Roosevelt Seeks Law To Increase U.S. High Court

President Proposes To Make Posts For Fifteen Justices On Supreme Bench

Low Tribunals Also Involved

Constitutional Issues Play Major Role In Suggestion

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, in a surprise message to Congress today, recommended a sweeping reorganization of Federal Court machinery including an increase in the number of Justices on the Supreme and lower courts and a method for speeding high court decisions on constitutional questions.

In the tentative draft of a bill accompanying his message, the President would be given the power to increase the Supreme Court by a maximum of six Justices to 15.

It also would empower the President to name additional judges for lower courts to relieve congested dockets.

It would prohibit decisions, in the lower courts, on constitutional questions unless the attorney general was given a notice and the time to be heard.

It would provide a direct and immediate appeal to the Supreme Court on constitutional issues.

Snow, Rudd Named As Delegates For Sanford Woodmen

J. W. Snow and C. B. Rudd were named last night by Sanford woodmen as official delegates to represent this camp at the State Wood Camp in Ocala April 19 and 20.

Alternates selected were E. B. Phillips and G. H. Hinchliff.

The fraternal organization also laid plans to leave the uniform ranks of the local lodge before the convention.

About 13 Woodmen are recommended to make the demonstration. It was announced.

While the biennial convention is still more than two months ahead, a good percentage of the Sanford lodge has indicated it will attend the session, which will draw from every Woodman camp in Florida.

Legionettes Will Stand Inspection By City Commission

Mayor Ed Higgins and the City Commission tonight are scheduled to inspect the Sons of the Legion Drum and Bugle Corps during rehearsal at Legion Hut beginning at 7 o'clock, Percy Mero, American Legion Boys' Work chairman, said today.

The officials are asked to pay an inspection visit in order to get a first-hand view of the accomplishment made by the drummers and buglers, Mr. Mero said.

Sufficient equipment is on hand at present to completely outfit one corps of 16 boys. Additional materials will be ordered tonight from Frank Hazy of Daytona Beach, who is assisting in instructing the local youths.

Mississippi Effort Fails Against Levee

Rehabilitation Under Way In Ohio Area; Congress Receptive To Flood Measures

MEMPHIS, Feb. 5.—(AP)—A battered but unyielding levee line today repulsed the Mississippi River's greatest cross while rehabilitation, control and relief problems engaged the flood-scourged Ohio River Valley and the nation's Congress.

Army engineers estimated 120,000 river fighters along the Mississippi were keeping the country's worst flood from multiplying its toll of 381 dead, nearly 1,000,000 homeless and $350,000,000 in property damage.

The Mississippi was receding slowly in the Ohio, Ill., sector. Unless storm winds smash against improvised dikes, engineers considered the battle won.

Communication Services Taxed Locally By Flood

Telephone Company's 'Long Haul' Calls Reported Doubled; Telegraph Messages Show Increase

Communication facilities in Sanford were taxed somewhat during the flood crisis, a survey of three firms here today revealed.

E. V. Turner, local Bell Telephone manager, said his "long haul" calls, especially those into the flood area of the middle west, practically doubled while the Ohio River was cresting over its banks.

From the Western Union office, L. Tharp reported a heavy increase in activity in the transmission of telegrams and messages sent from Sanford citizens to relatives or friends whose financial resources might have been hurt by the inundation.

A. H. Brock, Postal Telegraph manager, said his company carried a highly noticeable amount in telegrams.

The telegraph companies in the flood regions found one difficulty that did not overcome in many cases there were no telegrams at the locations to which messages were addressed, the buildings having been swept away by angry river waters.

In some instances, telegrams originating here were brought via train in Memphis and Nashville. This method was resorted to only in those instances where the address could not be located.

Posts, airplanes and other emergency apparatus were placed in service by the telegraph companies in an effort to deliver messages, it was reported.

Mr. Turner said while some long distance calls were entered here, there were surprisingly few which remained in complete.

A photograph of the prize winning celery exhibit entered by local Future Farmers of America at the Tampa Fair was on display to attract attention.

The picture shows six rows of growing celery on a platform in the center of the booth. In two bank corners are banks of celery neatly arranged to attract attention.

Labels of the various brands of vegetables produced here are displayed prominently in the background.

