If you reelect me as your county judge for another term, you will always find me on the side I think is right, just as I have been in the past, without considering whether it is popular or unpopular, or whether it may win votes or lose votes; the path of duty I shall continue to follow; to do right and render justice without the hope of reward or the fear of consequence.

"The office of county judge is the only office for which I have asked the franchise and support of the citizens of Seminole County, and will be the only office for which I will ever ask your vote. In asking you to reelect me for another term, I am not unaware of the fact that at the end of that term I will have reached the age where I feel it will be right and proper to retire from further public office.

"I will, therefore, sincerely appreciate your support and vote to reelect me as your County Judge for another term."

Mr. Bishop, who due to delay on his plane connections from Tallahassee, arrived shortly after the award was made, highly commended the Citizens Award Committee for their selection of Mr. Odham as an outstanding member of the local group. He pointed out that each year the Jaycees throughout the nation single out young men who have rendered outstanding service to their community, state and nation. "You all know the contribution Brailey Odham has made to the civic and economic life of the community, and his action in many fields has reflected credit on himself, the Jaycees and the citizens of Seminole County whom he has so ably represented," declared Mr. Bishop, and he added that the state and national officers of the Jaycees were heartily in accord with the selection, and urged the local Jaycees to make even greater contributions to the progress of Seminole County.

Secretary Gordon Bradley reviewed the accomplishments of the local group since its organization in December, 1945. He announced that the Jaycees are sponsoring a five minute program daily at 11:00 o'clock over Station WTRB; to interview tourists here, and find out how they like it here.

Florida State News In Brief

WOMAN KIDNAPED
TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 22 (AP)—An office salesman was held today under federal charges of kidnaping a woman state employe at gun-point and imprisoning her in a hotel room across the state line.

FBI Agent J. K. Mumford of Mobile, Ala., said Clifford Woodard George, 42, was accused of forcing Miss Dorothy Groover, 30, into an automobile and taking her to Moultrie, Ga. The woman, Mumford said, was made to get into the car despite efforts of a girl companion to defend her. Miss Groover complained two months ago, Tallahassee Chief Prater said, that George had threatened her.

COUNTY AID
JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 22 (AP)—Plans to step deeper into the business of borrowing to help counties finance road construction are at the top of the agenda for discussion by the state Improvement Commission here today.

The agency, which has used hesitantly the broad borrowing power the Legislature gave it nearly three years ago, will discuss procedures for handling $3,280,000 worth of loans for eight counties which want to build roads now with money that will come to them from gasoline tax surpluses in the future.

PRICE QUALIFIED
TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 22 (AP)—U. S. Rep. Emory H. Price of Jacksonville today qualified as a candidate for re-election from the second congressional district. Former state Rep. Charles Bennett of Jacksonville also has qualified for the position.

OIL DRILLING
TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 22 (AP)—Well-drilling is booming in Florida, and incidentally is turning up information that will change the underground map of the state.

State Geologist Herman Gunter reported his department now has geological samples from more than 1650 wells. Increased oil prospecting accounts for some of the extra drilling, but most of the samples come from water wells being sunk in greater numbers to supply new industries, more demand of crops, and a growing population.

WORKERS ATTACKED
MIAMI, Jan. 22 (AP)—Police reported two construction workers were attacked today when 15 men marched on a job employing non-union labor. When an emergency squad of police arrived at the job after a call from Henry Degraff, 37, son of the contractor, the group had vanished.

Police arrested one man identified as Sam Andrews, 32, of Miami, an a disorderly conduct charge.

Wyoming's Text Books On Social Science Okay

LARAMIE, Wyo., Jan. 22 (AP)—An investigating board's report stated that an examination of University of Wyoming social science textbooks "failed to reveal any material in any book examined which in the opinion of the committee falls under the denomination of 'subversive or un-American' material."

The report was prepared by a committee of college department heads who had been appointed last October at the direction of the university's board of trustees to review the school's textbooks for "subversive or un-American" material.

Sharp criticism from faculty members, students and academic organizations developed over the trustees' actions.

Some faculty members had objected to the textbook investigation as a violation of "academic freedoms."

The investigating group headed by Dean R. R. Hamilton of the University Law School said "the committee examined the book for material which in its opinion paraded under false colors or distorted facts to the end that any forms of government or governmental institutions were made to appear in other than their true light."

Presidency Turned Down By Eisenhower

Chief Of Staff Takes Stand With Sherman That Politics Is Not For Military

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 23 (AP)—Governor Dewey's office abruptly today announced that General Eisenhower's nomination for the Army Chief of Staff from the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower said flatly today: "I am not available for and could not accept nomination to high political office."

The Army Chief of Staff's statement referred to entry of his name in the New Hampshire presidential primary March 9.

"I wrote Leonard V. Finder, publisher of the Manchester Union-Leader, that for two reasons he had heretofore refrained from making the bald statement that I would not accept nomination. The first, Eisenhower said was that such an expression "smacks of effrontery." A second and deeper reason, the General added, was a "persistent doubt that I could phrase a flat refusal without appearing to violate that concept of duty to country which calls upon every good citizen to place no limitations upon his readiness to serve in any designated capacity."

"It is my conviction," General Eisenhower wrote, "that the necessary and wise subordination of the military and civil power to the law is a principle which will have greater confidence that it is sustained when lifelong professional soldiers in the absence of some obvious and overriding reason abstain from using high political office."

"I have a possible application in an untried field for me as an untried citizen," he said.

Kay Francis Is Reported Ill; Manager Held

Mysterious Illness Follows Wild Party Staged At Hotel

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 23 (AP)—Kay Francis, the actress, became seriously ill under mysterious circumstances today and her stage manager, Howard Graham, 37, was booked at police headquarters "for investigation of assault to kill."

Miss Francis and Graham were here with the six production "Star of the Union."

