

Butler Hearing Talky Talk Among Newsmen

By LITTLE C. WELSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP) — Chairman Paul M. Butler of the Democratic National Committee has heard a lot of talky talk among Washington newsmen that year. "That would seem unlikely on the face of it, but it could be true. Who heard what wouldn't make much difference, anyway, but for the fact that Butler reports the newsmen's opinion to be twangling with reports that there is a deal for President Eisenhower to resign."

President Richard M. Nixon for the former to quit after the November congressional elections.

"This is something that is very difficult to prove," Butler said. "But certainly there has been as much talk and conversation about it in official circles and particularly among the Washington press corps that it would appear that there is some basis for it."

Different Deal
It is true that there was a deal, announced by the President some weeks ago. It was an agreement as to the circumstances and method by which Nixon would take over as acting president if the boss were incapacitated. This was no such deal as Butler suggested however.

Neither is any deal by which the President would resign soon or ever much discussed or given credence at the grill tables or at the bar of the National Press Club where Washington newsmen gossip most often and most freely.

One day you can get a bet that the President will not live out his second term. Another day you can get a bet that he will. Bets that he will up and quit in any deal to get Nixon in the White House, however, are few, if any, although they might be had at the right odds.

Dept. May Stop Financing Citrus Research Data

LAKELAND (UP) — The U. S. Department of Agriculture has indicated it will stop financing consumer research data on Florida citrus after next year.

But the state Citrus Commission has reported that the federal government probably will put up another $50,000 this year on the project.

The commission quoted Don Paarlberg, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, as saying a "serious question" arises as to whether public research funds should be placed with a private contractor for the purchasing of marketing data for an indefinite period.

A meeting to discuss plans for the coming year has been scheduled in Washington next month with representatives of the Agriculture Department, the citrus industry and the Market Research Corp., which has been gathering the data.

Citrus interests and the federal government pay the firm $100,000 a year for weekly, monthly and quarterly research of consumer purchase of citrus and citrus products.

Minnesota's Centennial Hits Climax This Week

By BOB QUINN

NEW YORK (UP) — Joseph E. Dillon, a sandy-haired Irishman who at 57 has just been re-elected to his third consecutive term as mayor of St. Paul, Minn., has been in our town to let us know that his great state's centennial celebration hits a climax this week.

On the motion of Senator Douglas of Illinois, Minnesota was admitted to statehood 100 years ago next Sunday. On Saturday, St. Paul streets will ring to the clang of bugle bands and the sound of drums. On Sunday, St. Paul streets will ring to the clang of bugle bands and the sound of drums.

Celebrations on Monday will be 67 floats, 67 historical units, and 67 bands of the Doolittle, Mankind Will Benefit If U.S. Masters Space

WASHINGTON (UP) — Gen. James H. Doolittle testified that if Russia gains control of space "the consequences are fairly plain — probable Soviet world domination."

But if the United States wins the space race, he said, "all mankind will benefit."

The retired general said this country should send manned vehicles to the moon just as soon as research permits and "then on to the planets."

Doolittle, World War II hero and now chairman of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, made the statements before the Senate's special space committee.

He endorsed President Eisenhower's proposal for setting up a civilian agency, built around the NACA, to carry out a non-military space exploration program.

"Just as rapidly as research can provide the necessary data, we should employ this information in the development and use of manned vehicles to deepen our penetration into the far distances of our solar system, first to the moon and then on to the planets," he said.

Doolittle said a space program will cost "in the hundreds of millions of dollars" for years to come. He said it is too early to say what benefits, other than national prestige and greater security, will come from such a program.

Roy W. Johnson, director of the Defense Department's Advance Research Projects Agency, told the House space committee Monday his agency has decided to go ahead with a "very urgent" secret space project with a "50 percent chance of success." He refused to disclose details in public.

AID TO BE STREAMLINED
BEIRUT, Lebanon (UP) — The Lebanese cabinet laid plans to streamline the U. S. aid program in Lebanon today after defeating a minority effort to cancel the aid altogether. After a heated debate Monday, Premier Sa'ad Solh's cabinet decided to coordinate all programs under a Ministry of planning.

PRICE OF CAVIAR UP
MOSCOW (UP) — The retail price of caviar has gone up 50 percent in Russia. The price was boosted Tuesday from 120 rubles ($24.00) at the arbitrary official rate of exchange per kilo 2.2 pounds to 180 rubles ($36.00).

