SELL SCOTT MOVED FROM DEATH CELL

Chicago Man Awaiting Hearing to Inquire
In His Sanity, Is Removed from Cell

Chicago Lawyer Is Seeking Assistance
to Take Scott's Body Upon Gallows

AGO, July 25.—Russian, saved from the gallows at the hour set for execution Friday lost portable death cell and after a stay had wanted to inquire into it.

Former Canadian finch has spent 10 days in cell, twice coming out for a dozen hours of the regular quarters with less than accommodations, but he did not willingly enter.

to hang July 17 for drug store clerk during Scott received a week's of hours before hanging Small received a telegram reporting to be from Scott's brother, indicted with him, of the murder.

gram later was proven a hoax.
The grievance expired Thursday night. Gov. Small refused further.

Hours before the execution Judge Joseph B. David would stay until a test of Scott's sanity is made.
Scott was visited during the day by Scott Steward, retainer of Detroit club women to help in the gallows Friday, and his wife and father.

He said he now felt confident under the law he would be spared. He made a statement he made at the time he was told of the stay which he was not effect that he was not of the many months labor and still remains normal.
David fixed Monday, Aug. was the time for the sanity hearing. He said he had no request but grant the request for sanity test as the law is manda-

Scott E. Crowe, state's attorney, and George Gorman, his assistant, who prosecuted Scott, said they believed Scott is sane now and that the crime was committed by him. They will not relent in their efforts to hang him to the gallows.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—G. P.
McGraw, publisher of this city's Washington Post, has written Governor Small of Illinois, offering to take the place of Russell Scott.

The offer is made upon condition that Scott's sentence to hang be commuted to life imprisonment, and that the District of Columbia refuse to accept his (McGraw's) offer to die in the electric chair to be installed here.

The Prison Relief Society of Washington, McGraw wrote, "is pleading for permission for my execution, and, if granted, I will have to withdraw this offer to die in place of Scott, because the first offer to the District was made first." McGraw said he once was sentenced to die by the state of Ohio, but was cleared, and that later, the man who committed the crime was caught, so I am naturally opposed to capital punishment.
Both offers to die, he explained, are in an effort to bring about abolition of capital punishment.

Dr. Karr To Speak To Bible Class Sunday,
Women Monday Night

Dr. Alexander Karr, educational director for the Chamber of Commerce expansion and advancing movement, will speak at a women's meeting Monday night at 7 o'clock at the Women's Club house. Mrs. Henry Wright, who is in charge of the meeting, announced that men are also welcome to attend.

Dr. Karr will talk at this meeting on topics of interest to the development of the community. He will make it a point to place in which to live, and including up boys and girls under the most healthful surroundings.

Dr. Karr also scheduled to talk at a swap iron Sunday school class morning at 10 o'clock at the Business Theatre. A cordial invitation is extended to all men and youth of the community to attend this class tomorrow. Mrs. M. E. Lake, teacher and president of the class.

Hathaway Elected Head of Road Body

TALLAHASSEE, July 25.—
Dr. Pons A. Hathaway this morning was unanimously elected Chairman of the State Road Department succeeding Judge H. B. Phillips who last Thursday was suspended by Governor Martin.

Secretary Not Appointed
TALLAHASSEE, July 25.—
"I have made no selection for the appointment of a secretary to succeed Dr. Hathaway, and it will probably be the first of year before such an appointment is made," Governor John W. Martin officially announced this morning. A rumor which was broadcast yesterday that Byron West, newspaper man, had probably succeeded Dr.
Hathaway who resigned the secretaryship to accept the appointment as a member of the State Road Department is deemed, according to the government's statement, without authority.

Two Military Leaders Will Discuss Franco-Spanish
Operations Against Riffs; French Successes Reported

RABAT, French Morocco, July 25.— Marshal Petain of France and Gen. Primo de Rivera, head of the Spanish military directorate, will meet Monday at Ceuta of Tetuan, to confer regarding joint Franco-Spanish military operations against Abd-el-Krim's warring Rifians in Morocco.

Riffs Retreat.
PARIS, July 25.—Vigorously shelled by pursuing French artillery the rebellious Rifian tribesmen in Morocco are hastening their retreat from the Ain Aicha and Ain Matouf regions on the center of the Rif, taking with them the civil populations of villages and their flocks.

Peace terms alleged to have been made by the Rifian leader Abd-el-Krim have been published in London and Paris newspapers, but the French foreign office makes it clear that unless such proposals are made through authorized diplomatic channels, no action will be taken of them.

Gen. Stanislas Naulin, the new French commander-in-chief, is making plans for an offensive with the object of bringing Abdel-Krim to a point where he will have to sue for peace.

Regulators In Full Flight.
FEZ, Morocco, July 25.—Information reaching the general staff here is to the effect that, having abandoned the dissident tribes to their fate Abd-el-Krim's regulars are in full flight towards the north.

It is asserted that the French concentration of troops on the Taza and Ouezzan sectors, evidently in preparation for a most powerful offensive, appears to have struck terror to the hearts of the Moors' chieftain's shock troops and that the tribesmen, who, under duress, joined the "red" sultan's colors are prepared to make their submission to the French.

Abd-el-Krim is reported as losing ground with the tribesmen, both militarily and politically.

It is asserted that the impression made upon the Moroccans by the French infantry battalions, with armed cars, machine guns and tanks, moving to the front has caused the Moors to refer to an old Arab proverb "Kiss the hand thou canst not bite," and that offers of submission are reaching Marshal Lyautey.

