Chamber Reviews County Progress Of Past 2 Years

Population Increase Of 4416 Is Noted Through Period, 803 New Citizens

Railroad Payroll Looms Important

Agriculture Responsible For Federal Loans Made Here

The progress made by Sanford and Seminole County in the past two years was reviewed today in an unofficial report compiled and released by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

One of the most notable strides forward was made in population increase, which has jumped 4416 in the past five years, according to the 1935 census. During that period, 803 new citizens became residents here.

At the head of the list the Chamber had placed the railroad industry which maintains a payroll of $600,000 per year here and is distributed among nearly 400 employees. In addition, the transportation company pays a $75,000 annual tax bill.

Relief projects under the jurisdiction of the PWA, the WPA and OWA have poured more than half a million dollars into the city since 1933. Among the outstanding developments made by federal funds are a municipal sewer, farm-to-market roads, street improvements, harbor, farmers' market, sewing room operations, improvements to school and public buildings and drainage work.

The agricultural industry in the county has seen the effect of the cotton and one-half million dollars of federal funds being poured into growers. This money was distributed among 980 farms each having an average value of $10,000 or a total of $10,280,000.

The farmers' Wholesale Market represents an investment of $50,000. The Florida Pre-Cooling Company recently established two new units in the county. Chase and Company has improved its washhouses within the past two years. The Jator Grant, a 2800-acre tract, was sold recently and will be developed into productive farm land. The gladiolus business should flourish under new developments.

Plus Orders Movie Censorship

VATICAN CITY, July 2.—(AP)—The Pope today ordered a "plus" censorship on movies under the direction of his bishops. The order was issued in an encyclical letter addressed to all bishops and archbishops of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States.

The church also has ordered throughout the world to refrain from the faithful annual jubilee procession "to absolve the sins of the world." The second time in recent years the Pope has published an encyclical addressed to American bishops.

Dr. Ralph Stevens Is Offered State Job

TALLAHASSEE, July 2.—(AP)—The state cabinet offered Dr. Ralph E. Stevens of St. Petersburg appointment as chief physician at the State Hospital for Insane yesterday. If he accepts, he will succeed Dr. J. H. Foy, who resigned to enter private practice.

Dr. Stevens now is municipal health officer of St. Petersburg. He was assistant to the Chief Surgeon of the St. Petersburg Veterans Hospital for three years, and prior to that he practiced medicine for many years in Sanford.

Salary of the hospital's chief physician is $2,000 annually, with living quarters furnished.

Mr. Foy's resignation was effective yesterday. Dr. Stevens was notified immediately of the cabinet's action and he will report to Tallahassee this week, if he accepts the offer.

Texas Floods Claim Lives Off Twenty-One

Heavy Rains Again Today Cause Rivers To Rise And $1,000,000 Damage

SAN ANTONIO, July 2.—(AP)—Flood waters which took 21 lives yesterday threatened again today when a heavy rain struck the stricken Gonzales sector and sent Peach Creek on a fresh rise that first reports said swept an entire Mexican family away.

Two inches of rain fell in less than an hour at Gonzales, the center circular area between San Antonio and Austin, 80 miles apart. In addition to 21 known dead, four, besides the Mexican family, are missing. It is not known how many were in the Mexican family.

Property damage is estimated at $1,000,000. Tiny Plum Creek, a trickle ordinarily six feet wide, claimed the greatest toll for a single stream—more than a dozen persons.

Some were swept into the water as they clung to their flimsy homes. A Missouri-Pacific freight train tumbled through a washed-out trestle near Kyle, Tex., killing a man and a boy and possibly others.

The unit is scheduled to leave Haines City at 8 A. M. Friday. It is composed of four batteries plus the regimental service battery. In the convoy are rubber-tired 75 millimeter guns.

Batteries, in their order, home stations, and commanders are as follows: Regimental service, Whites Haven, Capt. J. D. McCall; battery "D", Lakeland, Capt. Frank Polaris; "B", Lakeland, Capt. Plant City, Capt. I. S. Thibodeau; second battalion headquarters, Bartow, Capt. George Hardy; brigade headquarters, Avon Park, Lt. Richard Brown; battery "A", Arcadia, Capt. Chesterfield Smith.

