Missouri Congressman, Family Killed In Crash

CHILLICOTHE, Mo. (AP) — Rep. Jerry Litton, his wife and two children and two other persons were killed when their small plane crashed as they headed toward a celebration of his victory in Missouri's Democratic senatorial primary.

Litton, 38, was killed outright, as was his wife, Sharon, 38; their two children, son Scott, 12, daughter Linda, 13; and pilot Paul Rupp Jr. and his son, Paul Rupp III. A few hours after the tragedy, Litton was declared winner of the election for a Democratic nominee to replace Sen. Stuart Symington, who is retiring.

FTC To Probe Auto Industry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government regulators are about to scrutinize the auto industry's economic structure in what may be the first skirmish in an antitrust battle against the U.S. auto giants, General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

The Federal Trade Commission announced Tuesday that it is proceeding with a full-scale probe that it staff called for last November. The agency said it will clear the action with the Justice Department.

Swine Flu Plan Under Way

WASHINGTON (AP) — While medical scientists puzzle over the mysterious deaths in Pennsylvania, Congress is moving ahead with a previously stalled federal insurance plan that is expected to clear the way for the government's swine-flu vaccination program.

Viking Arm Jams Again

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A balky robot arm on the Viking 1 lander has jammed for the second time, warning scientists' efforts to make an organic analysis of the highly active Martian soil that could determine if it holds life.

Bus Kidnap Hearing Set

CHOWCHILLA, Calif. (AP) — Stringent security ringed this small farming community today for court appearances by three young men accused in the abduction of 25 school children and their bus driver.

Skies Clear In Many Areas

Reversing the normal pattern, skies were clear today over the eastern third of the country from the Mississippi River to the Atlantic coast, with cloudiness in the Rockies and the north and central Intermountain regions.

Govnor Views Flood Scene

LOVELAND, Colo. (AP) — The flood-ravaged Big Thompson Canyon "looks like a capricious god danced amok in the place," Gov. Richard Lamm said after seeing the area where nearly 100 persons died.

SHA Approves Salary Budget

Sanford Housing Authority (SHA) board members agreed in a work session Tuesday night to approve $170,100 in salaries for SHA employees for the fiscal year that began July 1 but to decide later on any raises that will be given.

Officials Review Sanford Budget

By JACQUELINE DOWD
Herald Staff Writer
Sanford city commissioners were scheduled to review the afternoon reviewing a proposed budget for the fiscal year which begins Oct. 1.

The $13 million budget includes an increase in water and sewer rates, which is expected to be formally approved by the commission Monday night and put into effect Sept. 1.

The commissioners have already begun a department by department review of the budget proposals. Requests by heads of the city's departments have already been pared by City Manager Warren Knowles, but the commissioners are expected to make more adjustments after their review of the budget proposal is completed.

After one work session, the commissioners are roughly one-fourth of the way through the nearly 14-inch thick budget package.

Knowles proposed purchase of two new vehicles and 15 replacement vehicles, including four patrol cars and two unmarked cars for the police department, has been closely questioned by the commissioners.

Commissioner A. A. McClanahan opposes the purchase of any additional vehicles and figures the city can save close to $20,000 by eliminating a new pick-up truck for the parks department, a new flatbed for the utility department and a fire department request for a "power wagon" — a four-wheeled drive one-ton truck which carries a 300 gallon water tank.

The commissioners will have to do some cutting to balance the budget. Anticipated revenues total just over $3.6 million while proposed expenditures total nearly $3.6 million.

Oklahoman Jailed On Pot Charge

By BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer
A 25-year-old Colbert, Okla., man was in Seminole County Jail today in lieu of $5,000 bond following his arrest on a felony marijuana possession charge.

Sheriff's deputy B.L. Thompson reported he was on routine patrol about 2 a.m. when he spotted William F. Wite, 25, standing beside a parked auto in a wooded area at Baptist Lake, near Dean Road.

Thompson said a plastic bag of marijuana was within plain view on the auto's driver's seat.

Suspect Returned
Deputies Tuesday returned Wite to his home in Colbert, Okla., where he was arrested on a charge of marijuana possession.

Wite, 25, was arrested on a charge of marijuana possession. He was held in lieu of $5,000 bond on a warrant charging forgery and uttering a forgery.

Suspect Sought
Sanford police today reported they are still looking for a suspect, in connection with the weekend shooting of two men in a parking lot at Lake Monroe Terrace park.

Henry Williams and Early Spikes, of Sanford, were treated at a hospital for bullet wounds in the legs and later released, police said.

Auto Burglaries
Sheriff's deputies today said an auto burglar made off with 50 stereo tapes valued at $400 and power tools worth $75 after breaking a window to enter the car of Randall F. Pawler, of Orlando, at the Big Daddy's Garage parking lot, SH-436, Fern Park.

William C. Gates, of Altamonte Springs, told deputies that a citizens band radio and refrigerator, both valued at $481, were missing after someone broke into his truck at a work site at Forest City.

Sanford police today have a suspect in the slaying of a woman whose nude body was found in underbrush at 11th Street and Poplar Avenue on July 12.

Detective Capt. C.B. Fagan Jr., said the suspect isn't in custody and investigators, who have questioned dozens of persons in connection with the death of Christine M. Cincatti, 24, of 101 W. 16th St., would give no indication of when an arrest can be expected in the case.

L.L. Williams Lykens said reports on evidence being processed at the state's Sanford Crime Laboratory haven't been received. County medical examiner Dr. C.V. Gary said earlier he is awaiting results of lab tests in efforts to determine if the woman was sexually molested.

Officers said there were indications of a violent struggle in the heavily wooded area where a passerby found Ms. Cincatti's body.

Police found a pair of slacks and shoes near the body, which was clothed only in a white T-shirt type pullover sweater. The garment was pulled up around the victim's neck.

An autopsy showed Ms. Cincatti died as the result of a blow to the left side of her head, probably with a blunt instrument.

Department heads, after meetings with Knowles Saturday and again Monday night, voluntarily cut some items from their budgets.

At Tuesday's county commission meeting, committee members recommended Seminole County apply for federal funds to construct the $1.5 to $4-million facility on about 30 acres. The projected completion date for the new jail is June 1978.

County Commission Chairman Mike Hattaway questioned both the need for 30 acres and the location. Hattaway has some doubts about the Five Points site because, he said, it might better be used for an administration complex.

The size (30 acres) is for future expansion, if committee member Simpson told Hattaway.

Airliner Crash Lands; Crewmembers Uninjured

MIAMI (AP) — A National Airlines Boeing 727 carrying only seven crew members landed at Miami International Airport early today with one wheel stuck in the up position, officials said. There were no injuries.

National spokesman Mike Clark said all 45 passengers on flight 607, originating at Kennedy International Airport in New York, left the plane during an earlier stop in Fort Lauderdale, about 30 miles north of Miami.

"The crew realized there was trouble with the left landing gear during the trip to Miami and tried for 45 minutes to extend it," Clark said. "The plane landed on the right gear, and when it had slowed to nearly a stop, the left wing was laid on the ground."

There was no fire, and the crew left the plane via an emergency chute after the 1:15 a.m. EDT landing, he said.

Clark said the jetcraft sustained minor damage to its left wing and undercarriage.

MIAMI (AP) — "I thought I was going to drown. I thought I was going to be one of the fish," a 73-year-old angler said after he and a 63-year-old friend clung for more than an hour to an overturned boat.

Irving Sozin of Miami Beach and his fishing buddy, Emanuel Edinger of Sunrise, were rescued Tuesday when the pilot of a seaplane spotted them off Key Biscayne and radioed for help.

"The boat started taking in water," Sozin said. "And before we knew it the boat capsized."

Sozin said he and Edinger were unable to reach their life preservers and clung to the smooth fiberglass hull of the boat for 75 minutes hoping a boat would pass by to help them.

MIAMI (AP) — "As far as figuring out what made them come to shore in the first place, we're no further ahead," Dr. Daniel Odell said after examining three dead false killer whales found off Everglades National Park.

Odell headed a team which traveled Tuesday to Cape Sable, on the extreme southern tip of the Florida Peninsula, to examine carcasses found Monday by a park patrol plane.

"They were just so dead and so chewed up by sharks we really couldn't tell anything," said the University of Miami scientist. "We couldn't even tell the sex of them except for one female."

MIAMI (AP) — A judge has set a hearing for Thursday on whether to sentence Robert P. Carr III with or without the advice of a jury on his guilty pleas to three murders and four rapes.

The Florida Supreme Court cleared the way Tuesday for Dade County Circuit Judge Natalie Baskin to pass sentence without a jury.

Judge Baskin had asked the court whether Carr's plea and written waiver of a jury trial allowed sentence to be imposed without a jury recommendation.

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — After cleaning up criminal charges involving campaign contributions and gifts, Mayor Hans Tanzler of Jacksonville says he will reassess his ambition to run for governor in 1978.

"I'll have to evaluate the battle damage and see how scared I am," Tanzler said after a court hearing Tuesday.

Tanzler, 49, pleaded no contest to a misdemeanor charge of failure to report $7,035 in 1973 contributions or gifts linked to a wedding reception.

The two bargaining units have been at an impasse in negotiations for some time and had asked the Florida Public Employees Relations Commission for the names of possible settle masters (arbitrators) to settle the issues.

Association of County Government Employees (ACGE) and the Florida Public Employees Association (FPEA) were offered a $54 increase in base starting salary.

The latest offer to the drivers is based on a six-hour day and would up the starting salary from $12,733 to $13,977.

Florida Comptroller Says Operation Is Inefficient

Cabinet Balking At Plane Fee Proposals

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Cabinet members who use the state aircraft pool are balking at paying hefty fare increases to persons using the planes by as much as 24 percent, officials said.

But Lewis charged that the proposed hikes were way out of line and that costs could be cut by chopping staff 20 percent.

General Services figured that to make the operation self-supporting the cost per mile if one person flew would have to be hiked from 18 cents to 65 cents.

