Blue Angels To Perform On Navy Day

Plans are already underway for two days of festivities on board Sanford Naval Air Station in honor of Navy Day. Navy Day is celebrated throughout the nation on Oct. 27, but since the Blue Angels were scheduled to appear on Oct. 22, the station decided to observe Navy Day on Oct. 22. Open House will be held on the Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon. The public has been invited to come and view the aircraft and displays. It is estimated that there will be the demonstration put on by the Navy's famous precision flying team, the Blue Angels. The team is scheduled to perform at 10 a.m. and the show will last almost an hour. Prior to the Blue Angels' performance, the Wing plans a fly-by. They will put on a diamond formation, a roll-on maneuver and a high speed, low altitude pass. Many aircraft will be on static display in the compound area including an RA-5C, TA-2B and T-28. Also there will be exhibits of ordnance, survival equipment, meteorological instruments and fire and crash vehicles.

The NAS Marines intend to put on a large weapons display as well as show movies on Marines Corps life and combat. The day before the Open House, Friday, Oct. 21, the Navy is sponsoring a Navy-Civilian golf tournament at Mayfair Country Club. The starting time is 10:30 a.m. and it should go on until 3 p.m. Civilians interested in joining the tournament may do so by getting in touch with the men's golf association at the Mayfair Country Club. Navy personnel should get in touch with Special Services. Deadline entry is Oct. 15.

Mrs. Sam Denies Divorce Rumor
DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP) — The wife of Dr. Sam Sheppard has brushed off rumors that the couple's marriage is in trouble. "That's all pure invention," said German-born Ariane Sheppard in Duesseeldorf, Germany Thursday. "We have just bought a new house, which we certainly would not have done if we were thinking about anything like a divorce." Mrs. Sheppard, the former Ariane Tebbelmann, is in Germany to take care of some personal and financial matters. The couple was married after they struck up a friendship by correspondence while Sheppard was in prison, convicted of murdering his first wife. He was freed after winning an appeal. A new trial is scheduled to begin this month.

Geneva Society Will Sponsor Carnival
By MRS. JOS. E. MATHIEUX
A Halloween Carnival will be sponsored by the Geneva Historical and Genealogical Society from 5:30 until 8 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Geneva Community Hall. Plans for the event were made at a meeting Sunday of the Society's executive board at the Museum. There will be hot dogs, hamburgers, and cold drinks on sale, and amusement features will include a fish pond, horse rides, a country store, a spook house, and many other attractions for all age groups. A king and queen will be chosen in a costume contest which will be staged under supervision of Rupert Jenkins, principal of the Geneva Elementary School. In other business of the executive session, it was planned to have the Museum opened to the general public from 2 until 4 p.m. each Sunday. Tentative plans also were made for a spaghetti supper to be sponsored in November.

Claims Plane
TOKYO (UPI)—The Communist Party Radio claimed today that its forces in upper Laos shot down a U.S. Air Force F-104 Starfighter jet. "The air plane was killed," the report said, apparently referring to the pilot of the jet. O'Connell told the Lansing Township Justice Court jury of three housewives and three retired men that the charge was "engineering by the insurance lobby" in the Michigan Legislature at a Vendetta against O'Brien, the chairman of the Senate insurance committee. O'Connell lost his Senate seat in a primary election last August, three months after allegedly approaching the girls. Jagham County Prosecutor Donald Boig asked the girls if they had been bribed by lobbyists. They said no.

Celebration Set For 'Diamond' Project

A "celebration" meeting in surmounting the final hurdle preparatory to construction of the Lake Mary interchange on Interstate 4 was to be held this afternoon at the County Commission chambers. Commissioners were to meet with Willard Peebles, of Willard, district member of the State Road Department, to "celebrate" the acquisition of all necessary right-of-way for the site of the "diamond." Peebles said all land was donated to the county. Purpose of the meeting was to sign the necessary deeds in the presence of newspaper photographers.

