ORLANDO, Jan. 13.—Responsive to a call issued at the instance of R. P. ## FLEETWOOD'S PLACE ROBBED SATURDAY NIGHT

GAINED ENTRANCE THROUGH TRANSMOM AND WORKED IN SAME OLD WAY

(From Monday's Daily)

Second-story men in the city presumably hangers-on with the shows that have been here for the past week made their second or third haul Saturday night by breaking into the Fleetwood store on First street and even more public than the Cates robbery several nights before. The second-story men have given up residences for the better picking afforded by the stores and they gain their entrance through the transoms in the stores on First street. This is easy enough for them to keep an eye on the night policemen as they walk their beat and with the aid of a confederate working together any store in any city can be easily worked nine times out of ten successfully.

At Fleetwood's Saturday night the burglars made off with something over $25 in cash from the cash drawer and two platets valued at $50. Nothing else was touched and these burglars seemed to want the cash or something that could be easily converted into cash.

The only private residence touched was the home of Irving Estridge on the Heights where it was thought a man had gained entrance into the house and his flashlight was seen and after a search by Mr. Estridge and the officers who were summoned the house was found to be clear of the intruder's presence and as nothing was disturbed it is thought he was scared away before he could get anything.

These are the only two reported for Saturday night and as the shows have all gone it will be easier to take up the suspicious characters found lurking on the streets and as they can not claim to belong to any shows they should be taken and examined as to what business they have here. There are some of them left here now.

GASPERILLA CARNIVAL

TAMPA, Jan. 10. The Gasperilla Carnival, most widely known of all features of the South Florida Fair, the date of which is February 3 to 12, is to be held on a more brilliant scale than ever before, the pre-war spirit having returned to cosmopolitan Tampa, thereby guaranteeing brilliant pageants and social events. Ye Mystic Krewe of Gasperilla arrives from Gasparilla Isle Monday, February 7, and the annual coronation ball of the phirical organization will be held the following evening.

Friday, February 4, has been designated as "Children's Day" of the fair period, and all children, whether Floridians or visitors, will be admitted to the grounds without charge. Other special days named so far are "Governor's Day," "Rotary Day," "Mexico Day," "Shriners' Day" and "Tampa Day."

Railroads and steamship lines will grant the usual low round trip rates, with special selling dates from all points in Florida. Preparations have been completed for housing and feeding unusual crowds.

President-elect Warren G. Harding, who will spend a part of the winter in Florida, has been invited to attend the fair, and as he is a personal friend of and has served in the Ohio senate with K. G. Breorein, president of the Fair Association, he is expected to accept the invitation.

THE BEST PLACE

We still get many inquiries as to which is the best place in Florida in which to locate. There is no one best place except as it exists in the minds of the people and many men have many minds. That so many do consider that they live in the one best place and yet themselves live in so many different localities as a whole. We were once visiting a section of North Florida and our guide was very enthusiastic about the merits of the surrounding country. "You know," he said, "this is the best county in Florida," and when we laughingly told him "That's what they all say," he said with earnestness, "Well, this one is the best."

The only way to find out which one is really the best spot for you is to come and find it. It's here and if you look long enough you can find just the spot that you will love and that you can tell with delight and of which you can say, "This is the very best there is."—Florida Grower.

A meat packing house has been established at Live Oak. The charges vary from 3 cents for ordinary salt cure up to 8 cents for the whole sugar-curing process, per pound. This will enable the live stock growers of Suwannee county to have their meats cured, smoked and wrapped.

WILL PUSH PLAN FOR A PRIMARY FOR PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Senator Johnson, Republican of California, issued a statement yesterday forecasting his intention to push forward his project for a federal presidential primary law, but recognizing opposition to be met in the effort.

"Progressivism has not passed; certain progressives have," Sen. Johnson said. "The limelight progressives who were more interested in office than in policies have wanted their horrible past forgotten, and have endeavored to atone by out-regulating regularity. But progressivism is yet enshrined in the hearts of millions."

"Reaction is on today. We will resist the assault all along the line up on the direct primary. If this succeeds, there is little that exploiting privilege has to fear from public officials. The bitter, concerted movement against labor is the accompaniment of the endeavor to take from all voters the right of nominating their public servants. To prevent the elimination of the direct primary, and the destruction or modification of that which has added to the common welfare is work ahead for progressives, and this work will be done by the rank and file without, and if necessary, in spite of, progressivism's former leaders."

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY LAND IN FLORIDA.

What pays better interest than an investment in Florida land? Bankers consider 8 per cent pretty good interest no money loaned out, but Florida land beats that. Census reports just made public show that the increase in land values in Florida in the last ten years has been more than 100 per cent. What makes this statement peculiarly interesting is the fact that land in Florida is still bringing less per acre than in any other part of the United States, in proportion to its real value, in other words, we have the cheapest land, and the largest amount of it of any state in the Union. Add to that the fact that we have the finest climate and the longest season, insuring to the cultivator the possibility of more working days in the year, and you can form some idea of the coming future of the state.

There are more than 54,000 farms in the state, but only sixteen and seven-tenths of the land area of the state is included in farms and of that, less than 40 per cent is called "improved." Florida is still in the pioneer stage. We have been so busy building cities and towns, and roads and bridges, that we have neglected the possibilities that lie in the cultivation of the soil. Some of us have unwisely accepted the dictum of our visitors from the rich, black soils of the western states, that Florida land is too poor to raise anything, notwithstanding the fact that has been repeatedly demonstrated that Florida sand produces more in bulk and money value than any of the rich lands of the prairie states. Our truck farmers would think their business a failure if it did not turn out several times as many carloads per acre, and many times as much in cash than the prize farms of the North and West.

That fact is gradually creeping into the minds of our friends from the north in connection with the other self-evident fact that life in our balmy climate is infinitely pleasanter and happier than it can be in the hostile climate to the north. When this fact becomes fully known in the land and every winter visitor advertises it, the rush to Florida will make its past growth seem very small.

The value of all farm property is now $329,286,817, an increase of 136 per cent since 1910. The average value of the land alone, per acre, is $38.90, and that it must be remembered includes lands valued at $1,000 and more per acre, which shows there must be an immense acreage of cheap land yet to be had. We have always contended there was no really worthless land in Florida and that contention is being verified every year. We have not yet learned the uses to which our seemingly poor land can be put. But the continual sunshine and the copious rains will force the growth of vegetation on the poorest of it, when we have the sense to adapt the plants to the soil.

We predict that the growth of the next ten years will make that of the last decade seem small by comparison. The moral is, buy now while land is cheap, and must advance with the growth of population.—Tampa Times.

Mistake was made in printing an issue of school bonds recently sold in Palm Beach county (number of judicial circuit misstated), and the Chicago firm that bought the bonds demanded the return of $62,000. The School Board had spent the money and will not make refund.

SERIOUS FIRE AT MAITLAND SUNDAY P. M.

SEVERAL STORES WERE BURNED TO THE GROUND—HEAVY LOSS

(From Monday's Daily)

Maitland was visited by a disastrous fire yesterday shortly after noon when one of the frame store buildings across from the postoffice caught fire and before the flames could be extinguished several other store buildings were consumed. The Sanford Fire Department was called out as well as Orlando but Sanford stopped before getting there when it was learned that the chemical engine would be useless. As there was no fire department at Maitland nothing could be done to stay the flames and several store buildings burned before the fire could be stopped and the loss will run into the thousands of dollars and on account of the high price of building materials the loss will be very serious to the owners as the stocks of goods were also ruined. It could not be learned today who were the owners of the stores or the exact loss but the sympathy of everyone goes out to the unfortunate ones who cannot have all their losses covered by insurance in these days of exorbitant prices.

PRICE OF LUMBER AND REDUCTION IN LABOR AND PRICE OF RAW MATERIAL INVESTIGATED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Extensive investigation into activities of lumber manufacturers through their national and regional association are being made by department of justice with the assistance of the Federal trade commission. This is disclosed in a report sent congress by the commission in connection with inquiry conducted by senate on house and reconstruction.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Department will determine whether there has been violations of Sherman anti-trust act. Yellow pine industry of the South is particularly to be looked into. Stated department's inquiry is not directly connected with building investigation in New York and indicated it has been in progress some time.

HIGHWAY TRAFFIC RECEIVES CONSIDERATION ORGANIZATION'S MEETING

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Representatives of twenty national organizations are here for the opening session of a national conference on the highway traffic regulations. The conference will frame uniform code traffic laws and urge forty-two state legislatures meeting this month to pass them.

DON'T BLOCK PROGRESS

It is rather surprising to read that the Florida Sheriff's Association will make an effort to have the new law (abolishing fees) declared unconstitutional. The new law went into effect January 1st.

Almost every state that prides itself on its modern methods of running its business has abolished the fee system. The Federal government long ago abolished any fees for payment of duty performed or service rendered. Municipalities pay flat salaries, or are getting to that under modern municipal forms of government. Why the state should continue a practice and custom which was adopted at a time when population was sparse and business scarce, is beyond the comprehension of thinkers.

The sheriffs, the clerks of court, tax collectors and a few others have long enjoyed the highest emoluments of office to be found in the state. The sheriffs of the larger Florida counties, the tax collectors, the clerks of court, and some others, have been receiving for their administrative work recompense from the people far in excess of that paid by any state to its governor.

The legislature of Florida was wise in putting all state and county officials on a salary basis. There is no reason why adequate salaries can not be provided in these cases; there is every reason why they should no longer be allowed emoluments in excess of the highest officials of the state.

The sheriff's association will lose out in its fight. The legislature of Florida has a clear right to regulate such things, and there is nowhere a constitutional provision that a sheriff, a tax collector, or any other official shall be paid the excessive sums some of them have been drawn under the old-fashioned antiquated fee system.—Tampa Tribune.

HALF YOUR LIVING WITHOUT MONEY COST

Cotton Production Costs Can Be Cut in Half By Food And Grain Making And Saving

Atlanta, Georgia.—(Special).—"High prices for cotton, such as we had a year ago cannot reasonably be expected for a long time to come. European countries that normally use half our crop are so thoroughly disorganized and paralyzed in a business way that they will not be able to take the usual quantities and pay high prices for many years to come," said H. G. Hastings, President of the great Southeastern Fair.

"This situation which we cannot control, calls for lower costs of making cotton as well as reduction in cotton acreage. The quickest, safest and most effective way to reduce cotton making cost is to produce on one's own acres every pound of food, grain and forage needed for family, tenants and laborers and live stock.

"The situation requires chickens, hogs, milk cows and acres of corn, oats, wheat, sorgho and miscellaneous crops from which to feed them. Last, but not least, in importance, is the home vegetable garden which is the quickest and cheapest source of food in the world.

"Most folks here in the South don't take the home garden seriously and thereby make a great mistake. There are too many of the 'lick and a promise' sort of gardens and mighty few of the real, sure enough kind.

"We have been told repeatedly by those who plan and prepare for a real garden, plant it, tend it and keep it replanted through the season, that it furnishes half the family living at no money cost except the small amount spent for the seeds needed.