Reports say that the morale of the dissident tribes has been further shaken by French aviators dropping bombs behind their lines.

Aviators returning today from scouting expeditions report that Abd-el-Krim's regulars are trek-ing northward towards the Mediterranean sea, but that they appear to be decided to make a stand on the southern slope of the Atlas mountains.

General Naulin returned to Fez this evening from Taza and conferred with Marshal Petain, whose presence on the Rif is said to have been greatly instrumental in bringing the Moors to a realization that France is in earnest in its efforts to put down the rebellion.

Manager Miami Daily
Tab Killed In Wreck

MIAMI, July 25.—Vern Collier, general manager of the Miami Daily Tab, was killed in the automobile accident this morning. He died almost instantly when the automobile hit a railroad switch engine. His body was badly mangled and wedged underneath the engine. A woman, Mrs. B. Rolfe, who with him at the time, is in a serious condition at a hospital.

CONTRACT FOR NEW SEMINOLE JAIL AWARDED

Structure When Completed Will Cost in Neighborhood of $75,000; Building Without Cells to Cost $37,749

Bids on Road Bonds
To Be Opened Aug. 10

W.D. Gerbrick Company, Jacksonville, Is Awarded Contract for Erection of Jail

Contract for the erection of Seminole county's proposed $75,- 000 jail, to be built south of the new city jail, now under construction adjoining the city hall, has been awarded by the County Commissioners to W. D. Gerbrick Company of Jacksonville. The contract price does not include the cell equipment.

The contract for the cell work, it was announced by Vance E.
Douglass this morning, will be considered on Aug. 10 when bids received by the commissioners on that particular phase of the work.

The W. D. Gerbrick company, which also has branch headquarters in this city, has under construction a number of new projects in this city including the new $2,181 less than the highest of the two other bids, submitted.
Bids submitted other than that of the W. D. Gerbrick Company were:
Frank Lossing of this city $39,954; R. J. Galespie Company of Jacksonville, $39,930.

From advice received thus far it is indicated that construction of the new jail will be started during the next two or three weeks, or as soon as the necessary materials and labor are available.

The County Commissioners have also awarded contracts for a considerable amount of fill work.
Bids on Seminole county highway improvement bonds to the extent of $700,000 will also be received by the county board on Aug.
10, Mr. Douglass said. The bids will be opened at a special meeting of the board at 3 o'clock.

Vice President Is Made Chieftain Of The Sioux Indians

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 25.— Vice President Charles G. Dawes late Friday became a chieftain of the Sioux Indian tribe and was called "White Feather Number Two" by the tribal men.

Picturesque tribal rites in which Chief Red Feather of the tribe, assisted by medicine men, all wearing the vari-colored feathered war head-dresses and their bodies covered with gaudy paint, surrounded in ceremony of Mr. Dawes induction into the tribe.

After the vice president's adoption, Gov. Nellie Taylor Ross of Wyoming was made an honorary member of the tribe, being given the tribal cognomen of "Princess Nellie Tayloe."

His adoption by the Indian tribe evidently made a big impression on Mr. Dawes, because he surrendered his famous underslung pipe for an Indian peace pipe, two feet long, bedecked with brilliantly dyed eagle feathers. Mr. Dawes entered the tribal ceremony smoking his well known pipe, but it was noted when the rites were over that he puffed happily on the long peace pipe, which was presented to him by Chief Red Feather.

The tribe gave Gov. Ross an Indian hand-bag, beautifully decorated with intricate bead work.
More than 15,000 persons witnessed the ceremony which was a part of the closing program of the frontier days' wild west celebration.

The vice president opened the afternoon program of the celebration with a brief address in which he eulogized bronchos and depreciated politicians in a humorous comment on the fast disappearing feats of the frontier west.

Government Is Victor
In Packing House Suit

CHICAGO, July 25.—The government won today its suit begun by the Late Henry C. Wallace as secretary of agriculture when District Judge Clifton granted writ of mandamus directing some of the principals packing companies—Swift and Company, Wilson and Company and Gudahy and Company—to open their books to the department of agriculture.

R. W. Pearman, Secretary, Chamber of Commerce, Sanford, Fla.

Your view regarding splendid prospects for Chamber of Commerce fund is mighty satisfactory. This advertising is vitally essential to our city's progress.
If everyone does his full part Sanford will be the largest city between St. Augustine and Miami. Put me down for twenty-five hundred dollars.

H. T. BODWELL.

The citizenship of Sanford and all Seminole county are invited and urged to be present Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the city hall at what every progressive citizen desires to see the crowning civic mass meeting in local history.

It is the big public meeting of the "Greater Sanford" campaign, and will be an acid test of the community spirit of the city.

"We want every public spirited man and woman to be present for numbers will create enthusiasm as any other city in the state," said President Edward Higgins today.
"Don't expect the 'other fellow' to make up the crowd. Be there yourself. Let us each do our part and then there will be no question about the crowd."

Dr. Alexander Karr, one of the most eloquent convincing and popular speakers that ever came to Sanford, will make the leading address and the only one of any length. It is planned to be a big, short-enthusiastic meeting. The band will be out, there will be community singing, and other music.

It will be the only public meeting of the campaign and Chamber of Commerce leaders are concentrating their efforts to make it the greatest possible success.

