A special program is being arranged for Friday night. Professor Fuhart, Art Director of Stetson University will be here at this time to deliver a lecture on art appreciation. The collection of pictures that are to be shown in Sanford come here from Stetson University, where they were last exhibited to the delight of a large number of the people of DeLand. The admission for Friday night will be the same as for the afternoon admissions 10 cents.

Catalogues describing the pictures and giving short stories of the lives of the authors may be purchased at the door. The price of the catalogue is only five cents, but it will greatly help in understanding the arrangement of the pictures and their contents.

None of the pictures shown are for sale, however if there are those who desire to purchase any of the collection orders may be left with the manager of the exhibit who will gladly procure the selections made. The catalogues give the prices of all pictures in the exhibit.

The donation of any picture selected from the exhibit will be gratefully acknowledged free by a brass plate giving the name of donor, or if a memorial the name of the person in whose name it is given. Orders for pictures for the above or any other purpose may be left with Miss Clara Millen of the grammar school or sent to Mr. B. F. Ezell, who is managing the exhibit.

CAR SHORTAGE SERIOUS

Growers Who Fail to Order Fertilizers in time may Get None. That the shortage of freight cars may greatly interfere with farmers' supplies of fertilizers, machinery, lime and other necessities is the opinion of the authorities in the business world most competent to judge.

The shortage is increasing at an alarming rate, with no relief in sight. The September shortage of 19,000 cars grew to 60,000 in October, 108,000 in November and close to 150,000 in December. At this rate March will see a lack of more than 300,000 cars annually necessary for moving fertilizers alone.

These figures are authentic and such people as the Armour Fertilizer Works, the National Fertilizer Association and others see in the situation enough seriousness to warrant their warning their close connections to make every effort to place fertilizer orders early, to make sure of getting any at all. The usual shipping season on fertilizers covers six to eight weeks. The railroads ask that at least three months be given them this year.

One of the country's foremost fertilizer men is sending out this warning: "Farmers who order their fertilizers early will enable the railroads to move them before the rush season opens and the cars can be unloaded and used several times and for several hauls instead of one. This will help out the railroads, the dealer and the manufacturers and will insure a supply of fertilizers in a year when on account of high prices for farm products fertilizers are going to pay bigger profits on the investment than ever before. The shipping of fertilizers early is of advantage to the farmer in other ways and early ordering will help everybody."

With food stuffs prices higher than ever before, a largely increased acreage may be looked for, which means greater demand for fertilizers, which means demand for even more cars than usual. And there are fewer cars than for many years past. Early buying and cooperation with dealers or neighbors to make up maximum car load shipments will help assure fair delivery. But unless growers take prompt and intelligent action to secure delivery without delay on such items as will be needed this spring, they may sit idle and watch the days pass with no crops in the ground. The situation may be unpleasant, but it is an unescapable truth.

The Perry Decorating Co. of Jacksonville have been appointed official decorators for the Seminole County Fair. Mr. Halstead, manager of the company is in town making arrangements for the decorations.

KAISER LAYS BLAME ON ENTENTE POWER

ANY FUTURE BLOODSHED WILL BE LAID ON THEM

Amsterdam, via London, Jan. 8.—Berlin telegram says the following order of the German emperor to the army and navy has been officially published:

"Cojunctly with the allied (Central Powers) rulers I proposed to our enemies to enter forthwith into peace negotiations. Our enemies refused my offer. Their hunger for power desires Germany's destruction. The war will be continued. Before God and humanity I declare that on the governments of our enemies alone falls the heavy responsibility for all the further terrific sacrifices from which I wish to save you.

"With justified indignation at our enemies' arrogant crime and with determination to defend our holiest possessions and secure for the fatherland a happy future you will become as steel. Our enemies did not want the understanding offered by me. With God's help your arms will enforce it.

"Wilhelm I. R."

Washington, Dec. 8.—After three days of spirited debate touching international relations the senate has adopted a resolution stating that "the senate approves and strongly endorses the request by the President in the diplomatic notes of December 18 to the nations now engaged in war that those nations state the terms upon which peace might be discussed."

The resolution was approved last night by 48 to 17, 10 Republicans joining the majority. It was offered by Senator Jones, Republican, as a substitute for the original resolution of Senator Hitchcock which Republican senators contended carried endorsement of the entire note.