Thousands visited the exhibit, according to Alex R. Johnson, advisor of the Seminole Chapter, Future Farmers.

The fair is slated to close Saturday.

Kidnaped Physician Killed In Ozarks

A week after he mysteriously disappeared from his home at Willow Springs, Mo., Dr. J. C. R. Davis (above) was found shot to death in an Ozark thicket. Federal agents said Robert Kenyon, 29, had confessed he killed the physician after forcing him to write a letter home, begging relatives to pay $5,000 ransom. (Associated Press Photo)

Edward Plans To Wed Wally On April Day

Marriage Scheduled In Castle Of Roths- childs Or Vienna; Parliament Objects

VIENNA, Feb. 5.—(AP)—The Duke of Windsor plans to marry Mrs. Wallis Simpson on April 27, either at the Enzesfeld castle of Baron Eugene Rothschild or in Vienna, a usually reliable source declared today.

This is the exact date on which Mrs. Simpson's divorce decree from Ernest Allrich Simpson supposedly will become final.

The former British monarch was his fiancee to arrive in Vienna on April 24th, the informant said.

The Duke's sister, the Countess of Harewood, is due here Sunday, and they expected to confer on wedding plans.

In London, informed sources said individual members of parliament are attempting to present the marriage by marshaling opposition to the proposed $250,000 annual allowance to former King Edward.

Seminole County Named Defendant In Railway Suit

Seminole County was named today along with several other political subdivisions in litigation opened by the Atlantic Coast Line Railway concerning a millage involving bonds.

L. P. H. H. Holder, County attorney answering the suit for local commissioners, said the transportation company pointed out that an assessment of 15 mills against the county was sufficient for bond purposes.

Mr. Householder said the A. C. L. bill of complaint set forth the theory that the 15 mill assessment was not in proportion to the cost of production and operation of the line.

The suit questioned contingencies in the general budget based on the collection of 25 percent of the tax roll.

Occupational Fee Collections Show Sizable Increase

Intensive police activity has reduced the number of delinquent occupational licenses in Sanford, Miss. Ellen Hoy, City tax collector, announced today.

The assessments were in arrears last October, although several months have been allowed by authorities in which local business institutions and individuals could operate without prosecution.

Turned over to the police department, the list rapidly decreased. Police Chief Roy Williams said every effort will be made to delinquent, carrying cases to court if necessary.

Police had a score of 100 percent in collection last year.

Last rites were held today for Miss Minnie Mae Goodwin, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Goodwin, in Lakeview Cemetery with the Rev. W. P. Brooks Jr., officiating.

Miss Goodwin, who had been an invalid for several years, succumbed in Jacksonville Wednesday.

Erickson Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Medical Society May Decide On Doctor Question

Langley Serving In Temporary Capacity Until Tuesday Meet

Whether Dr. W. Theo Langley will continue in the capacity of County physician will be determined Tuesday during a convocation of the Seminole County Medical Society, the physician said today.

He announced that he had not permanently accepted the position's appointment which was made early this week by County Commissioners.

Dr. Langley's delay in definite acceptance or rejection, it was understood, is based on a recent recommendation of the Medical Society that a full-time doctor be named by the County.

Tentative negotiations are under way between the City and the County to pool resources and jointly employ a physician who could give his full time to welfare cases.

However, when this proposition was presented to City authorities yesterday, the municipal Commission pointed out that its budget already had been established, and that the sum allocated for medical services was insufficient for the County's proposal.

County Commissioner Thacker pointed out that his group had taken into consideration and might be able to stretch out contribution "hills" until the next City budget is made.

While Dr. Langley is serving as temporary County physician at a salary of $100 per month, there is no assistant County physician.

In the proposal offered by the Medical Society was the offer to establish a service among member doctors that would make surgical work free to welfare patients provided that a full-time physician was employed who could care for patients after the operations.

Scout Troop Five Slates Full Week Of Activities Here

Boy Scout Troop 5, beginning Sunday, will find Troop 5 with a slate full of activities, Scoutmaster Bertram Morris said today.

On Sunday morning the young scouts of the outfit will attend Episcopal Church services in a body.

Tuesday the troop will have a change of Junior High School chapel and has prepared an interesting program.

Sanford Kiwanis on Wednesday night will give the youngsters at a banquet in the Junior High School lunch room. One of the guests of honor is to be Scout Executive B. J. Hagstrom of Orlando.

