Rezoning Study Set Next Week

The Sanford city commission will meet with the city zoning and planning board Nov. 19 to discuss a board decision which refused rezoning of four lots on Sanford Ave. between 20th and 24th streets.

Seminole Realty owner W. M. Dietrichs appeared to the commission Monday night to act contrary to a zoning and planning board recommendation and rezone the lots from residential to neighborhood commercial.

A neighborhood grocery store-laundrette unit is proposed for the land owned by C. D. Chambers of Pennsylvania.

"The four lots aren't doing any good sitting there as they are now," said Dietrichs. "If the surrounding area ever did develop into a residential area a neighborhood grocery and laundrette would be convenient for nearby residents," he explained.

"Spot zoning isn't good for a growing Sanford," city attorney William Hutchinson said. Dietrichs and commissioner Joe Baker agreed that one of the reasons the zoning board had rejected the rezoning was to avoid putting commercial districts throughout city residential areas.

City commissioner Earle Higginbotham said he thought the zoning board was right to refuse spot zoning, but doesn't see how the area in question will remain residential with jets flying over it. Rezoning of a larger area would be a lot easier to take than just reclassifying the four lots in question, Higginbotham explained.

Sanford Woman Hurt In Mishap

A Sanford resident suffered a possible skull fracture and other injuries in a two-car collision yesterday.

Mrs. T. H. Brown was listed in serious condition at Seminole Memorial Hospital at noon today as a result of the mishap.

Police said Mrs. Brown, a passenger in a car operated by Lloyd Brown, was hurt when the Brown car collided with a car driven by Mrs. Mildred Smith at W. 20th St. near Country Club Road.

Police are still investigating the cause of the accident.

Mrs. Brown lives at Route 2 while Mrs. Smith gave her address as 400 Orange Ave.

Ike Calls Back Steel Negotiators

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today reconvened the special steel strike fact-finding board under the Taft-Hartley law.

During a 50-day period dating from the Supreme Court's approval of a steel strike injunction, the board of inquiry will study and report to the President on resumed union-management negotiations and the final settlement order made by industry.

The Supreme Court ruled Nov. 7 that the Taft-Hartley injunction halting the strike was constitutional.

The board will work with Joseph P. Finnegan, chairman of the Negotiation and Conciliation Service who, under law, has the responsibility for continuing negotiations.

Band Association Plans Barbecue

The Seminole High School Band Association will plan for its Saturday chicken barbecue at a meeting in the high school band room tomorrow at 8 p. m. The barbecue will be held from 5 to 8 p. m. Saturday will be at the Sanford Elks' Lodge. It will be sponsored by the Elks and the Band Association for the benefit of the band.

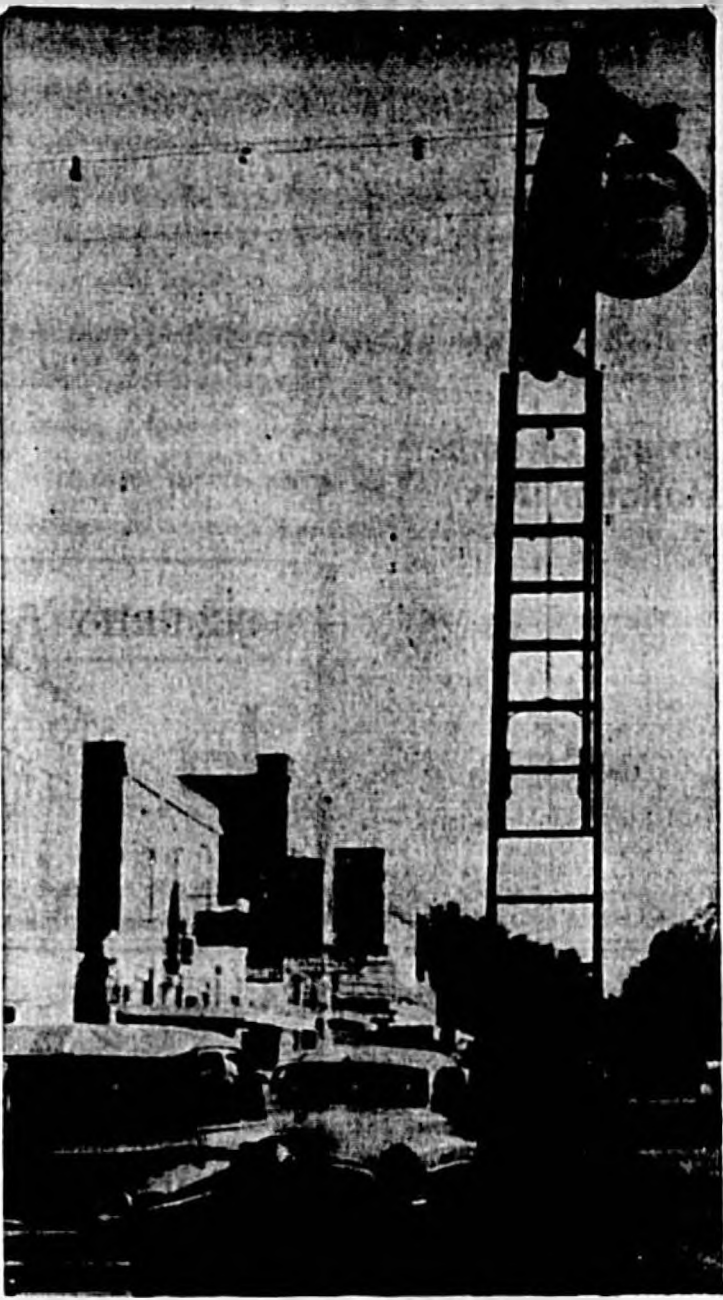

Lake Monroe Marks Church Founding

The Lake Monroe Community today is celebrating an anniversary which they look back on with pride.

It was 41 years ago on this date that some 125 residents in the area banded together and built the first church there.

As L. B. Mann, one of the leaders in the church building, recalls it, "we canvassed the whole area, notified every citizen around Lake Monroe and got a wonderful response."

According to Mann, the men went out on bicycles, knocking on doors, stopping him as they work-

FIRST SIGN OF SANTA'S APPROACH

Yule Decorations Go Up; Parade Deadline Near

The first signs of the approaching Christmas season are apparent now as city work crews finished up their annual chore of stringing up Yule decorations downtown.

Crews worked late Monday and most of yesterday finishing up the decorations.

Another sign of the season is the forthcoming deadline for the 10th annual Christmas Parade.

Jack Wilber, parade chairman for the Jaycees, reminded local organizations and clubs that the deadline for entering floats is Saturday.

The parade is scheduled Dec. 4 and, according to Wilber, the entries are lagging.

All entries must be registered at the Jaycee Administration Building on Front Ave. before they can enter the parade.

Wilber reported that 13 bands have been lined up for the parade. This will be the largest number ever to take part.

There are four categories in which floats may be entered, religious, commercial, business and civic organizations and schools.

"The church groups are really on the ball with their entries coming in fine," Wilber said, "but as far as the other groups are concerned, we are moving too slowly."

There will be a first and second place award in each of the divisions, with a trophy and plaque for each place.

"It promises to be the biggest parade in the history of Sanford," Wilber said.

'High Fever Follies' To Be Staged Again

The "High Fever Follies" will return to Sanford again.

The Seminole Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, in an effort to raise needed funds for the hospital, has decided to put on the local talent show the last week in March.

Project chairman for the show, Mrs. W. H. Faulk, said today that all funds derived from the show will go toward purchase of a Cardiac Pacemaker for the use of heart patients at the hospital.

Cost of this equipment is about $2,500, Mrs. Faulk said.

The Follies will be staged three nights at the Sanford High School auditorium. It will be the third time that the show has been presented.

At a recent meeting of the auxiliary, the women decided to hold the show every other year in an effort to get the best local talent available, including Navy personnel.

Talent tryouts will be held previous to the Follies to get the best talent possible.

Jury Finds Man Guilty Of Assault

A Circuit Court jury yesterday found Terrell Biggerstaff of Sanford guilty of aggravated assault.

Biggerstaff was charged with the June 21 shotgun shooting of Roy Chastain at Chastain's home, Route 1, Geneva, according to the Sheriff's office.

A pre-sentence investigation of Biggerstaff's character, personality and background will be made by the district parole board to aid Judge Volie Williams to determine what sentence to impose.

Commission Names Group To Study Drainage Problem

A five man committee to study ways of solving the county's drainage problems was appointed by the county commissioners yesterday afternoon.

Appointed were Warren Knowles, A. S. Merrill, C. E. Lee, Harold Kautner and M. L. Cullum.

Among the first jobs the committee will perform will be meeting with state soil conservation experts on the possibility of the county applying for matching funds under the Small Watershed Program, established by Congress in 1955.

Under the program, the county may match funds with the federal government to construct drainage facilities.

USDA Standing Pat On Citrus

LAKELAND (UPI) — The U.S. Agriculture Department is standing pat on its estimate of the Florida citrus crop.