The campaign outlook was given a tremendous boost today when a wire came from H. T. Bodwell, head of some of the largest developments of the community, giving

ST. JOHNS RIVER SURVEY TO THIS CITY IS APPROVED

Confirmation of Report Comes In Letter to Secretary R.
W. Pearman, Jr., From U.S.
Senator Duncan U. Fletcher

Confirmation of a report to the effect that a survey of the St.
Johns River with a view to deepening and improving the waterway from Palatka to Sanford was made in a communication received Friday by Secretary R. W. Pearman, Jr., of the local Chamber of Commerce from United States Senator Duncan U. Fletcher from this state.

Through the efforts of Senator Fletcher and J. W. Braxton, engineer employed by the drainage district represented mainly by the cities of Palatka, DeLand, Sanford and Orlando an attempt was made to have a new survey made from Jacksonville to Sanford. It was learned through the communication that at the first hearing on the data submitted by Mr. Braxton in view of this improvement survey, the federal board of engineers approved the survey from Palatka to Sanford but refused to approve the survey from Jacksonville to Palatka.

The board, it was stated, contended that present conditions of the river from Jacksonville to Palatka were adequate while the data submitted showed need for deepening and improvement of the waterway from Palatka to this city.

Mr. Braxton was employed last summer by the Central Florida Drainage District to compile data and statistics concerning water traffic to and from Sanford and other cities along the St. Johns River for a report to be made to federal representatives which might indicate a necessity for more adequate water transport between Sanford and Jacksonville.

A favorable report for the survey was made by United States District Engineer Gilbert A.
Youngberg of Jacksonville of the survey all the way from Jacksonville to Sanford but only the portion from Palatka to Sanford was approved and recommended by the division engineer at Charleston, Mr. Pearman stated.

The fact that the survey of the river from Palatka to Sanford was approved is pointed out by Mr.
Pearman as being indicative of the great growth and progress during the past several years of water traffic between Sanford and northern points.

Island and Bocaacha Key to be op-

Giant Airship Shenandoah Finishes Extensive Anti-Aircraft Gun Test

NORFOLK, Va., July 25.—The naval dirigible Shenandoah and the battleship, Texas Friday afternoon completed anti-aircraft gunnery opposite the Virginia Capes and the airship, after flying over the Hampton Roads naval operating base here and dropping her target and circling over adjacent cities, headed back to her hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The Shenandoah spent more than half an hour flying over Norfolk and Portsmouth and it was a few minutes to 6 o'clock before she straightened out on her course to Lakehurst.
The Texas, which has aboard Assistant Secretary of the Navy Rondinson, Rear Admiral W. A. Moffet, chief of the naval air service, and Rear Admiral C. F.
Hughes, as official observers, was expected to arrive in Hampton Roads tonight.

As of Thursday, nothing was made known at the local base as to the results of tests but the target, a huge aluminum affair, showed the Texas gunners had scored some hits, fragments of shells having torn holes in the cloth. The target was picked up by a party of enlisted men and stored away for official examination. Reports on the firing and maneuvers were said to have been made to Washington and any announcement will be to the navy department.

The Shenandoah, which spent last night moored to the tender Patoka off plantation shoals, just inside Cape Charles, cast off this morning at 9 o'clock and put to sea. It was after 5 o'clock in the afternoon before she put in her appearance on the return. The tests, it was said, here consisted of firing by the anti-aircraft gunners on the Texas at the target as it was towed over the ship by the Shenandoah at varying heights.
They were held to test the probable efficiency of such guns in actual warfare, about which there has been a sharp division of opinion in the army and naval circles.

CONGRESS LIKELY TO TAKE HAND IN EVOLUTION FIGHT

Re-Organization Plan
Beginning August 1
Has Been Discarded
By Prohibition Men

Proposed Changes
To Be Made Later

President Has Given
Andrews Free Hand
In Enforcing Law

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Whatever may be the outcome of the effort of Loren H. Wittner to throw the evolution question into the federal courts members of congress now in Washington feel certain that the subject will have full and free discussion in the house and senate at the coming session.

The rider to the District of Columbia appropriation bill which Wittner seized upon to bring his action in the District of Columbia supreme court, certain he reported in the new supply measure forwarded in the Washington government and so will form the vehicle for congressional debate.

The view of some congressmen is that both the evolutionists and fundamentalists will marshal their forces for the congressional discussion and that each side will find able spokesmen among the membership. Should such be the case the issue would be fairly joined in congress, which would be called to determine whether the teaching of the evolution theory is in fact in conflict with the teachings of the Bible.

Prepare to Meet Suit While counsel for the government and the District of Columbia went ahead today with preparation for an injunction aimed to cut off the pay of Washington public school teachers who teach biology, somewhat of a flurry was created at the treasury by the disclosure that Wittner on three occasions had asked the prescribed form of the oath he was aimed to take as a government employee.

Examination of his employment papers revealed that he had marked out with a pen the phrase "so help me God" at the end of the oath.

Treasury officials said off-hand that the case probably was without precedent and that there was raised immediately the question of whether Wittner had in fact taken a legal oath. The matter was referred to the solicitor of the department and it finally may go to Attorney General Sargent for his opinion.

Another Question
Another question was whether an avowed atheist, such as Witt-ner publicly has declared himself to be, could take the prescribed oath with the words "so help me God" without taking a false oath.

One case which treasury officials hold may be pertinent is that of Walt Whitman, the poet, who was dismissed from the treasury service soon after the Civil War because of beliefs expressed in his book, Leaves of Grass. The papers in this case recently were sent to the congressional library as historical "bibels."

Whether Wittner did or did not take a legal oath when he entered upon his present government job is considered as having no bearing on his court action on the evolution question since he brought that in his capacity as taxpayer.