Friday, the troop will leave here for Camp Winona in Volusia county where it will spend three days.

County's 'Big Tree' Gets Big Play From Northern Visitors

Seminole County's Big Tree near Langwood is receiving a "big play" from northern visitors, the Chamber of Commerce reported today.

Sunday 124 cars, each bearing about five passengers, stopped to see the monarch of the forest. Yesterday, during a rainy period, six cars stopped within twenty minutes to see the huge tree.

Ralph Bagwell, Chamber secretary, said the attraction apparently is fairly well-known among the travelers, since many have remarked of having heard of the tree before coming to Florida.

Celery Interests Will Make Move To Lift Prices

Curtailment Of Ship- ments Proposed As Course Of Action

Celery shippers in the Sanford area will make a definite move tomorrow to boost the current market price of their commodity.

Gus Schmah, president of the Seminole County Agricultural Association, said today that suggestions for the curtailment of shipment of certain sizes of celery were made last night by the Association membership in Seminole High School Auditorium.

It has been proposed that the smaller sizes, numbers 8 and 10, be withheld from the market.

Mr. Schmah said the Association did not advance a proposal on the number of exports which might be released here daily. This matter, he indicated, would rest in the hands of the shippers.

Current records show that an average of 80 carloads of celery per day is being shipped from this vicinity.

President Schmah said that since Sanford is producing about 85 percent of celery being the southern market, he believed that it would be no great effort to control prices through curtailment.

It was recalled that the method had been employed on other occasions and it produced definite and successful results.

A small number of Association members last night expressed themselves in favor of cutting down the celery and letting it remain in the field, Mr. Schmah said, although the majority favored controlled shipping.

He reported that the Sanford area is the only to be taken in consideration at present, since the Ocala section is not shipping heavily enough to hold most prices.

A committee of the Agricultural Association, appointed by the president, will meet with shippers tomorrow in the Sanford Atlantic National Bank Building.

Sportsmen Fined After Hunting On Unmarked Preserve

D. D. Swinson and E. B. Smoak, Daytona Beach sportsmen, were each fined $1 yesterday by County Judge R. W. Ware for hunting on the Celery City bird preserve.

Both men entered complaints that the preservation was marked in no way, consequently, they said, neither could determine that they were illegally trespassing.

Judge Ware today confirmed the sportsmen's complaint, asserting that while he knew the preserve was in existence, there were no signs to regulate where it begins and ends.

The judge pointed out that the legislative statute which created the reservation also set forth provisions that the protected area should be marked.

Both Smoak and Swinson unhesitatingly admitted they were hunting on what game warden said was the preserve.

Hodges Advises Home Owners To File Exemptions

Homestead Bill Says Earlier Statement Was Misconstrued

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 5. — (Special) — Senator "Homestead Bill" Hodges in a statement released here struck back at those who have attempted to misconstrue his statement released last week on homestead exemption. The Senator said "This attempt to misconstrue my statement is but further proof of the unyielding efforts of a minority group to thwart the will of the people and nullify the homestead exemption which was adopted by a 3 to 1 majority."

Senator Hodges further said, "My previous statement did not even intimate that the home owners should not file application for exemption, as the 1933 law specifies it is necessary that they do this in order to secure their exemption. However, it should not be necessary, and as previously stated the requirement is simply a lot of expensive red tape injected by those who fought the Amendment originally and are still trying in every way possible to nullify it."

"In order to make this statement clear it would be necessary to review the passage of the law in 1933, which cannot be done completely in a brief article. However, anyone who is familiar with the facts, or cares to take time to review the complete record, will observe that the law was originally passed by the Senate and that the Senate endeavored, first, to broaden the scope of homestead exemption and second, to simplify the method of procedure, in so far as possible. After this Bill was passed by the Senate and sent to the House the same old forces which fought homestead exemption in 1934 immediately re-launched their fight."

"The Bill was completely rewritten by the House Committee on finances and taxation and the Senate was forced, by virtue of despotic control of the House, to accept the best substitute for the original Bill that they could secure. The plain people of this State have always been confronted at every section of the Legislature by those who were able to employ high-priced lobbyists, lawyers and spokesmen to look after the interests of the rich and powerful and the people had to get along the best they could without help and I want it known now that I do not propose that any high-priced lobbyists, or high-powered lawyers are going to misconstrue or thwart the will of the people on the exemption granted to the people on their family shelter, without letting the people know on the floor of the Senate what they are doing and how they are trying to do it."