After midday, Miss Francis rallied slightly and recovered consciousness sufficiently to ask for a drink of water. Hospital workers described her condition at that time as "semi-conscious." She had been unconscious for several hours before that.

Police said Graham, taken into custody at the hospital, asserted Miss Francis had summoned him to her hotel room and said she had taken some sleeping tablets. She had been severely burned, he added, when she fell against a radiator.

Delictive Karl Hanna and Police Sgt. Clifton said they found evidence of a "wild party" in the hotel room.

Dr. M. Rusoff, a specialist in internal medicine who attended the 43-year-old star of the screen and stage, declined to identify the nature of her illness.

Officer Clifton said Graham refused to submit urinalysis to determine whether he had been drinking and quoted him as adding: "I'm not doing anything."

"You're not on the stage now," Clifton told Graham. "You're in jail."

"You can conduct your own investigation," he said Graham replied.

Graham was then taken to be booked for investigation.

John Sauls Installs VFW Post At Pierson

District Commander John Sauls, eighth district, installed the VFW post at Pierson last night. A delegation from Sanford made the trip with Commander Sauls to assist with the installation. The commander from the DeLand post, John Secash, and O. J. Camp post district commander, also assisted.

The post got off to a good start. Mr. Sauls reported this evening with approximately 50 members on the charter. Pierson is located in a fern shipping center and a number of the local citizens were on hand to see the post get off to a good start. The post name will be Moore-Melander-North Post No. 3720 and is located in north Volusia County. The VFW post in Pierson is the only veteran's organization located in that community.

Most Of Bavaria Is Paralyzed By Million Strikers

90,000 Ask For Food And Rap Democracy, Waving Red Flags

MUNICH, Germany, Jan. 23 (AP)—Most of Bavaria was paralyzed today by a general strike of up to 1,100,000 workers. They were called out by union leaders to protest food shortages.

The strike started at midnight and was to last 24 hours. Indications in many areas were that it would continue through Saturday and Sunday. It was the largest mass labor walkout in Germany since the war.

No violence was reported by early afternoon in major cities—Munich, Nuernberg, Wuerzburg, Augsburg, Passau, Coburg or Hof. Strikers occasionally were rough with small stores which stayed open in two areas, but generally the Bavarians used the strike as a day of rest.

Some 90,000 Munich workers demonstrated on Adolf Hitler's old parade grounds, marching with red banners demanding "liberty." U. S. military government observers said Communist elements took part.

Banner variously declared that "We are Germans, not a colony," and "Away with Hitler—liberty." Speakers were interrupted with such cries as "We want new elections" and "Where there is hunger, Democracy has lost its way." (Continued on Page Eight)

Churchill Urges Red Showdown

Tells Commons Action Necessary Before Russia Develops Atom Bomb Plants

LONDON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Winston Churchill declared today Western Europe must unite quickly and demand a showdown with Moscow before the Russians develop the atomic bomb and something happens.

"I believe the best chance of preventing war is to bring matters to a head and cope to a settlement with the Soviet government before it is too late," Churchill told the House of Commons.

"You may be sure the present situation cannot last. There are very grave dangers in letting everything run on and pile up until something happens and the matter passes all of a sudden out of your control."

The conservative party leader endorsed the Labor Government's proposal for unification of Western Europe as a barrier to the spread of Communism. But he appealed to his political opponents to rise above party in fostering the plan.

"In trying to make a United Socialist Europe, you are on the same level as trying to make a United Communist Europe."

Chances for reaching an agreement with Russia are better now than "if we waited until the Soviet government had got their atomic weapons developed," he said.

Mr. And Mrs. Pope Feast On Turkey Baked In Blaze

It is doubtful if any Sanford family ever before ate a turkey that was partially cooked by having the house burn down around it, but that was the recent experience of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Pope.

Many spectators saw the exposed contents of the Pope refrigerator, including the browned turkey, after the plane carrying three ill patients had crashed through the tile kitchen wall in the northeast portion of the home, at 1915 Sanford Avenue, demolished and burned the house as the gasoline exploded last Saturday evening.

The plane spun the refrigerator around and tore off its door, but by a strange prank of fate, left the contents intact, including the turkey. Even a bottle of milk was not broken and was found in the refrigerator.

Mrs. O. D. Farrell, sister of Mrs. Pope, "completed" the baking of the turkey, which was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Pope. Mr. Pope also reported that he looked in a charred cedar chest and found $200 worth of traveler's checks in a leather folder.

He reported that prior to the accident he had brought in his fishing rod and tackle and left it by the radio. A fishing reel (Continued on Page Eight)

Glasses Approved For 16 Children By Lions' Club

Requests of 16 children for glasses have been approved since the Lions Club Sight Conservation Committee, it was reported by Clyde Ramsey, committee chairman, at the luncheon meeting today at the Tourist Center.

Of the cases approved, 10 are white and six are colored, and children to be aided range from six to 14 years of age, he said. Sections of the county represented are Sanford, Oviedo, Forest City, Lake Monroe, Lake Mary, Wagner, Cameron City and Midway, he announced.

But the committee wished to thank Dr. G. S. Selman for co-operation with the Lions in making eye examinations and furnishing glasses.

The Lions voted to purchase a new club banner, Small American flags with stands for placing on school teacher desks throughout the county were shown to the Lions, who will purchase a number of flags for this purpose.

Vice President Richard Deas, who presided, read a letter from Central Florida Airways inviting two members of the club to enjoy a free flight in an Airways plane Sunday afternoon at the Municipal Airport.

Due to the illness of Mrs. M. D. Gatchel, the luncheon was served by Mrs. G. H. Carlton, assisted by Jerry Silverman.

Science Shows Eating Too Little Or Too Much Is Cancer's Cause

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

AUBURN, Ala., Jan. 23 (AP)—Discovery that diet alone can cause cancer in rats, made two years ago at the Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station of Alabama Polytechnic Institute, has brought on experiments with other animals.