"The garden is, or rather should be, the earliest planted. It brings food the quickest. It starts cutting store bills for food the first week anything is ready to use. A little later, half or more needed for the table comes out of the garden.

"If rightly tended and replanted it supplies food all summer and fall, the surplus above daily needs goes into cans or is dried for winter use. Yes, the right kind of garden is a life-saver, and we all need a life-saver of this kind in 1921."

CHILDREN ATTACKED BY EAGLE IN TAMPA

As little Evelyn Gick trudged along Nebraska avenue last evening about dusk with her young brother and little dog, a big bald eagle swooped out of the sky and attacked them. The scene of the unusual incident was near Cayuga avenue and D. G. Hooker of No. 816 Cayuga avenue, hearing the screams of the little girl rushed out of his home and learned the source of the trouble. He then secured a gun and, after several minutes search, located the eagle roosting on the limbs of a nearby tree. He shot the bird and upon measuring it, found it measured six feet from tip of wing to tip of wing.

Evelyn is said to be the daughter of a recent arrival in the city from the north, who lives in that neighborhood. She is about six years old, while her brother is several years younger. As far as could be learned last night she was not injured and Mr. Hooker stated that after he had thought of the incident was of the opinion the eagle was after the dog. He stated he had the eagle at his home and while it was a large bird, it was undoubtedly very young.

While there have been several eagles killed in this section, none, as far as could be learned last night, had ever attacked anyone. Some years ago a bald eagle was found in a tree north of the city and was shot down, but it had not attacked anyone. The incident is unusual and it is of the general opinion that the bird was after the dog rather than the little girl.—Tampa Tribune.

Fort Pierce did a good thing when it secured a camp ground. It is popular and the visitors are fine people. Many of them are getting acquainted with the county and town and some of them have already announced their attention of becoming citizens.

AT PUBLICITY MEETING CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DECIDE TO GET BUSY

ON PRINTING OF SOMETHING GOOD FOR THE VISITORS

SLOGAN ADOPTED

AND WITH EVERY COMMITTEE HOLDING MEETINGS THIS WEEK CHAMBER IS BUSY.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The Sanford Chamber of Commerce has adopted the slogan, "Sanford, the City Substantial." Heretofore Sanford has been known as the Celery City and its reputation as a celery producing center has long since been established.

The Chamber of Commerce feels that the time has come to advertise its other resources and the word "substantial" means more to the prospective investor. An analysis of Sanford will show that its growth has been substantial, its banks substantial and its credits the same. Those who have invested here in the past know that they have received substantial returns on their investment. Its future is assured by the substantial natural resources which it possesses and its agricultural development is growing more substantial each year.

Sanford is, without exception, a substantial town from a business standpoint and the new slogan, "Sanford the City Substantial," which has been adopted by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, can take its place with that of Orlando, "the City Beautiful," and Palatka, "the City Industrial," without any fear of it being questioned as a misnomer. The business men of Sanford are asked by the local Chamber to use this slogan on their correspondence and advertising matter.

The publicity committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce met last evening to arrange for the printing of a new booklet for Sanford and Seminole county. The old booklet, printed four years ago, is now obsolete and there are but a few copies of this left to mail out to parties making inquiries relative to this section. It is the intention of the Publicity Committee to have this new booklet snappy and up-to-date, one that will compare with any piece of advertising compiled by other progressive towns in the state, containing all possible statistics relative to Sanford and Seminole county and give information that is generally contained in the inquiries received by the Chamber of Commerce.

While Sanford has never been considered a tourist town in the strictest sense of the word, the booklet will show the pleasures afforded those who come to this city for recreation. In addition to this information it is intended to show the miles of paved streets, bank clearings and deposits, taxable values, schools, income from various crops grown in the county, freight rates and other data that will appeal to the capitalist and which will prove conclusively that Sanford is the logical distributing center for the south central section of the state, and affording greater opportunities from an investor's viewpoint.

The secretary has been instructed to secure bids for the printing of this booklet and it is hoped to have this work completed in time to have these booklets distributed to the delegates of the National Editors' Convention which will be in Sanford the latter part of March.

There were a number of members of the old Board of Trade whose memberships expired January 1, 1921. These members were carried over into membership into the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, as the committee who had this matter in charge realized that it would be unfair to assess them additional dues in as much as they had paid for membership in the old organization to January first. In order to expedite and efficiently execute the constructive program which is before the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, it is absolutely necessary that the organization receive the fullest support from the business interests of this city so that committees can be appointed to carry out this program.

The secretary has notified all members whose membership in the old Board of Trade expired on the first of the month, and enclosed an application card of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, with the request that these cards be returned promptly to him, together with check for $25, representing a year's dues. It is absolutely necessary that the secretary receive these application cards without further delay so that these committees can be organized and put to work. If the business interests of the city demand 100 per cent results from the Chamber of Commerce it is obvious that they will have to line up 100 per cent behind this organization. The membership committee of the Chamber of Commerce are out after the commendable distinction of making Sanford a 100 per cent Chamber. A special meeting has been called by the Board of Governors this evening in the Court House for the adoption of by-laws for the Sanford Chamber of Commerce. The charter of the corporation has been recorded by Judge Housholder and all legal technicalities complied with. Notices have been sent out to all members, and those interested in the civic, commercial, industrial and agricultural welfare of the city should be present at this meeting.

After the adjournment of this meeting a special meeting of the Traffic and Transportation Committee will be held to conclude the plans made relative to freight rates which have been discussed at previous meetings of this committee. All shippers and growers are particularly requested to be present at this latter meeting.

NEW EVIDENCE MAY EXONERATE RUBE ALLYN

CAMPERS SAW MAN GET OUT OF
AUTOMOBILE AND FOLLOW
HIGEL

BRADENTOWN, Jan. 11.—New evidence has come to light in the Higel murder case which, if it does not lead to the fastening of the crime upon the actual murderer of Harry L. Higel, who was killed near his home on Sesta key last Friday morning, is practically certain to prevent the conviction for the murder of Rube Allyn, newspaper man, now in jail here charged with the crime.

Who were the people in an automobile who came up the main road on the island about 8:10 o'clock the morning of Friday last, and were seen by two campers?

Who was the man who descended from the car and hurried to meet Higel, who was walking within plain view of the campers' tent?

The campers say they saw the car arrive, saw one man get out of it and walk over toward where Higel was and that Higel did not appear at all anxious to meet this man. They say that Higel walked away, into a patch of high weeds, and that the man followed him, and that Higel had something in his hand and was without a hat.

The campers did not see the two men meet, as the woods hid them from view, and as it was breakfast time, the campers went into their tent and when they finished breakfast and came out the car had disappeared.

BRITISH GOVT. GETS COPY OF ALL OUR CABLES

CARLTON ADMITS THAT ENGLAND CONTROLS NEWS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Charges that the British government exercises surveillance over American cable business; officially as well as private, passing through the British Isles and that the state department had extended its controversy with the Western Union Telegraph & Cable Company to bring in the Cuban government came up today before a senate committee considering cable legislation.

Norman H. Davis, acting secretary of state, and Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union, conducted a cross-table argument over the Cuban allegation when Mr. Davis flatly denied it. Chairman Kellogg ended the hearing by questioning Mr. Carlton as to the English practices.

Clarence H. MacKay, head of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, another witness, told the committee that English secret service authorities were obtaining copies of all cable messages.

Mr. Carlton several times expressed reluctance to discuss the subject of English surveillance because "it would make trouble," but at last yielded.

"Ten days after messages have been transmitted," Mr. Carlton explained, "our copies of them are turned over to the British secret service, which keeps them for a few hours, and then returns them. No exception is made, and the American official dispatches, the dispatches to all other countries to and from England, are included, but I have reason to believe that no examination is made of them. I have been assured that the official messages are not even inspected, but they are in the physical possession of the authorities while other messages are being inspected."

The orders for the surveillance were issued, Mr. Carlton explained, because of disturbed conditions in Great Britain and Europe. He indicated that other European countries took more complete control over American cable messages passing through their territory than did England.

Mr. Davis and President Carlton argued with considerable heat over the state department's opposition to the Western Union's attempted connection with the British cable system in Brazilvia the Barbadoes cable. Mr. Carlton declared the state department had "made threats to the Cuban government" to prevent the connection going through that island, and that President Menocal now had before him the question of revoking a license already granted for landing of the Barbadoes cable in Cuba.

"The state department has done nothing of the kind," Mr. Davis said, and President Carlton promptly broke in to characterize this statement as "diplomacy."

Frederick Roy Martin, general manager of the Associated Press, told the committee that any increase of communication facilities added the dissemination of American news.

"The government can aid only by facilitating private interests in extending cable facilities," Mr. Martin said. "The Associated Press does not want any government subsidy. We would like to see direct cables to Italy and the Scandinavian countries."

"We have had our troubles with government ownership during the last few years, I will say for our English friends that their censorship is no narrower than our own. Only last Saturday we found that the navy department was censoring a dispatch from San Francisco."

Referring to the visit yesterday of a specialist, Admiral Grayson said he himself asked for the visit because he wanted the specialist's opinion on the ability of the president to do the work he was doing at present.

TWO AIRMEN BELIEVED TO BE DROWNED

TIPTONVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 11.—George H. Simpson, captain, and Charles Fisher, pilot, of a hydroplane, making a trip from Cincinnati to Memphis, are believed to have been drowned when their plane, thought to be theirs, fell into the Mississippi river late Sunday, according to reports reaching here.

The plane, which was leased by a film company for distribution purposes to Ohio and Mississippi river towns, is reported to have left Cairo early Sunday morning.

An hour after the plane passed over the town, negro farm laborers on a plantation nearby came in with the story that there had been an explosion on the flying machine, and that the plane had fallen blazing, into the river from a height of about 500 feet.

Late Sunday night it was learned that the plane had not reached Carutherville, Mo., the next stop scheduled, and arrangements have been made to drag the river at the point where the negroes say the plane sank. Capt. Simpson's home is in Toronto, Canada, and Fisher is from Dayton, O.

According to a dispatch to The Times Thursday Miss Mildred Kerr, assistant to Frank A. Cassidy of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, Cincinnati headquarters, left Cincinnati Thursday, accompanied by Capt. Simpson, pilot, and Mechanician Fisher in a Dayton-Wright hydroplane, bound for Tampa and other southern points to deliver films enroute.—Tampa Times.

SANFORD NOW AFFILIATED WITH NATIONAL ASSOCIATION CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

WILL MEAN MUCH TO THE LOCAL TRADE BODY

WILL CO-OPERATE

NATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL HAVE BEAUTIFUL HOME AT WASHINGTON.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Formal notification has been received today by Secretary Pearman that the Sanford Chamber of Commerce has been elected to membership in the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Affiliation with the National Chamber gives the Sanford Chamber of Commerce a voice in the activities and affairs of that constantly growing business organization which now numbers about fourteen hundred commercial and trade organizations.

