First 'Blood Donor Day' Set Dec. 11 At Sanford Church

Every time you get a pint of blood in a blood bank you increase your own chances of those of your family of coming through an accident or unexpected illness.

No one ever expects a traffic accident to happen to him, but one occurs every 23 seconds in this country, and YOU may be seriously hurt in one going home TODAY.

When the ambulance gets you to the hospital, the doctor may find that you need whole blood - fast - to replace blood you may have lost and to bring you out of shock.

Your wife or husband or other members of your family may undergo an emergency operation and lose a lot of blood. Whole blood must be readily available to replace the blood that may be lost both during and after the operation.

It is a comforting thought to know that in most American communities you or any member of your family can get the life-saving blood needed, and quickly, too, because millions of individuals like yourself have deposited blood IN ADVANCE in blood banks.

Your pastor or minister has been brought close to actual cases where families needing blood have had to send out frantic pleas for donors. Realizing these needs and preparing for them is the intelligent and most satisfying solution.

It is with this thought in mind that the churches of Sanford are sponsoring a UNITED CHURCH BLOOD APPEAL. The first 'Blood Donor Day' is to be held at the First Presbyterian Church in Sanford, Tuesday, Dec. 11.

"Bank Your Blood - Build A Life Saving Account".

Lutheran Advent Services Begin Dec. 5

Advent Services at the Lutheran Church of The Redeemer will begin next Wednesday evening at 7:30, said Rev. Phillip Schlessmann, pastor of the local congregation.

A film, "The Unfinished Task," will be shown at the service Wednesday evening Dec. 5. "It is a picture you'll never forget," Pastor Schlessmann said of the film. Explaining, he said, it is the dramatic story of the coming of two worlds - the world of John W. Bradford, successful businessman, who, despite his active church membership, worships at the shrine of material success, and

The world of his son, Jim, who turns his back on a "complacent and comfortable Christianity" and, over his father's violent protest, decides to go "all out for Christ."

On Dec. 12, the Boy's Choir of Trinity Lutheran Church, Hollyhill, accompanied by their own organist, will be featured at the midweek service. Rev. A. J. Schulz, Pastor of the Hollyhill church will conduct the service.

The Dec. 19 service will have Rev. Schlessmann in the pulpit for an Advent Season sermon and message.

All services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

The quartet of young ladies, named by the football squad, will also attend the annual Homecoming.

"MAN OF YEAR" NAMED
ALTANTA (AP) - The Southern Seedmen's Assn. named Dr. Fred Hull of the University of Florida as its "man of the year" at the annual convention yesterday for hybrid corn varieties he developed to suit the Southern climate.

David Lowe Thrilled By Visit

David Lowe was so thrilled over the visit that he just "forgot to ask some very important questions."

After Santa paid his visit, David remembered that there were several questions he would like to ask—and one particular question was "How could he be all over the world at one time to make all of the boys and girls so happy?"

Throughout the afternoon and early evening—questions little David Lowe would have like to ask came back to him—one after the other.

As a matter of fact, there was nothing he could talk about but Santa Claus and what a wonderful man he is. The thrills of the visit kept registering on David's face until finally he fell asleep.

CofC Members Given Rundown On PGA Open

The Mayfair Inn's Country Club golf pro gave Chamber of Commerce members a rundown of the coming Mayfair Inn $15,000 PGA Open which will be held Dec. 11-16.

Mario Carfagno, who brought with him Garry Granta his assistant, said that "the qualifying rounds will be held on Dec. 11."

"There will be no Pro-Am this year," Carfagno told the Chamber of Commerce members at their Coffee Club session this morning at Mrs. Appleby's Restaurant. "Instead," he said "there will be a clinic in which Jay Herbert, Porky Oliver, Mike Souchak, and others will appear."

Asked about some of the top players that will be in Sanford for the forthcoming PGA tournament, Carfagno said that Al Balding, the defending champion will be here for the event, as well as Sammy Sneed, Doug Ford, and many others.

"They will come to Sanford for the Mayfair Inn's $15,000 PGA Open from Havana where they will be participating in a tournament from Dec. 8 to 11," Carfagno said.

"We are expecting Dan Topping to be in Sanford for this year's tournament Mario Carfagno told the Chamber of Commerce members.

"The tickets are on sale now," he said, "and I am sure that all of you will want to see the events of each day."

Carfagno, in explaining the tournament procedure said that players qualifying here would automatically qualify for the California tournament.

Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider said that, in an attempt to combine the numerous drives and campaigns into one United Appeal. "With the approval of the Chamber's executive committee "We will take the lead in such a drive next year."

Weather
Mostly sunny today high 63-70; cool again tonight, low 40-48; Friday fair and cooler.

11 Bands, 37 Floats Appear

More than 10,000 people jammed Sanford Streets yesterday to witness what has been acclaimed as the "biggest and finest Christmas Parade ever seen in this city."

Crowds began forming early yesterday as schools let out at 2:30 to allow all Seminole County children an opportunity to see the parade and to see Santa Claus.

Eleven bands and 37 floats, along with marching units and groups formed about 3:30 beginning on First St. at Sanford Ave. to stretch from the downtown intersection out to Mellonville Ave. and back toward the city again.

The parade was estimated to have been a mile and a half long. For one solid hour the parade moved west on First St. to Oak Ave. then south to Fourth St., east to Sanford Ave. and then north to Second St. where it disbanded.

The huge crowds applauded, laughed, cheered, and waved as unit by unit moved along the streets.

Children lined the streets all the way and in many places on First St. they were in to 15 deep. At no place along the 14-block route did the parade participants miss onlookers and crowds to offer their applause and admiration.

Both city and county officials headed the huge parade and each unit passed in review before the Judges' platform on First St. at Magnolia Ave. The judges were Postmaster Joel Field, Mrs. Aris Jane Lundquist, and Representative Gordon V. Frederick.

As a result of the Judges' decisions the trophies and prizes were awarded to the following participants who entered floats: Sanford Junior High School won

First Equipment Installed In New 'Phone Building

The first equipment for the projected toll free, metropolitan telephone service was installed in the new building of the Winter Park Telephone Company, New York and Welbourne Avenues, last week, company officials announced yesterday.

The equipment already installed includes a Main Distribution Frame, which will provide connection for 14,000 local telephone numbers with 3,500 existing central office lines.

Each line can serve, if necessary, up to eight telephone numbers.

The cables terminating in this Main Distribution Frame will be brought into the new building this week, and the actual work of splicing the cables and connecting them to the frame will begin immediately.

A Trunk Intermediate Distribution Frame, which will connect local telephones with points served by other telephone companies, will be installed at the same time, a company spokesman said.

The Main Distribution Frame is being installed in the company's new premises at Winter Park Telephone Company Central Office employees, who over a period of nine months have been working for training purposes, in Seymour, Indiana, where a similar installation was being made by the North Electric Company for the Indiana Telephone Corporation.

Four of these men, now thoroughly familiar with the equipment they are handling, are Traffic Manager A. E. Ludescher, Central Office Supervisor, John Burch, and Central Office Switchmen Ernest Young Jr., and Ralph Stevens.

Installation of this Main Distribution Frame will be completed by (Continued on Page 8)

Bodies Of Crash Victims Brought From Mountains

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) - The bodies of 25 persons killed in the crash of a New York-to-Caracas airliner were brought down by cable car Tuesday night from the cloud-shrouded mountains at the city's edge.

