Smith Issues Statement
Thanking Citizens
For G.O.P. Vote

The greatest outpouring of voters that Seminole County has ever seen yesterday for the first time in this county's history placed a decisive endorsement on a Republican presidential nominee. More than 3,000 voters stormed the polls and captured every precinct except one for Hoover, Alford Smith, candidate of the Democratic party, trailed 633 votes behind with all the county's 11 precincts complete.

The county gave Hoover 1,762 and Smith 1,169. The Republican lead ranged up to four to one over Smith.

Other Republican candidates fell far behind their party leader and their Democratic rivals by substantial majorities. Senator Park Trammell, Mr. Ruth Bryan Owen and Doyle E. Carlton all led in this county.

R. G. Smith, veteran Republican state central committee man for Seminole County, when informed of Hoover's victory here last night, issued the following statement:

"I am happy to hear that Seminole County has seen fit to vote for Herbert Hoover, as has the remainder of the state of Florida. The voters of this county and state will be well satisfied with their choice. I feel sure.

"I wish to extend to the voters of this county my sincere thanks for their support of Mr. Hoover. I also wish to express my appreciation for the splendid support accorded Mr. Hoover, Mr. Park Trammell, Mr. Lawson and Mr. Stroup.

"I am not unmindful of the fact that Mr. Hoover's victory in this county and in the state is due partially to the wonderful support given us by our Democratic friends. They will not regret their choice. I wish to assure my friends that Federal appointments will be made in Seminole County with my approval during the next four years as they have been made during the past eight years. Again I thank you."

Hoover's victory here was absolute. Smith won only one of the county's 11 precincts. Logwood, the only Smith precinct, gave Hoover 84 and Smith 71. Hoover polled up a lead of approximately 200 in each of the Sanford precincts.

In seven of the rural districts Hoover's vote doubled, tripled and quadrupled Smith's. The Republican nominee had four to one leads in Forest City and Paola. Altamonte, 693 to 348, gave Hoover three to one, and he received 64.

Washington Speculates On Cabinet Appointments To Be Effected By Hoover

President-Elect Will Probably Retain 3
Members Of Coolidge's Official
Family Declares Report

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Hardly had the voice of the American people, as expressed with a large whoopee at the polls, died away before Washington began speculating today on the personnel of President-elect Herbert Hoover's cabinet.

This will be one of the Capital's chief sports for the ensuing three months.

Three members of President Coolidge's official family are expected to be retained after Mar. 4. They are Secretary of Treasury Mellon, Secretary of War Dwight Davis and Postmaster General Harry S. New. About Mellon there is little doubt. Prior to leaving for the West, Mr. Hoover said he wanted to continue Secretary Mellon as the treasury head.

That Secretary Mellon will be retained by Hoover was vouchsafed by friends today who said he was anxious to remain out at least 10 years as financial chief of the government. Eight years will be up in March.

Because of the impending Mississippi Valley flood reversion work, Mr. Hoover was reported to be anxious to continue Secretary Davis, who, as head of the War Department, has been charged with directing the preliminary construction. It is believed $400,000,000 will be expended before the work is completed.

New and Hoover have been the warmest friends as colleagues in the Coolidge cabinet. Another reason lies in New's development of the air-mail service as adjunct to commercial aviation, a problem dear to the President-elect.

Withington doesn't doubt that William J. Donovan of New York, elevated attorney general, will be retained to the cabinet. In place of (Continued On Page Four)

Al's Leadership Thought At End

Poor Showing Will Be
End Of Political Career Of Big Figure

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—In the ruck of the greatest Democratic defeat in history, the stunned and shell-shocked leaders of the party began to shake themselves today, take stock of the assets that remain to them, and to wonder somewhat bewilderedly what the future holds.

It is taken for granted that Governor Smith's active leadership is at an end, and that a new deal will be had all around.

Had Governor Smith made a good showing he had been able to hold the Solid South together, win a few border states and display great popular strength in the industrial East, even though defeated he would still be the leader of his party and the natural choice for another try in 1932.

It is true that Bryan came back twice after his original defeat in 1908, but Bryan's candidacy was never as liberally annihilated as was Smith's candidacy in yesterday's record-smashing election, and political history records no instance where a badly defeated presidential candidate has "come back."

