THE WELFARE DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB HOLD MOST INTERESTING MEETING

"Child Training" Presented Very Ably

BETTER GOVERNMENT

AND CIVIC REFORMS DISCUSSED AT LENGTH BY CITY MANAGER AND THE LADIES

The meeting of the Welfare Department at the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon was well attended, with a goodly sprinkling of teachers and mothers present to enjoy the program and benefit by the excellent suggestions contained in the paper "Child Training", presented by Mrs. E. D. Brownlee. Among the many good things offered by Mrs. Brownlee was the idea that added to the sensible training of our mothers and grandmothers, was the broader vision of the modern woman and her opportunity for careful study of the child. Development of the senses was also stressed with concentration and observation, the method then which the senses should be keenly developed. The paper was one of the most comprehensive, tho' condensed and contained excellent suggestions along various lines in the life of a child from infancy, then the adolescent period of boyhood and girlhood in the home training and play, reading and study, that if followed would solve many perplexing problems of motherhood. Other enjoyable numbers on the program was the song "Mother" by Mrs. Claude Hgdon and "Baby's Boat" by Mrs. Terwilliger, both of whom are among Sanford's sweetest singers.

The business period presided over by Mrs. B. W. Herndon, chairman of the department, preceded the program at which time important business was disposed of and interesting discussions took place as to how the civic funds should be used. The consensus of opinion was to the effect that as being made by the club for civic betterment would be to install a white way on First street and on motion of Mrs. W. E. Watson this was finally accepted. Mrs. B. W. Herndon was unanimously nominated chairman of the department for the season of 1920-1921 and Mrs. James Moughton was appointed to serve on the election committee for the general election in March.

Mr. Gerard Abbott, City Manager was present and gave a practical talk on co-operation of the club and city, assuring the Club of the support of the management especially in the matter of a community building on the lake front. He distributed cards requesting those present to signify, in their opinion the rate of speed that should govern automobiles driving in the city and if the ordinances should be reduced by the speeders given the preference. The audience inclined in favor of the ordinance with a maximum rate of 15 miles per hour.

Mr. Abbott gave information relative to the cost of a white way and called attention to the "Complaint Department" of the city which would gladly handle and dispose of all complaints presented them.

MIDDLE CLASS OF ENGLAND FACE RUIN

BIG EXPENSE OF LIVING AND RAISING FAMILIES CUTS DOWN BIRTH RATE

London, Jan. 22.—Sir H. Rider Haggard, the author, believes the middle classes of England are on the "road to ruin". This opinion he expressed in a letter to the general secretary of the Middle Classes Union, regretting that other work prevented him from assuming the presidency of a branch of the union.

"I sympathize fully with your movement," he wrote. "The middle classes, by which I take to mean all beneath the rank of Peers who do not actually earn their living by the work of the hands are, without doubt on their way to ruin. Owing principally, or at any rate very largely to the incredible expense of rearing and educating children their birthrate is decreasing in a most alarming fashion and probably is now exceeded by their deathrate."

He declares that against these causes the profiteer is given a free hand and that "under pregence of a nebulous Anti-Dumping Bill, they are now threatened with the loss of the blessings of free trade which alone enables many fixed, or dwindling incomes, to live at all." He said that only combination could save them.

"If the middle classes remain disunited and in consequence are bullied and plundered to death, as happened to the Curiales before the fall of the Roman Empire, I am sure that with them will disappear the wealth and the ancient greatness of our country," he concluded.

COMMISSION TO ADJUST MONOPOLIES

HUSTON THOMPSON OF THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION GIVES HIS IDEA

Washington, Jan. 22.—Creation of an international trade commission to deal with those who seek a world monopoly and are in a position to injure not only the consumers in their own country, but those in foreign nations as well, was recommended by Huston Thompson, Second Pan-American Financial Conference.

Complaints should come through national trade commissions, Mr. Thompson said, and each cause tried before representatives of the international body not belonging to the nation whose citizens were involved in the litigation.

"The definition of what was an unfair trade practice before this commission could be found in the trade practices already condemned by the laws of many nations, both ancient and modern," Mr. Thompson said, "the rulings of the respective trade commission, the 'trade practice submitted lists', such as our commission has already received from some of our industries, the pronouncements of political economists, and agree all, in the common sense of those before whom the case was presented after investigation and hearing.

"In the universal publicity of the findings of such a body would lie the corrective.

I have been asked who would police the committing of the offenses. The answer is the same as in our domestic business—the competitor. Is there not every reason to believe that under the inspiration of the respective National Trade Commissions the industry in each nation would write their own 'trade practice submitted list' of unfair practices just as they are doing by Comities just as they are doing in this country?"

A national trade mark, established by Congress, as a means of increasing national pride and controlling the quality of goods exported from the United States, also was urged by Mr. Thompson. Failure on the part of an exporter to deliver goods of the same grade and quality as samples would be sufficient cause for refusing permission to use the trade mark.

RIVERS AND HARBORS BILL HITS FLORIDA

AS USUAL JACKSONVILLE GETS BIG END OF THE STING

Washington, Jan. 21.—Many important items were left entirely out of the rivers and harbors bill for this year, reported to the house late yesterday afternoon and taken up for consideration by the house today. With the exception of four surveys, as follows—Intercoastal waterway from Jacksonville to the ocean, Fegumina harbor, St. Johns river from Jacksonville to the ocean, and Miami harbor—there was not a dollar authorized to be extended for any new Florida project.

As soon as the members of the Florida delegation, who were not in the house when this bill was reported, ascertained today that it had been reported without their items with the exception of those just mentioned, they went immediately to work to see what amendment could be gotten through, but there appears to be but scant chance for success.

