

RAIL WORKERS' PAY WILL BE UPPED JULY 1

Two Groups Agree On Restoration Of 25 Percent Of Cut In Effect 2 Years

WASHINGTON, Apr. 25.—(AP)—Railroad labor and managers today agreed on a restoration July 1, of two and one-half percent of the wage reduction which has been in effect for two years.

An additional five percent will be returned Jan. 1, and another two and one-half percent Aug. 1, of next year. Wages of railroad labor were trimmed last summer, which is now in effect.

"We have agreed in this agreement to comply with the wish of the President of the United States in the interest of national recovery," said A. F. Whitney, chairman of the Labor Executive Association.

"We faced the choice of reaching a settlement with our employees or carrying the wage controversy to a conclusion under the law, with its attendant uncertainty and disturbing effects," said a statement issued by W. F. Thibault, chairman of the Conference Committee of Managers.

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad authorities here declared that the pay restoration agreement will mean that the total monthly salaries of approximately 200 white and colored Coast Line workers in this area will be increased by approximately $1013, since the present monthly payroll is in the neighborhood of $45,000.

Almost every worker will be affected by the agreement, it was learned at the depot this afternoon, there being only a few employees who do not come under its terms.

WASHINGTON IS SILENT ON JAPANESE POLICY

World Eagerly Awaits Word As To Stand To Be Taken By U.S.

The strained international situation caused by Japan's pronouncement of a "Monroe doctrine" policy toward China was brought before President Roosevelt Tuesday but Washington remained silent.

It was one of the subjects for discussion between the President and Secretary of State Hull. What step, if any, the United States would take on the delicate question was awaited anxiously in London, Tokyo, Nanking and other capitals.

Great Britain's request for an amplification of Japan's statement was formally delivered in Tokyo.

Earlier, a spokesman for the Japanese foreign office said, "Our statement has been made. Let others read it as they will."

START TOWARD TREATY NAVY TO BEGIN SOON

Construction Of 20 Of 95 Ships Needed To Give U. S. Adequate Fleet Due By Aug. 1

WASHINGTON, Apr. 25.—(AP)—Within four months, the Administration expects to start building 20 of the 95 ships needed to give the United States a fleet second to no other navy in the world.

President Roosevelt let it be known yesterday that the billion and a half dollar appropriation bill he will submit to Congress shortly will provide money for initial construction in the treaty Navy program.

That bill, said Chairman Vinson of the House Naval Committee, will carry about $10,000,000 for the first year's work on six submarines of 1300 tons, 12 destroyers of 1500 tons, and two destroyers of 1850 tons.

"We expect to spend actually only about $17,000,000 the first year," Vinson said, "but the $10,000,000 would provide a safe way."

"The $10,000,000 either will be appropriated directly for naval construction, or the President will be given the right to allocate the money for that purpose."

Judge Ware Is Winner Of Debate With Vivian Speer On Homestead Exemption Act

Kiwanian R. W. Ware, former municipal judge who went before members of the Sanford Kiwanis Club, meeting at the Montezuma Hotel yesterday noon, to argue in favor of the proposed Homestead Exemption Act, was named as winner of his debate with Kiwanian Vivian A. Speer, who chose the negative side of the question "Should We Endorse the Homestead Exemption Act?"

Judge Ware's views were approved by 23 of the 36 Kiwanians attending the meeting which was one of the more interesting of several recently held.

The winner discussed his affirmative views in the light of the beneficial effect passage of the Homestead Act will have upon the people in general. Mr. Speer argued these points, but his arguments were based more upon the possible effect of the Act upon the people of Sanford.

Each speaker referred to a sale tax as the only means of raising funds for general operating costs in cities, towns, counties, and the state, and while Judge Ware endorsed a tax on that subject after the final abandonment of all realty taxes, Mr. Speer expressed the belief that it would be another tax on the people.

SENATE BODY OKEY'S MOORE AS COLLECTOR

Action Spells Defeat For Objections That Had Been Raised By Senator Huey Long

WASHINGTON, Apr. 25.—(AP)—The Senate Finance Committee today approved the nomination of Daniel Moore as internal Revenue collector at New Orleans.

It was reported by Senator Huey Long, and the nomination was the subject of a long and spirited hearing, but a committee action was taken without a vote, and Chairman Hamden Childs said he expected the Senate to confirm the nomination by a large majority.

Meanwhile, President Roosevelt's Secretary of State Hull is expected to refer to the Department's attitude toward the new Moore's policy. Their report comes as a result of a study of the President also today ordered a special study of the Vinson bill proposing a 10 percent reduction in the cigarette tax.

On a three to two vote a House committee that went into anti-trust allegations by Dr. William West decided to report that his assertions are unjustified.

Young Daughter Of Rich, Old Arizona Family Is Kidnaped

TEUCOON, Ariz., Apr. 25.—(AP)—Kidnaped and held for $10,000 ransom, six-year-old June (Dolly) was sought today by the state police who once captured John Dillinger, and they were aided by scores of ranchers and mounted rangers with "six shooters."

The little girl was abducted yesterday afternoon as she was returning from school. A man drove off in an automobile, called to her, she got away when he entered the car.

Two hours later, Josephine Estrada, a small boy, brought the girl, father, Fernando Robles, member of a wealthy old Arizona family, a highly prized possession, demanding $10,000 for the ransom of the girl and warning the police not to let her abduction to the authorities.

