Miss Mayme McLain and Miss Lydia Geiger gave a very enjoyable Hallowe'en party for the school, at the W. O. W. hall last Friday night. The hall was tastefully decorated with palms and vines and dimly lighted with citron lanterns shaded in red, which gave a very pretty effect. The ghostly appearance of the guests wrapped in sheets and the guessing who was who gave lots of sport. After half an hour of this weird and uncanny mingling lights were turned on and costumes removed. The young folks were themselves again and ready for a good time with Hallowe'en sports and games. During the evening the teachers served delicious fruit punch and cake.

Miss Nellie Geiger and Miss Bertha Cameron of Chuluotua were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geiger.

Mrs. J. H. Huddleston returned from Jacksonville Saturday, where she has been having a very pleasant visit with her daughters, Mrs. Yerkes and Mrs. Baxter.

The report that a big bear weighing five hundred pounds had been shot across Buck Lake last Saturday caused quite a bit of excitement among the residents of that locality.

Word had been received that a hunting party had seen a bear in that locality the day before. Messrs. Earl Vick and Hoyte Taylor of Orlando and Mizelle and Perry Taylor of Geneva started after his bearship, which they succeeded in capturing. Perry Taylor was the lucky man whose shot brought down the game.

Guests of the Geneva House last week were Grady Helms, Charlotte, N. C.; Claude Herndon, Sanford; Messrs. Miller and Kimborough, travelling salesmen; W. L. Speer, Leslie, Ga., and Rev. E. L. Smith, wife and son, Oviedo.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKE MAY BE CALLED AT ONCE

Jacksonville Will Face Serious Problem In That Event

FLORIDA NEWS AND VIEWS FROM EVERY SOURCE

Daily Happenings in The Land of Flowers Culled and Tied Into a Nosegay of Brieflets

Jacksonville may face a general strike which will be a serious proposition at the beginning of the winter season. The Central Trades Union is in executive session today considering a sympathetic strike. If the final vote results in a general strike the city will find itself in a most serious condition. There are thirty-six unions in the city. These different unions total in membership about 4,600 to 5,000 men. If all of these join the street car men in a sympathetic strike, practically all lines of business will be affected. Among those affected would be the Seaboard shops, the city water and lighting plants, the contractors of the city by losing services of their carpenters and masons, tin shops, boiler shops, machine shops, boiler shops, plumbing shops, newspapers and, in fact, all lines of business employing skilled labor.

Plans for the erection for the new building of the Woman's Club in Miami are almost completed and soon the cornerstone of this imposing structure will be laid with proper ceremonies. When this building is finished Miami will have the most elaborate Woman's club house in the state. The building will cost $10,000, beside the furnishings.

It is more than probable that St. Augustine will have the honor of entertaining the President of the United States at the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of Florida by Ponce de Leon to be celebrated in that city during the first week of April of next year.

Ten palatial trains, five from the north and five from the south, a day will make up the magnificent service provided for the coming season by the Florida East Coast railway. General Passenger Agent J. D. Rahner today gave out advance information regarding the schedule and the service.

Pablo Beach will get the first corps of United States Volunteer Life Savers in the state. The station at the beach has been completed and Capt. C. H. McDonald, who is in charge of the work for this state, has sworn in enough men to look after the work at the popular resort.

Although Florida boasts of being the largest state east of the Mississippi river, it cannot be said that her campaign contributions were in proportion to her size.

The Killer Will Hang

Robert Anderson, confessed murderer of three persons, whose murderous revolver and incendiary porch have been kept in a terror was convicted of the murder of Marie Louise Rodrigues after the jury had been out less than fifteen minutes. Anderson was immediately sentenced by Judge Robles, of circuit court to be hanged. Although the court room was crowded when the verdict was received, partially with negroes, there was no demonstration. The sentence was received with great satisfaction by the crowds. Anderson was defended by Attorneys H. B. Baya and Dozier A. Devane, appointed by the court. Defense announced that no appeal would be taken.

Gibbons Relieved of Command

Col. Cromwell Gibbons, First Infantry, National Guard of Florida, who was placed in command of the provisional regiment of infantry, now on duty in Jacksonville, as a result of the traction trouble, Friday night, was relieved of his command of the provisional regiment of command by Major General J. Clifford R. Foster, the adjutant general, at the direction of the Governor, and the military force turned over temporarily to Major S. C. Harrison, Jr. It is claimed that Colonel Gibbons was relieved of his command because of the statement he gave to the press for publication Friday night immediately after he assumed command of the troops in which he gave occasion to define his policy in dealing with the strike situation.

SANFORD VS. DELAND

Boys Played Close and Very Exciting Game on Thursday

The Sanford High School was defeated by the DeLand High School Thursday in an intensely interesting and exciting game, by the small score of 7 to 6. Although the Sanford boys played the best game luck was against them.

DeLand won the toss up and kicked to Sanford. Woodruff caught it and ran for about fifteen yards and was downed. Quarterback called Pickens through right guard and he went through the line for one of the largest gains of the game. Sanford by continuous small gains to the ball up to the goal, but when in about five yards of DeLand's goal lost the ball. DeLand punted to the center of the field. Sanford got the ball but lost it by failing to reach the yard line in four downs.

DeLand by two well executed forward passes gained Sanford ten yards and after two line backs were downed Sanford gained quarter back run around left end which gave the first touch down. DeLand easily kicked goal. Sanford on DeLand 7 and Sanford 0. DeLand kicked off to Sanford. Kanost catching it and making a gain of about ten yards. Sanford worked the ball steadily toward DeLand's goal.

The first quarter ended with the DeLand boys in possession of the ball at their ten yard line.

Second quarter DeLand punted and the Sanford boys again took the ball up to their ten yard line. Herndon made an end run and crossed their goal after the end of the first half which did not count.

Third quarter Sanford kicked to DeLand and it was downed on DeLand's twenty yard line. The rest of the quarter was stubbornly fought, neither side gaining.

Fourth quarter started with Sanford in possession of the ball on DeLand's twenty yard line. Koppulat made an end over end play took the ball over their goal for Sanford's first touch down.

Sanford failed to kick goal. Sanford kicked to DeLand and DeLand failed to make ten yards in four downs. Sanford's ball Crosby made a brilliant quarter back run for about twenty yards. After two unsuccessful line backs Herndon made an end run and crossed their goal. Their referee patronized the Sanford boys five yards for being interested with by a spectator.

DeLand took the ball and only lost five seconds to play. The DeLand boys wasted about thirty seconds of this time by charging and calling signals. DeLand punted. Time up.

Some features of the game were the excellently executed forward pass by the DeLand boys. The end runs of the DeLand's right half back. The line plunges of Pickens and the end runs of Herndon and Crosby.

Sanford plays a game with the Stetson "scrubs" next Tuesday, and a large crowd should come out and help the boys out, for they play a good game.