75-trombone variety headed by Gen. Lauris Norstad a Red Wing, Minn., boy and viewed by Judy Garland a Grand Rapids, Minn., girl along with Princess Astrid of Norway and Prince Bertil of Sweden.

In Minneapolis, a place reputed to have more Scandinavians than Stockholm has Sweden, centennial day will have its main speech by one of the most traveled men of the century, John Foster Dulles, who will breeze in from Copenhagen, Berlin, Paris, and other points too numerous to record.

One out of every three persons in Minnesota, Dillon said, is of Scandinavian descent. He doesn't claim that this matter of nationality is the main causative force in the state's greatness, but he does point out that Minnesota's railroad titan, James J. Hill, once said:

"I wouldn't give you a dime for a man on whom snow doesn't fall."

Which remark brings the mayor to a laughing comment on Minnesota's weather: "If you live in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area, the balance strikes the delightful extremes of 20-below-zero every winter and 100 in the shade every summer. What man could complain about a 120-degree weather range?"

Indian Name
As for Minnesota, that's a Sioux Indian word which the mayor translated as "land of the sky blue waters." And those 10,000 lakes have helped make Minnesota perhaps the fishingest inland state. It issues more than a million fishing licenses a year.

Incidentally, the state's northwestern angle of the Minnesota border is the northernmost part of the United States. Remember

Attack On Tito Puts Khrushchev On Spot

WARSAW, Poland (UP)—Communist China's violent attack on the "hero" of Yugoslavia's President Tito has put Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev squarely on the spot, Polish sources said today.

They said the blistering editorial assault by Peiping this week on the program of the Yugoslav party almost certainly was aimed as much at Khrushchev as it was at Marshal Tito.

Dear Molly,

Dear Molly,
On Mother's Day I'd like to be able to give you a thousand and one gifts and I'd like to be able to give you only a message to wear to church and this letter.
For on this Mother's Day, I'd like to say some of the things I've sometimes forgot to say. I'd like to tell you how much I love you, and how proud I am that you're my wife as well as our daughter's mother.
When I saw Betty walking out of church school last week, it did something to me. She's learning right from the start some of the things I missed, and I have you to thank for it. I wish I had a churchgoer when we got married, you know that... and even if I had nothing else to be grateful for, I could never forget that it was you who taught me what the Church means. I am grateful to God for bringing us together. In church this morning my prayer will be one of thanks... for yesterday, for today, for always.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The New WAYNE D. OVERHOLTER Thriller THE LONE DEPUTY

Price Hagan, town marshal of Red- die Rock, Colo., and deputy sheriff of Fremont county, was more on the main than Larry Madden ever thought of. He had a chance to get that he is marrying her. Price would be willing to wait to marry her, but it was not the man in the middle in a struggle of power and pride between a nation's sheriff and a town marshal. Price was not a man to be trifled with. He was a man who had a reputation for being a hard-boiled cop. He was a man who had a reputation for being a hard-boiled cop. He was a man who had a reputation for being a hard-boiled cop.

Price heard wind go out of Cronin's long coat, and for a short moment Cronin seemed paralyzed as his empty lungs searched for breath. His mouth was open, his eyes distended. Price brought his head up in a savage thrust. He caught Cronin square under the chin; he heard teeth snap together, and as he stepped back he saw blood run down Cronin's chin.

Price stepped down, wondering if he had any chance of pulling his gun. But Cronin was unarmed, and shooting a woman even under these circumstances went against his grain. "Take off your belt," Cronin said. "Hang it over the saddle horn. Then tie your horse." He motioned to the hitch rack in front of the store.

Price obeyed, and stepped away from his horse. Then Cronin was on him, swinging a great fist up from his knees, and Rose shrieked. "Kill him, Walt! Kill him!" Price tipped his head to one side, Cronin's fist ripping his ear. He caught Cronin with an up-swinging right that jarred him, but didn't stop him. The man was bigger than Price, and stronger; he was like a bull. He kept barging in, striking with his left and then his right.

Backing up, Price took the blows on his shoulders as much as he could, or on his arms. He knew it wasn't any good. He couldn't win a fight by blocking the other man's punches, and when he did connect, his blows seemed to have no more effect on Cronin than a goat bawling in his ear. The trouble was, he couldn't land a sell punch. He was at arms' length, ducking and dodging, and pivoting in a desperate effort to keep from being knocked out by one of Cronin's roundhouse blows. It would have carried the authority of a state kick.

