U. S. MAN KILLS FIANCEE, SELF AT VERSAILLES

Marion Roberts Of Chicago Believed To Have Been Slain By Julian Meredith Who Then Killed Himself
Bodies Are Found In Auto Close To Cafe
Parents Of Girl Are Prostrate; Romance Of Two Unknown To Either Family
PARIS, Apr. 23.—(INS)—Julian Meredith, a Buffalo and a woman believed to be Marion Roberts of Chicago, Meredith's fiancee, were found shot to death in an automobile today near Versailles.

A revolver was found in Meredith's right hand and the police theory is that he killed the woman and then shot himself.

Meredith and Miss Roberts are known to have left Paris yesterday for an automobile trip. Madame Vergnolet, who was giving music lessons to Meredith today, said that Miss Roberts arrived on Thursday at Havre and that Meredith drove down to meet her in a new car.

"They left Paris yesterday at 1 P. M., apparently very happy," said Madame Vergnolet. "I had invited them to dine with me last night but Miss Roberts declined saying, 'I am so happy to be with Julian and prefer to have him all to myself tonight.'"

Police were confident that the case was one of murder and suicide, they said, as Miss Roberts' jewelry was still on her body and a sum of money was found under the seat in the automobile.

Meredith was divorced in Paris last July by his wife, the former Dorothy Thompson Reisel, who charged him with desertion. Meredith was 27. Miss Roberts was 23.

Madame Vergnolet said that Miss Roberts received a cable from her mother yesterday, stating "all well—love—mother."

Death Toll Mounting As Flood Conditions Are Reported Worse

FLOOD REFUGEES ARE ORDERED TO QUIT GREENVILLE
Measures Are Taken To Save Thousands Marooned By Swirling Mississippi River
Death Toll Placed At 75 By Red Cross
Horrible Death Faces 2,000 Refugees Near Knowlton's Landing
International News Service
With the death toll slowly mounting, extraordinary measures were being taken today to save thousands of persons marooned by the swirling waters of the Mississippi River.

Never in history has the lower Mississippi valley, from Cairo to the gulf, suffered such a disastrous flood. There are approximately 75 known dead in the area.

Thousands are homeless, millions of acres of fertile farm lands are under water. Damages run into millions.

Reports to the Red Cross indicate that 75,000 persons need food, clothing and shelter. This number is expected to double within a few days. The Red Cross is seeking to raise a $5,000,000 relief fund.

A slow, horrible death is facing 2,000 terror-stricken refugees at Knowlton's Landing, Ark. They are marooned on a levee two and one half feet wide. The rushing waters are gradually eating away the ground from under them. Unless relief comes within the next 12 hours they are believed doomed.

The flood is expected to reach a peak within the next few days in the lower Mississippi. Heavy efforts are being made to prevent the protecting levees in Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana.

The Governor has ordered the evacuation of 13,000 refugees in Greenville, Miss. Conditions are improving in the city.

DIGHTON NOT TO PERMIT NAME ON CHAMBER BALLOT

Sanford Attorney, Slated To Become President Of Sanford Civic Body, Says Press Of Business Is Too Great

S. R. Dighton, member of the law firm of DeCotter, Spencer and Dighton, today announced that despite the insistence of many friends, he would not possibly accept office of president of the Chamber of Commerce, which it is to be held on May 5.

The ballots for the voting by the membership for the Board of Governors are to be mailed out on April 29 and are returnable to the Chamber offices not later than May 3. Mr. Dighton has been unanimously mentioned as a choice for a seat on the board, and his election would have placed him at the head of the Chamber through the action of the governors, it is believed.

In his statement, made to a representative of The Herald this morning, Mr. Dighton said that the exigencies of his own business were such that he could not devote the time which he believed the importance of the position would require and for that reason would be forced to decline the honor, if it were awarded him.

