Marking 'Em Up

By Julian Stenstrom During the current football season, the Colorado Feeds have had a great team. It's the best in recent years. Sanford is a number of years. Due to this, more Sanford fans than ever have shelled out their good dough to watch the locals display their talent. All this is fine but we've heard lots of comments that it isn't so good. The main thing is this: Sanford needs more seating facilities at the local athletic school.

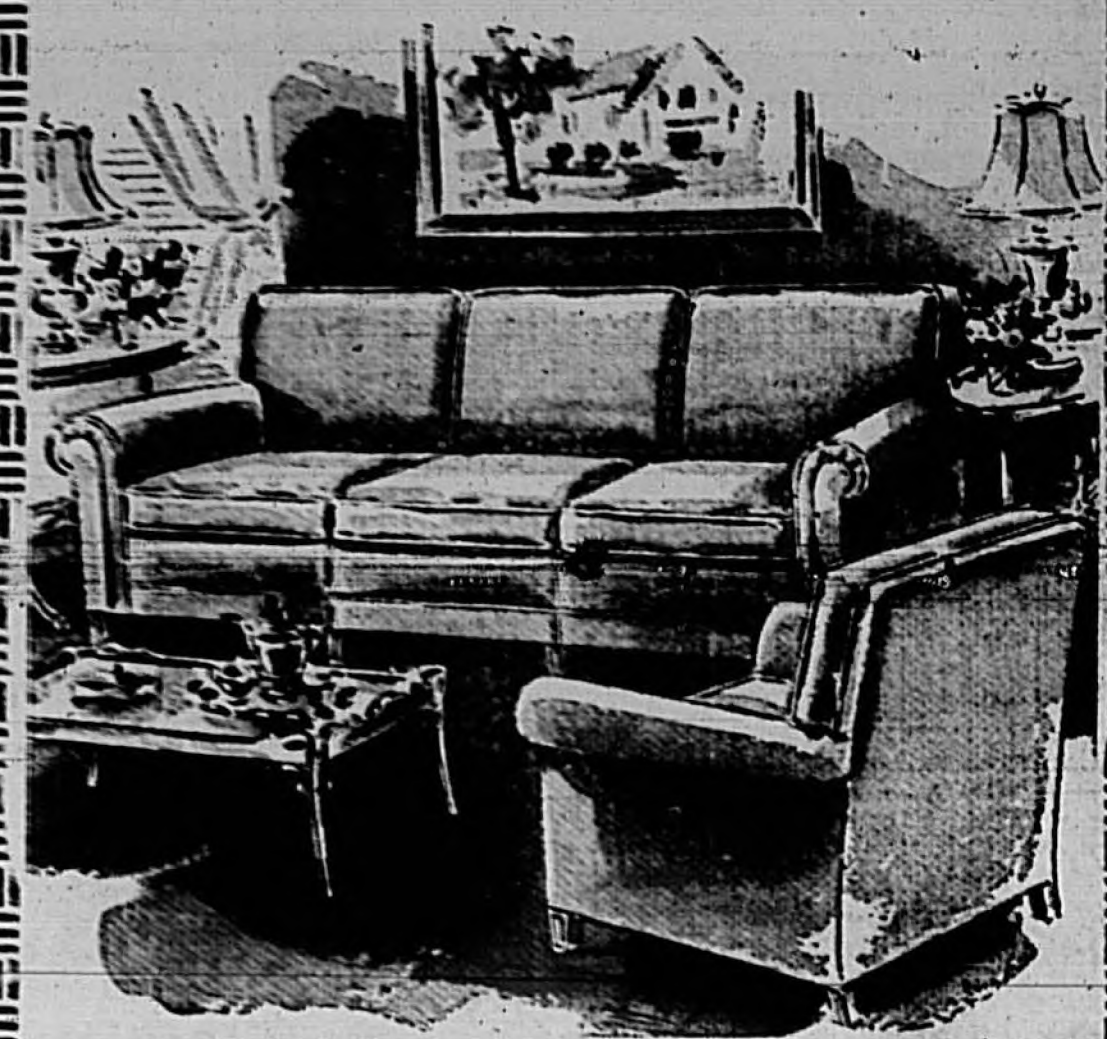

There's no one particularly responsible for this acute seating problem, save possibly Coach Kelleher, for springing the Feeds into higher conference brackets. However, there are lots of local people who are responsible for relieving this condition and they should take some kind of action immediately. As far as we remember, the field was constructed through WPA appropriations back in 1937. We really did not have a field at all. What the Feeds threatened to do every Fall till out of town unless a field was made available. Local city and county officials seem to work and obtained the necessary appropriation to construct the field.

At the present time, some 1,000 people are going on to see the home games. The stands on the south side of the field when some 1,800 people are present, are on the north side. So we suggest that identical stands be constructed on the north side of the field. We further suggest that during the winter the checkerboard sections of the two respective schools, plus each other use the north side as one section being seated on the eastern end and the other on the opposite end. This will leave the entire 1,800 seats in the south stand to adult customers who are more interested in seeing the game than listening to the kids' screams and cheers.

We realize that the stands cannot be built this year but they'll be needed next season and if the right people take the right attitude on this matter we should have the stands by then.

Let's Get Going What this country needs is more goods, more production, more people working - The public interest deserves more consideration than that - For four years America hasn't been producing enough of the things people need - new cars, new clothes, washing machines, radios, refrigerators - hundreds of necessities. We need these things - and we need them badly. But what is happening? The whole postwar production program is in danger. Union leaders are closing down plants - or threatening to close them down - while they hold up industry for more wages for less work - Instead of increasing production, there is increasing confusion. Fifty-two hours' pay for forty hours' work - or less. The veterans are entitled to a better homecoming. Consumers are entitled to better treatment. The working men themselves deserve a better break. Right now, what we need is production, production and more production - America needs more goods - more people at work. Let's get going! GENERAL MOTORS

