

ODB Makes Good In Getting Checks To Army Families

Office Of Dependency Benefits Pay Out 2 Billion A Month

By BILL GLOVER
AP Feature Writer

NEWARK, N. J.—A hidden battlefield that extends from headquarters here to Cherokee City, Six Mile Run and every other town and hamlet in the U.S.A., the Army's ODB is making good in a fabulous battle to guarantee that Johnny Dougherty's dependents get monthly allowance checks swiftly and surely.

The meaning for YOU is that you too will be paid promptly and without hitch as soon as your man is called into service—if you do your part.

Seven million dependents are getting their now.

It's a fabulous battle because a year ago the agency wasn't even on paper. Now disbursing at the rate of $2,000,000,000 a year in an ever-growing monthly avalanche of green checks, the lusty infant has proved, to the joy of Army men, that the War Department isn't always snarled in red tape.

The agency is known officially as the Office of Dependency Benefits. Its director is Col. Harold N. Gilbert, a six-foot, sandy-haired veteran of 27 years of Army life.

If you do your part, he is confident ODB will stay on a current basis even when the Army reaches its currently estimated full strength of 8 or 9,000,000.

12,000 Application A Day
New applications for family allowances are flowing in at the rate of 12,000 a day.

To handle these applications, read 80,000 letters a day, write another 92,000, answer 10,000 telephone calls, interview hundreds of applicants and do all the paper work behind each one of the more than 5,000,000 monthly checks requires the efforts of 10,000 workers now. Col. Gilbert estimates he will need about 1,500 more for peak production. They are as important as an armored division, for they have to keep up home morale. More than 95 percent of them are women, teen-agers, widows and 300 Army officers supervising.

Ironically, the office which handles the mandatory family allowances for the four lowest ranked private army privates (sergeant) hasn't one enlisted man on duty. The family allowances comprise about two-thirds of the monthly checks. The rest are voluntary allotments of pay by soldiers, from private to general, sending more money to the folks back home.

For five percent of the family allowance disbursements are deducted from soldiers' pay; the rest is a government contribution. For a wife and/or children dependents which the soldier must help support, he contributes $22 a month, the government $28 for the wife, $12 for one child and $10 for each additional youngster under 18.

All Not Eligible
Another group of dependents, Class B, consists of parents, brothers, sisters or grandchildren. The allowance scale is lower and the soldier contributes a smaller amount. One of the ODB's biggest headaches, says Col. Gilbert, is putting over the fact that Class B individuals receive allowances only if direct dependency can be shown and if the soldier wants to contribute to their support.

"We had one letter," the colonel recalls, "which said 'We understand the government sends checks to the parents of a soldier. Please put us on the mailing list.'"
ODB, which issues one-fifth of all the checks paid by Uncle Sam, is housed in an 18-story, buff brick skyscraper in which the plaster was scarcely dry when the brand new agency moved in from Washington last October.

Col. Gilbert is an infantry officer who has served around the world. In 1929 he directed America's greatest peacetime recruiting campaign an originated the now-famous "Keep 'Em Flying" slogan.

His slogan now, emblazoned in every corner of the building, is "Get 'Em Paid."

In spite of everything, grumbling does occur.

"The most generally misunderstood factor is that people have family allowances been immediately after the application," the colonel says. "In fact, they begin to arrive the first of the month after the application is approved, and begin issuing the month following that."

Delay
Another stumbling factor is disclosed by the fact that 40,000 checks a month come back because of uncorrected mistakes that were never found.

There have been 20,000 other changes in dependency cases, such as discharging a married man, which have since the agency began last year.

Many men receive their allowances through a woman's name. Some men are in a hospital and the woman is the one to receive the money. Some men are in a hospital and the woman is the one to receive the money.

Boatswain's Mate Tells What It's Like On Submarine In Enemy Waters

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Navy department communications tell tersely of the prowess of American submarines as hunters. But during the arduous weeks of patrol hunting, what does a boatswain's mate think about? Boatwain's Mate First Class Paul Carrington Harkdale knows. A member of the crew of the sub that evacuated President Quezon and High Commissioner Hays from the Philippines and torpedoed 16 Japanese vessels, Harkdale returned home to Virginia recently for the first time since September, 1941, to see his family and meet 10-month-old Paul Carrington, Jr. This is his story.)