Cecilian Music Club

The Cecilian Music Club held their regular meeting at the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The new president of the club, Miss Margaret Davis, presided. Several new names were added to the membership of the club. After the business of the meeting had been transacted a very creditable musical program was rendered by the little pupils among Mrs. Munson's pupils. The piano selections were by May and Julia Zachary, Kathleen Brady, Winnie Strong, Edna Williams and Anna Mason. Mrs. Munson entertained the club with a very interesting article and talk on "Burns as a Song Writer." The program was concluded with a piano selection, "The Mill," by Jensen, which was most delightfully rendered by Miss Adelaide Higgins.

WILL RAISE TOBACCO

Well Known Tobacco Man Decides on Sanford.

OUR SOIL IS BETTER THAN BEST

Largest Tobacco Grower In the State Will Try Tobacco Here Next Spring.

Now for King Tobacco!

We have exploited celery—succulent celery—crisp and lotuslike lettuce, egre-gious egg plant, the calorescent cauliflower, the tonic tomato and every-thing else in the vegetable and mineral and animal kingdom and as if to give the after effect of a post prandial stroke after a hearty feast of fruits and vegeta-bles comes King Tobacco the man who wants to make us rich on a crop that can be planted and harvested on our lands when the bulk of them would be idle.

Last week E. K. Embry stopped over in our city to take another look at the famous sub-irrigated district where the water is made to do the work of man at any and all times. Mr. Embry is known as the principal tobacco raiser of the state and has grown the weed in almost every portion of the state. He knows conditions as no other man in the state knows them. He knows the kind of soil, the kind of seed, the kind of culture, the picking and packing and storing and the uses and prices. Having recently suffered by fire the loss of his warehouses and implements near Brooksville, Mr. Embry has been forced to buy tobacco in other parts of the state in order to hold his regular trade in the city and he is very anxious to try the culture of tobacco on a large scale of some locality where he can adopt strategic irrigation and other methods of growing to give him the best results. Naturally, there was only one place in Florida where he could combine all these requisites. Sanford.

He was very interested in looking over the ground, was satisfied and will return at an early date to take ten acres of choice Sanford soil for the raising of leaf tobacco for the trade. There is no question about our soil being good for tobacco. It is being raised here now for farmers for their own use. With the proper drainage and irrigation all the requisites of a tobacco section of the south have been eliminated. The great difficulty was in getting ten acres of good land that would be idle at the proper time and ready for the crop. This was overcome by the statement that the tobacco would be planted just after the celery crop was off and several generous offers of the use of the land were made for the trial.

Mr. Embry will return later to put his plan in good shape, erect mammoth barns and warehouses and get all in readiness for the advent of Bill Burley, the man who may fight for first place in the affection of the people—fight Sally Ray and Letty Lettuce. The matter will be taken up at once by the Commercial Club and every assistance will be given Mr. Embry in his venture.

A Handsome Residence

The many friends of B. W. Herndon are congratulating them upon their handsome new residence recently finished and ready for occupancy. The home is most commodious and convenient and is finished in the beautiful white enamel effect with wall paper that blends in the color scheme. The rooms are large and the reception hall impresses the beholder at once with the fine arrangement of the staircase that while being a part of the whole is so tastefully arranged as to delight the eye with the rare design. No expense has been spared in furnishing and fitting this modern home in every detail and it takes first rank among the beautiful homes recently erected in Sanford. Park avenue in the principal residence street of Sanford and one that the visitors usually see first and the many fine residences now erected on that avenue will be greatly enhanced by the Herndon home and also by two other fine residences that will be erected early in the spring.

LETTUCE GOING FORWARD

About Thirty Cars Will be Shipped This Week From Sanford

Lettuce is going forward and if the cool weather prevails there will be plenty of the crisp delicacy going forward in the next few days and plenty of money coming back from the northern markets. The price on lettuce was $2.50 per hamper in New York last Saturday with the chances good for even better prices if the cold spell continued.

According to the general belief there will be about thirty cars of lettuce and remain leave the Sanford stations this week and should bring the growers good prices. Many of the local growers are relying upon the local market and the state markets to take the first crop or until the northern market becomes firmer. One grower brings in several loads of lettuce every day to the local grocery stores and is well content to take the prevailing price offered here. The general opinion now is that most of the lettuce and celery will be contracted for here and paid for before the stuff ever leaves Sanford. Even at a lower price than the New York market this is a safer plan for the grower has the money and the profit and like the old adage "The bird in the hand is worth two in the bush."

The lettuce crop here this season will be one of the best that has ever been grown in the south and at the present time is a beautiful picture. It is to be hoped that the growers who have labored so hard to bring the crop to maturity will stand together for a good price and will demand the price for Sanford.

Interested in Tourist Hotel.

J. R. Hayes, Michigan's leading and widely known hotel man, whom some will remember as operator of the Sanford House here for a season some years ago is quite interested in the proposed new tourist hotel at this place. Were he not so engrossed with his hostelrys at Detroit, Sault St. Marie, Mackinac and Hot Springs he would take hold of the enterprise here, and give Sanford the finest kind of a resort and traveling as well as visiting up to date inn that the country anywhere affords. Mr. Hayes is one of the most successful and popular men in all the United States.

Class Meeting

A delightful class meeting of the Junior Boys of the Congregational Sunday school was held at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Richard Terhune Friday afternoon last. Among the plans made for the close of the year's work was a Christmas box of clothing and books to be sent to the Reform School at Marianna, Fla. Under the leadership of their former teacher, Mrs. G. B. Waldron the boys have been sending to the Reform School monthly the "Well Spring," a weekly magazine distributed in the Sunday school. After the business meeting refreshments were served and games enjoyed until the late afternoon. The following officers were elected to serve until January: Russell Brady, president; Fred Wight, secretary; Earl Waldron, treasurer; Clifford Walker and Earl Waldron were elected to serve on the sick committee.

Band Concert

The delightful concert given by the Sanford Military Band in the park Sunday afternoon was exceptionally fine and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were within sound of the music. The baritone solo, "The Holy City," was especially enjoyed and elicited many compliments. Sanford is very proud of her band and considers it one of the most desirable assets.

Sanford Music Club

The Sanford Music Club will hold their regular meeting at the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. All members urged to be present.

Judging by all precedents in the Turkish-Balkan war the news from Constantinople tonight is the herald of another Turkish defeat at the Tchatalja lines, guarding Constantinople, where a battle has been proceeding for the last two or three days. The Turkish admission that so many wounded are arriving at the capital as to show that the Turks are offering a fierce resistance has signified in view of previous admissions of a similar nature and may be regarded as preparing the minds of Turks for another disappointment. It may be quite possible that this may prove the last great battle of the campaign. There are indications that Bulgaria may, after all, forego a triumphal entry into Constantinople. According to some reports Bulgaria will be content with finding winter quarters for her army while the peace negotiations are going on and subsequent settlements are being arranged. The question of mediation has been put forward another step, according to the announcement from Paris tonight that the Austrian government has agreed to join with the other powers in transmitting Turkey's request for mediation to the allies and inquiring on what terms the allies are disposed to accept mediation.

