LITTLE FEET
WHAT PATH?

The future holds the secret, and it's anyone's guess! He may be a great statesman some day... or maybe a world-renowned athlete or actor... or perhaps a scientist... but most likely, just Mr. Average.
 Of course, a lot will depend on his opportunities, his God-given talents, his character, and his training.
 Anything could go wrong along the way — poor health, bad examples set by his parents and associates, a broken home, neglect, and false values. But why make a list? The possibilities for this child's failure in life are so numerous that it makes us shudder — and the worst of it, we can guarantee him nothing. But we can give him hope and faith.
 Standing ready and anxious to help him is the Church and the precepts which it teaches. It is our duty and our privilege to help spread the spiritual principles of Christian living in practice as well as in word so that the youth of our nation will find some meaning to the path of life which so strangely twists and turns toward some hoped-for goal.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
 The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

LBJ Warns Against New Red Regime

Acute CD Problems Face New Director

By Harry Lawes
The problems of his predecessor strongly as ever face Howard H. Harrison, new civil defense director for Seminole County.

H. H. HARRISON

The retired Navy lieutenant commander took over the CD duties from A. B. Peterson Sr. Harrison had been Peterson's assistant since the first of this year.

Three Sanford Men Injured In Mishaps

Three Sanford men were injured, two seriously, in two separate accidents about 7 p. m. Saturday near the intersection of SR 15 and U. S. 17-92.

Robert D. Fleming, 28, of 207 Citrus Drive, and Frederick W. Hochstetter, 21, of 1215 Magnolia Ave., were admitted to Seminole Memorial Hospital with serious injuries after the car in which they were riding overturned.

James Marlon Harman Sr., 39, of 472 Rosalia Drive, a newspaper photographer en route to the scene of the accident, was injured when his station wagon left the road and fell into a drainage ditch.

State Trooper J. L. Sikes said a 1965 Barracuda driven by Fleming went through a stop sign at 17-92, skidded across the four-lane, sailed 71 feet through the air and rolled another 100 feet before coming to rest in a marsh. Damage to the car was estimated at $1,500. Hochstetter was a passenger in the car.

Sikes said Fleming apparently was traveling at a high rate of speed. He was charged with reckless driving.

Harmon, attempting to reach the accident scene along the shoulder of the road, fell into a drainage ditch. He suffered back injuries and his car damage was estimated at $500.

Sanford's "Smoking Tigers" probably will be en route to Viet Nam by the time this appears in print. Bon Voyage and happy hunting!

The Tigers of Reconnaissance Attack Squadron One assembled in the crisp morning sun Friday and watched their new No. 1 Tiger, Commander Valentin G. Matula, take the helm.

The officers and men were an impressive sight in their brilliant whites with the sleek Vigilantes grouped in the background.

They are headed for long months of separation from their loved ones. They will be facing great dangers in carrying out their mission aboard the USS Independence with the Seventh Fleet.

It is comforting to know that Reconnaissance Attack Squadron One is at the pinnacle of combat readiness. It makes us at home feel safer.

The Class of 1940 isn't alone. The Class of 1942 of Seminole High School also is thinking about a reunion. Classmates will meet at the caucus room of the First Federal Savings and Loan at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday for the purpose of planning a reunion. All members are urged to attend.

A Mrs. McTavish, who lives at 205 Oaklawn in Sunland Estates, called the other day with a problem—to say the least. She was all set to do the week's washing and cleaning and not a drop of water. She and other neighbors in Sunland say that the water is cut off arbitrarily from time to time without notification.

First graders will sign up Tuesday at West Side-Grammar Elementary and other schools in Sanford. At West Side the sign-up period will be from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. Birth certificates must accompany all prospective students.

Richard Mayer, of Lake Mary, is one of 15 outstanding sophomores at Stetson University elected to membership in the Green Circle honorary for junior men. Members are selected on the basis of potential leadership, scholarship and character.

Fidel Warns
HAVANA (UPI) — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, conceding that Communists had joined the revolt in the Dominican Republic, has denounced U. S. troop landings there. He warned the Cuban people a U. S. invasion could occur here.

U. S. Hiking Viet Nam Force

Paratroopers En Route To Press Effort

SAIGON (UPI) — A 3,500-man brigade of U. S. Army paratroopers will land in South Viet Nam "within the next few days," it was officially announced today. It is the first unit of Army combat soldiers to be committed to the war.

A joint statement by the U. S. Embassy and the South Vietnamese government said the paratroopers are being dispatched "to press the war effort against the Viet Cong more vigorously."

A spokesman for U. S. military headquarters here reported that 1,000 American soldiers and three additional companies of U. S. Army helicopters were landed in South Viet Nam during the weekend as part of the military buildup.

31,000 YANKS

There already are about 31,000 American servicemen in South Viet Nam, including almost 10,000 Marines at the U. S. airbase near Da Nang.

Advance elements of the paratroop unit, the 173rd Airborne based on Okinawa, arrived today on Okinawa, the joint announcement said. About 60 men were involved in the initial group.

The paratroopers will be assigned to defend the Bien Hoa air base just north of Saigon and the Vung Tau air base and seaport complex 40 miles southeast of the capital.

"FIGHT ON"

LONDON (UPI)—U. S. Under Secretary of State George W. Ball said today the United States would "fight on" in Viet Nam rather than sign a "meaningless agreement" with the Communists.

Ball addressed the opening meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) ministerial council called to shore up allied defenses against Communist aggression in Viet Nam and other trouble spots in the SEATO theater.

'Bare Bones' Hike Seen

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate appropriations committee started work today on a proposed general spending bill that is $5.8 million over the "bare bones" budget recommended by the Governor and Co. Incet.

While calendar bills in both houses are crowded with dozens of bills, the most important subject right now is the record billion-dollar general appropriations measures. The House committee already has passed its bill.

Sen. Wilson Carraway, of Tallahassee, chairman of the Senate money committee, predicted the Senate appropriations act would total about $4 million more than the $1,098,655,701 recommended by the Cabinet Budget Commission.

The bill is expected to clear committee either Tuesday or Wednesday and be introduced the middle of the week.

The House version, totaling $1,090,355,200, cleared the appropriations committee the end of last week and was expected to be introduced early this week.

Committee Chairman Rep. J. J. Griffin of Osceola says he hopes it will be passed Thursday or Friday.

While the House bill was only a half million dollars over budget commission recommendations, as compared for the predicted $4 million increase by the Senate committee, both bills would be way under anticipated revenue for the coming biennium.

The House committee okayed $1,090,007,275 in operational funds and $25,747,991 for construction, not including the state universities which are financed by bond issues.

One of the biggest cuts made by the House committee was $2.7 million from the Department of Education's school textbook programs. It left $10 million in the measure for books during the biennium.

Meanwhile, House Speaker E. C. Rowell told UPI today that, in looking back over the first half of the session, he was "pleased" with the work so far.

"We are well ahead of where we were last time," he said, "both in terms of bills passed and introduced."

Rowell shrugged aside the fact that some of the session's most important bills are among the 1,600 still in the legislative mill.

A majority of the 330 bills passed so far are local. Gov. Haydon Burns has signed six of the measures, vetoed two and allowed the rest to become law after a grace period without his signature.

Among very important measures which have not reached the floors of the two houses are the judicial reform bill, revision of election statutes and a sizeable part of the Burns administration program.

There also are the appropriations bill and the general revenue bills to be considered.

Brazil Supports U. S. Actions

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI)—Brazil announced today it supports United States actions to restore peace in the Dominican Republic.

Brazil also backed the U. S. request for creation of a peace committee by the Organization of American States (OAS), the Brazilian statement said.

