SCHOOL FUND DRIVE TO HOLD OUR TEACHERS WILL START MONDAY

Sanford Folks Appreciate Good Teachers and Will Pay Them

EVERYBODY HELP

WELFARE DEPARTMENT OF WOMAN'S CLUB IN CHARGE OF THIS GREAT WORK.

Beginning Monday morning a drive for funds will be inaugurated by Mrs. A. P. Connelly and her committee, to supplement the teachers salaries, that our children may have the benefit of the best trained teachers that can be secured. The present salaries paid are inadequate to meet their needs and cover the present day high cost of living. The teachers representative men and women of a community, are expected to keep pace with the times but the salaries are not proportionate. The amount for which the committee will strive will be five thousand ($5000.00) and surely there will be no one in Sanford who will not contribute in a drive so essential to the education of our children. There will be the usual house to house canvass and the business district will be visited. Associated with Mrs. Connelly are Mrs. E. M. Galloway, Mrs. S. Puleston and Mrs. W. L. Morgan. This committee represents the Welfare Department of the Woman's Club which has taken the initiative in an effort to secure better salaries for the teachers, and applies only to Seminole County.

BETTER SCHEDULE SHIPMENTS

CONGRESSMAN CLARK AND DRANE LOOKING AFTER FLORIDA FRUIT AND VEGETABLE GROWERS.

Washington, April 23.—Quicker movement of vegetables and fruit shipments between Florida and New York, with the schedule cut from the five to six-day ratio as between Florida and the metropolis as now to three or four days, is the agreement reached between the Interstate Commerce Commission and a gathering of fruit and vegetable growers and shippers held here today. This quickening of schedules will mean the saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the growers and shippers because it will mean a saving in decay caused by longer periods on the road and a keeping in closer touch with the markets. Prior to the government's taking over the railroads the time for a carload from points in Florida to New York was within four days but under government operation the schedule slowed to five and six days. Several days ago when the railroad strike began it was realized that unless drastic action should be taken to get the Florida products to Northern markets at the earliest possible moment the loss resulting would be incalculable. With this end in view the meeting was called, at which a plan was put up for consideration. This in brief provides that fruit and vegetable cars shall be run from Florida points to New York in from three to four days, so that there shall be no further damage. It is impossible to attach these cars to passenger trains, hence it has been decided to run them straight to New York from Florida on passenger schedules.

Congressman Drane thought at first on campaign business, worked effectively through his Washington office and Representative Clark was instrumental in securing a speedy adoption of this plan, which will save Florida growers a large amount of money.—Tampa Tribune.

Milwaukee Is Still Being Made Famous

Milwaukee, April 21.—Seven stills one cooler for a still, more than 100 gallons of raisin mash, about 1,000 pounds of raisins and more than forty forty gallons of moonshine have been seized in three raids conducted by policemen and prohibition agents here the past two days. It was the biggest series of raids in Wisconsin since prohibition went into effect.

Make 500,000 Fords in Half Year

When the first six months of the Ford Motor Company fiscal year ended January 30st, more than half a million of the sturdy little Fords had left the factory to join their three and a half million brothers and sisters on the world's highways. And Ford Officials express confidence in their ability to turn lose the other half of the million by July 30st, when their year ends.

However, they say that a million a year is far from the ultimate in motor car manufacturing; and that with the completion of the Blast Furnaces and Body Plants which Henry Ford is now building in Detroit, the yearly output is bound to assume larger dimensions. The present plant capacity is 1,200,000.

The Blast Furnace project on which Mr. Ford has been working for the past three years will enable the Ford Company to make Ford parts direct from the iron ore instead of buying the iron ingots and then melting them before making into parts. At the present time there are approximately 15,000 men engaged at the Blast Furnaces and in the new body plant. But it is quite probable that that number will be more than doubled once the Steel mills—which will be the largest in America—begin to operate. Ford men do not attempt to place any estimate on what the production of cars will be in the future, but point to the fact that they have been able to supply the demand for the past ten years and that at the present time there are some 200,000 unfilled orders on file.

Jacksonville May Have Municipal Ship Plant

Jacksonville, April 21.—This may be the first city in the United States to have a municipal shipbuilding plant of importance, local city and shipping board officers believe. Negotiations for the purchase of the Bentley concrete shipbuilding plant reached a definite stage last night when the city commission voted in favor of buying the plant.

HUNDREDS HOMELESS BY TORNADO

ALABAMA AND MISSISSIPPI PEOPLE WITHOUT HOMES, FOOD AND CLOTHING.

Birmingham April 23 (By Associated Press) Hundreds are left homeless in the storm swept sections of Alabama and Mississippi with only a few days food supply and many without sufficient clothing. The cases have been reported by J. T. Brechtel after a survey of the stricken districts.

Major Sells Overalls

St. Petersburg, April 21.—Noel A. Mitchell, mayor-elect and booster for the Old Clothes Club, today ordered 200 pairs of army overalls which he will sell to men here at fifty cents a pair. The overalls were bought from a supply house deals in government supplies that have been sold by Uncle Sam. The club here will hold a meeting tomorrow night and arrange for a demonstration to further the campaign against the high cost of living.

In Memoriam

Just one month ago today, March 23, the city was saddened by the death of Mrs. Mary A. Zachary, bringing sorrow into the hearts of the friends whom she numbered by the score. Possessing all of the beautiful attributes of true womanhood, a devoted wife and mother, a loyal friend and consistent church member, her death leaves, in the lives of those who knew and loved her best, a vacancy that can never be filled. As grandmother she was the idol of a large circle of childish hearts whose highest ideals were typified by the sweet and womanly representative of her sex.

Born near Oak, Orange County, N. C. February 2nd, 1850 Mary A. Cates was married to Mr. H. C. Zachary in 1868. Six children born of the happy union are left to mourn her loss, W. A., A. D. and Miss Bessie Zachary and Mrs. A. K. Powers of this city, J. W. Zachary of Coolidge, N. C. Mrs. J. C. Bridges of Raleigh, N. C. Two brothers, B. M. Cates of Tallahassee and one sister Mrs. Fannie Clark of Chappel Hill N. C. and a number of grandchildren also survive her.

Mrs. Zachary with her husband and children moved to Tallahassee in 1904 where they resided until the death of Mr. Zachary in 1905 when she came to live with her son in Sanford, A. D. Zachary. The deepest sympathy of hosts of friends go out to the family in their grief and sorrow, who with them, bow in submission to the will of Almighty God "who doeth all things well."

To know her was but to love her for she was a power of good on earth."

A short funeral service was held at the home with Dr. S. W. Salker pastor of the Methodist church officiating.

Accompanying the remains to Burlington N. C. where they were tenderly laid to rest, were A. D. and J. W. Zachary and Miss Bessie Zachary; Mr and Mrs. A. K. Powers of this city and Mrs. H. E. Bridges.

Bryan At Head Of Good Roads

T. Ed Bryan was elected president of the Central Florida Highway association, and L. P. Dickie, secretary at the meeting in Tallahassee Wednesday. Other officers include first vice-president, L. A. Whitney, St. Petersburg; second vice-president, M. O. Overstreet, Orlando; third vice-president, Thomas B. Pluckett, Perry; treasurer, J. H. Scales, Perry.

Many matters pertaining to the betterment of state roads were discussed and a resolution submitted by J. M. Gornto, of Mayo, recommending that the state road department give all possible aid to the counties through which state road No. 8, leading from Tallahassee, via Lamont Perry, Mayo, and Branford is routed, was adopted.

A committee will appear before the state road department next week in interest of the road named.

British Propaganda Seems Levelled at South Ports

MERCHANT MARINE

COULD NOT BE COMPETITION OF BRITISH LINES IF SHIPS WERE SOLD.