The Department of Agriculture claims that the wheat crop of this year will be 100,000,000 bushels greater than that of last year. Now if the big wheat crop does not help to fill the empty flour barrels it will be because the men who corner things and sew them up in a sack, are permitted to do things pretty much as they please.

Woodrow Wilson is a southerner, McCombs, his campaign manager, is a southerner, and the President-elect won on southern principles. Looks as if even southern newspaper men would be entitled to a small allotment of pie after March 10th.

A No Mud Association has been formed in Paris and as a result of the activities of the association, taking the shape of threats of legal action against the mud splashing omnibuses the municipal council has decided to hold a competition for splash guards. It will be remembered that tests of such guards, designed to protect the passers by from mud thrown by the wheels of a car were held in France some time ago, but no official action was taken.

President-Elect Woodrow Wilson considers attention to affairs in the state of New Jersey his immediate duty. He announced tonight that he would devote practically all next week to state business. This means that things national that may concern his future administration will not be taken up until late in December, because he will start at the end of the coming week on a steamer trip and a vacation, which will keep him away from political callers or office-seekers for nearly six weeks. The President-elect believes there is no necessity for haste; that by the time he is back from his vacation public opinion on various matters will have crystallized, and that by taking counsel with his advisors he will be able to make important announcements about his future policy.

Another milestone in the victorious sweep of the Balkan allies in the Turkish Bulgarian war was the entrance of the Greek army into Saloniki, which means almost as much to the Greeks as the ancient capital Uskup to the Servians. Crown Prince Constantine, after an interview with the commandant and the foreign consuls received the surrender of the Turkish army under conditions imposed by him. The report of a massacre in the city has not been confirmed and is not credited. Twenty-five thousand Turks gave up their arms and were paroled until the end of the war. All foreigners apparently are safe and will be able to depart by ship if they so desire.

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Preat 'Em"—So Says Sauterer.

¶ Fresh, abundant and cheap food can only be had by encouraging production. The present excessive cost for transportation, storage, selling and delivery, that is, for all the various processes of distribution which the so-called middleman performs, simply discourages the producer. Under present conditions the near-by sources of food supplies for many of the great cities are dormant or drying up. New York gets its fresh vegetables from the most distant points; Buffalo is fed very largely from the west; Albany does not receive one-quarter for her butter, eggs, chickens, or veal from the excellent farm lands around that city. The final absurdity is reached when far better apples than those which cost five cents each at the fruit stand, rot on the ground within a hundred miles of a great city.

Clearly there is a tremendous amount of waste in this whole process. New York City's annual food supply which costs $350,000,000 at the terminals, rises to $500,000,000 when the consumer gets it. Each inhabitant of the city pays his share of this $150,000,000. Either the profits are excessive or else the flow of food supplies from producer to consumer is hindered and stopped by unexpressible poor facilities. Is the middleman fattening upon the consumer? Should every wholesaler, jobber, dealer, commission man and retailer go to jail?

"Let us be quite honest about this matter," says a writer in the American Review of Reviews. The retailer not only has to pay high rents to be near your home, but he has to light, heat and man his store from daylight to late at night so that you can go to him at any time of day that may please your fancy. He maintains expensive teams, or else pays wages to delivery boys, and buys carts. He sends solicitors to your door to learn what groceries you wish for the day. He will deliver to you a five cent package at any time of day. He sends you your articles carefully done up in nice packages and carefully wrapped. It is a costly process.

"The delivery charge for the average grocery, or corner store, averages nearly one-half the total expenses for the establishment and adds from ten to fifteen per cent to the cost to the consumer. The fancy packages add from 50 to 100 per cent to the cost of the goods, and the public seems unable to withstand the bombardment of advertising by the large firms dealing in package goods. Then, again, the telephone has greatly increased the expense of doing business, while it has often lowered the quality of goods received by the housekeeper. With telephone at her elbow she does not take the trouble to prepare a list of her needs in advance, give one order and have it sent up with a minimum of expense in delivery, but sends in three or four separate orders a day.

"There are few if any facilities for storage of food in the modern city apartment, so that the meals are of the hand to mouth variety, and this tendency is further emphasized by the increasing number of women who go out to work, and who, upon their return, find it necessary to prepare hasty meals. Their purchases, especially of meats are of the chop and steak variety which can be quickly cooked, and there is a decline in the cheaper but equally nutritious stew meats.

"For all these comforts, conveniences and luxuries, performed as they are by the middleman, the consumer must pay. 'It is about time for him to stop playing the part of a man with a grievance,' says Mr. Holmes of the department of agriculture. 'Nearly all the grievances that can be corrected at all can be corrected by himself. He can buy with greater economy through cooperative efforts, and by paying cash, and also with greater economy of forms, preparations and varieties of things.' If consumers are willing to go to market instead of expecting the market to come to them, if they are willing to carry the purchases home, and even wrap and tie the bundles themselves then they may fairly claim the profit which now goes to the middleman.

"Let the women buy as their mothers used to do. Let them send their own crock to the grocer's for lard, and bring back for 65 cents what will cost them $1 in a can which they will throw away, or ruin in the opening. Let them buy their crackers from a box by weight and they will get sixty to the pound, instead of about forty in a pretty package for the same money: Instead of buying package oats at the rate of one half cent per ounce, let them buy in bulk and get 10 cents worth for 7 cents. Instead of buying sliced bacon in a glass jar, let them buy a "side" and cut it as wanted at half price.

"But will women buy as their mothers did in these days when their interests have become so much greater and more diversified? Have they the time? As for fancy packages, probably they are more sanitary, than the old barrel. Milk in bottles is more expensive than in the old tin can, but who wishes to return to the dirty can? The waste of many delivery wagons, expensive locations, and extension of credit are the natural results of competition! Ordering by telephone and by means of servants—are merely time saving devices, and, while they cost a great deal of money, this is a time saving age."

¶ As yet there have been no candidates to announce for the important position of alderman and I am afraid that the election will go by default. Will no one come forward and take the job? As an extra inducement I would be willing to throw in the postoffice as a prize to the first man who will offer to make the race for alderman. There is only one year more and the position will not entail much time or brain work. Just keep your eye on the indicator and look wise and you can get through all right and live happily ever after. Every citizen in Sanford should serve at least one term on the city council for it is your duty to the city and to yourself to look after the city's interests and the experience is worth something in after life, especially when the thought strikes you to criticize the party in office. The man who serves a term on the council has done his full duty as a citizen and while every one is inclined to duck the blow there should be a pride in the performance of your duty. The time is getting short and while there are a score of good citizens who should take their place in line they are very bashful about coming forward. Next week I will give a list of the men who in my opinion ought to announce and who if they did announce would be elected—that is, two of them would.

Come out, gentlemen! Don't be backward about coming forward!