There were no survivors. The dead included 10 Americans, among them 24-year-old Negro outfielder Charles Peete of Omaha, Neb., the American Assn.'s 1956 hitting champion, his wife and three children.

The Venezuelan airliner, swinging from the Caribbean through a rain-torm to land at Maiquetia, Caracas' seaplane airport, plunged into a wooded mountain of the Boca Chica range.

Wreckage and the bodies of the 18 passengers and 7 crewmen were scattered over the area of a city block. The point of impact was about 150 feet from the crest.

American financier Nelson Rockefeller had booked passage on the ill-fated plane but switched to another flight from New York to get a berth. He arrived safely for an inspection of his varied interests here.

Peete, property of the St. Louis Cardinal chain, was enroute to play winter ball in Venezuela.

Skits Presented At Cub Scout Meet

Legal Right To Peace, Quiet

MIAMI BEACH—If the sound and fury of modern living are getting you down, take heart. You can get legal protection from noisy people and machines, factory dust and smog, and similar nuisances.

In a roundup of cases involving the average citizen vs. the less desirable aspects of civilization's progress, Jay Sykes, Seattle attorney writing in the December issue of the Journal of Lifetime Living, shows how the law protects you.

A Washington family collected $1,000 from a nearby cement plant because the dust seeped into their home. And a Missouri bus driver collected $1,000 from a coal-burning plant because the smog caused him a perpetual sore throat and drove his customers away.

In New York City a woman suffering from the loud shrill noises of a car-washer in the auto-repair shop next door to her was awarded $300 in damages, and the court ordered the washer removed. A Maryland family whose neighbors kept their radio turned up full blast won $1,500 in damages because the noise was deliberate and malicious.

While you can get either an injunction or compensation against neighbors whose noises make sleep impossible, says Sykes, you are not entitled to absolute quiet. You cannot, for example, legally complain of the normal pandemonium of a Little League baseball game. Nor will the courts take action against the ringing of church bells or the blowing of factory whistles unless the noise is unnecessary, excessive and made at unreasonable hours. Judges have refused relief against the crowing of a rooster or the barking of a dog—although one Kentucky man did get an injunction against a neighbor whose three dogs barked five full hours every day!

Savings Bonds Belong In Every Family's Picture Of Future

This is the season for giving thanks. This is the season in which joy and happiness should reign. But no matter what the time of year, it is always a season of beginnings. For those June graduates, the transition has been made from family allowances to company payrolls. Now they are on their own, and the point has been well established. The future is seen in different perspective.

For those June brides and bridegrooms; the honeymoon is over. The transition has been made from those stars in the eyes courtship days to the dollar sign realities of a not-so-romantic world. Their future, too, is seen in changed perspective.

For those beginners' classes in life, the future depends largely on the start. Not that a wrong start dooms anyone to failure; our ways can be mended—life is so good to us that way. But how much better the future, if wrong starts are avoided. And there are so many guideposts along those early stretches of the new life of responsibility to save our beginners from straying down dead-end roads.

Yes, the dollar-sign is a mighty factor in this season of beginnings. The moralists will say there is more—much more—in life than money. And they are so right. But without money, there isn't much. That's the lesson our beginners must learn, right from the start, now that they're on their own.

Money—not just for today and tomorrow. Money for next year and the next and the next; money for a lifetime. Money for sick days; for enjoyment of health. Money for a home; for a family; for those children so happily dreamed of; for their proper upbringing and preparation for what some day will be for them, too, a new life of responsibilities.

It's a good world in which today's beginners' classes find themselves—a world of wondrous opportunities. Most of those recent graduates, most of the husbands of those recent brides are receiving beginners' salaries that their fathers and grandfathers only dreamed of earning after years of hard work. Today's beginners in life have the money; it's how they use it that counts.

That's where those guideposts can be such a help. The older folks have learned—many of them the hard way—how much easier it is to meet the needs of future years with a balanced financial program. Not just a balance of income and outgo, as sometimes it's unthinkingly described. But a program that balances income on the one hand against savings and spendings on the other.

The world today is so good to its neophytes. Beginners today have incomes that, with proper planning, make possible the regular setting-aside for future-year needs right from the start.

Nor is that the only bright spot in today's perspective of future years. It's much easier to save today. Government Savings Bonds fit into family planning so much more readily than anything that Grandpa had in his day—better returns; nothing more secure; and payments of the hardly-feel-them type on the payroll Savings Plan at work the Bond-A-Month Plan of Banks.

Millions of older-generation Americans are living proof to this oncoming generation that U.S. Savings Bonds belong in every family's picture of the future. With such a start, right from earliest beginnings, "How Firm A Foundation" will have new meaning as dreams come true.

Christmas Season Open

The Christmas Season is officially opened in Sanford.

Santa Clause has paid his annual call and gave his stamp of approval on the huge gift counters filled to overflowing with toys and trinkets, jewels and gems, silks and satins—everything that can be woven into a description of "a gift for Christmas."

Never before had there been such crowds in Sanford from every corner of Seminole County to greet the cheery and jubilant St. Nicholas. Not only were the crowds bigger—but they were happier—each one with an extra chuckle of joy from the finest toy to the oldest youngster who lined the parade route yesterday to watch the 1956 Christmas Parade unfold its theme "Keep Christmas With Christ."

There is no doubt but that this year's Christmas Parade sponsored jointly by the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Sanford Merchants Association was the finest in the history of this annual event.

Crowds, every foot of the way, murmured and applauded their approval of the parade as each section "passed in review" before an audience that was the largest in history. Children smiled their approval, local ministers spoke their approval, businessmen everywhere did the same.

Every person who had a hand in planning Sanford's 1956 Christmas Parade should be complimented for the "Wonderful job" that was done. The Jaycees, year by year, have profited by mistakes of years gone by to make the annual event—certainly looked forward to by parent and child alike—one of the finest and most colorful in Central Florida.

Merchants are to be commended for supporting this worthwhile venture which reached into the heart of each and every child who from the very first siren at the head of the parade until Santa Clause finished with a climax that no one will forget, stood in gaping awe.

Yes, it really takes Santa Claus to let everyone know that the Christmas season has been officially opened in Sanford.

Cecil A. Tucker, II SEMINOLE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT

Don't delay too long in beginning to feed protein supplement to your cattle this winter if you want the best results from it. This is another of those situations where "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." It's much better to prevent weight and condition losses than to put weight back on the animals which have lost it.

Another good reason for feeding protein is that it causes the cattle to eat more of other food-stuff such as dried grass or even low quality hay. A little protein supplement every day will help them eat more of the poor quality roughage and utilize it better. Cattle need protein often because, unlike fat, they cannot store protein in their bodies for any appreciable time for later use.

The amount of supplement needed will range from one-fourth to two pounds and more per animal daily. The amount needed, of course, varies depending upon the conditions and size of the animal, the kind, amount and quality of the feed material available, the stage of pregnancy and lactation, and many other factors. The idea is to start early, before the cattle lose weight, by feeding a longer period of time, you will be feeding much less per day and will get more returns per unit of protein fed than if you had started supplementing late in the season. Once the cattle get too thin it's a slow and costly process to bring them back to their normal weight.