Five GIs Die In Evacuation Of Civilians

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson kept in close touch today with developments in the Dominican Republic where he has ordered armed U. S. forces to prevent establishment of a Communist regime.

White House press secretary George E. Reedy said the President was following events in the rebellion-ravaged Caribbean country and was being kept fully informed on developments there.

Johnson told the nation Sunday night he had ordered an additional 4,500 troops to the Dominican Republic, bringing the total to 14,000, to protect U. S. citizens and other foreign nationals, distribute food and medicine and aid in sanitation measures.

But he also said in his televised speech that "the American nations cannot, must not, and will not permit the establishment of another Communist government in the Western Hemisphere."

NEW POLICY? Reedy was asked today if the President's statement reflected a new policy to use troops to resist a Communist takeover in any Latin American country. Reedy replied that he did not want to go beyond Johnson's statement.

The White House aide also declined to comment on a remark by former President Juan Bosch of the Dominican Republic that the revolution had been won until the United States intervened.

"We have stated clearly what we have done and why we have done it," Reedy said.

Asked for White House reaction to the fact that only one television network carried the President's speech live, Reedy said the statement was made available for the networks and that it was up to them to decide whether to carry it.

Five American servicemen have been killed in the fighting. Dominican casualties on both sides were estimated conservatively at 1,000 dead and 1,200 wounded.

About 3,000 American citizens and nationals of other countries have been evacuated since Thursday. Another 1,500 U. S. citizens and 3,500 refugees from other nations were being taken out today.

The unified military command at Norfolk, Va., said today U. S. planes had flown 301 missions out of Santo Domingo.

The Tactical Air Command (TAC) and Military Air Transport Service (MATS) aircraft removed 3,957 persons, including military personnel, and 2,859 tons of cargo, a spokesman said.

RUPTURE PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (UPI) — Chief of State Prince Norodom Sihanouk announced today his Cambodian government has broken off diplomatic relations with the United States.

AUTOMATION? LAKELAND (UPI) — Citrus harvesting by machine will be discussed Wednesday at a meeting of a Florida Citrus Mutual committee.

Voters To Get Crack At Plan For Highways

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Haydon Burns' $300 million plan to four-lane 1,207 miles of federal and state highways in Florida seems a clinch to be passed by the Legislature and sent before the voters for approval.

But when the people will get a chance to vote it in or out is a big question. There is some opposition in the Legislature and a few votes may mean the difference.

The Governor, who will address a joint session of the Legislature next week when the constitutional amendment is introduced on both houses, says he wants it to go to the people on Nov. 2 of this year.

"I can wait until 1966," said Burns, "but the people of Florida can't wait for these roads."

The 10-page bill, which lists 35 major four-laning projects, needs the approval of 84 House members and 32 senators to get on the ballot this year as an "emergency measure."

However, if 75 representatives and 27 senators okay the bill—and this seems as good as done—then it would have to wait a year before going on the ballot.

Burns is confident the plan will gain approval since the bond payoff funds would not come out of the people's pockets, at least no more than they are already paying. It calls for 1.5 cents of the gas tax rebate to be used as a payoff.

The projects listed in the measure total 1,112 miles of four-laning for U. S. and main artery routes in Florida and 95 miles of connecting links to downtown business districts and communities passed up by Interstate highways.

The language of the amendment does not limit the total strictly to $300 million, but the governor has listed this total in specific projects and says it will probably be provided in four $75 million issues.

Indians Capture State Honors

Seminole High School's "Twirling Seminoles" and "Marching Seminoles" again have taken top honors in competition.

In the Florida Bandmasters' Association state contest at Daytona Beach, the "Twirling Seminoles" (majorettes) took their 10th consecutive "superior" rating.

Sylvia Williams is captain of the majorette corps.

Members of the band who earned "superior" ratings for their instrumental solos include David Edwards, snare drum; Rebecca Tanner, piano; and Stephen Leach, clarinet. Charles Stein and Edward Hubbard also received a "superior" rating for a drum duet.

Ensembles receiving the top rank were a flute quartet consisting of Joel Fehd, Meda Nelman, Peter Darml and Leslie Moore and a clarinet quartet consisting of Leach, Edward Hubbard, Miss Tanner and Claudia Bongardner.

A "superior" rating is the highest obtainable and all players and twirlers permitted to participate in the state contest had to earn a similarly high rating at the district level contests held several weeks ago.

Rebecca Tanner and David Edwards are among the winners.

Miss Inundates Illinois Farmland

QUINCY, Ill. (UPI)—The tireless Mississippi River lapped over 60,000 acres of rich Illinois farmland today and hurled a fourth flood crest at this blufftop city.

Hannibal, Mo., 20 miles south of here, also braced for a new crest. Two downtown blocks already were submerged and floodwaters began to stagnate.

The Mississippi was expected to crest at 24.6 feet Tuesday at Quincy and Hannibal, the last two population centers in the path of the tenacious month-old flood.

Each of the three previous crests here has broken a nearby dike, flooding a total of about 60,000 acres in the Illinois farming counties of Pike, Henderson and Hancock.

"Almost everything that could give way already has broken," an official here said. Two more dikes were threatened today.

Workers labored to fortify a levee protecting Hull, Ill. Most of the town's 600 residents already had evacuated their homes and the remainder prepared to flee, if necessary.

A backwater dike at Pleasant Hill, Ill., south of Hannibal, was strengthened by volunteers to stem the threat of a break which officials said would inundate five miles of farmland.

Water began lapping at a new 20-inch gapping at stop dikes guarding a rural Illinois area across from Hannibal.

Sightseers complicated flood-fighting work in some areas. A woman sightseer fell through a wooden sidewalk in Hannibal and broke her ankle.

Dike workers stood by a long threatened levee at Niota, Ill., about 60 miles north of here, using walk-talkies to call for help in case of breaks.

'Baby Of Year' Contest Won By Karen Brisson

Little Miss Karen Brisson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brisson, of Sanford, received her trophy and savings bond as winner of the "Baby of the Year" contest conducted by the Zeta Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at a meeting of the Civitan Club.

Proceeds from the contest, $208.92, were donated to the Little Red Schoolhouse for mentally retarded children. Accepting the check was James Hunt, president of the Seminole County Association for Retarded Children.

Mrs. S. O. Dorminey, chapter president, and Mrs. Joseph Corley, ways and means chairman, presented the prizes to Mr. and Mrs. Brisson and the check to Hunt.

Hunt acknowledged the check with gratitude from the school and told those assembled that the association is working toward providing full facilities to care for the more than 300 mentally retarded children in Seminole County. "We have sent off letters to the proper authorities justifying our need for extended facilities and hope that more help may be forthcoming soon," he explained.

Brisson told Hunt that the Little Red Schoolhouse "is a project close to the heart of Civitans and we invite you to call on us for any assistance that we can give now and in the future."

Little Karen said nothing—she just chewed on her trophy.

New 'Yardstick' In War On Poverty

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The federal government's war on poverty program is using a new yardstick to determine just which American families are really poor.

R. Sarcent Shriver Jr., director of the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO), announced the change even as the U. S. Chamber of Commerce was challenging the government's old standard which says that any family earning less than $3,000 annually is poverty-stricken.

Shriver said the new standard would take into consideration the respective size of families and whether they live in urban or rural areas. It is based on the Agriculture Department's "economy level food plan," which figures a basic cost of 23 cents per person per meal per day.

A family of four with an annual income under $3,310 and an individual with income under $1,540 now would be classified as poor. Previously, the figures were $3,000 and $1,500.

For families of two the poverty level would be $1,090, and for families of three, $2,440.

The Chamber of Commerce based its criticism of the old gauge on the fact that a small family living in a warm climate and growing most of its own food could live comfortably on $3,000 a year. The chamber called on the government to replace its income measure of poverty with a "market-basket" standard which would gauge what it costs to live a decent life in different parts of the country.

