Vietnam War

WASHINGTON (AP) - Louis delendez wasn't supposed to be n Vietnam- but the Army says chances he'll be punished for deserting basic training are slight indeed. After all, how many soldiers go absent without leave to fight in Vietnam? That's what the 18 year old Melendez did-twice. The native of Bayamon, Puerto Rico, currently is at Walter Reed Millitary Hospital here, undergoing treatment for shrapnel wounds suffered during his second stint on the front lines. He still wants to go back to Vietnam and "do something for my country," he told the Washington Post. Melendez Joined the Army last November and was assigned to training at Ft. Ben ning, Ga.

"But you know," he told the Post, "I was sitting there after three weeks of training and I had seven more weeks to go when I heard they wanted me to go to jump school, which was going to be another four weeks. "That morning I read about how 250 Green Berets had been killed in battle and that depressed me very much." He said he deserted camp and took a plane from Atlanta to New York. He reported to Ft. Hamilton in Brooklyn, and there told officers he was home on emergency leave from Vietnam. He also said he was due back the next day but had lost his or

Melendez flew to San Francisco, where he boarded a Vietnam bound plane. Arriving in Vietnam, he showed his Ft. Hamilton-drafted orders and was assigned to the Fifth Special Forces. He served and fought with the unit for three months before his past caught up and he was shipped back to Ft. Benning. But he stayed only a week before going AWOL again. Using the same scheme, he said he not only made it back to Vietnam but was assigned again to the Fifth Special Forces. He fought with a unit in the Mekong Delta. where he was wounded May 15. His repeat ruse was uncovered during his subsequent stay in a U.S. hospital in Japan. The Post quoted Col. Richard Louis Traub, commander of the medical holding company at Walter Reed, as saying Melen-