For two passengers, the proposed rate would be 32 cents, compared to the current 10 cents per mile.

"This seems to me to be the worst of all possible alternatives," Lewis said. "I don't think anyone has looked at the operation with the view of making it more efficient and cutting costs."

Lewis said personnel could be eliminated by having the pilots do some mechanical work and having the bureau chief do more flying.

Gov. Reubin Askew opposed the delay, saying the legislature cut out the subsidy and ordered that the operation be self-sufficient.

The governor said the new rates were the only way to reach that goal and that they were a compromise on the original Senate position which would have abolished the pool entirely.

The pool has been an object of controversy since it was created in 1971.

Before then, each Cabinet member had his own plane. But the legislature created the pool and cut the number of planes from seven to five.

In addition to Cabinet members, the pool is used by other top state executive officials.

Votes May Change School Calendar

Two proposed changes in the 1977-78 school calendar will come before the Seminole County School Board at tonight's 7:30 meeting at the county courthouse.

As a result of agreements reached between the school board's negotiating team and the Seminole Education Association (SEA) at the bargaining table, teachers will return to school Aug. 20 — one day later than originally scheduled.

In addition, a teacher workday — and student holiday — previously scheduled for April 1 has been shifted to April 29.

The school board's adoption of the original school calendar in April was immediately challenged by SEA. Odell headed a team which traveled Tuesday to Cape Sable, on the extreme southern tip of the Florida Peninsula, to examine carcasses found Monday by a park patrol plane.

Inflation Fever Needs Treatment

There was little or nothing in the acceptance speeches of Jimmy Carter and Fritz Mondale on the way the Democrats would fight inflation.

There is certain to be much more talk about inflation at the Republican convention. But the fact is that the staggering inflation of recent years has occurred under a Republican administration in the White House.

President Nixon held inflation in check temporarily by restricting wage increases in key industries to 5 1/2 per cent a year. But he soon dropped the wage controls.

The GOP was then left with its traditional anti-inflation policy — cut government spending (except defense spending) and hope high unemployment will eventually drive down prices and wages.

That policy didn't work and it won't work because prices and wages can now hold out against all but the most severe economic pressures and, in a severe recession, the American people won't tolerate a government that seems unconcerned about unemployment.

In fact, excessive wage demands play a major role in causing inflation. This has become clear in Britain, where the Labor government has made a pay policy the cornerstone of its counter-inflation program. The voluntary pay policy put forward by the Trades Union Congress and endorsed by the government is holding pay increases to about 4 1/2 per cent for the next year.

In theory, the free market should drive wages and prices down in times of high unemployment. But this doesn't work when labor unions control wages and corporations administer prices.

When real output of the economy declines, as it did in 1974, and when it grows slowly, as it is expected to do this year, real personal income must decline or grow slowly. Otherwise inflation is inevitable.

Only increased production and productivity can justify increased purchasing power. Our government must make that clear to the people or face the inflationary consequences.

Direct government involvement in wage and price decisions should be avoided if possible. But voluntary restraints must be urged by the government and mandatory controls should be imposed if necessary.

Pork Barrel

Congress wants veto authority over Pentagon decisions to close military bases. The obvious purpose is to make political use of Pentagon spending. It's the old pork barrel approach.

President Ford vetoed the fiscal 1977 military construction authorization bill because Congress lacked a provision requiring the Pentagon to provide Congress with a year's advance notice before closing or significantly cutting the work force at any major military base in the United States.

Recently the House of Representatives voted to override the veto but the override effort failed in the Senate. That's good.

The Democrats in their platform call for a reduction in defense spending by about $5 billion to $7 billion. "We must be tough-minded," the platform says. But when the Pentagon seeks to save defense dollars for more efficient use by closing down uneconomic military bases in this country, the Democratic majority in Congress seeks to override the decision and keep the bases open, simply for political reasons.

That's inconsistency.

BERRY'S WORLD

WASHINGTON — Like the moon, Haiti presents its bright side to the world. But it also has a dark, unseen side which it tries to hide from the world.

The government discourages newsmen from visiting the most bleak areas, where the peasants are starving while their rulers feast. Foreign reporters, who have ventured too far, have been banished out of the country on the next available plane.

One bold young Haitian reporter named Gasser Raymond dared to write a story criticizing the government. Two weeks later, his body was discovered in a roadside ditch.

We sent our roving reporter, Hal Berton, to the tiny, mountainous Caribbean nation to seek out the stories the government would like to suppress. Posing as an itinerant student, he traveled with a knapsack on his back into the forbidding area.

Berton began his investigation in Port-Au-Prince, the bright side of Haiti, where tourists loll in elegant hotels, drink cool glasses of tropical rum punch and dance after dark in sleek discotheques.

But if Haiti is a tropical paradise for the foreign tourists, it is a land of luxury for the ruling class. They are dominated by the amazing Duvalier family, who have amassed a pirate's fortune since the late "papa Doc" Duvalier seized power in 1956.

Should we firm up our China ties?

Today's Topic: "America and China" is argued by Doak Barnett, a senior fellow at the Brookings Institution, who was born in China. He is now at the University of Michigan's Center for China Studies. This article is adapted from the National Town Meeting which is held each Wednesday in Washington, D.C. where public figures debate and answer questions on important national issues. The town meetings are funded by a grant from Mobil Oil Corporation. Mobil has no control over the content.

DOAK BARNETT
Should formal diplomatic ties be established with Peking?

The next President, whoever he is, should move to complete the normalization of relations with China in 1977. This will require establishing formal diplomatic relations with Peking and making major adjustments in our present relations with Taiwan. If we do not, there could be a deterioration in even our present fragile relationship with China. Full normalization is a prerequisite for serious U.S.-China discussions of many key issues in East Asia — such as stabilizing the situation in Korea and Southeast Asia and involving China in nuclear arms control. Peking is not pressing us to normalize relations this year because they recognize the problems of doing so in an election year. Once the elections are over, they are not likely to show the same patience in relation to Taiwan as we must do to substitute non-official or quasi-official relations for our present diplomatic relations and devise an informal substitute for existing formal defense treaties. A substitute for a formal treaty should have several components. First, we should urge Peking to state (that) their intention of unification is a problem they hope to solve by peaceful means. Secondly, the U.S. should state unilaterally that we have a continuing interest in the security of the area. Thirdly, we should continue the sales to Taiwan of defensive, conventional arms that they need to maintain a reasonable defense establishment. This will not, in any sense, constitute an abandonment of Taiwan. But if we don't move soon to upgrade our ties with Peking and downgrade our ties with Taiwan, we could see new shifts in the big power balance in East Asia which would be a setback for our national interest.

ALAN WHITTING
Should formal diplomatic ties be established with Peking?

Americans say, "How can we normalize relations with Peking if there is so much uncertainty about the leadership and about Chairman Mao's health? Perhaps we should let the Chinese settle and wait." I submit that the sooner we begin negotiating normalization and complete it the better. There is no question that Mao Tse Tung is still the supreme authority in China. It was he who initiated and accelerated the initial detente with the United States. No successor will have the same political power to determine and decide decisions as the chairman. Secondly, there is no division between President Ford and the prominent Democratic candidate, the Chinese are clearly active in the foreign policy realm while they are arguing their domestic policies. I have been impressed over the last six months with the way in which first the Indians, then the Egyptians and, most recently, the Singapore government have found it possible to make important policy moves in Peking that required decisions in Peking that showed flexibility and compromise. If that is true for those countries, then I think other countries should attempt to deal with the Chinese on straight, businesslike terms. I do not think we need wait a year or two to settle. I think we can normalize relations with China now. Why was Nixon willing to Peking earlier this year?

When we all have sort of guess and grope in the dark. When we were in China last October with the U.S. World Affairs delegation, we had a strong sense that the Chinese were dissatisfied with the lack of progress in normalization and that we had an explanation for it. Well, the conventional American explanation given for this was that President Ford felt threatened by an attack from the Republican right and could not afford to take the chance of normalizing relations and bringing up the Taiwan issue. The Chinese could see from the normalization process would stifle the Republican right. We may have seen this as a move which would have freed the Ford Administration to move ahead.

Assess China's military strength.

When you ask what is the Chinese military force composition in raw numbers, obviously it's much larger than that of Taiwan and it does have nuclear weapons. But China's lack of amphibious capability is a fundamental fact of military life. The best estimates, and we know a good deal about the Chinese Communist force, grant them a capability of support of only a handful of troops across that strait, whereas on Taiwan there is an active fighting force of 3,400,000 tough Taiwanese troops who are certainly determined to defend themselves against an invasion from the mainland. Moreover, the mainland is not competing an enemy piece of territory but "liberating" Kith and Kinmen as the Chinese Communists put it. It's not going to destroy Taiwan in order to take it.

While in Jacksonville over the weekend, I had a chance to browse through the Sunday edition of the Times Union-Jacksonville Journal and one of the stories that caught my eye at the top of the local-state section dealt with the 55 mph per hour speed limit in Florida.

Oddly enough, the director of the Jacksonville Safety Council and leaders of the bus drivers' union and a truckers' association all said they advocate a return to the 70 mph speed limit on our state highways.

While admitting that the current 55 mph speed limits has drastically reduced traffic fatalities, all were in agreement that driving any distance at that rate of speed is just too taxing on the driver.

Safety Council Director Ben Collins said it all when he summed up the situation with "it's the 55 mph speed limit just too damned slow."

Freston Raulerson, president of the Jax Traffic Club, said the reduced speed limit was "silly" and said he doubts the notion that the lower speeds save driver's lives.

"To get out there and go 55 with nothing obstructing you is silly," he said.

And Amalgamated Transit Union Local 1258 President Peter Noriega said the 55 mph speed limit is "excessively slow."

Noriega's union is comprised chiefly of professional bus drivers, who he claims are hurt the worst by the lower speeds. Bus drivers are paid by the mile and the lower speeds force them to drive longer periods of time to cover the same mileage, he said.