Friday's meeting of the Methodist Men's Club, scheduled at the church annex, has been postponed. It was announced today.

Friday's tides: low, 1:09 A. M. and 1 P. M.; high, 7:13 A. M. and 7:39 P. M. Sun rises at 5:30 A. M. and sets at 7:32 P. M. Moon rises at 6:05 P. M. and sets at 2:39 A. M.

Sanford stores will remain open late Friday night to give buyers an opportunity for purchasing week-end supplies, since the business establishments will be closed Saturday, July 4.

The Seminole County Boys' Athletic Club will assemble at 7:45 o'clock tonight in the Fourth Street Arena for conditioning to meet a Lakeland organization in competition about July 15.

Two organizations, composed of "fats" and "leans" were playing an exhibition baseball game at Municipal Athletic Field today to raise funds for a Boy Scout assembly hall.

Florida's exhibit at the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland is one of the most beautiful on the grounds and is making a prominent bid to "steal the show," according to a letter received here today by Mrs. J. E. Ray, mother of Mrs. Byron E. Stephens, whose husband is connected with the exhibit.

Personnel of each cabin is seven boys under the supervision and direction of a competent leader, according to Mr. Morris.

Accommodations will be available for 35 to 40 boys Mr. Morris said. The director pointed out that camp cabins are screened and have high wooden floors and adequate shutters to afford ample protection in inclement weather. Water, he said, is approved by the State Board of Health.

Reservations for Winona Camp Pour In From Sanford

Sanford youths who plan to attend the summer outing festivities at Camp Winona, near DeLeon Springs, should register immediately since only a few more vacancies exist for the first week period, Director H. E. Morris said today.

The camp begins its 11th year on Aug. 9 on a close Aug. 30 according to a schedule compiled yesterday.

Federal Debt Reaches New All Time High

Treasury Figures Indicated U. S. Owes Nearly Thirty-Four Billions Of Dollars

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(AP)—Figuring it down to the last penny the Treasury today put the government deficit for the year ended June 30 at $1,763,841,622 and the public debt at the close of that fiscal period at $33,778,543,493.

These figures varied somewhat from the round sums used last night by Secretary Morgenthau in a radio address on the nation's financial situation.

The Treasury had given a deficit of $1,400,000,000 but explained he was not counting debt retirements of $103,000,000 during the 1935 fiscal year and used a public debt figure of $33,750,000,000.

Speaking in round figures, Secretary Morgenthau last night said the government deficit for the fiscal year ended Tuesday at midnight at $1,000,000,000—the largest such red ink figure in the nation's peacetime history.

His statement, made in a nation-wide address and couched in the simplest, non-technical terms, also fixed the public debt at the financial year-end at $33,750,000,000.

Against this, he listed figures for "recoverable" or "reversible" assets, which added to $8,750,000,000.

Morgenthau likened his speech to the chairman of a board making his annual report to stockholders.

The plans of government as well as business, he asserted, are subject to unforeseen and extraordinary events. In this connection, he declared at a later point that if the funds for paying the bonds were left out of consideration, the deficit for the fiscal year would be $2,700,000,000.

"We may derive real encouragement and satisfaction from these facts," he said in conclusion. "National income is rising; as a result federal revenues are increasing; federal expenditures are on the decline, and the nation's business is continuing to show steady improvement."

After noting at the outset that events that could not be foreseen had thrown budget estimates made nearly two years ago out of line, he continued:

"Scarcely had the present Congress met last January when two events completely changed the budget outlook. First, the prospective revenues were cut down as a result of the decision of the Supreme Court that the Agricultural Adjustment Act was unconstitutional. This meant a loss to the treasury, in 1935, of nearly half a billion dollars.

"Second, prospective expenditures were increased by an act of Congress directing the immediate payment of the veterans' adjusted service certificates. To provide for the payment of these certificates, which, under their original terms were not due until 1945, the expenditure program for 1935 was increased by $1,700,000,000."