Washington, April 23.—Following evidences of an organized effort by alien interests to check the development of new American trade routes by forcing the immediate sale of our government-owned Merchant Marine and at the same time securing the cancellation of certain export rates, Matthew Hale, in behalf of the South Atlantic States association, has asked for an investigation of British propaganda in this country. He has addressed a letter on the eight senators representing South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia and Florida, calling their attention to the fact that Delos W. Cooke, associate director of British Cunard Lines, under Sir Ashley Sparks, heads the committee which will appeal to the Trunk Lines association and the Interstate Commerce commission for the cancellation of export freight rates to South Atlantic ports, which compete for traffic in the middle west with Halifax, a British port.

Attention is called to the agitation certain large shipping interests which formerly operated to a large extent under British flag, are conducting for the immediate sale and breaking up of our huge new merchant marine. This activity is said to be in direct accord with the policies desired by British shipping firms in their fear of American competition. It is claimed that some American railroad and shipping interests as well as commercial organizations have been induced by misrepresentation of facts, to cooperate with what is essentially, pro-British activity.

This Rheumatic Remedy Must Be Beneficial

Used in This Country for Over 40 Years and Distributed Throughout the Civilized World.

When a remedy for rheumatism has been widely used for more than 40 years and when that remedy is sold in every civilized land, it must possess unusual merit. Such a remarkable record is enjoyed by Warner's Safe Rheumatic Remedy, unequalled by any other and now annually adding to its laurels of two generations.

Authorities say rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood. Warner's Safe Rheumatic Remedy goes directly to the seat of the trouble to remove the uric acid from the system. It contains no harmful drugs or narcotics and is as its name implies a Safe Remedy.

Your parents and grandparents probably used Warner's Safe Rheumatic Remedy. If troubled with rheumatism, it has such a favorable history that its use has reached to every land where civilization has established the necessity of health. Thousands of letters have come extolling its merits. Try it yourself, if you suffer from this dreaded malady. Don't say you don't believe it will help you before you try it.

LEXINGTON LINE INCLUDES CARS FOR EVERY PURPOSE

Touring Car, "Thorobred" Sport Model, Lex-Sedan, Coupe and Sedanette Ferish Cars for Varying Requirements of Motoring Public

Renarkable for its adaptability to the varying uses of the motoring world, the new Series "S" Minute Man Six line of the Lexington Motor Company of Connersville, Ind., includes five models.

These are that dependable family model, the Minute Man Six Touring Car, which is decidedly in keeping with the times because of its greater utility, its lighter weight, its economy of operation and maintenance, and its all round efficiency and beauty.

All of the Lexington models are mounted on the Thoroughbred chassis. The Touring Car is a roomy five passenger job. Then comes that striking looking sport model, "The Thorobred" It seats four passengers in extreme comfort. It has those low, rakish lines that so appeal to the lover of the sporting model in motor types.

An appealing model, because of its all-year features, is the Lex-Sedan. In this car, the ordinary practice of motor coach building for motor cars has been reversed. The body is built to conform to the top, the effect of this new method of construction being that of the most expensive coachwork.

The Lex-Sedan is of the four-door type, with six side windows of equal size and square cornered.

Windows can be entirely removed if desired, a set of jiffy curtains being provided for emergencies that may arise with the windows out of the car. The Lex-Sedan seats five persons. Then comes the Lexington Coupe, a handsome job, and the Sedanette, which from very standpoint is one of the Sanford Hotel Association composed of Sanford and Orlando stockholders and the deal has been pending for several weeks subject to the decision of the various holders of the stock. The deal was engineered by J. D. Hall of the Ball Hardware Co., and Forest Lake president of the Seminole Bank both of whom were anxious to make the sale for the benefit of Sanford. Immediately after the sale yesterday a new company that will be known as the Lake Front Improvement Co., was formed and the new company took over the holdings of J. D. Hood and F. W. Mahoney consisting of all the land on both sides of Park avenue from Fullen street to the lake which is very valuable and gives the Lake Front Improvement Co., virtually all of the lake front land from Commercial street to the lake and from Palmetto avenue to the west side of Park avenue including the old Sanford House property that extends to First street.

The new company will be incorporated for $1,000,000 and was organized with the following stockholders, who will be the directors for the year: J. D. Hood, president, F. W. Mahoney, vice-president, H. C. DuBose, secretary and treasurer. Directors: George Hyman, Henry Nickel, Henry White, F. W. Mahoney, H. C. DuBose and J. D. Hood.

The extensive plans of the new company have not been made public but it is understood that several capitalists have been interested in this development and the old Carnes Hotel will be torn down at once and a new hotel will be built in the near future. Also, several first class and up to date apartment houses will be built on the property, the First street property will consist of several store rooms and many big improvements will be made by the new company.

The passing of the old Carnes Hotel or Sanford House marks one of the most interesting chapters in the history of this city. It was one of the first buildings erected in Sanford by General Sanford who laid out the city of Sanford over forty years ago and in its time has housed some of the greatest men in the public life of America. It had however outlived its usefulness many years ago and stood upon its former greatness only and but for the rebuilding and improvements made by the owner S. J. Carnes a few years ago would probably have been condemned. Being the real hotel site in this city it stood like a sentry on guard and for many years blocked the building of a new hotel here but the local people who were unafraid last season built the new Valdez Hotel since which time the usefulness of the old Sanford House lost some of its prestige and the passing of the old landmark was only a question of time.

If the present owners of this property which is probably the best in the state for hotel purposes will carry out the plans that they have in mind Sanford will not only be the greatest tourist city in the state but will be the greatest commercial center with all the many advantages of water and rail transportation coupled with all that Nature has done for Sanford supplemented by the hand of man and the future of this city is made.

The Herald congratulates these public spirited men who have made this sale possible. With the other progressive citizens of Sanford they will work miracles here and from the ancient pile that has stood in the way of improvements so long will rise a temple of stone and steel that will be an advance guard of the greatest city in Florida and the onward march of future greatness cannot any longer be stayed.

SANFORD AUTO DEALERS ORGANIZE

WILL MEET EVERY WEEK TO DISCUSS PLANS FOR THE BETTERMENT OF AUTOMOBILE CONDITIONS.

The Sanford Automobile Dealers Association was organized here Friday night at the Valdez Hotel at a meeting in which all the dealers of Sanford took part and promised their active support in carrying out the aims and purposes of the association.

H. G. Dieterich acted as chairman pro tem and called the meeting to order and among the visitors present assisting in the organization were B. B. Hudnall of Jacksonville, secretary and general manager of the Florida Automotive Dealers Association and F. C. Buchanan of Orlan to secretary and treasurer of the Orlando Automotive Dealers Association. These gentlemen made good talks on the good that had been accomplished in the state organization and in the Orlando association and the many benefits that accrue from a closer co-operation among the dealers of the state. After organizing the following officers were elected: H. L. Haight, pres., W. E. Walthall, vice-president, R. B. Wight, sec and tres. On the Board of directors Edward Higgins, Perry Jernigan, L. T. Bryan, H. G. Dieterich and L. Urban May.

The organization is for the purpose of obtaining a better and more uniform service on all makes of cars, a friendly spirit among the dealers, better business conditions and better service on the railroads regarding shipments of cars, good roads and traffic regulations and all matters pertaining to the business of selling automobiles and supplies.

The Sanford association will hold their meetings every Monday at noon at the Valdez Hotel.

NEED OF WATERWAYS BRO'T TO ATTENT'N OF ST. LOUIS MEETING

Our Inland Channels Fifty Years Behind Times

RAILROADS HELPLESS

AND CANNOT HANDLE THE INCREASED HAULING OF UNITED STATES.

Of vital interest to the people of Florida and especially to the people of this section is the great interest that is being aroused in the subject of water transportation. At the meeting this week in St. Louis of the Inland Waterways Conference the speakers were all in accord on the proposition that only inland waterways and more water transportation would solve the many questions of transportation in this country.