Hitler's Last Will Is Laid Before Court

Evidence Shows Keitel Plotted To Kill Nazi Ambassador To Create Incident

NUERNBERG, Nov. 26.—(AP)—American prosecutors laid before the Nuernberg war crimes tribunal today what they called "Adolf Hitler's last will and testament." It showed secret, pre-war plans for aggression against England and France dating back as far as November, 1937.

The document disclosed that at that time, Hitler regarded both countries as Germany's "natural enemies."

But that was not all. In 1938, Hitler and Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel plotted to murder the German ambassador to Prague to create an "incident" leading to the invasion of Czechoslovakia. Hitler's documents also disclosed the former Reichschancellor as declaring that he would solve Germany's space problem no later than the period from 1943 to 1945. This prediction was fulfilled but not the way Hitler intended it.

The American prosecution indicated it probably would take all of this week to present additional material out of the some 20 cartons of Nazi documents at its disposal.

Meanwhile, the defense submitted a long list of motions which included lists of prospective witnesses and desired documents. Among these documents filed by the defense was one indicating that former number three Nazi Rudolf Hess planned to carry his insanity plea to court. Still another case of "shattered nerves" developed today among the Nazi defendants, this time it is former German Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop. His defense counsel declared Ribbentrop suffered mental lapses and asked the help of two former German ambassadors to refresh his memory on German diplomatic relations during the pre-war and war years.

The attack on Pearl Harbor was mentioned at the Nuernberg trial today. American prosecutors submitted as evidence stenographic notes of talks between Hitler and the Japanese foreign minister several months before that blow struck. The prosecutors told the court that evidence will show that the Nazi conspirators kept up a force that could reasonably be expected to result in war with the United States.

Lester Guthrie Discharged From Army Air Forces

Served As Pilot Of Cargo Ship During Pacific Operations

Lieut. Lester Guthrie a veteran flyer of the Army Air Forces, who participated in the Northern Burma Campaign, Indian Burma Border Campaign, Western China Defense and the Okinawa Campaign, and flew gasoline, bombs, food, and men over the hump, has returned to Sanford after receiving his discharge.

