Sebring Needs 1000 Mill Levy This Year

Cleveland Stresses Every Day Need For Prevention Of Fire

For the past few years, one week in each October has been set aside, and is known as Fire Prevention Week. During that week fire fighting and fire prevention workers in every community in the United States, and in some foreign countries, redouble their efforts to warn citizens of the perils of fire, and the loss in property and lives for which it is responsible.

In recognition of 1934's Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7 to 13, Fire Chief Mac Cleveland issued the following statement: "Uncontrolled fire is one of civilization's greatest menaces—last year it took 10,000 lives and burned up homes and buildings worth three hundred million dollars in this country alone. More than 3,000 of the innocent victims of fire were children under ten years of age.

"The darkest side of this terrible record is that most fires can be prevented—they start because someone has been careless, has neglected some condition that was dangerous, or disregarded the obvious danger of flames and sparks.

"Beginning now, let's start a real Fire Prevention Week in our community, and let's keep it going indefinitely. Your fire department is anxious to help you avoid fires in your homes and factories and stores, by pointing out the fire hazards they may contain. Will you take advantage of this service, so that you can be sure that no life is lost or no property destroyed because you allowed a fire to start?"

Previously Judge Alerman is said to have involving the payment of nearly $25,000 to other creditors.

The current assessed valuation is about $1,200,000. Action on the subject is expected when council meets Tuesday.

Pinny restaurants, operated in New York, Washington, and Chicago for the benefit of the unemployed are being closed. It has been announced, and some of them are destined to be closed.

Finger prints have been found four months after the crime, presumably for use of the owl when the real fingers had deteriorated.

Washington Star Says Kansas City Massacre Is "Hot"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The Washington Evening Star said today that federal agents investigating the Kansas City union station massacre had uncovered evidence of a political and gangster combine so startling in its implications that a federal grand jury investigation would be instituted almost immediately.

Rex Collier said in a story that two men who had figured in the governments evidence already had been slain by gangsters, and the grand jury inquiry is being hastened for fear other important figures in the massacre might be killed.

The story said "The two who were slain by gangsters enemies which federal officers were investigating them were John Lanza, leader of Kansas City's north side, and Verne Miller, former Dakota sheriff and outlaw, identified as one of the 'trigger men' in the station slayings."

Police Express Fear That Woman Has Been Slain And Go Into Action

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 13.—(A.P.)—Some 60 city and county police began a search of the area around a Ballard school house, a quarter of a mile from the home of Mrs. Alice Speel Stoll, kidnap victim whose husband Barry V. Stoll, yesterday paid $50,000 ransom.

Officers did not stop to explain it was believed they had reason to fear that the woman had been killed since her abduction from her home Wednesday. The search spread to the entire 16 acre estate surrounding the school and Stoll home.

Belief that the woman's body might be found was expressed by one policeman as he rushed from a police car but officers did not stop to explain why forces of law, until now held in check, suddenly went into action.

Roosevelt Pledges Speedy Enforcement Of NRA As He Orders 36-Hour Work Week

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—President Roosevelt yesterday ordered a 36-hour work week in the cotton garment manufacturing industry and pledged speedy enforcement of all NRA codes in the future.

In signing the executive order reducing hours from 40 to 36 in the cotton garment industry effective Dec. 1, the President specified that weekly wages be maintained at their present level.

This will necessitate an increase of 10 percent in piece work pay which will be passed on to the consumer. Experts estimated, however, that increase in the price of the finished product would not be excessive.

BAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—(A.P.)—American Federation of Labor re-elected President William Green late yesterday after enlarging its executive committee from 11 to 18 members and adopting a resolution describing as "biased, unfair and inconscient" the membership of S. Clay Williams, tobacco official, upon the new NRA board.

The federation's 54th annual convention, after shouting down attempts by alleged Communists to introduce a set of proposals, adopted unanimously the resolution condemning Williams' attitude toward labor and asking President Roosevelt to investigate his record.

NEW DEAL IN KIDNAPERS U. S.-GERMAN TRADE IS SEEN ARE FOLED AT ORLANDO

Foreign Ambassador Says Reich Is To Abrogate Present Treaty Next Year

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(A.P.)—Economically harassed, the German government today made a drastic move to clarify its involved economic and financial relations with the United States by announcing its intention of terminating its unconditional and most favored nation commercial treaty with this country on Oct. 14, 1935.

