

Rain Finally Halts Game In Ninth With Teams Tied

Water Plagues Game

Game Ends And Lookouts To Rout

Crowd Stays To End Despite Frequent Drenching By Rain

Game between the O-Men and the Lookouts at Sanford Field. It was called in the first half of the ninth inning with the score tied 3 and 3, just as the fourth drenching rain of the afternoon drove over the field and slammed into the crowded grandstand.

Frequent wetting failed to dampen the ardor of the fans who stayed until the end. After the first heavy shower many went home and changed their clothes and returned to the ball park, but only to get another soaking. As the third drenching rain of the afternoon drove over the field a storm came up, and only the few who were able to crowd onto the top bench were able to keep reasonably dry.

Yesterday's game as the first of the season on any park in the circuit to be rained out.

Sanford made its two runs in the last half of the sixth inning. Malby, first batter up, was out second to first; Swindell and Cates both singled, and then when Bistruff hit a double and the Gainesville outfield was slow in getting the ball back in both Swindell and Cates scored, and Bistruff went to third. Barnes attempted a squeeze play but bunted to the pitcher.

Gainesville got one run in the fifth and one in the sixth. It was at bat, with two men out, when the game was called in the ninth.

Dot Harden pitched for the Lookouts and struck out three men and allowed three walks. Padgett, pitching for the visitors, had a shaky first inning when Boris, leading off with a double, was caught at the plate trying to score on Malby's single on a great throw by Bray. Swindell popped out and Cates singled but Bistruff skied out.

Saints Get Back To Tie With Reds For Second Place

ST. AUGUSTINE, May 22.—Carl Weigel batted St. Augustine back into a two-day tie with Deland for second place in the Florida State League here yesterday, by setting the Reds down with five hits, for a 4 to 3 victory. It was Weigel's fifth win of the season as he shined Maxwell, now Deland hurler, in a stellar mound duel. The Saints collected eight hits.

Holdstock's homer with Rubeling on base gave Deland a two run lead in the second frame. The Reds bunched three of their hits off Weigel in the sixth to rally their first run.

The Saints were held to a lone single until the fifth, when Brant Bonner's single drove home Weigel from second and the Saint hurler scored on Didrickson's wild throw past first on an atzantic double play.

The Saints bunched four hits in the seventh with Mayo Langston's timely single driving in the winning run.

Both sides played flashy ball offed each being guilty of an error. Frank Colmer collected two hits for the Saints, while McFarland duplicated the feat for the visitors.

McNally Helps To Beat Daytona On Palatka's Field

Former Lookout Gets Two Hits First Day In Azalea Uniform

Plying lead-off position on the Palatka side, Jimmy McNally, who started with the Lookouts this season, helped the Azaleas defeat the league-leading Daytona Beach Islanders in Palatka, 4 to 3, yesterday. It was the first time Jimmy had donned the Azalea uniform. He got two hits in four times at bat.

McNally was first traded (along with some cash) to Buddy Lake, and then when the Lake deal blew up and he came back to Sanford he was traded with Palatka for Outfielder Boris.

Another new player on the Palatka nine yesterday was Jerry Fuleher who got three singles in as many trips to the plate. Lefty Larsen pitched for the Azaleas and limited the Islanders to eight scattered hits and chalked up his seventh win of the season.

Phoinaki and Morton headed the Daytona attack on Larsen with a brace of blows each. Morton garnered a 70/90 and a triple while Phoinaki hit a triple and a single. Manager Arnold Anderson's home run clinic in the sixth gave Daytona Beach its final two markers when the b'w pushed Phoinaki across the rubber.

Who's Who Among The LOOKOUTS

Bill Cates, who plays the "clean-up" position in the Lookouts line-up, was on the local base last year—one of the few men who made such a good record that he was asked to come back again this year. He is No. 4 in batting order, placed in the difficult position because he can generally be counted upon for a hit.

While Joe Bistruff is credited by the loop statisticians with leading the League in hits, in proportion to the number of times at bat Cates is the leading hitter among all the players on the six teams in the entire league. It has happened that Bistruff has been at bat more times than Cates. Bill has also led in the greatest number of runs.

Cates is only 20 years of age, but he tips the scales at 190 pounds. His home is in Key West, where he was graduated from High School in 1934.

Wiggins Given Car; 180,000 Coupons Were Distributed

Despite the rain that came up in sudden gusts four times during the afternoon, Thursday's attendance at Sanford Field was the largest at any baseball park in the Florida State League this season. More than 1,600 fans paid admission. The previous attendance record was 1,100 at Daytona Beach the opening day of the season.

Fans crowded to the park yesterday, even though the weather was the most inclement of any day since the baseball season started, because the new car bought by the Red Star merchants was given away, and the recipient had to be in the park when the award was made. It was given to M. S. Wiggins.

One hundred and eighty thousand coupons were given away by more than 60 Red Star merchants in Sanford and other towns of the County.

C. F. Wert, president of the Sanford Baseball Association, said today that final figures on receipts from the sale to merchants of the coupons and of tickets to yesterday's game, and expense connected with the financing drive, have not yet been compiled, but that he felt sure the association will have enough money to "carry on" for some time.

"If we could only have had a nice day yesterday there would have been another thousand or two at the game and our receipts would have been much larger," he said. "But it had to rain yesterday, win both the Louisville Slugger and Spalding trophies."

The Spalding trophy was put up for the first time into last season and was won by Duane Kratzer of Casville in the Arkansas-Missouri League. He batted .397.

To be eligible for the trophies, players must participate in at least 75 percent of their team's games. Progress of the race for these beautiful prizes will be announced weekly during the season.

Trophies To Be Awarded For Minor Leagues' Batting Skill

Batting skill in the minor leagues will be rewarded again during the 1936 campaign with two handsome trophies at stake for those who can make the base hits ring off their bats.

The Louisville Slugger trophy, up for the third year, is being awarded by the Hillierich & Bradby Company of Louisville for the minor league player showing the best batting average for the season.

The trophy will be a duplicate of those awarded in 1934 and 1935—an actual-size sterling silver bat, an exact replica of the original used in actual competition. The name of the winner and his batting average will be engraved on the trophy and it will be presented with ceremony during some game of the 1937 season.

Jimmy Sanders of Martinsville in the St. Louis League won the first trophy in 1934 with an average of .328. Last season it

League President Sustains Protest Against Decision

AMERICUS, Ga., May 22.—(AP)—President Hollis Fort of the Georgia-Florida Baseball League has sustained Americas' protest of a game in Tallahassee, Fla., Tuesday.

Americus protested in the fifth inning when Umpire John Farris failed to call a talk against Johnny, Tallahassee pitcher, who dropped the ball while in the act of delivering it to the plate.

Tallahassee won, 5 to 2.

Coutremarsh's Name To Be On June 2 Ballot

Presidential Preference Primary Is To Be Held But F. D. R. Is Promised Vote

Every Candidate For Roosevelt 39 Are After The 18 Seats In National Meeting Of Party

TALLAHASSEE, May 23.—(AP)—There will be a presidential preference primary in Florida June 2 but it won't mean much because every candidate for delegate to the Democratic national convention has announced support for President Roosevelt's renomination.

In the primary, the name of Joseph Coutremarsh of Lebanon, N. H., will appear on the ballot along with President Roosevelt's.

The presidential preference was called to give the voters an opportunity to express their sentiments, but the preference was intended only as a guide to the Democratic national convention delegates.

There has been no campaigning either on behalf of Coutremarsh or President Roosevelt. The former is a dentist. There was no charge for him or President Roosevelt to qualify in the preference primary.

