'Priority' Bills Put In Hopper

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — If Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth gets his "priority" bills through the 1965 Legislature, county commissioners around Florida will get more power and cow men more trouble. Faircloth sent a bulky report to the Legislature today which included proposals to create a "home rule" for counties, a consumer fraud bureau, and a permanent state building fund.

Senate Jolted By New $150 Million Sales Tax Bill

Mayor J. H. Crapps is now home from the hospital and convalescing, but is not expected back at work for several weeks yet, according to word from City Hall.

Eleven students from the Sanford area are winter trimester candidates for degrees at the University of Florida's annual commencement ceremonies April 26.

From Sanford: Laura Abigail Boyd, Daniel H. Mathers, Jr., Alex Hall McKibbin, Robert Alan Samuel and John Daniel Taylor.

From Oviedo: Margie Sandra Brown, Joseph Andrew Duda, Carl John Fabry and Frederick W. McCall Jr.

From DelBary: Isaac Edward Whisnant.

From Geneva: Rhea Alex Johnson Jr.

Reports are being published that "Cry of the Laughing Owl," filmed in part last December in Longwood and at Wekiwa Springs by Nova Film Productions, Inc. under direction of John Hugh, has been bought for a television series. The movie is scheduled for premiere in Winter Park in the near future with the TV series for presentation in about 18 months, reports say. General Artists Corporation will do the series, in color and using much of the same location area, with at least three of the same stars, Robert Taylor, Geraldine Brooks and Chad Everett.

Squadrons competing in the Reconnaissance-Bombing Derby at NAS are called "Checkertails," "Sea Dragons," "Bats" and "Peacemakers."

They are from the aircraft carriers Kitty Hawk, Enterprise and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

At a briefing the other day they were advised, tongue in cheek, that they were not in competition with the "Blue Angels." That's the Navy demonstration team which will perform at the air show Saturday.

Again the Clock Winders urge that some pretty spring flowers be planted in the planters along the street. If not real spring flowers, how about some of those "real-looking" artificial ones? Decorate the place up for the auto show, when all those thousands of people will be in town.

You cannot preserve your dignity in alcohol.

The Serendipity Singers, nine collegians who present a lively program of original folk music with jazz instrumentation, have been booked by the Rollins College Union for April 25. Proceeds will go toward the campaign for the Rollins fieldhouse. The program will be held at the Orlando Coliseum.

Mrs. J. M. Fahey, president of the Sanford Garden Club, says her organization could use the place settings now being given away at Publix. She says those who get the place settings and would like to donate them may bring them to the clubhouse at Highway 17-92 and Fairmont Drive.

Area Groups Will Present University Bid

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Florida Cabinet released more than $5 million for construction work at Florida Atlantic and Florida A&M universities and the future University of West Florida.

Florida Atlantic got most of the money—nearly $2 million. (John Alexander, chairman of the Seminole County Commission; John Krider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce; Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Rep. S. J. Davis Jr. will join with an Orange County delegation Friday morning at Tallahassee before the State Board of Regents to request an appropriation of $7 million for the proposed East Central Florida university on Highway 320 in Orange County at the Seminole County line, three miles south of Oviedo.)

For an auditorium and humanities building and a cafeteria extension.

Florida A&M received $1.6 million for a vocational technical building here.

And the University of West Florida, scheduled to open two years from now at Pensacola, got $1.35 million for an administration-classroom building.

Gov. Haydon Burns took time out to scold a state architect over a delay in construction of three dormitories at Florida State University.

He directed his remarks at Board of Regents architect Forrest Kelly, who requested a contract extension he said was necessary because his staff had taken four months to process and analyze building specifications and make inspections.

"We can not tolerate four-month delays and then be asked to act on after-the-fact matters," said Burns. "This delay is not justifiable and not excusable."

Nevertheless, the extension was granted.

Negro Churches May Join Union

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) — Three Negro denominations were warmly welcomed today into negotiations for a united Protestant church.

They are the African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church, AME Zion Church and Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. Together they have about 2.3 million members.

Spokesmen for the three denominations said they anticipate early acceptance by the governing bodies of their churches of a formal invitation to join the Consultation on Church Union (CCU).

Present participants are the Methodist Church, Episcopal Church, United Presbyterian Church, United Church of Christ, Disciples of Christ, and Evangelical United Brethren.

Cigarette Tax Take Doled Out

The city of Sanford will receive $16,928.56 as its share of state cigarette collections for the month of February.

Net tax collections on cigarettes in the state amounted to $4.7 million of which $3.3 million goes to the state and $1.4 million into the state general fund.

Other Seminole municipalities and tax share: Casselberry, $3,802.87; Altamonte Springs, $2,013.82; Oviedo, $1,276.42.

Sanford 'Best Duty In Navy,' Speaker Avers

By Dottie Austin

Sanford Naval Air Station is considered by Navy men to be the "best duty in the Navy"—and the reason is the warmth and friendliness of Sanford civilians.

Cdr. D. F. Munday, co-ordinator of this week's Bombing Derby exercises, speaking at a luncheon meeting today, told members of the Jaycees that "Navy men strive to remain in this area and when they have to leave, strive just as hard to return."

"When I received orders to Sanford, I was told it would be a most pleasant tour. It has not only been pleasant, but by far the best duty I

Automobile Show Draws Thousands

Crowds estimated at over 7,000 strolled in the Sanford Auto Show Mall Wednesday, starting shortly after noon and continuing steadily until 9 p.m. as the annual display of new cars attracted the young and the "young in heart."

Winner of the portable General Electric television set given away by the Sanford Merchants Division of the Greater Sanford Board of Trade was W. C. Putman, of 305 West First Street, when his lucky ticket was drawn at 9 p.m. by Fire Chief Mack Cleveland Sr.

Tonight the drawing will be for the console stereo phonograph, also a GE product, and Friday, at the climax of the three-day festival of autos and sales events, a 21-inch RCA color television set will be taken home by some lucky person.

Tickets for the drawing are available at all downtown stores, to be filled out and dropped in hoppers scattered throughout the show area, along First Street between Park Avenue and Palmetto Avenue.