Following in his statement: "I trust that I am not presumptuous in recognizing an apparent effort of the part of many of my friends to elect me to the presidency of the Chamber of Commerce. "While I appreciate that the position is an uncommon honor after mature reflection I have arrived at the conclusion that it is not my own professional and personal business would interfere with those duties which, by every right, should be performed by one whose time can be more easily spared."

MRS. SNYDER AND GRAY REST WHILE CHAMBER BALLOT RECESSES

Selection Of Jury Is Completed Late Friday And Court Adjourned; Taking Evidence Begins Monday

LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y., Apr. 23.—Henry Judd Gray, counsel for Mrs. Snyder, and her former mistress, Mrs. Ruth Snyder, both accused of the murder of the woman's husband, Albert, had a day of rest in their cells today, pending the opening of the supreme court for their lives on Monday.

There was no session of court today. After the five days' struggle to complete the jury—which was done late yesterday—court was adjourned until Monday when the lawyers will outline their cases and the taking of testimony will commence.

Counsel for both defendants conferred with the jury today. The final plans were made for the strategy to save them from the electric chair which will recall the hectic court scenes of the Thaw case and the Hall-Mills murder trial.

But the present case will present a new and unique angle. For, while the defendants were accused and indicted jointly and will be tried together, the two groups of lawyers defending them plan separate lines of defense.

Large Cotton Crop Has Been Ruined By Flooded Rivers

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Apr. 23.—(INS)—King Cotton, which for years has reigned supreme in the Mississippi delta and St. Francis basin, has practically been destroyed by the Mississippi floods.

With approximately 10,000,000 acres of the south's best cotton land today surging pools of muddy water from floods, and no drainage for perhaps a month, plants will be forced to grow late corn if anything this year, say market experts.

Cotton planting was to be started throughout these sections next week and much of the ground had already been broken for the planting.

Growing of cotton requires dry weather as well as dry earth. After the floods have receded, the ground will be too wet for two weeks or more to grow cotton.

Sport Writers Are Urged To Join Fight Against Davis Bill

PALATKA, April 22.—(INS)—Formal protest against the recent bill introduced by Speaker Fred Davis of the Florida legislature curtailing the power of the press in the matter of receiving mailings and publishing sport news was issued today by President Pete Norton of the Florida Sport Writers Association in a statement to the sport writers and editors of the state appealing to them as members of the association to back him in his effort to have the bill defeated.

The statement is as follows: "To the sport writers of Florida; as members of the Sport Writers Association of this state and as men interested in the advancement of clean, healthy sports in Florida, I issue you an appeal to do everything within power to defeat the recent bill introduced by Speaker Fred Davis of the Florida legislature curtailing the power of the press relative to the transmission of news regarding sporting events.

"Florida is one of the world's greatest playgrounds. Do you think it will remain so if sport activities and news were curtailed in any way? It is a matter up to the sport writers and the thinking people of Florida and I am sure that they will do all within their power to keep this bill from advancing any further than it has already gone.

FOREIGN INFLUX DRIVES NATIVES FROM IRELAND

German, French, Belgian and Jewish Population Grows Rapidly in Free State

DUBLIN, April 22.—The people of the Irish Free State having secured control of their own affairs have characteristically enough enlisted the services of all manner of nationalities to do their work for them. The German, French and Belgian Colonies in Ireland—which are so to speak State-aided—are increasing their numbers daily, while many nationalities which are not State aided, noticeably the Italians and Jews are also on the increase.

The native population is steadily declining and at the present time the native Irish are emigrating at a more rapid rate than at any time since the great famine of 1848.

On the green banks of the Shannon, there is a German colony 400 strong engaged in the big engineering feat of harnessing the water power of the most lordly river in what used to be called the British Isles.

$35,000,000 Program

The initiation of this scheme—a huge one involving a total expenditure of over $35,000,000, designed to give light and power to the twenty-six counties of Southern Ireland—has attracted an amount of wholesome publicity they get.