The present bill is perhaps the smallest that has ever been reported to any congress since it was the custom to have such a bill, the whole amount being over $12,000,000.

While the four Florida surveys are important the fact that no specific appropriations are authorized for that state is much regretted. Senator Fletcher and Trammell will have their hands full endeavoring to secure amendments to the bill for all four congressional districts when the measure reaches the senate.

Congressman Sears seemed to be well satisfied with what the bill contained for his district. The three surveys mentioned in which his people are interested, he said, are all important and he will watch developments closely. It will now be up to the people of Jacksonville and Miami to give the best cooperation, he said, and assist in every way possible so that when surveys are made they may be favorable in their nature, he said.

RACE RIOT IN DUMAS ARKANSAS

ATTACK ON DEPUTY SHERIFF BY ARMED NEGROES BRINGS ON TROUBLE

Dumas, Ark., Jan. 22 (By Associated Press) A detachment of Federal troops from Camp Pike, Governor Brough and a large party of possees men and officers from nearby towns arrived here this morning to take charge of the race situation arising from the alleged attack on deputy sheriff by armed negroes at a negro settlement near here yesterday. Local officers said they believed the trouble would be confined to this district.

Little Rock, Jan. 22, (By Associated Press) Governor Brough who accompanied troops to Dumas after a personal survey of the situation, this morning says he does not anticipate any serious race trouble. According to a dispatch from the correspondent of the Arkansas Democrat. It is stated that no evidence has been found at Dumas of a conspiracy to foment an uprising such as shown in the investigation of recent disorders at Elaine.

WIRE TAPPERS ARE CAUGHT IN TAMPA

HAD VICTIM ALREADY IN NET WHEN OFFICERS HELD THEM UP

The following from The Tampa Tribune is interesting:

The prompt appearance on the scene yesterday afternoon of Solicitor R. E. L. Chaney and a raiding party doubtless saved J. Starr of Geneva, Neb., from parting with $25,000 to a bunch of alleged "wiretappers" to whom he had just given a check for that sum drawn on a bank located in his home town. As the result of the visit of the raiders Starr is saved his loss, four men are in jail, $5,000 in money has been captured as evidence and a large amount of paraphernalia is being held. Another check for $25,000, drawn on a Poughkeepsie, N. Y. bank and signed "D. C. Monter," also seized by the officers. This latter check is said to have been given by one of the men under arrest as a member of the gang, and that he had told the Nebraska farmer into the game by posing as his friend and telling him where he could "make a wad of easy money."

The four men who are in jail are J. H. Rogers, an auto salesman of Sidney, Australia; John Walters, a chauffeur of Waveross, Ga. David Graves, a salesman of Fuller, N. Y., and Joe Carr, a mechanic of Illinois. At least these are the names which the men gave. Each one is held in the county jail in default of $5,000 bond. Members of the raiding party were Solicitor Chaney, Detective William Anderson former Chief of police J. S. Jones, Deputy Sheriff Charles Cortino, William Nelms and a friend of the latter from Georgia.

Solicitor Chaney is planning an early trial for the accused man, who early trial for the accused man, who already are making arrangements for their defense. Attorney V. H. Knight was called to the county jail last night to confer with them.

The alleged "wiretappers" have been making their headquarters in a house No. 1019 Twenty-third avenue, for some time, it is said. At any rate their house has been under surveillance for some time. The case was worked up by the Detective William Anderson, whose resignation as deputy sheriff was recently requested by Sheriff White, and by Capt. J. S. Jones, former chief of police, who recently caused to be printed a number of handbills warning men. The officers have been watching the house for some time and spent most of yesterday in that vicinity.

When Starr entered the house yesterday afternoon, remaining about half an hour and then leaving in an automobile accompanied by two of the men, the officers decided that the time had arrived to take action, it being apparent that he is a wealthy retired farmer about sixty-five years old, had fallen into their wiles. When the automobile with Starr and the two other men reached twenty-second avenue the automobile in which the officers were seated headed them off. One of the men made as if to spring from the car, but Deputy Cortino was too quick for him, shoving a pistol into his face so quickly that he turned decidedly pale about the gills.

Meanwhile Mr. Nelms and his friend had gone to the house in question, in which two of the confidence men remained. When Nelms appeared at the side door and demanded that it be opened, one of the men inside demanded to know his authority. "We have plenty of authority," said Nelms, drawing a pistol. The door was finally opened but the momentary delay is believed to have been used by the men inside in an attempt to destroy as much of the evidence as possible. A little later when the remaining members of Solicitor Chaney's party arrived at the house one of the men started to strike the solicitor with a baseball bat which was concealed behind a table, but was clubbed by Captain Jones.

The place had been fitted up to resemble a racing exchange, or at least to pass off something of that kind before the eyes of the inexperienced. There was a desk and a table, and on the latter a telephone and a telegraph instrument. There was also a large blackboard with racing entries and odds on it. In one corner was a box full of money. Examination showed this to consist of $100 bills on the top of the packages, with $1 bills under them other packages $50 and 10 bills on the top with neatly cut plain paper under them. Each package was neatly tied as is customary in banks. While the array looked like about $100,000, it was actually $5,000, it was found.

EIGHT LIVES LOST

WHEN BOAT TRIES TO TAKE PASSENGERS FROM THE POWHATTON

Halifax, Jan. 22, (By Associated Press) Eight lives were lost when a boat from the transport Northern Pacific overturned yesterday in an attempt to transfer passengers from the disabled transport Powhatton according to officers of the steamship Bardie which arrived here this morning. The Bardie's officers said the statement was based on a wireless message. The wireless said at ten o'clock this morning that the ship had started for Halifax in tow of the Canadian governments steamer Lady Laurier.