In the second monthly estimate of the season Tuesday, the government made no changes in its estimate of 31 million boxes of oranges, 32 million boxes of grapefruit, four million boxes of tangerines and 200,000 boxes of lemons.

General Manager Robert W. Rutledge of Florida Citrus Mutual, who criticized the Agriculture Department's Marketing Service last month for issuing a price outlook, said "The outlook for marketing the crop on a profitable basis continues good."

Rutledge, however, said the estimate "is of no immediate significance to growers and therefore we have no comment to make on the estimate itself."

Rutledge added, "There is a very strong fresh fruit market for oranges, grapefruit and tangerines with every indication of a pickup within the next three weeks, which should result in increased on-tree buying."

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — Police claimed the capture of a four-man burglar ring today and said one of the prisoners admitted he was present when would-be safecrackers engaged in a battle with police.

Lake Jessup Causeway On Road Project

The County Commission yesterday got a "look into the future" on proposed new primary and secondary roads in Seminole County and west on record as approving the proposed projects by the State Road Department.

High on the list was a new causeway to be built across Lake Jessup that will greatly shorten the distance from Oviedo to Sanford.

"It will be a boom for Sanford as far as perking up business," Chairman John Krider said.

Other new projects under a proposed five-year program will include such roads as SR 437, SR 18 from Lake Mary to SR 46 and SR 425 from SR 419 north to SR 427 at Ginderville which would include the causeway across Lake Jessup.

State Road Department officials Henry T. Boggs and Willard Blalby gave a brief run down on proposed primary and secondary road projects but emphasized the proposed plan is "only in the working stage now."

Blalby termed the county road system "adequate" and said the county should be getting a great deal more funds because of the growth of the area.

One of the worst roads in the county according to the two officials were Bear Lake Road in the southwest which Boggs said some 200 cars are using daily.

Among the projects will be building up the road to the Orange County line.

Primary road projects listed by the officials under the five-year plan include:

SR 46 from Interstate 400 to French Ave. at First St.

SR 46 from French Ave. to Mellonville Ave.

SR 436 from 15-600 to Lake Howell.

SR 415 from SR 46 to the St. Johns River.

SR 436 to Lake Howell to the Orange County line.

Secondary road projects include: SR 427 at Ginderville to SR 46.

SR 472 to the Orange County line to SR 436.

SR 427 from SR 436 to timber-ville.

SR 13 from SR 419 northeast to Chuluola cutoff.

SR 434 at Longwood to SR 427 to SR 426.

SR 15 at Lake Mary to SR 46.

Ike Appoints Florida Man To Serve On CAB

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today appointed Democrat Alan S. Boyd, a Florida utility commissioner, to the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Boyd, a Miami lawyer and chairman of the State Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, will fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Louis J. Hector. Hector's term ran in Dec. 31, 1961.

Boyd, 37, will serve on a recess appointed until his nomination is acted upon by the Senate.

Hector, one of the CAB's two Democratic members, quit in September. In his letter of resignation, Hector strongly criticized the CAB's methods of controlling the nation's commercial aviation industry.

The CAB sets rates and routes for all U. S. airlines. It shares air safety responsibilities with the Federal Aviation Agency.

Navy Chief Hits Defense Proposal

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, sounded a warning today against new proposals to reorganize the Defense Department.

He expressed his opposition in a speech read at a world peace lunch marking Veterans' Day.

Burke was unable to attend and the speech was read by Vice Adm. Wallace M. Beasley, deputy chief of naval operations.

The Defense Department as reorganized 15 months ago is a "fundamentally sound structure for solving the defense problems of the United States," Burke said.

Reiarded Children School Is Sought

G. Franklin Ward, president of the Florida Council for Retarded Children, consulted with the Seminole Association for Retarded Children Monday night on local plans for expanding activities in this field.

The state organization has 18 active units now and is urging setting up of schools for retarded youngsters in each community. Ward told the members of the local group.

The Sunland Training Center at Gainesville has a waiting list of about 1,100 who need guidance and schooling, he said. The Gateway and Primrose Schools at Orlando were cited as good examples of how much local schools can help in training these children.

The Seminole association is seeking permanent quarters for a school here and has asked permission to use the Little Red School on Palmetto Ave. A nursery school already has been started.

Members of the association are set up for individual sponsorship of children at the Sunland Center and will send them money, mail and presents.

FCC Plans New TV Crackdown

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) set in motion today a sweeping new investigation which could bring a crackdown on rigged TV quiz shows, offensive commercials and other broadcast practices "contrary to the public interest."

The commission will survey just what powers it has to police radio and TV programming. It said Tuesday the inquiry might lead to proposals for new legislation by Congress.

The FCC also will take a hard new look at its policies on granting radio and television station licenses to make sure they are "adequate in view of the changing and changing conditions in the broadcast industry."

The commission said this phase of the investigation would involve development of "more detailed and precise standards for the guidance of broadcasters in the exercise of their responsibility."

The agency will hire additional staff members and otherwise expedite the inquiry, which stemmed from the recent congressional investigation of rigged quiz programs.

This is the fourth investigation of radio-TV practices. In addition to the congressional hearings, which next will consider alleged bribes to disc jockeys, the Federal Trade Commission has started a crackdown on false and misleading commercials and the Justice Department is looking into the legal questions involved in rigged quiz programs and other fraudulent practices.

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI) — A state trooper, test firing a friend's pistol, accidentally shot himself to death Tuesday afternoon. Highway Patrolman James M. Herndon tried to clear the jammed pistol when it accidentally fired off several rounds in rapid succession, sending one bullet into his chest. He died to death before he could be taken to a local hospital.

Navy Takes Action
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Navy today ordered its commands throughout the world to halt serving cranberries suspected of being contaminated with a possible cancer-producing agent. The Army and Air Force were expected to follow suit. The Navy directed that no more cranberries be served which are clearly marked as having come from Washington or Oregon or are not identifiable as to their origin.

County Deposits Double In Decade
Bank Deposits have more than doubled in Seminole County over the last 10 years, the board of county commissioners was told yesterday.

According to statistics compiled by the State Road Department, deposits in 1949 totaled $11 million while this year the figure has soared to $25 million.

Zero Temperatures Move Through West
United Press International
Zero temperatures bit into Montana today on the heels of a raging blizzard that caused the death of four airmen in the crash of three all-weather air force jets. The cold, accompanied by scattered snow flurries, was expected to move through Wyoming into the northern and central plains and the upper Mississippi Valley and Great Lakes.

Ahead of the storm, snowflakes were expected in a wide belt from eastern Texas and the lower Mississippi Valley through the Ohio Valley into New York State.

The jets, flying in a squadron were "weathered in" by the blizzard and ordered to land, but the three ran out of fuel and crashed. Four airmen rode their planes to their deaths, but two bailed out and were rescued.

STUDYING PROBLEMS of retarded children are Mrs. Dave Laude, president of the Seminole Association for Retarded Children, and G. F. Ward, of Tampa, president of the Florida Council for Retarded Children, who was guest speaker at the Sanford group's meeting.

Government Acts On Tainted Fruit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) conducted rush tests today to find out what part of the 1959 cranberry crop is safe for housewives to serve for Thanksgiving dinner.

The tests also will show whether any other crops contain traces of a cancer-producing chemical weed killer.

The FDA assigned 100 inspectors and about 50 chemists to determine the extent and manner the weed killer aminotriazole had been used on cranberries and other crops in Washington, Oregon, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Michigan and New Jersey.

Arthur E. Fleming, secretary of health, education and welfare warned consumers Monday that part of the Washington and Oregon cranberry crops had been tainted with residues of the chemical, which causes thyroid cancer in rats.

The announcement joined the cranberry industry less than three weeks before Thanksgiving. Many had chosen to market the fruit and canned cranberries. Officials in several cities and states ordered cranberry quarantines.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson ordered his department to investigate to find out what it could do to help the hard-hit cranberry growers. He offered "the full resources of the department" to aid the producers.

Benson said he planned to eat cranberries with his Thanksgiving dinner.

The FDA investigation was aimed at finding out if cranberries grown in states other than Washington and Oregon were free from the chemical residue. Spokesmen for growers in the other states have demanded that the agency give their cranberries a clean bill of health.

The Wisconsin Board of Health announced Tuesday night that cranberries grown in that state were found free of aminotriazole.

Six New Jersey packing firms, which produce about 60 per cent of the nation's canned berries, said the Rutgers University agriculture experiment station had ruled that their cranberries were not contaminated. They said the berries came from New Jersey, Wisconsin and Massachusetts.

FDA officials were not optimistic that their tests could be completed before Thanksgiving. But they said the investigation was being sped up and promised a public announcement of the results as soon as possible.

In main purpose, said the newspaper, "is to secure the names of NAACP members, if possible, and subject them to economic pressure, as has been done in several other Southern states."

MRS. FILBERT'S MARGARINE AND YOUR FAMILY'S HEALTH

If you use Mrs. Filbert's, you know its flavor secret... a sweet, fresh taste no other margarine can duplicate.