This brings a new angle into cancer, the fact the malignant growths can be caused by too little food as well as by too much. Too much is illustrated by more than 30 chemicals which cause cancer in animals. Always the cancers come from too much and too long use.

The rats got cancer from too little of a necessary food. These are the first and thus far only examples of too little.

The missing food was choline, sometimes called a B vitamin, but identified by the Alabama experts as an organic base. Lacking choline, rats got cancers in muscles, bladders, lungs and livers. This same deficiency in man being tried on chickens and on dogs. Dogs eat much the same foods as men.

The Alabama discovery was not made by cancer researchers, but by a team of nutrition experts. They were not even looking for cancer. The malignant disease was something entirely unexpected. Choline was one of the last

Big Business And Big Labor Support ERP

Green of AFL, Calder of NAM Are In Agreement On Need For Marshall Plan

ATLANTA, Jan. 23 (AP)—The National Cotton Council today endorsed the Marshall Plan for European aid, and also called for closer political and economic ties with Spain. Support of the Marshall Plan was given without qualification, although the council urged that protection be given to private competition enterprises. Speaking on Spain the council asked the American government to "reconsider its political and economic policies toward Spain" with a view to building more trade between the two nations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Spokesmen for labor and industry groups pledged full support to the Marshall Plan for European recovery today but asked Congress to insert some restrictions on its operation.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, urged "early and favorable action upon legislation authorizing the European recovery program."

Curtis E. Calder said the National Association of Manufacturers is in "complete accord" with purposes of ERP.

Both appeared before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which is considering the $6,800,000,000 request for the first 15 months' operation of the five year program along with the (Continued on Page Eight)

Meat Packers Promise Plenty Of Meat In '48 If No Rationing

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Western meat packers told Congress today that every butcher will have meat to sell this year if the industry is not subjected to rationing or price ceilings.

L. Blaine Liljenquist, representing the Western States Meat Packers Association, testified before the Senate Banking Committee that such controls are "unworkable in time of peace" and would "wiltify the black market." He added:

"Price control and rationing treat the symptoms of high prices without altering the causes. If demand continues high the only real cure is the high cost of meat is additional production."

Both Liljenquist and F. E. Molin, executive secretary of the American National Livestock Association, emphasized to the senators that the nation's meat supply in 1948 will be 14% more than 20 pounds above the 1936-39 average although 10 pounds less than the per capita consumption last year.

The committee, headed by Senator Tobey (R-Mt.), is considering President Truman's proposals for a 10-point anti-inflation program including rationing and price authority.

However, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) indicated today he may insist that Mr. Truman carry out terms of the Republican anti-inflation law before Congress acts on administration proposals.

Meanwhile, the White House disclosed that President Truman last night with the aid of M. Baruch, frequently a presidential adviser.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters Baruch went to the White House at the President's invitation. While Ross said he was not present the conference, in which Baruch presented his proposals "it concerned the state of the union."

Baruch, a New York financier, has proposed a drastic anti-inflation drive as part of the program of European restoration. Mr. Truman told a news conference yesterday he approved of Baruch's recommendations that are in line with his own domestic and foreign proposals.

Stassen Says Pauley Made Big Profit On Slip By Anderson

Meat Packers Promise Plenty Of Meat In '48 If No Rationing

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today that Edwin W. Pauley not only made $10,175 on grain trades after a speech by Secretary Anderson pushed prices down, but also $56,360 on land and oil deals "patterned" closely to Agriculture Department buying.

The land trades were such as to make inescapable the conclusion that they were guided by "more than coincidence," Stassen contended to a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee which is looking into Pauley's commodity speculations.

The north central region bore the brunt of the biting cold. Temperatures in some parts of the frigid belt tumbled to near 10 degrees below zero. F. Warren Qualifies For Governor Race

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 23 (AP)—Felix Warren, Jacksonville attorney, today became the fourth candidate to qualify for the governorship of Florida.

Warren, a naval veteran of World War II, ran for governor in 1940 against Spessard L. Henshaw and was third in the race. He served as a state representative from Duval county in 1939 and earlier represented Calhoun county.

Other candidates who have qualified with Secretary of State E. A. Aray include Attorney General Tom Watson, Richard Cooper, Deland law student and newspaperman; and Bernard MacFadden, Miami Beach physical culturist. All are Democrats.

Other Democrats who have announced their candidacies are Don McCarty, Ferns, Pierce citrus grower and former speaker of the Florida House; W. S. Shanklin, Anthony merchant; State Senator W. A. Shands of Gainesville and State Superintendent of Public Instruction C. G. English.

Republicans who have announced their candidacies are Bert Acker, Miami public relations counsel who has made the race on the GOP ticket before; and John L. Cogdill, Jacksonville attorney.

False Statement Led To Jump In Grain Market Just After Pauley Had Bought

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today that Edwin W. Pauley not only made $10,175 on grain trades after a speech by Secretary Anderson pushed prices down, but also $56,360 on land and oil deals "patterned" closely to Agriculture Department buying.

The land trades were such as to make inescapable the conclusion that they were guided by "more than coincidence," Stassen contended to a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee which is looking into Pauley's commodity speculations.

Cold Wave Whips East From Rocky Mountain Region

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A severe cold wave, following the pattern of last week's icy blasts, whipped across the country from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic Seaboard today and swept toward the Gulf Coast and the Carolinas.

The north central region bore the brunt of the biting cold. Temperatures in some parts of the frigid belt tumbled to near 10 degrees below zero. The mercury failed to rise above the zero mark all day yesterday in parts of Minnesota and the Dakotas. There were widespread reports of fuel shortages as the cold intensified.

The lowest readings in the area engulfed by sub-zero weather from Nebraska to northern Missouri and northern Illinois were (Continued on Page Eight)

Influx Of Parcels From Italy Halted By Med Flyer

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP)—A sudden deluge of food packages is pouring into this country from Italy and U. S. Customs officials, fearing a spread of the Mediterranean Fruit Fly, have halted delivery and in some cases destroyed many of the parcels.