As a member of the Air Transport Command he flew cargo from Soerabaya, India, to Kuning, China, for one year. Lieut. Guthrie said the living conditions were "rough" and the duty tresschoreous.

Following duty in India he returned to San Francisco where he was land based and flew from San Francisco to Tokyo carrying prisoners of war patients and general cargo. Lieut. Guthrie was also scheduled to open today. Growth.

Lieut. Guthrie entered the Air Corps on Mar. 30, 1942 at the Orlando Army Air Base. He was trained at Maxwell Field and received his graduate flight rating at Craig Field where he was commissioned a second lieutenant and a flyer of pursuit ships.

At the time of his graduation in pursuit type planes the American Air Lines requested pilots to help them bridge an acute shortage of their pilots who had been called into the service. Lieut. Guthrie was assigned duty with the American Air Lines for five months and liked piloting the larger type plane.

In January, 1944 he flew to India and was thereafter assigned as a pilot of bomber and cargo type planes. This winter the following ribbons: American Theater, Asiatic Fleet with four battle stars. Distinguished Flying Cross with one cluster. Air Medal with a cluster and the Presidential Unit Citation. He was on an inactive status Nov. 9, 1945 at Drew Field and is at present residing with his father at 201 West Eighteenth Street.

40 Children Feared Lost In Accident

School Bus Swerves Off Slippery Road, Plunges Into Lake In Blinding Storm

WENATCHEE, Wash., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Possibly as many as 40 school children are feared to have drowned in a bus accident near Wenatchee, Wash. Sheriff Bruce Wilson says the school bus in which the pupils were riding left the road and plunged over an embankment into Lake Chelan. The sheriff said first accounts indicate that only seven or eight children escaped from the bus which was carrying 20 pupils. The accident occurred during a blinding snowstorm which made highways slippery. The bus plunged down the embankment to about 50 feet of water.

Emergency crews have been rushed to the scene. A large force has been floated to the spot where the bus went down and is being used in rescue attempts. The sheriff said the bus runs along Lake Chelan to 25-mile creek and takes children to school at Chelan near Wenatchee. The sheriff described it as the worst tragedy ever to occur in that section.

Wilson Reports Victory Bond Show To Be Held At Ritz Wednesday

Less than a quarter of the E bond quota of Seminole County in the Victory Loan drive has been sold, and therefore this county is not counted among the leading 24 counties of the state in this regard, according to Edward P. Lane, drive publicity chairman for the county.

The amount of E bond sales here today total $29,802 or 21 percent of the $174,000 quota set for the county.

Mr. Lane announced that every-day bond show to be held at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday at the Ritz Theater, and urged that all bond buyers who have not already done so, secure tickets for the show at the theater, the Post Office or the bank.

Featured on the program Wednesday evening will be Capt. Ross Lee Royall, Army nurse, who wears the Pre-Pearl Harbor ribbon, the American Theater and ETO ribbons, with one battle star.

Sanford Celeryfeds Ready For Leesburg

Goose Kettles' Celery Feds underwent a light workout today in preparation for their annual battle with Leesburg High School's Yellow Jackets on Wednesday night.

The Feds came through the battles tilt without any serious injuries although Harold Kastner sustained a hard blow on his head and was forced to leave the game.

Kettles plans to use the same starting lineup against the Jackets that he used against Mark Bradley's Cadets. The tilt will be Leesburg's homecoming game and a large attendance from Sanford is anticipated. Leesburg defeated the Feds last season by two touchdowns but the locals will be heavily favored over the Jackets this year as Leesburg has failed to annex a single conference victory.

The tilt will be the last regularly scheduled game of the season for the Celery Feds but they have two post-season games on tap. Next Monday night they go to Deland and will meet the Bulldogs in a contest being played for the benefit of the Deland High School Band.