But Mrs. Filbert's offers more than delicious flavor. Today there are facts you should know about Mrs. Filbert's and your family's health.

Much is being written about fats in food. Some claim that saturated animal fats build up cholesterol in the blood, while unsaturated vegetable oils may help reduce cholesterol. Since evidence is still inconclusive, your doctor is the one to advise you about fats, cholesterol, and your diet.

However, you should know that Mrs. Filbert's Margarine is made from the finest domestic vegetable oils, which contain no cholesterol and are over 70% unsaturated. Mrs. Filbert's is enriched with vitamins A and D, is highly digestible, and is low in salt.

As a result, Mrs. Filbert's is a nutritious, healthful food... provides quick energy, helps your body utilize important proteins and carbohydrates. Your whole family can enjoy Mrs. Filbert's with confidence.

Use Mrs. Filbert's as a delicious table spread... as a flavorful seasoning... as a digestible shortening in cooking, baking, frying. Taste why so many people prefer Mrs. Filbert's to any spread, regardless of price.

Was Miss World Contest Rigged Also?

LONDON (UPI)—Was the 1959 Miss World beauty contest rigged? "Poppycock," contest officials said.

Well, it wasn't rigged at least the winner was female, complained losing American contestant Loreita Powell, a Bridgeport, Conn., secretary.

The winner was Corina Botschafer of the Netherlands, a 21-year-old blue-eyed honey blonde whose dimensions were given officially as 57-32-37.

"I am sure Miss Holland was padded in the bra," the American beauty said. "You certainly can tell. She's a tall, slender model, not a bazon bathing beauty."

"It's very odd to me that beautiful Miss Italy could come in 15th when she is such an outstanding girl. I think the losers got fat because of their cheques."

She said she heard rumors that Miss Holland was either a sweetheart or the girl-friend of one of the judges, but "this I cannot authenticate at first hand."

Rumors circulated that Miss Holland and Judge Claude Berry of France were engaged, but both denied it today in talks with British newsmen.

"Poppycock," Berry said of both reports—the padding and the romance. So did Miss Holland.

Another denial came from Miss Canada, Hugolina Demers, 21, with 56-35-34 dimensions.

"There's been no padding as far as I know," she said. "There were judges who checked for that—and they checked."

Retarded Children To Get Assistance

The Seminole Association for Retarded Children has begun efforts to obtain a permanent location for a school to teach retarded youngsters.

This group wants to do something here at home instead of having these children on waiting lists to get into training centers elsewhere.

The importance of this work has been shown in the progress which retarded children have made in other schools, where time and patience is expended in great amounts.

A start has been made here with a nursery school and the association hopes to expand its efforts with the guidance of the Florida Council for Retarded Children.

In the meantime, the Seminole association's members have signed up to sponsor some children at the Sunland Training Center at Gainesville and will participate in giving extra care for them.

This truly is heartwarming work.

Really 'Best'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Man, the four came like they was from Nevada but when we made the scene it was all bars.

Translation: Detectives (fuzz) masqueraded as beatniks (so-ville) with beards, bongos drums and desert boots, rounded up 90 of their newly-won "beat generation" friends on dope charges after promising to take some of them to a party on the scene.

The raids, staged in Greenwich Village, Harlem and Brooklyn, were probably the most hilarious series of arrests in New York police history and netted heroin valued at more than one million dollars.

Some of the characters brought to the station house (bars) included William Bailey, brother of singer Pearl Bailey; James (The Actor) Stewart, who also is known as "Foots" because he has one 18 foot; and the Mad Mongolian of Bloeker Street.

The heroes of the gambit were five detectives who a month ago under the direction of Inspector Edward F. Carey started wearing glasses, stopped cleaning their clothes and learned how to play the bongos drums.

They infiltrated the ranks of the beatniks who grew so convinced they gave the detectives "beat generation" names, like Gorgous George, The Saller, Janis the Queer, The Blotch and Stone Face. About 140 members of the narcotics bureau took part in the whole operation.

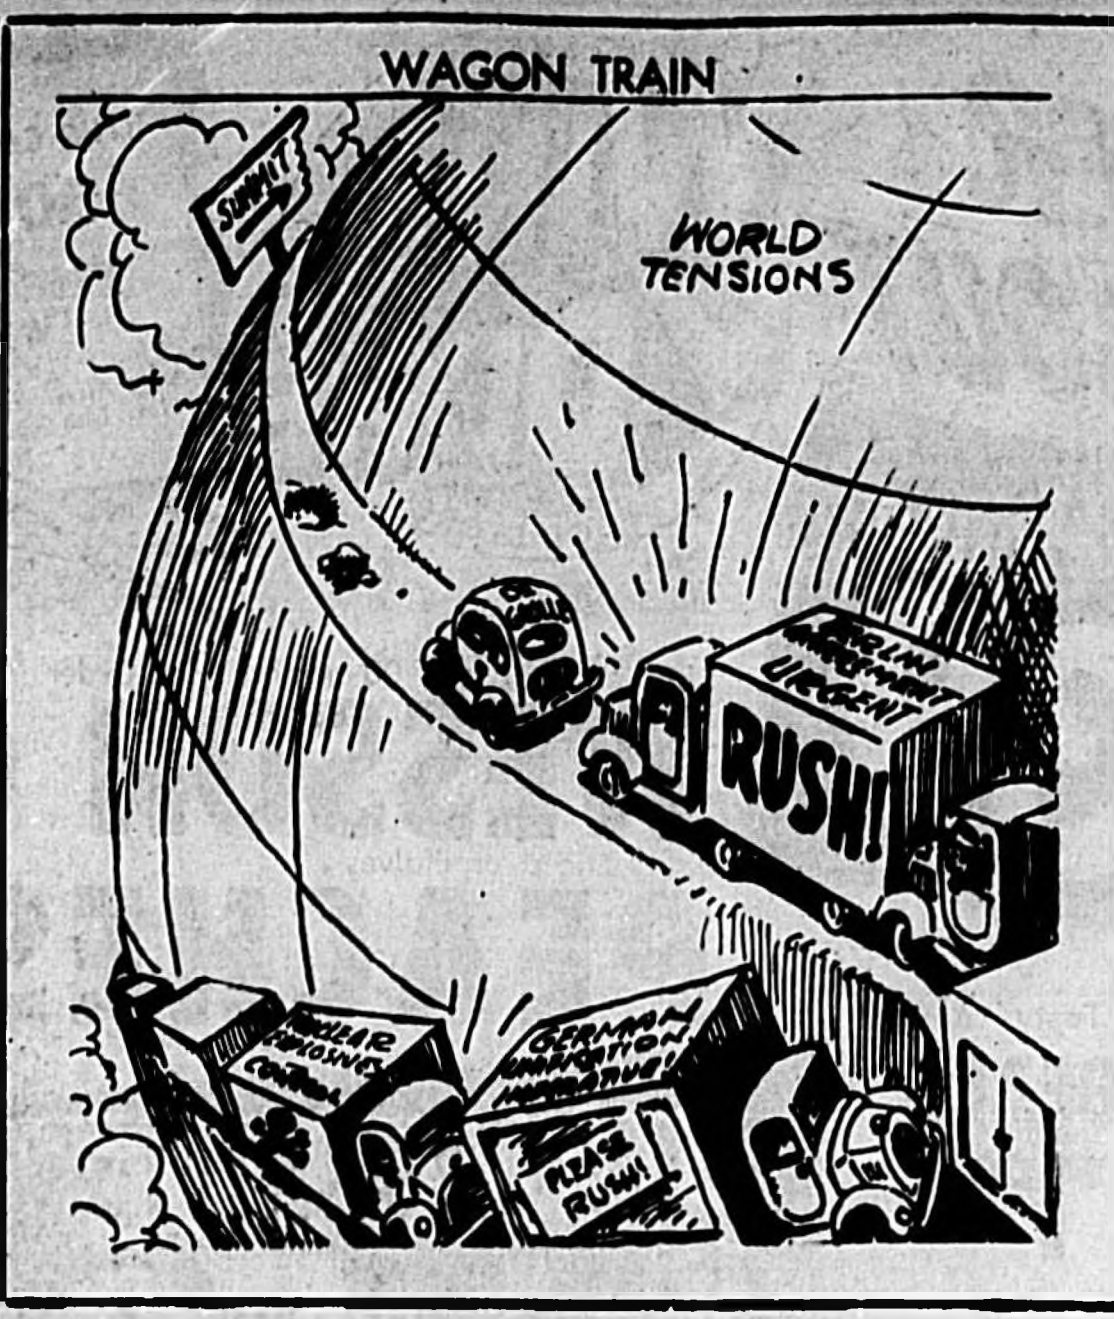

Detective George Bernudez really got in the swing of things and composed poems for reading

Rome Takes Steps To Remain Green

ROME (UPI)—The Italian government has drafted a detailed plan to keep mounting tide of cement from engulfing the remaining public parks of Rome, which used to be one of the world's greenest cities.