"I ask you again as the representative of the sporting fraternity of Florida to back the association in its efforts to kill the Davis bill."

Ireland—was the first big constructive effort of the Free State Government.

German contractors are charged with employing to the exclusion of the Irish of whom about 100,000 are unemployed at the present time. One fourth of the workers on the Shannon scheme have been imported from Germany and in the counties of Clare and Limerick the language of the Teuton is more frequently heard than the native Gaelic.

The Belgians have found their home in Carlow. A Belgian firm has given the Government contract of erecting a sugar beet factory in that town and there are between 300 and 300 Belgians employed there.

The Dublin City Commissioners, appointed by the Government to supersede the Corporation gave a three year contract for cleaning the streets of Dublin to a French firm and special machinery from France was imported for the purpose. A strike of Corporation workmen led to an agreement by which the number of Frenchmen employed was limited. A similar condition was imposed in the case of a contract given to a German firm for building 500 dwelling houses in the suburbs of Dublin.

The comprehensible Martin Drainage Bill passed the House almost unanimously. Senator Watson's might have had more luck if the average layman could have understood it.

The Celerymen have taken two games from Orlando, repeating last year's history. Here's hoping that today's contest will not end as the third game last year. The Colts won.

The Herald reproduces in another column on this page an unusually interesting editorial by the Dearborn Independent on the recent Chicago election in which "Wild Bill" Thompson was chosen mayor.

I'm cutting quite a figure these days, said the young fellow as he took another scrape with the safety razor.—Gainesville Sun. He doesn't cut near the figure his old man used to with his antiquated straight-edge.

The New York American enjoys a circulation of 1,120,000, the largest in the United States; The Sanford Herald's circulation is about three thousand the largest in Seminole county.

At any rate, a few thousand of American troops will have a chance of giving China the "once over" which will prove profitable in an educational way.—Florida Times-Union. Once over there, they may not find it such an easy matter to get back.

When Coolidge gave what appeared to be a slam to Hoover by saying that if Kollong resigned, Hoover could not be the next secretary of state, perhaps the president meant that Hoover was too necessary to be removed.

Press Censorship

Some amusing and ridiculous conclusions have been drawn by a subcommittee of the New York State Crime Commission in a recent study of what it terms the causes of the increase in crime.

The committee in its efforts to fasten the blame for crime increase, sent out questionnaires asking the question: "do you consider that the methods used by the newspapers of securing and presenting crime news are in any way a factor in the present crime situation?"

The committee would severely punish newspapers for what it describes as "publishing facts which might assist in the escape of criminals." The meaning of this statement is somewhat obscure but we take issue with the inference that newspapers are hampering police efforts in running down criminals.

Our experience also has been that city, county, and state authorities are quick to admit the value of the publication of crime news for the effect that it has in checking crime.

In recommending a curb on the publication of crime news, the New York commission is suggesting the use of press censorship, a thing that could never be carried out successfully.

The fact is that the New York committee has stepped off on the wrong foot. It has made no real effort to ascertain the real cause of crime increase.

Mr. Depew Grows Young

Chauncey Depew, who has all his life been unusually active and is even now chairman of the board of directors of the New York Central railroad, will celebrate his ninety-third birthday Saturday.

In recent years these interviews have been of particular interest as coming from the oldest man of national consequence in America. It is helpful to learn the thoughts of a man who has lived long enough and is mentally active enough, to know as much as is possible for a human being.

It would seem that a man at his age might become pessimistic and especially in these times have a tendency to regard the "younger generation", which in this case would include everyone from eighty years of age down, as going to the dogs.

When asked as to his formula for living to a ripe old age Mr. Depew gave some good advice. First, he is careful of what he eats; he has found out what disagrees with him, and he then leaves it alone.

"I have always made it a practice", he said, "to tell my family every evening the most pleasant experience I have had during the day."

