Bramlett, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lou McHugh, in June, 1919, returned a verdict of guilty, with recommendations to the mercy of the court. This sentence automatically calls for a sentence of life imprisonment. Notice of a motion for a new trial was given by counsel for the defense. SERIOUS FIRE AT MAITLAND SUNDAY P. M.

SEVERAL STORES WERE BURNED TO THE GROUND—HEAVY LOSS

Maitland was visited by a disastrous fire yesterday shortly after noon when one of the frame store buildings across from the postoffice caught fire and before the flames could be extinguished several other store buildings were consumed. The Sanford Fire Department was called out as well as Orlando—but Sanford stopped before getting there when it was learned that the chemical engine would be useless. As there was no fire department at Maitland nothing could be done to stay the flames and several store buildings burned before the fire could be stopped and the loss will run into the thousands of dollars and on account of the high price of building materials the loss will be very serious to the owners as the stocks of goods were also ruined. It could not be learned today who were the owners of the stores or the exact loss but the sympathy of everyone goes out to the unfortunate ones who cannot have all their losses covered by insurance in these days of exorbitant prices.

WILL PUSH PLAN FOR A PRIMARY FOR PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Senator Johnson, Republican of California, issued a statement yesterday forecasting his intention to push forward his project for a federal presidential primary law, but recognizing opposition to be met in the effort.

"Progressivism has not passed; certain progressives have," Sen. Johnson said. "The limelight progressives who were more interested in office than in policies have wanted their horrible past forgotten, and have endeavored to atone by out-regulating regularly. But progressivism is yet enshrined in the hearts of millions.

"Reaction is on today. We will resist the assault all along the line up to the direct primary. If this succeeds, there is little that exploiting privilege has to fear from public officials. The bitter, concerted, movement against labor is the accompaniment of the endeavor to take from all voters the right of nominating their public servants. To prevent the elimination of the direct primary, and the destruction or modification of that which has added to the common welfare is work ahead for progressives, and this work will be done by the rank and file without, and if necessary, in spite of, progressivism's former leaders."

THE DIFFERENT GOVERNMENT AGENCIES FAILED TO CO-OPERATE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The present system of rehabilitating disabled veterans of the war is denounced by the American Legion as a "failure" which should be remedied by consolidating under a single head the three government agencies now engaged in that work. This charge and the remedial suggestion will be presented by the legion tomorrow to President Wilson, President-elect Harding and to every member of both houses of congress in a memorial directing attention to the "suffering, shameful neglect and injustice" which the legion asserts marks the administration of the affairs of the war veterans.

Col. F. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the legion, will personally deliver a copy of the memorial to Senator Harding at Marion where Colonel Galbraith has an appointment to discuss with the president-elect the legion's program for the disabled men.

MATTICE, Jan. 10.—No tidings today of the progress of three American naval balloonists en route from Moose Factory. Continued absence of information did not alarm trappers. MACHINE GUN COMPANY
SENT TO STOP FIGHT BETWEEN TWO FACTIONS

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Jan. 10.—A detachment of the Pine Bluff machine gun company has been sent to the scene of a reported outbreak resulting from a feud among white residents at Kingland, Ark., thirty-two miles southwest of here. In a street fight two men were said to have been seriously wounded.

According to telephone reports, leaders of the opposing factions met on a street of the little town this morning and engaged in a fight in which two persons were seriously injured.

The trouble is reported to have started over the arrest of two youths accused of setting fire to a residence. Members of both factions were patrolling the streets early tonight, according to dispatches.

The appeal for troops came from Acting Mayor T. E. Mosley. The soldiers were sent from Pine Bluff in motor lorries.

EXTENSIVE INVESTIGATION IN LUMBER MANUFACTURERS IN ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY

FLEETWOOD'S PLACE ROBBED SATURDAY NIGHT

GAINED ENTRANCE THROUGH TRANSOM AND WORKED IN SAME OLD WAY

Second-story men in the city presumably hangers-on with the shows that have been here for the past week made their second or third haul Saturday night by breaking into the Fleetwood store on First street and even more public than the Cates robbery several nights before. The second-story men have given up residences for the better picking afforded by the stores and they gain their entrance through the transoms in the stores on First street. This is easy enough for they can keep an eye on the night policemen as they walk their beat and with the aid of a confederate working together any store in any city can be easily worked nine times out of ten successfully.

At Fleetwood's Saturday night the burglars made off with something over $25 in cash from the cash drawer and two pistols valued at $66. Nothing else was touched and these burglars seemed to want the cash or something that could be easily converted into cash.

The only private residence touched was the home of Irving Estridge on the Heights where it was thought a man had gained entrance into the house and his flashlight was seen and after a search by Mr. Estridge and the officers who were summoned the house was found to be clear of the intruder's presence and as nothing was disturbed it is thought he was scared away before he could get anything.

These are the only two reported for Saturday night and as the shows have all gone it will be easier to take up the suspicious characters found lurking on the streets and as they can not claim to belong to any shows they should be taken and examined as to what business they have here. There are some of them left here now.