The campaign committee of the Democratic party in Florida announced after a meeting in Jacksonville that each of the 39 candidates for Florida's 18 seats at the Philadelphia convention favored Roosevelt. Eight of the 18 delegates have half a vote each, and the other 10 have full votes, making Florida's 18 votes for Roosevelt.

The President has no opposition for re-nomination, and national political observers said only one ballot would be required to name him as the party's candidate for another term in the White House. Platform discussions, however, will occupy considerable time at Philadelphia.

Florida has 12 votes at the Republican national convention in Cleveland. The state's delegation is bound by the unit vote rule imposed by the state party convention which met recently in Orlando.

Three of the 12 delegates were instructed by congressional district conventions to support the candidacy of Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas for president. The other nine delegates were not instructed but are known to be political associates of National Committeeman John F. Harris of Palm Beach who is a supporter of Col. Frank Knox of Chicago.

Horned Toad Sent Mayor Shinholser From Texas Fair

The Sanford Zoo has another curiosity. It is a horned toad sent by directors of the Texas Centennial to Mayor S. O. Shinholser and given by him to the zoo. It arrived in good condition yesterday, and Park Superintendent James Moughton said he will have a special cage built for it so visitors at the zoo can see the strange little animal tomorrow.

Two Murder Cases Are Docketed For Trial Next Week

Case Against Negro Has Not Been Before Grand Jury

Two murder cases and one of assault with intent to commit murder, one of robbing an officer, two of larceny, two of breaking and entering, three of non-support, and one of setting fire to an automobile are the criminal cases on the docket for the Spring term of Circuit Court which is to begin next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The grand jury will be impaneled upon the convening of Court, but in the opinion of Court officials "no bills" will be returned by that body against several defendants.

C. C. Gracy, white, and Oliver Robinson, negro, are the defendants in the murder action. The former is out on bond, following his indictment by the last grand jury. The negro is in jail, pending action on his case by the next grand jury. He is accused of having killed Ernest Hayes, another negro, several months ago. Gracy was indicted with his son, Virgil, for the death of Arthur Bumbalough in Paola last August. The boy pleaded guilty at the December term of Circuit Court and was sentenced to the state reformatory at Marianna. It is expected that he will be brought back to testify at the trial of his father.

Charles W. Beck is charged on the docket with assault with intent to commit murder. He pleaded guilty last May 1 to a lesser charge and was sentenced two days later to three years in-state prison at Raiford.

The charge of robbing an officer is placed against Willis Johnson, Police Officer G. C. Felows in the complaining witness. Dan Beatty is in jail, charged with the larceny of an automobile belonging to George McRory. The other charge of larceny is lodged against E. C. Motes, Jr., charged with the theft of timber. He is at liberty on bond. Dan Beatty is also charged with breaking and entering, as is Joe Jones, held in jail. Eddie Lewis, charged with setting fire to an automobile, is at liberty under bond.

The docket shows charges of non-support against Henry Brown, at liberty on his own recognizance, and against Cleveland Dunwoody and Arthur Jones, both at liberty under bond.

Annual Picnic At Sammy Long's To Be Next Thursday

Next Thursday, May 29, is the date for Sammy Long's annual picnic at the Jacob's picnic grounds at Chuluota, and as the day is to be a half-holiday a tremendous crowd is in prospect. The affair will be free and the invitation to attend includes every person who wants to enjoy the day and evening. Any political candidate who wants to make a speech will be permitted to do so, and there will be music and dancing in the evening.

The barbecue and picnic will be at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, but the public is asked to "come early and stay late," and make it an old-fashioned "Cracker day."

Mr. Long has been in the habit of entertaining his friends at these free barbecues and picnics every year.

Every School District For 10 Mill Levy

Trustees Asking Re-election All Win In Friday's Vote In Five Districts

The 10-mill levy for the schools was voted in the five districts holding elections yesterday, and all trustees asking re-election were returned by the voters. Mrs. J. C. Bills was elected a trustee in the Geneva district to succeed her husband who had resigned, and F. W. Talbot was elected in the Oviedo district to succeed R. G. King, resigned.

Sanford voted for the 10-mill levy, 5 to 1. In the Lake Mary-Altamonte-Longwood district the vote was 95 for 10 mills and only 5 votes against. Oviedo cast 26 votes for the millage while three voted for no school tax. Geneva voted 24 for 10 mills and 11 for no tax, and Chuluota voted 5 to 1 for the levy. Lake Monroe will vote its millage and select trustees next year.

School trustees elected yesterday will receive their commissions Monday. Those elected and the vote they received follow:

First District (Sanford): R. B. Chapman 58, Mrs. W. L. Morgan 58, W. M. Haynes 57.

Second District (Lake Mary, Altamonte Springs, Longwood and Forest City): Fred Forward 146, Roy Howell 137, W. J. Hartley 129.

Third District (Oviedo and Slavia): George Jakubcin 42, L. H. Gore 41, F. W. Talbot 41.

Fourth District (Chuluota): A. G. Wagner 21, Edwin Hamel 21, S. F. Long 20.

Fifth District (Geneva and Osceola): G. C. LaFila 47, Mrs. J. C. Bills 46, Floyd Land 38.

23 4-H Girls Are To Attend Short Course

County Winners Are Chosen By Judges; Course To Be Held Through Next Week

Twenty-three girls belonging to 4-H Clubs in Seminole County, including seven winners, will attend the annual short course in Gainesville next week, leaving next Saturday and being away all the following week. Transportation has been provided, and the expenses will be paid by the Home Demonstration Clubs of the County. Scholarships were also given by the Sanford Woman's Club and the County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Winners in achievement day contests conducted by each of the seven 4-H clubs of the County last month engaged in a final competition before judges in the City Hall Auditorium Friday afternoon and the following five girls were chosen as Seminole County winners.

Leety Belle Swaggerty of Lake Monroe, health.
Ernestine North of Longwood, poultry.
Selma Levy of Geneva, bread.
Betty Fay Howell of Altamonte Springs, dress.
Margaret Culpepper of Geneva, canning.

Selma Levy made the winning loaf of bread, Betty Howell made the dress she wore in competition with 19 other girls in the revue, and Margaret Culpepper exhibited canned tomatoes and berries to win first place in canning.

The short course will be taken by the following girls:
Geneva: Marie Baxter, Virginia Yarbrough, Margaret Culpepper, Eleanor Marshall, Erma Alderman and Selma Levy.
Lyman: Betty Fay Howell, Marie Bates, Ernestine North, Dorothy Nowell and Frances Arent.
Paola: Leona Vaughn and Marjorie Weaver.
Chuluota: Gladys Maude Simmons and Mickey Chalker.
Lake Monroe: Leety Belle Swaggerty and Vonelle Yates.
Lake Mary: Laurette Minshew and Dorothy Iabill.
Oviedo: Darlene Allen and Virginia Wilkinson.
Sanford: Carol Sasser and Helen Dressler.
Mia Josephine Boydston, County home demonstration agent, and Mrs. Selig of Geneva, Mrs. Arent of Longwood and Mrs. Forward of Forest City will accompany the girls to Gainesville.

In addition to attending daily classes at the short course, the girls from this County will enter the state song contest, singing a piece written for the 4-H Club by Mrs. Emma Abbott Lyman of Longwood. Mrs. Lyman wrote a song for the 15 girls who went to Gainesville from Seminole County last year and who won first place. In this contest, girls in each group are to be dressed alike, wearing gowns that they made. The Seminole County girls are to wear dresses of an original design, Mia Boydston said.

Small craft warnings flew from Jacksonville south to Key West along the East Coast, and from Carrabelle westward to Corpus Christi, Texas, along the Gulf Coast. Yesterday, warnings extended from Charleston to Miami. Meteorologists said warnings are out merely to caution small boats against venturing into the open sea. They added that high tides, squally weather, and gusty winds would probably keep such craft in port anyway.

