FCC To Question Whiteside Tomorrow About Dealings With Mack

WASHINGTON (UP)—House investigators of the Federal Communications Commission will question Miami Attorney Thurman A. Whiteside again tomorrow about his dealings with resigned FCC Commissioner Richard A. Mack.

Whiteside had testified earlier but declined to appear again before the House subcommittee investigating the FCC, on grounds he had been summoned by a federal grand jury which also is studying FCC affairs. But the Justice Department arranged for the jury to release him as a witness.

State Department Communications expert John S. Cross was named Monday to succeed Mack. Cross disclosed that he had been a contender three years ago for the job but lost out to Mack.

Whiteside, whose business dealings with Mack in a contested Miami TV channel award led to Mack's resignation under congressional fire, was originally scheduled to testify Wednesday before the grand jury.

A Justice Department official said the department had no intention of permitting Whiteside to use his "voluntary appearance" before the grand jury as an excuse to avoid subcommittee questioning.

Whiteside was supposed to testify Monday before the House subcommittee headed by Rep. Oran Harris (D-Ark.). When he failed to appear, Harris threatened to subpoena him or send the investigation records on him to the Justice Department for "appropriate action."

After his nomination Monday by President Eisenhower, Cross said his conception of an FCC member's duty was to dole out radio and TV licenses for the public benefit. He said that as a career government employe, he had no former business connections which might influence his decisions.

Nominee a Democrat The new nominee, a Democrat like Mack, must be confirmed by the Senate. The President had to turn to a Democrat because the seven-member FCC already has its full legal complement of four Republicans.

Harris said Cross is "a good man." He said he and other members of the Arkansas congressional delegation recommended Cross for the post three years ago. He added that Cross would "inject some very forceful and independent judgment within the FCC."

Robbery Series Solved; Three Negroes Arrested

A trio of Sanford Negroes are being held in local jails charged with the breaking and entering of at least 10 business places in the city and county.

Some of the stolen merchandise was recovered and there is a possibility that more will be uncovered. The three Negroes stashed their stolen loot away in various houses. Already recovered are two pairs of men's shoes, four jackets, 12 shirts, two flashlights and two pairs of pants, all taken from Spencer's Store in Oviedo and two pairs of cuff links from Squires Gift Shop.

The two officers said that the trio would use a white man's car, replacing gas used for their forays, and return the car before morning.

Lt. Hickson and Patrolman Dodson, of the Sanford Police Department, said the list of businesses broken into include: Teenagers Shop, 9th and Pecan; Buddy Claire's Service Station, Southwest Road; poolroom in rear of New York Beer Garden on West 13th St.; Mac's Sundries, West 13th St.; McCarley's Grocery Store, West 13th St.; Squires Gift Shop, South Sanford Ave.; Spencer's Grocery in Oviedo; Fleming's Red and White Grocery, Midway; Dry Cleaners and Laundry in DeBary; Lola's Restaurant in Longwood; and Dan's Grocery at 27th St. and Sanford Ave.

5,200,000 Americans Jobless Last Month

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said today unemployment climbed to 5,200,000 in February—a 16-year high and 2 million more than a year ago.

The number of jobless Americans increased 700,000 in one month, from mid-January to mid-February.

He said almost two-thirds of the unemployed—more than 3,300,000—are claiming unemployment compensation benefits.

Morrison, who succeeds Myron A. (Mike) Reck, will take office at the first meeting in July.

I.O.O.F., Elks Each Contribute $65 To SHS Band

Sanford Lodge No 27 I.O.O.F. and the B.P.O. Elks each contributed $65 to the Seminole High School Band for the purchase of 20 uniforms.

The officers said that they have found no evidence where merchandise has been sold. However, they did say that the trio took considerable sums of money.

Gene's Has Drive-In Window Service

GENE'S SEMINOLE DRY CLEANERS celebrates the grand opening of the drive-in window service. The self-service window is off Magnolia Ave. where the firm has been located for over 31 years. (Staff Photo)

A "drive-in-drive-up-drive-out" slogan has been adopted by Gene's Seminole Dry Cleaners, 218 Magnolia Ave., on the occasion of the grand opening of a drive-in window service tomorrow.

Gene Estridge, who has operated for two years the long established firm of dry cleaners, announced today the new phase of his plant's operation.

The dry cleaning establishment has been in the same location for over 31 years and has maintained the same high quality and modern standards throughout the more than three decades.

"Taking over the operation of the firm, with my son Gene 111, as an associate, was quite an occasion," Gene Estridge said today. "For instance, four of the employees in the plant have spent a total of 72 years in this business and in this same location, said Estridge. That, in itself, is quite an honor and certainly significant of the quality of work they produce."

Estridge also said that the truck driver, George Alford, has now started his 10th year with the firm.

"The drive-in window was an idea of mine with which we could better serve our customers," Estridge said, "and with complete facilities, such as the parking area next to the drive-in window for customers who would rather park and come in, along with a delivery service, our dry cleaning plant is a complete service," he said.

"The new drive-in window has a protruding table for immediate service for our customers who drive in, drive up and drive out," he said.

Gene Estridge has been in Sanford for 40 years and is well-known here and in the Sanford area. "I worked with my brother-in-law for two years when he operated this plant," Estridge said today.

For 10 years Estridge was in the service station business on Sanford Ave. where he earned a reputation for courteous service and complete satisfaction. These he has carried with him into the Gene's Seminole Dry Cleaning establishment.

"We hope that our friends and neighbors will take advantage of the opportunity to use our brand new service, the drive-in window," Estridge said today. "We certainly welcome all of our friends and acquaintances during our grand opening and invite them to come by to see us."

Door prizes are being awarded. Gene Estridge said, over the opening celebration of the installation

Docks, Terminals Project Is The Answer To Local Problems

Sanford and Seminole County are growing—there's no doubt about it for the evidence is emblazoned all about us.