Rotarians Show Motion Picture Of Okinawa Battle

District Governor Is Expected To Visit Club Next Monday

An official U. S. Navy, Marine and Coast Guard released entitled "The Fleet That Came To Stay" depicting the Battle of Okinawa was shown the Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon today by George Touhy who arranged the program.

In introducing the film, Mr. Touhy said that it was designed to show "how some of your money is being spent, how the kamikaze raids proved to be a desperate Japanese gamble which failed, and how the Victory Bond drive is necessary to raise the money needed to finish the job."

President Lee Lesher announced that Rotary attendance last month was 92.7 percent, the highest this year, and he announced that District Governor Fred Bullington of Jacksonville will address a meeting of the club next Monday night at 7:00 o'clock. He also commended G. W. Spencer and his committee for the success of the Ladies Night barbecue last Wednesday and Mr. Touhy and his committee for the program presented by Dr. Hamilton Holt.

Denies His Note To Japs In November Of 1941 Was In Any Way An Ultimatum

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Cordell Hull denied today that the note he sent to Japan on Nov. 26, 1941 was anything like ultimatum. Hull told the congressional investigating committee that there has been more misinformation and ignorant misrepresentation about that note than any other move the government made.

He said any peaceful nation would have been delighted to accept it, but the Japanese propagandists began calling it an ultimatum. At the time the note was delivered, he added, the Japanese were so hot that "hell-bent-for-war" was in the air.

Hull defended the policy of keeping the fleet at Pearl Harbor during those critical days. He used his salty Tennessee language to explain that it's a good thing to have a double-barreled shotgun around when you're talking to a desperado. The whole truth, said Hull, was that we were in our own waters, our own territory, on our side of the Pacific, following a perfectly peaceful course.

Said Hull, "There has been more misinformation and more ignorant misrepresentation—unintentional no doubt—about this proposal of ours than any move we made."

The former State Secretary said the note merely brought together the general principles on which the United States had been insisting since diplomatic talks began with Japan six months earlier.

Hull also had something to say about State Department insistence on keeping the fleet at Pearl Harbor instead of pulling it back to the west coast. He said he believed the State Department felt the fleet kept at Pearl Harbor in the critical days of late 1941.

Local Delegation Attends Florida League Meeting

Packard moved to Trux Field, Wis., and to Smyrna Field, Tenn., where he prepared for an overseas assignment. He departed from the states in June, 1943.

James H. Cowan, Pioneer Resident, Dies In Lake Mary

James Harmon Cowan, 88, one of the oldest pioneers of Seminole County, died Saturday morning at his home in Lake Mary after a lingering illness. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Methodist Church of Sanford of which Mr. Cowan had been the oldest member. The Rev. J. E. McKinley officiated. Mr. Cowan was born, Aug. 2, 1857, in Lakeview Cemetery.

The Cowan family were among the first pioneers of Sanford at a time when the land on which they settled and now occupied by the Sanford Naval Air Station, was known as Fort Reed. It was here that Mr. Cowan was born, Aug. 2, 1857, in Lakeview Cemetery. He became one of the most noted hunters of this section when a youth. He won many medals also for trap shooting. He was often found of morning in the vicinity of this section of the first railroad, the plant system.

BIBLE READING TODAY
 AND IT IS WORSE TO STEAL A MAN'S REPUTATION THAN TO STEAL HIS PURSE: Let him that stole steal no more.—Ephesians 4:28.

Strikes us Holland has the election in the bag.

What this country needs is bigger and better trash baskets for newspaper offices.

Over in Titusville they're talking about employing a full time city manager. Which reminds us, isn't Sanford suppose to have the "commission-manager" form of government?

With all these new jock joints, hamburger stands and roadside restaurants going up around Sanford, we don't see why someone doesn't start a cafeteria where a man can serve himself in a hurry.

Secretary Hull said they kept the fleet at Pearl Harbor prior to Dec. 7, 1941 because the Japs would have thought we were backing down if we moved it to safer places. Wonder what they would have thought if we had kept the Navy prepared and the ships ready for action.