Closely following its election to the National Chamber the Sanford Chamber of Commerce will appoint a National Councilor who will serve as a connecting link between the local organization and the National Chamber at Washington. Hereafter when policies affecting business are under discussion by the federal authorities, the Sanford Chamber of Commerce will have a chance to express itself, inasmuch as one of the chief functions of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, is to voice the business sentiment of the country. From time to time referenda are sent out by the National Chamber for the purpose of ascertaining for the benefit of congress and the government departments, opinions prevailing throughout the country on questions of importance.

The views and opinions of the nation's business men, expressed through the National Chamber, are listened to with respect. In fact the views of the Chamber, on important legislative matters affecting business are sought. Never before in the history of the United States have business interests been so efficiently represented at the National Capital, toward which there seems to be an increasing business centralization all the time.

The National Chamber will soon have a home of its own, just across Lafayette Square from the White House. A $2,500,000 fund for this building has practically been all subscribed, it will be an elaborate workshop for American business, in the study and solution of its national problems.

In order to be of greater service to its members, and the business men of the nation generally, the business organization of the National Chamber was recently departmentalized, the various departments being: Foreign Trade, Insurance, Transportation and Communication, Domestic Distribution, Fabricated Production, Natural Resources and Civic Development. The aim of these departments is to help the business man solve his problems, and gain new markets for American trade. Members have the privilege of utilizing them, which virtually amounts to the Sanford Chamber of Commerce having a special Washington representative.

Membership in the National Chamber entitles the Sanford Chamber of Commerce to receive a weekly bulletin containing news of commercial interests, a weekly legislative bulletin while Congress is in session, which follows the progress and gives a digest of legislation having relation to the conduct of business. They also receive a special bulletin which is issued whenever anything of commercial importance arises which is not regularly covered, as well as The Nation's Business, the official magazine of the organization.

THE HOSPITAL MADE A FINE SHOWING FOR FIRST YEAR

LAST NIGHT BROUGHT FORTH FACT THAT NO DRIVES BEEN MADE IN YEAR

The regular monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Fernald-Laughton hospital was held at the hospital last night and many matters of importance discussed by the committee.

A statement of President Lawton was read showing the hospital to be in excellent shape but several items are badly needed such as the enlargement of the operating room and a tiled floor for sanitary measures, something will have to be done in a few weeks and the building and floor will be quite an item of expense. The regular annual drive for membership this year was not put on by the committee as it was thought the people had been driven to death all during the war and afterward but the idea of the annual drive should not be altogether abandoned as this membership fee of $1 is due and payable each year in August. If there are any members of the hospital association who wish to pay their membership dues and will send in their dollar or bring it to T. W. Lawton it will be accepted any time as there are many things badly needed by the hospital all the time. The annual linen shower for the hospital in January will also be given some time this month and with several changes in the building that are necessary the money on hand will be exhausted but the executive committee will not make any drive for money any time ago as they do not wish to burden the people with any more expense. Many members have paid their dues and others have donated sums of money during the year and all of this helps immeasurably. The hospital has been the means of succoring many people who heretofore were obliged to go to other cities for treatment and our own hospital is now in first-class shape and is making a fine reputation as being one of the best in the state.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

THAT MIGHTY SERVICEABLE TRUCK

THERE is this about the FORD ONE-TON TRUCK that keeps it growing in popularity, namely, the good reports which the owners of FORD TRUCKS spread abroad among their friends and acquaintances.

There is no testimony of merit quite so strong as the testimony of personal experience. It is not long after a FORD ONE-TON TRUCK is sold in a community until other sales of the same truck follow, because "its works do follow it."

Well, "there is a reason." Yes, there are many reasons. The FORD ONE-TON TRUCK was built to serve and to satisfy. It carries all the FORD virtues: lightness in weight, simplicity in design, strength in construction, flexibility and durability—besides it has the lowest first cost and brings the lowest operating expense in the truck market.

It is just as useful; just as necessary on the farm as it is in the city. It is just as necessary to the tradesmen, manufacturers, contractors, commission men and others in the city as it is necessary for such concerns to have a place to do business in—in other words, the FORD TRUCK is a general utility, and because of this fact and the further fact of its universal economy it is in a class by itself.

We will be glad to take your order for one or more Ford trucks and will give you fairly prompt delivery. You will likewise have the assurance of that reliable and economical after-service which is such a valuable factor in the service of FORD cars. Price, truck chassis $545.00, f. o. b. Detroit, including demountable rims and pneumatic tires.

CABBAGE GOES BIG AT PLANT CITY

The sale of cabbage on the express company's platform assumed some importance during the last three days. Seventy crates were sold there Friday, Saturday and Monday. Five crates sold early this morning at $2 a crate.

English peas are bringing a good price and moving in fairly large lots. Since Thursday, 51 hampers have been shipped from here. They sold for $2.50 a hamper yesterday.

Lettuce is being shipped regardless of the discouraging prices. There have been 24 hampers shipped from here since the last issue of this paper. Lettuce will bring about $1.25 today, according to buyers. It is said to be selling for 60 cents in Manatee county. The last peppers sold here brought from $2.75 to $3, according to some of the buyers. Eighteen hampers of peppers have been handled from here by the express company since the last issue of this paper.

The only other vegetables on the local market right now are celery, carrots, turnips and beets. There have been only a few of these so far. Ten containers of beets sold here yesterday at around $1.75. Only seven crates of celery have been shipped since Thursday. This is said to have brought from $3 to $3.50 a crate. Turnips are selling for $1. The few carrots on the Plant City market last week are said to have sold for $2.—Plant City Courier.

It is not enough to urge the farmer to produce bigger crops, he must understand the true value of what he grows through correct marketing. Regardless of glutted markets, good stuff properly graded and packed will sell, as people must eat.

Used about $3 worth of RAT-SNAP a year and figure it saves me $300 in chicks, eggs and feed. RAT-SNAP is convenient, just break up cake, no mixing with other food." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. ## FLORIDA'S GOOD ROADS EXAMPLES FOR COUNTRY

RICHARD H. EDMONDS, EDITOR MANUFACTURERS RECORD, TELLS OF STATE'S ASSETS

"Good roads, Tin Can Tourists, Florida's climate and Florida as a winter business home for the northern business man, were the main topics in an interview last night at the Tampa Bay hotel, with Richard H. Edmonds, well known editor of the Manufacturers Record, who, accompanied by Mrs. Edmonds, and her niece, Mrs. J. B. Jones, and daughter, Miss Mary A. Daveport, have been spending the past several days at the Tampa Bay. Mr. Edmonds has a winter home at Daytona and the party motored down from the coast to enjoy the sight of the Cigar City. They will return to Daytona tomorrow.

The greatest thing the state of Florida has done for advancement and towards creating the great tourist trade it has, said Mr. Edmonds, is the building of its good roads. For its size, proportion of and population, it surpasses any state in the union in this matter and has set an example for the other states. Continuing in this vein he thought Mr. Edmonds mentioned that he had just returned from a motor trip to and an inspection of the Tin Can tourist camp-site at DeSoto Park. The way the people in that camp are enjoying camp life in the winter time, and all seemingly thoroughly happy and contented, marks a most interesting phase of American life, was his opinion. There are practically all types of people in the camp, wealthy, well off, and those able to afford the trip South. It is an entirely new phase of tourist life and one that will have material influence upon the development of the state. The fact that these people can come to Florida and live outdoors during the winter and the sort of life they can enjoy is giving the state a great boost. This personal popularity and the personal talking of these people throughout the sections of the union from which they came, when they return to their homes in the spring, is one of the most powerful advertisements that the state can receive. Mr. Edmonds stated he walked through the camp and was thoroughly amazed at its cleanliness and with the spirit of friendship and contentedness the inhabitants showed.

In mentioning his motor trip, Mr. Edmonds paid Florida's climate great tribute, stating that it is one of the greatest assets of any state in the Union. He mentioned the spring-like weather of yesterday and compared it with the weather the businessmen of the further northern cities had to contend with: "This kind of climate makes a man live longer and enables him to work harder." Here he mentioned the fact that several years ago he came to Florida somewhat in bad health as a result of his work. He became better after some time in the state and established an office at Daytona. He said:

"I keep in touch with the national affairs of the country and direct my business from Florida by wire to my office in Baltimore. In this way I can do more work and yet escape the petty routine of the office and I am not worried by numerous telephone calls. I believe the fact that this can be done and without injury to one's business is going to be one of the biggest features in the future for the state. More business men are going to realize the value of spending their winters here and more are going to establish offices in Florida during the winter months. Already one of my friends has adopted the idea and keeps in touch with his interests in the North direct from his winter home at DeLand."

Touching upon present business conditions throughout the country, Mr. Edmonds was of the opinion that Florida is better off than any state in the Union. Products of the state are in demand and the prices have been good. Also, there has been much building activity throughout Florida, while in other states this activity has been almost at a standstill. This building activity will carry the state over the present business depression which is being experienced elsewhere, said the well-known editor.—Tampa Tribune.

A 30-pound tuna was among the catch of a fishing party that chartered the yacht Tanguingui, Walter Stark, master, for the week-end, the party returning to Miami Tuesday. The Tanguingui cruised as far south as Long Key, and big catches were enjoyed by those on board, who included Mr. and Mrs. Barnfield and Mr. and Mrs. Garretson.

IN RE SIDEWALK AND PAVING LIENS

Since it is evident that the matter of the payment of sidewalk and paving liens to the City of Sanford, for sidewalks and pavements laid, and for which the city has paid, is not fully understood by all, I will state very briefly, (and without going into a legal discussion of the question, as to which the courts will possibly have to decide, and until they do it is a mere matter of opinion as to what the legal status of these old sidewalk and paving liens is), what the attitude of the city government is as to these debts due the city for improvements of the property of citizens.

These sidewalk and paving liens are debts due to the City from citizens whose properties were improved and enhanced in value by the laying of sidewalks and pavements in front of or along said properties. There is, and can be, no dispute as to the fact that the sidewalk and paving liens are honest debts due to the city. And to the credit of our city be it said that a large number of our citizens have recognized the moral obligation resting upon them as good citizens, and have recently paid to the city their debts for sidewalk and paving liens.

The honor roll of those who have recently paid, or arranged in a satisfactory manner to pay their debts to the city without compulsion, is as follows: B. F. Whitner, B. Drew, W. J. Thigpen, T. E. Wilson, F. J. Mahoney, C. O. Mahoney, J. H. Ragsdale estate, Mrs. L. R. Jones, R. B. Smith estate, Mrs. V. M. Gardner, Mrs. M. E. Field, L. P. Hagan, A. D. Zachery and W. R. Gardner.