The plan includes a gigantic park and a new road along the ancient Appian Way. The park will be as big as all the city's existing parks and gardens put together.

The hold plan was outlined by Public Works Minister Giuseppe Togni.

OVER THE PACIFIC—In two hours, the laden Antarctic-bound Navy four-engine C-119 will touch down in Hawaii for a 20-hour lay-over. The sailors talk about swimming off Waikiki Beach. It will be their last swim for a year.

I asked John Hartzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Hartzell of Alton, Iowa, what in heaven's name possessed him to volunteer for one year on the ice. He's 30 and in the Navy seven years. He said philosophically: "I like to see what's over the next hill."

John, a meteorologist first class, will be set up in a camp on Cape Hallett, 1,000 miles from the pole. For one thing, he'll be sending balloons up to heights of 100,000 feet to check weather conditions. Biggest hazard in the Antarctic is the unpredictable weather.

The men on board are some of the 128 who will be wintering over next year. They underwent a four-hour psychiatric exam after they volunteered for the tour of duty. Twenty were rejected.

I asked Walter Bacon, of Botsford, a husky lad of 34, who left his wife and three children at Danvers, Conn., how he felt about having to leave his family behind. Walter, a construction mechanic first class, said it probably would be no different than being isolated in a place like Kwajalein. He was stationed there 22 months in '45-'46.

This plane will head almost directly south from Hawaii, stopping only in the Phoenix and Fiji Islands before its destination, Christchurch, on the south island of New Zealand. Then we transfer to a cargo plane for the 12-hour nonstop flight to the naval outpost at McMurdo Sound, 719 miles from the pole.

The crew of this plane, the Navy version of the C-119, was taken from its North Atlantic run and is making its first flight over the route. Lt. A. L. Bird, aircraft commander of Saugus, Mich., and Lt. Lawrence Adams, pilot, of Beverly, N. J., and Jack Pittman, of Cocoa, Fla., are going to have to find that dot of Fiji in the South Pacific at 8 a. m.

Near the rear door of the cabin, naval officers and scientists are playing bridge on a Navy blotter on the floor. This is not a flush game. And Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army Edward Bacon gets the same recommendations as the seamen.

Mr. Bacon is making his second tour of the Antarctic. Besides his inspections on the ice, he writes poems about it. Next year he plans to publish a book of his works, "Songs of the South Pole."

Another VIP is on board—William McChesney Martin. I asked him why he was going to Antarctica. "You're not going south with our U. S. Treasury, are you?" I asked him and he laughed good-naturedly. Mr. Martin is chairman of the Federal Reserve Board.

The No. 1 expert on running banks said he's going to look over Antarctica's "strategic, scientific and economic possibilities." And besides that, he said, he's going there for a rest.

To be sure, this long trip is leisurely. It will have taken six days or so before we reach the area of the pole. Just a generation or two ago, it took three months.

Vets Day Almost Forgotten Occasion

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI)—This is the 41st Armistice Day, a statistic of not much moment to anyone other than the pot-bellied old guffers who participated way back there in World War I.

That, friends, was quite a war while it lasted, which isn't long so far as the United States was concerned. The United States got into it in April 1917. And, 41 years ago today on Nov. 11, 1918, there was marching and counter-marching in the streets. The bands played. Ticker tape and paper waste snowed from tall buildings not only in New York but from coast to coast.

Young men and young women publicly kissed each other, and there was a heavy run on the bootleg hooch with which Americans of that generation picked their insides when celebrating.

Nov. 11, 1918 was a Big Day. The U. S. of A. had licked the Hun, by golly, and never was a great nation riding for a harder fall. And never was great nation less aware that the big end trouble still was to come instead of having been disposed of in handy fashion over there on Flanders fields where the poppies grow.

The dictionary defines euphoric as a sense of well being, of buoyancy. The United States was on a euphoric jag 41 years ago today. We won the war. Moreover, we won the war to make the world safe for democracy. We won the war to end all wars. We won it, and all of us were going to live happily ever after.

That was the way the script read back there in 1918. Woodrow Wilson was a great phrase maker, like a Madison Ave. pitchman. Wilson was sincere. He believed his own slogans. But he and his fellow citizens were bewitched and benumbed by the felicity of those fine phrases.

The people of the United States actually believed 41 years ago today that they had successfully participated in a holy cause to end war and to bring to all the peoples of the world the boon of the American way of life. This American way of life was described mistakenly and for phrase-making purposes as "democracy" whereas the United States never was set up to be a political democracy at all.

That was of small matter in 1918, however, so the great day, Nov. 11, 1918, was celebrated in solemn fashion with the worship of a false political god and the testing of objectives presumed to have been attained which, in fact, never even were closely approached.

The mysticism and euphoric and drama of the occasion lingered on, however. And for many years thereafter there took place annually in the United States two minutes of silence at the hour of 11 a. m. on Nov. 11. On that occasion, United Press wires used to fall silent, an eerie thing, and the citizens would pause in the streets for two minutes, hats clutched, heads bowed, in a veneration of the war dead, and there was nothing phony about them.

The two minutes of silence got lost somewhere over the years. Armistice Day itself is almost forgotten.

Police Believe Business First

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (UPI)—Members of the Niagara Falls police department who want to get ahead on the force will have to leave early from the annual policeman's ball.

The department picked the morning after the gala event to hold examinations for patrolmen seeking promotion.

Washington See-Saw

By WEN FENDELTON

Everybody talks about "juvenile" delinquency, and what to do about it. We would like to say a word about "adult" delinquency—which is, of course, the worst kind. Because, the youngsters follow our leadership. When we set low standards of ethics and morality—you can expect the same from them. We are talking about the delinquency of the television industry.

Delinquency in T.V. did not begin with the quiz shows. We have complained about it from the day we bought our first set. We have seen advertising come into our living room that would not be tolerated by the better newspapers and magazines of America.

Examples? You have seen them. Here is a common one. The dance studio that shows three common dance steps and asks you to guess which is which. If you call in the correct answer you will receive "free" dance lessons. That is a fraud. The answer is made as obvious as possible. If you don't know it, you can ask the person sitting next to you. Or you can send in all three names. All the "sponsor" wants in the name of a person who might be enticed into their studio. Once there, they have a good chance of selling you some dancing lessons. Is this honest advertising?

Another is the newly invented sewing machine for $9.99. "Call right away and a man will bring one by." Yes—try to buy one. He would come by, but he never had that model in his car. His job is to sell you an $89.99 model. And on and on. The story is not new. It is sad. It is the story of low grade trash thrown at the public under the guise that "it's what the public wants to see."

Television is the greatest medium of communication ever invented. More people watched the World Series a few weeks ago than have read the writings of Shakespeare, Dickens and Mark Twain combined, since they were written. Think what an instrument for good this electronic marvel could be. It is a travesty that it has sunk so low.

Think where this world would be today if, when the genius Gutenberg invented modern printing, he had devoted himself to printing comic books instead of his first great work—the Bible.

The television big-wigs are now saying they plan to clean up their

Police Question Five In Gun Battle Case

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI)—Police Tuesday questioned five men, one a "prime suspect" in the attempted robbery of a country club here early Monday.

The caretaker's wife who kept police posted by telephone while a masked gunman held her husband hostage for 4 1/2 hours in a running gunbattle at the club was under sedation today.

Police Chief E. Wilson Purdy said the "prime suspect" was Lyle Theodore Ennis, 25, an auto vulgar firm manager and Navy veteran. Ennis was picked up Monday night when he tried to hitch a ride in an unmarked police car.

Also questioned during the night were men identified by police as Billy Joe Crow, William G. Morrill, John L. Sims and Thomas F. Sims.

Ennis' car had been found earlier hidden in some woods about a mile from the Lakeswood Country Club. Purdy said at the time Ennis was arrested he had what appeared to be a bullet wound near his neck.

The golf course caretaker, John L. MacDonald, 38, said he was washing dishes at 2:30 a. m. Monday when "I heard a noise from the men's locker room."

"I walked in that direction," MacDonald said. "All of a sudden I felt a gun in my back and heard a man say, 'One false move and you're dead!'"

"I did what he said," MacDonald added.

Mrs. MacDonald, sitting on a couch in the next room, awake. She said she saw a man in a Halloween mask marching her husband toward the kitchen at gunpoint.

Unknown to the gunman, Mrs. MacDonald, 36, locked herself inside the clubhouse office and called police.

There was some question of many badde being involved in the gunfight which took place after officers surrounded the small building. Mrs. MacDonald reported sounds of the fight to police headquarters by phone.

The MacDonalds saw only one man, but police said they believed there were at least three or four. Det. Lt. Larry Tallman said shots were coming from both sides of the clubhouse at the same time. He said another flash of gunfire came from the roof.

Illinois Company Has Dream Pipe

DECATUR, Ill. (UPI)—The Illinois Power Co. has figured out how to rehabilitate underground gas lines without digging holes in the street.