They show a total popular vote of 26,759,708 for the candidate of seven parties as compared with a total popular vote of 18,515,340 for the candidates of five parties in 1916. MEMBERSHIP OF HOUSE WILL BE FIXED AT 483

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT WOULD LIMIT HOUSE IN FUTURE TO 500

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The house census committee agreed yesterday to report to congress the Siegel bill fixing the house membership at 483 members. It also recommended a constitutional amendment limiting the membership of future house to 500.

The basis for representation was fixed at one member for every 218,979 inhabitants. Under this bill the states would gain as follows: Alabama, 1; Arkansas, 1; California, 5; Connecticut, 1; Georgia, 1; Illinois, 3; Maryland, 1; Massachusetts, 2; Michigan, 4; Minnesota, 1; New Jersey, 2; New Mexico, 4; North Carolina, 4; Ohio, 2; Oklahoma, 1; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 4; South Carolina, 1; Tennessee, 1; Texas, 3; Virginia, 1; Washington, 1; West Virginia, 1, and Wisconsin, 1.

No state would lose any representation.

The states would have representation as follows:

Alabama, 11; Arizona, 1; Arkansas, 8; California, 16; Colorado, 4; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 1; Florida, 4; Georgia, 13; Idaho, 2; Illinois, 30; Indiana, 13; Iowa, 11; Kansas, 8; Kentucky, 11; Louisiana, 8; Maine, 4; Maryland, 7; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 17; Minnesota, 11; Mississippi, 8; Missouri, 16; Montana, 2; Nebraska, 6; Nevada, 1; New Hampshire, 2; New Jersey, 14; New Mexico, 2; New York, 47; North Carolina, 12; North Dakota, 3; Ohio, 26; Oklahoma, 9; Oregon, 4; Pennsylvania, 40; Rhode Island, 3; South Carolina, 8; South Dakota, 3; Tennessee, 11; Texas, 21; Utah, 2; Vermont, 2; Virginia, 11; Washington, 6; West Virginia, 7; Wisconsin, 12; Wyoming, 1.

The bill provides that in case of any increase in the number of representatives in any state such additional representatives shall be elected at large until the state legislatures pass redistricting laws.

Senator Penrose, chairman of the senate finance committee, announced that he would support the house emergency tariff bill, although he hoped for certain modifications of rates.

The senator's announcement was made at the conclusion of the first open hearings on the measure by his committee. In an informal statement he said he desired to correct a misunderstanding which he said seemed to have gotten abroad concerning the status of the so-called "emergency tariff." He denied that there was any difference of opinion among members on this measure.

The senator said there was an unmet East with its manufacturing-warranted impression of rivalry being industries, and the agricultural South and West as regards the emergency bill. Eastern sections were in favor of adequate protection for the farming interests as for any other industry, he said.

REVENUE OFFICERS UNDER VOLSTEAD ACT UP AGAINST IT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Revenue officers under the Volstead act, are up against the toughest proposition any men were ever up against, according to Paul F. Myers, assistant commissioner of internal revenue, whose testimony before the house appropriation committee was made public yesterday.

Discussing the need of a big force and plenty of money with which to go after bootleggers, Mr. Myers declared it was a "tough proposition," because they were dealing with the worst element of crooks in the country. It was said in hearings that the bureau would need about $7,000,000 for the next fiscal year for prohibition enforcement. Members insisted that with the deficiency to be taken care of later the amount would exceed $9,000,000. Commissioner Williams explained that the bureau was having difficulty in finding the right type of men to go after the violators at the rate of pay offered and that they were open to all sorts of temptation, particularly as to bribes.

"Some of them have fallen, and that was to be expected," he said. "When a man feels the pinch of hunger, he is apt to go wrong."

Based on the figures of Sept. 30, Williams said there were 438,000,000 gallons of liquor of all sorts in government warehouses and that it was being withdrawn at the rate of 4,000,000 gallons a month.

The commissioner declined to venture an opinion as to how long it would be before the country was actually "bone dry."

EX-FLORIDIAN TO SPEAK IN SANFORD

COLONEL DAN MORGAN SMITH, REARED IN FLORIDA, PARTICIPANT IN EUROPEAN BATTLES, PRACTICED LAW IN SAVANNAH, GEORGIA.

Colonel Dan Morgan Smith, who is to lecture in Sanford is a Virginian by birth, practiced law in Georgia, left the South for Chicago where he became the assistant attorney under James Hamilton Lewis, leader of the "Battalion of Death," First Battalion 358, Infantry Ninetieth Division, A. E. F., during the late war will speak at the First Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock January 12.

He will tell of his experience in the war, especially of the famous St. Mihiel drive where his battalion, surrounded by three German regiments, fought its way through and was given the name of the "Battalion of Death." Colonel Smith possesses most unusual talents as a descriptive speaker, a past grand master of eloquence. Scintillating with wit and interspersed with graphic pictures of such pathos and horror as to bring tears to the eyes, finally dramatic, with a commanding personality, plus a delivery that few platform speakers are possessed of, he will tell a story of such heroism on the part of the boys who lie beneath the white crosses in No Man's Land, and those who lived to return, as those who stayed at home have not been able to imagine. His address will be shot through and through with the spirit of true Americanism. Colonel Smith's tour is under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League of Florida.