Schools are crowded, home construction is at an unprecedented peak, industries are moving in, roads are inadequate to take care of traffic, and business continues to increase. Even despite itself, the area in which we live is growing.

But revenue for the upkeep of our city and county government does not increase with the growing population. And there's a simple answer for it. Property is being taken off the tax rolls.

We need development for only with the creation of new areas for homes would there be living space for those who are coming in. But as homes are built the taxes diminish.

Where can the answer be found? That, too can become a simple answer if we would but look for it. And the answer is within our grasp at the moment.

What would bring to Sanford and Seminole County the type of growth that would others would do the same if only the Docks foster a growing revenue?

We think that the answer is a Dock and Terminals Project and to follow that, the Sanford-Titusville Canal.

Industry and commerce thrive on cheap transportation. The Mississippi Valley, the Great Lakes Area, the Atlantic Seaboard and other inland waterways systems have proved that fact to us.

And so would industry thrive about a Docks and Terminals for Sanford.

One cannot expect industry to move in overnight just as soon as a Docks and Terminals Project is announced. But with the construction of the facilities there is no doubt in the minds of experts who have lived with water transportation all of their lives that industry would begin its steady pace to our doorstep.

Industry expects to pay its share of the tax load. All of us know that. Certainly they don't want to be gouged and have thrown on their shoulders the entire burden of community taxes. But they do accept, as we have already seen, their equal share of the cost of government.

Somewhat we haven't realized that the Docks and Terminals Project is as important to our community as any two or three projects that could be dreamed up. The seriousness of the situation just hasn't reached the focal point strong enough to sway the minds of those who can provide the answer.

Sanford is the distribution center of Central Florida despite all arguments otherwise. Natural resources provide that title. It takes the determination and the courage to face it—and then will come the facilities.

The longer Sanford and Seminole County waits to provide the answer—the more impatient others around us become. Their answer might be "If you don't want to use your resources then let us provide an alternative. We want the Docks and Terminals."

One industry has already started construction of its facilities here and they chose Sanford because of the natural resources and Terminals could be provided.

There is the possibility—and it is feasible to think so—that had the Docks and ces — water transportation. Thousands of others would do the same if only the Docks Terminals been completed, or at least under construction, the Sanford-Titusville Project would have been approved.

Time comes when we must be frank and open with ourselves and there is no better time than the present.

If we want to grow—solidly and steadily—then the Docks and Terminals Project is the one Project that should be approved should be approved without any further without any further dilly-dallying.

The best way to get what we want is to roll up our sleeves and go to work.

Band Uniforms Displayed Today

There were a lot of happy boys and girls this morning showing off their brand new band uniforms.

After months of taking part in project after project staged to benefit the Seminole High School Band Uniform fund now the uniforms are being worn proudly by the members of the 70-piece music organization.

Bandmaster Ernest Cowley and the members of the band felt that they should show the uniforms off this morning and let everybody see just what they helped provide.

Each member of the Seminole High School Band, and the members of the Band Parents Association realize that without the help of everybody in the community they could not have provided these beautiful uniforms.

If you saw the parade this morning you were looking at $5,100 worth of uniforms. In the coat of certain uniforms there is a special label sewn in to express appreciation of the band toward the individuals or the organizations that provided funds for the purchase of a uniform.

However, in the hearts of those who take part in the Seminole High School Band activities — students, parents, instructor, or musician—there is written a huge "thank you" to all of those who helped so generously to make the uniforms possible.

We've always had a good and colorful band at Seminole High School. But now we're going to have a better band. They're going to be proud musicians as they parade in their new outfits and they're going to carry the name of Sanford and Seminole County with them wherever they go.

Let's let the Seminole High School Band know that we're proud of them.

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to questions of interest from former servicemen and their families:

Q. I understand VA benefit checks now can be forwarded by the Post Office. Is this automatic, or do veterans still have to give some sort of notice if they move?

A. Veterans still must give notice. They must file a regular change-of-address form with their local Post Office. And they still should notify VA, so the agency may keep its records current.

Q. I had a World War II GI term insurance policy which lapsed in 1946. Is it too late to reinstate or renew it?

A. Yes. Application for reinstatement of GI term insurance must have been made within the policy's term period. Since your term insurance expired, it is too late to reinstate it.

Q. I am eligible for both VA compensation and pension. I chose compensation because the payments would be higher. If conditions should change so it would be more advantageous to receive pension payments, will VA make the switch automatically?

A. No. VA may not make such changes automatically. You must request the change.

My New York

BY MEL HEIMER

NEW YORK—The situation isn't too ominous yet and I don't want to flash the storm signals or the word to take to the hills, but I do feel duty-bound to report that another "society" singer is almost upon us.

Over the years, Manhattan has been the proving—or unproving—ground of any number of eager, lissome young females who have tried to prove that, just because their fathers owned Wall Street and they knew which forks to use, they didn't necessarily have no use, now—Anne Francine and Eva Symington and Cobina Wright, Jr. and Beverly Paterno, etc.

Each whipped up a nice little singing act and warbled for cash in some posh local saloon—but truth compels the report that none of them ever gave Peggy Lee, Pearl Bailey or the great Ella any cause for alarm. They were more or less on key and their friends from the Four Hundred loved them, but that was about it.

I may be unduly alarmed about the newest one. She doesn't fit too easily into the pattern. Her name is Babe Caulkins, she's so social it hurts—and she may be the only singer extant who has braved volcanic eruptions, trekked across deserts, been mixed up in civil wars in China and hunted giant lizards in the Pacific.

She also has mothered five children and is past the girlish-laughter stage. You might call her the Roberta Sherwood of Park Avenue. Her success right now is more modest than Roberta's—but her first record album is beginning to catch on and the disc jockeys and television interviewers are beginning to ask around about her. It's a long way from 40 below in Canada.

