QUICK PASSAGE OF EMERGENCY BILL IS URGED

Robinson Desires Action At Once To Aid Farmer During His Present Troubles

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Prompt passage of the emergency farm relief program, designed to suspend foreclosures and ease the agricultural mortgage credit situation, was urged before the Senate banking subcommittee by Senator Robinson, Arkansas Democratic leader.

Appearing to give an explanation of the farm credit measure sponsored by him Robinson said the current Congress' time was so limited, it may be found impossible to work out and pass at this session the permanent measure relating to farm mortgages.

"In that view it is suggested the committee give consideration to preparing and passing the emergency measure pending enactment of more permanent legislation. If foreclosures can be suspended the committee and Congress can take more time to work out a more permanent program."

Robinson suggested the bill of Senator Hull, Tennessee, be considered as the emergency measure. It provides for a two years moratorium on farm mortgage payments, interest and taxes delinquent 18 months or longer and authority for the Reconstruction Corporation to lend up to one billion dollars to tide the farmers over the emergency.

Women's Clubs To Stage 3-Day Fair In Mayfair Hotel

The announcement of the first annual Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs Home Demonstration Fair was made this morning by Mrs. W. B. Ballard, of Altamonte Springs, general chairman of the event.

The fair, designed to display to the residents of this community everything that is essential to the well-rounded home, will be held in the lobby and ballrooms of the Mayfair Hotel for three days starting at 8:00 o'clock in the afternoon of Feb. 16 and concluding shortly before midnight on Saturday, Feb. 18.

The lobby will be crowded with displays from every local store, while through the courtesy and co-operation of local automobile dealers, latest models of their products will be on display in the ballroom.

Features of the fair include a fashion show, on the opening night, an automobile shown on Friday afternoon and night, a large display of quilts and rugs for which prizes will be awarded, and a dance on the final night.

The Home Demonstration Club of Seminole High School will have a large display of their hand-made products, a display similar to the one they will have at the Central Florida Exposition in Orlando next week.

New French Premier Completes Cabinet

PARIS, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Edmond Doumer, radical socialist party leader, today completed the formation of a new French government and presented his cabinet to President Lohereau. The ministry is composed of the socialist Doumer as premier and his associate, and the centre of the cabinet is composed of the moderate socialist Doumer as premier and his associate, and the centre of the cabinet is composed of the moderate socialist Doumer as premier and his associate.

Galsworthy, British Novelist, Is Dead

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(AP)—John Galsworthy, British novelist and dramatist, died today. He was 65. The famous writer had been suffering from emphysema and had been in a grave condition the past week. The illness developed from a severe cold contracted last month.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY STOPS FORECLOSURES

Makes Move To Ease Farm Debt Crisis In Western State

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Moving to ease the farm debt crisis in Iowa, the New York Life Insurance Company announced yesterday it had suspended foreclosures of mortgages on farms in that state.

This step was taken, said Thomas A. Buckner, president of the company, in response to the recent proclamation of the governor of Iowa.

While making no specific statement concerning its position on foreclosures in other states, Buckner said it had been the company's practice for some time not to foreclose farm mortgages for non-payment of interest or taxes so long as the owner, living on the farm, was endeavoring to keep up the property and making an effort to meet his obligations.

Other leading life insurance companies had no farm commitments, interest and taxes delinquent 18 months or longer and authority for the Reconstruction Corporation to lend up to one billion dollars to tide the farmers over the emergency.

ROOSEVELT IS BUSY PICKING HIS CABINET

Glass, Walsh, Farley Are Reported To Be Certain Members; Woman Is Slated

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Jan. 31.—(AP)—Organization of the new Democratic government took shape rapidly here yesterday as President-elect Roosevelt went into conference with his closest political advisers.

Last night following appeared to be certain cabinet members: Senator Glass, of Virginia, secretary of the treasury; Senator Walsh, of Montana, attorney general; James A. Farley, of New York, post-master general; Miss Frances Perkins, of New York, secretary of labor.

There was reason to believe also that pressure will be brought to bear on Owen D. Young, New York financier and economic authority, to become the secretary of state.

He had written Roosevelt a letter asking not to be considered but those in "the know" were inclined to keep Young's name still in the picture.

With less than five weeks to go before taking office, Roosevelt got down to business on the job of making more than a thousand new appointments of men to assist him in the direction of the government.

James A. Farley, national chairman, and Louis M. Howe, political secretary, the two men who were in the high command in the campaign, talked over the patronage situation.