The highest wind velocity reported to the Weather Bureau was 42 miles an hour from a ship east of Fort Lauderdale. Miami had a high of 35, Key West 30 and points between Jacksonville and Miami twenty to thirty miles.

Referendum Vote On Slot Machines Being Planned In Duval

JACKSONVILLE, May 23.—A movement looking toward the holding of a county referendum to outlaw slot machine operations was initiated here yesterday as the outgrowth of a luncheon meeting sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance.

Following a strong denunciation of slot machines and the inequities which are said to have grown out of their operation, decision was reached at the meeting to circulate the county with 114 petitions, on which the signatures of qualified electors will be sought for the purpose of petitioning the county commissioners to include the question on the general election ballot in November.

Fred S. Cates, a city councilman who has become interested in the movement, announced that at least two petitions have been prepared for distribution in each precinct, and three or four in the largest ones.

Coasts Lashed By Severe Gales But Without Any Loss

JACKSONVILLE, May 23.—(AP) Squally weather swept Florida's East Coast and its extreme north-west Gulf Coast with high winds, pounding tides and frequent showers, but no damage was reported and none expected. The weather bureau said a wall of high pressure along the South Atlantic seaboard caused the disturbed conditions. Forecasters said winds are rushing over the edge of this high pressure wall and are sweeping the coastline just like water pouring over brink of the precipice.

Small craft warnings flew from Jacksonville south to Key West along the East Coast, and from Carrabelle westward to Corpus Christi, Texas, along the Gulf Coast. Selassie To Embark For Visit In London

LONDON, May 23.—(AP)—The British foreign office announced today that Emperor Haile Selassie will board the British cruiser Capetown at Haifa this afternoon enroute for London. The Emperor has received official approval of his visit to the English capital. The foreign office declined to say whether he will be received as a sovereign or a private citizen. It also was not certain whether the emperor will be in the party of eight accompanying the Ethiopian monarch.

Verdict Returned By Six-Man Jury After Deliberating Only Three Hours Today

All At Liberty Pending Sentence

Defense Has 4 Days In Which To Move For Another Trial

BARTOW, May 23.—(AP)—Five former Tampa policemen today were convicted on a charge of kidnaping Eugene F. Poulnot, one of three victims of a mob in Tampa last Nov. 30. A six-man jury in Criminal Court returned the verdict after slightly more than three hours' deliberation of Judge Robert T. Dewell's charge that the defendants should be acquitted unless the jurors believed without a doubt that Poulnot was abducted for the purpose of being secretly imprisoned.

The five men convicted are John P. Bridges, C. W. Carlisle, F. W. Switzer, S. A. Brown, Jr. and Sam Crosby. Two others, former Police Chief R. G. Tittsworth and Special Officer Robert Chappell, were acquitted by a directed verdict several days ago. Tittsworth was charged with being an accessory after the fact, Chappell and the five convicted today were named as principals. Judge Dewell deferred sentence and continued the men under $7,500 bonds under which they have been at liberty. The defense has four days in which to petition for a new trial. The maximum sentence on the charge could be 10 years.

Poulnot, Sam Rogers and Joseph Shoemaker, admitted socialists and labor organizers, were arrested by Tampa officers while attending a political meeting in a private home. The officers had no warrants. After being questioned about alleged communistic activities the trio were released at the police station. Just outside the station, however, the three men were hauled into automobiles and taken into the woods where they were beaten, tarred and feathered. Shoemaker died of his wounds.

Farmer Convicted Of Robbing Tampa Bank Protests Innocence

TAMPA, May 23.—(AP)—Maintaining his innocence, A. B. Chastain, 37-year-old farmer, was sentenced yesterday to 25 years in prison following his conviction Tuesday of participating in the armed holdup of the Columbia Bank, in Tampa's Latin quarter on Mar. 3. The bank was robbed of $84,900 in cash and $1,500 in bonds by four masked gunmen during the noon hour. Two bank officials, made to lie on the floor during the robbery, identified Chastain at his trial.

His attorneys said they would appeal to the Supreme Court, and Judge Moore fixed Chastain's appeal bond at $15,000.

The Governor's Race

With the first Democratic primary little more than a week away, the race for governor is beginning to attract attention; and well it might, as no less than fourteen sound trucks scatter recklessly throughout the state, scattering with equal recklessness fourteen different sets of political promises.

We have only recently begun to listen to the campaign speeches. Those gubernatorial candidates who were among the first to visit Sanford failed to attract our attention. And yet by some strange coincidence they are the only ones who have managed to remain on our list.

But when voters go to the polls on June 2 they will find themselves confronted by an array of no less than 14 listed as candidates for governor, one of whom they will have to give their vote. Reading the list they will find Grady Burton, who makes no promises, has no platform, but devotes himself to flaying the duPont interests and their candidate, whom he does not name.

Dan Chappell is a personable young man from the lower East Coast who has a pleasant speaking voice, and talks straight from the shoulder, giving good, sound reasons why things are not right as they are, and telling frankly what could be done to improve them.

Fred Cone is a Lake City banker and business man, but strangely enough, his banking connections do not seem to be acting against him. He is generally recognized as one of the most independent men in the race with fewer unholty alliances than the rest.

Wm. C. Hodges, the president of the Senate, more popularly known as "Homestead Bill," is generally considered by practically every other candidate in the race as sure to be in the runoff.

B. F. Paty and Raleigh Petteway seem to be the only other candidates who have any chance at all of being a factor in the outcome; and we mention them last not because they may be weakest, but only because they appear near the last on the ballot.

The principal issue of this campaign seems to have resolved itself into the record of the Sholtz Administration. Though Gov. Sholtz is not a candidate, it is making no defense in his own behalf, has not openly endorsed any candidate, and is not defended by any candidate, still the issue seems to hang around his ears, with nearly every candidate in the race blasting them back.

Even Paty, who has been the most outspoken of all in his criticism of the Administration, is suspected. It is recalled that he campaigned for Sholtz in 1932, was immediately appointed by Sholtz to the State Racing Commission, of which he served as chairman for more than a year.

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

The social function of Commencement Week and antipater annually by the Senior and Junior classes with delicious little thrills of social joys and ambition is the receipt to the Senior graduates by the Juniors. This year was no exception to the rule and the Junior reception was one of the most delightful affairs of the year.

CANDLE LIGHT

By NINA OLIVER DEAN

"And nearer to the river's trembling edge, There grew broad, tall, flowers, purple pink with white."

Whenever I run across these lines of Shelley's, I remember to have seen a Florida water hyacinth, and the other day I heard a local legend that many years ago a lady who lived on the St. Johns near Welaka brought the first of these hyacinths from England for a pool in her garden.

There's a lake on the road near Fern Park that's been carpeted with hyacinths and at sunset, it's simply breath taking. I wish Wordsworth could slip back out of the centuries just long enough to lift their lovely spiked heads into one perfect line to be kept forever fresh in the garden of "the inward eye" next to the "host of golden daffodils."

Fresh from the press, exciting much interest in New York, and praised by Norman Thomas, Ray Stannard Baker, Irving Bacheller, Dr. John Haynes Holmes, Jessie Rittenhouse, Dr. Edwin Osgood Grover, and Dr. Richard Burton is Royal Wilbur France's newly published novel, "Compromise."