Mayfair Inn Gets Recognition in New D. Hines Edition

The Mayfair Inn has received national recognition in the new 1958 edition of Duncan Hines Vacation Guide just off the press. It is the only resort in Sanford, and among some 1,000 vacation places in the United States recommended by Duncan Hines. There are a total of 1,900 resorts listed in this new edition for the U. S., Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean, Bermuda and Hawaii. According to the publisher, the Duncan Hines Institute, Ithaca, N. Y., it is the thirteenth printing for this 284-page travel guide book. It is the champion edition to the other two Duncan Hines travel books, Adventures in Good Eating and Lodging For A Night, which have been used by millions of Americans for nearly a quarter of a century. "This is the largest and most extensively revised edition we have published of Vacation Guide," stated Roy H. Park, vice-president of the Duncan Hines Institute.

"Starting with a new four-color wrap-around American map cover, showing regional vacation attractions, we revised this 1958 edition," he explained, "so that anyone using this book could plan a vacation right in their own armchair, not only have fun doing it, but have more fun on their holiday."

As an example of the choices available, he pointed out that in the Caribbean one can choose from such exotic and colorful islands as the Bahamas, Antigua, Barbados, Cuba, Curacao, the Dominican Republic and Haiti, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Trinidad and Tobago, and the Virgin Islands. "A special effort was made," he said, "to offer variety in the choice of specific resorts—for winter or summer vacation, roughing it or dress up, and for every size of budget."

"We also list for the first time the specific recreational facilities on the premises of the resorts. Wherever possible we have described the type of guests to which the resort cater. Of course, we have included every bit of necessary information for the detailed planning such as location, address, telephone number, reservation requirements, seasons open and rates."

He revealed that there has been a complete revision, too, in the method of listing the resorts. "To give the vacation-planner all the facts and figures in one compact guide book," he stated, "there are regional, state and area descriptions. Included is such information as climate, rail and air transportation, geographical location, historical and sightseeing points of interest and principal industries, not only for the United States—which is divided into eight vacation regions—but for all the listed vacation lands."

Although the book contains more pages, more listings, more vacation and more pertinent information than ever before, Park noted, the retail price remains the same—$1.50 per copy. The book is on sale at bookstores, department stores, many of the places recommended by Duncan Hines—or it can be ordered direct from the Duncan Hines Institute, Ithaca, N. Y. There are two other Duncan Hines guide books: Adventures in Good Eating which lists 3,000 selected eating places in North America, and Lodging For A Night which lists 3,000 selected places to spend the night. The fourth Duncan Hines book is Adventures in Good Cooking and The Art of Carving in the Home, which contains 700 tested recipes of unusual dishes from America's favorite eating places plus an illustrated carving section with clear, easy-to-follow instructions.

Opportunity For Appreciation

Armed Forces Day 1958 affords Sanford and Seminole County citizens an opportunity to show their appreciation to the United States Navy for their wonderful support in the community.

It is indeed another "Navy Appreciation Day" as well as a recognition to all of the Armed Forces of our country for all they have done to defend America at home and abroad.

"Power for Peace", the slogan for the 1958 Armed Forces Day on Saturday, May 17, is commensurate with the power of the Navy right here in our own community and their ability to defend against aggression at a moment's notice.

The committee leading this year's Armed Forces Day celebration has called upon Sanford and Seminole County organizations to display their appreciation for the Navy, the Army, the Air Force, the Marine Corps and all of the other branches of the service by turning out for the celebration in a huge parade.

Response should be immediate to the call for cooperation in staging one of the biggest and finest parades and celebrations Sanford has ever seen.

There is no doubt that citizens and their organizations will realize their responsibility toward the Armed Forces of America and demonstrate their appreciation through active participation in Sanford's tribute to the men of courage—the "Power for Peace"—on Armed Forces Day.

It's Time To Face The Problems

Teacher shortage and classroom shortage are phrases that have almost lost their meaning for a great number of Americans. There has been so much talk of these shortages during the past several years that the phrases scarcely evoke a response any more. We had better have another look at these phrases, and respond to them.

For instance, to point out very strongly, here in Seminole County there will be double sessions in one school—a shortage of classrooms. Certainly the situation will be corrected for much work is being done to alleviate the double sessions as quickly as possible. Seminole County is growing, growing swiftly and in huge proportions, which in turn keeps educational leaders busy providing space necessary for classroom instruction.