GROWING UNREST IN INDUSTRIAL AREAS REPORTED

Workers In Steel, Auto Plants Quit Jobs In Protest Over Wages

Cleveland on a starvation gasoline diet and threatened with a taxcut strike, Birmingham steel workers quitting the furnaces, Chicago miners walking out and in again, more automobile workers abandoning their jobs—these were manifestations of growing industrial unrest around the map Wednesday.

Happier music was the tooting of whistles over the Alabama coal mines signaling the end of two weeks of idleness. Miners and operators said they were in "complete accord," and the first hundreds returned to work of the 21,000 who had been on strike.

But as the coal diggers flowed back, six miners, 8000 strong served notice of a strike and 400 employees of the Republic Steel Company at East Thomas, Ala., packed up and went home, protesting they were denied the right of collective bargaining.

ST. PAUL DROPS OFFICER WHO AIDED BANDIT

City Official Dressed Dillinger's Wounds After Bank Holdup He Is Still At Large

ST. PAUL, Apr. 25.—(AP)—With the suspension of St. Paul's city health officer today it became known that both John Dillinger and his First Lieutenant John Hamilton, were wounded while raiding the First National Bank at Mason City, Iowa, March 13.

Dr. N. G. Morgenson was suspended after federal agents disclosed Dr. Morgenson had been forced to dress the wounds Dillinger and Hamilton suffered at Mason City.

This was the first time they had been definitely connected with that holdup which netted seven machine gun bandits $52,000.

The troop of federal agents stalking Dillinger through the Middle West believed last night that the outlaw could be only a few hours ahead.

Meantime citizens of Merced, Wis., whence Dillinger and his henchmen escaped Sunday, were signing a petition condemning the effort to capture the outlaw at the Little Bohemia resort, an avenue bungled.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

OMNIPOTENT CARE: The Lord shall observe thy going out, and thy coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore. Psalm 121:8.

One thing which seems to have been overlooked on veterans' legislation. It tends to keep us out of new wars.

We understand there is a man named Crook running against Mark Wilson, but after all, what is a name?

We are developing big game hunting in the United States. For instance, there's Dillinger in Wisconsin.

Japan is about the cockiest little half pint we ever saw. It's hardly worth fussing about, but that country deserves a good barking at.

Somehow or other we can't get interested in this Cannon trial. It is such ancient history that one wonders whether a Cannon even existed in those days.

A town a hundred years old in this country is an ancient city. Rome, capital of Italy, Mississippi back yard, celebrated its 265th anniversary the other day. That goes back to wolf milk.

A bill has been introduced in Congress proposing to cut the cigarette tax by forty percent. Most people don't know that six cents out of every fifteen cents they pay for a package of cigarettes go to the federal government.

A bridge expert advises that one should never criticize a partner, but adds in the same breath that he knows he is asking too much. Plant City Courier. He should begin by suggesting that you never throw anything at your partner.

The lawyer explained that the woman shot her husband at close range. Then there must have been powder marks on the body, said the judge. "Sure," said the lawyer, "that's why she shot him." Lake Wales Highlander. Served him right.

Secretary Wallace says that the A. A. A. is "the first crude effort" to give the farmer a New Deal. One wonders, if slaughtering little pigs and plowing under thousands of acres of wheat and cotton under government orders is the first crude effort, what will the second be?

In New Jersey a tailor named Jacob Magod, has been put in jail because he pressed a suit of clothes for 35 cents, while the NBA code demands that 40 cents be charged. This is a part of the enforcement problem which the NBA is encountering. Customers of Jacob Magod, who were glad to save five cents a suit on their pressing bills, may wish those who charge more would be put in jail.

There is a good deal of favorable publicity going out about the new boom in Florida. National magazines carry the story of the huge sums left in this state by tourists, of real estate deals being made after a lapse of seven or eight years, of renewed business prosperity. All this is extremely optimistic and encouraging, but we doubt if there is much truth in it except in certain Florida communities where they get the benefit of tourist business. The vast majority of Florida towns and Florida people are still finding it pretty tough sledding. All this propaganda about prosperous Florida will not help in the effort to obtain relief funds and public works appropriations from the federal government which are apt to be spent in those places where the need seems to be the greatest.

Silver Speculators

Recent disclosures made to the Senate by the Treasury Department, revealing the names of over a thousand individual and corporate owners of silver stocks, only go to prove what we have often contended that under the influences of such inflationary legislation as contemplated by the Dies bill, the rich get richer and the poor get poorer.

Bimetallists and silver advocates in general have always argued that silver is the money of the common people and that gold is the money of the rich. They insist that silver legislation will destroy the money power of Wall Street and put dollars into the pockets of the man in the street.

But if it is true that silver is the money of the common people, it should be interesting to know who owns the silver in this country. So the Senate called for an investigation and a report has been made by the Treasury Department. It has been discovered that the people who own the silver are the same people who owned the gold before the government took it away from them, and the same people who control all the other kinds of money in the United States.

Prominent on the list of silver owners reviewed by the United States Senate was the National City Bank, formerly headed by Charles Mitchell, the man who was tried last year for dodging income taxes. This bank owns 7,594,166 ounces of silver, and 50 long and 329 short future contracts of 25,000 ounces each.