Morgenthau said actual receipts during the year amounted to $4,116,000,000, while expenditures during the year were $5,500,000,000 excluding debt retirement.

"As we have seen," he said after some breakdown of the latter figures, "ordinary operating expenses accounted for $3,500,000,000 of which national defense took three-quarters of a billion; annual continuing payments of veterans, nearly $600,000,000; interest on the public debt another three-quarters of a billion; agricultural aid one-half billion; and the other ordinary operating expenses of the government $900,000,000."

COIC Represented At Jacksonville Affair

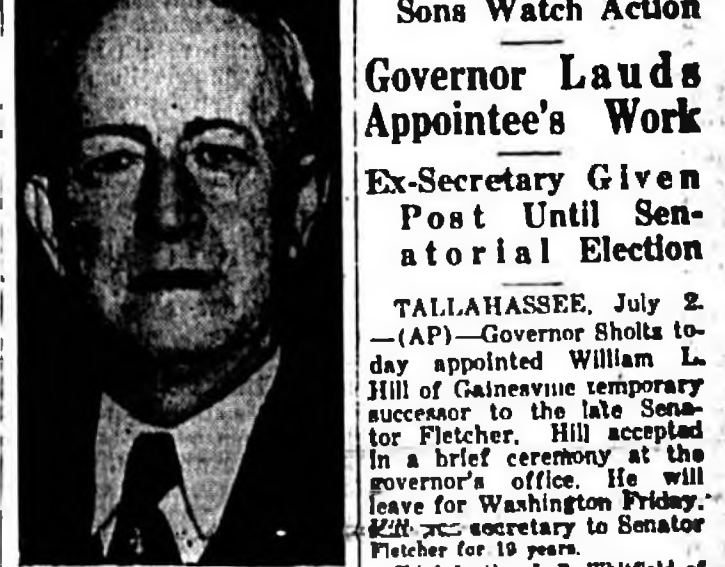

T. E. Simpson, president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, and H. J. Lehman, newly elected state representative, were the local Chamber's representatives at a Jacksonville affair yesterday in honor of Senator Scott M. Latta.

The affair, sponsored by the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, was attended by more than 500 persons from all parts of the state.

Among the outstanding highlights of the senator's address was a plea in this state and that only he could lead Florida to a better future.

Sholtz Picks Hill To Finish Term Of Senator Fletcher

Named Senator

W. L. Hill of Gainesville, today was appointed by Governor Sholtz to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Duncan U. Fletcher. Hill, a former secretary of the senator, will serve until a new senator is elected sometime this year.

Delinquent City Tax Roll To Be Settled Monday

County, State Properties Will Go On Block On August 3

Sanford property delinquent in 1935 taxes will be offered at public auction in City Hall Monday according to an announcement made today by City Clerk F. S. Lamson.

Simultaneously, County Tax Collector Jno. D. Jenkins said the state and county delinquencies would be placed on the auction block on Aug. 3.

Both departments of government—city and county—expect to do a rushing business before the public is given an opportunity to submit bids.

The county and state delinquent roll appears today in The Herald.

In commenting on his delinquent roll, Mr. Jenkins said it was the smallest in several years and indicated it would be reduced considerably more before the date of public sale arrives.

The county collector said delinquencies appearing on his books may be erased through payment of face value taxes plus a small additional fee for advertising.

Both Mr. Lamson and Mr. Jenkins intimated that hair splitting would be allowed in favor of present owners; that is, sufficient time would be given on the day of the sale to permit tax payments before the auctions begin.

While the county collector supplied no total sum of his delinquent roll, the length of the list indicated that Seminole County is on a firmer financial base than has been evidenced here in years.

Sholtz Disclaims The Blame For 2-Jobbers

TALLAHASSEE, July 2.—(AP)—Governor Sholtz told State Senator Henry C. Tillman of Tampa Wednesday "the two-job practice didn't start with my administration."

His impromptu remarks were made just before a meeting of the state cabinet. "Some folks down in Tampa are charging me with originating the two-job business," he said.