Street Crossings Have Been Made Safe

RULES OBSERVED

SPEEDERS AND PEDESTRIANS ALIKE MUST PAY ATTENTION TO THE ORDINANCES Watch your step.

This applies not only to the drivers of car and other vehicles but to the humble pedestrian as well. However under the regulations now being enforced in this city in regard to traffic the humble pedestrian has a better show in crossing the streets than ever before.

"Jay walking" that bane of an auto driver's life has been abolished and hereafter the "jay walkers" or the people who cut diagonally across the intersecting street corners must now walk the chalk line so speaking for the chalk lines have been drawn and are there for the people to walk on. Inasmuch as all of this is being done for the protection of life and limb it would be well for the people who are walking and those who are driving to watch their step and assist the officers in conforming to the rules.

The people will soon become accustomed to the new rules in crossing the streets and the drivers will become accustomed to obeying the rules for speeding and turning the corners and all will be well. The city commissioners and the officers do not want to be autocratic on this subject at all. They simply want to enforce the ordinances and to keep the crowds moving in the right direction and to keep the drivers from speeding on the city streets and all of this fuss and feathers is for the protection of the people.

The only kick the people have at present is that the officers treat them with consideration in giving the directions and not attempt to foist the new rules upon them like a second lieutenant would treat a rookie in the army. Let the officers have consideration for the feelings of the people and let the people have consideration for the officers—just a game of give and take—and all will come out lovely in the end and Sanford will have order and decorum in all things.

CLEANER CARS

State Board Will Make Effort To Have Clean Carriers

Jacksonville, Jan. 14.—H. S. Leard, supervisor of railroad transportation, and Dr. Ralph N. Greene, State health officer, have joined hands in an effort to secure more sanitary conditions aboard common carriers in Florida. As a result a set of sanitary regulations for use aboard passenger coaches and sleeping cars have been drafted and will be put into force immediately.

The new program of sanitation to be instituted by the railroad authorities under direction of State Board of Health officials provide for the regular use of disinfectants on seats cushions and toilets. Another regulation that promises to add to the comfort of passengers is that providing for the sweeping of car sides with wet sawdust every 100 miles. Porter will be instructed to watch for passengers spitting on the floor and immediately to spray the sputum with disinfectant.

A set of pamphlets dealing with sanitary and health matters is being prepared by the State Board of Health officials and will be ins distributed broadcast.

In a message to the travelling public Mr. Leard declares: "While we intend to do everything possible to better sanitary conditions on common carriers, we cannot accomplish the desired results unless the public appreciate its individual responsibility and give us co-operation."

To Reclaim Swamp Land In The South

HUGE SUM REQUESTED BY APPROPRIATION IN FORM OF LOAN

Washington, Jan. 14.—Legislation authorizing an appropriation of $250,000,000 for use in the reclamation of swamp, overflowed and irrigable lands was proposed today by D. W. Ross, of Louisiana, at a conference of southern governors, held under the joint auspices of the southern house of governors and Southern Commercial congress. This capital sum, the plan provided will be repaid over a period of 25 years through a sinking fund created by the sale of collateral bonds issued by the reclamation lands by the federal farm loan board. The amount is one-half the appropriation authorized for reclamation projects by the Smoot-Mondell bill, introduced at the last session of congress.

While the plan was designed to be national in its scope, Mr. Ross declared it to be of especial interest to the south in that about 70,000,000 of the 80,000,000 acres of swamp and overflowed land in the United States are located in southern states.

"The south now contains the nation's great reserve of agricultural lands," Mr. Ross said, "The hundreds of millions of acres of free agricultural land of our western domain has all been appropriated and utilized and is today worth from $150 to $250 $500 per acre. The great western frontier, the development of which in the past 15 years established our wealth and power, is no longer a frontier. That frontier has shifted to the south."

In settlement of the lands under the bill, preference would be given to those who fought in the recent war, and administration of the plan would devolve upon the secretary of the interior. Owners of the land to be reclaimed would make petition through the governor of the state, and in case the project were approved by the secretary a district would be organized and a contract entered into with the United States government for the issuance of bonds.

The federal farm loan board would sell United States collateral bonds and deposit the proceeds, less 5 per cent in the reclamation fund. The 5 per cent would go to the United States treasury to retire the capital fund. The meetings were called to order by Clarence J. Owens, director general of the Southern Commercial congress. Among those present were Geo. W. Norris, commissioner of the federal farm loan board; Gen. Dial, South Carolina; Reys. Bland and Smith, South Dakota; E. R. Wing, of the reclamation service; D. W. Ross, Louisiana; J. D. Stone, F. G. Fulford, F. R. Fravel and A. C. C. Hathaway, of Virginia; J. L. Edwards, Washington; A. T. Dussenbury, J. F. Wigginton and L. Lazaro of Louisiana; Claude N. Bennet and Naylor Colquitt, of Georgia, and George H. Maxwell, of Washington.

Uncle Si' and The Census

(The following is based on a true story of one of the many laughable incidents, which occurred among the negroes when the first census among them was taken just after their freedom.)

Uncle Si, in our shall town, Was a mos' well-known figger; Ob all de cullud fo'ks aroun', He wuz de mos' 'portant nigger. W'en de meetin' times cum long, He wuz de ferrest speaker; Would he work? He 'nk dat wrong, Yet no man got erlong sleeker. Now an' den he worked for fo'ks, Who wuzent in a hurry, 'Bout de work at w'ch he po'ks, Uncle Si nebber worry.