Other prominent silver holders are the Continental Can Co.; Atwater Kent, of radio fame; James P. Warburg, prominent New York banker; the wife of Jonett Shouse, formerly the chairman of the Democratic National Executive Committee; Joseph P. Tumulty, one time secretary to President Wilson; William Jennings Bryan, Jr., son of the Commoner, Hariss and Vose, New York commission merchants, and so forth. As far as we can learn no "men in the street" are among them.

Under the terms of the silver legislation which these men propose, the value of silver would be increased from the present price of approximately 40 cents an ounce to $1.29 cents an ounce. That would give them a rather substantial profit on their holdings. But the man who owns no silver could not benefit in this way. How many of us own any silver?

The only effect which the average man would feel from silver legislation of this sort would be the burden of constantly rising prices. In so far as a man has something to sell, this might be a benefit to him, but if the things which he has to buy go up in price as fast or faster than the things he has to sell, he is no better off. And the wage earner, the salaried man, and others with fixed incomes, would find prices rising rapidly with no commensurate increase in income at all.

We do not blame the big rich and the large corporations for buying silver and holding it for a rise in price. If Congress is foolish enough to fix an arbitrary value on silver and to pay good taxpayers' money for it, at three or four times the market price, they would be foolish not to try to cash in on it. But how many poor people have the necessary cash to make such an investment or would know how to go about it if they did have?

We hear complaints almost daily about the fluctuating value of gold money, of "dear" money and "cheap" money, and of how the little fellow gets burned between these two fires. Well, silver money is a hundred times more fluctuating than gold money. It is the speculators' paradise. It is the poor man's hell.

Nor is it meant by this that it hasn't been hell for the past three years, but silver legislation would only make it hotter.

Memorial Day

Sixty-eight years ago today in a little Southern town a group of ladies, many of whom had lost husbands, sons, or fathers in the war which had closed only the year before, gathered together in a solemn march to the cemetery where they decorated the graves of the soldiers buried there.

In some of these graves were the bodies of Union soldiers. The bitterness of the conflict was still fresh in the minds of everyone. There was not a person in the South who had not been called upon for a sacrifice of loved ones or of property. These sacrifices still weighed heavily. But the ladies in this little Southern town placed flowers on the graves of the Blue as well as the Gray.

On the 25th day of every April since that time, this custom has been continued. Everywhere throughout the South, Memorial Day is observed by decorating the graves of the Northern and Southern soldiers who died in that war. It is an especially praiseworthy characteristic of this occasion that tribute is paid to all who participated in the war between the states, living as well as dead.

"So with an equal splendor
The morning sun rays fall,
With a touch impartially tender
On the blossoms blooming for all;
Under the sod and dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Brothered with gold the Blue;
Mellowed with gold the Gray."

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

The Rev. Smith Hardin, presiding elder of the Palatka district, will be in Sanford on Wednesday and will preach at the Methodist Church in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Senator Duncan W. Fletcher returned last night from Washington to remain until after the primary election in June unless recalled to Washington because of urgent Mexico matters which he does not expect. Last night, a representative of the Times-Union, Senator Fletcher said that when he left Washington officials were hopeful of a speedy settlement of the difficulty, without a declaration of war, and that no declaration from Mexico was looked for as press reports from the fighting republic have stated.

Richard B. Watrous, secretary of the American Civic Association, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., gave a splendid illustrated lecture in civic improvement at the Imperial Theater Friday night to an appreciative audience. The lecture was given under the auspices of the City Council, Commercial Club, and Woman's Club. In the afternoon, Mrs. W. J. Perkins, chairman of the County Supervisors, and Mr. R. A. Terhune, chairman of the Welfare Department of the Woman's Club, visited the High School where Professor N. J. Perkins had assembled all the pupils.

OPALOCKA HOLDS UNIQUE PLACE IN MATTER OF DEBT

City Near Miami Has No Bond Problem; People Pay Taxes

Editor's Note: Another of a series on Florida communities, prepared by the Miami Herald and released to Florida papers.

CITY OF OPALOCKA

MIAMI, Apr. 26.—Like an Arabian Nights tale from which its principal architecture was taken, the City of Opalocka is one of those unbelievable boom developments which has no bonded debt and is able to collect its taxes almost in full.

Located northwest of Miami, the city is notable for the location of the great mooring mast to which the arship Macon will tie this month as it rests from its activities with the United States fleet in Caribbean maneuvers. To that mast at the German Graf Zeppelin attached itself when it refueled on its recent trip to the United States. Some day, when the United States Navy builds another arship, Opalocka expects to be its home port. In the meantime, the Goodyear blimp that comes here every winter has a permanent hangar on a golf course in the city.

Opalocka was laid out by the Curtis-Wright Company, and incorporated as a town in 1925. In the following year it changed to the status of a city. Streets and other improvements were paid for by the company, and the Arabian architects, whose gaily painted towers and minarets catch the eye from miles away, was the contribution of a famous architect brought there by the late Glean H. Curtis, who took a personal hand in the building of the community.

Opalocka is one of those rare communities that consistently has spent less money than it received. With operating costs last year of $6,597, the city collected $7,329.88 in taxes. It is worth noting that the tax assessed have dropped steadily from $30,297 in 1927 to $7,208 this year, and that the expenses of police and fire protection and other city functions correspondingly have been reduced. Tax conditions year by year have been practically 100 percent, a record that few other communities in Florida can touch.