The cause of the deluge has not been determined, an official said, but the influx is similar to one several months ago from Greece after advertisements appeared in Greek newspapers reporting that Americans were starving.

Several hundred packages containing the remains of fresh fruit have been destroyed because of the possible presence of the dreaded fly, which preys voraciously on orchards and groves.

Other packages are being returned along with facilities while they await inspection, officials said. Dried fruit, nuts, olive oil, embroidery and other non-perishable items are not held.

Harry M. Burnham, collector of the port of New York, said many of the packages are addressed to relatives of the soldiers. Others, however, are addressed to public officials including one containing unwarmed dried fruit and nuts, mailed to President Truman.

3 'Freedom Train' Negroes Fined

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 23 (AP)—Judge Aloys Justrobo of Bogalusa Court ruled today that three Negro school teachers fined $100 each for refusing to let their pupils board the Freedom Train here.

The three, charged with refusing to obey orders to move on as the officers attempted to control the crowd at the train-demonstration charges and for releasing their own recognition pending an appeal. They were Charles Speaker, 34; Maurice Prevost, 40; and Bruce Neal, 55. Three police officers were also fined $100 each for standing fast as they attempted to move the crowd back and that Prevost and Neal attempted to argue about Speaker's arrest.

Hints To Housewives

IMPROVING HOME GROUNDS

Winter is the time to be thinking about improving the appearance of the grounds around the house. Attractive planting can be managed with little or no cash outlay by using wild shrubs, vines, or young trees, or by exchanging cuttings, bulbs, or seeds with neighbors.

First, make a plan. Think of the plants in masses rather than as individuals. Plants known to be adapted locally usually prove most satisfactory.

For those who are making a start, perhaps the best place to begin is around the foundations of the house. Choose plants that have spreading and drooping branches that almost touch the ground. These give the effect of tying the building to the ground. Many people make the mistake of using small bushes or cedars for foundation plantings. In a few years they look more like trees than shrubs.

If foundation planting has already been done there may be one or more unsightly spots in the yard where plants can be used as screens. If these plantings are cared for the first three years they will almost take care of themselves afterward. Keep weeds out and don't cultivate too much around the base of the plants. It is particularly desirable to let the leaves that drop off in the fall lie on the ground underneath the plants. The leaves will rot and make a valuable mulch on the ground. Stable manure makes an excellent mulch.

American families will continue to pay high prices for food next year, economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture believe.

Governors To Seek Betterment Of Southern Education At Meet

ANNAPOLIS, Md. Jan. 23 (AP)—Plans for "improvement of education in the South" will be the agenda when the Southern Governors' Conference meets in Tallahassee.

Governor William Preston Lane, Jr. of Maryland, chairman of the conference, said yesterday the "whole picture" of southern education will be taken up by the 15 governors of states represented in the organization.

The regional education committee is to deliver a report on its meeting last weekend at Nashville, Tenn. The purpose of this committee, Lane explained, is "to study the possibility of educational progress in the South without distinction as to race, creed or color."

"The economy of the southern states," he said, "is such that they could probably make more rapid progress by a regional plan, particularly for the graduate schools."

He indicated that leading educators of southern schools will be asked to a meeting in Florida early in March "to explain the matter further."

Eisenhower

"Politics is a profession," Eisenhower, completed one of its true sense, a noble one.

"In the American sense I see no dearth of men fitted by training, talent, and integrity for national leadership. On the other hand, nothing in the international or domestic situation especially qualifies for the most important office in the world a man whose adult years have been spent in the country's military forces. At least that is the feeling of the Eisenhower administration."

"I am deeply grateful if a few simple faith in the effectiveness of a plan drafted has not led any considerable number of citizens to spend time and effort in vain. I must say that the honor paid me cannot fail to give me, in future years, to work the more diligently for America, her youth, her progress, and all her citizens, and for the continuance of peace."

That this rather lengthy explanation will convince you that his conclusions are not on any sound basis have been arrived at independently, and that his desire completely from the political scene is definite and positive. I know you will not object to my making this letter public, even under the circumstances that I have mentioned. Eisenhower's name not only has been watered through a "diligent" filter in the past year, but in future years, to work the more diligently for America, her youth, her progress, and all her citizens, and for the continuance of peace.

Eisenhower has been regarded as a leading "Dark Horse" for many months.

Peiping Is Held To Be Tranquil Place In China

By SPENCER MOORE
AP Newsfeatures

PEIPING—You have to travel just about 20 miles from the troubled and fabulous city of Peiping to reach Communist-held territory, yet this long-time imperial capital of China is today one of the most tranquil places in a troubled country.

There are no surface indications within Peiping of the proximity of the Communists, who hold the second ridge of the western hills which overlook the city and form a picturesque backdrop for the Summer Palace, famed throughout the world as one of the most beautiful spots in the Orient. The Reds have held the second ridge of the western hills for a long time. In fact, almost right up to the end of the Japanese occupation in Peiping, Communists were engaged in skirmishes with Nationalist outposts, but none in Peiping worried about these sporadic affairs.

Peiping itself is considered secure. The Reds in the western hills would have to bring up considerable reinforcements before they could constitute any real danger to the city, but there is no sign at present of any such intention. However, the Communists have succeeded in undermining the Nationalist foothold in Manchuria and coming down in strength to the Great Wall, the capital could well be endangered.

Some residents of Peiping have summer houses in the Red-occupied section of the western hills. A designer with a hangover (here about a few months ago) to see if it were still intact. It was, but some Red troops were in possession and with true Chinese hospitality offered him lunch. The next time he went he was stopped by a Communist outpost and told that if he crossed the Red lines, he would have to stay in Red territory. He decided to return to Peiping.

Peiping is a city of one million and the long-standing residents possess a security of its own which nothing seems capable of shaking.