Next week we attend the Florida Press convention at Silver Springs. Last couple of years the regular sessions when one week's editor meets another runs like this—"Got an operator or printer or pressman you can let me have?"—Leasburg Commercial. They all have their troubles.

It is rumored that Lex Great may enter the race for the U. S. Senate. Don't think it will be worth while; the people haven't forgotten that poor loser's statement he issued when he was defeated for governor. He may run for Congress again in his old district.—Florida Advocate

Juvenile delinquents, those teenagers we've been hearing so much about, have about as "rimy-age" taste for reading! This fact has been discovered by social workers.—Melbourne Times
 And if they can read at all, they read comic magazines where they get many of their screw ball ideas.

Lumber and building restrictions have been removed. Now all one has to do to build a new house is to find a workman to dig the cellar, a mason to lay the wall, a carpenter to build the house, a painter, and decorator to finish the interior with which to build it.—Lake Worth Herald. Removing price ceilings would quickly help him to find all these things.

We wonder if there is another politician in the country with the courage of Tom Watson. At a time when even Presidents quake at the thought of telling organized unions what is the matter with them, Tom Watson stands right up in public meetings and lays down the law. Unions may not agree with him—certainly don't—but they can hardly fail to admire his courage.

George Wagon Leasburg banker is now writing a newspaper column which is attracting considerable attention. In a recent one he said: "Our country has assets that are intangible, that can't be counted in dollars and cents. . . . One of these intangible assets is men and women of character, determination, vision and ability. That is something worth thinking about. A town may have everything else in the world, but if it doesn't have character, it like an individual, doesn't amount to much."

Tom Gorman of Orlando has something to say about the United States of Florida. "We are going to make a big mistake if we do not . . ."

Duty To Philippines
 Impetus for improving economic and political conditions in America's far eastern possession, the Philippines, was strengthened by President Truman's moves to expedite the flow of consumer goods to that island area, with backing from the Export-Import Bank.
 The Surplus Property Administration, too, has been asked by the executive to draw up plans for transferring to the Commonwealth large supplies in its control, particularly medical and hospital equipment greatly needed by the populace. The scheme of practical aid to the war-ravaged islands comes in the face of evident American impatience with the program of President Osmena who, it is claimed, has been slow to work for stabilization as well as to punish pro-Japanese puppets. The aim of the United States is to purge all collaborators from government offices, to steady national finances and to improve general living conditions before the elections which are scheduled for early next year.
 Most of the Filipinos fought valiantly and loyally against Japanese domination. They are worthy of the best America can give them. But even more than Philippine well-being is at stake, important though this is. The United States is not eager for colonial possessions. But having this one it is important to do a good job with it, and so doing to demonstrate to the world that this country believes in the doctrine of democracy, human rights and freedom.

Grandma Chops Wood
 One of the best news pictures lately in the papers shows a sturdy, gray-haired woman aged 87, toying with what she says is an effective arthritis cure. She is Mrs. Emma Kupfer of Bay Village, O., and she says the cure is surprisingly simple and, inexpensively. It consists merely in sawing wood and not saying much about it. But she is a bit proud of her muscle and her wood pile, and is glad to show both to all observers.
 White oak is rather tough to handle, she admits, but nature sort of helps when a woman needs the wood. The coal she ordered last May hasn't arrived, she explains, so she had to provide a substitute, and she herself was the only one available.
 It should rejoice the soul of any masculine wood-chopper to see that old lady on the job, whether sawing or chopping. She is warmly sentimental about it, and even about the one-handed saw she is obliged to use. "It used to be two-handed," she explains gently, "but that was when my husband was alive. We used to get a great kick out of working together outdoors. After Ed went, I fixed it up so I could do it alone."
 She has a pet peeve, however. The busses and automobiles flitting along the road annoy her—they're so effeminate, as you might say. And she certainly doesn't want to end her days in an auto.