Dr. Hans Luther, German ambassador, served official notice in a formal note, delivered to Secretary of State Hull, that the Reich would abrogate the treaty next year.

At the same time he is understood to have expressed hope that a new reciprocal agreement with a most favored nation clause would be negotiated by the two governments in a trade agreement program now being carried on by President Roosevelt, and that a mutually profitable trade would continue.

The German treaty, the first and a model of pact negotiated by this country after it adopted the principle of unconditional most favored nation treatment in commercial agreements has governed trade and commerce between the two nations since 1925.

Harry L. Hopkins, Relief administrator, told newsmen that the number of Relief-supported families had jumped 200,000 from July to August, and he intimated that the list was still going up slowly.

The totals for September were not yet available. The Relief administrator made public the following comparison of Relief loads and Relief expenditures in Florida cities during August and September:

CHILD KING IS WELCOMED ON RETURN HOME

11-Year-Old Peter Arrives In Belgrade To Succeed Slain Father To Throne

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 13.—(A.P.)—An unprecedented popular acclaim greeted the child king, Peter, as he arrived to take the throne of his assassinated father.

Peter was accompanied by the widowed queen and her mother, dowager Queen Marie of Rumania.

The 11-year-old Peter left here for London three weeks ago to be educated. Today he returned, as king. The greatest care was taken to safeguard him.

Complete order was continued throughout the country as the authorities as far failed to uncover the plot which resulted in Alexander's death.

In Paris, the french surte national identified the terrorist band "Utashki" which Yugoslavia accuses Hungary of harboring as power behind the assassinations of Alexander and Louis Barthou of France.

Police said that two suspects are held and that two men escaped. French police charged one of two men held at Annemasse with complicity in the assassination of King Alexander of Yugoslavia and French Foreign Minister Barthou, jailed, another suspect and trailed other members of an international terror ring they said sought to eliminate all Europe's government heads.

ANEMASSE, France, accused Zvonimir Tuschek, alias Novak, with complicity in the murders, saying he admitted belonging to the same band as the assassin, Petrus Kalsman.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, quiet and sad after the previous day's anti-Italian riots, wanted to bury Alexander and decided young King Peter must stay home in Yugoslavia instead of going back to school as his father wished.

ROME, Italian ships fired final salute to Alexander, en route home aboard the destroyer Dabrovnik, after escorting it through the Ionian area while the Italian government, still watching events in Yugoslavia, planned to be represented at his funeral.

GENEVA, The League of Nations closely followed developments growing out of the assassinations, and officials recalled protests by Hungary and Yugoslavia after border difficulties. Yugoslavia charged Hungary tolerated terrorists.

Speedy Travel Aids State

Improved transportation facilities have done as much as anything else to increase the popularity of Florida as a winter resort. It wasn't many years ago that it took as long to go from Jacksonville to Miami by rail as it does now to make the whole distance from New York.

In those days, even as late as 1920, automobile highways for the most part were what would be looked upon now as dirt country roads. Their improvement to such a point that one can make as fast time in automobiles as the swiftest trains has led to many thousands of visitors taking advantage of this cheap method of transportation to bring them out of the cold into the warmth of the Southland.

The most remarkable advance in the field of rapid transportation has remained for the airplane. This development has been accomplished almost entirely in the last six or seven years. The goal of the airlines was to place in operation between New York and Miami a schedule providing a one-day flight.

But the advancement of airplane construction and engines has not only made that schedule possible but has made it appear slow, what with passenger planes averaging 200 miles an hour, cutting the flying time from the nation's metropolis to Miami to eight hours.

What this reduction in the time element will mean to the Florida tourist season only the future can tell, but it is not difficult to see that with Florida's only eight hours away from the great cities of the country this state's popularity as a tourist mecca will increase even more rapidly than it has in the past. It is interesting to note that despite the worst depression in our history, more people are coming to Florida than ever before.

How The Editors Feel

Whether or not editors reflect the public opinion of their communities—a fact which is often debated among editors themselves—it is interesting to know that the answers to a questionnaire sent out to all the newspapers of the country reveal that the country is predominantly in favor of sound government policies. The questionnaire was sent to more than 10,000 newspapers, of which 42 percent were classed as independent, 32 percent as Republican, and most of the remainder as Democratic.

The questions were of a wide range and were pertinent to many of the efforts which are being made to relieve the depression. It is significant that three-quarters of the editors, in answering the question as to what would contribute most to restoring business confidence, gave as their opinion the decrease of government control. They also felt that a decrease of federal expenditures and balancing the budget would also be contributing factors. Two-thirds of them favored stabilizing the currency.