"I MIGHT STILL BE EXPLORING and taking pictures on scientific expeditions, which is what I did for five years with Douglas Burden, my first husband," she told me today, "expect this one freezing night in Canada, I was lying in a sleeping bag in a teepee and listening to the moose and wolves and Indians outside, and I sighed and said, 'I've had it!'"

A. No. VA may not make such changes automatically. You must request the change.

She entrained back to Manhattan the next day and inside of two weeks was cast in Arthur Hopkins' production of Holiday, the wonderful Philip Barry play. It was her only professional appearance on Broadway but she looks back on it now fondly for two reasons: (1) her understudy was Katharine Hepburn and (2) she realized, at last that she had a streak of ham in her.

The streak of ham stayed pretty dormant over the years, though," she said, "since I was busy having children and, with my second husband, Dan Platt Caulkins (the famous Princeton footballer), entertaining diplomats and statesmen such as Sir Winston Churchill, Lord Halifax and James Forrestal in Washington during the war. All I could do was get up quickly whenever I could coax someone into coaxing me to sing, and cut loose. I loved it. I'm one singer nobody has to ask twice to perform."

Meanwhile, Babe (her maiden name was Katherine Curtin White and she's the granddaughter of Andrew D. White, former American ambassador to Germany and Russia) reared such progeny as Wendy Burden, a Life and Look cover girl (retired now and mother of Babe's two granddaughters) and Doug Burden, Jr., one of America's great amateur skiers whose tournament career ended in 1954 when his leg was smashed in Italy's Marmelata competition. Incidentally, Babe also almost lost a leg in a California ski accident.

BURDEN, APPARENTLY, DIDN'T CARE much for Babe's hectic pentagon. Caulkins, on the other hand, loves to hear his wife sing and it was Dan who, with society singer-pianist Bill Harrington, kept after Babe until she made this first album.

It's hard to describe what Babe does. She sings the old English music-hall favorite, Splash Me (Churchill used to ask her for Splash Me), and Noel Coward-type songs and even These Foolish Things, to which she seems to lend new grace. Whatever it is she does, it's good.

"Anyway" she says alight, "it's better than chasing Versus Kondodons—that's the giant dragon lizard—all over the Malay archipelago, or shooting tigers in Bali. I've done all that . . . and the truth is, it repressed the ham in me."

"Now it's out for better or worse—and I'm shakily enjoying it. And I'm too old to be over impressed. If success comes, it won't spoil Babe Caulkins."

Twenty-Five Confirmed Sunday By Bishop Of South Florida

Bishop Henry T. Louttit, Bishop of South Florida, returned to his first Parish Sunday to confirm twenty-five children and adults at Holy Cross Episcopal Church, Rev. John Thomas conducted the service.

The church was full when the service began at 9:15. The confirmation class entered in a group and took their places in special pews. During his sermon Bishop Louttit remarked that "you never quite recover from your first parish." He urged the congregation to work harder in order to achieve their goals.

The eleven o'clock service was cancelled for this one Sunday, to permit a social hour in the parish house. Refreshments were served by the Woman's Auxiliary.

The confirmation class formed a line with Bishop Louttit and received congratulations from the congregation.

One member of the class, Dorothy Deans, was confirmed in Orlando on Friday by the Bishop. Dorothy left Saturday with her family for duty in Puerto Rico. She is the daughter of Cdr. and Mrs. Tom Deans.

Designer Proves Men Make Passes At Gals In Glasses

STOCKHOLM—Designer Erikson has discovered that men do make passes at girls in glasses. Erikson put horn-rimmed spectacles on models displaying corsets and the sales rocketed up 150 per cent.

Now all the smartest girls in Stockholm are wearing glasses, even when they don't need to.

One bespectacled model has married a rich Italian count. Another has won a national beauty contest. Several have become star models with salaries of $300 a week.

Lingerie shops and opticians are doing a boom trade, but the Stockholm Women's Institute has protested against posters of girls wearing nothing but corsets and spectacles. The housewives say the specs are too sexy.

But Erikson is delighted. And the lies he told him and the opticians may become even closer.

The opticians are thinking of dressing their models in corsets to advertise their glasses.

School Lunchrooms Discussed At P.T.A. Meet Thursday

In a talk to the Westside Primary P. T. A. Thursday night, Mrs. D. H. Whitmore, Supervisor of Seminole County Lunchrooms, stated that lunchrooms are not just "filling stations" anymore. Today, the lunchroom program is a vital part of the school. In addition to giving a child a hot meal, he is also taught good eating habits, and fundamentals of nutrition.

All the lunchrooms in Seminole County are grade A, which entitles them to a small reimbursement and some surplus commodities from the Government. Mrs. Whitmore pointed out that the lunchrooms are self-supporting. The site paid for the lunch boys food, pays workers salaries, buys the fuel, plus supplies such as napkins.

During the business session of the meeting, members voted to hold four general meetings a year, starting in the fall, as recommended by the County Council.

After a discussion, members from Westside P. T. A. to vote against the article in the State permanent platform referring to "the United Nations and all its agencies". If they cannot vote against one article, they will vote against the entire platform. The voting will take place at the District Conference on March 14 in Melbourne.

The membership elected as its nominating committee the following: Mrs. A. C. Doudney, Mrs. Courtney Soderblom, and Mrs. David Bach.

Room count was won by Mrs. Ruth Clifton's second grade room. Mrs. J. C. Hampton's first grade room was second.

After the meeting was dismissed, refreshments of coffee and cake were served in the lunchroom by Mrs. Clifton's room mothers.

Conning The News

By VIRGINIA CONN, Society Editor

This past Sunday thousands of Girl Scouts attended church in uniform to signify the beginning of Girl Scout Week. Wednesday, March 12, is the 46th anniversary of the Girl Scouts.

This year the theme "You Can Count on Her" has been chosen. Members will try especially hard to live up to the ideals set for the Girl Scouts by Juliette Gordon Low, original organizer.