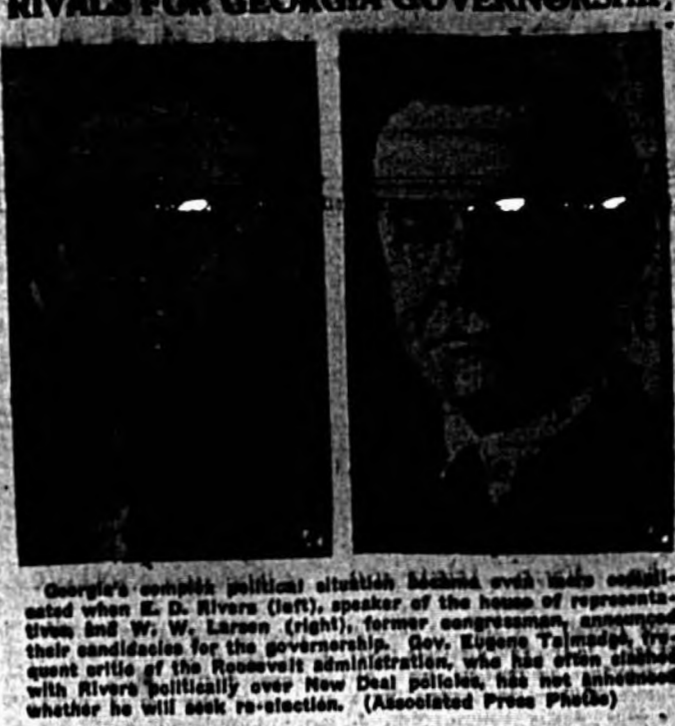

I was not surprised to find "I thought provoking, a significant and earnest study of social conditions. I was not surprised to find it bearing the unmistakable mark of the scholar. I was not surprised to find an interesting review of the important events and trends of thought of contemporary American life.

Professor France is a graduate of George Washington University with an M. A. from Hamilton College and a law degree from Albany Law School. He practiced law in New York and has had varied business experience.

"Compromise" is the story of a young idealist who starts out on the highway of life like a knight in shining armor, "to live pure, speak true, and fight the wrong" of this puzzled pilgrim's progress in the legal profession and the gradual abandonment of his ideals as he climbs the Delectable Mountains of Success.

Edgar Miller, and Frederick Welka; Third Grade, Irma Smith, Paul Strong, and Paul Thompson; Fourth Grade, Helen Kennedy, and John Henry; Luncheon; Fifth Grade, Mabel Williams; Sixth Grade, Charlotte Smith; Sixth Grade, Lucile Jenkins, Anna Deane, Margaret Richard, Nellie Messenger, Mary Belle Allen, Florence Henry, and Marlin Hand; Sixth Grade, Sidney Kennedy, Seventh Grade, Tom Anderson, and Volva Venable; Eighth Grade, Edward Rucker, Edna Alvarado, and Vera Terrence; Ninth Grade, Charles Dickson, Thomas Adams, Helen Park, Rita Edwards, Thea Guy Ringer, Alice Andes, and Lila Richardson; Tenth Grade, Betty Belle Lynch and Brown Little; Eleventh Grade, Annette Lake, and Twelfth Grade, Anne Anderson and Alice Anderson, and Sarah and Sarah Adams.

RIVALRY FOR GEORGIA GOVERNORSHIP

Georgia's complex political situation is being complicated when E. D. Rivers (left), speaker of the house of representatives and W. W. Warren (right), former congressman, announced their candidacies for the governorship.

LONGWOOD

The program for Lyman School Commencement is issued as follows: Baccalaureate sermon to be preached by the Rev. S. P. Hamilton, retired missionary, on Sunday night at 8:15 o'clock at the school auditorium.

The final graduation exercises for the 1936 class of Seniors will take place at the school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock on Friday night, May 29. There are nine members in the Senior class this year and all are girls.

The Civic League had a special business meeting combined with a sewing session on Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance.

The History Class of Lyman School was honored with a tour to St. Augustine and Fort Marion conducted by Principal W. H. Wells, Jr., on last Saturday which was greatly appreciated.

Several from Longwood attended the City Commission meeting which was held on Wednesday night. The Commission discussed the proposed ordinance for the city's new water plant.

The opening scene of the book is at a small Middle Western college at the senior oratorical contest in which the hero, Emory Young, loses the prize but gains the attention of a prominent statesman and an opportunity to enter his law firm.

Although he carries Patrick, who is a symbol of worldly position and pleasure and makes the compromise necessary to attain his ambition for success and power, there is a revolt in his soul that never quite forgives Justice. In the end, after he has been governor, senator, and secretary of state, he commits political suicide and sacrifices his chance of gaining the presidency for the sake of Justice.

"Compromise" is an interesting reading whatever your political affiliations—whether of the extreme left or of the extreme right. This book shows the importance of the individual's own attitude in the face of a world that is constantly changing and the need for a strong moral backbone to stand firm in the face of adversity.

Judicial Reforms Follow Budget Bill Filipino Program

MANILA, May 22.—(AP)—President Manuel L. Quezon of the Philippine Commonwealth has announced a judicial reorganization program by naming a judge candidate.

The next step is expected to involve the judicial setup. A new court of appeals has already been organized and the president is expected to name a judge to the court. The other would eliminate the justice courts entirely and create district courts.

Under the latter plan violations of local ordinances would be handled by municipal police courts.

For County Judge Of Seminole County

This office has to do with the administering of estates to the best interest of those for whom the estate was intended; it requires good, sound, and honest business judgment and experience.

This office has to do with JUVENILE offenders (boys and girls of immature age); the judge should know human nature and child life thru its maturing years, and understand the salvaging of LIFE where this is at all possible. He has charge of those offenders called "misdemeanors," he must seek to administer the laws to the end that justice will be done to society and to the offender; thru the future years as well as for the present, to salvage as well as punish.

Chief Justice Taft once said, in speaking to the American Bar Association: "The administering of the criminal laws of America have almost come to be a crime itself." It is commonly thought that for any one convicted of a crime, regardless of the facts and circumstances, are or discretion of the convicted, that there are only three things a Judge can do: sentence to the penitentiary, fine, sentence to death; that there is no plan in the law to try to salvage a life; but such is not the case and indeed should not be. Suppose a hospital should say: "We have but one operation for disease; we give castor oil and quinine for medicines, one of these should and must fit your case," would you believe that this could or would satisfy physical life? Then so is the administering of Justice, each individual case should be treated as an individual with all the facts and circumstances in mind. Do you believe that juvenile offender and younger citizens are worth while and deserving to be salvaged or saved? If it is at all possible? Then determine the peculiar and personal qualifications of the Judge to do these important tasks.

R. W. WARE WILL APPRECIATE YOUR VOTE AND INFLUENCE FOR COUNTY JUDGE. (PATH PICTORIAL ADVERTISING)

Control Bond Committees

- I am in favor of effective legislation controlling the bondholders committee, and before I left the City Commission I offered a resolution, that was adopted, petitioning Congressman Mark Wilcox to have enacted by the Congress a bill that would place the Bondholders Committee under the Federal Securities Exchange Commission, which would place the committee under similar control to National Banks.

Must Liquidate Bonds At Market Value

- I believe in legislation that will improve the State to aid cities and counties in refunding their obligations, not by assuming the debts by the State, nor by placing the credit of the State for payment of the bonds, but by forcing the bondholders to negotiate with the representatives of cities and counties for the purpose of effecting a permanent settlement of the indebtedness on the basis of the market value of the bonds and not the value of the bonds at the height of the boom.

I am NOT in favor of paying the bondholders 100 per cent on the dollar.

War Preparedness Demands Drafting Of Every German National Inventory Is To Be Taken By The War Ministry

By M. K. WHITELEATHER
 BERLIN, May 23.—(AP)—Side by side with rearmament, Germany is pointing her economic and social forces toward the next war.

A peace-time plan, untried on such a vast scale, has been sketched and an office created in the war ministry to carry it through.