He also said that they (the bus drivers) were actually given pay cuts. "Besides," he said, "most people aren't observing the 55 mph speed limits anyway."

We have to concur with all three gentlemen to a degree. Lower speeds in more restricted and crowded roads are necessary, but when you're tooling it down an interstate highway at 55 mph and you're going any distance at all, you're completely worn out by the time you arrive at your destination.

To, I've noticed a tendency to get much more travel weary on such trips when trying to stay within the speed limit.

All three persons interviewed in the story said they didn't feel the lower speed limit was being enforced anyway and it was pointed out that a recent survey of the American Automobile Association asked, "What is the biggest motoring issue?"

The reply was to "enforce the 55 mph speed limit or abolish it."

WORLD IN BRIEF

Italian Parliament To Vote On Government Program

ROME (AP) — Premier Giulio Andreotti takes his minority government's program to Parliament today amid indications that the Communist party will abstain on the vote of confidence and let the new cabinet survive.

The 37-year-old Christian Democratic premier kept most of his program secret. But he was expected to promise a vigorous crackdown on tax evasion and an overhaul of the vast government bureaucracy. The Communists urged both reforms.

The Communist party said it would announce its stand toward the new government during the course of the debate on its program. But "the Communists will not enter the debate with a spirit of delivering a punch to the Andreotti government," one party leader, Giorgio Amendola, said.

Most Communist commentators have been conciliatory since Andreotti formed his cabinet of Christian Democrats and nonpartisan experts last Thursday.

Evacuation Efforts Bog Down

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Efforts to evacuate more wounded from the Tal Zaatar camp and several other of the 16-month-old Lebanese civil war bogged down today.

An International Red Cross convoy to the besieged Palestinian refugee camp in Christian east Beirut was delayed leaving the Moslem sector. Security sources said Red Cross delegate Jean Hoeflinger and Arab League mediator Hassan Sabri Kholi were having trouble getting the Christians to leave the temporary camps which allowed the removal of 91 casualties from Tal Zaatar on Tuesday.

Hoeflinger said he planned a convoy of 15 to 20 vehicles today and hoped to evacuate at least 150 wounded. Swedish doctor in Tal Zaatar reported there were 4,000 wounded in the camp and said 1,400 had been killed since the siege began six weeks ago.

Publishing Mogul Dies

LONDON (AP) — Lord Thomson of Fleet, the Canadian-born chairman of the vast Thomson newspaper empire, died in a London hospital today at age 82, his office announced.

Thomson built a publishing empire that included about 10 newspapers, some 100 magazines and several radio and television stations in Britain, Ireland, the United States, Canada, Africa, Asia and the West Indies. The newspapers included the Times and the Sunday Times in London and the Scotsman in Edinburgh.

The value of his business operations has been estimated at a minimum $180 million, with $26 million as his personal fortune.

Three Killed In Riots

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Rioting raged across the black Soweto township today after six weeks of the black anti-apartheid struggle.

An estimated 20,000 blacks broke through a police barricade and tried to march on Johannesburg, eight miles to the north, but police said they fired over their heads and turned them back.

The marchers were protesting the detention of student leaders and voicing other grievances of South Africa's black majority.

College for only pennies a day

Nowadays, it takes a bundle of money to pay for a college education. No matter how you figure it.

But with United States Savings Bonds, you can count on having the money when you need it.

In fact, when you join the Payroll Savings Plan or the Bond-A-Month Plan, saving can work out to just pennies a day.

You see, a little is set aside to buy Bonds for you, Regularly, Automatically.

And before you know it, those pennies add up to a pretty nice education.

So buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

They make saving for college more than just an educated guess.

Series E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Two Killed, Two Wounded In Bloody Melee

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A groundskeeper for multimillionaire Thomas Cullen Davis stood under one of the massive oak trees surrounding the Davis mansion and shook his head.

"He was acting pretty normal. He got pretty mad when he couldn't find a veterinarian to take care of one of these dogs, but other than that he was all right," said Weldon Harding, who last saw his boss earlier this week.

On Tuesday, Fort Worth police said Davis turned his anger — and a loaded pistol — on his estranged wife, his stepdaughter and two of his friends, killing two of them and wounding the others.

The 42-year-old scion of a wealthy industrial family was arrested four hours later on two counts of murder and two counts of attempted murder. He was freed Tuesday night on $80,000 bond after taking a psychiatric examination ordered by Peace Justice

W. Matthews.

Davis' wife, Priscilla, 35, was shot once in the chest but escaped from the house, running across the nearly half-mile of lawns and meadows to a neighbor's home.

The bodies of Andrea Wilburn, Mrs. Davis' 12-year-old daughter by a previous marriage, and Stan Farr, 30, a friend of Mrs. Davis, were found in the mansion.

"I just can't believe that it happened," said Harding. "I'd seen Stan Farr around the house a lot of times and, of course, knew the little girl and Mrs. Davis. It all seems pretty unreal."

As the wounded Mrs. Davis fled the mansion in one direction, house guest Beverly Bass, 18, returned from another after a date with Gus Gavrel Jr., 21, a friend of Davis' eldest stepdaughter, Dee Wilburn.

Police said that as Gavrel and Miss Bass approached the house, they saw a man leaving and asked him, "What's going on?" The man — wearing a black wig — said he would show them and led them into the house, officers said. When Miss Bass recognized the man as Davis and called him by name, he wheeled around and shot Gavrel in the abdomen, she told authorities.

Miss Bass then raced to a roadway and flagged down a motorist, who called police.

Farr's body was found in the breakfast room of the mansion, which sits on 140 acres of rolling meadowland and finely clipped lawns. Farr, 30, an ex-Texas Christian University basketball star, was killed "by several wounds," police said.

Andrea's body was found in a basement utility room where police theorized she crawled after being shot in the chest.

Disease Worries Catholic Group

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "We're concerned, of course, but health authorities have advised us that the ailment apparently came from contact with a carrier at the previous convention, rather than being indigenous to the city," said the Rev. Leo McKenzie, archdiocesan communications officer.

Little uneasiness is gathering now, and the events of the 41st International Eucharistic Congress continue on schedule, but congress officials are in touch with public health authorities.

About 10,000 people attended the state Legion convention that ended July 24. Twenty have since died, and more than 140 Swedish doctor in Tal Zaatar reported there were 4,000 wounded in the camp and said 1,400 had been killed since the siege began six weeks ago.

Descendant Lord Lothian Finally Did Sir Walter Never Made It To Colonies

MANTEO, N.C. (AP) — Sir Walter Raleigh, if you recall your history, sent expeditions to colonize the New World, but never made it himself. It wasn't that he didn't try. It's just that Good Queen Bess (Elizabeth I) wanted Sir Walter close at hand, an exercise in jealousy which proved futile, as Raleigh eventually married one of the queen's courtiers anyway. But four centuries later, one of Raleigh's descendants finally made it. He is Lord Lothian, who was in this country in connection with the Bicentennial. When he set foot on Roanoke Island he was the first of Raleigh's lineage to actually visit the site of Raleigh's doomed "lost colony," which vanished without a trace almost 400 years ago.

Lord Lothian's visit to this tiny island just inside the sandy isthmus known as the Outer Banks, came 389 years after his ancestor tried and failed to establish a permanent English colony in North America. Raleigh's second and final attempt at colonization for the Crown in 1587 ended in the stranding of over 100 men, women and children on Roanoke Island two full decades before the successful colonization attempt at Jamestown. But Raleigh's colony vanished from the island and from the pages of history without a trace.

Girl's Father Denies Involvement In Diver Defection

CINCINNATI (AP) — A wealthy Cincinnati businessman has denied reports that his daughter was involved in the defection of 17-year-old Russian diver Sergei Nemanstov and the diver's lawyer has confirmed the denial.

Richard Lindner, president of Thriftway, Inc., a local super-market chain, issued a statement Tuesday night following speculation that romantic involvement with an American female diver had influenced Nemanstov's decision to defect.

Lindner's daughter, Carol, 21, was a diver at Indiana University and finished seventh in the U.S. Olympic Trials in Long Beach, Calif. in June. She was in Montreal for the Olympic Games.

Miss Lindner's uncle, Carl Lindner, is publisher of the Cincinnati Enquirer. The statement said: "There better be no other member of our diving team, and it was only because I asked her specifically if they had talked about the defection and she said no. In fact, when she read it in the Cincinnati Enquirer a week later, she was shocked."

Olympics, Not Worry, Ended

No one asked me, but: Is anyone else as tired of reading about the United States "falling behind" in the Olympics as me? Or of Howard Cosell's biased opinions on boxing? Ditto for Olympics politics.

And don't worry about the 1980 Olympics going to pot. Everyone will probably be too afraid of the political situation to go to Moscow. One of those "From Russia, With Love" postcards.

All this talk about the Yankees or Royals "going all the way" this year amounts to a hill of beans. The pinstripe boys from New York and the Royals may claim divisional titles, but what chance do they have against the National League in the World Series? The Big Red Machine is in a class of its own.

Those guys sneaking back into Sanford quietly were members of the Seaboard Coast Line softball team, fresh from an unrefreshing elimination in the Florida Recreation Softball Association state tournament in Leesburg.

Sanford was dropped by the Blue Machine of Ormond Beach, 17-11, after leading 10-1 in the third; the clincher for quick trip home was an 8-2 count with Jack's Pub of Titusville, the same team Seaboard crushed the district.

Good guy of the week award goes to Longwood's Joe Pavone, an outdoors lover who noticed a couple barrels of tin cans ready to tip over into the Wekiva River near the Sweetwater Marina.

Pavone made half a dozen phone calls Tuesday trying to get someone to rectify the situation. Seems buckpassing was the order of the day. The State Road Department finally came through.

That knock-out next week at the door will be followed by a plea to help the Oviedo High Boosters pay off a $16,000 debt for athletic equipment. Under new management, the booster club is canvassing the school district.

And how about Sanford's Lowell Martindill, who won his class in the Bracket Championship at Darlington Speedway recently.

