Altamonte Waives Bidding To Purchase 5 New Autos

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

The Altamonte Springs Board of Commissioners voted unanimously Tuesday night to waive bid requirements for purchasing five new automobiles for city administrators.

According to City Commissioner Lee Constantine, the bid requirement is being waived to allow the city to purchase the automobiles now while prices are low compared to what they will be when the 1982 automobiles go on the market.

The new vehicles will replace several older vehicles currently used by the city, City Manager Jeff Etchberger said.

"Some of our cars are old police cars and we will auction them off when the new vehicles are purchased," he said.

Etchberger presented city commissioners with a price list of various makes and models of automobiles from area dealerships. The list includes five 1981 Ford Fairmonts from Don Reid Ford at $34,405.84; five 1981 Chevrolet Citations from Roger Holler Chevrolet, $36,917; five 1981 Pontiac Phoenix from Bob Endicott Pontiac, $39,260.55; five 1981 Oldsmobile Omegas from Scott Smith Oldsmobile, $38,947.65; five 1981 AMC Concordos from Royal AMC, $35,503 (not including power steering or power brakes); five 1981 Plymouth Reliants (K-Cars) from Clark-Chrysler Plymouth, $36,060; and five 1981 Dodge Aries from Luke Potter Dodge, $36,540.11.

Etchberger said he favors purchasing the five 1981 Ford Fairmonts from Don Reid Ford for purposes of "standardization."

"We already have parts available for the Fairmonts because we use that vehicle in the city and I think it would be best, based upon recommendations I have received from staff, to stay with the Fairmonts," he said.

And, dealing with either Don Reid or Don Mealey could "save us substantially about $4,000 to $4,400 on the vehicle purchases," he said.

Altamonte police are currently using the Chevrolet Malibu, however, Etchberger said the Malibu is "too much car for administrative needs."

The five new vehicles will be utilized by department heads, division heads and building officials, Etchberger said.

City officials "on call" for various reasons and city-related duties are allowed, by city policy, to take the vehicles home overnight, he said.

"We review the number of calls city officials make, periodically to determine the need to take a vehicle home," Etchberger said.

City commissioners asked Etchberger to further investigate the vehicle purchase and make a recommendation to the commission as soon as possible.

Sanford Man Charged With Robbery Of S&L

By BILL HORNING
Herald Staff Writer

A detailed description of a robber and his car led Sanford police to identify the suspect of a $10,540 savings and loan association robbery within 45 minutes of the incident Tuesday, leading to the arrest of a 23-year-old Sanford man.

Lynn Andrew Tranchine was arrested at his home without incident by Sanford detectives at 9:24 p.m. for the robbery of the First Federal Savings and Loan of Mid-Florida, 3090 S. Orlando Drive. Police said they recovered all but $150 so far.

Police said Tranchine entered the S&L at 3:02 p.m. and wrote a note on an S&L form to the teller instructing her to put large bills into a large, blue bank bag, which he gave her. Robin Bierly, the teller, complied with the demand and Tranchine ran out the door into his 1972 red and white Pontiac Grand Prix and drove off going west on Airport Boulevard.

Sanford police responded to the S&L's alarm and got a vehicle description and license plate number.

LYNN TRANCHINE
...Suspect in savings and loan robbery arrested by Sanford police Tuesday night.

Police went to Tranchine's home on 205 Borada Ave. within 45 minutes and waited for Tranchine to return.

The FBI and the Seminole County Sheriff's department were involved in the investigation, said Sanford Police Sgt. Herb Shea, assistant to the chief. But police had Tranchine's home under surveillance before other departments had time to assist, he said.

Tranchine was arrested outside his home upon his return, Shea said. Tranchine was in a different car at the time, but Shea would not elaborate on the car's description or owner.

Shea would also not comment on where the money was found.

"I can't commend the Sanford Police Department enough," said First Federal's vice president Dot Brenner. Through a quick response and being able to process the information quickly, Mrs. Brenner said, the police department almost apprehended the man immediately. "I can't praise them enough," she said.

"They (the tellers) handled it beautifully," Mrs. Brenner said. "In our seminars, robbery is a constant subject — we either end with it or begin with it," she said.

Sgt. Shea agreed the tellers did a good job of identifying Tranchine, and quick reaction to get a description of the car made the arrest easy.

According to police Tranchine was being held in Seminole County Jail pending an initial hearing at 1:30 p.m. today.

Tranchine was described as a "well-mannered" man by Mrs. Brenner. "In fact, when he came in, one of the girl's windows was closed and one girl on the other side said she could help him, and then the teller on the other side asked — he began shuffling between windows."

No weapon was shown but the teller was unable to tell if he had one under his clothing, Shea said.

This was the first bank robbery at the S&L branch, Mrs. Brenner said.

In response to how she reacted to the robber's note, teller Bierly said "(You do) everything you've always heard to do — but it's scary. I did what he told me," she said.

Contract Will Upgrade Ambulance Service

By DARLENE JENNINGS
Herald Staff Writer

The Seminole County Commission has accepted a $120,000 contract with Herndon Ambulance Inc., for 1981-82 that will pay for addition of paramedics and advanced life support equipment to the ambulance serving the Altamonte Springs-Forest City area. The county's other two ambulances, based in Sanford and Casselberry already are so equipped.

Barbara Smith, county emergency services coordinator, said with the added equipment the contract will offer, the ambulance service will be able to provide better care and improve patient chances for more successful recovery.

The board accepted the ambulance service contract with Herndon at Tuesday's work session in the court house. The renewed contract will be a $12,326 increase over the current $107,674 the county paid the ambulance service last year, Smith said.

Herbert A. Perry Jr., Vice-President of Herndon, told the commissioners the extra money will help the ambulance service upgrade the system so that the response time to emergency calls will be quicker and that service will be better.

"We're not sure how many more lives we will be able to save with the new equipment we will be getting under the contract," said Smith, "but we do know that we will be able to give better care and improve the long term prognosis of the patients," Smith said.

"The quicker that the ambulances are able to arrive, the better care the paramedics can give, and the shorter the stay in the hospital for the patient," she added.

Under the terms of the new contract, the ambulance service must respond for all emergency calls in the urbanized areas of the county in four to seven minutes — from the time the call is received until the ambulance arrives and begins on-scene emergency medical attention to the victim.

The ambulance service is required to respond in 15 minutes or less for rural regions of the county.

Failure to respond in a "timely" manner is grounds for termination of the contract with the county, according to the agreement.

The new contract also requires the ambulance now stationed at Florida Hospital-Altamonte be moved to the county's No. 14 fire station at Douglas Avenue, West of Interstate 4. This is the ambulance that will receive paramedic staff and advanced life support (ALS) equipment.

The ambulance will be moved to facilitate quicker response, Smith said.

"It's a real nightmare trying to get across I-4 and State Road 436, especially during the peak hours of 4 to 7 p.m.," Smith said.

"With the move to the Douglas station, the ambulance will be able to respond to a call in 5 to 12 minutes depending upon where it is going," she said. "It's a shame when a patient can't get service because the ambulance is caught in traffic," she added.

To become an ALS unit, the vehicle that will be moved to Douglas Ave. station will receive $19,694 in communications equipment. The equipment includes a communications radio for transmitting and receiving calls and a cardiac monitoring system. The equipment has the technology to send electrocardiogram strips to a hospital for a physician to analyze.

One problem still exists with the county and the ambulance service contract and the county has asked Smith and Perry to resolve it on their own.

Smith told the county commissioners Tuesday she would prefer ambulance dispatching be done by the Seminole County Fire Communications Center rather than continuing to allow the Orange County Communications center to dispatch the vehicles.

Smith said on Monday, it took 19 minutes for an ambulance to respond to a call which should have taken four minutes. She said this is just one of many examples she wants the county to keep in mind when considering changing dispatching responsibilities.

County Contemplates Precinct Redistricting

According to state law, now is the time county governments may redistrict precincts for voting purposes if the precincts have become too large.

Tuesday the Seminole County Commissioners said there are several precincts the board is considering redistricting at this time.

Some of the voting districts the county is considering redistricting are:

61, Forest City; 10, Lake Mary; 24, Winter Springs; 33, Longwood; 48, Altamonte Springs; and 8, Casselberry.

The number of registered voters in these precincts ranges from 1,631 in Lake Mary to 2,400 in Winter Springs.

The last time the commission redistricted voting precincts was in 1976.

The last time the county went through redistricting, 10 precincts were divided to create 10 more districts.

However, the county may have difficulty this time in redistricting, according to Woody Price, planning director.

Price says there were some apparent mistakes made in taking the census in some areas of the county by the federal Census Bureau.

"In the attempt to break down existing census tracts to precincts, it appears some precincts are wrong,"

Price said. "Some precincts show, according to the census, that there are 2,000 people in an area — and the actual number of people in the area is very different, or the census shows there are no people living in a particular precinct," Price said.

Young Joe Undercuts 'Big Guys'

United Press International

Joseph P. Kennedy II, 29, son of the late Robert F. Kennedy, is in the business of selling home heating oil — at half price. Kennedy is the president of Citizens Energy Corp., a Boston-based nonprofit firm he founded in 1979 that sells home heating oil to the state of Massachusetts for low cost distribution to the poor. It accepts no government or private donations, but pays its way by selling non-home heating oil at a profit.

Last year, according to Venture magazine, the company sold 13 million gallons of No. 2 heating oil that went to residents at between 47 and 50 cents a gallon.

"We shouldn't be able to compete," Kennedy is quoted as saying. "We don't own our own ships, we don't have a refinery. Yet we're able to beat the big guys by 40 cents a gallon and better. And they say they need more profits for exploration!"

Sanford May Get $4 Million Shopping Center

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

A $4 million shopping center, containing 80,000 square feet of space, is to be constructed in Sanford on a 16-acre parcel at the corner of Country Club Road and Airport Boulevard, if a rezoning request from the developer receives approval from the city commission.

The Robert L. Ward Co. of Orlando, with the blessing of the city's planning and zoning commission, will take its request for rezoning of the parcel from multiple residential (MR) to commercial to the commission at its 7 p.m. meeting Monday.

Susan Stewart, the developer's representative, said today the shopping center is to have a grocery store, a drug store and other stores rented by local tenants.

She said ground breaking is scheduled for the next 60-to-90 days with construction expected to be completed six to seven months thereafter.

The city commission will also consider a request from the Rib Shack, 2545 French Ave., for permission to sell beer and wine at the restaurant. Planning and Zoning commissioners recommended the commission approve the request.

In other action, the planning and zoning commission approved a site plan for a 2,700 foot office building on the corner of Katherine Court and French Avenue, across from the Babcock Furniture Store.

Owner Tracy Fairfield said the building will contain three rental offices and will be of concrete block and wood construction. A time schedule for the construction has not as yet been set, Fairfield said.

The Planning and Zoning Commission tabled until further information is available the site plan submitted for Maranatha Pentecostal Church for a parcel on W. 7th Street.

The meeting will be held at Sanford City Hall, 300 N. Park Ave., Sanford.

Car Wash Loophole

There's a "leak" in the Winter Springs moratorium on watering.

Several complaints were raised during the Winter Springs City Council meeting Tuesday night about residents not heeding the ban on watering of lawns and gardens between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Winter Springs resident Ellen Weias said she didn't feel many citizens know the moratorium went into effect, Sept. 9 and, secondly, questioned if washing cars and driveways were included under the guidelines.

City Attorney Al Cook said the wording only mentioned lawn and shrubbery watering so, apparently, keeping a clean car or driveway is not a violation.

Responding quickly, Weias asked: "If I put my car on the lawn and wash it and some of the water sprinkles on the grass, would that be OK?"

Through the laughter, Cook replied it would be legal.

County Receives $61,596 Grant

Pilot Program To Help Parents Of Handicapped

By DIANE M. JEFFERSON
Herald Staff Writer

"When you have a handicapped child, you are out in an ocean all by yourself."

Carol Long should know. Her son Mark is a victim of cerebral palsy. Smiling, possessing boundless good humor and gentle brown eyes that twinkle with amusement, Mark cannot control the movements of his body. He cannot lift a spoon to his mouth to feed himself. His leg will suddenly kick forward in a spasm, and his hand refuses to remain in one position long enough to grasp a pen.

When the Long family moved to Florida from Michigan the Cerebral Palsy Foundation was supposed to arrange for Mark to be enrolled at a Seminole County school and ship his records there.

But school officials never received the records. Nor did Mark Long's name appear on their roster of new students. And without his records from Michigan, Mark couldn't go to school.

The incident happened a few years ago. But Carol remembers the frantic scramble to locate Mark's records, the frustrating ride on a merry-go-round of federal bureaucrats taking her in circles from one office to another.

"Sometimes I get so fed up with red tape and bureaucracy I want to throw up my hands and scream," she said.

There are 4,000 handicapped students in Seminole County schools. Their parents call the Seminole County School Board to ask questions from "How do I find a wheelchair?" to "Where can I get a tutor for my child?" The handicaps vary from physical ones like poor eyesight to mental or emotional disabilities. Often calling the school administration is the last resort for these parents in a frustrating string of phone calls from one office to another.

But thanks to a new federal grant, more help is on the way.

Seminole County has been awarded $61,596 for 1981-82 for the first year of a 2-year effort to develop a resources guide for aiding parents of handicapped children.

To begin with, the grant will enable Seminole County School's newly appointed Home School Information Specialist Eileen Rogers to train parents and teachers in problem-solving techniques, including how to be more resourceful. In a unique format, Rogers will train one parent and one teacher from each of the county's 43 public and one private school. The training will take place for one week in January.

At the end of the training the parent-teacher "teams" will go back to their schools and begin training other parents and faculty members. While the parents will be trained, they will also be used as a source for information that is needed.

The end product will be a resources guide.

By the end of two years, participants at each school will have determined what material they think should be included in the guide to help parents locate information they need. The training manual and the self-help materials will be sent to other counties in the state, as a model. Then intentions are to distribute it nationwide.

"The grant is to address all exceptionalities, handicapped persons ages zero to 21. It is to address all parents and all needs," Rogers said. "It's an attempt to put in the hands of the parent-teacher team in each school a guide that will say 'Here's where it is' and 'You go to this place to find out that.' Hopefully it will cut a lot of the going in circles for information."

Rogers' $17,806 per year post was created as part of the grant. Previously she worked for Seminole County as a vision consultant at an annual salary of $15,582. According to Seminole County Schools' Personnel Director Owen McCarron, Rogers has been a teacher for nine years, the past seven with Seminole County. She has a Bachelor's degree.

The new program, Rogers said, will be beneficial simply by bringing parents of

Squatters, Police Battle In Berlin; 122 Arrested

BERLIN (UPI) — Youths battled Berlin police through the night in rioting that spread to other major West German cities after a teenager died in fighting between 2,000 police and hundreds of squatters refusing to vacate houses.

Riot police used tear gas, water cannons and clubs to disperse hundreds of youths, many masked and wearing helmets for protection. Police said the violence continued today as groups of between 50 and 100 youths set fire to barricades and stoned police.

Police said at least 122 people were arrested and reported injuries on both sides but gave no details.

One witness said the violence resembled "scenes from a civil war" and another said it "looked like Northern Ireland."

In Frankfurt, an estimated 350 youths threw stones and bricks at police and in Bremen, 300 militants smashed windows and damaged police cars. More than 120 youths rioted in Hannover.

The violence began Tuesday morning when a force of almost 2,000 riot police burst into eight buildings in West Berlin's Schoeneberg district to evict squatters.

Rescue Of Seamen Tried

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — Rescuers called in navy welders today to cut through to seamen heard tapping for help inside a Philippine navy destroyer smashed into a reef three days ago by Typhoon Clara.

The U.S. Military Airlift Command said sounds had been heard inside the hull and work gangs were being brought to the site of the overturned destroyer Datu Kalantia.

The Philippine Defense Ministry in its latest report today said 78 Filipinos were still missing four days after Clara's high winds Sunday tossed the destroyer onto a reef off Calayan Island, 330 miles north of Manila.

The ministry said 18 people were rescued and one body was fished from the water. U.S. Navy helicopters assisting in the search Tuesday reported seeing "lots of bodies floating."

Poles May Face Oil Cut-Off

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) — A powerful hard-line Polish official warned Moscow may cut off vital oil supplies unless authorities silence Solidarity's "anti-Soviet" campaign and called on the union to join a National Unity Front to save Poland.

Poliburo member Stefan Olszowski diverged sharply from the attacks on the union in recent weeks to ask Solidarity Tuesday to unite with other social and political groups, including the church, to "save the motherland."

Refugees Lead Police On Wild, Fatal Chase Through Streets Of Miami

MIAMI (UPI) — A Metro Dade County policeman died and another was critically injured early today when the car they were riding in smashed into a utility pole during a high speed chase of two men suspected of robbing two convenience stores, police said.

Metro officer Ed Young was killed instantly when he lost control of the unmarked police car he was driving. Officer Al Goodall, was critically injured and was rushed to a Miami hospital, Metro spokesman Pete Cuccaro said.

The two suspects, both refugees from the Mariel boatlift, fled after the car they were traveling in crashed into a wall. One of the suspects, Jorge Valle, 22, was immediately apprehended.

The other suspect, Roberto Del Sol, 18, was arrested a few hours later as he "tried to blend into the crowd near the police search command post," a Metro spokesman said. Del Sol is also suspected of another unrelated Miami murder, Cuccaro said.