We are fortunate in Seminole County in having one of the fastest growing neighborhoods in the country. Much of the growth may be attributed to the leadership of Julie Chase, neighborhood chairman and her hard working service team. The enthusiasm of adults in Girl Scouting has resulted in many new troops during the past year.

Nearly any little girl can now become a Brownie—or a Girl Scout. The adult leadership courses offered under the Citrus Council, of which the Seminole Neighborhood is a member, have produced leaders qualified to start new troops and take over for those who either have to leave the area or can no longer be active.

The Girl Scouts have just finished their cookie sale. This money raising project is an example of the lesson in self-reliance and dependability taught these girls in the program. Eighteen cents of every box sold went to refurbish and build their Camp Ticochee. Two cents remained for the use of individual troops. Purchases not only experienced the satisfaction of helping a wonderful organization, but also enjoyed the cookies.

O. W. C. Plans Bake Sale March 17

At a recent executive board meeting of the Officer's Wives Club plans were made for a bake sale and white elephant sale to be held March 17 at Ship's Service Store. Members of the O. W. C. are requested to bring or send baked goods on the morning of March 17. "White Elephants" may be given to unit representatives.

The sale will start at 9:00 a. m. Other discussion included the success of the recent membership coffee, and the fashion show and luncheon March 24 at the Langford Hotel in Winter Park. Reservations for the luncheon must be in to representatives by March 20.

Plans for a benefit card party in April are still not definite, and will be announced at a later date.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. I. M. Rowell Jr. Others attending were Mrs. Jean Runyan, Mrs. Sue Hobbitt, Mrs. James Shaffer, Mrs. Glenn Hatch, Mrs. Floyd Harris, Mrs. Jack Strickling, Mrs. Pete Peters, Mrs. William Crawford, Mrs. Dale Shover, Mrs. David Canning and Mrs. Carl Tegfeldt.

Today's Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK — An opinion, as they say, please the proboscis but you've got to prove it in the world of sports.

If anybody named Algenon, Fawcett or even Oscar ever won the heavyweight championship of the world it has escaped the historians of the ring. And nobody named Aubrey or Chelmondslay stands out in memory as a muscular jarve!

Which brings up to the titles of the hayburners nominated for the Kentucky Derby that, from the sound of the monickers, are more likely to end up in a photo finish at the race factory.

There are some likely sounding candidates for the race run. Such as, "a one man's opinion," stands named Kentucky Pride, Kentucky King, "Jaw," Reward, Liberty Bells, and "and of Slick, Silky Sullivan."

Other Names

But get a load of some of these others:

Coasting — Which he'll probably do all the way.

Whodunnit — Really murder.

Spring Training — If he could run he'd be with the Yankees.

Chances if Tony — Sure to roll boxes.

Fee Wee — No place among giants.

Hubcap — Might go well at Indianapolis.

The Shoe — Half-soleed.

Bolero U—No samba in the Derby; it's all rock n' roll.

Gene Fishin'—They'll wish he had.

Loose Money — Will take all you've got.

Ambitwit — Netwit fourth and last place.

Jealous — Rightfully so.

Dragon Killer—Centuries late.

Hit the Trail—Bum.

Red Hot Plan — Needs a bullet proof vest in this company.

Advice Cautious

There are many more such horrible handles among the 140 oat churners nominated to the Kentucky classic and you'd think the owners would be a little more careful of their currency. Because a look at the list of Derby winners indicates that winners sound, as well as run, like champions.

There is an earplugging touch of greatness about such as Count Fleet, Exterminator, War Admiral, Whirlaway, Bold Venture, Flying Ebony, Sunbeams and others who took the blanket or roses.

But get a load of these monstrously-named nags who failed in the past:

Hankrupt — Blows more he said?

Boila Boala, a blues song finishing out of the money; Burt Cork who left his backers blue as well as black; Dogpatch, he was; Honey's Albi who needed one; Kentucky Farmer who should have stayed on one; Lost Cause, aptly named; Mr. Mutt, a real dog finishing 18th; Tanner, who should have been in one; The Nut, a real squirrel; Star Gaster, who did; Watermelon Indeed, and Patches which is what those who bet on him had after he finished 10th.

So, just to prove my point conclusively and show how absolutely infallible is this theory of great names, pay no attention to the winner of the 18th Derby. He was lucky to win, eased up by two lengths. Oh, yes, his name it was "Vagrant."

MAXIM WILL TOUR
STUTTGART, Germany — Joey Maxim of Cleveland, former world light-heavyweight champion, will open a European tour here April 3 against a German boxer still to be chosen, it was announced today. His opponent may be Hans Kahlfeldt, the German heavy-weight champion.

TRIPLE CROWN
NEW YORK — The Columbia Broadcasting System will telecast and broadcast exclusively the 1933 triple crown races for three-year-old horses. The series includes the Kentucky Derby, May 3, the Preakness, May 17, and the Belmont Stakes, June 7.

Number One Role In NCAA Carnival Is Up For Grabs

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

Dayton's favorite in the National Invitation Tournament, but who do you like in the big NCAA Major-College Basketball Tournament? West Virginia? Cincinnati? Kansas State?

The No. 1 role in the 24-team NCAA carnival is up for grabs today — for the first time in the last three years. In 1927 North Carolina (the winner) and Kansas were stand-out choices and in 1928 San Francisco was heavily favored for its second straight crown.

But in this year's tourney, opening with eight first-round games Tuesday night, any one of a half-dozen teams could be called the favorite.

How about Temple, which has the nation's longest winning streak, 23 games? Or San Francisco, rated the class of the West Coast with 20 straight wins?

Before these questions can be answered, the NCAA must settle its two unfiled berths by play-off games.

California and Oregon State clash tonight at Eugene, Ore., for the Pacific Coast Conference championship and journey berth. Oregon State muffed its chance to clinch the crown Saturday night when it lost to Idaho, 62-53.

