriptures.

Similar cures of other diseases have been made in many other parts of the world by supplying missing vitamines—A, B, or C. It can be readily seen from this that a correct balance of all three vitamines in our food is necessary for our health and well-being.

For the benefit of people who cannot easily get sufficient vitamines in their food, scientists have found ways to concentrate and condense the three vitamines so that they may be taken in addition to regular meals. This scientific step has raised the health standard all over the world.

CAPT. FATJO SPEAKS KIWANIS YESTERDAY

Capt. Fatjo was a visitor at the Kiwanis Luncheon at the Valdez yesterday and spoke to the Club members. The Captain, in his remarks stated that he was pleased to note that his dream of many years ago, while a resident of this city, had practically come true in that the city had made many improvements along the lines suggested, particularly the bulk-head and the other improvements along the way of civic beauty. The late soloists at the meeting were Raffald, Akers, and McCuller, who in the words of Forest Lake pushed the Club by singing Liza Jane. They promised not to do it again. President Connelly was indisposed and his place at the head of the table was most ably filled by Vice President Sharon—this was also the president's day to address the club, and Mr. Sharon took that place too, and did address the club. Stating that as Kiwanis stood for Building Business it also stood for Building Manhood. Mr. Sharon made, not only a speech, but a short oration and held his hearers spell-bound during the discourse. Bert Melville was present with some of his players, and during the luncheon rendered the following program.

Solo—Profiteering Blues—Mrs Brockhahn.
Solo—Just Drifting—Mr. Harrington.
Song—Dapper Dan, the ladies man—Mrs. Livingston Song—Witty Song—The Premier Comedian—Toby Melville.
Mr. Brockhahn accompanied the entertainers—as well as Frank Akers. Every body that can possibly do so will be at the luncheon four weeks from yesterday because then N. J. Lillard will tell the boys how to print the Sanford Herald.

Mrs. Harry Papworth, of New York is the guest of her father, M. F. Robinson at his home on Park avenue.

She will sing a solo on Sunday.

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

Again we are constrained to rise and remark that the weather is just about the finest that can be found upon this terrestrial footstool. You can't beat it anywhere. It is the 10th day of February—the usual time for cold weather and freezes if there are going to be any—and the maximum temperature is 72 and the minimum is 47. Pretty soft for we Florida crackers down here in little old Sanford, with the celery coming along fine and a great prospect for spring crops, with the elections in the offing and the Republican party getting ripe for another fall, yes.

FAVOR AMERICAN PARTICIPATION IN

(By The Associated Press)
ROME, Feb. 10.—Two thirds of the foreign cardinals and a small fraction of the Italians favored American participation in the conclave which elected Pope Pius XI. Against the proposal to delay the election were almost all the Italian cardinals, led by the Camerlengo, Cardinal Gasparri.
Cardinals Luncon, Dubois Ardrieu and Maurin called on the papal secretary of state today to submit the request that the papal constitution be amended fixing the date for the convening of a conclave at an indefinite period after the demise of the pope to permit the United States, Canada and South America to participate.