Late in the day Roosevelt told newspapermen in the presence of the Democratic leaders with him: "I regard the cabinet as peculiarly my own official family to be named only by me."

Frank Walker, national party treasurer; Edward J. Flynn, New York party leader, and Robert Gore, of Chicago, were others of the Democratic chieftains arriving here.

Speculation on diplomatic posts turned on Newton D. Baker, of Ohio, for London; Judge Robert W. Ringham, Louisville publisher; (Continued on Page Five)

Long-Broussard Personal Feud Flares Up In Senate With Fiery Denunciations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Louisiana's bitter political enmities, personified in the two Democratic senators, Long and Broussard, flared into the open yesterday in fiery denunciatory Senate debate.

The state's self-styled kingfish, who led a campaign fight last year that resulted in Broussard's defeat for re-nomination by John H. Overton, took the floor to answer what he assailed as "propaganda, lying and vituperation" which he asserted had been circulated against him.

"I didn't claim I was nominated," declared Broussard, "but I have succeeded in obtaining a Senate investigation of the primary in which he was defeated, 'don't claim any office.' The state of Louisiana has been degraded to such an extent that I felt the corruption, bribery and intimidation even of the bankers of the state was such that a man is afraid to offer himself for public office."

So deep is the personal animosity between Long and Broussard that they do not speak, even though they pass each other in the capitol's corridor many times daily.

A Senate committee, headed by Howell of Nebraska, is to investigate the primary in which he was defeated, "don't claim any office." The state of Louisiana has been degraded to such an extent that I felt the corruption, bribery and intimidation even of the bankers of the state was such that a man is afraid to offer himself for public office."

MINOR VIOLENCE OCCURS IN STRIKE AT BRIGGS PLANT

DETROIT, Jan. 31.—(AP)—The first minor disturbances in the week-old strike of Briggs Manufacturing Company employees occurred yesterday, as the 6,000 men who walked out last week ignored the dead line set for their return.

Ten persons, three of them women, were under arrest and two men were treated in hospitals following clashes between pickets and persons who, police said, attempted to enter the employment gates of the company's plants.

An expected rush of unemployed at noon, when the company said they would open their offices to all applicants, failed to materialize.

Automotive circles awaited word from Henry Ford, whose factories throughout the country were closed because, his officials said, their supply of auto bodies from the Briggs plant was cut off. Ford (Continued on Page Two)

Roosevelt Handed Fifty-One Spanks Upon His Birthday

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Jan. 31.—(AP)—Celebrating his fifty-first birthday, President-elect Roosevelt got two parties, a number of gifts, a batch of congratulations and 51 spanks from his daughter Anne Curtis Dall.

Annie and Elliott, the two children here with the family, gave a party late yesterday at the Meriwether Inn to which all of the people of the community were invited and to which all came.

A one-shaped 86-pound cake given by Elliott stood on the table in the center of the dining room with 51 candles on it. In a jovial mood, Mr. Roosevelt cut it and passed out the pieces to the guests, most of whom were crippled children receiving care here.

It was a happy birthday celebration and the President-elect remained until he had to go to the cottage where Mrs. Roosevelt entertained at another informal party for her distinguished husband, Supper was served.

Immediate friends of the family attended this party, including James A. Farley, Frank Walker, Edward J. Flynn, Louis M. Howe, all political associates of Roosevelt, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., of New York.

ALLEGED BAND OF FLOGGERS IS ACQUITTED

Jacksonville Judge Directs Verdict As State Fails To Produce Enough Proof

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Deferring the state failed to produce sufficient evidence, Criminal Court Judge J. M. Peeler today directed a verdict of not guilty in the trial of seven alleged floggers indicted in connection with the assault on the Rev. J. L. Kelly.

C. C. Rabb, W. A. Jackson, Horace Stirling, and Oscar Bennett were found in trial for the alleged flogging of Smith Kelly.

Jackson, Bennett, J. L. Nettles, J. C. Godwin, and Hugh Lester were acquitted in the hearing of A. R. Berg.

Rabb, his brother, E. M. Rabb, Jackson, Stirling, and L. C. Bowers were acquitted by a jury last night on charges of aggravated assault in the whipping of Ole Bell Gilstrap.

Packard Elected As Chairman Of Grievance Body

REX PACKARD, representing Chase and Co., last night was elected chairman of the special Grievance and Adjustment Committee appointed yesterday by F. E. Dorner, president of the Semi-Agricultural Club. At the same time W. E. Hathaway was elected as secretary of the committee.