The idea is called "Wehrwirtschaft." It is designed to gear the entire nation to support the fighting forces by closely coordinating and channeling all phases of life.

It calls for a long reach into every nook and cranny of the nation's cupboard.

Appeals reminiscent of war days are being made to housewives. They are being asked to organize their homes to such mathematical precision that waste will be banished.

One typical campaign requests that empty toothpaste tubes be saved, so the metal can be reused.

This preparation for the next war, which German military men say probably will be a "totalitarian war"—or one wherein every able bodied person and everything the nation possesses will be utilized, constitutes "Wehrwirtschaft."

The fundamentals as described by Major Kurt Hesse in the "Military Science Review" published by the ministry of war, are these:

(1)—The spiritual and mental preparation of all those who have to do with industry and business. This means, says Major Hesse, the mobilizing of men to the idea of sacrifice in the interest of the public good and the renunciation of some of life's necessities during war time. This task can be fulfilled only if public servants, who are responsible for economic preparedness, have the support of all, and especially of the leaders of business.

(2)—Statistical preparation of the possibilities and necessities during war. One of the characteristics of the situation in 1914, Major Hesse says, was the failure to take stock of raw materials on hand and those that would be needed.

(3)—The securing of nourishment through increasing home production, and in building up reserves of cereals, animal foods, fat, oils and meat; the regulation of imports with an eye to possible war needs and the making of contracts beforehand with foreign importers for war-time supplies; the equipment of agriculture with machinery to replace manual labor, always scarce when farmers go off to fight.

(4)—The management of industrial raw materials by specific plan for war-time so that all domestic materials can be fully used and foreign materials be obtained by contracts.

(5)—The management of energy, more especially of electricity, by co-ordinating plants and power lines.

(6)—The organization of industry by preparing and classifying plants according to their war potential. The training of specialists who would be on the job when needed.

(7)—Mobilization of women and children. This, Major Hesse explains, includes the classification of men as to whether they are to be used immediately in the army or whether they can remain in industry or on the land one year, or longer. It includes a census beforehand of the number of specialists likely to be needed in all lines and the number of men whose tasks can be taken over by women and children. Three million men, Major Hesse says, were taken into the army in 1914. This result was a drop in industrial and agricultural production.

(8)—The regulation of traffic so that it is able to handle military and normal needs simultaneously.

(9)—The organization of trade, so that exact information is on hand as to those who deal in raw, half and fully manufactured materials. Major Hesse recalls the importance trade with the smaller neutral countries assumed in World War years.

(10)—War finance preparation either through taxes or borrowing or both and an expenditure organization. Germany went into the war in 1914 financially well armed but poor use was made of the resources, the Major believes.

(11)—The protection of industry from espionage, sabotage and air raids.

A long-term view of economic preparedness, says Major Hesse, is favored by the army. This runs counter to some tendencies within the Nazi party which press for immediate action. By "long-term," the Major says, the army means a plan that conserves domestic raw materials, for example, as much as possible during peace time and substitutes foreign materials.

Other authorities on the subject say business and industry must have leadership as strong as the army's in order to work out the scheme. Private enterprise, however, apparently is to be left untouched as present intentions do not call for nationalization, in the army's view, of any industries, not even munitions factories.

RADIO STAR HAS BIRTHDAY

Kate Smith was guest of honor a few days ago at a spectacular celebration in Constitution Hall, Washington, D. C. More than 4,000 guests, including numerous government officials and other dignitaries were on hand to witness the colorful ceremonies which marked the radio star's birthday and the fifth anniversary of her first broadcast.

While the massed bands of Washington American Legion Posts played, and the audience applauded, John A. Hartford, president of The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, whose Washington unit of 1,500 employees sponsored the party, presented Miss Smith with a 300-pound birthday cake, standing six feet in height.

 of the Democratic Executive Committee.

Deland, May 23.—(AP)—A committee meeting June 30 to decide about having a special senatorial nominating primary, but Donnell telegraphed committee members asking if they would pay their own expenses to a meeting in Jacksonville next Monday to consider having a senatorial primary on June 23, the date of the regular second primary.

Divided opinions were expressed in the telegraphed answers which Donnell received.

There continued to be division of opinion among lawyers as to whether a special senatorial primary would have any legal effect. There was agreement, however, that such a primary could be called in order to give the people a voice in the matter, and then have the Democratic Executive Committee certify as its nominee the candidate receiving the highest vote in the primary balloting.

Generally, legal opinions leaned to agreement that any attempt to have a senatorial primary along with the regular primary on June 23 could be enjoined by court action because Senator Trammell died after the time for candidates to qualify for the regular primary.

There still has been no official proclamation from Governor Sholtz declaring a vacancy in the Senate ranks and calling for election of a successor to Trammell. He also has not made an ad interim appointment to serve in Trammell's place until a successor is elected in November.

Candidates for governor seem agreed on at least four major questions. They are against a sales tax for repeal of the slot machine licensing law, for guaranteed state school finances and for "safe, sane, economical operation of government."

The candidates make their own platforms. The Democratic party does not hold a convention to draft a party platform.

Organized blocs of voters will have an important part in the outcome of the primaries. These include school interests, independent merchants, labor, amusement interests, and old age pension groups.

Candidates have sought the support of these organizations, in addition to their bids for favor in the great field of individual, unorganized ballot-casters.

So far, there has been no withdrawal from the list of candidates for major offices. Ballots have been certified with 14 candidates for governor, five for state comptroller, five for superintendent of education, two for attorney general, two for commissioner of agriculture, and three for state treasurer.

Joins Stetson

DELAND, May 23.—William H. Bailey, gifted musician from Los Angeles, will join Stetson University's music faculty next fall as professor of violin, according to announcement by President W. S. Allen. He comes to Stetson from the Eastman School of Music where he has been pursuing advanced musical studies.

Experienced in orchestral direction, the new head of the violin department will lead the Stetson orchestra and instruct in violin, theory and composition. Louis H. Marvin, now professor of violin, will devote his entire attention next year to the Stetson band.

League Leaders To Play Here Sunday Afternoon

From the Sidelines

With 119 other baseball days which to choose, J. Phyrus... in the season and of all... the Florida Baseball Association did not make the wad of... in prospect because of the... of that new car. The attend-... was cut to 1,032 (but a high... in the league at that) and... admissions amounted to 965... the day been bright and... the figure might easily... been doubled.

Thursday's game on Sanford... was the first to be rained out... the Florida State League this... season. Games were played... in other towns of the circuit... and the Lookouts and G-Men... struggled through most of nine... innings in a drizzle on wet grounds... only to be prevented from... finishing a contest which had the... networks of a Lookout victory. This... game between Sanford and Gainesville... will be played off at a... later date, either on some open... field, or as a double-header some... time when the two teams meet... again either in Sanford or Gainesville. The next vacant date is a... week from next Monday, June 1... but Gainesville plays in Sanford... week from today and Sanford goes... to Gainesville a week from to-... morrow, and it is probable the... Thursday's game will be played... off on one of those dates.

Next week's "ladies days" will... be in Palatka, where the Lookouts... will play on Friday, and in... St. Augustine and Gainesville. The... attendance of the fair sex at the... game in Sanford yesterday, "ladies day," was not any too... good, but the inclement weather... had something to do with it.

In the opinion of the Gainesville... Sun "the biggest mystery of... the season to date" is how the... ever happened to summon up sufficient... luck to win that 1-0 16-inning... game in Sanford several weeks ago.

There will not be a day of rest... in the Florida State League circuit... until a week from next Monday... day, as games are scheduled for... every day next week and for a... week from Sunday. The Lookouts... play at home four days next... week—against Daytona Beach to-... morrow, St. Augustine on Tuesday... Palatka on Thursday and Gainesville... next Saturday.