James Smith, its president, said the waterways of this country compared with those of England 50 years ago when the need of waterways as carriers was realized and when artificial channels were built.

"We have natural channels," he said, "but we do not seem to appreciate their worth."

James T. Cannon, speaking for the railroads, said the latter welcomed improved waterways because they brought more business to the railroads. The present situation, he said, "is sufficient evidence of the need of more waterways adequately employed."

"The railroad today views the waterway not as an undesirable competitor, but as a very necessary ally in the solution of the enormous national transportation problems which we are facing."

"The demands which the railroads are being called upon to meet are greatly in excess of their combined facilities. There is an existing unsupplied demand for 800,000 freight cars alone. Railroad men have admitted that every locomotive plant in the country would have to work at capacity for three years to enable the railroads even to catch up with the actual demands."

In assisting waterways to assume a considerable portion of the transportation burdens, the war department desires to become a material factor, he said, adding that operation of several large services already initiated was but a single, but vital, phase of this new undertaking. Within the next few months it was anticipated the complete river fleet, as originally planned for Mississippi operation by the railroad administration, would be of service, he said, the equipment totaling 10 steel cargo barges and six steel twin screw towboats.

Resolutions were presented demanding that congress pass the Newton bill providing that $65,000,000 be appropriated for waterways improvement and completion of channel widening projects on the Mississippi, Missouri and Ohio rivers begun 10 years ago.

FROM FERTILE FLORIDA

What is Going On in the Land of the Orange and Grapefruit

Martin.—Prospects for all crops are good, but about 15 per cent of the farm land will not be cultivated this year because of the scarcity of labor.

Wauchula.—The cool weather this week has delayed the maturing of vegetables and it will be another week before Wauchula is shipping in carlots.

Pahokee.—The price received this week for a deck load of cabbage brought in by the tugboat Bernice from river points to West Palm Beach, was $1.75 per hamper.

Webster.—The first beans of the season have been picked and brought to market. Cucumbers are moving from this section and a few shipments are being made through Plant City.

Bay County.—A much greater acreage will be put into cotton this year than last season and the sugar cane acreage will be increased 20-25 per cent. Farm labor is very scarce although available at 100-125 per cent increase over wages paid a year ago.

Plant City.—The cabbage market is holding steady or advancing a trifle. The first carload of Kelsey plums was brought in Monday and sold 20c qt. Other shipments for the week consisted of 8 crates of beets, 32 crates carrots, 135 crates celery, 15 crates cucumbers, 16 hampers lettuce, 12 crates onions, 12 boxes rutabagas, 10 crates turnips.

ALEXANDRA CURL IN FASHION

Hairdressers of England Take Up Style Introduced Fifty Years Ago.

London.—A new style of coiffure has been decreed by the hairdressers before most women seem to have mastered the latest arrangements.

The new style is what is called "the Alexandra curl," because it was introduced by Queen Alexandra when she was princess of Wales, some fifty years ago.

The hair is done high on the head and the curls fall over the neck, being from twelve to sixteen inches in length. They need not necessarily be the wearer's own curls.

It is claimed that this coiffure is becoming to the greatest number of women, whereas the side crease and the forehead exposure of the existing fashion is declared by the promoters of the innovation to be unbecoming to the greatest number.

But, becoming or unbecoming, experience teaches that if it becomes the fashion it will be universally adopted.

DENY EX-EMPEROR IS 'BROKE'

Vienna Officials Say Charles Has Currency and Jewels of Great Value.

Vienna, Austria.—Reports that former Emperor Charles is financially embarrassed are denied in a semi-official note issued here. It is asserted he has several million kronen, to which may be added the value of his own and former Empress Zita's jewels. It is denied that the government refused to deliver his private jewels until he returned all the gems he had taken to Switzerland. Restoration of only those jewels which were the property of the Hapsburg family, which, it is held, belong to the state, has been demanded.

Panama Canal Zone.

The United States did not acquire, by the Isthmian canal convention of November 18, 1903, any title to territory in the Republic of Panama, but merely a perpetual right of occupation, use, and control over a zone of land ten miles in width, and covering an area of 430 square miles. For this privilege it paid to Panama the sum of $10,000,000, and undertook to pay the sum of $250,000 annually so long as such occupancy continued. These payments began February 20, 1913.

MAGIC OF LAW PUTS MILLIONS IN 9 POCKETS

Forgotten Poor Cousins Share in Estate of Wealthy Oil Man.

Wealth Comes to Aged People Whose Lives Have Been Largely Filled With Hardships—Hunt for Heirs Is Difficult.

Wheaton, Ill.—Satisfied smiles spread over nine faces in the corridors of the red courthouse here recently, for nine persons, whose lives had been largely filled with hardships, knew that within a few weeks they would be rich. Rich is the only applicable word—wealth to these people had been nothing but a dream.

Judge S. L. Rathje of the DuPage county court had just indicated that five of the nine were legal heirs to the $1,000,000 estate of William P. Cowan, former president of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, who died at his Wheaton country home in the summer of 1918. The other four were husbands and wives of the heirs.

Nine to Share $2,500,000. With the establishment of heirship by the five relatives of the wealthy oil man the total number of heirs who will receive a share of the estate is nine. After expenses have been deducted, according to attorneys, the estate will total more than $2,500,000.

Each of the nine heirs will receive something like $200,000 when the inheritance taxes are paid.

Three of the heirs are more than seventy years of age, one is ninety, the youngest is forty-four years old.

None of them remember personally the man whose death brought them this benefaction. But two ever saw him. They look upon their inheritance as some vague dream of paradise.

The heirs who established their claims are:

- William Saxton, seventy-two years old, Engle, Mich.
- Walter Saxton, seventy-two years old, Waukegan, Mich.
- Charles Saxton, sixty-eight years old, Elsie, Mich.
- Mrs. Caroline Saxton Hart, fifty-eight years old, Grand Lodge, Mich.
- Mrs. R. B. Colby, forty-four years old, Cadillac, Mich.

William and Walter Saxton are twins. William is married and his wife was in Wheaton with him. Mrs. Colby and Mrs. Hart had their husbands along, too.

Other Cowan Heirs.

The other heirs who have established sufficient evidence of relationship to Mr. Cowan to win an indication of equity from Judge Rathje are:

- Judson Phelps, ninety years old, Detroit, Mich.
- Henry B. Stillwell, seventy years old, Groversville, N. Y.
- William G. Stillwell, seventy-two years old, Springfield, Mass.

Heirs at law of Mrs. Helen Shadwell, Plymouth, N. Y., who was ninety-five years old when she died a few weeks ago.

All of the heirs are cousins—first, second, or third. No nearer kin could be found by Alfred C. Hoy, public administrator of DuPage county.

The day's hearing before Judge Rathje did not close the case. A few more depositions must be taken, a few more weeks must elapse before the jurist can enter a decree. But the Saxton boys are happy.

When in 1918 it was learned that Mr. Cowan, a successful business man and one of the rich residents of the Chicago Golf club colony at Wheaton, had died and left no will, Wheaton wondered. Then it was announced that there were no heirs in this state. Mrs. Cowan's death had preceded her husband's, and there were no children and no brothers or sisters.

Public Administrator Hoy took immediate charge of the estate and appointed Charles W. Hadley and George Thomas his attorneys. Mr. Hadley is state's attorney of DuPage county and has a weakness for staring lies. Nine attorneys presented him with a new one in court.

For more than a year the only relatives Mr. Hoy could locate were the Stillwell boys, Judson Phelps, and Mrs. Shadwell.

A few months ago one of the Saxton boys, Walter, read a newspaper article which referred to Mr. Cowan's death and his estate. A few days later the Saxton claim was entered.

