

Juvenile Traffic Cases Show Marked Increase

PART 2 IN A SERIES

The number of traffic cases handled by the Juvenile Court totaled 13, an increase of 11 over the past three months period.

In the recent session of the legislature a law was passed authorizing the printing of the names of Juvenile Court traffic offenders. The effective date of this law was July 1 of this year.

It is planned to give the names of all traffic violators to the press at the end of each month," emphasized the Juvenile Judge, "and request that they print the names of the violators, the offense they are charged with, and the Court disposition of the case."

It should again be pointed out that the Juvenile Court is the only Court in the State of Florida which has the authority to suspend a violator's driver's license for all violations for whatever length of time the Judge of the Court desires.

In the majority of traffic violations in the Seminole County Juvenile Court driver's licenses are suspended for varying lengths of time.

It is hoped that the suspension of licenses, plus the future printing of the names of violators, will help decrease the traffic problem with respect to youthful drivers.

As has often been said, the intent and purpose of the Juvenile Court is to rehabilitate, rather than to punish.

The Juvenile Court Law proposes a plan whereby the child may be treated, not as a criminal, but as a ward of the state to receive practically the care, custody and discipline as that which should be given by parents.

The number of cases for the first six months of this year, however, disposed of by official court action and cases disposed of whereby no official court action was taken, total 409.

If this continues for the next six months of the year we will have approximately 1,000 cases referred to the Juvenile Court, a total which we certainly will not be proud of.

The number of dependent cases for this three month period total 28. This figure does not begin to reflect the seriousness of the problem of dependent children in Seminole County.

Only the most extreme dependency cases are referred to the Juvenile Court.

The number referred to the Juvenile Court would be greatly increased if the county had facilities to take care of these sorely neglected and abused children, who have the misfortune of being homeless, neglected, abused and otherwise dependent upon the public for support.

The County Commission is presently considering appropriating sufficient funds to finance a foster home program for dependent children in Seminole County. Those who are familiar with this problem and who have seen and dealt with dependent children know that any money appropriated for this program would be well spent.

"We cannot, in good conscience," Judge Mize emphasized, "continue to turn our backs on these children and leave them in a damaging environment and subject them to continued abuse on the part of their parents and others."

"Many people ask why stronger action is not taken against parents who abuse or neglect their children," said the Judge.

"If we had a place to put dependent children," he pointed out, "the criminal courts would then be able to punish the parents for their actions which cause these children to become dependent."

It should be pointed out, too, that the dependency problem is growing almost as fast as the delinquency problem and in many cases a child is both dependent and delinquent.

Also, a dependent child very often becomes a delinquent child at a later time largely because of his environment.

The placing of these dependent children in good foster homes should go a long way toward saving these children from becoming delinquent at a later time.

"I feel that if everyone gives a little thought and consideration to this problem," said the Juvenile Judge, "they will be in favor of the County's appropriating sufficient funds to finance a foster home plan."

THESE CHILDREN recently finished a two week basic swimming course bringing to 200 the number of children who have completed courses at the NAS base. More classes are slated for August, notification is given one week prior to the beginning of the course. The instructors shown above are Edith Arenel, Cindy Miller, Dot Stolpe, Jackie Caolo and Colleen Stewart.

No Tax Hike Seen In County Budget

The County Commission will be presented with the 1961-62 tentative budget Tuesday with no changes seen in the tax rate and the budget figure around the $2,000,000 mark.

The commission will hold its final informal hearing on the budget this afternoon to "iron out some of the trouble spots."

Chairman J. C. Hutchison said this morning that the commission has had $97,000 more in requests to be provided by the current six mills and "we had to trim and trim to stay within our six mill limit."

Last year's budget totaled $1,911,785 with $579,475 in the building fund; $95,400 in interest and sinking; $215,405 in fine and forfeiture; $512,521, general; and $508,963, road and bridge fund.

Hutchison also emphasized that no decision had been reached on Chamber of Commerce appropriations.

The Chamber has asked for an additional $5,000 in funds.

Chamber of Commerce officials will appear before the Commission Tuesday to cite reasons for an increase in funds.

Clerk Arthur Beckwith reported this morning that he hopes to advertise for budget hearings the first week in September.

A Herald Editorial

We Who Hesitate...

Tuesday morning members of the Chamber of Commerce will appear before the County Commission in hopes of getting an additional $5,000 in appropriations for the new year.

It is likely that the Commission will be polite but it is also likely that it already has made up its mind to keep the Chamber's budget at $10,000.

At an informal meeting last week to discuss the county's budget, two members of the county board argued for slashing the chamber's budget even more. Their arguments were that no tax dollar should be used to support that organization.

At the time, Chairman J. C. Hutchison asked one of the commissioners if he knew what a chamber was and if he were familiar with its job performance.

No one seemed to know.

Is our Chamber of Commerce getting the backing it needs from our public officials? From attending many public meetings recently and from reviewing the latest flux of letters to the editors, it appears not.

We all complain about the need for new industry here. Are we working and cooperating with the chamber to attract industry to our city and county? What have you done as an individual to secure industry? What has the County Commission, School Board or, even the City Commission done recently to help secure new industry and the much needed payrolls for the community.

New industries are coming to Florida all the time. These industries are going to communities where cooperation exists and all-out efforts are being made to attract payrolls—A small group of local men are giving much of their time and effort to interest small industry in locating here. Wouldn't it be nice if a public body should give its support and encouragement.

We should make up our minds. If we don't want new payrolls and progress, let's say so and stand still while the rest of the state grows.

But if we do want progress, let's do something about it. Let's help the few persons who are trying to bring industry here. If we can't help financially, then let's be boosters, not knockers.

Kimball Quits Zoning Post

Zoning Board Chairman Byron Kimball today submitted his letter of resignation to the County Commission.

Kimball has served on the board for two years and was elected chairman in January.

The contents of Kimball's letter were not made public today.

However, the Altamonte Springs realtor did deny that his resignation was a protest move and said that he was quitting because of an illness in his family.

Last week the County Commission overrode two Zoning Board decisions and District 2 County Commissioner James P. Avery declared that it "looked like the people involved here were being run over 'rough-shod' by the zoners."

Unrest Growing Among East Reds

BERLIN (UPI) — There were indications today of growing unrest among East German farmers in the face of Communist efforts to plug the Berlin escape route through the Iron Curtain.

Hundreds of Germans continued to evade Red checkpoints during the night and early this morning to bring to 4,000 the number of refugees who fled to West Berlin during the weekend.

All were in a rush to cross into West Berlin for fear the escape route might be cut off even before any peace treaty between the Soviet Union and its puppet German regime is signed.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has threatened to sign a treaty by the end of the year, but some Germans feared the alarming flow of refugees might force his hand earlier.

Paul Froehlich, Communist Party Central Committee member, in a speech in Berlin, said "some farmers have the illusion they can return to private farming."

"Some are threatening error," he added without elaboration. In the obscure language of Marxism, "error" can be anything from a suppressed desire for freedom to open revolt.

Gerhart Eisler, top East German propagandist since he skipped the United States, warned that the government would use "force" to halt the flow of refugees.

Hungarian Plane Down; 24 Die

VIENNA (UPI) — A Hungarian airliner crashed in a Budapest suburb Sunday, killing all 24 persons on board, Budapest radio announced today.

The victims included 20 passengers and a crew of four. While the announcement did not say so, the victims were believed to have been aboard a DC3 type aircraft used by the Hungarian Malev airline, which conducts Sunday sight-seeing tours over Budapest.

The airline uses a number of old Soviet-built planes and small Western-built aircraft. For its long runs, Malev uses exclusively Russian-built planes.

Registration Set For New High School Students

All students who were not in attendance in the Sanford schools during the past school year, and who are presently living in the area served by Seminole High School, are requested to report to the administration building at Seminole High School on Tuesday, at 9 a. m.

At this time students will be counseled and assigned class schedules for the coming fall semester.

10 Killed On Roads

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — At least 10 persons were killed in traffic accidents on Florida roads during the weekend, the state Highway Patrol reported today.

Two Floridians Die In Electric Chair

RAIFORD (UPI) — Norman J. Mackiewicz, a war hero turned murderer, and Robert W. Davis, a homosexual turned rapist, died in the electric chair at Raiford State Prison today after delivering final statements and willing their eyes to the blind.

Their deaths were the 186th and 187th since Florida began using the electric chair in 1921, and were the first in 14 months.

Warden DeWitt Sinclair said both men were calm when they entered the execution chamber and sat in the chair.

Mackiewicz went first. The show was thrown for the first time at 8:28 a. m. and he was pronounced dead at 8:43 after an additional shock. Davis followed at 8:53 and a prison physician pronounced him dead at 9 a. m.

Sinclair said no relatives had claimed either body. If they are not claimed, they will be buried in the prison cemetery outside the institution's walls.

Dog Show

Boys and girls under 16 years of age, should be grooming their dogs this week in preparation for the Mutt Show, which will take place at Memorial Stadium on Mellonville Ave. Saturday at 9:30 a. m.