CATTLE TICKS-POLITICS TAMPA TIMES

The Times is told, from Senator Fletcher's office, that the senator has been informed by Dr. J. R. Mohler, chief, bureau of animal industry, that after May 1, 1928, cattle that have not been dipped and certified as tick free cannot be shipped in interstate commerce.

And yet, in the face of such things as this, there are those in the Florida legislature who would stop this state from such work as she is doing and such progress as she is making in getting rid of the cattle ticks.

Cattle ticks hurt and have hurt Florida in no telling how many ways. Among these is that they prevent the state from developing as she should in the matter of dairy. Others of them are no bad.

To think that Florida cattle, or a large portion of them, are soon to be denied shipment through interstate commerce because of the cattle tick would seem to be about the last straw.

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—Crossing from ocean to ocean you see interesting men and things, among others an old-fashioned railroad conductor on the Santa Fe and an old-fashioned Christian in Los Angeles.

"Railroading" more than 50 years, he talks of passenger cars that were 40 feet long, had seats that hit you in the middle of the back, windows with four small panes of glass in each, lighted with candles.

"Retire?" certainly not. Railroading is more interesting than retirement. THE OLD-FASHIONED Los Angeles Christian has painted on the back of his Ford touring car top, in white letters, a foot high, "Tell the world Jesus Saves."

E. F. HUTTON'S Los Angeles branches tell you that such comforting information was needed yesterday by bears that have ignored good advice printed in this column for months past. They had a little bear panic of their own, while stocks went up.

DON'T GAMBLE, for you will surely lose. And especially don't "sell short." That's like running in front of an express train. In England, where you can borrow money cheaper than here generally speaking, the bank rate is cut from five to four and one-half.

CHICAGO has decided it wants four years more of "Big Bill" Thompson. That is Chicago's privilege. Chicago is a sovereign municipality; if it decided it wanted a Hottentot, or a Sulu Islander, for Mayor, and that Hottentot were eligible, it could elect him and tell the rest of the country to go whistling after bears for all its opinion mattered.

SATURDAY EVENING SERMON Rev. W. P. Bahram, First Methodist Church

TEXT: "And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Uziah did; howbeit he entered not into the temple of the Lord, And the people did yet corruptly." 2 Chronicles 27: 2.

The purpose here is not entertainment, but to call attention to and old example of an error which is also one of the faults of this present time.

Read carefully the words of the words of the text, and you will be compelled to infer that King Jotham was not a church going man. Since he began his reign doing right, as his father had done, this error was possibly his one inconsistency. He did not feel the need of going out into the proper courts of the temple to worship his God.

Not long ago a leading man of our country gave a friend these three reasons why he was faithful in attendance upon all the services of the church:

- 1. Because of what the church stands for. With all its human imperfections the Christian church stands for the best elements of life and the highest conception of God known to man. 2. Because of its offspring. Nearly all the institutions and agencies interested in the uplift of humanity are the product, directly or indirectly, of the church. All the forces that today give their time talents and money to the support of these beneficent institutions are members of, or results, the life work of the Christian church. I want to have a part in the general uplift. 3. Because of its enemies. If a man is judged by his enemies, why not the Church? The foes of the home, marriage, and righteousness are also foes of the Church. All the forces that today seek the Church's vilification.

Kentuckian Finds Black-Draught a Great Aid In Relieving Constipation, and Soon Feels O. K.

Callettsburg, Ky.—Mr. Miles King, of 1213 Center Street, city, says:

"There was a time when my life was not so good. I suffered a great deal from gas poisons. My system was saturated with poison and was not properly eliminated. I tried to time I had severe headaches, and I felt sluggish and tired."

"I knew of Black-Draught as a medicine for constipation, and thought I would try it. For a few days I took a small dose every night until my system was rid of the accumulated poison."

"I gained in weight and my general health was good. That experience made me realize the value of Black-Draught. I kept it in my home and when I begin to feel less and dull, I take a dose, of which I feel O. K. again."