Martindill had a shot at the overall first place money of $10,000, but was nipped at the wire by a faster car. His bracket victory was worth $400, however, which paid the fare there and back.

The first call for football goes out today. Lyman High coach Dick Copeland is summoning ALL prospective players for a Monday night meeting at 7 o'clock, which means a few vacations may be cut short and a few "sick" calls will be made to employers.

The alternative to attending the meeting is not playing football. Copeland is insistent upon attendance at this meeting. Primary order of business for freshmen through seniors is physicals, insurance and eligibility clearance.

Calling all quarterback. . . TD pass kind, not armchair. The Sanford Scorpions will be putting the ball in the air again shortly when the adult tackle team meets Saturday morning at 10:30 on the Sanford Middle School field.

The season starts the second week in September, but first the Scorpions are looking for more players. Hopefully a quarterback will be among the new talent. Something like 20 returnees are on hand, but at least another dozen bodies are needed to fill the roster.

Seminole Community College is planning a mixed doubles tournament to benefit the Seminole Foundation.

The deadline for the Sept. 10-12 event is a month off, but entries are being accepted. Bill of fare is $15 per team, balls provided. There will be a consolation bracket for first round losers and competition is in three divisions — advanced, intermediate and beginner.

Ron Spain, second in the state for Seminole High in 148-pound weightlifting bracket, takes to the road Friday for an AAU meet in Charleston, S.C. Spain will attend SCC this fall and is studying bookkeeping and accounting.

With Lundquist At Helm, Post 53 Eyes State Title

By AARON KAUFMAN
Herald Correspondent

They say behind every successful man there is a woman.

The correlation is also true in the sports world, where behind every successful team, there is a coach.

So it is with Bob Lundquist, coach of the Sanford Post 53 American Legion baseball team. Lundquist has formed this first-year team, which few thought would do well, into a state contender.

How did Lundquist do it? An insight into Lundquist the man gives a few clues.

It surprises some to learn that Lundquist was an accomplished athlete in school and college because of his average build.

He graduated from Seminole High in 1969 with varsity letters in all sports. From Seminole, Lundquist went to Valencia Community College for two years on a scholarship. At Valencia, Lundquist was on the golf team and was a top pitcher on the baseball team. His pitching ability enabled him to walk on to the University of Florida baseball team. In his junior year at Florida, Lundquist was voted most outstanding pitcher on the team and was also named honorable mention for the Southeastern Conference.

He graduated from Florida in 1974 with a bachelor of science degree in physical education. He is now coach of football, baseball, and basketball at Seminole High.

Lundquist's philosophy on coaching is somewhat unique. He states, "I think there is a lot of value in sports if treated properly which is why I try to instill into the players that the game of sports is like the game of life."

"They correlate so I think that if you learn how to play a sport properly and by the rules, the game of life is the same way. I teach the players this by instilling in them the desire and love for sports that I've had through the years."

His outlook on sports was probably one of the main reasons Lundquist was asked to coach the Legion team. It was going to be a job for him since there had not been a team in Sanford for four years.

"There was a lot of pessimism at first," says Lundquist. "Nobody thought we could come up with enough people to fill the team but we did. It turned out that the people we have made the team into a fine ballclub."

Lundquist's biggest problem was to discipline the team.

"I believe you have to approach it from a standpoint of being very firm with them," states Lundquist, "and make sure you have control of the players. They must know what you expect from them and what to expect from themselves."

Lundquist added, "I also try to develop each player to his best ability. Tell them what they need to do to become a better ballplayer."

A strong team also needs a schedule of continuous practice to keep them in both physical and mental condition. Lundquist is constantly drilling the team.

"During pre-season, I like to start out with a lot of running and conditioning drills to get them in shape."

"I also drill them on the basic fundamentals such as bunting and the proper positioning to field the ball."

"Then as the season progresses, I try to teach them other skills so they won't get tired of the same thing."

"If I can do all these things as a coach, I feel that I've done a pretty good job." Sanford's 29-8 record proves that Lundquist has done quite well with them.

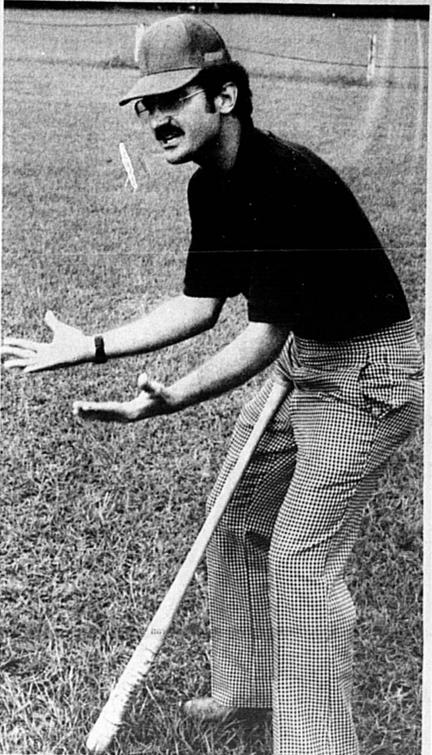

As there is a coach behind the team, there is someone behind the coach. Lundquist says that two men influenced him the most during his formative years.

One was McClaren, principal at Tusawilla Middle School. He was Lundquist's baseball coach in high school.

"He developed in me a sense of pride and self-satisfaction for baseball."

The other was Tom Garcia. He recruited Lundquist from Valencia, in myself."

It is no coincidence that key ingredients Sanford Post 53 takes to Fort Lauderdale Saturday for the State tourney are pride, self-satisfaction and self-confidence.

Vincent Steals The Show Again

By LOUIS SAPISS
Herald Correspondent

ORLANDO — Mr. Excitement did it again! Tuesday night at the Orlando Sports Stadium Orlando's Joey Vincent stole the thunder this time from a very impressive win by Mike Quarry, as the state welterweight champion won via disqualification over the same opponent.

Black and Black went after each other from the opening bell of their scheduled 10 rounder, with the Memphis,

Temn. fighter controlling the opening session.

Black's round started out much the same until Vincent unleashed a staggering right uppercut to Black's solar plexus.

In fact, Vincent was so certain that Black would fall to the canvas that he started towards a neutral corner. When he turned around the found Black still on his feet.

"I was so sure he was going to go down that I failed to follow up my advantage right away," Vincent commented after the fight. "If I had, I would have ended it right then and there."

If Joey had stopped Black "right then and there," it would have made another short but exciting fight for the man who now has a record of 25-42, with 22 kayes.

Instead, Black stayed on his feet and once again went at it with Vincent.

Then it happened. Vincent caught Black with a short right hand to the forehead and Black went straight back like he was shot, dropping to the floor.

Vincent turned his back on Spider and walked to the neutral corner, while the referee, Willie McBride looked over at the official knocked out timekeeper to pick up the count.

Everything was proceeding like normal knock-down except when Vincent's right hand came up over his head and he did what is known in gymnastics as a "kip-up." He flipped himself back up to his feet in one continuous motion, and ran across the ring and hit Vincent, who was still walking to the neutral corner, in the back of the head with a wild right cross.

Black on way down, prelude to wild end

Immediately, McBride rushed in and disqualified Black for "an intentional foul," despite Vincent's pleading to let the fight continue.

Joey even got down on one knee while begging for a chance at the man who apparently went down just as he could get up and attack an unsuspecting Vincent.

The fans, many of whom felt the fight should be allowed to continue, began to boo and throw articles and it was several minutes before they finally quieted down.

Quarry's win was a one-sided pounding of durable Billy Steele, but the Seminole County heavyweight finally won out.

Freeman tried to fight back but he was no match for the quicker and more accurate Quarry.

The upset of the evening came in the opening six-rounder when Casselberry's Scott "Golden Boy" Clark lost a one-point, split decision to Miami's Jimmy Owens.

The fight, fought at two minute rounds instead of the normal three, was a slow, but evenly contested scrap, with many telling Clark was entitled to the verdict.

The loss was Clark's first in five starts for the 17-year-old, while Owens was making his pro debut after a highly successful amateur career.

Longwood's Brian O'Mella had a surprisingly tough time with an overweight Chubby Steele, but the Seminole County heavyweight finally won out.

Howell's John "Hurricane" Hayden lost a split decision to Seas Pruitts in the final bout.

Before Hayden's close loss, Seminole County almost made a clean sweep of the four bouts they had with a squad from Fort Benning, Ga., but Lake Salerno.

When Steele quit on his stool in between the fourth and fifth rounds.

Reds Farm Out Pitcher Hinton

CINCINNATI (AP) — Pitcher Rich Hinton, acquired in a trade last winter which sent Clay Carroll to the Chicago White Sox, has been assigned by the Cincinnati Reds to their Indianapolis farm team.

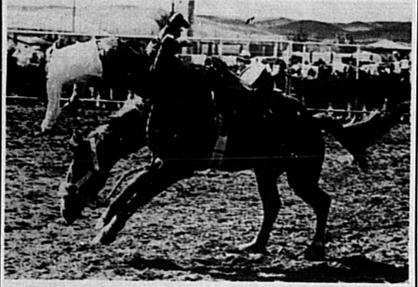

Hinton, 1-3 with an earned run average of 7.50 in 11 games, was placed on waivers Friday but was not picked up by any other major league club.

He was replaced on the Reds' roster with Manny Sarmiento.

Group Awarded Jai-Alai License

Lake City Proposed Location

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The Florida Board of Business Regulation cannot deny any proper application for a pari-mutuel license even if the proposed owners are convicted felons, the board's attorney says.

William Moore advised board members Tuesday that their hands are tied because of legislative inaction and a 1976 Dade County Circuit Court ruling that struck down standards for licenses.

During the 1975 and 1976 legislative sessions, bills to revoke convicted felons to have pari-mutuel wagering licenses passed the House and died in the Senate.

More said that the board's only grounds for rejection of an application is that the promoter-operator did not apply.