Social Security Benefits Up 7.3 Per Cent In Seminole County

Monthly old age, survivors and disability insurance benefits in Seminole County now top $341,202, Col. Byron R. Patton, district manager, of Social Security said today.

The new monthly figure represents an increase of 7.3 per cent over the corresponding period last year.

"This increase can be attributed to the changes in the law in recent years, as well as the growth of our aged population," Patton said.

"There is no longer any doubt, Social Security benefits are helping to stabilize the income and spending power of many residents in Seminole County," Patton declared.

Monthly benefits first became payable in January 1940, and they have continued without interruption for years, accompanied by a steady growth in the number of beneficiaries.

Patton noted that as of Dec. 31, 1964, some 5,594 Seminole Countians were collecting about $4,095,424 annually from social security. As of Dec. 31, 1963, there were 5,262 Seminole Countians collecting benefits.

More people in Seminole County, he said, could draw social security benefits if they knew more about the law, and for that reason they are urged to visit or call the local social security office whenever they have a question concerning their benefits or responsibilities.

As of January 1965, in the nation at large, more than 19 million beneficiaries were receiving payments at the rate of $1,379,704,000 per month.

The average monthly old-age retirement benefit in January was $77.72 for all States, while in the State of Florida the average was $78.77, Patton said.

The following table . . . broken down in beneficiary groups, number of beneficiaries and total of payments . . . shows the number and amount of each type of monthly benefit paid in Seminole County as of last Dec. 31:

Retired worker, 2,891, $206,631; wife or husband, 671, $25,796; widow and widower, 441, $27,867; mothers and children, 1,018, $48,457; and disabled workers and dependents, 565, $32,143.

Fire Auxiliary To Be Organized In Village

By Margaret Cosby

Wives of members of the North Orlando Volunteer Fire Department will meet at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Malvin Campbell, 61 N. Third Street, for the purpose of organizing a ladies auxiliary.

Announcement of plans for the new group was made at regular meeting of the firemen for the month of April.

In other business, George Hahn was named historian and James W. Schnell and Raymond Lucore were welcomed as new members.

It was voted to make a donation for the proposed fire station to be located at Florida Boys Ranch in Live Oak and also that the local department requires a fire captain and a lieutenant. These officers will be elected at the May 12 meeting.

Chief Bill Hahn announced that work on the village directory, one of the department's projects in cooperation with the community, will get underway this month.

Regular meetings of the firemen are on the second Wednesday of each month with drill and training sessions on the fourth Wednesday. All meetings, for the present time, are held at the North Orlando village offices.

Senior Citizens Forming Powerful Bloc

The Aging I (EDITOR'S NOTE:
 America's population is growing by leaps and bounds and, at the same time, life expectancies are increasing. Each day 5,000 persons reach 65. This increase in "senior citizens" poses many problems — for the aging for those who care for them. UPI national reporter Harry Ferguson discusses some of them in this dispatch, first of three on the subject.)

By Harry Ferguson
 WASHINGTON (UPI) —
 Every day 5,000 Americans turn age 65. It is safe to say that millions of old people are living longer and enjoying it less.

Not all of them, of course.
 Many of them adjust smoothly to their new way of life and learn that there is considerable validity in the slogan that the latter years of their lives can be the golden ones.

But the hard facts are depressing. There are three million elderly families trying to live on less than $3,000 a year. There are nearly six million elderly persons struggling along on less than $1-800 a year. That kind of income definitely puts them in the category that the federal government calls poverty.

 There is increased concern
 by the federal government, including Congress, about old people.

It would be nice to say that Congress is acting out of humanitarian instincts, but it wouldn't be true. Congress is concerned because there are about 18 million Americans past 65 and almost all of them are entitled to vote.

 Any senator or representative who views the plight of the aged with indifference is inviting retirement to private life, and all of them know it.

In the long history of the United States the federal government's concern about old people is a fairly recent development. It has occurred, for instance, in the adult lifetime of President Johnson and he mentioned that fact in accepting the annual report of his council on aging — a special group set up to study the problem:

"When I first came to Washington, we were doing nothing. Social Security was not even talked about. Old age, as I understood, was not prevalent and it took the combined efforts of President Roosevelt and Huey Long and a good many others to dramatize the situation where we could really do something for the aged.

"Up to that time most of our elections had been run on the basis of whether you were wet or dry, prohibitionist or anti-prohibitionist, Klan or anti-Klan, or whatever you were for the local bridge or against the local bridge . . . I never heard of Social Security until I was 21 years old. All I heard was whether you were wet or dry, for the courthouse group or against them."

The reason President Johnson did not hear anything about old people when he first came to Washington was that in the cynical world of politics there were not enough of them to make a noise loud enough to be heard in the halls of Congress. In this century there has been a startling increase in the number of persons past 65. Like this:

In 1900 there were 3.1 million.

In 1940, nine million.

In 1960, 16.6 million.

In 1965, 18 million.

The projection for 1980 is 24.5 million; for 2000, 32.3 million. Old people not only have increased in great numbers, but they have become organized and vocal. Politicians are facing up the fact that you had better worry about the old folks or else.

For much of this century medical science concerned itself, not with the aged, but with the infant and the adolescent. The results were gratifying. In 1900 the death rate from the communicable diseases of childhood — such things as measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough and diphtheria — was 65.2 per thousand. Today those diseases almost have been conquered and the death rate is negligible.

BETTER GOOD RESULTS
 Then the doctors turned their attention to ailments of the adults and the aged, and again average life expectancy of Americans shot upward in a steep curve. In 1900 it was around 45 years. Today it is around 70.

On Aug. 14, 1935, President Roosevelt signed the Social Security law and said it was "a cornerstone in a structure that is being built but is by no means complete."
 His words were prophetic.
 Social Security has helped the aged, but it has not solved their problems.

Over the years Congress has passed at least eight amendments to the Social Security Act, liberalizing and improving the benefits. It currently has under consideration a bill for medicare under Social Security. But the federal action has not kept pace with the problem, even though most of the states also provide some form of old age assistance.

It is as dangerous to generalize about old people as it is about teenagers. Democrats, Baptists or chorus girls. Many of them are well adjusted and happy. But many of them also are ill, discouraged, hopeless and helpless. To them to the ticking of the clock day after day grows louder until it seems to be a bell tolling their doom.

That is why President Johnson has chosen this month of May to try to rally the nation to the problems of the aged. He knows millions of them need more money, but he is equally interested in bestowing up them the priceless ingredients of optimism and hope.

 of old age boredom.)

First Federal Taps Hunt Comets To Take Second In Little League

First Federal took over second place in the Little National League by beating the Hunt Comets, 6-5, Friday afternoon.

Nicky Brady, the winning hurler, got off to a shaky start but settled down in the late innings to lead the way. He recorded 11 strikeouts, allowed only one hit.

Al Grooms topped the hitters with two hits. Brady and Hal Duncan added doubles. Hunt saw a 4-0 lead vanish as First Federal scored four runs in the fourth inning to tie the score and then added two insurance runs in the fifth.

In the only other game Friday, Strickland-Morrison's Mustangs downed Sanford Atlantic, 7-5. The victory left the Mustangs one game behind league leader, Georges. Ben Twyman recorded the win and Jeff Ward was charged with the loss.

The top hitters were Twyman with two hits and Mike Galloway chipped in two base hits, including a triple. Volentine, of Sanford Atlantic, had the game's only homer.

The game went into the final inning tied 3-3. The Mustangs rallied for four runs to grab a 7-3 lead. Sanford Atlantic fought back, scoring twice and with one out and the bases loaded, Donald Brown came in to relieve Ben Twyman and struck out the next two Sanford Atlantic batters to save the game for Strickland-Morrison.