London, England, Jan. 8.—The entente reply to the peace offer of the central powers was presented to the German foreign office by the American ambassador on Friday afternoon, according to a Berlin dispatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam.

Misses Della and Bernece Reynolds returned to their home in Tampa Saturday after spending the holidays very pleasantly at the Holdstrom home on West First street.

U. S. MUST HIKE FROM MEXICO

OR CARRANZA WILL NOT EVEN SPEAK TO HIM

Queretaro, Mexico, Jan. 8.—General Carranza tonight sent a message to the Mexican commission attending the American Mexican conference, informing them it was impossible for him to sign the proposed protocol as it limited the conditions surrounding the withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico. He said the clause dealing with this matter would have to be eliminated or amended, as it was not sufficiently clear, and gave a chance of difficulties which might arise with the withdrawal of the troops or the suspension of their withdrawal.

The message says that only the immediate recall of the American forces can be accepted, and as soon as their withdrawal is begun the final ratification of the protocol can be proceeded with. After verification of the retirement of the American soldiers, the message concludes, the Mexican commissioners can discuss other matters specified in their credentials.

Great Basket Ball Game. On to victory is the slogan of the B. S. A. basketball team. Last night the locals should have played the Tampa Imps, but on account of sickness in the family of one of their players the game was called off at the eleventh hour, putting the locals in a bad hole. Not discouraged in the least over the failure of the Tampa team to arrive the locals got busy and made a trip over to Winter Park and the boys from Orange county realizing the circumstances of the local club volunteered to give the local team a game, so as the public would not be dissatisfied.

And to the credit of those boys who without any practice and asked at the spur of the moment for a game, it must be said with all fairness, even though they lost the game by a score of 23 to 5, that from the writer's view of the game with a little more practice they will be heard from in the near future.

The Winter Park boys played through the whole game without registering a sack, and each and every decision which was made they abided by. This game was like a Quaker meeting when it came to talking.

The game proved beyond any doubt that any kind of sport can be played without any rowdyism and was said before, no cleaner game has ever been staged in this city.

"Sir Rpbie" Laing, the peerless center negotiated 12 of the 23 points scored, and while he left the game during the second half he would have no doubt thrown a few more baskets. Kanner played his same steady game and that speaks, very well of his work, for this star forward has proven his weight in gold to the local club this season.

Jones continued his great playing in this game, and while he receives his knocks and hard falls his dollars to doughnuts that his opponents get their share of what is coming to them.

Captain Hawkins went in the last half after he tried out his subs to see just how they would work. The Captain proves to be a good leader from the side lines as well as in the game.

Coach Sheil also went in the last quarter and displayed to the public a few tricks and sciences which this game produces.

Murrell and Robinson substituted and both filled their positions in A. No. 1 style.

Washburn, "side kick" to Jones in these games played in high top form and the more the teams played the better Harold got.

The work of the referee, Ned Chittenden was excellent or rather it had to be excellent as the above story says no kicks were registered, even though one of the local guards thought he was blind on one of his decisions.

The officials were Referee Chittenden, Umpire Boyer, and Timekeeper R. Chittenden, Scorer Davis.

TOM LAWSON BENEFICIARY BIG "LEAK"

WILSON'S ADVISORS INADVERTENT SPEECH GAVE PUBLIC CLUE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 8.—At a hearing on Rep. Wood's resolution for investigation whether there was a stock market leak on President Wilson's peace note, the trend turned to investigation of Wall street ticker services which supply new tips to brokerage houses.

Seven men employed by the Wall Street Journal and Central News of America, which furnishes service to another Wall street newspaper, Financial American, were subpoenaed and ordered to bring their records with them. Managers of the two telegraph companies also were subpoenaed to bring all dispatches sent to the two newspapers by their Washington correspondents on Dec. 20, the day of the market crash. Harrison, Democrat of the committee said he believed the so-called leak was through the representatives of those two publications, who with several newspaper men had been informed confidentially by Secretary Lansing that morning that a note had been dispatched to Europe.

Mr. Lansing, however, at that time declared the note did not discuss peace and would not discuss its contents.

Representative Gardner of Massachusetts put into the record a dispatch sent out over the Dow-Jones ticker forecasting a peace note, ten hours before the note was published. He declared records of stock market fluctuations at the same time, when compared to the ticker dispatches would prove there was a leak.

M. Gardner said he placed both Secretary Lansing and Secretary Tammully entirely above suspicion.

Mr. Lansing will appear before the committee without subpoena. Mr. Tammully also will appear voluntarily.