The admission will be free.

WOMAN'S CLUB

SOCIAL DEPARTMENT NOTICE

The attention of the members of the social department is called to the meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the Woman's Club, at which time a collection will be taken for the benefit of the European Relief fund. There is no assessment, or is anyone under an obligation to contribute, this being absolutely a free-will offering to the cause, one of the strongest appeals ever made to humanity, the preservation of the lives of starving children.

The foregoing notice applies to all departments of the Club, the collections to be taken to the Literature Music Department on Wednesday afternoon, and at the Welfare department meeting the Wednesday following.

The appeal came directly to the Woman's Club from the Jacksonville headquarters of the European Relief Council, and at the business meeting on Wednesday afternoon, it was agreed that no specified sum should be requested but that each member give through her department as her liberality suggests.

Co-operating with the farmer and dairyman" was the subject of a very practical and helpful talk and suggestions made by Mrs. C. M. Berry at the Woman's Club at its regular meeting, was unintentionally omitted from the club report and is given in brief below. Discussing the question of milk bottles, Mrs. Berry stated, "that the failure of housewives to see that the empty bottles are promptly returned, is one of the biggest factors in the high milk prices which prevail and she urged the co-operation of the club women with the dairymen which would work to the good of the dairymen and the consumer also. The failure to return bottles entails a hardship upon the dairymen by necessitating the frequent purchase of them and naturally the consumer must pay for their negligence by the high prices. Another phase of this situation brought to the attention of this member by Mrs. Berry was the fact that many housewives buy milk from two dairies and frequently one dairy profits by the return of bottles to the exclusion of the other.

Neither is this intentional on the part of the housewives but merely an oversight, which if rectified will be beneficial to both parties. Let us then begin a "return the bottles crusade and drive another nail in the casket of old H. C. L."

Touching upon the farmer situation Mrs. Berry said that the farmers are trying to bring the prices of farm labor back to normalcy by a reasonable reduction, the result being that former high paid labor is leaving the farm. To meet the situation, the negro women are going from house to house seeking employment and asking exorbitant wages which in many instances is being paid. Is this fair to the men who are trying to bring down the cost of labor commensurate with the prices paid for farm products at the present time or to the other people in moderate circumstances whose salaries do not advance but who have to meet the high prices all along the line? Again, let us co-operate with the farmer by paying a moderate, fair-price for house servants in proportion to our incomes.—Club Press Reporter.

HISTORIC HOUSE IN MARKET

Shakespeare Hotel at Stratford-on-Avon Recently Put Up at Auction in London.

On Thanksgiving day there was offered at auction in London the Shakespeare hotel at Stratford-on-Avon, a beautiful specimen of Fourteenth century architecture, which for years has been the main resort of Americans and other tourists to Stratford-on-Avon.

The history of Stratford-on-Avon may be traced back for a period of 1,000 years, and as the birthplace of the great poet it has become a classic center visited annually by some 60,000 people. The Guard house, where Shakespeare was born; Shottery, where he courted Anne Hathaway; Charlotte Park, once the seat of Sir Thomas Lucy, whose displeasure Shakespeare incurred by stealing his deer; the Shakespeare Memorial theater, on the banks of the Avon, and Shakespeare's monument, are all places worthy of visiting in the old market town of Stratford-on-Avon.

The Shakespeare hotel, situated in the center of the town and close to the Shakespeare Memorial Theater, was erected in the Fourteenth century, and has been in the hands of the late Mr. Justice's family since 1870. A few doors from the Shakespeare hotel is the Harvard house, which was the early home of the Harvard family, founders of Harvard university.

MUST PAY TRIBUTE TO ART

Not in Admiration, But in Current Coin, is the Edict of the French Authorities.

After all these years of luxurious idleness the Venus de Milo must become a wage earner. The authorities of France have so decreed. And not only Venus, but Mona Lisa and all the other celebrities gathered in the Louvre, and in the Luxembourg and other galleries as well. For the fiat has gone forth recently that hereafter those who have been accustomed to visit the museums of Paris day after day, finding their treasures free as air, must pay an admission fee. If you want to go to admire Venus in her crimson velvet seclusion you must pay for the privilege. To be sure, she is worth any price, you must admit. And when you go into the Salon Carré of the Louvre and stop to meditate about what the enigmatical Mona Lisa is meditating, you must pay for that, too. Not a separate admission for each department. No, they are all banded together in one big union, as it were, all those priceless treasures of each museum, and hereafter they will earn their keep.

The steamer Tuscan Star, from Hankow, China, bound for New York, passed through the Panama Canal a few days ago with 6,200 tons of frozen eggs, or more than 11,000,000 dozen. Europeans are promoting the egg industry in China, where labor is cheap and sending the product to high-priced markets.