¶ Well, my old college chum, Woodrow Wilson is the next President just as all of us predicted. That is every one predicted Wilson's election but Postmaster Haskins, and I actually believe he had hopes of Taft's election. It was all one-sided here and but little interest manifested in the election. There is one good feature connected with Tuesday's election. We now have a Democratic President, a Democratic Senate and President, a Democratic Senate and a Democratic House and if we can't make good in four years we will be recalled and a new party will go in and take the job. There are many new ideas to be put in force, the principal one being the tariff reform and aside from national reforms we people down here want a few things to come our way. Florida should be recognized as the greatest state in the Union for water transportation and all our rivers and harbors should be deepened. The express company that has had a grip on the pocket book of the south so long should be abolished along with the party that fostered it and the harpies that have hung like tentacles and parasites upon the Florida grower should be cast out. We need better freight rates and everything that will give the farmer and the merchant a chance to export and import at living prices.

Wilson is the friend of the people and has nothing in common with the plutocrats. We are looking for better times for everybody and for the first time in half a decade we have the chance to give real Democracy a fair show.

Like Mutt and Jeff we can say, "Here's to you, Woodrow. Show us what you've got."

¶ In every part of the state there is a scramble for the best offices to be handled in the next four years. There are some very fine pieces of pie to be handed around and there will be plenty looking for them. In Sanford there is only one small piece of pumpkin pie and there is no great scramble for that, because Mr. Haskins will hold it in his hands for quite awhile. He likes pumpkin pie and he enjoys it more in the postoffice than any other place on earth. There are some Democrats who have done much in the last 500 years trying to make the state go Democratic and they think they are entitled to the pie now held so lovingly by our esteemed P. M. There is only talk as yet, but in the next two or three years there will be several patriots willing and anxious to hold the job of postmaster at this seaport but there will no clothes torn in the scuffle. The job is no sinecure and like other government positions there is much work and little pay and with the advent of the parcels post the job of P. M. will be anything but a pension. There is some talk of letting these pie jobs go to a primary election and let the people vote on the man who is to hold all the federal jobs which would be very interesting, novel and unique—for all concerned except the actual contestants.

¶ Some of these days the people of this city will awake to the necessity of cleaning up their premises, painting the houses and fences and making their yards look like parks and less like alleyways for the reception of garbage and general debris. There are many people here who keep their premises clean and there are many who do not. Right on the principal streets of the city the grass and weeds are allowed to grow at will and the merchants who occupy the buildings are too busy or too lazy to give a thought to outside appearances. There should be a general cleaning up everywhere in the city for the visitors will soon be here and their first impression will decide whether to locate in an ill kept city or one where the people have a greater personal interest in appearances.

Book Circle
Mrs. B. W. Herndon entertained the Book Circle in her handsome new home on Park avenue Thursday afternoon. The ladies enjoyed a very interesting contest. The largest number of names of current magazines was given by Mrs. F. J. Gonzales, who won the dainty cut glass bonbon dish, given by the hostess for the prize. After the pleasant contest was concluded, chicken salad, sandwiches, olives and coffee were served. Several members of the circle were unable to attend the always delightful meeting. Those present were Mrs. Cruss Barnes, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mrs. Samuel Puleston, Mrs. George A. Spear, Mrs. Robert Newman, Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Jr., Mrs. Henry Wight, Mrs. F. J. Gonzales and Mrs. F. L. Miller were invited guests by the hostess to meet with the circle.

When your bicycle breaks down and needs repairing remember that you can get it fixed at 108 Palmetto avenue. Sanford Cycle Co. will gladly do the work for you. 24-3tc

Tax Titles Worth Little

"Florida tax titles aren't worth much, said a large land owner and lawyer to Metropolitan reporter today, and the man who buys property at tax sales always runs a strong risk of losing the amount invested. He is almost sure to lose if in after years any man fights his title.

"Quite a number of Floridians have during recent years made fortunes in contesting tax titles and regaining lands, and thousands of acres in each county can doubtless be recovered in this way. In short, few people who have secured property through tax sales or from people who have secured property through tax sales, have good titles, for in a majority of instances some defect can be found in the method of advertising or offered in preparing the sales. Floridians who buy property at tax sales should be careful to see that the Metropolitan is obliged to eat

OUR NEXT GOVERNOR

Now if I could paint Park as he and his wife see him he would appoint me on the supreme bench, wouldn't he?

For this is a law of persons—who ever discovers the disguise our vanity wears, owns us.

What does Park think of himself in his loftiest mood?

Here it is well to note this: A man's opinion of himself in his loftiest mood is almost certainly a lofty opinion, because it is the opinion of his wife.

Therefore, assuming that Park's sweet opinion of himself in his highest mood is accurate and real I can paint him as he sees himself if I can put my finger on the opinion he ought to entertain toward himself.

Have I your undivided attention? The flower of your attention? Then I shall proceed.

Park Trammell, this is your secret which you have been unable to disguise from the invisible Emperor whose palace is in the forest of Florida—and you know it and your wife knows it and everyone you meet knows it and Florida knows it and now the United States will know it! You are good.

Are you not ashamed of yourself? To be trustworthy and fine and clean and honorable and true, and to be caught with the goods! Is it not shameful?

Flowers grow along your path and no curses grow along that path. You are a good example to the young men and men like you postpone the destruction of the world.

You are good and the people love you. Women, who suffer most from evil men, prayed for you and wept silently at your astonishing success, and were not ashamed to tell their husbands.

A hundred years from now school children will look at your picture on the edge of a map of Florida hung in the schoolroom and the fact that you were good will help them.

Everybody loves you because you are good. You are safe and trustworthy and honorable.

A hush surrounds you. I can hear the birds singing across the field of corn over there. There are forests in the blue hush of which one throws away a cigarette. You are such a forest. Evil and wrong do not happen to appeal to you.

I give you my sprig of lilac—C. H. B. Floyd in Pensacola Evening News.

SPLITS ARE POPULAR

There is considerable agitation in West Florida about cutting off a part of the state in that section and making another state called West Florida or Gopher or Mayes state or some other euphonious cognomen.

The Herald will never howl if the state of Florida wishes to split in three parts, West Florida, East Florida, and South Florida. The state is large enough both in area and in population. Small counties and small states seem to get closer on big projects, accomplish more and get better results in improvements at a lower rate of taxes than do the big sparsely settled counties and states.

It may be that the Sanford section will want to divide, as much as all of us love dear old Orange and dear old Orlando, our county seat. There is small talk of it as yet, but the time is coming when Sanford will be the county seat of a new county, a county where we can have our own roads, schools and other requisites, and last but not least where the Sanford paper or papers can get part of the county printing once in twenty-five years.

Therefore, let West Florida secede. If she don't want to play with us let her go home and stay there. If Volusia county wants to divide let her do so and every one will live happily ever after. The Herald will have more about the county division as the time draws nigh and will have the columns open for discussion pro and con. County division is bound to be an issue in the next six months and there is no use in hiding behind the bush on the subject. We will look the matter square in the face and have it settled once and for all.