ALLIES HELP NOT WANTED IN SIBERIA

CZECHO-SLOVAK GENERAL SAYS THEY ARE HINDERANCE INSTEAD OF HELP

Vladivostok, Jan. 15.—General Rudolph Gaida, formerly commander of the Czecho-Slovak forces in Siberia, declared before he left here for Shanghai that "the Allies are doing Russia more harm than the Bolsheviks and the sooner the Allies leave it the better it will be for Russia." General Gaida with his Czecho-Slovak troops defeated the Bolsheviks at Perm. He led the revolutionary movement which took place here November 15, was captured by government authorities and agreed to leave Siberia.

"All the Allies have done in Russia," he said the Associated Press correspondent, "is to support black monarchy—Kolechak, Yudenitch and the Atamans. All the future can hold is absolute monarchy or absolute Bolshevism. The Center group, the Social Revolutionaries, the Social Democrats, and the other smaller groups of similar political orientation will be unable to assume leadership. All Siberia west of Lake Baikal will fall to the Bolsheviks, and from Baikal to the Pacific will be Japanese dominated provinces controlled by the Atamans."

General Gaida stated that he believed that the only people who ran the Russia together again are those who are known as Bolsheviks. These so-called Bolsheviks he termed them, are not the Reds of the days of terror in European Russia. Today, he said, there is a national movement in Russia for a clear democracy and that the crude from which is now being displayed eventually will work itself out in a moderate social program. He said that the army that was approaching Lake Baikal from the west, the army that he defeated at Perm last winter was an officered army, with generals, colonels, captains and soldiers. It was disciplined. There was a military staff, schools and academies for training men for the army.

The doctrine of communism were gone from it; personal rights in property had been established and were maintained. The world should know more of the facts regarding actual conditions in Siberia, Gaida said. "The democratic movement is inevitable," he concluded. General Gaida was asked if in his opinion the Allies would not aid in the realization of this pure democracy of which he had spoken by lending aid to the government formed at Omsk and headed by Admiral Kolechak. He laughed heartily. "No, 'ikdy!' he said, which is Czech for "No, Never."

Kept Ignominy In Memory.

On the 5th of November, in 1500, Christopher Columbus, in spite of the incalculable services he had rendered to Spain, was taken into Cadiz in fetters. King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella were moved at the sight and commanded that he be released. Columbus, however, was unable to forgive the insult, and until the time of his death the ignominious fetters were hung in full sight on his walls as a reminder of the ingratitude of his sovereign.

How Competition Helps You

The competition that exists among the hundreds of meat distributors, large and small, means

- Rivalry in Prices
- Rivalry in Service
- Rivalry in Economy
- Rivalry in Quality

Swift & Company sells meat at the lowest possible price, consistent with quality and service. Our profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound on all products is evidence of keen competition.

Swift & Company must provide the best service to your dealer or he will buy from our competitors. This means a supply of fine fresh meat always on hand for you at your dealer's.

Swift & Company must keep down manufacturing and selling costs, and use all by-products to avoid waste, or else lose money meeting the prices of competitors who do.

Swift & Company must make its products of the highest quality, or see you turn to others. This means better meat for you and a greater variety of appetizing, wholesome food.

We are as glad for this competition as you should be. It helps to keep us on our mettle.

Mrs. Grover Lefles who has been visiting her father and sister at Apalachicola for some time returned last Saturday. She was accompanied by her sister Miss Alexia Mees, who will spend the winter here.

A fine little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Peters last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Purdum leave this week, to make their future home in Myakka City. Their many friends here hate to see them go, and wish them success in their new business.

Messrs. Teitsma and Charles Phillips spent part of this week in Haynes City, on business.

H. H. Pattishall and Walker Prevatt are attending court in Sanford Sanford this week.

Mr. Cline of Cocoa, who was visiting here last week, purchased the Harrison grove and also one owned by V. T. Peters and E. H. Killbee.

The ladies of the Red Cross met at the town hall last Friday. Since the war relief work is needed no longer each brought her own work and spent a profitable as well as social time before noon. A sumptuous dinner was then served after which each lady in turn, told a story, recited or repeated a quotation, which afforded much merriment. The business meeting was then called and it was decided to furnish a bed at the county hospital from Geneva.

PRESBYTERIANS TITHING

Officers and Members of the Congregation Decide to Tithe For The Year

The Presbyterian church has decided to tithe for the ensuing year and Sunday the pastor Dr. Brownlee preached a sermon on the subject of tithing bringing the truth home to the members of the congregation that it is right to give one tenth of their substance to the church. After the sermon Dr. Brownlee called upon several of the congregation to express their opinion upon the subject and all of them were in favor of tithing.

The pastor feels good about the fact that with himself every officer of the church has agreed to tithe and out of the congregation 91 have decided to tithe which places the church upon a business foundation for the year and makes the work of the officials much easier.

With a certain sum guaranteed to a church for the current expenses it is unnecessary to collect it from time to time and the officers know how much they will have to operate for the year and to make improvements and to give benevolences without getting up rallies and campaigns and the pastor and church officers are jubilant over the ready response the pastor's appeal was granted Sunday.

The Presbyterian church has one of the finest church buildings and Sunday school rooms in this part of the state and expect to install a magnificent pipe organ in the near future.

Under the guidance of Dr. Brownlee and the efficient board of elders and deacons the church has made wonderful gains in membership and efficiency and the members are very proud of their fine church and of their energetic and progressive pastor.

The real work of hard carfacing the streets began Monday, when the asphalt surface was started on Main street opposite the Orange hotel. It is a hard, smooth surface, and one to delight the eye and bring the smile of joy to motorists.—Iverness Chronicle.

Brevard County voted over ten to one in favor of issuing bonds to the extent of $300,000 for good roads to meet the state and Federal aid in that county. This safe and sane policy is expected to build thirty miles of the Dixie Highway in that county, fifty feet wide (sixteen feet of it had surfaced). The remainder of the road will be built out of the five-mill state road tax, thus placing Brevard County on the map of perfect roads counties at a minimum burden to the tax payers.