As Told To John Daffron For AP Features

Richmond, Va.—A man gets scared—plenty scared when the stuff starts coming. If he doesn't, well... he's probably crazy or something else. But while you wait you get to thinking. And then you might start chuckling—and before you remember to get scared again the stuff stops coming.

First, of course, you think of home and the folks. But more than likely you think of some well liberty (shore leave) and how a cold beer would go and what you wouldn't give for one, or three or four. You might even think about a kangaroo in Australia and if he's still hopping wherever he pleases. That old kangaroo had done me a lot of good in tough spots.

One night last year Jap destroyers picked us up and the skipper took her down. And then we heard the thrum-thrum-thrum of the destroyer's screws as she passed right over us. Then it was that Torpedoman 2d Class William E. Short from the Bronx, New York, used his old standby remark: "Come on, you little son-of-a-bitch, why don't you try again. Man like Short can load food in a submarine in a tight spot. The men figure it still feels that way, they may as well too. But, thank God, the Jap didn't.

Job of getting out the monthly vouchers is a mass of checking and counterchecking devices. And—let the superstitious beware—the family allowance checks are signed and mailed on the 15th floor.

Prescription administration are constantly given payes to prevent graters from snatching these money. Equally important to the government, a stand of 2000 fishermen is on the job to make sure these men don't come back to the states. A present 30,000 men are investigated each month to make sure they are not on a list of persons who have been convicted of crimes.

One woman was found to have married three soldiers to get their dependency allowances. There were three other marriages that were annulled. One woman was found to have married from his wife who met another man's statement with a decision to get her dependency benefits. She used the name of the man who had been married to her to get her allowance.

Many men receive their allowances through a woman's name. Some men are in a hospital and the woman is the one to receive the money. Some men are in a hospital and the woman is the one to receive the money.

War Brings Many Changes As Boom Hits Charleston

By JOHN BELBY
CHARLESTON, S.C.—Charleston, often accused of looking only backward, is today looking in two directions at once. It is looking out for the future, when its present boom will have subsided. It is desperately trying to make plans for 40,000 more population within its restricted area, and for 40,000 more outside—a strained situation for a city which four years back counted its citizens at 42,000 and had for its chief industry the sale of its own charms.

Things seldom come crashing into Charleston, but the war did. It shot the personnel at the Navy Yard from 4,000 to an estimate 25,000—the Navy won't give the exact figure.

Time was when the district "below Broad street" was little more than a shack where people lived there, and had for a couple of centuries. The houses always sat upside to the street, the piazzas (not galleries in Charleston) where superimposed ones on another and faced south for the breeze. Through the gates one saw lawns, where palm-trees burst into bloom, and the scented fluff-balls of the opopanax trees were golden in the sun.

It seems almost symbolic to some Charlestonians that this winter of the great change should have been one of the worst on record, with 17 freezes instead of the customary one or two.

Workers Move In
Below Broad the houses are still mostly in the hands of substantial citizens, but in the separate quarters for servants behind the great houses you will find room for workers who spend their time away at the yard, instead of tramping through the gardens and standing with guidebook in hand before the old and really beautiful houses that stay the glory of Charleston.

Some of the workers are salaried. Others are the usual problems of wives, women and song that come with a great influx of young men. This does not mean the big Charleston problem right now.

In March and April of 1940, 108,850 tourists visited Charleston, and in the same period 146,100. Paul W. Conant, secretary of Charleston's Chamber of Commerce, estimates that the same two months this spring will see 15,000 more tourists.

Saving The Past
But that is a minor matter for the space formerly used for a parking lot is all rented. Business, overall, is better.

The problem is preserving the assets that will, after the war, continue to bring visitors.

The old houses must be saved—many hundreds there are still standing, which throughout their length are wholly beautiful. They are the houses and their modern standards very inefficient. They need domestic staffs of a dozen, frequently and today many of the men being run with one or at most two servants.

But, Robert N.S. Whitlaw of the Carolina Art Association remarks, you can't have several hundred of these houses unless you can have a few more. Perhaps some houses can be made into apartments under careful supervision.

Many believe even that will not be possible, among them young men like Thomas R. Waring, Jr., editor of the News and Courier, who is not sure there is any solution.