MADE NO MISTAKES

True 'tis strange, but strange 'tis true—the original supporters of Underwood, Clark and Harmon for the Democratic presidential nomination, have been more enthusiastic about Wilson's probable election than have the original supporters of the nominee. In this section a majority of the contributors to the campaign fund even did not favor Wilson's nomination. What's been the matter with the original Wilson men?—Puerta Gorda Herald.

Bro. Jordan must have been suffering from an attack of the blues when he wrote that. Really since the nomination of the Democratic ticket at Baltimore there has been nothing "the matter" with Democrats, whatever they have been their presidential preference before that time. Had Harmon, Clark or Underwood been the nominee he would have been as loyally supported by the original Wilson men as Wilson was supported by the original Harmon, Clark and Underwood men. We are a united party once more. We have made no mistakes—in testimony whereof the glorious victory of last Tuesday.—Bartow Informant.

An industry in Florida which has not received the attention it deserves is that of sugar cane growing and sugar manufacturing. The crop is made with comparative ease, and if the possibilities of the industry were carefully studied, we feel sure that this one business of sugar cane growing and manufacturing sugar and syrup would be about the greatest money-maker in the state. It looks to us like a good opening.—Madison Enterprise Recorder.

Sugar cane is one of the best among the many staple crops of Florida and the man who grows sugar cane in any section of Florida will always make a success of farming for the price is good every year and the profits large enough to suit the grower. B. A. Howard of the Howard-Packard Land Co., of this city is very anxious to try the growing of sugar cane on his Volusia farms on a large scale and manufacture both sugar and syrup. He is making an exhaustive study of the sugar industry and expects to make public some startling facts about the sugar and syrup industry in Florida. If people would turn their attention to sugar cane, sweet potatoes and the staple crops there would be more money in every section of Florida.

Now comes a Los Angeles lady who favors the ladies endorsing the suffragette plan of refusing to give their husbands any breakfast when said husband stays out all night. We would like to know who wants any breakfast after he has been out all night?

Flower Sale This Week

The Civic Committee of the Welaka Club will hold their annual flower sale at Roberts' store on Thursday and Friday of this week and those wishing to purchase flowering plants, hibiscus, poinsettias, crepe myrtle, roses of all kinds and shrubs should attend the sale, for not only will you get your money's worth but you will be helping to make Sanford beautiful, for the idea of the sale is to distribute the flowers and plants at cost, in order that the people can purchase them and plant their yards now.

Shipped Solid Car Lettuce

Joe Cameron takes the blue ribbon for being the first grower to ship a solid car of lettuce. There were other cars went out yesterday but they were made up by several different growers. Mr. Cameron shipped the car from his farm on Cameron avenue and he should realize a handsome profit from it as the lettuce was pronounced of very fine quality. As far as can be learned Sanford shipped the first lettuce of the season and Mr. Cameron is the first individual in the state to ship a car of lettuce. From now until the end of the season Sanford will ship more lettuce than all the other sections of Florida.

State of West Florida

By far the most important and far reaching subject treated in the speech delivered by Secretary Leland J. Henderson of the Pensacola Commercial Association, at the organization of the West Florida Chamber of Commerce in Pensacola Friday, was the formation of an independent state to be known as West Florida. The secretary pointed out that West Florida would never benefit materially by the actions of the peninsular section of the state; that that section of the state was an entirely separate and distinct section; that West Florida, if formed, would have a greater population than four states of the Union and would have a greater area than eight states.—Ocala Star.

"That Garbage Pile" If it wasn't quite so serious, I'd really like to smile; When I stand upon my back porch, And gaze upon my garbage pile. And in pity for my neighbors, My heart aches for sympathy, For that overflowing barrel Is in front of them you see. I know it's not enchanting, Nor can it be a charming view, When you're entertaining friends at tea To see that barrel, too. Hilt I've used up all persuasion, Of which I have a goodly stock; Yet that trash pile seems to stand as firm As old Gibraltar's rock. I have watched with eager interest For the coming of the man Who takes away the garbage "As often as he can." Or that is what he tells me, When after four weeks, six weeks more, I argue the injustice Of passing by my door. But you bet the tax collector Comes always just on time, And you always get a card that says, "Pay up, or you'll be fined. Sometimes, in pity for our sorrow, When he sees our awful plight, The cartman bird, in passing, Will upon that trash pile light. LET US SOLVE YOUR CLIPPER PROBLEM By furnishing you with a sample pair of the famous "TUTTLE CLIPPERS," now in use by 75 per cent of the citrus growers in California, and by scores of the big fruit companies in Florida, who have bought heavily of them the past month. We claim that the TUTTLE CLIPPER will pick all varieties of citrus fruits WITHOUT INJURY and that it renders clipper-cutting ABSOLUTELY IMPOSSIBLE. It will do as perfect work in the dark as in the day light, and can be operated by a child as well as by the most experienced orange grower. Favors Primary Plan To The Herald:

In regard to the proposition of a primary for federal offices to be settled under the auspices of the Democratic authorities it would be true Democracy to let the people choose. It would bring the right man to the right place. The people know who they want. It would be a sure way of ascertaining the wishes of the people in a matter that concerns them all. It would harm nobody. It would do away with the machine idea. It would be settling the matter at home. It would do away with the trouble of so many petitions and relieve headquarters of so much trouble. Provided no one who has already had ple offer unless the people choose that way.

WANT COUNTY DIVISION

Volusia Voters Circulate and Sign Petition Asking For It

Daytona, Nov. 11.—The petitions circulated for county division in the precincts, which took part in agitating the matter of county division of Volusia, was in some precincts signed by every voter who cast his ballot at the polls last Tuesday. In other precincts it was almost unanimous, so much so that the State Senator and two members of the State Legislature will carry out the wishes of a large majority of the people along the East Coast of Volusia county in presenting a bill for a new county when the Legislature meets next April.

In Daytona of the 259 votes cast, 210 petitioned for the new county. At Ormond and Holly Hill precincts there was not a dissenting voter. At New Smyrna 180 voted and 163 of this number signed the petition. At Seabreeze and Daytona out of 115 voters 110 signed the petition. Osteen signed its desire to come into the new county, so that the to come into the new county.

Religious Conditions in Sanford

The clipping which I enclose gives a most disastrous view of the condition of the Protestant church throughout the United States and the cause thereof. Does this apply to Sanford.

I was talking recently with a man who said he had not been in Sanford for fifteen years, and who after noticing the wonderful material improvement said, "And I suppose your population has doubled?" It has more than doubled. "I notice," he said, "that you have the same number of churches you had then and as I go from church to church I notice also that the attendance is about the same as it was then—no more, although your population has doubled." He did not refer to either the Catholic or Episcopal churches.

If this is true, it is a most disastrous state of affairs—a tremendous slump—a dead loss of 50 per cent in proportion to population. I have many converts from church people they all acknowledge it is true.