The case is set for Tuesday and he and his counsel will be on hand to press the suit.

U. S. Missionaries In Nicaragua Are Reported In Danger

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The lives of three missionaries, representatives of the Central American Mission at Granada, Nic., have been threatened and their residence has been stoned and the mission bombed.

Dispatches reaching here describe the situation in Granada as still serious.

The Central American mission, a Protestant institution, was established about four years ago, but only recently opened its headquarters in Granada.

This move was opposed at the time by the Bishop of Granada, and since then there have been a series of disorders.

No Changes Are To Be Made Now In Dry Program Of Country

Employment Status of Witt-ner Who Started Issue In Washington, Under Scrutiny; Oath Is Questioned

present prohibition enforcement system will be continued indefinitely. Officials have decided that a re-organization cannot be inaugurated as planned on August 1.

Assistant Secretary Andrews and the others directly connected, have encountered unexpected difficulties and delays in drawing up the details of the re-organization and in the selection of personnel.

Mr. Andrews said today he intended to allow the present program to continue until every phase of the re-organization, including selection of 22 new administrators has been worked out. His decision was reached after a meeting with his "board of strategy" which includes prohibition Commissioner Haynes and other officials of the prohibition unit. The assistant secretary said he wanted to talk over the matter also with Acting Secretary Winston before any further announcement was made.

Under the proposed reorganization the 22 administrators were each to have had jurisdiction over one specified district, but strong influences have been brought to bear both in regard to selection of the administrators and in favor of a modification of the selection process as originally laid out.

Various other features of the plan, including a proposal for far-reaching changes in the assignments of prohibition agents, also have been under attack from some quarters.

Indications were given today at the summit White House here that Secretary Andrews would be given wide latitude in the selection of regional enforcement officers, the president believing that politics had been practically eliminated from the prohibition service and probably should not be a factor.

Inability to efficient men quickly into the prohibition enforcement organization has forced Assistant Secretary Andrews of the treasury to delay the date when the revamped enforcement system is to become operative.

The reorganization, which was to have been made effective gradually beginning August 1, has been postponed indefinitely in order that Mr. Andrews may comb the nation for men of the caliber he wants and to permit the working out of countless administrative details necessary to the new program.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., July 25.— President Coolidge is determined to give Assistant Secretary Andrews of the treasury, a free hand in his efforts to enforce prohibition.

Before leaving Washington, it was disclosed, the president assured Mr. Andrews that he would have a free hand in making appointments and carrying on his warfare against bootleggers and rum runners and that he could count at all times on wholehearted support.

Not only is the president satisfaced with the efforts made by Mr.
Andrews to keep politics in the background, but he believes Prohibition Commissioner Haynes has succeeded in keeping his bureau practically free of political influence. In his efforts to bring about enforcement of the Volstead law Commissioner Haynes in Mr. Cool-idge's belief, has been prompted only by a desire to have an efficient force of agents regardless of their political affiliation or the requests of political office-holders for favored treatment.

Although there have been indications from Washington that Mr.
Andrews is having difficulty in making up the personnel of his regional enforcement staff, President Coolidge apparently is convinced he will make wise selections and is in no way apprehensive that there will be any great delay in putting the new enforcement plan into operation.

Florida Cities To Carry Story Of This State Into Canada

ST. PETERSBURG, July 25.—Several Florida communities will carry the story of Florida to Canada this year during the Canadian Toronto from August 29 to September 12.

St. Petersburg, Manatee county, Bradenton, Clearwater, and Orlando are planning exhibits, according to James E. Coad, executive vice-president of the local chamber of commerce, who has arranged for space for these cities in the big Canadian fair. This fair is said to be the world's largest permanent exhibit.

The Seaboard Airline and the Atlantic Coast Line may also have exhibits, Mr. Coad reports.

Last year St. Petersburg, Clearwater, Tarpon Springs, and Manatee county were represented in the exhibit. The advertising thus gained was considered so successful that space at the fair was secured early this year. This year the Florida exhibit will be larger than ever.

Representatives from the various exhibits showing in the Canadian National Exhibition will arrive in Toronto several days before the opening of the fair to perfect the final arrangements of the display and information booths.

Officials state that the fair has an average attendance of over a million five hundred thousand during the two weeks that it is in operation.

Tampa Man Files Suit Against Miami Realty Co. For Non-Delivery

TAMPA, Fla., July 25.—Suit has been filed in circuit court here by O. B. Stuart, head of a local syndicate, against the Gotham Realty Company of Miami which involves property valued at approximately $2,000,000. The plaintiff asked for the delivery of property for which it is claimed contract had been signed between the plaintiff and associates with the defendants.

Stuart sets out in his complaint that he and the members of the local syndicate contracted with Samuel Kantorowitz and Samuel Kantor, representatives of the Gotham Realty Company for the purchase of 14,000 acres of land near Wimsama and that the contracts were signed on July 9 last. It is further alleged that when the deeds were to be delivered, the Gotham Realty representatives said that the property had been sold to another party.

Tourists Learn New Terms While Visiting At Yellowstone Park

ASHTON, Ida., July 25.—Yellowstone Park has a vocabulary all its own and tourists visiting it the first time have many surprises in store for them. An automobile driver is never a chauffeur in the park. He is a "gear-jammer." A waitress is always a "heaver" and a cook is known only as a "meat-burner."

