

First Lady Kided By Reporters

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The tall, dark-haired lady in the evening gown stood on the stage and sang:

"London says my smile is warm
"Vienna went wild about my form
"I've taken the whole world
"by storm
"Monotonous!"

She went on like that for a while to the tune of "Monotonous," looking for all the world like the lady she was singing about — the First Lady of the United States.

But the First Lady of the United States was sitting in the audience, watching her with a small smile. It was Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy's first exposure to the ribbing of the Women's National Press Club, and it was a comparatively mild one.

She weathered it with apparent good humor, as she did similar barbs at her husband and her daughter.

Three-year-old Caroline Kennedy, played by petite Bonnie Angelo of Long Island's Newsday, trotted about the stage and spotted Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, played by Helen Thomas of United Press International.

"Hello, Mr. Vice President," she piped. "Thank you for the poison darts."

After the dinner and musical satire ended, Mrs. Kennedy got up and told the women that the President was "so sorry" he couldn't attend because of his strained back.

But she said "it was belated justice that there is only me here tonight," because rules prevented her from going to the all-male dinner of the Gridiron Dinner, which presented a similar spoof earlier this year.

She went to the dinner in a melon colored chiffon gown, escorted by Johnson.

Deena Clark of Diplomat Magazine took the part of the First Lady, and Betty Beale of the Washington Evening Star and Hall Syndicate played the President who sang:

"I used to think golf was a crime
"The White House on weekends divine
"But now that I'm in with all of my kin
"It ain't necessarily so."

Kennedy Getting Better But Cancelling More Dates

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy, according to the White House, is getting better but cancelling more dates lest undue exertion impede recovery from his back ailment.

The Chief Executive in the past 24 hours:

- Dropped tentative plans to dedicate the Los Angeles International Airport next Sunday and fly on to Hawaii for a June 27 speech to the National Governors Conference. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will take his place.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is the look that started with Thunderbird and the Galaxie—and quickly became the styling success of the Sixties.

Many cars have tried to copy it. No car has succeeded. Incomparably beautiful, the 1961 Galaxie maintains its distinction—as originals always do.

Styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction: this is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications... 4,500 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically.

The muffler is built to last three times as long as ordinary ones. The body is specially treated to resist rust and corrosion. The fenders never need waxing.

Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do?

SWAP right now while your Ford Dealer's sales are booming—and the swapping is easier than it's ever been before.

SAVE with the Ford that makes saving fun!

Today is the day to STOP... SWAP... SAVE

Freedom Riders Face Certain Arrest

By United Press International
More "Freedom Riders," one month to the day martial law was declared in Montgomery, Ala., following racial violence, will leave the Alabama capital today for Jackson, Miss., where they face certain arrest.

The biracial group of five Negroes, three white girls and a white man pulled into Montgomery Tuesday from Atlanta. Martial law was no longer in effect, but the crowds were there, sullen but restrained.

About 60 police officers surrounded the Greyhound terminal, scene of the May 20 mob violence which greeted the first "Freedom Riders" into the former capital of the Confederacy. They kept a crowd of about 600 white persons at bay.

The "Freedom Riders" made no attempt to use bus terminal facilities. Police and firemen had received bomb threats minutes before the riders' arrival and the integrationists complied with police requests not to enter the building.

The Rev. Wyatt Tee Walker of Atlanta, executive secretary of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and leader of the group, said the riders would proceed to Jackson today. The group spent the night in a Negro section of Montgomery.

Walker and his followers were expected to join 14 "Freedom Riders" from California in the Jackson jail. The west coast riders pulled into the Mississippi capital Tuesday aboard an Illinois Central train from New Orleans and were quickly arrested.

The arrests brought to 151 the number of "Freedom Riders" jailed in Jackson since the anti-segregation campaign began in May.

The 14 riders from California, three Negroes and 11 white persons, were brought into court within minutes of their arrest and convicted on breach of the peace charges.

Elsewhere, a homemade bomb was tossed from a speeding automobile in Atlanta early today, extensively damaging a Negro restaurant in a southeast section of the Georgia capital. Six persons were in the building, but no one was injured.

Police and the building owner, J. L. Jordan, said they knew of no motive for the bombing. An entire wall of the concrete block building was demolished by the explosive, which police said was probably dynamite.

