And Allow the Purchaser to Begin to Develop His Property at Once. There are Absolutely no Restrictions in Our Contract.

OUR PLAN OF PAYMENT ALLOWS YOU TO

Place the greater portion of your money in improvements. Let's you get the land in working shape and then you can manage the production so as to meet the monthly payments, which are

Only $2 Per Acre Per Month

This gives you six years to pay out the land contract which, if it drew interest here at the current rate, would amount to a good round sum, many of the realty dealers giving long time payments solely to get you hooked up on the interest account, but

OUR CONTRACT DOES NOT CALL FOR INTEREST

And you have the use of the land for six years which is the life of the contract. No terms of sale could be made more liberal for good land. You might purchase poor, non-producing land on easier terms but it would be of no value to you after you had purchased it.

ALL AROUND FLORIDA

The General News of "The Land of Flowers."

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Thousands of tourists are daily flocking into Florida and already it is evident that this season is by far the best in the history of Florida. Indications are that travel southward will continue extremely heavy for many weeks yet.

Prospects look very bright for the farmers in the southern part of the state, and the possibility of a splendid crop this season is more than evident, judging from the reports received from various farmers and planters throughout the state, and from the large vegetable shipments which are being made to the Eastern and Western markets.

Directly at the close of the aviation meet Sunday evening, in Tampa, deputy sheriffs arrested J. A. D. McCurdy and Clem Beachy, the two aviators giving the exhibition, Col. T. J. L. Brown, president of celebration, and two ticket sellers, on charges of having violated the state Sunday law which stipulates that no amusement feature for which a price of admission is charged shall be allowed to run on the Sabbath. In view of the laxity which this law has been enforced in the past, theaters and picture shows running here in full blast every Sunday, the arrest of the two aviators caused a general sensation.

Will Blake, the superintendent of the gas department of the Gainesville Gas and Electric Power Company, had a very narrow escape from asphyxiation Friday afternoon while perfecting a tap on the gas main on West Liberty street. Had it not been for the presence of a negro assistant there is no doubt but that the young man would have breathed his last as he was in a very weak and unconscious condition when his body was pulled from the ditch in which he was working.

To give some idea as to the amount of money invested in automobiles in Florida, it is a safe proposition to say that it runs into the millions. There was about 2,400 automobile permits issued by the secretary of state, up to January 1, and placing the value of each car on an average of $2,000 will make nearly $5,000,000 invested in these machines.

Many of the roads in the vicinity of Winter Haven are being strawed and thereby greatly improved. Strawing roads is one of the cheapest ways to secure good roads and more of it should be done. There is nothing that improves a community like good roads and nothing that will impress Northern people as much. Winter Haven owes a lot of its growth to the good roads it has, and it ought to have twice as many more. The convicts have built a great deal in the county lately and every one is speaking of the advantage to the county of working them on roads instead of leasing them.

W. B. Crosby of Indian Beach is bragging about his wonderful red hens and their laying ability. From December 11 to January 16 they laid 1,020 eggs. He boasts that they are the best layers in the Southern states and it would be hard to find forty hens that have done better.

Brookville is planning for a new opera house. It is understood that the contract for the building has been let and that work will begin in March.

Clearwater has organized a yacht club and the charter members are enthusiastically talking about an up-to-date club house and docks.

Pensacola the other evening, through its city council, did one of the best and most timely things that has recently come under our notice. Application had been made for a franchise for the use of streets for railroad purposes. It was granted after the incorporation of the designation of the roads as "common carriers" and the restriction of the use of the streets to such purposes, including the privilege of docks and warehouses.

Meeting Parents' Club

Parents' Club will meet at High School Auditorium next Monday at 3 o'clock. Fine program will be rendered. Every one cordially invited to attend.

Great Interest Manifest in the Popularity Piano Contest

The following is the standing of the contestants up to date:

Miss Maude Harris	108,500
Miss Gladys Gatchel	76,875
Miss Mildred Potter	59,500
Miss Jessie Stumer	12,375
Miss Gladys Gardner	7,025
High School	2,225
Miss Kate Underwood	2,125
Miss Alice Underwood	2,000
Miss Lucille Richardson	2,000
Miss Helen Rowland	1,000
Mrs. Mabel Johnson	1,000

OUT OF TOWN

Miss E. Armstrong, Orlando	8,500
Cameron City Church	4,625
Miss Florence F. Kinney, Oviedo	3,200
Mrs. Addie Robinson Geneva	1,525
Miss Nellie Amick, Orlando	1,500

Miss Maude Harris leads the game this week with Miss Gladys Gatchel a close second, while Miss Mildred Potter is holding down third place with ease, and the rest following with handsome returns.

A ten year subscription would have put those not holding first place in the lead. The contest will close soon and if your favorite fails to win the piano blame yourself with neglect.

The constant changing of the popular contestants into first place is as interesting a game to watch as ever has attracted the American public. To be a winner in a contest not only gives honor in the home county but a standing of note in other states. It is well worth the time and energy spent to be the winner in the Herald's Piano Contest. Thousands live in unmarked graves to receive the honor of being the most popular. Fortunes have been lost to secure such distinction. It requires no sacrifice to be the most popular in Orange county. But every one who is helping their friend to gain first place receives in return full value for every dollar sent in. Your home is not worthy a place in this county unless you are a subscriber to the Sanford Herald. Reciprocity is our motto and you owe it to your own interest to send your subscription for at least five years. Others are doing why not you? Send today to Mrs. M. F. Keyes, the Contest Editor, and proper credit will be given you and votes to your favorite.

LUCKY SANFORD AGAIN

Only a Slight Damage Done by Recent Cold Snap

SANFORD IS A FAVORED SECTION

Protection from Cold, Flowing Wells, Cheap Transportation Combine for Growers' Benefit

The slogan of "Lucky Sanford" gained several years ago on account of the immunity from cold comes into prominence again this week when our less fortunate neighbors are suffering the loss of all the tender vegetables. Despite the sudden drop in temperature on Wednesday night only a small portion of tender beans and cucumbers have been injured as yet in the great "Celery Delta" and the ability to make good our claims as the most favored section in the world can be made again.

The recent drought over the state demonstrates the value of irrigated lands in Sanford. The cold snap this week demonstrates the value of our lake protection.

The shipping rates demonstrate the value of our location on the St. Johns river.

Bona-Hicks

One of the prettiest marriages of the season occurred at high noon Monday, Feb. 20, at the Paola Presbyterian church when Mr. John E. Bona of St. Petersburg, and Miss Irene Hicks of Paola, were joined in holy wedlock. Before the appointed hour the church, beautifully decorated for the occasion, was well filled with expectant friends. The bridal party arrived promptly and the tastefully arranged program was carried out beautifully without an error. Mrs. Buchanan played the wedding march, Miss Bessie Zachary served as maid of honor, Mr. Oscar Pearson as best man and Misses Mabel Schmelz and Fanny Cooley as bride's maids. Miss Helen Potter, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Miss Margaret Zachary bore the ring. Rev. J. F. McKennon, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sanford, performed the ceremony using the ring service. The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of fine blue serge. The groom and best man were attired in black, while the costumes of the maid of honor, bride's maids, flower and ring girls were of delicate white. Immediately after the ceremony the entire company present at the church repaired to the lovely Paola home of Mrs. C. F. Cooley, where congratulations were extended and a most delightful reception given by Mrs. Cooley was enjoyed, refreshments, consisting of delicious salads, sandwiches, cream, cakes and coffee being served informally in dining room and parlors. The high esteem in which the young couple are held was attested by the many pretty and valuable presents received. At 2:30 the bride and groom with Mrs. Bona and young Miss Catherine Bona, mother and sister of the groom, left on the Triby train for St. Petersburg, their future home, carrying with them the high regard and best wishes of many friends.

Mr. Bona is a successful young business man of St. Petersburg and Miss Hicks is well known in Sanford as the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hicks of Paola.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Three thousand birds of all kinds are on view in New York City, comprising the thirteenth annual poultry exhibit of the Pittsburg Fanciers' Club. Prize winning fowls from nearly every State of the Union and from Canada, Germany and England are included.

President Emeritus Charles W. Elliot, of the University of Chicago, has set about fixing the size of a normal family. He believes the number of children in every family should be five or six, and that a woman should bear a child every two years from the age, say, of 24 until she is 40, with allowance for death to cut down the average of offspring acquired.

About 2,000 acres in the Connecticut valley tobacco growing section will be devoted to the shade grown product this year, against 500 acres so cultivated last year. Growers say the expansion is due to supplying the increased demand for such tobacco.

Freezing temperature in Mississippi is expected to destroy the fruit crop. Truck farmers probably will suffer severe loss.

Discrimination against cotton buyers and cotton shippers of San Antonio, Tex., is alleged in a petition filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission by the Rennett-Millets Company, of San Antonio, against the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway.

Are You Thinking? Yes $50 Per Week

Did you estimate where you can make fifty dollars per week? Read all the advertisements presenting to you the many plans and schemes offered by the thousands of advertisers and, after considering them carefully, can you make fifty dollars a week? Those wideawake contestants saw their chance in The Herald Piano Contest offer and those seeing the opportunity entered the race and with slight effort on their part have organized their friends to win for them an elegant piano. They will not only win an instrument of excellent tone, but will win the honor of being the most popular in Orange county. If you have not entered you can make fifty dollars per week by taking subscriptions for The Sanford Herald and in this way may secure the piano. Can you do as well at any other business in Sanford? Stop and think about it. Then go to work among your friends and neighbors and point out to them your ambition and they will gladly respond to your request.

The following schedule will be effective until the close of the contest:

Terms	Price	New and Renewal Subscriptions
1 Year	$ 2.00	2,000
2 Year	4.00	5,000
3 Year	6.00	10,000
5 Year	10.00	25,000
10 Year	15.00	50,000

Catholic Fair

The fair opened by the Catholic ladies in the old Pastime yesterday will continue until Saturday evening, ending with an auction sale and the giving away of prizes. The booths have been very attractively decorated. In addition to the regular meat dinner and supper those in charge of the supper are prepared to serve spaghetti, Italian style, and oysters, cosmopolitan style, at dinner and supper on Friday.

Has a Fine Band

Sanford people have never had the opportunity of listening to a finer band than that of the Royal Italian Band here this week with the "Johnny J. Jones" show. Their daily concerts are enjoyed by large crowd.

ITEMS OF INTEREST CONCERNING SOCIAL PEOPLE

Card Party

Mrs. Samuel Puleston was the charming hostess at a beautiful card party at her home on Park Avenue last Thursday afternoon. The pretty rooms were tastefully decorated with cut flowers, violets and nasturtiums predominating. The numberless red hearts that were strung over head adorned the lace curtains and were every where in evidence, gave a touch of color that was very effective. Five Hundred was the game played and it proved to be a lively one.