Entry blanks are available at the Jaycee office on French Ave., at the Recreation Dept. and from the food stores.

The show is being held under the auspices of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees and sponsored by the makers of Kennel Ration and Quaker Oats companies.

Besides the two top-prize wrist watches, the two companies are donating many other prizes. Among them are dog leashes, tee shirts, armbands, sun visors, balloons, candy and bonnets on dog care.

King, Queen Crowned At Program's End

Miss Brenda Carter and Billy Bracken were crowned the Queen and King of the Sanford Playgrounds at festivities at the Civic Center, Friday.

The crowning of the two, who were chosen by playground supervisors from a selection of eight candidates, climaxed the big show put on by all the city playgrounds to wind up another successful summer recreation program.

Preceding the coronation ceremonies when Brenda and Billy had the "golden crowns" placed on their heads by Recreation Director, Jim Jernigan, the court and the audience were entertained with a talent show put on by each school.

Brenda Carter was the choice of the Grammar School playground and Billy Bracken had been chosen from the Southside group.

Other candidates were Donna Ashby and Hank Ashby, brother and sister from the Fort Mellon Park playground; Colleen Gay and Ralph Quilong from Pinecrest; Martha Ross from Southside and Vincent Stowell from Grammar School.

On display at the Civic Center were arts and crafts work, dolls and hobbies.

Awards were made to the champions in the fields of badminton, horseshoes, checkers, chess, dominoes and croquet.

Travel Ban May Be Lifted

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI) — A travel ban that went into effect over the weekend as a preliminary to a currency changeover by the Cuban government was scheduled to be lifted tonight.

The government halted all ship and plane travel in and out of Cuba over the weekend to prevent refugees from taking money out of the country.

Spaceman Lands Successfully

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union's second space man landed successfully today from a journey that whirled him more than 17 times around the earth in slightly more than 25 hours. His journey was nearly equal to the distance of a round trip to the moon.

Radio Moscow said Maj. Gherman S. Titov, a 28-year-old Air Force officer, landed "exactly in the planned area" of the Soviet Union following his historic flight.

The United States plans an orbital trip by one of its astronauts late this year or early in 1962.

The official Tass news agency said Titov came down about 400 to 450 miles southeast of Moscow, not far from the landing place of pioneer space man Maj. Yuri Gagarin on April 12.

Titov was believed to have been launched early Sunday from the same place as Gagarin near Oyura Tam, in the desert wastes east of the Aral Sea and southwest of Moscow.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev spoke to Titov by telephone shortly after he landed and praised his feat as an "heroic deed."

Titov told Khrushchev that his trip involved 17½ circuits of the earth, and the Soviet premier hailed him for having "fulfilled mankind's dream" of cosmic flight.

Then Khrushchev told Titov he was immediately promoted to full membership in the Communist party, being advanced from "candidate member," and promised him a personal welcome of great magnitude when he returned to Moscow—probably later this week.

Titov was promoted from captain to major while he still was in orbit.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congressional demands for a speedup in the U. S. space program increased today and there were indications the target date for putting the first American into orbit might be moved up.

The successful orbiting of the second Soviet cosmonaut brought new pressure from the Senate and House for space agency officials to send a U. S. astronaut around the earth this year.

Chairman Richard S. Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee and Chairman Orverton Brooks (D-S. C.) of the House Space Committee were among legislators urging spurred U. S. space efforts.

Lt. Col. John Powers, spokesman for the U. S. man-in-space program, said it would be possible for this country to "buy time" in its space effort by devoting money and talent to achieving orbital flight. This would mean abandoning any plans for more suborbital flights.

Present U. S. plans call for putting one of the seven U. S. astronauts into orbit late this year or early next, with most experts betting on 1961. Brooks wants this country to orbit a man by November.

George M. Low, chief of the space agency's manned flight program, said it would be "quite some time yet" before the United States could duplicate Russia's feat of keeping a man in prolonged orbit.

NASA authorities said that after a space ship makes three orbits of the earth, it is necessary to go on to 17 before the vehicle is in position to come down at the planned landing area. This is because of the spin and tilt of the earth.

Three orbits will be attempted in the first U. S. round-the-world space flight. A 17-orbit trip is expected sometime around the end of 1962. To that extent it can be said the Soviets are some 18 months ahead of this country.

The United States plans three preliminary Mercury men-in-space shots with an Atlas missile booster in the immediate future.

Bulletin

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev told the world tonight that Russia may have to strengthen its military position and call up military reservists if the international situation is not improved shortly.

By LARRY VERNHEIL

The tentative budget presented to the County Commission Tuesday will be loaded down with plenty of shocks. One thing we hear is that the commission took a "searching look at the Agricultural Department's Budget and eliminated the Home Demonstration Agent from the budget. Although none of the commissioners told us this, rumors were flying all through the courthouse last week and we hear that this is the WORD.

Word also is around that the commission refused to go along with Tax Assessor Mary Kerk's proposal for an increase in the property tax. We also hear that there won't be any increase for the health department and that the only department that will get its full request will be the sheriff's office.

You might as well get accustomed to reading about budgets—they will be big items this week. The City Commission has called a special budget meeting tonight to go over its 1961-62 budget.

The County School Board will meet at 9:30 a. m. Thursday to review the 1961-62 budget. However, we hear that there won't be any change in the millage despite a $7 million raise in non-exempt property.

If you still haven't learned to swim, please note that this year's final classes for adults begin tonight at the Municipal pool at 7 p. m. and Tuesday at the Navy pool at 8 p. m. Put on your bathing suit, go on down and learn to swim. It may save your life.

Tuesday afternoon is the deadline for merchants to turn in advertising copy for the Friday Night "Specials" promotions.

THESE TWO trucks collided Friday at the intersection of SR 436 and SR 434 near Forest City. Highway Patrol Trooper said a 1950 panel truck driven by Harvey Lanier Love, Orlando was going west on 436 when a pick-up truck driven by David James Lassiter of Clearmont pulled out in front of him. Love's vehicle hit Lassiter's broadside knocking the truck into the ditch. Lassiter was charged with running a stop sign by Patrolman J. L. Sikes.

PETE MCKNIGHT, retired Navy: "I can't see why this hasn't been done before, it's something that Sanford has needed for a long time."

MISS KATHY CARLOS, bank clerk: "I think having prizes in a good idea. It certainly is fine for working girls to be able to shop at night."

MISS BONNIE COX, college student: "It's nice for working people who can't get to town during the day."

DAVE SAWYERS, railroad: "This looks like good business, with all these people in the stores. I'd say it is well worth the effort."

MRS. PEG HORNER, swimmer: "When husbands get home late it's wonderful to be able to go shopping after supper."

MRS. RUTH MARLON, secretary: "It's a good idea. I'm surprised to see so many people."

MRS. LIDA STINE: "It's just like the old days in Sanford, when we all used to come to town on Saturday night. I think it's grand."

Shoppers Say, 'Just Like Old Days!'

"It's just like the old-fashioned Saturday night shopping back in the 'good old days,'" seemed to be the most frequent remark heard from many people in the throngs that surged through the stores in downtown Sanford Friday night.

The first time in years that all stores have been open later than 6 p. m. in Sanford, except for just before Christmas, brought thousands of shoppers out in the cool of the evening to buy, not only the advertised sale items, but all lines of merchandise.

"Less than five percent of my total volume of business Friday night was in sales promotion items," said Ralph Cowan, owner and manager of Cowan's Dept. Store. "I am more than satisfied with the results."

As early as 7 p. m. the crowds were so heavy in some stores that it was impossible for more than a few people to get service. Franchise clerks and managers scurried around trying to get to everyone and the cash registers jangled a merry tune.

Charles Robinson of Penney's said, "I just wish I had had more sales clerks in the store; our people just couldn't get around to everyone, we were so jammed with shoppers. I was pleased to see so many families shopping. I think Friday night should be Family Shopping Night in Sanford."

"We're going to have to have more sales help on Friday nights," said C. L. Redding, McCrory's manager. "The response was wonderful."

It appeared that many families made a real family night out, taking advantage of the evening shopping by coming in for dinner in the drugstores, restaurants and other eating establishments, as well as doing their week's shopping. Many stopped for refreshments with friends whom they met downtown.

"Such a convenience!" . . . "Just what I've been needing!" . . . "This is really nice!" . . . were some of the comments heard by observers walking through the crowds on the sidewalks and in the shops and stores.

Many women observed, happily, "Now my husband can come along and help with the children."

B. L. Perkins Jr. of Perkins Men's Shop noted, "We had many families shopping in our store. Men with their wives and children — something that it is almost impossible for a man to do in the daytime. We were very much satisfied with the results of the Friday night open hours."

"We enjoyed seeing people we haven't seen in a long time, from around in the county and from the fringe areas. And we did a very fine business all evening," said Jack Hall, owner of Yowell's Dept. Store.