Representative Chipherfield of Illinois, Republican member of the committee declared at the "leak" hearing he understood Thomas W. Lawson had been the chief beneficiary of the market decline after the President's peace note was made public and that this transaction aggregated 300,000 shares.

Representative Wood of Indiana, author of the leak inquiry resolution was recalled to the stand. Representative Harrison, Democrat, asked him why he had not satisfied himself as to the identity of "A. C. Curtis" who wrote him the letter giving alleged information. Mr. Chipherfield objected to this line of questioning.

"Representative Wood is not the author of the charges under inquiry here," said Chipherfield, "and his motives cannot be impugned. I think we are losing sight of the fact that these scandalous charges were made by Thomas W. Lawson of Boston and it is my understanding that Mr. Lawson was the chief beneficiary of this falling market. His transactions, I am told, aggregated $300,000 on this market. I think Representative Wood would have been derelict in his duty if he had not brought this matter to the attention of the house. Wood is not the father of those charges. If anybody is, it is Thomas W. Lawson."

Representative Harrison replied that Wood's first resolution was introduced before Lawson made any statement. The committee by a party vote sustained a decision by Chairman Henry that Harrison's line of questioning was proper.

South Florida Fair

Tampa, Fla., Jan. 5.—Although it has been certain that the South Florida Fair would be bigger and better than ever, an infinitely greater variety of produce exhibits and better amusement features have been secured there has been fear that the Gasparilla carnival would not be as good as hoped for on account of the lack of funds. Citizens, however, have contributed enough to make it better than those of two or three years ago, which were great successes and infinitely better than that of last February, which was disappointing because there was little money with which to promote it. Therefore visitors from northern states, as well as out of town people will be pleased with every feature. Committees, clubs and citizens are now hard at work on the carnival features, and will present some decide novelties in addition to those upon by Ye Mystic Krewe of Gasparilla.

That the attendance from other states will be even larger than that of last year is now assured by reason of which it is hoped there will be an even larger number of county and individual exhibitors than is now assured. The number of counties reported to date is about double that of last year.

Eclipse of the Moon

Did you see the eclipse of the moon Sunday night?

Well, it eclipsed anything of the kind ever seen before, so say the night owls who were returning home at that time of the morning.

The eclipse, which by the way is the first of two to be visible to dwellers on the Western Hemisphere this year, commenced at 11:50 o'clock, when the dark indenture on the eastern side of the moon began to make its way slowly across its surface until the earliest hour this morning when the globular object appeared as a dark ball.

The middle of the eclipse was reached at 1:44 o'clock, and the total eclipse ended at 2:28 o'clock. At 3:38 o'clock the shadow of the earth passed off of the extreme western side of the moon, and lunar once more shone out in her erstwhile serenity.

GERMAN COUP IN ROUMANIA SUBSTANTIAL

HAVE OIL WELLS WORKING AND MANY OTHER SUPPLIES

The capture of Braila by Field Marshal von Mackensen, his advance on Galatz, 12 miles north, the clearing of Dobrudja of Russians and further Teutonic successes in Moldavia have brought the Rumanian campaign to a new phase.

The Braila bridgehead, while not an integral part of the Sereth line now held by the Russians, running northwest from the Danube toward the Moldavian frontiers, formed an outlying defense of that line on the Danube end and its capture weakens the eastern flank of the line. Galatz, also on the Danube line lies just behind the Sereth line and that town now is menaced by a Germano-Bulgarian movement across the river from Dobrudja made possible by the Russian evacuation of the province.

It is not only here, however, that the Sereth line is threatened for despite a tenacious defence by the Russians and Rumanians the line northwest beyond the Buzu river is not holding well against the Teutoni pressure while efforts to keep the Teutons in check in the Moldavian frontier valleys apparently is proving still less successful.

A break in this line on the southern front would imperil the Moldavian frontier position while the piercing of the frontier line itself would endanger the entire line running southeast to the Danube.

Commentators in entente capitals are considering the possibility of the Russians being compelled to abandon the line of the Sereth frontier, or beyond it to Bessarabia.

The French, British and Italian premiers and important military subordinates in several entente ministries are holding a war council in Rome.

A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam quotes Berlin dispatches as saying that the work of repairing the damage in the Rumanian oil districts has advanced so far that some works may resume production in a few weeks.