Special feature along with tonight's Glenn Reeves entertainment show will be the appearance of the famed Blue Angels Navy precision flying team at the 8:30 performance. The "Angels" will star in the air show planned for the Bombing Derby climax at Sanford Naval Air Station Saturday at 10 a.m.

Auto dealers reported many cars were sold during the first day of the three-day event and business was brisk all along the mall area among auto dealers and downtown merchants who are featuring special sale items for the fete.

AUTO SHOW DREW BIG crowds to downtown Sanford opening night Wednesday. Cars and crowds mix in this scene (above) looking east on First Street. Portion of crowd (below) at Magnolia and First listens to music and awaits drawing for television set which was given away. The auto show continues tonight and Friday. (Herald Photos)

Blue Angels Due Today

Five admirals and the Navy's Blue Angels precision flight demonstration team were scheduled to arrive at Sanford Naval Air Station this afternoon for the final three days of the eleventh annual Reconnaissance Bombing Derby.

The exercise consisted of RA-5C Vigilante reconnaissance aircraft flying over mock "enemy" terrain, gathering vital route and target information for a bomb strike that followed.

Plotting RVAF-7 to its first victory during this derby was Ch. Kenneth E. Enney, squadron commanding officer, with Lt. J. T. Osborne as reconnaissance navigator. Lt. Osborne is the squadron reconnaissance training officer.

Total point standings as of this morning were: RVAF-3, 1445; RVAF-7, 1319; RVAF-13, 1195.4; and VAF-11, 1177.

This morning the base was preparing to roll out its red carpet for the high-ranking naval leaders due to arrive this afternoon. Expected are the top aviation officials in the Atlantic and Pacific fleets.

They are Vice Adm. Paul D. Strop, commander of Naval Air Forces in the Pacific, and Vice Adm. Charles T. Booth II, who last week assumed command of naval air forces in the Atlantic.

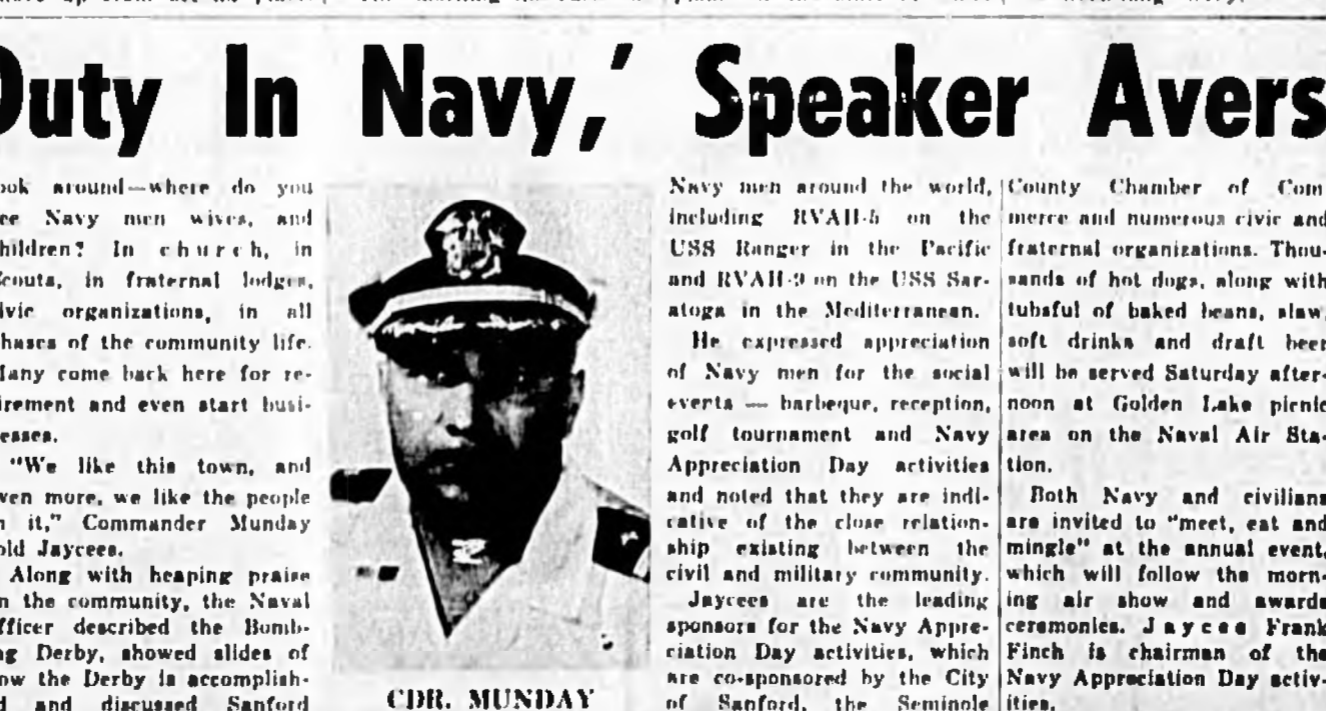

Just before the arrival of the Blue Angels, local leaders will greet a party from Offutt AFB, Neb., headed by Vice Adm. Robert J. Stroh, deputy director of the Joint Strategic Target Planning Staff; and Rear Adm. Joseph A. Jaap who represents the commander-in-chief, of Pacific, on the Nebraska-based staff.

Rear Adm. Norman C. Gillette, director of aviation plans on the staff of Chief of Naval Operations will arrive from Washington with other naval officials from the Pentagon.

Navy dignitaries will continue arriving through the week. Rear Adm. Daniel F. Smith Jr., chief of Naval Air Basic Training at the Pensacola Naval Air Station, will arrive Friday.

Two other Florida based leaders will attend the Saturday program and participate in the awards ceremony during the air show. They are Rear Adm. Robert Goldthwaite, Commander Fleet Air Jacksonville, and Rear Adm. Forsyth Massey, chief of staff of the joint forces Strike command, at MacDill AFB, Tampa.

Meanwhile, flight crews today were flying their twinjet RA-5C Vigilante reconnaissance bombers through the fourth day of exercises in the week-long derby.

Solons Get College Bill

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate, gearing for a battle over rules to strengthen control of the small county bloc, was jolted today when a bloc member proposed an across-the-board sales tax to produce $150 million.