We should first find out the cause. Is it as the Harvard professor says that the preachers are not preaching the gospel, but are preaching politics and worldlyliness? Or whatever the cause, what can be done by the Christian people of Sanford to remedy this terrible religious decadence?

J. P. WILKINSON, Sanford Nov. 8, 1912.

A professor of Harvard last week told his clerical brethren that Protestantism was failing because preachers had abandoned the gospel and now preached politics, literature, social economy, ethics in its stead. He told them to open their eyes and see the tremendous life and power of the Catholic church. The priests, he said, preach religion to their people, and leave everything else to the profane professions. "Follow the example of the priests," he shouted, "and you will fill your churches with decent worshippers again. Keep up your political and sociological harangues and you will soon find your occupation gone." Too late!

Saving Japanese Cane for Winter Feed. By C. K. Metquarrie.

It is generally conceded by the stockmen of Florida that Japanese cane stands at the top of the list of forage crops. Considerable loss however occurs every winter from faulty methods of harvesting the crop. Japanese cane is subject to injury from frost, but not to such an extent as other sugar canes, because it does not shed the boot to protect the seed bed as most the seed bed cut the seed bud as it matures. In ordinary cold weather this boot is ample protection, but when a freeze occurs it is not sufficient. The joints that are immature when cold weather stops the crop's growth are certain to get frozen and become sour and unfit for feeding.

In a mild winter, Japanese cane can be left standing in the field to be cut or grazed as wanted. But as we cannot foretell the future weather conditions we must prepare for contingencies. Some leave the crop standing in the field all winter and turn the stock on it. This is a wasteful method, because a large percentage of cane is broken down and trampled under foot, and also at every recurrence of frost the damage from sour sap is increased.

When plenty of barn room is available, a good plan is to cut the crop when the first cold weather threatens and set the cane standing against partitions in the barn made for the purpose, taking care not to have too much bulk in any one place, and allowing for enough ventilation to prevent molding.

Farmers with tobacco barns find the section used for pole-curing tobacco very useful and report excellent results from the method, thus using the barns for summer and winter crops.

It is desirable to cut the cane as close to the ground as possible, as a long stubble is apt to be injured by frost, causing a poor stand next season.

Some feeders take care of the crop by erecting racks under a shed or cover of some kind, and stacking the cane in an upright position against these racks. This is as good a method as any, if care is taken to have all the butts touching the earthen floor.

Another method of preserving the crop, and one to be recommended, is to lay the cane in windrows when the first cold weather threatens. The cut canes are put in a long bed as is done when keeping seed cane, but care must be exercised that the layers are properly lapped, the foliage of one layer covering the canes of the preceding ones. This bed can be made much thicker than a bed for seed cane, and will preserve the cane in a normal condition until it is wanted for feeding. It is not necessary to cover the bed with soil, as in the case of a seed bed. A good covering of trash, decaying cane leaves, hay or anything else available will be sufficient.

Another method is to put the cut canes in large shocks in the field, as when shocking corn, making sure that the shocks are well tied up towards the top with either strong twine or wire, so as not to be blown down in windy weather. When severe freezing weather occurs, however, the outside of these shocks is much injured, and considerable loss ensues.

The selling price will be marked in plain figures and you make your own reduction of one-fourth during the sale. This sale will include Men's, Young Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Collars and Cuffs, Hosiery, Underwear, Night Shirts, Neckwear, Belts, Suspenders, Overalls, Overall Coats, Ladies' and Men's Umbrellas.

The store will be closed on Wednesday, November 13, to prepare for the sale and every one who appreciates a real bargain should be at Frank's store on Nov. 14th or during the three days' sale, for this sale is seasonal goods and the kind you will be needing in a few days. NEW OLD BUSINESS STREET

In the days when Sanford was the greatest city in South Florida and the only city that had railroad and steamboat connections, and the bulk of trade and travel stopped here Sanford avenue was the main street of the city and that part of the city was the main residence section of Sanford. All the houses that were of any proportions, the stores and the hotels aside from the Sanford House were on Sanford avenue and some traces of the former greatness of the early days were visible a few years ago, although reminders of former days by the appearance in Whittier's poem, "Like a ragged beggar sunning."

From time to time the stores moved and many of the residents moved to other parts of the city and Sanford avenue was left to a few of the faithful who still had hopes of the return of the pristine glory or who could not afford the high rents of the more fashionable part of the business section of Sanford. Some time ago Sanford avenue was visited by a devastating fire that swept two sides of the avenue clean for almost a block and true to the natural order of things the rebuilding was of a more substantial and better architectural order and so far has this building progressed that a visitor to Sanford would now be lost among the elegant brick buildings that are going up on every hand. The Duhart block has been finished, and by the way this block shows the thrift and enterprise of the colored people of our city, this new block being owned by a colored man who after his property was destroyed by fire raised the money for the new building and built of brick some of the nicest store rooms in the city. Just opposite this block C. H. Lefler is building a handsome brick block to take the place of the frame building destroyed by fire. Mr. Lefler is one of the pioneer owners of Sanford avenue property and has had an abiding faith in that section of the city and is now in a fair way of having his ideas realized. His new block is a credit to the city and like the new buildings going up in every part of the city these rooms have, all been spoken for weeks ahead of time.

There is rumor of several more brick blocks on Sanford avenue and that many of the merchants doing business in the higher rental districts will move to Sanford avenue and with First street extended beyond Sanford avenue and the lake front bulkheaded Sanford avenue will arouse from the sleep of a quarter century—arouse in earnest and the building operations now in progress will only be a starter for the good things in store not only for Sanford avenue but every other part of the city.

POSTMASTER IS SAFE

National Committeeman States That Republican Appointments Hold Good
Correspondence has been very active since the election of Woodrow Wilson by those who have aspirations for the large public offices of the government and petitions are being drawn up and letters are being written asking for endorsements, until some prominent men have on file stacks of letters along this very line, to be answered.

National Committeeman for Florida John T. G. Crawford was seen at his office just previous to his departure for Chicago and New York and was asked in regard to federal officers holding commissions, if they would go out of office with the beginning of the Democratic administration.

Mr. Crawford explained that postmasters and all other officers in Florida, appointed by the President, except the internal revenue collector, held their commissions for four years from their date and that in his opinion the President would not remove any such officers except for cause.

"Under such circumstances," said Mr. Crawford, "it is useless and you might thoroughly emphasize this fact that it is useless for aspirants to get up petitions at this time. This for the reason that they cannot possibly come up for consideration by the president until the terms of the several officers are about to expire."

In response to another question, as to the number of applicants already received, Mr. Crawford stated that he had already been requested by several hundred Democrats to endorse them, and he hoped other aspirants would bear in mind the fact stated, as it will save them and the senators and congressmen considerable useless correspondence and conversation.—Times-Union.

Soldier Accidentally Killed
Tobe Roberts, twenty years of age, a member of Company F, Florida National Guards, now on duty in Jacksonville was accidentally shot and killed at 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon while on guard duty on Highland avenue.