In Biloxi, Miss., a federal dis-

Housing Bill Up For Debate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House brought up for debate today the administration's controversial catch-all housing bill, which Republicans claim would cost up to $9 billion.

The far-reaching bill would subsidize rental housing for middle income families, build sewers, waterworks and other facilities for small cities and buy land for parks in big cities.

It would also grant President Kennedy's request for government-insured, no down payment, 40-year mortgages at low interest for homes costing up to $15,000.

The no down payment was clipped out of a similar bill the Senate passed last week.

A batch of amendments are expected to be thrown at the bill by opponents. Democrats estimate its cost at $4.9 billion—minus some subsidies for public housing and a few other portions—and Republicans claim it would all come to $9 billion.

Showers Across East; Texas Hit By Floods

By United Press International
Showers across the East and flooding in Texas greeted Summer's arrival today.

Thunderstorms and squalls lashed South Carolina, Georgia and Florida and the Weather Bureau, estimating spring's official exit at 8:30 a.m., said wet weather would blanket the Atlantic states. Texans braced for flooding along the Colorado River from Columbus to Bay City, and the Rio River at Calhoun.

A cold front dropped temperatures in the southern Great Lakes and the north and central Atlantic Coast. Warm air moved into the middle and lower Missouri Valley, Central Great Plains, upper Mississippi Valley and the central Rockies.

High winds, blinding rain and several unconfirmed tornadoes struck the Gulf Coast of Alabama and northwest Florida Tuesday flooding dozens of homes. The Alabama highway patrol said a tornado unroofed two homes and killed a flock of chickens near Dothan. Winds destroyed tobacco barns near Tallahassee, Fla., and measured 60 to 70 miles per hour at Seagrave Beach.

Authorities rescued 14 persons including 11 children from flooded homes near Prichard, Ala., outside Mobile. Valdosta, Ga., reported 55 m.p.h. winds, and Milton, Fla., had 5.6 inches of rain in six hours.

In Texas, Beaumont and Port Arthur each chalked up more than seven inches of rain in 24 hours. Overflow on the Guadalupe River was expected to top eight feet above flood stage at Cuero and Victoria late today.

Vigilantes Arrive At NAS

Capt. Frank E. Edwards, Commander, Navy Attack Wing One, led a flight of four A-1J "Vigilantes" from the North American Aviation plant at Columbus, Ohio, to NAS Sanford last Friday signaling the first delivery of the Navy's newest heavy attack bomber.

Capt. Edwards led the light diamond formation over Ramey Field and then executed a field carrier break-up, approach and landing. The planes again went into formation on the taxi strip and proceeded to the parking area where they were greeted by Navy and North American Aviation officials.

The other "Vigilantes" were piloted by Cdr. Warren Hoelzer, Lt. Cdr. James Burton, and Lt. Cdr. Tom Lechner all Bureau of Weapons pilots working at the North American Columbus plant. Some of the comments made Friday were:

Capt. Edwards, "Wonderful flight. I'm very happy to have the Vigilantes here."

Lt. Cdr. Ben Scott (who flew as Capt. Edwards' navigator), "Everything during the flight went very smoothly."

Lt. Cdr. Burton, "The people at NAA Columbus worked very hard to send off four A-1J's." (The original schedule called for a one-day delivery of the A-1J's to Cdr. Hoelzer. "All the pilots are very happy to have participated in this first delivery flight."

Dean Raine (Senior North American Representative at Sanford), "The Navy has done an outstanding job preparing this facility for the A-1J."

Official Photo Of Mrs. Kennedy Is Released

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House has released the first official photograph of Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy since she became First Lady.

The photo released Monday night shows her relaxed on a sofa in the family quarters. Her elbows are resting on the arm of the sofa with her chin in one hand.

It is a rare full face picture. She usually offers a three-quarter side view.

The official photo was taken by free lance photographer Mark Shaw, husband of singer Pat Suzuki, apparently in the winter months before Mrs. Kennedy got a new haircut. Her hair style is casual with bangs swept to the right. As of her face and has an informal appearance. She wore a white wool jersey dress with three-quarter length sleeves.