The three per cent sales tax, to hit groceries and medicines as well as items now taxed under the limited revenue measure, was introduced by Sen. Houston Roberts, of Live Oak.

Jacksonville Sen. John Matthews tossed in a batch of higher education bills, including one to put a chancellor over the whole system and make him the executive officer of the Board of Regents. Other bills in the package spelled out legislative intent that the Board of Regents confine itself to policy making and leave day-to-day routine to university presidents.

Along with the big sales tax bill came a proposal by Sen. Pete Gibson of Perry to spend some of the new money. He suggested a $1.8 million additional appropriation for the Forestry Service so it can increase personnel by 288 rangers and put everyone on a five-day, 40-hour week.

The big battle over so-called control of the "pork chop" gang was set up when the rules committee unwrapped its suggestions for changes in rules governing the 60-day session.

Sen. Doyle Carlton Jr. of Wauchula, who served in the Senate for eight years before making an unsuccessful bid for governor in 1960, is expected to lead the fight against the rule changes to tighten small-county control of the upper chamber.

A bill establishing a Junior college in Seminole County was introduced in both houses today by Sen. Mack Cleveland and Rep. S. J. Davis, of Sanford.

The bill appropriates $1,471,864 to get the college organized, built and in operation by the fall of 1966.

Ninety-seven bills started through the 1965 Legislature on its first business day. One that was doomed at the outset was a severance tax proposal to add $11 million a year to state revenue.

In the House, 80 bills were introduced as the session began work Wednesday. Seven bills were offered in the Senate.

Sen. J. Emory Cross, of Gainesville, introduced the bill to raise $22 million in revenue during the coming biennium by imposing a severe tax on minerals. Cross ignored the governor's plea for no new taxes, saying this was "whistling in the dark."

Half the money collected under the bill would go back to counties in which the five per cent tax on gross mineral sales was paid.

Olive Branch, Sword Offered By Johnson

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson has charted a new course for the United States in Southeast Asia, a subtle blend of olive branch and sword designed to bring peace and a measure of plenty to that tortured land.

In a major policy speech televised and broadcast to the nation's radio world Wednesday night, the Chief Executive altered the administration's previous stand, declaring that the United States stands ready to engage in "unconditional discussions" for peace in Viet Nam.

He coupled this with an announcement that he would ask Congress to join in a $1 billion U. S. investment in Southeast Asia "in order to improve the life of man in that conflict-torn corner of the world."

But, while holding out the possibility of massive economic aid, Johnson also firmly declared that the United States "will not be defeated . . . will not grow tired . . . will not withdraw" in the face of the Communist goal of "total conquest" of embattled South Viet Nam.

His remarks drew criticism from Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) who asked in a statement: "Do you buy freedom for a humble people with a billion-dollar package? I doubt it, and I doubt also that we can preserve face and prestige with such an approach."

"What a tragedy it would be if our actions now should be interpreted as meaning that the Viet Cong would humble us into making a billion-dollar offer in order to call it quits when freedom is on the altar."

On the other side, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield (Mont.) said the speech was "a profoundly moving and constructive statement which reveals both the great strength of President Johnson's resolve and his deep concern for the welfare of all people."

Administration officials said Johnson's proposed Southeast Asia development plan was not directly tied to a solution in Viet Nam because the President wanted to get the program moving as quickly as possible.

Sen. J. Emory Cross, of Gainesville, introduced the bill to raise $22 million in revenue during the coming biennium by imposing a severe tax on minerals. Cross ignored the governor's plea for no new taxes, saying this was "whistling in the dark."

Half the money collected under the bill would go back to counties in which the five per cent tax on gross mineral sales was paid.

Cancer of the lung—the one form of cancer most prevalent—is increasing more rapidly than any other form of the disease.
This statement was made by Dr. Arthur M. NeSmith Wednesday in a report to members of the Kiwanis Club on the status of research to find the cause of and cure for cancer.
Dr. NeSmith told Kiwanians that over two million persons in the United States have been cured of cancer, but during this year 550,000 new cases will be discovered. More than 18,000 of these will die in Florida, 182 in Seminole County and 70 in Sanford.
"Out of this half million cases, nearly 300,000 will die in the United States, 8,500 in Florida, 98 in Seminole County and 37 persons in Sanford," Dr. NeSmith pointed out.
"Cancer in some form will strike one out of every four Americans, and affect two out of three families," he predicted.
"Two persons out of six will be cured, but three out of six could be saved if the diagnosis were made in time. Too many persons do not see their physician about one of the seven danger signals until it is already too late," he warned.
Treatment still consists mainly of surgery, with X-ray cobalt therapy and drugs accounting for treatment of only a small percentage.
"We are working hopefully for that day when cancer can be cured by a drug and surgery is no longer necessary," Dr. NeSmith said.
"Cancer can strike anyone—old or young, rich or poor. It is not inherited, but certain tendencies are found to be prevalent in certain families. It should be said in answer to questions—

Virginia Tour Rich In Civil War History

By Murray J. Brown
UPI Travel Editor
Americans planning vacations in the United States this year should consider including Virginia in their itinerary. This is the last year of the five-year Centennial of the War between the States and Virginia has much to offer the casual student of history as well as the Civil War buff.
Many of the war's bitter and bloody battles were fought within the boundaries of the Old Dominion State. Virginia's borders, have long been the theater of the state's historic, scenic and recreational attractions.

But this will be the last year for one major attraction—the 11 million state-operated Civil War Centennial Center which is only minutes from Interstate Highway 95 in the heart of Richmond. The circular, domed building will be closed to the public Nov. 30. Where there are now exhibits depicting the epic conflict as it took place as a visitors' center.

Among the top attractions are five major battle areas maintained by the U. S. National Park Service at Manassas (Bull Run), Fredericksburg and Appomattox. All have been improved and expanded under the Mission 66 program inaugurated by the Park Service nine years ago.
In the Shenandoah Valley where Stonewall Jackson waged his famed Valley Campaign, the Centennial years have seen a number of additions and improvements. The Valley campaign itself is traced with dramatic lighting and musical background by an electrically-animated map. At Front Royal, a Civil War museum emphasizes the war in the Valley and Jackson's headquarters building at Winchester has been converted into a museum housing many of the general's personal belongings. In Fredericksburg and Petersburg, there are miles of well preserved fortifications and trenches and gun pits. In the Richmond area, the Confederate Museum—which was President Jefferson Davis' war time mansion—has high bluff guarded the James River approaches to Richmond. Just out of town, the National Park Service has opened the public Fort Darling at Drewry's Bluff where huge Confederate guns atop a 90-foot bluff were used to shell the general's personal belongings and J.E.B. Stuart along Richmond's famed Monument Avenue.