Back To Ancient Days
 Cultural interests will vie with war subjects in 36 recently announced year-long Guggenheim fellowships to returned service men and women bent on studies covering literature, science and history. A former army sergeant shortly will be enabled by the grant to complete a life of David Hume, philosopher, historian economist of the 18th century, friend of Adam Smith and Rousseau.
 The age of Cicero and the Italian Renaissance are among other subjects to be followed, as well as the American Negro's part in the war, the history of air transport command and micro-wave radio frequencies.
 It's encouraging that mankind's scholars can turn from concentration on an all-absorbing war to areas of human learning unrelated to battles. And it is good that the history of hostilities can be recorded by men and women equipped to bring a scholar's viewpoint to task.

SANFORD FORUM
 Sanford, Florida
 Nov. 20, 1945
 Editor The Herald:
 Perhaps I owe the medical profession an apology. Rather extensive reading thru the past few years had led me to the conclusion that they were opposed to socialized medicine. But their action in raising already excessive charges, as announced in last night's Herald—Monday—leaves the people no choice. To us who live a few miles in the country this makes private medical attention no longer possible. They can't work for nothing and if private patients can't pay, then we must conclude that they want the government to take over the business.
 My husband works in the city for a very moderate salary and does not draw several dollars per day for the extra mileage. Hitherto the charge for house calls in the city was $3.00 inside city and a dollar per mile more beyond that. We paid $7.00 per call. Now house calls in city $5.00, an increase of 66 2/3% and other charges proportionate.

Seminole Drops Tilt To Bolles Eleven, 13 To 6

 A single first down and 34 yards for the Cadets. However, the Feds were unable to tally another first down until the final quarter, while Bolles, in their rampaging second half, racked up nine first downs and 131 yards on the ground and nine yards via the aerial route.
 The victory permitted the Cadets to retain their Dickinson system conference lead and eliminated any possibility of Ketterling's of St. Augustine of capturing the loop title.
 About midway in the first period after an exchange of puns, the Feds opened a drive when Sanford recovered a fumble by Hatfield on the Seminole 47 yard stripe. After Anderson and Brooklin had gathered five yards, the big Fed fullback went off tackle for 14 yards and again for eight more. Following a Bolles time out, Anderson plowed to the Cadet 20. He went off right tackle for six yards and then dashed to the five as the first quarter ended. On the following play he carried the buckskin to the three and then went over his right guard for the touchdown. The total yardage of the drive amounted to 53 yards. Clark's attempted conversion from placement was low. Bolles threatened as the first half ended when Jack Friedland tossed a 31 yard pass to Worthley who was downed on the Sanford ten. However, the half ended at that point.

 Anderson's touchdown was the second time that Bolles had been scored upon on their home field in two seasons.
 The Cadets opened the second half with a bang when Friedland took Singletary's kickoff on his own 15 yard line and bashed some beautiful blocking traveled 85 yards for a touchdown without being molested by a single Fed athlete. It was a beautiful runback, although he was nearly caught by the Fed end, Glenn Lingie. Hatfield converted from placement to take the lead.
 The Cadets threatened again late in the third period when they drove from their own 31 to the Fed five yard line. However, the Fed forward wall came to life and halted the big Cadet backs as they attempted to go over the line on three plunges. On the final play, Friedland attempted a pass to Hatfield but it was incomplete.

 In the fourth period, Bolles took off from their own 37 with Hatfield and Friedland carrying the mail. They tore through great gaps in the Fed line. From the nine yard line, Friedland sliced off tackle to score. Hatfield converted from placement but the Cadets were penalized 15 yards from holding on the play. Friedland attempted to convert on an end run but was brought down before crossing pay dirt.
 Greedy Williams, big Cadet how does the M.D.'s figure it? Accepting his own valuation for medical services at $5.00, he gets $2 2/3 dollars for a fifteen minute drive!

 What's that you said about the taxi cab bandits?
 "These charges until 10:00 p.m."
 What then? A deed to the home and a promissory note for the balance?
 Indignantly Yours,

Long Arm Law Automobile Owners & Drivers

If you drive or if your car or truck is driven in any State in the Union and is involved in an accident, you can be compelled to return to that State to defend a suit.