Parker was dropped immediately after his defeat in the Cor. re-elections. He had a long record of struggle after the Coolidge landslide. He was terribly beaten, but not as conclusively as was Governor Smith today.

Governor Smith probably is out of politics henceforth. His intimates say so. They expect him to leave his gubernatorial office on Jan. 1 and retire to New York to engage in business, where his Catholicism is not an issue. He has been in public life almost continuously for 25 years, through lean years and fat years, and he is represented as having had enough of it.

It is the irony of politics that the most spectacular career and personality in the country's political structure should end in a crash with a defeat so crushing that he has no opening for re-entrance.

It is no easy or enticing situation that now confronts the party manager. There is considerable wreckage mingled with the new construction on the party lot. This will have to be picked up, sorted out and graded in the light of future needs.

Governor Smith re-made the party according to his own plan when he assumed the helm after the Houston Convention. To it he brought "big business" executives of the Bush type with money and modern methods of organization. Through the force of circumstances, the party became identified with the wet side of the prohibition question in this case and to cap the complete transformation Governor Smith kicked the traditional Democratic tariff policy out of the window when he came in the door and made the party almost as protectionist as its Republican rival.

Lead; Owen Victor

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Wrested from the Democratic column for the first time in 58 years, bradley reports today were gradually piling up the Hoover lead in Florida.

Republicans quick to take advantage of Democratic unpopularity toward Smith, countered these "Hoover Democrats" to "throw the old dynasty in the dust."

Hoover was leading Smith on a length of returns from 554 to out of 1,263 by 1,000 votes, reports early today indicated. The vote was 1,762 Hoover to 1,169 Smith.

Republicans party could not lead in state politics "friend" Hoover Democrats' in the gubernatorial, congressional and senate races.

Doyle E. Carlton, a substantial lead over William J. Hewey, Republican candidate, as returns from 451 precincts were reported, 46,128 to Hewey 28,907.

U. S. Senator Park Trammell staged a runaway race over his Republican opponent, Mayor Herbert Hoover, with 228 precincts reported. The vote was Trammell, 27,880; Warburton 15,534.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, had apparently landed her Republican opponent, William C. Lawson, in the Fourth District congressional race for with only 127 precincts of 369 reported. She was leading 14,874 to 6,591.

Herbert J. Drew, Democratic incumbent, was far ahead of his Republican opponent, Abner Brown, in the First Congressional District race.

The jobs Republican candidate in the three-cornered race for state treasury, F. A. Stroup was far behind his Democratic opponent, L. W. Krost, leading with 14,753 and B. Hudson Burr, who had 4,060.

The vote of the Democratic ticket will be reported in the next few days of the "Solid South." Fate of four constitutional amendments lay in tabulation sheets.

Hoover And Curtis — Winners

Herbert Hoover and Charles Curtis, who today also appeared of the greatest victory ever won by presidential and vice-presidential candidates since the day when George Washington was unanimously elected as first president of the United States! ## North Carolina And Virginia Go G. O. P. As Great Landslide Roars Into "Dixie"

Republican Leads In Texas Returns

Smith Wins Only 87
Electoral Votes As Opponent Gains 424

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The electoral hurricane that blew Hoover into the presidency by the greatest Republican majority in history was still going today.

North Carolina has joined Virginia and Florida in the break-up of the Solid South, and late returns this morning put the state in the Republican column for the first time since Reconstruction days.

Before sunset Texas may also join the victors. With some 30 counties missing this morning, Hoover was maintaining a 10,000 lead over Smith in the Lone Star State and in view of the dimensions of the Republican sweep elsewhere in the South there seemed to be little reason to doubt that Hoover would also get these 30 electoral votes to add to his already unbelievable total.

By way of compensation, however, Rhode Island's 5 electoral votes drifted over into the Smith column this morning by a scant 2,000 majority.

Without Texas, Hoover has an electoral total of 424 as against 87 for Governor Smith. With the 29 from Texas it seems to 444, a high record for all time. Even in 1912, the year of the Republican split and the Democratic landslide, Woodrow Wilson only garnered 435 electoral votes, and eight years ago, in 1920, when the late Warren G. Harding captured through the nation the Republican total was only 404.