Before 9 p. m. the crowds began converging on the platform at the corner of First and Magnolia, where radio station WSMR had set up portable equipment and played music throughout the evening.

Promptly at 9 p. m., as the stores closed, clerks brought the boxes of ticket stubs to be deposited in the wire cage and thoroughly shaken up to begin the drawing.

Blonde little Susan DeWit was chosen out of the crowd to reach into the cage for the tickets. The owner of the first ticket had apparently gone home, but the second drawing brought up winner A. J. Walker, a retired railroad man and a resident of Sanford for 30 years.

"Yes sir! We're going to take that trip to Nassau, my wife and I," said Walker. "Just what we needed."

In the absence of E. C. Harper Jr. of the Downtown Merchants Assn. who has been heading up the promotion and advertising campaign prior to the Friday night open hours, the late evening activities were in charge of Charles Tetanbaum, vice-chairman of the Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Emcee of the drawing was Paul Lewis, manager of the Sanford Credit Bureau, assisted by Robert Walton, WSMR engineer.

While waiting for the drawing to begin, the crowd was entertained at an exhibition of square dancing by the Starlight Promenaders, a local dance group under the direction of Harold Jenkins.

Bazaar Committee Gets Paintings

Mrs. Mary Bernitter of DeBary Court has donated two of her own paintings to the St. Ann Catholic Church for sale at the Nov. 7 Bazaar to be held in DeBary Plaza.

The pictures are entitled "Lincoln's Birthplace" and "Girl With a Cat."

Mrs. Bernitter, who has natural artistic talent, received further training from the pons at St. Francis de Sales School of Ossian, Iowa, while a student there.

She also has donated to the Bazaar Committee, two high-heeled dolls which she outfitted in hand-crocheted dresses.

It's hard to give away a million dollars, says a banker. Maybe because you have to get it first.

Survivors Plan Large Reunion

FORT MYERS (UPI)—Survivors of the World War Two Bataan Death March will hold their third and largest reunion so far in Fort Myers this weekend.

Dan Irwin, a Fort Myers laboratory technician who thought up the idea, said he expected more than 50 death march veterans from throughout the country to show up for the two-day opening Friday night.

A big item on the informal agenda is groundwork on a 10th anniversary reunion next year in Manila. Irwin said Philippine Government officials already have promised help on the return trip to Bataan and Corregidor next April.

The annual reunion began two years ago when Irwin invited 11 other survivors of the march to his home for a visit. Since then he hasn't had to do much inviting, as stories on the get-together received national circulation.

Foreign Aid Debate On Again

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate was set today to resume debate on President Kennedy's controversial $8.8 billion long range foreign aid program. Debate over the tough advance planning proposal and the $13 billion foreign aid program for the current fiscal year began last week.

The measure is believed to have a favorable chance of passage in the Senate but trouble has been brewing in the House, especially over the provision for Treasury borrowing without prior congressional review.

Thirty House Democratic backers of the President's bill Sunday asked for assurances the money would not be wasted. They said they approved the aims of the program but felt compelled to be "constructively critical" in view of past waste.

Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., Chairman J. William Fulbright, (D-Ark.), of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and New York's two GOP senators, Jacob K. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating, all spoke out for the five-year borrowing authority.

But Chairman Otto E. Passman, (D-La.), of the House Appropriations Committee that oversees foreign aid spending, and GOP conservative spokesman Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, Ariz., criticized the measure as "unconstitutional" and "dangerous."

Other congressional news: Hijacking: The Senate aviation subcommittee was expected to approve today legislation to make plane hijacking a crime punishable by life imprisonment. Chairman A. S. (Mike) Monroney, (D-Okla.), predicted the subcommittee members would vote approval at a closed hearing and send the measure to the Senate Commerce Committee.

UAW Threaten Strike Vote

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers today threatened to ask for a strike vote from 310,000 General Motors workers if no progress is made in new contract negotiations this week.

UAW vice president Leonard Woodcock, after a series of week-end regional meetings with local union officials, said he found wholehearted rank and file support behind a move to get strike machinery in motion at GM.

Woodcock said the 11-member UAW bargaining committee at GM has voted to ask the union's international executive board to authorize a strike vote because of a lack of progress at the bargaining table.

The same strike authorization request may also be made for 120,000 Ford workers, and 60,000 Chrysler employees represented by the union.

U. S. SECRETARY of State Dean Rusk arrived in Paris, France, for the first meeting of the Western Big Three foreign ministers. Rusk will strive to persuade France and England to take the Soviet threat to Berlin as seriously as the United States does during the 4-day meeting.

West Ministers To Talk Over Red Crisis In Asia

PARIS (UPI) — Agreement on how to meet the Soviet threat to Berlin today allowed the United States and its European Allies to plan against the Communist menace in other parts of the world.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and the British, French and West German foreign ministers agreed Sunday night to give Russia the choice of "reasonable" peace talks on Berlin or tough military measures backed by an economic blockade.

Rusk, British Foreign Secretary Lord Home and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville resumed their talks here this morning with discussions on Laos, Viet Nam, Korea and the Congo.

The German phase of the talks, dealing with the crisis touched off by Russia's threat to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany, was completed. West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano planned to return to Bonn this afternoon.

On what appeared to be a broad general agreement on Western policy in the face of the announced Communist intention to sign a peace treaty before the end of the year, the ministers

Will It Be Too Late?

Seminole County is learning that Americans are the "Funnest People."

You can whip this nation's people into a frenzy about vitamins, vitamins and vitamin-ides.

But you can't excite them about Civil Defense.

You can make the population see red about high taxes, few services or inequalities allegedly suffered at the hands of some government agency.

But you can't stir up an argument against the Red Tide of Communism.

Everyone wants to survive the effects of nuclear bombing.

And no one wants to see Communism swallow up free nations.

But (with a yawn) these things are like the weather . . . you talk about them. And do as little as possible without looking like an unimaginative traitor.

What do people do who realize the potential danger? They work, in small but devoted groups, to right the situation of public apathy and their accomplishments go unrewarded.

But eventually something will happen that sets the public awag and all of a sudden we will have a real national kick-off . . . sense and anti-Red . . .

America is a lethargic giant and she may awaken slowly but once she does the CD and anti-Red movements will be recognized and they'll go like a house afire.

We only hope that all America hasn't been destroyed before the value and results of such organizations capture the national imagination.

There is no doubt that CD facilities in the county are hopelessly inadequate. We need some sort of warning system—whether it be a skeleton operation or full scale one.

We hope the County Commission at these budget meetings seriously will consider CD Director A. B. Peterson's request for additional funds.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE J-401: Harry N., aged 33, has been divorced twice.

"Dr. Crane," he protested, "what is wrong with me? In my first marriage, I thought my wife was largely to blame."

"But after my second divorce, I am wondering if maybe it is my fault."

"How can a man be sure his marriage will be a permanent affair?"

There are 5 basic hungers of a wife that must be fairly well satisfied if a husband is to be sure he will have a permanently happy home.

Before I mention them, however, I'd like to suggest that if more of you men would seek the help of our Scientific Marriage Foundation, you would meet better matrimonial prospects.

The divorcee batting average of the Scientific Marriage Foundation is less than one percent against a national average of about 20 percent.

Therein we introduce couples of the same religion, educational background, ideals, hobbies, etc., so most of the basic patterns are alike.

If they then fall in love, they need not fret about serious feuds AFTER the wedding because of difference in race, religion, hobbies, etc.

Now for the 5 basic hungers of a wife: first, she craves daily compliments to keep her ego properly inflated.

Compliments may be verbal, as when you tell her in words that you appreciate her cooking, or the non-verbal type wherein you smile happily when you reach home and give her a movie type of kiss.

A man who praises his wife seldom will lose her, even if he fails to satisfy the remaining 4 hungers adequately, for women want words!

"Dr. Crane," thousands of wives thus have protested, "I feel as if I shall go berserk if my husband doesn't quit being a Sphinx."

"He doesn't talk enough. He slumps in front of TV or reads the paper and his entire evening vocabulary is 'huh' and 'uhuh.' I could scream!"

Mes, your wives want words, especially saccharine, complimentary ones. It's also much cheaper to pay a daily bit of praise than a monthly alimony check!

The second hunger of wives is for affection. But they are not passionate creatures as measured by the masculine standard.

A kiss and hug are usually all they crave, so here is where the big sex difference exists between the sexes.

Those evidences of affection are the "end" of a pleasant movie date in the mind of the average wife, but are regarded as just the "appetizer" for the husband.

Woman's third basic hunger is to "mother" something. This is preferably a child of her own, or youngsters in a Sunday School class or Scout Troop.

FRENCH DRESSING

From Rome

Henry McLemore

ROME, Italy — Let a man write a newspaper column long enough and he'll be the smartest man in the world.

His readers will educate him with their letters.

If he writes about free balloon ascensions, a hundred authorities will write pointing out mistakes and setting him straight.

The same is true if he writes a column dealing with covered bridges, stained glass windows, the night habits of the tapir, the boyhood pranks of Johann Bach, or indirect lighting for dead-end streets.