Student-Faculty Game Nets $$$ For Rec Fund

Male teachers from South Seminole Junior High School proved to be in remarkably good shape Friday night when they beat the student team 57-47 in a hard fought student-faculty basketball game.

Though the final figure isn't in yet, the South Seminole Junior High athletic fund is assured of more than $180 as a result of the event.

Men playing on the faculty team included David Miller, Bill Edwards, John Angel, Russell Moore, George Poore, Charles Allen, Galen Craig, Herbert Drueding and Don Hasley, who was borrowed from Bear Lake.

Industrial arts teacher Charles Allen even had enough energy left after the game to climb a rope to the gym ceiling.

In the first game of the evening, the women teachers lost to the girl students by a close score of 18-15.

Playing on the women's team were Mrs. Joan Battle, Mrs. Robbie Ambrose, Miss Theima Mossholder, Mrs. Frances Johnson, Mrs. Jane Ford, Mrs. Tina Barnett, Mrs. Jo Anne Rowe, Mrs. Louise Forsman, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. Kay Stutzman and Mrs. Georgia McDaniel.

Miss Lavista Blauvelt, dressed as a clown, gave out balloons and six junior high boys dressed as cheerleaders, cheered for the girls team but there was no fooling around as far as the players were concerned as they all played hard to win.

The every-member visitation phase of "Operation Youth Wing" at First Methodist Church of Sanford got off to a start with a dinner-meeting of all visitors in McKinley Hall.

This phase of the campaign will be divided into two parts for the 150 visitors, who began Wednesday to go out, two by two, for the larger gifts section which will report this evening. Regular visitation section will begin Sunday afternoon with reports due the following Monday at 9 p. m.

The crusade to gather $175,000 in gifts and pledges, over a three-year period, to build a new education building for First Methodist, is rapidly gaining momentum.

Rev. Forrest J. Reynolds, director of the crusade and full time fund raiser with the department of finance and field service, of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, presided over the second of three training sessions Wednesday night. The crusade will include both the building fund pledges and those for the current budget with church members asked to make both pledges at one and the same time.

Before larger gifts visitors received their assignments, they made their pledges to the crusade and those of the regular visitation section will follow the same procedure Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Reynolds will direct the final training session and also will bring the sermon at both the 8:30 a. m. and 10:35 a. m. worship services this Sunday.

Oviedo Students Are Presented Beta Club Keys

By Evelyn Lundy

Five new Beta Club members at Oviedo High School were inducted during impressive ceremonies held in the school auditorium.

In the group were Mike Partin, a junior and member of the varsity basketball and baseball teams, Ann Martin, a sophomore who is active on the newspaper staff, Bill Dann, a junior and member of the band, John Arie, a sophomore and active athlete, and Barbara Kozic, a sophomore and transfer student from Lyman High School.

The ceremony took place on the stage where all Beta Club members were seated. Before them was a white covered table bearing the Beta emblem, four large golden keys and a gold ring. Bob Stewart read the scripture and led the flag salute. Tim Colbert, club vice president who presided in absence of the president, Marilyn Partin, read the Beta Creed and spoke briefly to all members.

Points of the club were discussed by four members. As each spoke, he or she held a gold key which, at conclusion of the talk, was placed on the gold ring. In this group were Gardner Preedy who spoke on Achievement, Sherry Walls on Character, Jimmy Courier on Leadership, and Arthur Evans on Service.

Mrs. Harden Webb, club sponsor, addressed new members and welcomed them. The Beta Club pledge was repeated in unison.

Principal Clyde Holder, in his address to club members and the student body, said, "It is one of the greatest honors one can achieve during his school years to become a member of Beta Club."

He called each new member to the stage and presented the Beta Credentials. New members were presented the club pin from an old member after which the ring of keys was presented by Tim Colbert to Barbara Kozic who gave the speech of acceptance.

Boston Seminar

Michael G. Cosby, of North Orlando, has returned from a week-long seminar at the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company in Boston. Cosby is associated with one of the company's largest agencies in the Central Florida area and was chosen from a group of many agents to attend this course.

While in Boston he experienced freezing weather and a snowstorm but reports he thoroughly enjoyed seeing snow again for a brief time. En route to Massachusetts he stopped over in New York where he dined with a wartime friend and enjoyed a Broadway show.