The editors suggested that uncertainty as to currency inflation or further large expenditures and an indefinitely unbalanced budget are largely responsible for hesitancy and fear on the part of so many business men.

That the result of the questionnaire will be studied closely by the President in his endeavor to bring order out of chaos is a foregone conclusion. It will be of big benefit to him in determining how the people are thinking and will assist him in steering his course among so many conflicting, and often unworthy, opinions.

RANDOM POLITICS

BY HYRON PRICE

The "For Roosevelt" Emergency Club—The FRBCC for short—is recording progress, but hardly can be said at this stage to dominate the field of Democratic politics completely.

This mythical organization, which of course never existed except as a figure of speech, had its origin in a policy of National Chairman Farley to dish out patronage only to those party leaders who had climbed aboard the Roosevelt bandwagon in advance of the Chicago convention.

In some notable cases that policy has been followed by a breaking down of the prestige of erstwhile anti-Roosevelt leaders, and the capture of their organizations by the Roosevelt wing of the party.

In far more cases, however, nothing of the kind has resulted. The local leader in each of these cases either squared himself with Washington or defied Washington, but he kept himself in the saddle.

On that first ballot at Chicago, when the Roosevelt boom was visibly struggling for its life, 14 state delegations voted pro-Roosevelt for candidates other than Roosevelt.

The states were California, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Texas and Virginia.

Of course, two of these—California and Texas—never figured in whatever blackballing the FRBCC set out to do.

It was these two delegations which switched to Roosevelt at the critical moment, and turned the tide. So they are included among the charter members of the club, even though it took ex post facto action to initiate them. They are

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

War News—The Belgian Legation reports that conditions in Brussels are alarming owing to a scarcity of food and other supplies. During the siege of Antwerp, it is said, no Belgians were allowed to leave Brussels unless they had special passports. The number of Belgians in Holland is estimated at close to half a million. Holland probably will not be able to meet indefinitely the problem of feeding them.

CHURCH LOYALTY

E. E. MOORE

Thomas said "I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

I would not live in a community that had so church. The church stands for the purest and best that is in the world today. Merchants have failed, railroads gone under, and have been helped by the government with millions of dollars, but the church, attended from without, betrayed from within, moves steadily onward.

In times of flood and pestilence, hardship and depression, the church has come through every conflict with flying colors.

Many a Demas has forsaken it, many a Judas betrayed it, and many a Simon Peter denied it with an oath, but it means more to me today than any other institution we have.

Telegraph companies fail to deliver our messages; freight lines desist or damage the goods entrusted in their care, refusing to pay for such loss or damage, banks close their doors on our money, but the church still delivers the goods.

If the railroads fail, we can resort to our own freight lines; if transportation, if the banks fail we can get along somehow without them; but if the church fails we are doomed for no other religion is a substitute for Christianity.

There were one hundred and twenty plates laid. The program was given as follows: Invocation by Rev. J. N. Thompson. At the close of the repass the Junior B. Y. P. U. rendered a song, Miss Mildred Dickert rendered a piano solo, Misses Minnie King, Agnes Herring, and Elizabeth Gore rendered an instrumental and vocal number. The entire congregation played a game "Easy Am" during which time there were a number of jokes that provoked a riotous lot of fun and laughter. The program was concluded by short talks by Prof. T. W. Lawton, and Rev. R. W. Dickert. All who expressed themselves came away saying "It was a success and we had a good time."

THOMAS READS FOR CONTROL OF BIG MONEY GROUP

Senator Sees Nation Driven Into Uncontrolled Inflation

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 10.—Big money interests are pursuing a "suicidal policy" which will drive America into uncontrolled inflation unless they are curbed, U. S. Senator Elmer Thomas said yesterday.

Thomas, commonly called the "Bull Dog" in Congress, denied that he is "unregulated inflation," and said he preferred a managed currency.

"The big banks want control, as they have had it for 100 years," he said, "and they are willing to lose billions to retain the control. The Chase National, the National City and the Guaranty Trust banks of New York have $5,000,000,000 of assets, more than the amount of money in circulation.

"They want every iota of buying power they can wring out of their money, every bit of political power, and secondly the gold it will bring. The same applies to their bonds.

"Here is the situation. The government is selling bonds in huge lots. The banks are buying them. Banks are fast reaching the saturation point in bonds. Some have begun to sell already.