For proof, I had a letter today from George Siau, Jr., of North Las Vegas, Nevada. Shocked by my ignorance of judo (see column of June 22nd) he gave me four single-spaced pages of judo information.

Two more letters from George and I will be qualified to lecture on the subject and handle any desperado who sneaks up behind me in the dark.

I intimated that judo was a rough sport, in which a man was likely to have a bone broken or a muscle torn. How wrong I was.

"Judo is the gentle way," writes George, and to prove it quotes a remark by the Master Judo man, Mr. Mifune, written on his 70th birthday.

"There is no boundary in the way of gentleness, and the heart that softens shall have no enemy. Let us go hand in hand with the people of the world, to build the paradise of peace. This and this only is the genuine way of gentleness."

That's a pretty sentiment, no doubt about it, and I like to think that it was composed while Mr. Mifune was hurling an opponent as high as a silo.

"There are no deep secrets in judo, nor is the sport surrounded by mysticism, as you inferred," George writes. "If such a secret existed in judo, it could best be explained by the Ball and Cone, the one mobile, quick, elusive; the other steady, firmly poised, sharp, yet in repose."

See how wrong I was in thinking there was anything of mysticism in judo. The Ball and Cone are as clear as Grecian air, and I thank George for setting me straight.

No sport involving thought of the Ball and Cone could be obscure.

There's only one thing George didn't straighten me out on, and I hope he will do so in his next letter. And that is this: What is the Army taught me under the name of judo? I had three weeks of the stuff when I was taking my infantry basic training, and it might not have been mystic, but it was rough. There was nothing gentle about it. The sergeant who taught me had never read Mr. Mifune's words.

There were many mornings, when the sergeant was throwing me up to land on frozen ground, that I wasn't sure whether I would survive to meet the enemy.

And when he would grab my throat and twist my arms and make pretzels of my legs, it would have been hard to convince me that judo was soft, gentle, and body-building.

The sergeant said it was judo he was teaching me and the other recruits, and that it would stand us in good stead if we ever met the Japs. It would have, too, if the Japs used a gentle judo against us. We would have torn them limb from limb with the American type judo.

Let me hear from you, George. And give Wilbur Clark my best. Gene Murphy, too.

State Climbing Out Of Recession

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida is continuing its slow climb out of the recent recession, despite a record June figure for unemployment. Industrial Commission Chairman Worley Brown said Thursday.

Brown said the total of 134,000 unemployed, record monthly high, was caused by the influx into the labor market of high school and college graduates.

Approximately 33 percent of all snapshots now are taken in color.

A "pride" of lions may consist of as many as 60 of these animals.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Impact of President Kennedy's proposed increases in military spending on the U.S. economy as a whole is not expected to be too great.

The program is not regarded as inflationary. No controls over prices or wages or credit or profits or priorities are called for. And there is further good news for business and consumers in that no tax increases are called for this year, while a balanced budget is promised for next year.

The White House has given instructions to Treasury and Budget Bureau that their officials shall not discuss tax receipts and spending levels at which the budget will be balanced in 1963.

The reason is that the figures have not been determined. They will be presented in the budget message which the President sends Congress next January for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1962.

The $3.45 billion in additional military appropriations asked for now will be spent $2.74 billion in the current fiscal year ending June 30, 1962, and the balance later.

Increased expenditures of $2.74 billion this year will bring Department of Defense spending to $47.5 billion this year and total budget spending to $87.7 billion.

With tax receipts now estimated at $82.4 billion, this would mean a deficit of $5.3 billion for the year.

This assumes, however, that Congress will vote the President everything he has asked for so far, including the $800 million in increased postal revenue and the $1.74 billion in added receipts from closing tax loopholes on expense accounts, dividends, capital gains on real estate sales and foreign income which now escapes taxation.

The President was able to get in a good plug for these measures in his speech to the nation. But if Congress does not approve them, then the budget deficit next June 30 will be $2.5 billion greater, or $7.8 billion.

This is only one 60 per cent as large as the 1953 depression year deficit of $13 billion, so it is considered bearable.

What the Kennedy Administration is counting on heavily in its promise for a 1963 balanced budget is an increase in gross national product over the next two years, averaging around $10 billion a quarter.

GNP for the second quarter of calendar year 1961 was $14 billion over the first quarter, making the annual GNP rate $315 billion as of June 30. Two years from now, at a $40 billion annual increase, it would be $395 billion.

This obviously would generate an annual increase in tax receipts of from $3 billion to $4 billions and create a budget surplus.

There is an idea kicking around among Washington economists that with continued business improvement, total demand for goods will be raised enough to increase employment. Unemployment would then be reduced and a real budget surplus would develop.

If this latent surplus is not absorbed by continued increases in national defense spending, then the way will be paved for a tax reduction.

The catch here is that government spending increases tend to stick. And even if the huffing and puffing over the Berlin crisis ends this year in negotiation and a peaceful settlement instead of a shooting war, it may still be difficult to get government appropriations cut back again.

Many of the Republican Congressmen and anti-Kennedy Democrats reacted to the Kennedy speech by supporting the increased defense expenditures, but saying this should be offset by cutting back on other government spending.

But in some cases this is an excuse for opposing Kennedy legislative programs they are really fighting against for other reasons. Federal aid to education is a prime example.

An expanding economy and high economic growth rates give the Kennedy administration one of its best arguments for saying that many of the things it wants to do can be done because the country can afford them without raising taxes.

Letters

To The Editor

Open Letter To Mr. Krider:

By your own admission and quoting your own figures, Mr. Krider, you stated at the recent School Board meeting that out of $26,000,000 in construction 96% was residential and only 1% was commercial. I can only guess that the 350 business and industrial leaders haven't started yet to produce. We are waiting! Real estate sales and employment figures do not reflect prosperity!

For your information, I did contribute a small share to that 1% of commercial building when — on my own — I brought a business from closing tax loopholes on expense accounts, dividends, capital gains on real estate sales and foreign income which now escapes taxation.

The Chamber of Commerce derive benefits when you bring business into the area. The county pays me nothing to operate my business! I pay the county for the privilege.

Why must you accuse people with whom you disagree of "having ulterior motives"? I have no one in mind for the "political appointee" job as you call it. I suggest only that he be experienced, qualified and a man who is already a successful business man. Believe me, I would have very little influence. Our present Commissioners, thank goodness, aren't rubber stamps and are proving that each can think for himself.

If my political efforts had even the slightest effect in bettering the county, my "talents and time" were well rewarded. Time I did GIVE — and plenty of it. The combined efforts of a lot of people — the voters in Seminole County — did the "something constructive" at the last election. I hope they will keep right on doing everything in their power to make this a good place in which to live. I hope also that they won't be intimidated for their efforts by the so-called leaders in the community who disagree with them.

Sorry, I do not think contributing to the Chamber of Commerce, as it is now operated, is "something constructive" as far as the taxpayers in general are concerned.

Florence Harris, Realtor.

Can Mantle Do It Now?

United Press International
Can Mickey Mantle do in eight weeks what Babe Ruth did in four?

Eight weeks is the time Mantle has left to hit the 17 home runs that would enable him to tie the Babe's revered record of 60. Sounds easy, doesn't it? Especially after the way "The Mick" vaulted 19 games ahead of Ruth's record pace Sunday when he hit three homers during the course of a 15-inning 7-6 and 3-2 doubleheader sweep against the Minnesota Twins.

Back in 1927 when Ruth set his record, he hit 17 homers during the last four weeks of the season. That September barrier has thwarted baseball's greatest home run hitters who sought to break the Babe's record during the past 33 years.

And now Mantle has hit 43 with nearly eight weeks left in the season. Projecting his present pace through a 162-game schedule, Mantle would wind up with 68 homers.

Of course, there's a question whether Mantle could reach 60 by the 154th game of the season, as prescribed by Commissioner Ford Frick. In the meantime, Mantle will keep shooting for that "short porch" in Yankee Stadium in an effort to make that question strictly academic.

Mantle's homers helped the Yankees widen their American League lead to 2½ games over the Detroit Tigers, who split a doubleheader with the Cleveland Indians. The Tigers won the opener, 2-1, but lost the second, 3-5.

In other AL games, the Chicago White Sox swept a twin bill from the Washington Senators, 5-4 and 3-2; the Kansas City Athletics edged the Boston Red Sox, 1-0, after losing the doubleheader opener, 4-2; and the Los Angeles Angels-Baltimore Orioles game was rained out in the third inning.

The Los Angeles Dodgers took over a lead of one percentage point in the National League race when they defeated the Chicago Cubs, 11-4. The Cincinnati Reds dropped back to second place by splitting a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Reds won the nightcap, 3-2 in 10 innings, after dropping the first game, 9-4.

The San Francisco Giants edged the Milwaukee Braves, 4-3, and the St. Louis Cardinals swept a twin bill from the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-1 and 3-2.

