

BIG OFFENSIVE MAY BE SPRUNG IN NEXT FEW DAYS WESTERN FRONT

But Events of Today Do Not Show It

Infantry operations on the western front continue at a minimum and neither side gives any indication that intensive fighting is about to be resumed immediately. The artillery fire is normal on the various sectors. In the air, however, the hostilities are at a high pitch, as they have been for the past week or more.

Between Arras and the Somme, where there has been no heavy fighting in six weeks, the British and Germans are carrying out raids, evidently for the purpose of gaining information as to their opponent's plans. North of Albert the Germans have been repulsed in an attempt to rush the British positions southeast of Meuil. Further north Field Marshal Haig's men continue their raids and have penetrated the enemy lines near Tebuterne as well as at other points southwest of Arras.

On the French front and on the American sectors, as on the British front the lull is unbroken and even raiding has quieted down.

British airplanes are harassing seriously German airbases and billets behind the lines in Flanders and Picardy. The Germans are seeking unavailingly to check the British and in aerial fighting Tuesday eighteen enemy machines, sixteen of which were destroyed were accounted for by the British. At night the enemy is raiding behind the British lines and two of his machines were brought down by gunfire Tuesday.

Far to the rear of the German lines British bombing squadrons have visited east Belgium and the river Rhine. Three fires resulted from bombs dropped on a chloride factory at Mannheim and large conflagrations were caused on railway property near Liege, Belgium.

Bombs also were dropped on railway stations at Metz and Thionville. Northwest of Toul, American aviators are busily engaged, but although they took part in several aerial contests Wednesday, no more enemy machines have been brought down.

Lively fighting continues in the mountains of North Italy with the Italian and British troops on the offensive. Along the Piave, the artillery firing has increased.

At the Baptist Temple
Great interest is being manifested in the series of meetings being held this week at the Baptist Temple. Evangelist R. W. Thiot is speaking on timely topics, themes vitally concerned with this period in the world's history, and how they are connected with the prophecies of the Bible. Mr. Thiot is a forceful speaker, who has given a great deal of study and thought to his subjects and has a message to deliver.

He will speak tonight on the subject "THE GREAT WAR IN THE LIGHT OF THE BIBLE." There will be no services Saturday. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock he will speak on "Lying to the Holy Spirit" and on Sunday evening on "The Signs of the Times or do present world conditions indicate the near approach of the end of the age."

Service of special interest to boys and girls Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Come and hear him.

The Nation Called to Prayer
In keeping with the resolution passed by both houses of congress, President Wilson has proclaimed Thursday, May 30, as a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, and calls all citizens of all faiths and creeds to assemble in their houses of worship and there as in their homes pray Almighty God that He may forgive our sins and shortcomings as a people and purify our hearts to see and love the truth and defend all things that are right and just.

We shall give more extended notice of this vital matter next Tuesday, announcing what ever observations may be planned in our city. Every citizen should give heed to this call of congress and the President of the United States.

Acroplane Probe
Washington, May 23.—There will be no controversy in the senate over the military committee's war inquiry plans to which President Wilson objected, and the department of justice investigation of aircraft production directed by Charles E. Hughes will proceed without having its path crossed by congress.

Developments came quickly today in a situation which had threatened an open fight on the floor of the senate in which administration leaders say the possibility of two simultaneous inquiries into all phases of the government's aviation program. First, a compromise was reached under which the resolution of Senator Chamberlain authorizing investigations of various branches of war activities including aviation was passed by the senate after being stripped of language which the President had construed as virtually constituting the military committee a committee on the conduct of the war.

Young Men Register
On June 5th all young men who become of age on and after June of next year must register at the office of the local registration board (sheriff's office) in the Court House. This is very important and young men of this age should heed this call. If you need any further information call at the local board office and obtain same.

Florida Hope Hall
The Florida Hope Hall, an institution located at Hampton, Bradford county, wholly for the reformation of released prisoners is now a reality. Hope Hall, as the name would indicate is a place where help and hope is extended to men emerging from prison until they are rejuvenated.

The institution comprises 200 acres of land on which several hingedawls have been erected and other extensive improvements made. This work of receiving botj em and women as they emerge from prison has been taken up with very favorable results.

Farming and raising food products is one of Hope Hall's paramount features realizing that unless every attention is turned to the tilling of the soil that there will be suffering without food to sustain it.