Each member of the committee was presented by Roy Symes, of the American Fruit Growers, R. R. Chapman of the Standard Growers Exchange, George Balmace of the Sanford-Divide Truck Growers, Inc., and Charles Dunn, representing the independent farmers.

Each reported that they believe the plan to destroy one-third of the matured celery crop at this time would be carried out 100 percent. Some reported that they had heard that opinion is almost unanimous among growers, that a remarkable step forward has been taken in the formation of the Celery Shippers organization backed by celery farmers from every part of the state. The feeling is also reported as being abroad that as conditions change in the industry, rules that may now be considered drastic or necessary will be changed accordingly and that the best interests of the growers will be considered in every case.

As announced yesterday, this committee is open for suggestions or complaints of any kind as well as to give information to the grower who does not understand just what part of his crop is to be destroyed, when to destroy it, or how long this plan is to remain in effect. The committee will meet again on Thursday night.

JACKSONVILLE — Congressman-elect William J. Beard, after nine weeks in hospital was able to return to his home.

"Prosperity Scrip" Is Receiving Approval Of Sanford Buying Public

"Prosperity Scrip," launched in Sanford by 20 leading merchants yesterday morning, is receiving the approval of the buying public of this city and county, according to a survey of the various co-operating stores today.

It is meeting with the kind of approval that has already caused the Herald to carry "Prosperity Scrip" in at least one case today. In at least one case today it was reported that scrip is being collected by one woman and sold for a cent apiece to another who plans to be a heavy bidder at the auction.

In order to make "Prosperity Scrip" more popular locally and to create further interest in the auction of some $150 worth of merchandise from the stage of the Milano Theater last Tuesday night, the merchants today decided to hold special sales tomorrow and Thursday. Merchandise that is actually worth far more than the special sale price arranged as a stimulating feature of this week will go on display in place

Toll Of Lives Taken By Blizzard Is 11

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—(AP)—The toll of lives in the blizzard that swept the Far West continued to threaten efforts to rescue hundreds of persons marooned in the mountain regions. The most extensive struggle was in the San Bernardino mountains where hundreds of motorists were trapped by the blizzard. Rescuers said most of the trapped persons who had numbered 2,000 are being moved out over roads cleared by snow-plows. No immediate danger to life was reported.

CHINESE SPEAKER TALKS AT ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEON

Chih Meng Describes Trials And Perils In Far East Situation

"Only in not recognizing the illegal seizure by Japan can the peace of the world be safeguarded" said Chih Meng, nationally known Chinese platform speaker as he concluded an address on "International Affairs" before Sanford Rotarians and their guests gathered at the Rotary Club today.

The young speaker, a political lecturer and leader in the Student League Movement in 1919 in Peking, descendant of Meng-Tzu, 272 B.C., who was considered China's foremost political philosopher, and now associate director of the China Institute in America, brought his Sanford audience a condensed picture of conditions as they now exist in the Far East and how they affect the peace of the world.

Opening his remarks by stating that "What you Americans read in newspapers and see on movie screens no more adequately furnishes you with information about our country than what our headlines and your American heads shown in China tell us about your country", Mr. Meng asked his hearers to discount every story or picture to a considerable degree.

"Your impressions of China," he said "must be similar to ours." (Continued on Page Four)

Group Will Leave To Plead Lake's Case

PURVIS LAKE, former banker, H. S. White, and S. H. Highton, local attorneys, left for Tallahassee this afternoon where tomorrow morning they will appear before the Supreme Court to argue several points relating to the Lake case.

Mr. White will lead in the arguments at the re-hearing, while Mr. Highton, who prepared many of the points for debate, will be present to assist in the case if necessary. The party expects to return here by Thursday morning.

HITLER CHOICE CAUSES TENSE BITTER STRIFE

Two Persons Killed, Several Wounded, Many Arrested In Scattered Clashes

BERLIN, Jan. 31.—(AP)—The ascendancy of Chancellor Hitler crystallized today into a tense, bitter feeling sharply dividing the nation. Two persons were slain, several wounded, and many arrested in clashes throughout the Reich, within a day after the dynamic national socialist chieftain's regime came into existence.

The accession to power of Adolf Hitler as chancellor of Germany brought comments from jubilation to gloomy predictions of impending trouble.

Paris—Although official dispatches were not alarmed, there was a repercussion on the Bourse, where Young playboys lost four francs in the day. Earlier the loss had ranged up to 13 francs. Official quarters kept a careful watch on the situation and expressed interest especially in the new chancellor's attitude concerning the League of Nations and disarmament.