A list of those who have, so far, refused or failed to pay, is as follows: C. H. Laffler, R. P. Dellagall, W. W. Abernathy, Forest Lake, J. J. Cowan, Catherine, Davis estate, Dr. Persons—and those claiming under him, Sanford Traction Co., W. H. Jefferson, P. J. Parramore estate, Wm. Stewart estate, George Randall, J. E. Lynch estate, R. C. Maxwell, J. B. Muller, Kate Humphries, W. T. Fields, O. W. King, B. W. Herndon, Eva Herndon, E. H. Herndon, J. W. Fitzgerald, Grammar School, J. T. Lee, R. E. Miller, Primary School, B. A. Howard, M. Leavitt, R. R. Hann estate, S. Runge, M. F. Robinson; Primitive Baptist Church, H. R. Harris estate, J. J. Johnson and George Watson.

SHOE REPAIR SHOP TO OPEN

(From Monday's Daily)
Antonio Iannuzzi of New York City and more familiarly known among his customers up there as "Tony," has arrived in the city and will open a first-class shoe repairing shop in the rear of Lloyd's Shoe Store in the First National Bank building room recently vacated by the V. C. Co. Tony is a maker of shoes as well as a repairer and knows the game all the way through. He had a good shoe business in New York when the war broke out and he served all through it going with one of the New York companies. After the war like many others he decided to take up life in some new place and so he picked on Florida. Learning of Sanford through friends he decided to locate here with the Lloyd's Shoe Store and will start business as soon as his machinery arrives. He will make further announcements through the Herald.

IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAY

(From Monday's Daily)
Mrs. A. J. Kelly entertained at a children's party Friday at 3 o'clock at her home on West Hughey Street in honor of her daughter, little Miss Nannie Brown Kelly, the occasion being the celebration of the little girl's sixth birthday anniversary.

The decorations consisted of roses, pansies, ferns and other cut flowers, the favors were in a Jack Horner pie and delighted the children very much.

The afternoon was spent in playing games out of doors. At 5 o'clock the tots were invited into the dining room, where ice cream, cakes and candies were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. John D. Abrahams. The dining table was centered with a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

Among the children present were Alice DeCoursey, Mary Lillian Mahoney, Elizabeth Harkey, Grace Evans, Daisy Appleby, Marion Smith, Nannie Brown Kelly, A. J. Kelly, Earl Evans and others.

LACROSSE, Wis., Jan. 10.—An order to investigate the number of prescriptions for whiskey issued by local physicians was made by Judge K. M. Landis, in Federal court here late today. Judge Landis directed J. A. Simpson, prohibition enforcement officer, to inquire into a report that 1500 such prescriptions had been filed at one drug store here in five months.

MILLIGAN LIKES SANFORD

George H. Milligan, who has been coming to Sanford for many years, thinks there is no place quite as good in the world for growing of crops, for all the year round climate, for transportation and everything. Mr. Milligan represents Golden & Co., well-known commission merchants of Washington, and he has done much for the growers of Florida in assisting them to get better freight rates and better service.

SIMPSON-ALLEN

The marriage of Miss Helen Dorothy Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allen, of this city, and Ernest Simpson, of North Carolina, was solemnized Sunday, January 2nd, 1921, at the home of the bride, 619 Laurel Ave.

Dr. George Hyman, pastor of the First Baptist church performed the nuptial ceremony which was witnessed only by relatives of the contracting parties.

The living room of the residence, where the ceremony took place was simply but artistically decorated with a profusion of greenery.

The bride, a petite brunette, was very lovely in a gown of satin, she is a charming young woman and has a host of friends who will wish her every happiness in her married life.

Mr. Simpson is connected with the cash store here and also has a wide circle of friends who will extend congratulations.

The wedding was the culmination of a pretty romance which started several years ago when the bride was visiting her sister in Virginia where she met Mr. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson will be at home to their many friends on Sanford Heights.

FOREIGN HENS "SCABBING" ON FOWLS IN U. S.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—The first shipment of eggs received in Chicago from Australia, where the hens operate under opposite weather conditions than those obtaining now in Northern United States, was placed on sale here today.

Members of the local butter and egg firm said they found they could sell the eggs slightly cheaper than local receipts and a test had shown only six spoiled eggs in 160 dozens and not one was broken by the long journey. One of the firm, R. L. Elston, said he would endeavor to secure other shipments of the Australian eggs until the hens in this section got back on the job.

AN EDITOR'S COMMONSENSE VIEW OF THE SITUATION

The prevailing low price of grapefruit and oranges causes some wise ones to stand on the street corners and prophesy that groves will be a drug on the market and the whole enterprise of citrus culture a failure. Allow us to suggest that such argument is illogical and foolish. Twenty banks failed in one state within a week, including a Federal bank. Does that prove that the banking business is a failure and bank stock a poor investment? Wheat is not bringing a price that will pay present cost of production—does that argue that the vast wheatfields of the country are not to be utilized? Corn is being burned for fuel in Kansas—does that mean that we are to have no more food for our hogs and cattle and that we are to be denied the corn-dodger for our dinner. The average merchant finds that his goods are forced to sell at a loss under the transitory change in economic conditions—does that mean that we are to have no more merchants? Raw hides that sold for forty cents a pound a year ago are now worth five cents—shall we quit skinning cattle and wearing shoes? No, the production must go right on and as soon as the buying public has gotten its bearings, we will see trade on a paying basis again.—Haines City Herald.

The replacing of the present 70-lb. rails on the line of the Florida East Coast Railway with 90-pound rails, an improvement that has been contemplated for some time by the operating department of the railroad, has commenced. A gang of men has started work at St. Augustine and will work toward Hastings, Elkton and East Palatka.

REMAINS OF CARL MALM, SANFORD SOLDIER, ARRIVE AT HOBOKEN

Mrs. Hanel Tolar of this city has received a wire from the military authorities at Hoboken that the remains of her brother, Carl Malm, have arrived from France and are awaiting her decision as to whether to ship here or bury them in Arlington cemetery. Mr. Tolar wired to send the remains to Sanford for burial and as soon as it can be ascertained just when the remains can be shipped from Hoboken arrangements will be made here for the funeral.

Carl Malm was a Sanford boy and made his home here before enlisting in the defense of his country. He was in the Field Artillery and was sent to France, where he contracted the influenza and died in a hospital in France just one week after the armistice was signed.

Florida farmers should send to the United States department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., for Farmers' Bulletin No. 1153, entitled "Cowpeas: Utilization." Few crops, it says, can be utilized in as great a variety of ways. It is an easily grown crop and suitable for human food, seed, stock feed, pasture, hay and soil building. It is peculiarly adapted to the South.

666 is a prescription for Colds, Fever and LaGrippe. It's the most speedy remedy we know.

There is no place quite as busy as Sanford.

Great improvements are contemplated. Get in the game.

If you do not believe it, make a trip and come back in the busy afternoon.

All we need to do is keep the business going good during the spring and summer months.

And the way to keep business good is to keep building, keep putting on sales, keep them coming to Sanford.

There will be more real estate change hands this month and next month than anyone can realize today.

Outside capital is being attracted to Sanford. This city is now known as the "City Substantial." Sounds mighty good, too.

There should be a busy summer here and it will be busy without baseball, at that. There are many things to be accomplished.

Fighting the battles of the late war at this date are all right but it seems to be lost motion. What we are mostly concerned with at this time is fighting the battles of the present date and there are plenty of them to fight.

It is strange that in calling those "master minds" to Marion, President-elect Harding has never called us. We know exactly what he should do on all questions of state and if we do not there are several here that do know and we could take their word for it.

It looks bad for our old friend, Rube Allyn. But at that they are only holding him on circumstantial evidence and he still has a chance to come clean. However, we will never believe that Rube murdered the man. If he killed him it was in a quarrel and a straight fight and the truth will undoubtedly come out in the trial.

Last week was amusement week and this week will be working week and we should all get down to that old life of advertising the city and our resources, building those houses that are badly needed, looking after the comfort of our guests. And going in for those things that will make Sanford a better city.

We have been asked the question of where, O, where is that little White Way, and we referred the matter to the Woman's Club and the Southern Utilities Co. We are for the White Way strong but have nothing to do with the installation of the same.

The office of the Sanford Herald was robbed this week and Editor Bob Holly is mad clear through because he has discovered that someone thought he was a "plute." Never mind, Friend Bob; your real friends have you correctly classified. Just ask Harry Brown, of the Lakeland Telegraph.—Times-Union.

All right, we ask you, Harry? That fountain in Central Park should either be fixed or it should be abolished, or the small boys who stop it up should be abolished. This is one of the prettiest parks in the state but the ladies who have it in charge are in despair of keeping it in condition on account of the vandalism of certain boys.

The more one sees of court procedures the more the thought grows with thinking men that more than half of the cases that get into court could be settled easier and with less expense out of court if the people would only use some judgment, some sense and a trifle of that friendly feeling and understanding with which we are endowed but which we use so infrequently. Taking cases into court to settle means more trouble, more expense, more time lost and many times more lacerated feelings.

Looks like some other fellow killed Higel at Sarasota and that Rube Allyn might know about it but did not commit the deed. It is rather difficult for his fellow publishers to ever think that genial Rube Allyn would murder anyone.

The editor of the Sanford Herald says he does not expect to leave Sanford "now or ever." Won't Bob Holly be surprised one of these days! —Tampa Tribune.

Don't suppose we will know anything about it, Jawn, when that time comes.

We like the way Harding talks about cutting out the fancy stuff at the inaugural ball and other ceremonies. He seems to be a hard-headed business man, a good newspaper man and a man of the people. And then he must be a good one having been an editor at one time before, he fell from grace and became a politician.

Line up behind your Chamber of Commerce and show Sanford 100 per cent pure in the spirit that builds cities. We can never expect to accomplish those big things here without the undivided support of all the people standing behind the Chamber of Commerce. It is only through this body that these things can be accomplished. Send in your subscription and membership and help boost in a co-operative way.

We clip the following from an exchange: "A business house, having been solicited for some advertising by a newspaper, wrote back asking what territory the paper covered. The editor replied, 'This paper goes from New York to San Francisco, from Canada to the Gulf, and it keeps me working until two o'clock in the morning to keep it from going to hades.'" —Ocala Star.

New Smyrna will probably organize a $25,000 corporation for the purpose of building golf links. Only a few years ago, people went to New Smyrna to spend their time fishing and hunting. Some of the finest bird and deer dogs ever brought to Florida stayed with their masters at the popular old ocean house, at that time run by Captain Sams and wife. Times are changing. —DeLand News.

Secretary Pearman, of the Chamber of Commerce, has named Sanford, "The City Substantial" and the name is a good one. Other cities are "Beautiful," "Sunshine," "Paradise" and many other pleasing things but in this day and date the investor wants something substantial, something solid, something upon which he can bank his money and he has it in the "City Substantial" and Sanford can live up to the title.

Some thief broke into the office of the Sanford Herald last week and found $60 in the safe belonging to the Herald. What we want to know is how the Herald was able to accumulate that much money all at one time, and also advise the Herald to pick out the craziest man in town as the suspect, for that is the only kind that would waste the time on a newspaper office. —Lakeland Star.