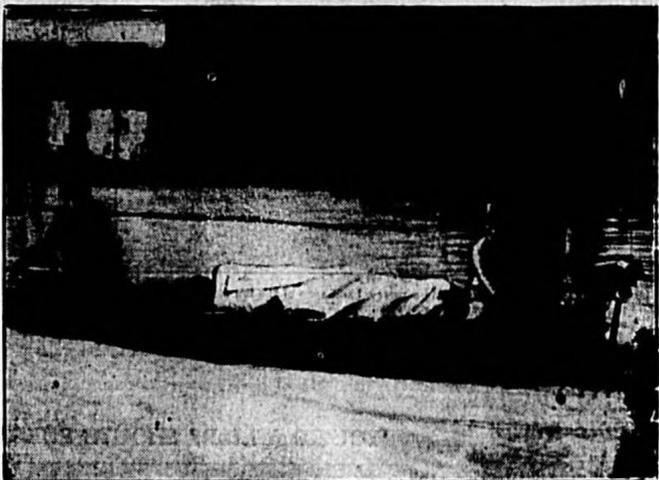

"I want to reiterate my previous statement that the people are in no mood to have their homestead exemption nullified by the 'juggling' of those who desire to keep their own taxes down, at the expense of the people who own and occupy homes, and if the special interests keep this monkey business they may soon find that the entire valorem tax system has been abolished in order to make the homestead exemption effective, and further, to protect the small property owners from the continued efforts of certain groups or special advantage."

STUDIOS UP IN ARMS OVER CHILD STARS' SNUBS

"I'd rather not go at all than go with that dame," said Freddie Bartholomew (center) when asked to escort Jane Withers (left), the child star from Atlanta, Ga., to the premiere of his latest picture. Moreover he took some credit of Jane's best office rating and said he much preferred to sport Shirley Temple (right). The result: A social upheaval in Hollywood and a threatened war between rival studios employing the children. (Associated Press Photo)

Entombed Man Recovered By Rescue Party

Mail Carrier Found After Eight Days In Coal Tunnels

FLEMINGTON, W. Va., Feb. 5. — (AP) — Robert Johnson, lost for eight days in the debris-filled passageways of an abandoned mine, was carried to safety today, alive, well and puffing happily on a cigar.

"I'd given up all hope," said the 36-year-old rural mail carrier to rescue workers who found him nearly two miles from the mine entrance early today.

Johnson, who started coal from the mine in his spare time for sale to neighbors, was found huddled behind a heap of jagged chunks of slate.

Three of the scores of volunteers who had searched the mine night and day since Johnson disappeared Jan. 27, heard his feeble cries for help while exploring a narrow tunnel.

Many believed Johnson had been drowned in a pool of water. He was carried down a snow-covered path to a waiting ambulance and rushed to a hospital at Clarksburg.

'Baby' Tornado Is Seen By Citizens In Gulf Community

CORTEZ, Feb. 5. — (AP) — A "baby" tornado reached down from murky skies over Palma Sala Bay yesterday and with a lusty roar swept through Cortez.

When it had passed, one building was destroyed, three badly damaged, about a dozen more unroofed and half-ruined or so persons were frightened but uninjured.

Mrs. Frank Smith, who with Mrs. Minnie Knight, was in one of the buildings, said there was a sudden roar and the house began to rock and sway crazily.

"I thought we would all be killed," Mrs. Smith said. "Then, as suddenly as it started, it was all over."

Thibault and two others were lifted off their foundations and set down several feet away with considerable damage.

Dewey Camp had another sort of an experience. When the roaring started he was astonished to see his new blue serge suit fly itself from the hanger on the door and fly out of the window. When the blow passed, Camp went searching for the suit. The coat was on top of a telegraph pole 300 feet away, but the vest and trousers were gone.

John Taylor reported his new oil stove was sitting on the back porch when the storm hit, but it was sitting upright in the yard when the blow was over. Neither his home nor Cape's was damaged.

The tornado whirled through a path 400 yards long and 50 yards wide. Some buildings in the path were left intact.

