DEAR ABBY: I have an eight-year-old daughter who is very intelligent and very kind. She is the only child of my late husband and me. She is very close to me and we have a very special bond. I have been very busy lately and I have not been able to spend as much time with her as I would like. I have missed her very much and I have been thinking about her a lot. I have been thinking about her a lot and I have been thinking about her a lot. I have been thinking about her a lot and I have been thinking about her a lot.

UCF rocks No. 15 College of Charleston

Special to the Herald

ORLANDO — Forward Matt Adams scored a game-high 17 points and UCF had three other players with 10 or more points to lead the Knights to a 77-60 victory over the College of Charleston on Saturday evening at UCF Arena.

The win over the Cougars (12-1) marked the first time UCF (15-2) has ever beaten a Division I team in the regular season.

Adams, who has 22 points and seven rebounds in 20 games, was named the UCF player of the week for his performance in the win over the Cougars. Adams' last game was the last of a season in which UCF was capped by a Division I win, just prior to the season.

UCF's win over the Cougars was the first of a season in which UCF has won at least one game in the regular season.

The Cougars led early on in the game, having a first and second quarter lead. However, UCF's defense held the Cougars to 10 points in the first half, and Adams' scoring helped UCF take control in the second half.