Governor Sholtz said 41 members of the Legislature were employed in other governmental departments during Gov. John M. Martin's administration, 1923-1929, and he said 25 were employed during Governor Carlton's term, 1929-1933.

Senator Tillman made no reply, and the discussion turned to other matters as he sought to have a patient committed to the State Hospital.

Governor Lauds Appointee's Work

Ex-Secretary Given Post Until Senatorial Election

TALLAHASSEE, July 2.—(AP)—Governor Sholtz today appointed William L. Hill of Gainesville temporary successor to the late Senator Fletcher. Hill accepted in a brief ceremony at the governor's office. He will leave for Washington Friday.

Chief Justice J. B. Whitfield of the Supreme Court administered the oath of office. The new senator's two sons, Robert Hill of Gainesville and Logan Hill of Pensacola, assistant United States district attorney, were present. Hill will serve until successor to Fletcher is elected. The salary is $10,000 annually.

Senator Hill, 60, said he was not "inclined to be a candidate for senator" in the primary. "I hardly feel equal to such a campaign," he said, "and arduous work of the past few years has tired me."

Governor Sholtz told Hill he was selected "because you have been such a faithful public servant to the people of Florida. You were right hower and help for nearly 20 years to Florida's most outstanding citizens."

The appointment is without any commitment, without any suggestion and without any understanding as some might be inclined to insinuate. You know what Senator Fletcher was trying to do for Florida and I am confident you will carry on. You will have the best wishes of the thinking, decent, God-fearing people. I know if Senator Fletcher had recommended his successor he would have recommended you."

Watchman Killed In $50,000 Tampa Fire

TAMPA, July 2.—(AP)—A night building destroyed in an early watchman was killed and five store morning fire in the Gary section of Tampa yesterday. Edward Lyons, 35, was electrocuted when a power wire touched his neck while he attempted to assist firemen. Owners estimated the fire loss at more than $50,000.

The fire originated in a burlap and bag factory and spread quickly to adjacent stores. Firemen required three hours to get the blaze under control. They were hampered by a brisk wind.

LAREDO, Texas, July 2.—(AP)—The nine-year-old dream of Mexican officials—the Pan-American Highway—came true yesterday as the $17,500,000 thoroughfare was opened to traffic with Vice President Garner and Mexican dignitaries joining hands in an international expression of friendship.

What this world needs is more husbands who can make a living for their wives, and more wives who are grateful for the living which their husbands can make.
 The St. Petersburg Independent calls Florida's parole system "out-rageous." It's worse than that, it's contagious! Once one of them gets out, they all get out.
 The world is full of opportuni- ties. For instance, one bright young fellow proposes opening a factory during the national polit- ical campaign for the purpose of canning bananas oil.
 The chief problem of a dictator is how to keep the stomachs of his subjects full and their heads empty.—Providence News Tribune. If they keep their stomachs full they don't have to worry about their heads.

With the government assum- ing responsibility for taking care of the old folks, the sick, the unemployed, and the destitute, it is no longer necessary to save for a rainy day. There ain't going to be no more rainy days. And that may account for this drought out there in the Middle West.
 As one of our fellow columnists puts it: now that the campaign is over we'll have to start buying our own cigars. It has been our experience, however, that if you give a politician enough rope, he'll make you sufficient cigars to last from one campaign to the next.

Note to Townsend: It's bad enough to tell Junior there's a Santa Claus, but to lead Grandpa to believe there's one is unpardon- able.—Miami News. The grape- vine has it that a couple of octo- genarians, brothers by the way, got in tight down in Orlando the other day, trying to settle between themselves whether the $200-a- month pensions would begin on Jan. 1, 1937, or later on during the year.
 Police report a war veteran (white, by the way) was found dead drunk on the street the other day, with $500 in bonus money in his pocket. Most veterans, however, are using their money wisely. The Herald learns that most of them are either getting it in the banks, buying homes, or buying things for their homes.

Since the cross state canal has been abandoned and it won't be possible now for the Navy to de- fend Ocala from the enemy, we see where they are going to es- tablish an Army Air Corps flying field there. That ought to make our town and the rest of our Ocala friends breathe more easily.