Since tomorrow is Sunday there... is a possibility the Lookouts may... win. They defeated Palatka, 7-3... last Sunday and won over Gainesville... 14-9, the Sunday before. The... score against the Lookouts is 1... to 1-20 games lost and 10 won.

In line with the old proverb that... "merry loves company," there might... be some comfort for the Lookouts... who have lost 20 out of 30 games played, in the... fact that the St. Louis Browns of... the American League have lost 22... games out of 33 played.

This columnist wanted to say... something some weeks ago about... some of the umpires and some of... their decisions, but didn't. The... questionable decisions continue... however, not only on Sanford... Field but elsewhere. The St. Aug-... ustine Record reports that fans... in the Ancient City a few days ago... "all but mobbed Umpire Sheffield,"... when the Saints played the Day-... tons Beach Islanders, and in com-... menting on that occurrence the... Gainesville Sun says that Shef-... field "hasn't been back to Gainesville... since the third game of the... season here (Think Goodness), and... we were sincerely in hope that... during the interim he had... improved with experience and the... we would be able to offer con-... gratuations for the change. Which... reminds us, by the way, that the... local club has had some luck—first... Campbell have been here... most of the time."

Discussing umpires in general... seems in particular, Sam Butts... in his column in the Jack-... sonville Times-Union: "We'd be in-... terested in seeing local baseball... umpires get out about the game... and to want to do bad things... and umpire. We do not wish... to mention any bad luck, at... least. They're good guys but try... to get along. But when the... umpire's a voluble dealer... some words from here to... there—"

Among The LOOKOUTS

Gardner Barnes, a 19-year-old... boy, plays left field for the Lookouts... but he is playing like a veter-... an. Up to including May 20, Barnes... has got 23 hits in 96 times at bat... but, which gives him a percentage... around .240. He has scored seven... runs, and in all the games he has... played he has made only five errors.

Gardner (some of the fellows... call him Duge) started his baseball... career while he was attending... High School in Bridgeport, Ala., his... home. In 1932 and 1933 he played... independent ball for Bridgeport in... the Tennessee-Alabama League, the... youngest player in the league, batting... around .300 the second year. The next... year (1934) he played on the Alexander City, Ala., club of the... South Alabama League, but last... year saw him back with his home... town club etc. He was chosen to... play centerfield on the all-star... team that year of the Tennessee-... Alabama League. This all-star... aggregation played in a tourna-... ment in Chattanooga, won, and... then played at Chattanooga's entry... in the mid-west tournament.

Barnes lacks a half inch of be-... ing six-foot tall, and weighs 158... pounds. His weight helped when... he was in High School, and he won... a position on the all-state foot-... ball squad.

He was sent to the Sanford... Lookouts by the Chattanooga Lookouts... with which the local club has a... working agreement.

First Contest In 'World Series' Taken By Pirates

Defeat Seminoles 9 To 6 On Wet Field Friday Afternoon

The Pirates defeated the Semi-... noles yesterday in the first game... of the "little world series" of the... Lions League. The score was 9 to... 6. The Seminoles, with Billy Iren... as pitching, started off with a... ruck with two runs in the first... inning, followed by two more in... the third, while the Pirates failed... to connect in the first three in-... nings. But in the fourth inning the... Pirates scored five runs, another... in the sixth and three in the last... inning. The Seminoles also scored... two runs in the last frame.

Green Cochran was the winning... pitcher, with George Willis be-... hind the bat. Roland Floyd caught... for the Seminoles. Eddie Bender... umpired the game. The score:

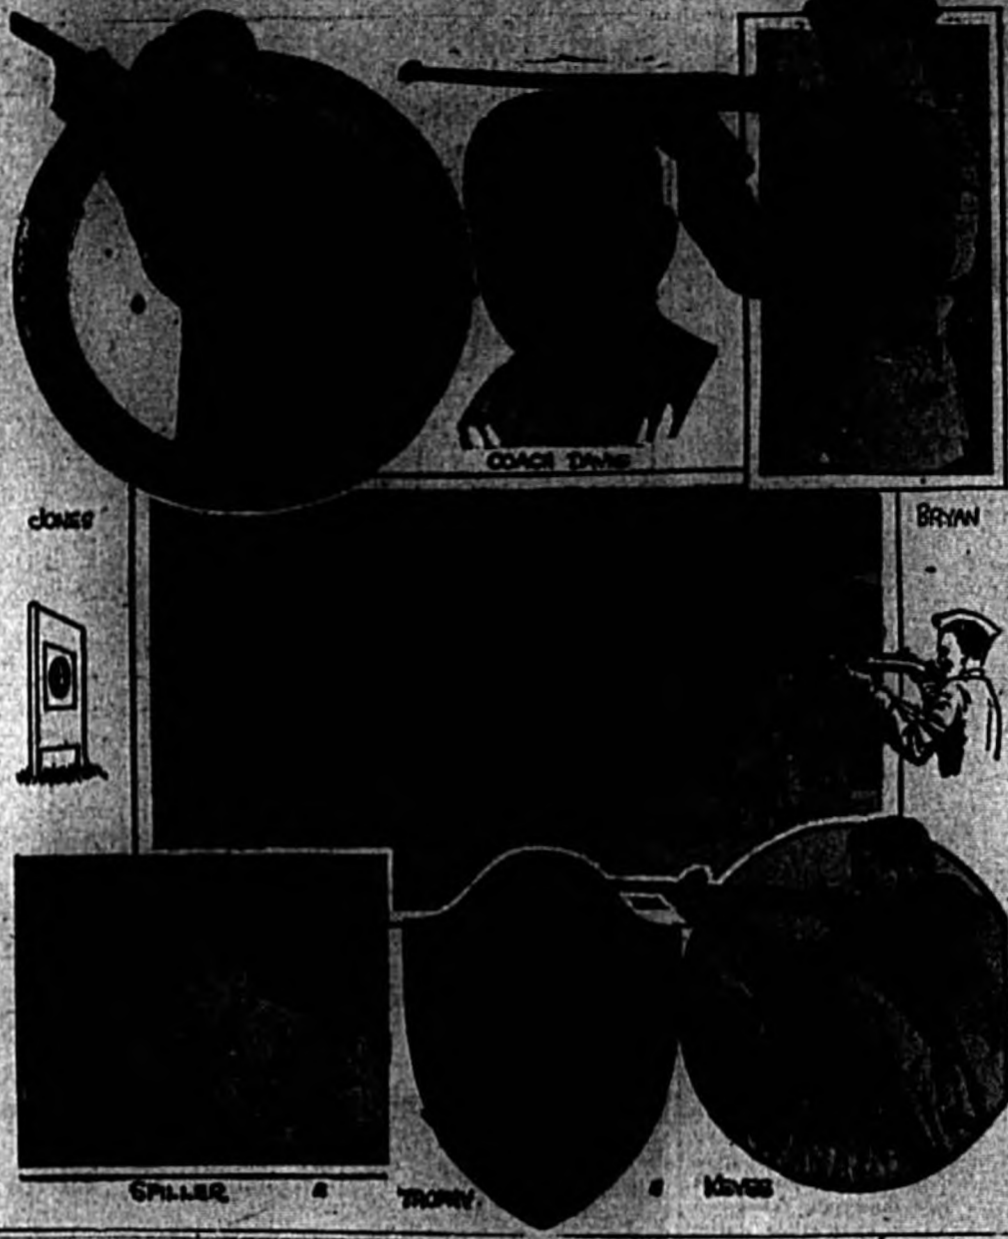

Pirates..... 9 0 0 5 1 0 3-9
Seminoles... 2 0 2 0 0 0 2-6

The Lions League championship... is to be decided three games out... of five, and the schedule calls for... games next Monday, Wednesday... and Friday afternoons—unless it... should so happen that the Pirates... win Monday and Wednesday and... thereby end the series. The Lookouts... of the Florida State League will... be away from home on those days... and therefore members of the... Lions Club which sponsors the... "little world series" hope many fans... will witness these "world series" games... next week. More than 100 saw... Friday's contest.