So we see that the cardinal fact is that teacher shortage and classroom shortage are not mere phrases. They state a situation that exists, and that is going to become worse if vigorous steps are not taken. A national leader in the world of education said recently that "merely to keep up with enrollment increases" in schools and colleges during the next decade would require $25 billion a year.

Twenty-five billions is a mammoth sum, even if it is on a national scale; perhaps it is an exaggeration. Yet when one studies the figures showing how school population will rise within the next ten years it becomes clear that the spending for teachers and educational facilities will have to be tremendous.

What is the figure here in Seminole County? It was figured that $2½ million would complete the necessary construction for classroom facilities for the next ten years. However, that figure was of some six months ago. It has probably increased somewhat since then.

The national leader in education circles believes that the conscience of Americans

Dear Sir:

The Seminole County Mental Health Association would like to extend "Thanks" to everyone who participated in, attended and publicized the Forum Program.

"What's On Your Mind?"

There is certainly little need to add that Mental Health is the Nation's No. 1 Health Problem and we have heard a good deal about it during this past month. Let us hope that the things we have been told and the things that the association is promoting will soon become a reality for Seminole County. We can not hear too much about this problem or do too much for it, because it affects everyone in the Community.

If you are inclined to turn a "deaf ear" to the many announcements made on radio, TV, and in your newspaper, be very happy, because this can only mean that you haven't a Mental Health problem, those who do, cannot ever hear too much about what needs to be done and what it is.

Sincerely,
Mr. Stanley Pimorah
Education Chairman and Secretary
Seminole County Mental Health Association

TODAY'S THOUGHT

"Put in that in my opinion in the eye of the party."

IN HOMETOWN AMERICA

Backstairs At The White House

By HENRY HUGHES
Special From Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — Backstairs at the White House:

A reporter recently asked President Eisenhower what he was doing in the way of following his own instructions to the American people—buy anything but collectively. The President curtly referred the reporter to his military aide, Col. Robert L. Schude. The colonel has been unavailable for amplification. However, there have been no signs that any recent purchases for the President have been unusual or large.

Two things purchased regularly for the President by Schude are paper-back western novels and art supplies.

Simple as it may appear at first glance, the job of finding paper-backs for the president has turned out to be a difficult one. His biggest problem is finding a western that the President hasn't already read. Publishers voluntarily keep the president supplied with most of the new ones as they come off the press.

And the President reads them at a fast clip. He reads them often in bed for relaxation before going to sleep. An aide said Eisenhower finds them excellent for relieving the mental tensions built up during the day's work on world and domestic problems.

The first 10 pages usually are enough for the President to decide whether to throw aside a western novel or finish reading it, an aide said. Sometimes, he gets about half through in one reading. Other times, he is ready for sleep after three or four pages.

The President uses his hobby of painting as another means of relaxing and letting down from the tensions of his office. He usually gets in three or four painting sessions a week. His favored time is for 30 minutes or so after a post-lunch nap or rest.

Although the President never has one of his subjects sit him when he is painting a portrait, he occasionally will ask his wife or grandson David—two of his favorite subjects—to step into the second-floor White House room he uses as a studio. He paints from photographs but sometimes needs to check the subject for a detail of coloring or feature.

One limousine of White House newsmen got way ahead of the President on the return trip from Stratford, Va., Sunday. The caravan, headed by the President's limousine, pulled out before some of the reporters finished filing copy.

The reporters had their driver speed back toward Washington in an effort to catch the caravan.

It was not until they reached a toll bridge about 30 miles from Stratford that they learned they were ahead of the President, because he had made a brief stop.

Foreign News Commentary

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru has been compelled to concede that he is India's indispensable man.

After a week of crisis in his Congress Party, Nehru has agreed to abandon his plan to give up the prime ministry and go into retirement as India's elder statesman.

Instead, Nehru has settled for a six-weeks vacation in an isolated valley of the Himalayan Mountains near the Tibetan frontier.

There, he plans to work on his autobiography and study the many problems which beset India and the Congress Party.

Tired and Male
Back in March Nehru began to tell his fellow ministers that he was physically tired and mentally stale after leading his country as a benevolent dictator since it attained independence on Aug. 15, 1947.

