INDICTED FOR BOND TRICKERY IN COAST CITY

Bond Buyers And Officials Charged With Using Fiscal Agent In Move To Defraud

STUART, Fla., Feb. 3—(AP)—Indictments charging conspiracy to defraud in connection with the sale of a $1,000,000 bond issue for construction of a harbor were returned by a county grand jury yesterday against two officials of Brown-Crummer Company, bond firm of Wichita, Kan., two bond buyers operating in Florida and three former officials of the St. Lucie river district and port authority.

The indictments named C. E. Bradberry, vice-president of Brown-Crummer Company; W. H. Winkler; W. H. Lindsey, fiscal manager of the company at Orlando; George Richards, bond buyer of Orlando; George C. Price, bond buyer of Jacksonville; J. E. Taylor and W. B. Tilton, former commissioners of the St. Lucie inlet district, and C. Van Apelen, former secretary of the district.

The grand-jury report stated that "the bond funds were sold below par and money was squandered by the commissioners."

The report also charged that in connection with the sale of the bond "there appeared to be a connivance" upon the part of the commissioners and Richards, fiscal agent and Brown-Crummer Company, to "defraud, cheat and swindle."

Meeting Is Called In Jacksonville For Democratic Group

SANFORD, Fla., Feb. 3—(AP)—The state Democratic executive committee has been called to meet in Jacksonville on Friday, Feb. 11, by Chairman H. H. Wells, for the purpose of taking action to provide for the forthcoming June primaries.

One of the chief topics expected to come before the convention will be the eligibility of candidates for office on the Democratic ticket, who supported Herbert Hoover in the last presidential election.

Attorney General Fred H. Davis, in a recent opinion, held that a member of the law is follows supporters of any party of the Republican ticket in the last general election will be ineligible to run for office in the Democratic primaries.

State Senator Edgar W. Waybright, of Jacksonville, old political supporter of Franklin D. Roosevelt, and also an active Democrat, has announced his intention to run for reelection on the Democratic ticket. He inferred he would make the best case of his particular situation.

Chairman Wells did not reveal the nature of a meeting expected to come before the convention in his talk to the members of the committee, but it was known that the matter of eligibility of Hoover Democratic candidates will have a prominent spot in the deliberations.

Spanish Schools End Strike Over Politics

MADRID, Feb. 3—(AP)—Students of the National University who have been on strike for the past two months over the growth of a controversy with the government, demanding the withdrawal of Prime Minister Alfonso Diez Barrios, went back to their classes today.

The students of the royal and other colleges were joined this morning by members of the University of Valencia, which had been closed for two weeks recently, it was learned by authorities who investigated. A friend in Palm Beach said that Lammie had recently been elected to lead the bank's board of directors.

SANFORD CAGERS PREPARING FOR LEESBURG GAME 2ND ROUND PLAY

Tilt Here Tonight Is Slated To Give Fans Plenty Of Thrills

By Lefton Idenfield
The Sanjour City Celery Feds are busily preparing for the coming encounter with the Leesburg Yellow Jacket invaders, their tilt tonight.

Coch Herman Morris put his varsity men through a stiff scrummage yesterday afternoon and plans to have a practice game between an all-star team composed of former high school basketball stars tonight. Practice games have been held each afternoon between the varsity squad and the freshman squad and better defensive play has been developed.

Coch Morris has yet to believe that his tenacious Celery Feds can come out victorious. This is the first contest between the two teams this season and the Celery Feds have yet to achieve a victory over the Yellow Jackets in this branch of sport. The victories over New Smyrna and Ocoee have put renewed confidence in the Celery Feds and they are going out on the court to win. On the other hand Leesburg still possess several stars of last year's district championship team, but those stars have failed to click together so far this season. The Celery Feds are yet to be defeated while the Yellow Jackets have met defeat at the hands of Gainesville, Orlando and Deland. Should the Celery Feds win their chances for a District Champion ship team will look bright.

