FUTURE FLORIDA BUSINESSWOMAN: Capers today...career tomorrow!

Today, it's a game of "hunt and peck"... tomorrow, a promising career. When this young lady is ready to take her place in Florida's business world of the future, what career will also choose?

Today, Florida businesswomen are engaged in hundreds of productive, interesting careersin manufacturing, marketing, sales, advertising. design, aviation, agriculture-even politics. Practically no phase of Florida business is closed to women. Under our system of free enterprise, women are welcome in business and industry for their important contributions as employees, managers and owners.

But what about tomorrow? Will this girl be free to choose her own career? Or will she be a statistic in the files of some socialistic bureau...told where to work, how much she may earn, and when she may rest? She can have all the opportunities we have now, and more; but only if we preserve our system of free enterprise. It's the obligation of today's businesswomen and men to guard against socialistic trends in our government. Such trends are already hampering our record of progress under the free enterprise system which has raised our nation's productivity to the highest levels the world has ever known.

Just as free enterprise has helped American business and industry achieve record heights in producticity ... to has it helped Florida Pouer & Light Company keen pace with Florida's rapid growth - building new plants, new substations, new lines to provide more and more electric service so that today and in the future there will be more and more power available for HAPPIER FLORIDA LIVING ... Fine Holiday Record In Seminole County

Sanford and Saminole County compiled a very fine record during the Christmas and New Year's holidays. While the state and nation were registering near-record accident tolls, Sanford and Seminole County were chalking up enviable records on the highways and in the homes.

The death-free holidays here can be attributed to careful, considerate motorists. Law enforcement agencies deserve some of the credit because they worked around the clock in an effort to deter speeding and reckless driving. These officers are quick to say, however, that the man be-hind the wheel deserves the credit, or the blame.

The lack of a fire of any serious nature also was a bright spot in the area's record during the two long holidays. As in the case of traffice pre-holiday warnings, the local fire department issued pleas for caution around Christmas trees and furnaces during the cool weather.

These records, The Herald believes, are important from several aspects. Forecest, of course, is the fact that the city and county went through the holidays without loss of life; second, it shows that accidents need not happen; and third, It shows that the motorist and the homeowner are learning to work hard to avoid accidents.

The lack of a fatal accident was a very fine way to end a year; the death-free record of New Year's was a good note on which to start 1959. Seminole residents should remember, however, that fires and accidents do not occur only during holiday periods. The same care which rode with motorists during the holidays should accompany them throughout the year. Homeowners should be just as careful during the cold snaps ahead as they were during the holidays.

Let's make 1959 a banner year, free of fatal accidents.

First, Khruschev cannot be se deluded as to think that the West will, in response to his belliger ent demand, march out and abandon Berlin to some shadowy status as a "free city."