You are right, Lynn, and the more we think about it the more we think it was a nut and we know just about who that nut was and unless he watches his step we will soon have him nailed.

P. A. Van Valburg, of the State Automobile Association, sends out the inspiring news to all the papers that he has seen Governor Hardee and that the governor says that there need be no more worry about the road department, that the Automobile Association can rest assured that all is well and Van assures us that all is well and all of those who have been losing sleep over the fact that all was ill can go back to bed with the knowledge that Van is on the job and that hereafter all will be well. All right, Van, you have lifted an awful load from our system and we are gratified to learn that all is well.

Well, just as we spoke about the White Way, the Woman's Club and City Manager Ryan were going around the city locating the White Way poles and it seems that our dreams about the White Way are now about to come true. Manager Ryan says that the White Way will be installed at once as the Southern Utilities Co. have been delayed on the cable and could not get their shipments before. Now that everything is ready the White Way will be installed at once and our visitors will have a chance to see our city at its best before they leave in the spring. Let us have light and plenty of it. Heaven knows we need it after all of those lightless nights, meatless and heatless and iceless days and seatless trousers, and seedless prunes and needless privations forced upon us by a brainless set of idiots in government employ at a dollar-less salary.

When those 500 editors that are coming here in March get back home and start to writing about Florida this state will get more real advertising than it has ever had before and it will be the best kind of advertising. When a newspaper man writes about any section of the country that he happens to be visiting he writes something that is read by the people who are seeking information and Florida will be better known after all of those newspaper men get started on the subject of Florida, past, present and future.

All of our parks should receive the attention they deserve this spring. All of them should be replanted with flowers and grass and trees and shrubs. There are quantities of poinsettias and hibiscus that can be obtained for the asking and planted in our parks. The spot in front of the union passenger station should be fixed up by the railroad company or turned over to the ladies for their ministrations. We have so many beautiful parks and such a big job on hands that it will take the combined efforts of all the ladies and all the men in the city to keep the parks as they should be kept but it will be worth the time and labor and expense when they are finally put in first class condition.

We want the tourists. Tourists want first of all a good place to stay. We have that and need more of them. Tourists want amusements of all kinds from pitching horseshoes to playing golf. We need all of them. Tourists want a club house where they can amuse themselves and be amused. We need such a building and will have one whenever the Rod and Gun Club can make arrangements. But remember that the tourist crop is the greatest crop in Florida and when you are slipping a chance to get tourists here you are losing a chance to make your city twice as large and this means tourists of all kinds. You will find the tin can tourists spending more money and wanting less at your hands than the so-called millionaires. We should strive to give the auto tourists a good place to camp and they should have it at once. Will the Auto Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the City Manager please get together and arrange this camping place or two of them if necessary?

JUDGE HORNE

We have a new circuit judge presiding over our circuit court at this session. Illness prevented the attendance of our own Judge Perkins and Governor Hardee sent us Judge Horne of Jasper, one of the best in the state, one who is beloved by a large circle of friends in Middle Florida and West Florida where he has lived for so many years and one who is known far and wide for his fairness, for his knowledge of law, for his business-like methods, for his manner in expediting cases and not allowing them to hang over, for his upright, manly and Christian character and the Herald welcomes Judge Horne to our midst. May his stay be pleasant as one of our fellow citizens, may his occupancy of the bench be for the betterment of the community, may his decisions be guided by the pure American motto that has ever been the dominant factor in his whole life and may the wheels of justice run smooth and frictionless while he sits in the judgment seat. Our greetings, Judge.

NECESSARY BUYING AND SELLING

The condition throughout the country are so serious just now that they are well worth considering from every angle that can be thought of. Although many lines of goods are so short that there is not enough in stock to meet the normal demand, still factories are closing down because people are not buying. Their excuse is that prices are too high and they are going to wait until they come down.

If this policy of no buying is carried to extremes it may mean that the public will not only economize themselves out of work but that, with more shops shut down, greater shortage will result and prices may become higher than ever. We can scarcely afford to have this happen.

This is a matter that we are all vitally interested in. We realize that more goods must be produced or many factories will have to quit for want of orders for spring shipment, and this will create more trouble and hardship in the industrial sections. There must be more buying in order to make more selling and more manufacturing and this must be realized both by the buying public and the retail stores. The latter should shave the prices as close as possible in order to meet the demand for lower prices and then the public should buy as freely as it can afford to.

Florida has been unusually prosperous for several years and it will feel the present depressed conditions less than many other sections of the country, still it behooves us to study carefully all of these conditions as this state is dependent, to a certain extent, on the rest of the country where we sell our products and from which comes the tourists and winter residents, who spend a great deal of money here every year and form one of our most important sources of income.

If the dealers are willing to take close profits in order to encourage buying and the public will take advantage of prices that are the lowest in several years, the demand for more goods will soon be apparent and the factories will resume operations, the industrial workers will again draw wages, suffering will be alleviated, panic will be averted and normal conditions will be resumed in a few months all over the United States.

This is a case of where co-operation all along the line is necessary to achieve results and our people will be among the first to exert the effort as we have learned the value of co-operation in Florida, probably more thoroughly than any other section in the country.—Times-Union.

WHAT THE FARMERS' APPEAL TO CONGRESS MEANS

There have been many loud and indignant protests in this country against the manifest tendency of manufacturers in the same lines of business, to combine and raise the prices of their products above their normal and legitimate levels. It has been declaimed against as detrimental to the interests of the consumer, which it undoubtedly is, however satisfactory it may be to the manufacturers themselves. Laws have been passed to check this growing tendency, but they have generally been of little or no result. Shrewd lawyers have found a profit in showing the combines how to evade the law, and escape the penalty. Among all the protesters the farmers have been the most vigorous and emphatic, as they have usually been the greatest sufferers from these illegal combines.

Consequently, there is a touch of humor, or would be if it were not so serious, to find the farmers, the wheat growers and cotton planters, joining in a great combine to force the price of their products up to a satisfactory point by withholding them from the market until an artificial scarcity results, and prices advance to meet their views. To a man on the outside looking in, it is difficult to see the difference between this combination of farmers and planters and any other combination of merchants and manufacturers, or bankers, and business men, with the same end in view, except in point of numbers. The farmers and planters number millions, and when they come before congress demanding relief from their troubles in the way of a prohibitive tariff against the importation of wheat or cotton until prices shall have reached the point they have set as satisfactory, that body is inclined to sit up and take notice.

Of course we all sympathize with the farmers in their troubles and would be more than glad to see them prosperous and happy, but we cannot help remembering that the number of bread-eaters and clothes-wearers in this country vastly exceeds the number of farmers, and if prices are advanced sufficiently to pull them out of the hole they have fallen into, the rest of us must do the major part of the pulling. We are all rejoicing at the tendency of prices toward normality again, and we cannot think of a return to bread and clothing to war time prices with any pleasure. Congress owes a little consideration to the ultimate consumer, even though he is unorganized. Here is what the National Wheat Growers' Association proposes to do as stated by their secretary, Mr. W. H. Greevy:

"The purpose of the National Wheat Growers' Association is to control the distribution and marketing of wheat through financial and selling agencies of its own selection at a price based upon cost, plus a fair and reasonable profit. Not only the wheat growers in general are refusing to sell any wheat at present prices except in cases where financial conditions force the sale. For more than 30 days we have withheld our wheat from the market until now a large number of flour mills are idle and the local and terminal elevators are nearly empty. The wheat grower feels that he has practically accomplished what seemed at first impossible and is now encouraged to continue withholding his wheat from market in order that a price which is fair and just shall be paid to him for his labor and the money invested."

Sounds, fair enough, but it means a return to $3 wheat and 40 cent cotton, and you can judge what that means to the rest of us.—Tampa Times.

Those "out of employ" in Northern cities are informed there is work and rations plenty and to spare on Florida farms.

THE WORLD NEEDS MEN, WHO TAKE LIFE STANDING UP

"I doubt if either life or death can do much to us if we take them standing up."

The remark was made by a well-known American author and indeed there is food for thought in it. The man who squarely toes the line and offers blow for blow to the problems which daily confront him, fights each step or calls for time, much less beckoning his seconds, if he is fortunate enough to have those near who are interested in the fight, to toss the sponge into the ring, that man is a credit to the race. Even if he never wins a contest, the glory is his.

The late Theodore Roosevelt's great desire was that he should be fortunate enough to die with his boots on. He took life standing up and wanted to welcome death in the same way. Men who live standing up usually entertain the desire to grapple with the inevitable in the full possession of their faculties.

The world today needs more men and women with the inclination to tackle life standing up. There are too many "riders," that class who are satisfied if their selfish and personal appetites are returned to a rational standard of values.

In the events going on about them. If there was ever a time in the history of mankind when fighters were the crying need of the hour, that time is now. We are overloaded with parasites. Ne'er do wells and non-entities. Life can't do much to us if we will take it standing up! There is no place for the "scared babies" in the present order of things.

This country particularly needs workers, who are merely lighters in the normal state. The labor of reconstruction is difficult in that the results must create their own inspiration; there is no exterior excitement of unnatural stimulation; it is a question of pulling against a cold collar. "God give us men!" was the old cry. This might be changed a bit. "God give us men who are not

OUR BANKS ARE SAFE

Many persons with a few hundreds or thousands of savings are looking around for opportunities for investment. There are thousands of such opportunities, but many of them are far from safe.

The daily press is full of offers of mining stocks, municipal and building bonds, and other forms of investment. Some of these are unquestionably safe and desirable, while others are far from it. The difficulty is to tell the good from the bad.

The country is making feeble and spasmodic efforts to recover from its orgy of price inflation and spending, with but indifferent success.

If a panic or a severe stringency in the money market overtakes us, as many think will be the case, then stocks and bonds, may suffer serious shrinkages in value or become scraps of paper upon which the holder finds it difficult to realize.

Local citizens who are looking for investment might do well to leave their money in bank yet a little while longer, until the price of these securities comes down.

Investing at the maximum of inflation is a hazardous jump in the uncertain regions of finance.

It will leave many scars before we return to a rational standard of values.

The Wauchula truckers are reaping another rich harvest. From 700 to 900 crates of vegetables are leaving there daily and the growers find ready sale for them at the shipping platform at attractive prices. Eggplants are bringing $3.25 to $3.50; peppers, $3.00; beans, $2.50 to $3.00; cucumbers, $3.75; okra, $3.00, and squash, $1.75. It is believed that prices will now rapidly increase, for the cold weather the past few days doubtless hit the truck fields north of there.

INTERESTING PAPERS ON EARLY HISTORY

We had the privilege of attending the meeting of the literature department of the Women's Club yesterday and of listening to two fine papers presented by Mrs. McKinnon and Mrs. J. N. Whitner.

The former made a study of the ancient geography of our beautiful state and the development of our original counties.

The eulphous and expressive name "Mosquito" was given to the southernmost—and no doubt the earliest inhabitants found it very appropriate.