The incident began when the South Miami police officer saw a white Oldsmobile in front of a convenience store matching the description of a car that was involved in another convenience store robbery earlier in the evening, Cuccaro said.

As the officer pulled into the store's parking lot, Valle and Del Sol ran out of the store, got into the white Oldsmobile and sped away, Cuccaro said. The officer began following the suspect's car, he said.

"At the same time this was occurring, the convenience store employee reported the robbery, so the officer knew that it was a robbery and probably the same people involved in the earlier incident so he began chasing the suspects," Cuccaro said.

Young and Goodall, both recent Metro Officers of the Month, were in the area and began chasing Valle and Del Sol, who had opened fire on the South Miami officer. As the Metro officers tried to pass a car, Young lost control of the vehicle and crashed into a utility pole.

A few minutes later, the driver of the suspect's car lost control of the vehicle and crashed into a wall. Valle and Del Sol fled on foot but continued firing at the South Miami officer, Cuccaro said.

Canine units from Hialeah, Coral Gables and Metro Dade County were called in and quickly helped apprehend Valle, who was hiding underneath a mattress in an apartment building hallway.

Metro officer Charles Weldon, whose dog, Caesar, picked up on Valle's scent and led officers to the apartment building, said the suspect resisted arrest and grabbed for his partner's shotgun, "but then the dog bit him and he let go of the gun."

Young and Goodall were in the unmarked car as part of a new plan for catching burglary and robbery suspects in the crime riddled south Miami area.

Alert Citizen Disrupts Parking Lot Assault

Efforts of a would-be robber were thwarted Monday by the efforts of an Altamonte Springs citizen, according to city police.

Police said Merrian J. Bay, 47, 253 Tollgate Trail, Longwood, parked her car at the southeast corner parking lot near Jordan Marsh at the Altamonte Mall and was walking toward the store when an unknown man motioned to her with his hand. Mrs. Bay told police she kept walking toward the store, glancing over her shoulder at the man.

The man walked up behind Mrs. Bay quickly and said, "Freeze lady," producing a small, black handgun from his jogging suit pocket, police said.

Gary D. Bobrowski, 507 Puerta Court, Altamonte Springs, told police he saw Mrs. Bay and noticed she was "shaking very badly." Bobrowski drove his vehicle in the direction of Mrs. Bay and the man.

Mrs. Bay said the man told her to keep walking toward a parked car and then, he fled on foot to a parked car occupied by another man and drove eastbound on State Road 436, police said.

No arrests were made.

GAS STATION ROBBERY

An unidentified man entered the Tenneco gas station, 1800 S. French, and robbed clerk Charlotte Cowan of an undetermined amount of money Saturday night according to reports.

The man pulled a revolver and demanded the money, then exited on foot down 18th Street, police said.

A FINE HELLO

Robert Romaine let the two black men in his home probably thinking he was going to have to endure a sales pitch Saturday. That would have been a pleasure compared to what happened.

After letting the two men in, who identified themselves as salesmen, Romaine was jumped and robbed of $140.

Romaine, 32 Park Ave., Sanford, said the men then fled on foot, according to police reports.

ARSON SUSPECTED

Edgar Lemons found his bathroom on fire Saturday night when he entered his apartment on 301 E. 5th Street. After the flame was doused, Sanford police determined the fire was set with gasoline.

An undetermined amount of fire damage was done to the carpet and smoke damage to the walls.

DRUG ARREST

No preliminary hearing date has been set for a 25-year-old Longwood woman arrested Thursday in connection with a month long probe that netted officers approximately $100 in Qualudes and a small amount of marijuana.

Tracy L. White, 302 N. Grant St., Longwood was arrested on six counts of transporting, selling and delivery of controlled substances. Longwood Detective C.H. Pharr said the drugs were valued at approximately $100.

White was arrested along with a 17-year-old male after a direct sale was made to a Seminole County Special Investigation Division agent. White was taken to Seminole County Jail and the male was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Seminole County and Longwood investigators arrested the pair in a shopping center parking lot at State Road 434 and U.S. Highway 17-92, Parr said. Authorities had some information the two were dealing in drugs but couldn't confirm it until recently, Parr said.

MURDER SUSPECTS HELD

Two New Jersey men remained jailed Tuesday awaiting indictments to be handed down by a Hudson County grand jury in the beating death of a Sanford truck driver.

Donald Robert Clark, 29, with a last known address of Long Island, N.Y. and Richard Long, 29, of Jersey City, N.J. were arrested last week in connection with the murder of Homer Russell, who had been found bludgeoned to death Sept. 12. Clark was arrested on murder and robbery charges, Long was being held as a material witness.

I.I. John Farley, of the Hudson County Homicide Squad said the case has been referred to the grand jury and he expected an indictment within the next few weeks.

Russell was found dead in his tractor-trailer rig as it sat in a Kearny, N.J. truckstop. Autopsy reports show Russell died of a fractured skull before being discovered several days later.

Russell was robbed of personal items, a CB radio, and $300 in cash.

In Winter Springs

$2 Million Budget OK'd

After one last unsuccessful effort by councilman Wilfred "Hap" Arnold to have $100,000 chopped from the city's 1981-82 budget, the Winter Springs City Council approved the $2 million spending plan 4-to-1 Tuesday night.

Arnold repeated an earlier request to kill $100,000 in expenditures and pigeonhole the money in a "reserve fund" to help the city through the expected lean years forthcoming. Arnold said a 10.25 percent pay increase for the city's 58 employees was too much, the street maintenance budget of $125,000 was too high, and the council should reconsider installing a $35,000 spotlight on the corner of Edgemon and State Road 434.

Except for some support from councilman Jim Hartman over the spotlight issue, Arnold was alone in his fight to reduce the budget. A motion to strike the spotlight purchase out of the budget was defeated 3-to-2.

The council also adopted a municipal tax rate of $2.05 per $1,000 assessed property valuation, which reflects a 3.4 percent decrease over the 1980-81 rate.

During the budget hearing, Arnold argued the city should have reserve funds so it will be prepared for any revenue shortfalls in the coming years.

Councilman Martin Trencher disagreed, saying the city has a $175,000 reserve for that very situation. Arnold countered that the money will be to pay the city's bills during the first months of the fiscal year when little or no revenue is coming in and was not readily available.

"Rather than spending every dollar we're taking in, let's put aside some for a future rainy day," Arnold said.

During Tuesday's debate, Arnold said a "prudent city manager" would recognize that the federal government is cutting back and it would be wise to do it on a local level. In casting his lone, dissenting vote, Arnold said, "I object to the way the money is being spent."

During the year, the city is planning to spend $170,000 for street and drainage improvements; hire two additional police officers, implement the first phase of a $60,000 paramedic program; and hike city workers' salaries 10 percent, including a 2 percent raise for certain long-time workers.

Altamonte Lowers Taxes; Approves 1981-82 Budget

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

The Altamonte Springs Board of Commissioners unanimously approved the city's fiscal 1981-82 budget Tuesday night. The budget — totaling $14,777,096 — requires a tax rate of $3.85 per $1,000 of assessed property value, according to City Manager Jeff Etchberger. The proposed tax hike is four cents less per $1,000 assessed property value than fiscal 1981, Etchberger said.

Also at Tuesday's meeting, the commission gave tentative approval to an increase in collection fees. If the increase is approved at the Oct. 6 commission meeting, city residents receiving the refuse collection service can expect to pay $5.65 per month for the service, a monthly increase is 15 cents higher than the current rate.

The rate hike is a result of an unexpected $13,500 increase in garbage disposal fees the city pays to the county landfill, according to city officials.

In other action, commissioners voted unanimously Tuesday night to award the city's janitorial service contract to Oxford Building Services, 4211 N. Orange Blossom Trail, Orlando, for $11,280.

According to City Manager Jeff Etchberger, Oxford Building Services was the lowest of four bids received by the city. Other bidders included Ship Shape Building Maintenance, $11,760; Bill's Janitorial Service, $11,880; and Lima Enterprises, $12,000.

Etchberger had previously recommended the city commissioners approve awarding the contract to Bill's Janitorial Service because of their stated intentions to retain city personnel currently employed in janitorial service. However, Bill's offer to pay existing personnel $3.50 per hour for 15 hours work per week was refused by the city employees for economic reasons, he said.

Also Tuesday, the commission unanimously appointed F. Jon Martin, of Tallahassee, as the city's Director of Community Development.

According to City Manager Jeff Etchberger, Martin will begin performing the duties of his $21,500 a year job on Oct. 12. The city commission also voted to pay moving expenses for Martin and his family from Tallahassee.

Martin, who holds a master's degree from Georgia State University in community development, is currently the director of community development for Leon County, Tallahassee.

NATION

IN BRIEF

South May Not Rise Again Thanks To Reagan Policies

RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI) — The South's efforts to achieve social and economic parity with the rest of the nation could be hampered by slashes in federal aid for human service programs, a University of Texas at Dallas economics professor says.

"The near-term fiscal outlook for state and local governments can only be described as bleak across most of the South," Bernard L. Weinstein said Tuesday during a Southern Growth Policies Board workshop.

Weinstein said federal budget cuts will hurt the South, America's poorest region, more than any other part of the country. Because it depends heavily on Washington for funding education, welfare, unemployment pay and housing, the South also will be less able to make up for federal cuts than other regions, he said.

Weinstein said the South gets half of the money it spends on human service programs from the federal government. For the nation as a whole, federal aid makes up only 36 percent of the total, he said.

Reshuffling Budget Cuts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Faced with congressional complaints about proposed Social Security cutbacks, President Reagan may have to find new ways to trim spending before announcing his plans Thursday in a nationally broadcast speech.

The president's top advisers assembled Tuesday to wrestle with the problems posed by Reagan's determination to balance the budget by 1984, bolster military might and hold the 1982 deficit to what some economists believe to be an unrealistically low target of $42.5 billion.

Treasury Secretary Donald Regan told Congress the administration will not retreat from its economic program, despite suggestions from Capitol Hill the tax cut scheduled to go into effect Oct. 1 be postponed to keep the deficit from swelling.

Regan confirmed the president will propose new reductions of $16 billion in 1982 spending, but he declined to say whether he will accede to congressional pressure and drop a proposal to defer cost-of-living increases in Social Security benefits.

Diablo Protest Crumbling

AVILA BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — The eight-day Diablo Canyon protest verged on collapse today, with anti-nuclear activists talking of halting their plant blockade after more than 1,500 arrests. National Guardsmen, no longer needed, headed home.

Dwindling ranks of demonstrators failed Tuesday to block employees from entering the newly licensed power plant on the central California coast, where preparations are under way for start-up.

San Luis Obispo County officers arrested 137 protesters, bringing the total for the demonstration to 1,502.

"We're going through strategies on how to end it. One last show of force may be more important than trickling to an end," said Marilyn Apuzzo, a spokeswoman for the organizing Abalone Alliance, which had wanted to blockade the plant for a month to prevent it from being activated.

Woolly Worms Do Not Lie; Winter To Be Long, Cold

Farrish Tackett says his woolly worms know their stuff and Dick Frymire swears by the temperature of his Japanese maple tree. If they're right, today's official debut of fall means it's time to begin stocking up for a tough winter.

Tackett, 93, says shaggy woolly worms don't tell lies. "I've only seen one or two, but that's enough," said Tackett, who lives on Buntown Holler Road in Givens, Ohio, population 50. "Their hair is thick and solid and that means an early fall and a hard, long winter."

"Corn shucks are heavier this year than usual and that's not good either."

Of his predictions, Tackett boasted, "I come out pretty good."

Frymire of Irvington, Ky., thinks his Japanese maple tree is much more reliable, provided one uses some special forecasting techniques.

"I check the bark, any mold and fungus on the bark, the leaves and seed pods and thermometers in the heart of the tree," he said. "I have one outside the tree, another in the tree's heart and two at the base checking ground temperature at 2 and 4 inches."

Frymire said his prognosticating tree indicates Nashville, Tenn., will get its first snow Nov. 29 and receive 9 inches for the season. He said Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., will receive its first snow Oct. 5 and receive 133 inches for the winter.

New York will receive 28 inches of snow this winter and Chicago 42 inches, he said.

Some skeptics are hard to convince. Cy Place, 87, a Rhode Island farmer says predictions of a harsh winter are hogwash.

Place said woolly worms and maple trees are not to be trusted and only the cycles of the land have an accurate role in folklore weather forecasting.

His prediction: another mild winter.

"I never got into the caterpillar business," said Place, a Coventry, R.I., farmer who calls himself semi-retired. "My experience is based on cycles. The dry cycles last about three years. This is the third year."

Place predicted "a good winter for very little snow. We're still in a dry cycle. As long as it lasts, I don't think we'll get much snow. It takes water, you know."

Then there's the bug, bird and plant experts at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. They contended none of the above is true — the fall migration of birds, a caterpillar's band and nut-burying habits of squirrels are have no bearing on the severity of winter.

Robert Roselle, entomology professor at the university, said most natural explanations people use to predict weather are fables.

"I don't think the worms know," said Roselle. But he conceded stable flies react to atmospheric pressure and often bite more severely just before a rain, although not far enough in advance to beat weather forecasters.

In North Orlando Ranches

Council Splits On Land Split

An appeal to allow a land split in the North Orlando Ranches development, which sparked some public opposition for fear it could prompt a landslide of such requests, was turned down Tuesday night by the Winter Springs City Council.

Denied by a 3-to-2 vote, the council upheld a July 23 city Board of Adjustment recommendation halting the split of a 5-acre parcel into two lots. Developers had hoped the split would make the land, located on the north side of Bahama Road just east of Moss Road, more attractive to buyers.

Because of zoning restrictions, a large land owner couldn't "even have chickens or horses on the property," said Gary Hunt, agent for developer J.R. Hattaway. Being able to build more homes would increase the tax base and make the land usable again, he said.

Several councilmen pointed out that Hattaway had created his own hardship when he split an original 15-acre piece two times previously, so the council was not obligated to help remedy the situation.

Hattaway countered by saying that under the present zoning, he could develop the land into a platted subdivision and rather than having two homes on the land he could have three to five. Hattaway said he chose not to do that since he wanted to keep the parcels over 2-acres in size and consistent with other developments in the area.

Hattaway originally owned approximately 15 acres in the area. After being approved, that acreage was split into two 7 1/2-acre parcels. A Presbyterian church bought about five acres of one of the parcels, leaving a small, 2 1/2-acre piece plus the other 7 1/2 acres. Hattaway later split the remaining 7 1/2 acres, selling one of the halves. With approximately 5 acres left, Hattaway was unable to sell the property contending it was useless as one large chunk.

Opponents said if the council allowed a third split — making a 2.2 acre and 2.8 parcel out of the remaining land — a precedent would be set allowing land to be split as many times as an owner wanted.

In addition to the land split argument, several neighbors complained about Hattaway not being required to make improvements to the land.

Hattaway received the waiver when the Board of Adjustments agreed with his claim that the financial burden of installing paved streets, drainage, and water and sewer lines was too great considering that two houses would be built on the land.

Richard Buchanio, 258 Panama Road, said he would split his property for resale purposes also if he knew he could receive a waiver for installing the improvements.

"If splits are allowed without improvements, it's not going to be a plus for the city, it's going to be a minus," he said.

Buchanio said the city would suffer most in the area of fire protection since the water to fight a fire would not be available to an unimproved area.

Buchanio said he liked the idea of higher density development, though, because it would reduce fire insurance rates — if the improvements were installed.

Even with the split denied, the waiver is effective for six months in case the developers want to subdivide the land.

Didn't Examine Fine Print, Now Family's Evicted

By United Press International

A weeping father and his family of four were evicted by a wealthy lawyer who sold them their house in Hull, England 18 years ago with a bill of sale containing a clause allowing him to buy it back at the same price. "We were good friends for years and I thought he was a gentleman," said Tom Daney Friday. "I trusted him so I didn't examine the fine print. Now it's cost me and my family our home."

Bailiffs evicted Danby, 43, his wife Patricia, 39, and their three teenage children Thursday.

Danby bought the rundown cottage near Hull from attorney Richard Langdale for $4,580 and spent thousands of dollars renovating the property. Today it is said to be worth around $45,750.

But Langdale, who lives in a $275,000 manor overlooking the property, exercised his right to buy it back at the original price, offering $7,300 to compensate for renovation.

Langdale's firm drew up the contract containing the clause, which a lawyer with experience in real estate called "an unheard-of" condition.

Charts New Course

Diana Nyad, who holds the open ocean distance swimming record with her 1979 89-mile splash from Bimini to Florida, has hung up her nose plugs in favor of camera and microphone.

"The big scope for me is television — I'm through with swimming," she told UPI. Miss Nyad, 32, who now works for ABC Wide World of Sports, admitted she was tempted by a 100-mile swim in Japan. "But like my boss at ABC said, 'Swimming is your past and television is your future.' I want to be one of the premiere sportscasters in this country."

Long Life Celebrated

Rosa Deramus celebrated another birthday Sunday in Houston — her 115th. Mrs. Deramus has an old family Bible that says she was born to Prince Earl and freed slave Hester Earl in 1866. If the date could be confirmed, it could make her the world's longest living person with an authenticated life span. The 1981 Guinness Book of World Records says the record now is held by a Japanese man who died in 1980 on his 115th birthday. Mrs. Deramus attributes her long life to hard work and clean living. She neither smokes nor drinks and worked until she was 101 — picking cotton. Her 115th birthday party was attended by some of her 15 grandchildren, 50 great-grandchildren, five great-great-grandchildren and five great, great, great-grandchildren.