Fuel Oil Tax Unconstitutional, Casselberry Told

The town of Casselberry was advised Monday by Attorney Gerald W. Beck, representing the legal firm, Sutton and Brown of Orlando, that the five percent utility tax could not be added to fuel oil users' bills since distributors of this commodity are not protected by installation deposits or in any other manner from their accounts.

The practice, tried in other areas, had resulted in a state ruling declaring it unconstitutional, he reported.

Rohn Lady, presiding while Chairman Lytle Swope is vacationing, clarified the fact that the attorney's appearance before the board was an informative measure only, thanked Beck for bringing the information to the board.

Lake Mary Woman Dies In New York

Word has been received in Lake Mary of the death of Mrs. Ruby Turner Smith, 88, who died last Friday in Attica, N. Y.

Born in Harris, Miss., she spent most of her life in Attica until eight years ago when she and her husband, Harry W. Smith, built their retirement home in Lake Mary.

Other than her husband, she is survived largely by a sister, Mrs. John Murphy of Lake Mary. Burial was in Attica.

Colombia Set To Ask Stevenson For $$$$$

BOGOTA (UPI) — Colombia is expected to ask Adlai Stevenson today for about $500 million in cash aid over the next four years, pushing total South American requests for assistance up to about $3 billion.

The government experts who drafted Colombia's four-year plan arranged to meet with the U. S. goodwill ambassador today. They were expected to press for action to assure higher and more stable prices for this country's coffee exports as well as for direct financial aid.

It was uncertain whether the stone-throwing Communist students who lay in wait for Stevenson on his arrival Tuesday would stage new anti-American demonstrations today.

The rock-throwing Reds, waiting along the road to the commercial airport, did not get even a glimpse of Stevenson, whose plane had been rerouted to Techo Airbase by authorities aware of the Communist threat.

The students did pelt the cars of the Spanish, Italian, French and Lebanese ambassadors in the mistaken belief that they carried members of the Stevenson party. The ambassadors went to the airport to see off Spanish Commerce Minister Alberto Ullastres, who had been visiting here.

Police said anti-Communist students at National University, believing Stevenson was under attack, grabbed stones of their own and drove off the Reds.

Today was the last working day of Stevenson's 18-day tour of South America as a special envoy of President Kennedy. He has covered ground at a rate of about 1,000 miles a day since he left New York June 4, and expects to travel about 17,000 miles in all.

INSTEAD OF a bite, mailman Jack Orchard gets a beg. When he comes to the Roe Myers home in DeLand, their dog Tootie is waiting. She sits up and begs until Orchard puts the mail in her mouth. The Myers' need mail daily. If Orchard didn't stop, they're afraid Tootie would follow the route, begging.

Indians Win Sit-In Battle Against The White Man

LILLINGTON, N. C. (UPI) — The Hartnett County Indians never got their high school, but they won their sit-in against the white man.

The county school board announced Tuesday it is going to let 30 Indian children enroll in the Dunn high school this fall rather than require them to make a 70-mile daily roundtrip to the Indian school in neighboring Sampson County.

The Indians, who say they are descendants of the old Cherokee and Croatan tribes of pre-revolutionary War days, wanted a school of their own close to home, but the school board said there were not enough Indian pupils to justify the expense.

Next, the Indians conducted a "sit-in" at the white school in Dunn last year after nine of their children were refused permission to register.

School Board Chairman T. Glenn Proffitt said Tuesday the whole trouble last year was because of faculty applications from the Indians, and "all that trouble could have been avoided."

"I feel very keenly and resent very much still the bad publicity that was directed at our county," Proffitt said.

Natalie, Wagner Set To Separate

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Natalie Wood and actor Robert Wagner, two young movie stars who were believed to be among Hollywood's happiest married couples, announced a trial separation Tuesday.

The separation was revealed in a joint statement released by their agents.

"Miss Wood and Mr. Wagner said it is a trial separation. There is no immediate plan for divorce. They are hopeful problems between them can be worked out."

Miss Wood, 22, who leaves for Italy in about a month, and Wagner, 31, said there were no immediate plans for divorce, but both moved out of their home to live with friends.

They were married Dec. 28, 1957, in Scottsdale, Ariz., the first marriage for both. They have no children.