Highest score was made by Mrs. B. L. DeForest, who received the first prize, a lovely hand painted plate. The consolation prize was a pretty china sugar shaker and it went to Mrs. William Keeler. Mrs. Oscar Brady captured the booby prize, a heart shaped candy box. An elegant luncheon was served on the card tables at the close of a delightful afternoon. Mrs. Puleston was assisted by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher and Mrs. Robert A. Newman.

Those so fortunate to be included among the invited were Mrs. William Keeler, Mrs. S. O. Chase, Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Miss Mae Doyle, Mrs. G. H. Fernald, Mrs. J. B. Stryker, Mrs. Robert Newman, Mrs. May Dickins, Mrs. Geo. Fox Jr., Mrs. Aylett Fitts, Mrs. Arthur Yowell, Mrs. Deane Turner, Mrs. A. E. Hill, Mrs. T. A. Neal, Mrs. Forrest Lake, Mrs. W. R. Anno, Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mrs. LeVerno Hurt, Mrs. Edward Higgins, Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mrs. Henry Wight, Mrs. J. A. Harold, Mrs. J. C. McDaniel, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. J. W. Dickins, Mrs. F. J. Gonzalez, Mrs. Claude Herndon, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Geo. Speer, Mrs. F. E. Lane, Mrs. R. S. Keeler, Miss Charlotte Keeler, Mrs. O. W. King, Mrs. O. W. Brown, Mrs. M. H. Bowler, Mrs. Jerome Bruce, Mrs. H. P. Driver, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. Cruse Barnes, Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. R. H. Marks, Mrs. R. L. Peck, Mrs. Fannie Munson, Mrs. C. Dingee, Mrs. Paul Keely, Miss Hesso Tyner, Mrs. Frank Woodruff, Mrs. M. Martin, Mrs. R. L. Hughes, Mrs. Cecil Gabbit, Mrs. H. L. DeForest, Mrs. N. H. Garner, Mrs. J. McEwan and Mrs. Edwards.

Mrs. Fields entertained the ladies of the Home Mission Society of the Methodist Church at her home on the Heights last Tuesday afternoon. After a brief business session the annual election of officers took place with the following result:

President, Mrs. Chappell; 1st, vice-president, Mrs. J. K. Mottinger; 2nd, vice-president, Mrs. M. H. Bowler; 3rd, vice-president, Mrs. J. D. Jinkins; secretary, Mrs. M. A. Miot; treasurer, Mrs. R. M. Mason. At the conclusion of the business a social half hour was enjoyed.

Some of the members of the Welaka Club enjoyed a delightful bridge party on Tuesday afternoon. Those present had a thoroughly good time and the prize was captured by Miss Miller, of North Carolina, the guest of Miss Hawkins.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a splendid meeting in the Baptist Church on Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Wildman presiding. A good number of interested members were present and topics of vital interest, were discussed intelligently and profitably. Mrs. L. R. Phillips read a most interesting and helpful paper on My Neighbor's Child and Mine. Miss Roach of Americus, Georgia sang a very pretty solo.

Mrs. Martha B. Cust entertained informally twice last week at her charming bungalow on Cameron Ave. in honor of her friend, Mrs. O. E. Walker, of Topeka, Kansas. The pretty rooms were artistically decorated and such an air of hospitality pervaded as to make the parties memorable occasions to those who were so fortunate as to be included among the guests. Delicious salad and ice cream courses were served at these delightful parties. On Wednesday Mrs. Cust had for her guests the following ladies from town, Mrs. O. E. Walker, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Cruse Barnes, Mrs. T. A. Neal, Mrs. Johns, Mrs. G. H. Fernald, Mrs. J. N. Whitner, Miss Moll Whitner, Miss Alice Whitner, Mrs. C. E. Walker, Mrs. C. R. Walker, Mrs. R. Homrighous, Mrs. William Keeler, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. Harry Ward, Misses Ward, Mrs. Commons, Mrs. Delamater and Mrs. Woods.

Friday afternoon the following were invited: Mrs. Minnick, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Brisson, Mrs. H. H. Chappell, Mrs. A. R. Chappell, Mrs. Sammis, Mrs. Dorer, Mrs. McDougal, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Raynor, Miss Raynor, Mrs. Squires, Mrs. Ben Squires, Mrs. Delamater, Mrs. Speer, Mrs. Pitts, Mrs. Welker, Mrs. Starr and Mrs. Coney of Columbus Ohio.

Salamagundi Party

Mrs. Samuel Puleston and Mrs. Robert Newman entertained a large number of their young friends last Friday evening at Mrs. Puleston's residence.

It was a salamagundi party and as the name would imply was a medley of fun and amusement for the entire evening. Exciting games and contests were entered into and pretty prizes were awarded to the lucky contestants. Miss Madge Ward received as a prize a lovely lace collar, and a pretty hatpin holder went to Miss Bessie Long. The gentlemen's prize was a folding drinking cup and was awarded to Frank Milteer.

All the young people who enjoyed this unique party felt that they were indebted to Mrs. Puleston and Mrs. Newman for one of the most delightful evenings of the gay winter season.

Those invited were as follows: Misses Ella Stringfellow, Peachie Leffler, Linda Leffler, Madge Ward, Veda Ward, Helen St. John, Belle Smith, Lillie Fair Smith, Mabel Bowler, Flossie Frank, Margaret Roberts, Ethel Hatch, Gull Moore, Charlotte Keeler, Beth Mettinger, Gelsie Butt, Moll Whitner, Alice Whitner, Irene Brady, Mabel Hand, Louise Shepherd, Bessie Long, Laura Fish, Nell Garner, Bessie Schumpert, Annie Parramore; Messrs. Claude Howard, Jack Adams, Braxton Perkins, Nixon Butt, Eugene Roumillat, Willie Leffler, W. M. Braddy, F. E. Milteer, Meade Fox, L. P. McCuller, J. D. Roberts, Raymond Key, Will Watson, Bryan Higgins, David Caldwell, Wildeman Caldwell, W. J. Thigpen, Archie Betts, John Doss, Hal Wight, Tracey McCuller, Norman DeForest, Williams, J. B. Lawson, Carl Hamilton, P. L. Moore.

The paper on the personality of George Washington on written by Mrs. M. H. Bowler, and read before the Wednesday Club, Wednesday afternoon was one of the very best that the club members have ever listened to. It was written in the most interesting style and showed much research and thought. Beginning with George as a small boy up through his eventual and noble career every phase of his life was portrayed in a most charming manner, and those present felt like they were better acquainted with the Father of our country than ever before.

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em'— So Says Saunterer.

Special Correspondence to The Herald.

Now I am in for it and will probably disappear some dark and stormy night and few people will ever know just how it occurred. Because I am against vaccination the following letter comes to me from St. Augustine and my friends can see the grave danger hanging over my head:

The Curbstone Saunterer, Sanford, Fla.:

Dear Sir—I was very much surprised to see your "score" on the art of vaccination in the Feb. 17th issue of the Herald.

You ask "Where is the smallpox?" Do you not know that the presence of smallpox is not at all necessary to create a smallpox scare? Any of us can start the fear bug going, and once started it goes on like a snowball, gathering proportions as it travels.

Now to the point! Did it ever occur to you that you were running a great risk of becoming unpopular? Do you know that you are running counter to one of the strongest organizations in the country, when you denounce vaccination?

The regular supply of virus is made and it must be sold. It costs money to produce virus, and the men up in Detroit want pay for their work. The work is mean and disgusting and the doctors who perform it require good pay. And without a smallpox scare or a series of scares a lot of good medical men would be out of an income. Of course there is no smallpox, and even if there were, that would not alter matters materially, as just as many people die of smallpox who were vaccinated as die of the disease without vaccination. And, again, a smallpox scare causes a good many diseases—just the fright alone bringing on disease in nervous people. Furthermore, many people get sick and some have their arms amputated and some die as the result of vaccination. That means more professional pay for us not counting the several million dollars we doctors get in this country every year for performing the necessary vaccination operation.

Now, simple Saunterer, do you understand why there is a smallpox scare?

But I wish to warn you not to be too free with your opinions. Even if vaccination does no good, as you infer in your article, it is a source of great revenue to us and we will protect our rights. The fact that a few thousand children become imbeciles, a few hundred lose their arms, and a few score die as the result of vaccination, is not and should not be of any moment. What is a life in comparison to the gleeful pleasure of a scientific operation? Call them sacrifices if you will, but they are sacrifices on the altar of Allopathy, the glorious cause of medical science. The so-called sacrifice of life should be, and is condoned. What would become of the great medical profession if we were not allowed to practice according to our alma mater and the great goddess Pandora! And where would the American Medical Association be if all the members did not stick together and invoke the law to protect us and our interests against people who, like yourself, scoff at the art of vaccination!

Have a care, simple Saunterer. For less crimes men have disappeared. Heart failure we sometimes call it to fool the trusting and simple folks, but the subtle poison that produces death by heart failure is not known outside the medical profession.

Perhaps you belong to the class of people springing up everywhere, who for want of a better name, we call cranks and faddists. Such people read books and study and think and do other things that common people have no right to do. Some of them actually even resort to natural means to cure disease. Of course disease can be cured by natural means, without the use of drugs, but what is to become of the medical profession if such practices continue! The common people have no right to read and study, or even to think, as we are well prepared to do that for them. Our glorious profession thrives best where ignorance is most dense. Therefore we must use every means we have at our disposal to keep people in ignorance. As a prominent medical lecturer and member of the board of health of Milwaukee said to my friend, Dr. Rodermund: "To hell with the common people; we have them by the throat and we will hold them there."

These sentiments must be held by all self-respecting medical men in the interest of our great science, and shame be to any practitioner who dares think that the common people should be enlightened on the subject of health. If he can no longer fool them he had best get out of the profession. We have no use for such chicken-livered reformers. (Perish the word.)

And you, simple Saunterer, think we use the "blood of the brindle bovine." Such, in fact, is the impression we wish people to have, but as you are a man of letters you ought to know that the virus used to vaccinate your child is identically the same as the Syphilis germ. The injecting of that germ into the blood also predisposes to consumption. Now get your think box in order and possibly you can figure out what a perfectly endless chain we have for promoting disease and increasing the volume of our business.

We must be protected at all hazards. We have the organizations, the men and the money, and we soon hope to have the laws which will throttle any man or woman who dares oppose us. The bills are now in congress, and in the very near future the country will be compelled to build new prisons to hold the men and women and children who refuse to obey our mandate. So here's our great toast: May all creatures bow to Allopathy—and God. Trusting that you are now frightened into submission and will nevermore dare to write as you did last week, I am,

Yours truly,

J. W. GOSSMAN, M. D.

The same old story was told at the Commercial Club meeting last Friday night, the same story that tells of great deeds but does nothing. This semi-annual blowing off of concentrated hot air never accomplishes anything. These love feasts are all right but President Lake ought to get up a rousing meeting in a few weeks that would really enthuse the members into paying dues and get a few new members into the field. A little speech, a little soda water, a little song, a little sandwich will not build a city.

The Commercial Club should meet with the avowed purpose of raising money and raise the money even if it takes beer and pretzels to do it.