Old gas lines are used. The cast-iron pipe is reamed out and a flexible liner of vinyl plastic is fed through it. The liner (developed by the B. F. Goodrich Chemical Co.) resists corrosion that eats away ordinary piping.

Mayfair Getting Ready For Season

The Mayfair Hotel is undergoing some rejuvenating although no major decorating is being done, according to Charles Palmer, new manager who recently came to Sanford from New York City.

Palmer and his staff are freshening the 54-year old hotel, doing some painting, refurbishing several of the 153 suites and engaging in general cleanup work inside and on the grounds. New concrete is being poured around the swimming pool.

The grand opening of the Mayfair, which usually heralds the arrival of the Winter social and tourist season in Sanford, is scheduled December 12.

Mrs. Margaret Winchenbaugh of Rockland, Maine, will be social director this season. Pete Burkur and his five piece band will make a return engagement for the formal opening dinner dance and will furnish music every Saturday night.

Palmer said he will suggest that formal attire be worn at the hotel on Saturday nights.

The U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare says there are 21.2 million American families with just one wage earner, 15.3 million with two wage earners and 4.4 million with three. Six persons died from rabies in the United States in 1968.

Hearing Slated
On 'Misconduct'
At Youth School

BISMARCK, N. D. (UPI) — A high state official said today another hearing would be held into charges four unclothed teen-aged boys were chained to the floor of the North Dakota Training School.

Herman Joos, chairman of the state Board of Administration, said an earlier hearing held this week was inconclusive since the school's superintendent, Thomas Crouse, did not testify.

Joos said the four youths, ranging from 14 to 16 years old, were chained in one room without furniture and only a pail for sanitary purposes because they had escaped from the institution several times.

Joos said the boys were ordered chained by Crouse during a time when carpenters were repairing wire mesh screening on the windows of their room.

They were left without clothes during the night, Joos said, but during the day were given bathroom privileges and taken to the lunchroom to eat.

It was not disclosed how long the punishment continued.

State Sen. Ralph Ericstad said he and several other lawmakers learned about the incident through confidential sources and asked for the investigation.

"This type of treatment has no rehabilitative effect," he said.

Ericstad said Crouse was offered an opportunity to testify before the board but that he preferred to have legal counsel before making any statement for the record.

Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON
 Just how important is a defense in football? This question was answered last Friday night in Leesburg by a host of Sanford Seminoles who play this phase of the game.

Although the Seminole offensive attack was very impressive, the defensive work impressed me as the outstanding part of the game. Leesburg had two very speedy and deceptive runners in Randy Brown and Lynn Bates and if it hadn't been for the fire of the Seminole defense the game would have taken on an entirely different light. Just when it looked as though the Jackets were ready to roll, in would step some Seminole and spoil their plans.

The work of linebackers Bobby Barbour, Johnny Watschel, Alex McKibbin, and Neely Ross was outstanding throughout the game, but to me the most fired-up player on the field throughout the night was big tackle Charles Fox.

Fox, who has been riding the oaks for the last two ball games, finally won back his starting nod and was determined to keep it. From the starting whistle he was either stopping everything on his side of the line or was in hot pursuit of the passer. On two occasions he crashed through to throw Brown for big losses.

Enough can't be said for the Seminole defense last Friday for it was the difference in the ball game.

One of the largest groups of alumni in the history of SHS Homecomings is expected to be on hand for the game this Friday night. This is the first time the Seminoles have had Bishop Moore on their regular schedule and it will be the first meeting of the two schools since the locals defeated them, 14-7, in the Brahman Bowl three years ago. The Hornets have suffered only one defeat this season and if the Seminoles score an upset it will be a joyous Homecoming.

A large group of Sanford folks had a nice train ride Saturday although they didn't see much of a ball game. Understand that Harold Kastner came along with a band and all. John Sauls supplied much of the entertainment in his car as he put on quite an act. While commenting about a recent trip to Miami, John said "food is so high down there that it's cheaper to eat money."

Bears Favored To Close Gap In Western Pro Loop

United Press International
 The Chicago Bears are favored to tighten up the National Football League's Western Division loop Sunday by defeating the San Francisco Forty-Niners at Chicago's Wrigley Field.

San Francisco (6-1) is a two-point underdog although it leads the Western Division by two games while the Bears' (3-4) are tied for third with the Green Bay Packers. The second-place Baltimore Colts (4-3) are 9 1/2 point favorites to whip the Packers at Milwaukee.

The New York Giants (6-1) are 9 1/2 point favorites to protect their one-game Eastern lead over the Cleveland Browns (5-2) by downing the Pittsburgh Steelers (2-4) at Yankee Stadium. The Browns are 7 1/2 point favorites for their game with the Redskins (3-4) at Washington.

The Eagles (4-3) are four-point favorites to down the Chicago Cardinals (2-5) at Philadelphia. In Sunday's other game, the Los Angeles Rams (2-5) are 3 1/2 point favorites to defeat the Lions (1-5-1) at Detroit.

The Bears entertained the Forty-Niner team that edged them last month at San Francisco, 20-17, when N. C. Owens leaped and caught Y. A. Tittle's 48-yard pass in the end zone with 61 seconds to go. The Forty-Niners have won four in a row while the Bears won their last two starts.

Baltimore lost to the Browns and Redskins in its last two games and must bounce back quickly to retain the Western Division title and a chance to defend its league crown in the championship game. The Colts tackle a Green Bay team that has lost four straight since winning its first three games. The Packers bowed at Baltimore last month, 38-21.

Charley Conerly and George Shaw, New York's top quarterbacks, are nursing injuries but may recover sufficiently to play against Pittsburgh. The Giants were fortunate to gain a 21-16 victory last month at Pittsburgh.

Johnson Thankful For Bout Tonight

CHICAGO (UPI)—Harold Johnson, the No. 1 challenger to champion Archie Moore in the light heavyweight class, fights a "Thanksgiving" match against Sosny Ray tonight, two weeks early.

His battle with Ray, sixth ranked among the 175 pounders, will be in front of the television cameras, and Johnson was thankful he had the chance for a better payday than usual.

"It's Thanksgiving for me," he said, "because it'll give me the money to have a Thanksgiving Day. I can't get enough fights to eat on most of the time."

Actually it'll be Johnson's 11th fight in four years, and he'll be defending a 10 fight winning streak. It will be his second appearance on TV in the past 12 months and his fifth on a "be-impressive" campaign to force Moore to give him another title chance.

"It's the only way out," he said. "I don't think Moore can duck me much longer. I've challenged everybody in the heavyweights and they won't fight me, and I've fought everybody in the light heavyweights."

"All I can do is create public demand, and all I can do to do that is be impressive in every fight. It's pretty hard to do that if you have to lay off seven or eight months between every fight."

LSU, Ole Miss, Georgia Leading Gator Contenders

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Louisiana State, Mississippi and Georgia are the leading contenders for an invitation to serve as host team in the Gator Bowl game here Jan. 2.

All three teams received eight ballots apiece in a vote Tuesday of 24 members of the Gator Bowl selection committee.

All are members of the tough Southeastern Conference and each have 7-1 records.

The committee eliminated top-ranked Syracuse from consideration because it felt the school would play either in the Orange or Cotton Bowl.

Other teams considered for the Gator Bowl were Penn State (7-1), Tennessee (5-1-1), Georgia Tech (6-2), Southern Methodist (4-2-1), Texas Christian (5-2), Arkansas (5-2-1), Texas (8-0), South Carolina (6-2) and Clemson (6-1).

This weekend, Gator Bowl scouts will watch the Mississippi-Tennessee, SMU - Arkansas and Auburn-Georgia games.

Syracuse May Get Bid Ultimatum

MIAMI (UPI)—The Orange Bowl selection committee will meet in special session today, possibly to deliver an ultimatum to Syracuse to accept a bid to the post-season game before it is withdrawn.

Chairman Van C. Kussow called the meeting after Syracuse trustees were indecisive about accepting an invitation.

"I don't think our committee will wait until Sunday night, the time indicated by Syracuse for a decision," Kussow said.

Ring Results

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (UPI)—Alvin Green, 176, Big Spring, Tex., outpointed Alvin Williams, 170, Oklahoma City (10).

RICHMOND, Calif. (UPI)—Jimmy Carter, 138, San Francisco, stopped Kildo Nunez, Sonora, Mex. (4).

HONOLULU (UPI)—Baby Brown, 122, Manila, decisioned Fernando Sota, 130, Portugal (10).

Alabama Gridgers Show Signs Of 'Growing Up'

United Press International
 Alabama's Crimson Tide, now in the roof-shingling phase of Coach Bear Bryant's rebuilding program, has some young backs who "are growing up."

That's the word from the Bear himself, who said the Tide's passing was "showing improvement every day and our backs are running a lot better. They are growing up."