California and Oregon State clash tonight at Eugene, Ore., for the Pacific Coast Conference championship and journey berth. Oregon State muffed its chance to clinch the crown Saturday night when it lost to Idaho, 62-53.

SMU and Arkansas, who tied for the Southwest Conference championship, play for that crown Tuesday night at Shreveport, La. Indiana, West Virginia, Maryland, and Wyoming all clinched NCAA berths Saturday night. In Indiana nipped Michigan State, 75-72, on State's court to win the head-and-head duel for the Big Ten championship. Maryland upset defending NCAA champion North Carolina, 86-74, in the finals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament at Raleigh, N.C. West Virginia romped, 74-58, over William and Mary in the finals of the Southern Conference Tournament at Richmond, Va., the Mountaineers' 36th straight win over a league rival.

Wyoming "backed into" the Skyline Conference title, bowing a 13-55 decision to Montana but clinching anyway when second-place Colorado State took a 103-79 shellacking from NIT-bound Utah.

The NCAA Tournament opens Tuesday with the following games: at New York: Maryland - Boston College; West Virginia - Manhattan; Connecticut - Dartmouth; at Evanston, Ill.: Miami - Ohio - Pittsburgh; Tennessee Tech - Notre Dame; at Stillwater, Okla.: Oklahoma State - Loyola La.; at Berkeley, Calif.: Wyoming - Seattle; Idaho St. - Arizona St. Tuesday winners, plus the eight conference champions who draw first-round byes, go into four regional tournaments Friday and Saturday.

The NIT, with all games at New York's Madison Square Garden, opens Thursday night.

The NCAA Small-College Tournament opened last week with regional eliminations and the eight regional winners qualified to play in the championship tournament at Evanston, Ill., Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Heading the qualifiers was defending champion of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Wake Forest, which defeated Wake Forest, 32-28, in the final round. The 32-team, NAIA small-college opens its week-long grind today at Kansas City. Eight first-rounders are scheduled today and eight Tuesday.

AMERICAN WINS
MOSCOW — Tommy Kono of Sacramento, Calif., defeated Fedor Bogdanovskiy of Russia Sunday in a middleweight weight-lifting match. Kono lifted a total of 918.5 pounds to 907.5 for his rival.

BELL LOSSES
CASABLANCA — Cherif Hamia of France, the European featherweight champion, took a 10-round decision from Bobby Bell of Youngstown, Ohio, Saturday night.

Higgins Is Having Infield Troubles

By LEO E. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor

SARASOTA, Fla. — Ever since he took over the Boston Red Sox in 1925, Mike Higgins has been plagued with infield troubles. He shook his head sadly today as he admitted that it looked like it would be a problem again this coming season.

"There's one big difference though," he said, his sun-tanned face breaking into a grin. "That's that guy in the batting cage right now."

Mixed Tag Team Match On 3 Bout Wrestling Card

Amazing Rocco, the jumping sensation, will meet Gorgeous George Grand in the main event of the wrestling show here at the National Guard Armory Thursday night.

The National Guard has switched its weekly wrestling matches to Thursday nights. Last Saturday the Guardsmen had their first show here and were highly pleased with the turnout.

Guardsmen announced that a mixed tag team match also will be on the three bout card.

Blonde Sandra Radcliffe, the Mae West of wrestling, and her partner, Doran O'Hara, will meet Ida Foster and Karl (Swede) Karlson.

In the matches here last Saturday night Doran O'Hara was declared the winner when the Gorgeous one was disqualified. Prince Moolah won over Miss Foster while Jim Wright and Bill Strozier wrestled to a draw.

Wright and Strozier also combined forces to outwit Happy Humphrey, the World's biggest wrestler. They pushed Humphrey out of the ring, hid the ladder and Humphrey, who claims to weigh 750 pounds, couldn't get back into the ring.

Justice, My Brother

CHAPTER 24

RETURNING to the home place was the last thought in my mind, yet I had no other place to go. The dawn finally arrived, along with the busy sun and the promise of early heat. I edged clear around Higgins place, and Mooney's, on the chance that they might be able to shoot a little straighter than Randolph in the daylight.

When I passed Everett's soddy, I stopped for a look. Everett's wagon was not there and I figured that his wife and children had stayed on in town.

"Don't know why, but I felt drawn to the place. I eased in, dismounting in the yard. After trying my horse to the fence, I walked toward the barn, stopping before I got there. There was a fresh mound near the south wall, Wade Everett's grave, and I could just see his wife digging that, weeping and digging until finally it was finished. I went in the barn for a look around. Everett didn't have much, either in the way of tools or fodder. A look at the rafters pointed out the one on which he had been hung; the wood was worn sick when the rope had chafed while he thrashed about. And then I found the rope. It was just any kind of rope, like you would find on a well bucket. This was a cattleman's rope, yet it was more than that too. It was a rope that pointed a finger just as surely as if Wade Everett were doing it from the grave. For the rope belonged to Luther O'Dare!

Quickly I opened my shirt and stuffed it inside as though afraid God would look down and identify it too.

I stood there, letting my doubts and suspicions have their way with me, and forgive me, I made up as good a case against Luther as any prosecutor could have. Luther couldn't have had a better motive: anger. And a desire to strike back, to revenge himself.

Cord had always said that he'd hang the man found with one of our steers; suspicion would fall Cord's way and Luther knew that. The rest? His absence and the rope would make a definite impression on a jury.

Overland said, "He scratched his whiskers. Let me see now. Luther was on the peck about something. Let into Cord. A lot I didn't understand. Cord backed him down and Luther stomped out of here." Overland carefully refilled his shot glass. "Something wrong, Smokey?"

"Wade Everett was killed last night around dark."

"Too bad," Overland said. "I didn't know the man at all. Never had truck with farmers."

"There's going to be a lot of trouble," I said. "The farmers have sent to Oklahoma City for a marshal."

"O.K.?" Overland's tone was careful. "He going to investigate the killing?"