In keeping with the other almost fabulous chapters in this city's history, Opalocka has survived the entire Dade county bank failure series with the loss of only $7.37 in these defunct institutions. It has no unfunded debt and operates with four employees. In 1932 the city arranged to buy the water system from the Opalocka company and collect charges for its supply. Previously the city paid for the water and distributed it free, meeting the cost from property tax receipts.

Opalocka does more than maintain its civic structure in a style it can afford. Included in its area is some of the finest muck land of South Florida, and if need be, its 250 inhabitants could be entirely self supporting. In addition to its arship mast and the blimp hangar, the naval reserve flying base has been laid out in Opalocka. Across Gratiuity Road is the Miami municipal field. With no debt, low taxes, fertile truck areas and a grip on the growing air industry, this brain child of Air Explorer Curtis cannot escape a bright destiny.

There may be other more solvent communities in Florida than Opalocka but this study so far has not revealed them.

New U. S. Treasury Vault Doors Hold Deadly Poison Gas

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26.—(AP)—Death by poison gas lurks in huge steel doors the government is setting in place on new vaults in the U. S. Treasury.

A super-burglar who by some miracle penetrated half way through the 30 inches of metal would die quickly and horribly in a cloud of gas generated by chemicals concealed in the doors.

The vaults—Big enough to contain the country as well as huge all the monetary gold stock treasures in silver, currency and securities—will be completed in September at a cost of $390,000. They will form an impregnable monetary fortress as any in the world. Walls are built of concrete and matted steel, 27 inches thick. Lined with metal plates reputedly impervious to tool or torch.

The latest thing in electrical burglar alarms and time locks with a maximum of 96 hours feature the vaults. In tunnels underneath, above and around the vaults, guards will patrol night and day.

The federal reserve vaults in New York City, another super-modern gold fortress, has one feature the Treasury vaults lack. The manhattan money chambers are surrounded by a wall of sea water so that if sappers bent on burglary tried to bore in, they would drown.

'Dead' Dog Rolls Over, Barks While Eating

BERKELEY, Calif., Apr. 26.—(AP)—Rolling over for the first time since he was put to death clinically 12 days ago, a mongrel dog barked and growled while eating his food in a laboratory here yesterday.

Dr. Robert E. Cornish, observing the improvement in the animal's condition, said he believed he might succeed eventually in his experiments to revive human beings after death.

"For the first time, the dog got up on his front feet and barked and growled when he was fed liver," said Dr. Cornish, research professor at the University of California.

"He is getting stronger day by day but I can't tell yet whether his brain, the most vital part, is improving.

"The higher, most intelligent part of the brain doubtless was damaged by death, but we hope that it will show improvement to the extent that consciousness will return."

Scotland Yard Scenes In New Milane Movie

Scotland Yard, a favorite background for authors of murder and detective stories, still remains little understood, even by readers of this school of fiction. The research department of the Metro-Goldwyn Mayer studio, had this clearly brought to the attention when "Mystery of Mr. X," Robert Montgomery's new starring vehicle, which opens today at the Milane Theatre.

Captained by Natalie Bucknall, ex secret service operator from England, the studio's research department was in direct communication with the headquarters of Scotland Yard for the past three months. All information received concerning method of operation in the actual pursuit of a murderer was turned over to Director Edgar Selwyn, and he applied it directly to the new production.

It was learned, for example, that Scotland Yard men never wear uniforms except on state occasions. Otherwise they wear civilian clothing, or effect whatever disguise they wish in their duties. The vast resources of modern radio communication are now in daily use by the Yard. A high-powered broadcasting and receiving station is operated on the top floor of the famous building on Whitehall Street, London. A replica of this station was constructed at Culver City, with a duplication of its furnishings based on photographs and descriptive matter supplied from London.

Sugar Bill Handed To Roosevelt For Okey

WASHINGTON, Apr. 26. (AP)—The controversy over sugar control which has beset the Administration for months was transferred last night from Congress to the White House.

Final action by both Senate and House on the Jones-Costigan Bill, which calls for levying a tax on the sweet to raise the price the producer receives for it, put the measure in shape to go to the White House. Only the formality of signing by Speaker Rainey and Vice President Garner held it on Capitol Hill.

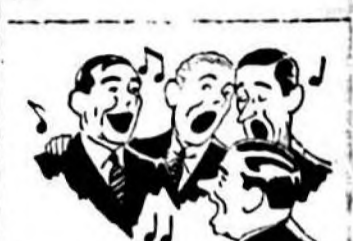

At the White House protests were awaiting the bill. They came from Hawaiian, Puerto Rican and Philippine officials who contended the measure would leave them with surplus sugar stocks on hand, would greatly curtail one of their chief industries and would back great damage upon their economic status.

DEBT PROBLEM IN PLANT CITY NOT BAD CONSIDERING

Strawberry Center On Road To Reasonable Solvency At Last

Plant City today is on the road toward reasonable solvency, considering the time and all it had spent in bonds coming due in 1933. Of those, it paid $25,000, refunded a like amount by the next decade and has enough refunding bonds out to take care of the balance. It also paid $50,150 in interest, which is not doing so poorly for a city of 6,000.