"They haven't any more money with which to buy bonds, and are not loaning for private business because the people are not making money. The public is not yet prosperous enough to be a general good risk.

"If the people can't pay their taxes, debts, and other burdens, the bonds are not gilt edged. The government is buying its own bonds now. If a selling movement should become general, the price of bonds would crash, the banks' liquid assets would be erased in the crash, and an era of uncontrolled inflation started as the government issued money to purchase and maintain the stability of its securities.

The bond crash would be prompted directly by unwillingness of big banks to make loans and increase their deposits, and by their desire to maintain the value of money (in purchasing power) at a high level, Thomas said.

In event of a bond crash, an era of insolvency would settle over the nation's financial structure," he said.

The Public Works program and Relief projects designed to put money into circulation have helped, but have failed in their objectives, Thomas said.

"The Reconstruction Finance Corporation hasn't handled one penny of money. It merely has transferred debt from private firms to the government. We have put out ten billions in Relief money, but we haven't handled a cent.

"Governor Eugene Black resigned recently from the federal reserve board because the government wouldn't put actual cash into circulation. The bankruptcy is still on the government.

"If President Roosevelt would do another 10 percent out of the public debt, and actually put out money into public channels, prices would rise to near the 1926 level, taxes would be paid, the public would be more prosperous, and bonds would be even more secure. Interest and taxes would be cut appreciably, and the government load lightened."

Industry had agreed to abide by the findings of the committee.

President Roosevelt yesterday gave formal recognition to reports that out of the gravest problems facing the new NRA board head ed by S. Clay Williams, tobacco magnate, was that of code enforcement.

Earlier plans to create a special judicial board to direct code enforcement have been abandoned. Instead, there will be a closer cooperative effort among the NRA, the federal department and the federal trade commission to bring September sales increased over those for August, but the gain was less than seasonal and the board's seasonally adjusted index dropped from 79 to 76.

The percentage of increase or decrease from a year ago for the 13 districts was given as follows: Boston, decrease 8; New York, decrease 3; Philadelphia, decrease 2; Cleveland, increase 1; Richmond, increase 9; Atlanta, increase 18; Chicago, increase 11; St. Louis, increase 31; Minneapolis, increase 13; Kansas City, increase 19; Dallas, increase 5; San Francisco, increase 4.

Lewis sponsored the proposal, which provides for election of seven additional vice presidents to the five already provided.

Green first was elected president in December, 1924. He was born in Cochocton, Ohio, Mar. 5, 1872, and was sub-district president of the United Mine Workers of America from 1900 to 1906.

He then became president of the Ohio District, Mine Workers Union, later served in the Ohio State Senate, and was a delegate to Democratic conventions on three occasions.

Lewis originally sought to increase the council's membership to 25.

The code chieftain to line.

These three agencies, Roosevelt said yesterday, will coordinate enforcement activities. The justice department, the President said, may assign a special assistant attorney general to NRA headquarters and one to the federal trade commission, to facilitate action.

Regardless of the set-up finally decided upon, Roosevelt indicated plainly yesterday that the chieftain who makes money by lodging code provisions for six months or a year before the government can intervene, is due for a series of headaches.

The impression also was left by Chairman Williams of the NRA board in his first conference with newspaper correspondents, an hour before Roosevelt met the press, that his group were devoting considerable time to the question of code enforcement but had reached no decision yet on future policy.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson - Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Oct. 14.

The Golden Text is from Isaiah 53:22, "The Lord is our judge, the Lord is our law-giver, the Lord is our king; he will save us."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house; and immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; inasmuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, 'We never saw it on this fashion.'" (Mark 2:11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Principle and proof of Christianity are discerned by spiritual sense. They are set forth in Jesus' demonstrations, which show—by his healing the sick, casting out evils, destroying death, the last enemy that shall be destroyed,—his disregard of matter and its so-called laws." (P. 210).

Seminole High Holds Lake City Eleven Scoreless

...the game, and during the last half of the game, the Lake City offensive was completely paralyzed.

Lake City carried the ball only 16 times on running plays during the last half to gain but 30 yards, so effective was the Seminole line play, while during the first half Lake City rolled up a net gain of 92 yards in 26 trips with the ball through the line.