No Discrimination Against Delegates

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Racial discrimination involving nearly 1,500 delegates to the African Methodist Episcopal Church national conference did not develop here Tuesday as expected, a spokesman said.

The Rev. Emory G. Davis, St. Louis, public relations director for the denomination, said church officials were told last week that only one motel here would accept Negro guests.

However, the delegates, from 47 states and overseas, who needed public accommodations reported no difficulties, he said.

Bishop Joseph Gomez of Cleveland, host for the convention, said he learned that several motels telephoned assurances that "Negroes would be housed and there would be no embarrassing situations."

Chisox Start To Go-Go...

United Press International
Remember the Chicago White Sox?

Or more important, remember all those seasons less than five weeks ago when Al Lopez said they still could win the American League pennant?

"No one is laughing any more at either Lopez or the suddenly semi-alive White Sox, who have won 11 of their last 13 games and now are the hottest team in the league."

Lopez says some kind of a brew. He claimed the White Sox could still win it all 11 days ago—when they were in 10th place.

The Giants were 13½ games behind in 1961 and they came on to win, Lopez recalled. "They were that far back in August. This is only June, so how can anyone say we're dead yet?"

Lopez has a point, particularly the way the White Sox have been moving up. They're now sixth, only 1½ games out of first, and even though they're still 11 games off the pace, like Al says, there's still a long way to go.

The White Sox ran their latest winning streak to four games Tuesday night by beating the Cleveland Indians, 5-3, and handing Jim (Mudcat) Grant his first defeat of the season following 17-0 straight victories.

Grant lasted only one inning during which the White Sox scored all their runs. Rookie J. C. Martin capped the rally with a three-run homer. Turk Lown, who relieved starter Billy Pierce after the Indians scored all three of their runs in the fifth, scored his 50th victory.

The Detroit Tigers lengthened their lead to 1½ games with a 5-4 triumph over the Washington Senators; the New York Yankees defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 6-3; the Minnesota Twins topped the Baltimore Orioles, 5-4, and the Boston Red Sox outlasted the Los Angeles Angels, 11-3.

The Cincinnati Reds retained their 1½-game lead in the National League, beating the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, in 11 innings, although dropping the nightcap, 6-3; the Los Angeles Dodgers took over second place with a 2-0 win over the Chicago Cubs; the Milwaukee Braves edged the San Francisco Giants, 2-1, and the Pittsburgh Pirates handed the Philadelphia Phillies their sixth straight setback, 6-2.

Norm Cash hit his 20th homer and a triple in the Tigers' triumph over the Senators. Jim Bunning evened his record at 6-6 but Hank Aguirre had to ball him out when Washington rallied for four runs in the eighth. Dick Donovan suffered his sixth defeat. All have been by one-run margins.

Roger Maris belted his 26th homer as the Yankees moved into second place with their victory over the A's. Bill Stafford won his fifth game although Jim Coates mopped up. Joe Nuxhall was the loser.

Pinch hitter Julio Becquer's homer in the last of the ninth off Jack Fisher was the payoff blow for the Twins after Earl Robinson's homer in the top of the ninth had tied the score. Harmon Killebrew hit his 17th homer for the Twins. Reliever Chuck Stobbs was credited with his first victory of the year.

Bill Monbouquette was staked to an eight-run lead by the Red Sox but still failed to go the distance against the Angels. Leon Wagner hit his 17th homer for the Losers, Earl Averill his 12th and Steve Bilko his sixth. Carl Yastrzemski hit his fifth for the Red Sox, who kayped loser Ell Grba in the second inning. Monbouquette's record now is 7-6 and Grba's is 5-7.

The Reds ran their winning streak to six games by beating the Cards in the opener when reliever Bob Miller walked Don Blasingame with the bases full in the 11th, but Bob Gibson checked the league-leaders on five hits in the nightcap. Joe Cunningham drove in three runs with as many hits in the finale to send Joey Jay down to his fourth loss against eight victories. Reliever Jim Brcanan was the winner in the first game.

Sandy Koufax struck out 14 Cub batters and hurled a two-hitter in posting his 10th victory for the Dodgers. Koufax had a no-hitter until Ernie Banks singled with two out in the seventh. The only other hit-off him was Don Zimmer's single in the ninth. Glenn Hobbie (4-3) was the loser.