Among the top games today, the Kilowatts met Kingswood tonight at Ft. Mellon Park at 7:30. A capacity crowd is expected to be on hand to see this battle between the league leaders of the City League. The game will have a great bearing on the first half champion.

The Junior League is expected to pick up pace as players from the Sanford

Tap Pirates Four Games In Weekend Tilts

By George C. Langford
UPI Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals tried an old remedy that revived them last September and found it still works.

The world champions' particular cure is the Pittsburgh Pirates, and the Cardinals had four invigorating doses over the weekend which zoomed them from 10th place to a fourth-place tie in the National League.

St. Louis whipped the Pirates twice Sunday, 9-5 and 5-4, to achieve a 500 winning percentage for the first time this season and extend its domination of the Bucs to 12 consecutive games over the past two years.

Remember last September when the Cardinals began their fantastic drive to the National League pennant? They came into Pittsburgh in third place, five games behind Philadelphia on Sept. 21. When they left town four days later, they had won five straight from the Pirates and were only 1 1/2 games out of first, headed for the NL flag.

Manager Red Schoendienst's crew bounced out of the sickbed again at the sight of the Pirates Sunday, completing a sweep of the four-game series.

The Reds swept a pair from the New York Mets 9-4 and 10-8 at Cincinnati to take over the league lead; Philadelphia took the Braves twice at Milwaukee 6-0 and 10-7; Chicago halted Houston's 10-game winning streak 6-3 and San Francisco beat the Dodgers at Los Angeles 4-2, in 10 innings.

In the American League, Baltimore toppled the Yankees at New York 4-2 in 10 innings and 5-0; Washington shocked the Indians at Cleveland 2-2 and 4-2; Boston whipped the Tigers twice at Detroit 2-1 and 10-3; Minnesota stopped the White Sox 3-2 in 10 innings then lost 5-4 at Chicago and host Kansas City beat the Los Angeles Angels 9-5 after losing the opener 10-8.

Jim Courier Hurls Oviedo Nine Into Regional Baseball Tourney

By Marshall Lingo
Herald Sports Writer

Oviedo's Jimmy Courier hurled his Lions to an 8-0 victory over Tavares Friday to give Oviedo the group championship and the right to participate in the regional tourney.

Courier allowed Favores no hits and aided his cause at the plate with a pair of hits. Walter Beasley went two for three to lead Oviedo at the plate.

Oviedo started off in the second inning when Tim Colbert and Wayne Jacobs came in after Beasley's first hit. In the third, Courier and Rex Brooks both singled and Jacobs walked to leave the bases loaded for Mike Partin. Partin singled and Brooks and Courier came in.

The bases were loaded again in the same inning when Beasley singled, pushing in Jacobs. Partin moved in on a passed ball to give Oviedo a 6-0 lead at the end of the third inning.

Billy Mikler and Courier came in the fourth and there was no more score in the ball game.

Courier allowed three walks and struck out twelve.

The losing pitcher was Sandy Colley. He was relieved in the fourth by Bret Heath.

The class B regional tournament for this region will be held in Oviedo this Friday when the Lions vie with Zephyrhills for the regional championship and a chance to participate in the state tourney.

Lucky Debonair's Eye On Preakness

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Lucky Debonair's trainer still was a little awed today by his colt's victory in the $154,500 Kentucky Derby Saturday at Churchill Downs.

"Imagine starting the year with a maiden and four months later winning the Kentucky Derby," said Frank Catrone, who conditions Lucky Debonair for Mrs. Ada L. Rice of Chicago.

"We had a little trouble with him last year, bucked ahins for one thing but nothing serious. We could only start him once and he was sixth at Atlantic City," he recalled. "He won his first race at Santa Anita on Jan. 11 this year."

"Everything went perfect here training for the Derby, and anybody who says there was anything wrong with him is crazy. He never took a lame step. I'll take the bandages off his legs and you can see for yourself," he said of reports the colt suffered from "shin splints."

"He came out of the race perfect and we'll ship to Baltimore on Monday or Tuesday for the Preakness," Catrone said.

Lucky Debonair, after running head and head with Flag Raiser for a mile, opened up a big lead in the stretch and then outgamed Dapper Dan to win America's racing classic by a neck.

Tom Rolfe was two lengths farther back in third place, followed by Native Charger, Hail To All, Mr. Pak, Swift Ruler, Flag Raiser, Carpenter's Hule, Hold Lad and Narusua.

Bill Shoemaker, winner with Swaps in 1955 and with Tony Lee in 1959, rode Lucky Debonair over the mile and one-quarter in 2:01 1-5.

Marilyn Smith Captures Peach Blossom Honors

SPARTANBURG, S. C. (UPI)—Marilyn Smith sank a 22-foot eagle putt on 17 Sunday to join the ranks of two-time winners of the Peach Blossom Invitational golf tournament with a 3-under-par 213.

The eagle, followed by a bogey on 18 gave Miss Smith her third straight round of 71 and a one-stroke edge over hometown favorite Betsy Rawls.

Third at 216, even par, was defending champion Mickey Wright who was never among the leaders in the three-day tournament. Sue Maxwell and Kathy Whitworth tied for fourth at 218.

Option Knowles

NEW YORK (UPI)—Derold Knowles, 23-year-old lefthanded pitcher, has been optioned by the Baltimore Orioles to Rochester of the International League.

the third fastest running of the Kentucky Derby. The son of Vertax paid $10,600, $5,400 and $4,200 and earned $112,000. Dapper Dan paid $25,000 and $12,600 while Tom Rolfe returned $4,800. A puzzled Bill Winfrey reported that Bold Lad, the 2-1 favorite who never was a serious factor throughout the race, also was fine.

After the race jockey Bill Hartack said something was wrong with Bold Lad but would not reveal what it was. Winfrey couldn't find anything amiss, but planned to gallop the colt for a few days.

"Then maybe Bold Lad will tell us what it is," he said. Bold Lad is out of the Preakness Stakes but Dapper Dan will be sent after Lucky Debonair again in the second of the triple crown classics to be run at Pimlico on May 15. And so will Hail To All and Native Charger. But Tom Rolfe probably will skip the race.

Top Honor Won By Seminole School Staff

Seminole County lunchroom supervisors brought home honors from the annual meeting of the Florida School Food Service Association in Hollywood.

Three supervisors, Mrs. Ruby Davis, of Southside; Mrs. Clarice Dekle, of West Side, and Mrs. Ruby Denton, of Geneva, were given special recognition for having had a 90 per cent participation of students in the county school lunch program this year.

"These supervisors have done a fine job and are to be highly recommended," said Mrs. Charlotte Whitmore, county school lunch supervisor.

A proposed bill to raise the pay of lunchroom workers has cleared the education committees of both houses of the Florida Legislature and is expected to come before the appropriations committee this week, Mrs. Whitmore added.

Other local lunchroom delegates who attended the state meet include Mrs. Lucille Fessler, of Seminole High School; Mrs. Mae Harris, of South Seminole Junior High School; Mrs. Alice Dunn, of Pinecrest; Mrs. Muriel Gardner, of Lake Mary; Mrs. Flora Middleton, of Grammar School, and Mrs. Beatrice Dean, of Lyman.

Alternates who attended included Mrs. Sara McGrath, Mrs. Mildred Thomas, Mrs. Pat Weiss and Mrs. Catherine Garrison.

Deltona Lions To Hear Talk On Citrus

By Mildred Haney
Volusia County Agent T. R. Townsend, guest speaker for today's 6:30 p.m. meeting of the Deltona Lions Club, will discuss care and feeding of orange trees.

Townsend has chosen this subject in cooperation with the club's recent project of selling young citrus trees to homeowners in the new community.