Washington—Little apprehension was voiced concerning the effect the appointment might have on international relations. It was believed that the responsibility imposed upon the new chancellor would result in a more conservative policy than he has heretofore pursued.

Reminders Sent Calling Notice To C. Of C. Drive

General R. A. Newmac, members of his staff, and all captains and lieutenants of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce membership campaign array today were mailed letters reminding them that the annual drive for 1000 members in 35 hours gets under way next Tuesday morning, and that they are scheduled to play a prominent part.

The letter called attention to the fact that all captains are expected to gather at the City Hall on Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock to select prospect cards and secure buttons, application cards and similar articles needed during the drive.

They are also reminded that the "Kick-Off" breakfast at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Valdes Hotel, to campaign all day Tuesday and Wednesday, and to meet at the Valdes Hotel at a "Victory Supper" at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday night.

Miller Gets $66,000 Verdict Against Mix

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 31.—(AP)—A jury today awarded Zach Miller, Oklahoma rancher, $66,000 in damages against Tom Mix, movie cowpuncher. Miller alleged that Mix broke his contract to appear with Miller's 101 Ranch show and used $312,000. Two years ago a jury awarded Miller $30,000 but the case was postponed and a new trial granted.

Campbell Arrives In U.S. On Way To Beach

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Big Malcolm Campbell, still somewhat weak and shaky from an attack of influenza, arrived today on the liner Aquitania en route to Daytona Beach, where he will attempt to raise his world land speed record in his rebuilt Buickbird II. "I'm all set to go as soon as beach conditions permit," said Campbell.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

FURNISH NO FUEL: Where the wind is, there the fire is kindled; so where there is no talker, the strife ceaseth.—Proverbs 26:20.

Did you ever read a birth announcement or a death notice on a hand bill or a sign board? No, and we don't think you ever will. Advertisements in the newspapers are the ones that get the results.—Tavares Citizen. It pays to advertise.

Causes for the farmers' plight are undoubtedly varied but some indications of their character are perhaps to be found in news from Italy, hailed with great satisfaction there, that scientific farming, modern machinery, and fertilizers have increased the production of Italian wheat 74 percent since 1922. American wheat growers cannot compete with Italian wheat growers in Italy.

Sanford residents interested in dramatics, will recall the story of Tondeleyo, half caste girl of "White Cargo," which played in this section a few years ago. Tondeleyo, finally deserted her white lover, took poison and died. The other day at the age of twenty-eight, disillusioned and discouraged, Edith Ransome, the Tondeleyo of "White Cargo," stranded in Seattle, also took poison and died.

All railroad stocks are going begging but not all investors are fearful of railroad stocks. Leonard F. Loree, president of the Delaware & Hudson, and recognized as smart when it comes to buying and selling, recently sold ten million dollars worth of government bonds and bought ten million dollars worth of stock in the New York Central railroad. The railroad's sun may have set, but evidently Mr. Loree does not think so.

An argument used to encourage inflation includes the White Sulphur Springs, N. Y. farmer who mortgaged his assets in 1929 for $3,500 and because of the decrease in prices must now pay back the equivalent of $13,000. Inflation of the currency, it is said, would increase the farmer's price and thus bring the value of the mortgage back down to $3,500. But why inflate currency, thus affecting all debtors and creditors? Why not in this particular case compromise the mortgage, thus accomplishing the same purpose?

Every new day brings on its quota of depression. Latest among them comes from Point, N. Y. where a weekly newspaper, says the newspapers are to blame for advertising the depression in their columns and are to be merely by reading so "invariably" in "Point, N. Y." The paper says: "This will print no more news of the depression in any form, including speculation as to its cause, its effects, its remedy, or its prevention. If the plan is to keep the newspapers by it on the next day, let them do it without the aid of the newspaper that flows up from the West Indies."

Many rumors have been spread among the Chicago and other places regarding the large loan made by the Central Bank of America and Trust Company of New York to the United States Government. It is reported that the loan is for $100,000,000 and is to be used for the purpose of financing the government's war debt. The loan is to be made in the form of a series of bonds, and is to be repaid over a period of 30 years. The interest rate on the loan is to be 4 percent.

An Experiment

Troubled Germany which for many months has been suffering from a political impotency almost unparalleled in modern times has finally turned to Adolf Hitler, the Nazi chieftain, for the organization it so badly needs. His appointment to head a cabinet composed of the leaders of the three major parties of the right comes at a time when it seemed impossible to find any man who could command a majority of the reichstag and when Hitler himself appeared to be losing ground.