He is 68 years old and has been in active politics for 40 years. He is foreign minister and head of the department for atomic energy as well as prime minister, and he attends meetings of Parliament to answer questions, direct the legislative program and make frequent speeches.

The report that Nehru wanted to retire leaked out first in a newspaper. It caused little excitement. He had said the same thing during a period of depression four years ago.

But on April 30, Nehru broke the news officially at a meeting of party members of Parliament. The party was thrown into panic. A series of secret meetings followed.

Reversed Decision
"Panditji, you are leaving us orphans," members grieved as leader after leader appealed to him to stay in office. Panditji—little teacher—is the affectionate nickname for Nehru.

Nehru became angry at first. He asked that he be permitted at least to give up leadership temporarily. But the party insisted a formal resolution saying that he absolutely could not be spared. Nehru gave in.

It looks now as if what Nehru really wanted to do was to scare his party into rejuvenated activity. If so, he certainly succeeded.

The party has been suffering from too much prosperity. With 300 seats in Parliament out of a total of 484, it had become complacent. There have been charges of corruption and graft. The country's financial situation is bad. And the Communist Party, which now controls one of India's 14 states, is gaining strength in others.

Next week, when Nehru goes on his vacation, the party will start a series of meetings to try to lighten discipline, restore unity and regain the vigor it had in leaner days.

But it looks as if all the problems will be awaiting Nehru's decision when he gets back to work.

Conning The News

It is pretty awful when one gets so lazy that the same stack of records that has been playing on the M-4 is still there after three months. Most go change these things. There, Frank Sinatra and Gladys Knight should put me in the proper mood.

Next week is Memorial Week in honor of the men who died in the war. Mayor Merle Warner, Merle did it differently this time. He read the proclamation over the radio at noon today. So please note the picture. We signed took him in the laboratory getting a shot. All for human interest.

Have a lovely place of manuscript here about the same time as the school year, but will have to leave you in suspense until Monday. Take a little deciphering and thought, but believe me, it will not be dull. Nor will it be boring.

Time for my two cents about the baroque at the Country Club.

Hope you have your reservations for tomorrow night, if you plan to come. If not, it is probably too late. Sidney Wilson will be there with music. Cotton Brown, with baritone. Helen Andrew, with food. Meet in 7:30 p. m. And it is Mr. McRoberts birthday, but since he wants a secret the fact will not be broadcast.

And TONIGHT is the night for Annabelle Fleming's Spring Frolic at the Sanford Junior High School. I really spot the appreciative other day with an article announcing that it would be held (tonight) Monday. Kids and mothers and teachers were frantically calling Annabelle to see what had happened.

And I couldn't end this without saying something about the new school building. With re-regulation a definite thing, the school board must now set and vote on the amount needed. It will be staggering, since the last one we voted on only allowed for improvements on schools, plus a couple of new buildings. Let's hope that this time we can get a whole hog and get what we need; adequate school buildings. If they were only adequate for now, surely they would be overgrown within a few years, with the influx of Florida residents.

The temptation is always the conservative halfway measure—leaving a little better off than before. We can do little to revamp our old-fashioned school system if the buildings cannot hold the children to begin with, and if we are losing many of our good teachers because of poor facilities. Let's have something in Seminole County that we can point to and say, "We really did that right!"

Quarterly Meeting Held By WMU In Oviedo Monday

OVIEDO.—The quarterly supper of the W. M. U. of the Oviedo Baptist Church was held Monday evening in the new educational building.

Mother Of Year Married Widower

NEW YORK.—Mrs. May Reber Coker, 68, of Hartsville, N. C., daughter of a former secretary of commerce and widow of a well-known agriculturist, was named the American Mother of the Year today by the American Mothers Committee, Inc.

Mrs. Coker was married at 94 to David R. Coker, a widower many years her senior with five small children. She bore him three daughters and raised all the children, who now range in age from 24 to 28, the committee said.

In addition, it was said, she instilled that the mother of her husband's first wife remain a member of her household until her death.

Mrs. Coker has been honored by her community and her state and by the Garden Clubs of America for her work in beautifying the community of Hartsville, through classes in gardening and developing a tract of woodland into "Kalmia Gardens." She has been active in other civic works as well, and has opened her home to lonely, poor and sick visitors at all times.

The Mother of the Year award will be presented to Mrs. Coker at a luncheon here Friday, to be attended by mothers from all the states, territories and the District of Columbia from among whom she was selected.