Games in the Legion Junior... League are also scheduled for the... same days next week. The Chev-... keses and Reds play Monday, the... Senators and Panthers on Wednes-... day, and the Panthers and Cardinals... on Friday.

Legion Junior League games are... played on the Ninth Street dis-... trict between Laurel and French... Avenues, and the Lions League... games are played on the Grammar... School grounds on Seventh Street... between Laurel and Elm Avenues. Games... in both leagues begin at 5 o'clock.

League Schedule For Next Week Is For Daily Games

Lookouts Will Play At Home Four Days Beginning Sunday

An unbroken schedule with... games every day is the order in... the Florida State League next... week. The usual Monday holi-... day will be skipped, and the... players will not get another day's... rest until Monday of week... after next.

The Lookouts will play at... home four days next week. Day-... tons Beach will play against... them on Sanford Field to-... morrow, St. Augustine comes Tues-... day, Palatka will be here for a... Thursday half-holiday game, and... then Gainesville will be back... here next Saturday when it is... possible that a double header will... be played.

The Islanders came tomorrow... smarting from their defeat by... the G-Men yesterday, and an in-... teresting contest is in prospect. Tomorrow's game will begin at... 3 o'clock.

Next week's schedule in the... Florida State League is as fol-... lows:

SUNDAY	Daytona Beach at Sanford.
	Palatka at DeLand.
	St. Augustine at Gainesville.
MONDAY
	Sanford at Daytona Beach.
	DeLand at Palatka.
	Gainesville at St. Augustine.

One Killed And One Seriously Hurt In Crash

Youth Lives 6 Hours After Cars Meet In Head-On Crash At Early Hour Sunday

Boy In Hospital Yet Unconscious

One Car Demolished, Other Wrecked As Speeders Collide

Speeding cars crashed in a head-on collision near the south city limits early Sunday morning bringing death to one young man and critical injuries to another.

John H. Gayle, Jr., 24, died six hours after the crash, and Archie Ward remained in an unconscious state in Farnell-Laughton Memorial Hospital this afternoon. Bob Reitz and Jack Tillis, riding with Gayle, escaped with only minor injuries. Although in a critical condition, hospital physicians held out hope for Ward's recovery.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Hickson and M. C. Gordon said that Ward was driving south and Gayle was driving north when the cars, both traveling at high speed, met about 150 yards north of the railroad crossing at about 9 o'clock. Reitz was riding on the front seat of Gayle's car and Tillis was asleep on the back seat. The wreckage of the cars was practically complete, so much so that one of them was hoisted to the wrecking yard as being beyond repair.

Young Gayle had spent the winter in Sanford, employed by H. M. Grimball in produce buying. He lived at the Grimball home, 1118 Magnolia Avenue. His father, who is superintendent of the railroad terminal in Charleston, S. C., was notified and left at once for Sanford, arriving early this morning and leaving shortly after with the body of his son for Charleston where funeral services will be held. Gayle was born in Charleston on July 9, 1911.

Definite Action Is To Be Taken Against Townsend

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—Speaker Byrns and Representative Bankhead, Democratic leader, told newsmen today that definite action must be taken against Dr. F. E. Townsend for his defiance of the House investigating committee.

Speaking personally, Byrns said he believed the case should be turned over to the Federal Court instead of being tried in the House. "With a contempt trial before 438 members there is no telling how long it might last," said Byrns, referring to the contempt drive for an early adjournment.

Borah Denies That He Will Quit Fight

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Senator William B. Borah resents implications that primary revenues have forced abandonment of his attempt to capture the Republican presidential nomination, and will carry his fight vigorously long the convention, close behind old "Ace" Smith.

With the Cleveland convention only two weeks off and all Republican primaries won, Borah still is among the three leading candidates for the nomination. Borah's chief opponent is Frank Knox, although Borah definitely trails Governor Wendell Willkie of Missouri.

Special delivery and perishable mail will be handled as usual on the holiday.

Murder Indicated By Wounds Found On Negro's Body

Body Discovered In Wood Near Geneva Sunday Afternoon

Peppered on the face, neck and chest with buckshot, the dead body of a young negro man was found in the woods about three miles from Geneva about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. John Bennett made the gruesome discovery while he was picking blackberries about one-half mile off the Sanford-Geneva highway.

President Will Address Jaycees At Memphis Meet

MEMPHIS, May 25.—President Roosevelt will address the national convention of Junior Chambers of Commerce in this city on the evening of Tuesday, June 4. The address will be broadcast over a nation-wide radio hook-up, the exact time of which will be announced later.

This will be the first time a President of the United States has ever addressed the annual convention of the national organization, and is an indication of his recognition of the outstanding work which the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce is doing in promoting the civic welfare of the various communities represented.

Out standing business leaders will address the various business meetings of the convention, among whom are Hazland Bartholomew, of St. Louis, Mo., the country's outstanding authority on civic planning, Jay N. Darling, of Des Moines, Iowa, world famous political cartoonist and natural resource conservator. Other national leaders who are expected to attend are J. Edgar Hoover, chief Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., and Harper Sibley, president, Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Amounts Spent By Candidates Somewhat Less

Smaller Expenditures Shown In Filing Of Second Statements Required By Statute

Seminole County candidates for political offices did not spend nearly as much during the last fortnight, according to the second expense statements that had to be filed by last Saturday, as they did the fore part of the campaign and which amounts were shown on the statements of May 7. The May 7 statements showed the expenditures of $7,531.19 while the second statements (which include the first) show a total of $5,622.84.

Candidates for sheriff spent the largest amounts, each of them around $300 to date, with the big field of candidates for County Commissioner also spending sizable sums. Seven candidates failed to add to their expenses during the last fortnight. These are A. G. Wagner, candidate for the legislature in Group 3; L. E. Jordan, candidate for the school board; James C. Roberts, candidate for justice of the peace in the fourth, and Theodore Anlin and J. C. Kassel, candidates for justice of the peace in the third district; and Glen Metcalfe and O. P. Sloan, candidates for constable in the third district.

The total amounts spent by the candidates to date, as shown by both statements, follow:

Government To Be Asked To Uproot The 'Black Shirts'

DETROIT, May 25.—(AP)—The federal government will be asked to aid in a fight to "uproot and destroy" the Black Legion, Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrex said. "The Black Legion is an outlaw organization and we are going to ask the government to help us drive it out of existence," he declared today.

The prosecutor announced that one of 13 members of the vigilante band held here in the death of Charles A. Pogue had admitted the young WPA worker was put to death because he knew too much. The two confederates, McCrex said, that earlier prosecutors had said were slain because he mentioned his wife was a nurse, were the real culprits for the "black-shirt" slaying. "The discovery of the dead body of May 13 is not a coincidence," he said. "It is the result of a conspiracy of the Black Legion."