The board then granted a license to Columbia Fronton Inc., formed by eight Jacksonville men, to open a jai-alai fronton near Lake City on condition they show they are not connected to the controversial firm Sports Systems Inc. and Empire Inc.

In addition to providing the fronton with a license, the board next month, the corporation must win approval of Columbia County voters in a referendum.

Harold Haimowitz, Columbia Fronton's attorney, said he would refer the referendum could be held in February.

He convinced the board not to reject the application after three days of a delay would be unfair because it would postpone the referendum to 1978.

Leasburg member Walter McLin of Leasburg moved to deny the license on grounds the Jacksonville corporation could not operate the fronton independently. However, he later changed his position.

Board Chairman Richard Pailot of Miami also questioned whether the application could be denied.

"The status of the law is disturbing," Pailot said. "In the eyes of the public we are responsible to insure the integrity of the sport. We should be able to reject applications."

Yanks Beat Birdman, 4-3

Baseball

By The Associated Press

Mark Fidrych is usually the main attraction when he pitches, and the New York Yankees won't be upstaged by the Birdman of Detroit.

The Yankees showed Tuesday night that they also have a flair for showmanship, sprinkling beans on the mound while the known "Bird" was performing.

White the Yankees fed Fidrych "bird seed," Fidrych was feeding the Yankees fastballs.

Both Roy White and Oscar Gamble hit them out of the park, helping New York to a dramatic 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers and their flashy rookie.

"I would have loved to beat the Yankees," said Fidrych. "The crowd didn't come out to see me. They came out to see the Yankees beat me."

Whatever the crowd of 49,000 came out for at Yankee Stadium, they weren't disappointed. They not only got to see their Yankees win, but they also saw Fidrych's showy routine of talking to baseballs, bouncing around the field like a berserk billiard ball and, yes, even eating beans off the mound.

Fidrych, who also gave up a two-run homer to White in the third, suffered only his fourth loss against 11 victories and it marked the first time the flamboyant rookie was defeated when Detroit had scored a run.

Royals' Twins 1-0. Sore-legged Hal McRae homered around the basespaths with a double and a home run and Buck Martinez added a two-run homer on Scott's single.

Joe Rudi smashed two doubles and a single and drove in two runs to lead Oakland over Chicago, Dick Bosman, 4-0, scattered five hits over five innings and picked up his eighth career victory over the White Sox with relief help from Paul Lindblad and Hollie Rogers, who was credited with his 15th save.

Angels' Rangers 6-1. Paul Hartzel pitched a four-hitter against floundering Texas and journeyman Tommy Davis knocked in two runs as California beat the Rangers, Texas has now lost 21 of its last 26 games to drop from second place to only five games out of the cellar.

Arizona's Padres 3-2. In the horse business, if you don't make a profit in two of three years then the burden of proof is on you to prove that it isn't a hobby," he said. "There has to be some burden on the owners to make them operate like a business. You won't survive."

How Much Interest Behind This Loan?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: There is a divorcee in my husband's office who has a small child and lots of problems. I really blew my stack when Paul told me that he lent her $1,000 so she could have (are you ready for this?) silicone implants to increase the size of her breasts!

Dear Abby

This girl told Paul that a psychologist told her that her feelings of insecurity stemmed from the fact that she had always been flat-chested, and the silicone implants would make her feel more womanly and self-confident.

I have made a very nice home for him, but I almost feel as though I am working for my room and board—and bedroom privileges. I'm not a mercenary, but I long for some identity of my own.

I've always kept the memory of my first husband from intruding into this marriage. Why do I feel like an intruder myself?

NUMBER TWO
DEAR NUMBER TWO: Because you don't have the courage to tell him that (a) it hurts you that he carries his deceased wife's picture in his wallet instead of yours, and (b) you don't enjoy hand-me-down jewelry.

DEAR ABBY: Although my wife is reasonable most of the time, she refuses to acknowledge that it is her duty to hop out of bed first in the morning and get the coffee going.

DEAR ABBY: A year ago I married a childless widower. He had been happily married for over 20 years until his first wife died five years ago. I was a widow with grown children. Everyone told me how lucky I was to get him because he was very well-to-do.

He is a good husband, but I feel like a substitute for his first wife. He still carries her picture in his wallet instead of mine, and on my birthday and at Christmas he presents me with a piece of her jewelry. I feel uncomfortable wearing her things in the presence of those who remember seeing them on her.

DEAR ABBY: I feel uncomfortable wearing her things in the presence of those who remember seeing them on her.

Lyman Class Of '66 Reunited In Orlando

Some 100 graduates of the Lyman High School Class of '66 with their spouses attended the class' 10th reunion organizing committee night at the Carlton House Hotel, Orlando, and a family picnic Sunday, at Camp San Pedro, Monday, Saturday was provided by the group. In The Beginning, and the invocation was delivered by Valerie Shea Floyd, Lake Mary. Paul Klingler, Maitland; and Chic Blindworth, Orlando.

Fashion Tips

Cooler
For a total cooling on a hot day, treat yourself to a hot or tepid bath rather than a cold one.

Waist detail
If you have a very heavy waistline, avoid drawing attention to it. Wear small self-belts and keep trims and details above the waist, never below.

Shoes count
Flat shoes don't work especially well with clam diggers and Bermuda shorts. Try something in a wedge shoe style to flatter your legs more.

T-Shirt Trick
To get continued service out of an old T-shirt, cut it down to tunic length and wear it over pants or shorts.

Family Problems Better Prevented Than Cured

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Helping prevent family problems, instead of waiting until treatment is needed, is the direction Dr. Beverly Crabtree sees for home economists nationally.

She recently took office as president-elect of the American Home Economics Association at its annual meeting here. The 56,554 members of the organization work with families and individuals, or with businesses, agencies and organizations that provide goods, services and educational programs to help enhance the quality of life.

Seeing the family as the focus of home economics, Dr. Crabtree believes the family will in the future become an even more important social situation than now, with implications for home economists.

"I believe the responsibility of college is to prepare men and women professional home economists to help families direct change, decide if change is desired, and, if so, decide the direction of change," says Dr. Crabtree, Dean of home economics at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Okla.

She feels home economists should be advocates for the family, taking positions on many issues and interpreting these positions to appropriate individuals, agencies and organizations.

"Besides the traditional family, we're seeing more one person households, more childless households and more families headed by females. We're also seeing more men and women sharing roles in families as wage earners, parents and homemakers as well as family roles being interchanged with more egalitarian family styles emerging."

"About one family in three in this country needs help in understanding factors shaping its future," she says, citing some causes of emotional pressures in daily living:

• Changing roles and responsibilities of men and women; changing attitudes toward the family; increasing mobility with ties lost between generations.

Dr. Crabtree, 39, and her husband, Dr. Jewell Crabtree, a soil scientist in the OSU agronomy department, have two children, Greg, 14, and Karen, 6.

Feminists Turn Attention To Jewish Institutions

NEW YORK (AP)—Lilith, a new quarterly that will explore the world of Jewish women, has started publication here with editors calling for feminists who are Jewish to turn their attention to Jewish institutions.

"The battle for women's suffrage has never been won in Judaism," said executive editor Susan Weidman Schneider, "not only in Orthodox Judaism, where women literally do not count in the quorum required for worship, but even in Reform Judaism, which only recently ordained its first woman rabbi."

The magazine, a nonprofit venture by a group of Jewish women journalists, is named for Lilith, Adam's legendary first companion—the first woman equal with the first man.

"She predated Eve and was originally the embodiment of independent womanhood. The character of Lilith has had a bad press through the ages, changing her in some accounts from independent woman to wild-haired demon," said Aviva Cantor Zuckoff, an editor of the publication.

"The editors of Lilith intend to resurrect the positive side of Lilith as a self-affirming individual, as they intend to break away from old, negative stereotypes of Jewish women," she added.

Duck Sauce Adds Spice To Plain Chinese Food

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor

In a wide 4-quart saucepan over medium heat bring all the ingredients except the sugar to a boil, stirring occasionally. Boil steadily about 30 minutes. Put through a food mill and return puree to the pan. Add sugar and over medium heat stir constantly until mixture boils again. Boil steadily about 30 minutes, stirring often to prevent sticking; continue boiling about 15 minutes more, stirring constantly. Sauce is done when about 1/2 teaspoon of it holds its shape on a chilled saucer. Spoon at once into hot, sterilized half-pint jars and seal. Store at least a week to mellow. Makes about 5 1/2 cups. From "The Pleasures of Preserving and Pickling" by Jeanne Lesem (Knopf), a fine book.

Joy Of Stitching Carpets For Walls, Too

Though I myself have used needlepoint carpets on the floor and found they wear extremely well, I understand the reluctance of many needlepointers to put their treasured work into which so many hours of painstaking effort have gone, underfoot for people to walk on.

As a matter of fact, in the long ago past carpets more often than not were hung on the wall. Many antique carpets, made of silk and linen, were really more suitable for looking at than walking on.

major Buddhist symbols — the wheel, parasol, canopy, lotus, conch shell, vase with water of life, two fish and the everlasting knot. Any of these, well spaced and enclosed in a fret border, would make a beautiful design.

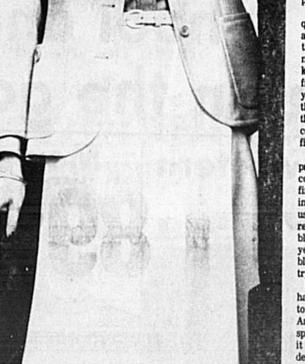

My own favorite flowers assume new meanings in Chinese designs; the lotus of Buddha represents purity, the peony wealth and the pomgranate fertility.

Child Care Training Slated

Business Booms For Blueberry Bushes

By GAYNOR MADDOX The Herald Services It all started when Natalie Bertino, an Italian immigrant from New York to reach Hamonton, N.J., where the Hamonton blueberry exchange disposed of six million pints of fresh blueberries each year; also three-quarters million pounds of frozen blueberries for pie fillings, ice cream, yogurt and other commercial foods.

