

PLAN TO LOOSE BANK DEPOSITS IS ANNOUNCED

Government To Loan Up To Billion Dollars On Assets Of Closed Institutions At Once

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt announced last night the creation of a deposit liquidation board to bring immediate relief to depositors in closed national and state banks by lending approximately $1,000,000,000 on the assets of those institutions.

Funds will be furnished by the Reconstruction Corporation in which a special division will be established, headed by C. B. Merriman, a corporation director, to make the advances.

A formal statement by the president said the subject of establishing the deposit liquidation board and trying to stimulate the distribution of frozen bank assets is: first, to place money in the hands of depositors with the least possible delay; and second, to bring about more orderly liquidation of the assets of closed banks; and third, to prevent the dumping of assets at "artificially anxious" prices.

Under the plan, the special division will make loans on the assets of closed banks up to a maximum of 50 percent of their deposits, including distribution hereafter made.

"This does not, of course, mean that the assets remaining in the hands of depositors will be 50 percent," the president said. "They will get in such cases only their share in the remaining assets," he added.

It is not intended that such distribution will be uniform, but that they will be limited to the liquidation value of assets on which loans can be made, covering only what will appear sufficient to pay taxes, expenses and interest during the liquidation period.

Only Nazi May Vote In Elections In November

BERLIN, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—A semi-official statement revealed today that all parties except Nazis will be excluded to present at the Reichstag election Nov. 15 designed to express the German sentiment of the political movement of the Reichstag.

The statement said that the decree of Hitler forbidding the activities of all other parties will be in force and that constitutional rights will have no effect in restoring the list by which the Nazis were blanketed in the election.

It is expected that the orchestra will be a success in its new season.

In Might And Right, France Feels Safe In Face Of Late Developments In Europe

PARIS, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—France feels safe, in might and right, in the face of German withdrawal from the disarmament conference and the League of Nations.

This was revealed last night in a foreign office statement that "We were much surprised out not upset" and in recent expressions of satisfaction over a defense check along the German frontier.

The treaty of Versailles was recalled as still being in existence, with a signatory having the right to demand that the League investigate any charges of German re-arming.

Officials added the reminder that the German-American treaty contains the same arms limitation clauses as the post-war Versailles accord.

Authorities concluded from these points that the German action was one of "extreme gravity" and added that "we will not use our head."

MORE CREDIT IS AVAILABLE FOR SOUTH'S FARMERS

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—A new source of government credit became available to farmers of the Carolina, Georgia and Florida today, when the Production Credit Corporation of Columbia began actual operations.

One of the new agencies of the federal farm credit administration, the regional corporation, will be under the direction of L. L. Loney, who came here from Tampa, Fla., to be its president.

The first step it will take, Loney said, will be the organization of local credit corporations. These will be units of 10 or more farmers who wish to obtain loans for general agricultural purposes.

The financing will be for production and harvesting of crops; breeding, raising and fattening of livestock; or the production of livestock and poultry products.

It is anticipated that generally local associations will be organized on a county-wide basis. Loney said when information was received that farmers wished to form a local association, educational meetings would be held in various parts of the county, to acquaint them with the plan. A representative will then be sent to a county meeting, to assist in application for a charter.

Farmers securing loans from the local associations will be required to purchase a "buy now" stock, representing 5 percent of the amount of their loans. This stock carries voting privileges for the election of officers and may be owned only by farm borrowers. It does not carry double liability.

Johnson Bars Newsman From Future Press Talks For Sabotage Of NRA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—Hugh S. Johnson, the Recovery administrator, has barred James T. Moore, representing the "Industrial Control Report," from future press conferences.

In notifying Moore of his action, Johnson said in a letter: "Your last Industrial Control report is full of misrepresentation and sabotage of NRA. I encourage constructive criticism, but your statements have been completely without foundation in fact in one case distinctly false in another."

True denied in a letter of reply that he was "aware" that the report was "either inaccurate or based on any detail" and added: "My sole purpose has been to secure industrial management with the facts and information essential to the successful management of America's industry."