Gordon Thinking Of Calling It Quits After Being Fired

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—For Joe Gordon, the third parting from Frank Lane could end a colorful baseball career for the former manager of the Kansas City Athletics.

Gordon, fired without warning Monday after leading the club to its most successful road trip since it came here in 1960, has begun thinking seriously of quitting baseball for good. He has managed in the American League almost four years, most of them under Lane.

But the straw that broke Gordon's baseball ambitions came when he was dismissed as Kansas City's field manager on orders from club owner Charles O. Finley, who had several run-ins with his manager over the handling of players.

"I suppose there are a lot of things I might say, but what would it accomplish?" Gordon commented before leaving here today for his home in Sacramento, Calif.

"I don't know whether I'll ever go back into baseball," he added. "Things like this make you wonder if you want to stay in this business."

Gordon was replaced by veteran outfielder Hank Bauer.

Lane, who had parted company with Gordon twice before when both were in Cleveland in similar roles, spoke in general terms when he gave reasons for the firing of Gordon after the season was two months old.

Lane said the move was "for the best interests of the club."

Littler Set For Western Play

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UPI)—National Open champion Gene Littler, who missed first place in the 1960 Western Open by one stroke, planned to hone finer today a game that gave him a practice round score of 68 Tuesday.

Littler was one of three players to shoot a three-under-par score over Blythe's Country Club's damp and windwept 18 holes. Equalling the score were Miller Barber of Eldorado, Ark., and home pro John Barnum.

Grid In June? You'll See Friday

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI)—Tentative starting lineups were announced today for the first All-America Bowl football game scheduled for Friday night in War Memorial Stadium.

The coaches of the West squad, Murray Warmath of Minnesota and Washington's Jim Owens, presented their starting eleven Tuesday after a rain-drenched practice session at the University of Buffalo's Rotary Field.

The number one unit included Marv Luster of UCLA and Danny La Rose of Missouri at ends; Kurt Gagner of Washington and Roland McDole of Nebraska at tackles; Wayne Harris of Arkansas and Rufus King of Rice, guards; Roy McKasson of Washington at center; quarterback Bob Schloredt of Washington; halfbacks Glynn Gregory of Southern Methodist and Tom Mason of Tulane and fullback Tom Watkins of Iowa State.

Rip Engle of Penn State, coach of the East, will use alternating lineups with most players getting a chance at both offensive and defensive assignments.

The first east unit included Mike Dilka of Pittsburgh and John Brewer of Mississippi at ends; Joe Rutgers of Illinois and Tom Rice of Auburn at tackles; Tom Glibburg of Syracuse and Al Vanderburgh of Army at guards; Tom Goode of Mississippi State and Allen Green of Mississippi alternating at center; quarterback Norm Sneed of Wake Forest; halfbacks Joe Bellino of Navy and Herb Ardler of Michigan State; and fullback Claude Gibson or Bill Brown, both of Illinois.

The alternate unit included: Tee Moorman of Duke and Fred Arban of Michigan State at ends; S. It's third straight Carling Cup championship.

Card Catcher Hal Smith Told To Quit Sport

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—St. Louis Cardinal catcher Hal Smith was told by doctors Tuesday that he should quit baseball because of a heart ailment.

The 30-year-old Smith who says "I never felt better in my life," was told by one of his doctors that if it were for him to decide he would not let Smith play again.

"The sickest I've been," said the still jovial Smitty, "was when they made me smoke cigarettes in a test."

The examination, which took eleven days, indicated that Smith is suffering from a coronary artery condition which was first evidenced by upper abdominal and chest pains two weeks ago.

Smith was hitting .248 when he left the lineup and had 10 runs batted in. Rated by many as the best defensive catcher in the game, Smith appeared in the 1955 All-Star game—his best year with the Cardinals was in 1956 when he hit .282.

Smith is still undecided as to what he will do when he leaves the hospital. Cardinal General Manager Bing Devine told Smitty, "there is a place in the Cardinal organization for you if you want it."

Grady-Pezold Wedding Announced

Missie Bridges Grady and Paul Pezold, of Sanford, were married June 17 at 3 p. m. in an informal double ring ceremony at All Souls Catholic Church, in Sanford.