Sanford city property now takes the boards and the eyes of the investor will seek this source for his money instead of the seductive celery field. Too long has the country property held away. Let the country take care of itself. Our efforts this summer should be directed toward building a Greater Sanford. Get your lake front and build beautiful residences and bring in the tourists.

THE REASON WHY THE HOWARD-PACKARD LANDS ARE THE BASIS OF SOUND INVESTMENT

Written by B. A. HOWARD, President

I spoke some time ago of the apparent concentrated effort on the part of large financial interests in the east and central west to hinder the buying of Florida farm lands in order to keep the money in the home State. Such advice in certain instances is unquestionably sound, but in the case of proven lands, the motive is purely selfish.

The man intending to buy the right kind of Florida farm land usually has several hundred dollars on deposit in his local bank drawing 4 per cent interest. This money is used by the banker for loans. Depletion of the savings account is a serious matter and must be prevented by the banker if at all possible.

The magazines carrying investment advertising editorially advise against investments promising more than from 4 per cent to 5 per cent. In the face of this the banks themselves are paying dividends of from 4 per cent to 100 per cent as printed in the January, 1911, issue of "Investments."

The Fifth Avenue bank's dividend was 100 per cent, Bronx Borough bank paid 20 per cent; First National bank paid 32 per cent; New York County National bank paid 40 per cent; Union Trust Company paid 50 per cent as did the United States Trust Company. Out of a list of twenty-seven banks and trust companies only one paid as LOW as 4 per cent and only one paid 50 per cent.

The marked effort to make the South finance her own development is but another move to concentrate capital where it is most handy for the financing of the plans of the money power.

The lands handled by the Howard-Packard Land Company are suitable for sound investment. Our lands are proving themselves. You have only to drive through and around the Celery Delta to see that for yourself. The danger in buying land arises from buying land sight unseen—a policy we have never advocated and never will advocate. We want every purchaser to see and to know what he is buying.

But the main reason why the Howard-Packard lands at Sanford, at New Volusia, at Lake Charm and at Pinecastle are a sound investment lies not alone in their productive possibilities but in the fact that the United States as a whole is approaching the END OF LAND—the end of GOOD land.

Ten years ago, for instance, you could hardly sell Western prairie land for $1 an acre. Horses that would not sell for $20 now average up to $150 and $200. Potatoes that rotted at 15c now sell up to $1 and as for Sanford land it was supposedly high priced at $2.50 an acre.

Today if you buy Sanford irrigated land for intensive farming you'll gladly pay $150 or $200 per acre. If you buy land set out with oranges or grapefruit you'll likely pay $800 to $1,500 per acre. Up in the middle West you will not get good wheat lands under $100 an acre. Or, in the Northwest—lands that formerly sold for $2 now sell for from $40 to $70. Even semiarid lands in Missouri bring from $14 to $20 an acre.

With the gradual occupation of available GOOD lands, the price for them is bound to increase and with the increase in price is bound to come an increasing demand. This is as logical and as plain as the print on this paper.

Lands in Florida vary as do lands elsewhere, that is why I say—see your land before buying. Some lands are remote from railroads. Some lands are swampy, while others are just sand. There is absolutely no need to "get stuck" (to use the parlance of the day) in buying Florida farm land if the prospective purchaser will go about it in the same way as he does his other business.

At the prices we are offering our lands I consider them much lower than their productive capabilities warrant. Every acre we are handling will prove itself, under intelligent cultivation, a larger income earner than any interest earned in any bank, stocks or bonds.

Even if not cultivated, these lands will prove satisfactory by reason of the unearned increment—the greater the number of settlers on any tract the greater the increase in value of the remaining tracts.

By the natural law of supply and demand alone, the Howard-Packard lands are the basis of sound investment.

Why shouldn't any man who makes up his mind, make money on any of our lands? Dollars do not grow on any of the trees neither do dollars sprout from the ground in a literal sense. But any man who looks forward to anticipating the temporary inconveniences of settling in new territory and prepares to meet them for the sake of the greater future, can do better here than he can on a weekly salary.

When I was in Chicago recently, I was struck with the difference in the position of the average Chicago toiler and the settlers our company had located in sunny Florida. I saw thousands of families whose total earning capacity is sufficient only to provide for their necessities day by day. They had no surplus. Poor food, poor housing, accidents, occasional non-employment kept them on the margin. Likely some of them had neglected their opportunities. Like enough some of them were on the margin because of their own folly, but in any case, living in a mere shack and cultivating enough to live on in Florida is far better than the wearisome round of toil up there.

The point is to seize your opportunity NOW.

Now — TODAY, while good lands are low priced and while you can buy them for a little down and a little each month with no taxes or interest to bother you.

I want to get in touch with the man of some means—even if limited. I want him to write me how much money he can get together. How many members there are in his family—if they are working, how old they are. I want to help the deserving man who has been careful to save money for such an opportunity as starting in business for himself in Florida. I want to hear from him before he comes here, so that I can plan part of his arrangements. If he has a wife and can afford to bring her to Sanford on the next Homeseekers' excursion, so much the better. I want to show both of you the splendid successes now being achieved by people who come here just as we are asking you to come here.

In getting in touch with this company you are placing your confidence in people who have settled hundreds of farmers around Sanford. We go among these good people every day. We talk with them. We advise with them. We are on a social as well as business footing with them. Could we remain in business were our methods not above reproach?

We have several interesting publications I wish to send you. One deals with the Sanford Celery Delta and the wonderful sub-irrigation system. Another deals with the "Resources of Volusia Farms." Other literature tells you actual facts about the lands as related by our settlers. In fact, if you are endowed with ambition plus common sense there is everything in the Sanford and near Sanford situation that should look mighty good to you.

The next Homeseekers' excursion leaves northern and central western points March 1 and 15th, so you had better write me about yourself today. Address plainly:

The Mapes Complete Manures

Where seems to be great dissatisfaction throughout the State generally as to the results obtained from most of the fertilizers used last season.

Many growers are now beginning to see clearly what we have been suggesting for some time, they might expect to have happen from the continued use of the Acid Phosphate (rock) goods.

A curiously large number of those of our old customers who were gotten away from us by the inducements of the so called "cheap goods" "Just as good as Mapes," are coming back to us this season to have their groves and fields restored.

The Mapes Fertilizers are evidently considered a refuge in extremity when help is needed and hope almost gone. You certainly get the benefits of over thirty years experience in Florida and over fifty years in the manufacture of fertilizers generally. If we cannot help you the case is indeed hopeless.

ARMOUR FERTILIZERS

Common Sense--That's All

Before commercial fertilizers were known animal manure was considered by the practical farmer to be the best form of plant food. He didn't know why except that it gave him the results. Liebig explained the reason when he showed that ammonia, phosphoric acid and potash were necessary as food for plants and that the ammonia in the animal manure was what produced the growth, but that it was necessary to also have phosphoric acid and potash to produce the maximum results.

With all the development of the fertilizer business, animal fertilizers have always held first place on account of their crop producing qualities. They have no superior as a source of ammonia, Armour Animal Fertilizers derive their plant food from Blood and Bone and Dried Blood (concentrated animal products) combined with phosphoric acid and potash in the best forms. It is because they contain the best and most natural forms of plant food that they are so popular and the demand for them is increasing so rapidly.

THE RECIPROcity TREATY

Will Be a Great Step Forward For Florida Growers

Florida's famous early fruits will have free access to Canadian markets. Florida fruit growers have long recognized the value of securing even reductions in Canada's fruit tariff, and have repeatedly petitioned our State Department to attempt some relief. It was with these requests in mind that Canada was asked and prevailed upon to concede, with reluctance, not merely the reduction but the entire abolition of her duties on fresh fruits from the United States. Early strawberries and other berries from Florida, as well as her grapes, now encounter a duty of two cents per pound on entry to Canada. Peaches are taxed $1.00 per 100 pounds, plums thirty cents per bushel, and melons three cents each. The important of Canada's complete removal of these duties has been the subject of numerous appreciative letters from Florida to the Government. Last year the United States sold $1,271,000 of fresh fruits to Canada, paying $261,000 for the privilege.

Garden produce from Florida will now find ready sale in Canada free of all tariff handicaps, reaching the Dominion many weeks before the slow-ripening northern crop matures. Early potatoes, onions, tomatoes, etc., command high prices in Quebec and Ontario cities. We sell $865,000 of fresh vegetables annually, in the face of $142,000 duty. Potatoes are taxed twenty cents a bushel and most other vegetables thirty per cent. Florida is splendidly situated to take advantage of the removal of these duties. Dried fruits, apples, pears, peaches and apricots are made mutually free by the reciprocity agreement. On canned fruits Canada lowers her duty by one-ninth, or from 2 1/2 cents to two cents per pound. On canned vegetables the rate is lowered by one-sixth, or from 1 1/2 cents to 1 1/4 cents per pound.

Free cotton-seed oil has been conceded by Canada. Heretofore this northern product has been dutiable at 17 1/2 per cent on entry into the Dominion. During 1910 this country sold $1,111,400 of cotton-seed oil to Canada, paying approximately $200,000 duty thereon. Considerable quantities of cotton-seed oil are produced in Florida.

Under the proposed arrangement fish of all kind, fresh, salted, or preserved in any manner, are to be mutually free of duty. The United States imports from from Canada nearly $5,000,000 of fish annually, this being one-tenth of our total consumption. We collect about one-half million dollars duty on these imports, and this amount is of course added to the price our consumers pay for the fish. The rates of the principal varieties bought from Canada are three-quarters of a cent or one cent per pound. The removal of duties will tend to render fish less expensive throughout the entire country, a fact of great interest to regions whose warm climate make fish a peculiarly valuable food staple.

The removal of our tariff on live animals, and the reduction of that on meats of all kinds, will help to lower the cost of meat in this country, and a state like Florida, which produces little meat of its own, will find nothing but benefit in this arrangement. Our present rates on cattle are, in general, equivalent to between twenty-five per cent and thirty per cent, and these will be completely done away with. Our present rates on meat to four cents on bacon and hams.

It is proposed to allow Canadian wheat and other grain free entry into this country. While this will have no immediate effect on the price of cereal foodstuffs, it will operate to forestall an increase in their cost when our consumption shall overtake our production. Even at the present time it will steady the prices of our breadstuffs and widen the of our milling supply.

WHY HESITATE?

An Offer That Involves No Risk For Those Who Accept It.

We are so positive our remedy will completely relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish it free of all cost if it fails.

Constipation is caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestines or descending colon. To expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies, on our guarantee. They are eaten like candy, and are particularly ideal for children. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They have a neutral action on the other organs or glands. They do not purge or cause any inconvenience whatever. They will positively overcome chronic or habitual constipation and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments. Try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Two sizes, 10c. and 25c. CELERY AVENUE NEWS

Special Correspondence to The Herald: Miss Miller of North Carolina is visiting Mrs. Bell on the avenue.