Peebles confirmed today that a report published last week by William Benedict, State Road Department district engineer at Deland, that construction plans have been submitted for approval to the U. S. Public Roads Bureau at Tallahassee. SHD anticipates asking for bids and letting the contract in December, with actual construction to start in late January. Benedict said four ramps will be constructed, an entrance and an exit on either side of I-4. A Lake Mary Boulevard bridge over I-4 was constructed when I-4 was built. The ramps will lead on and off I-4 at this bridge on the boulevard. Seminole County recently paved Lake Mary Boulevard from Lake Mary to the bridge and plans to pave from the bridge to Longwood-Markham Road when the ramps are built. Further, it is anticipated a road will be built from Highway 17-92 through Lake Mary to Lake Mary Boulevard, giving a "straight shot" to I-4. The Lake Mary interchange will give Seminole County five accesses to I-4—at Altamonte Springs, at Longwood and two at Sanford. It will give a center access in the nine-mile stretch between the Longwood (SR-434) and SR-45 (First Street) interchanges.

County Ponders Job Survey

A comprehensive job classification survey of county employees which would cost in the "neighborhood of $4,000" was proposed by George Cody representative of Frank C. Brown, business surveyors of Miami, at an informal meeting Tuesday afternoon. Present at the meeting were the board of county commissioners, Sheriff J. L. Hobby and elected fee officials including Mrs. Mary Earle Walker, tax assessor; Troy Ray, tax collector and Arthur Beckwith, county clerk. Cody explained the method of conducting such a survey with county employees completing information forms which are reviewed by supervisors and then evaluated. Information included on the forms would be job description and nature, responsibility and duties of the positions. The positions would be evaluated with comparable positions in private business to determine fair and adequate pay for each job. Responsibility and merit would set the raises in salary in a six part plan to be recommended following completion of the survey," Cody said. He pointed out plans set up by 30 cities in the state as well as by many counties, including Orange and Brevard Counties. All the officials present at the meeting agreed that such a plan as suggested by Cody is needed. He was instructed by John Alexander, county commission chairman, to submit a "firm proposal" to the board.

Space Needs Report Due In 45 Days

Plans are underway for the construction of a multi-storied new court house and jail complex for Seminole County with the signing Tuesday afternoon of contracts with John Burton IV and James Gamble Rogers as associate architects to design the new facility. Estimated costs of the complex, to be located north of the present jail, is in excess of $1.5 million. Signing the contract on behalf of the county commission was John Alexander, commission chairman. Plans are scheduled to be completed in 6-8 months according to the architects. Burton and Rogers will discuss space needs with county officials and report back to the commission within 45 days. Following review and determination of space allocation and layout by the commission, it is estimated plans will be completed and ready to put out for bid by June 1, 1967 and construction completed within 18 months to two years. The board over the past six months has been investigating the current and future needs of each office in the court house to provide the increased services needed by the fast growing area. Alexander noted the current one-half mill of taxation levied for capital improvement will be insufficient to construct the facility and no new tax will be required for the project.

Mental Health Clinic Supported By Herald

A $200 contribution from The Sanford Herald to the support of the new Seminole County Mental Health Clinic was announced today by Herald Publisher Walter Gielow. "We believe this new psychiatric clinic has been long needed here, and establishment of a place where people with mental and emotional problems can get the help they so desperately need, even one day a week, is a great step in the right direction," Gielow said. The Herald has supported the clinic editorially. Stanley Pierce, president of the Seminole County Mental Health Association has announced that $130 has been received from other sources to help support the clinic. A goal of $5,000 has been set for the first year. Operation of the clinic is through the cooperation of Dr. Burton Podnos, Orange County psychiatrist who spends each Monday at the Seminole County Health Department. Private citizens and organizations who wish to contribute to the support of the clinic are asked to mail donations to Mental Health Clinic, P. O. Box 1651, Sanford.