"People generally do not realize the risk they take in allowing constipation to run on. I try to have my system cleaned, and I use Black-Draught a great aid in this."

Game Is Preceded By Flag Raising And Short Speeches By MayorsAutrey, Lake

Umpire's Decision Precipitates Fight With Manager Of Colts

Before an attendance of 1,100 and following appropriate opening day exercises, the charges of Lee Crowe went to work at Municipal Field Friday afternoon and in one of those exciting ball games, romped over Orlando for the second straight victory of the season, 3-1.

The pomp and ceremony of an opening was well carried out by both teams, the Municipal Band, President Floyd Palmer and Mayors L. M. Autrey and Forrest Lake. The flag raising in center field, participated in by both teams headed by President Palmer, was impressive.

Lining up in front of the grandstand, the double file marched to the pole where, as the band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner," the flag was hoisted to its place by Mr. Palmer. Marching back to the grandstand, the teams lined up and stood at attention while Mayor Forrest Lake presented Lee Crowe, manager of the Celerymen, with a huge floral wreath prepared by Stewart.

Mayor Lake's welcoming address was followed by a few words from the visiting mayor, who expressed the sentiments of Orlando fans for the large turnout shown the previous day.

Stout, for Sanford, and Puckett, for Orlando, worked the full nine innings and each was touched for nine hits. Perfect support in the field enabled Stout to breeze through to victory after being in danger only on a few occasions.

Orlando counted its one and only run in the first on Abrams' two banger and a single by Grandoe. After that, with men on bases, Stout tightened down and third base was the furthest reached by the visitors.

The Celerymen threatened in the first when, with one gone, Frisbie and Wade singled in succession. After Crowe had fouled out, Myers was walked but the best Hirst could do was an infield roller to Vlao, whose throw to Tinkler forced Myers for the final out.

The score was tied in the third when, with the bases filled, Frisbie scored on Bill Myers' sacrifice to right. The ball was relayed and when it was shot to third base, was sliding in to the bag, was called safe by Umpire Michaels. Phil Wells then bounced out in the center of the arena and became Orlando's gladiator. A sharp exchange of blows between him and the arbiter caused Wells to be excused from the game, and sent Lee behind the bat for the Colts.

Everything was rosy until the seventh when Bailey started it off with a slashing single through the box. Cox then dropped Wallace's short fly in right and Puckett held Stout's attempted sacrifice until all hands were sirty. Abrams murred Beasley's hot bouncer and touched the bag but Bailey counted on the play. On Frisbie's long sacrifice to Hayes, Wallace crossed the pan.

Hirst, Bailey and Wade each collected a pair of safeties to lead the parade. The score:

Tunney To Fight At Least Once A Year As Long As He Has The Heavyweight Title

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Apr. 23.—Take it from James Joseph Tunney, who thinks he is in a position to know, there will be a heavyweight championship fight held annually for the next four or five years, assuming, of course, that James continues to have the situation well in hand. He informed the writer today, that merely as a matter of common sense, he planned to fight in defense of his title at least once a year for five years—regardless of purses and opponents—and then call it a career.

"Why, they couldn't have kept me out this year even if I had had to challenge the contender myself," he said, this morning, some hours before his scheduled conference with Tex Rickard. "I'm to make plenty of money out of my fight this summer but, even if the purse had been unsatisfactory, I would have signed, anyhow. Money, I grant you, is important and I can get but the man who sits in idleness for several years, waiting for what he calls the 'break,' is cheating himself just as surely as though he failed to go to the cashier's window for his weekly salary."

"The blade," he added, warning to his rhetoric, "grows dull and rusted from disuse. It has been so with every heavyweight champion of the modern era but it won't be so with me. That is"—he hastily—"Assuming that I will be able to win from my opponents, however no one can blame me for feeling that I will."