The overnight shifts disclose that, giving Texas to Hoover, only eight states gave their electoral vote to Governor Smith. Massachusetts and Rhode Island in the north, both by scant margins, and Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana and South Carolina, in the South.

Two of the metropolitan of the South, Atlanta and Birmingham, went Republican for the first time in their history.

New York's Police Redouble Efforts To Locate Slayer

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Determined to solve the mystery surrounding the murder of Arnold Rothstein, nationally known gambler, the police today redoubled their efforts to locate the man who was to meet Rothstein at the Park Central Hotel on Sunday night when Rothstein was shot through the abdomen.

"Jimmy" Mackay, an ex-convict, was sought particularly as the strength of a new view, the police were informed that it was Mackay's apartment that Rothstein had occupied on a "high noon" day last week. They believe that Mackay was at the hotel on the morning of Rothstein's murder, according to police theory, which according to police theory, was called to serve Rothstein in the "C. U. U." he had given to the Rothstein club.

An intensive search was also being made for George McManus, a former member of the Rothstein club, who had been seen at the Rothstein club on the night of the murder.

G. O. P. GOVERNORS PLACED IN OFFICE ON HOOVER WAVE

24 Republican State
Executives Named
In Polls Yesterday

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Twenty-four Republican governors, apparently, have been swept into office on the great Hoover wave which swept the country yesterday. Only 11 Democratic gubernatorial candidates were triumphant. Several states, including Colorado and Utah, remain doubtful. The governors chosen are:

Arizona—George E. Hunt, (D) re-elected. Arkansas—Harvey P. Clark, (D) re-elected. Colorado—Doubtful. Connecticut—John H. Trumbull, (R) re-elected. Delaware—Douglas Buck, (R). Florida—Doyle E. Carlton, (D). Georgia—L. G. Hardman, (D) re-elected. Idaho—H. C. Baldrige, (R) incumbent, leading. Illinois—L. E. Emmerich, (R). Indiana—Harry F. Hammill, (R) re-elected. Kansas—Lashlie, (R) leading. Iowa—William Clyde H. Reed, (R) Maine, William T. Gardner, elected Sept. 10. Massachusetts—Charles H. Cole, (D) leading. Michigan—Fred W. Green, (R) re-elected. Minnesota—Theodore Christianson, (R) re-elected. Missouri—Henry E. Caulfield, (R) leading. Montana—J. E. Nebrasko, (D) incumbent, leading. Nebraska—Arthur Weaver, (R) leading. New Hampshire—Charles W. Tobey, (R). New Jersey—Morgan F. Larson, (R). New Mexico—Richard C. Dillon, (R) re-elected. New York—Franklin D. Roosevelt, (D) leading. North Carolina—C. Max Gardner, (D). North Dakota—George F. Shafer, (R). Ohio—Hoyt H. Coady, (R). Rhode Island—Norman S. Carey, (R) incumbent. South Dakota—William J. Bulow, (D) leading. Tennessee—Henry H. Horton, (D). Vermont—John E. Weeks, (R) re-elected. Washington—Roland Hartley, (R) re-elected. Texas—Dan Moody, (D) re-elected. Utah—Joseph W. Weldon, (R). Wisconsin—Walter J. Kohler, (R).

As Attorney General Sargent. He has been one of Mr. Hoover's closest advisers in the campaign.

About the other cabinet posts there is the heaviest speculation. It has been said that Senator Bush of Idaho could have the state department post if he wanted it, but that he prefers to remain as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Mr. Hoover may turn to the American Federation of Labor for his secretary of labor. In this connection both William Green, president of the A. F. of L., and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers have been mentioned.

Lewis' activity for the Republican ticket four years ago Mr. Hoover went to Lewis all in helping to obtain the Johnstown wage scale for the miners. The candidate refused to renew this agreement but to the present strike in the soft coal fields.

HOOVER IS MOVED ON HEARING NEWS OF HIS ELECTION

HOOPER HOME, PALO ALTO, Cal., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Herbert Hoover, president-elect of the United States, turned today to the next big job with a strong hand and a brave heart.