Longwood Jail Study

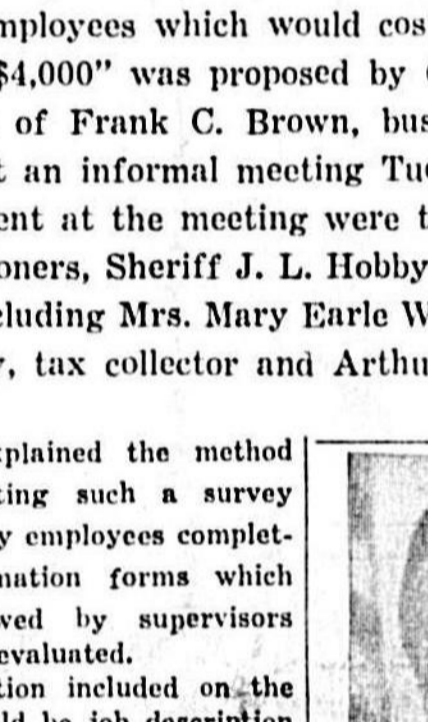

Longwood Police Chief H. D. Shinn, and Councilmen Paul Maloney and Eugene Jaques have been named to a committee to make a study of the possibility of constructing a jail and a police station in the city. Appointment was made by Council Chairman Percy White with City Attorney Gene R. Stephenson to act as an advisory member to the committee. It is expected that White will also name two interested citizens to the committee.

Table Action On Nurses Salaries

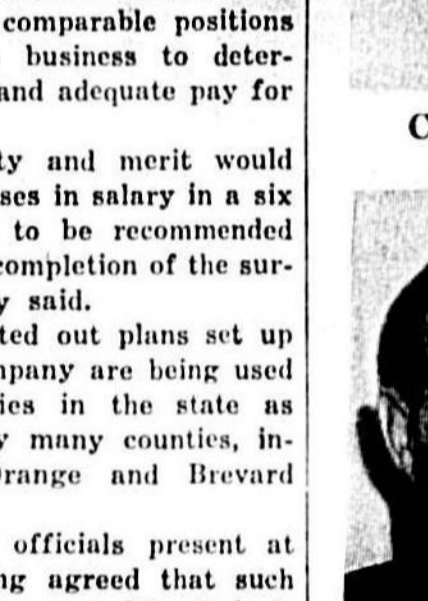

Discussion of pay increases for hospital employees and nurses, scheduled for Tuesday's meeting of the Seminole Memorial Hospital board of trustees, was postponed until a later date because two members of the five-man board, Andrew Carraway and William Bradford, were not present. In addition, John Schirard, board member said he would like to have time to study the salary schedule "in detail" and perhaps visit other hospitals in the Central Florida area "to observe their operations and find out what they are paying." He pointed out that more than 60 per cent of hospital income goes into salaries and "hospital workers cannot be pleased by automation, as in many industries. We have to have a competent, efficient labor force on duty 24 hours a day, 365 days a year," he noted. Bessner said he would like to have the pay raises become effective by the first of January, 1967, if possible. Bessner also noted that the weekly bulletin from the American Hospital Association has estimated hospital cost will rise from 10 to 30 per cent in the next year. He reported that some hospitals in New York City and Texas are said to have closed apparently because of the cost increase and shortage of professional personnel. Social Security, which handles medicare payments is now $103,000 in arrears to Seminole Memorial Hospital, members of the board of trustees learned Tuesday. It was also noted that Medicare does not pay 100 per cent of the bill, but only 95 per cent, with the rest to be absorbed from other sources. In addition, $62,000 worth of bills for welfare patients due from the State of Florida have not been paid, and probably will not be forthcoming. "During the last session of the legislature, they did not appropriate enough money to take care of the indigent hospital bills. In addition, time of state, in the hospital, formerly 30 days, was cut to only 12 days," A. B. Peterson, Sr., board chairman explained.

Salary Schedule

West Volusia Hospital (DeLand) — $92 a week or $382 monthly.
Winter Garden Hospital — $400 monthly.
Winter Park Hospital — $375 now, going to $400 Jan. 1, 1967.
Halifax (Daytona Beach) — $400 monthly.
Orange Memorial (Orlando) — $400 monthly. Nurses there just got raised to this amount.
Seminole Memorial Hospital registered nurses, formerly making $330 monthly, recently got an across-the-board raise to $355.

Record Citrus Crop Poses Big Problem

LAKELAND (AP)—The Florida Citrus Mutual has an urgent problem: How to market a record citrus crop without cutting prices.

The problem's urgency came to light Tuesday when the U. S. Department of Agriculture predicted the state's citrus crop would be the most bountiful in history.

The department forecast a record 86,600,000 boxes of early, midseason and navel oranges, with 72,400,000 boxes coming from Florida. The state's previous high, last year, was 81,500,000 boxes.

The department said Florida's Valencia orange crop would be 66,000,000 boxes, 35 per cent larger than last year and 12 per cent above the previous record of 1951-52.