Black Market Watch Alienates 2 Buddies Shot Down in Europe

DETROIT Jan. 23 (AP)—A strange argument that started four years ago in a German prison camp over a $350 black market wristwatch and two Red Cross packages of food wound up in common pleas court here recently.

Judge David C. Vokes said he would decide Monday whether former army pilot Harry Murphy of Detroit owes $350 to Richard Manning of San Francisco, also a one-time Air Corps man...

The Detroiters said he used the watch in a trade for two packages of Red Cross food worth about $14 for himself and army companions who had not eaten for two days.

Later, he related, he saw watches like Manning's on sale in Paris for $100, and offered one to his former fellow prisoner Manning turned him down and also refused to accept payment of $100. He filed the lawsuit after returning home some months ago.

War Against Sniffles

One thing generally known about the common cold is that no one knows what causes it or what will prevent or cure it. One by one, other diseases are cornered and conquered, some completely and others brought down to such a low incidence as to be negligible...

The annual cost of this plague is said to be two billion dollars, or roughly the amount which we are supposed to have spent to develop the atomic bomb. Investigators have proved that any isolated settlement, from Labrador to a tropical island, is free from colds until the arrival of a ship's crew with the sniffles.

The one hard and fast rule to observe seems to be "Keep away from sneezers and snifflers," which is a fairly hard thing to do under normal working conditions.

The rule about spending a day in bed in a good one, too. It takes all strain—except that of the cold—from the patient, and lets his physical forces put their whole efforts on curing it. It is also an excellent rule on the other side—that of passing the cold around.

Overcoming Handicaps

Military forces of World War II had 19,000 amputation cases, and among civilians for the same period there were 120,000. All handicapped persons in the United States requiring aid number 23 million, of whom five million are housewives on crutches or in wheel chairs.

Modern rehabilitation methods, learned largely through care of war-wounded, have enabled many of those afflicted, previously considered helpless, to become independent and self-supporting workers. Dr. Howard A. Rush, chief of the rehabilitation department of New York University and consultant for the United Nations, speaking recently before the American Medical Association, explained some of the achievements for cripples.

Knowledge gained in work with injured veterans has put rehabilitation ahead greatly. Civilians are in even greater need of aid. He pointed out cases of paralysis from polio, which the new knowledge has aided. Veterans hospitalized for years at government expense are being trained to take care of themselves.

There is new hope for the physically handicapped, and a new attitude toward such disability.

Postmaster Bursleson

The death of Mrs. Albert S. Bursleson breaks another link to the days of Woodrow Wilson. Her husband was Wilson's postmaster-general for eight years, the longest tenure of any holder of the office except for Gideon Granger. Granger served for 13 years under Jefferson and Madison; but the postmaster-general was then not reckoned as a member of the cabinet.

Bursleson was an average holder of the office, hardly coming up to Col. House's enthusiastic praise. "Every one of my Texas friends who has been appointed has done splendidly." As a former congressman, he knew the congressional mind; and early gave Wilson the sound advice to delay making appointments until he had lined up the senators and representatives behind his desired legislation. He did not figure in public life after the end of Wilson's terms and died in 1937.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

That was a shocking picture which British Foreign Secretary Bevin drew in the House of Commons yesterday when he charged that Russia is bent on a ruthless drive to dominate the whole European continent...

There's a terrible finality about a declaration like that, and one wishes that it were possible to avoid such controversial statements. Still, it's dangerous for us not to know the truth about this "cold war," since our very liberties are at stake.

However, I believe there is another reason for this speech, which set the world's cables humming. It would be hard to believe that it was by pure coincidence that Bevin's fiery address came only a few hours after Washington published details of the pre-war dealings between Stalin and Hitler.

We are entitled to assume, or so it seems to me, that Washington's release and Secretary Bevin's speech represent concerted action by the two major Western powers. One object is to inform the world, not only the democracies but the peoples of the Russian sphere of domination...

There are some here in high places who feel that such tactics can do no good and may do considerable harm. But most officials seem convinced that the time has come for unvarnished language. They reason that if there is any merit in the theory that only American powers can block Russian domination of Europe, then that power should be openly applied in understandable words as well as action.

Bevin is noted for the bluntness of his speeches but yesterday's broadside at Russia is the heaviest he has delivered in public since he became foreign secretary. One of his thrusts precipitated a scene in the House of Commons involving the two Communist members, Willie Gallacher and Philip Piratin. Bevin set them shouting in protest when he said: "One of the first objects of

UN Korean Call Bld Rejected By Russia

SEOUL, Jan. 23 (AP)—An official source said today Russia rejected a request by the United Nations Commission on Korea for permission to pay a courtesy call on the Soviet commander in Russian occupied Northern Korea.

This source, who demanded anonymity said the commission might pack up and leave without asking permission to enter North Korea to prepare for a national election—the specific purpose for which it was named by the UN assembly. The election, required before Mar. 31 by the UN, was to have paved the way for restoring total Korean independence and the withdrawal of American occupation troops from the south and Russian soldiers from the north.

Workers in one plant complained that black metal boxes they had to lift were too heavy. But one weekend the boxes were painted green and the workmen were delighted with the "new" lightweight boxes.

Soviet and Communist policy is to prevent the European recovery program from succeeding. But I do not see why I should be party to keeping Europe in chaos and distress.

It wasn't made clear just why the two Reds should have protested this, in view of the fact that the Bolsheviks have publicly proclaimed that they are out to defeat the Marshall Plan.

Bevin also announced plans for a union of the nations of Western Europe to face the Russian drive for control of the whole continent. He declared that the time is ripe for the consolidation of Western Europe, and disclosed that Britain already has initiated talks with Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

So it would seem that the mills of the Western Democracies are beginning to grind full speed.

How Would You Act If You Were Called Before Congress Group?

By ARTHUR EDSON WASHINGTON Jan. 23 (AP)—Did you ever think that some day you, too, may be a witness before a congressional committee? And did you ever wonder, if that day should come, how you would act?