Hoover, the engineer, Hoover the builder, Hoover the fighter, Hoover for a war-torn world, is the same personification of executive ability and administrative genius that the country has known for 15 years, but Hoover the statesman elevated to the leadership of a nation in his first campaign for public office, in a time hounded by the solemn contemplation of frightful responsibilities, awaiting him in the most influential and the most exacting official position in the world.

Tears welled into Mr. Hoover's eyes last night as he acknowledged the frenzied greeting of his fellow townsmen from the balcony of his home.

"I thank you from the bottom of my heart," he said in a loud, melodious voice, "for the irrefragable evidence of your confidence in me. I thank you from the bottom of my heart."

Three thousand people—men, women and children from the city, Hoover has known since his villagehood and sparkling eyes youth from the university he has helped build—marched to the Hoover home at 11 o'clock behind the hand of Philip Sousa, here for a concert engagement.

Word of Hoover's election had flashed through the city an hour before. The screen of half a dozen dissonant sirens tore the silence of night to black and jagged sheets. Airplanes overhead hurled exploding bolts of color against the feeble blue light of the stars. Twenty-one bands—the presidential salute—challenged the sirens and punctuated the Sousa rendition of Sousa's own "El Capitán." Standing in grave demeanor in the blinding dazzle of a dozen movie light lights focused on him from the rear banks of his front garden, Hoover acknowledged this epitome of the nation's exultation with his profoundly sincere—"I thank you from the bottom of my heart."

Harding Landslide
Won By Republicans

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Republicans will control the next National House of Representatives with a majority exceeding last year's in history, and that in the Harding landslide, it was disclosed on the face of congressional returns today.

Speaker Nicholas Longworth, Rep. John Q. Tilson of Connecticut, majority floor leader, and virtually all other republican congressmen of power have been returned to office.

In a short time all hope of Democratic success in the House is gone. The Republicans have delivered a smashing blow at Democratic prestige in Kentucky, apparently have made clean sweep in Pennsylvania and cut down opposition congressmen in half a dozen other states.

The working majority of Herbert Hoover and the house leaders is expected to exceed 60. The Republican membership probably will amount beyond 250 but it is unlikely to approach the 300 figure of the Harding regime.

The most remarkable upset of the Congressional elections occurred in Kentucky, where the Hoover wave carried nine Republicans into office with two Democrats, a clean majority gain of six. Three Democrats apparently were headed over in Nebraska.

Georgia's Experience May Be Difference In Win And Defeat

By Frank S. Wright
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, GAINESVILLE, Nov. 6.—(INS)—

Florida goes to Savannah with a generally conceded to be a "tough" game. Georgia possesses the more experienced team and the fact that they have been following the Notre Dame system for several years, is another factor giving them an advantage to the Red and Black line.

For the current grid campaign, Georgia lost a fine guard and tackle, but the identical foursome of Johnson, Dudley, Hooks and McCarty that was reported last year as the best backfield in the South, is assembling every line with the same successful viciousness of old.

Charles W. Bachman, director general of Florida's football this year, and the Harry Meigs, a scholar and exponent of Notre Dame's famous style of play, has not indicated whether he will continue his policy of opening the game with "black" troops.

Florida's line replacements are thought to be better than ever before. Houser, McKee, Grandstaff, Perry, Bishop and King comprise the guard; Wainwright, Hester, Allen and Wainwright comprise the tackle line.

PAULINO DEFEATS VON POROT WITH POOR EXHIBITION

Basque Wood Chopper Gains Decision Over Swede In 10 Rounds

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service
Sports Editor
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—

Among those present at Madison Square Garden last night, for no reason at all, were 14,350 persons who won't be heavyweight champions of the world. At that, they didn't differ very radically from a couple of chumps they were looking at, except in one detail. The chumps didn't have to pay their way out, either.

As a matter of fact, everything was taken in good part as Paulino Uzcudun, the well-known human being, just managed to stay in front of Otto von Porot at the bell, ending the 10th and final round, for the champs had put on a good show, even if it was strictly five-day stuff heavyweight champions in prospect—not even in prospect.