The Deltona Lions are planning a big celebration for May 17 to observe the club's first anniversary.

Roy Durand, general chairman, reports that a dinner-dance will take place at the Showboat in DeLand. A fine roast beef dinner is being arranged and dancing will be to a four-piece combo, he advises.

Perfect attendance pins for the members will be awarded at the June meeting.

Bear Lake PTA Officers To Be Installed

The Bear Lake Parent-Teacher Association will have installation of officers at its regular meeting scheduled for Tuesday evening at the school.

The business session will get underway at 8 p. m. following a social half-hour.

LBJ Cookout

JOPLIN, Mo. (UPI) — The Joplin Chamber of Commerce conducted its first annual "LBJ western cookout" night but the initials had nothing to do with President Johnson. Businessmen said the "LBJ" stood for "Let's Build Joplin."

Old, New Worlds Permanently Linked By TV

United Press International. It was 11:15 a.m. in Houston, in the Methodist Hospital at the Texas Medical Center. Dr. Michael De Bakey carefully inserted an artificial valve in the heart of a patient. At the moment it was 7:15 p.m. in Europe. All over the continent, Europeans watching their television sets saw a live telecast of De Bakey's hands and the patient's throbbing heart.

The old world and the new world was permanently linked.

Thus did trans-Atlantic television come of age Sunday in the first full program relayed by America's new "Early Bird" satellite. The reception was excellent. Millions of viewers in North America and Western Europe shared the same television fare.

National Arbitron, an audience rating organization, estimated that 17 million persons watched the telecast via the three major networks and independent stations in the United States. For nearly two years, the Telstar and Relay satellites have provided the two hemispheres with fleeting glimpses of each other—President Kennedy's funeral and the freedom march on Washington were viewed live in London; Sir Winston Churchill's funeral was telecast to the United States.

But "Early Bird" provides continuous transmission. The camera hopped for an hour from Houston's hospital, Astrodome and Manned Spacecraft Center, to New York's World Fair, to the Capitol in Washington, to Mexico City's Santa Maria de Guadalupe Cathedral, and to the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec.

In return, America saw its first "live" pictures of Stockholm's Skansen Park, of the Barcelona Cathedral, of Assisi, Italy, Passau, Germany, the Dam of Dinard, France, Mont Blanc and Portsmouth, England.

A ceremony at Halifax, Nova Scotia, followed a dedication service in Philadelphia's New Hope Baptist Church. Seconds later, Europeans watched the new YF12A go through maneuvers at Edwards Air Force base in California.

Not all been sting. There are about 300 species of airplanes here ranging throughout the tropical and warmer parts of the world.

First Methodist WSCS To Hold Pledge Service

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church will meet in the church sanctuary, Tuesday morning, May 4, at 9:45 for its annual Pledge Service, to be conducted by Mrs. R. U. Hutchison and Mrs. Ray Heron.

A tabeau, "Portraits of Christ," showing phases of Christian women's work around the world, will be given with Mrs. C. R. Jones and Mrs. Robert Cole as narrators.

For those who like a light and yet elegant dessert, a fruit compote marinated in wine is a good choice. Marinate canned cling peach slices, halved fresh strawberries and chunks of pineapple in Sherry for several hours. These fruit flavors blend nicely with shortbread cookies.

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: I am tired of reading articles on how women should "treat"

men. The women are told to diet, get new hair-dos, wear feminine clothes, get interested in sports, always smell fresh and sweet, and flatter a man's ego. Balaney! We women have pride, too, you know. I am a lot more attractive in many ways than most of my married friends, and I have a lot of love to give. But here I sit—starving for affection. Men are the dumbest animals in the world. PROUD IN LOUISVILLE

DEAR PROUD: The only way to get love is to give it, and pride has nothing to do with who makes the first move. The dumbest animal in the world is the one who has a bale of hay in front of him, but starves to death because he's too proud to eat it.

DEAR ABBY: I had better prepare you for a problem you never had before. Our 19-year-old daughter is getting married next month and we are giving her a church wedding with all the trimmings. I hope you won't think we are terrible, but my husband and I have never been married legally. We have lived together common law, but no one knows this. I know I will feel guilty in that church when my daughter is being married if my husband and I don't get married before she does. My husband says I should forget it as this state recognizes common law marriage and, besides, it's too much red tape. I'd like your opinion. NOT MARRIED

DEAR NOT: It will be worth the "red tape" which, in reality, is "menting" tape. Talk to your clergyman about a quiet ceremony for you and your husband. And don't worry about shocking him. He's heard everything.

DEAR MARRION: With pleasure. Now will everyone who knows the score please refrain from voicing it?

CONFIDENTIAL TO BETTE C.: You are right. I have yet to come across a "new" problem. All the problems people face today can be found in the Bible, complete with their solutions—if only people were wise enough to read and heed.

Problems? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Send to write letters? Here's one dollar to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., for Abby's booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Jacoby On Bridge

The bidding in the box took place at one table in the recent Vanderbilt Cup team competition. In knockout team matches each hand is played twice only and the International Match Point scoring produces conditions that call for tactics similar to rubber bridge.

spade bid by West. The North went right on to six hearts. The six bid was a definite gamble. North was certain that his partner would not hold more than one spade. The gamble consisted in guessing that his side ace was in clubs, not diamonds. West's double was bad judgment. He had two aces but his opponents had bid a vulnerable alarm against those two aces and there was a good chance that both aces would not make. West really should have gone on to six spades and accepted a sure small loss instead of risking the 1,640 points that South got for making six hearts doubled. The six-spade bid would have still given this West's team a net loss on the hand. At the other table West was doubled at five spades, but the loss would have been a small one instead of an enormous one.

We The Women:

I sometimes think that every American woman ought to go to Paris just once to observe the wonderful way of a Frenchwoman with a man—any man. It doesn't take an observant woman long to figure out that it isn't a question of what French women have that other women lack. It's a question of how cleverly they use what they have. You won't see nearly as many beautiful girls in Paris as you can find on any American college campus—or even on Main Street. You won't find that middle-aged Frenchwomen are better groomed or more attractive than their middle-aged American sisters (unless you go to neighborhood shopping centers to rate American women.

There they nearly all look uncaring and uncared for.) But a Frenchwoman can make heads turn when she walks down the street or holds men fascinated at the dinner table — not because she is beautiful but because she acts as though she is. French women obviously spend great thought and much time on their looks—in private. Once they step out, they seem to forget their clothes, their make-up, and themselves. They don't keep pulling at their hair, or making up in public the way American women do. They don't even seem to want to look perfectly turned out, with everything matching and every hair in place—just like a department store dummy. Once they leave home looking as pertly feminine as they can manage, they concentrate on whatever men happen to be handy. It doesn't matter who the man is—husband, friend, new acquaintance, whatever man is nearby gets a Frenchwoman's full attention and both barrels of her charm. You don't see them looking bored, or wearing set smiles or vacant stares. They sparkle. Rarely do you see an American woman who gives men the flattering, undivided, fascinated attention that seems to be as natural to French women as breathing — though, of course, it's a highly skilled art each has to perfect for herself.

We get an equally fascinating panoramic view of some awesome historical monuments, accompanied by

DEAR ABBY: I recently flew from Florida to New York just to see "HELLO, DOLLY." I had purchased my tickets six months in advance. The play was everything I had anticipated, but a man sitting behind me knew the entire score and he sang along with every number. It was maddening.

The next evening I paid $5 to see "MY FAITH LADY." I had never spent that much on a movie in my life. Would you believe it, Abby, again a man sitting behind me sang all the numbers with the cast. That this happened two nights in a row was really too much. Won't you please say something in your column to silence such songbirds?