The Saxtons claimed to be the children of two daughters of Peter Cowan, Cayuga county, N. Y., the grandfather of William P. Cowan.

Their claim was established by a marriage license, census reports, old tintypes, and testimony. One of the twins saw Mr. Cowan when he was three years old. Another Saxton said he was born in the Cowan home. But further than that they had no personal recollection of their wealthy relative.

Views on Liquor. Walter and William Saxton are interested in airplanes, but they don't believe they will spend much of their fortune on the aircraft.

"You can get a drink of red eye or an airplane ride for $25," said Walter. "I believe the airplane ride would be the best. You can get the same results from either one. They'll both kill you."

Walter and Mr. Hart have been sections in different cemeteries ever since they can remember.

"We've been buryin' 'em fast as they'd die," said Mr. Hart. "But I reckon we'll retire now. Maybe not though."

Mrs. Colby isn't sure what she'll do with her money. Neither is Mrs. Charles Saxton sure what she will do with her husband's, but Elsie, Mich., is going to have some thrills, she said.

"I guess we could all go in the moving picture business," said Mrs. Catherine Hart. (She doesn't like to be called Carrie.) "But maybe we'll all retire now."

"Pretty hard to quit work," said William Saxton. "We've been working so long. Gee, I'm kinda glad we heard about it, though. No, I ain't got no daughters for any one to marry."

Mrs. Charles Saxton said she had two daughters, but thought they could take care of themselves.

Meantime 11 lawyers, who have been in the litigation, were conferring in the judge's chambers on a tombstone to be erected over Mr. Cowan's grave.

"I hope them lawyers leaves us some of the money," said Walter.

"MAGIC RING" COST $2,800

Failed to Render Woman Invisible and Seller Is Jailed.

Mme. Durant of Paris, approaching sixty, discovered furrows in her brow about the time she made the acquaintance of one Cosma, who persuaded her to let him try to make her young again. His tinctons and manipulations seemed really to have some such effect, for the wrinkles vanished and the lady's complexion became once more fair and rosy.

Looking young, she felt young, and when she met a good-looking army officer, who acted as if he admired her but felt too timid to speak, she consulted Cosma and he had an inspiration. He said he could make her invisible by means of a magic ring and she could thereby be in the company of her soldier and learn his innermost thoughts without his knowing she was there.

She paid Cosma $2,800 for the ring. The officer saw her just the same as before she had it, but she found it had made Cosma invisible when she went to inform him that the charm had not worked. On her complaint to the police Cosma was found. The court fined him $10 and sent him to jail for eight months.

ELDER SPRINGS WATER

THOMAS D. BAKER, Ph. D.
Analytical and Consulting Chemist - Professional of Natural Science
Emeritus, Rollins College, Florida
Private Laboratory of Rollins College
Winter Park, Fla., Nov. 5th, 1918

Mr. T. O. Charles
Dear Sir: Sanford, Fla.,

I have completed careful chemical analysis of the sample of water that you brought me early last week, and have obtained the following results:

Color	Clear	Chlorine	1.75 parts per million
Reaction	Neutral	Total solids	8.00 parts per million
Free Ammonia	00 parts per million	Hardness	23.03 parts per million
Albuminoid Ammonia	Trace	Nitrate	Trace

The absence practically of free and albuminoid ammonia in this water and its very small amount of chlorine indicates its excellent quality for household purposes. In addition to the good quality characteristics of superior household water, it possesses special features of much value, especially those of excellent natural aeration and LOW degree of hardness.

The bacteriological analysis, resulting in an average total count, in four samples of the water, of 3 bacteria per cent; and in finding no colon, or other harmful bacteria, fully confirm its good quality indicated by the CHEMICAL analysis.

Of the many waters of this and other regions that I have analyzed, I have found none superior in all good qualities to that of the "Elder Water."

Yours very respectfully,
(Signed) THOMAS D. BAKER

BACK A WINNER THE ENGINE WITHOUT A CRANKSHAFT

The Engine that is Destined to Revolutionize both the Gasoline and Steam Motive Power of the World SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES

DEVELOPS greater power; has 95 per cent starting power; a great saving of fuel and oil; light and compact; only two drive shaft bearings; less frictional bearings; valve timer without gears; no cranks in drive shaft; no fly wheel; no dead torque; applicable to steam, gas and compressed air; can be used anywhere where steam, air or gas motive power is desired

"I have spent about two weeks studying this engine by every method known in mechanical engineering. There is no doubt in my mind as to the merits of this engine and I am honest in the belief when I say this engine will revolutionize the motor world."

Man named Outlaw is running for sheriff of Osceola county. Something for the paragraphs to think about.

You must register by the 30th of this month if you intend to vote and if you do not intend to vote you may as well be dead.

Headline in Florida paper says "Did We Demoralize too Soon?" to which all the boys who were in it will yell in chorus, "We Did Not."

The big ball season open on May 10th and the first game will be played here on the 12th with Orlando. Let us have clean ball this season and no faking.

Bill Glenn of the Orlando Sentinel has the proper dope. He writes an editorial and then at the bottom adds, "all those who do not agree with us need not write as newspaper paper is scarce. That is the Re-a-l S-t-u-f-f, William."

The attorneys out in Minden Nevada have found Mary Pickford and Doug Fairbanks have money and they are now starting a little plan to call off the recent marriage of Mary and Doug. All of which will enrich those lawyers somewhat and leave Mary Owen Moore.

Hon. Forest Lake is receiving such encouragement from all parts of his district that it looks like he will be our next Congressman but he and his friends are not taking anything for granted. He will wage a most strenuous campaign from now until the 8th of June.

Report from Hastings says potatoes are selling for $19 per barrel. This will cost the ultimate consumer about $30 per barrel and we opine that there will be but few Irish potatoes eaten at that price. But if there is to be any money made anywhere, here's hoping that the Florida growers will get some of it before the price slides any.

The automobile dealers have formed an association here that will prove of great benefit to all of the members. There is nothing like getting together and helping each other instead of fighting each other. We all need to get together these days when everything is torn up with strikes and trouble of all kinds, with the attendant embargoes and slow freights and high price materials.

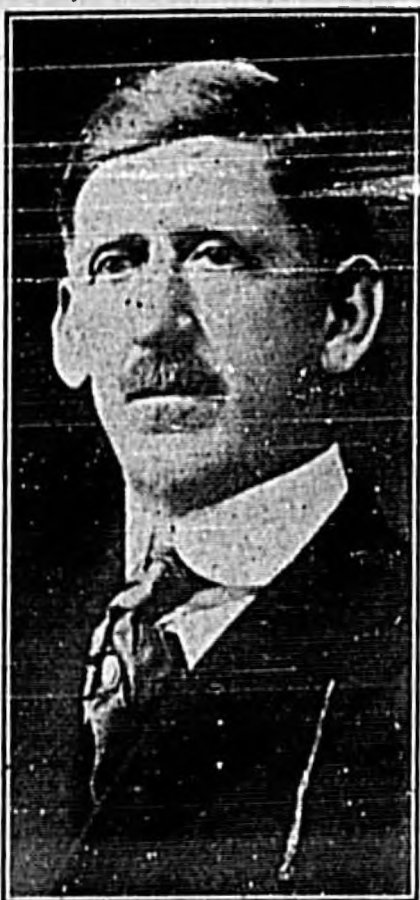

Gilbert Leach has a good "no fence law" and all he needs to get it passed at the next session of the legislature is to have a referendum attached to it. No matter how many of the members of the Florida legislature may feel about this law they will hardly dare to turn it down without letting the people vote on it and this will also relieve the members from taking a responsibility of voting something on their constituents that they may not want.