We see by the papers where the government closed its books for the fiscal year just ended with a very little deficit of some $4,722, 000,000. Now a "deficit" is the difference between income and expense. It's as if a worker received wages amounting to $20 and ac- cidentally spent $21 a week. He would have a "deficit" of $1 a week. $4,722,000,000 is a pretty big deficit for our Uncle Sam.

As a matter of fact, even though all the money which the government can raise by all the taxes which it levies. And some think that these taxes are in- creasing rapidly.

A Professor's Pay

How much does a college professor earn? This and similar questions are answered by the Office of Education of the Department of the Interior at Washington, D. C., in a recent news release.

The office has conducted a survey of the salaries paid to presidents, deans, professors, associate professors, assistant professors, and instructors in 51 land-grant colleges located in every state in the union, and explains that the study was made to determine not only the status of salaries paid by colleges at the present time, but also to compare these salaries with those existing before the depression.

"The depression's axe fell heavily on salaries of the more than 400 deans in America's land-grant colleges," the report declares. "Deans employed on a nine-month basis saw their median salaries decreased from $5,193 in 1928-29, to $4,187 in 1934-35, an average of more than $1,000."

The Office of Education survey also revealed similar depression-period slashes in land-grant college salaries paid to professors, associate professors, assistant professors, and instructors. Full-time professors on a nine-month basis received an average salary of $4,278 in 1928-29. By 1934-35 their annual income had decreased to $3,775. Those on an eleven-month basis had their salaries cut from $4,161 to $3,882 over the same period of time.

Associate professors dropped from $3,352 salaries in 1928-29 to $2,908 in 1934-35; assistant professors from $2,738 in 1928-29 to $2,449 in 1934-35; and instructors from $2,005 to $1,769 over the four-year period. Information reaching the Office of Education reveals that salaries for the present year are higher than last year.

The Office of Education study further revealed a total of 11,418 full-time staff members instructing 179,973 resident and 77,710 extension and correspondence land-grant college students. Of these 11,418 staff members, one-third were deans or full professors, while two-thirds or nearly 7,500 held ranks below that of professor.

Approximately 85 per cent of the staff members receive less than $4,000 salary per year. The median range of salaries for the entire group of staff members in the land-grant institutions was found to be $2,500 to $2,749, representing a $500 cut from the median range of $3,000 to $3,249 for the years 1929-31.

A Hot Campaign

That the Democrats can win in the November election, but it will take a real fight, is the conclusion of Jay Franklin, a political writer in many newspapers, including the Orlando Sentinel, who is distinctly not anti-New Deal. Indicating that the Republicans will be hard to beat this year, despite the popularity of President Roosevelt, Mr. Franklin lists the following reasons:

"Because the Republicans have most of the money in America and are ready to use it to stop reform.

"Because much of the newspaper circulation in America is controlled by enemies of the New Deal.

"Because most of the glossy-print magazines and the best-advertised writers and interpreters are on the side of the biggest checkboards.

"Because the Republicans have the best song, unless New Deal annexes 'The Battle Hymn of the Republic' in its proposed trade to take Abe Lincoln in exchange for Grover Cleveland.

"Because the Republican National Committee employs the best professors money can buy.

"Because the motion picture companies are against the New Deal.

"Because Morgan, Mellon, duPont and Hearst have cracked the whip and are forcing into line against Roosevelt the very men who have been most benefited by his policies.

"Because the solid South has lost its century-old grip on the Democratic party and will henceforth be free to bolt the donkey's meal ticket for greener pastures.

"Because Coughlin, Townsend and the heir of Huey Long have joined to urge the debt ridden farmers of the wheat lands to attack the man who has saved them.

"Because Al Smith and the duPont Democrats will stop at nothing to 'Stop Roosevelt.'"

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

NEW YORK, July 2.—Neither the United States nor Mexico really wants war, yet conditions are such that a catastrophe of this sort seems imminent. To the United States the consequences cannot be serious except in the unnecessary loss of life. Neither the creation of an army of 100,000 to 200,000 men nor the expenditure of a few hundred millions of dollars will make any decided impression upon the vast resources of the United States.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Perkins, a fine baby boy, he will be called Braxton, Jr.