"If criticism of NRA," he said, "is to result in exclusion from press conferences, then you will have succeeded in setting up a protective censorship in violation of the guarantee of a free press contained in the first amendment to the Constitution."

"You said you intended to be present at the next Tuesday's conference," Johnson said. "I am convinced, however, that you will not appear, and I am convinced that you will not appear, and I am convinced that you will not appear, and I am convinced that you will not appear."

BUCK PASSERS ARE ASSAILED BY ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt last night assailed "buck passers" who leave it all to the government in providing relief for the needy, and appealed to all to give to local organizations carrying on welfare services.

Opening the four weeks' charity drive of the 1933 Mobilization for Human Needs in an address from the White House, Mr. Roosevelt re-emphasized his position that local and state responsibility comes first in the relief program and said:

"A number of people have written to me to express the thought that all relief work should be taken over by the government, and have intimated that they would not feel any responsibility to contribute to local relief or local charities."

"These people have a wholly wrong slant on the fundamental basis of our American civilization. They deny the civic responsibility of the individual, and would seek to toss every problem into the lap of the government. They are buck passers."

Newton D. Baker, secretary of War during the World conflict, and chairman of the mobilization organization, spoke on the same program with the President.

"I am glad indeed that my old friend, Newton D. Baker, once more is heading the forces of mobilization and that the time we are all happy that it is a mobilization of peace," the executive said.

He added the "fine teamwork" the Recovery program cannot be successful if an important horse is lying back in the traces."

McRORY NAMED TO POSITION IN REVENUE OFFICE

George Whitfield McRory, for several years active in the executive circles of the Democratic party in Florida, particularly during the 1928 presidential campaign, has been named deputy collector of internal revenue. It was announced yesterday by J. Edwin Larson, Florida's collector of internal revenue for the United States government.

Mr. McRory, who began his duties today, will be the chief of the miscellaneous tax division in the local office of the bureau, Mr. Larson said.

For five years Mr. McRory was a member of the state Democratic Executive Committee. Four years of the time being secretary of the body, that service including the 1928 campaign period. He (Continued From Page Two)

Steady Employment Is Promised Rail Workers

WYOMING, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—A change to be made in the working agreement of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad with its shop employees, affecting the states of Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia and Alabama, will go into effect early in November, providing steady employment every week in the year, with no layoffs on the basis of a five and ten day week.

T. W. Kirby, of the city, general secretary-treasurer of the Atlantic Coast Line Shopmen's association made this known following the annual meeting of the board of directors held in Norfolk, Va., last night.

The change will be a permanent part of the new contract which will be effective Jan. 1, according to Kirby.

The posters arrived here Friday, and they went on sale Saturday, although merchants were not aware of it until today. A sizeable packet, containing cards and stickers of all kinds, is offered for sale at cost. The Chamber of Commerce secured these supplies at the suggestion of the local NRA Advisory Committee which asked the trade body to assist in distributing them.

Papers May Reject Ad Copy, Rules Judge

MIAMI, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—Newspapers are privileged to accept or reject advertising. Circuit Judge H. F. Atkinson held Saturday in handing down a decision in a case brought against one Miami firm and Dale James, manager of the fair practice bureau, by Bronner, Inc., furniture dealer.

Bronner, Inc. brought suit recently against competitor firm and James, alleging they conspired by influencing daily newspapers here to refuse advertising of the firm.

It was alleged the firms threatened to withdraw advertising unless Bronner, Inc. advertising was rejected.

In the order Judge Atkinson held that the charges of conspiracy were not sufficient.

WARNS OF WAR

Declaring that all nations are responsible for the withdrawal of Germany from the League of Nations, Idaho's Republican Senator Wm. E. Borah, above, sees war as an impending possibility.

SENATOR BORAH SEES NEW WAR FACING WORLD

REUDEST, Hungary, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, said yesterday "we are facing the possibility of another war" and commenting on Germany's withdrawal from the arms conference and the League of Nations—the situation "can be changed to no single nation."