Most of the employees in the hotels and camps of the park are students. Twenty universities and colleges are represented among the hundreds of waitresses and housemaids working in the big hotels and camps. There are also many school teachers among the women employees and this year most of these motored to the park in their own cars. The chauffeurs and other men employees of the transportation and hotel company also came chiefly in their own autos. Many of the students motored all the way from New York.

Appropriation Is Made For Upkeep Of Florida Museum

GAINESVILLE, Fla., July 25.—As the result of the passage of the 1925 legislature of a bill appropriating $10,000 for the next two years to be used by the state museum, T. Van Hyning, director of the museum at the University of Florida, is making arrangements for the displaying of many relics and specimens of various sorts that have been packed away for the lack of display space.

The museum has more than 250,000 specimens catalogued, one of which is the valuable von Nazzy collection of old master paintings, old family proof engravings, old family portraits, old trinkets, nearly a complete set of old Meissen china and Bohemian glass, and a large collection of stone implements of the North American Indian. This collection is the gift of Mrs. Rosa von Nozzy, formerly of Melrose, but now of England, who states that she will in time give still more valuable relics to the Florida State Museum.

Other gifts have been received from Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Detweiler, of New Smyrna; George Duhl, of Ocala; H. G. Clinton, of Manhattan, Nevada; C. C. Allen, of St. Petersburg; the Bartley Estate of Jacksonville; W. R. Hodges, of Cedar Key; and Mrs. W. S. Walker, of Gainesville.

The Hugonots settled near the mouth of the St. Johns' river in 1664.

Palm Island lots sell on sight. Free boat trips tomorrow across Lake Monroe and return. Call Mr. Given, Valdez Hotel.

Boys Are Sentenced Attend Sunday School

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 24.— Placing them where they shall be taught "Thou shalt not steal," Mayor Gilmore sentenced four boys whose ages range from 9 to 14 years to attend Sunday School regularly for an indefinite period.
The boys were charged with taking a pocketbook belonging to their school principal and were taken into custody when the grand mother of one of them discovered the theft and notified the police.
After pleading guilty, the boys were shown the cells in the city

England Selects Davison Scholars For Schools Of U. S.

CAMBRIDGE, July 24.—The committee of the Henry P. Davison Scholarship Fund has selected the following scholars for the academic year 1925-6: H. H. Thomas of Sidney Sussex to Yale; W. D. N.
Edwards of Corpus Christi to Princeton, and G. C. K. Ely of Trinity to Harvard. Thomas won the Chancellor's medal for English verse this year. Ely recently ranked first in the law tripos and Edwards has played golf for the University.
The Henry P. Davison Scholarship Fund was founded in 1923 by Mrs. Davison, widow of the former chairman of the Red Cross and partner in J. P. Morgan & Co. in memory of her husband and to encourage an ideal of his own. The fund provides that six English students representing "the highest type of university man" shall spend at least a year in Harvard, Yale or Princeton. The object of the fund is "to aid in fostering goodwill between the United States and Great Britain."

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY RESTORE THE ERRING:—Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Galatians 6:1.

CONSOLATION: What comfort have I now to give, To soothe the heart, to which has come That grief which leaves our senses numb? That grief which makes it pain to live And darkens every path, and seems The end of all our happy dreams. Oh, friend of mine, be brave, and know That never will she suffer so.

Together we have proved that she might longer stay with her career To fill the day with happiness; But, oh, what bargain could there be, What pledge or promise could we make, To save ourselves this present ache And keep her here? Ten years? Ah, no! 'Twould hurt us then to let her go.

There is no time that we could rest For parting. We who must remain Are never ready for such pain. Ever our prayer would be: Not yet! Not yet, dear God, another day, With us let our beloved stay, We must believe when falls the blow That wisely God has willed it so.

God has her in His keeping now. Angels attend her through the day, Never her feet shall go astray, Never shall anguish line her brow. Never a bitter thought shall find Harsh judgment in her gentle mind. Lovely her girlhood shall remain Safe from the hurt of time and pain.

—Edgar A. Guest.

And No One to Fight For Him!

Poor little chap. His afternoon "pleasure" was a shopping trip with an irritable mother. He was all dressed up for the occasion. From the hot little hat to the tight-fitting shoes, he represented the child diked out as the representative of a fashionable mother. And he was supposed to be sweet and tractable, regardless of the discomfort he was feeling.

Now there was no way of having that mother arrested for cruelty to animals. It just isn't done, but we confess to a wild feeling that came over us to swoop down upon that kid and carry him away to his proper environment for a summer afternoon.

That proper environment would have been a shady backyard, a pile of sand, a garden hose attached to a nearby spigot and no restrictions against the plentiful use of water. His costume would be a loose-fitting bathing suit, and there would be no dressing up for dinner, because he should have a hearty picnic luncheon and go to bed at dusk, as happy as a free boy can be.

In the various shops this ill-treated little chap stood around while his mother tried on gowns and hats. He went with her to the drug-store and saw her spend an endless time at a counter examining a fine array of cosmetics. In that drug store, it is true, he was treated to a dish of ice-cream, but he spilled some of it on the magnificent tie he was "sporting" and his mother sharply informed him that he would be properly punished for such awkwardness when she got him home.

Perhaps there are times when women must take their children with them on shopping expeditions, but why dress them up in clothing that is uncomfortable and silly? Why not let them go in their bare feet, if they play in their bare feet at home? Why not think of the children a little rather than of the impression the mother would like to make?