The state's total orange yield was placed at about 128,400,000 boxes, 30 per cent larger than last year and 22 per cent above the 1951-52 record.

Adding to the mutual's problem was a USDA forecast that the state's grapefruit crop would top 35,500,000 boxes, up 12 per cent from last year, and the largest crop since the 42,000,000 million boxes of 1953-54.

Florida's lemons, not to be outdone, will fill 4,800,000 boxes, up one-third from last year but still 6 per cent below the record high of 1954-55, the USDA predicted.

Florida's lime crop was placed at 480,000 boxes, 16 per cent above last year.

Robert W. Rutledge, executive vice president of the mutual, admitted the estimates caught the growers' organization by surprise.

He said the industry would not challenge the USDA's figures until it had more information.

"The important thing to remember," he said yesterday, "is that the industry has products of higher quality, more money for advertising and promotion, more knowledge and increased demand for its products which will help sell this crop."

Rutledge said the industry would have been unprepared for a record crop several years ago. "But this is not the case now," he said.

Rutledge also predicted more people will buy citrus products this year than ever before.

Christmas Parade Theme Contest Open

Contest to choose a theme for the annual Christmas parade opens today with deadline for submitting entries set for Oct. 20, Sanford-Seminole Jaycee of Florida announced today.

"Children in grades one through six are invited to participate in the contest with the winner receiving a $25 savings bond from the Jaycees and the honor of riding in the parade," a spokesman said.

Former themes, which may not be used again include: "My Christmas Dream," "The Christmas Story," "Christmas Through Children's Eyes," "Keeping Christmas Through Christ," "Parade of Christmas Dreams," "Christmas Fantasy," and "Old-Fashioned Christmas."

Entries must be delivered to the Jaycee Building on French Avenue or mailed to Christmas Parade Theme Contest, P. O. Box 1543, Sanford, before noon Oct. 20.

The parade is slated for 7 p.m. Dec. 3—the first parade to be held at night.

"We sure to include your name, age, address, city, telephone number and theme suggestion," the chairman urged.

Last year's winner was entitled "Christmas Thoughts."

Former themes, which may not be used again include: "My Christmas Dream," "The Christmas Story," "Christmas Through Children's Eyes," "Keeping Christmas Through Christ," "Parade of Christmas Dreams," "Christmas Fantasy," and "Old-Fashioned Christmas."

Robert Petree Vice President Of YD Confab

Robert Petree, Seminole County member of the state Democratic executive committee and president-elect of the Young Democrats of Florida, was elected vice president of the Convention Corporation at the monthly board meeting of the state YDs in Deland.

The Convention Corporation will manage the national convention of the Young Democrats in Hollywood in 1967.

Petree stated he "will continue my Democratic party campaign activity in Brevard County with an address to Democratic organizations there today."

Mrs. Petree will accompany her husband on his current speaking tour. They will celebrate their eighth wedding anniversary today but Mrs. Petree remarked, "On our last three anniversaries we have had commitments for Democratic Party functions. I would be disappointed if this year were any different."

In other business at the monthly board meeting called to consider plans for a political seminar in Orlando in February, it was tentatively decided to invite legislative leaders to analyze Florida's constitutional amendments.

For Help To Uf Legion Auxiliary Lauded

By MRS. E. L. JOHNSON United Fund personalities independence of people in Seminole County to "give what they want from the heart," American Legion Auxiliary Unit 53, of Sanford, was told by Wendell Springfield, co-chairman of the Seminole County United Fund Campaign for 1966.

Speaking before the organization at its October meeting, Springfield commended members for their help in the drive.

"Lots of workers are needed to get out and push for this drive. This county is successful because groups such as yours have volunteered to help. It's a willingness to believe in community projects," he reported.

United Fund, organized in 1957, is divided into seven areas, each and serves 16 agencies, all qualified and sanctioned by Government. The board is composed of Seminole County citizens who give of their time and get nothing in return except "the feeling in their hearts they are doing good for the community," Springfield stated, pointing out "donors may designate the individual agency to which their contribution goes."

Special guests at the meeting, conducted by Mrs. Betty Lambert, president, were Mrs. Williams Jones, district 6 president, and Mrs. Mildred Meyer, district 7 secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Jones expressed appreciation to the members for their help in sending her to the national convention in Washington, D. C., and announced a central area conference for this Sunday in Winter Haven.