DEAR MARRION: With pleasure. Now will everyone who knows the score please refrain from voicing it?

CONFIDENTIAL TO BETTE C.: You are right. I have yet to come across a "new" problem. All the problems people face today can be found in the Bible, complete with their solutions—if only people were wise enough to read and heed.

Problems? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"I am fifty-nine. My hair is dry and, when I use spray it just sort of curls up into little knots and is a mess! What should I do? I cannot afford professional service and must do whatever is necessary at home.—Lillie."

Shampoo very carefully and be sure to rinse several times so that no soap residue is left in your hair. Brush, and when thoroughly dry, use a finger-tip of cosmetic oil, massaged on the scalp, NOT the hair. When arranging your hair after you have finished, stroke the hair lightly with the cosmetic oil. This will give sheen and help to hold the hair style. Spray is not for your type of dry hair.

Wild Animals Panic As Earthquake Hits

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—It was 8:29 a.m., feeding time for the animals at Woodland Park Zoo and breakfast time for 250 women in the restaurant atop the 600-foot Seattle Space Needle.

At that moment, the earthquake struck the zoo, the Space Needle and the whole Pacific Northwest.

Fear replaced hunger. Big cats leaped and scrambled around their cages, a giant gorilla threw his food and a lonely, frightened orangutan gurgled in a corner.

Atop the Space Needle, the women, too, were nervous.

"There was a tremendous away," said Margie Grennan, hostess for a television show originating from the restaurant.

"The tower was just going up and down, back and forth, making a loud, clattering noise like a big machine."

At the zoo, Hoho, the park department's 680-pound gorilla, was making a "mess of everything."

"He would throw his food," said zookeeper Jack Alexander, "then skitter back and forth, bouncing off the walls and glass windows of his cage."

Fifi, his 340-pound "wife," was calmer and stayed out of the way of her mate's rumpages.

Things were swinging at the Space Needle, too.

"There was such a sway," the hostess said, "that one moment you could see houses on the hillsides, the next moment you could only see sky."

"About half the audience wanted to leave right away, but neither of the elevators could be used. We were all terrified."

World Fair Fund Is Authorized

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The Cabinet Budget Commission authorized the release of $1.2 million appropriated by the Legislature for Florida's exhibit at the New York World's Fair.

The money—the first major measure in the governor's legislative program—will pay off the debts of exhibitors and open the display to the public at no cost.

Happy Birthday Harry!

Harry Truman is one of our favorite people.

He doesn't mind saying what he thinks. . . . let the chips fall where they may.

Although he appears to speak rather impulsively at times, his statements more often than not have the ring of truth.

"We'll beat them Republicans and make 'em like it," he once boasted. He beat 'em, but they didn't like it very well.

In fact, the Republicans have never quite recovered from Mr. Truman's astonishing victory in the 1948 presidential race.

But it did teach them a lesson. They discovered it was going to take more than "the candidate in rompers," as Mr. Dewey was referred to, to get Democrats out of the White House.

And the irony of it all was the fact that Mr. Truman picked their candidate for them. He tried to bow out, himself, in favor of Dwight Eisenhower but couldn't get like to run as a Democrat.

Mr. Truman will be 81 on May 8 and his tongue is still as sharp as ever.

Once around the block and the former President will come up with a remark that will be in the headlines on Page One next day.

He doesn't mind taking on the champ and if he doesn't win you can be sure he'll go down fighting.

His favorite game is chipping away the veneer on some of our more prominent public figures, needing the pompous and putting people in their places. He's an expert at it. And the pin pricks he makes deflates some of our heroes and helps us to see them in a truer light.

Mr. Truman can never be accused of lack of courage or decisiveness in time of crisis. He made history.

We'd like to take this occasion to wish him a Happy Birthday and many more to come.

Free Government But . . .

If the right to vote is a fundamental measure of freedom and democracy, then what we so blithely and so often refer to as the "Free World" has a long way to go to measure up to that appellation.

A United Nations survey of voting requirements reveals wide differences from country to country.

Afghanistan, Jordan, Kuwait, Iraq, Liechtenstein and Switzerland, for example, do not allow women to vote or run for office.

In Andorra, only heads of families may vote for members of the General Council, while in Ecuador, literacy tests prevent much of the Indian population, which makes up over one-third of the total population, from going to the polls.

Neither have full voting rights been extended to Indians and Eskimos in some Canadian provinces. In Thailand, monks or novices may not vote; in Brazil, the bar applies to illiterates and enlisted men in the armed forces, though voting is compulsory for others from 18 to 70.

In South Africa, only "Europeans" (whites) can vote for members of Parliament; in Liberia, only owners of a hut on which they pay a tax.

Every country has some requirements, of course, such as age and residency and citizenship. In two, however—Saudi Arabia and Yemen—voting is a simple matter. It doesn't exist at all.

Thought For Today

And he said, Jesus, remember me when you come in your kingly power. And he said to him, Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.—Luke 23:42-43.

'Twas a thief said the last kind word to Christ; Christ took the kindness and forgave the theft. — Robert Browning.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Daniel and David High-priest Mrs. Crane and me to make this 200-mile trip to see what they deemed the most unique Children's Home they had ever visited. And I am told there are only five in the U. S. A. like this one. We were astounded at the superb psychology and splendid educational program which we witnessed.

CASE V-479; Daniel and David are the two youngest of our children. Daniel is a dental surgeon and had spent a day checking the teeth of the children at the Indiana Soldiers and Sailors Children's Home at Knightstown.

He was so favorably impressed with that great project that he became a fervent press agent, urging his mother and me to make a special trip over there.

But it meant a 200-mile automobile trip, so we delayed. Then David, the M. D., was over there for some medical work, and hereafter he also joined Daniel in prodding us to make the trip.

On a recent Sunday, after dinner, they insisted that Mrs. Crane and I get in the car, saying they'd drive us over.

And we were delighted with what we found.

William Brewer is the superintendent of this unique children's home.

It covers over 400 acres and includes 600 youngsters, ranging from two-year-olds to the age of 18.

The children are housed in groups, according to age, with "house parents" to supervise the youngsters.

Each dwelling has a TV and a piano for the youngsters, plus suitable toys and other equipment to fit the age group living therein.

These children are not orphans, as a rule, but may have lost one parent so they need a home.

The children do not dress in uniforms nor is there any of the usual regimentation linked with such an institution.

Everybody wakens at 6 a.m., except on Sunday when the hour is 7.

After school, the children then romp and play as they wish, without being regimented.

A fish pond is on the grounds, so they can even catch fish. There is a cozy lounge and retail shopping room where they can gather and buy as they wish.

For each child has his own bank account and writes checks for whatever he desires.

"Dr. Crane," Supt. Brewer added, "the youngsters write a check for five cents or 10 cents or several dollars, depending on what they wish to purchase."

If a girl of high school age wants to go to Knightstown, a few blocks away, to buy a blouse or stockings, etc., she cashes a check at the school "bank" and goes alone to do her own buying.

Contrast this early training in use of a checking account with what occurs in the average American home!

Most children never have a checking account till they go to college!

These youngsters also have a chance to learn a trade, such as barbering, plumbing, farming, baking, linotype operating, etc.

They are granted 75 cents per month spending money but can earn additional funds doing chores or working for townpeople.

The American Legion also schedules an annual carnival to entertain the children and also raise money to furnish each youngster extra funds.

And the Legion tries to see that every child has a sponsoring family to send it mail and maybe offer it 20 cents per month spending money.

Actually, this children's home should be featured in a national magazine just for its splendid training in self-reliance, plus its absence of the usual regimentation previously deemed necessary for such an institution.

See tomorrow's follow-up. (Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

CHARGE OF THE ENLIGHTENMENT BRIGADE

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ever since the repeal of prohibition, states, territories and other political subdivisions have been mixing their own drinking regulations with some rather curious results.