Little girls be-curl'd and be-starch'd, little boys primly encoined in "Sunday clothes" are entirely at the mercy of the powerful grown-ups who believe they "own" their offspring. The Herald would like to see some Knights of the Round Table come forth to battle for such children's liberty.

"The Imponderable"

Here is a bit of wisdom for your consideration. It pays to stop occasionally and turn your mind toward what The Atlanta Journal aptly calls, "The Imponderable." Under that caption, the Journal says:

Scientists weighed the brain of the late Anatole France, and found it below the average. What would they have discovered if their delicate balances could have taken measure of what we call, for want of better names, perception, imagination, memory, personality? These are no more to be weighed than the stature of the great artist in literature was to be determined by the height of the roof under which he once made his abode. Thought is not brain, mind is not matter, spirit is not mortality, however intimate their associations here and now may appear.

Seminole Could Do This

What of the poultry business in Seminole county? How many laying hens will be on the job this Fall? How many thousands of dollars will the sale of eggs bring to the banks of Sanford, and then again into the tills of Sanford stores, and back again to the banks, and back again to the owners of the busy hens?

Seminole county is ideal for the development of enormous poultry farms. Food and water, healthful surroundings, all can be provided at minimum cost. The poultry business could rank in importance with Seminole's celery-growing industry. Why not?

MY FAVORITE STORIES

By IRVIN S. COBB: There was once upon a time a celebrated capitalist who had the reputation of not allowing his religion to interfere with his business and vice versa. On Sunday he was the most pious man in seven states, or 27, for that matter. On week days he harvested the dollars by hook or crook, although "crook" was the word most often used by his critics in speaking of his financial operations. In the fullness of time a Federal grand jury manifested an interest in his affairs. While the investigation was in progress a newspaper reporter called at the home

PAYING ALIMONY

TAMPA TIMES: Quite an unusual case is reported from New Brunswick, N. J. In 1892 divorce proceedings were begun between Jonathan T. Meeker and his wife. The matter pursued many courses through the courts, Mrs. Meeker being awarded a decree in 1922—after 30 years. This carried an allowance of $12 a week for alimony. Meeker refused to pay and was in November, 1922, jailed for that failure. Over the objection of his former wife he has recently been released from prison. Middlesex county, New Jersey, having grown tired of supporting him. This is a new angle to the alimony question, and one which may have a slight tendency to cut down the business of the divorce courts. No one had ever thought of the proposition before, we suspect. But what is there to compel a man without property out of which it can be made, as Meeker evidently didn't have, to pay alimony if he doesn't want to? The most that can be done is to place him in jail, as was done in this instance. We once heard a shrewd Israelite friend of ours observed that you "can't get blood out of a turnip, but you can give the blamed turnip hell." New Jersey and Mrs. Meeker that was combined do not seem to have gotten blood out of the Meeker turnip. The conclusion is almost irresistible that the main

As Brisbane Sees It

No Evidence? Nonsense. One Killed. It Pays. Superstitious Millions. To the Last Man. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1925)

"I FIND no evidence of immortality," says Mr. Darrow of the Scopes trial. He is mistaken. He does find evidence of immortality. The best evidence is the fact that all of us, including Darrow, long for immortality, and instinctively believe in it.

Nature and Providence do not deceive or mock us. If immortality were not our destiny, we should not all be speaking of it and desiring it.

A DROP of water going over the edge of Niagara "sees no evidence of immortality." It wouldn't believe that it is on its way back to the ocean, whence it once came, and that in years to come it will again go up to the clouds, then fall to the earth and roll down to the ocean.

There are many things that the drop of water, Mr. Darrow and the rest of us don't understand.

HOWARD PALMER of Chicago, who fought under the name of Mickey Shannon, was killed on Tuesday in a boxing match. Knocked against the ropes, he fell, struck his head on the floor and death was practically instantaneous.

Our civilization, which is so worried about scientific teachings that seem to contradict the Bible, ought to have something to say about the laws that defy the Ten Commandments and decency authorizing prize fighting with the accompanying of manslaughter, constant brutality and the dissemination of dishonesty, vice and disease that go with it.

OF SIXTEEN hundred million human beings on earth, fourteen hundred millions are superstitious, twelve hundred millions are intensely superstitious.

In China, fighters punish their enemies by digging up graves of their ancestors. In that respectful land to dig up a man's great grandfather is a worse injury than to kill the man.

A MOHAMMEDAN arrives from India, sick, pale, at the point of death. Leaving home he took a powerful charm belonging to his older brother, who, as the ship sailed, yelled a curse at him from the dock, and the curse worked.

This shows, as your Christian Scientist friend will tell you, that it took hold on the poor Mohammedan's "mortal mind."

IN ANCIENT days they passed laws forbidding you to make a way for a son or daughter, to stick into it a pin each day until the enemy died. Many still believe in those war figures.

And then there is the Scopes trial.

THIRTY-FOUR Minnesota volunteers in the Civil War formed a "Last Man's Club." The club has just held its fortieth annual reunion. Four are living, one too ill to attend. One of the three present was unable to stand, so they drank to the last man sitting.

ONE OF these days there actually will be on this earth some last man, woman, or last child. For in time this world must die. Science and the Bible teach it.

WHAT KIND of creature will that last human be? What shape, what language? How much will he or she know?

Will the human race, having moved up to the highest possible point, gradually go back to barbarism at the end, as the individual in extreme old age goes back to childhood?

WILL THE last man know how to talk to the other planets, and will he know just what is going to happen to him after he dies, or will he be like ourselves, still wondering, with only faith to comfort him, and save him from painful thought and speculation?