Well, an estimated 15,000 people appear before congressional committees each year. Maybe you could pick up a few helpful hints from their methods.

You could, for example, adopt the bombastic, the dramatic, the scornful, the egad-sir-how-dare-you-sir attitude.

This is done extremely well by people like John L. Lewis. Or there's the Dutch uncle approach. It's a kindly, intelligent talk that uncle feels sure nephews need, even though he's sure nephews won't pay the slightest heed.

Bernard Baruch does well as an uncle. There's the statistical approach. Come equipped with a crew of assistants, each equipped with all sorts of statistics cased in their brief cases.

When a congressman asks a question, have your assistant slip you a statistic. Then rap the congressman over the knuckles with it.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson likes to toss statistics around. There is also the lay-it-on-the-line, take-it-or-leave-it attitude. No cute stuff, no guff.

Secretary of State Marshall shines here. And then—but this is not for the likes of you—there is James C. Pettilio. Only one adjective describes witness Pettilio. He's pettrilloish. The boss of the Muschian's Union looks, and talks, like a fellow who has spent a lifetime handling second rate prizefighters.

When he wants to report a conversation, he sometimes acts it out. Recently, before the House Labor Committee, he recalled a talk he had with some broad-casters.

He got up, put an arm around his surprised lawyer to show just how it was done. "They said to me, 'Oh, Jimmy, you're my pal. You're the squarest guy. Let's have a drink.'"

The way he told it, you could almost see the brass rail, and smell the whisky. Now that is an art. But a word of caution about the method you adopt for presenting your views to Congress: Only a Pettilio can be Pettilioish.

Black Market Watch Alienates 2 Buddies Shot Down in Europe

DETROIT Jan. 23 (AP)—A strange argument that started four years ago in a German prison camp over a $350 black market wristwatch and two Red Cross packages of food wound up in common pleas court here recently.

Judge David C. Vokes said he would decide Monday whether former army pilot Harry Murphy of Detroit owes $350 to Richard Manning of San Francisco, also a one-time Air Corps man, because of a deal they made in the POW camps at Mooseberg, Germany, after both had been shot down in combat.

The battle between the two 28-year-old veterans reached court when Manning recently sued Murphy for the money.

Murphy, in testimony before Judge Vokes, explained he received a wrist watch from Manning in March, 1945, in the prison camp, on his promise to pay $350 to the Californian when and if both returned home alive. That was the price Manning said he paid for the watch. The Detroiters said he used the watch in a trade for two packages of Red Cross food worth about $14 for himself and army companions who had not eaten for two days.

Later, he related, he saw watches like Manning's on sale in Paris for $100, and offered one to his former fellow prisoner Manning turned him down and also refused to accept payment of $100. He filed the lawsuit after returning home some months ago.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 23. (AP)—The globe trotting couple, Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Taylor, plan to tour South America in May.

Last year the couple made a public and pleasure trip to Europe, their first vacation together in 10 years of marriage. They now plan to take a lengthy trip every year, Barbara said on the "Sorry, Wrong Number" set.

"We wouldn't live anywhere but in Southern California and we like making pictures," she declared. "But with so many demands on our time here, we can't devote full time to our marriage. They plan to leave for the Latin countries after she finishes a film for Warners and he does one for MGM."

Dorothy Lamour can't get away from singing. She'll wear one in "Let's Fall in Love" — a study with sequins and diamonds. Doty plans an extended vacation after the film. She'll visit Baltimore, Palm Beach, New Orleans and New York.

Charles Lemaire of 20th-Fox's wardrobe department reports that the "new look" (or is it getting old now?) has played havoc with his chore. Clothes that were modern wardrobe before the new fashion are now period stuff. His dressmakers are now working overtime to create enough long-sleeved clothes for current movies.

Producer Everett Rinklin tells me that "East River," which was being planned for Gene Kelly and June Allyson, has been shelved for the present. Reason: It deals with anti-Semitism, and there are too such films in the theaters now.

There will be no Hope in "Conn. Yankee." Director Tay Garnett told me the comic's usual appearance in Crosby films will be skipped this time. Garnett is striving for realism and Bob doesn't fit into the King Arthur period.

Dr. Helen F. Lanham Speaks Here Sunday

Dr. Helen F. Lanham, former dean of the Inter-Denominational School of Religion at Ocala, Fla., will speak on "The Christian Faith" at a special service of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Sunday evening. A half-hour song service starting at 7:30 o'clock will precede the talk.

Dr. Lanham graduated from the Union Seminary in Chicago in 1917, and served as associate pastor with her husband of the Community Congregational Church of Chicago, and following his death served as pastor of the First Congregational Church in Miami.

She is conducting a series of Sunday night meetings here at the request of David Deere, physical instructor at the Florida Sanatorium, and elder of the Sanford Seventh Day Adventist Church at Elm Avenue and Seventh Street.

Ambrose L. Shurie, Ph. D., head of the Department of Education at Southern Missionary College of Chatterbox, Tenn., will speak at the 11:00 o'clock service, Saturday morning at the church. For 10 years he headed the Teachers' College at New York University.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE KADIS

WASHINGTON — Super police forces, in hamlet and metropolis alike, are being developed by the nation's "finishing" schools staffed by ace G-men.

In the past year the Federal Bureau of Investigation helped conduct 1,785 programs in which 86,250 officers received general training.

In addition, through its national headquarters and its 51 offices scattered throughout the country the FBI gave specialized training in 157 programs to 8,850 officers. These included courses in fingerprinting, interviewing, photography or the use of firearms.

About a dozen state-wide police administrative schools for ranking officers of departments also had an attendance of approximately 1,500.

Sought voluntarily by local police departments, the FBI programs are tailored to the specific needs of each department on the theory that the problem at Wichita is not identical with that confronting Boston.

There are departmental schools, some schools (where four or five small towns with forces of one to 15 or 20 men) and some schools for rookies and refresher courses.