New York, Buffalo Are Windiest Cities In Nation For 1933

CHICAGO, Apr. 23. (AP)—Chicago is called the "Windy City," but the man who first termed it that referred to the kind of wind some use to sell soap and get votes.

A survey conducted recently by Frederick Rex, municipal historian revealed that last year in 21 cities in the United States, having an excess of 100,000 population, Chicago ranked 14th in average wind velocity.

The nickname was one of derision, arising from a battle between four cities for the Colander in 1863. "Don't pay any attention," wrote Charles A. Dana in the New York Sun, "to the non-sensical claims of that windy city."

The name has persisted through the years. New York tied with Buffalo for being the windiest cities in 1933. Each had 98 days during which there was a breeze of 12 miles an hour or more. Cleveland led 70 such days. Chicago's total was only 11.

Los Angeles in "Sunny California" the record showed, was the third foggiest city in the country, having dense fog for 22 days. New York and Portland, Ore., were tied for the lead with 25 each. Chicago, St. Louis, and San Francisco tied for 16th with nine each.

However, Los Angeles led in both sun and clear days.

WHEN one tire outsells any other for nineteen successive years, it must be a better and safer tire and a greater value!

That's the undisputed record of the famous Goodyear All-Weather—and we can show you why.

One big reason is Supertwist Cord in every ply—extra resilience with longer-lasting strength—assuring greater safety from blowouts.

Another big reason is All-Weather traction—long-lasting grip centered where tread and road meet—assuring quicker stops and starts.

Let us demonstrate both these super-qualities. Buy no tire this Spring until you see how tires differ and why more people ride on Goodyear All-Weathers than on any other tire.

carrying its share of the tax burden be soaked to pay the loss sustained by the creation of a privileged class?

"The State of Michigan in the fall of 1932 defeated a $3,000 homestead amendment; the State of Kentucky defeated a proposed constitutional amendment to delegate authority to its legislature to exempt the homestead, and I believe the people of Florida are equally intelligent.

"If the Homestead Amendment passes, we will no longer have equality and uniformity in taxation."

"It is not wise at this time to put ourselves in a position where our bonds cannot be adjusted or refunded."

"Let me tell you why this will be the case; it has been proven in the case of the City of Sanford that the ability to pay will govern the tax burden demanded by our creditors. The percentage of taxes collected each year for the past four years will prove this statement, that they are demanding the maximum collectible. This is so because they do not want our homes, at present; if they acquired our homes under excessive tax levies, they would have to pay taxes levied for operating expenses of the City, County and State, until it could be sold, and also would buy under existing levies."

"But now comes the Homestead Exemption NOW the way is clear, excessive levies can now be made. If you don't pay, they take your homes. Future tax levies do not worry the bond holder because it all comes back to him, he can hold the property until a profitable buyer is found."

"In our City, 15 mills will be temporarily removed from the Homestead, and in the County an additional 28.2-8 mills, or a total of 53.2-8."

"But is it not reasonable to assume that our creditors, who have been receiving only partial payment in Sanford about 1-8 of what they are justly entitled to will come forward and demand full payment?"

"That statement doesn't spell consolation either; I believe in paying our creditors every penny possible, according to our pledge

Judge Ware's Arguments
$25 an acre, but after they are cleared for farming the assessment is promptly raised to $120 an acre.

"When you put a house on either tract of land in which to live this is also assessed and taxed, (and by the way: I might add just here that when you have spent your money to improve lands and have suffered the penalty in taxation for current expense, that it is also subject to the debt service previously incurred—what you call BOND HOLDERS)."

"Suppose A and B each made $3000 this year, and A takes his own and borrows B's, and with this buys 20 acres of celery land, in the rough, for $3000, and spends the other $3000 clearing the lands."

"A will then be required to pay $200 in taxes, and B will have to pay only $8 on his equal sum as invested in the mortgage."

"In other words, A, by improving lands, is now required to pay $165 more in taxes than the land was formerly bringing."

"Then the next year, A makes $3000 and buys a home on the land, and his taxes will be increased another $200, and if B should loan out an equal sum on a mortgage his taxes would increase $0."

"You will see that A is now taxed the sum of nearly $400 for trying to be a good citizen and improve his property. If the $5000 homestead was exempt to him, as it should be, he will still be paying approximately $100 more in taxes than this land formerly produced before he improved it, and IN THE MEANTIME HE MUST PAY TO Mr. B, $240 interest for the privilege of improving this land to pay taxes on it. WHERE IS THE LOSS from taxes?"

"The same reasoning will be had for the city and town. Is there anyone here but that knows that this will cause more people to build and own their homes, occupy un cleared lands, build up our city and county?"

"I am not so much interested in bringing others here for this particular purpose, but those citizens who are here are the ones I am pleading for."

"I do not want these good people when the bonds were sold, but I'm not for closing our Schools, County Home, Police Dept., Fire Dept., Sanitary Dept. and throwing our city in darkness in order to pay. That was not our contract. Neither was a Sales Tax a part of our contract to pay."

"The subdivisions of our great state have suffered much the past seven years. Boom Collapse, Stomps, Hurricanes, Bank Failures, Mediterranean Fruit Fly and then the World Wide Depression, but the one obstacle delaying our recovery now is bond debt adjustment."

"Progress is being made to this end, but it will be made impossible if we vote the Homestead Exemption Amendment, or adopt a sales tax, and this is inevitable if we vote the amendment."