Mr. Bell, we learn, has purchased the Barclay place on the avenue, consisting of ten acres of fine celery land and two residences. The place lies between the Roasetter farm and that of Mr. T. I. Hawkins. Mr. Bell came to the celery delta a few years ago and engaging in the trucking business on rented land was successful. He has now purchased a place of his own. We learn from Mr. Barclay that he will not take his purchase-money abroad to invest it, but having so much confidence in Sanford dirt he has already bought over four acres and the tract is completed.

The colored church at Canaan had a large baptizing at the East Coast Ferry Sunday last, six converts being baptized. A large crowd of white folks attended the baptizing.

A church social was held Wednesday night, 7:30 o'clock, at Moore's Station for the benefit of the church.

Mrs. W. M. Cost received Friday afternoon at her charming home on Cameron avenue in honor of her friend, Mrs. O. E. Walker. Dainty refreshments were served, consisting of fruit, salad, sandwiches, ice cream and cake. Among those present were Mrs. O. E. Walker and her sister, Mrs. Edgar E. Brown of Beck Hammock; Mrs. H. H. Chappell, Miss Jessie Wheeler and Mrs. Angus Chappell of Celery avenue; Mrs. Will Squires; Mrs. B. E. Squires, Mrs. Carl Woods and mother, and Mrs. Dr. Delamater of Cameron avenue; Mrs. W. A. Raynor, Mrs. T. Edwards, Mrs. G. C. McDougal, and Mrs. Welker and daughter of Celery avenue.

Mrs. Coney of Indiana is visiting Mrs. Edgar E. Brown at her lovely home on Geneva avenue, Beck Hammock.

The county commissioners have the lumber on the ground to build a bridge across the slough at the East Coast ferry and we learn operations are soon to begin. This will considerably lessen the crossing time at the ferry and will be hailed with delight by automobilists.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins spent last week with their friend, Mrs. Clark at Oviedo.

A. FARMER.

OVIEDO AND LAKE CHARM

Special Cor. to The Herald: Conductor and Mrs. Robinson have been guests at the Cushing house several weeks. Mr. Robinson is filling the position of Mr. Brannon since his accident. Conductor Brannon is now so far recovered as to be enjoying a ten days' camping expedition in the woods with Mrs. Brannon and family friends from the west.

Charles Lea left Lake Charm Monday for Miami and the East Coast, via Tampa and Key West.

Miss Carrie Brooke of Umatilla spent Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Brooke. Miss Louise Brooke is enjoying a visit of several weeks with friends in Tampa friends.

Dr. C. C. Thayer spent last week at Lake Howell looking after his orange grove interests in that vicinity.

President and Mrs. Blackman of Rollins College, Winter Park, came in an auto Saturday to enjoy Mr. Foster's hospitality at dinner.

The Ladies' Club had an open guest day with Miss Frances Allison of Lake Charm Friday afternoon and evening last. The attendance was large at both gatherings and the financial results gratifying. The feature of the afternoon was a very delightful and inspiring address from Miss Marian Evans, Ph. D., who is an ex-vice president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. We had the pleasure of listening again to Miss Evans Sunday afternoon in the chapel at Lake Charm on the religious influences of the Passion Play at Oberammergau. It was a wonderful address and one that will not soon be forgotten. Oviedo and Lake Charm are privileged in coming into such pleasant acquaintance with Mrs. Foster and her guests. Miss Louise Manning Hodgkins and Miss Marian Evans.

We are glad to have with us again Mr. and Mrs. Mallory of Georgia, who have been identified with Oviedo interests for very many years in their orange grove property here. We look for their coming every year. Mr. Wheeler of Georgia accompanies them and all are guests of the Cushing house.

Mr. Mallory, who is interested in all kinds of philanthropic and church work will conduct the afternoon service in the Lake Charm chapel on Sunday.

J. S. McKenzie add family report a pleasant time at the Geneva picnic last Saturday.

GENEVA JOTTINGS

Special Correspondence to The Herald: On last Monday Mrs. G. R. Nicholson and daughter, Miss Bobbie, entertained Mesdames Gresham, Homer Nicholson, Etheredge and Speer with, what is known in Georgia, a regular "hog-killing dinner". Only those who have enjoyed all the good things of a hog-killing know just what this means. Full justice was done to the meats and also the dainty sweets.

Geneva enjoyed the first fish fry of the season last Saturday. Besides an abundance of fish, there were baskets of every kind of good things to eat. These gatherings are always pleasant and are always pleasant and are always largely attended.

Mrs. M. S. Etheredge and brother, W. L. Sieg entertained Miss Brag, John Huddleston and Mr. and Mrs. David Speer at a very pleasant dinner Saturday.

At the home of Miss Letta Peters on the 14th, Miss Peters and Miss Brag entertained. Pleasant games and music were enjoyed until a late hour when delicious cakes and fruit punch were served.

Mrs. Fred Yerkes and two interesting children, of Jacksonville, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Huddleston.

Mr. Carroll, who is superintending the new rail road business, attended the fish fry on Lake Harney.

Mr. Egbert of New York, arrived in Geneva Friday on a visit to his friends, Messrs Lamrose and Stone.

Mr. Clifford Smith, Miss McKenzie, Mrs. McKenzie of Chuluota and nieces of North Carolina drove over in their carriage Saturday and enjoyed the picnic with their friends who were very glad to have them.

The many friends of Dr. J. J. Burns will be sorry to learn of his being quite ill at the home of his daughter Mrs. Raulerson.

Rain was never needed any worse than at the present time—it is so dry the seed cannot even sprout.

PADLA POINTS

Special Correspondence to The Herald: The weather this week has been trying to surprise us with a cold snap, but it proved to be mostly bluster, no harm done.

Mrs. A. E. Curtiss spent the week in her pretty home here.

Mrs. and Miss Weiser, of Knoxville, Tenn., formerly of this place, arrived last week on a visit to their old home and friends, and are the guest of Mr. and Miss Taber, at Twin Lakes.

Miss Clara Millen, of Sanford, was the guest of the Misses Pearson, for a week-end visit, and a river trip to Wekiwa Springs, where a delightful day was spent by a jolly crowd.

Thursday evening, Feb. 15th, Miss Millie Hicks was "surprised" with a miscellaneous shower, from her many friends in the neighborhood. A large party gathered at her home, and the "bride-elect" was the recipient of many, and lovely tokens of their esteem. Delicious refreshments were served, and a most enjoyable evening spent.

Several picnic parties enjoyed the beautiful trip to the Springs last week on the launch, Nina.

The event of the week, was the wedding of Miss Millie Irene Hicks and Mr. J. E. Bona, at the church, at noon, Monday Feb. 20th. The church was beautifully trimmed with palms, magnolias and vines. Mrs. W. B. Buchanan presided at the organ; Miss Cooley and Miss Schmelz acting as ushers; Miss Zachary maid of honor; Mr. W. T. Pearson best man; Miss Margaret Zachary ring bearer; Miss Helen Potter flower girl. The impressive marriage service, was performed by Rev. J. A. McKinnon of Sanford. Immediately after the ceremony the happy pair, received the congratulations of their friends, at the home of Mrs. C. F. Cooley, which was charmingly decorated for the occasion. Dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Bona left, amid showers of rice and good wishes, on the 2:30 train, for St. Petersburg, where they will make their home.

CAMERON CITY ETCHINGS.

To the editor of The Herald: This is Washington's Birthday and to those of us accustomed to colder winters the present cool wave seems very appropriate, coming at the time of this national holiday. We understand that our neighbors at Moore's Station have planned a Lady Washington social for this evening and we wish them all success.

The Gormlys and Stevensons are enjoying a visit from Prof. Gormly of Ottawa University. He plans to be with us until March 1st.

Morton Holcomb, a cousin of the Harris' is visiting at the Harris home and incidentally seeing the country.

We have been unfortunate the past week accidentally. J. C. Rich let a plank fall on his foot while at work in the warehouse, crushing a toe. He has been on crutches ever since but will soon be walking again. And J. W. Powell, while handling an unruly mule was thrown violently against a timber in the barn and sustained serious injuries. Three ribs are fractured and he is much bruised. He is getting along as well as possible apparently and when strong enough expects to go to the hospital at Orlando for a time. He is visiting at his son's home on Michigan avenue. His wife will be here soon from their home on Long Island. She has very poor health and hopes to be benefited by the change.

On Wednesday evening of last week our people had what they called a family gathering at the church. About 6 o'clock they began to spread a picnic supper and the evening meal and the social time which followed was greatly enjoyed by all present. We have some lamps in the church now and look forward to many pleasant and beneficial evenings spent

Thursday evening of this week the men of our community plan to meet at the church and discuss matters of interest to growers and probably from some kind of an organization for future study and mutual benefit.

Clarke Beck and his visiting brother, Earle Gormly and his visiting brother, and Lawrence Rich spent a few days last week up the river fishing. They had fine luck and a jolly good time.

Walter Haines shipped a car-load of good celery last week.

Messrs. Ballard and Williams have been making business visits here recently.

Judge Haymaker of Wichita, Kansas, surprised his old friend Dr. Minnick with a visit last week, coming Friday afternoon and spending the night at the Minnick home. The Judge is a very active and talented man, also very successful financially and proved himself a very interesting and interested visitor. It was his first trip through Florida and he thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated what he saw in and about Cameron City.

On the tenth of the month we had a frank-furter roast in Mr. Beck's park for the benefit of the church. The affair was a success both socially and financially in spite of the coolness of the evening.

Miss Garner's Launch Party

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the launch party given by Miss Nell Garner on Wednesday to her many friends in the city and to their visitors.

The party met at the city dock about 8 a. m. and going aboard the launch Wekiwa were soon on their way to Wekiwa Springs, and although the early morning breeze was somewhat chilly, the spirits of the young people did not seem to be similarly affected, and everything went on "as merrily as a bell"—that is, after Frank Milteer succeeded in getting the lion's share of the "cover."

After about an hour on Lake Monroe and the St. Johns the Wekiwa was reached, and here can be seen some of the most beautiful scenery to be found in Florida, the windings of the river revealing new beauties to the eye at every turn, and the clearness of the water making it possible to see the fishes and other aquatic life at the bottom of the river.

Capt. Thomas, the capable and efficient manager of this trim little boat which will afford the people of Sanford many days of pleasure the coming summer, upon reaching the river saw that it would be too low for the entire trip to the Springs so piloted the party about twenty miles up to "Camp Cameron," where the stop was made for lunch, and such a lunch, it would take a connoisseur to describe it. It was a feast—preluded over by one of the chaperones, Mrs. N. H. Garner, than which there is none better, ably assailed by Mr. Garner, who is "some" when it comes to making coffee "a la camp."

After about an hour's rest, the trip back was started and upon reaching Lake Monroe it was found there would be time so the "hustling" little city of Enterprise was "taken in" and the chicken farm and springs visited, which was all interesting to those who were strangers to the attractions over there. Just as Old Sol was sinking to rest the trim little craft was tied up at the city dock, and after all thanking Miss Nell for having given them such a pleasant day the party dispersed to their several homes where they will long remember the trip on the Wekiwa.