Last Of Lee's Staff Dies In Virginia

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 5. — (AP) — The Alabama House passed last night a two percent and sent the measure to the general sales tax bill, 47 to 12.

The measure calls for repeal of Alabama's new 1-1-2 percent gross receipts tax law that went into effect Jan. 1, and levies the tax directly on the consumer. The gross receipts tax law, under fire in State court, gives merchants the option of absorbing the tax or passing it on.

Banishes Troublesome, Dinky, Color-Dulling, Hard-Water Scum. If you enjoy keeping your dainty, delicate, expensive things looking fresh, colorful and gay—after scores of washings—you owe it to yourself to try DREFT—(Process and product patented U. S. letters patent, 1,968,793 to 7 inclusive) the most amazing washing discovery in over 2000 years! For DREFT brings an entirely new conception of how long you can wear lingerie, chiffon hose and fine woens without seeing them grow dim, dull and lifeless. And the chief reason for this is because DREFT can't possibly form any hard-water "scum."

This "scum" which you always see in your rinse water, is undecidable in your wash water—yet it is there, doing its vicious work, wash after wash, dulling the lustre of your sheer lingerie, spotting and streaking silk stockings. And this is true even though you have used what, before the discovery of DREFT, was recognized as the best, most expensive, soap known for washing fine fabrics.

Amazing as this may seem, DREFT ends all this because it really forms scum. And even more amazing, DREFT actually removes the stubborn, clinging scum particles that failed to rinse away in previous soap washings—lets "scum-dulled" colors come up to their true brilliance. You'll be thrilled to see the delicate colors and feel the silky softness of your sheest stockings "wash back" in DREFT suds.

5 Times Greater Suds. In addition, DREFT does these three remarkable things no single soap has ever done, or can do now: Makes 5 times greater suds than any soap in the hardest water. Cleanses thoroughly—even lipstick and so-called "impossible" smudges! Rinses out completely—no soapy deposit left!

By comparison DREFT makes even the purest soap you have ever known seem harsh—because DREFT suds contain no alkali. Alkali in soaps is what fades colors. DREFT suds are the only suds you can get that do not contain alkali. You'll be astonished how, wash after wash, silk stockings actually seem like new when you use DREFT. It's economical too. For instance, in hard water, you need only use half as much DREFT as you would the finest soap flakes. We don't ask you to take our word for these amazing claims. Prove them for yourself at our risk.

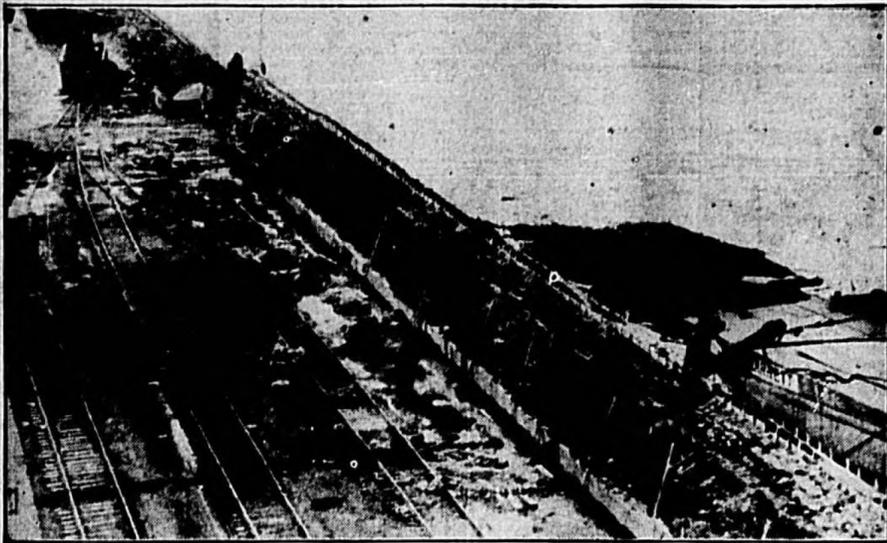

Take Advantage of 1c Sale Today. Please take special notice that this unusual 1¢ bargain sale is limited. You can only get 1¢ DREFT while your dealer's stock lasts. Remember to get DREFT today. Your money back if you're not satisfied. Act quickly and avoid disappointment.