President in Name Only. M. Millerand's election as President of France brings to the fore a long discussed proposal to amend the constitution of that country so as to make the President an important force in the government instead of restricting him, as at present, to the merely decorative functions of a titular ruler.

M. Millerand has long advocated such a change, and has been elected on that platform, remarks the Living Age. The Socialists and radicals profess to be alarmed by this new development, alleging that it represents a reactionary drift toward a monarchy. Some color may have been given to this claim by the fact that the ultra conservative and royalist press of France has been most enthusiastic for the change.

It will be recalled that the President of France is not elected directly by the whole people, but by the 500 members of parliament. He does not, therefore, represent the immediate will of the nation in the same way as the American President. Presumably an enlargement of the powers of the President will carry with it a change in the method by which he is chosen.

When Venus de Milo submitted to disarmament she had no idea the world would make such a fuss over following her example.—Los Angeles Express.

IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAY

Mrs. A. J. Kelly entertained at a children's party Friday at 3 o'clock at her home on West Hughey Street in honor of her daughter, little Miss Nannie Brown Kelly, the occasion being the celebration of the little girl's sixth birthday anniversary.

The decorations consisted of roses, pansies, ferns and other cut flowers, the favors were in a Jack Horner pie and delighted the children very much.

The afternoon was spent in playing games out of doors. At 5 o'clock the tots were invited into the dining room, where ice cream, cakes and candies were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. John D. Abrahams. The dining table was centered with a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

Among the children present were Alice DeCoursey, Mary Lillian Mahoney, Elizabeth Harkey, Grace Evans, Daisy Appleby, Marion Smith, Nannie Brown Kelly, A. J. Kelly, Earl Evans and others.

NEW MEDICAL USE FOR FLORIDA GRAPEFRUIT

An indication of the growing regard of the medical fraternity for grapefruit is found in a recent issue of the Therapeutic Digest, a medical journal.

In speaking of the value of citric acid in the treatment of arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) the editor of a department in that journal recommends it highly, further stating, "grapefruit is also an excellent article of diet connection with the medical treatment."

IN RE SIDEWALK AND PAVING LIENS

Since it is evident that the matter of the payment of sidewalk and paving liens to the City of Sanford, for sidewalks and pavements laid, and for which the city has paid, is not fully understood by all, I will state very briefly, (and without going into a legal discussion of the question, as to which the courts will possibly have to decide, and until they do it is a mere matter of opinion as to what the legal status of these old sidewalk and paving liens is), what the attitude of the city government is as to these debts due the city for improvements of the property of citizens.

These sidewalk and paving liens are debts due to the City from citizens whose properties were improved and enhanced in value by the laying of sidewalks and pavements in front of or along said properties. There is, and can be, no dispute as to the fact that the sidewalk and paving liens are honest debts due to the city. And to the credit of our city be it said that a large number of our citizens have recognized the moral obligation resting upon them as good citizens, and have recently paid to the city their debts for sidewalk and paving liens.

The honor roll of those who have recently paid, or arranged in a satisfactory manner to pay their debts to the city without compulsion, is as follows: B. F. Whitner, B. Drew, W. J. Thigpen, T. E. Wilson, F. J. Mahoney, C. O. Mahoney, J. H. Ragsdale estate, Mrs. L. R. Jones, R. B. Smith estate, Mrs. V. M. Gardner, Mrs. M. E. Field, L. P. Hagan, A. D. Zachery and W. R. Gardner.

A list of those who have, so far, refused or failed to pay, is as follows: C. H. Leffler, R. P. Dellagall, W. W. Abernathy, Forest Lake, J. J. Cowan, Catherine, Davis estate, Dr. Persons—and those claiming under him, Sanford Traction Co., W. H. Jefferson, P. J. Parramore estate, Wm. Stewart estate, George Randall, J. E. Lynch estate, R. C. Maxwell, J. B. Muller, Kate Humphries, W. T. Fields, O. W. King, B. W. Herndon, Eva Herndon, E. H. Herndon, J. W. Fitzgerald, Grammar School, J. T. Lee, R. E. Miller, Primary School, B. A. Howard, M. Leavett, R. R. Hann estate, S. Runge, M. F. Robinson, Primitive Baptist Church, H. R. Harris estate, J. J. Johnson and George Watson.

SHOE REPAIR SHOP TO OPEN

Antonio Iannuzzi of New York City and more familiarly known among his customers up there as "Tony," has arrived in the city and will open a first-class shoe repairing shop in the rear of Lloyd's Shoe Store in the First National Bank building recently vacated by the V. C. Store. Tony is a maker of shoes as well as a repairer and knows the game all the way through. He had a good shoe business in New York when the war broke out and he served all through it going with one of the New York companies. After the war like many others he decided to take up life in some new place and so he picked on Florida. Learning of Sanford through friends he decided to locate here with the Lloyd's Shoe Store and will start business as soon as his machinery arrives. He will make further announcements through the Herald.