Wants Roots Reserved
Yet ever Charlestonian I talked with, and that means dozens, feels deeply that in a young country's roots must be preserved. They like the Negroes from the mosquito fleet saw their fish with this song:

"Foggy walk
"Foggy cut wild knife an' fawk
"Foggy-a-a-a."

The people here would give up their past to win the war, but they had much rather give their shirts.

New Prices On Soap Go Into Effect May 24

WASHINGTON, May 17, (AP)—The Office of Price Administration Saturday announced that specific dollars-and cents maximum prices for soap will go into effect May 24, but indicated that no rationing program is likely unless historical consumers start wholesale raids on suppliers.

In some cases the prices determined by the OPA actually will be lower than those presently paid by customers. Both wholesale and retail ceilings were fixed in the order.

A spokesman for the OPA said the ceilings are nationwide and will prevent any form of "chisel-cutting." For the present, however, they will apply only to grocery stores.

The following are some of the typical prices for well-known brands:

Class I stores (Independent of less than $50,000)
Bar toilet soaps—Lux, regular, 8 cents; Ivory, medium, 7 cents; Ivory, large, 12 cents.
Ivory large, 10 cents.
Fels-Naptha, regular, 6 cents; Octagon large, 5 cents; P & G white laundry, 5 cents.
Class II stores (Independent of less than $50,000 and $250,000)
Bar toilet soaps—Lux regular, 8 cents; Ivory medium, 7 cents; Ivory large, 12 cents.
Fels-Naptha, regular, 6 cents; Octagon large, 5 cents; P & G white laundry, 5 cents.
Class III stores (Independent of less than $250,000)
Bar toilet soaps—Lux regular, 7 cents; Ivory medium, 6 cents; Ivory large, 10 cents.
Fels-Naptha, regular, 5 cents; Octagon large, 4 cents; P & G white laundry, 5 cents.
Class IV stores (Independent of less than $250,000)
Bar toilet soaps—Lux, regular, 7 cents; Ivory medium, 6 cents; Ivory large, 10 cents.
Fels-Naptha, regular, 5 cents; Octagon large, 4 cents; P & G white laundry, 5 cents.

The $4 billion passenger-miles traveled by Americans on trains in 1942 was an all-time high.

Japs Charge U.S. At Attu Is Using Gas

War Department Says Kiska Is Next On American Invasion List In Aleutians

Allied Headquarters in Australia... The Fifth Airforce Headquarters today listed 10 African fighter pilots as crew, each having destroyed at least five Jap planes.

Seaborne American forces are landing in a steady stream of reinforcements in the seven day old battle of Attu Island, a Tokyo broadcast said today, and heavy fighting is now in progress on the northern coast of the key Japanese outpost in the Aleutians.

The Tokyo radio says United States troops are striking in a three pronged offensive attacking under cover of aerial and naval bombardment. No indication was given of Jap warships challenging the Americans or of bringing up reinforcements.

Major Gen. Nakau Yasui, Army press chief for the Japanese, made the propaganda charge the Americans twice used poison gas. This was unconfirmed by any other source and observers entirely discounted it.

Joseph Kiska will be next on the American invasion list in the Aleutians when United States troops complete the current task of reconquering nearby Attu Island, a War Department spokesman said last night.

Black Market In Potatoes Thrives On Grand Scale

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—The Washington Post says a "black market in potatoes is operating here on an unbelievable scale, in order to prevent price ceilings and rationing and rights under the nose of OPA enforcement officials."

A Post reporter said he "had no difficulty in contrasting 500 pounds of potatoes at a cents a pound, or about twice the ceiling price" after going to a wholesale market.

The market was made with an anonymous driver of a huge, 10-wheeled truck from Florida, he related. "I went out to the market after receiving a tip that market operators were selling their wares there between midnight and 1 A.M."

"Being as a restaurant keeper from out of town, I fostered the impression that I was well loaded with good hard money and was perfectly willing to part with it for a few sacks of potatoes."

Only references to OPA regulations prevented me from taking delivery on the spot.

WLB Charges Lewis Defies Laws Of U. S.

UMW Officials Fall To Appear At Meeting To Resume Contract Negotiations

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—The War Labor Board said today that John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, has challenged the sovereignty of the United States, and the issue is whether Mr. Lewis is above and beyond the laws which apply to all other citizens of the United States.

The board issued a unanimous statement after a meeting with Lewis and other UMW officers had been asked to attend to arrange a resumption of contract negotiations. The board statement said nothing about the next step to be taken after the meeting at the expiration of the present 15-day truce tomorrow night.