Miss Garner's guests on this occasion were: Misses Belle Smith, Lillie Fair Smith, Mabel Hand, Ward, Christine Richards, Linda Leffer, Estelle Beard, Christine Gannaway, Gail Moore, Margaret Roberts, Ethel Hatch; Messrs. G. G. Hearne, Nixon Butts, Archie Betts, J. B. Lawson, R. R. Deas, Frank Milteer, James Williams, Phil Moore. Chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Garner.

A Big Success

The German Flea Circus Show with Johnny Jones Exhibition Shows is certainly a remarkable performance to see. The German Prof. Kuntz with his troupe of 300 educated fleas give a beautiful circus performance under his personal commands. They do astonishing stunts, jump through hoops, walk the tight rope, loop the loop, pull wagons, chariots, cannons, hitch up with golden harness and dance to the music of the Merry Widow Waltz, all dressed up in Sunday costumes, and to see fleas in hobble skirts is certainly amusing and they are interesting to the most intelligent people.

Wm. J. Brown, the general manager of the attraction, while in Germany seven years ago securing new attractions for American carnival managers personally engaged the German Professor with his troupe of educated fleas, knowing it would be a big success in America and his first engagement was in Madison Square Garden, New York City, and for seventeen weeks, then to all the big state fairs, where business was equally as good as in New York City. The Professor has every one of his performers named and calls them by names which they understand as well as a horse or dog when he is giving exhibitions. This is the German Professor's first appearance in Sanford, and the people here can consider it a rare treat to get such an attraction at the German Flea Circus.

Public Meeting

The public is cordially invited to attend a meeting of Sanford Lodge of Odd Fellows on Tuesday night, Feb. 23, at 7:30 in Opera House building. Grand Master W. H. Malone will deliver a lecture on Odd Fellowship.

GRAND OPPORTUNITY

For the investor or the Home Builder Messrs. O. L. Blanchard and G. E. Taft, private sales managers for the Bowman Realty Company, who recently put on an auction sale of lots in Celery Avenue Addition, are in town for the purpose of putting on a Special Private Sale on those very desirable lots.

For the next thirty days the Bowman Realty Company's Gold Bond will be accepted as a $20 payment on any lots purchased. These bonds will be distributed throughout the city or can be had at the office of Mr. J. N. Whitner adjoining First National Bank or at the Pico Hotel.

A rapid sale of these lots is predicted as they are well worth the prices asked for them, and the $20 discount should be a great inducement to the investor as well as the home builder. See building lot in "Lucky Sanford."

A call at J. N. Whitner's office or phone 107 will bring a team to the door to take any one out and look over the property.

Home Mission Society

The Woman's Home Mission Society of the Methodist church held their annual election of officers last Tuesday afternoon, February 21st, with the following results:

- President—Mrs. H. H. Chappell.
- First Vice President—Mrs. J. H. Mettinger.
- Second Vice President—Mrs. M. C. Bowler.
- Third Vice President—Mrs. J. D. Jenkins.

Recording and Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. M. A. Hill.

Treasurer—Mrs. Dr. Mason. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Fields in Marham Park, and after all business was transacted a most enjoyable time socially was had and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Card of Thank

At a meeting of the Board of manager of Sanford Hospital Association Feb. 18th. It was unanimously voted to express thanks, to all who helped, in any way to make the Charity Ball a success. It wished to heartily thank Mr. Driver and his associates for free use of the Sanford House. The Sanford Band for excellent music. Mr. Holly for printing and the Eagles for a donation of money and their continued interest. At their suggestion a "Tag Day" will be observed for the benefit of the Hospital fund. The management feel very much encouraged by the interest people express in this cause and hope that the hundred and fifty dollars, realized from the Charity Ball will be increased until a sum sufficient, will be on hand to build a Hospital as Sanford needs.

Mrs. A. T. Rossetter, Sect.

A Card of Thanks

To the many friends and acquaintances who tendered aid and sympathy in our hour of dire distress and sad bereavement, and especially to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Sanford that furnished us with the services of Mr. W. J. Jensen, and to Mr. Jensen for his tenderness and faithful trust in caring for our beloved husband and father during his suffering, we extend our heartfelt thanks grateful in appreciation thereof.

Mrs. Rachel Harris, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dobbins, Mrs. Frank Darling, Stephens Coates Harris.

People's Church

The pastor preaches both morning and evening, 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. At night Mr. Waldron will give the second of his sermons to girls, "The Beau Age." A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to attend all the services of this church.

Methodist Church

Services at the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Hendry. Morning subject: "God the Father reasoning with man His child" (Heaven's light upon an earthly pathway). At night: "A personal faith in a personal Christ." All are cordially invited.

T. M. Elliot

T. M. Elliot, aged twenty-four years, died last Saturday after a lingering illness. Mr. Elliot had suffered for years with tuberculosis and came to Sanford to get the benefit of a warmer climate but came too late.

His uncle, J. O. Langford came here to look after his nephew and carried the remains to Adams, Tenn., where interment will be made.

Conductor Kills Negro

Conductor Butts, who has charge of the Sanford-Lakeland run, was forced to kill a curly negro last Sunday. The negro was drunk and shot at Conductor Butts, who immediately pulled his gun and killed his assailant. This should be a lesson to the negroes who imagine that Capt. Butts will stand for any trifling.

Notice for Publication
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
U. S. LAND OFFICE

Gainesville, Fla., February 4, 1911. Notice is hereby given that Edwin A. Gilbert whose post-office address is Sanford, Florida, did, on the 5th day of October, 1910, file in this office Sworn Statement and Application, No. 07840, to purchase the n-w 1/4 of s-e 1/4 and n-e 1/4 of s-w 1/4, Section 12, Township 21 south, Range 31 east, Tallahassee meridian, and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisal, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised at Five Hundred Twenty Dollars, the timber estimated 40,000 board feet at $5 per M, and 40,000 board feet at $2.50 per M, and the land, $220.00; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of application and sworn statement on the 19th day of April, 1911, before the Clerk of the Circuit Court, at Orlando, Florida.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.

THE PENNILESS WOMAN.

I do not mean the woman who lives in a hotel and who is destitute of clothes but the penniless wife of the business man or the professional man or the tradesman. How many times last Christmas did you hear a remark such as "my wife made me a present bought with my money?" And it was followed with a sneer as if it were a huge joke. But the joke was on the other side. For so many years both men and women have regarded house-keeping as such a degraded menial work that the performance of it is not considered dignified. When we regard it as a business the husband will recognize that the work of his wife in the home has a financial value; that the ability to conserve the family income is often quite as important as the ability to earn it; that the service of the woman in the house is valuable from a money point of view and much of it can never be recompensed with money. Only the recording angel can tell the humiliation of the self-respecting woman who washes, cooks, sews, performs all the household tasks with faithfulness and who never has a dollar of her own to spend for a favorite magazine or to gratify any desire of her heart. If she "worked out" she could have spending money of her own, but because she is the homemaker her work has no business value. Many a woman has brushed the hot tears from her eyes and choked down the indignation which welled up in her heart. Why should not she who has helped earn the broad acres, or build up the business at the store, or save the money to buy the house, ever have fifty cents of her very own instead of being treated as a dependant? When the homemaker is regarded as a business woman she will be considered as a partner with such financial privileges as the family purse permits.—Contributed by a Penniless Woman.

SUGGESTED BY THE MONUMENT BEING ERECTED TO THE MEMORY OF THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS.

(Forget It?)

Forget it? Ah, 'tis easy said
Can we forget our daily bread?
Forget the mother, who for years
Watched o'er us, through sunshine and tears?

Forget it? Yes, 'twere better far
But can wounds heal without a scar?
Can all the yesterdays of love
Pass from us like the clouds above?

Forget it! Who that time would see
When words of love our lips shall see
Should o'er the pass a veil be drawn,
And memory fall in us to dawn?

Forget it! Aye, let us forget
The evil, to the good hold yet.
Remember all the kindness done
Remember till God calls us home.
—Aetna.

UNCLE JOE'S CHECK.

Col. Henry Casson, sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, has the original check given by Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, a few years ago to a book agent, and about which an interesting history has been told, says Human Life.

An agent visited the Speaker and interested him in an elaborate edition of something which Uncle Joe didn't want, but bought. When the books arrived Uncle Joe examined them and decided at once that something had been put over on him. When the agent came for his money the Speaker determined to make him indorse a terse sentiment on books, so he wrote out a check for $73, the amount due, and on the back of it he inscribed:

"Pay to the order of Mr. Blank, in full payment for an edition which was not worth a d—, and dear at any price, but for the ease and grace with which he put it over your Uncle Joe it was well worth the money."

MRS. SAGE'S GIFT.

New York, Feb. 17.—Mrs. Russell Sage, it is announced, has given $10,000 to provide a library for the firemen of New York.

HE SAID THE WRONG THING.

The drummer sat upon a baggage truck and waited, reports the Galveston News. The train was late—not so commonly late, for it was common for it to be behind time.

He had not known this, and had broken up an exciting game of dominoes at the hotel in order not to miss it. Also, he had wanted to see Smith & Wilkerson again, to ask if they hadn't better change their mind about those goods, but the domino game and the time of arrival of the train prevented.

Therefore he sat and waited and smoked and fumed idly and wished he were a hod carrier rather than a drummer. Besides he had been bad all the week, and in his pocket was a letter from the firm asking him why he hadn't done business.

As he sat two men appeared, two men he knew, having sold goods to both. They were arguing fiercely.

"I'll leave it to that fellow on the truck," one said as they approached. Then he recognized him. So did the other.

"All right," said the other. "You ask him."

"Look here, Ed," said the first, "Men Andrews here want to know whether or not Napoleon ever crossed the Alps. I say he never got across."

The drummer thought swiftly. Then the other chimed in.

"I say he did get across," he said. The drummer thought some more. If he sided with one the other might cancel his business relations.

"Well," he said, "Napoleon got right smack on top o' the Alps."

"A-a-ah!" jeered the business man; "he didn't get across, then."

"Now, here," said the drummer weakly, noting the other's face; "it ain't just that way, Napoleon would have got across—it depends on what you call across, you know." The two looked at each other.

"Am I right or wrong?" both asked in a breath. The drummer rose for his train was coming in.

"You're both right and both wrong," he said. "I'll write you about it."

"You needn't," said one.

"Not to me," said the other.

"Wo-asked you a plain question," said both. "Cancel that order."

Then the drummer went into the smoking car and threw himself into a dusty plush seat.

"Oh, the 'divvie," he said. "Who'd be a travell'g man?"

MISPLACED TRUST.

The wife of a Brooklyn city official was standing at the gate of her grounds when a tramp came along says the New York Press. The fellow doffed his battered hat and held out his hand. The woman, who prides herself on her ability to read faces, looked at the man closely a minute.

"Well," she said, "I never give to tramps, as a rule, but there's something about you; face I like—something which makes me feel I can trust you."