FLORIDA'S GOOD ROADS EXAMPLES FOR COUNTRY

RICHARD H. EDMONDS, EDITOR
MANUFACTURERS RECORD,
TELLS OF STATE'S ASSETS

"Good roads, Tin Can Tourists, Florida's climate and Florida as a winter business home for the northern business man, were the main topics in an interview last night at the Tampa Bay hotel, with Richard H. Edmonds, well known editor of the Manufacturers Record, who, accompanied by Mrs. Edmonds, and her niece, Mrs. J. B. Jones, and daughter, Miss Mary A. Davenport, have been spending the past several days at the Tampa Bay. Mr. Edmonds has a winter home at Daytona and the party motored down from the coast to enjoy the sight of the Cigar City. They will return to Daytona tomorrow.

The greatest thing the state of Florida has done for advancement and towards creating the great tourist trade it has, said Mr. Edmonds, is the building of its good roads. For its size, proportion of and population, it surpasses any state in the union in this matter and has set an example for the other states. Continuing in this vein he thought Mr. Edmonds mentioned that he had just returned from a motor trip to and an inspection of the Tin Can tourist camp-site at DeSoto Park. The way the people in that camp are enjoying camp life in the winter time, and all seemingly thoroughly happy and contented, marks a most interesting phase of American life, was his opinion. There are practically all types of people in the camp, wealthy, well off, and those able to afford the trip South. It is an entirely new phase of tourist life and one that will have material influence upon the development of the state. The fact that these people can come to Florida and live outdoors during the winter and the sort of life they can enjoy is giving the state a great boost. This personal popularity and the personal talking of these people throughout the sections of the union from which they came, when they return to their homes in the spring, is one of the most powerful advertisements that the state can receive. Mr. Edmonds stated he walked through the camp and was thoroughly amazed at its cleanliness and with the spirit of friendship and contentedness the inhabitants showed.

In mentioning his motor trip, Mr. Edmonds paid Florida's climate great tribute, stating that it is one of the greatest assets of any state in the Union. He mentioned the spring-like weather of yesterday and compared it with the weather the businessmen of the further northern cities had to contend with. "This kind of climate makes a man live longer and enables him to work harder." Here he mentioned the fact that several years ago he came to Florida somewhat in bad health as a result of his work. He became better after some time in the state and established an office at Daytona. He said:

"I keep in touch with the national affairs of the country and direct my business from Florida by wire to my office in Baltimore. In this way I can do more work and yet escape the petty routine of the office and I am not worried by numerous telephone calls. I believe the fact that this can be done and without injury to one's business is going to be one of the biggest features in the future for the state. More business men are going to realize the value of spending their winters here and more are going to establish offices in Florida during the winter months. Already one of my friends has adopted the idea and keeps in touch with his interests in the North direct from his winter home at DeLand."

Touching upon present business conditions throughout the country, Mr. Edmonds was of the opinion that Florida is better off than any state in the Union. Products of the state are in demand and the prices have been good. Also, there has been much building activity throughout Florida, while in other states this activity has been almost at a standstill. This building activity will carry the state over the present business depression which is being experienced elsewhere, said the well-known editor.—Tampa Tribune.

A 30-pound tuna was among the catch of a fishing party that chartered the yacht Tanguingui, Walter Stark, master, for the week-end, the party returning to Miami Tuesday. The Tanguingui cruised as far south as Long Key, and big catches were enjoyed by those on board, who included Mr. and Mrs. Barnfield and Mr. and Mrs. Garretson.

PLAN FOR ASSISTING DISABLED SOLDIERS HAS BEEN A FAILURE

that the function of the three agencies which now deal with the soldiers who require their country's care, the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, the Federal Board for Vocational Education and the United States Public Health Service, "must be co-ordinated, their machinery decentralized and all three placed under the common control."

"To do this," the memorial says, "there must be a new law which shall place the unified organization under a single administrative head." For this new organization, the legion asks an appropriation sufficient to buy, equip and enlarge hospitals, sufficient to provide facilities for all the men now under hospital treatment. Bills providing for this have been introduced in both houses of congress at the bequest of the legion.

It is announced that the legion has sent copies of the memorial to 3000 legion speakers in all states who have volunteered to endeavor to focus the attention of the nation on the situation of the disabled men.

The memorial asserts that the United States has been more liberal than any other nation in its provisions for the disabled soldiers, but that it has failed in a large measure to make these provisions available. This is attributed to "an astonishing state of divided responsibility and wasted effort among the government agencies with which the problem rests."

"In the rehabilitation of a disabled man there are three needs—medical treatment, vocational training and financial support," the memorial proceeds. "The government has recognized the three needs but overlooks the fact that they are the simultaneous needs of one man, not of three different men or of one man at three different times." It makes three problems out of what really is one three-part problem.

"Continuing this faulty conception, it has given the problem over to three agencies: The Public Health Service for treatment, the Federal Board of Vocational Education for training and Bureau of War Risk Insurance for financial support. Each of these agencies is an institution complete in itself. Each of these agencies is an institution complete in itself. Each is administratively independent of the other two. All yb force of circumstances are exercising functions they were not intended to exercise. This presents an amazing spectacle of administrative chaos, duplication, wasted energy and conflict which is the key to the present condition."