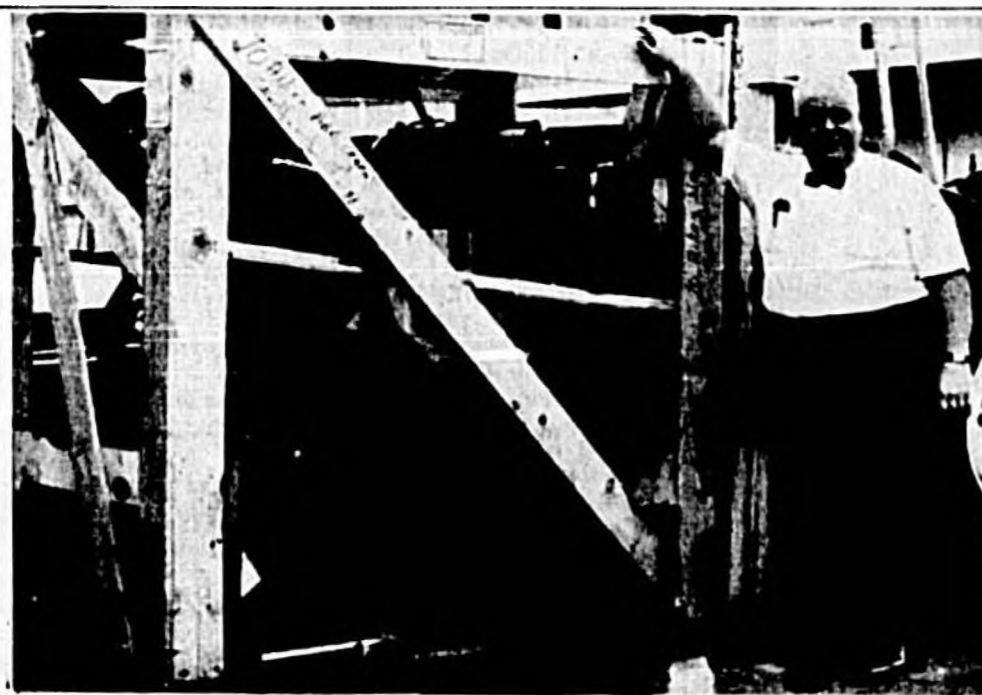

He spent a pleasant and relaxing weekend with his wife's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Zeller and daughters, Lorraine and Virginia, in Merrick. While on Long Island he also had an opportunity to be in touch with many friends and relatives of his family.

Oviedo Moves For Uniform Traffic Code

By Evelyn Lundy

Steps to establish a uniform traffic code for the city of Oviedo were taken at the April council meeting with city attorney Geo. A. Speer Jr. authorized to investigate needed work and time involved in drawing up such a code. Among other business matters handled by council were decisions to repair the wash-out on the northwest corner of the Magnolia Avenue bridge and to pay $90 labor costs for leveling and stabilizing clay at the school tract located adjacent to First Methodist Church.

Mayor Lee Gary was asked to contact Florida Inspection and Rating Bureau for the purpose of getting residential insurance rates lowered. It is hoped that reports will be available for the May 3 meeting, next regular session of the city council.

In 1897, the Salvation Army established salvage brigades in a program of aiding homeless men.

Speech Class Beneficial For SSJH Students

By Jane Casseberry

A new elective course for ninth graders at South Seminole Junior High School this year is a class in speech being taught by Mrs. Judy Drommerhausen.

The course is proving both interesting and helpful to those taking it. The training they are receiving is already providing many practical benefits in making it easier for the students to get up before other classes and express themselves with less nervousness.

Recently the class has been practicing job interviews and students had special assignments to interview someone engaged in the type of work in which they are most interested. They inquired as to the training required, personality traits required, and other qualifications for the job as well as salary and fringe benefits that could be expected.

They also have been studying techniques of persuasion and propaganda such as are used in advertising.

The school hopes to be able to offer additional classes in speech next year so that more students may benefit.

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: My husband talks too much about me! I always thought that what went on between a married couple was supposed to be private, but my husband broadcasts the damndest things to all his co-workers. The wife of one of the men down at the plant even "kidded" me about what I slept in! Not only that, but last summer I had a little surgery. It wasn't very serious, but it was rather embarrassing (you know, the kind you just don't talk about). Well, everybody at the plant knew about it. When they have get-togethers for the workers and their families, I don't feel like going because everyone knows so much about me. What's wrong with my husband? Or is it me? And how can I shut him up?

DEAR ABBY: I am worried about becoming an old maid. I am 15 and have had only one date in my whole life. I am not bad looking. I've seen worse with my friends. I have a good sense of humor and enjoy doing things most teenagers enjoy doing. I act my age and don't try to be something I'm not. I would appreciate a few pointers on how to attract a boy's attention. Please don't tell me to wait until the right boy comes along. I've waited long enough already. 15 AND NO BOY FRIEND

Are you too forward? Nothing drives a boy away like an aggressive girl. Do you call boys on the phone? Or send them "messages" through your friends and his so that everyone in school knows you like him? If so, forget him. You'll never get him. Do you aspire to spiritual goodness? Do you value personal integrity, and respect your fellow man? Are you respectful of your elders? If so, it will shine through and you will be completely lovable to someone who is worthy of your love. Which, after all, is the reason every girl wants to attract a boy's attention, isn't it?

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. Bud Trenholm and Barry Hagedorn of Dallas have been compiling an enviable record of success in Texas tournaments. One of their latest victories was in the Masters' Pairs in Fort Worth and one of their top scores came when Bud put Barry into a seven no-trump contract.

go on dummy's third heart and then played a club to his ace. When East showed out Barry had a perfect count of his opponents' distribution. West had shown four spades, two hearts and five clubs so he had started with exactly two diamonds. That meant that East had started with two spades, four hearts, six diamonds and one club. By this time East had discarded three diamonds and was left with three diamonds and one heart while West was left with two diamonds and two clubs. Barry led out his last spade and discarded dummy's last club. East had to let another diamond go and Barry's three diamonds were good irrespective of which opponent held the queen.

When Bud went from seven spades to seven no-trump he knew he might be gambling a trifle but one essence of a winning pair is that each partner have confidence in the other's dummy play. Barry won the club lead in dummy and counted 12 top tricks. He needed a heart break, a diamond finesse or some sort of a squeeze for his thirteenth trick. He started proceedings by running off four spade tricks and discarding a club and heart from dummy. Then he went to hearts since he did not want to discard another card from dummy at that time. He let his last low club

We The Women:

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence Newspaper Enterprise Assn. DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: I'm the child of a divorce which nearly killed my mother. She has never gotten over it. As I don't want to suffer as she did, I recently told the man I'm in love with that if we marry, it's for keeps: that I will never give him a divorce. Since then, he has grown very cool toward me. Why? I was only asking him for what he would have to promise in his marriage vows. I don't know what to do...

fore one. No matter how intensely we believe we love the person, we've discovered that our affections are subject to change. We've outgrown our childhood's intense attachments to our parents; our "best" friends have come and gone and so usually have other people we thought we loved. Before the ceremony which commits us to lifelong fidelity to one person, we are understandably anxious about our ability to make good on the pledge.

don't wonder he's angry. If you enjoy confusing yourself with your mother, he does not enjoy being confused with your father. I wish you could begin to regard this confusion of yourself with your mother as a weakness to get over instead of using it to arouse your man's sympathy. If you would try to become your own self—a woman willing to trust her value to deepen love that is felt for her—you couldn't keep him away. But he doesn't want to be married to suspiciousness, pity and its endless claims to comfort, reassurance and recompense. None of us want marriage to such exhausting greenness.