So saying, she handed the frowsy stranger a quarter. He walked away a dozen yards, then he returned.

"Never trust a face again, ma'am," he said with a smile. Then he quickened his gait, for he saw how the woman's face had hardened.

LANDS CHEAP.

Florida offers inducements that no other State can offer. It has good and cheap lands in conjunction with the finest climate in the world. This condition will not long exist. Meaning that lands will become higher in price as the new settlers come. This is the accepted time. We have gone just far enough to demonstrate that the future of Florida is assured; to show that this is the State par excellence for the success of the new settler, but not so far as to greatly increase the land values.

NO TIME FOR JOKING.

Champ Clark's assertion that he hopes to live to see the American flag fly over all the countries of the Western hemisphere is in keeping with the wishes of most of the people of the United States, but at this special time it was rather unfortunate for him to give it utterance, even if as it is claimed, it was said in jest. Mr. Clark especially are slow to catch on to a joke, and they may be a long time catching on to him.

The National House is having moving picture shows. It has long made a specialty of continuous vaudeville.

Anent the Knockers

We learn there is a conspiracy on foot to discourage new comers to this section by some of the old residents of the celery delta placarding their places for sale with a big sign. This sounds like the man whom you see fishing and ask him what luck, his reply is "Nothing doing," and yet every now and then you see him make a big haul. He's afraid you'll put in. I done my best to discourage a prospective settler to the delta the other day. I put him up against every pessimist in town and every man who had failed at truck farming, which was only one (myself) and he saw so much evidence of that he put some pretty stiff questions to me. Being unable to answer him he decided to rent a farm of me for next season and closed the deal. He said he had been down to "Orlandy" and they had tried to discourage him against Sanford down there. They told him that every few years the land around Sanford becomes sulphurized and had to be plowed six feet deep with wood and burnt off in order to "de-sulphurize" it. Say, this is rich and I will have to add it on to my knockers, for every knock against Sanford is a hoax. Waycross quotes Sanford, so do Jacksonville, Palatka and Tampa. I see at the county fair that Sanford had no experimental farms. That was news to me for I thought they were all experimental farms, as nearly every experimental trucker never farmed a day in his life till they went into celery and lettuce growing here. X. Y. Z.

The Turner Art Exhibits

The city of Sanford and this entire community has always taken an especial pride in its schools. This local pride for the best has led our schools to avail themselves of the Horace K. Turner Free Traveling Art Exhibit, in hope that we may convince our people of the importance of good pictures in the improvement of our school rooms.

This exhibit contains two hundred reproductions of the most famous paintings of ancient and modern times. It is valued at over two thousand dollars and will by far surpass anything of the kind ever shown in our city.

The pictures will be on exhibition in the High School Auditorium March 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th. An admission fee of 15 cents for adults, and 10 cents for school pupils will be charged. The money that is raised in this way will be spent in buying pictures for the walls of our school rooms. The Horace H. Turner Co. furnishes the exhibit free of charge on condition that we spend the money we raise, in buying pictures from this company. We will also take orders from those wishing to order pictures.

It is earnestly hoped that all the patrons and friends of the school will cooperate with our teachers to make this exhibit a success.

An Enjoyable Picnic

Special Correspondence to The Herald: Another social picnic took place Saturday of last week at the Beck Hammock home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Brown, comprising practically the same party of friends who enjoyed the Palm Hammock picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Greenman the Saturday previous.

Upon this occasion, however, the number of participants was somewhat larger and the affair was so eminently a success as to mark this form of entertainment one of the most popular for country life in the celery delta. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are to be congratulated on the successful efforts made to entertain their guests in such a happy congenial manner that seemed to say: "Enter our home and hearts are wide open, sit and refresh yourselves."

Of the various Hammock sections now settled in the celery delta, Beck Hammock in many ways outclasses her neighboring communities. The costly dwellings here erected and the beautiful grounds surrounding, in possession of all the wealth that a tropical climate can give, is in fact most inviting, and the further you journey into Beck Hammock the more alluring it becomes.

The picnic party was met at the street car line at Beck Station and conveyed by wagon to the Brown residence about one-half mile distant. No where on earth could be selected a finer and more appropriate place for picnicking than the home grounds of this delightful residence. Surrounded as it is with all the charms that nature has to bestow, where the applied arts of man have in no way been denied the right of expression by stinted expenditure of time and labor, accounts in a large measure for such unbounded enjoyment on this occasion. Here was spread the picnic table groaning under the weight of its delicious edibles where all did ample justice to themselves. Here was more closely united the ties of friendships but recently made and merriment ran high upon the picnic wave of enjoyment. Vocal music rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Polk and Mrs. Frank Greenman was a feature worthy of mention. The hearty expressions of appreciation showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Brown at the parting hour fully attested to the success of this social picnic at Beck Hammock.

Mr. Logan Says:

"On my place I have abandoned the use of the wet spray," said he. "I consider it too expensive and too cumbersome to bother with. I now use nothing but dry sprays, using a powdered Bordeaux mixture, which is in general a copper sulphate compound and with it I can do the work of four men with a wet spray. Formerly it was necessary to suspend spraying operations in an orchard after a rain, but now owing to the lightness of a dry spraying outfit work can be pushed any time.

"Another advantage of the dry spray is that trees may be sprayed at any time of the year whether the orchard is in bloom or not. With a wet spray it is necessary to keep the mixture off the trees at this season otherwise the trees will die."

WHAT CHICKENS WILL DO IN FLORIDA

Success Achieved By Mr. Throop In Chickens At Enterprise

The following article from the facile pen of Forrest Crissy will prove most interesting to our readers:

"Generally this neglected opportunity is quickest found by the man of small means who has not the capital to do the thing that most of his neighbors are doing. Especially is this true in agriculture. Not long ago one of the largest celery growers in Florida said:

"We farmers are like a flock of sheep, we follow the leader and all do the same thing, regardless of the fact that it might pay some of us much better to do something else. Take it right here, for example, we raise celery, with the regulation side crops of garden truck. All our product is shipped away to a distant market and we're so busy growing this big crop that we let about everything else slip by us. In other words, we fail to produce a good many of the necessities of life that ought to be a part of the output of our farms and we have to go into the market and supply our needs along those neglected lines. In most cases the neglected products for home consumption have to be shipped in from a long distance at a greatly increased expense, simply because we have all got the notion that celery is the only thing to raise here. There is just one man here who was forced by misfortune into doing 'the other thing'—and it looks as if he might be on Easy street when some of us celery-growers are hunting for enough capital to carry us through another season—for it takes money to swing a celery farm!"

"The man in that locality who is doing 'the other thing' is Theodore Throop, the proprietor of a small chicken farm. He had started out to have an orange grove years before, when this particular part of Florida had been boomed as the great orange garden—long before celery had made a nation-wide celebrity for that community; but he had not known that his grove was badly located—on the wrong side of the lake to secure protection from the prevailing winds. When the big freeze had taken its winter frolic in Florida he awakened to the fact that his orange grove was a frozen ruin.

"Instead of turning to celery growing, as did his neighbors, he was obliged, from lack of funds, to take up the carpenter trade, which he had abandoned to become an orange-grower. At the time when he had planted his grove he had bought a little flock of white leghorn hens and a rooster, for table purpose only. He liked chickens and they had prospered under his hand until, at the time of his misfortune, he had a large flock. Under the severe regime of forced economy in his household, the daily diet was largely contributed by the hen-house. One evening, after he had been following his trade for some time, he sat down with his wife at the dining-table to do a little figuring on household finances.

"His thrifty wife had been selling eggs to the local grocer and to a number of friends, and when the home finance committee finished its session his eyes were opened to the fact that the little flock of white fowls had almost kept the table.

"I think," he declared, "that I can see a chance to do something besides raise oranges. Those hens ought to do a heap more for us if they had the right kind of attention paid them. I'm going to stick to my hammer and saw for a while yet, but meantime I'm going to look into the egg business and see if there isn't something good in it."

"He stuck to his determination and began to reason and investigate. He took care of that flock of white hens with a new interest and saw the output of eggs steadily increase. Moreover, by careful study, he was able to decrease the cost of production from season to season and also to increase the size of his flock.

He paid close attention to breeding from his best layers and building up a force of hens that had made exceptional performance records.

"In a few years his flock had increased to proportions that compelled him to put aside his hammer and saw and give his whole attention to his hens.

"TODAY HE HAS MORE THAN TWENTY-ONE HUNDRED HENS WHICH, HE FRANKLY ADMITS, MAKE HIM A NET ANNUAL PROFIT OF A DOLLAR AND A HALF EACH.

"Every year," declares this disappointed orange-grower, "I only increase my flock and my output but I learn how to increase the net profit on each hen. I don't want anything better than this. I've got over my ambition for orange-growing and celery-raising. All I have to hire is one cheap negro and I do all the rest myself. I'm my own commission merchant and salesman, every time; and I get all there is in it. The middleman doesn't get a chance to take a big, fat profit out of me. I sell to the men who use the eggs. There are few men giving any attention to producing eggs down here, and there are a heap of prosperous Northern folks coming down here right along—and they bring their egg appetites with them. Give me the business that doesn't have to go away from home for a market and where the selling end is in one's own hand! Besides, I'd rather do the thing that the others are not doing. Of course, if I had plenty of capital and could bore with a big auger I might do as the rest do—raise celery on thousand-dollar-an-acre land; but I'm satisfied now.

"For the last year the average price that I received for my eggs was thirty cents a dozen. It would probably have been higher had not two-fifths of my output been contracted for at thirty-five cents. When the Florida winter season is at its height eggs generally go to sixty cents a dozen here. In the matter of production, March is my best month; April, come second, and January and February are about equal for the third place in the list. In December, when eggs are around sixty cents a dozen, I averaged about four hundred eggs a day. However, in those months when the hens are laying most freely I have averaged as high as twelve hundred a day. All of my feed, with the exception of the green stuff and the shells, is bought in the open market; this may be a mistake, and I may, and likely will find it greatly to my advantage to raise much of the feed here on my little farm.

"At the present time, with twenty-one hundred fowls of laying age and fifteen hundred chicken, my feed bill averages—the year through—about three hundred dollars a month. My repair bill is only fifty dollars a year and the negro laborer costs me just twelve cents an hour. About the whole secret of making chickens pay a good profit is to have a liking for them in the first place, and then to give the most scrupulous and exact attention to every detail of their care. Right here is where so many fail and have given the chicken business—and particularly egg-production—a black eye in the general opinion of the public. Generally the mere mention of hen-farming is enough to raise a storm of ridicule in any group of men; but I have made it pay simply because I found out that there was a good, strong, steady local demand for eggs and because I was willing to give minute attention to the details of taking care of my flock in a way to stimulate egg production.