Mrs. R. J. Overstreet and child, returned to their home at Stockport Tuesday after a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. C. R. Lord has improved the looks of her home near Edes Springs by having it painted white.

Theodore Roosevelt has buried the Progressive Party. By declin-

RIGHT ABOUT FACE
By WALTER LIPPMANN

It can now be said with confidence that drawing the legal privileges which Foster monopoly and more changed his direction as de- terminely as he did when he set to demolish the markets in which prices and wages are de- termined.

In his first great change dur- ing the spring had returned of 1933 he turned to a system of regulated monopoly. In his be- lief that it could be used to re- gulate economic activity for all under centrally managed govern- ment planning. In this, his second great change that Roosevelt's philosophy is identical as abruptly as it was adopted. In- stead, Mr. Roosevelt has un- traced the old progressive ideal of competition and equal economic opportunity to be achieved by attacking monopoly, corporate privilege, and con- centrated corporate power.

Elected on a program of WIL- sonian liberalism, he experi- mented with an American adap- tion of the European planned economy, failed in the depart- ment, and has now come back to the ideas of Bryan, the elder La- Follette, Wilson and Borah. His speech he made at Franklin Field could perfectly well have been delivered by Woodrow Wil- son in 1912.

That some such change of direction was being prepared was indicated vaguely during Mr. Roosevelt's speaking tour while the Republican convention was sitting. He began to use Senator Borah's slogans. The change was more strongly indicated when, a week or so ago, he started to enforce the anti-trust laws which he had recently suspended in 1933. But it was in the conven- tion oratory, particularly in the keynote speeches, which must have passed the White House censor, that an inevitable change of fundamental policy was pre- pared.

Most of us who were in Phila- delphia were so nearly aphyxi- ated by the rhetoric that we could only dimly realize what the orators were really saying. But it is clear enough now. They had just one theme: that Mr. Roosevelt, the champion of the common man, had rescued the country from a great disaster. Now the fact is that this recovery, to which they pointed with such pride, has taken place in spite of the fact that the great collectivist experiments of the New Deal have been destroyed by the Supreme Court and their revival made impossible.

When no orator said that these measures must be revived, when every orator carefully avoided a commitment to amend the Con- stitution, the party was in a strange position. It stood for recovery but it had no program of reform. For an immense part of its constituency is composed of men and women who demand something more than a revival of Coedige prosperity. The only program of reform which is at once constitutional and popular is that which Senator Borah brought forward last winter. At Franklin Field Mr. Roosevelt plumped for that program.

He really had no other choice. For the conception embodied in the NEA is not only drastically unconstitutional but deeply dis- tinct to American opinion. The people do not like and will not tolerate industrial, agricultural and labor monopolies adminis- tered by a huge political bureaucracy. They were greatly impressed by the campaign of education carried in by men like Mr. Hoover and Mr. Clegg and were recently by Senator Borah. The American people want to do care about liberty and they had come to realize that if they continued on the road of the NEA they would indeed lose their liberty. But if they are not to go that way, then the only al- ternative is to restore the effec- tiveness of free competition.

Young Syrian Arabs
Far in Line With Nationalist Group

BEIRUT, Syria, July 2.—(AP)—Young Syrian Arabs have added their support to the Nationalist campaign against Jews and British in Palestine.

Syrian leaders urged Arab kings to support actively their brothers in the Holy Land and strengthened the commercial boycott already organized. Many merchants cut off shipments of goods to Palestine Jews.

Young native vigilantes erected a blockade against truckloads of produce.

A widespread sympathy movement, designed to aid Palestine Arabs via satisfaction from the British administration against Jewish immigration and land ownership was having a serious effect on Beirut trade.

That, I believe, is the underly- ing reason why we have left behind us, until the next great depression, the Blue Eagle and the New Deal of 1933.