John L. Lewis has defied the War Labor Board's latest attempt to gain settlement of the United Mine Workers' coal wage dispute and a resumption of the prospect of a new work stoppage when his 15-day strike truce expires Tuesday midnight.

Replying at a New York press conference Sunday to a WLB order that he or a UMW representative appear here Monday with attorneys to resume negotiations, the mine chief said no representative of the union would show.

The UMW, he said, believes the board without jurisdiction in the case and "we believe the jurisdiction and responsibility lie with the agents of the government now in charge of the coal mines."

He said he would not be held without jurisdiction in the case and "we believe the jurisdiction and responsibility lie with the agents of the government now in charge of the coal mines."

Bread Pudding
PARSLEY OMLLET

6 eggs
3 tablespoons milk
1-2 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
3 leaspoons minced parsley
3 tablespoons butter of margarine
Beat eggs slightly. Add milk, seasonings and parsley. Put fat into hot skillet and when fat is melted put in the egg mixture. Stir it only enough to be sure that the still liquid part can run underneath and cook. Be sure that the mixture is well spread over the whole pan. When it is nearly cooked stop stirring it for a minute so that the bottom may brown. It takes only 5 or 4 minutes all together. It is easier to make two omelets of three eggs each than one of six. When the omelet is done fold it and serve at once.

OYSTER PLANT FRITTERS
1 bunch oyster plant
1 egg
1 teaspoon onion, minced
Salt and pepper to taste
1 leaspoon margarine
Wash and scrape oyster plant roots. Cut into slices and cook in boiling, salted water until soft (about 45 minutes). Drain very thoroughly, wash and add other ingredients. Shape into flat cakes, roll in flour and fry until crisp and browned.

Most oysters (liver, sweet breads, liver, brains) spoil more readily than other meats cuts so store them in the coldest part of the refrigerator.

Army Nurses Find Life In Field Is Something Else

Quite Different From Hospital Corridors But Nurses Take It

FIELD HOSPITALS SOMEWHERE IN THE SOUTH, MAY 17 (Special). From the scrubbed and shining corridors of city hospitals to the practice of their profession under battle conditions, the Army nurses on duty with the Second Army are finding life in the field quite different from hospital corridors.

The field hospital is a mobile unit, and the nurses are constantly on the move. They are often in the thick of the fighting, and they must be prepared to handle any emergency that may arise.

The nurses in the field are not only responsible for the medical care of the wounded, but they also act as a morale booster for the troops. They are often the only source of comfort and care for the soldiers in the field.

Senate Group Endorses Tax On Cigarettes

House Approved Bill Is Expected To Be Voted On This Week In Senate Chamber

TALLAHASSEE, May 18. (AP)—The following House bill became law yesterday without the Senate's aid, nature: No. 436, relating to Longwood; No. 442, re-assignment of the Slavia drainage district benefits.

TALLAHASSEE, May 19. (AP)—The Senate probably will vote before the end of the week on the administration's three cents cigarette tax, already approved by the House 65 to 27.

It was endorsed by the Senate Finance Committee yesterday 8 to 4 and then, to speed final action, the committee voted to bring out the bill and put it on the calendar.

This was decided because the House bill was referred also to the Miscellaneous Committee, which has not considered it.

The Finance Committee's action means that there'll be a cigarette tax bill on the Senate calendar, regardless of whether the Miscellaneous Committee approves the House bill.

Colin English, state superintendent of education, was barred from the Senate chamber for fighting with Senator Raymond Sheldon of Tampa last Friday.

The Senate adopted a formal resolution charging English with "insulting and attacking" Sheldon, and it denied to him the privilege of the floor and gallery for the remainder of this session, which ends June 4.

Sheldon was held "free from fault" in the fight that occurred in English's office after tax which the school book racket" should be investigated.

Government Holland's three-cent cigarette tax to raise $3,500,000 a year and carried with it 200 million bills for paying 2,000,000 to old age pensions and $1,500,000 to the counties.

The cigarette tax passed, 65 to 27, just as earlier tent votes had shown sufficient English in Florida it through when debate ended.

The show of strength for the bill caused Representative Inman of Bradford, a cigarette tax, to announce that he would make the motion for the final roll call by giving the tobacco auctioneer's chant and then saying "sold to the Government of Florida."