Beauty after Forty EDYTH THORNTON McLEOD I am always on the lookout for mature women who are working at unusual jobs. I found one recently in attractive Evelyn Haines, a housewife (and she still is, even though she has a career).

I visited the famous Hess department store in Allentown as a judge in a recent fashion contest and, while there, I went to see its wonderful food department. A gracious lady, Mrs. Haines showed me her stock of foods from around the world. In 1946 Mrs. Haines convinced the famous Max Hess that she should add gourmet items to the store's already well-stocked food department, and in 1964 she sold more than $400,000 worth of the world's most unusual foods.

She said, "The trend toward exotic edibles came about after World War II, when our servicemen and women returned from faraway places. The exotic foods are a 'status symbol' of many a smart hostess; people go away talking about the wonderful and strange things."

Miss Sandy Berrie Hostess To Promenaders

MISS SANDY BERRIE and her escort, Al Cantrell of Maitland, prepare to receive guests at Sandy's home following Lyman Junior-Senior Prom.

By Margaret Cosby
Miss Sandy Berrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Berrie, of 30 North Devon Avenue, North Orlando, entertained Saturday night at a party at her parents home.
Miss Berrie is a senior at Lyman High and was a most charming and stunning hostess in her empire-pink formal gown and shimmering deep rich red tresses. Her escort, Al Cantrell of Maitland, assisted Miss Berrie in entertaining some 15 friends and school associates.
Before attending the Polynesian Prom, Mr. Cantrell and Miss Berrie, together with Miss Marleen Hall and Mr. Chuck Rehmond, of Winter Park, dined at the Skyline Restaurant in Orlando. After the affair the youngsters gathered at the Berrie home for more dancing and refreshments.

There was a bountiful buffet table which only upperclassmen know how to handle. It was laden with a variety of sandwiches, deviled eggs, dips, chips and bits, a frosty bowl of punch a paper-mache globe topped with a mortar board and, of course, the prom cake.
The cake was white frosting decorated in the school colors, blue and gold. There were several dolls on the cake, the girls dressed in blue and yellow formal and the boys in dinner jackets. There were gold roses and "Lyman Prom—1965" was inscribed in blue.

Guests included Miss Marleen Hall and Chuck Rehmond; Auora MacDonald and John Macclinton; Diane Kilmer and Mike Sewell; Ginger Yearick and John Stuart; Vicky Malari and Mark Foutz; Carol Tipple and Bill Fund and Frank Ballantine.

I had quite a few calls after was over from homemakers asking me to put the recipes in the Corner for the benefit of those who did not get to attend. I'll give the favorite first.

Sprinkle with paprika. Serves 4.

Cut pork tenderloin into 8 pieces. Combine soy sauce, sugar and pepper. Pour sauce over meat and stir until pieces are well coated. Keep in refrigerator 2 to 3 hours. Spread pork tenderloin pieces in a shallow baking pan. Pour the extra sauce over the meat. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) about 1 hour. Turn or stir pork 2 or 3 times during roasting so the meat bakes in the sauce. To serve, spoon sauce over the meat.

 Popular Lyman High School seniors, Jiffy Gammage and Chuck Wagner, were crowned queen and king of the Lyman Junior-Senior Prom held Saturday night at the new Maitland Civic Center.

The new building lent itself well against a background of gigantic arrangements of exotic flowers and palm and bamboo screens.

Members of the sophomore class acted as ushers and served refreshments of punch, sandwiches and cookies.

The boys were dressed in bright Hawaiian shirts and white shorts and the girls wore gay sarongs. They presented each guest with a gaily colored lei at the door. Floating candles were placed on each table.

Entertainment and music for dancing were provided by the popular Mark Wayne Quartet. Lyman juniors who headed committees for the prom were Steve Grimwood, decorations; Carolyn Thomas, refreshments; Tom McLaughlin, entertainment, and Nancy Payne, location.

Serving on the committee of faculty advisors were Sal Manfre, chairman; Mrs. Carolyn Durak, Mrs. Jean Bower, John Blair, Walter Drurus and W. B. Scheibel.

JIFFY GAMAGE and Chuck Wagner were crowned with wreaths of tropical flowers after they were chosen queen and king of the Lyman High School Junior Senior Prom Saturday night.

LYMAN STUDENT COUNCIL, president, Dan Casselberry, helps his date, Ann Trawick, put on her Hawaiian lei at prom.

LYMAN SENIORS attending prom were Pam Eldridge and Frank Renew, Senior Class president, and Tom Milwee and Liz Sherwin.

Mrs. William Eggers Heads CTP

By Jane Caselberry
Officers for the coming year were elected by the Council of Teachers and Parents at South Seminole Elementary School Tuesday night.

Elected were Mrs. William Eggers, president; Mrs. Allen Ontrow, first vice president; Mrs. John Van Espool, second vice president; Mrs. John E. Ferry, Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Carrick, treasurer, and Mrs. Richard Wabbar, corresponding secretary. Installation of officers will take place at the May 4 meeting.

Ways and means chairman Mrs. Eggers announced plans for the Spring Festival set for Saturday, April 24, 1-6 p.m. Among the attractions scheduled for the fund raising event are a fish pond, cake walk, country store, pony ride, hay ride, fortune teller, movies, apron lady, and dart game.

C. M. Harp, principal, announced a proposed change in the county schools moving the grading period from six to nine weeks in order to give the teachers a chance to broaden and diversify units of study and take emphasis off grades.

The pre-school readiness clinic held at South Seminole for the third year has drawn favorable attention in other areas of the state. Harp read a letter from the superintendent of elementary schools in Lee County asking for information on the program in order to start one similar in his county.

Following the business meeting an area dentist and member of the CTP, Dr. Howard A. Oser, presented an interesting program on dental health. He showed slides in conjunction with his talk illustrating various types of dental problems in children.

The attendance awards went to Mrs. Wanda Jones' second grade and Mrs. Annell Clark's fourth grade.

The CTP sponsored ham dinner held prior to the meeting was a success. Mrs. Howard Habbit and her luncheon staff prepared and served the delicious meal.