In some areas the schools are makeup man Perc Westmore is the only person with a life contract at Warners? "A Woman's Vengeance" (U-I) is a highly literate screen play written by Novelist Albus Huxley. It concerns yet another husband accused of murdering his wife and though the plot is familiar, its intelligent treatment is not. Charles Boyer and Ann Blyth are admirable in their grim chores, but Jessica Tandy outshines them with an Academy performance.

TEEN TALK

Dear Judy,

It seems as if every other kid is knitting argyle socks—but madly. A rough estimate by yarn people is that more than 500,000 girls throughout the country have acquired little kits containing materials for knitting the socks. On subways, buses and street cars, girls are knitting with their six or seven little cards of wool hanging around the neck. In case you don't know, haven't seen or heard, the argyle socks for boys are made in sort of a diamond checkerboard pattern in a galaxy of colors. Jackson love 'em.

Saturation Of Baseball In U. S. Has Been Reached

COLUMBUS, O. Jan. 23 (AP)—America, for the present, has just about reached the saturation point in baseball clubs and leagues.

So says Bob Finch, publicity chief of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, who addressed some 300 delegates from 57 minor leagues at yesterday's session of the five-day rules discussion conference called by President George M. Trautman.

"Back in 1944 we had 12 minor leagues," Finch said. "That jumped to 42 in 1945, to 62 in 1946, and to 57 in 1947. Several others are in the process of formation, but if they don't get in before Feb. 1, we just can't accept 'em."

"Practically all the new leagues, in some cases all the clubs, are seeking working agreements with big league teams. But the big league clubs are saying 'not now, we have enough.'"

"Without working agreements most of the teams would have a tough time, and that's why I say we've reached the saturation point."

Finch said that in 1932, when only 11 leagues were in existence, there were less than $450,000 worth of baseball equipment. He also said baseball is the only activity in America today enjoying "unlimited public confidence." Finch predicted attendance, which soared to 60,000,000 in 1947, would reach 100,000,000 with the next few years.

COMMENTS from the SIDELINES

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.

Bill Ferrazzi
We regret to learn that Bill Ferrazzi has tendered his resignation as coach and athletic director of Ketterlinus High School in St. Augustine.

The elongated former University of Florida has done a marvellous job at the Ancient City school, and he has now decided to accept a position as a representative of an insurance company in St. Augustine.

In an interview Bill stated, "I have given the matter considerable thought and regret leaving the coaching profession, but feel that it is to the best advantage to accept the insurance position."

Coach Ferrazzi has turned in an enviable record while coaching at KHS. During his 12 year tenure of duty his gridiron elevens have always been among the best in the Northeast Conference.

When Ketterlinus High withdrew from the Northeast Conference to join the East Florida Conference, Coach Ferrazzi's team continued to rate among the top elevens. In 1946 the Yellow Jackets won the conference championship, and last year finished in the runner-up position behind DeLand.

Burrall Wagner, assistant coach and former Stetson U. star, will continue as basketball mentor and will handle the spring athletic program at the school.

Here is an opening for some coach who is looking for a good position.

There has been no announcement as to a replacement for Ferrazzi. Maybe the Ancient City school system is waiting to see if they will get application from any outstanding coaches in the state who are looking for a change of scenery. If they would like to get some recent college star to handle their fortunes in the sports world.

No matter what the delay might be, we think that it is a golden opportunity for someone to get a school with a lot of talent to coach.

Florida International
Jeff Mosier, sports editor of the St. Petersburg Independent, says that all members of the Florida International League except Lakeland are willing to make the jump from Class C to Class B ball for the 1948 season. He also stated that several influential persons connected with the league are putting the pressure on the Pilot management.

Fl. Leanderdale waged a battle over the higher classification, but surrendered, reluctantly. Miami Beach also put up a futile fight.

The Florida International circuit recently hiked the veteran limit to eight, so it looks to us that the $3,600 salary limit will probably be a joke. It seems as if the under-the-counter dealings for salaries will be "the thing to do."

The increased number of veterans causes much room for speculation.

If the Pilots can not see their way clear to go along with the other teams in the league, they may have to drop out of the circuit.

Should Lakeland give up their franchise, that will leave one open slot in the circuit. That is what John Ganzel and his Orlando cohorts have been awaiting in these

Fast Dogs Will Be Entered In 9th Race Tonite

A "hot box" of newcomers will be offered as the feature greyhound event tonight at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club. For the most part the entries in the headline ninth contest will be made up of dogs that have shown exceptional speed in recent events and have merited an opportunity in the top field.

Roman Rex, Whistlin' Bill, Snappy Miss and August are won their previous starts and will vie tonight against Benito Storm and Our Best who have always run in the "hot box" field.

The complete card, beginning at 8 P. M., will include six races from the five-sixteenths of a mile box with the remaining four contests being run from the four-eighths box.

FSU Advances Theory That Football Can Be Played For Fun

By HEM PRICE
ATLANTA Jan. 23 (AP)—Reactions, mostly favorable, were registered today to the theory advanced by Florida State University that intercollegiate games, including football, might be played for fun.

By coincidence, most likely, the Florida school's proposal came just as the coaches and athletic directors of the Southeastern Conference were wrestling with a problem: How to meet the party regulations of the new National Collegiate Athletic Association code?

This code wants to keep football's rewards relatively uniform throughout the country.

In brief, deserving athletes can be given scholarships but no grants-in-aid. The latter is an S.E.C. practice of giving the boys a little cash—about $10 a month.

So while Florida State, just recently turned co-ed, was disclosing it had suggested the little schools band together and play strictly amateur games, the S.E.C. heads were emerging from a six-hour closed session.

From this session they brought a four-line statement in longhand which read:

"The athletic directors and coaches of the Southeastern Conference discussed the N.C.A.A. purity code and our present grants-in-aid policy. We intend to give our presidents this information for their consideration at the February meeting."