The Bear and the Tide hope to upset Georgia Tech Saturday in Birmingham and duplicate last year's effort when the Engineers were surprised by a low-rated Bama club. Tech worked on defensive and offensive assignments Tuesday and appeared to have weathered the effects of a "24-hour" virus infection that downed 13 players.

Coach Johnny Vaught worked the Mississippi Rebels on new defenses for Tennessee's single wing offense. The Vols drilled against Mississippi's multiple offense, but without the services of wing back Ken Waddell.

Quarterback Russ Morris sharpened his passing eye in Vanderbilt workouts for the Tulane game Saturday in New Orleans. Vandy also worked hard on defenses against the Green Wave passing attack. Tulane went through a heavy scrimmage session. Coach Andy Pilav warned his players against the running of Tom Moore, Vandy's all-SEC halfback.

Wade Walker of Mississippi State had John Corro and Billy Hill doing most of the losing in a passing drill. LSU, State's Saturday opponent, named quarterbacks Durel Mathers and Darryl Jenkins to alternate to help fill the shoes of injured signal caller Warren Rabb.

Georgia worked for two hours and 15 minutes, stressing pass defense and offense, the latter one of the Bulldog's best weapons. The entire team will be ready to go against Auburn in Athens Saturday.

Auburn went through a two-hour drill and defensive contact scrimmage. Coach Ralph Jordan told the Tigers, "This will be our toughest game to date. We'll have to be tough to win."

The Florida Gators took their second day off in a row Tuesday. They have an open date this week-end. Kentucky worked out for the other SEC activity.

Dusty Boots Club To Hold Rodeos On Regular Basis

The Dusty Boots Riding Club has contracted for regular rodeo stock for their rodeo next Sunday and will hold rodeos on a regular basis from now on.

The stock is roping calves, steers and bucking horses. There will be a regular rodeo announcer at the show announcing the contestants and explaining the action and a band to furnish music.

At 11 a. m., prior to the start of the show events, there will be a pork and beef barbecue served. All entry fees will be placed in a jackpot for each event and will be divided between contestants on a first, second and third prize basis.

The events will be as follows: Cutting horses (novice), Bucking horses, Steer Dogging, Cloverleaf races, Cutting horses (open), Calf Roping and Steer Dogging.

Coaching Task

MIAMI (UPI)—Wade Walker, Mississippi State head coach, will direct the South squad in the 14th annual North-South College All-Star Game in the Orange Bowl, Dec. 26. Army Coach Dale Hall will coach the North team.

Triple Winner

LAUREL, Md. (UPI)—Howard Grant booted home a triple Tuesday to increase his Laurel mark leadership to 20 winners for the current meeting. Grant, the track's only rider to reach double figures, scored with Flaming Susie ($3,800), Happy Water ($2,800) and Yes You Will ($3,200).

Fraleley Picks Safe Ones After Week Of Upsets

By OSCAR FRALEY
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Fraleley's follies and the weekend football "winners" — and, once again, thank goodness Grandma taught me never to wager on such unpredictable. Northwestern over Michigan State—The Spartans are a team which has looked alternately great and pitiful. This could be one of their good weeks but Northwestern should make the big bounce back after blowing its perfect record. Syracuse over Colgate — Too much all around. Notre Dame over Pitt — On a hunch. Penn over Columbia — Murder up front. Harvard over Brown—The Cantabs found themselves. ALSO: Boston College over Boston U., Navy over George Washington, Dartmouth over Cornell, Penn State over Holy Cross, Yale over Princeton, Bucknell over Temple, Buffalo over Gettysburg, Lehigh over Davidson, Lafayette over Tufts, Rutgers over Villanova. Oklahoma over Army—Injuries have cost the Cadets too much. Wisconsin over Illinois—A bone crusher. Purdue over Minnesota — Re-gaining its stride. Indiana over Michigan — A real tossup. Also: Iowa over Ohio State, Kansas over Oklahoma State, Missouri over Kansas State, Nebraska over Colorado, Bowling Green over Delaware and Miami over Dayton. USC over Baylor—Pride of the West. California over Washington—The blueplate special. UCLA over North Carolina State—Drop in class. Oregon State over Stanford—Not much to choose. Also: Oregon over Washington State, COP over Idaho, Air Force over Arizona, Colorado State over Utah, Utah State over Denver and Wyoming over New Mexico. Auburn over Georgia — Backyard toughie. Georgia Tech over Alabama—A shade the better. Mississippi over Tennessee — Let down after that big win. LSU over Mississippi State—The big bounce. Also: Clemson over Maryland, Duke over Wake Forest, North Carolina over Virginia, Kentucky over Xavier, Florida State over W & M, West Virginia over VPI, VMI over Citadel, Miami over South Carolina and Vanderbilt over Tulane. Texas over TCU— Driving for the big season. SMU over Arkansas — Depends on the bounce of the ball. Rice over Texas Aggies—Could go either way. Also: Houston over Texas Tech, Abilene Christian over Texas Western, Brigham Young over Arizona State, Hardin Simmons over New Mexico State, North Texas State over Tulsa and Trinity over West Texas State.

Phils Sign Youth

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Philadelphia Phillies outbid five other major league clubs Tuesday in signing outfielder William DeLassandro to a 1960 contract. DeLassandro, 17, of the Reading, Pa. Junior American Legion team, will be assigned to a club after spring training next year.

U.S. Berlin Troops Get New Commander

BERLIN (UPI) — The United States Army today was taking advantage of the Berlin breathing spell to change its Berlin commandant.

Maj. Gen. Barhadale Hamlett had been scheduled for reassignment at the height of the Berlin crisis last May. But the Army did not want to change command at that time.

Hamlett stayed on because the Army considered his knowledge and experience here too valuable to lose at a time when the city was threatened by the Soviet demand the Western Allies get out.

Now that pressure on the city has relaxed for the time being, Hamlett is getting his long overdue reassignment.

The Army announced Tuesday Hamlett will leave Berlin Dec. 15 for a top Pentagon post. He will be replaced by Maj. Gen. Ralph M. Gaboro, a veteran negotiator with the Communists.

The switch was seen as a sign of the Army's belief the Communist heat is off the city temporarily and no serious incidents are expected while the Soviets are pressing for an early Big Four summit meeting.

There was no thought here the Soviets have dropped their plans to get the Western Allies out of the city.

It was believed that if a summit meeting fails the Communists would revive their campaign against the isolated Western outpost.

 Memo ***

BERLIN (UPI) — Memo is a new American commandant: You have 4,000 American troops and 100 State Department diplomats isolated 110 miles deep in Communist territory.

You are surrounded by 30 Soviet divisions of more than 300,000 men.

If war breaks out your position is untenable. You will not be relieved. You will be expected to fight courageously to the end as American soldiers did at Hatan with the hope of eventual victory.

You might not live to see that victory.

It is a grim thought. The 7,000 American Army wives and children—“dependents” in Army jargon—will share your fate.

You are coming to Berlin at the most critical time the city has seen since the Soviets cut all land routes to the city in 1948 and began the one-year Berlin blockade.

An Anglo-American airlift beat that blockade but the future is uncertain.

The situation is fairly quiet now. Things have calmed down since the Berlin crisis began just one year ago with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's demand that your troops and the 7,000 British and French troops get out of the city.

He said the Western Allies must end their occupation of West Berlin and make it what he called a “free, demilitarized city.”

West saw this proposal as a Soviet plot to get the West out so they could swallow the city and make it a part of the “German Democratic Republic”—the surrounding Soviet Zone of Germany.

The United States, Britain and France rejected Khrushchev's free city proposal and said they would fight to hold West Berlin.

You are coming here to make good that pledge, if necessary. Khrushchev's proposal and the Western rejection of it led to talks at Geneva of the Big Four foreign ministers. The conference ended in a deadlock.

But the Soviets made no move to take over the Western sector because it was agreed that the world's top man, President Eisenhower, Khrushchev, the British and French leaders would meet at a so-called summit conference to try and settle the East-West clash that has raged since World War II ended.

No one knows what will happen at that conference. Perhaps agreement will be reached and your stay here will be as peaceful as your tour of duty was in 1953 at Ft. Bragg, N. C., where you commanded airborne artillery.

But Berlin is marking time. The city has been given what may turn out to be only a breathing spell.

Quotable Quotes

United Press International

PARIS — President Charles De Gaulle, stating there is no chance France will abandon plans to explode a nuclear weapon:

“In endorsing herself with nuclear armaments, France is perhaps rendering a service to the world balance of power.”

NEW YORK — Ambrose E. Stevens, executive vice president and general manager of Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc., charging that the government's warning of possibly cranberry contamination was ill-advised:

“There was a lot of publicity on this kind of thing over about cigarettes, but I haven't seen any cigarettes taken off the market like they're doing (with cranberries) in San Francisco.”

MIAMI — Thomas Jacobson, a radio correspondent for the Mutual Broadcasting System who was held for three hours by Cuban police, describing his feelings on his return to the United States:

“It sounds crazy to say I wanted to kiss the ground when we landed, but believe me, that's how I felt.”

