What! No Races?

In Wednesday's issue of The Herald there was an intersting despatch coming from Miami to the effect that it had finally been decided to abandon the racing meets there this winter due to "a chain of circumstances arising from various sources." This announcement is peculiarly significant since it had been previously stated by jockey club officials, since the Supreme Court rendered its decision last Spring, that the track would open again.

We are moved to wonder what the "chain of circumstances" could have been and we recall a statement of Governor Martin's made last summer, that there would be no more horse racing in Florida. We also recall recent utterances of State Attorney Hawthorne and County Solicitor Taylor that prosecutions would follow violations of the gamb-

Undoubtedly the "chain of circumstances" is merely an indication on the part of the constituted authorities that the laws of Florida will be enforced.

And yet for three years the horse races ran in Miami poulation gains 100,000 a year, and dogs raced to the tune of pari mutuals in a number of places for two or three years. # GENERAL & ELECTRIC Refrigerator

The whole family's gift for this year—and many more

TRULY this is a gift that keeps on giving. It means better living, better health. It means comforts, conveniences and real economies-all the year round.

Fresher milk for baby. New desserts that are so simple to prepare and that make those little parties so successful. Plenty of sparkling, clear-blue ice made from the same pute water you drink, Fewer trips to market. Plenty of room to store food-and just the right temperature to keep it in prime condition. No food spoilage. Lower running cost than the cost of ice.

The General Electric Refrigerator is the one refrigerator that never needs oiling. That has no exposed moving parts. That is extremely quiet and unusually roomy. All in all, it's a Christmas gife that every home should have! Why not come in modey and see the various models?

Samuel Goldwyn, producer of "Stella Dallas," "The Night of Love," "The Dark Abgel" and other distinguished films, offers as the piece de resistance of his career the new Ronald Colman-Vilma Banky film, "The Magic Flame," coming to the Milane Theatre next Monday. Directed by Henry King. maker of "Stella Dallas," and adapted by Bess Meredith from Rudolph Lothar's play, "King Hariequin," "The Magic Flame" is a story of clowns and counts, circus and court, love and laughter.

Ronald Colman plays two roles in the film, that of a clown and that of a count. It is Vilma Banky an aerial artist, whom Colman's two characters love and struggle for. Into the warp and woof of that conflict Henry King has injected romance, surprising situa-tions, humor, satire, physical struggle, a pair of murders, a balloon ascension and parachute jump, a whole circus filmed in its colorful details, and directorial acu-men such as the moviegoing public has come to associate with his name, says Manager Marentette of the Milane Theatre.

Goldwyn emphasized in a wire to Manager Marentette when the thea-tre executive booked "The Magic Flame" through United Artists Corporation that the new Colman Banky film has been made by practiced, expert hands. The continwity was the last one written by June Mathis, scenarist of "The Four Horsemen" and discoverer of Rudolph Valentino. The theme song, played by Ronald Colman on a guitar during the film, was composed by Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, Sets were designed by Carl Oscar Borg, Swedish artist; hile George Barnes, A. S. C. did the photography. George Marion, It and Nellie Revell wrote the titles. Finally, "The Magic Flame" is released by United Artists Corporation, which offers films of Mary Pickford, Norma Talmadge, Gloria Swanson, Corrine Griffith, Charlie Chaplin, Douglass Fairbacks, John Barrymore and other

We thought Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky had reached the zenith of their careers as screen lovers supreme when last they were shown in this city.

However, in their new romantic photoplay, "The Magic Flame," they rise to new heights of burning genius. It is positively the sweetest, although most dramatic story, they have ever had.

Not a moment in "The Magic Flame" is without its romance and its thrill and suspense.

We consider "The Magic Flame" altogether worthy of special heralding as this season's premier attraction at the Milane Theatre, coming Next Monday— Sincerely,

Jos. L. Marentette

The Seminole County Credit Association secures information from many sources and develops confidential credit reports on various persons who seek credit in this city.

Your credit standing is a valuable asset and should be maintained by prompt payment and adherance to codit terms of merchants where you carry your accounts,

Unless the merchant's Accounts Receivable are turned over every 30 or 60 days by PAYING YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY AND REGULARLY, his profit disappears through such heavy carrying charges. Let us look at this from a broad economic viewpoint in a commonsense manner. Is this fair to your merchant who offers this service to you? Certainly not!!!

Don't forget-your credit reflects your character and reputation, following you wherever you go.

Credit is an asset—prompt payment maintains it. Are you fair to yourself? When you fail to meet your obligations when due. By prompt payment of your bills you are building up a line of credit that may be of great benefit to you later on.