By an odd quirk of mathematics, the Reds, who have played five more games than the Dodgers, actually had a half-game lead in the won-and-lost standings although Los Angeles' had the better winning percentage, .619 to .618.

Mantle's three homers — two in the first game — gave him the major league leadship, two ahead of teammate Roger Maris. The blow also moved him past Joe DiMaggio and into ninth place on the all-time homer-hitting list with a career total of 363.

Despite Mantle's blast, it took two dinker hits to win both games for the Yankees. Yogi Berra drove in the winning run in the 15th inning of the opener by barely beating the relay to first base on his potential double play grounder. John Blanchard tied the score in the 10th with a homer after Bill Tuttle had hit one to put the Twins ahead in the top half of the inning. Rookie Hal Resnik was credited with his first major league victory in relief.

In the nightcap, Cleis Boyer singled home Mantle in the sixth inning to earn rookie Roland Sheldon his eighth triumph.

Don Mossi held the Indians to three hits and Bill Bruton singled home the winning run in the seventh inning of Detroit's first-game victory. In the nightcap, Jim (Doc) Grant survived a 10-hit attack and pitched the distance for his 11th win. Don Dillard and Tito Francona hit back-to-back homers for the Indians, who broke open the game with a four-run, seventh-inning rally.

The White Sox scored a run in the sixth inning of both games to beat the Senators. Roy Sievers' infield forecrot brought home the winning run in the opener and made a winner of reliever Warren Hacker. An error by Washington's tie-breaking run in the eighth as Billy Pierce pitched an eight-hitter. Dale Long homered in each game for Washington.

Jim Archer pitched a four-hit shutout for Kansas City to win the second game after the Red Sox had won the opener with the help of Chet Nichols' airtight 2 2/3-inning relief job. In the National League, Maury Wills hit his first major league homer and Frank Howard added another to ease the way to Johnny Podres' 14th win. Podres yielded 10 hits, including homers by Billy Williams and Don Zimmerman.

Vada Pinson's two-out 10th-inning homer capped a Cincinnati comeback that beat Pittsburgh in the nightcap. Jim Brosnan, who pitched three hitless relief innings, was credited with his seventh victory.

In the first game, Don Hoak and Roberto Clemente hit homers to send 15-game winner Joey Jay down to his seventh defeat. Clem Labine's 5 2/3-inning shutout relief stint saved the victory for Vinegar Bend Mizell. Gene Youssef and Wally Post hit Cincinnati homers.

Stu Miller was summoned from the bullpen with two men on base in the sixth and struck out Frank Bolling to clinch the Giants' victory over the Braves. Matty Alou's two-run homer provided the Giants with their winning margin. Joe Adcock homered to touch off Milwaukee's two-run ninth inning rally.

Ray Seccchi drove in all three runs and pitched a four-hitter in the Cards' opening-game victory over the Phils. In the second game, Carl Sawatski's bases-loaded single in the ninth drove in the winning run and made a winner of Bob Gibson.

Musson Takes Speed Classic

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — By 10 points, the Miss Bardahl was the "world's champion" hydroplane today, and her owner, Ole Bardahl, a millionaire, was $10,000 richer.

Under the deft handling of Ron Musson, a lead-footed water jockey from Akron, Ohio, the "green dragon" won the world championship event Sunday in Seattle's three-race regatta for unlimited class speedboats.

Youngster Gets First Decision

KANSAS CITY (UPI) — After pitching in 38 major league games young Tracy Stallard of the Red Sox finally was involved in a decision, and today he'd probably be just as happy if it never had happened.

The 23-year-old Red Sox right-hander pitched just about the best game of his brief big league career Sunday when he yielded five hits in seven innings against the Athletics. But he gave up just one run and was charged with the defeat.

CELEBRATING his retirement from the U. S. Navy, after twenty years of service, Chief Joe Falgione and his wife, Lois, invited all their friends to an outdoor fish fry at their home on Pinecrest Drive last week.

The Falgiones have a beautiful back yard where they have both spent many long hours of labor. They transformed it into a garden spot, complete with patio, fireplace, covered picnic table, lights and comfortable lounge chairs, surrounded and beautified it with plantings of shrubs and flowers of every kind.

To this place both Navy and civilian friends came to congratulate Joe, wish him luck in his civilian life and say that they are glad that the family is going to stay in Sanford. Many humorous gifts were given, including a hugely enlarged picture of the ceremonies at the naval air station when he was "piped over the side."

About 75 people called during the evening, enjoying the fish fry and other refreshments served until a very late hour.

Lighted flambeaus decorated the patio where music was playing for dancing. Other guests enjoyed swinging in the old-fashioned porch swing which the Falgiones have transported into the backyard and covered with a thatched roof of palmfronds.

The Falgiones came to Sanford in 1955 and Lois and their two daughters, Pam, 12, and Linda, 9, have resided here most all that time except for a year spent in Jacksonville.

Joe, however, as typical of Navy men here, has been away most of the time with one squadron or another in various parts of the world.

Civilian Falgione has accepted a job in communications with the Missile Test Project of RCA at Patrick AFB, and will assume his duties there after a short vacation.

The Falgiones are members of All Souls Catholic Church and Lois is assistant leader of Girl Scout Troop 280.

MISS PENNY ANDERSON leaves Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. H. E. Anderson, and two brothers, Marion, 16, and Buster, 15, for a dual purpose trip to South Dakota.

Besides a vacation for the family, (except for Mr. Anderson who like many a father has to stay on the job) this will be the preliminary step toward Penny's entering college.

She plans to attend Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S. D. This is the Andersons original home and Penny wants to attend school with her cousins who are in college there.

She plans to follow a course of study in medical technology, with help from the scholarship and awards that she won during her high school career.

Some of the honors which she won, several of which include cash or checks to help pay college costs and tuition were the following:

Second place in the state in the Civitan Citizenship Essay contest, the American Legion Award of Honor, Rotary Award for the top student at BHS, Fleet Reserve scholarship award and the Jaycees Past Presidents Scholarship Award.

If Penny does as well at the university as she did at Seminole High, many more honors are sure to be coming her way.

The travelers will go by way of Memphis and visit former friends there, and Mrs. Anderson, Marion and Buster will return in about one month, for the beginning of school here.

Mrs. Anderson is secretary to Gordon Frederick at his law offices here and Mr. Anderson is a retired Navy Mechanic now employed at Finrock Industries in Orlando.

Shred 5 cups of green cabbage very fine. Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine in a heavy skillet. Add the cabbage, cover and cook for 10 minutes. Remove cover, toss cabbage with a fork and turn up the fire if water has accumulated.

When moisture has disappeared and the cabbage starts to brown, turn to low and sprinkle a tablespoon of flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt and a little pepper over it. Then add 1/2 cup sour cream, heat to bubbling and serve.

Judith Cogburn And Robert Lawrence Married At Ceremony In Gainesville

Miss Judith Ann Cogburn, daughter of the late Maxwell Benjamin Cogburn of Sanford and Mrs. Roy Edwards Tew, formerly of Sanford, became the bride of Robert Gordon Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lawrence of Decatur, Ala., Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church, Gainesville, Fla.

The bride's grandparents are Mrs. Roscoe Conklin Long and the late Mr. Long, and Mrs. Charles Henry Cogburn and the late Mr. Cogburn of Sanford.

Minister of the church, Dr. U. S. Gordon, performed the double ring ceremony which took place before a chancel banked with palms and other greenery. Large candelabra holding white candles flanked a central arrangement of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and majestic daisies. Greenery and white candles decorated the windows.

Mrs. Seldon F. Waldo presented a program of wedding music with Paul J. Tew as vocalist.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Roy E. Tew, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace with a tulle neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full scalloped skirt ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a French crown of small organza blossoms and tulle leaves. She carried a bouquet of cream colored roses centered with a yellow-throated orchid. Her only jewelry was a gold heirloom necklace worn by her great-grandmother at her wedding.

Miss Eleanor Lawrence, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Blalock of Gainesville and Miss Brenda Tew of Ocala. Mrs. William Trickett Jr. of Gainesville was bridesmatron, and Miss Elaine Tew, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid.

Identical dresses of silk organza ranging in color from pale to deep aqua, were worn by the attendants. The bodices featured scooped necklines and full three-quarter length sleeves, and the bouffant skirts were topped with wide cummerbunds of aqua tulle.

Their matching headpieces, crowns of organza leaves with an organza rose in front were attached to circular veils of silk milene. They carried cascades of white daisy chrysanthemums. The maid of honor's bouquet was of yellow roses and daisy chrysanthemums.

Another sister of the bride, Miss Ginny Tew, served as flower girl.

Her dress was of pale aqua organza over tulle trimmed with white lace. She wore a crown of organza leaves and white daisies, and carried a nosegay of small white daisy chrysanthemums.

Gordon Lawrence, father of the groom, was the best man for his son. Roger Thomas of Orlando, William Trickett Jr., Chester Collins, and Robert Blalock all of Gainesville served as ushers.

The ceremony was followed by a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Tew in the Fellowship Hall.