"The result is the suffering of the disabled veteran. Thousands are waiting and have waited for months for compensation for their injuries. Thousands have waited for months for an opportunity to re-establish themselves as self-sustaining members of society by vocational training. Thousands are in need of hospitalization and the government has no hospital facilities available for them. Sixteen thousand beds are needed now. Hundreds of veterans are the objects of public and private charity. Afflicted and penniless veterans have been driven to refuge in almshouses and jails. Many have died and if immediate relief is not forthcoming more will die, destitute, without proper medical care, without compensation with which to obtain it, abandoned by the country they served. All this is attributed directly to the manner in which the government has administered the affairs of the disabled. Immediate relief and ultimate remedy of the condition is possible and imperative."

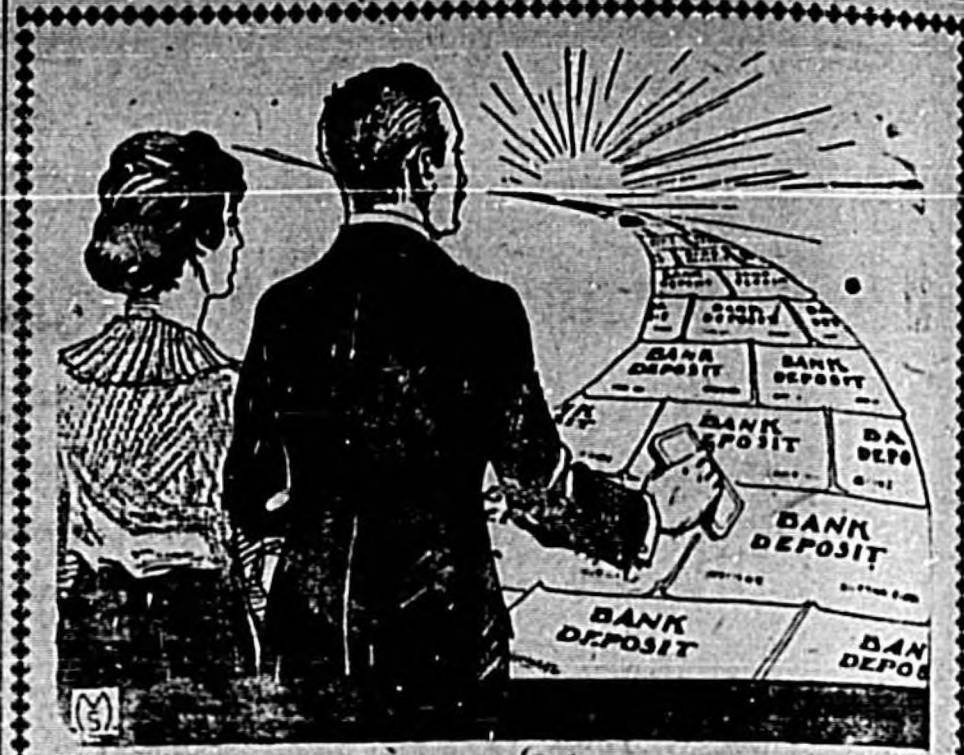

Taking up the three government agencies dealing with the disabled men, the legion memorial asserts that the Bureau of War Risk Insurance had never accomplished its vital object of making just and prompt awards of compensation. It pointed out that the burden of proof was on the disabled man who was thus placed in the position of a man injured in industry who must sue the company and that when he attempted this the only aid he could obtain was from either the Red Cross, the legion, or some private agency.

Everything is celery in Sanford.

Great improvements are contemplated. Get in the game.

There will be more real estate change hands this month and next month than anyone can realize today.

Outside capital is being attracted to Sanford. This city is now known as the "City Substantial." Sounds mighty good, too.

It is strange that in calling those "master minds" to Marion, President-elect Harding has never called us. We know exactly what he should do on all questions of state and if we do not there are several here that do know and we could take their word for it.

It looks bad for our old friend, Rube Allyn. But at that they are only holding him on circumstantial evidence and he still has a chance to come clean. However, we will never believe that Rube murdered the man. If he killed him it was in a quarrel and a straight fight and the truth will undoubtedly come out in the trial.

Last week was amusement week and this week will be working week and we should all get down to that old life of advertising the city and our resources, building those houses that are badly needed, looking after the comfort of our guests, and going in for those things that will make Sanford a better city.

We have been asked the question of where, O, where is that little White Way, and we referred the matter to the Woman's Club and the Southern Utilities Co. We are for the White Way strong but have nothing to do with the installation of the same.

The office of the Sanford Herald was robbed this week and Editor Bob Holly is mad clear through because he has discovered that someone thought he was a "plute." Never mind, Friend Bob; your real friends have you correctly classified. Just ask Harry Brown, of the Lakeland Telegraph.—Times-Union.

All right, we ask you, Harry?

THE BEST PLACE

We still get many inquiries as to which is the best place in Florida in which to locate. There is no one best place except as it exists in the minds of the people and many men have many minds. That so many do consider that they live in the one best place and yet themselves live in a whole many different localities as is so.