Quote Of The Day

Men's liberation is part of the women's movement, according to Betty Friedan in her new book, "The Second Stage," in an exclusive excerpt in Woman's Day magazine.

She quotes Avery Corman, author of "Kramer vs. Kramer," who began taking care of his own children when his wife went to work: "What I've gained is the joy of having my children rely on me. But what I've given up is being waited on. A secret part of me would sometimes like a less equal marriage. At times I'd really like to be the prince of potentates in my own home, sitting there with my pipe and slippers and my wife and children lip-toeing around to please me. But it will never be that way again."

Our computer makes house calls. To save you electricity.

Our computer will check the symptoms that lead to rising energy bills. By performing an energy audit that could help you conserve electricity and save money. And it's only one of three different home energy audits available:

Our Computer-Assisted Energy Audit. An FPL energy expert will come to your home, make a two-hour survey of your energy usage and feed the information into a portable computer terminal which will supply energy-saving recommendations. All for a $15 one-time charge. This audit is most important for homes that use 1700 or more kilowatt hours a month.

Our Walk-Thru Energy Audit. The diagnosis for homes that may not need the computer. One of our trained representatives will come to your home and in 30-45 minutes analyze your energy usage, without charge.

Our Customer-Assisted Energy Audit. With this audit, you supply the basic information, using instructions we furnish. Then we'll complete the analysis for you, again at no charge.

Morrissey Masters Champions, Takes Home Bollettieri Title

Lyman High School senior Brian Morrissey may get a reputation as a champion slayer after his performance in last weekend's Nick Bollettieri's Fourth Annual All-Junior Tennis Tournament in Bradenton.

Morrissey, the number player on the Greyhounds' squad, competed in the 16 and under division with spectacular results. First, he knocked off Jeff Hirsch of Rockville, Md., 2-6, 6-3, 7-6.

In the tiebreaker round, Morrissey soundly whipped the 14-year-old national champion, 7-1.

Thus disposed of one champ, Morrissey moved to the final round where he whipped Canadian champion Chuck Swayne, 6-4, 6-4 for the Bollettieri title.

Morrissey was ranked 17th in the state's 16 and under division and will undoubtedly move up in the ranks after his champion slaying performance.

Gators On Regional TV

STARKVILLE, Miss. (UPI) — Mississippi State can't afford to give up anything Saturday in its regionally televised game against Florida, including short field goals or long kick returns, Bulldog Coach Emory Bellard said Tuesday.

The kicking game could very well be a determining factor in the outcome of the game set for 11:20 a.m. in Starkville's Mississippi Memorial Stadium, Bellard said.

"Florida runs a very similar mode of offense to Vanderbilt, but with more running plays," Bellard said. "They have a tremendous offensive line, and two great quarterbacks in Bob Hewko and Wayne Peace."

State, 2-0, is ranked 14th nationally after victories over Memphis State (20-3) and Vanderbilt (29-9).

Florida is 2-1 after losing to Miami and beating Furman and Georgia Tech.

"Our preparation will have to be good this week," Bellard said. "Any type of uncertainty about what we are doing will take away some of our aggressiveness Saturday."

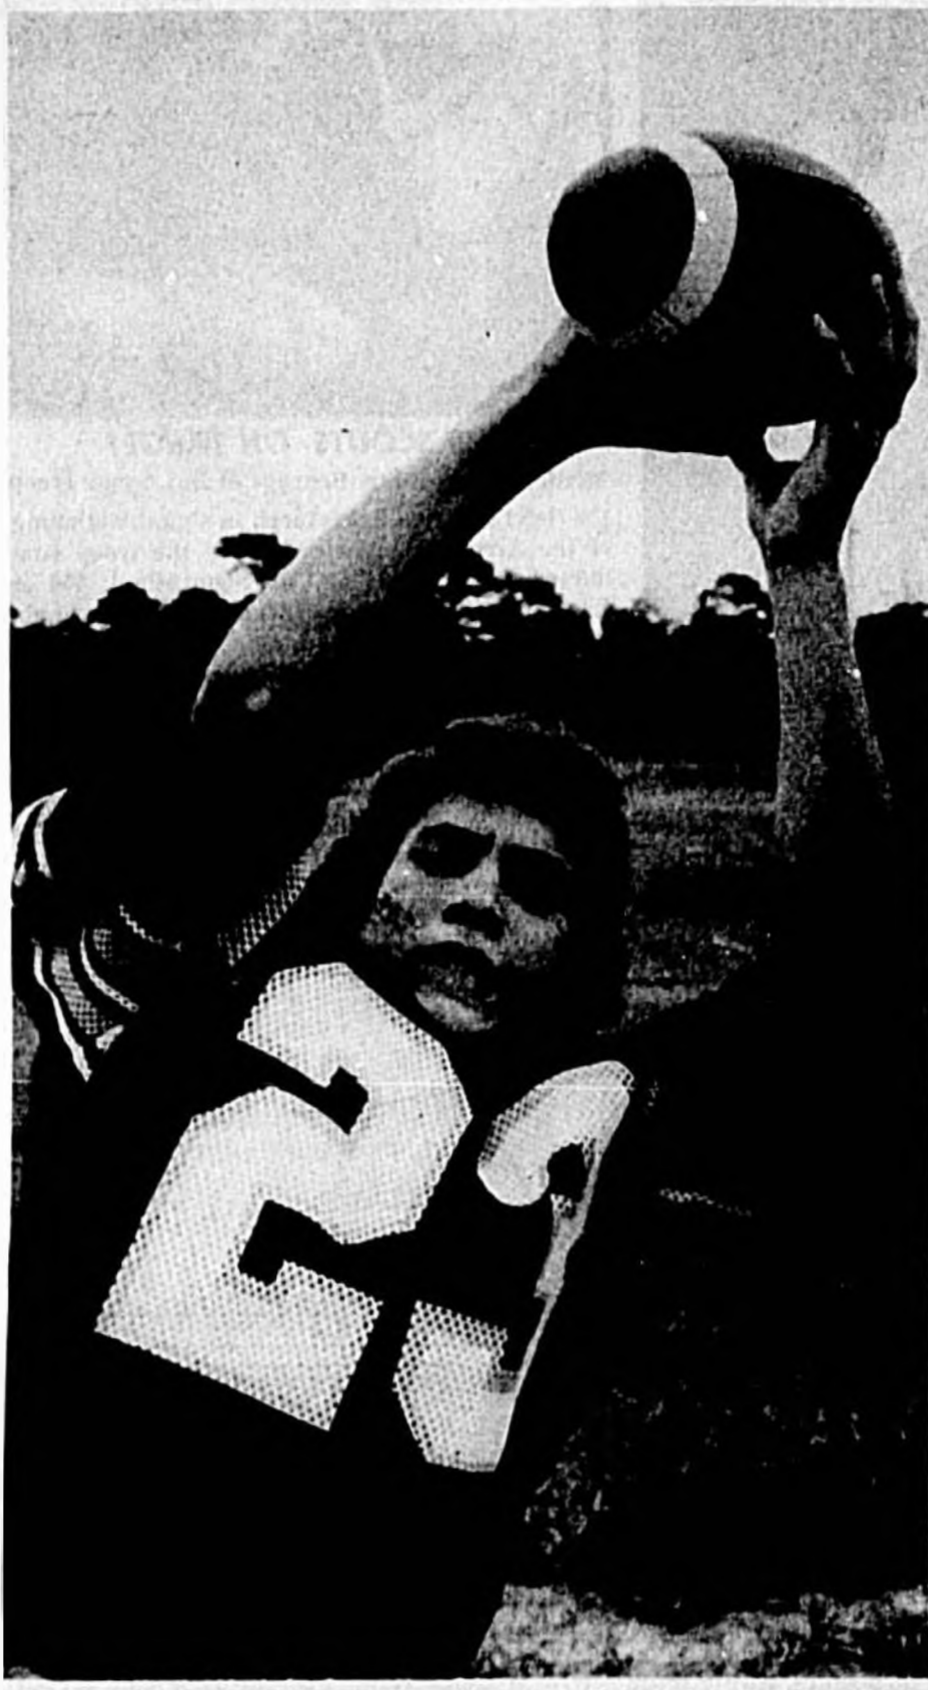

"It's different to prepare this week since we had all that time before the Memphis State game and then two weeks to get ready for Vanderbilt."

"Florida has a very well-balanced team and will cause problems for every team on its schedule this year," he added.

Sanford REC Plans Tourney

An invitational tournament has been slated for October 17th and 18th to be hosted by the City of Sanford. Anyone interested in helping put on the tournament should attend the planning meeting in the Recreation Office of the Civic Center Youth Wing Monday night at 7:30 P.M.

Proceeds from the tournament will go to the Sanford Men's Softball Association. Tournament details will be released after the Monday meeting.

Lake Howell wide receiver Carlos Payas snags a pass during a practice session.

Feather-Missing Hawks Prepare For Astronaut

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

Lake Howell's Silver Hawks may be flying minus a few feathers after two straight losses, but one wouldn't know it after conversing with Head Hawk Mike Bisceglia.

Bisceglia's birds dropped two straight to open the season. The first one was a 20-0 shocker to Bishop Moore. The Hawks had been picked as overwhelming favorites.

Last Friday, Seminole's Alan Cahill clipped the Hawks' wings with a field goal in the third overtime session for a 9-6 Tribe victory.

"Our defense showed tremendous improvement," crooned Bisceglia. Both teams were scoreless in the four quarters of action, stretching each team's goose egg skein to eight quarters.

Bisceglia saw five opportunities to win the game. The Hawks, nevertheless, failed to capitalize on any of them.

Lake Howell had four field goal attempts go astray. On one, a bad snap was the undoing. Two more were just missed, including a chip shot all-purpose tailback Scott Grant hooked left. One kick was blocked.

On the fifth opportunity, one of the Silver Hawks talked back to the official at the 10 yard line and the 15 yards took them out of scoring range.

While the former Hialeah High coach was disturbed with the botched field goals, it was the number of penalties which really ruffled Bisceglia's feathers.

"The penalties killed us," Bisceglia moaned. "Everytime we'd get something going, and we had good drives, the penalty would stop us."

Last year was the first year Lake Howell had a winning season as Coach Sammy Weir guided the Hawks to a district title and conference championship.

Weir was a personable coach and very popular with the Lake Howell fans. He moved on to take a co-head coaching position with Don Jonas at the University of Central Florida.

Does Bisceglia feel any pressure replacing Weir?

"No, it's a job. Anyway, this is a completely different team than last year. Did you know Scott Grant is the only returning offensive starter?" responded Bisceglia.

"We have a lot of young kids. Everybody on the offensive line will be back except one guy," continued Bisceglia. "I feel confident. We have a positive attitude here. This team is really going to improve as the season goes on."

Did the incident with some fans coming to the pep assembly with bags over their heads disturb you?

"No, I don't care about that stuff," he said. "It's part of the job. That stuff doesn't bother me at all."

"Of course it would have been a lot easier coming into a losing program. But you have to realize this is a completely different team. We're going to get better. I assure you."

Bisceglia hopes to get better right away Thursday night when the Silver Hawks travel to Titusville to take on the state's fifth-ranked JA powerhouse — Titusville Astronaut.

Astronaut whipped Seminole in the season opener, 19-0, but Bisceglia is not worried about comparing scores.

"They've got the Bishop Moore films and they're sitting over there giggling," Bisceglia said about the War Eagles. "But we're much better than that game."

"We're going to go over there and knock their jocks off."

As one can ascertain, while the record at Howell is a little frazzled, the confidence is not. Bisceglia feels the Hawks are on the way to recovery and a victory over Astronaut will be a good tonic.

Whether Mike Bisceglia pulls off his first Lake Howell victory or not Thursday night, he can take solace in one fact — there's another coach sitting in the same winless position. His name . . . Sammy Weir.

HAWK HAPPENINGS — Bisceglia is hurting at tight end. Both Fred McNeil and backup Jeff Hughes are injured. McNeil was damaged in the Seminole game and Hughes was hurt in practice.

Running back Ricci Magaro injured his ankle against the Tribe during the first quarter and is listed as "questionable." The same "questionable" is assessed to linebacker Doug Fugleberg.

Lake Howell Seizes Five Star Top Spot; Seminoles Split Two Matches

Lake Howell took over sole possession of first place in Five Star volleyball play Tuesday when it tripped Spruce Creek and Lake Brantley at the Patriot gym.

Coach Jo Luciano's girls dropped the Creek, 15-3, 15-9 and then tripped the Lady Patriots, 15-7, 15-7. In the victory over the Spruce Hawks, consistent serving from Sharon Rogers and spikes by Diane Dumont and Jane Yearick powered the win.

In the second game, freshman Eileen Thiebaud came off the bench with the Hawks down, 9-8 and hit two serves to move them ahead. Yearick then served out the remaining points for the victory.

The Silver Hawks two victories coupled with losses by Seminole and DeLand give the Hawks a one-game lead at 4-0. DeLand, Seminole and Apopka are all 3-1. Brantley is 0-4.

5 Star Volleyball

Apopka, who lost to Howell last week, knocked Donalyn Knight's Tribe from the unbeaten ranks with a nip and tuck 16-14 deciding game. The Lady Blue Darters whipped Seminole, 15-9 in game one before the Tribe rebounded, 15-11 in game two.

"Apopka is pretty strong this year," said Knight Wednesday morning. "There are several good teams. It should make it a real interesting season."

Seminole rolled in match one against

Daytona Beach Seabreeze, 15-3, 15-8. Dee Hogan, Jackie Link and Cindy Pendarvis carried the serving load, while Tony Hardy, Cathy Hall and Laura Grace roughed up Seabreeze around the net. Teri Hardy also added five service points.

"We missed some crucial service points in the loss to Apopka," summed up Knight about the setback. "We were a little jittery. We'll have to grow up some here early in the year."

Tuesday featured a real blockbuster of a tri-match at Lake Howell. Seminole, DeLand and the Silver Hawks will all face off.

Politowicz Leads Prep Past Rams; Takes County Lead

Trinity Prep's Andrea Politowicz may only be an eighth grader, but she stands very tall when it comes to running two miles in Seminole County.

Tuesday, the precocious ninth grader cruised Trinity's two mile course in 13:28 to lead the Saints past Lake Mary, 19-45, in a dual cross country meet.

While Tuesday's time was fine, it didn't compare with the effort she put in last Thursday which vaulted her to the top of the list in Seminole County.

Running the same course for the Edgewater Invitational, Politowicz turned in an excellent 12:30 clocking which nudged her three seconds of Ellen Stern — who had the county's best

Another talented youngster — the Rams' Kim Averill — placed second, 13 seconds behind Politowicz. Averill ran a 13:41, which eclipsed her Lake Mary record by one second.

"Kim's been real consistent," said Mike Gibson, Rams coach. "Her time was just one second different on the same course."

In the boys competition, freshman Tommy Matthews led a Trinity victory, 42-19, by finishing first. Matthews' time was 17:50 for three miles.

Lake Mary's Mark Blythe finished second before the Preppers picked up the next four spots. In seventh was the Rams' Matt Palumbo who set a freshman record by running 20:22. It beat the old mark by three ticks.

Saturday, the Rams take part in the Lake Brantley Invitational held at Seminole Community College beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Florida Roadblock Impedes Path Of Mississippi State Championship

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Sugar Bowl isn't going to like hearing this, but it's beginning to look like Mississippi State may win the Southeastern Conference football championship this fall.

It's not that the folks down in New Orleans have anything personal against Mississippi State, mind you. But when one of the primary reasons for staging a bowl is to draw tourists who will spend the big bucks, you don't want a team from just up the road a piece if you can help it.

Bring in schools like Georgia and Notre Dame and their followers will hang around the French Quarter for three or four days. But going to New Orleans isn't that big a deal when you live in the next state up the line and can make the drive on game day in just a few hours.

Mississippi State is off to a 2-0 start, knocking off supposedly improved Vanderbilt by a relatively easy 29-9 this past Saturday, but we'll get a better line on whether State is better than last season's 8-2 team, when the Bulldogs take on Florida at Jackson this Saturday.

Beat Florida and it would appear that the only real roadblock between State and its first SEC title in 40 years is an

Oct. 31 date with Alabama in Tuscaloosa.

Normally, that would be too big a hurdle. But Mississippi State, which rushed for 423 yards against Vandy which had upset Maryland the week before, knocked off the Crimson Tide (6-3) last year and Alabama has been having its troubles of late — losing to 24-point underdog Georgia Tech and having to come from behind in the closing two minutes to nip Kentucky.

Coach Emory Bellard feels Mississippi State should be a pretty good team by time that Alabama game rolls around.

"We're making progress," he said after the victory over Vandy. "We're playing a better brand of football. We have the makings of a good offensive team."

Florida, which would be a much more welcome guest in New Orleans, also views Saturday's game as its key to what would be the Gators' first-ever SEC title. If Florida, which beat Georgia Tech 27-6, is good enough to beat Mississippi State, it should be good enough to win the rest of its conference games — especially since the Gators don't play Alabama.