For traveling Mrs. Lawrence chose a short-jacketed powder blue suit featuring a scalloped collar and hem. Her tiny hat was of blue straw, and her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will reside in Louisville, Ky., where Lawrence will be attending the Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

Those attending from Sanford included Mrs. R. C. Long, Mrs. W. L. Roche, Mrs. Malcolm Higgins, Mrs. Mildred Babcock, Mrs. Thomas Ruffin Jr., Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brisson and Miss Shannon Higgins.

Young guests spent the afternoon playing in the pool, after which they were served refreshments of birthday cake, fruit punch and ice cream. The cake was decorated with red and white icing and topped with a merry-go-round.

Favors of balloons, party hats and toy horns were given to the following young guests: Bonnie

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a man who is so broke he has even considered selling his body to a medical school when he dies for a little cash today. He earns (believe it or not) $18,000 a year, but we can't break even because he has to support three families! He was married twice before, and has six children. So he has to throw his money away on wives and children he never sees. It is like buying oats for dead horses. I don't believe in letting ex-wives and children starve to death, but both ex-wives are staying single and bleeding him for everything he has just to be spiteful. Is there any way my husband can get his alimony money reduced? Don't suggest a lawyer. We are broke because of them.

THIRD WIFE

DEAR THIRD: Sorry, but when you want legal advice, a lawyer is still the best buy. The "horses" for whom your husband must buy "oats" are very much alive. And when a man chooses to change horses (three times yet!) in the middle of the stream, he had better have enough oats to stock Churchill Downs. You picked a losing out-burner, sister.

DEAR ABBY: I am almost twelve years old. When I was younger, my mother clobbered me. Now that I am older, I get restricted. I would much rather get clobbered. What is your solution? RAT

DEAR RAT: Rats can't choose their poison. Behave yourself.

DEAR ABBY: I want to know what is so good about having a marriage license? I am sick of married women turning up their noses at me. I have been a mistress for 12 years, have two children by the man, and he hasn't left me yet. He lives with his folks, and I rent a house. He comes to see me every chance he gets. He can't take me or the children out in public on account of his folks and friends, but a lot of married people don't go out together either. I am just as good a mother as any married woman, so what's the difference?

NOT MARRIED

DEAR NOT: If you don't care whether your children are legitimate and have a normal home life, and if social acceptance and respectability mean nothing to you, then there is nothing the matter with your arrangement.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

Chaufering has become a year-round job for the American mother.

Instead of taking three months off on the summer when the children are out of school and saying, "During summer vacation you're on foot," mothers take on a whole new set of chauffeuring chores as soon as school closes.

Little league keeps mothers behind the wheel for months, driving their young baseball stars to practice sessions and to games. And if junior doesn't have a baseball game, sis is sure to have cooked up something that will require a chauffeur.

In between times there is chauffeur-ing to and from playgrounds, to and from the houses of playmates, to and from picture shows, to and from art lessons or music lessons or golf lessons or whatever the mothers of the neighborhood have decided is a good way to keep the children busy.

What it all amounts to, of course, is that mama is the one who is really kept busy during the summer months. She tries to keep track of just where she is to deliver or pick up which child when.

Summer was once an easy-going time for children, as they worked off their energy at their own pace—pumping themselves high in home-made swings, playing in backyard sandpiles, building tree houses, inventing simple games with any equipment at hand, or just sitting in the shade looking up at the sky and dreaming.

But it isn't an easy-going time any more. Now it's all planned and organized by adults, who think children have to be kept busy and to be entertained, instead of being turned loose to enjoy three long months of unplanned freedom.

So mama is kept busy, too. For almost every planned activity involves chauffeuring and everyone knows who the family chauffeur is—it's mama.

Tampa Gains In FSL Play

By United Press International
Tampa picked up a full game on league-leading Sarasota in Florida State League baseball Thursday night by beating St. Petersburg 3-3.

First baseman Lee Speca paced Tampa with a double and two singles. Tarpon second baseman Pete Rose collected a triple and a single.

Sarasota lost ground by losing to the same St. Pete Club, 4-3. Bill Meyers rode home with the winning run on a single by catcher Walt James in the bottom of the 7th inning.

Last-place Palatka outslugged Orlando 16-13. Palatka pitcher John Castro honored in the 7th with two men on, and Charles Lawson followed with another in the ninth with none on base. Leeburg defeated Daytona 6-3 as pitcher Jerry Alford of Leeburg clinched his own game with a 400-foot two-run homer in the top of the sixth.

TV Key Previews

Monday's top television shows as previewed and selected by TV Key's Staff of experts who attend rehearsals, watch screenings, and analyze scripts in New York and Hollywood:

The Americans. — "The Bounty Jumpers." (Repeat) One of the more interesting episodes in this spotty series. The subject matter—about a racket to bilk the U. S. Government out of enlistment bonuses—is of particular interest. Also, even if the characterizations are sometimes muddy, the acting of Ray Watson as the head crook and Anne Helm as a dim-witted helpmate, is quite good. Don't expect miracles, but you might enjoy this one. 7:30 p. m. NBC.

Spike Jones. — Spike chats about Children's TV fare, listens to Red Norvo and his band play "Somebody Else Is Taking My Place," to Norvo with Helen Grayco in a medley, and to Helen singing solo too. Closing number has Spike joining Helen for an appropriate duet to "Love and Marriage." 9:00 p. m. CBS.

Glenn Miller Time. Pleasing, undemanding musical half hour for a summer Monday evening. Johnny Desmond, Ray McKinley, Patty Mark and the dancing Haggettis (Midge and Bill) are all on tap, and Ray and his combo, Johnny's solo, his rhythm medley duet with Ray at the drums, and the weekly nostalgic revue of Miller time memories are among the highlights. 10 p. m. CBS.

Record of Arret! (Repeat) Realistic episode. Young Brenner is assigned to work with an experienced plainclothesman in an attempt to break up a ring that's been peddling guns to teenagers. The plainclothesman doesn't follow the law too closely, and his well-written characterization adds a bit of novelty and interest to the tale. 10:30 p. m. CBS.

Peter Gunn. — "The Tender Touch." (Repeat) Delightful entry. Howard McNear is wonderful as a trusted bank cashier who manages to steal $1,000,000. His motives are completely non-arcane, and you'll find yourself rooting for him all the way. It's played primarily for laughs and, for the most part, succeeds. 10:30 p. m. ABC.

Jack Paar Show. — Alexander King is on again tonight, and so are comic Pail Foster, columnist Gay Talese, writer Beryl Pfizer, and songstress Betty Johnson. (Color) 11:15 p. m. NBS.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

George S. Gooden of Monterey, Calif., is certainly one of our greatest bridge teachers, if not the greatest.

He claims to have personally taught a quarter of a million bridge players and I, for one, don't doubt his claim.

The next two weeks' articles will cover some of George's hands.

George gives three "D's" for trump play. They stand for "Draw, Delay and Don't."

He says that 40 per cent of hands call for immediate trump play by declarer, 30 per cent for delay. And with 10 per cent a good declarer just doesn't play trumps at all.

West opens the queen of clubs against South's four-spade contract and South counts four potential losers—one in diamonds and three in hearts.

He can get rid of one heart loser by ruffing in dummy and therefore the hand falls into the "Don't" category.

Declarer should win the club and lead a heart. Furthermore, he should lead hearts each other time he gets in until he is able to ruff that third heart.

Incidentally, a trump opening and trump continuations would have beaten four spades, but who can blame West for leading that attractive club suit?

"We insist on value...that's why we're paving all our streets with soil-cement!"

... Says ELLIOTT MACKLE, President, The Mackle Co., Inc.

"Soil-cement is our choice of pavement for the many miles of streets paved each year by The Mackle Company at Port Charlotte, Port Malabar, Port St. Lucie and other General Development Corporation communities in Florida.

"Soil-cement is economical to install, which means savings and value for our customers. In addition, many blocks of soil-cement streets can be completed in a single day. This is a vital factor to us in maintaining land development and construction schedules and in holding down paving costs.

"Just as important, these streets assure low maintenance costs. They stay solid and don't pothole or wash out at the edges. This means continuing economy for the community and for the property owners."

Taxpayers especially like soil-cement. Most of the materials cost nothing. The main ingredient is soil at the site—or old broken-up black-top or gravel. Mixed with portland cement and water, rolled and topped with bituminous coating—the pavement's finished. Soil-cement can save tax money where you live, too! Soil-cement grows stronger year after year. It's the strongest pavement short of concrete.

10-16 Crucial Age For Delinquents

(Part 3 of a Series)
In the breakdown of juvenile cases by age group and race for the months of April, May and June, reports show that there were 18 delinquent Negro boys and four delinquent Negro girls from the ages of under 10 to 16 years old.
In the same age group, there were 28 delinquent white boys and two delinquent white girls.
There were two dependent Negro boys, two dependent Negro girls, 15 dependent white boys and 9 dependent white girls.
In traffic, all of the offenders were white boys in the 15 to 16 age bracket, except two white girls of the same age.
Of the 34 delinquent white boys, 19 live in Sanford, 11 in Ovidio, Geneva or Chulotoa and 4 in South Seminole. Both of the girls live in Sanford.
All of the delinquent Negro boys live in Sanford, except 3 who live in South Seminole and all four of the Negro girls live in Sanford.