On May 13, she and the American Mother of 1937, Mrs. George P. Abel Sr., of Lincoln, Neb., will leave for Brussels, Belgium, to attend the World's Fair as the official representatives of American mothers.

They will be received by Queen Juliana of the Netherlands, who was Mother of the Year in 1930 and 1931, and will be the guests of a French mothers' committee in Paris.

Mrs. Coker was born in Gibson, N. C., the daughter of Daniel C. Roper, who was secretary of commerce in the first and second cabinets of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. She attended Randolph-Macon College and spent most of her youth in Washington, D. C. At the time of her marriage, she was directing girls' work in District of Columbia playgrounds.

The Coker children are: Catherine, wife of Dick Cannon, manager of the Carolina Power and Light Co., Sumter, S. C.; Hannah, on the faculty of West Hampton College, Richmond, Va.; Eleanor, wife of W. C. Rutledge, a farmer at Hartsville; Robert, president of the Coker Pedigree Seed Co., Hartsville; Samuel, an invalid; Martha, wife of Dr. A. W. Ziegler, head of the department of biology of Florida State University; Mary, wife of William Jollie, an attorney of Raleigh, N. C.; and Carolyn, a physician, married to Dr. Ben Humbley and with him a member of the staff of Bowman Gray Hospital in Winston-Salem, N. C.

Last Sunday and Poland will honor mothers May 24, said Radio Free Europe. RFE, also privately supported, broadcasts to five satellite countries.

Reds Reward Motherhood Along with accent on production for the state, the Reds promote and reward motherhood. And they provide financial aid for the pregnant.

RL said citations for motherhood are of three general types—the "motherhood medal," with two classes—one for the woman who rears five children, one for the mother of six. The "glory of motherhood" order goes to the woman who brings up seven, eight and nine.

Highest award is the "mother heroine" honor which goes to the one with at least 10 children, all living. A deceased child counts only on one condition—it has to be a war casualty.

RL said close to six million women received medals last year, some 45,000 getting "mother heroine" awards.

Prolific Mothers Rewarded By Reds

United Press Women's Editor NEW YORK.—Mothers, who met Monday will be pampered in this country with flowers and gifts, come in for plenty of attention behind the Iron Curtain also. Especially for their productivity on farms, in industry and the maternal wards.

Only two Iron Curtain countries—Poland and Hungary—observe Mother's Day as such, but all pay tribute to the distaff side each March with "International Women's Day."

"Our comrades in struggle and labor, our glorious mothers, friends and sisters," was the way Pravda, the Communist Party newspaper, saluted Soviet women this year.

In a message of greeting from the party's Central Committee, it referred to "women's day" as one of "solidarity of working women all over the world," reported Radio Liberation.

Radio Liberation estimated that of the 71 million Soviet women over 16, at least 50 per cent work. Fifteen millions are on farms, one million in construction jobs.

"We also know that the bulk of the street cleaners in Moscow are women," said one official of the R.L. "The Russians believe in REAL equality for women."

BUCK GET PORTERFIELD
BOSTON—Veteran American League pitcher Bob Porterfield, dogged by hard luck throughout most of his major league career, has been sold by the Boston Red Sox to the Pittsburgh Pirates. Porterfield, who has worked in only four innings this year, had a 4-4 record with the Red Sox in 1957.

BOBBY LUNDQUIST

Today's Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK—The "old man" still are cutting a wide swath in sports and another case in point today is Mickey Vernon, the "quiet man" of the American League.

Vernon has hit better than .300 only four times in a 17-year major league career. Two of those times, while with Washington, he won the American League batting crown.

And right now the man who was obtained by Cleveland only as first base insurance behind Vic Wertz is nailing the ball at a fast 400 clip.

The six foot, two inch Vernon is only carrying out the new sporting precept that life begins at 40, or in that approximate neighborhood. There was a time when your athlete was ready for the muscular boneray when he passed 35. But not any more.

Oldsters Win Titles
As examples of the Ponce de Leon movement, a couple of old guffers named Ted Williams and Stan Musial walked off with the respective American and National League batting championships last season. Williams, at 40, hit .388 and the 38-year-old Musial batted .351.

Musial, incidentally, hasn't stopped yet. He's still leading the pack in the new season with a fantastic .430 average.