ANCIENTS HAD MUCH WISDOM.

A great civilization flourished in the valley of the Nile some three thousand years B. C. These Egyptians worshipped the dung beetle, the scarabaeus, possibly recognizing its scavenging powers. The well of Joseph, near the great pyramid, is excavated through nearly three hundred feet of solid rock. The ancient Hebrews were the founders of real public health. The laws of Moses, who was born about 1500 B. C., the first hygienic code known, apply about as well today as when first promulgated.

PRE-INVENTORY SALE

WE ARE NOT going to use any great heavy type to print our prices in this advertisement. We are simply going to tell the public what we are doing, setting down the facts in a plain manner without flourishes. When women who really want good high grade merchandise and would like to get it at a saving read this they come to the sale because they know that our merchandise is of high standard and they know that when we print the statement that we are selling at less than regular price, it means exactly what it says. The simple facts of the sale briefly stated are: Because the greater part of the winter season is over, we wish to reduce our stock to a low point, so that we will not have to "carry over" expensive Winter Goods through the spring and summer. It is better business as you can plainly see to sell this merchandise now even at greatly reduced prices than to hold it until next winter. So we have marked all goods down, and during this sale you can take your choice, knowing that no matter what you buy you will be saving money.

FERNALD-LAUGHTON HOSPITAL OPENED ON LAST SATURDAY CAUSES FAVORABLE COMMENT

From Large Crowd of Visitors Present

OPENS FOR BUSINESS

OPERATING ROOM AND ONE OF THE WARDS NOT READY BUT WORK IS PROGRESSING

One of the greatest events in the history of Sanford was the opening of the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital last Saturday. This was the public opening but patients will be taken this week although it will be several days before all the repairs are finished and the operating room ready. The elevator has not been finished and the new ward that was built on the south side needs window sash but the contractors think all this work will be finished this week and the building will be all ready for business.

The hospital was open Saturday from ten in the morning until eight at night and all day long a throng of people visited this fine home and were delighted with the appearance of this handsome edifice within and without. Mrs. A. E. Hill who was in charge of the arrangements, Mrs. Endor Curlett of Geneva, secretary of the executive committee, Mrs. Savage of the executive committee and many of the ladies of the city together with Mrs. Miel, the business manager, Miss Palmer the head nurse and Miss MacAllister one of the nurses acted as a reception committee and showed the visitors over the home. The High School orchestra rendered the music in the evening that was greatly enjoyed and the perfect day was brought to a close with a tired but happy committee and nurses for they felt that their dreams for a real hospital in Sanford had really come true. The people of Seminole county have responded most liberally in giving linen and hospital supplies and all of this was on display Saturday. Mrs. Hill has acted as chairman of the linen show and supplies and has worked hard on this campaign and her efforts have been rewarded by this fine display of linen donated by the various churches and organizations. A list of the donations and the donors will appear in this paper in a few days and also the financial donations by the various churches and lodges and individuals.

The campaign for donations and memberships starts this morning and and will end Saturday and it is hoped every one will dig deep for this hospital that means so much to every man, woman and child in this county.

The hospital association has worked hard and unceasingly all the summer on this project and the executive committee has shouldered a heavy responsibility in looking after all the details. That the hospital has been enabled to open so early is evidence of the fact that some one has been working overtime and while everything is not ready today it is almost complete and when it is all finished it will be the pride of the county. There is not such an edifice in the state of Florida used for hospital purposes. Built several years ago by the late George H. Fernald for a home no money was spared upon its construction and it was pronounced one of the finest homes in this part of the state. At his death Mrs. Fernald conceived the idea of allowing the city to take this home upon the payment of a certain sum during her life time and at her death to have it in fee simple. A wonderful gift and one that will be appreciated as time goes on. It stands today and will stand for the next half century as a monument to Mrs. Fernald and to the noble men and women who have made it possible for the afflicted to have this fine home to alleviate their suffering.

The present staff are most competent to handle the affairs of the new hospital. Mrs. Miel the manager, had charge of a large institution in New York state and is a capable business woman who while not being a graduate nurse is a most capable attendant and understands all the needs of a hospital. She has been living in Geneva for some time.

Miss Palmer had charge of the Christ Sanatorium in Orlando for many years as head nurse and business manager but the work of this dual role undermined her health and she sought a change and was given the position here as head nurse. She is a fine executive and is trained as few nurses have been trained in different parts of the work in a hospital and sanitarium.

Miss McAllister is a nurse of experience and has been in some of the large hospitals in Chicago and other cities before coming to Florida and is trained in every department.

This staff together with the executive committee and the physicians of the city will look after the interests of the new hospital and it is hoped that they will receive the cooperation of the people of Seminole county at all times. The hospital will be self supporting but the expenses of the initial start will be very heavy and with the fine start already made and the money that is promised each year by the people of the county the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital should not only succeed but should grow and expand from year to year to take care of the growing needs of Sanford.

This new hospital is one of the most valuable assets of the city and county and belongs to the people of the county. Let it have your cooperation and support at all times. The hospital will have twenty beds including the wards and private rooms.

The colored annex will be started as soon as the campaign for funds is finished and will be a separate building complete in every way for the care of the colored people.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

These are the names given in English law to goods lost at sea. Flotsam is defined as "where the goods continue swimming on the surface of the waves," and the term jetsam is applied to goods which are cast into the sea and which sink or remain under water.

Now can the class in history tell us when the Southern Utilities Co. will open?

Nothing is even new for long in this country. 1920 is already becoming an old story.

Be careful of your step son. At current prices it is safer to take a life than to steal an egg.

The lakefront should be cleaned up and put in shape as soon as possible. The tourists see this before they see the city.