Notice of Incorporation

Notice is hereby given that we, the undersigned, intend to apply to the Honorable A. W. Gilchrist, Governor of the State of Florida, at Tallahassee, Florida, on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1911, for a Patent Incorporating THE SANFORD LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY under the following proposed charter, the original of which is now on file in the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE SANFORD LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY

We, the undersigned, have agreed to associate ourselves together and do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a body politic and corporate under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Florida, and do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I. The name of this corporation shall be THE SANFORD LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, and its principal place of business shall be at Sanford, Orange County, Florida, but it shall have such other offices, agencies and places of business in Florida and in other States of the United States and in foreign countries as its Board of Directors may determine.

ARTICLE II. The general nature of the business to be transacted by said corporation is to do any and all of the things herein set forth and in any part of the world, as principals, agents, trustees or otherwise, and in furtherance, not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, to-wit:

To purchase, own, hold, control, lease, rent, sell, mortgage, exchange, and otherwise deal in real estate and any rights, title, interest or estate therein in the State of Florida and in other States of the United States and in foreign countries.

To acquire, own, lease, occupy farms, farm lands, orchards, groves, ranches, town sites and territories to lay out, plat, improve, irrigate, drain, cultivate, use, or operate the property of the corporation, or of others, and to do and perform all things appropriate or needful for the development and improvement of the same for any purposes for which the same may be adapted or lawfully used.

To direct the management and sale of the property of the corporation, or the property of others, and to transact on commission the general business of real estate broker.

To buy and lease, rent, erect and construct houses, buildings, works and factories of any kind on the property of the corporation, or on the property of others.

To manufacture, produce, purchase or otherwise acquire; to hold, own, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer, lease, rent, erect and construct, trade and deal in and with timber, lumber, naval stores, fertilizers, materials, fruits, farm products, live stock and all other goods, personal property, wares and merchandise of every class and description which may be produced, directly or indirectly to effectuate its business.

To issue bonds and secure the same by pledges or deeds of trust or mortgages of or upon the whole or any part of the property held by the corporation, and to sell and pledge such bonds for proper corporate uses as and when the Board of Directors may determine; to loan and borrow money on notes, bonds, mortgages or other securities.

To guarantee, advance for, hold, purchase, or otherwise acquire, sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise deal in the shares and capital stock of, or any bonds, securities and evidences of indebtedness issued or created by any other corporation or corporations of this state, or any other state, country or nation; and while the owner of such stock, bonds or other obligations, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership thereof, and to exercise voting powers thereon to the same extent that a natural person might or could do.

To make contracts of any kind whatsoever for the furtherance of its business, and purposes, and generally to exercise such powers as may be incident to the purposes and business of said corporation, and to have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers and privileges incident to corporations organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida.

The foregoing clauses shall be construed as independent objects, businesses and powers, and the enumeration of any specific business or power shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner any other business or power of this corporation.

ARTICLE III. The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS ($800,000.00); to be divided into eight thousand ($100.00) each. Of said capital stock Four Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($450,000.00) divided into four thousand five hundred shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each, shall be common stock, and Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000.00) divided into three thousand five hundred shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each, shall be preferred stock.

Said preferred stock shall entitle the holders to receive in each year out of the net earnings of the corporation, a fixed yearly dividend of seven (7) per centum before any dividend shall be paid upon or set apart for the common stock; such dividend on the preferred stock shall be payable semi-annually upon the first day of January and July of each year. The dividends on the preferred stock shall be cumulative, so that, if in any year dividends amounting to seven (7) per centum shall not be paid on such preferred stock, the deficiency shall be a charge upon the net earnings of the corporation, and be paid in full, together with any dividends which shall be paid upon or set apart for the common stock.

The balance of the net profits of the corporation, after the payment of said cumulative dividends of seven (7) per centum per annum to the holders of preferred stock, may be distributed as dividends among the holders of the common stock as and when the Board of Directors shall determine.

The Board of Directors may issue such preferred stock and certificates thereon as and when the said Board shall determine, and the vote or assent of the stockholders shall not be necessary for such issue.

The holders of preferred stock shall, in case of liquidation or dissolution of the corporation, be entitled to be paid in full, both the principal of their shares and the accrued dividends, before any amount shall be paid to the holders of the common stock. The holders of preferred stock shall not be entitled to vote said preferred stock in any election of directors or for the management of the corporation.

The preferred stock shall be redeemable at the option of the Board of Directors, at any dividend paying time after five (5) years from the date of issue of said stock, at par value of said stock and a premium of five per centum, together with all accrued interest or dividends.

The holders of preferred stock shall have the option at any time after three years from the date of issue of said stock of converting the same into any kind of lands or property of the corporation which they may select, at its market price at the time of such conversion; and upon the surrender of said stock at any time after three years from date of issue, the Board of Directors shall cause to be issued proper conveyance of a sufficient amount of the property of the corporation, which may be selected by the holder of said preferred stock, to redeem said stock at par, together with any interest or dividend which may have accrued on said stock.

All or any portion of the common stock of this corporation may be payable in real or personal property, or in any kind of services or may be issued or used for the purchase of real or personal property, or for the payment of labor or services, at a just valuation to be determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV. This corporation shall continue and have full power to exercise its corporate rights and franchises for a period of ninety-nine (99) years from and after the commencement of its corporate existence.

ARTICLE V. The business of this corporation shall be conducted by the following officers: a president, a general manager, a secretary and treasurer, elected by the Board of Directors from among their number, and a Board of five Directors, who may be holders of one or more shares of common stock of the corporation, to be elected annually by said stockholders.

Until the first annual meeting of the stockholders hereafter provided for, and until their successors are elected and qualified, the officers of this corporation shall be:

B. A. HOWARD, President
B. A. HOWARD, General Manager
J. O. PACKARD, Secretary, and
J. O. PACKARD, Treasurer.

The Board of Directors shall be:
J. F. WILCOX,
J. O. PACKARD,
B. A. HOWARD,
C. C. HOWARD.

The first organizational meeting of the holders of common stock of this corporation shall be held in the city of Sanford, Orange County, Florida, at the office of the corporation, on the fifteenth day of March, A. D. 1911, for the purpose of adopting by-laws and completing the organization of the corporation, and also for the purpose of electing such officers of the corporation as are hereinbefore provided for, and thereafter the annual meeting of the stockholders of this corporation shall be held on the second Tuesday of January of each and every year.

ARTICLE VI. The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall subject itself, shall be an amount equal to the entire capital stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VII. The names and residences of the subscribing incorporators of this corporation, and the amount of the capital stock subscribed by each, are as follows:

- F. E. HOUGHTON, Boston, Mass. 7 1/2 shares
J. F. WILCOX, Scranton, Pa. 7 1/2 shares

When You Are Casting About

For a place to make your SOUTHERN HOME you will be fortunate if your investigations will carry you to "LUCKY SANFORD" and The Title Bond & Guarantee Company. There are very few localities in the State where land can be guaranteed as being productive.

The Sanford Celery Delta

Has made a reputation that is known all over this continent and you should show your good judgement by purchasing land that has made a community famous by its productivity.

Few Localities can Make Boasts of this Character

And that is what has placed Sanford in a class all to itself.

This Company

Has some of the very best unsold land in the Celery Delta. It is of the irrigable kind--the sort upon which flowing Artesian wells can be secured

There is not a Great Deal

Of land left in the irrigable belt and you will do well to secure some of it before it all passes beyond your reach and For a cash Payment of Twenty-five Dollars

Down and two dollars per acre monthly this company will sell you a five-acre tract and give you immediate possession.

This Gives You Six Years in Which to Pay Out

The contract allows you to place the greater portion of your money in developments.

Instead of Inland Payments

The good qualities of this fact can be best appreciated by those who are not suffering from SWOLLEN FORTUNES.

Send for Thirteen Reasons on the Yellow Sheet which shows you why you should steer clear of the Dune Dealers, Rasting Tract peddlers and Starvation Site Vendors.

ALL AROUND FLORIDA

The General News of "The Land of Flowers."

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

The bird men will fly at Daytona Beach March 23rd and the event will attract a large crowd.

The Pensacola Journal says that Sanford has her celery, Lakeland her strawberries and Hastings her potatoes, but Pensacola farmers are growing pepper.

Daytona is going to have her houses numbered and by the first of July hopes to have free delivery.

The Montgomery Amusement Company, with a capital stock of $100,000, is now in process of formation at Jacksonville. They will build up and operate a big new moving picture show in several Florida cities, Sanford being one of them.

The Jacksonville Board of Trade has recognized the importance to the interests of the state of Florida of having Hon. S. M. Sparkman of Tampa succeed to the chairmanship of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives, to which he is by usage and precedent entitled, being the ranking Democratic member of the present committee. That body at a recent meeting passed resolutions endorsing Mr. Sparkman for the honor.

The report of Hon. A. C. Croom, state comptroller has some very interesting figures to those who desire to keep up with the progress of the state. The increase in valuation of property during the past ten years has been wonderful. It has risen during this year from $98,686,054 in 1900 to 177,723,981 in 1910. Railroad mileage in 1900 was 3,101.79 of main track and 541.32 of side track. In 1910 it was 4,164.14 of main track and 697.43 of side tracks, etc. The total assets of the banks (state institutions) on December 31, 1901, was $6,149,852.56, and on Nov. 10, 1910, it had increased to $27,126,599.34, a gain in ten years of $20,976,745.48.

St. Petersburg is having a new sensation, and if the craze for exploring spreads, investors may not only be digging on their own premises, but investigating those of their neighbors as well. The news is abroad that a good flow of oil has been struck on the Stuart land, two miles up the Bay. Workmen were drilling for water and as they were not equipped so as to care for the oil, they suspended operations. Those owning land in the neighborhood, many of them, soon heard the news, and plans are being laid by a number of them to unite and secure the services of an experienced oil well driller and have a well put down in order to discover whether oil in sufficient quantities to make the industry lucrative is to be found in that vicinity.

"Five thousand autoists will visit Florida next year provided the proper assurance can be given them that a well paved road connects Jacksonville and Tampa," vouchsafed Frederick F. Schmidt of Bridgetown, N. J., a successful motorist and road builder.

A bevy of young Canadian girls are enjoying an outing in St. Augustine, being the successful candidates in a newspaper contest. The party is composed of ten, and the sight-seers will also visit Ormond and Jacksonville, returning home by the way of New York.

After more than twenty-four hours of intense suffering as the result of falling between passenger cars on the St. Petersburg-Jacksonville train on the Atlantic Coast line at Micanopy Junction Friday afternoon, W. J. Leary, a well known traveling drug salesman of Jacksonville breathed his last in the sanitarium in that city, whence he had been taken at 6 o'clock Saturday night.

St. Cloud has been incorporated and is now a full fledged town with its own city government, with power to make and enforce laws.

The state encampment of the G. A. R. ended in a blaze of glory at St. Cloud. The next state encampment of the Grand Army was awarded to Zephyrhills.

Plans for the establishment of an experimental farm on land just west of Lake Okechobee, in DeSoto county, to be employed by Luther Burbank, the California plant wizard, are all under way.