Roberts, who was the only support of a widowed mother, who resides in Jacksonville was sent out early in the afternoon to do duty along Highway avenue street car line, and it was while at that post that his pistol was accidentally discharged, the bullet going through his wrist and piercing his heart, killing him almost instantly.

Owner of Appeal Suiicides
Girard, Kans., Nov. 11.—J. A. Wayland, a founder and owner of the Appeal to Reason, a Socialist weekly newspaper published here, shot and killed himself in his home last night. Between the leaves of a book found lying on his bed the following note was found:

"The struggle under the competitive system isn't worth the effort; let it pass." Friends of Mr. Wayland attribut the act to his despondency over the death of his wife, who was killed in an automobile accident over a year ago.

Mr. Wayland was to have appeared in the federal court in Fort Scott, Kans., today to answer to a charge preferred by the government against the several editors and the owner of the Appeal to Reason of circulating through the mails defamatory matter concerning an official of the federal prison at Leavenworth.

Can Cut Whiskers Now
Up in Kentucky where the Rambler lived the election of Wilson means one important thing. Old man Joe Jackson can now cut off his whiskers. Down in Western Kentucky, where Mr. Jackson is intimately known, this will be one of the biggest events of the election. Mr. Jackson entered into an agreement in 1896, not to cut his whiskers until a Democrat should be elected President. He did not have a chance to use his scissors or razor in that year or in 1900 or in 1904, but he had hopes in 1908, only to be disappointed. In the meantime the whiskers continued to grow until last year they were down below Mr. Jackson's knees. He wore them on the inside of his shirt, except on state occasions, and was proud of the whiskers. In fact he is so proud of them that it is doubtful if he will cut them off even though he can do so and keep his word not to cut them until a Democrat was elected President.—"Rambler" in St. Petersburg Independent.

Rains for the North
Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.—Rains in the Pacific states and the extreme northwest for another day or two and their extension over the central and northern portions of the country by Tuesday is forecasted in the weekly bulletin of the weather bureau.

"In the Rocky Mountain region and the northwest the rains may change to snow by Tuesday," the bulletin says, "and after that time there will be a marked rise in pressure, accompanied by fair and colder weather, continuing until the end of the week and gradually extending eastward and southward, reaching the middle west by Wednesday or Thursday, and the eastern states toward the close of the week."

"In the south the weather will be fair and warm in the first half of the week, probably local rains later with falling temperature in the west gulf states."

On the Doctor
A boy had hurt his foot very bad in a factory and was taken care of by the doctor on the place without being any better. His mother tried to persuade him to follow her to town where she knew was a specialist on broken legs, and she persuaded the boy to go with her. The doctor in town examined the leg and foot and found it necessary to pull it hard and the boy screamed fearfully, but the doctor told him that it would get well in a day or two and they went home. "Well," said the mother, "didn't he do it nice?" Yes, said the boy, but I was not foolish enough to give him the sore foot.

Democratic Senate
Washington, Nov. 11.—The positive announcement of the success of Harry Lane, the Democratic candidate for the senate in Oregon, assures Democratic control of the upper house of Congress and places both branches of the national legislature and the Presidency in their hands for the first time in eighteen years. The addition of Oregon to the Democratic list gives that party forth-nine senators, or a majority of two.

In addition to the election of successors to Democratic senators now sitting, Democrats will replace Republican senators from Oregon, New Jersey, Kansas, Colorado, Montana, Delaware and Nevada, and will fill the vacancy in Colorado with a man of their choosing.

The contests in Illinois, where two senators are to be chosen, and in Tennessee and Michigan remain to be decided. The Democrats make positive claims concerning some of the states, but whatever the result in any or all of them, Democratic control of the senate is assured and the Democrats will be able to shape legislation if harmony prevails among them.

At noon yesterday every city car operated upon the Springfield division of the Jacksonville Traction Company's line was called in to the barns on Riverside avenue and manned by street car conductors and motormen, several of whom were in charge of the cars when the strike was called October 29th. According to reports current throughout the downtown district and verified by members of the Jacksonville Traction Company, seventy-five old employees resumed their positions at noon today. This means that enough of the old men have been given positions to equip every car operated upon the Springfield division with old employes of the company.

The first ripe strawberries of the season were taken into Lakeland a few days ago by D. K. Turner, who lives south of that town. Prospects are said to be good for a fine crop of berries this year, which, however, will not be quite as large as last year, owing to the heavy rains which prevailed all fall.

Spectators in the Alachua County Circuit Court room Tuesday morning witnessed the spectacle of a man indicted for murder in the first degree surrender to the officers of the law. This man was M. W. Maples, erstwhile livery stableman of High Springs, and his entry into the temple of justice was as quietly executed as was his exit on the afternoon of May 14th, nearly six months ago.

Dr. J. J. Goran of Lake City had the misfortune to lose his right hand a few days ago, which was blown into shreds by an explosion of a stick of dynamite. It seems that the doctor, along with others, was endeavoring to blow up a yellow jacket's nest when the accident occurred. The hand was so badly shattered that it was found necessary to amputate it a few inches above the wrist. His face was also badly hurt from the terrific explosion.

The State Text Book Board has ordered the publishers of the geography text book just been adopted for use in the public schools of Texas to remove from that book the picture of President Taft and substitute therefor the picture of Woodrow Wilson. Members of the board urged the removal of the picture of Abraham Lincoln from the school history, but the proposition was so vigorously opposed by Gov. Colquhoun that it was abandoned. The Governor informed the Text Book Board, of which he is chairman, that rather than have Lincoln's picture eliminated from the history he would resign from the Governorship.

COUNTY DIVISION NOW

The People Of This Section Are Desirous Of Separation

SANFORD TO BE THE NAME

Will Comprise All Of The Northern Half Of What Is Now Orange County

Orange county will be divided.

Just when this will take place has not as yet been decided but that it will take place is certain and assured and there will be no opposition to the plan. The present plans are to divide the county by cutting it east and west, giving Sanford county the northern portion and Orange county the southern portion.

The matter was brought up at the meeting of the Commercial Club last night and steps will be taken at once to start the agitation and to learn how much of the territory will be divided. A thorough discussion of the affair was given at the meeting of the club and every member present was in favor of county division.

After the club has so unmistakably declared itself as being in favor of the new county of Sanford a committee of county division was appointed. F. P. Forster was named chairman. F. L. Miller, George H. Fernald, Henry McLaughlin, Thomas K. Bates, C. R. Walker, Richard C. Maxwell, Charles M. Hand and W. W. Abernathy constitute the committee.

When the meeting of the club adjourned, the committee on county division went into session and had out its plans for a proper campaign of publicity to be given the project within the area described by the new bounds. Those precincts which were not represented in the meeting will have delegates added to the committee so that each portion of the territory that will be incorporated into the new county will have proper voice in the matter.