It might, however, be economical to elect Mr. Hoover president. He could do his presiding and food controlling all at the same time.

But in all this mad rush for the Presidency, we note with admiration that the proud movie actor is not to be deflected from the glory of his career.

The United States and Russia are the only nations of the world that are not now at peace with Germany. We should be proud of the company we keep.

Word comes from every part of the Fourth District that Hon. Forest Lake will be the next Congressman. Mr. Lake is one of the most aggressive and progressive men that has offered for this position and his friends all over the district know it and they want this kind of man for their representative in Congress.

The government has done well so far in ridding the country of the worst of those aliens who have been plotting to overthrow the government. But don't stop at that. Keep right on until there is not a disloyal person left within our borders. We lived very comfortably before they intruded themselves into our lives, and we can get along very nicely after they have been kicked out.

When considering the beauties of nature, start with your own front yard. Clean it up, cut the grass at the proper time, plant flowers in season, make it a joy to the eye. Move right on around to the back of the house, repeat the operation, and then look around to see if anything has been missed. If your neighbor's yard is a little better than yours, make up your mind that yours must be better than his. Man should not judge of the works of the Lord until he has first set his own domain in order.

PRINTING A PAPER

A real newspaper comes in for more criticism than any other business in the world. The finest indoor sport is making criticism of a newspaper be it either good, bad or indifferent and these criticisms extend from pointing out the mistakes in print to pointing out the mistakes of the editor no matter what his stand may be upon any subject. The editor from years of criticism has grown more or less case hardened to these shafts but he has never grown so old or so tough that the coxles of his heart and he probably receives less praise than criticism while he is living. We were reminded of this fact by noting an article in a trade paper about the way to run a newspaper in which the following clipping stood out above the rest:

"Some papers announce that they print all news, let the chips fall where they may. This sounds mighty fine in our office we skip many items and fail to see others. If no good can come from the publication of an item which will bring a mother's heart bring sorrow to an innocent child or wreck the peace of a suffering wife, we don't print that item. Call it suppression if you please; we decide these matters for ourselves, each on its own merits."

Since this has always been the policy of the editor of The Herald we were glad that others of the craft had the same ideas and policies and it only served to remind us that there have been times without number when we would forget to print an item that would cause sorrow and suffering to the family of a man or woman who had gone wrong and had come into the limelight of publicity. We could have printed the whole story and caused fresh suffering or we could forget it and hurry on to the local news. It has always been forgotten and yet many of these same people who we kept from going to jail or being forced to leave town, these same people after their little episode was forgotten would come around to jump on the editor for some trivial offense or would want us to jump on their neighbor for some fancied wrong. But nevertheless we have adhered to the rule not to print everything.

All is grist that comes to the mill and everything is news that comes to the ears and eyes of an editor but there are times when a country newspaper man has too big a heart and feels too kindly toward mankind in general to print everything. We have no fear from the angry official who hates to be criticized or the malefactor who has outraged society or the man without a conscience who wants to rough ride over his fellow man. We will speak our thoughts at all times with the sole idea of bettering conditions everywhere but personal matters that enter into the very sanctuaries of the homes and tears the hearts of the family are not chronicled and never will be.

Some day when the editor is laid away for good there will be many people who will remember that he saved their family from humiliation and sorrow when by a scratch of the pen he could have ruined the character of all of them for life but the words were never written. Many men will recall that they stepped from the straight and narrow path for an instant and publicity of their act would have sent them to suicide politically and socially. They are now respected people of their community while the editor—well, he continues to grind out copy day by day while waiting for the millennium when all editors will get the glad hand from everyone regardless of their policy.

HOSPITAL DRIVE IS ON

The drive for funds for the Fernald-Laughton Hospital begins today and you will be approached to take out a membership for one dollar and will also be asked for a donation. If you feel that you could give something to this, the greatest institution that has ever been started in Sanford give all that you can for you are giving it where you can see it, where your loved ones will be taken care of, where you may be taken some day for treatment.

COMMEMORATING THE BIRTH OF ROBERT E. LEE

Of all the outstanding figures of the Civil War, two stand out as pre-eminent in the affections of the American people, Lincoln and Lee. The south has learned to venerate the memory of Abraham Lincoln, and appreciate his services in saving the union and freeing the south from the curse of slavery and the north vies with the south in its regard for the staunchness, the loyalty to his principles and the constant manliness and uprightness of Robert E. Lee. He was a typical American what more need be said? Today the United Daughters of the Confederacy meet to celebrate with appropriate ceremonies the birth of Lee.

Many of our northern visitors will join with them in testifying to the worth of the man. Bitterness will be banished from all hearts as we honor the memory of a great American. In less than a month, on Feb. 12, comes the birthday of Lincoln. Let us all honor it with the same sincerity single heartedness.—Tampa Times.

SOME GOOD ADVICE

"The advice given by Attorney General Palmer for fighting the high cost of living is good advice for anybody any time. He says one way is to speed up production," says the Dearborn Independent.

"Manufacturers generally from all over the country complain that less is being produced now than was produced for man before or during the war.

Human beings were in a high tension during the war and a reaction followed on the part of many. This, no doubt, will be over come some and production will get back to normal. It must come about before prices can be normal.

"Another piece of advice handed out is for the people to buy within their means. America has been buying what they wanted and paying the price asked, scarcely heeding what that price was.

"If you don't buy when you are being overcharged, prices will come down."

WHAT A PHILANTHROPIST IS JOHN D!

You will recall that about a month ago John D. gave about eight millions to different institutions over the country, and he was pronounced a great philanthropist. The newspapers over the country carried the statement in great headlines.

Then you recall that Monday of this week the price of gasoline and oil went up one cent at a Standard Oil station. If we had enough time-pencils, ink, pencil sharpeners and clerical help, we would figure out just how much money that extra one cent would give John D. in one day.