About 2,000 car loads of petroleum are said to have been captured at Campina and immense stores at Constanza. The Standard Refinery at Ploechoti is ready to resume work at once, it is stated and the oil wells at Campina will be producing again in about a week.

CHICKENS FEATURED AT FAIR

NEW STANDARD PENS HERE NOW FOR BIG EXHIBIT

The poultry show of the Seminole County Fair held here from the 5th to the 10th will be worth the price of admission and worth coming miles to see. The Seminole County Fair is among the very few fairs that will have a poultry exhibit under the auspices of the American Poultry Association and the rules of same. The standard coops have arrived and some of them are on exhibition in front of the store of J. T. Miller & Son and they are the best that can be devised. Built entirely of wire and made so the birds can be seen from every angle the new pens are exciting favorable comment and the poultry fanciers who purpose to exhibit here can do so with the full knowledge that they will have good quarters, good pens and good treatment. The entries for pigeons will be 35 cents for entrance fee and for poultry the fee will be 50 cents for single coop or $2 for pen. This is the standard entrance fee and already the quarters are taxed according to the entries already in and Chairman Miller and Manager Lyman are looking for larger tents and buildings.

These new pens are the same kind that were used in the big Madison Square Gardens poultry show and were used in Florida for the first time at DeLand fair last year.

There will be some 200 pens and if the entries go over that mark more pens will be ordered in time. It is safe to assert that the poultry here will be a show all to themselves for there are some great birds coming to take the prizes.

Court Week

Circuit court convened this morning at ten o'clock with Judge Perkins on the bench and Prosecuting Attorney Joseph Jones at the bar. There is a light docket and court will not last long this term. The city is filled with citizens of Seminole attending court.

Dorothy Arden, the orphan daughter of a ruined Wall Street operator finds employment as private secretary to Godfrey Lovell, one of the wealthiest men in New York. Lovell's partner is Daniel Cassels, whose daughter is named Dorothy.

Lovell's son, Robert, in selecting a career, decides to be an author, and borrows the services of Miss Arden to assist him in getting out his first book. Constant association fosters a strong love, which results in a marriage which young Lovell keeps a secret on learning that his father has planned for him to wed Dorothy Cassels. This does not deter him from his wedding, but it keeps him from confessing to his father.

Lovell meets Miss Cassels on a train and rescues her from a wreck. The entire party goes on a yachting cruise on account of the elder Lovell's failing health. Lovell's attention toward Miss Cassels is misunderstood by the bride and they become temporarily estranged.

Anchoring off a strange island Lovell and the two girls go ashore, and while they are out of sight of the yacht a storm arises making it impossible for them to return and driving the ship many miles from the island. Lovell slips down an incline, striking his head, and injuring himself to the extent that he can no longer recall any of the incidents surrounding his marriage.

This causes his wife to tell of the secret wedding, but Miss Cassels, wild with jealousy and herself in love with Lovell believes her to be deliberately lying and she, too, claims Lovell as her husband. Lovell, with his memory gone, is unable to decide between the two. The real wife offers to put herself to the supreme test, but before they can be decided upon they are discovered by a band of savages and the three take refuge in a cave. Fortunately for the party Lovell is armed and with their weapons they repel the attack of the head hunters. It is only temporary, however, for the attack is made again with renewed vigor, with Lovell and the two girls fighting hand to hand battles with the almost naked negroes.

In the meantime the yacht has been headed to the island, and a gunboat sees the signal of distress which Lovell has shown from a hill-top. A squad of marines and a rescue party from the yacht arrive in the nick of time to drive off the savages just as the ammunition has given out and the three are preparing for death.

In the last melee Lovell sustains a wound on the head, which renders him unconscious. He is removed to the yacht, while both girls watch by his bedside to greet his first flicker of consciousness. He regains his senses and, as the wound cleared his brain so that he was able to remember his past life, he claims his wife. Forgiveness for the deception and the worry caused them comes from Miss Cassels and his father and the party turns toward home. Lyric, Tonight.

Just when they were on the point of burying the Mulberry Herald the corpse came to life and will be published at the old stand if business holds out.

Max P. Moritz, formerly of the Tampa Tribune has taken charge of the Kissimmee Gazette which means that the Gazette will be better than ever in the year 1917.

What public spirited citizen of Sanford with money will volunteer to finance a golf link and organize a golf club? Or shall we rely on the mass with money is just as plentiful with the city as it is? Or maybe all the public spirited citizens are poor.