Paulino never will be champion because a champion must fight and this guy can't. As for Otto, he can't fight because he won't. He simply was afraid to let a punch go until Paulino was in there with one eye and then it was the eighth round and too late for anything practical to be done about it.

They said before the fight that Otto was the hardest hitter in the world and maybe that is so. Personally, I want to know about the way he hit the floor for the second of two knockdowns scored by Paulino during the fight. I have seen a lot of weak hitters sack the floor much harder than that Otto undoubtedly has come a long way since that night in the same ring several years ago when he decided to tender his resignation in the eighth or ninth round because that awful rough fellow, Martin Burke, was dusting him on the porch with his brutal finger tips.

Paulino's ability is that, even though he scored a knockdown in the first few minutes of play and obviously had his man thoroughly impressed, he needed the bell in the last round to make his the winner. Another round, maybe another punch, might have changed everything, except the writers' mind. Chumps they were, and chumps they remained.

Otto left the Basque a man who vigorously for a minute or so at the first round and then made the first of two mistakes. I think the other was that he ever went in there in the first place. Anyhow, he slipped a long left swing and then remained with his chin tilted up, instead of countering or covering. Paulino, just a swimmer, let a right go for the shift he found himself in and the punch propped upon Otto's delicate chin for a left hook. Upon which, he took the perpendicular for a count of eight.

Then he got up and rode rapidly away on his hidden car. He was still sickening at the end of the round. Some prefer walking tours in Europe, accompanied by popular novelists.

SANFORD GRID MEN PREPARE FOR ORLANDO

Fast Workout Marks Monday's Practice For Game Saturday

Tiger Team Is Good Contest Lohman One Of Most Important

By Everett School
Following their impressive 13-12 victory over the Deland Wildcats on last Friday and with a majority of the squad returning to the Orlando-Plant City in company with the coach on Saturday, where they studied the play of their next opponent, the Estabrook High football outfit went through a spirited workout yesterday afternoon.

Sanford High has fallen before the onslaught of the Orlando Tiger in every year for the past five years, and for the first time since 1923 they are ready to face the southern city squad with about as fine a team ever to be turned out of any high school the state of Sanford, Orlando has been the stumbling block for the last time, and with every man as well as the coach realizing that this is the big game of the year, the one game to fight for and prepare for as far as either, the coming week will find all the team co-operating with the motto as they have every time before, and Saturday's game will be probably the best played and most thrilling game of the year.

Orlando High comes here with an impressive record, though they have fallen before Hillsborough and Lakeland, ranking members of the Florida Big Ten. Bringing a number of open backs, led by Whiskey, star player, and a line aggressive line, they will give the locals the battle of their season.

Coach Davidson of Orlando has one of the finest squads he has ever had to select from, and a great number of men are available and ready for every position given the opportunity of coming into the line. Coach Davidson is confident that the team will be able to handle the Orlando squad.

on it is going to be "Dad's Day," a special effort being made to bring out every parent for this one game. Tickets will be distributed to every pupil in the school and they are to do their best to bring their parents, particularly their Dads. A section will be reserved for the parents and the boys are promising them all kinds of action in return for their attendance and interest. Interest in running high in school circles with the sole topic being just how badly we shall whip Orlando.

The Deland game, well played though it was, brought out one or two defects that prevent the team being the smooth functioning team it should be, and the coach is going to iron out every link during the week in preparation for the coming game, with the forward passing defense as the main topic of study. The backfield of Spencer, Peters, Taiterson and Stoinoff came through in grand style Friday, and until the return of Hester, foot ballback, no changes will be made, though there is a possibility that Hyatt, giant 325 pound man mountain, who was given a chance on the line in the Deland game, may start as fullback in place of Stoinoff.

Hyatt has had two years experience as a fullback on one of the larger military school teams, and since he possesses speed along with strength, and what seems to be real defensive ability, the coach may use him as a back. However, he may find a place on the line, though it seems to be in splendid shape just now. The idea of Symes and Maye at tackle seemed an enormous mistake, but placing Hyatt at tackle and shifting Yancy to tackle, Holmbeck going to the guard position as a running mate of Ball, the coach was well satisfied with their work, and plans to start Holmbeck at the guard position on Saturday.