Oh, what a wonderful philanthropist is John D!—Dearborn Star.

VISITORS A SQUARE DEAL

The tourist and the homeseecker are with us in greater numbers than ever before in the history of our state. We appeal for a square deal for them; they are among the state's greatest assets, they mean much to us on account of the money they spent here, not only for their living but on account of the investments they are making, which in turn usually means more investment for improvements. Capital from the outside is what is building up our state, and it is in general the enterprise of the people from other sections who have fallen in love with Florida who are furnishing the dash and enterprise for these improvements. The same has been true in California. It was not the native son nor the old-timer who was responsible for the splendid highways, the beautiful homes, the fine groves and the magnificent watering places, but rather the people who went there from other states, people who had brains and energy enough to make money at their various trades, businesses and occupations, and who were attracted there because of the climate, the fascination of growing oranges or by the possibilities in other lines.

These kind of people should be treated with consideration if from no more than a selfish motive. Big men here understand that and act accordingly, but too often the small man, who is endeavoring to get his quickly, treats these visitors outrageously in the matter of charges. Of course it is to be expected that prices in Florida will have risen in proportion to those in other states and the visitors are prepared to pay a reasonable increase, but often the petty pirates are not content with a reasonable increase, but profiteer with unmeasured limit and unblinking effrontery, taking advantage of the crowded condition and the pressing needs. Last winter we ourselves were charged $1 a day, $8 for two people, for an almost bare, unheated room in a second rate hotel in one of our principal cities, whereas that same room could have been had in the summer time for $1. Five years ago we had a splendid room and bath in that same city for $4 for two people and this price included meals.

We should send these good folks back to their homes not only praising our winter climate, but to our just treatment of all visitors to the end that they become living advertisements of our advantages. Those who are ill-treated will become anything but that and could possibly do the state great injury.

The writer was in California this past summer and nowhere was he robbed or overcharged by hotel and garage men and in almost every case was treated with unfeeling courtesy, and while there may be robbers among them they as a whole appreciate the out-of-state visitor and do not try to make their whole fortunes in one year's time.—Florida Grower.

A medical expert has explained that there has always been an increase of births after great wars, although it was hardly expected that this would prove true in England now, in view of the great number of men killed and disabled.

No Six Cent Fares

Tallahassee, Jan. 20.—The railroad commission today denied the application of E. J. Triay, receiver of the Jacksonville Traction Company, for the railroad commission to fix and establish fares and charges for said company, for the reason that the commissioners found and concluded that they had no jurisdiction over the subject matter contained in said petition. Thereupon Judge Doggett of Jacksonville and Hon. Peter O. Knight of Tampa, as counsel for the company, filed in the supreme court a petition for an alternative writ of mandamus to require the railroad commissioners to entertain jurisdiction of and consider an application on behalf of the traction company to fix reasonable rates of fare to be charged by the company on its railways in the city of Jacksonville. The justices of the supreme court took the application under advisement and did not decide today whether the alternative writ of mandamus would be issued. The petition was rather lengthy and the questions involved rather complicated but it is understood that the application is being considered by all the justices and the impression prevails that the announcement will be made by the court tomorrow.

Besides the attorneys named, there appeared before the commission Receiver Triay and City Attorney P. H. Odum of Jacksonville. Mr. Odum representing the city, which opposes the proposed increase to six-cent fare.

CHANDLER SIX
Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Thousands Choose The Chandler Dispatch

MANY admirers of the Chandler Six choose the Chandler Dispatch. For two years this model has outsold all other cars of the so-called sport type. Its popularity is one of the high spots in motordom.

The new series Dispatch is a snappy, handsome car, seating four adults in perfect comfort. It is of most beautiful design and finish; mounted on the standard Chandler Chassis, famous for its mechanical excellence.

You are asked to pay much more for cars which might perhaps be compared with the Chandler. And cheap cars sell for but little less.

Brilliant Reception at Woman's Club The annual reception at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon (Tuesday), was more than usually attractive with a splendid attendance of representative women, and one of the most pleasing programs ever presented beneath the roof-tree of the club.

The program consisted of vocal and instrumental numbers, including piano and violin, and several most enjoyable readings, all of which were received with enthusiastic applause by a delighted audience. Mrs. Wren McGuinn gave a very charming reading in which was cleverly introduced the song "Home Sweet Home" and responded graciously to the recall. The little folks numbers given by Mary Nixon and Margaret Cowan were received with delight. Miss Marion Phillips is among the younger vocal talent of the city and sweetly rendered "Daddy's Sweetheart" Mrs. R. E. Tolar who for many years has been recognized as one of Sanford's leading musicians, was welcomed with pleasure, her numbers being the heat. Another fine piano solo in the group of splendid home talent was Miss Margaret Zachary. Mrs. C. J. Marshall whose violin solos are always a pleasing addition to any program played in excellent form. The duet by Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Tackach was wonderfully sweet, while the solo work of Miss Mabel Bowler and Mrs. Tackach was up to their usual standard. Mrs. Tackach never disappoints and in Miss Bowler Sanford music lovers rejoice in her return here to live. It will be seen that the delightful program was composed of exclusively home talent.

Guests were received by Mrs. W. L. Morgan, president of the Club and Mrs. W. E. Watson, first vice president, Mrs. A. M. Phillips, chairman of the program committee, made the announcements.

The club was attractively decorated with the club flower and colors of red and green. Bamboo and roses were used in profusion. Mrs. Geo. Fox was chairman of decorating and Mrs. R. C. Bower of the refreshment committee, the latter serving a dainty salad course.