When you are supplementing, don't forget your hard bulls. Remember, they're almost half as hard as the cows. Good bulls cost a lot but are the cheapest investment a cattleman can have. Keep them cheap by taking care of them and feeding them right over the winter.

Here's another tip, when you are shopping around for a supplement to supply protein for your cattle, buy on the cost per unit of protein. Many times a 36% protein supplement, while costing more per bag, is cheaper per unit of protein than a 16% supplement. So if you are buying for the protein that's in the bag, buy on a per unit of protein cost.

It seems that the Med fly situation has eased off somewhat; however, this was also our feeling when the last outbreak occurred in South Orlando. At the present time Seminole County is free from zone restrictions, as of some two weeks ago when restrictions were lifted from zone 3 of the Goldenrod infestation. Hopes are that these last heavy rains and this recent cold will also help on the eradication of this pest.

While we are on the subject of Med fly, here's something that might be of interest to growers who have tree snails on their groves which may still be in those areas where bait spraying is being carried out. Let's hope growers within Seminole County's boundaries will never need this type of information.

Those growers who maintain and encourage tree snails in their groves need have little fear that the bait sprays being applied in the Med fly eradication program will destroy snails.

Dr. W. A. Simonton, entomologist at the Citrus Experiment Station, Lake Alfred, stated that numbers of snails have been caged with leaves immediately after the leaves were sprayed with two to four times the usual dosage. None of the snails were killed even though confined with the leaves for as long as two weeks.

In grove experiments, the little maluks moved normally over the sprayed branches and survived repeated spraying. Medfly sprays are applied to obtain a "spatter" pattern that covers only a small part of the tree surface. Although the snails sometimes glide over the spray residues, they do not remove the bait from the leaves.

FPAL REVEALS TENTATIVE PLANS

MIAMI (AP)—The Florida Power and Light Co. has announced tentative plans to increase electricity rates by a flat 2.13 per cent about the first of the year.

The company has authority to make automatic rate increases or decrease to keep pace with the price of fuel oil which it uses to generate electricity.

The company said the increase was because of the blocking of the Suex Canal which created an oil shortage. If the shortage disappeared within a few days, no rate increase would be needed.

TROUBLE PYRAMIDING

What Do You Do In Traffic Jam?

By HAL STOLE

NEW YORK—One test of a man's character is what he does during a traffic jam.

Do you remain a fuming prisoner of the passing moments in such a situation? Or do you—this is the mark of the superior man—employ them for self-improvement and thus score a victory over time?

Many busy people complain the day isn't long enough for them to get done half the things they'd like to. They complain often that traffic jams caused them to waste more time than anything else, and usually add, "But there doesn't seem to be anything that can be done about it."

They are looking at the problem from a short-sighted angle. They look for a solution that will end traffic jams, which, since the world is getting more crowded everyday, is manifest nonsense. The dynamic approach is this: "Since traffic jams are here to stay, how can I use wisely the time I spend caught in them?"

Inspect a line of motorists in any traffic jam, and what are they doing? The odds are high that the great majority will be 1) futility blowing their horns, 2) cursing, 3) girl watching, 4) either dozing, listening to their wife, or both.

With the possible exception of girl watching, none of these activities fall into a constructive category. All the rest waste precious time and energy.

One might well ask defensively, "Well, just what do you expect me to do during traffic jams—go through college?"

As a matter of fact, why not? An average of 25 million Americans must waste at least 15 minutes a day in traffic jams. That comes to about 2,500,000,000 lost hours a year. Since a college student spends only about 1,200 hours on his studies in a four-year course, the time wasted by motorists each year in traffic jams would send 210,000 people through college.

Maybe the idea of going through college while your car is stalled doesn't appeal to you. But you can at least study a few correspondence courses an hour to get ahead on your job.

You can also even study for a new career while you are endlessly waiting for the car ahead to start. There are some jobs, of course, you can't practice while sitting in a stalled car—such as piano tuning, or should you yearn to be a lifeguard, the technique of rescuing a drowning person.

On the other hand, there are certain pursuits which can easily be mastered while sitting in a car waiting for the lights to change, a. g., opera singing, clarinet, public speaking, song writing, and cheating at cards. Traffic jams can also be utilized

U. S. Senate Resembles College

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Senate is like a college in some ways. Freshmen members are subject to mild hazing. They can get an education if they work at it. And you never can be sure when a crop of freshmen senators, which is the most likely to succeed.

The freshman class which signs up next January is, as usual a mixed lot. It numbers five Democrats and four Republicans. One of them, Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, signs himself a Democrat, but consistently gets along well with Republicans. The Nation magazine, which disapproves of him, recently called him "more conservative" than the late Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Two of the "freshmen" are repeaters. Republicans John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and Chapman Revercomb of West Virginia have taken the course before.

This is no Ivy League class. Some of the senators elected Nov. 6 come from wealthy or socially prominent families, of course. Democrat Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania, for instance, and Republican Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky.

Two second generation Americans: K. Javits of New York, who is from a Jewish neighborhood on the East Side.

And a couple who were jolly running for office in their earlier careers. Georgia's Herman Talmadge, a Democrat, naturally and the handsome young Democrat from Idaho, Frank Church, stem from families in which public office is a tradition. Of the nine newcomers, that leaves only one unaccounted for—Democrat John Carroll of Colorado. He's a former House member, a lawyer, and a veteran of both world wars.

What can be expected of these

Senate replacements? Well, President Eisenhower can expect firm support of his foreign policy from at least three Republicans: Cooper, until recently ambassador to India; Morton, a former assistant secretary of state under the present administration; and Javits, an all-out the man who has just carried an olive branch message from the President to Israel.

Javits, a Jew, won election even though he condemned the British-French-Israeli push into Egypt. Revercomb? He campaigned as an Eisenhower backer. His reputation as a senator in the 1940s, however, was such that Thomas E. Dewey stirred up a storm by refusing to endorse Revercomb in one of Dewey's presidential campaigns.

Varied Program Is Enjoyed At Sanford Story League Meet

The Thanksgiving meeting of the Sanford Story League was held Monday at the Episcopal Parish House. The meeting was opened with a prayer, after which the minutes were read and approved. A letter was read from the Tampa Story League asking that a member from the Sanford group come to the Festival of Story-telling which will be held in Tampa in January, to act as one of the judges. Mrs. E. C. Williams very graciously accepted this responsibility.

It was decided not to hold the annual Christmas party for children, but to hold a festival of story-telling during the Easter Season. Members felt that at that time of the year, a beautiful and worshipful program could be presented.

Resolutions of love and sympathy were extended to the family of a beloved member, Mrs. Elvira Garner, who passed away Oct. 30. In the passing of Mrs. Garner, children and adults alike will feel the loss of one who wrote such thrilling and true stories based on her own experiences of childhood days.

The evening's program of entertainment was opened by Mrs. Eloise Pfeiffauf who sang "Hymn of Thanks", accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Snyder. An original poem, written by Mrs. Gretchen Crowell, was read, after which a round robin of story-telling fun-time was given by Miss Nancy Robb, Mrs. C. L. Keyes, Mrs. Maurine, and Mrs. Ruth Melzler.

Highlight of the program was Mrs. C. C. Welch's telling of the story "The Perfect Tribute", which portrayed Lincoln's feelings as he wrote his Gettysburg address, and the love and admiration of a Southern army officer expressed to Lincoln as he lay dying.