Florida, 8-4 last year after going 0-10-

1 in '79 and 2-1 so far this year, beat Mississippi State, 21-15, last season — but that game was at Gainesville, Fla.

"Our players having been waiting all year for another shot at Florida," said Bellard. "We fell coming into this season that we'd be an improved football team and we feel that even more now. We're more knowledgeable on defense."

State's long suit on defense has been against the rush where it has allowed an average of only 89 yards per game.

The odds on defending champion Georgia repeating soared this past Saturday when the Bulldogs were manhandled by Clemson. After looking like world beaters its first two games, Georgia's offense collapsed in the face of Clemson's pressing defense — throwing five interceptions and losing four fumbles.

Georgia Coach Vince Dooley had been saying right along that it was too much to expect his team to live up to last year's performance when the Bulldogs were voted national champion.

"At times, we were simply intimidated by Clemson's defense," said Dooley. "Unless we turn things around, and in a hurry, there are going to be a lot more games this fall that we're going to be hard pressed to win. We were not sound at all."

Mickey Holmes, executive director of the Sugar Bowl, never came right out and said it, but during a luncheon with a group of newsmen last month he indicated that Mississippi State wouldn't get the bowl berth if the Bulldogs were to tie for the conference championship.

Under a former "last-appearance" agreement with the SEC, in case of such a tie, the bowl had to invite the team which had not played there as recently as the other. That rule was junked this year, leaving the bowl a free hand to pick from among teams that tie for the SEC title.

However, if Mississippi State wins that title outright, the Sugar Bowl has no such choice.

"If a Mississippi team wins the championship it will be welcomed with open arms," said Holmes. "But, I'd be less than candid if I didn't admit that the business community in New Orleans would prefer a team with a big following from farther away."

If the first three weeks of the season are a true indication of things to come, Holmes better get the welcome mat out for Mississippi State.

Bob Hewko Passed Georgia Tech Silly, 27-6.

History Served, Lake Mary Seeks Second Win Tonight Versus Creek

By JOE DeSANTIS
Herald Sports Writer

Now that history has been served, Lake Mary football coach Roger Beathard and his Rams are busy preparing to write their third entry in the new high school's first football ledger.

Fresh from last week's 14-13 win over Lake Brantley's junior varsity, the Rams face Spruce Creek's Hawks tonight at Lynn High School. The odd Wednesday game, scheduled for a 7:30 p.m. kickoff, shortened the Rams' preparation week. Something both teams have to contend with.

"At this level you need every day of the practice week to continue learning," said Beathard of the mid-week clash against the Hawks. "But Spruce Creek has to face the same situation."

The situation facing both the Rams and the Hawks is that they don't really know too much about each other heading into tonight's contest.

"Basically they run the same offense as the varsity," offered Beathard of a limited scouting report on Spruce Creek. "We've been trying to trade some information, but so far we really don't know too much about them."

Offensively the Rams will most likely get another look at a 50 defense. "That's how their varsity lines up so we expect pretty much the same from the JV. They may go to an even defense once in a while but we saw some of that last week against Lake Brantley so it won't be something completely new for us. And I don't believe they do too much stunting on defense," offered Beathard.

Rams

The Ram coach says there may be a few adjustments in Lake Mary's offense for the Hawk contest.

"We're working on making some slight adjustments to help the passing game. We've completed two passes in two games and we'd like to be able to do better than that. The offensive line is working on doing some things to open up the air game. With our offensive set up our quarterback (Kyle Frakes) does a superior job running the option. We're trying to do some things that can help him develop into a better passer."

Frakes will have a different backfield mate for the Spruce Creek game. Starting fullback Greg Shatto will sit out the contest, nursing an ankle injury that has hampered him since last season. Shatto will be replaced by Will LaValle, no stranger to big plays. In the Rams' victory over Lake Brantley, LaValle got things off to a quick start by taking the opening kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown.

For his two way efforts LaValle was singled out as the Rams' outstanding offensive player of the game. He finished the Lake Brantley contest as the game's second leading rusher and was the fourth leading tackler on defense.

Jeff Hopkins picked up the player of the game laurels for his defensive prowess and tackling efforts. Hopkins led the Rams in tackling, punted for a 34-yard average — including one 52-yard boot — and tapped in the deciding PAT to secure Lake Mary's victory.

While it was Hopkins and LaValle that were busy standing out on the playing field, the game ball for Lake Mary's first football victory in its maiden season went to a very interested spectator. Principal Don Reynolds.

"He's been a great support and came over after the game and told us what a great win the first one was," said Beathard. "His game ball is going to go in our trophy case... for our first win in the school's history."

That first win evened the Rams record to 1-1 on the season, but neither Beathard nor his charges have changed their goals for this year.

"We feel we still have a shot at the best possible season in the county," pointed out the Ram coach. "Maybe we can get a little help with Lake Howell's undefeated JV."

Coach Harry Drivas' Silver Hawks currently sport the best junior varsity record in the county at 2-0. But tonight Lake Mary will be gunning after a different species of Hawk. Spruce Creek's version, and if it's a close contest, Beathard feels the first two outings should help his squad. Lake Mary dropped a one-point 7-6 decision to Lake Howell before winning by a single point over Lake Brantley.

"I was really pleased with the late effort against Lake Brantley," said Beathard. "Especially when the Patriots went ahead late in the ball game. It would have been easy for us to have packed it in with just a couple of minutes left, but the kids went after it."

Murray, Underwood Pace Rams Past Brantley, 19-14

Pat Murray scored two touchdowns and Scott Underwood one as the Lake Mary freshman football team opened its season with a 19-14 victory over host Lake Brantley Tuesday night.

The Rams' fresh pushed across all three touchdowns in the opening quarter for a 19-0 bulge and then withstood two Patriot scores during the rest of the game.

Early in the quarter, a Ram lineman hit the quarterback's arm which caused an interception at the five yard line. Underwood bulldozed the ball into the end zone from there for the TD.

Lake Mary's next score came just as quickly. Taking over at the 50 yard line, Underwood ripped off 30 yards to the 20. From there Murray scampered in with the score.

Murray also added the third touchdown on a 15-yard run.

Lake Mary High School kicker Jeff Hopkins booms a punt during a practice session. Last Thursday, Hopkins turned his toe to extra points as the Rams dropped Lake Brantley's junior varsity 14-13 for the first victory in the school's history.

PREIS(ING) IS RIGHT

Reunion For Don On 'Sunday' Gridiron Meeting

MIAMI (UPI) — The Miami Dolphin-Baltimore Colt game in Baltimore Sunday will produce a rare kind of family reunion between father Don Shula and son David Shula and assorted other family members.

Don, of course, is the head coach of the resurgent Miami Dolphins. Son David is a rookie punt returner and otherwise special teams member from Dartmouth now toiling for the Baltimore Colts.

And that puts mother Dorothy squarely in the middle.

"I'm for my kid and my family," she said. "That's simple. I want David to do great and score touchdowns if he can on every punt return. And, of course, I want Don to be successful."

Dorothy Shula says she plans to be in the stands she knew so well when husband Don was coaching the Colts for seven years before coming to Miami in 1970.

And how do the principals feel about the meeting? It's just another football game, sure, but it will be different too. "I'm sure I'll be more nervous for this games than others," David Shula says. "But I can't get that nervous about it or I'll screw up."

Father Don says: "I want him to do well. But at the same time I make a living coaching this football team."

He also admits he's still a father. "This is a tough, competitive game, but I certainly wouldn't want one of my players to cheapshot David," he conceded. "I might get upset. I might go running on the field saying, 'Hey, don't cheapshot my kid.'"

Both Don Shula and David have surprised people this season. Don by leading his team to a 3-0 regular season record after an 8-8 year and David by even making the Colts, given his lack of stature (5-10) and his relatively slow 4.85 speed in the 40-yard dash.

And both are well aware that now after all those years David carried a clipboard and charted plays for his dad on the sidelines, they now have different goals.

"We're both conscious of not revealing too much to each other,"

Pro Football

David says of their telephone conversations. "He'll ask how I did and we'll go over that. He'll ask about the big plays in the game."

"Sometimes, my mom gets on the other line and says to both of us, 'Now you don't tell him anything that might eventually hurt you.'"

Mom Shula also says she is worried about the impact of the inevitable buildup of media pressure on her son.

"I think it's such a lot of pressure, unnecessary pressure on him," she says. "But I'm sure it was inevitable being in the same division. I think he'll handle it, like he has everything else in his life. We're very proud of him."

One thing is guaranteed — there'll be a lot of other Shulas keeping Don, David and Dorothy company.

Michael, a 16-year-old high school quarterback, has taken over the clipboard from his big brother, and Sharon Shula, a University of Miami sophomore, will also be on the sidelines, taking photographs.

And whatever happens Sunday, the family will still communicate with David on the telephone, like they do every other Monday.

Dorothy says the conversation was shortened this week. She said he complained, "the recipe for chicken I'd given him didn't work." She added he had to leave the phone in a hurry.

"He was making brownies and had to get them out of the oven."

The Dolphins announced Tuesday starting running back Woody Bennett was lost for the season with a torn knee ligament. Listed as questionable for Sunday's game at Baltimore were Tony Nathan with bruised ribs and Ronnie Lee with a knee ailment.

Shula said he called in former fullback Steve Howell to replace Bennett on the roster. Howell started for the Dolphins early in the 1980 season but was demoted later. He was traded to Washington this year but the Redskins cut him before the season began.

Clemson Glows After Upset Victory Over 'Dogs

CLEMSON, S.C. (UPI) — Clemson coach Danny Ford is giving his football players a few days off to bask in the glow of their 13-3 victory over Georgia, the defending national champions.

"We didn't have one hero in that game — we had about 25," Ford said.

"Since we don't play this Saturday, we're not making them practice the first couple days of the week," he said. "But after that they can't be heroes anymore. They have to get back to work."

Clemson, 3-0, broke into the Top 20 at No. 18 in United Press International's coaches' poll and today Ford was named UPI's Coach of the Week.

"That's an honor, but I wish our whole team had been named instead of me," Ford said. "They did the work."

The game last Saturday snapped Georgia's 15-game winning streak and marked the first time since 1919 that the Tigers kept the Bulldogs, one of their biggest rivals, from scoring a touchdown. Georgia's winning streak was the longest a major college team held this season.

Georgia, hardly looking like a defending national champion with nine turnovers to an aroused Clemson defense, fell from fourth to 16th in the UPI poll.

A warning Tiger secondary picked off Georgia quarterback Buck Belue's first five interceptions of the season and held sophomore sensation Herschel Walker to an average of less than 4 yards a carry.

Walker, who now has gained more than 2,000 yards in 14 regular season college games, needed 28 carries for his 111 last week.

In the first half, Clemson forced six turnovers — four fumbles and two interceptions.

"The whole defensive line played well," Ford said. "We didn't capitalize on as many mistakes as Georgia made, but our defense dominated the game up front and our secondary picked up a lot of passes."

Ford said he is not bothered by Clemson sitting below Georgia in the ratings.

"We try to work our way up all season — we're not really concerned about the polls," he said. "It's an honor to be in it. It's good recognition for our outstanding university and our outstanding team. They certainly deserve it."

Clemson plays the Kentucky Wildcats Oct. 3 at Lexington.

"That'll be the turning point for us, I think," Ford said. "How we handle that game on the road will tell whether we're a really good team or a pretty good team. It'll be a tough one because we don't play them every year."

Gura Shakes Off Injury, Minnesota On Four Hits

By United Press International

With the Kansas City Royals fighting for a playoff berth in the American League West, Larry Gura shook off an injury and helped his team to an important victory Tuesday night.

Making his first appearance since Sept. 9 when he suffered a hairline fracture of the little finger on his pitching hand, Gura scattered four hits, struck out two and did not walk a batter in pitching the Royals to a 2-1 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

"If I hadn't been able to pitch tonight, I might have destroyed a few things," said Gura.

Elsewhere in the AL, Detroit downed Baltimore, 6-3, Milwaukee outslugged Boston, 10-8, Cleveland beat New York, 6-4, Seattle edged Texas, 3-2, Oakland swept Toronto, 4-3 and 4-2, and California blanked Chicago, 1-0.

AL Baseball

In National League games, Houston blanked Atlanta, 3-0, Montreal topped Philadelphia, 6-2, Pittsburgh defeated New York, 5-3, Chicago edged St. Louis, 4-3, Cincinnati nipped San Diego, 3-2, and San Francisco downed Los Angeles, 5-2.

Tigers 6, Orioles 3
At Baltimore, John Wockenuss drove in three runs with a pair of homers to help the Tigers to their fourth straight triumph. George Cappeluzzo picked up his first victory in the major leagues by allowing just three hits over the final 7 1/3 innings.

Brewers 10, Red Sox 8
At Boston, Robin Yount and Ted Simmons delivered RBI doubles in the ninth to lift Milwaukee to victory. Tony Perez knocked in five runs for Boston. Indians 6, Yankees 1.

At New York, Bo Diaz and Alan

Bannister each had two RBI during a five-run third that carried the Indians to victory. Rick Cerone homered for New York.

Mariners 3, Rangers 2
At Arlington, Texas, Paul Serna singled home the tiebreaking run to highlight a three-run seventh inning that led the Mariners to their triumph.

A's 4, Blue Jays 3-2
At Toronto, Keith Drumright's 13th-inning single drove in Rickey Henderson from second base and gave the A's a victory in the opener. In the nightcap, Jim Spencer belted a solo homer and Wayne Gross knocked in three runs for the sweep.

Angels 1, White Sox 0
At Anaheim, Calif., rookie Angel Moreno, making only his second major league start, combined with Don Aase on a four-hitter in helping the Angels to victory.

Sutton Shuts Out Atlanta, 3-0, But Prefers World Series Ring

HOUSTON (UPI) — Don Sutton's 55th career shutout started the Houston Astros final Domestic of 1981 powerfully, and it seemed to give manager Bill Virdon hope the Astros could sack up the division second-half title before going on the road for the final time.

Sutton, a master of National League hitters in the second half, three hit the Atlanta Braves Tuesday in the opener of an eight-game series in the Astrodome, and the win assured the Astros of maintaining at least a three-game lead in the Western Division with 12 games to play.

On the road, however, boomed two games against the second-place Cincinnati Reds and then three games against the Los Angeles Dodgers to end the regular season.

The Braves, who barely scratched Sutton for three singles, were pushed 6 1/2 games back of Houston. They've all but been eliminated, but Virdon said it wasn't his plan to knock off teams one at a time from the bottom.

"All we've got to do is win more than we lose," he said. "Of course, it's going to go down to the last three days in Los Angeles anyway. I hope not. Maybe it won't. What it will come down to is we'll have to beat the Dodgers to beat Cincinnati for second place."

If he could find a way to rotate in Sutton, 40-8, more than twice the rest of the season, his chances would be brighter. The 36-year-old righthander is 6-1 with a 1.75 earned run average since the strike break. He has pitched the last 26 innings without allowing an earned run.

"I didn't think I pitched that well tonight," Sutton said of his no-walk, three-strikeout performance.

Catcher Alan Ashby said Sutton came to him after the fifth inning and complained his back was hurting.

"He wanted to make sure we had somebody ready," Ashby said. "He pitched so well he never got in that situation. It's just great having guys like that. He knows everything he wants to do to a T and the only thing to catching with him is catching."

On the offensive side, Tony Scott's three hits, including an RBI single in the third, led a 12-hit attack that protected

Houston's three-game lead in the Western Division. Reds 2, Padres 2.

At San Diego, Tom Seaver, with late-inning help from two relievers, notched his 13th victory as Cincinnati remained three games behind the Astros.

Giants 5, Dodgers 2
At San Francisco, Larry Herndon drove in three runs with an inside-the-park homer and a single in leading the Giants to victory over the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela.

Cubs 1, Cardinals 3
At Chicago, Cub pinch-hitter Jerry Morales' sacrifice fly to short left field scored pinchrunner Steve Dillard from third in the ninth, for the win, which cut St. Louis' East lead to a half-game over Montreal.

Expos 6, Phillies 2
At Montreal, Warren Cromartie drove in two runs in the seventh to pace the Expos. Steve Rogers, 11-7, allowed the Phillies five hits. Tim Lincecum pinch ran and stole his first base for Montreal. Pirates 5, Mets 3.

At New York, Jason Thompson socked a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning, helping to end the Mets' four-game winning streak.

What's Ali Got To Lose? His Marbles

NEW YORK (UPI) — I ran into a rather unusual fellow recently, one who had the uncommon good sense to know when he has had enough.

This was in Las Vegas and I happened to catch him at fight headquarters a day or so before the Sugar Ray Leonard-Thomas Hearns encounter.

The fellow I'm talking about is Ken Norton, who was the World Boxing Council heavyweight champion for awhile and not a bad fighter in his day, although people's most recent memory of him deals with the utterly devastating way Gerry Cooney finished him off inside the first round at Madison Square Garden last May 11.

Ken Norton has never looked better in his life. He's still in fine physical shape, has no money worries whatsoever and admits to 36 even though the suspicion lingers he may be a couple years older than that.

We talked for awhile and then I asked him if he intended fighting anymore, particularly since he said he hadn't made up his mind about that right after Cooney beat him.

"No more," he said. "I'm all through fighting for good."

From the way he said it, I was sure he meant it, and after wishing him good luck and congratulating him on his wise

Milton Richman
UPI Sports Editor

friend because he has a genuine affection for the ex-champ, but he quit being part of Ali's group because he didn't want to see him endanger his health by fighting anymore.