Major L. A. Odom is in Sanford for a few days raising a fund to furnish a room at this institution which will be named for the town.

Memorial Day Sunday

Community Sing
The community sing, postponed last Sunday will be held this coming Sunday afternoon, May 26th, at four o'clock, weather permitting in the City Park. Otherwise through the courtesy of Mr. Herndon in the Star Theatre. Mrs. R. E. Herndon will give the bugle call. Rev. DeWitt Brower will give an address on community singing and the Sanford Band and Woman's Club Chorus will assist. Full program is printed in last Friday's Herald. Come out and bring your own books. A community song book may be purchased from Mrs. W. E. Scoggin, Mrs. Allbert Phillips or Mrs. Gwynn Fox of the Music Department of the Woman's Club.

RED CROSS AND IT'S HOLY WORK

The present work of the Red Cross represents the supreme test of man's love for man. To me, the Red Cross work is the epitome of personal service. In the response to this appeal the souls of America will be laid bare. This is the great instrumentality for the relief of pain and death. It is the Goddess of Mercy, ministering unselfishly to a torn and bleeding world.

The antithesis of this is the military clique of Germany, headed by Wilhelm the Murderer. Were I able to draw a picture of the kaiser, conceivably portraying his individuality, it would be a Demon marching through Europe, the brand of Cain on his forehead, the breath of Hell in his nostrils; in one hand a bloody sword held on high, and in the other the heart of a child. This bloodhound is running rampant over Europe, the smirch of damnation on his soul, and with murder his fell purpose. He is committed to his mad orgy, and the protest of all civilization has not stayed or altered his purpose.

We, therefore, have the choice of actively supporting the Red Cross in its humane efforts, or, by our indifference contributing to the success of the kaiser's work.

The one is gloriously constructive, the other infamously destructive.

Your response will show which you prefer.

On August 2nd, 1776, Thomas Jefferson with the Declaration of Independence, guaranteeing to the people of this great country freedom of thought and action. On April 6, 1917, Woodrow Wilson signed a similar declaration of independence for the whole civilized world. America signed solidly with him. Carlyle said, and this has been accepted by all democracies, that the rule of the majority is the fundamental principle of civic liberty. Practically the whole world has joined hands in this holy warfare to prevent the prostitution of liberty and the institution of the rule of the sword.

The kaiser maintains that "might is right," and proposes to enforce his perverted ideas by a rule of ruin and a reign of terror. Christ said: "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit shall the World be ruled."

History repeats itself. Attila the Hun ran wild on a murderous assault on Europe, and went the way of the sons of Hell. The Kaiser will go the same way. Might is not right and the rule of ruin shall not prevail. Every man is his brother's keeper. If there is a Deity, if there is a God in Heaven, the Germans cannot win.

But God works through man as a free moral agent. He expects us to do our part, and every man, woman and child will be held to account, in the final judgment, for what he or she has done to help preserve civilization and to assist in the triumph of Christianity over Atheism. German writers and thinkers, notably Kant, Trietsche and Schopenhauer have for years been propagating Atheism under the guise of science, in an attempt to justify their infamous and murderous personal and national instinct, because they could not be made to conform to the charitable and humane teachings of the Man of Galilee.

Hypocritical and rapacious by nature, Germany lulled the world to sleep with the melodious strains of Beethoven, Mendelssohn and Nandell, and the rhetorical cadences of Von Bethman Holweg and Kuhlmann, and woke it to a sudden realization of her infamous intent, with the diabolical "song of hate." The true nature of the ascendancy in the crucial test—and this is what we fight today.

Shall we who cannot fight and who remain safely removed from the field of carnage fail to do our small part?

Shall we sell our manhood, our honor, our very souls, for a few paltry dollars? A Red Cross slacker is a moral as well as a civic slacker, and we may be assured that on the head of every individual who falls in his duty in this war—falls to support our gallant fighting forces, and falls to contribute to the succor, comfort, and treatment of our bleeding and dying sons—upon the head of every such one the judgment of Almighty God will be visited.

This war is a Holy war, and in all the history of the ages is the supreme test of our moral stamina and of human integrity. With the love of humanity, with the love of country, with the love of home, let us therefore be inspired to lay aside all selfish consideration and sacrifice to any extent to give to this cause. Let us wash our hands of all self reproach before it is too late. If honor is to survive dishonor, if morality is to prevail over immorality, if civilization and the pursuit of happiness are not to be supplanted by barbarism and rapine; if integrity, and not murder and outrage, is to be the standard of manhood—then we must individually do our duty in carrying on the war. To this task we have been appointed and to this issue we should address every ounce of our strength and determination.