Mrs. McKinnon proceeded to conduct us by the coast and through the interior of our fair peninsula, and show us how the development of the boundaries of Escambia, St. John's and Monroe were established, and the changes that have occurred since or later.

We are indebted to her for an admirable lesson in historical geography which must have required research to establish and present.

This lesson in geography was followed by Mrs. J. N. Whitner who by her research and interesting experience presented to the club a fund of information regarding our own shell mounds—the relics of a former race who in ages of the past inhabited our beautiful peninsula.

From the result of exploration science has pronounced a dictum that "The civilization of a race is determined by its utensils."

In these mounds no cooking utensils are found. The mounds were made from the shell of fish upon which the aborigines subsisted.

Our Florida mounds may be, perhaps, regarded as unique. Occasionally a piece of pottery is discovered, and Mrs. Whitner exhibited a small bowl containing a scrap of pottery which had been found and which a friend had completed in plaster.

Near Blue Springs, it seems, an interesting mound has been discovered which contains relics of a former age that preceded the age of our numerous Indian mounds.

LUMBERMEN CAN DO MUCH TOWARD BUILDING BOOM

PRICES LOWEST SINCE ARMISTICE, SAYS HEAD OF MANUFACTURERS' ORDER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—More than 40,000 lumber manufacturers and dealers now are in a position to do more than their share in terminating the nation-wide dwelling shortage, L. C. Boyle of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association announced here today at the same time justice department officials were conducting an investigation of high lumber prices which are blamed in part for the stoppage of building operations.

"Lumber prices now are lowest since the armistice," said Boyle. "Prices have been slashed an average of 40 per cent. Stocks of lumber are piling up and many mills are being forced to close for lack of orders."

"Now is the time to build if fair wage scales can be put into operation. Labor costs represent more than two-thirds of the cost of erecting dwellings."

Boyle said lumber manufacturers are not anxious about the report sent to congress yesterday in which the Federal Trade Commission made charges that lumber manufacturers through their associations control the output and prices of lumber throughout the entire United States.

"Evidence presented to Senator Calder's committee now investigating the lumber industry contradicts the charge of the Federal Trade Commission," said Boyle. Boyle also called attention to an investigation made last summer by the factory bureau of the agricultural department, which he said, showed the real cause of high prices of lumber as being shortage of stocks.

While Boyle was discussing the situation, Judge Nebeker, assistant attorney general, and William Rand, New York attorney, were making plans for their investigation of lumber prices and profits which Nebeker said would be "vigorous." Anti-trust action would result, he promised, if evidence was produced to show that lumber interests had conspired to control prices or prevent competition.

POST ADJUTANTS OF LEGION WILL HOLD CONFERENCE

PALATKA, Jan. 12.—Next Saturday Bert Hodge Post of the American Legion will host to upwards of 100 officers from various parts of the state, the meeting being a conference of post adjutants. However, it is understood that in some instances the entire official personnel of some of the posts will be in attendance. It is reasonably certain that State Commander Billingsley, State Adjutant Sumpter L. Lowry and National Organizer H. G. Creviston will be present.

According to schedule matters pertaining to national legislation will be thoroughly discussed, and that an effort will be made to stimulate membership in the organization throughout the state.

SOCIALISM IS DIFFERENT IN DARK RUSSIA

REPRESENTATIVE OF SOCIALIST AND AMERICAN FED. OF LABOR COMES BACK TO U. S.

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—"Communism in Russia is robbery; it tolerates imprisonment, persecution and execution without trial; it has brought Russia starvation, disease and death. There is no government. It is a worse autocracy than the Czaristic government and lived there for over twenty years under the Czar and had the experiences necessary to make comparisons."

M. Schwartz, an American Socialist of San Francisco, who was recently released from four months' imprisonment in Soviet prisons in Moscow, made this declaration today. With his wife, who lived for twenty years in America as a socialist worker under the name of Jessie M. Mollie, he went to Russia last June, and attended the second congress of the third International. The couple were thrown into prison on August 6 because they failed to express approval of conditions in Russia. They were released on December 3, after Mrs. Schwartz went on hunger strike, and sent to Lenine, Trotsky and Tchitchevon notification that she would cause to be advertised to the workers of Russia and America the hardships she had to suffer under Soviet rule in Russia, where she had thought Sovietism stood for justice. Mr. Schwartz is returning to America alone to deplete his experiences.

"Before I went to Russia," said Mr. Schwartz, "I came here to Berlin and visited Mrs. Karl Liebknecht to express my sympathy with her over the death of her husband, whom she has charged Noke with murdering. Now I have come to see her again and tell her that the communist leaders in Russia have killed my wife and that I am going to America to tell the working people there the truth about the Soviet government which I formerly sympathized with thoroughly and supported on the platform from New York to San Francisco."

"I want to tell them what that second congress of the third International was. It was only Zinovieff, Bukharin, Lenine and Trotsky. It was all cut and dried. The members were told what action to take, and they did not dare do otherwise."

Before their imprisonment, Mr. Schwartz and his wife travelled through fourteen governments. They visited Samara, Tambov, Nizhni-Novgorod, Tula, Kazan and many other important centers. Schwartz, who is a member of the American Federation of Labor, was sent to Russia by Otto Brantstreet, executive secretary of the Socialist party of America, to make a thorough investigation, as he spoke the Russian language and knew the pre-war conditions.

ONE WOMAN'S REGRETS

A man in Denver killed another man, who, he declared, had despoiled his home. The husband is now in jail awaiting trial, and the wife also is held. The wife declares that she herself is guilty of the dead man's blood; "for," she says, "I am to blame for conditions that led my husband to take the law into his own hands to revenge the honor of his home."

The wife goes on to make public confession of her going to work in an office in disregard to her husband's wishes, and of the intimacy which grew out of the situation.

"After each meeting I would return home and begin to compare the man to my husband and always in Jimmy's favor."

MONTHLY MEETING OF MEN'S CLUB

WAS HELD AT PARRISH HOUSE ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

An enthusiastic meeting of the Men's Club was held last night. A large crowd was present and matters pertaining to the White Way for the church; a play that is to be staged and the completion of arrangements with reference to an invitation to the Orlando Men's Club to visit this club and spend a social evening and inspect the equipment of this parish, which Rev. Peck has working in an efficient and beneficial way, was gone over thoroughly and plans perfected.

Each week the Bowling Club will stage a contest and the results will be published regularly in the Herald. This is a fine form of amusement and each business man in the city should enroll in the Men's Club and enjoy an evening of bowling each week and a banquet and general get-together once each month. Many of the men of the city are members of this club now and in no way does it conflict with any of their church obligations or duties of the other churches. Just come to the Parrish House any Wednesday night and you can be enrolled.

MONEY INCREASES PER CAPITA CIRCULATION SINCE LAST YEAR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Per capita circulation money in the country has increased three dollars and twenty-three cents last year. On January 1 this year the amount in circulation was more than $6,340,000,000 of $39.12 for each person in the country.

THE VEGETABLE GARDEN

No vegetables are as good as those grown in one's own garden at home. There is no reason why fresh vegetables should not be a part of the daily diet of every home. As the new year begins, attention should be devoted to the home garden and desirable crops planted, says C. K. McQuarrie, state agent of the agricultural extension division.

Now is the time to prepare seed bed and the soil for the garden. Frosts in Florida are usually light enough not to kill most vegetables, if given the protection of a hot bed or cold frame. This fact makes it possible for early vegetables.

It is a good practice to test seed for germination before planting in order to insure a good stand. Small seed, like cabbage and turnip, can be tested on the hot stove. Those that pop have vitality; the dead ones burn. Large seed, like beets, carrots and sugar corn, can be tested by means of the rag doll tester. This consists in rolling the seeds in a wet cloth and placing the roll in a warm location. After ten days, more or less, open it and calculate the percentage of sprouted seed.

GLIMPSES OF THE SEMINOLES

By C. E. HOWARD in ORLANDO REPORTER-STAR

The story herein is made up largely from data furnished by Mrs. J. N. Whitner, of Sanford, Seminole county, formerly a part of Orange county.

Mrs. Whitner evidences a great interest in the Indian lore of the earlier days and has great sympathy for "The Noble Red Man" and the forcing him back at the sacrifice of his natural home.

Mrs. Whitner rightfully says: "Whatever pride and enjoyment we citizens of Orange county may feel in her achievements, our sentiment cannot be praiseworthy until we shall have paused and paid our respect and honor to those of a generation ago, won by their Christian faith and practice, their sterling characteristics and ability to overcome primitive conditions and make possible within a lifetime the civilization we enjoy."

"There is a duty—a privilege—sacred and binding which devolves upon the few who are left, who have personal recollection of the real pioneers that can only be performed by ourselves. The day is growing late and we should arouse and prepare for use whatever material there may be gathered up. When the earliest of our country's history shall have been evolved from the shadows of the past we shall find that it is a part of a story of unsurpassed tragedy and romance; the story of the Seminole wars of nearly a century ago."

Mrs. Whitner calls to mind the places of interest based upon the Indian occupation, notably, as she states "prominently among them being the military graveyards of two wars and well-known localities where historic and otherwise prominent events have occurred where the earlier settlements were made and where the dead were laid to rest."

The Indians named the St. Johns river, "Welaka" and its banks were the favorite lodging places, as well as burial places of the various tribes. Thus in several places to this day there are found along the banks of this river, with its warm waters flowing northward, their shell mounds, most of them not at all molested by the curious.

Mrs. Whitner places the date of the separation of the Creek Indians in Alabama in 1750, most of the nation going westward, but many members uninhabited, except for scattering Indians of other tribes, Spanish and French on the eastern coast and runaway negroes from the slave plantations to the northward.

These southbound Creek Indians joined with the nomadic groups already in Florida and became the dreaded "Seminoles," with Chief Seceffree and formed a settlement or lodge which they called "Alachua."

restive and being crowded by the "pale faces" began to practice the whiles of the Indian nature, raids of depredation and "hair-lifting" of their oppressors, finally culminating in the Seminole War of 1836.

Mrs. Whitner states that about this time United States soldiers stationed at Camp Monroe, on Lake Monroe, and feelingly remarks, "Can one imagine the indignation and horror of the Indians at the sight of these fore-runners of the army of their pursuers entering the pathway of their retreat and now they would claim even this."

"Leaders rose, stimulated to greater degree of daring by slight trace of white blood in some of them and thus these poor savages in their extremity arose to the white man's conception of the loftiest heights of valor in defense of their wigwags and hunting grounds."

As a matter of fact, there seems to be some little confusion in the dates of the Seminole War, for there were really three outbreaks, the first being as far back as 1817, which was confined to operations between Gen. Jackson for the government and Osceola for the Indians.

The second war concerned Orange county, for that was the one recorded by Mrs. Whitner perhaps, though there was still a later outbreak in 1852, when Governor Brown placed in the field a company of a hundred men under General Hopkins, located at Mellonville, now the city of Sanford, and later fifteen hundred soldiers entered the field and cleared the savages out. All together there were about forty thousand soldiers occupied in these several Seminole wars, three hundred and seventy-five thousand soldiers occupied in these several Seminole wars, three hundred and seventy-five being killed, with many wounded. Of course, Orange county came in for but a portion of this carnage.