"You don't ask him when he's quitting anymore," Pacheco says, disgustedly. "It's a waste of time."

"I felt any further punishment such as the kind he has been sustaining since 1977 would affect his longevity and the quality of his life," Pacheco says.

"Something like that happening to him would be regrettable. He'd become punchy. My conscience wouldn't allow me to become a silent part of that deterioration. I've told him that many times."

And what was Ali's response? "I know my body better than anyone else does," Pacheco says Ali would always tell him.

Pacheco shows his concern over the prospect of Ali fighting someone like Beribick in December.

"I think he had a wonderful legend going about him and it'll be dissipated," says his former physician. "I think this exceptional human being will be proved mortal like every old fighter who won't get off."

Petty...

Kyle's Desire Must Accompany Name

LEVEL CROSS, N.C. — Does the fact that you were born into a reknown racing family mean you are destined to become a good — or even great — driver?

Richard Petty, the most famous member of the sport's most eminent clan, says no to the heredity question. "But the seed of desire could be there. And really, that's the most important thing."

And that seed has been transplanted in son Kyle, who is blossoming into a star on the NASCAR Winston Cup circuit.

In his first full year of competing against his dad, Bobby Allison, Cale Yarborough, and Darrell Waltrip, Kyle has eliminated doubt about his driving ability and his hunger for success.

"I'm really happy with my progress," says Kyle. "We are running in sight of the leaders and I'm learning what they do. And when we finish, we are finishing good."

After a disastrous first ten races in which repeated engine failures allowed him to finish in the top ten only once, the 21-year-old grandson of Hall of Fame member Lee Petty has put together seven top ten finishes in the STP Buick. Included in this surge are the best finishes of his brief career, a fifth in the World 600 and three sixth-places.

Petty's sixth in the Firecracker 400 at Daytona International Raceway is the Winston Cup event that convinced the critics that Kyle is destined to follow in dad and grandfather's footsteps.

He was among the leaders throughout the afternoon and only handling problems in the waning laps kept him from joining dad in the battle for first.

"I always figured I could do this," he says in a matter-of-fact tone that gives no trace of cockiness. "I think by the end of this season or by next year I might be competitive enough to have a chance to win a race."

"But I have no timetable. This is my learning year. I just want to be a good driver and I know that it takes experience to run good."

Dad Richard is quite proud of the advancement that his son has made. "As far as driving ability is concerned, Kyle's probably ahead of me from where I was with the same amount of experience."

"As far as desire, really wanting to drive, Kyle has his stuff together. Now, it's a matter of plain old experience, learning by logging a lot of laps and asking questions."

When you have a seven-time Winston Cup champion in the family along with a grandfather who still ranks fifth on the all-time win list behind a man named Richard Petty, Kyle doesn't have to go far to seek advice.

"I imagine my style will be similar to dad's," says the young Petty, "but not the same. I think personality has a lot to do with your driving style. So it's impossible to have two identical styles."

Yet the parallels between father and son are already quite remarkable. The famous smile, the ease with which they deal with both the media and the public, the cool approach to racing and the inner fire to excel are present in both men.

"Being Richard Petty's son is something I have to live with," adds Kyle. "The comparisons are flattering. But I haven't let the spotlight (that throws him everywhere because of his name) be that big a deal."

But what about the pressure of being the son of the all-time Winston Cup race and money winner? "Oh, there might be more on me than if I was someone else's son," he replies. "But I think Charlotte took a lot of pressure off me."

He's referring to the back-to-back wrecks at Charlotte Motor Speedway in May 1979, as he was practicing for his Winston Cup debut. The accidents wiped out two cars and delayed his first NASCAR race until the Talladega 500 in August.

"Those wrecks showed people I wasn't going to set the world on fire."

Did they put a damper on his enthusiasm or confidence? "No," he says as he flashes that reknown Petty smile. "Winning my first gave me the confidence that I could do it. But I also knew that I wasn't a RACE driver after one race. I knew I had a lot to learn and I knew that even more after what happened at Charlotte."

Petty made his inaugural start in the ARCA 200 at Daytona in February of '79 and shocked the racing world by winning the race.

"A lot of people said it was bad that I won my first one," he points out. "But I disagree. I think it showed me how good winning is. It gave me the incentive to be good enough to win on the Winston Cup circuit."

As dad Richard says, the most important characteristic that a racing father can give a son is the desire to succeed and he has passed that on.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Graham Says Feds Should Pay For Refugee Influx

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — Gov. Bob Graham says the federal government should allow only as many refugees into this country as it is willing to pay to absorb and not leave the burden for most immigrants with the states.

"You cannot expect states or their localities, especially in this time of major cuts in other federal domestic assistance programs, to assume any more of the fiscal burden for refugees than we already carry," Graham said Tuesday in a speech before the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee in Washington.

Nearly 112,000 Cuban and Haitians have resettled in Florida since January 1980 and the cost to Florida and local governments has been $80 million, in addition to expenses reimbursed under the Cuban-Haitian Education Assistance Act of 1980, the governor said.

Spy Trial Starts Today

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — The espionage trial of accused Soviet spy Joseph George Helmich Jr. gets under way today with the swearing-in of an eight-woman, four-man federal court jury and opening arguments by government and defense attorneys.

Selection of the jury, which includes five housewives, was completed late Tuesday afternoon. Three women and one man will serve as alternates.

Before empanelling the jury, U.S. District Judge Susan H. Black said she would rule on defense motions to move the trial and to suppress as evidence a statement attributed to Helmich by a deputy U.S. marshal that only the Soviet Intelligence service, the KGB, might try to assassinate him.

Helmich, 44, a tall, red-haired man with an IQ of 147, is charged with selling manuals, rotors and key lists for a top-secret coding machine to Soviet agents while he was assigned to the U.S. embassy in Paris in 1963-64.

Shrink Faces More Charges

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — Tampa psychiatrist Louis J. Tsavaris is still practicing medicine while appealing his manslaughter conviction but the state has moved again to strip him of his medical license.

Sentenced to 15 years in prison in connection with the death of one female patient, Tsavaris was accused Tuesday of twice sexually molesting another woman and providing drinks to an alcoholic under his treatment.

The new allegations were contained in a six-count administrative complaint filed by the Department of Professional Regulation. An earlier complaint, still pending, listed 15 counts of alleged misconduct and malpractice.

Tsavaris, 51, was sentenced on June 26 after a jury found him guilty of manslaughter in the 1975 death of Sally Burton, a 24-year-old patient. Prosecutors said he had taken the woman as a lover and strangled her.

Largest Dope Ring Broken

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Federal and state law enforcement agents fanned throughout the state today with arrest warrants for 12 persons indicted for operating what was said to be the largest marijuana smuggling ring ever prosecuted by the federal government.

FDIE Commissioner Jim York said the indictments were returned in Pensacola following a 3½ year joint state-federal investigation known as "Operation Sunburn."

The ring, which allegedly relied heavily on shrimp boats for the smuggling, grossed about $300 million since 1977, York said.

Those indicted included a Colombian supplier, financial backers, attorneys, wholesale distributors and major buyers, he said.

This Case Really Smells

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — A circuit court judge has been charged with shoplifting a bottle of expensive perfume at a downtown department store, but the judge says he merely forgot to pay for it.

The incident, in which Judge Henry F. Martin, a former chief judge of the 4th Judicial Circuit, was detained by store security personnel and later issued a citation by police, occurred last Thursday, but did not become known until Tuesday.

Debate Set On School Counseling

The long-awaited debate on guidance programs in the county's elementary schools has been scheduled by the School Board for its 7:30 p.m. meeting today at the school administration office, 1211 Mellonville Ave., Sanford.

The program, which has been called a "humanistic" one, has been on-going for more than a decade in Seminole schools.

Principals and school counselors are to present the positive aspects of the program while some parents will present an opposing view.

Currently counselors work with students in the schools both individually and in groups on academic and personal problems, on social adjustment and as liaisons between psychologists and social workers.

"Magic circle" group counseling where students are encouraged to find out about their feelings has come under particular criticism from some parents. Some have asked the counseling program be discontinued altogether.

Prior to the debate, the school board will consider a contract with the county commission on the "deputies in the school program."

The contract provides for the school board to pay the costs of one of the deputies and the county to pay the costs of the other. Currently there are sheriff's deputies at Lake Brantley High School and Milwee Middle School.

Refuse Fees Hiked

An increase in commercial refuse rates was approved by the Winter Springs City Council Tuesday night. The increase, requested by H&W Refuse Service, was needed to meet rising dumping costs charged by Seminole County.

The rates were raised from $25 to $30 per month for 1 and 1½-yard containers and from $30 to $36 per month for 2-yard containers.

The new rates will go into effect Oct. 1. The hike does not affect residential rates, which were raised separately in July from $6 to $6.50 per month.

Broken Windows Left By Weekend Shooting Spree

It was a bad time for windows between Saturday night and early Sunday morning in the downtown area of Sanford. Police are now hoping it isn't a return of the rash of vandalism that plagued the city four years ago.

"It's (vandalism to windows) one of the hardest things to combat," said Sgt. Herb Shea, assistant to the chief.

Sanford police have no suspects in the weekend shooting spree that left seven cars minus a window or two and the Sanford City Hall with a $900 bill to replace one large window pane that was shot out. Police said the shootings were done with a BB or pellet gun.

A crackdown will begin this weekend, Shea said, with more unmarked cars patrolling the area.

"Staking out" the area has produced good results in the past, he said. Officers have a better chance of catching first-hand someone driving by and shooting out windows with more frequent patrols.

Four years ago, the department was receiving 100 reports a week of car windows being shot out, Shea said. It seems to run in cycles and only involves a few people, he said.

As an example, the arrest of one youth recently put a halt to about half of the vandalism to one area near the police station on French Avenue, Shea said.

In addition to the city hall window, Ralph Klinger, 1203 Myrtle, found the driver's side window of his 1965 Ford Torino shot out Sunday morning. Estimated damage was $100.

Other reports followed: Clarence Bauer, 1318 Douglas Ave., found the driver's side window of his 1972 Ford

Torino shattered for an estimated $100 damage; the left rear window of Richard Butler's car was shot-up to the tune of $75 as it sat on 555 Valencia Street; Thomas Hall reported his 1970 Plymouth had its driver's window broken at 3rd Street and Magnolia; A $50 window was shattered on Shirley Causey's motorhome parked at 201 W. 18th Street; Roger Harris' vehicle sustained $50 damage to the driver's side window; and the rear window of Bernard Wilke's blue truck was shot out for an estimated $100 damage.

In Causey's case, it was the second weekend in a row a window was shot out of his motorhome. Causey, a former police officer, said, "I still got a set of handcuffs I'd like to use on them."

With the exception of staying up all night, Causey didn't see any easy solution to the problem, though.

Wilke said this was the first incident of vandalism to his windows. Agreeing with Causey, Wilke said it appeared difficult to catch the vandals even with the police patrolling the area since the shootings happen so fast.

handicapped children together. It will help bolster them because they will no longer feel they are fighting the battle alone, she said.

"Parents are the most vital part of the educational process for their kids," she said. "On one level there are parents who are needing just simple pieces of community information. But parents really are a primary resource for themselves, the teacher, and each other. I would like to get a kind of support system going, where parents are comfortable reaching out to each other, asking each other questions."

Hogers said the training will be "the kind of training you will be able to take home with you at night and use with your husband or wife."

Topics to be covered include listening skills, problem solving, analyzing situations, setting priorities and keys to decision-making.

The federal money for the grant was determined by the attendance of handicapped students in Seminole County schools. Hogers said, however, she would welcome participation by any guidance counselor or concerned individual willing to make a long-term commitment to the program. Suggestions for material to be included would also be welcomed, she said.

"A lot of the 'product' (the resources kit) will be created by the people taking part in it," Hogers said. "I'll be relying on them to tell me what they need on a day-to-day basis."

Teachers who participate will receive credit towards their career. Hogers will pay for a substitute to cover their classes out of money allotted by the grant.

Hogers said Seminole County was selected out of all Florida counties applying to receive the grant because the county contains a great variety of economic, social, and racial backgrounds. The grant specifies the training manual and resources package to be developed must be flexible enough to be used in any setting, urban or rural, and by any ethnic or social group. Once it is developed, the Seminole County training manual and resources kit will show other communities across the nation how parents and teachers can "plug in" to community programs and services to help their own handicapped students.

Cook Of The Week: Mary Lapinskas

'What's This?' Mike Questions Stack Of Big, Thick Pancakes

By LOIS SMITH
Herald Correspondent

"Not long after we were married," recounted Mary Lapinskas, "I decided to surprise my husband with the best pancake breakfast anyone had ever served."

"I heated up the griddle and began to prepare the biggest, thickest, fluffiest pancakes imaginable. When all was ready, I called Mike to the table and presented him with a beautiful tall stack."

He sat down, looked at his plate and asked, "What's this?" Naturally, I was crushed.

"But you see, Mike is of Lithuanian descent and Lithuanian pancakes are more like crepes. It was at that moment I realized I had better learn to prepare some Lithuanian dishes."

Mary and Mike live with their three children, Lorra, 17, Michael, 16, and Vicky, 6, on Laurel Drive. Mike is an appliance technician and the owner of the Accurate Appliance Service Company. Mary is a homemaker and a cosmetologist.

According to Mary, Lithuania is a small country, approximately the size of South Carolina, located on the Baltic Sea. In the 1940s the Lapinskas family migrated to the United States to escape the Russian takeover of their country. Lithuania is now a Russian state.

"I am of Italian ancestry," said Mary, "and I was accustomed to preparing most foods with red tomato sauces. Lithuanian cooks use sauces too, but their's are mostly white and not nearly as spicy. Most seasoning is done with cheese, sour cream, salt and pepper and a lot of butter. Lithuanian dishes are fairly heavy. You use potatoes, noodles and thicker soup bases."

Mary and her family enjoy outdoor recreation. "We often go to the beach, on picnics or boating. Mike loves to fish and shrimp and it's not unusual for him to bring home a large catch," she said.

"We like seafood and I have some really good recipes I would like to share," Mary added.

LITHUANIAN SQUARES
1/2 pound soft butter
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
2 cups flour
1 jar strawberry jam
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Mix well; butter, sugar, eggs and flour. Spread 1/2 of mixture into a well greased and floured 9 x 9 x 2 pan. Add jam and nuts, spreading over first layer. Gently spread the other 1/2 of mixture on top. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 minutes, cut into squares.

NOODLE BAKE
8 ounce wide noodles
3/4 cup drained whole mushrooms
1/2 cup buttered dry bread crumbs
1 2/3 cups sliced cherry tomatoes
1 cup sour cream
1 cup grated Parmesan cheese liquid from tomatoes
1 teaspoon nutmeg
Cook noodles according to package directions and drain. Add mushrooms and butter and place in 2 quart casserole. Sprinkle with 1/2 cup of bread crumbs. Drain tomatoes, saving liquid. Add sour cream, 3/4 cup Parmesan cheese, tomato liquid and nutmeg to casserole. Spoon mixture into casserole. Top with tomato slices. Sprinkle with remaining cheese and bread crumbs. Bake in hot oven, 400 degrees, for 13 minutes. Serve with baked ham, sausage or pork chops.

CHICKEN
3 1/2-4 pounds frying chicken pieces flour to coat chicken
1/4 cup melted butter
1 cup finely chopped onion
1 cup thin sliced short strips green pepper
1/2 cup thinly sliced celery
1 cup thinly sliced carrots
1/2 cup (4 oz.) drained whole mushrooms
3 1/2 cups peeled tomatoes
1 teaspoon salt

Mary Lapinskas, of Italian ancestry, learned the hard way to prepare delicious dishes familiar in her husband's native land — Lithuania.

dry and cut into bite size pieces
1 teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon cayenne
1/4 cup flour
3/4 cup sour cream
Coat chicken with flour. Brown well in butter in large skillet. Add onion, green pepper, celery, carrots, mushrooms, tomatoes, salt, paprika and cayenne. Cover. Simmer 1 hour or until tender. Remove chicken and keep warm. Skim fat off liquid in skillet. Mix flour and sour cream; beat until smooth. Stir into liquid over low heat. Heat 3-5 minutes or until thickened. Serve with chicken as a sauce and hot cooked noodles.

RAVIOLI
2 cups sifted all purpose flour
1 egg, slightly beaten
6 tablespoons lukewarm water
Sift flour, make a well in center and add egg and water. Mix well with fork. Turn out on floured board and knead until smooth and elastic about 3 minutes. Divide in half; cover the other half to keep from drying out. Roll out the first half into a very thin sheet. Cut into 3 inch rounds. Place a level teaspoon of meat filling on one half of each round, moisten edges with water and fold over to form a half circle. Crimp edges with fork. Proceed to do the same with the other half of dough mixture. Drop into rapidly boiling salted water for 15 minutes. Yield: 30

RAVIOLI FILLING
1 cup cooked ground beef
1 egg beaten
1 tablespoon softened butter
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon Parmesan cheese
1 teaspoon parsley
speck of nutmeg.
Mix together and place by teaspoonful on ravioli.

WHITE CHEESE SAUCE FOR RAVIOLI
Make a basic thin white sauce (one cup). Add 3 oz. package of cream cheese. Stir until creamy. Pour over ravioli and serve.