While we pause to reflect upon the sincerity, the reliability, the agility, and the cleverness of this brilliant strategic retreat and counter-attack, we can at least be sure of one thing: that both parties would not be talking today about monopoly if it were not that there has been a great change of public sentiment. In 1933 almost everyone was talking about planning. Everyone wanted to fix prices, to fix wages, to stabilize and direct production, to manage and control. Today almost everyone wants freedom, open markets, competition. In 1933 the cry was for protection and security. Today the cry is what are we to do about this opportunity and equality. To change of public sentiment.

In part to an appreciation of the dreadful consequences of a collectivist order as exhibited in the European totalitarian states. The American people know that in those societies men have lost their liberty without achieving security, and they have a profound antipathy to any policy which threatens to carry them in the same direction. But even without this emotional revulsion we should be moving less cautiously perhaps, but none the less certainly, away from the mood of 1933. That was in all its essential characteristics the typical mood of deflation. When severe deflation is taking place, men seek to save themselves by government protection and private monopoly. They are afraid of competition. They be- lieve that there is over-produc-

Judge Quashes Indictment Filed Against Gracey

Allegedly had influence.

Fred Shannon, while being arraigned this afternoon for trial following his capture in the home of his parents late yesterday. He was charged with assault with intent to commit murder against George Calhoun, an engineer here.

Other sentences passed by Judge Smith this afternoon included one on Walter Johnson, colored, who pleaded guilty to forgery and received seven years in the state prison.

Willie Johnson, negro, was handed one year for obstructing an officer.

Lloyd Boyle, assistant state attorney in this circuit court, today looked back on a record of three convictions in three cases involving a killing, all activity having been picked in three successive days.

Two of the cases won by the prosecuting attorney resulted in a mandatory sentence of death in the electric chair, since the jury found two men guilty of murder in the first degree.

Yesterday afternoon a verdict of "guilty as charged" was returned against George "Big Jim" Dixon negro who admitted slaying and robbing T. C. "Charlie" Farmer, back last May. Body of the deceased was discovered in a shallow grave after a feeble attempt had been made to bury it.

Mr. Boyle's second first degree victory of the week was checked up at the loss of Rufus Johnson, colored, who was declared guilty of slaying Sidney Gilbert, also colored, and robbing the dead body of the money contained in its garments.

The attorney's third conquest resulted in a jury finding Oliver Robinson, negro, guilty of manslaughter in connection with the death of Sidney Gilbert, also black.

Wallace Cracks Down On Court In Latest Book

Farm Secretary Says States' Rights Was Always A Hindrance

NEW YORK, July 2.—(AP)—The Administration's sharpest critic of the Supreme Court in a book released today groups that body with the Republican party and the Liberty League as upholders "at least part of the time" of the doctrine of states' rights at any cost.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, in a book called "Whose Constitution," likewise calls for establishment of a co-operative commonwealth—a co-operative society.

It was Wallace who publicly asserted some months ago that the court's return to processors of taxes collected under the defunct AAA permitted a "legalized steal."

Balancing a major part of the book's philosophy on the thesis that this was intended to be a "union of people instead of states," the secretary asserted: "The doctrine of states' rights, now invoked by the Supreme Court, was a barrier to progress even in 1787, and was the cause of terrible conflict in 1861. Today, the states mark no economic boundaries that are of any value."

He went on:

"Only the large corporations, the Republican Party, New England, the Liberty League and most of the newspapers of the country are apparently for states' rights today at any cost. To these sections, interests and groups, however, must be added one other body, at least part of the time. The Supreme Court has disagreed in a number of instances with the position taken by the Administration on the matter of federal powers."

"In the case of NRA, it held that the commerce clause of the Constitution did not give the federal government the powers it had assumed to set up rules for business. In the case of AAA, it held that its regulation, whether or not in the interests of the general welfare, is a power not granted to the federal government."

"I do not doubt that through the multiplicity of legal precedents available to the Supreme Court it is possible to take a narrow view of the Constitution which virtually limits the scope for granted federal powers to those which would have seemed useful under the conditions of 1787."