"If we are to have a Sales Tax it should be a manufacturers' or jobbers' tax levied by the federal government with an equitable portion allotted to each state, thus minimizing the cost of collection, evasions in payment and difficult intra-state, county and city problems arising by inequality in amount of sales tax assessments, also federal control would tend to limit the amount of sales tax levies."

"We have a limited sales tax now on gasoline, 8 cents, in fact 50 percent of the cost per gallon. There is no limit to a sales tax, and the gasoline tax did not take the place of any other tax. Just another tax, and so it will be with a sales tax—just another tax."

and loyal citizens to have to move out of this county and state in order to escape confiscatory taxes.

"Which of you have not heard the statements on the streets and elsewhere—I would not build on any lot in Sanford nor would I have property if it were given to me with such tax to pay."

"Then tell me, how comes this argument that if this Amendment is passed that we will play to the BOND HOLDERS? We owe the bonds at present, and if we can reduce the expense to lands as homesteads, then what is the reasoning?"

"Gov. 'Alfalfa' Bill Murray stopped the sales of homes under tax certificates, by calling out the National Guards. Was he wrong in principle? I leave it for you to decide."

"One of the first questions asked will be, 'WHERE ARE WE TO GET THE MONEY TO RUN THE GOVERNMENT?' My friends, my idea is to cut down the expense; cut out unnecessary agencies, employees, salary grabbers, and we will have more money to operate the government than we are now using judiciously—when we have left out the graft and uselessly salaried people, men and women."

"GRAFT?" you say; Yes, did you ever hear of graft in the Highway Department, in the sale of mules? How about the sale of gravel for road bed building? All of this comes from political pull and maneuvering, and if we stop the money, cut off the supply, or stop the salary, this expenditure will necessarily have to stop. Like the employee who said his boss stopped his salary and he got mad and quit the job."

"Did you stop to think that during the past 30 years the expense of Florida government has increased 32 times as much, or from approximately one million dollars in 1901 to thirty two and a half million in 1932; that the number of employees has increased 50 times as many over the same period, and all of these must be paid salaries?"

"Do you honestly think it is necessary for us poor devils who are busy working, tawny and brain, and who have no time to politic ground, to let his home be taxed from under him in order to give this salaried class a luxurious living?"

"Certainly I do not think so. If these other fellows just must be taken care of by the government under the guise of a salary for some unnecessary job, then let it keep him up in the same manner and style as the fellow who must work to pay the bill has to live."

"You do not have to draw on your imagination in order to know the many unnecessary and extravagant expenditures made purely for the purpose of some party with "pull" to give his friend a job, in order to hold his political influence on election years.

"All expense has increased to the common or 'forgotten man' if you wish it expressed so. He must pay personal taxes, ad valorem taxes, license tax, sales tax and the fees." The recipients of the fee system are all organized and work each two years—if not continually—to see that no law is passed to reduce this FEE; all are county and state officials, but not a single one of them so far as has come to my attention has been willing to reduce the fees in order to aid the poor devil who must grind from dawn to dark each and every day in order for his family to have its corn bread and peas to eat; and then he can kneel down at night and thank his God that the tail of his shirt is made long so he will hide the nakedness of his person where his trousers once did, but are now worn out.

"Where can we save? you ask; I might enumerate many places, but time forbids and I will only say—since I am a lawyer—Circuit Courts, State Attorneys, County and City Officials which overlap, the many inspectors of gas, fertilizer, dairy, Conservation Dept., Motor Vehicle and Highway Dept."

"Jacksonville and Duval county will try this year to consolidate of fees; and if it is defeated it will almost assuredly be by those who are interested in his salary or the salary of a friend, and those who do not calmly think and then vote for justice and right to the great majority of Florida's citizens."

"Crime is estimated to cost in America the stupendous sum of fourteen billions of dollars a year; and those statistics of criminology tell us that 50 percent of the criminals are between the ages of 18 and 24 years of age, and 60 percent between the ages of 16 and 19, and 20 percent are those who own and have some abiding and lasting interest in the community where they live."

Cut down this cost, and we will have money left more than we can use for necessary governmental expense, and we will have a citizenship really interested in life.

"Now, just remember this, we hear and read the cry for people to 'paint up', clean-up, repair, etc., and I believe that this is well and necessary; but you know that just as soon as one does these things his property is assessed for more taxes, and it has become a penalty for one to really take an interest in keeping his home beautiful. Give us one even break, and exempt our homes from the burden and I believe you will really see a 'Beautiful Florida.'

"Sales Tax? yes. If we must have it, then let it come; personally I am in favor of it, provided we first remove the tax from homestead real estate forever, but I am against any increase or the raising of more taxes from any source whatsoever until this tax from homesteads is taken off. The Stamp Tax now brings to the state $12,000 a day; then a 2c tax on cigarettes, tobacco, cigars, perfumes and candy's etc., a reasonable sales tax on these luxuries would more than provide for the schools."

GRIM SEARCH FOR GIRL HAS BEEN HALTED

Contact Said Made With Gang Which Snatched Daughter Of Arizona Pioneers

TUCSON, Ariz., Apr. 27.—(AP)—A Pima County deputy sheriff declined to allow his name to be used today he understood that a contact had been made during the night with the kidnapers of six-year-old June Robles.