The program was closed with the singing of the song "Thanks" by Mrs. Pfeiffauf.

Thanks to Mrs. E. C. Williams, his was an evening of fun and a thought-provoking time.

During the social period Mrs. Helen Stevenson, Mrs. R. A. Cobb, and Mrs. C. C. Howard served Russian tea, homemade cake, minis and salted nuts.

American Child Is Dissatisfied With Fair Locks

NAHA, Okinawa (U. S. — An American child here is highly dissatisfied with her fair tresses and white skin.

"Why do I have to have blonde hair?" asks curly-haired Penny Lynn Prosser, "Why can't I have black hair?"

Her father is Robert Prosser of the Okinawa Star, English language newspaper. He wrote of Penny's complaints in an editorial.

To Penny, anyone whose hair is not straight and black is doomed to a life of the most abject humiliation.

"And why not?" Prosser said. "Born in Japan, raised in Tokyo and Okinawa, she claims as her closest friends the little Okinawan girl around the corner, the Eurasian girl down the block and a well-mannered but uniformly brunette assortment of Japanese and Okinawan Nisei children, plus a smattering of Filipino kids."

Penny complained she was the lone blonde on her school bus and was equally outnumbered at school.

"Why do I have to have such a light skin?" she tearfully asked her puzzled parents. "Blue jeans look good on girls with brown skin. I just hate white skin."

Prosser wrote he had no answer for Penny. He counseled she was stuck with her light skin and blonde hair, just as people with brown skins and dark hair are stuck with theirs.

But he ventured she had cast "a new light on the whole question of what's the popular shade of skin to wear this season."

Penny has two grandmothers in the states, Mrs. Ima Webb Wright of Austin, Tex., and Mrs. W. B. Prosser, of Omaha, Neb.

Special guests of the evening were Mrs. Doris Yarema, mother advisor of Orlando Assembly No. 2, Mr. Hillton, a member of the advisory board for the Orlando assembly, and 12 girls from the assembly. A report was heard from the committee elected to choose a Christmas project, and the girls voted to adopt two families. Miss Kay Ivey and Miss Nellie Pickens were appointed co-chairmen for the project.

Mrs. Kathleen Reynolds, Mother Advisor, announced that Mrs. Michael Delis a member of the O. E. S., would make a donation toward the Grand Assembly trip, the amount to be based on the attendance of the officers of the assembly.

Association, which made every one there very proud to be a member.

After thanking Mr. Mebane for the luncheon, Ruth called on Beryl Swinson who wished to bid farewell to her many friends at the Mayfair Country Club. Beryl brought tears to the eyes of many as she movingly expressed what living in Sanford had meant to her.

Entertainment chairman Louise Parker, asked that the December luncheon be moved back from the 20th of Dec. to the 13th. This luncheon was full of surprises and the best was the surprise baby shower given for Gerry Carrifago by Association members.

Louise carried in a huge pink and blue box overflowing with gifts for the new little one, who will appear before the Mayfair Open. We hope Gerry was truly overwhelmed, and deeply touched by the generosity of her new friends. I do think it was Mario's first realization that he is actually to become a father. He looked a little stunned by it all.

I must apologize for falling down on the list of who was there. If a few were left out, please forgive me, but I was so excited about winning my first golf ball, I was unstrung. It will be five dollars for the entire tournament. The tournament starts the eleventh of December with registration of pros. ### Senior High Girls Will Take Part In National Test

Girls of this city will join 300,000 others throughout the United States in observing "Homemaker of Tomorrow Day" Tuesday, Dec. 4.

Simultaneously in more than 11,000 of the nation's high schools, graduating girls will test their homemaking knowledge and attitude in a 50-minute written examination. A total of $106,000 in scholarships is offered in this third annual search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Participating here will be the senior girls of Seminole High School.

Approximately three quarters of a million girls have been enrolled in this national homemaking program since it was launched in 1955 to assist the schools in homemaking education. There has been a steady increase in participation from 167,000 girls in 5,040 schools the first year and 256,000 girls in 10,222 schools last year to the present enrollment of 300,000.

In this state, 6,886 girls in 163 schools will take the written examination which consists of multiple choice and objective questions testing the students' attitudes and knowledge in the major areas of homemaking.

The girl with the highest test score in each school will be named Homemaker of Tomorrow for her school and will receive an award pin designed by Trifari of New York. Her test will be entered in competition for $1,500 and $500 scholarships which will be awarded each state Homemaker of Tomorrow and the runner-up respectively.

The school of each state winner will receive a complete set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The 48 state winners and the representative from the District of Columbia will receive an expense-paid educational tour to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, Va., and New York, where on May 2 at a Waldorf-Astoria hotel banquet one of them will be announced as the 1957 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. Her scholarship will be increased to $8,000. This year for the first time girls who rank second, third and fourth in the national finals will receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships respectively.

The test, prepared and judged by Science Research Associates of Chicago and administered by the schools, will be basis for awards until the national selections when personal observation and personal interviews will be included.

Each girl who takes the test will receive a new aid to self analysis called "Betty Crocker's Homemaker Profiler and Guide to Homemaking."

CLAM CHOWDER-FISH OVEN DISH

Canned soups can add lots of variety to your main dishes. This recipe depends on a can of clam chowder to expertly season the fish-riced casserole.

The fish is first broiled in dry bread crumbs, then baked at 300 degrees F. for 10 minutes. What a deliciously brown crust add such succulent, juicy fish! But none of the juices from the fish are lost because underneath all is fluffy tender rice.

1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
METHOD: Put the rice, salt and water in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover with a lid and simmer over this low heat for 14 minutes. After the rice cooks, remove the saucepan from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes. After the rice cooks, spread it over a well-greased baking dish about 17" x 13" x 2". Spoon the clam chowder over the rice. Pour on the water. Cut the fish fillets into serving pieces. Dip in milk. Coat well with the rice-soup mixture. Pour the melted butter or margarine over the breaded fish. Place uncovered in a pre-heated 300 degree F. oven for 10 minutes or until the fish flakes easily and the crumbs are browned.

This recipe makes 6 servings.

If you make fruit cake well ahead of the holidays, be sure that you wrap it lightly and store it in a cool place.

Crooms Closes Season In Orlando Tonight

The Crooms Academy Panthers close out their highly successful season tonight when they travel to Orlando. The game with Orlando will mark the last time the Panthers will face a Big 9 Conference team with the Panthers on probation.

Next year the Panthers will be a regular member of the Big 9 North Conference.

Under head mentor Joe Fair the Panthers have compiled a season record of 3-3 against some of the most powerful colored high school football teams in Florida. This is Fair's third year as head mentor of the Panthers and the second and final season of probation in the Big 9 Conference.

The Panthers have won over Melbourne, Eustis, and DeLand. They lost to Ocala, Miami, and Hargrove of Winter Park. And they lost to Jacksonville, Palatka, and Daytona.

"We were worried at the beginning of the season when some of our key players failed to materialize," Fair said, "but the team as a whole came through for us and we are very proud of the boys. They have done a wonderful job for the season, and no matter how the game turns out tonight, they have done themselves proud for the season."

Stetson 11 To Use Spread Formation In Friday's Game

DELAND — The Stetson football team will depend on a spread formation as its offensive threat against the University of Havana Friday night in the Conch Bowl at Key West, Coach Herb McQuillan said today.