"Why should we worry about that false statement made regarding Florida soil recently?" asks the Sanford Herald, telling of the money received this season by celery growers of that vicinity. Celery is reported to have brought to Sanford growers $210,000 for the stuff shipped in a single week. This was at the height of the season, of course, but the 210 carloads only meant a portion of the crop, and the money kept rolling in as the cars rolled out. Sanford celery is now known and liked almost everywhere in the country and the new friends made for this fine vegetable means more extended marketing and good prices for even larger crops. Times Union.

New York City is passing through a crisis in its public school education which has never been experienced before. In one day 50,000 children were sent home from school because there were no teachers to take their classes. And in some instances older children turned to and did the teaching in some teacherless school rooms.

New York City has long had the reputation of paying better salaries to their teachers than any other city. Certainly their system of teachers advance in salary and in pensions was, in the old days, admirable. But even New York City did not pay its teachers as it has paid its city employes, nor, for the invaluable work they do, on a ratio equal to the city sanitary department, garbage men, street sweepers and city hall employes.

LAKE FOR CONGRESS

When a man has lived the greater part of his life in one particular section, has been active in every business enterprise, has been mayor of the city, has been a member of the legislature for three terms and has been an upstanding, straight from the shoulder citizen who never dodged an issue and yet has the respect and esteem of his fellow citizens he may have some enemies. Every real man has them. But when that man offers himself for Congress from his district and has his home people solid behind him it means that he can carry his district for he goes into the fray with the feeling that his own people are with him and he can assure those who do not know him that where he is known they respect him for what he has done for his city, county and state and it goes a long way for any candidate to have his neighbors rally to his standard when he is seeking a position public trust. Forest Lake of this city, candidate for Congress, has his home county solid behind him and it gives him confidence in the result. His home people are giving him the loyal support that will land him in the position of Member of Congress from the Fourth Congressional District.

NEW ERA IS DAWNING

The sale of the old Sanford House property on Monday was one of the greatest events in the present day life of Sanford. It is the fore runner of larger events that loom upon the business horizon of this city. The building of the new Valdez Hotel was the beginning of the new era in Sanford and meant only the start of the greatest move that has ever been made in this city or in Florida. For many years this city with all the natural advantages that are needed to make cities great lagged behind in the procession of progressive cities in the state. All of the attention of the people of Sanford was directed at the farming industry. All the publicity and advertising was leveled at the game of farming. The farming industry could and would have taken care of itself and the work of the publicity departments should have been directed toward hotel and apartment house building and this city today would have numbered twenty thousand people within our gates. Too long people let George do it and refused to bestir themselves toward helping nature in the bestowal of bounteous gifts that go to make a city not only in Florida but in every state in the Union. With all the untold advantages offered by this city it was only a question of time when the changes would take place even if the people waited long enough and it began to look like they would wait until the majority of the progressives would all be dead. Should a public spirited citizen start something in the days gone by he was usually blocked by the people who wanted nature to take her course even in town building. Now however all this has changed and Sanford will take on new life and new appearance and new methods. And it remained for home people to build the new hotel. It remained for home people to take over the Carnes Hotel property and it will be home people who will take the lead here in making Sanford the city it should be and when home people start something of this nature they can usually get all the foreign capital they want for the further development of their plans. It still remains for the people here to whole heartedly take up the responsibility of building a real city here. It remains for the home people to get together and stay together on the vital question of making Sanford great and it remains for the home people to show the world that they have such faith in their home town that they would not only put their last dollar into the building of the city but they should have such faith in their city that other people will become imbued with the idea of investing here and making Sanford their home. There is much to be done here. The good work has only started. The great work of building more hotels, more apartment houses, more homes, golf links, country club and yacht club and boat basin and amusement pavilion and beautifying the lake front is yet to be accomplished. But the spirit that has surmounted the obstacles of the past will survive the greates of the future and no amount of cold water will quench the fires of enthusiasm of the town boosters who will now take a hand in building Sanford into the city of our dreams.

It means getting together on the subject of making Sanford great and leaving out all petty differences, all petty jealousies, all political differences, all narrow minded policies, all grasping and greedy methods, all mustack tendencies.

Let's go.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan, with electric self-starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires front and rear, for every day in the year has no equal as a family car. Just as popular on the farm as it is in the city. In fact, it fits the family demands in every vocation of life. Large, roomy seats, finely upholstered, plate glass windows make it an open car in pleasant weather, while in rainy and inclement weather it becomes a closed car, dust-proof and rain-proof. It is not only comfortable, but really cozy, and above all, economical in operation and maintenance, and has all the Ford merits of strength and durability.

The 1920 COMET SIX

There are two different standards by which a car is judged--a mechanical standard and an artistic standard. The 1920 Comet Six is a car that can qualify easily in both respects. It is mechanically RIGHT. It will give you the service that you want and that you should expect from the car in which you invested your money. The soft throb of the motor sends a thrill thru your very veins--so sure, so alive, so finely adjusted--with enough reserve force to more than meet every requirement. And the motor is backed up by perfected mechanism, throughout.

Artistically it is RIGHT. The long body-lines of this 1920 Comet are unusually graceful. The color schemes are exceptionally pleasing. The accessories are complete and correct. It possesses the finish of the highest priced cars. The 1920 Comet gives you power; perfectly controlled, with riding and driving comfort, and ably supported with "good looks."

Honoring Miss Weaver

A delightful social affair was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. E. S. Hoskins when she entertained in honor of her niece, Miss Weaver, this being her birthday anniversary.

The decorations of pink and green added much to the attractiveness of the parlor reception and dining halls, with vases and baskets of sweet peas and ferns forming a most pleasant picture.

In spite of the inclement weather a host of friends came. Upon their arrival they were admitted to the dining room Mrs. Gillon and Mrs. Piplar graciously presided over the punch bowl. Music was enjoyed throughout the evening. Majorie in her charming little ways and "Cutie", while Mrs. Giles with her wonderful contralto sang beautifully "Sunshine of Your Smile", this being a rare treat to each guest. After which a musical contest creating much laughter and merriment was enjoyed.

At the conclusion of the contest, cream and cakes were served and a "Dollie" with pink and green ribbons was given each guest.

Guests enjoying the occasion were: Mrs. A. F. Holl, Mrs. A. Speer, Mrs. Joe Azurilla, Mrs. G. W. Messenger, Mrs. Hillman Lilla, Mrs. Fryer, Mrs. Alfred Lilla, Mrs. W. F. Shelly, Mrs. O. P. Herndon, Mrs. Giles, Mrs. W. D. Gillon,

In Honor of Bride Elect

St. Agnes Guild, noted for its beautiful entertainments in honor of the various members married from their circle, was again hostess on Monday afternoon, complimentary this time to its youngest member, Miss Vera Terheuse, whose marriage to Mr. Jarvis Wellington Roe will take place Thursday April 29th. The attractive home of Mrs. Archie Betts was very lovely with its adornment of garden flowers gracefully intermingled with quantities of asparagus fern. Sweet peas and roses carried out the prevailing color scheme of pink and white. In the dining-room, fragrant sprays of sweet peas adorned the refreshment plates. The predominant note of pink was seen in the salad and ice courses.

In the other rooms a profusion of garden flowers lent their beauty to the charming setting for the group of pretty young women gathered in honor of the young bride elect.

In the course of the afternoon each guest was presented with a clothespin to be remodeled into a pink dressed doll, the prize for the best dressed falling to Mrs. Belding, while Mrs. Leonard drew the booty. To the honor of the happy occasion was presented a lovely cream and sugar in cut glass.

Junior Chapter B. S. A. 1254 Entertained

For the older Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew, Robert Denton as Seety sent an invitation to Mr. Theo. L. Meade and his Boy Scouts of Oviedo to come and spend the evening at the Brotherhood Rooms of Holy Cross Parish. On Saturday, Mr. Meade and his boys came where they were entertained in the Brotherhood Room in the Bowling Alleys and in the Parish House by many varied games. Our Brotherhood boys served orange crush during the afternoon and also ice-cream on the Church lawn. At 6 p. m. there was found spread a bountiful picnic supper in the Parish House. The Oviedo Scouts went away with the idea that the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew is well equipped in Sanford with its moving-picture machine, its games in its Brotherhood room, its Bowling alleys and its gymnasium outfit. We want Oviedo back again soon.