Lake Mary C Of C Discusses Wills; Hears Road Reports

By Frances Wester

The subject of Wills was discussed by special guest speaker Attorney G. Andrew Speer at the April meeting of the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce held in the Fire Hall. Richard Keogh introduced the speaker and presided over the business session in the absence of the president, Jim Daughtry. A very interesting question and answer period followed the talk.

Donald Jackson gave a report on the progress of the Road Committee project. Only three more deeds are needed to be signed for the rights of way on Lake Mary Boulevard, so that the county can proceed with paving the road out to Interstate 4.

The County Commissioners and the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce also are backing this project.

It was announced that the County Commissioners have approved the paving of all roads in Lake Mary that were tarred last year; also, that a storm sewer will be placed from the center of town to Wilber Avenue and down to Crystal Lake.

The stop sign at the corner of Lake Mary Boulevard and Fifth Street will be removed and a yield sign placed on the clay road corner instead.

The Lake Mary Garden Club requested permission to beautify the grounds around the Welcome To Lake Mary signs recently erected by the Chamber. The group was unanimously in favor of this and voted to grant the permission requested.

Ed Zimmerman announced that the Lake Mary Boy Scout Troop is sponsoring a chicken barbecue dinner to be given April 24. Keogh introduced Scoutmaster Roy Howell Jr. and praised Howell and Zimmerman for their work with the scouts.

A spaghetti dinner is being planned by the Chamber for May. Date will be announced later.

Chicken Heist Is His Undoing

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—James Sullivan, 26, was arrested on a charge of possession of stolen property. His mother called police after she became "worried" when he brought home 180 pounds of frozen chicken parts.

Editorial Comment
United Front Needed

A "barebones" $7 million appropriation will be asked of the Legislature this month so the proposed East Central Florida university can open in 1968.

Seminole County must support this appropriation.

Even though we lost the battle to Orange County for the site of the new school we stand to benefit as much in the long run.

The compromise site at the county line near Oviedo will make the university more accessible to Seminole County than it will to many portions of Orange County and to all the other seven counties in the area.

When an access road is cut to the new school it will be less than 20 minutes away from almost any part of Seminole County.

The location is the best break possible for Seminole next to getting the college, itself.

We must support this appropriation because by 1968 we will have over 1,100 graduates from high schools in our county. Many will want to go on to college and many college doors will be closed.

Enrolling in our major state universities is becoming increasingly difficult.

University of Florida and Florida State University already report "full houses" for 1965-66.

Our own proposed junior college may not be ready to open until after 1968.

East Central Florida university will be easily accessible to our youth. It will help serve existing and future industries. It will attract outstanding scholars.

We, therefore, strongly support Orange County in urging a sufficient appropriation from this Legislature so the university can open on schedule.

There was a magnificent show of unity in Seminole County when efforts were being put forth to have the university locate here.

We now need another united front to make certain the Legislature does not delay the opening of this vital institution.

Although Sanford is the head fishing capital of the world, there are many people who have lived in the area since birth without ever tasting cooked shad. Take it from one of your clockwinders, they don't know what they're missing, especially if it's baked and served with tart orange sauce as it will be Saturday, 5:30 until 7 p.m. at Geneva Community Hall when Methodist church women sponsor what they're billing as "An Old-Fashioned Fish Supper." With the shad, or salt water mullet if preferred, will come swamp cabbage, hush puppies, beverage and homemade pie. Take our advice, though, won't you... TRY THAT SHAD!

Lifted from Editor & Publisher:

"I'd like some pointers on how to run a newspaper," the young journalism student said to the publisher. "You came to the wrong person," the publisher replied, "ask one of my subscribers."

Definitions: Press: People who write. Working press: People who write between drinks. Special press: People who write and buy drinks. Reporter: Man with a press pass. Managing editor: Reporter who's learning to spell. Free lance writer: Editor who got tired of regular hours. Publisher: Advertising salesman who went straight. Columnist: Reporter who drinks on the house.

Retired Chief Bill Sowell, formerly at NAS now living in New York, recently wrote a college English composition of which Sanford was the central theme.

"Sanford stands as a model of outstanding community-military relationship," Bill wrote.

"A Navy family feels accepted when they move into town... they are regarded as new residents... not just someone passing through. A sincere welcome is given each family by the various community organizations. The Navy is integrated into every aspect of community life."

We were also interested in Bill's description of the sound of the Navy aircraft at NAS. It is the best we've ever heard: This is the way he puts it:

"It traverses the entire spectrum from a throaty roar to that of a scream below the threshold of pain."

Delegations Urge

Board To Name New U Prexy

By Dave Fountain
 (Sanford Herald Bureau)
TALLAHASSEE — Delegations from Seminole, Orange and Osceola Counties met today with the new Board of Regents to urge the board to consider appointing a president for the new East Central Florida university.

The delegations feel that the planning of the university will move at a faster rate if a president for the university is appointed at this time.

Members of the delegation are John Carter, John Alexander, Seminole County Commission chairman; William Wallace, of Osceola County, president of First Federal there; James Robinson, Orange County attorney, and William H. Dial, of Orange County, president of First National Bank and chairman of the Central Florida committee working on the East Central Florida university.

Dial said that the delegation did not have any particular person in mind for the position of president and that decision would be entirely up to the Board of Regents.

The delegation also is asking for a minimum appropriation of $7 million from the current legislature so the new university can open in 1968. Failure to get the money may mean delay opening of the university for another year.

The proposed university will be located on SR 520 about three miles south of Oviedo in Orange County at the Seminole County line.

Current plans call for it to open in the fall of 1968 with a maximum enrollment of about 1,500.

The Board of Regents, on the recommendation of the Council of University Presidents, delayed until the fall

Senate Girds For Medicare Action

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate was primed today for fast action on President Johnson's $4 billion health and welfare bill, the most far-ranging legislation of its kind since the heyday of the New Deal.

The House handed Johnson a stunning victory Thursday night approving the bill, which includes a medical insurance program for the elderly, by an overwhelming 313-115 margin.

The President, in a statement read to newsmen at the White House after the vote, praised House passage of the measure.

"In 1935, the passage of the original Social Security Act opened up a new era of expanding income security for our older citizens. Now in 1965 we are moving once again to open still another frontier—that of health security," Johnson said.

"For an older person good health is his most precious asset. Access to the best our doctors, hospitals and other providers of health services have to offer is his most urgent need."