Bloomington Folks Here Mr. J. H. Smith and his charming daughter, Miss Catherine, of Bloomington Illinois were in the city today the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield of Geneva. The Smiths and the Wakefields are neighbors in Bloomington Illinois or were before the Wakefields became Florida Crackers. Mr. Smith represents the Crosscut Lumber interests in the north and this is his first trip to Florida. His daughter, Miss Catherine, was a Red Cross nurse in France during the war being stationed at Varennes and Chaumont the greater part of the time.

HUGHES TURNED DOWN No Notice of His Appearance At Socialist Trial

Albany, Jan. 20.—The assembly judiciary committee which is to try the suspended socialist members, refused at the opening of their trial here today, to note the appearance of the New York City Bar association committee, headed by Charles E. Hughes which asked for a place in the proceedings.

Mr. Hughes said no disqualification had yet been shown against the suspended members; and until such time as the judiciary committee determines their qualifications, they should enjoy the privileges of their seats in their own right and in the rights of the constituencies.

His delegation then left the chamber A statement read by Mr. Martin, containing charges against the socialists, alleged that the defendants procured their election under the pretense to the people that they were merely availing themselves of a legally established means for political independence, whereas, in fact, it is claimed that this was done to disguise and cover up their true intent and purpose to overthrow this government peaceably but forcibly, if necessary.

Morris Hillquit, chief counsel for the defense, in opening, challenged the right of the judiciary committee to conduct the proceedings and urged that unbiased judges be selected. He contended that the committee could not be such, since they had publicly expressed their opinion as against the socialist members.

As against this argument, Judge Stanchfield, for the committee, cited congressional precedent, for the assembly's procedure.

Hillquit recessed after Mr. Hillquit had unsuccessfully challenged the right of several of its members to sit in the hearings.

Law Out On Americans

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 20.—Dr. John Hunter, an American physician of Nogales, Mex., told the senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation today, he never had known of a Mexican being punished for killing an American in Mexico. "There has been no safety for Americans life or property in Mexico since 1910," he said.

Dr. Hunter was at Guadalajara when the Americans occupied Vera Cruz. J. D. Ward now a Texas farmer gave the committee the first instance in its record of an American killing Mexicans. Ward said he shot three of them and got back into the United States without being captured. He was living on a fruit farm with his wife in 1915, he testified. One night he was visited by soldiers. They tried to force their way through his door. He opened fire which they returned. After he had shot down three of them the attacking party withdrew and the remainder of the night was spent by Mr. and Mrs. Ward in hiding under the barn.

necessary thirty-six state legislatures, reads thus: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex."

Having served on the board of directors of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs for over six years the writer deems it absurd to even consider the question of equal suffrage in the light of a disturbance in our federal family. In 1913, when the annual convention of the federation was held in Orlando a meeting of the Florida Equal Suffrage Association. The Florida federation did not attend, as an organization, the tea to which they were invited by the equal suffrage association. In Lakeland, the following year, the subject of suffrage was brought up when the report of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Chicago 1914, was read. The general federation endorsed equal suffrage in their 1914 convention. In 1905, at DeLand, a resolution asking the ballot for women was endorsed by an overwhelming majority, as has been the case in each succeeding convention, as well as the intervening board meetings. In Daytona 1918, the vote endorsing the different strong resolutions for suffrage was kept from being unanimous by only one voice. In the last convention the only mention of the subject considered necessary, besides the splendid report of our political equality chairman, was a motion to ask Gov. Cates to call a special session of the Florida legislature to ratify the federal amendment, as it is being done in other states. This motion carried.

While the federation stands by a big majority, for equal suffrage, it has many other interests, and has given and sacrificed much for these interests. We will work as long as necessary for the increased power the ballot will give us to render service to our state. It is the custom of women voters everywhere to be very conservative with regard to party affiliations, and we, who have not yet won the franchise, are adhering strictly to this principle.

In 1914, when the first mention of suffrage was made from the floor of the Lakeland convention, we numbered 83 federated club in Florida. Today, although we have taken an unmistakable stand for women's suffrage, our number of federated clubs in Florida is very near to 2000. We do not make the statement that there are no anti-suffragists in our membership of about 10,000 women, but we certainly know of no entire club in Florida that has left the federation because of this question, or that opposes it. Neither have we knowledge of any women who have left our ranks because we are working for the ballot. On the contrary, the president of the Equal Suffrage Association, Mrs. John T. Fuller, of Orlando, is a chairman in the Florida federation. Mrs. Edgar Lewis, first vice president F. E. S. A. is the retiring president of the federation. Other names appearing on the list of officers of the suffrage association are Miss Elizabeth Skinner, Mrs. C. E. Hawkins, both vice presidents of the federation, Mrs. Amos Norris a federation chairman, and Mrs. J. D. Stringfellow and Mrs. J. M. McCollum of Gainesville, long identified with the state woman's club work.

We can't quite see why Florida club women should take heed. If it is because of the anti-suffragists among us we have no fear of their not progressing eventually with the women of every English speaking nation on the globe. New York tells us that her one time anti's are splendid voter today:

LET FLORIDA CLUB WOMEN HEED

In a recent issue of the Herald quoting the Tampa Tribune an editorial headed "Let Florida Women Heed" went the Florida Women's Club endorsing Woman's Suffrage. Mrs. McCullum state president make the following reply that will be of interest to women everywhere:

Under the headlines "Let Florida Clubwomen Heed" there appears in the Gainesville Daily News of December 24 a story of the endorsement of the Susan B. Anthony amendment by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs. The editorial speaks of "steam-rolling" to pass this measure, and claims that the results have been disastrous.

The opening paragraph tells of the scope and usefulness of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs, and truthfully asserts that the constitution guarantees it to be non-political and non-sectarian. If the majority's voting to ask for