"And the rustling too," I said. "Cord mentioned that you've shipped a few head from here, time to time."

"Might have," Overland said. "He placed his hands on the edge of the bar. 'Wouldn't ask too many questions, was I you. Might get some answers you wouldn't like.'"

I couldn't have agreed more, but there is something in a man that makes him search for the truth, even when it hurts the most. "Why don't you try me?"

"Well," Overland said, "you're an O'Dare and I guess blood's thicker than water. I've shipped a few head now and then for Luther. Young neifers, mostly. Just set out a lantern and the train'd stop." He put out his hand and took me by the arm. "Don't look so palefaced, boy. Surely you know..."

"I did know," I yelled. "And Cord all the time threatening to hang..."

"Whos, whos there," Overland said softly. "Cord knew, toward the last." Overland said, "you're a O'Dare and I guess blood's thicker than water. I've shipped a few head now and then for Luther. Young neifers, mostly. Just set out a lantern and the train'd stop." He put out his hand and took me by the arm. "Don't look so palefaced, boy. Surely you know..."

THE CARD OF THANKS
 Very often a Card of Thanks in the Sanford Herald meets a need which is difficult to fill in any other way. Not only is it a gracious expression of gratitude to those who have sent floral tributes but also courteously acknowledges the services and kindnesses of the many to whom a personal note of thanks cannot be mailed.
 Newspaper Cards of Thanks are accepted so socially correct. Emily Post, the noted authority on etiquette, feels they serve many good uses.
 There is no prescribed form for a Card of Thanks. It can be as brief or as detailed as you desire. When the occasion comes you will find a sympathetically understanding member of our staff to assist you.
THE "IN MEMORIAM" NOTICE
 It is the custom of many families in this country to commemorate a bereavement by an "In Memoriam" notice in newspaper classified columns. They find a real solace therein. Preparation or selection of a suitable verse brings back to them tender, pleasant recollections. An Eliza Cook, the English poet has so beautifully expressed it:
 "How cruelly sweet are the echoes that start
 What memory plays an old tune
 Most frequently an In Memoriam is inserted on the anniversary of death. However, other dates, which it is felt are appropriate or meaningful are also selected. The birthday of the departed, the wedding anniversary, Memorial Day, even Christmas are among other significant occasions chosen.
 If you are hesitant to express your tender thoughts in poetic form, you may avail yourself of the Herald's collection of original verses. These express in poetic beauty the emotions of the heart-strings. Among them are verses appropriate to any circumstance.
THE RATE
 Cards of Thanks and In Memoriam notices, due to the fact they may run to considerable length, are billed at $1.00 per column inch.

Committee Draws Up List Answering Criticism Of Foreign Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (UP)—Foreign aid chiefs admitted today they once sent an electronic microscope to a recipient who had not electricity to run it. It worked all right through. They just built a power plant to furnish the current.

At the same time they told Congress they did not either use foreign aid funds to:

—Conduct a Klosey-type survey of sex habits in India.

—Build roads in Iran to nowhere.

—Furnish collapsible toothpaste tubes in Cambodia.

—Build a village in Italy in which no one wanted to live.

The village, they said, is "definitely inhabited."

Moreover, the officials said, there was a very good reason for doing some of the other things they did and for which they've been criticized.

—Put $48,000,000 into a sort of retirement program for 80,000 of Chinese Nationalist Chief Chiang Kai-shek's over-age soldiers so younger men could take their places. But they said this wasn't for pensions no matter what has been alleged.

—Bull bathrooms on small lots in Manila, hoping that the Filipinos would build houses around them. Although the plan didn't catch on, the Philippine government later made good use of the plumbing. It built the houses around them itself for minimum rent occupancy.

—Made a survey of the reproduction of a Latin-American flower "which could reasonably be mistaken as ornamental" because it also is useful as a hamp and burlap substitute.

The denial, explanation and rebuttals were contained in a volume formally answering a list of 38 questions and criticisms of the foreign aid program. The list was drawn up by the House Foreign Affairs Committee and submitted to the International Cooperation Administration.

Use Delayed

The ICA acknowledged it sent two electronic microscopes to the Philippines and that use of one—at the University of the Philip-ines at Los Banos—was delayed because of a lack of power.

When the anticipated power source failed to deliver, the ICA said the United States helped the university build its own generating plant and "here's plenty of power for other needs."

answered some of the 38 charges including claims it sent iceboxes to Eskimos, not true; provided striped pants for Greek under-liners, another falsehood—it was shoes for Greek soldiers; and built public baths for Egyptians camel drivers, a half truth—the baths were for everybody, to help stamp out hookworm.

A 75-YEAR-OLD NEGRO was burned to death in a frame dwelling late yesterday afternoon. Firemen brought flames, which gutted the building, under control quickly and discovered Charlie Reed in the small bathroom of the rented home at 709 Pine Ave. (Staff Photo)

Board Authorizes Five Additions To Gas Franchise

Five additions to a proposed franchise to be tendered to the Sanford Gas Company were authorized Monday night by the Board of Sanford City Commissioners. Commissioners authorized the City Attorney, William C. Hutchinson Jr., to prepare the proposed franchise for possible delivery to the local gas company organization.

The proposed document is a similar legal agreement to that used by DeLand in recent negotiations for operations there. However, city commissioners changed the details to include a 20-year franchise instead of 30 years; included the city of Sanford's right to inspect lines, require company to work in public property, include no automatic renewal clause, and include the right to audit books regarding utility tax that must be paid within a stated time or the franchise becomes null and void.

Other business completed by the lengthy session Monday night included a policy to eliminate advertising signs on the block fence surrounding Seminole Memorial Baseball stadium; heard a report from the Sanford Boat and Ski Club that it could not use the Yacht Club building due to a time requirement for all improvements to be completed; and authorized the renewal of a five-year bus franchise with the Yellow Cab Company of Sanford.