Some places permit the sale of liquor by the bottle but not by the drink. Some permit the sale of liquor by the drink but only where food is served. And so on.

At least one state banned the sale of liquor and then enacted a liquor tax that brought in considerable revenue. Which is a pretty neat trick.

All of this has caused a lot of confusion among interstate drinkers, many of whom are not too well organized in the first place.

They long to have drinking regulations standardized throughout the nation so that regardless of where they are they will always know where they stand. If they are able to stand.

I can see their point, but I think they are asking for trouble. Uniform regulations would require federal action, and that means Congress. And you can't always be sure what Congress means.

Drinking in the District of Columbia already is regulated by Congress. Which is one of the reasons why the people who live here are in favor of home rule.

Some years ago, Congress passed a law that permitted two-footed but not two-footed drinking in the capital.

Imbibers would stand before a bar "not exceeding 8 feet in length and 2 feet in width, or if such facility be of irregular shape, the serving surface of which shall not exceed 16 square feet."

In Washington, this sort of thing is known as "clarifying the situation." Wouldn't you rather be confused?

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Will de Gaulle Run?

By Joseph W. Grigg

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle is nearing the political point of no return. In the near future he must reach a final decision on the question that is keeping his nation in suspense—will he run again at the age of 75 next December for a second seven-year term?

The question also is of vital interest to millions throughout Europe and the rest of the world. It will decide whether or not de Gaulle's friends and allies will have to continue for the foreseeable future dealing with the particular form of prickly nationalism which de Gaulle has made the hallmark of his "strongman" Fifth Republic.

Those who should be in the know swear de Gaulle, himself, has not yet made up his own mind.

They say he will take time out for some deep meditation during his August vacation. De Gaulle is expected to announce his decision in September and finally put an end to France's number-one political cliffhanger.

If he should decide in the end to stand down, it is taken for granted he will tell the nation the name of the man he would like it to elect to succeed him.

That man has to get some political "exposure" and the nearer next December comes, the less time there will be for him to do so.

Two major factors are expected to make up de Gaulle's mind for him.

The first is the question of his health. Close aides swear it never has been better. The general public can see that at times he looks good, but at others he seems drawn and haggard. But like any man nearing the age of 75, de Gaulle cannot afford not to take into account the inexorable ravages of time.

The second major consideration is political.

De Gaulle was swept to power in 1958 by a massive popular majority of the nation. If he runs again, he wants to be re-elected once again as "the nation's choice"—not as the candidate of a single political party.

Package Tours Tailor Made For Senior Citizens

By Murray J. Brown
NEW YORK (UPI)—Travel and adventure are not the prerogatives of the young alone. In fact, surveys show an increasing number of America's "old folks" are eschewing the fireplace to go gallivanting to faraway places.

Some of these "senior citizens" venture forth on their own while others young in heart and spirit find group traveling more fun.

For those who have been putting off holidays abroad because they fear it may be too strenuous or lonely, there is a travel service which caters specifically to men and women in the 55 to 80 age group.

The American Association of Retired Persons and the National Retired Teachers Association (AARP/NRTA) arrange package tours tailored to physical and other considerations of the older traveler.

Anyone 55 or over, retired or not, is eligible for membership in the AARP. Dues are $2 per year. It already has 850,000 members in the United States and overseas.

European tours run from 41 to 66 days and the all-inclusive rates range from $995 to $1,845. There are "Grand Circle" tours of England, Holland, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Austria and Monaco. Others cover the British Isles and Ireland, the Scandinavian nations, southern Europe and the Mediterranean, including Jordan and Lebanon or Israel.

According to Mrs. Ruth O. Lana, consultant and co-ordinator of national services for AARP, the travel service was initiated in 1956 because many AARP members found the pace of the usual group tour a little too taxing. The first year, she recalled, AARP's travel service sent 280 members to the continent. The following year the number doubled. In 1964, thousands of members signed on for almost 100 different tours, including 10 63-day round-the-world junkets by plane.

"Since warmth, congeniality and attention to personal needs are essential to travel enjoyment," Mrs. Lana said, "each group is limited to 30 persons."

Mrs. Lana said all AARP tour groups have carefully selected, multi-lingual expert guides. All tour directors also receive special training in traveling with older people.

Flagship Joins Academy Fleet

By Paul Brookshire
"Wyndcrest II," a 66-foot twin diesel yacht, sailed into Sanford today to become the flagship of the Sanford Naval Academy.

The yacht, valued at $68,000, is a gift to the Academy from Roswell Miller, a wealthy New Yorker who has a winter home at Jupiter.

The Wyndcrest made its way to Sanford up the Intracoastal Waterway from Jupiter to Jacksonville and down the St. Johns River to Sanford.

Capt. John Williams and Chief William Holcomb, of the Academy, sailed the Wyndcrest to its new home. J. P. Wiegars, of the Bernarr Macfadden Foundation, announced the gift of the yacht to the Academy here today. He said Miller had heard the Academy was looking for a boat and had contacted the Foundation.

Wiegars said the Wyndcrest was built in 1918 for the duPont family and was originally called "The Enterprise." It has been owned by Miller for the past 33 years.

The craft has a 12-foot beam and a draft of four feet, 9 inches. It sleeps 10 but the Academy will be able to accommodate 25 boys for weekend cruises, Wiegars said.

The yacht, of a rich mahogany finish, has been completely modernized. It has the latest sonar and ship-to-shore equipment. It is a 30-ton registered yacht and makes 17 knots at top speed.

Wiegars said the Wyndcrest will be flagship for 12 other boats now in the Sanford Naval Academy fleet. A dock is expected to be built at the Mayfair Inn, new home of the Academy, to house the craft.

The Wyndcrest will be used as a training ship and also for pleasure trips by midshipmen and their visiting parents.

Early 'Phone Action Promised

GOV. HAYDON BURNS' dream of a statewide scholarship fund for deserving high school students became a reality in Seminole County today. Edwin D. Hunt (left) and Mrs. Kathleen Reynolds, members of the Burns executive committee for Seminole County, presented $1,000 scholarship grants for students of Crooms and Seminole High Schools to Principals Harper Douglas (left center) and A. J. Bracken. The funds were derived from the Governor Burns inaugural balls last January. Similar grants will be given next year to Oviedo and Lyman High Schools. (Herald Photo)

County Group Presents Plea To State PUC

Members of the Florida Public Utilities Commission Monday assured a delegation from the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce that full consideration would be given to the petition for the Metro telephone system and that it would schedule a hearing on it "just as soon as possible."

In a conference arranged by Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Rep. S. J. Davis Jr., the Chamber committee — George Touhy, chairman, Thomas A. Speer and John Krider — presented the petition to the PUC members at Tallahassee.

Edwin L. Mason, chairman, and William T. Mayo, of the utilities agency, listened attentively to the comments of the delegates and expressed sympathy with their eagerness to get "action just as soon as possible." They added, however, that they were literally "swamped" with commitments that already are scheduled.

"The month of May is jammed to the overflowing point," Mason said. "However, there is an outside possibility that your presentation can be heard in June. This is not a promise, because we are pretty well booked through next month, too. A cancellation might give you the opening for which you are asking."

Mayo scanned the inch thick portfolio of petitions and letters from interested political subdivisions, business firms, civic organizations and individuals. "At a quick glance, I'd say that you have quite a case here. The committee should be commended for the time and effort that has been put into providing us with substantial material for study," the commissioner commented.

Asked about their trip to the state capital, Krider, Speer and Touhy praised the fine efforts of Senator Cleveland and Representative Davis in arranging an interview at which two of the state agency members could be present and in prevailing on them to take the time at this busy season to hear the "Seminole story."