GRAND OPERA AT SANFORD

"Cavalleria Rusticana" Will Be Sung Here Tuesday Night

To those who revel in the highest attainment of vocal and instrumental music, as exemplified in grand opera, a few remarks will not be amiss concerning the coming engagement of the English Grand Opera Co. and Orchestra Tuesday, Mar. 7 at the Imperial Theatre.

The performance is an innovation and notable in many ways. The eyes of the musical world are now focused on Pietro Mascagni, the composer of L'Amigo Fritz, Rusticana and a new work, Ysobel, to be produced at the New Theatre in New York shortly.

Cavalleria Rusticana (Rustic Chivalry) popular the world over, has seldom been heard here although the "Intermezzo" played during the interlude is a familiar number to most of us.

Offenbach's sparkling little operetta, The Rose of Auvern, is another brilliant cut musical gem which scintillates here for the first time on this occasion; thus we are to receive a "double bill," a "gala night" as it called in operatic circles.

Still another attraction, also refreshingly new, and therefore doubly acceptable,

HERTHA HEYMAN
With English Opera Company at Imperial Theatre Monday Night, Mar. 6.

is the orchestra—a ladies orchestra if you please—and conducted by the famous Boston leader Nellie Chandler, to whom the late Patrick Gilmore presented his baton, on a memorable occasion in Washington before an audience of nearly fifty thousand people assembled in the vast amphitheatre.

New Shoe Store
E. G. Duckworth the Foot Fitter has opened a store in the DeForest building. The store will be under the able management of Mr. Tillinghast and is to be up to date in every respect.

A VITAL QUESTION

Whether Our Sanford Library Shall Live or Die—Live, of Course

Every citizen feels pride in its possession, in seeing its notice in the Sanford Herald, in referring a visitor or prospective resident to it, but remember it must be supported and supplied. Public sentiment is heartily in its favor, therefore our public spirited citizens will see to it that it is put on a practical, living foundation by their undivided support. One dollar annually from each resident and property owner will support and secure to Sanford Library rooms, books and a librarian, as now is, but looking to that sweet day in the near future that will see a handsome building on the city library lot, conveniently situated as it is, between First and Second streets on Park avenue. Therefore, citizens, be prepared to do business with the committee appointed by the Library Association to see you in the near future.

On His Hogship

If any one thinks good hogs cannot be raised here they should see the fine one brought to Stockton's meat market this week. The hog was raised by F. E. Brewer and dressed out 492 pounds. You can't beat this in the country where they raise hogs for a living.

Socialist Meeting

Tonight at the corner of Park and First street J. L. Pitts will address the people of Sanford on the question of Socialism. A number of people here are becoming interested in Socialism and every one should hear Mr. Pitts on the subject.

ORANGE COUNTY IS DRY

Conditions are Satisfactory to Majority of The Voters

LARGE DRY MAJORITY RECORDED

Orlando and Sanford Spring Surprises On The Smaller Precincts By Going Dry

After a campaign remarkable for its oppressive calm Orange County has again been returned to the tall dry column by a majority of between 150 and 200 votes.

The campaign has been very quiet in every respect. Both sides were satisfied to adopt the still hunt method of going after votes and not a public speech was made during the campaign.

The dries were confident that Sanford and Orlando would give a dry majority and the wets were just a confident of a victory in the two cities. The result has been a great surprise to both sides Orlando giving 405 votes for selling and 163 against. Sanford stood about the same on the county election as on the state wide, the vote standing as follows. In Precinct 25, Against selling 125, for selling 119.

Precinct 3, against selling 176, for selling 173.

Total vote giving a majority of 9 votes against selling.

Several county precincts are to be heard from and the total cannot at this time be ascertained but from a rough estimate the returns will aggregate about 178 votes in the county against the sale of liquor. The vote by precincts will be given in the next issue of The Herald.

A Card From the Catholic Ladies

Through the ever obliging Herald we take this opportunity to thank those who so generously patronized our fair during the past week. Lucky indeed is Sanford in having so many public spirited, generous, liberal and enlightened citizens. We netted almost $400, a goodly sum, and in consequence we are installing electric lights in our pretty church and we have ordered an altar and an organ.

We beg to remind our Non-Catholic friends that the doors of our church are always open to them, for our God is their God and the old church is their mother.

THE CATHOLIC LADIES.

Make It Dry

To the Editor of The Herald:
Now that the people of Sanford have reaffirmed their preference for the law against selling intoxicating liquors will not the authorities respect the wishes of the people who placed them in power? Let us have a rigid and impartial enforcement of this sacred law rather than discrimination and fare.

Another Trolley Line

Surveyors are at work laying out the route for a new trolley line from Sanford to Kissimmee. The right of way has been granted them to come down Palmetto avenue to the Clyde Line dock. The company seems able to take care of this project and the further developments will be watched with much interest by the people living along the proposed route.

A Sunday Trip

OUT OF TOWN

Minnie E. Armstrong, Orlando	8,800
Cameron City Church	4,825
Miss Florence E. Kinney, Oviedo	3,200
Miss Nellie Amick, Orlando	1,500

The Popularity Contest has competed with the great Orange county fair, one of the greatest attractions ever in Florida; the charity ball in Sanford and Orlando, for which society consumed weeks in preparation; the famous Johnny J. Jones Carnival, to which everybody and their uncle went with bulging pockets with loose change for all the attractions; the coming of the Woodman of the World convention, for which the most elaborate preparations are demanding the attention of Sanford for the entertainment of the delegates; the daily society receptions, lectures and club meetings too numerous to mention, yet extensive in their elaborate individual interests. And of all attractions great and small in which Orange county has revolved, The Herald's Piano Contest is greatest of them all. The contestants' friends are taking such interest and expressed their determination to make Sanford the center of attraction of all Florida cities throughout this contest that the management, in response to many requests have as a special favor decided to continue the piano contest for a short time.

This will be for a very short time and it behooves every citizen to send their subscription for five years if possible, and for at least one year, and include at least one subscription with theirs and send at once. Write your name and address plainly and name your contestant and accurate credit will be given you.

It will not be long before one of the popular contestants will be awarded The Herald's elegant prize,

A $400 Piano

Your friends will gladly join you in this campaign to advertise Sanford and give you their subscriptions if you ask them. They want their name on the list.

The following schedule will be effective until the close of the contest:

Terms	Price	New and Renewal Subscriptions
1 Year	$ 2.00	2,000
2 Year	4.00	5,000
3 Year	6.00	10,000
5 Year	10.00	25,000
10 Year	15.00	50,000

Write your name plainly and address The Herald's Contest Editor, Mrs. M. F. Keyes, Sanford, Fla.

SUCCESSOR TO JUDGE BEGGS

Will be Appointed on Recommendation of County Executive Committee

The following communication from Gov. Gilchrist relative to the successor of Judge Beggs as Judge of the Criminal Court will be of interest to the people of Orange county:

Dr. B. C. Abernethy, Chairman Democratic County Executive Committee, Orlando, Fla.:

My Dear Sir—I have just been informed of the death of the Honorable James D. Beggs, Judge Criminal Court of Record for Orange County.

The vacancy caused in said office by the death of Judge Beggs will be filled upon the recommendation of a suitable person for such office by the Democratic County Executive Committee of Orange County, provided that recommendation is made at a meeting of the committee held with open doors, after due and timely notice to each and every member of the committee of the time and place of such meeting.

If the recommendation which the committee shall make will result in a vacancy in any other office in Orange county, the committee is requested at such meeting to make a suitable recommendation for the filling of such other vacancy.

A copy of this communication is being mailed to each member of the committee.

Very truly yours,
ALBERT W. GILCHRIST,
Governor.

The freeze ten years ago almost completely killed the orange industry in West Florida, but the Milton Gazette says that it is coming to the front again. Many thousand boxes were shipped the past season.

LOWER FREIGHT RATES

Rousing Meeting Will Be Held in Eagles Hall Tonight

ORANGE COUNTY TO ORGANIZE

Every Citizen Should Attend Meeting And Hear Gifted Orator On The Question

Orange county will line up with the other counties of Florida and the gulf states generally on behalf of the proposed canal across the peninsula connecting the Atlantic ocean with the Mississippi river.

Last week the Sanford Commercial Club adopted resolutions endorsing this great project and tonight, under its auspices, a public meeting is to be held in Eagles hall and an Orange county branch of the Mississippi to Atlantic Inland Waterway Association will be organized. U. S. Senator Duncan U. Fletcher is the president of this association which is waging an active campaign for cheap water transportation and doing for the South what the Lakes to the Gulf Waterway Association and the Atlantic Deep Sea Waterway Association are doing for the Mississippi Valley and the Atlantic Coast.

All the counties of the gulf states are being organized for strength as public sentiment must be aroused in order to create the demand for this waterway which alone produces action at Washington, Ecambia, Franklin, Putnam, Lake, Duval, St. Johns, Marion, and other counties in Florida have organized strong local branches of this association and are lending financial and moral support to the work.

Sanford, vitally interested by her great shipments cannot afford to take a back seat while other live sections of the South are fighting out the problem of cheaper freights. The benefits of water transportation are already realized here and the St. Johns being a part of the system of inland waterways now being surveyed by the government in this State, brings the matter close home.

At tonight's meeting Sanford will listen to one of the ablest exponents of transportation in the United States Mr. S. A. Thompson, field secretary of the great National Rivers and Harbors Congress which is a power in Washington and is doing a colossal educative work looking towards a national system of inland waterways.

Mr. Thompson has been a student of the transportation question for more than a quarter century and the facts which he will present at this meeting will be startling to those who have not given the subject special study and of profound interest to every farmer, merchant and business man in Orange county.

Accompanying him is the field secretary of the Mississippi to Atlantic Inland Waterway Association, Mrs. Maude Wood Henry, who is organizing branches of this association and who will talk informally on this specific project, following Mr. Thompson's address.

Letters from the Jacksonville Board of Trade urging Sanford to do her share in this campaign, preceded the coming of Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Henry. Jacksonville is backing the movement with great enthusiasm, as are all the leading cities and towns along the proposed waterway.

Come out to this interesting everybody. The success of the movement means a greater Sanford.

High School Notes

This school was represented by a team of five men in the Field Day at the Census Celebration in Tampa on February 18. The silver loving cup was captured for Arcadia by a team of fourteen men representing that place. The schools entering were, Plant City, Bradentown, Hillsborough High School, Bartow, Sanford, Lakeland and Arcadia. The day after the meet the boys attended the aviation meet, as an object lesson to the high-jumpers.

Washington's birthday, Rollins college held an inter-scholastic track meet at the driving park in Orlando, in which Sanford was represented by Osborne Herndon, Able Kanner and Vail Lovell. Sanford won first place in the 440 yard dash and high jump and third place in the 440 yard dash, 50 yard dash, broad jump and 220 yard dash.

Turner art exhibit being held in the high school auditorium.

Wednesday the Athletic Association held a meeting and it was decided to have a high school field day for the high school and grammar school. The day is fixed for March 23.