"Were agriculture truly a local matter in 1936, as the

Sugar Heir Is Gambler, Says Man He Sues

Old Heir Stole Love Of Wife, Says Edgar Who Asks $300,000 To Ease His Heart

Wife Beating Is Part Of Evidence

Helen Hayes Is Also Subject Of Alienation Court Action

MIAMI, July 3.—(AP)—Counsel for Lewis E. Mallory, III, the oil heir fighting a $300,000 alienation of affections suit, told the court he would show that James Edgar, Jr., was interested in a Detroit gambling business.

Edgar and Mallory on charges of stealing the love of Mrs. Edgar, the former Kathryn Crawford of stage and screen fame.

Edgar testified he looked in a window to see Mallory and Mrs. Edgar nude on a bed.

The defense brought out on cross-examination that Mallory and Edgar were on friendly terms and that they called each other Lew and Jamie.

"You were asking Mallory's aid and help in getting your wife back, weren't you?" asked John M. Murrell, Mallory's attorney, on cross examination.

"Didn't Mallory act like a man and do everything he possibly could to aid and help you?" Murrell then sought to bring out that Edgar mistreated his wife, the former Kathryn Moran of New York, who appeared on the stage and screen as Kathryn Crawford.

"Did you ever beat her? Did you ever strike her? Did you ever take her to the hospital?" he asked.

"One night we came home from a cocktail party," Edgar replied, "and we were both tight. She went to a window and was looking at the street."

Auto Is Driven Off Road, Catches Fire As Driver Escapes

M. E. Paak, registered at the Montezuma Hotel, barely escaped a burning death late yesterday afternoon when his car, driven off the road by a truck, rolled down an embankment and burst into flames two miles from Sanford on the New Smyrna road.

Mr. Paak sustained a severe gash on the left forehead which necessitated the attention of a physician. He also suffered from considerable shock.

The automobile was entirely destroyed by the fire which apparently resulted from a broken fuel line that leaked gasoline onto a worn motor.

Mr. Paak said he had a difficult fight to free his way from the burning machine. Miraculously he escaped, but he was not knocked unconscious by the blow on the head.

Other than using the automobile, the victim declared he had several items of important personal property in the car, which was destroyed.

Crop, Livestock Losses Rise As River Overflows

Texas Coastal Plains Flooded As 23 Are Reported Drowned

CUERO, Tex., July 3.—(AP)—Crop and livestock losses mounted as the Guadalupe River overflowed onto coastal plains toward Victoria today.

A list of known dead since South Texas rivers and creeks, swollen by torrential rains, reached the flood stage stood at 23. Most of the victims are losing their lives in an area between Austin and San Marcos.

Property damage is estimated at more than $3,000,000. Unless isolated farmers in the lowlands should be trapped by high waters, additional human casualties are not expected as warnings, dropped from planes, have been spread to practically every remote settlement in the danger area along the river.

A coast guard plane took off from San Antonio today seeking Bob Murphee, farmer, living near Thomaston, who has been missing since dark last night. It is believed he is marooned on a river bridge.

The Sanford station, U. S. Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, has moved to 216 West Fourth Street, according to an announcement made today by C. F. Stahl, in charge of the unit which formerly was located at 1920 Palmetto Avenue.

Sanford Will Observe Quiet July Fourth

Court House And City Hall Close Doors; Daytona Frolics To Attract Localites

A quiet July 4 with no public celebration planned here is in prospect for Sanford tomorrow, the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Because no special activities are scheduled locally, a large delegation of Seminole County citizens are expected to attend the Summer Frolics festivities at Daytona Beach. Some plan to spend the week-end at Coronado Beach.

A majority of the business institutions of the city will close their doors, especially the merchants who last week agreed that the Fourth should be a business holiday. Late hours will be observed tonight by store managers.

Following a custom of long standing, The Herald will issue no paper Saturday, making it possible for the publication to spend the week-end out of the city if they desire.

All departments at the City Hall are to cease business activities.

The following offices in the Court House will close: tax collector, tax assessor, clerk of the circuit court, county judge and county school superintendent. The farm agent's office is to remain open to receive work sheets from growers who desire to participate in the federal soil conservation program. The sheriff's services will be available.