"It is the intent of the policies of many nations," said the former chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee.

He appealed to the "victor nations" of the World War to carry out the pledge made in the Versailles treaty and disarm "in an address at a public meeting called to endorse efforts of the Geneva conference."

"While the people everywhere are assembled in the cause of disarmament and peace," he said, "governments seem to be drifting toward war. While those who must lead the fighting and dying if war comes are petitioning for peace, for the lifting of the burden of armaments—those who will at last find one drop of their own noble blood on some one's hat of their present heat, are apparently leading us toward another armed conflict."

"The present situation, the world heavily armed, drifting toward an armistice, can be changed to no single nation or group of nations. Like the World War, it is the fruit of the policies of many nations."

When the Versailles treaty was signed the defeated nations were disarmed. They were not only disarmed, but they were impoverished, hungry and helpless. What was there against which the victor nations should arm? Why should they not carry out the (Continued On Page Three)

Murderer Of Cop Dies In Electric Chair

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—Ross King, 29, paid with his life in the electric chair today for the murder of policeman Harry Redlich.

In the case of Morris Cohen, executed last week for the slaying of another policeman, vain eleven-hour attempts were made to at least temporarily save his life. When his wife bid him farewell last night she went out with an attorney in an effort to find a judge, who would grant an insanity hearing.

King was convicted of shooting Redlich in the back last July 8 during an attempted robbery. A companion, who engaged the officer in conversation while King fired the shot, was sentenced to 190 years in prison. He is John Bongiorno.

Mrs. W. L. Morgan Is Selected To Direct Trade Body Civic Committee For 1934

Mrs. W. L. Morgan was elected this morning as chairman of the Women's Civic Committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce for the new year at a well attended organization meeting.

Mrs. Endor Corlett of Geneva was elected as vice-chairman, and Mrs. Julius Dingfelder was named as secretary.

The committee unanimously endorsed the nation-wide "Buy Now" campaign, and many members of the committee expressed themselves as agreeing that now is the time to buy for prices will never be lower.

Endorsement was given also to the new "Mobilization for Human Needs" which got under way throughout America this morning. It was voted that a public meeting be held in Sanford shortly, and that Mrs. Arthur Cummer, Jacksonville, president of the state mobilization organization be invited to address the group.

The committee voted to again gather statistical data relating to the scope of welfare work in the county during the past year.

Mrs. Rex Packard and Mrs. Dingfelder were named as a committee which will arrange for the erection and distribution of large boxes that are to be placed on various street corners and into which persons will be asked to deposit old clothing or shoes for the needy of the county.

AUSTRIA RINGS WITH FEELING FOR GERMANY

VIENNA, Oct. 16.—(A.P.)—Vienna students riotously demonstrated in sympathy with Germany here today.

The unfolding of a huge awastika banner at the Institute of Technology was the signal for a city-wide and country-wide demonstration at all universities. Smoke bombs were exploded while students shouted "Heil Hitler" and sang Nazi songs.

Police forces were rushed to the University, the Technology Institute and the Anatomical Institute. The use of clubs proving ineffective, officers resorted to their sabers before quiet was restored.

This outbreak of students is particularly interesting in view of the attitude encountered in official quarters and political circles whose policy is more or less bound to the friendly policy of the League of Nations, nevertheless could not suppress a private feeling of exultation.

The rear admiral's illness prevented him from participating in farewell exercises held at the Navy Yard today. The "Jacob Ruppert," flagship of the expedition, loaded coal and other supplies in preparation for her voyage to the South Pole. The cargo ranges from three airplanes and 20,000 cases of beer to 100 Eskimo dogs and two milk cows.

Picture of Peace: The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.—Isaiah 11:6.

Do your Christmas shopping early. Buy now, and save money. Adolph Hitler Plans to Defy World in Disarmament Row headline. Aw neural Who's afraid of the big bad wolf?