The boy is fast and very aggressive, and with experience being about the only thing he needs it seems as though the line is adjustable to the coach, and he knows what a line should look like. Hyatt could be used to replace Holmbeck and will come in mighty handy no matter where he is placed.

The return of Hester to the backfield will give the coach his first man in back to compare him with the best worthy substitutes for every department of play. Hester being one of the best of his backfield prospects and one of the best general players on the squad, he works in any sort of combination, and the coach will give him the chance to show his ability. Hester will be Peters, who usually is an end, and these three prospects in the backfield.

The power again seemed to be concentrated in some way in Sanford, and it is thought that the team will be able to handle the Orlando squad.

COUNTY GIVES HOOVER LARGE LEAD OVER ALL

The rural precincts were more inclined to favor other Republican candidates than was Sanford, Alameda Springs appears to have voted the straight Republican ticket. The Republican business, Warburton, Mrs. Owen and Howey all received majorities there. Forest City also swung toward Republican state candidates for senator, congressman and governor. Osceola went Republican for congressman and for governor.

Polk, so far as state offices were concerned, went Republican only for Lawson, Republican congressional candidate. Lake Mary gave Hoover a slight lead over Carlton in the governor's race. This normally Democratic County could muster a total lead of only 800 for Carlton over Hoover. Carlton received 1,902 and Hoover polled 1,041. Trammel and Mrs. Owen had larger leads. The former had 1,266 against Warburton's 709. Mrs. Owen polled 1,000 against Lawson's 757.

W. V. Knott, one of the three candidates for state treasurer, polled a larger vote than his two opponents combined. He received 1,130, while H. Hudson Burr received 609 and F. A. Stroup, 430. More than 2,000 voters cast their ballots in what was the greatest outpouring of citizens this county has ever seen at a general or any other election.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 7.—(INS)—On the basis of indicative returns, South Carolina today announced the claim of being Democracy's banner state. Returning a traditional Democratic majority, the state gave Smith 53,428, Hoover 6,148, according to compilation from 712 of the 1,183 precincts. South Carolina's vote this year will pass all former ones, and the Democratic majority will be increased correspondingly, it was indicated.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Georgia today has draped itself Republican shroud of disaffection within its borders and gone behind the standard of Gov. Al Smith.

Last returns gave Smith 119,374, Hoover 66,926, from 1,400 precincts out of 7,745. The remaining 625 precincts, which have as yet not reported, are mostly in scattered rural districts and will not materially change the total figures.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 7.—(INS)—With only a comparatively few voting districts missing, Hoover had carried President Coolidge 20,000 or more. Hoover ran ahead of Smith two to one. The vote was Hoover 79,350, Smith 39,000.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Governor "Al" Smith won Massachusetts by a comfortable 20,000 vote. Hoover's complete returns today revealed.

21-Acreage for Sale 23 acres land suitable for poultry farm, grove or berry, located four miles South of Sanford on the Orlando Road. Partly cleared, both high and low land. Can be bought at a sacrifice. Price $75 per acre. For further information see or address R. J. Kelly, First National Bank Building, Sanford Fla.

Good agricultural land in the trucking and citrus section here is always in demand, and when offered at attractive prices finds ready sale. An opportunity is offered investors with from $20000 upwards, to join a syndicate now forming to take over a large tract within a few minutes drive of Sanford, equal in all respects to any in this famous district where farmers grow rich on ten acres. By reason of an unusual combination of circumstances, covered by contract held by the advertiser, this land can be secured at a price that would have been considered very low long before the boom, and at a small fraction of what it will sell for when set up into small farms. Investors who may want to engage in farming can arrange for abstracts for their individual use and to have their name placed on the syndicate. There is absolutely no risk involved in the syndicate and enormous profits are being realized. For full particulars, address P. O. Box 2124, Sanford, Fla.

COPS FOR CYCLISTS After remaining in the Jerusalem Chamber of Westminster Abbey for 50 years, the terrible traffic which had been placed there for the use of the reviewers of the Bible, has been removed by the authorities. The work of the reviewers was completed in 1881, but the table with its end balance remained until the order was given recently.