Fans attending the game Saturday night will see two well coached high school quintets in action. Both have their stars who will try for honors. In Captain Hugger and Jack Ayerko, the Celery Feds have a sharpshooting pair of forwards who are backed by a strong defense composed of Julian Parker, Donald Jackson and Jack Robinson. In Pioner and Jackson the Celery Feds have two guys who can be depended upon to bring the ball down the court. Leesburg-Seminole and Seminole's match against the Seminole Indians' forward.

The boys who will probably action tomorrow night are big guns, known as Ayerko, Pioneer, Jackson, Edson, Lake, Wilson, Moore, Holt, and Entzinger.

The Celery game will start at 8 o'clock while a preliminary game between Geneva and the Freshmen team will begin at 7 o'clock.

Richey Says Cheer Is Not Foreign To Life Of Christians

"Prayer is the key to Christian testimony," Fred A. Richey told his revival audience at First Gospel Tabernacle, State Highway 44, Geneva, Monday night. Mr. Richey denied that the future ends the glorious sound of the tomb song, communions of holiness. He said that the true Christian's experience was that of joy and victory. "The only optimist in the Christian camp is the speaker."

Rev. W. F. McPherson, Chattanooga, Tenn., who has been a revival visitor for two days, spoke on the value of Christian testimony. He said the times testimony was the Word of God translated in the lives of professing Christians. Mr. McPherson recently conducted a revival campaign in Gainesville.

J. B. Zeall, Winter Park, again spoke on "The Life of Faith." Mr. Zeall is speaking every night at 7:15 o'clock on faith.