The Miami Herald says that Harry Hitler should have been the last person in the world to have invoked the death penalty for the intractable disease, what with that mustache of his.

Some misguided individuals, we are informed, who have formerly enjoyed an unblemished reputation for paying their bills promptly, are now "out" to bill collectors. They are taking this "Buy Now" campaign too seriously.

The New York commissioner of licenses has ordered Sully Rand, who started Chicago Century of Progress Gers with her sensational fan dance, to keep off New York stages, or wear "opaque raiment," and he didn't mean a peep raiment either.

In the code now being prepared for the moving picture industry, an effort is being made not only to guarantee minimum wages but also to lower the salaries of high priced movie stars. Now wouldn't that tend to reduce purchasing power?

Speaking of state and county taxes, the Tampa Tribune remarks that "Tax Relief, for which the people yelled and the candidates crated during the campaign days of last year, seems as remote as before." And what of the prospects for federal tax reduction?

Opportunities in Real Estate

Now is the time to buy real estate. This may sound like strange advice in view of the present depressed state of the market, high taxation, experience with real estate in 1925, and the abundance of real estate which is being offered for sale today.

"There is a chance," he writes, "that the present agitation in Washington to accelerate a natural revival by attempting some type of money depreciation will be successful. Hence, the investor must protect himself against such action by giving particular attention to commodities, equities, and real estate.

"Investment in the different types of property is only the first stage of diversification. The real estate owner, the security holder, and the bank depositor must be careful that his commitments are not all made in one territory. For instance, the man who sank all his funds in Florida real estate ten years ago has learned his lesson.

This kind of advice is being preached all over the country. Particularly in the North and East are investors being influenced to turn from bonds and other fixed assets to more fluctuating types of investment.

The United States is to have its "Devil's Island," according to an announcement made recently by Attorney General Cummings who has made arrangements to confine intractable and vicious criminals in the army prison at Alcatraz Island off the California coast.

We are completely in sympathy with the plan of Mr. Cummings to be plenty hard boiled with our vicious criminal element. No one is averse to showing every consideration to those unfortunate individuals who lapse into criminal actions due to extraordinary circumstances, some times beyond their power to control, but the time has come when no sympathy should be extended to organized professional criminals who prey on our citizens because of a total lack of respect for laws or human rights.

The Sanford and Everglades Railway has been sold to the Atlantic Coast Line, the deal being consummated this week. The new owners expect to take charge at once. It is understood that the price paid was entirely satisfactory to the former owners and the A. C. L. recognized the value of the short line as a feeder from the new country opening up from the Everglades country.

The editor of the Miami Herald who has been reading a lot about this "Buy Now" movement suggests that it should be supplemented with a "Marry Now" campaign. Bigger and better babies is what is needed to help get rid of the huge surpluses which have piled up in the grain elevators and the stock yards.

The cow, one of man's noblest friends, has been assigned at least of an honorary offense. The last surviving member of Chicago's O'Leary family on her death bed has given the lie to one of the legends of history that was Mrs. O'Leary's cow which started the jump which started the disastrous Chicago fire.

SANFORD FORUM

Editor Sanford Herald: It would hardly seem fair to Mr. Walker as representative of the dairymen of Seminole County if I should allow the opportunity to pass without letting the public know the fine spirit in which he listened to our side of the New Dairy Law.

From the notices put in the paper and information given out by the man sent here to collect the tax we were led to believe that any person found selling milk after last Saturday would be at once convicted and fined unless he had a license. And it was utterly impossible to get the permit to get the license in the time given even if one wanted to get one.

After going over the law with Mr. Walker and both sides of the question it seems that we are unfortunately drawn into it by the fight that is going on between two factions in the milk industry. The one is the local dairymen and the other the Inc National Corporation.

The Milk Control Board is composed of men of high character as Mr. Walker explained in his article. But politics put the man in that office the law it seems our present Governor put the man in we have just gotten rid of.