We were once visiting a section of North Florida and our guide was very enthusiastic about the merits of the surrounding country. "You know," he said, "this is the best county in Florida," and when we laughingly told him "That's what they all say," he said with earnestness, "Well, this one IS the best."

The only way to find out which one is really the best spot for you is to come and find it. It's here and if you look long enough you can find just the spot that you will love and that you can tell with delight and of which you can say, "This is the very best there is."—Florida Grower.

DON'T BLOCK PROGRESS

It is rather surprising to read that the "Florida Sheriff's Association will make an effort to have the new law (abolishing fees) declared unconstitutional." The new law went into effect January 1st.

Almost every state that prides itself on its modern methods of running its business has abolished the fee system. The Federal government long ago abolished any fees for payment of duty performed or service rendered. Municipalities pay flat salaries, or are getting to that under modern municipal forms of government. Why the state should continue a practice and custom which was adopted at a time when population was sparse and business scarce, is beyond the comprehension of thinkers.

The sheriffs, the clerks of court, tax collectors and a few others have long enjoyed the highest emoluments of office to be found in the state. The sheriffs of the larger Florida counties, the tax collectors, the clerks of court, and some others, have been receiving for their administrative work recompense from the people far in excess of that paid by any state to its governor.

The legislature of Florida was wise in putting a limit on county officials on a salary basis. There is no reason why adequate salaries can not be provided in these cases; there is every reason why they should no longer be allowed emoluments in excess of the highest officials of the state.

The sheriff's association will lose out in its fight. The legislature of Florida has a clear right to regulate such things, and there is nowhere a constitutional provision that a sheriff, a tax collector, or any other official shall be paid the excessive sums some of them have been drawn under the old fashioned antiquated fee system.—Tampa Tribune.

AN EDITOR'S COMMONSENSE VIEW OF THE SITUATION

The prevailing low price of grapefruit and oranges causes some wise ones to stand on the street corners and prophesy that groves will be a drug on the market and the whole enterprise of citrus culture a failure. Allow us to suggest that such argument is illogical and foolish. Twenty banks failed in one state within a week, including a Federal bank. Ooes that prove that the banking business is a failure and bank stock a poor investment? Wheat is not bringing a price that will pay present cost of production—does that argue that the vast wheatfields of the country are not to be utilized? Corn is being burned for fuel in Kansas—does that mean that we are to have no more food for our hogs and cattle and that we are to be denied the corn-dodger for our dinner. The average merchant finds that his goods are forced to sell at a loss under the transitory change in economic conditions—does that mean that we are to have no more merchants? Raw hides that sold for forty cents a pound a year ago are now worth five cents—shall we quit skinning cattle and wearing shoes? No, the production must go right on and as soon as the buying public has gotten its bearings, we will see trade on a paying basis again.—Haines City Herald.

DIP THE STEMS IN BOILING WATER

The Tribune editorial on the poinsettia has called forth a number of replies and inquiries for more information. It was stated in that editorial that the poinsettia was not a "cut flower" because it withers so soon after being severed from its parent stem.

Several Tampa women have written or phoned that dipping the stems in boiling water will make them keep fresh for several days, but refuse to let their names be printed. The Tribune also has received a letter from Mrs. J. P. Hilburn, wife of Presiding Elder J. P. Hilburn of the Orlando district, Florida conference, which gives such explicit directions that we quote from it: She says: "On Christmas morning I cut some poinsettia blossoms and immediately poured boiling water on the cut end of the stems where the 'milk' was oozing out, and on places where I had cut off the leaves. I then put the flowers in vases of water, and not a single flower or leaf wilted. They were as fresh and gay on Friday of the next week as they were when brought into the house; except that some of the red petals had begun to drop, and the green leaves were curling a little. They looked so fresh and gay that I had to discard them even then. I had tried dipping the stems in hot paraffin but the flowers wilted in an hour or two. It seems that the hollow stem must be left unsealed, but the part from which the 'milk' runs must be closed."—Tampa Tribune.

CHILDREN ATTACKED BY EAGLE IN TAMPA

As little Evelyn Gick trudged along Nebraska avenue last evening about dusk with her young brother and little dog, a big bald eagle swooped out of the sky and attacked them. The scene of the unusual incident was near Cayuga avenue and D. G. Hooker of No. 816 Cayuga avenue, hearing the screams of the little girl rushed out of his home and learned the source of the trouble. He then secured a gun and, after several minutes search, located the eagle roosting on the limbs of a nearby tree. He shot the bird and upon measuring it, found it measured six feet from tip of wing to tip of wing.

Evelyn is said to be the daughter of a recent arrival in the city from the north, who lives in that neighborhood. She is about six years old, while her brother is several years younger. As far as could be learned last night she was not injured and Mr. Hooker stated that after he had thought of the incident was of the opinion the eagle was after the dog. He stated he had the eagle at his home and while it was a large bird, it was undoubtedly very young.