MR. HINMAN'S statement that savings accounts amount to twenty thousand million dollars puzzles one individual. He quotes the Treasury Department report, showing that all the money circulating in the United States amounts to only four thousand seven hundred and seventy-six million dollars.

That's the beauty of money, which is as unreal and as much a matter of faith as many other things.

THERE ACTUALLY is in banks five times as much money as there is in all the United States put together. That's because the same dollar is used over and over.

If all the depositors of savings banks, other banks and trust companies, should ask for their money at once, they wouldn't get ten cents on the dollar. None the less, their money is perfectly safe, waiting for them.

CREDIT, SIGNATURES on checks, and especially confidence in the signatures, take the place of real money.

The Rockefellers, father and son probably have handled hundreds of millions of perfectly good dollars in their lives, and it isn't likely that both together ever saw a hundred thousand dollars in real money. They don't even sign the checks.

SATURDAY EVENING SERMON BY REV. T. J. NIXON

THE ARK OF GOD IN THE HOME

Text, 2 Samuel 6-11, "And the ark of God continued in the house of Obededom the Gittite three months; and the Lord blessed Obededom and all his household." The ark of the covenant was the most ancient and sacred of the religious symbols of the Hebrew nation. It came into use at Mt. Sinai when the tabernacle was constructed and the specifications were given to Moses by revelation from God. It was a chest made of acacia wood, about four feet long and two feet and six inches in width and height. It was overlaid within and without with gold and the lid was made of pure gold. Upon the lid were two golden figures of winged cherubim facing each other and their wings stretched over the ark. These were the symbols of Jehovah's presence, and the ark was called the mercy seat.

We read in Exodus 25-22, that the Lord said to Moses in speaking of the mercy seat, "There will I meet with thee, and there will I commune with thee, from above the mercy seat." Within the ark there were placed the ten commandments, a pot of manna, and Aaron's rod that budded.

The symbol meaning of the ark and its contents is of some interest to us today in understanding the elements of true worship. The ark itself was the sign and expression of the divine presence in Israel. The mercy seat was the symbol of prayer and communion with God; the table of stone contained the word of God; the pot of manna was a reminder of God's goodness to his people; and the rod of Aaron would inculcate loyalty to God's ministers and to his Church.

THE ARK OF GOD IN THE HOME IS THE MOST POWERFUL AGENCY IN BUILDING UP THE CHURCH.

The Christian home and the family altar are really a part of the church and its work. Christian education begins in the home, and is carried on through the Sunday School, the church services, and the Christian college. Such teaching and training is a most important part of God's plan of saving the world. There are two ways by which our government saves life on the ocean. One of these is the life boat method. Life saving stations are established and when a vessel is wrecked on the rocks a crew of brave men will man the life boat and go out in the stormy sea to save as many as possible. The other way is the lighthouse method. Hundreds of lighthouses are set up around the coast of our country to guide the ship, aright, and keep them off the rocks. It is a plain fact that while the life boat is saving one the lighthouse saves a hundred. The Christian home and the Sunday School are the lighthouse method of saving the world. They start early with their work of saving the boys and girls and training them for service. Instead of growing up to be criminals they become useful citizens and faithful workers in the church.

THE ARK OF GOD SHOULD HAVE A PLACE IN EVERY CHRISTIAN HOME.

The most essential thing to success in life is faith in God. That fine Christian laymen and business man, Roger W. Babson, has recently emphasized this important truth from the standpoint of a business man. Religion is the only foundation for that integrity, industry, cooperation, and that desire to serve which are fundamental to the prosperity of the community. Mr. Babson uses these words "Much of the prosperity at this nation is due to the family prayers which were once held in the homes of our fathers. Whatever the arguments pro and con may be, the fact nevertheless remains that such family prayers nurtured and developed these spiritual resources to which the prosperity of the nation is due."

There is a way to keep up the family altar in every home if the parents really desire to have it. Let the parents confer together and decide on the best plan to read the word of God and pray in the family. There is no "fast iron" method; use good judgement and decide on the best method for your own home. If it suits you best to and love and service becomes a blessed reality. Some of the best people I have known were converted at the family altar in the home. I wish we had ten thousand times more of such conversions. Bishop Marvin used to tell of his own conversion at four years of age. His saintly mother was sitting in the old arm chair rocking her baby boy to sleep in the evening. She was singing that grand old hymn, "Alas and did my Saviour bleed," and her little boy was reading his mother's face. He saw the tears of gratitude and love in her eyes and one of these tears fell upon his cheek. It sent a thrill through his very soul, and the bishop believed in after years that his conversion took place right then and there. The best time to be saved by faith in Jesus Christ is in the days of childhood; the best evangelist in the whole church is a Christian mother; and the best place to find the Savior is at the family altar in a Christian home. I would not discount the Sunday School nor the services of the Church. These are the agencies of God to carry on the work begun in the home, but they can never substitute the work that must be carried up in Christian homes for seven days in the week.

Surprise Shower Is Given Friday Night For Mrs. O. T. Alford

Mrs. O. T. Alford, whose marriage was a recent event was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given Friday night by the dependable class of the Methodist Church at Mrs. Alford's home on French Avenue.

Mrs. Alford who had been kept in complete ignorance of the affair was surprised when the class gathered at her home. Games were played and Miss Nell Williams delighted the party by telling fortunes.

The gifts for the bride were brought in a beautifully decorated basket. Each gift was accompanied by a saying appropriate to the occasion.