Negro Man Burns To Death In Home

A 75-year-old Negro man burned to death late yesterday afternoon in his frame dwelling on Pine Street.

Charlie Reed was found slumped down in a corner of the bathroom against the door apparently dead from his burning clothing.

The three-room frame dwelling was a shambles from fire of unknown origin. Investigators believe that there are possibilities that the flames started when Charlie Reed stood on the porch of his rented home. He was seen to go into the dwelling at about the time fire was discovered.

Apparently saturated with kerosene from an exploding oil stove, Charlie Reed, known to be deaf, sought the shelter of the small bathroom either from the fire or in a frantic effort to get possible valuable belongings.

Chief Mack N. Cleveland Sr. heading his fire fighters quickly doused the blazes that had fully involved the house and had gutted two rooms of the frame home.

Firemen, cutting into the room with fire axes, found the Negro man dead.

Chief Cleveland said that it is hard to determine just exactly how the fire started. However, he said that there are possibilities that Charlie Reed lit his kerosene stove, stepped out on the porch to talk with neighbors, and went back into the home walking into a wall of flame.

The fire occurred shortly after 5 o'clock.

Charlie Reed was a familiar figure around Sanford. He formerly worked as a janitor at Hopper

Dulles Says U. S. Willing To Attend 'Summit' Meet

MANILA (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today the United States is willing to attend a "summit" meeting if there is hope of reaching a disarmament agreement and of relaxing world tension.

Dulles, in a major policy pronouncement at a Big Three foreign ministers conference here, said the present world tension has "brought us close to the sparks of world war on more than one occasion."

Dulles met today with French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd to consolidate their stand on Russia's propaganda-laden calls for a summit conference and to study the threatening situation in Indonesia.

Dulles also told his nervous Asian allies attending a SEATO conference here the United States has no intention of softening its strong stand against the recognition of Red China and its admission to the United Nations.

He told the eight SEATO nations that the United States forcefully stated its policy on Red China a year ago, that this policy remains unchanged "and I can also state that this reasoning will continue to dictate United States policy in this matter."

The repeated Soviet call for a summit conference was the main topic of Big Three conversation today. Both Pineau and Lloyd stated flatly they would discuss have considered too unyielding on his position.

Both Pineau and Lloyd were agreed with Dulles on the major issue—that a summit conference or the failure to call one must not be allowed to turn into a Communist propaganda victory. How to prevent this has not yet been decided.

A spokesman said the United States will not agree to a summit conference unless advance preparations make the chances good for agreement on at least one of the three major East-West problems—disarmament.

Both Pineau and Lloyd were agreed with Dulles on the major issue—that a summit conference or the failure to call one must not be allowed to turn into a Communist propaganda victory. How to prevent this has not yet been decided.

SHS Talent Will Entertain Longwood C of C Tomorrow

Members of the Longwood Area Chamber of Commerce will be offered an opportunity at their meeting tomorrow night at 8 o'clock to hear a varied musical program that will feature some of Seminole High School's most versatile talent.

The well-known, popular Triple Trio will be heard in a group of several numbers and a newly organized quartette billed as "The Counts" will feature Pat Donahoe on the guitar, Gregory Walker on the drums with vocal aid from Teddy Walker and Wally Phillips Jr. The four young men scored a big hit recently at an appearance at the Mayfair Inn and are re-booked there Saturday night. They offer unusual arrangements of some of their own compositions in addition to other popular numbers.

The Triple Trio, which has scored big hits in many local appearances, is made up of: first soprano, Linda Anderson, Evie Kraetzner and Eileen Vihlen; second soprano, Linda Yeackle, Connie Brown and Shirley Morgan while the altos are Marcia Looschell, Marcia Bunnarner and Janice Eitzen. Their accompanist is Edith Hanson.

A period of community singing under the leadership of Charlie Morrison with Mrs. Lulu Bailey at the piano, will conclude the program which will be staged in the library, on Church St.

Last Month's Sales Tax Collections Are Higher

An indication of continuing "good business" in Sanford and Seminole County is reflected in a release from the office of Ray E. Green, State Comptroller, reporting on sales tax collections for February based on January sales.

Green said that, statewide, there was a 32.2 per cent increase in sales tax collections over the comparable month last year. However, the report indicated that the collections, compared with the previous month, showed a decrease of 17.7 per cent.

Total sales tax collections this fiscal year, July through February, amount to $1,440,339, a 37.9 per cent increase over the amount collected during the same period last year.

In Seminole County, the sales tax collections for February, based on January sales, totaled $29,906.51 as compared with the $29,374.20 collected during the same month last year.

The collections in February of this year show an increase over the previous year of approximately 26 per cent.

February sales tax collections, based on sales in January, show a drop from the previous month of $11,400.39. However, the previous month's collections were based on the December collections and the heavy Christmas trade experienced in this area.

Green stated in his report "There are reports of improvement in business and it is hoped that collections for the coming months will reflect this improvement. I continue to remain optimistic about the future economic condition of the state."

Firm To Purchase French Avenue Site From City

Lee Brothers Plumbing and Heating has accepted the offer of the Sanford City Commission and will purchase French Ave. frontage and a storage area nearby for the sum of $13,333.

Harry Lee Jr., in a letter to Sanford City Manager Warren E. Knowles, said that the offer is accepted "with the added stipulation that unless we begin construction of our facilities within one year from date of sale the city shall have the option of repurchase at the sale price."

The City of Sanford has also agreed that the sanitary landfill operation will continue on the storage area tract so that the area may be reclaimed and used.

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners instructed City Attorney William C. Hutchinson Jr. and City Manager Knowles to draw up the necessary papers for the sale and authorized Mayor Merle Warner to sign the documents.

The city, however, has agreed to set aside the money derived from the sale of the city property to Lee Brothers for investment over a one year period. This move, commissioners said, is to protect the city should the city's option on the property be necessary.