"We will have quarterback Dick Saltrick throwing long passes to end Mel Christmas and halfbacks Jim Hawkins and Ed Timmerman," he said. "End Keith Shamrock will be available for the short pass when the downfield men are covered."

The Hatters worked on their kicking game Tuesday and began to taper off yesterday.

Longest Notre Dame run since Johnny Lattner raced 93 yards against Penn in 1953 was turned in by Bobby Ward during 1956. He returned a Pitt kickoff 81 yards for a touchdown.

Pre-game Sales For Homecoming Expected To Soar

With Warner weather predicted for Homecoming Friday night, pre-game sales on tickets are expected to soar. If a turnout such as the one for the season opener repeats itself, Sanford will be able to pride itself as being one of the better fan supported teams in the area.

Adult tickets are now on sale at B. L. Perkins and Touchtons in downtown Sanford and fans are urged to purchase tickets early.

The Milwaukee Braves drew 1,245,248 fans on the road in 1956. A total of 232,715 fans saw them in 10 playing dates against the Dodgers in Ebbets Field.

The Chicago Black Hawks have the heaviest team in the National Hockey League, averaging 183 pounds.

ANNE-KATRIN LAFREZ (right) was against the shoulder of her teammate, Marianne Werner, before the packed stands of Olympic Stadium, Melbourne. The German woman athlete had failed to qualify in the discus final.

Frank Mebane Jr., executive manager of the Mayfair Inn, announced yesterday afternoon that spectator tickets are on sale for the Second Annual Mayfair Inn Open $15,000 P. G. A. Golf Tournament, Clinic and Exhibition. The local Women's Golf Association will handle ticket sales prior to the tournament and also during the tournament.

Tickets this year are at the unbelievably low price of $5. and will entitle purchasers to attend the qualifying round on December 11, the Open Tournament Dec. 13-16, and this year the Clinic and Exhibition on Dec. 12.

The Clinic and Exhibition will be particularly interesting for spectators. It will be sponsored by the P. G. A., and will feature many of the greats in the pro golfing world.

Conducted by Sanford's own traveling pro, Jay Hebert, the event is scheduled to get underway around noon. A host of great pros, beginning with Ed "Pokey" Oliver, winter pro for the Mayfair Inn Seminole Country Club, will explain and demonstrate their various forte shots and forms.

The Clinic and Exhibition, with top names on display will last for several hours and will feature such celebrities as George Bayer. Bayer hit the longest ball in the world. The six foot-five inch 240 pounder beats up four balls on a round, and in Las Vegas he actually drove a ball over 420 yards in a recorded driving contest. Bayer powered a ball over a green 360 yards distance from the tee.

Watching such greats as Bayer display their talents in the "Sport of the Fairways" will be one of the highlights for local golfing fans.

Glen Somner, formerly of the Cleveland Harors in the American Hockey League, is chief instructor for the Pee Wee and Junior Hockey Leagues in Cleveland.

Chiefs Club To See FSU Furman Game At Tonight's Meet

The Seminole Chiefs Club meeting tonight at Seminole High School will feature movies of the FSU-Furman game, John Schirard Jr., president of the organization announced today.

The movies of the game arrived on a rusher just in time to be shown at the meeting.

Bill Fleming, head football coach for the Sanford Seminoles, will report on the gridiron season to date, and is expected to analyze his charges for the group. He will also discuss the Seminoles chances against Lakeview of Winter Garden tomorrow night in the Seminole homecoming tilt.

Bud Laver, Seminole basketball coach will also be on hand to tell the group about the coming season, an analysis of his charges' potential, and discussion of Seminole vs. competition.

W. W. Tyre will report on the high school football game, the project, and the progress made toward the fund raising drives for payment of the uniforms.

Also to be discussed will be the sending of the football squad to Gainesville Saturday. The Chiefs Club will make the gridiron team guests for the Miami-Florida game. The team will travel to Gainesville in a school bus furnished by the Seminole County Board of Education with all expenses paid by the Chiefs Club.

The University of North Carolina basketball team began the 1956-57 campaign with 56 victories as against 36 losses since Frank McGuire became head coach in 1953.

Syracuse and Colgate have played 57 football games. Colgate leads 31-21 there were five ties, that with a heavy hitting team.

The American Bowling Congress membership department processed 269,049 teams through Oct. 31. The figure represents a gain of almost 48,000 teams over the same date in 1955.

The Sanford Seminoles hopes of winning an upset over fourth place Lakeview of Winter Garden began steamrolling yesterday as hope mounted that the warriors would go into the homecoming tilt at near full power.

Brantley Schirard, All EFC center last year and outstanding performer on the offensive line, offensive backfield, and all around defensive star, was reported in excellent shape and had completely recovered from his concussion. Schirard incurred a head injury during practice four weeks ago and has seen limited action since then. His return to availability for the backfield this week sparks the Seminoles hopes of winning the final game of the season.

Speedster Jim Warner returned to pads to give the club an additional bolster. Warner has been troubled with a bad knee for two weeks, and continued best treatment response was gradual.

Warner re-injured his leg in the Day's Night tilt with DeLand, forcing the Seminoles to go into an ineffective passing game.

Jack Stotsky, injured center for the Seminoles who has been hampered with a bad leg since mid-season, returns to full power today to top off the returnees.

Bill Fleming, head mentor for the Seminoles, said that the boys attitude had picked up and "They really enjoyed themselves in Tuesday's scrimmage".

The Lakeview Devils will throw their 2-3 OBC record on the line against the Seminoles' 0-5 conference record, but there is little chance that the results of the game will alter either of the teams standings.

The Seminoles 1-7-1 record for the overall season is not indicative of their potential, and the Seminoles apparently are out to prove it. If the Seminoles should upset the Devils it would take them out of the weak sister classification and put them in the category of a good team hampered with injuries and bad breaks.

With the display of power and team unity that made a thrilling 14-15 game with Leesburg, the Seminoles could well close out their season in a blaze of glory.

SHS Basketball Gets Underway Monday

The waning of football heralds the start of the basketball season, and the Sanford Seminoles already have 19 games on the schedule on the home court and 9 on foreign courts.

Football season winds up Friday night, and basketball gets underway the following Monday.

Bud Laver, Seminole area coach, said that his team would get off to a slow start due to the length of football season. While other teams are building standouts, Laver isn't sure just what potential he will have yet.

But Laver is the type that will overcome that true shortcoming in a hurry. He's jovial yet stern, commanding, and with an eye to corrective measures; he's a stickler for that all-important consistency. With the aid of Dick Silvers, the coaches combine into a duo that should make the best of Seminole potential.

Cadillac

Surpasses its Own Great Reputation!

You're looking at a mighty surprised man. Almost all of his adult life he has owned and driven Cadillac cars. And so, when he decided to take an hour out from his busy schedule to see and drive the new 1957 Cadillac, he thought he knew about what to expect.

Well, here he is—barely under way in the city—and already he is learning the startling truth. He is learning that nothing could adequately prepare a man for the new "car of cars"—not even Cadillac ownership itself!

He suspected it, in fact, the instant he stepped into the showroom and caught his first glimpse of this newest Cadillac creation. This was an entirely new kind of Cadillac beauty—brilliantly fresh in line and in contour.