The contact, if it was made, was believed to have followed the temporary withdrawal of official and volunteer searchers at 2:00 o'clock this morning by request of the family. No immediate confirmation of a negotiation report was forthcoming.

A thousand men ready to shoot it out at the bat of an eyelid, went gunning yesterday for the abductors of the 6-year-old girl. The kidnapers of the girl suddenly reduced their ransom demand from $15,000 to $10,000.

While the search gained momentum and a muttering crowd of several hundred persons gathered at the Pima county courthouse spreading lynch talk, the old cattleman received a second ransom note in which the abductors said they would accept $10,000 "if you act quickly."

The note reached Robles in a manner not made public. Its delivery was announced by Under-sheriff Colby S. Farrar. It read: "Child safe. We're willing to reduce ransom to $10,000. If you act quickly child will be returned safely as per instructions. Obey instructions. Z."

It was the second note from the abductors since the child was taken and which says yesterday as she was going home from school. The first note was delivered to the girl's father, Fernando Robles, operator of an electric store, about two hours after June vanished.

Negro Held Blameless In Death Of Mrs. Boyd

Riley Tossie, negro truck driver for the firm of Morgan and Wheeler at Oviedo, was absolved of blame in connection with the death of Mrs. Alice Boyd who died of injuries received when she was run over by a truck at the intersection of Geneva and Park avenues last Wednesday evening.

A coroner's jury reviewed the case yesterday afternoon and came to the conclusion that Mrs. Boyd's death came as the result of an unavoidable accident.

It was indicated that Mrs. Boyd was walking west on Geneva avenue with her two small children at about 8:15 o'clock. Two trucks, one driven by Tossie, were moving toward Sanford from Oviedo on State Road No. 8.

The first truck turned the corner and motored east on Geneva avenue while the second truck, only a short distance behind the first truck, continued toward Sanford on Park avenue.

Mrs. Boyd, apparently not seeing the second truck, had started across Park avenue but her children had remained on the curbing, both calling frantically to their mother. Tossie said that Mrs. Boyd had reached the middle of the intersection when he first saw her. And that suddenly she turned around and started back to her children. Before he could stop the truck he had run over her. She died four hours later.

2 Kidnaped Children Found In Car, Unhurt

LONGVIEW, Tex., Apr. 27.—(AP)—Two children, kidnaped while their parents attended church last night, were found unharmed today in the parents' car, which had been stolen by the abductors.

The children, Winnie May Campbell, and Beatrice Campbell, seven, were sleeping soundly when bus driver Joe Hubbard pulled up beside the abandoned car to investigate. The children said two men entered the car.

Federal Agents Deny Report Of Finding Of Large Part Of Lindbergh Ransom Money

BOSTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The discovery in New England of a large portion of the $50,000 ransom money paid by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh after the kidnaping of his infant son was reported and denied yesterday.

Late editions of Boston newspapers announced that more than half of the $50,000 which Dr. John F. "Jafsie" Condon tossed over a Bronx wall as ransom for return of the kidnaped son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh has turned up through the Federal Reserve Bank in Boston.

General Motors Head Says Firm Will Not Recognize A.F. Of L.

BOSTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors Corporation, yesterday charged the American Federation of Labor with trying to disrupt the automotive industry and flatly declared his corporation would not recognize the "closed shop" union. Sloan said he believed the position of General Motors was in common with that of the industry as a whole.

The challenge of the automobile magnate to the labor federation was made in an address before the Boston Chamber of Commerce, plan, or "company union." Sloan said, was the real route through which the "real interests of both the employer and the employee can best be promoted." He said he believed collective bargaining was a "step forward" in American industrial life but expressed the conviction that the workman did not prefer the national union.

Move Made To Reduce Gas Tax To 5 Cents

MIAMI, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Legislative action to reduce the state gasoline tax from 7 to 5 cents a gallon was urged yesterday by 200 Miami wholesale and retail dealers.

Meeting at the call of the Dade County Petroleum Industry Committee, co-operating in a nationwide campaign to reduce gasoline taxes, the dealers voiced a vigorous protest against the present Florida tax and declared it "excessive."

They pointed out that Florida and Tennessee have the highest tax on gasoline in the country and that the average state tax is 3 or 4 cents.

That the tax question may become a campaign issue in the June primary was indicated, when the dealers were urged by spokesmen to support candidates promising to work for gasoline tax relief.

Altamonte Springs Trade Body Picnic Attended By Nearly 100 Persons

Approximately 100 men and women residents of Sanford, Altamonte Springs, Forest City, Longwood, Lake Mary, and Fern Park, gathered at SanLando Springs late yesterday afternoon and last night, participated in what was termed as the first of a series of summer picnics to be staged by the Altamonte Springs Chamber of Commerce.

Sanford's desire to co-operate with the county's other communities was the theme of talks made by Mr. Lehman and Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Evans suggested that a constant spirit of harmony could be promoted by electing legislators from both the city and county. He also stated that Lake Mary is not entering a candidate in the race for County Commissioner from that district for the reason that Lake Mary feels that the southern part of the district should be represented on the board.

Mr. Barnett spoke briefly on his candidacy for the legislature and pledged himself to exert his best efforts, if elected, toward the enactment of measures needed for future development of the county.