Of the 28 dependent children in both categories, Negro and white, 15 live in Sanford, three in Ovidio, Geneva or Chulotoa and 10 in the south end of the county.
There were no traffic cases from the Ovidio area of the county, and of the 13 cases, seven were in Sanford and six in South Seminole.
Broken down into violations, the report of the Juvenile Court shows that there were 16 cases of truancy, 13 traffic violations, 12 cases of breaking and entering, ten cases of petty larceny, eight cases of vandalism and 5 cases of grand larceny.
There was one case in each of the following categories; shoplifting, bike or scooter theft, beverage laws, assault and battery, ungovernable, violation of probation, one other case, 3 who were transferred out of state, and one transferred to Circuit Court.

Five children were committed to training school.
The greatest number of children thrown on the mercy of the court and the care of the public because of their parents behavior was the 12 cases where children were removed from their homes because of conditions injurious to their morals.
In the second most frequent cause, there were nine cases of lack of physical care.
Four children were abandoned, two had no financial support, one of removed because of abuse and there were two other cases.
During the three months period covered by this report the Judge found it necessary to detain 16 juveniles for periods ranging from two days to 22 days.
There is no place in Seminole County to place a child who must be held, so they are transported over to the Brevard County Jail in Titusville, for detention in the Juvenile Wing there.
During the three month period, 12 white boys and four Negro boys were detained in the jail for charges such as:
Incorrigibility, drinking, petty larceny, run-away, reckless driving, truancy, disturbing the peace, destruction of personal property, vandalism, larceny and profanity.
"It is my desire," said Judge Mize, "that through this and future reports, the citizens of our county will be better informed as to the activities and problems which are dealt with from day to day in their Juvenile Court."
"I feel that more and more people are realizing the magnitude of juvenile delinquency in the nation."
"Through a report such as this we can readily see that we have our share of this problem and this should be of great concern to all of us," the Judge concluded.

Federal Judges Set Hearing On Mixing Public Facilities

By United Press International
Three federal judges at Jackson, Miss., were scheduled today to hear a suit brought by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People challenging the constitutionality of segregation in Mississippi's public transportation facilities.
At Nashville, Tenn., a small cluster of Negroes earned through the night in shifts in the lobby of the police station awaiting trial of 13 persons arrested Saturday during a squabble at a Negro picket line. Trial of the group on disorderly conduct charges was scheduled for today.
The federal suit, filed on behalf of the Negro race by the NAACP, challenges Mississippi segregation laws and the City of Jackson's use of a breach of peace statute to enforce segregation at its bus, rail and air terminals. Nearly 300 "freedom riders" have been arrested in Jackson since May 24.

The Justice Department, which has filed a brief in the suit, says it is improper to make arrests for breach of the peace simply to enforce segregation.
The Nashville protests resulted from the arrest of six white men and seven Negroes following an egg-throwing, fist-swinging melee outside a grocery where Negroes have been picketing for several weeks in protest against the store's hiring policy.
Sunday, several hundred hymn-singing Negroes marched on the police station to protest what they called "police laxity."

35 Arrested For Mix Attempt

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — A church bus full of Negroes stopped at a filling station Sunday and, apparently of necessity, integrated rest room facilities.
Deputies arrested the 35 occupants of the bus and confiscated a 20-gallon garbage can of lead beer together with numerous bottles of whisky, gin and homemade wine.
They said the group, all members of "the Unique Social Lite" organization of New Orleans, piled off the bus when it stopped for gas.
Apparently some of the occupants, 19 men and 16 women, couldn't wait for a turn at Negro rest room facilities, they said.
The Negroes' use of the white facilities wasn't believed to be part of any "freedom rider" movement. They were charged with simple trespass, officers said, on advice of the district attorney's office.
The group borrowed the bus from a New Orleans Negro minister, the Rev. John Givens. They said they were on their way to a social function in Plaquemine, La., about 10 miles away.

Free World Hails Red's Space Jaunt

By United Press International
The free world today hailed the scientific achievement of Russia's around-the-clock orbiting of cosmonaut Gherman S. Titov, but worried aloud about the military and propaganda significance of the feat with the Berlin crisis approaching a showdown.
Newspapers around the world, both Western and Communist, banner-lined the space flight. Americans turned out of their homes to try and spot the five-ton space ship over Charleston, S. C., and American television cameras were pointed sky-ward in Hollywood in an attempt to see it.

Editorial tributes in the Western press were tempered with words of warning to Allied leaders.
Typical was the London Daily Express:
"This further demonstration of Soviet superiority in rockets is a tremendous propaganda boost for Mr. K (Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev) on the eve of his big speech on Berlin."
Khrushchev tonight replies to President Kennedy's speech on Berlin, a speech which UN Ambassador Adlai Stevenson says surely "aggravated" the Soviet leader.

A noted space age authority, Sir Bernard Lovell, head of Britain's Jodrell Bank Observatory, called the Soviet achievement almost "incredible" and chided Westerners who doubted that Yuri Gagarin had orbited the earth.
"I hope this new and even more striking success will demonstrate to such doubters the utter folly of their attitude. It is not only sheer folly, but extremely dangerous in the world today not to believe these startling facts."

Prof. Alexandre Ananov, president of the French Astronautic Society, expressed belief the United States was doomed to second place behind Russia in space.
"I fear the lag can never be made up," he declared.
The reaction of Dr. William Pickering, director of the California Institute of Technology's Jet Propulsion Laboratory, was far different. He called the prolonged orbit a "very interesting experiment from a physiological standpoint." But, he said, "from a rocket standpoint this flight is simply allowing it to remain in orbit for a longer period of time."

The Western foreign ministers meeting in Paris did not comment on the feat, but the West Germany Frankfurt Allgemeine noted that "the Soviet chief has taken pains to put the Western foreign ministers... under pressure."
The London Daily Telegraph worried editorially that the United States lag behind Russia in developing heavy space loads was "ground for anxiety from a strategic point of view."

County Board Sets Tentative 1961-62 Budget

Hearing On Final Budget Set Sept. 6

The County Commission today released its tentative 1961-62 budget holding the tax rate to six mills with appropriations estimated at a little under $1,500,000.

The board scheduled the budget hearing for Sept. 6. There was no budget available for the County Health Department although Clerk Arthur Beckwith Jr. said that the health department millage would be .12 during the next fiscal year.

There also were no comparison figures available to the press on budgetary figures.

Here is a breakdown on the tentative levy of millage for 1961-62.

Interest and Sinking Fund— .63; General, 1.00; Fire and Forfeiture, .32; road and bridge, 2.00; Health, .12 and Hospital, .35.

Dr. Vincent Roberts, who represented the public health committee of the County Medical Society, said his committee made a study of the health department budget and said needed raises were "justified."

Dr. Brotherton had asked for a slight increase in millage to supply funds to employ an additional health nurse.

The publicly budget totals $15,000. Although there is nothing in the budget stating just how much the Chamber of Commerce will get, Ted Williams told the Herald that it would be the same as last year with the Junior Chamber also getting the same—$1,800.

A delegation of chamber officials appeared before the county board this morning with Clifford McKibbin reporting that the chamber has decided to ask for only $10,000 and not $15,000 from the county and city as was in the tentative budget.

McKibbin cited the work of the organization as did T. E. Tucker who said that without the chamber there would be no new industry in the county.

Mayor A. R. Lormann of Longwood also spoke briefly on the need for chamber funds.

Jaycee president Garnett White appeared before the commission and asked that the Jaycees' initial request for a $100 increase be withdrawn.

Total appropriations in the interest and sinking fund budget totaled $106,325 with $1,021 for reserve and contingencies.

Appropriations in the general fund totaled $436,200 with $31,037 for reserve for contingencies and $75,000 reserved for cash balance to be carried forward.

Appropriations in the Fine and Forfeiture fund totaled $249,630 with $29,000 for reserve.

Appropriations in the road and bridge fund totaled $485,217.11 with $41,135.86 reserved for contingency and $79,000 reserved for cash balance to be carried forward.

The Building Fund appropriations totaled $50,000.

A breakdown of major expenses tentatively set for the next fiscal year shows salaries of County Commissioners and expenses, $18,300; insurance, $18,000; expenses for election and registration, $14,500; general stationery and supplies, $17,500; maintenance of the county home and repairs, $25,500; general welfare, $15,000; hospital service for the indigent, $27,500; civil defense, $3,000; expenses of county zoning commission, $30,000; salary of county agent and expenses, $7,400; salary of county home demonstration agent and expenses, $7,900.