Informal Afternoon Musicals

Among the pleasant informal events of the week was the charming little musicale with which Mrs. J. B. Ray entertained a few friends at her home on the Heights, Tuesday afternoon. A simple charm prevailed in the decorations of spring flowers and an elaborate refreshment course was served. Among the guests were Mrs. Arthur Huzzard who leaves next week for her new home in Augusta, Ga. Mrs. T. L. Dumas and Miss Agnes Dumas who will leave for Charleston at the same time and Mrs. J. N. Robson.

Graduating Class Guests of Miss Spencer

One of the most charmingly informal and delightful affairs in young people's circle given in some time in Sanford was the bungalow apron and overall party given by Miss Carolyn Spencer Tuesday evening at her home on Sanford Heights, her guests being the Senior Class of '20 of the High School faculty. The home was prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns and a delicious refreshment course was served. Games and humorous contests whiled away the happy hours, and the guests dispensed at a late hour ready for the next party for the commencement season is one of joy and frolic for the Seniors and Juniors of Sanford High.

Born to Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Lazarus of Brooklyn a fine boy. Mrs. Lazarus was formerly Miss Florence Frank of this city.

Bryan Answers Criticisms
Says He Was Not Responsible for the Fertilizer Bill

Mr. R. J. Holly, Editor, Sanford Herald, Sanford, Fla. Dear Sir:

It has come to my knowledge that there is some criticism of me among some of the farmers of Seminole county, concerning House Bill No. 51, known as "The Fertilizer Bill", which I introduced at the last session of the Legislature. Along with this criticism there is evidently some misunderstanding, and there has been some misrepresentation by someone who is either not familiar with the facts or who is seeking to injure me in my ambition to be the next State Senator from the Nineteenth Senatorial District.

I am, therefore, asking space in your valuable paper in which I shall endeavor to state the facts concerning the introduction and handling of this bill. I am always willing to stand on my record and I believe all fair minded men who will inform themselves as to the exact happenings, will reach the conclusion that no injury was intended to the farmers anywhere. Where I live the farmers of Osceola county are all friends and customers of mine, and do not believe that I would do anything that would injure them in any way.

During the session of 1917, at the request of Captain R. E. Rose State Chemist, I introduced, late in the session a bill creating a separate Chemical department for the State, and included in the bill was a revision and putting together of the Pure Food, Drug, Food and Fertilizer laws that were then in force. It was so late in the session that no progress was made with the bill but Mr. Woodruff, who then represented Seminole county in the Legislature, told me the farmers of Seminole county were pleased with the bill, and if I were returned to the Legislature he and they hoped I would pass such a bill. I am familiar with Feed and Fools, know of the need of a better law governing the sale of these. The State of Florida is, in a measure, the dumping ground for foods of low quality that other states will not permit to be sold in their borders. Thinking I could perform a service to the state by the revision of these laws I determined to introduce such a bill and, as Captain Rose was familiar with the workings of the same I wrote and asked him some weeks before the Nineteenth Session of the Legislature met, to draw a bill along the lines of the bill he introduced in 1917, and to include in the bill an act regulating the sale of insecticides as there was no regulation of this, and a great many Sprays and Insecticides were being sold that were worthless. He drew a bill and sent it to me. I read it over carefully and did not see anything wrong with it. I asked our County Agent, Mr. Javens, to look it over and he pronounced it good. I introduced the bill on April 10th. The record shows on Page 117 of the House Journal that the bill was referred to the Committee on Agriculture. The committee on Agriculture had the bill printed, and soon after a committee from Sanford representing the Sanford farmers, came up to Tallahassee and protested against the passage of the bill. This was the first information that I had that the bill did not suit them. I met with the committee and they pointed out to me the difference in the old Fertilizer Law and the proposed Law, and their objections to the change. I told them that the bill would never be allowed to pass unless the amendments as they suggested to me at that meeting were adopted, as it was largely for their benefit that I introduced the bill, and I wanted them to be satisfied, and that I would see that the amendments were put on the bill when the committee on Agriculture met to consider it. The delegation from Sanford stated to me that they were perfectly satisfied with it. The delegation from Tallahassee would go back home feeling sure that I would do nothing to hurt them.

The Committee on Agriculture kept putting off the hearing on this bill until it appeared to me that there was a persistent effort to let the Bill die in Committee Room.

Under the rules of the House, a bill must be reported by a committee within ten days, and if it is not, then the introducer of the Bill can ask that it be taken from the committee and placed on calendar for passage or consideration by the House.

The record shows, on House Journal page 577, as follows: (Upon request of Mr. Bryan, House Bill No. 51, was withdrawn from Committee on Agriculture and placed on the calendar.)—Then some one in Tallahassee wired to Sanford stating that I was undertaking to railroad the Bill without giving those interested a hearing—Another delegation came, and the Committee on Agriculture stated that they wanted a hearing on the Bill. I was glad for the interested parties to have a hearing and if there was anything wrong with the Bill I did not intend to try to pass it. On May 1st the record shows on page 603 of the House Journal, as follows:

"Mr. Bryan moved that House Bill No. 51 be re-committed to the Committee on Agriculture, and that House Bill No. 51 retain its place on the calendar, whether reported favorably or not. Which was agreed to."

I submit that this doesn't look like trying to railroad the Bill. On May 9th the House Journal, page 1055, shows the report of the Committee with the recommendation that the Bill do not pass. The next mention of Bill No. 51, shows on House Journal, page 2373—That House Bill No. 51 was withdrawn from the calendar.

This is the complete record of the bill as the House Journal shows it and it is correct.

The charge that is being made that I tried to pass the Bill without the amendments agreed on, is not true, neither do I own any stock any fertilizer concern. My sole object in introducing the Bill was that the old law might be improved on and I yet contend that there is room for improvement in the Feed and Food Laws.

I hope that those that have believed that I tried to railroad this Bill will inform themselves and give me the benefit of a just investigation. I am perfectly willing to stand on my record on this or any other measure that I introduced in the House. I only want people to inform themselves correctly as to my record.

I wish to thank you Mr. Editor, for the privilege of making this statement in your paper, and I appreciate your fairness.

Sincerely,
(Adv.) N. C. BRYAN

Sure-Footed Goral

Among the strange animals that came under the observation of Roy Andrews, who conducted an expedition into further China for the American Museum of Natural History, was the goral, a mountain goat. "I have seen a goral," says the explorer, "run at full speed down the side of a cliff that appeared to be almost perpendicular."

Men's First and Last Things.
One of the first things a child wants to do is to get its hands on a lead pencil and make some zigzag marks on a sheet of paper, which it happily tells its happy mother is a letter to daddy. About the last thing an old man thinks of doing is to get an old stump of a lead pencil and tremblingly make notes for his lawyer, indicating to whom he wants to will his property.

Pioneers in Pencil Industry.
The first lead pencil manufacturer in the United States was William Monroe of Concord, Mass., who, in 1812, invented a process by which he pulverized and mixed the material and incased it in cedar holders. He was very successful in selling his product and continued the business for a year and a half, when he was obliged to give it up on account of the difficulty in obtaining raw materials. Another pioneer in the industry was Joseph Dixon, who commenced business in 1827.