James, of course, may be pardoned for taking a philosophic view of finances in general, since his conversation with Rickard may have some slight reference to a sum of $100,000 the promoter will be in his debt on May 1. The further fact that it is only an item in the 'hat' that Rickard must assume in lining up Tunney undoubtedly had a somewhat mellowing effect on the latter's outlook.

However, he insisted that his sincerity was above question in claiming that physical readiness was of greater importance than the size of the purse in considering any title defense.

"There have been years when challengers were few and inadequate," he explained, "All right; why not meet the best man available, taking the best money offered? The champion is at least that far ahead on the financial situation and, from the physical side, he has done himself the best turn imaginable. Then, at a later date, when a real challenger turns up, the champion still can get the big purse he otherwise might have waited several years for, and naturally he would be a better man because of those intervening fights."

"It may be that I am thinking too far ahead. The man that Rickard selects may beat me and then all my plans would be knocked into a cocked hat. Yet I think the fact that I recognize danger in every opponent is in my favor; they, at least, won't be able to surprise me as so many champions have been surprised. In short, I am taking neither my opponents nor myself for granted."

"Retire? I suppose I shall when and if I last five years or more as champion. By that time, I suppose I'll have enough of boxing and, for all I know, boxing may have enough of me. I've found that the surest way to attain unpopularity is to win the heavyweight championship."

Base Hits

By R. L. Hooker

Third Round
Michaels caught Battling Wells in the left eye with a short right. He took three rights to the jaw in return. They clinched. As the bell rang both were sparring in the center of the ring. It was even.

Fourth Round
It is President Asher's by a big margin.

Bill Palmer did a good job of raising the flag without assistance.

With the band playing, with the stands filled and with Felix on his throne there was but one guess as to what the occasion meant to all of us.

Something happened everytime that heavy batting end came up—if you know which end, Bailey is one of them, and his hit in the seventh to bust open the inning almost sent Pucket to the hospital.

Orlando, the City Beautiful, (and all that sort of stuff) sent over on, at least 35 cash customers. So good of them, you know. The previous day, in Orlando, approximately 500 Sanford fans were present for the opener. Did someone suggest that possibly we may be looked upon as suckers?

Stout could not get them breaking for him and he came through with only nine hits much to the surprise of close observers, who terday. Perfect support in the field was not exactly right yesterday was recorded him.

The bleacherites were out in force. All the old regulars were back in their accustomed places. On the top row of the grandstand, where the heavy gamblers sit, there were long arguments over the limit. Should it be two bits?

"Goof" was there again, and again unaccompanied. We told him he could go to the game.

Major took the first pitch after first being assured that no one would strike at it. Mayor Autrey, who threw it received the plaudits of the crowd and also the 35 from Orlando.

In the seventh, the 35 from Orlando got up for a stretch and were greeted by the rest of the 961 paid admissions, not counting season tickets. Don't you know the 35 must have felt grand.

Tagging All Bases

New York, Apr. 23.—(INS)—As the result of the five straight victories over Cincinnati, the Pittsburgh Pirates today have piled up a big lead in the National League race. They beat the Reds yesterday, 3 to 1, with Lee Meadows having a slight edge in a pitch-

Friends Of Walker Say He Will Refuse League Presidency

NEW YORK, Apr. 23.—(INS)—Friends of James J. Walker, mayor of New York City, today expressed the belief that he would decline an offer of the presidency of the American League at a salary of $100,000 a year, reported to have been made by the league.

Although Walker insists that he has received no formal offer from the league, rumors persisted today that the league manager at a recent meeting yesterday decided to offer him the post.

The mayor's reply to all questions was:—
"I have had no formal offer from the American League. In any event I would not discuss any offer until it had been made formally."

According to friends of the mayor, he will not entertain such an offer until his present term ends on Jan. 1, 1930. He is said to feel that his resignation at this time might result in the disruption of the political organization of the city.