Despite the rumors of spiked punch and dances and other dire calamities that surround the innocent governors at Tallahassee Governor Catts has been crowned and all is peace in the red hills of old Leon again. Strange that we never heard of these awful temptations at the inaugural of other governors.

Although it is customary to place flowers on the grave of those who have passed away we do not intend to place any on our County Treasurer, R. A. Newman, who gave up his office on Tuesday. He made a good friend and while the office is dead Bob is still a live business man and lived before he had the office of Treasurer. There was always a nice little light over the office and we shall miss the excitement at future elections.

The Sanford Herald's 36 page Christmas edition then were interesting articles and advertising matter. One of the leading articles from the pen of the gifted editor of this paper told of the intention of the Sanford farmers to plant short staple cotton between the celery crops. The soil around this growing city is adapted to the growing of a fine staple of short cotton which will give Sanford another prominent place in this great state of Florida. The edition is both a credit to Sanford and the Herald office and many copies will be circulated throughout this country advertising that wonderful country.—Stuart Times.

It takes proof of the strongest character to separate some people from their primitive prejudices against banks and induce them to deposit their money in such institutions rather than keep it at home. The murder of a Louisiana man and his wife and children in their home last week in order to get $4,000 he was known to keep in the house, having no confidence in banks, ought to be proof enough to satisfy the most unbelieving that every man, his own banker, is not a safe way to keep money. Unfortunately the proof came too late to do the Louisiana farmer any good; he lost both his money and his life.—Gadsden Co Times.

There are two new year resolutions which every citizen in this town should, as a citizen, make and put into practice throughout the year. One is to stand by the town in every way, speak well of it, promote its moral, business and social interests by a living example of what a real live and progressive citizen is. The next is to stand by your local paper, subscribe for it if you are not a subscriber already, if you are a subscriber continue one, if you are in arrears on your subscription pay up. It will help to give you a clear conscience and to surround you with a halo. Remember that no other agency can supply, and the better the paper is supported as to means and news the more effectively can the paper do its part in furthering the interests of the community and in supplying news of interest. Make other new year resolutions, if you choose, but by all means make these two—and keep them.—Gainesville Sun.

GOVERNOR CATT'S

Sidney J. Catts was elected to the office of Governor of Florida in November and on Tuesday of this week took his seat. He was elected by the people and will serve the people and we take no stock in the far-fetched ideas advanced by some of the calamity howlers that he will disrupt the precedents established and sink the ship of state on the shoals of religious fanaticism. His post election promises and his inaugural address part of which is published in this issue demonstrate that Governor Catts knows what to do and how to do it and Florida should not suffer during his administration. His ideas during the campaign differed with our ideas radically and we did not support him but now that he is the Governor of Florida we will give him the same careful consideration that we would have given the one who was our favorite. We never yet asked a governor of Florida for any favors and do not intend to burden Sidney J. with any requests for a place at the pie counter or a place for any of our friends. All we ask of him is that he will give the state a good administration and we believe that he will do just that.

He has our sympathy for his term will not be any bed of roses, but he is our governor and entitled to our respect.

Tampa vs. Sanford
On Monday night, Jan. 22nd, Tampa will play the local B. S. A. basketball team at the Parish House, and this game is the only one that the local fans will have of seeing what is the best team in the state. Sanford has been considered as the one team which will be represented at the Georgia Carnival at Tampa in February.

For right here in Seminole county if the public only knew it is one of the best if not the best in the state, only one game having been lost and that was by the narrow margin of one point, but for just breaching in and no coach to instruct them they have been making great strides. Orlando, though they employ a coach to instruct the boys of Orange county, the boys here are satisfied that what it takes to win in basketball is to have a coach, one who is in the game for the true sportsmanship of it, and not a coach who is demanding a high salary and then not have any success with his team.

Charles Shell of the local club has more than given his services to the local club and he has cheerfully given the knowledge which he has to the local boys and the improvement they have made since they have been under his direction is altogether a different team.

GOVERNOR'S INAUGURAL AT TALLAHASSEE

Supreme Architect of the universe today for these great gifts that I so much desire and need, and as he said Moses? "Master, I am only a little child before Thee, I know not how to rule, this great people, which is like the dust of the earth in number. Give me, O Lord God, I pray Thee, wisdom and knowledge that I may judge this Thy people and rule them aright."