More Fla. Cucumbers Planted

Jacksonville, Fla., April 16—H. A. Marks, of U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, says a few packages of early cucumbers have been moved from Center Hill, Webster and Wauchula. In the Winter Garden section there are close to 500 acres of cucumbers this season. Through cucumbers will be moving 10 days. Open ground cucumbers are growing well and show a good stand but are later than usual, and the movement will begin about May 1 but will be heavier after the 10th. The area planted to cucumbers this season in Florida is estimated to be 5,040 acres, as compared with 4,571 acres for last season. YANKEE WOMAN ARAB CAPTAIN

Red Cross Worker in Palestine Has Regular Commission.

CARRIES SPECIAL PRIVILEGES

Appointment Given in Recognition of Her Ability in Organizing the Work of the American Red Cross for Damascus—Tells Interesting Story of Her Experiences With Orientals—Takes Charge of Orphanage.

An American woman for the first time in the history of Palestine, has recently been appointed a captain in the Arabian cavalry. She is also the first and only woman to receive such recognition from any oriental government.

Mrs. Anna L. Fisher of Santa Barbara, Cal., is the little woman who has thus been uniquely distinguished. With her appointment to the Arabian army goes a very unusual privilege—the right to wear the dress, a strikingly picturesque costume, of "one attached to the royal household."

Mr. Fisher's appointment is in recognition of her ability in organizing the work of the American Red Cross for Damascus. This brought her into constant touch with the Arabian officials, and when at the end of the war the Red Cross completed its work in Damascus the new Arab government asked that she be left behind and assigned to detached service with the Hedjaz government.

It was in February of 1918 that she was sent from the United States as a member of the Red Cross commission to Palestine and was finally located at Damascus to take charge of an orphanage for Armenian refugee children who had been saved by the English from torture, starvation and death at the hands of the Turks.

There were 300 Armenian refugee children from three to fifteen years of age gathered in the orphanage, so called. It was located in a small country town in the suburbs of the city. When Mrs. Fisher took charge she found the home lacked about everything an institution of the kind should have to make it comfortable, but principally like most oriental dwellings, it needed water. But water, Mrs. Fisher in genuine American fashion made up her mind, was one thing she must have first of all.

Sex Causes Trouble. A couple of days afterward oriental workmen were on the job, but they had never pictured a woman in the role of master, much less tried it in actual practice. Referring to the evening day, Mrs. Fisher says: "I had untold trouble.

"Take my master plumber. He was a most extraordinary person, wearing a fez at an extreme and picturesque angle on the back of his head, a heavily embroidered short jacket, a brilliant embroidered shirt and baggy trousers, but, despite all this dandy, he was barefooted. Even his cheeks were rouged and his lower eyelids darkened. He possibly was the first oriental to realize that a woman in command might be a serious proposition. Had he not been a really hard worker I never could have stood his constant reiterations that Allah was his father, I was his mother and that food would not pass his lips or sleep come to his eyelids until his work was done!

"The oriental mind could not fathom why I needed water, particularly in such large quantities. After going through an endless chain of officials I managed to get to the minister of public works, who granted me permission to have 2,000 gallons of water a day and sewerage connections with the main pipes in the street. Then came the question of finding a tank. The director of public works solved the problem by lending me one that belonged to the government, but it would only hold 740 gallons. After many trials, fortunately as amusing as irritating, I succeeded in getting all the plumbing in, after the English had delegated a captain of engineers to help me.

"My first glance at my official family at the orphanage was enough to give me the horrors.

Children Are Afflicted. "It was my initial contact with babies, the scourge of the East. Fully half the children were afflicted with it, some in extremely virulent condition, and scarcely more than six of the whole 300 were normal. They were in charge of Armenian volunteers in much the same condition.

"Seeing the children's condition, I decided to have disinfecting rooms which would communicate directly with the street, without allowing any child to come directly into the house until cleaned up. Under this arrangement the children were brought into a receiving room where there were attendance nurses, aids and doctors. The children were stripped, shaved given a disinfecting bath, wrapped in sheets and then examined by the doctors. The condition of the children determined their clothes, as I used a color scheme for telling the different diseases with which the children were afflicted. Dark blue clothing beamed normal, healthy children. Pink was for youngsters with skin diseases; light blue signified diphtheria or trachomatous diseases, while yellow designated contagious.

"The children's beds—many of the poor things had never seen such luxuries before—were likewise designated by colors.

"The mental condition of the orphans when I took over the institution seemed almost hopeless. They had been through such unspeakable horrors that in many cases they were mentally unsound, and these children were usually ringleaders of trouble. It took a firm hand to deal with them, but after a few evidences of strict discipline there was little trouble.

Light Failure Startles. "Any unexpected happening at the orphanage, however, always caused mental demoralization. One night, just at bedtime, all the electric lights in the house went out suddenly. Just as suddenly one of the girls screamed, and pandemonium broke loose. I set out alone for the English army headquarters, from which I returned shortly with three 'Tommys' and a corporal. The confidence of the children returned at once.

"The next day English officers called, talked the matter over and decided to give the orphanage a permanent guard at the gate all day and five guards on the roof at night.

"Within a week after we had our water supply at the orphanage in running order, although most of the children had never before been accustomed to regular bathing in their lives, the trouble was not to keep them sufficiently bathed but to avoid more than two baths per hour per child!

The American bubble fountains I had installed in the courtyard for the children to drink at were an endless joy.

"As soon as I learned to know the children and to judge of their characters, I instituted a plan of self-government. A body of twelve policemen was formed, with a chief of police. They wore on their breasts a large red cross with embroidered white letters 'O. P.'—Orphanage Police. It was their duty to settle any minor disputes unless things became too serious, when the culprit was brought to me."

Seeking Lost Mother. Girl Stolen 22 Years Ago Making Effort to Locate Parent.

A three-year-old girl, stolen from her mother 22 years ago in New York by a woman from a circus and reared by her kidnapper without learning the circumstances of her birth, is now grown and married and has just learned her life story. In the hope of finding her parents she wrote a letter to the New York bureau of missing persons. The letter follows:

"Dear Sir: I am writing you for a little help in trying to locate my sister and brother. I am the missing person, and it was around about 1898 I was taken away from my mother by a circus woman.

"I have never seen my mother, sister or brother from that day to this. I have only just learned about myself through the girl who took care of me, but she can't remember if my name is Wright or Knight.

"Now, if you can locate Charles Knight, or Wright, who has a missing sister, Susie, he ought to know. I had a sister, Pauline, also. I was known on the stage as Zella Earl up to five years ago, then I married."

The letter is signed by Mrs. William T. Pickard, of Tonawanda, N. Y.

Hairy Elephants. Historians tell us that, in prehistoric times, mighty mastodons and mammoths were covered from head to tail with a very coarse hair which, in many cases, grew long. So the elephant's forefathers had long hair but, as the world changed with regard to weather conditions, from the bitter frosty glaciers that were encountered to the modern climate of extreme heat and cold, the elephant gradually doffed his overcoat. The hair sometimes seen on the top of his head alone remains as a reminder.

SUPERVISION OF WOOL IS ENDED

Four or Five Steps Necessary to Finish Work of War Industries Board.

SETTLE WITH 3,865 DEALERS

Reports Must Be Audited, Analyzed and Excess Profits Determined and Disbursed—Refunds in Many Cases Will Be Small.

Washington.—The department of agriculture is winding up the affairs of the domestic wool section of the war industries board. This work involves four distinct steps, and it seems probable that a fifth will be necessary. The first step is to secure, on forms furnished by the department, sworn reports from the 3,865 country dealers and the 170 distributing dealers to whom the war industries board issued permits to deal in wool of the 1918 clip.

The second involves the auditing of these reports in detail to determine whether the methods pursued and the profits made are in accordance with the regulations.

The third is the collection of excess profits from those persons or firms whose reports, after auditing, show that such excess profits were made. As rapidly as they are received by the department, all remittances for excess profits are being deposited as a special fund in the treasury of the United States.

The fourth is a careful analysis of each report which shows excess profits with a view to working out the fairest possible method of distributing such profits. After this is done, the department proposes to disburse the excess profits by check of its own disbursing officer drawn on the treasury of the United States.