Axis Prisoners Smile On Way To Prison Camp

Prisoners of war are not supposed to be happy about their capture, but these Axis soldiers leaving the city of Tunis smile happily as they head toward Allied prison camps. OPA Grants 30 Cent Increase In Potato Ceiling

Lehman Predicts Farmers Will Reduce Potato Plantings

That the recent boost in potato ceilings by the OPA from $3.10 to $3.40 per hundred pounds (net) is a great deal, was the opinion yesterday of H. J. Lehman, manager of the Sanford State Farm Market.

This statement followed receipt by Mr. Lehman of a telegram jointly signed by Senator Claude Pepper and by Rep. Joe Hendricks which read as follows: "We have been informed by James F. Byrnes, administrator of the OPA that they have agreed to issue an order raising the ceiling price on potatoes from $3.10 to $3.40. We are very sorry that we were not successful, but we are glad that we got at least 30 cents. That will help some. The order will go to the OPA and will be issued immediately."

Diamond Ball League Nears Season's End

The Lions Junior Diamond Ball League, with one more week of play before them, will have rounded out a very successful season according to W.A. Ludwig, manager of the Seminoles team.

Indications point to the Giants, managed by P.H. Lansing, as being the sure pennant winners, but according to Mr. Ludwig, they have had to battle all the way.

The other two competing teams have been the Cubs, managed by R.E. Kipp and the Red Sox, piloted by W.H. Bach.

The Giants, who have as yet not lost a game are scheduled to play tonight at the Lake Front with the Red Sox.

A warning not to underestimate our enemies in the present war, the Japs especially, was given today by Lieut. R.V. Umphrey of the Sanford Naval Air Station speaking to Kiwanians at lunch on today at the Hotel Mayfair.

Lieut. Umphrey, who as a pilot participated in the Battle of Midway, told of various phases of the battle and of the sinking of Jap aircraft carriers while their planes in turn were strafing the island.

The sinking of the carriers, he said, resulted in the Jap planes having no place to land and the rest of their great fleet of ships, helpless without a relay protection, and that and were attacked by our planes.

Somewhere in that ridge there is a mountain pass and it is there that fighting now rages. Possession of the pass will enable the American strategy to recapture the island and advance the bridgehead on the northern road to Tokyo appeared to be nearing to a climactic moment.

Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox said the U.S. troops had driven the Japs from strong positions on a mountain ridge that is the gateway to Holtz Bay and Chicago Harbor. A subsequent Navy communiqué said this victory was achieved last night in the face of strong counterattacks.

American casualties have been "light" despite stubborn and at times "very serious" resistance. The captured ridge towers are 2500 feet above the two arms of Holtz Bay where the enemy has its principal positions.

Knox said Jap possession of the ridge had been holding up a two-pronged American drive one from the southwest. Its capture makes it possible to carry out the planned movement.

U. S. Closes Trap On Japs In Aleutians

Two U. S. Patrols On Attu Force Pass For Junction And Cause Jap Retreat

WASHINGTON, May 18. (AP)—The American pincers have closed a trap around the Japanese positions on Attu Island, the Navy reported today, and at least part of the enemy troops are in retreat toward a last ditch stand.

The communique said advance patrols of United States forces advancing from Holtz and Massacre Bays has joined in the breach southeast of the former. The pass was cleared of enemy troops, which withdrew toward Chicago Harbor leaving only snipers behind.

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—American invasion forces have cracked the backbone of Japanese defense on Attu Island and are fighting fiercely for a key mountain pass blocking final conquest of that fog-bound North Pacific outpost, the Navy disclosed yesterday.

Big guns of the fleet are laying down a savage supporting bombardment as two American columns drive toward a junction in an attempt to trap the Japs in the jaws of a pincer. Victory appeared near.

The Navy meanwhile disclosed new offensive blows in other theaters of the Pacific front—a bomb attack against Jap-held Wake Island and another aerial thrust against enemy positions in the Solomon. At least two of 22 Jap Zeros which sought to intercept four-motored American bombers over Wake were destroyed. Another was probably destroyed.

For the moment the main show was on tiny Attu at the westernmost tip of the Aleutians. The eight-day American struggle to recapture the island and the advanced bridgehead on the northern road to Tokyo appeared to be nearing to a climactic moment.