Elk's Add Shed, 4 Barbecue Pits To Playground

The Elk's Club Playground Committee reported today that additions to the playground in Port Mellon Park have been completed and are now in use.

John Pope, Jimmie Hoolehan, and Ralph Wight, the committee, said that a shed and four barbecue pits have been added to the playground facilities adjacent to the municipal swimming pool.

Indications point to heavy use of these facilities, the committee said, which "makes us extremely happy."

"We ask that everyone who uses the facilities will leave the area in the same condition in which they found it," the committee said.

Two containers for trash and refuse will be added to the present facilities for those who use the playground, and as an aid in keeping the area free from litter and trash.

First Emergency Shipment Of Hay Received Tuesday

The first shipment of hay for the emergency feeding of Seminole County cattle was received yesterday.

One carload, consigned to W. G. Kilbee of Geneva and Henry Wight of Sanford, was unloaded on a downtown spur yesterday afternoon.

Three other cars were unloaded yesterday, one in Oviedo for Mrs. Annie Jacobs of Chuluota and two cars at Maitland for B. C. Dodd of Goldenrod.

James Gut Named VFW Commander

James Gut Jr., Sanford insurance man, was named commander of VFW Post 3282 at a meeting held Monday night for the special election.

Gut will serve as commander of the post for the balance of the present term.

The special election was necessary because of the resignation of George DeMatto due to pressure of business.

Commander Gut said "We will all pull together to build VFW Post 3282."

"I urge all members to get all veterans of foreign wars to affiliate with us," said the new commander.

Gut also urged all members to support the party that is being given at the VFW home on Highway 17-92 Friday night.

ACL Head To Speak At C of C Banquet

Tom Rice, president of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, will be the principal speaker at the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet.

This will be the ACL President's first visit to Sanford, and according to a spokesman, the first visit of an ACL president to the Sanford area in modern history.

Merwin Crandall, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Banquet Committee, said yesterday that the annual banquet has been set for Apr. 27, 7 p. m., in the new Sanford Civic Center.

Crandall said that this year's banquet will be the biggest get-together of the local Chamber of Commerce in the history of the local organization.

"Plans up to this point are incomplete," said Crandall, "but we hope to name all subcommittees and announce our final plans in the near future."

Rice, youthful and energetic president of the sprawling ACL system, is much in demand because of his unprecedented program, "and we are fortunate that he has been able to set aside this one day to speak to Sanford and Seminole County people," said Crandall.

Another first will be accomplished too, in that it will be the initial meeting of its kind slated for the new Civic Center building.

Carter Installed As Vice President Of Circle K Club

John C. Carter, Sanford freshman at the Southern Union College, has received his official installation as vice president of the newly organized Circle K International club at SUC.

Carter was installed by Kiwanis Lieutenant Governor Ralph D. Gaines Jr., who was also speaker for the evening. Douglas Wasson is president of the sponsoring Kiwanis Club of Wadley, and vice president of SUC.

Complete Kitchen Taken From Homes

"They're very brazen about it," said Special Investigator Verne Brewster of the Seminole County Sheriff's office when he reported that burglars had taken complete kitchen equipment from two homes in south Seminole County.

"It used to be they took everything but the kitchen sink, and now it seems they're going to take that too, as well as the range."

Two homes, brand new, and still unoccupied at 600 and 605 Uranium Ave. in the Oakland Shores subdivision, were entered sometime during the early hours of yesterday morning, Brewster reported.

The way Brewster put it "They ripped the oven out of its cabinet, cut wires with a heavy pair of pliers, pulled the table top stove out of the cabinet, and carried off the Frigidaire refrigerator."

Loss is estimated at $1240, said Brewster.

Burglars gained entrance to the first home by forcing a door and unlocking a jalousie. At the second home, he said, they made entry through a window by kicking the screen off and turning the handle of the window.

"From the tracks they left it looks as if a pickup truck was used by bringing it up a side street and parking it near an orange grove," said the Special Investigator.

"It had to take some time to do the job for they carried the appliances to the truck by hand; even leaving tracks where they set the refrigerator down to rest," he said.

Vern Gallagher, one of the owners of Oakland Shores subdivision, reported the instance to the Seminole County Sheriff's office.

"Investigation will continue," said Brewster.

Lt. J. Langford Places Second In Speech Contest

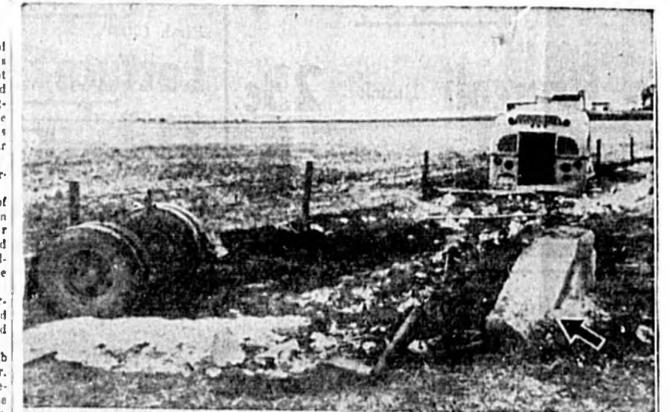

Lt. Jack Langford of Sanford placed second in the Toastmaster's International Area Speech contest held recently at the Langford Hotel in Winter Park. Lt. Langford represented the Seminole Toastmaster's Club. Winner was Bernard Kutchin of Patrick Air Force Base.

Six Toastmaster's Clubs participated from area five.

On Saturday afternoon each of the six representatives was given a choice of subjects. Their speeches were presented at the banquet, that night, attended by members and wives of the Toastmaster's Clubs.

Lt. Langford chose "Do It Yourself" as his subject, and attacked the topic from a patriotic and spiritual angle.

The Seminole Toastmaster's Club was formed officially in October. There are 24 active members, determined to improve their poise and aptitude for public speaking.