Rev. Fr. Richard Lyons officiated at the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family and a few close friends. Mr. and Mrs. John Pezold were the only attendants.

The bride wore a pale blue lace trimmed dress with matching hat and veil, white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Pezold wore a pale pink dress, white accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. Otis Bridges, at their country home located on a point overlooking Crystal Lake, near Lake Mary.

Arrangements of white and orchid gladioli and greenery decorated the rooms. The dining table was covered with a lace cloth and held a three tiered wedding cake, in a circle of greenery and silver mountain snow flanked on each side by white tapered in crystal holders.

Crystal punch bowls were placed at each end of the table with Mrs.

J. E. Gradick and Mrs. John Pierru presiding. Mrs. Sidney Fowler served the cake. Flowering hostesses were Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. J. R. Hamlin, sister of the bride, and Mrs. L. D. Bridges, a sister-in-law.

Norma Jean Wedekind, granddaughter of the groom, kept the bride's book. Dainty sandwiches, punch, cake and salted nuts were served to about 50 relatives and friends who called to wish the couple happiness and health.

Tables were placed on the lawn, under a large camphor tree, and the small fry had their own party during the reception.

For her going away outfit, Mrs. Pezold chose an avocado green sheath dress, brown and white accessories and a white orchid corsage. After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home to their many friends at 2418 Willow Ave., in Sanford.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband has been gobbling his dinner every night so he can go fishing about 8:30. He doesn't get back until 2 or 3 the next morning. He always has a big catch. I've been having fresh wide-mouth for dinner every night, and putting some in our freezer, and passing it around to all the neighbors. Can you imagine how I felt when the butcher at the fish market asked me how I liked the fish my husband bought? I haven't spoken to my husband for two days. When I decide to talk—what should I say?

DEAR WIFE: Tell him if the fish had kept their wide mouths shut they wouldn't have been caught. And the same goes for him and his big-mouthed butcher.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter, 24, has accepted a diamond ring from a handsome, married man and the father of three children. She claims she isn't breaking up his home as he now spends more time with her than she spends with his wife. She knows his wife, and says she is a dried-up clothes-horse.

Our daughter is willing to continue going with this man in the hope that one day he will get his freedom and marry her. We don't want to stand by and watch her throw her life away waiting for him. We want her to return the ring, along with the clothes and gifts he has given her, and break up with him for good. Or else I want her out of my house. My husband says if she lives alone she will become more involved with this man. She has quit her job (at his request) so they can have more time together. Am I wrong to ask her to choose between us—her parents—and this man? Please help us to help our daughter.

DEAR PARENTS: Your husband is right. If you turn her out of your home, her last lifeline to morality and decency will have been severed. Encourage her to go back to work. And pray that she comes to her senses soon and realizes that this man is a selfish, ruthless two-timer who eventually will give her the same treatment he is now giving his wife.

DEAR ABBY: I am 18 and my steady boy friend is a little older, and much more experienced than I am. We are very fond of each other. You could say we are "in love." Like other young couples, we park after a date.

A while back you had a letter in your column signed "Never Did." It was from a mother who wanted more than anything in the world for her daughter to be married in a white wedding gown because she "never did." I cut out that letter and carry it in my wallet. I have reread it a hundred times. It has helped me, Dear Abby, more than you will ever know. Thank you for printing it. Sign me "I WILL!"

What's bothering you? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3865, Beverly Hills, Calif. Include a stamped self-addressed envelope.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

"Absolutely the best way to achieve a rested look is to rest." I re-read that opening sentence in an article on beauty three times to make sure I had read it right.

The reason I found it hard to believe my eyes was that for years I have been reading articles telling women how to look rested when they are worn to a frazzle. These "how-to-look-rested" when you're dead beat articles usually offer a woman tips on complicated beauty routines, neck exercises, make-up hints and so on.

As I've read them I have always wondered why, if a woman could find time to soak in a scented tub for 20 minutes, put saturated cotton pads on her eyes for 20, spend 10 minutes rolling her head from side to side to relieve tired neck muscles and then spend 30 minutes making up her face to hide fatigue shadows, she couldn't find time to take a good old-fashioned nap and wake up feeling as well as looking refreshed.

And now here's a beauty expert who comes right out and admits that nothing makes a woman look so rested as a nice rest.