Mrs. Olga Hunter, community chairman who introduced Springfield, also reported volunteers are needed Nov. 3 to pack 275 envelopes in Orlando.

Kiddie Carnival Scheduled Oct. 22 By JCs, Wives

Representatives of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees and their wives, the Jayceesses, met with Sanford Mayor A. L. Wilson today and received an official nod of approval from the city on their plans to stage a Jaycee Kiddie Carnival Day at Fort Mellon Park from 4 to 8 p.m. Oct. 22.

Mayor Wilson said the Jaycees "are to be commended for their interest in the area's youth and for undertaking such a complex project."

Mayor Wilson told the Jaycees the event has the full support of the city fathers and that Sanford needs such an event as more traditional school carnivals have been discontinued. He invited all area youngsters and parents to participate and "have the fun."

Wendell Aage, project chairman, outlined the event as being "for children of all ages—teenagers and parents."

Rides of all kinds will be featured and fair-type game booths will be set up with prizes.

An old-fashioned Spook House will be of interest to the young, while a dunking machine, built by the Jaycees, will be of interest to the adults.

Larry Vershel, Sanford Herald editor, has consented to ride the dunking machine to help the Jaycees provide fun for adults of the area.

A concession stand will be set up and refreshments for the young and adults will be served by the Jaycees. A fun period was enjoyed and prizes were awarded.

News Reporters To Tour County

Reporters from the Wall Street Journal, Fortune Magazine, Business Week, NBC, CBS, ABC, Associated Press, United Press International and other business and trade journals and newspapers will be touring Seminole County Thursday at the invitation of the Florida Development Commission.

Purpose of the tour is to brief the writers on Central Florida's industrial development and potential.

The tour will cover all of Florida by charter bus. The group of 50 writers will tour Orange County Thursday morning, have lunch at the Cherry Plaza Hotel and then embark on a tour of Seminole County and the Cape Kennedy area.

Traveling with the group through Seminole County will be Scott Burns and Jack Whiting, members of the industry committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Workshop Set By Demo Women

A workshop on political education is scheduled for the meeting of the Democratic Women's Club of Seminole County to take place at 8 p.m. today at the Health Center, 900 South French Avenue.

Also planned is report from the delegates to the Democratic Women's Club of Florida convention held in Orlando last week.

Tenney-Scott delegates from the local unit in addition to the president, Mrs. Sheila Roberts, attended the statewide event.

Car Inspection

Motorists are invited to bring their cars to the Jaycee building at the corner of French Avenue and Fourth Street Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon for a free safety inspection. Sanford-Seminole Jaycees, conducting the safety check, will be assisted by the Sanford Police Department and the Seminole County Sheriff's Department.

WP 'Phone Plans $1 Million Goldenrod Exchange

Construction of a $1 million telephone switching center at Goldenrod to serve portions of South Seminole and North Orange Counties was announced by J. K. Galloway, president of the Winter Park Telephone Company, today.

The new office — with the prefix "671" — will be located at the corner of Citrus Avenue and Oak Hill Road. Initial construction will start in early foot building.

When the building is completed in February, 1967, technicians will start installing some $800,000 in telephone switching equipment.

Galloway said the new central office is scheduled for effective with distribution of service on December 3, 1967, the 1967 telephone directory.

At the outset date, some 8,000 subscribers will be changed from the present "64" (Midway) central office to the new switching center at Goldenrod. The transfer is being made to provide for future growth in the area bordering the new Florida Tech University and to make available additional facilities in downtown Winter Park.

"Five years ago we served 1450 families in the area covered by the new office," Galloway pointed out. "Now we have 2,850 subscribers in this area, an increase of over 95 per cent."

"With the many growth factors we have been going for in Central Florida, we expect to be serving 10,000 subscribers from this new office by 1972," Galloway added.

Dogs Mangle, Kill Goats

By JANE CASSELLBERRY

A nanny goat and kid were savagely mangled to death by two dogs Monday as they grazed in the Casseberry Sewage Treatment Plant.

When the owner, Dallas Brown, came to check on the animals, he found them wounded by the attacking canines which he chased off before notifying the police.