The fifth step will be an audit, in the field, of the books and records of dealers whose reports for any reason seem to make this course advisable.

The first division of the work has been very nearly completed. A relatively small number of approved dealers have failed to make reports, and it is believed that the transactions of many of these were so small as to be practically negligible.

It has been discovered that several hundred wool dealers carried on their business as usual during 1918 without obtaining permits. As the names of these dealers have been ascertained they have been required to furnish reports similar in respect to those required from permit holders and to pay over their excess profits whenever it appears that they have made more than the regulations allowed. In other words, they are not allowed to derive any advantage from having operated in ignorance or violation of the regulations. The discovery of many of these unauthorized dealers was impossible until the reports of the 170 dealers in distributing centers were audited, since the entire wool clip of the country eventually passed through their books either as purchases or consignments.

The second division of the work, that of auditing the reports received, is progressing rapidly as the force available will permit, and the collection of excess profits proceeds as the audit of each separate case is completed.

Pay All at Same Time.
As rapidly as excess profits are received from any dealer they are apportioned to the individual growers to the extent to which their identity is disclosed, but the actual payments are being withheld until the collection of excess profits is more nearly completed, in order that practically all the growers may receive their checks at approximately the same time.

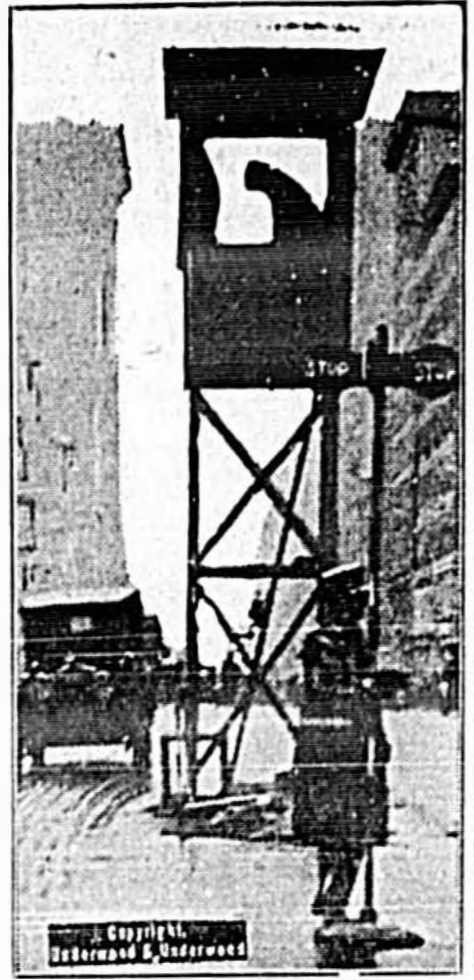

The reports of many country dealers show no excess profits. Relatively small amounts of excess were made by most of the others, and the refunds to individual growers in many cases will be very small. In other words, the refunds will amount in the aggregate to several cents per pound upon all the wool which the dealer handled. The greater part of all excess profits, according to a report of the department, "appears to have accumulated in the hands of certain distributing center dealers who purchased largely through direct agencies in producing sections. Many of the distributing center dealers, who handled wools on consignment only and whose profits were necessarily limited to the commissions paid by the government, appear to have no excess. In the discussion of this subject in press, the fact that nearly two-thirds of the wool clip of the country is so-called territory wool from the Western and Pacific coast states, which was handled almost exclusively on consignments, and therefore furnished an opportunity for the accumulation of excess profits, has, to some extent at least, been overlooked."

Gift Costly to Giver.
London.—Giving a deserving case 60 cents cost a Tower Bridge man $50. The delighted recipient gave him a "pat" on the shoulder which knocked him through a plate glass window. "Good you didn't give him 5 shillings," observed the magistrate, ordering the unlucky philanthropist to pay for damages done.

by this last message found on one of the force caught in a terrible blizzard: "Lost, horse dead; am trying to push ahead. Have done my best." There never was a more deserving motto for any force than the last words of this lying member of the scarlet and gold. "Have done my best."

And so it has been in the arctic wilderness or on the blizzard-swept prairie, whether serving the empire in the Strathcons in South Africa, or in the Garry Horse on Flanders' fields, the riders of the plains have always done their best. Harvard graduate or Canadian farmer, Texas cowboy or French-Canadian voyager, the English aristocrat or the Scotch breed of the prairie, the scarlet and gold held them all, and always they did their best. Fifty years they have been the guardians of the wilds. The wilds have disappeared, and so does this grand old corps, leaving as a heritage the best traditions in service and loyalty.

The longest railway tunnel on the American continent is the Rogers pass tunnel on the Rocky mountain division of the Canadian Pacific line, which is five miles in length and runs under Mount McDonald, in the Selkirk range. It was constructed at a cost of more than $10,000,000.

CONFERENCE ON TREATY ULTIMATUM

French Want To Use
Soldiers, England
Economic Plan

SERIOUS PROBLEM

STARVING GERMANY WOULD RESULT IN CHAOTIC CONDI-TIONS AND DEFEAT AIMS OF TREATY.

San Remo April 20.—The allied representatives here, although too busy with the problems before them to do much in an informal way, have conferred on an ultimatum to be sent Germany on the execution of the treaty of Versailles. It does not appear, however, that their consultations have led them beyond an agreement that something of a mandatory character must be sent to the German government, differences in view as to the exact nature persisting.

Premier Lloyd George, it was understood, is holding tenaciously to the view that economic penalties be proposed if Germany does not conform to the treaty's terms. France's contention on the other hand, is that it would be more cruel to stop sending food supplies into Germany and put a stop to her supplies by shutting off her raw materials than to occupy a few districts with allied troops until Germany changed her attitude.

From the standpoint of internal order the French statesmen also conclude that limiting factories to work would be more dangerous than restricted occupation.

The council concluded its examination of the Turkish treaty at the formal session. An official statement from the premiers said:

"This morning's conference discussed the financial clauses of the Turkish treaty. The conference afterwards discussed territorial questions, especially the frontier question. Before adjourning the conference took up the question of "Baton."

St. Johns Presbytery In Meeting

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IS SCENE OF FINE MEETING WITH MANY VISITORS.

From Wednesday's Daily

The St. Johns Presbytery is holding a most interesting meeting here this week last night being the opening night. Dr.
Brownlee acting as moderator called the meeting to order last night and Rev Irvin was made moderator. Special singing led by Rev. Patterson of Bradentown and special music by the Presbyterian choir was followed by a fine sermon delivered by Rev. Patterson who preached the opening sermon in place of Rev. R. N.
Abraham of Wildwood who was detained at Orlando and did not arrive until later in the evening.

Dr. Patterson stressed the necessity of people taking their authority from the bible and took up the questions of the day bringing out the point that every enterprise and every business and the success of nations are founded upon the bible and to deviate from the real teachings of the bible is to be lost and to wander in the darkness and misunderstandings of not only ignorance but the confusion of ideas that should all be merged into the composite whole of perfect understanding as set forth in the word of God.

After the roll call of the churches represented in the Presbytery and acceptance of the program the meeting adjourned to meet again today when much business of great importance to the Presbyterian church and to Christian churches generally will be transacted.

At ten o'clock this morning the devotional service was led by Dr. T. J.
McConnell of Umatilla and at 11 o'clock
Dr. H. T. Chisholm of Tampa preached the sermon at which the communion was given.

Dr. Venable of Jacksonville who is greatly beloved by Sanford people preached at 3 o'clock and after the regular business meetings the visitors will be taken a ride through the Sanford farms as guests of the Sanford Board of Trade.

Tonight Dr. Tims of Tampa will preach the sermon and it is expected that many of the people here of all denominations will attend. The meetings are all open to the public.