In his inaugural address Governor Catts outlined further the recommendations he would offer to the next session of the legislature, embodying "drainage of the Everglades, cutting out waste, giving of equalization more power, change in primary law, initiative, referendum and recall, prohibition, opening all closed institutions to police inspection, industrial school for boys and girls, better shipping laws."

The governor and his strong following are rejoicing in the opportunity for this chance to place into operation laws framed by patriots for the protection of the common people of the commonwealth.

SEMINOLE COUNTY BANK IN NEW BUILDING

tan with cream steel ceiling to carry out the color design. The side windows are arched and consist of three openings, the upper windows being transom effect for ventilation and giving plenty of light to the building at all times.

Tuesday was visitors' day and hundreds thronged the new building all day long and if their expressions of surprise and satisfaction can be taken literally the bank officials rest assured that the Seminole County Bank is all that can be desired in every particular.

If the beautiful banking establishment needed an added touch of beauty it was given in the charming floral decorations. Potted ferns and palms formed a pleasing background of green for the huge bowl of carnations, from which each lady visitor was given one as a souvenir of the opening, pink and red and white carnations, fragrant and beautiful. On the desks of Messrs. Key, Bryan and Britt were vases of red roses. The gentlemen visitors were not forgotten and each one received a choice cigar or calendar with the best wishes of the bank.

A description of the new bank would not be complete without a word or two about the men who have made such an institution possible. Hon. Forrest Lake, the president is the presiding genius and was the prime mover in starting the new institution. As mayor of Sanford, member of the legislature, business man and one of the most progressive citizens of Sanford he needs no introduction to the public. This splendid new bank building will be a lasting monument to his name and a mausoleum to enshrine his memory long after he has passed away. Much of the credit of the new building and the success of the bank is due to his indomitable energy and progressive ideas but he was also assisted by a bunch of live wire officers and directors as follows:

A. R. Key, Cashier of Seminole County Bank.

A. R. Key, cashier and 1st vice president, G. W. Spencer, 2nd vice president, and the directors, Forrest Lake, A. R. Key, A. T. Rossetter, Joe Cameron, J. C. Bennett, N. H. Garner, John Melish, F. L. Woodruff, G. W. Spencer, W. H. Wright, P. M. Elder, Ross Leonard Wilson, E. P. DeLatorre, M. J. Robinson, A. P. Connolly. The election of A. R. Key to the position of cashier and A. T. Rossetter to the board of directors by the death of W. H. Hill and the removal from the city of D. L. Thrasher who was also vice president.

The officers and directors of the bank have done a splendid job of their institution especially from the fact that it is strictly a home institution, owned, controlled and officered by residents of Seminole county and Sanford.

No bank, however, is made successful a cooperative by the officers and directors and these are always the men behind the scenes that do their share and in this part the Seminole also comes to the fore for it has a staff of capable young men to look after the wants of the patrons.

First is Raymond Key, the obliging and courteous cashier, Chas. Britt, paying teller, Leslie Bryan, assistant teller and head bookkeeper, R. W. Dean, assistant bookkeeper and Hugo Rumbh, collection clerk.

Thus the Seminole Bank starts another epoch in financial circles and adds another fine building to Sanford's fine business streets and The Herald wishes to commend the president and the officials upon their fine new building and their abiding faith in Sanford that was strong enough to allow them to look a trifle farther than the almighty dollar and figure something for the benefit of the city's appearance. The Seminole Bank building would do credit to a city ten times as large as Sanford and is receiving favorable comments from every visitor to the city and from all citizens of the county.

The building work and the fixtures were made and installed by the well known firm of George W. Muller-Bank Fixture Co., of Atlanta and the work speaks for itself.

The dinner tables were set out in the shade of the orange trees and were so bounteously filled with good things that even such a large number to eat could not dispatch near all. In the afternoon there was music and singing of old time songs. All left at a late hour wishing the kind old lady many happy returns. It was her 71st anniversary.

Miss Mary Tribble who attended school at Stetson University is home for a vacation.

Brumley is Chairman

With the addition of two new members to the board of county commissioners at the meeting last Tuesday and a re-organization of the board the name of L. A. Brumley was proposed for chairman and he was elected to that responsible position. Mr. Brumley is serving his second term as county commissioner and represents District No. 3, one of the largest in the county in area and population, taking in the greater part of Sanford and having many of the important roads. Mr. Brumley is one of the most successful farmers in the Sanford district and resides on Celery avenue, taking an active interest in all that pertains to the upbuilding and the progress of the city and county.