A musical program was enjoyed, after which a delicious ice course was served.

Those present were: Mrs. W. S. Thornton, Mrs. Paul Radford, Mrs. Herman Middleton, Miss Margaret Zachary, Miss Nell Williams, Miss Helen Chorpensing, Miss Lucile Proctor, Miss Patty Lyles, Miss Nonie Williams, Miss Drane Roberts, and Miss Maud Tyre.

Osborne Herndon, Jr. Celebrates Eighth Birthday Friday

Mrs. Osborne Herndon's attractive home on Park Avenue was the scene of unusual gift when her son, Osborne, celebrated his eighth birthday Friday afternoon.

The colors pink and white were artistically carried out in the decorations. Throughout the afternoon a number of games and contests were enjoyed by the children. The bean contest, among the girls was won by little Miss Martha MacDonald and she was given a coin purse, while John Minarik was given a baseball.

At the conclusion of an afternoon of merriment delicious refreshments were served, the colors pink and white being carried out in the brick ice cream and cake. Favors were drawn from a huge Jack Horner pie and these were golf balls and tom-toms.

About twenty-five of Osborne's young friends enjoyed this occasion.

Saturday Evening Sermon

(Continued from Page Four) have a little service in the parlor do that. One good plan now used by many families, is to have the Bible handy in the dining room, and just before the morning and evening meal, read a short lesson from the Bible and offer up a prayer.

Such a custom faithfully kept up in your homes will give us strength for each day, and it will do more to beautify our home life than all the flowers that bloom in this sunny land of Florida.

Danish Harbor Scene Of Disastrous Fire

LONDON, July 24.—An exchange telegraph agency message states a great fire is raging on the new harbor of Odense, Denmark. Four warehouses and a number of ships are in danger and thousands of tons of grain are burning. Military forces have been called out. The conflagration has spread to coal stacks on wharves and falling warehouse walls have greatly handicapped fire fighters.

LARGE NUMBER NEW BOOKS ADDED TO SANFORD MUNICIPAL LIBRARY

During the past several weeks a large number of new books have been added to the Sanford Municipal Library. These were listed and given to The Herald for publication through the courtesy of Mrs. Anne Van Ness Brown, librarian. They follow:

Non-Fiction
Baldwin—Men Who Make Our Novels.
Includes over eighty biographical sketches, thoroughly revised and brought up to date, of recent American novelists.

Cooper—Poems of Today.
A useful collection of selections from modern English and American poets, with notes and bibliography.

Cuyas—Spanish-English Dictionary.
Contains many modern words, idioms and technical terms.

Drury—Viewpoints in Modern Drama.
Over 300 modern plays are grouped by theme, briefly discussed and plots outlined, with lists of modern drama, play writings, etc. Valuable to dramatic and study clubs.

Eppes—Negro of the Old South.
A charming picture of plantation life, written with pathos and humor by one of Florida's most delightful writers.

Graham—Bookman's Manual.
A valuable guide for the book lover and student of literature.

Grauer—Chemistry.
The fundamental principles of organic and inorganic chemistry are told for the lay reader with practical applications and up-to-date methods.

Hill—Spiritualism; its history, phenomena and doctrine.
A clear presentation of the subject; with an introduction by Conan Doyle.

Hunt—What Shall We Read to the Children?
Expert advice given in all branches of children's reading by a well known children's librarian.

Keen—I Believe in God and Evolution.
The third edition of a short treatise written from the religious and scientific standpoint and endorsed by many bishops.

Long—County Library Service.
Published by the American Library Association, and describes the recent developments of successful county library systems.

Olcott—A trustworthy guide for parents, teachers and librarians.
One of the most useful books on the subject.

Thoreau—Walden.
This classic by one of America's foremost nature writers, describes the essence of his ideal and ethical philosophy, written with power and style.

Townsend—Books of Gardens and Gardening.
Articles written by the editor of Country Life, beautifully illustrated, with suggestions for the simple garden as well as that of the professional gardener.

Wilkinson—New Voices.
A comprehensive book of criticism of modern poetry, broad and impartial in viewpoint, treating of the spirit and technique of contemporary poetry.

Hart—Interpreter's House.
The scene is laid in New York City, which is called the "riddle of modern civilization," and pictures the changing standards of present day life.

Byrne—Blind Raftery.
The author is being proclaimed by both the critic and lay reader.

Cherubini—Pinocchio in Africa.
Gives further experiences of Lorenzini's wooden marionette, which the children love so well. This sequel continues his amusing and exciting adventures.

Horaday—Tales from Nature's Wonderlands.
Tales of prehistoric monsters, which will appeal to older readers as well as to the boys and girls. Non technical and simple style.

Munroe—Through Swamp and Glade.
A story of the Seminole War, and of the bravery and friendships of the Seminole Indians.

Poeck—Secret of Hallodene Farm.
A mystery story with adventures of interest to girls.

Segar—Memoirs of a Donkey.
An old favorite, where the amusing adventures of the donkey are written by himself.

Van Teshner—When I was a Boy in Rumania.
Presents a clear picture of the national life in Rumania, of the customs and folklore of the people.

Wylie—Jennifer Lorn.
A brilliant comedy of manners by one of the most finished stylists of our time. The scene is laid in the 18th century and describes the adventures of a titled Englishman and his bride, and their wanderings from England to India.

Juvenile Baker—Thunder Boy.
Story of an Indian boy who has many thrilling escapes from his enemies. Forest life is well pictured and of interest to boys.