As to our other differences, they are mostly covered by a code of fair dealing. We agreed that it was unfair to the milk dealers for a man having a job that was sufficient to keep him to sell milk in competition to them.

That it was unfair for anyone to retail milk within the corporate limits of any town or city in Florida. The milk dealers are paying licenses to cover this territory.

Now the only thing in the law we are striving to have changed is the clause that reads: "The product of one or more healthy cows." We claim this unfair to us and we claim we have a right to sell milk to our friends and neighbors outside the City of Sanford without coming under the restriction of the Dairy Law.

I think if the dairymen would consent to us the above change there will be no friction between the two parties. And I believe any fairminded person will think this fair to both.

So when the next "Big Meeting" comes in our state capital let's hope Mr. Walker, as the head of this Association will use his influence to get this change put through. Also ask the Governor not to send us any more men like the gentleman they wished off on us as license collector. At least keep them up there till they can find out what it's all about.

And if it can be settled in this way it will give quite a bit of money and lots of hard feelings. For, as the law now stands, it is unjust and can never be enforced.

Yours truly, W. A. HARTLINE.

GLIDER MAKES RECORD AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 16.—(AP)—A total of 68 loops, claimed to be a new world's record for gliders was set here yesterday by Willis Sperry, of Akron in a looping climb started at 10,000 feet. Bud Sutherland, who raced with Sperry, completed 63 loops. Glider pilots said the old record is 46 loops. The two motorless craft were towed to an altitude of 10,000 feet by an airplane.

A Good Idea

The United States is to have its "Devil's Island," according to an announcement made recently by Attorney General Cummings who has made arrangements to confine intractable and vicious criminals in the army prison at Alcatraz Island off the California coast.

The French have found that their island prison has been a great deterrent to crime and that those who are convicted and sent there cannot extend their influence to other classes of prisoners who are seeking to redeem themselves. The thought of going to a far away place where the chance of escape is far remote, where life with the outside world will be completely cut off, has undoubtedly "cooled off" many a hardened French criminal.

We are completely in sympathy with the plan of Mr. Cummings to be plenty hard boiled with our vicious criminal element. No one is averse to showing every consideration to those unfortunate individuals who lapse into criminal actions due to extraordinary circumstances, some times beyond their power to control, but the time has come when no sympathy should be extended to organized professional criminals who prey on our citizens because of a total lack of respect for laws or human rights.

We can think of nothing which would be more appropriate punishment for hard-boiled gangsters and gunmen than certain confinement on some isolated island, away from any secret contact with their henchmen on the outside, and with no possibility of sawing a few bars away to escape.

Perhaps after a few years of a less lenient attitude towards those who defy our laws and with punishments more nearly fitting the seriousness of crimes, the underworld will begin to come up for fresh air and will seek to live like other citizens. We do not condone the use of brutal methods, but more severity, hardships, and deprivations would go a long way towards making prison life less attractive.

Milane Movie Filled With Tuneful Music

Crammed chock full of tuneful melodies, pulchritudinous girls, and the real talent that Broadway, Hollywood, and the radio all have to offer, "Moonlight and Pretzels," which opened yesterday at the Milane Theater, is one of the most cleverly mounted, fast-moving, and refreshing screen musicals made to date.

"Moonlight and Pretzels" is a backstage romance with Broadway as the setting, yet contains none of the stereotyped humor that has characterized and ruined so many such celluloid musical comedies. In straightforward fashion it tells the story of an energetic young song and dance man whose ambition it is to become Broadway's leading songwriter.

Major Pryor, youthful hero of many Broadway stage hits, as George Dwight, and Mary Brian as Sally Lipson are ideally cast as the young lovers, and Leo Carrillo and Everett Rawlinson lived two of the best character performances in their long and brilliant screen careers.

Birth Party Given By Mrs. W. L. Bullock

In honoring her daughter, Rose Marie Bullock, who celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary recently, Mrs. William L. Bullock entertained with a birthday party Friday afternoon at her home in the Rose Court Apartments.