In the July election of last summer almost fourteen million Nazi votes were cast, by far the largest number of any German party. By November, however, Hitler and his followers were able to amass a vote of less than twelve million. Political observers argued that Hitler's sun had set, that the Nazi movement must go forward or disintegrate altogether. Later events tended to substantiate this view particularly when it was learned that the Nazi organization was heavily involved in debt.

It may have been this apparent weakening of Adolf Hitler which encouraged the venerable Von Hindenburg to entrust him with the chancellorship. Hitler has ideas which do not coincide either with the German constitution, or with the sense of right and wrong among most civilized peoples of the world. And he has some 600,000 uniformed and recklessly enthusiastic storm troops with which to enforce his ideas. But a leader whose influence with the general public is on the wane might not dare.

Early in the Nazi movement, Hitler, who is not a German, but an Austrian, and served as a corporal in the World War, gained his remarkable popularity not so much by the emotional appeal of his oratory and the strength of his personality, though both are noteworthy, as by his promises to relieve Germans of the overwhelming burden of foreign obligations, both public and private.

More recently, however, the Nazi chieftain, under pressure of financiers who feared for the credit reputation of Germany among the leading nations of the world, has so modified his program as to exclude private debts from those foreign obligations which were to be repudiated. And since the Allies practically cancelled German reparations at the Lausanne conference, there is not much left for Hitler to repudiate. Hence, the recent weakness of his program.

Of course, the German chancellorship is not the real goal of this fiery Austrian. He insists that a dictatorship, with himself as dictator, after the manner of Mussolini, is the only form of government open to Germany which will bring order out of chaos. But a dictatorship is not to the liking of Von Hindenburg, who is pledged to the support of the constitution, nor of any of the land barons, nor of the large class of labor unions, nor of the communists, who are the largest single political party next to the Nazis.

Hitler's goal could be accomplished under today's conditions only by force of arms and with the army under the command of Von Schleicher and hostile to the Nazi movement, such a coup would entail considerable bloodshed. Perhaps the power of the chancellorship will help to cool the blood of Adolf Hitler. Many a radical has become a conservative when entrusted with the responsibilities of high office.

A Sleeping Giant

What will become of the workmen who now make razor blades when that product is so perfected as to last a lifetime and there won't be any need for more production, as the Technocrats claim is now possible?

Well, the answer might be that they will be making air conditioning equipment, or selling it, or installing it, or keeping books on it, or doing a hundred other things which might have to be done in connection with an industry which, it is said, has a potential market of at least five billion dollars.

Air conditioning is a process by which the air we breathe in our offices, theaters, or homes is treated in such a manner as to make it most healthful and pleasant for human consumption. If the atmosphere is too hot, it can be cooled; if too dry, it can be made moist. Every particle of dirt is removed in the process and the air is circulated to give the most beneficial effect.

When one considers that there are 80 million dwelling houses in the United States, 25 thousand big theaters, one thousand department stores, 15 hundred large banks, and other prospects, then some idea of the limitless possibilities of this new industry can be gained.

Think of the advantages of living the year round in a house where the temperature always remains at the ideal point, where the air is as clean and pure as that on a high mountain, where draperies and furniture stay free of dirt, where the winters are without colds, and the summers without hay-fever.

When you consider that the common cold alone costs the public hundreds of millions of dollars annually, then you will have some idea of the value of air conditioning from a health standpoint, and you may be able to gain some conception of the part it may play in the next business revival.

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

One of the most brilliant and certainly one of the most successful social events of the mid-winter season was the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodruff for the purpose of celebrating the new minister, the Rev. E. H. Brown, of Atlanta, lately called to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of this city. Devotions were served during the evening by Mrs. Jay Beck and Mrs. E. J. Holly. Refreshments were served at a late hour by Mrs. E. A. Howard and Mrs. M. E. Hill, assisted by the Misses Chappel, Davis, Furbush, Conolly, and Winters.

President-elect Wilson announced tonight that his conference with prominent Democrats generally about "New Deal" policies which have been in progress since he returned from Europe, was at an end. He said: "I will devote the rest of my time to the duties of a private citizen."

The Orange-Cuba Mutual Society held their annual banquet at the Hotel Duquesne in Orlando Wednesday night. Physicians and members of the Orange-Cuba Mutual Society were present. The banquet was a success and the proceeds were used for the benefit of the society.