L. P. Hagan, the former chairman has held this position since the new board was formed and the board organized and retires from the chair with the feeling that he served the county faithfully while watching over the destinies not only of his own district but the entire county in his dual capacity. He still retains his position as member of the board and will uphold the hands of the new chairman in every way for the good of the community.

In fact the newly organized board of county commissioners starts out under most favorable conditions and the county will get the benefit of the ripe experience of the older members and the new ideas of the new members.

Tuesday, Jan. 2nd, 1917, was the occasion of a visit of Grand Matron, Sister Haskell of Palatka to Seminole Chapter, O. E. S. This was a combination visit, being first a district school of instruction, morning and afternoon to delegates from the other chapters in the district. Many availed themselves of the opportunity to be present and learn more of the beautiful work. Sister Haskell was accompanied by her good husband, Bro. Elmer E. Haskell, P. G. P. On arriving in Sanford she was agreeably surprised to meet Sister Scott of Fort Meade who is a Past Grand Matron and an honorary member of Seminole Tribe. Tuesday evening being the regular meeting of the Chapter, the new Worthy Matron with her officers, who had only been installed two weeks put on the work and initiated two candidates very creditably. Seminoles of Sanford have got the habit of capturing all who intrude on their hunting ground and taking them into their wigwam, not to take their scalp but to make them one of the Tribe. Sister and Bro. Haskell are now Seminoles. At the close of the meeting all were invited into the banquet room where the committee had prepared a midnight spread of which all partook before departing for their homes. We were honored with the present G. M., two Past G. Ms and a Past Grand Patron. So ended a pleasant day and evening, never to be forgotten.

Real Show Coming
The lovers of good music and comedy in Sanford always turn out in great numbers when they can be assured of a good show and seldom does such a fine company as the "Stop! Look! Listen!" show come to any of the smaller cities but on account of a confusion of dates they find that a stop in Sanford will break a long jump and consequently Sanford will get the benefit of a real show here at the Lyric on Wednesday night, Jan. 10th. The Herald has been investigating this show from press notices in such papers as the Atlanta Constitution, Journal Times-Union and others and the "Stop, Look and Listen" company can be guaranteed as the first real show that has been given in Sanford in many years. New Year's Reception
 Rev. Arthur Searing Peck and his mother, Mrs. Peck gave a very beautiful New Year's reception at the rectory on Monday night which was largely attended by their many friends and members of the Episcopal congregation. The decorations were unusual, attractive and pretty, a combination of red and green was used in the dining room with pleasing effect, while in the drawing room a color note of pink was used. In the latter pink roses in bowls and vases nestled among the vines that were massed on the mantel and were used in profusion in every available place. Graceful vines winding in and out of the balustrade completed the charm of this room where the Rev. Rector and his mother, Mrs. Peck received with Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. Geo. Speer and Mrs. Mobley.

The dining room was lovely with poinsettias, red roses and vines. The table was centered by silver candelabra with red shades and vases of red roses adorned the four corners.

Over the white lace cover trailed asparagus fern. Cabinets and mantel were banked with white star jasmine vines with a charming arrangement of lighted candles and poinsettias. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Deane Turner, Mrs. Mobley and Mrs. Alex Vaughn. The unmarried girls of St. Agnes Guild who assisted in serving were Misses Charlotte Hand; Gretchen and Olga Schultz, Junie Stumon, Zoe and Fannie Reba Munson and Ruth Mettinger.

"Son, Buckeye Root-Stock's Older an' No Tellin' How Much Better!"

Yearly the Buckeye experts discard thousands of citrus seedlings that a nursery with less reputation at stake might bud. Only the very best-developed root-stock is good enough to bear the Buckeye name.

Again, all stock must be 12 to 18 months older than is customary, before we will bud it. Our trees have an uncommon fine root-development and absorb more nourishment than others with buds of equal age.

The result shows in the grove. Writes a customer, "During 1913-14 we planted 2,941 trees from you. We were so pleased with your stock that we planted 5,405 Buckeye trees since, and no others."

For the past 36 years Buckeye Gillett-grown trees have been undergoing a merciless selection. Only the finest can survive. Our catalog tells about this, about our service, why Buckeye trees grow vigorous, fruitful, disease-resisting. Write for copy.