And then he opened the door and swung into the driver's seat—and found added evidence all around him. On every side were new miracles of interior beauty and comfort and convenience.

And when he turned the key and put his foot on the accelerator, his sentiment grew to conviction. The car was incredibly nimble and quiet and smooth of ride.

Surprised, did we say? Just wait until he hits the open highway and receives the final verdict.

No question about it—this is the Cadillac that literally surpasses its own great reputation!

We suggest that you come in soon to see and drive this most surprising new Cadillac in fifty-four years. It's an experience you shouldn't postpone—and one you'll not soon forget.

Rotarians Stage Enjoyable Quiz Show At Kiwanis

The good natured, good-fellowship civic clubs rivalry that has existed between the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs of Sanford was again demonstrated yesterday at the weekly luncheon meeting of Kiwanis when two local Rotarians staged a quiz show as the program.

Equipped with a cash register containing ten silver dollars and a like amount in quarters, Charles Morrison and Francis Roumlis, Jr. proved that they could take a lot of kidding as well as they could dish it out. And, according to club president, A. L. Wilson, when Morrison queried Howard Montleth on the subject, "The Bible," everything appeared to be on the level until Charlie noticed that Howard was standing right behind the Rev. Milton Wyatt, First Methodist Church minister. The crowd roared when Morrison had Montleth move to another spot. By a strange coincidence, the move was right behind the Rev. Perry Stone, pastor of the First Christian Church. By answering the required number of questions on his subject, Montleth received a silver dollar with the suggestion that he split it with the ministers.

Several visitors from Winter Park participated in the program. As the affair was drawing to a close, Kiwanis Secretary, Ralph Austin Smith, who was keeping a tab on the total amount of prize money being distributed, called the C's attention to the fact that Kiwanis had exceeded the amount won by Rotarians recently at a similar program.

Morrison had frankly stated that $9.50 had gone into the pockets of his club fellows and Smith's totals (which, of course, were not checked by any auditors present) was $9.75. After the meeting, Morrison, in the opinion of several Kiwanians, alighted by stating that he had given more Kiwanians an opportunity to answer than he had given the Rotarians.

Joel Field, in charge of the program for the day, said that he had prepared a splendid introduction for the occasion but that so much time had been taken up by various and sundry announcements that his program would have only 30 minutes in which to give away some money. In expressing the appreciation of the club for the program, Field said that the two Rotarians would be most welcome any time; "any time that is when you have some more dollars to pass out."

The awards of trophies and cash prizes were made at the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon today at the Yacht Club.

Tommy McDonald, chairman of the Jaycee Christmas Parade Committee said today, "I am well pleased with the parade. It was a fine one. I think from the comments I have from business people in Sanford, that the crowd was the largest ever seen here."

"I think that the schools in both the junior and senior divisions really made a wonderful effort to have good floats in the parade — certainly approached and exceeded the cooperation of the Jaycee members, members of the Merchants Association, the churches and organizations," said McDonald.

CHAPTER 49

VAL SAW Bruce only for brief moments in the days that followed. There were long periods when she was able to put him completely out of her mind. In the afternoons, she would catch the bus down to Montego Bay, swim in the tepid blue waters of Doctor's Cove, then lie on a grass mat in the hot sun. Lying in the sun soothed her nerves and allowed her to think things out in a clear, almost detached way.

One morning, having the following night of duty, Val caught the plane to Kingston, attended to some business and caught the same plane back after sundown. When the a t i v e boy brought her breakfast the next morning there was a large air-mail envelope on the tray. She slit it open with eager fingers, for by the writing and the postmark she knew it was from Dirk. There was an enclosure and she saw with surprise that it was an unopened letter addressed to Dr. Bruce Harrison at Guy's hospital, London. The handwriting was feminine and the envelope was crumpled.

She straightened herself against the pillows and began to read Dirk's letter.

"My darling," it began. "I know I won't hear from you until I write you first. I told you I loved you and you know, of course, I want to marry you. Things are smoothing down here. As you know, Aunt May's relatives have dropped the suit, but I've no intention of being completely unselfish about the money and just handing it back to those relatives who didn't care a jot for her. I've talked with Cousin Timothee and it's been agreed I'm to use some of the capital to modernize Stormhurst Manor. Since it's too big to live in comfortably, we are going to turn the old place over to a children's convalescent charity and they'll provide what money I'm unable to get out of Aunt May's estate for its upkeep.

They were looking for just such a place and they jumped at the chance of getting it for nothing. Your brother Tom put me on to them, and I understand the idea is to make him the resident doctor. It is to be called The Eileen Featherstone Children's Memorial Home.

"I'm going to use some of the money for necessary repairs on our own place, as well as making a comfortable apartment for Cousin Timothee when he leaves the Manor. He'll be company for Father, when you and I—and I mean you and I, darling, hopefully—are abroad collecting material for some of the new travel books I'm planning. By the way, the book I wrote about Fiji has not only found an American publisher but has been accepted in the Best Travel Book of the Month series. Now I can go on writing with the hope that at least a decent livelihood will come out of it.

"And now to another matter. I want you to get everything straightened out in your mind before you give the enclosed letter to Bruce. I think it is the letter Eileen wrote him the day before she died two years ago. I'm afraid Aunt May must have taken it from the silver tray where everyone in the house used to leave their letters for posting. I found it shoved away in a secret drawer at the back of her desk. So Bruce never received Eileen's letter, which explains a great deal.

"But listen, darling, if you and Bruce have worked out some plan for your own lives, it might be better if you didn't give him this letter. It might somehow spoil things for you. That's why I'm sending it to him through you.

"There is nothing more to say now, my darling, other than the words I said to you at the airport. I'm waiting for you. Ever, Dirk."

She read the letter through several times and then she took a shower and dressed. She went first to speak to Matron Cameron; afterwards she went to find Bruce in his office. It was the first time she had deliberately sought him out. He rose as she came in and looked at her in surprise. Her face was white and tense.

"Why, Val, has anything happened?" he asked anxiously. She sank down into a chair facing him. "Why did you tell Matron Cameron I intended to apply for the post in Mandeville?"

"I thought when we discussed the matter the other day we both agreed it would be a good idea," he said awkwardly.

Her blue eyes looked into his face. "I said I thought it would be a good idea for me to go away from here. I still think so—and that's why I'm going."

He looked back at her anxiously. "But if you're not going to take this post at Mandeville, where are you going, Val?"

She continued to look at him steadily. "I'm going back to England, Bruce."

"You're going back to Dirk?" he asked savagely. "That's it, isn't it?"

She hesitated a long time before she said quietly, "Maybe. Anyhow I'll have to think up my mind on the homeward voyage. I'm leaving the hospital almost immediately. I'll be staying with friends until I sail next week. I've signed on as a stewardess."

Bruce pushed back the chair from his desk and started to pace the room worriedly. Presently he swung back toward her and said angrily and accusingly, "You know what you're doing to me, Val? You're giving Dirk the victory for the second time."

Can love die in a moment? Her love for Bruce died in Val's heart in that moment, finally and painlessly.

"I had an air-mail letter from Dirk this morning. He enclosed a letter for you, Bruce," she said.

"A letter he'd written to me?" She shook her head. "No. A letter which was written to you by someone else quite a while ago. I think you'll recognize the writing." She passed the unopened letter across to him.