Lake City made 11 first downs to only two for Sanford, another indication of Seminole's defensive ability, and the visitors completed only three of 10 passes, with five of them knocked down and two intercepted. Incidentally, Seminole's only scoring chances came with the interceptions, one in the first few minutes of the game, and the other as the tilt neared an end.

Lake City netted 122 yards from scrimmage and 37 yards on passes, while Seminole netted only 30 yards from scrimmage, with its four passes doing no good.

Lake City dominated the play in the first quarter. After the kick-off, Seminole got a break when a pass was intercepted on the Lake City 24 yard line. The break could not be followed up with action and the ball went over at that point.

Williamson clipped off 18 yards around right end, and Boyette picked up 20 more off left tackle to put the ball into Seminole territory, but on the next three plays, Lake City was thrown for nine yards loss as Harnage, T. Williams, and Beldin went to work along with Monger, so Lake City punted over the goal.

Playing safe, Hughes called for a punt after a line buck, with T. Williams downing the ball on the Seminole 20 yard line. Williamson and Boyette picked up seven yards at the line, and Williamson then swept around right end for 13 yards before Harnage made a sensational tackle to bring him down.

The quarter ended just as T. Williams threw Powers for seven yards loss to the Seminole 27 yard line.

The Seminole line stiffened on the next two plays, holding Lake City for no gain, and the ball went over to Seminole on its 27 yard line when a pass failed.

Doker came in for McClelland at this point, and a first down came as Miller got a yard, and Doker got eight and two yards Harnage cracked center for three yards, but Doker tumbled on the next play, with end Seegar recovering on Seminole's 47 yard line.

Boyette went around right end 17 yards to the Seminole 30 yard line before Hughes and Miller brought him down Hackney made four at center, and Hill got two and seven yards to take the ball to Seminole's 17 yard marker.

Doker threw Hackney for a yard loss at center, and Monger dumped Williamson on his back with Ted Williams for no gain. Dighton replaced Monger who was slightly hurt on the play. Hackney's pass to Hill was no good. The ball went over to Seminole on its nine yard line when Hill's drive through the line netted but nine yards.

Again playing safe, Hughes called another punt, and Harnage's kick rolled to the Lake City 42 yard line. Two line bucks brought only a yard, but Hackney slipped off tackle 12 yards to be brought down on Seminole's 43 yard line by T. Williams and Beldin.

R. Pearson threw Hackney for four yards loss, and Squires and T. Williams ganged on Powers to toss him for four yards loss. That forced Powers to punt, the ball being downed on the Seminole 30 yard line. Two plays later saw the end of the half.

Opening the second half, Seminole was held for 2 yards gain in three tries at the line, and Harnage's punt was returned nine yards to the Lake City 49 yard line.

Hill fumbled but recovered for no gain as the Williams' boys and Squires swarmed through on him, and R. Pearson and McClelland held Williamson for a yard gain at right tackle. Squires cut down Hill who made three at left tackle, and Williamson punted to Harnage who returned 10 yards to the Seminole 20.

Hill threw Harnage for two yards loss, and Williamson halted Harnage's punt rolled to the 54 yard line where Hill downed it. Miller, Hughes and McClelland held Hill and Williamson for no gain at center and Hughes made a flying tackle to throw Williamson out of bounds for five yards gain. The big fellow punted 50 yards over the goal again.

After being held for no gain

KIDNAPERS ARE FOILED AT ORLANDO

...which occurred the previous day came to Orlando Morning Sentinel late yesterday, as follows:

The intended victim was a six-year-old son of a well-known Orlando family, who requested use of their name be deleted from the information.

A student at the Ann Elizabeth Seese school, his teacher received a telephone call during the day Thursday. It was a woman's voice.

"This is Mrs. — speaking. Will you please tell my son not to come directly home after school, but to meet me at the Angelbilt hotel, where I will be waiting."

The child was so informed. But he knew not how to get to the Angelbilt hotel and so informed the teacher, who telephoned back to his mother, intending to impart this information. Whereupon the mother promptly informed the teacher that she had not telephoned the school. She also telephoned the police to warn the teacher that she would send for the child, which she did. A male servant of the family fetched the boy home in a car.

Police last night were somewhat perturbed over the presence of this bold kidnaping trio in the community.

Coming on the heels of the unmasked, daylight robbery of the Apopka bank less than two weeks ago, officers of the law promptly understood several members of the criminal element had invaded Orlando.

The daring of the kidnapers amazed officers when they heard of the second attempt late yesterday. A detective, dispatched to the "snatch" case, had been working all day but came in without any definite clues only to be astounded with information that another child had narrowly escaped the gang.