DES MOINES, Iowa — Col. Thurston T. Paul, deputy commander of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency at Huntsville, Ala., after a Navy doctor disputed his statement that the space monkey Baker was pregnant:

“If the Navy says she isn't that's good enough for me.”

Madrid's Prado Houses Great Works

Editor's Note: This is the 16th of a series of articles by A. M. and R. H. Haskell who are now in Europe.

Madrid—the Prado Museum in Madrid houses one of the greatest collections of works of art in the world. Built in Neo-Classical style in 1819, it was originally intended for a Museum of Natural History, but after the Napoleonic Wars, Ferdinand II decreed that it be used to exhibit the best paintings from the Royal Collections, begun in the 16th Century by Isabella, the Catholic. In 1872, the works from the National Museum of Painting and Sculpture were added.

Unlike most museums, the Prado has little junk in it. The objects of art do not all appeal to everyone's taste, of course, but most of them are excellent examples of each artist's style. While not as big as the Louvre, for instance, it is much too large to be seen in one visit, or properly, in ten.

While most of the great schools of art are represented, the tourist is primarily interested in the unique collection by Spanish painters—Murillo, Zurbarán, Ribera, Cano, and the three greatest: Velasquez, Goya and El Greco.

Diego Velasquez, 1599-1660, court painter to Philip IV for 37 years, was a romantic painter. Influenced by the painters of the Italian Renaissance (he studied in Italy four years) he was interested in fabrics, textures and the coloring of his sitters. The horse-faced, blonde Hapsburgs, with their protruding lower lips, were not beautiful people, but Velasquez' pictures of them are beautiful, for he emphasized the trappings of royalty and the elegance of the life of kings. He was a great technician and, probably, a snob.

Francisco Goya, 1746-1828, was more versatile and broader than Velasquez, and entirely different in his approach. He, too, was a court painter, but he was merciless in his realism. His portrait of Charles III in hunting costume makes him look the idiot he was.

The dog sleeping at his feet has a more intelligent expression. Goya's genre paintings have an almost French charm and gaiety. His bitter studies depicting the horrors of war and his grotesque allegories, frightening in their intensity, reveal him as a social critic. He was a great draftsman and an accurate reporter of his time.

Domenico Theotocopuli, called El Greco, was born in Crete in 1541 but he spent his productive years, 1577-1614, in Toledo. He was a great mystic, different in style from any other painter, before or since. He painted many fine portraits, but he is best known for his religious pictures, gothic in feeling, sometimes extravagantly colorful, sometimes almost monochrome.

The Prado is so full of beautiful things, it takes several days to sort out the impressions of even a few visits. It was, of course, full of foreign tourists, but there were many Spaniards there, also, enjoying their treasures.

EOUGHANVIOLA DOBERMAN PINSCHER KENNELS Co-owner Mrs. Harold Kastner donates a $100 check to Donald Thompson, chairman of ticket sales for the Sanford-DeBarry Entertainment Association series of concerts to start Nov. 19. Mrs. Kastner was a former Ziegfeld showgirl, has been in various Broadway shows and highly recommends the series of concerts as top entertainment. (Staff Photo)

1949 Graduates Plan Reunion

Seminole High School graduates of the class of 1949 will hold their 10th reunion Dec. 28 at 7:30 p. m. in the Sanford Shrine Club.

Class graduates who have received the invitations sent out by the reunion committee are urged to send in the money necessary to pay for caterer's charges for the dinner and dance. The money should be sent to John Keeling, 623 Farita St., Sanford, by Nov. 15.

Merchants To Get Small U. S. Flags

Sanford's City commission has decided that the small American flags flown throughout the city on 21 days during the year will be distributed to city merchants who will have the responsibility of flying them outside their establishments. A large flag will be flown on the tall mast outside the city hall on these days, and a smaller pole will be bought to fly the state and federal flag every day of the year.

Washington Cathedral in the nation's capital will be the sixth largest cathedral in the world when it is completed. Construction began in 1907 and is now more than 60 per cent finished. It will be a tenth of a mile long and its tower will soar 300 feet.

Happiness Through Health (By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Common Sense:

We learn in grade school physiology that the body is made up of a bony frame work enclosing organs, and controlled by the nervous system.

Perculiarly, many forget this fundamental fact, and as time goes on, and when sickness is present in our bodies, we think of the affected area as a lone structure in the body rather than connected with the nervous system. For example, in a case of heart trouble, the heart fails to function normally consequently, symptoms of pain, shortness of breath, dizziness, etc., result. It is only common sense to locate the cause rather than try to care for the heart as a separate part of the body.

When one stops to think the heart has a hookup or nerve connection in two ways, one set of nerves acts as an accelerator to speed up function, and the other as an inhibitor to slow down function, it becomes clear why the “machine” must all be in order to receive perfect results. How much better it is to restore the nerve supply for normal function. This example is true of every organ that we have in the body. It should be remembered that when any organ fails to receive its normal nerve supply from the brain through the nervous system, it will cease to function normally. This then, is the basis for sickness or disease. Correct the cause through Chiropractic adjustments and health is the natural result.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

Plant Board May Pay Growers For Trees Destroyed

ORLANDO (UPI) — The State Plant Board is expected to modify its push and treat program to kill spreading decline in citrus groves and compensate growers for all trees destroyed—not just the healthy ones.

The Board, following a public hearing here Tuesday, said it would take the action at its next meeting.

The matter of compensation has been the main point of contention in the highly controversial program for several years. In the past, the Board has paid only for the healthy trees destroyed or damaged.

The Board also agreed with Sen. John Sutton of Orlando that a three-man appraisal board should hold hearings in dispute over the value of trees destroyed and keep records that could be used if the owner appealed the Board's ruling.

The push and treat program, carried on by the Plant Board at no cost to the grower, involves bulldozing out infected trees and a few rows of surrounding healthy trees, and treating the soil.

Most of the some 60 grower owners present at the public hearing agreed that the important thing was to get the program underway again and deal with individual problems as they rise.

Magazine Poll Shows Rockefeller Chances Are 'Dim'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — News week Magazine says a poll by its political experts shows that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's chances of beating Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the GOP presidential nomination are "very dim indeed."

The magazine said the poll by its experts in the 50 states showed that "if Rockefeller wants the nomination at all, he must frankly say so, and start campaigning openly and hard. Rockefeller must woo the GOP pros, beguile the voters, shape sharp and definitive issues."

"If possible, he must try to convince the party that Rockefeller and Rockefeller alone can win the presidency in November, 1969. And even if he does do all that, and more, Nelson Rockefeller may still fall short of the nomination."

Worry Clinic

Marvin is typical of the usual amateur writer, and there are 10,000,000 amateurs writing in this country right now. So get help to the psychology writer. And don't "emote" or indulge your own starved emotions via your romantic hero. Send for the booklet below, and begin with price consulting or short story writing; NOT autobiographical novels:

BY — GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph. D., M. D.

CASE C — 487: Marvin W., aged 22, has finished college. "But, Dr. Crane," his worried father protested, "he will not take a job."

"He says he wants to be a writer, so he sits at home, smooching cigarettes off of me, and sleeps till 10 or 11 A. M. Then he puts around the house and only starts pounding the keys of his typewriter in late afternoon or when I am ready for bed at night."

"Besides, he doesn't turn out too much copy. And he is writing a novel with himself the hero."

"How can he concoct true-to-life fiction when he hasn't really done anything, except go to school?"

FICTION PSYCHOLOGY
Marvin might be able to write a successful novel about current college life, and thus deal with firsthand experiences.

But I later learned his novel was dealing with the French Foreign Legion.

Novices at writing are often just like Marvin. They refuse to stick to the things they really know, for they regard such matters as dull and uninteresting.

Then they decide to write a novel, with themselves as the disguised hero or heroine.

And they pick a locale that is in some remote, exotic spot they have never seen, so their descriptions lack the ring of sincerity and truth.

If you wish to be a successful writer, then don't use fiction as a form of emotional "jag!"

Congenerics Helps Hangovers
NEW YORK (UPI) — What causes a hangover? "Congenerics," says Jack Poust, who has waged a long campaign against these "residual impurities" in liquor.

Poust, a dealer in Italian brandy and vermouth, says one reason the Russians can apparently drink so much vodka without any ill effects is the fact that "good vodka" which goes through more refining processes than any other distilled spirits, has been almost completely purified of congenerics in the process.

Nehru To Demand Chinese Vacate Occupied Border Areas Before Talks

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru will demand that the Chinese Communists vacate border areas they occupy before he even will consent to talk with Premier Chou En-lai, an authoritative source said today. The source said Nehru was not prepared to accept Chou's suggestion that a buffer zone be established along the disputed India-Tibet-China border pending the outcome of negotiations. Red troops occupy several outposts on Indian soil near the Himalayan border, notably Longjia, in the rugged Northeast Frontier Agency, and in the Ladakh Province of the state of Jammu and Kashmir.