Later he found the dogs had returned to finish the goats off and were chewing on them. One of the dogs, not wearing a license, was shot, and the other taken to the pound.

"BLUE ANGELS" of the Navy will perform again at Sanford Naval Air Station on Oct. 22 as a part of the "Navy Day" celebration. (Navy Photo)

Blue Angels To Perform On Navy Day

Plans are already underway for two days of festivities on board Sanford Naval Air Station in honor of Navy Day. Navy Day is celebrated throughout the nation on Oct. 27, but since the Blue Angels were scheduled to appear on Oct. 22, the station decided to observe Navy Day then. Open House will be held on the Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon. The public has been invited to come and view the aircraft and displays. It is estimated that there will be the demonstration put on by the Navy's famous precision flying team, the Blue Angels. The daring "Blues" are scheduled to perform at 10 a.m. and the show will last almost an hour.

Prior to the Blue Angels' performance, the Wing plans a fly-by. They will put on a diamond formation, a roll-on maneuver and a high speed, low altitude pass.

Many aircraft will be on static display in the compound area including an EA-3G, TA-4B and TF9.

Also there will be exhibits of ordnance, survival equipment, meteorological instruments and fire and crash vehicles.

Mrs. Sam Denies Divorce Rumor

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP) — The wife of Dr. Sam Sheppard has brushed off rumors that the couple's marriage is in trouble.

"That's all pure invention," said German-born Ariane Sheppard in Dusseldorf, Germany Thursday. "We have just bought a new house, which we certainly would not have done if we were thinking about anything like a divorce."

Mrs. Sheppard, the former Ariane Tebbenhohn, is in Germany "to take care of some personal and financial matters."

The couple was married after they struck up a friendship by correspondence while Sheppard was in prison, convicted of murdering his first wife. He was freed after winning an appeal. A new trial is scheduled to begin this month.

Plans for the event were made at a meeting Sunday of the Society's executive board at the Museum. There will be hot dogs, hamburgers, and cold drinks on sale, and amusement features will include a fish pond, horse races, a country store, a spook house, and many other attractions for all age groups.

A king and queen will be chosen in a costume contest which will be staged under supervision of Rupert Jenkins, principal of the Geneva Elementary School.

In other business of the executive session, it was planned to have the Museum opened to the general public from 2 until 4 p.m. each Sunday.

Tentative plans also were made for a spaghetti supper to be sponsored in November.

Geneva Society Will Sponsor Carnival

Solon Denies 'Stag' Film Charge

LANSING, Mich. (UPI) — Three Michigan State coeds Monday identified state Sen. Bernard F. O'Brien as the man who asked them to co-star with handsome actors in "stag" movies.

O'Brien, 31, and a father of four, sat with his wife in the crowded courtroom and listened as the girls testified they were promised up to $800 a month for appearing in movies destined to be shown to European businessmen visiting New York.

O'Brien, who was arrested last June on morals charges, told newsmen later the allegations were false. His attorney planned to have two sergeants-at-arms from the Capitol testify in O'Brien's defense as character witnesses today.

John O'Connell, O'Brien's lawyer, declined to say whether he would call other lawmakers from the Capitol.

O'Brien is accused of approaching Marion L. Lukens, 22, of Santa Anna, Calif., on the Michigan State campus and asking her to pose for nude pictures and to play alongside movie men in pornographic films.

Linda Outcalt, 19, of Ayn Arbor, Mich., and Christine Legrassey, 20, of Honolulu, Hawaii, testified Monday that O'Brien made the same proposals to them while he sat in a car on the Michigan State campus.

Claims Plane

TOEYO (UPI) — The Communist Pathet Lao Radio claimed today that its forces in upper Laos shot down a U.S. Air Force F104 Starfighter jet. "The air pirate was killed," the report said, apparently referring to the pilot of the jet.

O'Connell told the Lansing Township Justice Court jury of three housewives and three retired men that the charge was "engineering by the insurance lobby" in the Michigan Legislature as a vendetta against O'Brien, the chairman of the Senate insurance committee.

O'Brien lost his Senate seat in a primary election last August, three months after allegedly approaching the girls.

Ingham County Prosecutor Donald Reig asked the girls if they had been bribed by lobbyists. They said no.