The general impression is that the "snatchers" are the underworld knows those who play the kidnap racket, were strangers here — members of the underworld from the North, fleeing South in front of cold weather. These criminals likewise hold little respect for the law and its enforcement agents in the smaller communities, and that they were willing to stake their cleverness against police is plain.

The works division of the FERA prepared to send out, within a few days, a model record system by which local relief agencies can keep constant tab on the trades and professions of people on Relief and shape work Relief projects to fit their normal occupations.

An illustration of the way the system is expected to work was seen in a project now under consideration for employment of a group of jobless movie-makers. They probably will be put to work on a Relief-financed motion picture dramatizing the cause and methods of combatting some diseases widely prevalent in this area.

Officials estimated that the 4,000,000 families which Hopkins reported on Relief included 16,000,000 individuals. The number of single persons dependent on Relief in August has not yet been calculated, but it was reported at 500,000 in July.

Hopkins said at his press conference that preliminary reports from 110 principal cities indicated their Relief rolls have increased very slightly from August to September, but that Relief expenditures in these communities had declined from $49,308,000 in August to $46,276,000 in September.

prospective bumper crop.

Many towns were without telephones, light or power last night as the heavy snow raised havoc with utility lines. For five miles between Presque Isle and Washburn every telephone and power pole was toppled. Washburn experienced an unscheduled bank holiday because power failure made opening of the vault of the Washburn Trust Company impossible.

Van Buren on the Canadian border was cut off. Six to eight inches of snow was reported in Patten in northern Penobscot county.

The fate of thousands of barrels of unharvested potatoes will depend upon the turn of the weather in the next few days. Temperatures warm enough to melt the snow will make possible a renewal of digging operations within a week. A freeze or continued low temperatures would bring an end to the harvest season and cut seriously into Aroostook county's Lake Mary Boy Scouts and officials are looking forward to entertaining a large number of persons at the Court of Honor which is to be staged in the Lake Mary Co. national beautiful babies' contest at 7:30 o'clock. County Judge J. G. Shanon is scheduled to preside, and Ernest Wilson of Lake Mary is to receive Seminole's highest honor—the Eagle Scout emblem. Over 75 Boy Scouts from all around the county are expected to be at the meeting.

The confidence of youth is reflected in a letter received here today by A. Kanner from his son, Murray Kanner, now seeking a place on the University of North Carolina's varsity football team. Kanner has returned to the school with hopes of making a name for himself. His letter said in part, "Well, one of the centers was shifted to tackle yesterday and so I am playing second string center now. I got to play against Tennessee and did quite well. I think I played about 10 minutes of the last quarter and while I was there the other team did not score. I have a couple of write ups that I got during the week, and I am sending them to you. I'm pretty sure that I will get to go to Georgia and we are going to leave here Friday night and get down to Athens sometime Saturday. I think that I will get to play quite a bit from now on because I've been showing up pretty good. One day during the first team, I made every tackle that was made out there, and I'm just hitting my form, and from now on I'm ready to go."

Crowds Attend Riley's New Store Opening

Crowds attended the opening of Riley's food store in Sanford today and E. C. Nelson, local man who is managing the new store, expressed his satisfaction and appreciation for the success of the first day.

Mr. Nelson said that he wished to call attention to the fact that Riley's is owned and controlled by Florida men, who are large tax payers to the state. "The company does a gross volume in Florida of approximately $4,000,000 a year," he said, "and the banking and insurance will be given to Sanford institutions. Every possible effort will be made by the company to lend its full support in the general upbuilding of the community."

...all of the co-operating factors on the excellent safety record being made in this county.

Sheriff J. F. McClelland spoke of the great improvement in the accident record of this county since the activities of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and other safety groups have been at work and explained plans for greater safety on the highways.

C. E. Adams, secretary of the Safety Committee and who was chairman of Safety Week last year in Seminole County, announced that preliminary plans are underway for the observance of Safety Week again in November of this year.

A communication from the Sanford Kiwanis Club relating to additional safety patrol work to protect the lives of children attending the various schools in the county was referred to Mr. Lawton and the principals of the schools for their action.

Special caution was voiced that the motoring public would have to be particularly careful in their driving during the next two weeks in October because of the great influx of automobiles on the highways bearing participants to the American Legion Convention in Miami.

The meeting closed with the discussion of other matters of general safety interest.