From that humble beginning evolved the Hamonton blueberry Exchange, the largest marketer of fresh blueberries in the world. The exchange consists of the three original farms that Natalie Bertino gave his sons.

All three farms today take advantage of every phase of modern technology. They use aerial crop dusting and mechanical picking machines costing $40,000 each. These picking machines are used on only 40 per cent of the crop. Science is still trying to perfect them.

"The Bicentennial year has disappointed us. Bad weather earlier this year, and in late April a cold snap, caused us to lose one-third of the expected crop," he said.

Sausage, Zucchini Combine In Zesty Casserole Recipe

KASY ZUCCHINI SAUSAGE BAKE
1 lb. Italian sausage
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 zucchini, cut into 1/2-inch (1 cm) slices
1 (15-oz-425 g) can Hunt's Tomato Herb Sauce
3 cups hot cooked rice
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
1/2 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese

Remove sausage from casing; cook with onion in 10-inch (25 cm) skillet until sausage loses redness. Remove and drain on paper towel. Sauté zucchini in skillet drippings until transparent. Cover; cook 5 minutes or until almost done; reserve. Combine half the Hunt's Sauce with rice and sausage mixture in 7 1/2 x 15 x 1 1/2-inch (18 x 38 x 4 cm) baking dish. Add salt; mix well. Arrange slices of zucchini over top. Sprinkle with mozzarella and Parmesan; spoon remaining Hunt's Sauce over all. Bake, covered at 350 degrees (175 degrees C) 20 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Salt and pepper ribs; arrange them on a rack over a large roasting pan. Add enough water to fill the pan about one-third full. Steam uncovered in a preheated 425-degree oven, turning once, for 35 minutes; baste generously with the barbecue sauce and continue steaming 10 minutes more. Arrange on a charcoal grill and baste generously and unfailingly with barbecue sauce every 10 or 15 minutes until ribs are tender — about 45 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

ADOBOS DRUMSTICKS
Adobo is the Spanish word for "a sauce for seasoning or pickling."
3 tablespoons cider vinegar
3 tablespoons soy sauce
1 large garlic clove, crushed
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 pounds (1 1/2) drumsticks
In a large skillet stir together the vinegar, soy sauce, garlic and pepper. Arrange the drumsticks in the skillet in a single layer. Cook, covered lightly, at a gentle bubble and turning drumsticks a few times, until tender — about 40 minutes. There should be a small amount of full-flavored sauce; if there is more, remove drumsticks and keep warm; reduce sauce by boiling and spoon over drumsticks. Makes 4 small servings.

It's In The Name Frugal Cook Can Make Tasty Meal

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Find intriguing names for menus planned around low-cost cuts of meat that you cook in new ways and watch the family lap it up.

That's the advice of world-famous restaurateur Victor Bergeron, 74, who uses yummy-sounding names for dishes of chicken wings and legs, lamb cheeks and fish on some of his menus. And it sells.

"You can have a delicious barbecue with boned breast of lamb that has been marinated in soy sauce and charcoaled about four minutes on each side. But many American women think they must use expensive cuts of meat or the meal will not be a hit.

"Take time to learn to cook with cheaper cuts. There are recipes in every good cookbook," he says.

Bergeron was indoctrinated early in a frugal kitchen. At 16 he was hoping about — he had lost a leg the year before — helping his French-born mother in the kitchen. Sometimes he would go to a local slaughterhouse in Oakland, Calif., and load his little wagon with brains, sweetbreads, tripe, liver, tongue and the cheeks and animals, for maybe $1.50. Even then people did not use these nutritional parts of animals, he says.

His father, a French Canadian, brains and oxtails, the Canadian country style. But his dish of ham, eggs, bananas and pineapple is called Ham and Eggs Hawaiian and appears on the menus of Bergeron's 23 restaurants over the world.

"My mother also was a good cook. Some people are put off by such meats as lamb cheeks because there is a little gelatinous vein that seems slippery on the tongue, but it is good protein and she made some delicious stews and other dishes with it. It, too, appears on our menus."

There is a great relationship between — gustatorial — anticipation and palate enjoyment, one reason foods "should be talked up," he explained. Flaming foods with fruit juices is another ploy the family chef might use for eye appeal.

His menu descriptions include "Five Fragrant Spices Chicken Wings with Chinese Sauerkraut and Fried Monkey leaves," which are leaves of bok choy, he explained. A "Drunken Mahi Mahi" is a fish "livened with a little vermouth and other influences." The low-cost menus were devised to attract the young crowd "who can't afford expensive lunches and dinners."

In 1954 Bergeron opened the first of his restaurants in Oakland with $500 and a loan of $25 from his brother for a cash register, and groceries from his father's store. He and his wife did the cooking.

"In that first restaurant lunches were 20 cents. Now they range from $4 to $8. But it was 15 years before a second Trader Vic's opened in Seattle. The whole operation is family and employee owned."

Chefs are men — Chinese because they cook in the Chinese manner — "but women would be superior chefs if they could stand the strain. The job requires that you work like hell," Bergeron cooks occasionally, and he and his present wife "often eat with pomp, but every special occasion need not call for an expensive menu. If food tastes good, it will be enjoyed."

For example, inexpensive lamb shanks can be delicious. Brown them with onions and garlic. Cook dried navy beans for an hour. Set aside. Add a large can of tomatoes and a bay leaf and cook beans for two hours more. Add the lamb shanks or leftover leg of lamb slices.

Another favorite he's been "cooking for 40 years" is meat balls in stewed tomatoes topped with dumplings that have been made out of prepared biscuit dough which has been mixed with some cooked hamburger and spooned over the tomatoes. The trick? You cook the meat dumplings for 40 minutes on a slow fire over the meat balls and tomatoes. "Light as a feather," he maintains.

Low-cost foods never hurt anyone, he says, and he's the proof. Even with one leg, he managed to play soccer, aquatic volleyball and to compete in high jumps in grade school. He became city champ in the sack races.

A rugged-looking, charming man, who is called The Trader by many people, Bergeron is almost as well known for his beautiful sculpture, paintings and handmade jewelry as for his food. His cookbook will be published soon.

Banana Chocolate Chip Loaf and Banana Pocket Cookies carry easily to picnics.

Bananas Offer Bunch Of Picnic Treats

When you want a nice dessert to take to the picnic, pocket foods will solve the problem every time.

What are pocket foods? They're the kind that have good, firm texture like cake that will stay in one piece as you hold it in your hand or carry it wrapped in your pocket. Or cookies that won't crumble and shatter when they're toted in a picnic basket or eaten with your fingers outdoors. Sturdy delectables such as these are presented for your picnic by the Banana Bunch, industry-sponsored center for consumer information on bananas.

Banana Chocolate Chip Loaf and wonderful eating moist yet firm — rich with its twin flavors of mashed banana and chocolate pieces.

perfectly, and is easy to eat out of hand. It's easy to make, too. You can handle it together for a picnic the day before, and the flavor will actually mellow as it stands.

Real great fun are Banana Pockets, a turnover-type cookie that is tidily encased in pie crust mix pastry. There's rich fresh banana, walnut and raisin filling inside the pastry which is sealed with neat crimped edges. These cookies can easily be carried in your pocket for snacks on a bicycle ride, or by the pool, or out in the backyard on a fine summer's day. They're twinkle-quick to make, fun to eat.

Don't forget that the banana itself is a fine pocket food. Neatly wrapped in its own sealed pel, the banana is Mother Nature's contribution to snack enjoyment. With their good supply of vitamins and minerals, high energy value, and 100 per cent available iron, bananas are a snack that stays with you.

BANANA POCKET COOKIES
Yield: 8 turnovers.
1 package (10 ounces) pie crust mix, or pastry for 2-crust 8-inch pie
2 bananas, sliced
¼ cup finely chopped walnuts
¼ cup raisins
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 tablespoon water

Prepare pastry according to package directions. Roll out and cut in 8-inch circles. In medium bowl mix banana slices, walnuts, raisins and cinnamon. Spoon filling on each circle. Fold half of dough over filling, to form a half-circle. Seal and crimp edges. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Brush with beaten egg mixed with water. Bake in 400 degree F. oven 15 to 20 minutes, or until browned. Remove and cool.

Yield: 8 turnovers.
BANANA CHOCOLATE CHIP LOAF
½ cup soft butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
¼ cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 cup mashed ripe bananas (about 3 medium)
1 package (8 ounces) semi-sweet chocolate pieces

Cool It With Iced Tea Tuna-Rice Loaf Hot Favorite

The Herald Services Expecting guests or going to a family picnic? A simple-to-make tuna-rice loaf makes a good dish which you can prepare in advance.

Always refrigerate or keep picnic leftovers in an ice chest during hot days to avoid any spoilage that might cause illness. A favorite beverage for summer months is iced tea and some devotees drink iced tea throughout the year. For those who always like to have this refresher on hand you can have a pitcher of tea brewing overnight the cold water way or make it quickly with boiling water. The latter requires more ice to cool it. Whatever the method, enjoy it with a slice of lemon or lime.

TUNA-RICE LOAF
2 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon celery seed
1 teaspoon curry powder

ICED TEA
Cold Water Way: Fill a glass quart container or pitcher with cold water. Add 8 to 10 tea bags (remove tags). Cover and let stand at room temperature or in the refrigerator at least 6 hours or overnight. Remove tea bag, squeezing against side of container. Makes 1 quart. Recipe may be doubled.

Boiling Water Way: Bring 1 quart of cold water to a boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat and immediately add 15 tea bags or one-third cup loose tea. Stir, cover and let stand 5 minutes. Stir again and strain into a pitcher containing another quart of cold water. Makes 2 quarts.

Instant Way: Allow 2 rounded tablespoons of instant tea powder for each quart of cold water. Stir to dissolve. If using lemon-flavored iced tea mix, allow 2 envelopes (or one-half cup) mix to each quart of cold water.