Game Is Preceded By Flag Raising And Short Speeches By Mayors Autrey, Lake

Perfect Support Is Accorded Stout

Umpire's Decision Precipitates Fight With Manager Of Colts

Before an attendance of 1,100 and following appropriate opening day exercises, the charges of Lee Crowe went to work at Municipal Field Friday afternoon and in one of those exciting ball games, romped over Orlando for the second straight victory of the season, 3-1.

The pomp and ceremony of an opening was well carried out by both teams, the Municipal Band, President Floyd Palmer and Mayors L. M. Autrey and Forrest Lake. The flag raising in center field, participated in by both teams headed by President Palmer was impressive.

Lining up in front of the grandstand, the double file marched to the pole where, as the band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner," the flag was hoisted to its place by Mr. Palmer. Marching back to the grandstand, the teams lined up and stood at attention while Mayor Forrest Lake presented Lee Crowe, manager of the Celerymen, with a huge floral wreath prepared by Stewart.

Mayor Lake's welcoming address was followed by a few words from the visiting mayor, who expressed the sentiments of Orlando fans for the large turnout shown the previous day.

Stout, for Sanford, and Puckett, for Orlando, worked the full nine innings and each was topped for nine hits. Perfect support in the field enabled Stout to breeze through to victory after being in danger only on a few occasions.

Orlando counted its one and only run in the first on Abrams' two bagger and a single by Grandeo. After that, with men on bases, Stout tightened down and third base was the farthest reached by the visitors.

The Celerymen threatened in the first when, with one gone, Fribbie and Wade singled in succession. After Crowe had fouled out, Myers was walked but the best Fribbie could do was an infield roller to Viaw, who threw to Tinker forced Myers for the final out.

The score was tied in the third when, with the bases filled, Fribbie scored on Bill Myers' sacrifice to right. The ball was relayed and when it was shot to third Wade, was sliding in to the bag, was called safe by Umpire Michaels. Phil Wells then bounced out in the center of the arena and became Orlando's gladiator. A sharp exchange of blows between him and the pitcher caused Wells to be excused from the game, and sent Leo behind the bat for the Colts.

Everything was rosy until the seventh when Bailey started it off with a slashing single through the box. Cox then dropped Wallace's short fly in right and Puckett held Stout's attempted sacrifice until all hands were safe. Abrams snared Beasley's hot bouncer and touched the bag but Bailey counted on the play. On Fribbie's long sacrifice to Hayes, Wallace crossed the pan.

Fribbie, Bailey and Wade each collected a pair of safeties to lead the parade. The score:

Tunney To Fight At Least Once A Year As Long As He Has The Heavyweight Title

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Apr. 23—(INS)—As from James Joseph Tunney, who thinks he is in a position to know, there will be a heavyweight championship fight held annually for the next four or five years, assuming, of course, that James continues to have the situation well in hand. He informed the writer today, that merely as a matter of common sense, he planned to fight in defense of his title at least once a year for five years—regardless of purses and opponents—and then call it a career.

"Why, they couldn't have kept me out of this year even if I had had to challenge the contender myself," he said, this morning, some hours before his scheduled conference with Tex Rickard. "I'm to make plenty of money out of my fight this summer but, even if the purse had been unsatisfactory, I would have signed, anyhow. Money, I grant you, is important and I'm frank to say that I want all I can get but the man who sits in idleness for several years, waiting for what he calls the "break," is cheating himself just as surely as though he failed to go to the cashier's window for his weekly salary."

"The blade," he added, warning to his rhetoric, "grows dull and rusted from disuse. It has been so with every heavyweight champion of the modern era but it won't be so with me. That is"—hastily—"Assuming that I will be able to win from my opponents. However no one can blame me for feeling that I will."

James, of course, may be pardoned for taking a philosophic view of finances in general, since his conversation with Rickard may have some slight reference to a sum of $100,000 the promoter will be in his debt on May 1. The further fact that it is only an item in the 'nut' that Rickard must assume in lining up Tunney undoubtedly had a somewhat mellowing effect on the latter's outlook.