Seven GIs Die In Dominican Defense Action

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI) — Rebel troops under Communist leadership today began massing forces north and south of the U.S. Marine defense perimeter here, U.S. military sources reported. The rebels had at least three tanks.

A military spokesman said the rebel strength included at least 300 rebel Dominican army troops and 12,000 armed civilians. He said some of them, armed with 50 caliber machine-guns, fired on a U.S. helicopter today.

The spokesman also reported the capture of a midget submarine at Point Torrealta, on the Ozama River that flows through Santo Domingo. The two-man submarine apparently was smuggling in arms for the rebels.

The spokesman said seven Americans have been killed thus far in the operation, and 49 wounded.

HARD CORE REDS — The latest intelligence reports said the rebel leadership included hard core Dominican Communists, and the spokesman said there were reports of Cuban Communists among them.

Opposing the rebels, he said, the Americans now have 14,000 troops ashore and about 5,000 in Navy ships offshore. They included 10,831 paratroopers from the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft. Bragg, N.C., and more than 7,500 Marines.

CASH NEEDED — WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson asked Congress today to vote an additional $700 million to finance military operations in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

Johnson told more than 100 members of six key congressional committees that he was giving serious consideration to submitting a formal request later today and would do so unless there were serious objections from legislative leaders.

The President told the lawmakers that his proposal was "in no way routine" and that a vote for it would be "a vote to try to halt Communist aggression."

The action, he said, would join Congress with the President in telling the world that "Communist conquest shall not succeed."

PEACE PLAN — President Johnson will pull U.S. troops out of the Dominican Republic "the moment that the Organization of American States can present a plan that will bring peace on the island... and give some hope of stability of government."

20-MPH Speed Limit Adopted By N. Orlando

By Donna Estes
North Orlando Village Council Monday night unanimously adopted an ordinance after three consecutive readings establishing a maximum speed limit of 20 miles per hour on all streets in the village except SR 434.

Included in the ordinance was a section designating all north and south streets as "through streets" at intersections and east-west streets as "yield right-of-way" intersections.

In other business, Mayor David G. Tilson urged that persons whose address labels are contained in garbage found at the village "trash only" dump be cited for violation of the village ordinance.

He pointed out that conviction of violation of said ordinance calls for a maximum fine of $200 and/or imprisonment up to 60 days.

He further urged citizens of the community to keep dogs on leashes or in pens and to have them properly inoculated against rabies. He announced that dogs attacking persons will be disposed of as "public menace."

Councilman Charles Rowell was authorized to look into the possibility of having stray dogs confined with a veterinarian and disposed of, if unclaimed, after three days.

It was voted to hire William Little, of Longwood, as village building and plumbing inspector until arrangements can be made for an inspector on a permanent basis. Application from qualified persons residing within the village will be accepted by Mayor Tilson.

'Fire' Space Shot Slated Today

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A 460-minute countdown began on schedule today for a 32-minute up-and-down space probe which will report on the inferno astronauts face during re-entry in Apollo moonship.

The countdown for the 200-pound Project Fire spacecraft began at 8:40 a.m. The thermometer-laden probe vehicle was set to make a quick hop into space and then take a 25,000-mile-an-hour dive back to earth today.

The spacecraft was perched atop a silvery Atlas rocket. Launch was scheduled for 4:20 p.m. (EST) but engineers were prepared to wait as late as 12:19 a.m. Wednesday, if necessary.

Weather in the re-entry area over the South Atlantic was the only questionable item. Good visibility is needed to enable telescopes to track the blazing craft as it plunges toward the sea.

The Atlas will boost the payload about 500 miles into space and then a small solid-fueled rocket will ram it back into the thick layer of air blanketing earth.

The cone-like probe, similar in shape to the three-man Apollo craft, was expected to generate a 30,000-degree fire-ball as it plows into the atmosphere about 5,130 miles southeast of the Cape.

Project Fire was designed to find out how much heat from the hot layer of gases just ahead of the blunt heat shield is actually felt by the craft, itself.

Today's shot was the last of two in the $31 million re-entry research program. The first flight April 14, 1964, showed that the heating on a flight the speed of a lunar return — 7,000 m.p.h. faster than re-entry from an earth orbit — was about the same or less than expected.

Program Manager David G. Stone said the findings of the first Project Fire shot are classified but he said "Apollo" got more confident with the results.

The Apollo heat shield, designed by engineers with only laboratory tests to work with, is already in projection. Stone said no changes are necessary as a result of Project Fire's measurements.

Today's mission was designed to confirm Fire-I's readings and to make a more thorough study of high-speed re-entry heating. To make its measurements, the spacecraft has 258 thermometers woven into its six-layer heat shield. In addition, it carries three sensors that peer through quartz windows at heat radiating from the fireball.

All of the readings will be relayed back to ground stations before impact. The probe will not be recovered.

Chimpanzees: Take Notice

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate passed a bill aimed at preventing chimpanzees and other pets from driving a motor vehicle in Florida.

The bill was proposed by Sen. Tom Whitaker, Tampa, after a chimp, with his owner at his side, drove down the streets of Tampa as a publicity gag one day.

Highway patrolmen were frustrated in penalizing anyone because present law prohibits unauthorized persons from operating a car, but doesn't say anything about animals.

The Whitaker bill, which now goes to the House, prohibits any but authorized "persons" from driving a vehicle and penalizes the car owner if he authorizes its use.

$900,000 Project

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The Army Corps of Engineers today announced the award of a $974,236 contract to the Smith and Sapp Construction Co. of Orlando, for construction of two maintenance buildings at the Merritt Island space port.

Attack Victim Points Out Assailants

By Barry Lawes
A quiet, soft-spoken little girl of 12, her voice barely audible at times, this morning took the witness stand and described how two men ravished her.

The testimony came from the second witness to be heard as State Attorney A. L. Steed began presenting his case against Israel Gilley, 17, and Jimmie Lee Drumright, 18, charged with the alleged rape on Feb. 9, 1965.

Attack Victim Points Out Assailants

The victim, testifying in a courtroom cleared of spectators, recounted the events of the afternoon she allegedly was attacked, identifying the defendants as her assailants.

Another witness, Louise Franklin, told of rescuing the victim from her attackers. Miss Franklin identified Drumright as one of the assailants but was unable to identify Gilley.

Gov. George Wallace of Alabama has sent us an invitation to come to Montgomery.

Wallace is inviting editors from throughout the United States to visit Alabama to determine if news from his state is being distorted.

The State of Alabama is furnishing transportation for the editors and Wallace's staff is handling hotel reservations.

"I hope you will come," Gov. Wallace writes, to find out the "true Alabama story."

The North Orlando Company in connection with the Beautification Month of May, is not giving 10,000 gallons of water free to each resident. They are, however, raising the minimum gallonage rate from 6,000 to 10,000 gallons. This is being extended through the month of June. A notice to this effect will be attached to the next water bills issued.

Got a flag to burn? The Sanford American Legion Post 53 will hold its annual flag burning soon — probably on "Flag Day" — June 14.

Any citizen or organization who has an unserviceable flag is urged to turn it into the Legion, Fire Department or Police Station. It will be disposed of in a proper, dignified manner.

The Enterprise PTO will hold its spring festival "Buckaroo Roundup" on the school campus Saturday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The imported fire ant didn't come to the U.S. by invitation, we understand. It stowed away on a ship from South America that docked at Mobile, Ala., about 1918. Since then its population has increased by the billions.

The fire ant has a vicious sting which may persist for several days. But it is not fatal. The state of Florida has spent almost $1 million in trying to get rid of the fire ant without success.

The current program under way in Seminole and four other Central Florida counties will cost about 60 cents per acre.