In the road and bridge fund breakdown — salary for road superintendent, office manager and other expenses, $16,500; salary for county engineer, staff and expenses, $37,000; drainage and water control, $86,500; payment to Sanford on 1960 tax roll, $46,500; Oviedo, $2,424; Altamonte Springs, $4,701; Casselberry, $4,934; North Orlando, $1,223; Longwood, $3,800.

Four More Schools To Integrate

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — The New Orleans public school system will integrate four more previously all-white schools next month, bringing the desegregated total to six.

School Board President Louis G. Nichols Sr. said "fewer than 10" of 66 Negro students applying for transfer this year to once white-only schools had been approved under the state pupil placement law.

Five Men Crushed To Death In Mishap

DENVER (UPI)—A 38-ton concrete door slammed shut on a Titan missile launch silo Monday, crushing to death five men and injuring eight others.

The door, one of two which form a cover more than three feet thick to protect the missile chamber from nuclear attack, is operated hydraulically. It measures about 12 by 20 feet.

The door was in the open, vertical position Monday afternoon as civilian workers completed construction on a platform at the top of the 150-foot silo. Suddenly, about 4:15 p.m., MST, 7:15 p.m., EST it collapsed.

The cause of the accident was not determined. A helicopter from Lowry Air Force Base here and ambulances from Buckley Field, base of operations for the Army Corps of Engineers during construction of the launching facilities, carried the dead and injured from the scene on the prairie 20 miles east of here.

The Corps of Engineers identified two of the dead early today as Jerry E. Brancio of Denver and George Graham of Aurora, Colo. The names of the others were withheld.

The injured were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in Denver. Only two were kept overnight. Charles Postle was admitted for treatment of a back fracture and Howard Hoffman was detained for observation.

By LARRY VERABEL

The County Commission wrapped up the last of the so-called "informal" budget hearings Monday afternoon in what was such an interesting array of items we'll just devote the majority of this column to it. (Nobody would believe it if we put it in a news story.)

District 4 County Commissioner . . . said he didn't want anything he said used in the paper and further went on "I don't want to see my name used ever—even when I die."

Apparently Mr. . . . was a little upset to see a representative of the press at one of these meetings.

At the same meeting, John Fitzpatrick urged the rest of the board to get rid of the fat and cut this budget to the bone.

No action was taken on the budget with the commission adjourning until Thursday night. Commissioners "peppered" City Manager W. E. Knowles with queries regarding each department and about appropriations in the $1,072,849 10 mill operating budget.

Before the budget hearing got underway, Garnett White, president of the Jaycees asked the board to consider a $400 hike for his organization to overcome a deficit in operating the tourist center on French Ave. The Commission took no action on White's request although there are no added appropriations listed in the proposed budget drawn up by Knowles for the Junior or Senior Chambers.

The departments with the biggest proposed raises are fire—$10,343 increase; parks—$5,821 and streets, $21,341 hike.

Commissioners discussed at length the controversial "Kelly Day" schedule with most of the commissioners favoring the plan but which is stuck because of lack of funds to carry on the program.

The Kelly Day schedule would mean the hiring of four additional firemen giving men at the station a three day stretch off every 11 days.

Commissioner Tom McDonald said that the plan has a lot of merit. Commissioner Al Wilson suggests "we study the budget carefully to see if we can come up with some money to carry on the program."

A rundown of proposed budgets for each department shows: City Commissioners budget to remain in the same as last year—$6,850;

The City manager's budget will show an increase because of a car replacement from $11,337-$13,777. Other departments: City Attorney, $4,700 to $5,000; Finance, slight decrease from $17,778 to $15,417;

Civil Service—$2,020 to $2,250; Municipal Court — $2,836 to $2,310;

Police — $134,188 to $134,312; Fire Dept. — $119,163 to $129,708;

Public Health — $5,810 to $5,923; Insurance — $9,359 to $11,790; Parks — $30,231 to $38,072;

Recreation — $23,945 to $19,860 (Although there is an increase for the recreation director from $4,633 to $5,804, there are no funds for an assistant as last year); Zoo — $15,056 to $16,537 (new storage freezer reason for increase);

Swimming Pools — $19,760 to $10,260;

Cemetery — $7,607 to $7,837;

Maintenance — $66,131 to $70,574;

Streets — $104,041 to $123,383;

Public Works — $4,116 to $7,741;

Refuse — $66,073 to $66,520;

Engineering — $15,623 to $15,460;

Library — $11,070 to $11,136;

Insurance — $37,200 to $43,299;

Special Funds — $37,074 to $39,473 which includes the same appropriations for both chambers and Christmas bonuses totaling $3,200.

City Sifts Budget Proposals

City Commissioners dug into the first of a series of budget hearings on the 1961-62 budget Monday night and after a three hour session called it a night and went home.

Utility Budget Submitted

City Manager W. E. Knowles submitted a massive $484,293 utility budget to the City Commission Monday night and asked the board to set aside $83,000 this year for construction of a sewage treatment plant.

The commission took no action on the proposed budget.

Last year's utility budget was set at $410,832.

Preliminary plans for the treatment plant are expected to be completed by the end of the year.

The city manager termed the budget as "ambitious with a definite attempt to financially advance the utility systems of the city."

Major points in the budget are: To conduct operations with a surplus equivalent to one month's revenue;

Contribute substantially to the reserve fund for a treatment plant whereby the end of the coming fiscal year should see approximately $63,000 added to the existing reserve funds and thereby reducing any amount required to be borrowed if the commission should undertake the project;

U. S. Sees No Fresh Hopes For Berlin Settlement

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. officials saw no softening of Soviet demands and no fresh hopes of negotiating a Berlin settlement in Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev's latest speech.

These officials said after a preliminary reading of Khrushchev's radio-TV address Monday that it was not clear how close to the brink of war he was willing to go to oust the West from Berlin.

President Kennedy and the State Department refrained from immediate comment. The White House said Kennedy would have nothing to say until he could read a U. S. translation of the speech.

State Department Spokesman Lincoln White said "we're not going to shoot from the hip" in commenting on Khrushchev's statements. White said the speech would be studied carefully.

Some members of Congress saw a note of hope in Khrushchev's address, particularly in his promise not to blockade Berlin. But other officials noted that Khrushchev said on June 15 that his plan to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany would not deny the West access to Berlin.

The officials said Khrushchev had made it clear he still intends to force the West to deal with the Communist East Germans by dividing Germany permanently.

The only new elements in the Khrushchev speech, according to these sources, were his appeal to neutral nations for support and his use of the new Soviet space triumph to underline his tough military talk.

Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., called on Khrushchev to give assurances of "freedom for Berliners" rather than just protection of Allied rights in the former German capital.

"Khrushchev has told us of his war plans and I suggest, he now tell us of his peace plans," Humphrey told a reporter. He said the speech made it clear that Khrushchev was "continuing his relentless war of nerves and we can expect more extravagant statements in the weeks ahead."

Diplomatic informants said Rusk was calling on all the NATO nations to join the United States, Britain, France and West Germany in helping to bring NATO's "shield" in Europe nearer to full scheduled strength before the West opens what may be critical talks with the Soviets.

Rusk, U. S. NATO ambassador Thomas K. Finletter and six advisers arrived at NATO's gleaming new headquarters building facing the Bois de Boulogne park shortly before 3 p. m. (10 a. m. EDT).

U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, who arrived here this morning after representing President Kennedy at the Ivory Coast independence anniversary celebrations, also sat in at the meeting.

The session was described as "private" and even an official record was not kept.

A few hours earlier, British Foreign Secretary Lord Home flew back to London with a warning that negotiations with the Soviet would be pointless unless they stand a chance of succeeding.

It was announced that Rusk will fly to Rome Wednesday to meet with Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani and Foreign Minister Antonio Segni and see West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer at his Lake Como vacation retreat.

Massive Welcome Awaits Titov

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet officials announced today that Yuri Gagarin would be brought to Moscow Wednesday for a massive public welcome—an indication he suffered no ill after effects of his one-day spin through space.

Soviet doctors examining the space hero to determine the effects of his prolonged period of loneliness, weightlessness and possible exposure to cosmic radiation apparently decided he was fit.

Titov proclaimed himself in "excellent condition" shortly after his landing Monday.

He was taken to an undisclosed place for his medical checkup. It had been expected to be longer than that of pioneer space man Yuri Gagarin because Titov was aloft longer — 23 hours and 18 minutes. But it was announced today that Titov would be brought to Moscow Wednesday.

Titov's wife, Tamara, said today Gagarin's flight into orbit fired her husband's ambition to make his space journey.

Mrs. Titov sketched the story of her husband's life for Pravda, the Communist party newspaper. She said, "had I known that so many people would show interest in Gergman, I would have become his best biographer."

Pravda said the Titovs have been married for three years. It said the 23-year-old Mrs. Titov "is studying to become a doctor and is a strong personality."

Mrs. Titov told Pravda: "On the memorable April day when Yuri Gagarin blazed a trail to outer space, Gergman, happy and satisfied, exclaimed: 'There is enough outer space for all! The day is not far away when others, following in Yuri's wake, will fly too!'"