Meanwhile, in other sports it's the same story. In the 40-year-old Vernon as a relief man who could step in and rest Wertz on occasion.

But Wertz broke his ankle in spring training and will be out until Aug. 1. Maybe, if Vernon keeps going as he is, even longer.

B. Lundquist Enters Pee Wee Golf Tourney

ORLANDO—Small-city golfers swinging out-down clubs are a familiar sight on many fairways around the nation these days as they prepare for the National Pee Wee Golf Championships to be held in Orlando, June 14 and 15.

Bobby Lundquist, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundquist of 1700 Magnolia Ave., has signed up to enter the tourney. Bobby, a student at the South Side Primary School, has played golf for two and a half years, and participated in the 1957 Pee Wee Tournament, placing in 8th place, and the 1958 Pee Wee Tournament, placing in 3rd place.

The PGA-sanctioned competition... only national event of its kind for the younger linksters... is open to boys and girls from 5 to 18 years of age. In 1957, more than 140 youngsters from 12 states competed in the event.

The pin-tipped performers are divided into five age groups with separate divisions for boys and girls. Under the rules, the kids from three to five play two holes, from six to seven play five holes, from eight to nine play nine holes, and the 10-12 and 13-15 year olds play 36 holes.

Trophies are awarded to first, second and third place winners in each age group and each entrant receives a special souvenir prize.

However, tournament officials emphasize you don't have to be an expert to enter the event. There's no entry fee and application blanks are available by writing the Greater Orlando Chamber of Commerce, Orlando.

CALAME SIGNS CONTRACT
EDMONTON—Gene Calame, former University of Oklahoma quarterback, has signed his 1958 contract with the Edmonton Eskimos of Canada's Western Football Conference. Calame, a native of Sulphur, Okla., stands 5-10 and weighs 175 pounds.

SET TICKET RECORD
SAN FRANCISCO—The San Francisco Forty-Niners of the National Football League report an all-time record of 30,400 season tickets have been sold in advance for the 1958 season. The previous club high of 20,737 was set last year.

Spreads Hitting Binges
Which strips the case of Mickey Vernon of much overdue amusement, except for the fact that the lanky first baseman spreads his big hitting binges over so many years.

Back in 1946 led the American League with a .353 mark and then they called him a "cheese champion" when he dropped off to .265 the next season. It was a good designation. Cheese improves with age. So while he didn't touch .300 again for six long years, Mickey bounced back in 1953 to win the batting crown again, this time with a .337 average.

So what happened? He dropped off to .290 the following season and hasn't been a little threat since that time. Last year, as a parttime operative with the Red Sox, Mickey batted only .241.

When trader Frank Lane took over as Cleveland's general manager this season he obtained the 40-year-old Vernon as a relief man who could step in and rest Wertz on occasion.

But Wertz broke his ankle in spring training and will be out until Aug. 1. Maybe, if Vernon keeps going as he is, even longer.

Whatever Happened To JOE MOORE?

By UNITED PRESS

Joe Moore, fleet and sure-handed outfielder on three National League championship clubs of the New York Giants in the 1930's, was noted as a fly-chaser but he could hit almost as well as field.

In 19 major league seasons, he compiled a healthy lifetime average of .299. And in the 1937 World Series against the Yankees, when the Bombers swept it 4-1, Moore hit a resounding .301 in defeat. He played left field on the 1933, 1936 and 1937 league champs and continued until 1941 when he hit .273 in 121 game.

Whatever happened to Joe Moore? Today, at 49, he has a ranch outside his native Gause, Tex.

ARE HIGH PRICES STRANGLING THE PAINT INDUSTRY?

In the inflationary trend of paint prices necessary? Not based on material cost versus sales price! According to the U. S. Department of Labor, paint prices increased 18 times as much as the material used in making it from September, 1947-1957. Linseed and soy oil, primary paint ingredients, are actually down 44% and 39%!

Is labor responsible? No! Automation and new equipment advances make it possible to achieve even lower unit production cost than in 1947, even with increased hourly wages?

My company eliminates or reduces 18 profits and costs that amount to more than cost of the paint itself. Then I share all these savings with my huge family of friends!

Cost Of Widening Paving Sanford Ave. Over $1/4 Million

The paving and widening of Sanford Ave. from Geneva Ave. to Glider's Corner will be a project totalling more than a quarter million dollars, Seminole County Commission Chairman John Kridler said yesterday. Included in the $1 million bond issue approved by the Board of County Commissioners at its recent meeting, the cost of widening and paving will cost an approximate $200,000, he said. He also pointed out that rights-of-ways will cost an estimated $45,500.