(Continued From Page 1) tribution Frame is the first major step taken by the Winter Park Telephone Company, since ground for the new building was broken earlier this year, to insure inauguration of the toll free Metropolitan Service on the appointed date in September 2, 1957, company officials said yesterday.

Another major step will be taken early next month, when installation of central office equipment will be started on the ground floor of the new building. This equipment will have a capacity for handling 14,000 lines, or 40,000 telephone numbers. Plans for the building envisage the possibility of four additional floors for central office equipment, with a total capacity for handling 200,000 telephones. These four additional floors will be built in the course of time, as the need for more and more lines arises.

Arrival of the Central Office equipment from the North Electric Company of Gallon, Ohio, in December will supply the Winter Park Telephone Company with the elements needed to complete about two thirds of the installation necessary for the Metropolitan Service.

The new building itself will be ready for occupancy before the end of the year. Floors and walls are already up on the building's second story, and windows and doors are now being installed.

First Winter Park Telephone Company personnel to move into the new building in January includes B. A. ("Al") Galloway, vice-president in charge of the Plant Department; Plant Manager John Henderson, Traffic Manager A. E. Ludscher, Plant Engineer R. P. Hulbert, and Purchasing Agent R. Seney and their respective staffs.

Indian Pageant To Be Presented At Half-Time Show

Chief Seminoles will reign over a fantastic pageant to be presented by the Seminole High School Band and Pep Club during the Seminole-Lakeview Half-Time tonight. During the pageant the entire field will be massed with an array of Indian regalia including 41 decorative tom toms, a large teepee standing 15 feet in the air, a burning stake, smoke that will be used for the peace pipe formation, 41 bows and arrows, an Indian chief on a prancing horse, 10 majorettes in warrior costume and 86 members dressed in Indian costume.

The band and pep club will enter the field playing Indian music while hopping through intricate dance steps. Upon reaching the 50 yard line they will form a bow and arrow. Then with the roll of the tom toms the arrow will be shot from the bow. As Tom Stubbings, who will pose as Chief Seminoles, enters the field on horseback an Indian pantomime will be staged including a dance by the Seminole High School Majorettes Corps. Acting as chief, Majorette Corp. will be led by J. D. Stone, Pep Club Drill Captain Mary Ann Hall and Vallerie Kirchhoff.

After the Indian Pageant the group will form a letter "S", the homecoming sponsors will be presented and Captain J. D. Stone will lead the band and students in singing the Alma Mater. Henry Cason will announce the show over the public address system. This is the final of five tremendous spectacles presented at half-time by the band and pep club. Miss Barbara Robb is sponsor of the pep club and Ernest Cowley is the band director.

SHS Band To Be In DeLand Parade

The Seminole High School Band will participate in the colorful Christmas Parade in DeLand Saturday at 2:00 P. M. The band was commended by the DeLand parade committee in last year's parade when the majorette corps donned reindeer outfits and pranced up the DeLand Boulevard. When the invitation was extended to the band they were informed that such an impression was made on the public in last year's parade that the townspeople specifically asked for a repeat performance by the 55 piece marching group. This will mark the third parade the band has participated in this week.

Dawsons Represent County At Civil Defense Session

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dawson attended a meeting of Florida Civil Defense, District Five, supervised by Mr. Fred Demotte of Daytona Beach, held at the Court House in Bunnell on Wednesday. A. B. Peterson, Civil Defense Director of Seminole County, had requested Mr. and Mrs. Dawson to represent Seminole County and the Director at this meeting.

Reports were given by representatives from the following counties: St. Johns, Flagler, Marion, Clay, Orange, Brevard, and Volusia.

Time was given to the discussion of activities of the State Defense Organization at Kissimmee and Melbourne during the recent floods. Don Doyle, American Red Cross, who was directly responsible for the relief of the people whose homes were involved, said that, as Kissimmee and Ocala County were unprepared for disaster either through Red Cross or Civil Defense, the cost to Red Cross was $2500 while the previous preparation of Brevard County made the cost only $300 to care for nearly twice as many families. He praised the cooperation of Civil Defense workers, Sheriffs and their deputies, Florida Power and Light Co. workers, who now according to Mr. Cole of Orlando, carry Civil Defense cards, especially the State Patrol workers.

Lieut. Weaver of the Florida Highway Patrol told of the training given his men to be prepared for natural or war disaster, especially the plans for evacuation from the target city of Orlando and the First Aid training of the Red Cross. He also praised the American Legion for their organization of a Highway Patrol Auxiliary. He called attention to the need of a better cooperation in plans with local sheriffs and police, although both offices were always willing to give aid in transportation and communication.

State Director of Civil Defense, Col. Tarkington of Jacksonville who has recently been appointed by the Governor as State Coordinator of Natural Disaster, urged County representatives to carry to their Commissioners the need.

Major Roy G. Brown, Lake Mary real estate man and retired Army major, was named General Chairman of the 1957 Seminole County Chapter, American Red Cross membership drive.

Announcement of the selection of Major Brown to head the important drive was made by Frank Evans, chairman of the board, at a meeting held this afternoon at the Sanford City Hall.

Major Brown has the distinction of serving in three wars, World War 1, World War 2, and the Korean conflict. He was in the U. S. Navy during the first world war and then received his commission in the U. S. Army in 1930. "I came up through the ranks," he said as he described the post he had held at Army installations throughout the world.

The retired Major, who came to Lake Mary in 1954 from Michigan, held administrative positions in Washington, D. C. during World War 2 when he had charge of terminating huge war contracts with such firms as General Electric and Western Electric as well as hundreds of similar industrial organizations engaged in the manufacture of war goods.

"Major Brown is a wonderful gentleman," Frank Evans said this afternoon, "and he has certainly become an asset to our country."

The executive board and interested citizens met this afternoon to further the planning of the 1957 American Red Cross membership drive in Seminole County.

Here to advise the group and talk over extensive plans were Donald Doyle, Field Representative for Central Florida and Gen. Eugene V. Elder, volunteer worker assigned to fund campaign work in this area.

Mentally Retarded Subject Official Says 7 Basic Needs In Education

Charles High, consultant for the State Department of Education, told the Seminole County Education Association last night that "there are seven basic needs in education."

High, of Tallahassee, was formerly director of education for exceptional children in Dade County, immediate past president of the council for exceptional children and received an appointment from President Eisenhower to serve the southeastern region for the planning meeting in 1950.

He listed the basic needs for education as: academic, psychological, cultural, moral, spiritual, vocational and emotional. He said "special emphasis should be placed on the special needs of children."

"It is economical for all if mentally retarded children can

Parents, Teachers Will Participate In P-TA Program

The Parent Teacher Association of Seminole High School will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

After the regular business meeting a program will be presented in which the teachers and parents will participate. Those attending will be separated into four groups, each with a discussion leader and a recorder. In these groups many topics will be discussed concerning the student in the home, in the school and in the community.

The public is urged to attend as the meeting, according to P-TA officials, "will be a profitable one."

To Train Engineer Commission Suggests Bair As City Planner

Fred Bair, secretary of the Florida Planning and Zoning Commission, of Auburndale was recommended last night by the Zoning and Planning Commission as the City of Sanford as the consultant to be employed by the city to train a local city engineer for future planning of Sanford.