Recently a party from another State had an automobile accident in Sanford. He was insured in one of the companies we represent. The insurance company agreed to pay any claim for bodily injury and property damage against him and he was allowed to continue his trip.

Without insurance his car would probably have been tied up in court procedure and he required to return to Sanford to defend the suit.

The cost of this protection is very reasonable for the benefit you get. For $16.00 you can be protected up to $5,000 for bodily injury and property damage claims while driving your car in any State.

Why Gamble? Call 178-3, C.M. Boyd & Co.—Adv.

Happy Birthday

Nov. 24 Mr. Thomas Norris Hill

Florence Mae Best Weds Tony R. Ticconi

In a wedding characterized by quiet simplicity Miss Florence Mae Best, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Robert Best, Sr., of Lake Mary, became the bride of Tony Ralph Ticconi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ticconi of 36 Franklin Street, Lyons, N.Y., on Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. W.P. Brooks, Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families.

The vows were exchanged before the fireplace which was banked with greenery while the maid held an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and fern interspersed with lighted white tapers. Arrangements of white blossoms and fern decorated the living room and dining room.

The bride, who entered upon the arm of her father, wore a street length dress of aqua and black print which featured three quarter length sleeves and a train. She carried a bouquet of Marchal Neil roses and tuberoses tied with wide yellow satin ribbons. Her hair was styled in waves and she wore a dress of wine colored crepe made on tailored lines with which she carried a bouquet of radiance roses tied with matching satin ribbons. Joseph Ticconi, Jr. served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the bridal party and a few close friends. The dining table, overlaid with a lace cloth, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bridal couple. At one end was placed a crystal punch bowl presided over by the bride's cousin, Mrs. Milton Powell.

After spending some time with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ticconi left for a wedding trip after which they will return to Savannah, N.Y. to make their home.

Lieut. Andrew Carraway has arrived home from duty with the U.S. Naval Reserve in the Pacific. He will reside with Mrs.

TERRACE TALK

EMILY BELL looked like a pink princess at the Lions Dance. ELLISON MEISCH was a debonnet beauty.

SYD SCHIRARD wore a very becoming off-shoulder black number sprinkled with gold. the RAMSEY's pre-dance party was wonderful fun.

the HIGGINS attended en masse as did the ROBSONS. HELEN and ANDY CARAWAY looked wonderfully happy being together again after ANDY's tour of duty in the Pacific.

JULIA and WALDY DIETRICH together after WALDY's discharge from the Navy and by the way they were celebrating their anniversary.

DR. RUCKER giving forth with some good jokes. MR. and MRS. BILL LUDWIG being wonderful sports and having their share of fun.

VERNE and E. B. SMITH celebrating "being out of the army". DOT and JOHNNY COURIER looking smooth as pie and happy as ever. and shikero RICHARD DEAS amid confetti still being the smoothest dancer in town.

JESSE DURDEN all beaming in black. ELIZABETH DYSON in a swirling multi-colored skirt with NAVY escort DALE PETERSON. BRUCE BOLT being the life of the party and saying "Let's all go to my house after the dance."

and I might add - see did. HAZEL SIRMANS fresh from the dentist Friday morning after a good "cleaning" and with a sigh of relief because no cavities were found. Have you noticed all the new faces in town? don't know whether it's all Navy or tourists - could it be that we have tourists?

do you think it would be a good idea to have a centrally located register so that we will know how many tourists we have, where from, where located in Sanford???

What has happened to the opening of the Country Club Dec. 15? Personally I'm all ready with new lawn, antique golf clubs and all the enthusiasm in the world. Let's get committees and start the ball rolling.

I stands for sweaters but not for sloppiness. and neither will your public. Wash and block your favorites regularly. Taste around the neck with white cotton thread and pull snug while the wool's still damp. Glamorize an old cardigan with plaid ribbon binding and silver buttons.