FISH CHOWDER
4 pounds fish fillets, patted

A cup of cooked, dried red beans has about 230 calories and provides around one-quarter of the minimum daily requirements of protein and iron for an adult. Thiamin and riboflavin are also provided.

Hospital Nightcaps Healing To Husband, Seething To Wife

DEAR ABBY: My middle-aged husband has been in the hospital three times in the last year. Each time he spent between eight to 10 days there, and always in the same section, so he became quite friendly with the nurses.

Dear Abby

I have always trusted my husband, but listen to this. One of his night nurses (an R.N.) jokingly told me that she came into my husband's room at 1 a.m. every morning with some 7-Up, which they would mix with vodka. (My husband's brother had brought him a bottle as a gift.) My husband didn't deny these little "nightcup" parties; in fact he bragged about them.

Now that my husband is home, this night nurse has been calling to ask him how he is getting along. It bothered me, so I listened in on the extension and I heard her ask him when he was going to meet her in the city. (We are farmers and own a lot of land.) I asked my husband to talk to our priest or see a marriage counselor, and he flatly refused to do either. A divorce would crush our children, but it is not my intention to continue to live with a man I cannot trust.

What should I do?

ANONYMOUSLY YOURS
DEAR ANON: Talk to your priest and accept his counsel. Don't rush into anything. Divorce is a heavy penalty for what may be a minor offense. Never cut what you can unravel.

DEAR ABBY: How do I tell my very loved husband that the shirt size he has worn for years no longer fits him? I don't want to come right out and say, "You need a larger size."

A few times when I have bought him shirts (larger size) I've fibbed, saying, "These were on sale, and although they may be a little big, they were so good-looking, I couldn't pass them up." Another time I told him that the salesman said that the new shirts ran a bit small and suggested I buy a larger size.

Abby, my husband knows he's overweight and has every intention of dieting, but he never seems to get around to it.

I don't want to hurt this dear man, so what do you say? Should I just keep my mouth shut?

LOVES MY MAN IN CALIF.
DEAR LOVES: You do your man no favors by pretending not to notice that he's overweight while you buy him bigger shirts and fib about the reason. Perhaps a rule awakening—such as being unable to button the top button on his shirt (or trousers)—is what he needs to motivate him to lose weight. If you love him, level with him.

Everybody needs friends. For some practical tips on how to be popular, get Abby's Popularity booklet. Send $1 plus a long, self-addressed stamped (35 cents) envelope to Abby, Popularity, 12650 Hawthorne Blvd., Suite 5000, Hawthorne, Calif. 90250.

Senior Board Calls Public Meeting

The Board of Directors of the Casselberry Senior Citizen Multipurpose Center of the City of Casselberry will hold a public meeting on Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in the Casselberry Senior Citizen Multipurpose Center, 200 N. Lake Triplet Drive, Casselberry.

This project is supported under an agreement with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, State of Florida, through funds provided by the Older Americans Act of 1965, as amended.

If a person decides to appeal a decision made with respect to any matter considered at the above meeting or hearing, he will need a verbatim record of all proceedings, including the testimony and evidence, which record is not provided by the City of Casselberry.

Items Needed For Halloween Country Store

Be checking those cupboards and jewelry boxes for items that would be suitable to donate for the Country Store the night of the annual carnival, Oct. 31. Items may be left at the Geneva Post Office (please, no clothing).

The carnival, sponsored by the Geneva Historical and Genealogical Society, will also include games, cake walk, costume contest and a hayride. Actually, according to Frieda Clark, this old-fashioned Halloween carnival is probably a one-of-a-kind event not to be reproduced in this area.

For more information, call her at 349-5858, and while you are talking to her, I bet she gets you to donate a cake for her pet project — the Cake Walk!

Anyone interested in beginners clogging classes will be glad to learn that Lynn Yarborough has recently accepted a teaching position at the Sanford School of Dance Arts, Sanford. Lynn's 10 Tuesday evening sessions will begin Oct. 6 from 7-8 p.m. This "old-fashioned" folk dance style has received quite a revival in popularity since "Urban Cowboy", starring John Travolta, was released. "Country" is in, folks!

Another successful gospel sing was held at the Oviedo High School in the commons building on Sept. 19.

These monthly sings, sponsored by Geneva resident, Wayne Johnson, have been held the third Saturday of each month for over a year now. Wayne believes there is a lot of good, local talent dedicated to singing the gospel message, and he enjoys giving the public a chance to meet new, as well as established singers, at these free concerts.

The Sons of Song Quartet and Wayne's daughter, Barbara "B.J." Johnson, are regulars at these functions, and there are always three or four other individuals or groups on the agenda.

If you are interested in becoming a part of future sings, you may contact Wayne or his wife, Pat, at 349-5451, or at Orangewood Feed and Tack in Oviedo, 365-3498.

John and Laney Jenkins have returned to Geneva after a 2-week vacation that included a family reunion with John's brothers and sister.

The family gathered for a long weekend at the spacious Augusta, Ga. home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Durward Jenkins.

The 16 members of the Jenkins clan spent their time reminiscing, and according to Laney, "eating mounds of good food" which had been prepared ahead by the hostess.

The Jenkins' journey also included a stop in Fayetteville, N.C., to visit their daughter and her family, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Gilbert (Sabra), and Columbus, Ga., where they visited Laney's sister, Mary, and her husband, B.C. Quarterman.

My daughter, Susi Childers, celebrated her 12th birthday with a slumber party Friday night.

Her girl friends, Rhonda Herman, April Long, Connie Johnson, and Rishel Myers, all of Geneva, arrived about 6 p.m. for a homemade yeast bread pizza dinner, and then departed for a surprise trip to Orlando's newest attraction, Laserworld.

The phenomenal laser beam-light show and stereo music, as well as the live, on stage modern jazz performances done with spectacular science fiction special effects had the girls (and me) on the edge of their front-row seats for two hours.

After the show, the girls got to meet Laserman and get his autograph — and Susi even got a birthday kiss!

Then, it was back to Geneva for ice cream cake served at midnight. (Did I say slumber party? It was really slumberless!)

Gala Reception Kicks Off Concert Membership Drive

By DORIS DIETRICH
OURSELVES Editor
Dr. Sara Irrgang, president of Seminole Mutual Concert Association, says she is excited about the 1981-82 concert season.

The lack of community support and inflation nearly caused the demise of the concert association. But interested patrons and board members came to the rescue to the cultural association which has survived for years in the Sanford-Seminole area.

According to Dr. Irrgang, the concerts this year will be held in the auditorium of the new Lake Mary High School. It is hoped, Dr. Irrgang said, that the central location will generate a broader interest in SCMA patrons.

The theatre-type seating arrangement at the high school as well as professional lighting and excellent acoustical effects add new dimensions for SCMA subscribers.

Ruth Gaines, membership chairman, has announced that the membership drive is underway through October. Mrs. Gaines said admission to the concerts is through subscription to the association. Season memberships are as follows: family, $35; one adult, $15; and student, $10.

Mrs. Gaines said that due to limited seating in the auditorium, subscriptions will be accepted on a first-come-first-serve basis.

A gala membership reception will be held Oct. 7 at the home of State Rep. Bobby Brantley, R-Longwood, and his wife, Patti. Prospective new subscribers to the association are asked to call Mrs. Gaines, 323-0233, for reception information. The four concerts under SMCA aegis this season are: the Mac Frampton Show, Measure to Measure, Die Fledermaus by the National Opera Company and the Mercy River Boys.

Festival Of Foods

Fall Signals Start Of Celebrations

There is a festival of foods each fall that signals the start of the months that traditionally include a succession of happy celebrations featuring special meals. Initiating this welcome season in homes across the country is "Porkfest," a salute to the autumn harvest that pairs exciting pork entrees with an array of interesting and appetizing food combinations.

In the activity-filled days ahead, the busy cook appreciates ideas for impressive meals, prepared with a minimum of effort. One of the many available pork cuts, given fresh appeal and accompanied by a variety of tempting dishes, is often the perfect menu answer.

For that important dinner, an excellent choice is juicy and tender Pork Loin Roast, served with a unique whipped Bean'n'Vegetable Medley. Top off this gala meal with picture-perfect Pineapple Daiquiri Parfaits, and your guests are sure to compliment you on your culinary creativity.

Many special fall and winter occasions call for an informal home-style menu. For this kind of get-together, prepare a flavorful and colorful meal including Glazed Smoked Pork with Pineapple Slices, accompanied by delicious Red Beans and Rice. This meal will become a cool-weather favorite—kind to the cook and kind to the budget.

PORK LOIN ROAST

Savory flavor and tender goodness make a pork loin roast diner's delight. It supplies important nutrients along with appetite appeal, and the cook also will appreciate its economy and ease of preparation.

4 to 6-pound Pork Loin Roast: Place roast, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Insert roast meat thermometer so the bulb is centered in the thickest part. Make certain bulb does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not add water; do not cover. Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) to well done (170 degrees F.). Allow 30 to 35 minutes per pound for a center loin roast; 35 to 40 minutes per pound for a half loin; 40 to 45 minutes per pound for a smaller blade or sirloin roast.

In determining when to take the roast from the oven, keep in mind that roasts usually rise about 5 degrees F. internal temperature while standing the recommended 15 to 20 minutes before carving.

Note: Have the meat retailer loosen the chine (back) bone by sawing across the rib bones. When roasting is finished, the back bone can be removed easily by running the carving knife along the edge of the roast before the meat is placed on the platter to be carved.

BEAN'N'VEGETABLE MEDLEY

This unusual side dish is guaranteed to capture everyone's attention. The nourishing combination of whipped beans and other vegetables is laced deliciously with wine and herbs.

- 1 cup dry white wine
- 1 cup thinly sliced carrots
- 1/4 cup sliced celery
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon basil, crushed
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 bay leaf

3 cups prepared, hot, drained great northern, navy or small white beans

snipped parsley
Combine wine, carrots, celery, onion, salt, basil, garlic and bay leaf in saucepan; simmer 30 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Remove bay leaf. Drain; reserve 1/4 cup liquid. Puree vegetables in food processor or food mill until smooth. Puree hot cooked beans and combine with vegetables; blend in reserved liquid. Garnish with parsley. Serve hot. 6 servings.

To prepare beans: Wash 1 pound beans; soak overnight in 6 cups water. Or, for quick soak method, bring beans and water to boil and boil 3 minutes; cover and let stand 1 hour. Drain and rinse beans; add 6 cups hot water, 1 to 2 tablespoons shortening and 2 teaspoons salt. Boil gently with lid tilted until tender. Drain.

Note: Cooked beans may be packed in freezer-proof containers and frozen for later use.

PINEAPPLE DAIQUIRI PARFAITS

Pineapple Daiquiri Parfaits, an elegant finale for any luncheon or dinner, are definitely in the easy-to-do category. Refreshing canned pineapple chunks, marinated in rum, are served in a pretty pink "snow" made from a frozen combination of pineapple and lime juices, rum and a touch of grenadine for color. This light and lively dessert is one you'll want to serve again and again.

- 1 can (20 ounces) pineapple chunks
- 1 can (6 ounces) unsweetened pineapple juice
- 1-3 cup amber rum
- 1/4 cup fresh lime juice
- 2 tablespoons grenadine syrup
- 2 tablespoons amber rum for pineapple

Mint sprigs
Drain 3/4 cup syrup from pineapple. Combine with pineapple juice, 1-3 cup rum, lime juice and grenadine syrup. Turn into loaf pan (8-1/2x4-1/2 inches) and freeze firm. Meanwhile, combine drained pineapple with remaining 2 tablespoons rum and chill well. At serving time, divide pineapple chunks between 4 (7 ounce) parfait glasses, reserving 8 chunks for decoration, if desired. Scrape frozen mixture with side of spoon, to make a light fluffy consistency, and pile into the dishes over pineapple. Top each serving with 2 pineapple chunks and a mint sprig. Serve at once. 4 servings.

Note: For 8 servings double recipe and freeze in larger pan.

GLAZED SMOKED PORK WITH PINEAPPLE SLICES

Boneless Smoked Pork Shoulder, always a homey cool-weather favorite, takes on added appeal when brushed with part of the spicy pineapple glaze that bathes the golden slices.

- 2 to 3-pound smoked pork shoulder roll
- 1 can (20 ounces) pineapple slices in heavy syrup-1
- 1 tablespoon brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice

Place pork shoulder on rack in open roasting pan. Insert roast meat thermometer so bulb is centered in the meat. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) until meat thermometer registers 170 degrees F. Allow 35 to 40 minutes per pound. Drain pineapple slices, reserving syrup. Combine brown sugar, cornstarch, cloves and nutmeg in saucepan. Stir in reserved syrup and lemon juice. Bring to a boil, reduce heat and cook slowly 5 minutes. Add pineapple slices and continue cooking slowly 2 to 3 minutes. Brush meat with glaze during last 15 minutes roasting time. Serve Pineapple Slices with shoulder roll.

RED BEANS AND RICE

Prepared with cooked or canned small red, pink or kidney beans, Red Beans and Rice is a great partner for many autumn pork entrees.

- 1/2 cup uncooked rice
- 1 2-3 cups drained, cooked or canned small red, pink or kidney beans
- 1/4 cup onion
- 1 tablespoon sherry
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon toasted sesame seeds, if desired

Cook rice according to package directions. Add beans, onion, sherry and soy sauce; mix gently. Simmer, covered, 5 minutes or until all moisture is absorbed. Sprinkle with sesame seeds, if desired. 6 servings.

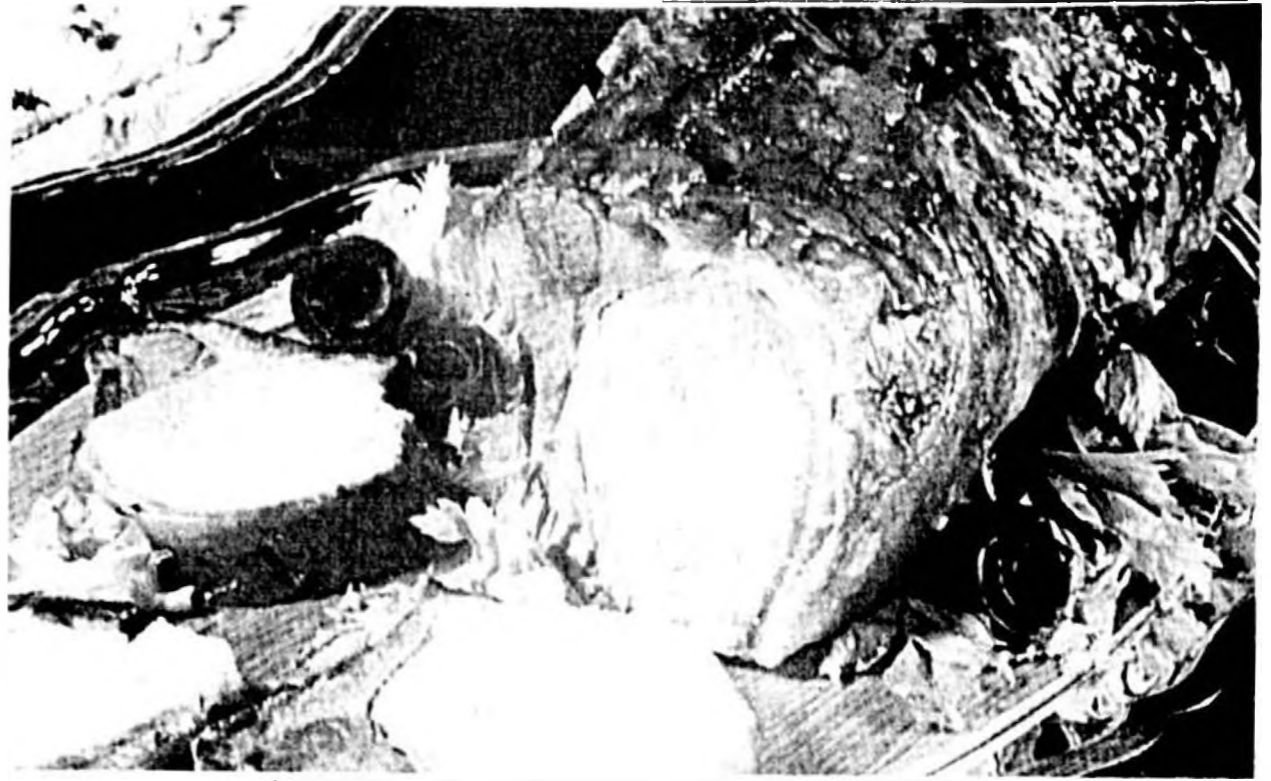

SPEEDY SKILLET SUPPER

If you're lucky enough to have leftover smoked pork shoulder, you can use it to prepare a delicious follow-up meal—Speedy Skillet Supper. While some like it hot, others prefer it chilled with a simple vinaigrette dressing for a hearty main-course salad.

- 3/4 to 1 pound cooked smoked pork shoulder
- 1 can (8 ounces) crushed pineapple in heavy syrup
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 tablespoon brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1/4 teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 1 can (15 ounces) pinto beans or kidney beans, drained
- 1/2 cup green pepper strips

Cut cooked smoked pork shoulder into 1-inch cubes. Place pineapple with juice and onion in large frying-pan and cook slowly 2 to 3 minutes. Add brown sugar, mustard, cumin and red pepper, stirring to combine. Stir in smoked pork cubes and beans. Cover tightly and cook slowly 8 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in green pepper and continue cooking slowly 5 minutes. 4 servings.