A number of city planners had been interviewed by the Zoning and Planning Commission and of the number, Bair was chosen as the best, according to Bob Brown, chairman of the commission, as he explained action of the board up to the present.

Bair was described as "down to earth with a practical approach." The recommendation of the Zoning and Planning Commission was made at a joint meeting with the Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

Al Collins, a member of the Zoning and Planning group said "Bair appears to take what we have and build to it. Others seem to work from setting out a pattern with ideas of a hold in the city later. The Zoning and Planning Commission needs professional help to show the way to go."

Al Lee, another member of the Zoning and Planning Commission needs help. We are interested in the downtown area and we need to look out for it."

Howard Faville, another member of the Board commented that "Bair is the most logical and down to earth. We need help to get around some of our local problems that restrict us from growing."

However, no definite action was taken at last night's joint meeting. Commissioners believed that they should talk with and consult the various planners before taking any action at all.

Voters To Express Choice For Refuse, Garbage Pick-Up

BY MRS. RAYMOND MORRIS CASSELLBERRY—Voters will express their preference for garbage and refuse pick-up, on a weekly or twice weekly basis, next Monday. A low bid of $1.10 per month per family, was submitted by the Ace Sanitary, Inc. for one a week service, and a low bid of $1.50 per month per family for twice a week service from Edwin C. Logue of Logue Garbage Service. Both firms agreed to refund ten per cent of the fee to the town, for an excellent performance bond, carry liability insurance and use standard type equipment.

In the race for mayor, two new names will be on the ballot, challenging Joseph I. Laird, former mayor for two years and completing a two-year term as alderman. His opponents are Donald W. Willson and Joseph D. Bryant.

In a wide open race for alderman retiring, two-term mayor Junius J. Allen is the only one of seven candidates who formerly held that office. Of the six opponents, Mrs. Mary Hallett, a resident for nineteen years, lays claim to being the town's first clerk.

$400,000 Ordinance Approved

The Capital Improvement Program of the City of Sanford was assured this morning when the Board of Sanford City Commissioners at a special meeting called for 10 o'clock approved a bond ordinance bringing the city $400,000 to complete the 16 item program.

Leedy, Wheeler & Alleman, investment bankers, of Orlando will handle the bonds. The firm was represented at this morning's meeting by Loomis C. Leedy Jr.

An agreement, originally presented at the beginning of the meeting was discarded when commissioners unanimously agreed that a five year plan for recalling the bonds should be adopted.

Commissioner Earl Hugginsbortham offered the motion to accept the bid of Leedy, Wheeler & Alleman "and authorize the city attorney to draw up the necessary bond ordinance subject to changes to be approved by the attorney."

The bond ordinance will tie up all revenues from the Florida Power and Light Company franchise agreement until the bonds have been retired.

Director of Finance H. N. Sayer this morning estimated that the bonds would be retired in approximately nine years at an interest rate of 3.32 per cent.

Not until the agreement was acceptable that all FP&L Co. franchise revenues be used to retire the bonds would the commissioners agree to approve the bond issue.

The original proposal and bid on the bond issue received its first real objection from commissioner David Gatehel when he said "seems as if we are being tied with our hands behind our backs."

"I was thinking we could use the franchise money and not be (Continued on Page 3)

Choir To Present Annual All Music Service Dec. 16

The annual all music service of the First Presbyterian church will be a vesper hour worship at 3:30 p. m. on Dec. 16. It was announced by the Rev. A. G. McInnis.

This presentation of the Christmas story sung by the Chancel choir is considered by many as a highlight of the Yule season, it was said, and in the past has been attended by over-flowing congregations.

This year Mrs. George Touhy, Minister of Music, says the 33 members of the choir who will participate in the candlelight carol service will sing 11 anthems and the usual responses.

There will be three organ numbers which Mrs. Touhy will play and one of the preludes will be a piano-organ duet with Mrs. Roy Mann at the piano.

Mrs. Mann as pianist also will join in the accomplishment of one of the anthems.

Several of the soloists of the choir will sing portions of the anthems and there will be one number by the male chorus, another in which the women's voices are featured.

The hour long service in the atmosphere of a candlelit church adds much to the true spirit of the season dedicated to the birth of Christ, it is said by those who have attended previous services.

Madrigal Singers To Entertain Rotary At Parish House

Members of the Sanford Rotary Club will have the opportunity of hearing one of Central Florida's outstanding vocal groups next Monday noon when the Madrigal Singers of Rollins College, directed by Robert Hufstader, will feature the program arranged by Robert Lamont.

In order that the singers may have the advantage of good acoustics, the meeting will be held at the Parish House of Holy Cross Episcopal Church. All Rotarians are asked by club president Dr. Charles L. Persons to make note of the change of location for this meeting.

Longwood Council Praised

Much Needed Water System In Operation

By MRS. RUTH LAYO
Longwood's Town Council, the ever constant alert for the betterment of their town, realized in the summer of 1955 that the town was facing an acute water shortage and that action had to be taken to avert such an emergency.

The council contacted the State of Florida Geological Department requesting they survey the present well. The State Health Department also assisted with their many facilities. Services of the engineering firm of Albert O'Neill, Orlando, were employed to make a survey of the then existing water supply and system and advance their recommendations for the expansion of supply. Keeping in mind that the continued growth of the town would warrant remedial action and should be adequate for the needs of the town for some years hence as any other approach to the problem would result in economic loss to the town. On completion of the surveys and recommendations a contract was let to the Layne Atlantic Company, a national concern of high rating.

The new plant called for a new eight inch well, approximately 420 feet deep with eight inch casing extending down 204 feet. The new pump to be a Layne Atlantic turbine pump with a 30 H. P. motor and a water output of 500 gallons per minute. The new equipment to deliver 100% rated capacity even though the water level should drop many feet in the next decade. The total cost of the complete project to be approximately $6,000.

The program has now been completed and in operation. Longwood has ample water supply and sufficient for normal population growth for some years to come. Also, Longwood can be very proud of the high quality of her water, of which many of the state's communities can well be envious. A test run upon completion of the project was of a four-hour duration and a better than 500 gallon per minute average was maintained. The old pump was in constant operation at the same time and the water draw down was only twelve inches over the period and maintained constant. The old well and pumps have not been abandoned, nor will they, as the council is following the recommendation of the Fire Insurance Underwriters, with a view to further reductions in insurance rates.

Not only producing more than adequate water supply the new system provides a great financial saving to the town in operational cost. Whereas, the old system electric power bill averaged $136.50 per month in the past the new systems cost for the first full month of operation was $31.20.

In addition to the improved water system the town council have approved laying of 15,000 feet of new water mains in the past two years. Also approximately five miles of new streets have been opened and contemplation of the paving of Church Street is now in progress. There have been a great many new homes constructed on the new opened street as well as on many of the others. "Progress" could well be called the theme of Longwood.

Longwoodites can well be proud of the town's administration of the past two years, members being: R. C. Carlson, Pres. of the Town Council; Samuel Johnson, Chairman of the Water Dept.; James Reiter, Chairman of Street Dept.; H. S. Lew Arnold, Chairman Building, Playground and Parks; and John Reams, Chairman of Finance.

AN OVIEDO FUND DRIVE will get underway soon to provide caps and equipment for the Oviedo High School Band. The band, shown above, appeared in Sanford's Annual Christmas Parade Wednesday afternoon. (Staff Photo)