Cornbread Completes Simple Meal

Corn Bread topped with vegetable-cheese sauce

An economical meal makes use of abundant fresh vegetables. Broccoli, carrots and onions are combined in a cheese sauce as a topping for all-American corn bread. The corn bread has its own special flavor from finely chopped cooked ham. Add a Waldorf salad and serve homemade oatmeal cookies and ice cream for a satisfying, easy-to-make dinner.

Puree Plums, Peaches For Fruit Leather

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
If you want to have some real fun and you've never made Fruit Leather or, as some cooks are now calling it, Fruit Jerky, I strongly advise you to try the following recipe. It calls for pureed fresh peaches and plums plus honey and gives directions for drying the puree in sheets in pans lined with plastic wrap.

When the recipe came into my kitchen I couldn't wait to try it because I had seen many rules for Peach Leather in old-time American cookbooks and I thought making Peach-Plum Leather or Jerky would be a fitting culinary adventure in this Bicentennial year. It was.

I dried one pan of the fruit puree on my rooftop terrace on a sunny day and finished it off in the kitchen range. The other pan was dried completely in my electric range — one that has an excellent thermostat and signal light. The adventure came when the fruit was ready to be peeled off the plastic wrap. It was bedded down on the sheets of puree were dry but pliable and a beautiful dark peachy-plum color. The puree came away from the wrap like a dream, wonderfully shiny on the underside, ready to be rolled and stored. What a feeling of accomplishment! No wonder pioneer cooks made their deliciously edible fruit leathers.

With clear plastic wrap. Pour the fruit into the pans, spreading thinly and evenly — it will be no more than ¼-inch thick. Dry in full sun or in the oven following directions below. The fruit puree will be dry enough when, after loosening an edge with a small metal spatula, you can peel it away from the plastic wrap in a sheet. Roll it up in plastic wrap so that the wrap touches each part of the fruit sheet. Store in the refrigerator (as long as 4 months) or in the freezer (as long as 8 months). Makes 2 large leathers. To serve as Jerky, cut into strips. Sun Drying: Place 2 strips of wood (two strips about 1 inch wide and 1 inch thick) across the length or width of each pan so the strips are parallel and end the edges. Cover each pan with a single thickness of cheesecloth — the strips will keep it from touching the puree. Roll the cheesecloth tight and tuck it under each pan as you dry. The drying time will vary from 8 to 24 hours. If not quite dry after the first day, bring the pans indoors overnight and continue drying in the sun a few hours. Or finish drying in the oven according to directions for Oven Drying.

Oven Drying: Preheat the oven to Warm (140 to 150 degrees); turn off the heat; place the pans in the middle of the oven. For an electric oven, re-heat as necessary to maintain a Warm temperature — a portable oven thermometer placed in the oven will show when it is needed. When the oven is re-heated, but stay close by and turn off the heat as soon as the Warm temperature is reached. It's okay to leave the pans in the oven overnight without reheating and continue drying according to directions the next day. A gas oven will not need reheating because the pilot light will provide enough warmth; open the door occasionally to let moisture escape. When drying 2 pans in a single electric or gas oven, alternate the pans occasionally and turn them if necessary. Drying time will vary from 8 to 24 hours.

PEACH-PLUM LEATHER OR JERKY
1 ½ pounds fresh peaches
1 pound fresh plums
¼ cup honey

Let peaches stand covered with boiling water for about a minute; rinse with cold water and slip off skins. Thinly slice the peaches and unpeeled plums, discarding pits and keeping each fruit separate. You need 2 ½ cups of each fruit.

In a large saucepan, stirring constantly, slowly bring the plums and honey to a boil; add the peaches and, stirring constantly, boil for 3 minutes. Puree in an electric blender; cool to lukewarm.

Line the bottoms of 2 jelly-roll pans (each 15 by 10 by 1 inch)

Cherry Bounce Revives Old-Time Eating Custom

Folks who enjoy reviving the old-time eating and drinking customs of some of the settlers in this country may be interested, this midsummer, in making Cherry Bounce. It's a potent concoction to "put by" when sweet cherries are in season, to serve in later months.

Abigail Adams, wife of John Adams, the second President of the United States, wrote about Cherry Bounce one January in a letter to her sister. "There is a kind of cake in fashion upon this day called New Years Cooky. This and cherry bounce as it is called is the old Dutch custom of treating their Friends upon the return of every New Year."

Apparently New Englanders also made Cherry Bounce. In her "Yankee Cookbook" Imogene Wolcott offers an old-fashioned recipe for it and adds: "As the lady who gave this recipe used to say: 'Hifalutin people call this cherry cordial, but I say it's cherry bounce.'"

Cherry Bounce may be made with sweet cherries, sugar, spice and brandy. Quarters of the liquid drained from the cherries are likely to say that it is well-named. It really makes one feel bouncy!

CHERRY BOUNCE
3 pounds fresh sweet cherries
1 pound sugar
1 cinnamon stick, broken
2 teaspoons whole cloves
1 bottle (64 quart) brandy
Choose perfect cherries; wash, remove stems and dry completely. Do not pit. In a large crock that has a cover, layer the cherries, sugar and spices; add brandy; stir thoroughly. Cover and let stand at room temperature at least 2 months. After drained liquid is removed, refrigerate cherries and use in various ways for desserts.

'Wonderfully Good' Declares Gourmet

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
About 20 years ago I met Libby Smith, a young woman from Marblehead, Mass., who gave cooking classes and had written a cookbook. A friend of hers gave a party for her in New York and I was invited. Our paths never crossed again, but I sometimes thought of her because she had cooked the main dish served at the party — a fabulously good fish chowder, the best I had ever tasted. That's something a food editor doesn't forget!

Recently a neighbor of mine told me that her sister-in-law, who lived in Marblehead, had a reputation as a fine cook. When I asked her name, I discovered that Libby Smith was now Libby Alsborg and that she and her husband George publish a food-letter that includes recipes and notes on wine. It's called "The Everyday Gourmet" and it goes to subscribers every two weeks the year round except during July. The Alsborgs describe their publication as "being devoted to eating joyously and economically and at the same time preserving our heritage of fine foods and their preparation for the table."

Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in the center comes out clean — 45 minutes for small loaves, 55 to 60 minutes for large loaves. (Loaves will crack on its way as her long-term turn out on wire racks; turn right side up; cool completely.

QUICK-N-EASY WAYS TO USE FRESH BLUEBERRIES

There are some deliciously quick-and-easy ways to use fresh blueberries for summertime desserts by teaming them with cool and refreshing foods from dairies.

One of the best of these is to make a simple, yet delicious, topping for fresh blueberries with brown sugar (light or dark) or crushed maple sugar and yogurt or sour cream. You can serve the sour cream "as is" or whipped. The advantage of whipping the sour cream is that it almost doubles in volume, thus stretching servings and calories.

Most dairy sour cream can be whipped. Standard directions call for chilling bowl and beaters, but I have never found this necessary. I have had good success in whipping one-half pint of very cold sour cream by using an electric beater at high speed; during the first part of the beating and in about five minutes it forms soft peaks. It will not be as stiff as whipped cream (or more) of superfine sugar. This is a delightful combination to serve over slices of angeloft or sponge cake.

Quick-N-Easy Ways To Use Fresh Blueberries

To concoct it, whirl a half-pint of small-curd, cream-style cottage cheese in an electric blender with a couple of tablespoons of milk or buttermilk until smooth and fluffy. Chill, tightly covered, to allow it to "set" before serving. A delicious and easy way to serve blueberries to guests is to marinate two cups of them in one-quarter-cup orange-flavor liqueur and refrigerate, stirring several times, for about eight hours. Then drain the berries well and fold them into a pint of whipped cream. This combination may be served in sherry glasses or cantaloupe halves, or atop white or yellow cake made from scratch.

Another way to use the berries marinated in the orange-flavor liqueur is to fold them into whipped cream. For two cups berries marinated in one-quarter cup liqueur, use a half-pint of heavy cream whipped and sweetened with two tablespoons (or more) of superfine sugar. This is a delightful combination to serve over slices of angeloft or sponge cake.

'The Revolution: Where It All Began'

Boston's Freedom Trail A Popular Attraction

BOSTON (AP) — Of Massachusetts, Daniel Webster had the right idea: "There she is. Behold her, and judge for yourself."

One of the city's more popular Bicentennial exhibits invites the visitor to take part in that original Puritan tradition of judging for oneself.

The exhibit puts a series of questions to the visitor, whose responses give him away as a breakaway Patriot, a stay-with-Britain Tory or undecided on the issues of the Revolutionary era.

Since last September, 47 per cent of more than 100,000 visitors have turned out to be Patriots — not a majority but far more than the one-third estimated by John Adams.

The Tories and the undecideds split in the questioning, with the Tories ahead, 27 to 28 per cent.

This exhibit, "The Revolution: Where It All Began," is in Quincy Market, near City Hall. The market is the second stop on a two-mile "Freedom Trail" of downtown historic sites.

Freedom Trail is a must tour for the visitor. Allow a day for it, by car, and plan on starting after 9 a.m. Many spots on the Freedom Trail don't open until 10 a.m.

If you like, you can take the tour by shuttle bus, getting off at stops that interest you and getting on the next bus. A ticket costs $3.25 for an adult, $1.75 for a child. Some spots charge admission — $4.50 will get an adult into all that do—$2.35 for a child.

"You can start Freedom Trail at Boston Common, but City Hall makes more sense. The city's Bicentennial agency,

Lava Plan Studied
ABERDEEN, Md. (AP) — Army scientists here are hoping to use high explosives "like a sargeon uses his knife" to divert hot lava should erupt from the world's largest and most active volcano erupt near the city of Hilo on the island of Hawaii.

"It's extremely dangerous. We're not sure it can be done," said Dr. Benjamin E. Cummings, who is coordinating plans with 14 government agencies to prevent the anticipated eruption of Mauna Loa from damaging Hilo, the island's economic and transportation center located 30 miles away.

Boston 200, maintains an information desk, speakers of foreign languages, lockers for packages, rest rooms, child care and rest facilities.

Popular as the Freedom Trail is, Boston's most popular attraction is not on it.