The meeting was closed with a talk by Mrs. Lyman in which she thanked the guests for accepting her organization's invitation to meet at the picnic, and promised a similar event in the near future.

At Rutland, Vt., Boston newspapers said a group of 30 or more department of Justice agents had been concentrated under orders of Clarence D. McKean, chief of the bureau of investigation for New England. At offices of the bureau here the only information forth (Continued On Page Five)

CANNON JURY SEEKS VERDICT TO END TRIAL

Bishop Is Likened To 'Ward Healer' Passing Out Money From Behind His Robes

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Bishop James Cannon, Jr., and Miss Ada L. Burroughs were accused of conspiring to violate the election law in the churchman's 1928 campaign against Alfred P. Smith. The jury was out there and over half hour.

The action to extend the power of the secretary came at a time when the National Recovery Administration apparently had decided to let lapse its power to license industry.

Through licensing, the secretary of agriculture may bind handlers and distributors of farm products to observe marketing agreements. Only minorities have been licensed thus far, the pact first being accepted by the majority concerned.

Chairman Smith (D., S. C.) of the committee said Wallace requested the hearing be closed, although an open discussion of the changes in the farm act had been expected.

"When a bishop unlocks himself and goes into a political campaign under the banner of 'It is a blessed thing to love the Lord' should at least keep his skirts clean and his hands unsold," Leslie Garnett, district attorney, shouted to the jury in his closing argument.

Decision In Vegetable Freight Rate Case Due

A decision in the Florida vegetable rate cases which was heard at Daytona Beach in September 1932, may be released within the next few days, according to information contained in a telegram received today at the Sanford Overseas Truck Growers, Inc. office from C. R. Marshall, Washington attorney of the Growers and Shippers League of Florida.

Most of the changes relate to the agricultural adjustment.

"I'm talking to preserve a name that has been a household word for forty years."

"It would have been better for the purposes of this trial," the district attorney said, "if at his mother's knee he had learned the difference between 'mine' and 'thine.'"

Ensign Suggests That Celery Be Sold By Weight Instead Of By Crate, Stalk

Suggesting that celery in the future be sold by weight instead of by package or individual stalk, M. R. Ensign of Gainesville, formerly of the State Experiment Station at Gainesville, last night told a group of local growers who had met at Seminole High School, that by cutting off the tops of celery, and selling only the edible portion, a saving of 46 percent could be obtained on each crate of celery.

Ensign Suggests That Celery Be Sold By Weight Instead Of By Crate, Stalk

Mr. Ensign was addressing members of the Seminole Agricultural Club and the Farmers' Evening Class, meeting in joint session.

He offered much data relating to the new packing methods for celery and other bunched vegetables. He pointed out that by cutting down the size of the stalk, it is possible to save 6 1-2 pounds to the crate, and he added that by cutting off the top and reducing size of the stalk, all competition in sizes would be eliminated and the farmer would not lose as he does now because of a bulging

ORLANDO, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Removal of Harry Hand from the office of sheriff of Orange county was recommended to the governor in the presentments of the Orange county grand jury to Judge Frank A. Smith of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit yesterday.

JAPAN WANTS RECOGNITION OF MANCHUKUO

Rumor Says Nippon To Block League Plan For China If State Is Not Acclaimed

GENEVA, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Indications that Japan may exert efforts to block the heralded League of Nations 10-year plan for the reconstruction of China unless the great powers recognize Manchukuo were reported yesterday in reliable quarters.

International circles spoke also of the possibility that the Japanese will oppose Dr. Ludwik Rademach—the League's envoy to China who is now returning here with a project for helping China financially and socially—in the belief he holds political influence among Chinese leaders.

These reports formed a startling background to a Japanese manifesto of Apr. 17 in which Tokyo said foreign aid to China that had political significance would be opposed by force if necessary.

LONDON, Apr. 27.—(AP)—A British authority's answer to the "Asia for Asiatics" doctrine came today from a source close to the British Indian Administration. Japan, the authority said, may dominate China by force and may gain some influence in Islam through intrigue, though this latter is doubtful, but she will never exercise even a minor influence in India and the other areas of southern Asia. "Asia for Asiatics" is rapidly becoming the slogan of all Eastern peoples, he added, "but only the Japanese conceive of this new Asia as being run by Japan."

Chinese leaders, meanwhile, saw in the "hands-off" pronouncement the possibility of Japanese overlordship and considered appealing to the signatories—including the U. S.—of a nine-power treaty guaranteeing Chinese territorial integrity and economic opportunities.

Fearing that an appeal might result in a "diplomatic triumph" for Japan, however, the Chinese were expected to try through diplomatic channels to ascertain what support would be given such a plea.

Japan will oppose any league plan to grant China a loan, it was learned on good authority, because "China is disunited and a loan might be utilized for purposes detrimental to her best interests." No similarity was seen by Japanese spokesmen between a loan to Austria by the League and a possible aid of this kind to China.

Massyuki Yokoyama, Japanese consul here, branded as "fantastic" yesterday the statement of Chi Tsi-Hu, Chinese minister to Switzerland, that Japan had dreams of world conquest.

Negotiations were conducted with a chairman to be chosen at today's meeting.

German officials were expected to meet today at the Swiss resort of Lugano, where they were to discuss the proposed transfer of German foreign debts.

The conference was expected to continue through Saturday.