Loyal Democracy Of Candidates Is Doubted By Cone

Says Only One Aided Party's Finances In Last Campaign

Only one of the many candidates for governor of Florida subscribed to the Democratic party's financial fund four years ago, and that one gave "only a ten dollar bill," Fred P. Cone, gubernatorial candidate, told Seminole County voters between showers last Saturday night. Mr. Cone said he was in a position to know, as he accepted the finance chairmanship upon his return from the Chicago convention where he voted the Florida delegation for the nomination of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Mr. Cone said he was also an alternate delegate to the Baltimore convention when Woodrow Wilson was nominated and returned to Florida to find that the Republicans had two "blates" in Florida, one the "lily white" and the other the "bull moose." A member of one of those Republican divisions is now a candidate for governor, he said. He did not name these candidates, neither did he mention by name any candidate in connection with the Homestead Exemption Act, though he said he (Cone) voted for such a bill when in the Senate 25 years ago.

Mr. Cone reminded his hearers that he was a delegate to the national convention in New York in 1924 and to the one in Houston in 1928 and that he had 21 years worked for the party, had campaigned for it for 25 years, and declared that before a candidate should ask for the highest office in the gift of the party in the state he should do something for the party. He said he attended a congressional convention in Sanford 40 years ago and attended every Democratic convention until the primary system superseded the convention method of nominating candidates.

According to Mr. Cone, the "paramount issues" in this campaign are state finances and the schools. He said that the budget board, which is composed of the governor, his cabinet and "more than 100 boards and commissions," is always asking for more money, never for less, and that

Government Men Told Of Dangers Canal May Bring

Washington Group Spends Day With Local Committee

Arguments believed by the committee to be convincing were given a group of government officials from Washington who spent Saturday in Sanford endeavoring to ascertain if the proposed Cross-State Canal would be detrimental to the underground water resource of the state.

According to Frank Kay Anderson, secretary of the Central and South Florida Water Conservation Committee, the officials from Washington were "loaded" with facts and figures to show that the proposed canal would be injurious to the celery growers of this section and, in Anderson's opinion, they seemed to be impressed with the evidence.

The delegation was headed by Lewis A. Stone. Others in the party were Hearn, Scofield and Hultgren, all experts from the Department of Agriculture, appointed last week by secretary Wallace of the Department of Agriculture on the request of Secretary Dern of the War Department.

J. C. Chase, J. O. Chase, Randall Chase, Gus Schmah, George A. Whitmer, H. James Gut and Mr. Anderson met with the delegation from Washington and gave them a mass of data and maps that had been gathered by the committee. The delegation expects to visit other sections of the state before returning to Washington.

The residence property at the southwest corner of Third Street and Holly Avenue has been sold by Mrs. A. C. Grissett to R. L. Caldwell, and 40 acres of land east of Lake Howell have been sold by May K. King to Alonzo J. Cruise.

Additional Troops Sent To Holy City

JERUSALEM, May 25.—(AP)—Authorities, with tension undiminished and this Holy City like an armed camp, imposed an emergency ban Friday night on all motor traffic in the southern half of Palestine.

Effective at noon Saturday, a special police permit was required for motorists. British authorities called on additional troops to stamp out terrorism in which 26 Jews, 16 Arabs and a Christian have been killed since Apr. 19, when an Arab civil disobedience strike began. The Arabs are demanding that British authorities stop Jewish immigration and sale of land to Jews.

Jerusalem and Jaffa, where all street traffic is now protected with armed convoys, are included in the new emergency ban.

WARS ON 'TAG FIXING'

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—(AP)—Declaring the practice of "fixing" tags for traffic law violation has a direct relation to highway safety, Percy E. Towne, chairman of the public safety committee of the California State Automobile Association, urged a statewide campaign against it.

CLEVELAND, May 25.—(AP)—The national convention of the Socialists party opened today a proposal of Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist party, for a political alliance with the 1936 campaign.

Wilcox Municipal Bankruptcy Act Is Unconstitutional

Preference Given Floridians Killed By Supreme Court

Can't Collect From Defunct Company Ahead Of Others

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—The 1933 Florida law giving residents of that state priority over other states and the federal government in the payment of claims against an insolvent surety company from a $75,000 deposit required for doing business in the state was held unconstitutional today by the Supreme Court.

The legislation was challenged by the federal government which contended it had priority over all others in the collection of such debts. A unanimous decision was delivered by Justice Brandeis. It reversed a ruling by the Florida Supreme Court. A $75,000 deposit was made in Florida in 1930 by the New Jersey Fidelity and Glass Plate Company. It was placed in the hands of New Jersey officials for liquidation in May, 1932. Claims for $14,000 and $75,000 were filed by the United States, based on ball bonds.

2,063 Seminole Families Helped By Welfare Board

The State Board of Social Welfare, District No. 15, furnished surplus commodities valued at $14,558 to 2,063 families during March, and 204 families in Seminole County received these surplus commodities during March from the State Board of Social Welfare. This food and clothing distributed in Seminole County was worth $3,842. Seminole County needy families received $3,083 worth of commodities in February. Beef, milk, apples, prunes oatmeal and vegetables were distributed in March. The State Board of Social Welfare also grants these commodities to families assisted by the Seminole County Welfare department.

The State Board of Social Welfare delivered commodities to every school in Seminole County where free school lunches were being given to needy children. The Board of Social Welfare hopes to be able to extend this work with the schools so that by next fall more rural schools will be able to open lunch rooms. In many cases the Board of Social Welfare does not give any relief to a family, but offers services which are worth more than relief. The work with the Boys and Girls Industrial schools does not include any relief but means much to the community. Most boys and girls leave the industrial school with the intention of "going straight" but all too often their home life is so unsatisfactory and the community pays so little attention to helping them that they drift back into the old bad habits. The Board of Social Welfare will work with Juvenile Courts in any case involving juvenile delinquents or dependents.

Fire Investigation Is Ordered By WPA

MARIANNA, May 25.—An investigation ordered by the WPA was underway today to ascertain the cause of a fire which swept a Works Progress Administration ranning and food distributing plant here Saturday night, destroying 2,000 gallons of honey, a large quantity of flour and other supplies intended for the unemployed. Estimated damage to machinery and the building was $50,000.

The plant has been closed as a cautionary measure, but was to open next week, it was said. It has been in regular use for storing and distributing food supplies.

5 To 4 Decision Of Supreme Court Is Against Law Pro- posed By Floridian

Act Contested By Bondholders

Claimed Confiscation Of Property With- out Due Process

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—The 1934 Municipal Bankruptcy Act, passed by the New Deal Congress, was held unconstitutional today by the Supreme Court. A 5 to 4 decision delivered by Justice McReynolds concluded: "Challenge to validity of the statute must be sustained."

Justice Cardoso, Chief Justice Hughes and Justices Brandeis and Stone asserted that "the statute is constitutional." The majority differed with a ruling by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals upholding the legislation.

The law was challenged by certain bondholders of Cameron county, Texas, Water Improvement District No. One. They contended the act took property without due process of law and violated state's rights. The legislation was intended to aid cities, counties and other political subdivisions to reduce their indebtedness through federal bankruptcy courts. Bondholders attacking the law owned approximately one-tenth of $500,000 in bonds outstanding. They said they were offered only 40 percent of the face value of the obligations under the reorganization plan.

The Southern Texas Federal District Court held the act invalid and dismissed the debt refunding plan. It required a $400,000 loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Under the legislation, an agreement had to be approved by the Federal Court and a majority of the creditors, ranging under certain conditions from 66 2/3 per cent to 75 per cent.

King Flies Plane To Port To View New Giant Liner

SOUTHAMPTON, England, May 25.—(AP)—King Edward flew from Windsor, the second time he has taken to the air since becoming the sovereign, to head the royal family in final inspection of the giant liner Queen Mary today. He was in the air 51 minutes. The King himself drove the car to the airport. At the liner he met Queen Mary, the Duke and Duchess of York, Princess Elizabeth, the Duke and Duchess of Kent and the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester who came from London by train. The giant liner sails for New York on her maiden voyage Wednesday.