Pork loin roast is excellent choice for that important dinner.

Microwave Magic

How To Convert Conventional Recipes To Microwave

Most of the cooking methods called for in conventional recipes can be done by microwaving, too.

The exceptions are deep fat frying and broiling.

Deep fat frying can be dangerous, so don't try it.

Broiling can not be achieved although, you can melt toppings such as cheese, or mixtures containing, cheese, or mixtures, butter and crumbs.

Often I'm asked about converting a particular recipe from conventional methods to microwave. Sometimes the recipe needs little change except timing. Sometime small changes in ingredients, cooking utensils, and techniques are needed.

Most often, if it is a casserole type dish, the amount of liquid called for needs to be reduced. The reason for this is fact that little or no evaporation takes place in the microwave oven. The cooking time is so short it does not allow for evaporation.

In microwaving layered casseroles, reduce the power to 50 percent power even when all the ingredients microwaves well at 100 percent power, since they cannot be stirred to distribute the heat.

The casserole that can be stirred, and not destroy the appearance, can be cooked at 100 percent power if the ingredients are compatible with that power.

I recently acquired a recipe from my daughter, who lives in Columbus, Ga. It is a dish that is indigenous to that region. The story goes that it was a favorite of Franklin D. Roosevelt when he spent time at Warm Springs and that General George Patton requested it often when entertained by the hostesses of the area.

The recipe interested me, but I did not want to use the conventional oven during our hot summer, so I set about preparing it by microwave.

The results were good and the preparation simplified. The following is the recipe for "Country Captain" with conventional and microwave techniques. Hope you enjoy it.

COUNTRY CAPTAIN

3 1/2 to 4 lbs. chicken or breasts only flour, salt, pepper, vegetable oil
2 onions, finely chopped
2 green peppers, chopped
1 small garlic clove, minced
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon white pepper

2 No. 2 cans tomatoes
1/2 teaspoon chopped parsley
3 teaspoon curry powder
1/2 teaspoon thyme
3 heaping tablespoons currants slivered almonds roasted until brown
2 cups of cooked rice

Disjoint chicken for frying, remove skin and roll pieces in flour, salt and pepper. Brown in oil. Remove chicken from pan and keep hot by covering with foil. In the pan put the onions, peppers and garlic. Cook very slowly, stirring constantly. Season with salt, pepper, and curry. Add tomatoes, parsley and thyme.

Put chicken in roasting pan and pour tomato mixture over it. Must cover chicken with broth. Cover and bake in conventional oven 350 for 45 minutes. Place chicken in center of a large platter, pile rice around it. Drop currants into sauce mixture and pour over rice. Scatter almonds on top.

To prepare with microwave oven: Brown chicken on top of range. Remove pieces and place drippings in a large microwave safe casserole dish. Stir in onions, peppers, and garlic. Microwave 100 percent power until vegetables are tender 3-4 minutes. Stir twice. Season, add tomatoes, parsley and thyme. Blend well. Submerge chicken pieces in sauce. Cover and microwave 100 percent power for 20 minutes. Rearrange chicken pieces once during cooking time. Add currants and allow to stand 5 minutes before serving. Prepare rice in microwave while browning the chicken. Prepare rice as instructed in your microwave cookbook.

Since the conventional recipe is cooked covered, there is little evaporation. It was not necessary to reduce the amount of liquid in order to achieve the same sauce consistency with microwaving. The almonds can be browned nicely in the microwave by adding 1 teaspoon of butter to 2-3 tablespoons of almonds and microwave 100 percent power 1-2 minutes stirring several times.

A Special Menu

Kids Learn At Home On The Range

PART 6 IN A SERIES

So you've cooked along with your parents for quite awhile. You've stirred, poured, set the table, helped clean up, and learned to measure. And you are even big enough to cook some hot things on the range. Perhaps now you're ready to make a whole meal on your own.

A Saturday night supper is perfect. Usually your parents are pretty tired by the time the weekend comes around, so they'll probably love to have you offer to cook.

The cooking experts at the Kraft Kitchens, suggest a special, easy menu. A time chart has even been created to help you get everything finished at the right time. The menu stars an all-time favorite spaghetti with meat sauce, made easily because you start with a boxed dinner mix.

SPECIAL MENU FOR YOUNG CHEFS

Spaghetti with Meat Sauce
Tossed Green Salad
Italian Dressing
Italian Bread
Ice Cream (spumoni or other flavor)
Choice of Beverage

When you're in charge of a meal, the timing of the various steps is more important than you realize. Cold spaghetti won't be very exciting to the people waiting hungrily at your table. Some foods just don't hold well.

Timing a meal is not difficult. It just takes a bit of advance thinking, and some practice. Put simply, you need to look at each dish on the menu and break each down into a series of tasks. Then estimate how long each step will take and count backwards from the serving hour. This will give you the time you need to begin. Remember you can "dovetail" tasks — such as tearing lettuce while the sauce is cooking. And if some things will hold more easily than others, do those first.

This meal makes about four servings.

YOUR TIMETABLE:

- Buy ingredients ahead of time. Your shopping list should include: 1 box (8 oz.) Tasty Italian-Style Spaghetti Dinner; 1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste; 3/4 lb. ground beef (or Italian sausage); lettuce; 1 cucumber or zucchini; bottled Italian dressing; Italian bread; and ice cream.
- About one hour in advance: Tear lettuce into bite size pieces. Make enough to serve a generous portion to each person. Slice cucumber or zucchini. Put in salad bowl with the lettuce. Cover and refrigerate.
- Set table.
- Begin the spaghetti and meat sauce dish. There is no separate recipe needed; you simply follow the directions on the package, but use the suggestion on the box for adding ground beef to the sauce. First, put ground beef in a skillet. Cook over medium heat; stir until browned. Spoon off drippings. (If using Italian sausage, slowly brown it on all sides in 1 tablespoon margarine).
- Combine packet of herb-spice mix, 1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste, and 2 cans water. Add to meat in the skillet. Bring to boil. Then turn down heat and cook slowly (simmer) about 10 minutes. Stir occasionally. (Mixture may be reheated, if needed.)
- Put 3 quarts water in a quart saucepan (as on box). Heat to boiling.
- While waiting, slice the bread, using a serrated bread knife and a cutting board. Cover slices to keep them fresh.
- Add spaghetti from box and 2 teaspoons salt to boiling water. Boil, stirring occasionally, for 10 to 12 minutes, or to desired tenderness. (Taste a piece to test.)
- While spaghetti is cooking, add dressing to salad. Toss (mix lightly) with large spoon in one hand, large fork in the other. Check to see that everything is on the table, except plates which will be filled in the kitchen. Put beverage on table. Set out ice cream dishes onto counter for dessert. Announce to the family that dinner is almost ready.
- Place a colander in the sink. Pour in spaghetti and the hot water, being very careful. It probably would be best to have an adult handle this step. Use pot holders for your hands, and pour slowly so as not to splash the boiling water.
- Divide spaghetti onto plates. Top with sauce, and sprinkle with the grated parmesan cheese in the packet from the boxed dinner.
- Quickly take plates to table. Pass salad and bread. And enjoy! Later, scoop ice cream into pretty dishes for dessert. You've done it! Your first meal. Everyone is bound to be pleased, and it's a menu which could well become "Your specialty."

SANFORD-2944 ORLANDO ROAD, ZAYRE PLAZA AT THE CORNER OF 17-92 & ORLANDO ROAD

Soup with tuna balls splendid for waistline-watchers.

New Tuna Dietlines — Ah, So Oriental!

If there's one thing that can unite Americans, it's the pursuit of slenderness as well as the happiness that comes from looking one's best.

All over the country, diet counselors' offices are jammed with soon-to-be formerly plump hopefuls. Memberships in weight-observant "clubs" are at their seasonal peak (and, obviously, so are members' weight ratings).

Elsewhere, self-styled gurus are spreading the word among potential disciples about their latest, sure-fire miracle formulas for streamlining the silhouette (and wallet).

If you're an on-again, off-again dieter, in your heart you know the one dependable way to reduce poundage is to cut down amounts, to discipline yourself against second portions, to eliminate unnecessary calories.

An important key to dieting realistically—it's the only way, isn't it?—is to concentrate on the lower calorie, complete protein foods as the basis for each of the three daily "squares." Calories do count whether the food category is protein, carbohydrate or fat.

And a decided boon to waistline-watchers is the fact that the whole range of fish and seafoods is considerably lower in calories than red meat. Any fish or seafood! And that includes your ever-lovin' standby, canned tuna. When packed in water, a 3½ ounce portion of tuna is only about 100 calories. And that's solid food.

Where dieters are concerned, tuna's popularity, naturally, comes from its appetizing substance as much as its lower calorie count. (And how can you go wrong when such a basic food also stars in the convenience and versatility departments?)

If your standard diet fare until now has been salads, know that you can quick-fix delicious hot dishes with tuna, too. Start thinking oriental. More specifically, think of the divine soups served in Chinese restaurants that are so savory, that linger on the palate so pleasantly. The recipe for Watercress Soup with Tuna Balls, which follows, is one which is not only a dieter's delight (at only 165 calories per serving) but can be presented as a first course at the most elegant happening.

Another oriental-style treat, at 165 calories per serving, is Szechuan Tuna Stir-Fry. (You can always adjust the degree of pepperiness, you know.)

And to complete the trio of tuna temptations, there's a specialty from Southeast Asia which blends tuna in an unusual vegetable sauce as a topping for baked potato halves, garnished with hard-cooked egg. The calorie count—270—per serving—is a little higher than the others but still relatively low. It, too, packs a lot of interest for eager taste buds.

CHINESE WATERCRESS SOUP WITH TUNA BALLS

- 1 can (6½ or 7 ounces) tuna, drained and flaked
- 1 cup packaged, dry bread crumbs
- 2 eggs, lightly beaten
- 3 tablespoons chopped celery
- 1 tablespoon chopped scallion
- 3 tablespoons soy sauce, divided
- 2 cans (13 ounces each) chicken broth
- 1 cup water
- 2 tablespoons sherry wine
- 1 can (8 ounces) water chestnuts, drained and sliced
- 1 bunch watercress

In medium bowl combine tuna, bread crumbs, eggs, celery, scallion and 2 teaspoons soy sauce; mix well. Shape into balls 1-inch in diameter. Place on buttered baking sheet. Bake in a 350 degree F. oven 12 to 15 minutes, until firm. In large saucepot combine broth, water, sherry and remaining 2 tablespoons plus 1 teaspoon soy sauce. Bring to boiling, reduce heat, simmer 5 minutes. Add tuna balls, water chestnuts and watercress; simmer 2 minutes longer. Yield: 6 servings, 165 calories per serving.

SZECHUAN TUNA STIR-FRY

- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon chopped, fresh ginger
- 1 cup frozen green beans, thawed
- 1 small red pepper, sliced
- 1 can (8 ounces) bamboo shoots, drained
- 1 can (6½ or 7 ounces) tuna, drained
- ½ cup sliced scallions
- ½ cup chicken broth
- 3 tablespoons teriyaki sauce
- ¼ teaspoon Tabasco pepper sauce
- 1½ teaspoons cornstarch

In large skillet heat oil; sauté garlic and ginger until golden. Add green beans and red pepper; stir over high heat 2 minutes. Add bamboo shoots, tuna and scallions; stir 2 minutes longer. In small bowl combine broth, teriyaki sauce, Tabasco sauce and cornstarch. Add to skillet; stir constantly until mixture thickens and boils. Boil 1 minute. Yield: 4 servings, 165 calories per serving.

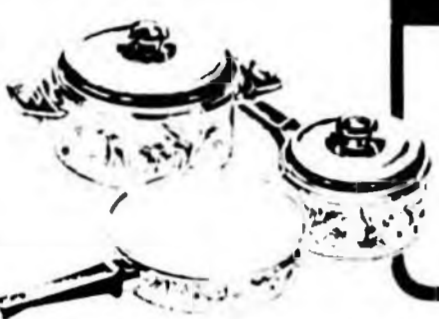

SOUTHEAST ASIA TUNA "GOOD EATING"

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- ½ cup diced onion
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 fresh tomatoes, peeled, seeded, chopped
- 1½ cups sliced carrot
- 1 cup sliced celery
- 2 tablespoons diced chili pepper
- one-third cup chicken broth or water
- ½ teaspoon dried leaf basil, crumbled
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 can (6½ or 7 ounces) tuna, drained
- 2 baked Idaho potatoes, split in half
- 2 hard-cooked eggs, quartered
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley

In medium skillet melt butter; sauté onion and garlic until tender. Add tomatoes, carrot, celery, chili pepper, broth, basil and salt; bring to boiling. Cover. Reduce heat. Simmer 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in tuna; cook 2 minutes longer. Spoon mixture over each of four baked potato halves. Garnish with hard-cooked eggs; sprinkle with parsley. Yield: 4 servings, 270 calories per serving.

SAVING

This is the heavy gauge porcelain on steel cookware scientifically engineered to help you prepare the finest meals you've ever tasted! Dress Up A Salad

A special Green Goddess dressing turns a Bartlett pear and beet salad into a special accompaniment for your favorite chicken dish.

Fruit-salad lovers also will enjoy topping their favorite fruits with a peanut-butter dressing.

BARTLETT GREEN GODDESS SALAD

- 2 fresh Bartlett pears, chilled
- Lemon juice
- 1 can (15 ounces) sliced beets, chilled and drained
- Lettuce
- Green Goddess Dressing

Pare, core and slice pears; brush with lemon juice. Arrange pears and beets on lettuce-lined salad plates. Serve with Green Goddess Dressing. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings.

GREEN GODDESS DRESSING

In a small bowl, combine 1 cup mayonnaise, ½ cup sour cream, ¼ cup minced parsley, 2 tablespoons each minced chives, wine vinegar and anchovy paste, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 clove garlic, minced or pressed, and ¼ teaspoon tarragon. With a wire whisk or fork, stir ingredients until blended; cover and refrigerate for at least 2 hours. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 2 cups.

PEANUT BUTTER DRESSING

In a small bowl, stir together yogurt, peanut butter, honey and milk until well mixed. Cover; refrigerate. Serve over fresh-fruit salad. Makes about 1 cup.

Potpourri Lamb Shanks A Tender Treat

Less expensive cuts of lamb can be turned into meals with an international flavor. Lamb has always been a popular meat with those of Mediterranean countries, for example.

Baked lamb shanks with tomatoes and onions are a tender treat for family or friends. Serve with rice pilaf and brussels sprouts.

BAKED LAMB SHANKS WITH TOMATO SAUCE (Lahma Bissaleh Tamazion)

4 to 6 lamb shanks, about 1/4 pounds each, trimmed of fat
Olive oil
2 medium-size onions, cut into 1/4 inch slices
1 teaspoon ground allspice
1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
3 cups chopped, canned tomatoes.
Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Lightly coat lamb shanks with oil. Arrange in 13-by-2-by-9-inch baking dish. Bake lamb for 30 minutes, turning once. Reduce oven temperature to 350 degrees. Remove lamb from oven. Place onion slices over lamb. Sprinkle with allspice, nutmeg, salt and pepper. Pour tomatoes evenly over all. Return lamb to oven. Bake for 2 hours, or until lamb is tender, basting frequently. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 to 6 servings.

APPLE SURPRISE MUFFINS

Yield: 12 Muffins

2 medium apples, peeled, cored and diced
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 tablespoon sugar
1/4 cup chopped nuts
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa
1/2 cup applesauce
1-1/2 cups unbleached all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg, lightly beaten
Combine diced apples, cinnamon, sugar and nuts in small bowl; blend well. Thoroughly combine melted butter and cocoa; add applesauce. Combine flour, 1/2 cup sugar, baking soda and salt in medium bowl; stir in cocoa mixture and egg just until moistened. Place 1 tablespoon batter in each of 12 well-greased or paper-lined (3-1/2 inch diameter) muffin cups; spoon 1 heaping tablespoon apple mixture into each cup, pressing into batter. Cover each cup with 1 tablespoon batter. Bake in 375 degree F oven for 20 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Remove from pan and cool on wire rack.

MERINGUE CANDIES

3 egg whites
two-thirds cup sugar
1 cup California raisins or golden California raisins
1 package (6 ounces) butterscotch morsels
1 teaspoon vanilla
Preheat oven to 360 degrees. Beat egg whites until they form soft peaks. Add sugar gradually. Beat until stiff.
Fold in raisins, morsels and vanilla. Drop by teaspoon onto two cookie sheets. Place sheets in oven.
Turn off oven. Let stay in oven undisturbed, overnight. Store in covered container. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 2 1/2 dozen.

GOLDEN APPLE PEPPER BOATS

1 or 2 Golden Delicious apples
1 tablespoon minced onion
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/4 cup seeded, diced tomato
1/4 cup fresh or frozen, thawed peas
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese, divided
1/4 teaspoon each salt and basil leaves, crushed
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 large green pepper, halved, seeded and parboiled
Core apples. Reserve 2 thin slices for garnish; chop remaining apples to equal 1/4 cup. Sauté onion in butter several minutes; stir in chopped apples, vegetables, 2 tablespoons cheese and seasonings. Spoon into green pepper halves. Bake, uncovered, at 350 degrees 20 to 25 minutes. Top with reserved apple slices; sprinkle with remaining cheese. Bake 5 minutes longer or until apples are tender. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 2 servings.