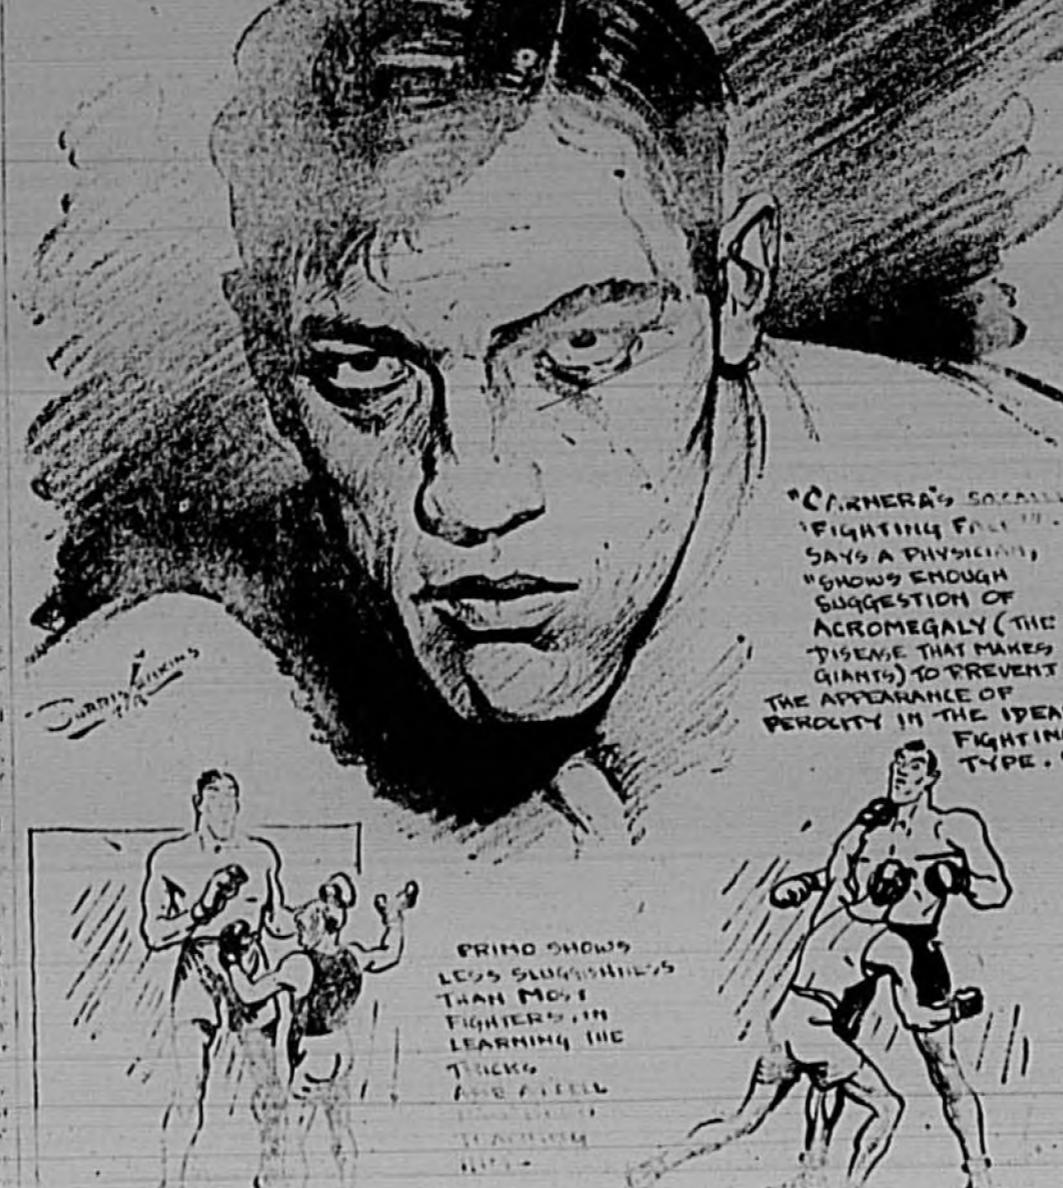

There will be the night Saturday night praise and testimony meeting tonight. Services tomorrow will be at 11 A. M., 2:30 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. Mr. Richey will speak briefly at 11 A. M. and preach and pray for the sick afternoon and night. The tabernacle Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. Mrs. J. E. Spurlock is permanent.

Guards Freed In Slaying Of Downey

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Three members of the guard were free today as a result of action in a state grand jury to indict them in connection with the killing of Eugene F. Downey, Jr., who was shot dead in Buffalo yesterday. Christian under trial.

Rudolph Thompson, Wm. Finn and Oswald La Grange, guardsmen, were held for the criminal charges of second degree manslaughter. Downey died in the leg after a bullet wound in the left shoulder which he and another man were piloting when seized by the guardsmen.

programs were distributed by Harry Lee and John Minard.

The girls were seated at tables placed in various places about the room which were decorated for the occasion with quantities of Spring flowers and shrubs.
Extending across the ceiling from one balcony to the other were festoons of Spanish moss while bamboo branches were banked along the walls of the room. Placed in the center of the stage was a large wicker basket of gladioli in shades of yellow and white. Two other large baskets of golden calendula and fern were arranged at each side of the stage.

Throughout the evening musical

"The Love Parade" At Milane Theatre Sets Record In Richness

Settings rich beyond the dreams of the most visionary of interior decorators have been provided for the talking screen's first original musical romance, "The Love Parade," now showing at the Milane Theatre.

"The Love Parade" is a tuneful extravaganza of the intimacies and affections among the throng of a very modern mythological kingdom or even a queenland, with Jeanette MacDonald playing the queen and Maurice Chevalier starred as her military attaché, who is recalled from a foreign capital for having been involved in numerous scandals with the lovely ladies of the diplomatic circle.

Victor Schertzinger wrote the tuneful big hit songs and Ernst Lubitsch directed this highly musical and colorful comedy.

Three hundred evening gowns of elaborate design were made by the wardrobe department of the Paramount studios for use in a single scene in "The Love Parade."

The gowns were worn by the boys and girls in the show window display of their works and accomplishments in the show window of the store formerly occupied by the McKinley Markwood Company on West First Street. Several of the boys made it known that the members of the two scout troops have taken a great interest in arranging the various displays recently in an effort to stimulate interest among the Sanford people in scout activities.

In this particular exhibition the boys have arranged a group of topes tied in various knots, each of which every scout is expected to learn how to tie. They have also placed on exhibit a number of stamp collections, old and rare, maps of both the United States and of foreign countries, air mail covers and Indian relics. Six different kinds of flags are explained in detail by the scouts in their window display.

mount studios for use in a single scene