Of the Indians who were not sent westward and those who were left alive in the state, perhaps two or three hundred were pushed down to the Everglades, where they now are located, peaceful and docile enough to almost belie the stories of ferocity they were once accredited with.

Perhaps this story would not be complete without stating that the Whitners were among the later of the early settlers of the country, Mr. Whitner, "Joe," as he was known to his friends, being very much interested in horticulture and agriculture. He at one time published a very useful pamphlet on the soils, fertilizers, and agriculture of Florida and was one of the earliest to go into the cultivation of celery, at one time the chief crop of the Sanford gardeners. Besides, he served Orange county in the state legislature and was a man of influence in the county and state.

TRAMMELL WOULD PUT HIGHER TARIFF ON ALL CITRUS FRUITS

PROTECTION FOR FRUIT GROWERS OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Senator Park Trammell, of Florida, Friday introduced in the senate an amendment to the pending emergency tariff bill, to provide for an increase in the duty on oranges, grapefruit, shaddock and limes, similar to the increase proposed in the pending bill on lemons. Senator Trammell in connection with his amendment states that he does not believe in the Republican idea of a high protective tariff, but that it would be very unfair to the people of his state for them to have to pay the increased price on what they have to purchase outside of the state on account of a high protective tariff and on the other hand have to sell the products produced in Florida without the advantage in price that may result from such protection. He states that with a Republican congress it is inevitable that the policy of the protective tariff will prevail. If we are to have a high tariff Senator Trammell takes the position that the products and industries of his state should have a similar consideration given by a Republican congress to the products and the industries of other states. The pending emergency tariff bill provides for an average on wheat from ten to thirty cents per bushel; on flour from forty-five cents per barrel to twenty per cent on the cost price; corn is advanced from the free list to fifteen cents per bushel; wool and all articles manufactured from wool are advanced from the free list to a high tariff. These products and articles are purchased largely by the Florida people from other states and they will necessarily have to pay such increased price as may be due to the tariff being placed upon these products and articles by the pending tariff bill.

Senator Trammell states that all he is advocating is that Florida products and industries be given the same consideration that is extended to the other sections of the United States and says that he will insist upon his amendment and also urge that the duty as proposed in the emergency measure on long staple cotton, peanuts and other Florida products be allowed to stand as proposed.

Sheep are coming into St. Lucie county, experiments with them proving satisfactory. C. P. Platt imported a few sheep last year to experiment with, and was so well pleased with the returns that he has imported a carload and released them on the open range near his place west of Fellsmere. He expects to run the sheep on the range with his cattle and so secure the foliage and grasses which the cattle do not eat. This industry is attracting considerable attention and it is likely that other cattle owners will follow the same plan.

At a good roads meeting held in Cocoa recently an association was formed which is to be known as the East Coast Good Roads Association, and a committee of this association will call upon Governor Hardee and the officers of the state road department at Tallahassee some time in January to find out if possible just what funds will be available for East Coast roads.

KISSIMMEE GETS EVEN BREAK IN DOUBLE BILL

This was the second game with the college team, and although the Kissimmee girls lost before, it was only by one point. This game showed a great improvement on the team-work of the players, as they won by a margin of five points.

WAUCHULA HIGH TRIMS CARLSTROM AVIATORS

WAUCHULA, Jan. 10.—The Carlstrom Field aviator met defeat at the hands of Wauchula High on the local court Saturday night by a score of 16 to 14. The game was fast and hard fought from the beginning. Both teams playing excellently on defense.

Although greatly outweighed the Wauchula boys won by superior field generalship. The Greek currant crop for 1920 is 32 per cent less than normal, the estimate being 95,000 tons, compared with 140,000 tons in 1919. America buys more currants than any other country.

CIRCUIT COURT OPENS THIS MORNING WITH JUDGE HORNE IN CHAIR

Judge Perkins, of DeLand, Too Ill to Preside at This Session.

NOT VERY LARGE DOCKET

But Several Murder Cases May Take Up Time for Several Weeks

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Circuit Court opened this morning at 10:00 o'clock with Judge Horne of Jasper presiding and States Attorney David Sholtz of Daytona in charge of the state's business. Judge Perkins has been ill for some time and was unable to appear at this session of court much to the regret of his friends and Governor Hardee sent Judge Horne to preside. Judge Horne has many friends here and in other parts of the state and the interests of the state and county will be in able hands under his jurisdiction. Sheriff C. M. Hand was also in charge of his part of the court for the first time since his election and taking his office on the first of January.

The selection of the grand jury will be accomplished this afternoon and the court will be ready to grind tomorrow morning on the larger cases. There were only a few cases on the civil docket when court opened this morning among them being the following:

Cates Crate Company vs. J. M. Dresner and R. B. Monroe, damage suit.
D. Davis vs. R. B. Monroe and R. H. Gelger, damage suit.
James H. Bryce vs. Atlantic Timberland Company, damage suit.
Welch Furniture Company vs. D. A. Caldwell & Sons, damage suit.
Jacobs & Co. vs. O. P. Swope, Land Company, damage suit.

There will be at least two murder cases to come before this session of the court and as there is an imposing array of legal talent gathered here from this and adjoining counties there will be some sharp tilts between them and much forensic display.

AMERICANIZATION CLASS OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB

This class was organized early in the summer with the understanding that it would begin in the early fall but the University of Florida was not able to secure the speakers as soon as wished.

The following speakers have been secured for the course: Mrs. Cotman, president of the Arkansas League of Women Voters; Mrs. McMahon of New York, a nationally-known suffrage worker, and Dr. Sparks, president of the Pennsylvania State College. These speakers will give in all six lectures. Dr. Sparks will give the first address.

For the Women's Club to be able to secure this course it was necessary for them to guarantee an attendance of at least twenty-five at each meeting of the class. The regular class work will consist of six meetings with a definite assignment of different parts of the government of the United States, state, county and city. As the women are newly enfranchised voters, it will especially appeal to them.

There is no fee, except twenty-five cents for the bulletin and a very small assessment for books.

The class will have its initial meeting Thursday afternoon at the Women's Club at 3:30 o'clock at which time the general workings of the course will be explained, the bulletins given out and the dates that the speakers are available announced. Date, January 13th, at 3:30 at the Women's Club. This is not only for club members but anyone that would be interested.

He will receive a warm welcome in Jacksonville when he completes his trip and especially since he is recognized as a former resident of this state.

CONVICTED OF MURDER

GREENVILLE, S. C., Jan. 10.—At midnight last night the jury in the case of Hugh T. Bramlett, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lou McHugh, in June, 1919, returned a verdict of guilty, with recommendations to the mercy of the court. This sentence automatically calls for a sentence of life imprisonment. Notice of a motion for a new trial was given by counsel for the defense. If this refused, sentence will probably be passed today.

PROTECTION OF GAME IS URGED AT MEETING IN COURT HOUSE LAST NIGHT

Sportsmen of Seminole County Realize that Game is Diminishing.

BETTER LAW IS NEEDED

Hunting Out of Season is Responsible for Depletion of Game

(From Tuesday's Daily)
Seminole county will protect the fish and game if possible and will ask neighboring counties to join them and also expects to assist in putting in several bills at the next session of the legislature looking to a better protection of fish and game. At a called meeting at the court house last night there was a large crowd present of the men who like to hunt for sport's sake and who realize that in a few years at the present rate of promiscuous slaughter of game out of season there will be no game. Judge Householder acted as chairman of the meeting and Vance Douglass as secretary and taking the present game laws section by section some good changes were suggested in the time limit, in the matter of license tax and other matters that will serve to protect the fish and game of Florida. Hon. F. P. Forster, the newly elected member of the legislature from Seminole county, was present and signified his intention of standing back of any movement of his constituents. When the matter of taking the license tax that now goes to the schools and applying it on the game warden's salary came up Mr. Forster said he was with the "kiddies" every time and did not think this money should be taken from the schools and it was the sense of the meeting that this should not be done and a better way would be to divide the tax thus giving the schools more than they were now receiving and also have a fund for the better protection of game. It was also decided to organize a branch here of the National Game Protective Association and in many ways to get the co-operation of the other counties in the state and to go to the legislature with a bill that would protect the game and would also suit the other counties—one that would pass and become a law. The meeting demonstrated that Seminole county sportsmen are beginning to realize that drastic action is necessary to preserve the fish and game and under present conditions a few more years will witness a depletion of fish and game in the woods and streams of this and other open counties unless different laws are framed and the citizens as a whole stand behind these laws and see that they are obeyed.

PIPE ORGAN CLUB

(From Tuesday's Daily)
The Pipe Organ Club of the First Baptist church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. J. Taylor.
The ladies worked industriously on chair back covers, and as they planned the work for the new year, and judging from those plans, 1921 bids fair to become the biggest and busiest in the history of the club.
Mention must be made of the famous company of Harpists which the club will present some time in the month of February. An Easter Bazaar will be held the Friday before Easter, when cunning baskets of lovely eggs will be on sale.
But the first real event of the New Year will be the novel tea at the home of Miss Martha Fox next Monday afternoon. Perhaps you have been used to a Country Club where you could entertain your friends and thus pay a social obligation. Of course Sanford is going to have that club, but in the meantime—just remember the Pipe Organ Club Tea, and reserve your table in advance. You'll be delightfully entertained and also be served tea and the daintiest and most delicious of sandwiches.
At the conclusion of an entertaining meeting Mrs. Taylor served hot chocolate and cakes.

Captain McConnell had been a resident of DeLand nine years, coming here from Eustis. He was an Episcopalian and was treasurer of St. Barnabas church of DeLand.

RUBE ALLYN REFUSES TO MAKE STATEMENT

ATTORNEY JOHN B. SINGLETARY WILL DEFEND HIM.

BRADENTOWN, Jan. 11.—There were no new developments of importance today in the case of Rube Allyn, eccentric newspaperman, charged with the murder early Friday morning at Siesta Key, near Sarasota of Harry L. Higley, former mayor of Sarasota and one of that community's most noted business men.
In his cell at the county jail, to which he was taken after being arrested at his home on Siesta Key a few hundred yards from where Higley was found mortally wounded from blows on the head with some heavy weapon. Allyn maintained a calm demeanor and was non-committal in his talk with a Tampa Tribune representative and scores of friends who visited him.
Dr. Chrales Olyn, of Tampa, Rube's brother, came here Saturday morning and consulted with him at the jail and was present when the sheriff read the warrant to Rube notifying him that the coroner's jury had held him for the murder of Higley. He received the news with no comment and consulted with his brother about counsel.
Later in the day Col. John B. Singletary was engaged by Dr. Allyn as the counsel for his brother.
Attorney Singletary would make no statement as to possible procedure and did not commit himself whether a preliminary hearing would be held.
Scores of friends of the accused man have been to the court house to see him and he has received them all with the same manner he would as if they were calling at his home.
During the afternoon a rumor was started that Allyn had confessed to the crime. The Tribune representative called on him again and took copies of several of the state papers and Saturday's Tribune and asked him whether the rumors were true, and he simply smiled and said there was nothing to it. He said after he had thought things over and consulted with his attorney he might make a statement, but at the present he felt that he must be silent and not hinder anything his attorney was doing.