THE DOCTOR OF THE HOUR

AN ASTOUNDING SHERIFF

HOMESTEAD LEADER

Dade county was treated last week to the astounding spectacle of a sheriff reiterating his pre-election platform almost word for word nearly a month after he had been in office. And when the "liberal-minded" boys suddenly realized that Dan Hardie hadn't merely been handing out vote-getting hokum when he talked about cleaning up Dade county what a howl went up!

Sol Goldstrom and the Miami Daily News are all exercised over Mr. Hardie's heinous crime of "washing" Dade county's dirty linen" while the winter visitors are here, and they are afraid it will frighten little Miss Muffet away. What it will do, and what Dan Hardie most likely intended to do, will be to give the visitors in Miami and Miami Beach a sense of security that neither they nor home folk have felt since Mr. Alphonse Capone, as he was deferentially referred to by another Miami newspaper at the time, figured so prominently in news dispatches from Miami.

Dan Hardie probably has not forgotten the passing of Jack Orr, whose end was hastened by an attack of undoubted gangster origin—Jack Orr, who, campaigning for Dan Hardie just a few months before his death, told of

Long-Broussard Feud Flares Up

In Senate Hall

Yesterday Long said his opponents had stated publicly they did not expect to win the election and asserted that they "wanted" to build up a case to bring to the United States Senate.

He termed a "damnable falsehood" a printed charge that the organization with which he is connected "arrested Broussard election officials" on the day of the primary. He said that only a few persons were arrested, the Long supporters "incarcerated and kept in prison for the day," but Broussard advocates released.

Broussard, who sat quietly within a few feet of the irascible Long until the latter concluded, promised the Senate a full answer to Long's statements today.

In reply to Long's declaration that he had supported Broussard in 1928, the latter commented "when he inducts me he elected me to the United States Senate he states something that is untrue" adding that he was elected first in 1920, and that Long's brother supported him subsequently.

The organization in Louisiana Broussard said, had reached such a state "to the point that he (candidate) is honest, he can not get past" continuing with the remark that he had supporting Long for the republican nomination of the state of Louisiana.

Long continued the fight on the Louisiana front, but he was not expected to win it.

Louttit Declines To Accept Post At Palm Beach

In his letter of resignation Rev. Louttit, who came to Sanford from the Trinity Church at Miami where he served as assistant for one year, said:

"It is with deep and sincere regret that I tender herewith my resignation as rector of Holy Cross Church, Sanford, to take effect on the first of March or as soon thereafter as possible. This action, as you will know, is taken only after much careful deliberation and prayer. Our relationship most happy one and the signs of progress sufficient to justify our belief that our work together has been reasonably successful.

"And yet I have been persuaded that it is God's will that I should resign.

Pickets who marched in circles about the plants set upon two men who they declared attempted to enter the gates to seek employment. Arthur Noblet was beaten about the head. Stephen Lawrence was cut about the face when pickets threw a brick through the window of his car as he drove near the employment gates. A force of state police held the pickets back, and took both men to hospitals for treatments.

The 10 persons were arrested early yesterday morning, when police reported they staged a noisy demonstration. Warrants charging disturbance of the peace were sworn out for them.

Members of the strike committee declared a strike is being organized in the plants of the Murray Corp. of America, also makers of auto bodies. Clarence W. Avery, president of the Murray corporation, said his plant was shut down "about 80 percent" because of an interlocking contract for parts with the Briggs Company, and said about 200 toolmakers had walked out in a "sympathy action" with the Briggs strikers. He said there was no general strike at the plant. Police reported the strikers were endeavoring to prevent violence.

Things look different in COLD BLACK TYPE

"I HEAR," said the friend, "that you have just made $50,000 in the insurance business."

"Right—except for one or two slight particulars. It was real estate—not insurance. It was $75,000, not $50,000. And I didn't make it—I lost it!"

Has it ever happened to you that something you've told an acquaintance comes back, after many days, so distorted that you hardly recognize it? The spoken word so changes and colors much that we say, that by the time it passes many lips only the skeleton of truth remains.

But how different it is with the printed word! That is why you can trust the advertisements. Had you thought of it that way? Because the manufacturer and merchant are compelled to be accurate in type, you know that the quality of soap, gloves, the clothing, hat or furniture you buy is as standardized as the calendar. It's all the manufacturer and retailer stand for it. It has to be!

Read the advertisements. Read them carefully, critically. Read them for profit—read them knowing that the truth pays... you and the advertiser!