This is one of the heaviest travelled thoroughfares in Seminole County, he pointed out, since it is an approach to the Sanford Naval Air Station and is in constant use.

Startling But True ...

We Can "Buy Ourselves Out Of A Recession"

This Might Begin Right Here In Our Beloved Sanford, If We Have The Will To Do It, By Buying Now!

If every family in greater Sanford and in all other communities, large and small, throughout the United States, would BUY TODAY the things they need, they could prevent a recession.

Spending Today For Reasonably Conservative Needs Is A Healthy Stimulant To Our Economy, From Such Spending Comes Business Activities That Mean

Work-Wages-Payrolls

Here Is How To Go About It...

FIX UP YOUR HOUSE . . . It will provide work for carpenters, bricklayers, contractors, electricians, gardeners, landscapers, painters, roofers, teamsters, truck drivers.

REPAIR OR TRADE YOUR CAR . . . It will provide work for service men, repair men, battery men, tire men, garages, salesmen, auto body men, auto painters, accessory salesmen, auto upholstery workers.

BUY YOUR HOME APPLIANCES, HOUSEHOLD FURNISHINGS AND CLOTHING . . . It will provide work for salesmen, saleswomen, bookkeepers, secretaries, factory and plant personnel, textile and machinery workers, clothing firm workers.

And

Take your Mother-in-Law out to dinner; take your wife to see a show; take the kids to a movie, with pop corn and hot dogs; get a haircut; buy a necktie, a new hat, a pair of new shoes. It's swell to save money but a portion of it was meant to be spent "wisely". Money benefits nobody — when it is . . . SALTED AWAY IN THE MATTRESS!

While it is true that in many parts of the nation many people are idle, remember that right here in Sanford and throughout the nation, there are TENS OF THOUSANDS of our people who haven't lost a week's pay in years. They earn more pay, at present, under better working conditions than ever before.

BUY, BUY NOW!

AND KEEP OUR ECONOMY SOUND

Buying Formula Given People by Eisenhower

WASHINGTON, April 9 (AP) President Eisenhower today gave the American people a one-word anti-recession formula: "Buy!"

Buy what? "Anything," President Eisenhower said.

At the same time the President again ruled out any immediate emergency tax cut.

At News Conference President Eisenhower offered his advice on buying.

that the plan would create a czar.

Promised that he would consider a halt to America's nuclear weapons tests if the forthcoming shots in the Pacific produce enough information to satisfy his scientific advisers.

Pressing Problem

But it was on the pressing problem of the business slump at home that the conference bore down from the outset.

Mobs Set Fire To U.S. Library In Beirut

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UP)—Anti-government mobs set fire to the United States Information Service library in Beirut today. The mobs battled troops in riots supporting opposition demands that President Camille Chamoun quit.

It was the second USIS library attacked in Lebanon in three days. Last Saturday rioters sacked and burned the five-room, one-story building in the port of Tripoli, second largest city in the country. Today's incident followed the same pattern of destruction.

As violence continued into its fourth day, no casualty figures were available but it was feared they might be heavy. Opposition leaders handed the government an ultimatum today demanding that it "resign immediately," but aides refused to pass it on to Chamoun.

Meanwhile, Cairo and Damascus radio blared repeated calls to Lebanese listeners to "revolt against the forces of imperialism and its agents." The Lebanese were urged to go into the streets to fight the Chamoun regime.

This troubled nation was in the grip of a paralyzing general strike which was said to be 100 per cent effective. It was called after two days of rioting in Tripoli, during which an estimated 20 persons were killed.

Businessmen Can Speed Up Social Security Payments

Businessmen, including self-employed farmers, who are retreating soon can speed up social security payments by having the necessary documents at hand.

When filing a claim for social security, certain proofs are required. A self-employed individual should have an extra copy of Income Tax Form 1040, and Schedule C, or F, depending upon his business activity.

Where partnership Form 1065 was filed, a copy of that form also will be required. These forms will be kept with his file in the Social Security Administration. Usually forms for only one year are needed — the last one before the year you file a claim for old-age benefits. Also, be prepared to show your cancelled check, money order receipt, or other evidence showing payment of social security taxes for that year.