That's the USS Constitution — "Old Ironsides" — which lies at a berth in the old Navy yard in the Charlestown section, across the harbor from downtown.

You can easily reach it by car if you want to make a separate trip, and there's usually plenty of parking. Or, take the Orange Line subway to the City Square stop.

Less well known than Freedom Trail, but important to the history of the city, is the Black Heritage Trail across Beacon Hill, where blacks lived in the 18th century.

Start at the African Meeting House off Joy Street. In Boston, you won't have any trouble getting information about sports, libraries, theaters and concerts.

And anybody will tell you a favorite spot to eat out.

The best way to prepare yourself for the flavor of the city is the one-hour, $2-dollar, four-channel, eight-screen slide show, "Where's Boston?" at the Prudential Center.

One final tip: Lock your car and take the keys. Boston leads the country in auto theft.

Burglary Apparently Sparked Father's Heart Attack

Victim's Son Spots Murder Suspect

BY BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer

A Casselberry man who Monday found his father dead in his burglarized home spotted a man that sheriff's detectives arrested Wednesday for burglary and murder in the case, sheriff's deputies said today.

Lt. George Abbigy said Robert B. Schultz, 34, called authorities Wednesday morning after seeing a man walking on Seminola Boulevard near Button Road in Casselberry, who fitted the description given residents of the Lake Katherine and Lake Irene areas east of U.S. 17-92 and south of SR-44 near Longwood.

Sheriff's investigators issued the description after an unsuccessful search Monday in citrus groves along Lake Irene Road where three residences were burglarized and a .357 magnum pistol stolen.

About noon Wednesday deputies and Casselberry police took David Kim Hargis, 19, into custody. He was being held without bond today in county jail on a murder charge and $36,000 bond on four burglary charges.

Hargis, listed as a deserter from the Naval Air Technical Training Center in Memphis, Tenn., told investigators that he's from Henderson, Ky., and has a wife, Mrs. Peggy Hargis, living in the Casselberry area.

Investigators said today they have located Hargis' 17-year-old wife in the Casselberry area but declined to elaborate further. The Seminole County Grand Jury may consider evidence in the death case but sources said today no date has been set for a grand jury session.

Hargis is charged with the capital felony under Florida law that applies to a killing by a person engaged in burglary or robbery.

Sheriff's investigators said Walter Raymond Schultz, 67, of 751 Spanish Moss Drive, Casselberry, died of a heart attack about noon Monday when he apparently returned to his mobile home to (Continued On Page 5-A)

SIDNEY L. VIHLEN, JR. DISTRICT 5

County Commission Sidney Vihlen Jr. said earlier this week that he'd quit his post of the Republicans continue to "make an issue" about his absence at budget sessions while he campaigns for the Democratic nomination in the Fifth U.S. Congressional District. So this morning someone really "bugged" Vihlen by placing this lady bug in his vacant chair in the commission chambers. (Herald Photo by Bill Vincent Jr.)

New Ad Director, And Editor Named

Appointments of an editor and advertising director were announced today by The Evening Herald.

Named editor is Norman H. Oshrin, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., who has been associated with newspapers in Texas, Ohio, New York, California, Indiana and New Jersey. Appointed advertising director is Joseph D. Van Brackle, of Orlando, who served as president of his own agency for several years before coming to Sanford.

Oshrin, 45, also has served as a professional staff member of the Senate Commerce Committee in Washington, D.C., and as a 1972 presidential primary aide to Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.). He is a bachelor.

Van Brackle, 45, is a member of the Orlando Area Advertising Federation and has been active in the southeast and national advertising scenes, conducting workshops and judging advertising contests. He also has lectured on marketing at schools and organizations throughout the southeast. Van Brackle and the former Jean Holsclaw have a daughter, 18, and a son, 11.

County Rejects Employee Pay Hike

By ED PRICKETT
Herald Staff Writer

The Seminole County Commission Wednesday rejected a proposed $80,000 pay raise for county employees.

Personnel Manager Ron Thames asked the commission to adjust pay scales and bring them in line with salaries paid in the community.

But the commissioners — in the first real vote out of this year — told Thames to come back next year.

"I required a dollar adjustment to the entire system," Personnel Manager John Kimbrough said.

Commissioner John Kimbrough said he would like to see the county pay raise to $80,000 from this year's proposed $21.5-million budget. Stung by recent criticism for missing four days of budget sessions, Kimbrough said he would like to see the county pay raise to $80,000 from this year's proposed $21.5-million budget. Tardiness Causes Commotion

By JACQUELINE DOWD

At the Seminole County Commission meeting today, it was a question of who's bugging who.

Republican County Commissioner John Kimbrough placed a stuffed orange lady bug in Democratic Commissioner Sid Vihlen's commission chair today.

Vihlen said earlier this week he might be forced into resigning unless Republicans stopped bugging him about Vihlen's lack of attendance at scheduled county commission meetings.

Kimbrough said Vihlen's assertion that resigning would aid the Republicans "just isn't true." Kimbrough said he wouldn't care who the governor appointed as "long as it's somebody who will attend meetings."

Arriving a few minutes late at today's meeting, Vihlen refused to be bugged. Instead the commissioner appeared amused at the lady bug.

"It shows me that John Kimbrough still has wit and a good sense of humor," Vihlen said. "I've always admired his wit."

Vihlen said the lady bug is a "significant addition to the courthouse. I plan to keep it and make a real pet out of it."

The lady bug incident came after Vihlen failed yesterday for the fifth straight day to attend budget sessions designed to cut some $4-million from this year's proposed $21.5-million budget. Part of yesterday's session turned into a shouting match between Republicans and Democrats and Commissioner Harry Kwiatkowski, a Democrat, rapped Republican Commissioner Richard Williams for being two hours late for the meeting.

Stung by recent criticism for missing four days of budget sessions, Kwiatkowski rapped Williams after the commissioner hurried into commission chambers two hours late.

"We can't start yet; Dick Williams isn't here," Kwiatkowski said.

Commissioners begin today to get down to the serious business of paring the $21.6 million budget. At least $4-million must be cut to prevent a tax increase.

It is anticipated judicial requests of about $200,000 will be cut in half.

On Wednesday the commission looked at the utility department's budget.

Glisson said a 40 per cent increase in water and sewer rates will be needed if the utility department is to meet its obligations.

Utility Director Bill Dale informed commissioners earlier this year his department would require a rate hike to meet expenses.

Most customers pay about $14 a month for utilities at present. Dale estimated a 40 per cent increase would raise rates to about $20 monthly.

However, Dale said even with a rate hike the county utility system will provide the cheapest rates in Seminole.

The county owns two systems — Indian Hills and Consumer — both of which are located in South Seminole.

City Spends $163 Per Resident

By JACQUELINE DOWD

How does the city of Sanford spend the $3.8 million it expects to collect in taxes, licenses, permits, penalties and revenue sharing with other governments?

The city budget, tentatively approved by city commissioners at a workshop session Wednesday, includes everything from dog tranquilizers to bullet-proof vests to tennis nets to gloves for garbage collectors.

In the fiscal year which starts Oct. 1, Sanford will spend a little more than $183 for each of its 23,684 residents.

The biggest chunk goes for law enforcement, which costs the city over $1 million — nearly $43 for each Sanford resident. The police department budget totals over $83,000 more than last year.

At Wednesday's workshop, the commissioners discussed eliminating the police department's detention division which pays four jailers over $30,000 even though prisoners are rarely held in the Sanford city jail.

"I feel we don't need the detention division period," City Manager Warren Knowles said. "We haven't needed it this year."

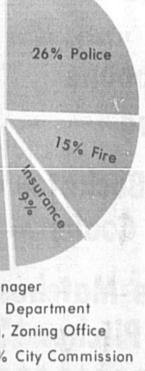

The commissioners agreed to Police Chief Ben Butler's gradual phase-out of the detention division.

The commissioners also agreed to purchase eight bullet-proof vests for uniformed officers already wear bullet-proof vests.

The city's public works department, which includes street work and garbage collection as well as maintenance for city facilities and equipment, takes almost as much as the police department — just over $650,000 or about $40 for each resident.

A long list of streets — including First Street from Sanford Avenue to Mellonville Avenue and Sanford Avenue from 20th Street to 25th Street — is scheduled for "slurry seal" resurfacing.

Nearly $600,000 will be spent on the city's fire department — about $24 for each resident. That's about $28,000 more than last year's budget for fire protection.

Your Beach Access May Be Blocked

TALLAHASSEE (AP) —

Floridians who don't have beach cottages may get halved off from the shore unless a law is passed forbidding cities to limit use of their beaches to residents, an attorney says.

"There is very little left to the public when the cities squeeze off access," Bays Harrison said Wednesday.

Harrison said that legislative action appears to be the only answer as a result of a 2nd District Court of Appeal decision that Belleair Beach can keep private land out of its city-owned beach.

He said he would recommend against appealing the decision.

The Supreme Court probably would uphold the appeal decision because of the small size of the beach, about 80 by 140 feet, and other factors, said Harrison, a former deputy attorney general who continued to handle the case after he entered private law practice.

He said the far-reaching effects of the decision could be offset if the legislature approved a law setting out the terms and clear terms that cities must allow the general public to use their beaches.

Otherwise, he said, the state constitutional right of citizens to lands below the mean-high-water line would become meaningless in many areas because citizens cannot get to those lands.

The problem will increase for people who don't live on the coast as construction continues, he said.

Without being able to use city beaches, upland residents now are blocked from the Pinellas County shore from Duaneville to Passee Grille because of private land ownership and construction of walls at condominiums, Harrison said.

Harrison said the appellate judges made clear during arguments before the court that they believed the public had not established a property right to the city beaches.

Shelvin contended that although constitutional rights of private property allowed owners to prevent access to state-owned wetland areas of beaches, cities should not have that right.

If a city closed a larger beach, there would be a better test case on public access to lands below the mean-high-water line would become meaningless in many areas because Harrison said.