YOUNG MAN ILL AND TAKES LIBERTY WITH MONEY

(From Tuesday's Daily)
A young man recently arrived in the city from the north and evidently ill, according to his own story and his appearance, has been acting very strangely around the city lately and yesterday pulled open the cash register of Tom Williams and later in the evening tried the same thing at Paul Biggers. Paul had never seen him before and slapped him for his temerity in trying to open the cash register in his very face. He has also been representing himself as a reporter, as a detective and assuming other roles in which he has been bothering people and it is understood that his folks have been wired to come and get him and either take him home or put him in some institution here until he recovers from his attack of lapse of his mental faculties and nervous disorder.

PLAN FOR ASSISTING DISABLED SOLDIERS HAS BEEN A FAILURE

American Legion to Present a Memorial To-day TO ALL CONCERNED THE DIFFERENT GOVERNMENT AGENCIES FAILED TO CO-OPERATE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The present system of rehabilitating disabled veterans of the war is denounced by the American Legion as a "failure" which should be remedied by consolidating under a single head the three government agencies now engaged in that work.

Col. F. W. Galbraith, Ja., national commander of the legion, will personally deliver a copy of the memorial to Senator Harding at Marion where Colonel Galbraith has an appointment to discuss with the president-elect the legion's program for the disabled men.

The legion asserts in the memorial that the function of the three agencies which now deal with the soldiers who require their country's care, the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, the Federal Board for Vocational Education and the United States Public Health Service, "must be co-ordinated, their machinery decentralized and all three placed under the common control."

"To do this," the memorial says, "there must be a new law which shall place the unified organization under a single administrative head." For this new organization, the legion asks an appropriation sufficient to buy, equip and enlarge hospitals, sufficient to provide facilities for all the men now under hospital treatment.

It is announced that the legion has sent copies of the memorial to 3000 legion speakers in all states who have volunteered to endeavor to focus the attention of the nation on the situation of the disabled men.

The memorial asserts that the United States has been more liberal than any other nation in its provisions for the disabled soldiers, but that it has failed in a large measure to make these provisions available.

"Continuing this faulty conception, it has given the problem over to three agencies: The Public Health Service for treatment, the Federal Board of Vocational Education for training and Bureau of War Risk Insurance for financial support. Each of these agencies is an institution complete in itself. Each of these agencies is an institution complete in itself. Each is administratively independent of the other two. All yb force of circumstances are exercising functions they were not intended to exercise. This presents an amazing spectacle of administrative chaos, duplication, wasteful energy and conflict which is the key to the present condition."

Immediate relief and ultimate remedy of the condition is possible and imperative. Taking up the three government agencies dealing with the disabled men, the legion memorial asserts that the Bureau of War Risk Insurance had never accomplished its vital object of making just and prompt awards of compensation. It pointed out that the burden of proof was on the disabled man who was thus placed in the position of a man injured in industry who must sue the company and that when he attempted this the only aid he could obtain was from either the Red Cross, the legion, or some private agency.

DIP THE STEMS IN BOILING WATER
The Tribune editorial on the poinsettia has called forth a number of replies and inquiries for more information. It was stated in that editorial that the poinsettia was not a "cut flower" because it withers, so soon after being severed from its parent stem.

Several Tampa women have written or phoned that dipping the stems in boiling water will make them keep fresh for several days, but refuse to let their names be printed. The Tribune also has received a letter from Mrs. J. P. Hilburn, wife of Presiding Elder J. P. Hilburn of the Orlando district, Florida conference, which gives such explicit directions that we quote from it.

She says: "On Christmas morning I cut some poinsettia blossoms and immediately poured boiling water on the cut end of the stems where the 'milk' was oozing out, and on places where I had cut off the leaves. I then put the flowers in vases of water, and not a single flower or leaf wilted. They were as fresh and gay on Friday of the next week as they were when brought into the house, except that some of the red petals had begun to drop, and the green leaves were curling a little. They looked so fresh and gay that I hated to discard them even then. I had tried dipping the stems in hot paraffine but the flowers wilted in an hour or two. It seems that the hollow stem must be left unsealed, but the part from which the 'milk' runs must be closed."—Tampa Tribune.

NEW MEDICAL USE FOR FLORIDA GRAPEFRUIT
An indication of the growing regard of the medical fraternity for grapefruit is found in a recent issue of the Therapeutic Digest, a medical journal.

In speaking of the value of citric acid in the treatment of arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) the editor of a department in that journal recommends it highly, further stating, "grapefruit is also an excellent article of diet connection with the medical treatment."

Eau Gallie is to have a long-needed new school house. The county school board met recently to canvass the votes in the $40,000 bond election. Only three votes opposed the bond issue; 41 favored it.

Theford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

"It is splendid for sour stomach, a bad taste in the mouth or torpid liver. ### GIVE OUT FIGURES MEMBERSHIP OF HOUSE WILL BE FIXED AT 483

HARDING'S PLURALITY WAS 7,001,673 BY OFFICIAL COUNT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Interesting comparisons of the popular vote for president in 1920 and 1916 are made possible by official figures of various state election canvassing boards, compiled by The Associated Press and made public here Sunday. They show a total popular vote of 26,759,708 for the candidate of seven parties as compared with a total popular vote of 18,515,340 for the candidates of five parties in 1916. The returns from Tennessee alone are unofficial.

Harding's plurality over Cox was 7,001,673. Four years ago President Wilson's plurality over Charles Evans Hughes was 591,385. Dr. Aaron Watkins, nominee of the Prohibitionist, polled a total vote of 187,470, a decrease to 33,036 from the party vote of 1916. But of a total of more than half a million votes cast in North Carolina the "dry" candidate received seventeen. Georgia gave him eight. Greater New York, including New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens and Richmond counties, with a total vote of 1,276,768, polled 1,660 "dry" ballots.

THE TIN CAN TOURIST.
For many years the tin can tourists, so-called, were a standing joke in Florida, but the tune has changed. Now the cities are bidding for the campers and tin can tourists and are encouraging their coming in every way possible.

Daytona was among the first of the tin can tourist towns and St. Petersburg was a leader for years in this direction and now look at them. They are among the best of the tourist towns with a population of several times as large as when they began to encourage the tin can tourists.

There are a score or more of towns in the state that have been dubbed tin can tourist towns but all of them have grown apace and all are unanimous in their verdict that the tin can tourists can do more good advertising for a town than any other class. Why? Because they appreciate the small favors that are extended them and do not demand as much or expect as much as the wealthy tourists who complain about many things simply because they are paying a big price for everything.

A news dispatch from Gainesville states that the conservative university city has been chosen for the next annual convention of the tin can tourists and it is announced that the chamber of commerce is squarely behind the movement and that this will be made one of the most important affairs in Florida next winter. It will be unique in many ways and if the university city lays itself out in this entertainment it will receive as much advertising as Miami does for its Palm Fete, or Tampa does for its Gasparilla Carnival, or Palm Beach does for its Sun Dance.

Nearly a hundred cities and towns in Florida have established free auto camps for touring parties this winter, many of them providing electric lights and sewerage and other conveniences and while they may not receive as much from this class as they do from the hotel guests, they have come to a realization of the fact that the campers and the tin can tourists are indefatigable advertisers and they never tire of telling of the glories of Florida and the good times they had in this state and especially they tell of the places that treated them the best and showed them some special attention.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT WOULD LIMIT HOUSE IN FUTURE TO 500

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The house census committee agreed yesterday to report to congress the Siegel bill fixing the house membership at 483 members. It also recommended a constitutional amendment limiting the membership of future house to 500.

The basis for representation was fixed at one member for every 218,979 inhabitants. Under this bill the states would gain as follows: Alabama, 1; Arkansas, 1; California, 5; Connecticut, 1; Georgia, 1; Illinois, 3; Maryland, 1; Massachusetts, 2; Michigan, 4; Minnesota, 1; New Jersey, 2; New Mexico, 4; North Carolina, 4; Ohio, 2; Oklahoma, 1; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 4; South Carolina, 1; Tennessee, 1; Texas, 3; Virginia, 1; Washington, 1; West Virginia, 1, and Wisconsin, 1.

No state would lose any representation. The states would have representation as follows: Alabama, 11; Arizona, 1; Arkansas, 8; California, 16; Colorado, 4; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 1; Florida, 4; Georgia, 13; Idaho, 2; Illinois, 30; Indiana, 13; Iowa, 11; Kansas, 8; Kentucky, 11; Louisiana, 8; Maine, 4; Maryland, 7; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 17; Minnesota, 11; Mississippi, 8; Missouri, 16; Montana, 2; Nebraska, 6; Nevada, 1; New Hampshire, 2; New Jersey, 14; New Mexico, 2; New York, 47; North Carolina, 12; North Dakota, 3; Ohio, 28; Oklahoma, 9; Oregon, 4; Pennsylvania, 40; Rhode Island, 3; South Carolina, 8; South Dakota, 3; Tennessee, 11; Texas, 21; Utah, 2; Vermont, 2; Virginia, 11; Washington, 6; West Virginia, 7; Wisconsin, 12; Wyoming, 1.

The bill provides that in case of any increase in the number of representatives in any state such additional representatives shall be elected at large until the state legislatures pass redistricting laws.

Senator Penrose, chairman of the senate finance committee, announced that he would support the house emergency tariff bill, although he hoped for certain modifications of rates.

The senator's announcement was made at the conclusion of the first open hearings on the measure by his committee. In an informal statement he said he desired to correct a misunderstanding which he said seemed to have gotten abroad concerning the status of the so-called "emergency tariff." He denied that there was any difference of opinion among members on this measure.

The senator said there was an unbroken East with its manufacturing-warranted impression of rivalry being industries, and the agricultural South and West as regards the emergency bill. Eastern sections were in favor of adequate protection for the farming interests as for any other industry, he said.

Take Our Advice and Build Now.

DO NOT WAIT TOO LONG

Materials in all building lines are now at a lower mark than they have been for years, and are at a lower level than they will be in a few weeks hence, if all indications point true.

Conditions in the lumber market are such that every indication points to an early rise in the price of building materials. The simple law of supply and demand, if there were no other influences, is such as to indicate that the present low prices cannot long prevail.

For the past 60 days prices have maintained the unprecedented low level and still remain at that point, but it's not a safe proposition to expect them to remain at this point long.

At the present low prices an opportunity is offered the prospective builder for a tremendous saving in building materials. BUT IN ORDER TO GET THE FULL BENEFIT OF THEM IT WILL BE NECESSARY TO START NOW. SO DON'T DELAY.