Florida state disclosed last night it had written letters to 10 little colleges—in size only—in six southern states suggesting they form a conference of their own.

Athletic directors or coaches of five of the schools said they would consider such a conference favorably. Only two said they couldn't see their way clear to join in such a union, while the others either wouldn't comment or hedged.

In making chicken fricassee with dumplings add an egg to the gravy after the dumplings are cooked. Beat the yolk, stir into it one at a time several spoonfuls of hot gravy, then add to the remaining gravy, stirring constantly until smooth. Continue cooking for a few minutes but don't overcook or the egg will separate.

MARSHALL PLAN WOULD DEPEND VERY MUCH ON
FARMERS OF AMERICA

Although the Marshall Plan for helping European nations get back on their feet has been discussed a great deal, a leading farm magazine recently claimed that a survey which it made showed that only a small percentage of farm people were familiar with details of the proposal.

With the belief that farmers, upon whose work the plan, if approved, would lean very heavily for success, should know about it, we offer this brief sketch of the program.

At Harvard University last June, Secretary of State Marshall declared that the United States was willing to cooperate in any workable plan for European recovery, and the British and French governments promptly took his statement under consideration and invited other countries to consider it also. Sixteen nations, including the Marshall program and asked the United States to support it with rather large quantities of food and other things for a period of four years and then some assistance for several years afterward.

TO SELL 'EM, TELL 'EM—With An Ad

Purposes of the program are to help the war-ridden European countries avoid widespread starvation, recover economic stability, maintain their independence, and return to their places in international trade.

The United States now exports about 10 percent of its output of agricultural and other products, and the sooner the European countries can regain the ability to buy, the better off they will be and, also, the sooner they will be able to take larger quantities of our products. If those countries collapse, it will be a severe blow to American trade.

According to the Department of State, investigations have shown that this country can afford the expense of helping the European countries with either grants or loans, without undue risk to United States economy. State Department reports also show that many European nations have made good progress since the war and that they can make much more with American aid.

The amount of money asked to finance aid for European recovery for the first four years represents about one-seventh of the total income of the United States for one year.

As the peoples of the countries which would be helped must regain health and strength to rebuild their agriculture and industry, food from American farms would be of major importance.

Aside from helping others in distress, American cooperation in the recovery program would also strengthen numerous countries which, without aid from the outside, might lose their sovereignty and come under the power of a dictator nation.

Senate GOP Votes In Favor Of Tax Cut

Amount Left Blank And National Debt Will Be Reduced By $2,600,000,000

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—Senate Republicans voted today to cut taxes but left the amount blank. They decided, however, that any cut should leave $2,600,000,000 to pay on the national debt next fiscal year, Chairman Millikin (R-Col.) of the Senate Republican Conference told reporters.

At the same time, the conference made up of all majority party members in the chamber talked of whittling President Truman's $39,700,000,000 budget but failed to set a target. Reductions of $2,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000 were mentioned, Millikin said.

A decision on the amount to reduce taxes cannot be reached until "there is more information on the budget" and the amount of surplus is determined, he added.

In the House, the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee agreed to vote tomorrow on the Knutson tax cutting bill estimated to chop $6,300,000,000 off income tax revenues. Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) predicted it will be passed by the House next Monday, then it would go to the Senate.

Millikin said the Republican senators decided Congress should "do the best it can" toward meeting the Feb. 15 deadline for setting a figure on how much to cut the President's budget. The amount must await the office of the Budget Committee, he explained.

Knutson, author of the tax bill in the House, said reporters: "They will approve my bill tomorrow. The House will begin (Continued on Page Five)"

Krug Proposes 9 Billion Outlay For Production Of Synthetic Oil

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—An immediate ban on all exports of petroleum products was recommended today by the House Interstate Commerce Committee. The action is necessary, the committee reported to the House, because of the optimistic estimates of supplies, the weather, and "the gravity of the outlook in oil supplies in the event of a war emergency."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—A $9,000,000,000 outlay over the next five to ten years to produce synthetic oil and gasoline on a commercial basis was proposed to Congress today by Secretary of the Interior Krug.

With winter-accentuated petroleum shortages sharpening his words, Krug said in a formal report: "It is clear now that the United States cannot rely exclusively on petroleum to supply all future requirements for liquids fuels and related products." The nation, he commented, already "is squeezed between increasing demand and decreasing productive capacity." And if the international trend toward mechanized economies continues "the proportion of the world's oil available to the United States may diminish markedly," he said.

But setting up a synthetic fuel industry, Krug said, "is far too large an operation and requires too much time to be undertaken under emergency or war conditions."

The cabinet official's report said that to produce roughly 2,000,000 barrels of oil a day, which is less than 40 percent of the

Britain Will Not Devalue English Pound

Cripps Sees Nothing To Be Gained By Following French Act With Franc

PARIS, Jan. 26 (AP)—Premier Robert Schuman declared today that without devaluation of the franc France faced economic ruin and widespread unemployment.

LONDON, Jan. 26 (AP)—Sir Stafford Cripps declared today Britain does not contemplate devaluing the pound despite French action in cutting the value of the franc.

He said a "strong opposition from Great Britain and the International Monetary Fund."

France had overridden objections of both Britain and the International Monetary Fund in revaluing her money. The devaluation gave French manufacturers a chance to cut their prices as much as one-half in world markets and consequently threatened British markets abroad.

The devaluation amounts to about 44 percent for French exporters. They now will get many more francs for their dollars than they have been getting.

Senate Insists Marsh Plan Figures Cover Up Sum Of Over Two Billion

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—Senator Bridges (R-NH) declared today that President Truman sent Congress a "phoney budget" covering the foreign aid program.

He said he had called attention of the conference "to the phoney budget set up as far as foreign aid is concerned."

MANILA, Jan. 26 (AP)—President Roxas in the annual state of the nation message to the Philippine Congress, said today "the crisis has passed and our program of rehabilitation is far advanced" for the 18-month-old republic.