In the buffer zone suggested by Chou, Chinese troops would pull back 12.5 miles from the position they now occupy in Ladakh, but this would be to India's continuing disadvantage since the Chinese have penetrated 40 miles into Indian territory. Chou suggested that India pull back troops that have allegedly crossed over into China, also 12.5 miles.

The source close to Nehru said the prime minister generally would hold out for Chinese acceptance of the historic 1914 McMahon Line as the border, but that he might be willing to make "minor adjustments" to mollify the Reds.

Nehru was said to be adamant in his refusal to withdraw Indian troops from border areas. Tuesday the prime minister made his strongest statement on the dispute when he said India "cannot allow China to keep a foot on our chest."

Nehru's cabinet was busy studying Chou's latest note and the prime minister was expected to reply to it sometime next week.

Negotiations On For Kansas City To Back Sanford Entry In FSL

Negotiations are under way for the Kansas City Athletics to back the Sanford Greyhound entry in the Florida State League next year.

W. K. McRoberts, local baseball enthusiast, and promoter of the Class D team reported today that City officials were in town yesterday and offered a contract to McRoberts on setting up a class D team here.

McRoberts indicated today that he will sign the pact with Kansas City sending players to train here under the Sanford Greyhound banner.

Last year the Greyhounds played under an agreement with the Washington Senators.

If there is no hitch in preliminary plans to sign with the Athletics, the parent team is expected to send players to Sanford around late March.

The Florida State League season opens April 14.

Under an agreement with the city, lights at the stadium for the night games will be furnished by the city with the Athletics only furnishing the players.

No plans have been formulated as yet for a ticket sale drive, McRoberts added.

Board Plans To Put Heat On To End Steel Strike

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower's steel strike fact-finding board will resume public hearings but they will be held before the three man board makes its required report to the President on Jan. 7.

Board Chairman George W. Taylor was widely credited with narrowing the differences in the strike during a week of hearings in mid-October. The panel concluded that a settlement was impossible at that time because both sides were hopelessly deadlocked.

Eisenhower reconvened the board Wednesday under the Taft-Hartley emergency procedures. This was viewed as a formality so far as immediate action was concerned.

Federal Mediation Chief Joseph P. Pennington, who has left town to rest up from the wearing negotiations, has said he plans no further talks before Nov. 23 at the earliest.

He put off mediation efforts to permit union and management officials to devote full attention to problems of reopening the mills under the 80-day injunction.

After the fact-finders report, the National Labor Relations Board will have an additional 15 days to conduct a vote among the steelworkers on the final company offer. Following another five-day period, the union will be free—on Jan. 26—to strike again.

AFL-CIO President George Meany and other union leaders are pessimistic about chances of agreement before the anti-strike injunction expires.

Eisenhower, in reconvening the fact-finding board, called on union and management to recognize their responsibility to the nation and to try to reach a settlement as soon as possible.

Most steel mills have reported a steady increase in production since the strikers were ordered back to work. Reports from Pittsburgh said the industry should hit 60 percent of capacity by the end of the week.

But the strike that lasted for 118 days continued to have repercussions in other industries.

General Motors halted all passenger car production Wednesday at its plants in Willow Run, Mich., and St. Louis because of a steel shortage. The layoff boosted the number of auto workers piled so far to almost 228,000.

Ike Declines Show Of Viet Aid Report

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower refused today to allow a Senate subcommittee to see a government evaluation report on the foreign aid program in Viet Nam.

The president told Chairman Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) that it would "not be compatible with the national interest" to furnish the report to the subcommittee which has been investigating charges of waste in the aid program in Viet Nam.

Concerts May Be Called Off Due To Poor Support

The Sanford DeBary Entertainment Assn. may have to call off their scheduled concert series unless they sell their quota of 1,000 tickets, chairman Chester Bearick said today.

Bearick said that only a small percent of tickets have been sold with the deadline scheduled Saturday.

He called on all "culture conscious" residents to get their tickets at the ticket sales office at Park Ave. and First St. as soon as possible.

Bearick reported also that in divisional ticket sales are being carried out by members of the ticket committee.

The first in the series of concerts is scheduled to open Nov. 19 with the Stetson University Glee Club and singers to perform.

The highlight of the series will be the world famous Jose Greco Spanish Dancers who are slated to perform here in March.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The Florida Baptist Convention Wednesday adopted a $2,280,000 budget for 1960, the biggest in its history.

The money will be divided, equally between the state convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Collections from all Baptist churches in Florida this year will total almost 25 million dollars for state and local use, officials estimated.

The state convention's 1960 budget was $2,280,000.

A big part of the budget, $167,125, will go to Stetson University at Deland.

The convention adopted a new policy limiting loans to any one church to $7,500. It authorized increasing the present loan from $500,000 to $500,000 to complete the fourth floor and add a fifth floor to the new Baptist Building in Jacksonville.

Soviets Protest 'Propaganda' Move

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Soviet Union has protested to the United States and its Allies against a West German proposal to set up a radio transmission station in Reinforced West Berlin, informed sources disclosed today.

They said the Soviet Union is objecting to the station, which France and West Germany, has again raised charges that the Western powers are interested in transmitting "hostile propaganda" from the free portion of the former German capital.

The State Department would say only that it had received a note from Russia and it was under study.

It was expected that Secretary of State Christian A. Hoffer would discuss the subject at a news conference later today.

Other official sources, however, said the Soviet protest was directed against a new West German plan to erect a transmitter under control of the Bonn government in the sector of Berlin which is occupied by the British, French and Americans.

The Soviet Union traditionally has claimed that West German operations should not be permitted in West Berlin, since it is still Allied territory.

The children were so thrilled I can hardly get away from it to teach them anything else right now," said Mrs. Wray of the court tour. Ninety other students are scheduled for a similar tour in the circuit court's spring session.

Scientist Claims After Experiment Cranberries Not Harmful To Humans

NEW YORK (UPI)—The chemist whose laboratory experiments disclosed that a weed killer used on some cranberry crops produced cancer in rats said Wednesday night the tainted berries were not dangerous to humans.

Dr. Lloyd Shaffer, a toxicologist for the American Cyanamid Co., said his experiments with aminotriazole produced cancer in rats only after "continued administration over the lifetime of the rats at a relatively high dosage."

He said similar experiments with dogs produced no cancer.

"... If you ask me whether the very small amount of residue presented (in the tainted cranberries) is dangerous to people, I steadfastly maintain the answer is no," he said.

Shaffer said a human "would have to eat 15,000 pounds of cranberries a day for many years" before he would suffer any ill effect from consumption of the chemical residue.

The McGraw-Hill Chemical Week in an editorial prepared for the Nov. 28 issue supported Shaffer's view.

The magazine said a person would have to eat large amounts of the berries every day for more than 20 years to reach the feeding, test levels at which the weed killer first proved harmful.

"And nobody, but nobody, eats that many cranberries," Chemical Week added.

Professor Robert D. Sweet of Cornell University also denounced reports that the tainted berries might be dangerous to humans.

"As far as the danger is concerned," Sweet said, "I would rather take my chances with cranberries than smoke cigars."

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Arthur S. Flemming started the controversy Monday when he warned that a portion of the Washington and Oregon crops had been contaminated by the weed killer.

Some food chains and grocers across the nation withdrew their stocks from public sale.

Wednesday the Navy ordered its commands at home and abroad to halt serving the berries if they came from Oregon or Washington. The Army and Air Force were expected to follow suit.

Ever Try Apples?

A spot survey of the Sanford area today revealed that food store chain outfits and many small independent grocers have taken cranberries off their shelves.

One manager of the large chain store reported that he had received orders from officials of the firm that all cranberries must be taken off the shelves until further notice.

However, a survey of downtown residents revealed yesterday that even if cranberries were available in local stores, they wouldn't have anything to do with them.

"I don't care if the tainted fruit is from Oregon," said one woman. "How would I know where the berries come from. No sir, I'm not taking any chances."

Most of the residents seem to favor apples instead of cranberry for their annual Thanksgiving dinner.

"At least I know apples are safe," one downtown businessman said.

'Howling' Blizzard Leaves Five Dead In Montana

BILLINGS, Mont. (UPI)—A howling blizzard killed five persons and left Montana under more than a foot of snow today.

Ground and air transportation was snarled, hunters were trapped in the wind-swept Rockies and thousands of cattle were stranded by the swirling snow.

The worst storm of the winter, packing 50 mile an hour winds when it broke out of the high mountain ranges, pushed toward the northern and central plains.

Oviedo School Bid Opening Set Dec. 3

Bids on additions to two Oviedo Schools will be taken Dec. 3, the County school board decided today.

Superintendent R. T. Milner reported that the new classrooms will be added to the Oviedo Elementary School and seven classrooms to Oviedo High School.

Estimated cost of the additions could not be determined at this time.

The board also discussed reducing the school millage to five mills but no action is expected until the afternoon session.

County voters supported a proposed eight mill levy last week but at that time Milner said the board expects to reduce the millage to five.