Secretary Bates has compiled the following figures regarding the new county:

From the vote polled in the county at the recent primaries and from the official records of registration the new county will have 7,500 population. The last census gave Orange county 19,107 population and by the withdrawal of the north end of the county Orange county will have 11,557 population, officially.

The last census gave population figures for some Florida counties as follows: Baker, 4,907; Brevard, 4,717; Calhoun, 7,465; Citrus, 6,731; Clay, 6,116; Franklin, 5,201; Hernando, 4,997; LaFayette, 6,710; Lee, 6,249; Liberty, 4,700; Duval, 5,570; Palm Beach, 5,577; Pasco, 7,502; St. Lucie, 1,975; Taylor, 7,103; Wakulla, 1,802; Sumter, 6,696. This makes seventeen counties in the state which will have less population than Sanford county.

Missionary Meeting

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church held their regular business meeting Tuesday afternoon in the church. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. H. H. Chappell, president of the society. After brief devotional exercises the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. C. H. Smith and the payment of dues followed a report of the treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Abernathy; also reports by the vice presidents of the society, who were present, were made. Mrs. M. A. Miot, fourth vice president, in her report of the gratifying financial success of the recent "Trip of the World" for the committee especially thanked the ladies of the society who so kindly gave the use of their homes and their personal work with their committees in decorating their homes to represent the countries to be visited on the trip.

The president presented to the society a suggestion by Rev. J. D. Langley pastor of the Congregational church, that the missionary society of the Methodist church unite with the missionary societies of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Congregational churches in observing next week as a union week of prayer, as it has been designated as a week of prayer for "Home Missions" by its Missionary Councils of the churches mentioned. The society accepted the suggestion and appointed a committee to confer with Mr. Langley and make the necessary arrangements as to programs for the meetings.

The Wednesday Club

The Wednesday Club held their first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Henry Wight, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

At this reunion meeting after the long summer vacation there was a splendid attendance of the members of the club with three visitors.

The program for the afternoon was most delightfully opened by Mrs. O. W. Brady, with two violin selections, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Irene on the piano, "Sing, Smile, Slumber," Gounod, and "La Cinquintine," G. Gabriel Marie. Mrs. E. L. Robinson accompanied by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher sang two charming solos, "Little Boy Blue," Nevin, and "Hedge Roses," Schubert.

After this very entertaining introduction, the minutes of the last meeting in May at the home of Mrs. S. O. Chase were read by the secretary, Mrs. Chase, also the minutes of a call meeting of the executive committee and the program committee at the home of the president during the vacation of the club, and a meeting of the executive committee last week at the home of Mrs. L. R. Philips were read by the secretary.

The president, Mrs. Geo. L. Martin, then brought before the club several important matters, which after a general discussion one item was satisfactorily disposed of and another temporarily suspended to be acted on later.

The business of the meeting transacted, the club listened with pleasure to the kind words of greeting and the address of the president, which was pleasingly prefaced by the salutation and greeting of the program committee on the opening program, "Good friends, dear friends, salutations and greetings to you all." Mrs. M. H. Fowler made a brief response to the address of the president. The club decided before disbanding in the spring to take up the study of Mexico for the present year's work. Mrs. S. O. Chase, chairman of the program committee, entertained the club with a very interesting outline of the work of the committee during the summer, in planning, reading and arranging their subjects and days, and which with the assistance of the committee for the Civics department has resulted in a most excellent and pleasing program. The roll was then called by the secretary and each member responded with a short reminiscence of the summer's pleasure or experience. Three names were proposed for membership in the club. Mrs. G. B. Waldron has been appointed by the president to represent the Sanford Wednesday club as delegate to the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which will meet at West Palm Beach Tuesday morning, Nov. 19th and continues three days in session.

After the interesting games of cards were concluded delicious chicken salad, wine jelly, sandwiches and coffee were served. Mr. and Mrs. Gonzales' guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. Samuel Pulgston, Miss Ruth Butler.

Preaching at Moore's Station

Rev. C. H. Summers will preach at Moore's Station Sunday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock. All are invited to attend. As this will be the last time Mr. Summers will be at this appointment before he leaves for the Annual Conference it is desired that a large congregation will be present.

Turkey has now formally applied to Bulgaria for peace, thus forestalling the tardy action of the European concert towards mediation. No armistice has yet been concluded; difficulties have arisen over the terms. It is said that Bulgaria demands the evacuation of Adrianople, Scutari and Monastir as a condition of agreeing to an armistice. Negotiations, however, continue. The censorship is again exceedingly severe and it is difficult to arrive at the correct idea of the military position. The fall of Adrianople is rumored from both Servian and Turkish sources, but this is still unconfirmed.

The Spanish premier, Jose Canalejas, was shot dead Wednesday, while entering the ministry of interior buildings at Madrid to attend a cabinet meeting. His assailant, Manuel Pardo Serrato Martin, aged twenty-eight, of El Grado, province of Huesca, was arrested and then shot himself. He is reported to have died in jail. Martin fired four shots at Premier Canalejas as he was entering the building of ministry of the interior. Three shots struck the statesman behind the right ear and he fell dead on the spot.

The total death list in Tuesday's wreck of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road at Montz, La., is placed at eighteen and seven of the ninety passengers who suffered injuries are in a critical condition. In addition to the unidentified dead taken from the ruins yesterday the body of an unidentified white man was found and the charred remains of one child and two adults were taken from the burned wreckage.

Sidna Allen was placed on trial for his life Wednesday on the charge of killing Judge Thornton L. Mause in the Hillsville courthouse shooting last March. Judge Buxton, attorney for Allen, in his opening address declared they would show that the shot in Judge Mause's chest had been fired from the side of the room occupied by the court officials, not from the side held by the Allens.

The announcement of the resignation of Lee McClung as treasurer of the United States was made this morning by President Taft. McClung tendered his resignation at a conference of the executive officers this morning, and the President announced his resignation was voluntary. It is believed that Carmi Thompson, the President's private secretary will succeed him.

Confederate Memorial Started

More than a thousand southern women, members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, journeyed to Arlington national cemetery Tuesday to lay the cornerstone of a monument to the Confederate soldiers buried there. The monument, looming beside the great stone shafts erected to the memory of Union soldiers, is designated as a lasting evidence that the north and the south are permanently united. For the first time since its organization, nineteen years ago, the United Daughters of the Confederacy held its convention in other than a southern city, when the sessions of the annual meeting began on Tuesday. The organization determined to meet in Washington that the Daughters might conduct the laying of the cornerstone of the new monument, which has been financed largely by that organization.

Col. Hillary A. Herbert, secretary of the navy under President Cleveland, was chosen as master of ceremonies for the laying of the cornerstone. He is head of the committee in charge of the erection of the monument. The orator of the day was William Jennings Bryan. On the platform also stood the officers of the Daughters and Mrs. Marion Butler, who had charge of the progress for the cornerstones laying ceremonies and the convention.