The rooms where the guests were received were decorated in a color scheme of orange and black in keeping with the "Hallowe'en" theme.

During the afternoon games and a picnic were enjoyed on the lawn. Mrs. Edward Lambert assisted the hostess in directing the games. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Those present were: Rose Marie Bullock, honor guest; Connie McCull, Valerie Wells, Margaret and Ann McCull, Martha Brown, Mary Alva Hunter, Margaret Danner, Betty Hunter, Nancy Cullum, Shirley South, Jack Starkman, and Charles Starkman.

Mrs. Wight Discusses Growth Of Perennials

Gardeners Circle of the Garden Club of Sanford held Friday morning and afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Ware on Magnolia Avenue with Mrs. Ware, Mrs. E. D. Buehner, and Mrs. R. B. Monroe acting as hostesses.

In her talk Mrs. Wight stated that the following perennials are especially successful in Florida: angelonia, aster, galathea, gerbera, salvia, salvia phlox, and verbena. After Mrs. Wight's talk Mrs. R. B. Monroe read a paper on flowering shrubs.

Mrs. J. C. Benson presided over the business session when reports were heard from the various standing committees. Mrs. G. C. Sperring, chairman of the qualification committee stated that during the summer month-plants were planted in the triangle on Park Avenue and a large number of plants were distributed.

It was announced that a competitor for cuttings will be placed in the office of the Florida Power & Light Company so that members may exchange cuttings during the year.

Those present were: Mrs. J. C. Benson, Mrs. Perry Cameron, Mrs. Andrew Cartaway, Mrs. R. B. Hagan, Mrs. Harry H. Hagan, Mrs. E. I. Hoy, Mrs. J. O. Laney, Mrs. Katie T. Lourie, Mrs. C. E. McKee, Mrs. R. B. Monroe, Mrs. H. B. Pope, Mrs. E. D. Reinhardt, Mrs. G. C. Sperring, Mrs. Rupert Strickland, Jr., Mrs. Roy G. Williams and Mrs. R. W. Ware.

pledge made in the Versailles treaty an disarm; instead they began arming on a stupendous scale.

"While their own people were in distress, losing homes and farms and business, and millions tramped to highway in search of work, these victor nations continued to extort billions from the taxpayer with which to buy instruments of murder."

"Now we come to the period when nearly $5,000,000,000 are being expended by the victor nations for arms. We come to the period when we are actually facing the possibility of another war."

"That which is happening in Europe is the legitimate fruit, the legitimate result of the policies which have been pursued by the nations on both sides for the last 15 years."

"The revision of the Versailles treaty was the prerequisite to peace in Europe. The huge armaments which have been built up have been built up to maintain a treaty which it was impossible to maintain."

"The World War, with all its suffering and sacrifices was only a little less of a curse, of a calamity, than the economic and financial war which has been going on in Europe ever since the armistice on phase of which came to the front on Saturday."

"I have said many times during the last 15 years that there would never be peace in Europe, never be disarmament until the Versailles treaty was rewritten. It is to be hoped that those directly concerned will seek readjustment through peaceful means, but readjustment in some way must be had, not merely in the interest of a single nation but in the interest of all nations, in the interest of peace."

New York Much Nearer Over Coast Line Rails

This city soon will be 25 hours away from New York City by train as the result of a speeding up of train schedules out of Jacksonville toward the north, it was announced here today by Atlantic Coast Line railroad officials. The old time was about 27 hours.

The railroad announces that in anticipation of a heavy business this winter greatly quickened schedules, a complete travel service, very low cost plan for automobile shipments in connection with passenger tickets, and reduced fares for winter tourist tickets with liberal time limits have been planned to go into effect within the next few weeks.

A feature of the winter schedule will be the new running time of the "Florida Special" which will begin its 17th consecutive season on Jan. 2. This train will operate between New York and Miami in 28 hours, 30 minutes, the fastest train in the world for the distance traveled.