While there have been several eagles killed in this section, none, as far as could be learned last night, had ever attacked anyone. Some years ago a bald eagle was found in a tree north of the city and was shot down, but it had not attacked anyone. The incident is unusual and it is of the general opinion that the bird was after the dog rather than the little girl.—Tampa Tribune.

GASPERILLA CARNIVAL

TAMPA, Jan. 10.—The Gasperilla Carnival, most widely known of all features of the South Florida Fair, the date of which is February 3 to 12, is to be held on a more brilliant scale than ever before, the pre-war spirit having returned to cosmopolitan Tampa, thereby guaranteeing brilliant pageants and social events. Ye Mystic Krewe of Gasparilla arrives from Gasparilla Isle Monday, February 7, and the annual coronation ball of the piratical organization will be held the following evening.

Friday, February 4, has been designated as "Children's Day" of the fair period, and all children, whether Floridians or visitors, will be admitted to the grounds without charge. Other special days named so far are "Governor's Day," "Rotary Day," "Mexico Day," "Shriners' Day" and "Tampa Day."

Railroads and steamship lines will grant the usual low round trip rates, with special selling dates from all points in Florida. Preparations have been completed for housing and feeding unusual crowds.

President-elect Warren G. Harding, who will spend a part of the winter in Florida, has been invited to attend the fair, and as he is a personal friend of and has served in the Ohio senate with K. G. Brorein, president of the Fair Association, he is expected to accept the invitation.

M. E. Dossey, of Plant City, will return home one day this week greatly improved in health after taking several treatments of the Energizer. Upon his arrival here he could not step over the curb and his son now states that he has a hard time keeping up with him in walking and that he is stronger in every part of his body and is ready to take up his work again. Mr. Dossey was paralyzed in both legs some few months ago.

After quite a period of service it is demonstrated that the electric railway system operating between Miami and the beach, across the causeway, is a success in every detail. Patronage of the cars has already demonstrated the fact that they are supplying a need in this congested community, and the moonlight rides are pronounced delightful.

BIG READJUSTMENT SALE

In today's issue is a page advertisement calling attention to the big readjustment sale that D. L. Thrasher is putting on commencing tomorrow and lasting ten days. Everybody knows that when D. L. Thrasher advertises a sale it will be a sure-enough sale—therefore when you see the prices on shoes and everything in the Thrasher store you know that it is just as advertised and also that it is the best of everything, the very latest goods from the markets and the very liberal cash sale prices put on this line of goods will sell it quickly. Mr. Thrasher is going north to purchase his spring stock in a few weeks and he wishes to make many changes in his store upon his return and therefore it is economy to move his present stock at these very low prices and make room for the new goods and the new fixtures that he will install in a few weeks. Read the advertisement, note the prices and be sure attend the Thrasher sale.

The replacing of the present 70-lb. rails on the line of the Florida East Coast Railway with 90-pound rails, an improvement that has been contemplated for some time by the operating department of the railroad, has commenced. A gang of men has started work at St. Augustine and will work toward Hastings, Elkton and East Palatka.

The Volusia County boy's Y. M. C. A. camp at Lake Winona was burned to the ground recently in a forest fire. Arrangements had been made for the biggest meet yet in the new camp and the news of the destruction of the camp came as a keen disappointment to the boys who were looking forward to spending a few days there.

THE TIN CAN TOURIST.

For many years the tin can tourists, so-called, were a standing joke in Florida, but the tune has changed. Now the cities are bidding for the campers and tin can tourists and are encouraging their coming in every way possible.

Daytona was among the first of the tin can tourist towns and St. Petersburg was a leader for years in this direction and now look at them. They are among the best of the tourist towns with a population of several times as large as when they began to encourage the tin can tourists.

There are a score or more of towns in the state that have been dubbed tin can tourist towns but all of them have grown apace and all are unanimous in their verdict that the tin can tourists can do more good advertising for a town than any other class. Why? Because they appreciate the small favors that are extended them and do not demand as much or expect as much as the wealthy tourists who complain about many things simply because they are paying a big price for everything.

A news dispatch from Gainesville states that the conservative university city has been chosen for the next annual convention of the tin can tourists and it is announced that the chamber of commerce is squarely behind the movement and that this will be made one of the most important affairs in Florida next winter. It will be unique in many ways and if the university city lays itself out in this entertainment it will receive as much advertising as Miami does for its Palm Fete, or Tampa does for its Gasparilla Carnival, or Palm Beach does for its Sun Dance.

Nearly a hundred cities and towns in Florida have established free auto camps for touring parties this winter, many of them providing electric lights and sewerage and other conveniences and while they may not receive as much from this class as they do from the hotel guests, they have come to a realization of the fact that the campers and the tin can tourists are indefatigable advertisers and they never tire of telling of the glories of Florida and the good times they had in this state and especially they tell of the places that treated them the best and showed them some special attention.

The tourist cities that are so widely advertised have attracted a great number of people who come, not to spend money but to make money in the places that have become so well known and have the reputation of having such crowds during the winter. The tin can tourists and the campers all spend some money and not many of them are here expecting to make money, so it is a stand off which are the most benefit to the state.