GRANOLA-BRANDY PIE

Granola Pastry (below)
1 cup dark corn syrup
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup brandy
1/4 cup margarine or butter, melted
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups Nature Valley granola (toasted oat mixture)
Sweetened whipped cream

Heat oven to 375 degrees. Prepare Granola Pastry. Beat corn syrup, sugar, brandy, margarine, eggs, vanilla and salt with hand beater. Stir in granola. Pour into pastry-lined pie plate. Cover edge with 3-to 3-inch strip of aluminum foil to prevent excessive browning; remove foil during last 10 minutes of baking. Bake until set, 40 to 45 minutes. Serve with sweetened whipped cream.

Granola Pastry: Prepare for 9-inch One-Crust Pie as directed on 1 package (11 ounces) pie crust mix or sticks except—stir in 1/2 cup granola (toasted oat mixture), crushed, before mixing in water.

SWISS HAM 'N' EGGS

1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
1/2 teaspoon onion powder
One 10-ounce package frozen buttermilk waffles (jumbo size)
One 10 1/2-ounce can condensed cream of celery soup
1/2 cup milk
1 cup (4 ounce) shredded Swiss cheese
1 cup cubed, cooked ham
3 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1 teaspoon dried parsley flakes
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg (optional)
Heat oven to 400 degrees. Combine butter and onion powder; mix well. Spread one side of frozen waffles with butter mixture. Cut each waffle into 3 triangles; place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake at 400 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes or until crisp, turning waffles twice during baking.
Meanwhile, combine soup and milk in medium saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until well blended. Add remaining ingredients. Cook and stir over medium heat until cheese is melted and mixture is heated through. Arrange 4 waffle triangles on individual plates. Pour ham mixture over waffles to serve. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings.

Frosty Cherry Squares An Asset Worth Stockpiling

While "frozen assets" pose problems in the financial world, quite the opposite is true for foods. Good cooks know the value of "frozen assets" tucked away in the freezer for future serving to family and guests.

This recipe for Frosty Cherry Squares is a frozen asset worth stockpiling. Since the recipe makes a large amount (serves 10-12), it's suitable for a party or to use a few squares at a time.

Cherry Squares have the texture and taste of cherry sherbet accented with a crunchy base and topping. The refreshing tartness comes from canned cherry pie filling whipped to a fluffy volume with egg whites and lemon juice. During the beating, the whole cherries are broken into bits of pulp distributed throughout the chiffon-like mixture.

This "frozen asset" has a guaranteed favorable return... delighted "eaters" will want to return for more. And the cook will want to return to this easy recipe often for make-ahead desserts and snacks.

FROSTY CHERRY SQUARES

1 cup sifted flour

1/4 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1/2 cup butter, melted
Combine ingredients. Spread evenly in shallow baking pan. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Spread two-thirds of the crumbs in a 9x13x2 inch pan.

3 egg whites
one-third cup sugar
2 Tbsp. lemon juice
1 can (21-oz.) cherry pie filling
1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Combine egg whites, sugar, cherries and lemon juice in large mixing bowl. With electric mixer, beat at high speed to stiff peaks, about 10 minutes. (If cherries splash, shape a foil splash guard around the rim of bowl.) Gently fold in whipped cream. Spoon mixture over crumb base, top with remaining crumbs. Freeze 6 hours or overnight. Cut into 10 to 12 squares to serve. Remove amount needed at one time; keep remainder frozen. Serve frozen.

Easy Batter Brown Bread In A Can

Homemade brown bread is always a welcome item to have ready for making sandwiches or for snacking with a cup of tea or a glass of milk.

Traditional brown bread is steamed, but you can bake an easy-batter banana brown bread in one-pound coffee cans or vegetable cans.

The bread rises in the can to form an attractive peak. This batter, chock full of vitamins and minerals, makes three loaves. It freezes well. When ready to use, simply thaw and warm.

Try it with cream cheese, your favorite jams or thin slices of country ham.

BANANA BROWN BREAD

- 2 cups unsifted whole wheat flour
- 1 cup unsifted yellow cornmeal
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 cup mashed ripe bananas (3 medium bananas)
- 1 cup buttermilk
- 2/3 cup unsulphured molasses
- 2/3 cup raisins

In a large bowl, mix together flour, cornmeal, salt and baking soda. Stir in bananas and remaining ingredients. Turn into 3 greased and floured 1-pound cans.

Bake in 350-degree oven 45 minutes, or until cake tester inserted in center of breads comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes, turn out of cans, slice and serve warm with butter.

Loaves may be frozen. Thaw and heat in 350-degree oven, wrapped in foil, for 20 minutes. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 3 loaves.

CARROT-BANANA BREAD

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup mashed banana (3 medium-size)
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup grated carrot
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts

In large bowl, cream butter with sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs. Mash bananas in small bowl. Mix flour, soda, baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Blend in flour mixture alternately with bananas. Combine with egg-butter-sugar mixture. Then stir in carrots and nuts. Turn into greased 9-by-5-by-3-inch loaf pan. Bake in 350-degree oven 50 to 60 minutes, or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes, turn out of pan and cool completely. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 1 loaf.

RED-AND-GREEN TWIST

- 1 package hot-roll mix
 - 1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
 - 1/4 cup granulated sugar
 - 1/2 cup raspberry or strawberry jam
 - 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 - 1 tablespoon dark corn syrup
- Prepare hot-roll mix as package directs. Cook pineapple with sugar until thick; cool. Start heating oven to 400 degrees F. Divide dough into 3 parts. On lightly floured surface, roll 1 part into rectangle about 10 x 6; spread with half of pineapple mixture; roll up from long side, jelly-roll fashion. Repeat with second part of dough, using rest of pineapple, tinted green. Repeat with third part, using raspberry jam. On greased baking sheet, braid the 3 rolls (2 with pineapple filling, 1 with raspberry). Pinch ends, to seal. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake 20 min., or until done. Melt butter; mix with corn syrup; heat; brush on bread.

BRIOCHES

- 3/4 cup warm water
 - 1 package hot-roll mix
 - 1 egg, slightly beaten
 - Melted butter or margarine
- In warm water, dissolve yeast from package of roll mix as directed. Add egg; mix well. Blend in roll mix; mix thoroughly. Cover. Let rise in warm place (about 85 degrees F.) until double in bulk — 30 to 60 min. Shape three fourths of dough into 18 rolls. Place in greased 2 1/2 inch muffin-pan cups. Press large indentation into top of each roll; brush with butter. Divide remaining dough into 18 parts; shape into balls. Press 1 ball into indentation in each roll. Let rise in warm place until light — 30 to 60 min. Bake at 375 degrees F. 15 min. Make 1 1/2 doz.

NUTTWISTS

- 1 package hot-roll mix
 - 2 tablespoons melted shortening or salad oil
 - 3/4 cup chopped walnuts
 - 1/2 cup granulated sugar
 - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- Prepare dough as hot-roll-mix package directs, adding shortening to yeast-water liquid. Cover. Let rise in warm place (about 85 degrees F.) about 30 min. Combine nuts, sugar, and cinnamon. Divide dough into small pieces. Stretch each till about 8 inches long; roll in nut mixture; twist into S or other shape. Place on greased baking sheet. Sprinkle with nut mixture. Let rise in warm place until light — 30 to 60 min. Bake at 400 degrees F. 12 to 15 min. Makes 1 1/2 doz.

HERB-BREAD STICKS

- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
 - 1 teaspoon leaf sage
 - 2 teaspoons caraway seeds
 - 1 package hot-roll mix
- Combine nutmeg, sage and caraway seeds with hot-roll mix. Then prepare dough as package directs. Cover. Let rise in warm place (about 85 degrees F.) until double in bulk — 30 to 60 min. Shape into 2 doz. bread sticks; place on greased baking sheet, 1 inch apart. Let rise in warm place until light — 30 to 60 min. Bake at 400 degrees F. about 15 min. Makes 2 doz.

HATTIE'S CRESCENTS

- 1/2 cup canned tomato juice
 - 1 tablespoon grated onion
 - 1 tablespoon grated celery
 - 1 tablespoon grated carrots
 - 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon dried sage
 - 1 package hot-roll mix
 - Grated Parmesan cheese
- Combine tomato juice, onion, celery, carrots, salt, and sage. Dissolve yeast as hot-roll-mix package directs, reducing water to 1/2 cup. Add tomato-juice mixture. Then add hot-roll mix at once; combine well. Cover. Let rise in warm place (about 85 degrees F.) until double in bulk — 30 to 60 min. Divide dough into 2 parts. On lightly floured board, roll each part into circular shape, 1/4 inch thick; sprinkle with cheese; cut into 8 wedges. Roll up each wedge, starting at wide end and rolling toward point. Place on greased baking sheet, point side down; curve ends to form crescent shape. Let rise in warm place until light — 30 to 60 min. Bake at 400 degrees F. 12 min. Makes 1 1/2 doz.

Brown bread, right, made in a can, is easy to make and freezes well for future use. Bananas add taste and nutrition to this bread, as well as carrot-Banana Bread, left. Both make super snacks and travel well in the lunch box.

Care Varies For Hemorrhoid Types

DEAR DR. LAMB — I need to know about treatment for hemorrhoids, short of surgery. I have been having a problem with them lately as I am a secretary and sit from 9 to 5. I'm becoming desperate. I cannot afford the time or money for surgery. I have not had this job very long and it is my only means of support. I'm a widow and am barely able to take care of the essentials. The essentials are utility bills and taxes, not food and clothing. I'm sure there must be some treatments that I could try first before having to consider surgery. Please help me. What are the latest discoveries or treatments for them?

obliterate the dilated vein. Others can be treated by banding the internal hemorrhoid with rubber bands. You should see a proctologist for good advice in your case. Your county medical society can suggest one for your area. Your bowel habits have a lot to do with how comfortable you are. Straining at the stool is a major factor in causing problems with hemorrhoids.

DEAR READER — It makes a lot of difference what kind of hemorrhoids you have. If you have a few external tags that cause itching and irritation, local treatment may provide some relief. If you have an acute thrombosed (clotted) hemorrhoid, it may need to be drained and will heal in a few days. Otherwise external hemorrhoids are treated only by surgical methods.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am doing exercises for my body and am firming up, but nowhere do I find anything for the face. My neck is getting very flabby but I need information for everything above the neck. Do you have any suggestions?

If you have internal hemorrhoids, which means inside the sphincter, they can sometimes be treated by other means. These are the ones that tend to bleed and do not cause symptoms of itching and irritation that you have with external ones. I am sending you The Health Letter number 13-12, Hemorrhoids: New Treatment for an Old Affliction, which will explain the differences and treatments in greater detail to you.

DEAR READER — Face and neck muscles are like all other muscles in the body. They will get slack, small and weak if they are not used. And they get strong and enlarge if you exercise them under load. This is hard to do because of the way these muscles are attached to the head and neck.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE O80L

For Thursday, September 24, 1981

YOUR BIRTHDAY

September 24, 1981
This coming year you are likely to establish two new and important friendships. One will be with a person who could help you materially. The other will be with one who inspires you to be more creative.

YOUR POSSIBILITIES

For achieving your aims are very good today, but there is a danger you may oversell or overdo and thereby nullify what you've gained.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)

In talking to others you might come up with several new and better ways to handle a matter you deem important. Just don't get carried away and ignore the cost.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)

Don't judge too hastily an individual you may chance to meet today socially. This person could make a greater impact on you than you might first imagine.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

You have extremely sharp instincts regarding ways to better your lot in life. However, what's good for you might not be so for someone else. Don't push your ideas on another.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

A changing condition can have some unique benefits to offer you and your family today. However, much to your surprise, one member might not view it as such.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Your thinking is perceptive. You seem to have the answers to problems plaguing others, yet you may fear their reaction and could mistakenly keep mum.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)

Suggestions offered you by your companions today can be adapted to fit your present circumstances, but only if you follow the guidelines exactly. Don't improvise.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Gain can occur through a shared interest today because collective ideas work well. When any individual becomes singleminded, however, then progress ceases.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)

A set of unique circumstances may open a blocked channel for you today, but it is meant for you alone. If you bring along a passenger you could be refused entry.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19)

Partnership matters today can have more advantages for you than usual. Team up with those who are productive. Avoid erratic types.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

You may be in a gregarious mood today, perhaps even desiring to do something unusual. If family members don't wish to tag along, don't get upset. Go it alone.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Follow your instincts as to how you feel about a personal situation. Don't let intruders stick their noses into it. Keep your ideas to yourself.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Bridge hand diagram showing North, South, West, and East cards and dealer information.

But with a probable six club tricks, he is delighted with the idea of trying for the nine-trick game. West has no really attractive lead and no real hope of beating any contract that North and South arrive at. Still, when no one tries for a slam East is marked with some high cards and there is no reason for West to give up. He decides to lead a major suit. North did not use Stayman and it is very unlikely that he will have four cards in either spades or hearts. So West decides to avoid the lead of his best four-card suit, diamonds. Then West opens the deuce of hearts. The seven is played from dummy and East is tempted to play the eight. It is a temptation he should resist firmly. East knows that his king of clubs will be a winner. He is looking at the 10-9-8 of spades in dummy and K-Q-J-7 in his own hand. He can knock out the ace of spades and be sure of three spades, one club and one heart. A sure thing is a sure thing. He rises with his ace of hearts, leads the king of spades and defeats the game.

By Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag

North's jump to three notrump is a normal, good bid. With just eight high-card points opposite an opening notrump, he does not see much future in trying for an 11-trick game.

Advertisement for Prescribed Reading By MEDCO. A report in a recent issue of Emergency Medicine indicates many people who suffer from asthma may not be using anti-asthma aerosols correctly. The most common error, the journal says, is simply squirting the aerosol into the mouth without inhaling deeply at the same time. This inhalation pulls the medication down into the constricted airways where it is needed. Repetition, the report says, is also important. The first inhalation, then, merely begins to open up airways while each successive inhalation penetrates a little deeper. Since adequate intervals between successive inhalations are also important, the journal recommends three inhalations, spaced 10 to 20 minutes apart for mild to moderate asthma. As for all medications, however, follow your physician's instructions exactly. MEDCO DRUGS 17-92 AT 27th ST. SANFORD

Prime Rate Cut To 19 1/2%

NEW YORK (UPI) — More major banks, including No. 2 Citibank, cut their prime lending rate Tuesday to 19 1/2 percent from 20 percent following the Federal Reserve's action late Monday lowering its surcharge for frequent borrowers.

In addition to Citibank, three other banks ranked in the top 10 — Manufacturers Hanover, Morgan Guaranty and Chemical Bank — joined the move to the 19 1/2 percent level.

Other major banks immediately followed, including Irving Trust, Bank of New York, European American, The National Bank of Detroit and Girard Bank.

As a result of the latest moves, analysts expect the 19 1/2 percent prime rate to become industrywide.

Chase Manhattan, the nation's third largest bank, led the move Monday to the 19 1/2 percent prime, and a number of major banks immediately followed.

The reductions came following Friday's report by the Federal Reserve that the nation's money supply grew $1.1 billion in the latest week, which was in line with economists' expectations and left money growth well within the Fed's growth targets.

After the market closed Monday, the Fed confirmed earlier easing moves when it reduced to 3 percent from 4 percent the surcharge it imposes on member banks which borrow frequently from its discount window. No change was made in the discount rate of 14 percent.

A Fed statement said "adjustment is a technical response to the decline over recent weeks in short-term money market rates."

Love Life Goes Public

QUEBEC (UPI) — A government stenographer used a computer to compose a letter about her dull love life, which promptly sent her massive to hundreds of people.

"To answer your question, my love life is a bit dull," the stenographer said in the letter Tuesday to a friend overseas. "I haven't seen him for two weeks. Men! They're not easy to understand."

"Tell me if you meet a nice, good looking guy — I'd be happy to meet him. Solitude is a heavy burden," she wrote during a break in a parliamentary committee hearing on labor and manpower.

The computer made the letter a matter of public record with hundreds of copies sent out automatically to members of the Legislature, aides and reporters.

The woman, believed to be in her mid-20s, was unaware of her error until reporters started calling. Her lawyer threatened to sue anyone who published her name.

3 People Jump To Deaths From Golden Gate

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Three people jumped to their deaths Monday from the Golden Gate Bridge.

Officials said one of the jumpers may have been trying some kind of publicity stunt. The three deaths raised the total number of known deaths from jumping off the bridge to 714, the California Highway Patrol said.

The San Francisco coroner's office identified the first victim as Peter A. Wint, 25, of Missoula City, Texas.

Wint, who was wearing a white skydiver's suit, neck brace and two life preservers, leaped from the bridge at 7:31 a.m. PDT. The Coast Guard said Wint survived the jump, but died while being carried to shore in a rescue boat.

Authorities said Wint's clothing may indicate he was trying to survive the jump, but relatives contacted in Texas said Wint wasn't the daredevil type.

The second jumper, who left two suicide notes in a coat on the bridge walkway, was not identified pending notification of the next to kin.

The search for the third jumper's body continued today.

It was the third time three people have jumped from the bridge on the same day. The other occasions were Oct. 6, 1967 and Aug. 8, 1971.