However, he insisted that his sincerity was above question in claiming that physical readiness was of greater importance than the size of the purse in considering any title defense.

"There have been years when challengers were few and inadequate," he explained. "All right; why not meet the best man available, taking the best money offered? The champion is at least that far ahead on the financial situation and, from the physical side, he has done himself the best turn imaginable. Then at a later date, when a real challenger turns up, the champion still can get the big purse he otherwise might have waited several years for, and naturally he would be a better man because of those intervening fights."

"It may be that I am thinking too far ahead. The man that Rickard selects may beat me and then all my plans would be knocked into a cocked hat. Yet I think the fact that I recognize danger in every opponent is in my favor; they, at least, won't be able to surprise me as so many champions have been surprised. In short, I am taking neither my opponents nor myself for granted."

"Retire? I suppose I shall when and if I last five years or more as champion. By that time, I suppose I'll have enough of boxing and, for all I know, boxing may have become a sure way to attain unpopularity in to win the heavyweight championship."

SAINTS TURN ON SMOKERS TO COP SECOND CONTEST

St. Petersburg Sluggers Get 11 Hits Off Three Tampa Hurlers; Messner Collects Three Hits In Four Trips

ST. PETERSBURG, April 23—Three Tampa hurlers were pounded hard and the Saints took the second game on Friday by a score of 8 to 7. The locals played errorless ball while the visitors were responsible for half a dozen miscues in the field.

Craig, Sprout, and Willey gave up 11 hits. Austin, a high school hurler, yielded 10 hits but was accorded perfect support by his teammates. Jake Messner collected three hits in four trips to lead the hurters for the day.

Third Round
Michaels caught Battling Wells in the left eye with a short right. He took three rights to the jaw in return. They clinched. As the bell rang both were sparring in the center of the ring. It was even.

Fourth Round
It is President Asher's by a big margin.

Bill Palmer did a good job of raising the flag without assistance.

With the band playing, with the stands filled and with Felix on his throne there was but one guess as to what the occasion meant to all of us.

Something happened everytime that heavy battling and came up— if you know which end, Bailey is one of them, and his hit in the seventh to bust open the inning almost sent Puckett to the hospital.

Orlando, the City Beautiful, (and all that sort of stuff) sent over oh, at least 35 cash customers. So good of them, you know. The previous day, in Orlando, approximately 500 Sanford fans were present for the opener. Did someone suggest that possibly we may be looked upon as suckers?

SARASOTA DROPS SECOND CONTEST TO MIAMI TEAM

East Coast Outfit Collects Put Game On Ice; Cesares Clouts Homer With One On Hits In Two Innings To

MIAMI, Apr. 23—Miami evened the series with Sarasota by taking the second game, 7 to 1. Bunched hits in the fifth and eighth innings enabled the locals to put the game on ice. Jenkins for Miami was nixed for 10 hits but he kept them scattered. Jones of Sarasota was pounded for 13 safeties including a home run by Cesares with one on in the fifth inning.

Richards left the hitters of the east coast aggregation, getting three hits out four trips to the plate.

Friends Of Walker Say He Will Refuse League Presidency

NEW YORK, Apr. 23—(INS)—Friends of James J. Walker, mayor of New York City, today expressed the belief that he would decline an offer of the presidency of the American League at a salary of $100,000 a year, reported to have been made by the league.

Although Walker insists that he has received no formal offer from the league, rumors persisted today that the league magnates at a recent meeting yesterday decided to offer him the post.

The mayor's reply to all questions was: "I have had no formal offer from the American League. In any event I would not discuss any offer until it had been made formally."

According to friends of the mayor, he will not entertain such an offer until his present term ends on Jan. 1, 1930. He is said to fear that his resignation at this time might result in the disruption of the political organization of the city.