You should know about the 80% collision or upset automobile insurance offered by the State Farm Mutual Insurance Co. If you carry $50 deductible collision or upset insurance on your car or truck—$50 is deducted from each collision and upset claim. If it costs you $50 to repair a damaged fender, you pay ALL. If another fender is damaged and it costs you $50 to repair, you again pay ALL.

If you had 80% coverage you could get both fenders repaired by paying only $20.

The premium after the 1st year is no more than you would pay for the $50 deductible kind and $15 to $25 less than you would pay for the 80% coverage in most companies.

Marking 'Em Up

With JULIAN STENSTROM

While on the way to Jacksonville Friday for the Fed-Holles tilt, we had a nice chat with a former Florida U. student who gave us more lowdown on the football situation at Florida. About 1928, it seems as though Florida was getting to be a powerhouse. They were tackling some of the best teams in the east and south and in plain language just "rainin' 'em." Since Florida was going to town, a stadium in Gainesville was proposed to handle the large crop of Gator fans who were anxious to see the Florida eleven.

Mr. Ed Lane of the Barnett Bank in Jacksonville backed the movement and put up the dough for the construction of Florida Field in Gainesville, which seats some 20,000. In order to insure his investment, Lane sent Ed Jones to Gainesville and within a short time Jones was athletic director. Jones' first move was to cut expenses at Florida and he started with the hiring of a low-paid all-Florida alumni coaching staff with Dutch Staudy at the helm of the Gators.

From that day to this Florida has never been able to put what might be called a winning eleven on the field. The boys have fought hard and worked hard and no doubt the coaches have given their best but a winning combination couldn't be produced. Only once did Florida threaten to produce a winner and that was back in '36 we believe. But those were only pre-season threats produced in the Florida publicity plant for Brady Cowell's Steam squad went up to Gainesville and set the Gators back 18 to 14 in the season's opener. Incidentally, Sanford's George McClelland was one of Staudy's great backs that season along with Warren.

The State Board of Control has allowed the University Athletic Board only $25,000 per season within the past few years for operating expenses and all of us know it practically takes $25,000 to pay coaching salaries alone. The Florida Legislature is going to have to start looking all over this football situation and appropriate the State Board of Control more dough so it can allot more for Gator football activities.

With more money the University Athletic Board will be able to make more attractive offers to outstanding high school football players who are currently going out of the state to star for other teams. The fact that sublimation exists is no secret within Southeastern Conference circles. Last year a local man called Tom Lieb, Florida's head coach, and asked him if he would address the local gridgers at their annual banquet. Tom expressed the fact that he would have to be elsewhere but at the same time accused Florida alumni in Seminole County of letting him down in getting local high school stars to attend Florida. Tom was asked what kind of offers could be made and he openly said the best he could do under the circumstances would be to give the kids board and room. At the same time, Georgia, Alabama and other schools were offering the same inducement plus $15 per week pocket change. Who could blame the kids for accepting the best offer? But we will not hesitate to ring our bell for better coaching at Florida. We're still paddling Jack McIlwain's boat and would like to see him as Florida's mentor. We realize the chances are 100 to 1 against McIlwain going to Florida but we'd like to see him there. At the present, McIlwain is coaching the University of Havana eleven along with Bob Zupke, former Illinois mentor.

We saw Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hoffmann in Jacksonville last Friday and their many friends here will be glad to learn they're both well and looking grand. Bill says he's planning to return to Sanford as soon as possible and we're sure they'll certainly be welcomed.

Officials Consider Miami For Bowl Tilt

MIAMI, Nov. 26, (AP)—With Holy Cross signed on the dotted line for a New Year's Day Orange Bowl date, Miamians and up-staters, too, have begun beating drums for the University of Miami as the "other contender in the football classic.

The Orange Bowl committee has acknowledged it is giving serious consideration to Miami University as a possible Holy Cross opponent—that is, along with three Southeastern Conference teams, Louisiana State, Tennessee and Georgia.

A second Orange Bowl appearance for Miami will be discussed at a meeting of the quarterback club at Miami today. The Miami team met Bucknell in the first presentation of the New Year's classic in 1935.