Maybe this down-to-earth, let's-face-the-facts approach will catch on. If so we may be reading such statements as: "The way to stay slender is to stay hungry. The way to look like a million dollars is to have a million dollars. The way to have a lasting marriage is to make one marriage last a lifetime. The way to make sure that your home is really your dream house is not to dream beyond what you can afford. The way to be a completely relaxed hostess is to take your guests out to dinner. Wouldn't that down-to-earth approach to women's problems be a refreshing change?"

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

The game was duplicate. Some South players opened with one spade and wound up making either four or five spades or five no-trump. Most South players opened one club and arrived at three no-trump.

The two pairs playing Jacoby-Smith arrived at six clubs and tied for top score.

With 14 high card points including two aces and a king and tremendous trump support. North has a perfect Jacoby-Smith forcing three no-trump response. South has 14 high card points of his own including two aces and the trump king. Hence, he visualizes slam possibilities and shows his lowest ace by bidding four diamonds. North shows his spade ace. Note that all this bidding has still left a five club haven if North does not want to bid the slam.

Of course, North wants to bid the slam. Furthermore, North wonders about seven, but contents himself with six. Playing at six South draws trumps; leads the three of spades from dummy and plays the queen. West takes his king. Because the ten of spades drops South does not need to guess the location of the diamond queen.

TV Key

Previews

Wednesday's top television shows as previewed and selected by TV Key's staff of experts who attend rehearsals, watch screenings, and analyze scripts in New York and Hollywood:

Hong Kong. — "Lady Godiva." (Repeat)—Between gunfire and poisoning attempts, reporter Glenn Evans (Rod Taylor) has a romance with an old flame. Don't bother about the plot of this one — the show belongs to Taylor and beautiful Miss Merill, who knows how to play the part of a brittle do-gooder. 7:30 p. m. ABC.

Desper Man. — "The Girl who Lies G.I.S." A skillful little tale involving espionage and murder, with a well-paced opening scene and an affecting performance by Anna Gaylor as the girl who lies G.I.S. only they seemed to get killed after she sees them. Nothing startling or original, but the story is handled with a simple directness that is attractive. 8:30 p. m. CBS.

Circle Theater. — "The Dedicated American — The Story of Dr. Gordon Seagrave." A rare portrait of a fascinating gentleman and a cause. Whether or not you saw the half-hour film about "Burma Surgeon" Dr. Seagrave in "Twentieth Century" last March, you'll find this hour-long film an extraordinary adventure in human endurance, will, purpose and accomplishment that few mortals achieve. Singlehandedly, Dr. Seagrave has been taking care of the sick and the dying in a little village in Burma, and bringing them back to life even as his body, if not his spirit, has been failing. The movies of his hospital patients, the native nurses he taught, the native doctors he helped, and more particularly Dr. Seagrave's own commentary, brittle and witty at times, and sometimes just plain tired, are all unusually vivid. You'd want to know what happens to him and his mission, and you may be moved to help. 10 p. m.

CDR. GUY R. Strickland retired from the Navy after 30 years of Naval service, is a Senior at Stetson University. Because of his high scholastic achievement he was initiated as a member of Kappa Delta Pi, an Honor Society in Education. He graduated Magna Cum Laude as Associate of Arts at Orlando Junior College and then transferred to Stetson University to get certification as a teacher in the secondary school system. He made the Dean's List and Honor Roll this past semester at Stetson. Strickland makes his home in Lehigh, he hopes to do his internship next September at the Seminole High School.

Sanford Man Named Instructor

Frank Robert Bryan Jr., former Sanford resident, who received a master of science degree in Education from the Graduate Dept. of Education of Gallaudet College, Washington, D. C., in May, will begin the fall term as an instructor at the Maryland School for the Deaf. Bryan is the husband of the former Margaret Egan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Egan of 901 E. Second St., Sanford. The couple has two children, Beth Lynn, four years old, and Frank Robert Jr., two years old. A native of Miami, he graduated from Miami Edison in 1952, received his B. A. degree at Stetson University in 1956 and attended the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in Mill Valley, Calif., until 1959. While at the Seminary, he became associated with the Calvary Baptist Church in Berkeley, Calif.