The omnibus health and welfare measure also included a seven per cent increase in all Social Security benefits, which would be retroactive to last Jan. 1 and liberalization of medical payments to the needy.

Senate leaders also alerted members for a final vote on President Johnson's $1.3 billion proposal for aid to elementary and high schools.

Democratic leaders hope to pass the bill by nightfall in exactly the same form that it was approved by the House March 27. This would send it directly to the White House for President Johnson's signature.

Auto Show 'Best Ever'

Sanford's annual Auto Show spun into the third and final day today, with ever-increasing attendance of shoppers, "just lookers" and many buyers swarming through the spotlighted array of 1965 cars.

Thursday's crowd of "well-over 10,000" estimated by sponsors swelled the attendance figures close to the 20,000 mark, with the "added attraction" appearance of the famed Blue Angels flight team on the bandstand Thursday night.

Winner of the General Electric stereo console record player was a teen-ager, Jack Beckwith, of 400 West 20th Street. Tonight's prize will be a 21-inch RCA color television set. Tickets for the drawing, to be held at the Glenn Reeves bandstand at 9 p.m., are available throughout downtown stores and at booths on the street.

The thousands of persons expected to attend the final show tonight will have a double treat, both in the finest automobiles on display and in special sales events at downtown stores.

Officials of the Sanford Automobile Dealers Association and the Sanford Merchant's division of the Greater Sanford Board of Trade are enthusiastic about the success of the show, calling it "the best we've ever had." Turning the center of town into a display mall was a wonderful idea.

Dealers displaying the very latest and sleekest of the 1965 cars include Strickland-Morrison, Hunt Lincoln Mercury, Bill Hemphill Motors, Seminole County Motors, Ellnor Motors, Holler Motor Sales and Haag Chrysler-Plymouth.

Parents Get 'Thumbs Down'

Request by a delegation of parents of Lyman High School students that graduation exercises be held in the Orlando-Seminole Jai Alai fronton was denied by the Seminole County School board Thursday afternoon.

Led by William C. Williams as spokesman, the group presented a petition containing names of 134 parents asking that use of the fronton be considered. Reasons given included the fact that the school auditorium seats only 950 persons, and the 225 graduates would be allowed to have only a few relatives and friends in attendance.

School Board Chairman Mason Wharton told the group that the school faculty had made the decision to have the graduation exercises in the school gymnasium, which will seat more persons and each graduate will be allowed four relatives "by invitation only," and "this board will back up his decision."

Offshore Labor Bid Wins Okay

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Labor Secretary J. Willard Wirtz today granted the full requests of Florida citrus and celery growers to retain offshore laborers to harvest their crops. Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.), announced.

Wirtz also approved permits for "substantial numbers" of other offshore workers to remain in Florida to harvest citrus and celery crops, Smathers said, in making the announcement on behalf of Florida's senior Senator, Spessard L. Holland, and other members of the Florida congressional delegation.

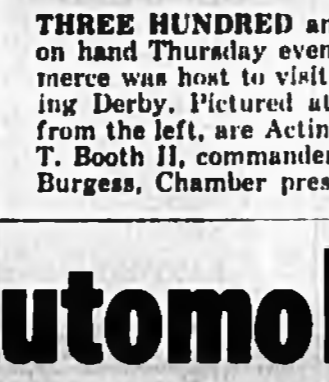

Labor Department permits for offshore laborers to remain in Florida were to have expired on April 15. This brought a storm of protest from Florida growers, particularly from citrus industry leaders who claimed it could mean disaster in the harvest of the huge Valencia orange crop.

Florida Power Gives 'Windfall'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Florida Power Corporation donated land worth $1.3 million to the state today and Gov. Haydon Burns said it will be used for the cross-state barge canal and a public park.

The land, in Citrus and Levy Counties on the Withlacoochee River, includes a small power plant building and a dam which also goes to the state and which the Governor said probably will become a part of the barge canal operation.

The Governor said the gift included 3,800 acres of land on the river, of which most was under water. But he said 390 acres of solid upland adjacent to the dam and power house will lend itself to development as a public recreational park.

1,000-Seat Grandstand Included

By Barry Lawson

Nearly $200,000 will be spent on a new grandstand and facility improvements at Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club during the summer, Jack Ledoux, general manager, announced today.

Prime project will be the construction of a new, glass-enclosed grandstand with seating capacity for 1,000 persons. Estimated cost of this building, which will be located between the east end of the present stand and the paddock, has been set at $100,000.

Ledoux described the new facility as falling within "the new trend of modernistic designs for operations such as ours."

The planned grandstand, designed by Sanford architect John A. Burton IV, will place the 16-window betting ring and lobby on the upstairs level, with offices, concession, rest rooms and other operating rooms downstairs.

Bids are expected to be let by May 1, Ledoux said, with construction to begin in June. Completion date for the new facility is set for Oct. 1.

At least two Sanford firms are expected to bid on the contract, Ledoux said.

"We just need more room," Ledoux enthused today. "This year our attendance is up by 40,000 people and we are running about $2.5 million over last year. This is about a 35 per cent increase. I guess we'll hit $10.5 million this year."

In addition to the new grandstand, another $100,000 will be spent on improvements of the already existing facilities. This will include glassing-in of the lower level of the grandstand; addition of several rows of theater seats, plus new benches; re-roofing of the stand; additional paving of 10,000 square yards of parking area, and "a lot of other interior improvements, particularly enlargement of the operational facilities."

The track has been in operation since 1933, but only for the past 10 years has it been operated by Ledoux and his partners, Jerry and Jack Collins.

During these years of operation the track has grown from an operation of $3.3 million to this year's $10.5 million.

"And I see nothing but a lot more growth," Ledoux exhaled. "Our operation is so good, in fact, that we're going to extend our lease another 20 years, which will give us 40 years more all together."

The kennel club has only nine more days of racing in the current season, closing April 19, and is one of the finest facilities of its kind.

Public Invited To Air Show Saturday A. M.

The Navy's Blue Angels precision flight team will flash an aerobatic salute to Central Florida a Saturday when it takes to the air during an open house climaxing the 11th annual Reconnaissance Bombing Derby at Sanford Naval Air Station.