The necessary money for our work can be provided by taxation and bonds, but the support of the Red Cross work depends not upon our industrial or constructive potentialities, but upon that higher and better part of our nature—the heart and soul of man.

We cannot, WE WILL NOT, as Americans, stand idly by as our gallant men are led to the slaughter, and bear the reproach of their cries for aid and comfort.

The call of pain and suffering from the darkness of No Man's Land shall be answered. We MUST do our duty to the Red Cross and DO IT NOW.—A. D. Alderson in Manufacturers Record.

Dr. Hilburn Returns
Dr. J. P. Hilburn, pastor of the First Methodist church returned to the city Tuesday afternoon after a stay of more than three weeks in the city of Atlanta, where, as a member of the General Conference he enjoyed a very pleasant, though strenuous time, and met many old friends and made many new ones.

Much legislation was enacted and six new bishops elected. He listened to a number of thrilling addresses, among them one from Secretary Daniels of the Navy and Major Charles W. Gordon, better known as Ralph Connor, the author of Black Rock, The Sky Pilot, etc., who thrilled the great audience by his answer to the question, "When will the war end?" He said with great emphasis, "When two million United States soldiers, with punch, reach the battle line."

It was an impressive sight to look upon this brave chaplain, fresh from the front in France, where for many months he has served with the self-sacrificing Canadian army, clad in his Canadian uniform, haggard and worn, he stood before the great General Conference and said, "I would like to take an hour to tell you what we Canadians think of your Americans now. I will say to you ministers, that you have the big job of the war. Now, believe me, I am speaking seriously and earnestly, if I had a thousand generals and colonels around me here I would pick out the ministers and say to them, Brothren, you have the big job of the war. Why? The financial men will get the money. That is important but not the biggest thing. The military machine will get the men and their equipment—that is important, but not the biggest thing. But you? You have got the heart of the nation in your hands. What are you going to do with it? I will tell you. You are going to hold it up high and prepare it for sacrifice, so that the women will keep sending their sons away willingly and not break them down with lamentations and tears. You are going to teach all men the old, old doctrine, 'that the path to glory is the path of the cross.' That is what must be put into the heart of this nation."

Methodist Church Sunday
At First Methodist Church Sunday, 26th inst., services will be as follows: Sunday school at 9:30. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Epworth League at 6:30.

COLD STORAGE WOULD BE GREAT THING FOR SANFORD GROWERS

The sermon will be appropriate for the preparation for observance of Thursday, 30th inst., as Memorial Day and the day set apart by our President for fasting and prayer. It is hoped that not only members of the church but all loyal citizens who can possibly do so will unite in preparing for the observance of the proclamation of our President and observe the day in fasting and prayer that our national sins may be pardoned and victory granted to our arms, to the end that the world may be made safe for democracy and that democracy may be made safe for the world through the influence of a true Christian civilization in accord with the unselfish spirit of Christ, whom we follow.

Naval Bill Passed
Washington, May 23.—In record-breaking time of four hours the senate today passed without a roll call the naval appropriation bill carrying $1,610,000,000. The measure increased about $226,000,000 over the house authorization, now goes to conference.

Much of the debate was over provisions against "stop watch" or other time studies in plants doing work and against bonuses for employees' suggestions for improvements of economy in operating plants. Both were retained. Some cause senators to vote on the provision preventing time studies of any job," declared Senator Thomas of Colorado, Democrat, after Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, minority leader, had moved that the provision be stricken out.

The senate committee's draft to make more emphatic the provisions in the house bill for beginning the work on the unfinished part of the three year building program by July, 1919, was approved without discussion. Construction of the superdreadnaughts and battle cruisers, provided for in 1916 has been held in abeyance for building destroyers to battle German submarines, but the present work proposes starting work on each of more than 150 ships provided for in the three-year program.

Rounding Up Sinn Fein
London, May 23.—Indications that the government has not yet completed all the arrests contemplated by it are seen in the apprehension in Dublin late last night of P. F. Burke, the leading Sinn Fein in the county of Monaghan. Several Sinn Fein leaders in various districts evaded the police after the coup was made in Dublin.

The authorities are directing their attention to all persons regarded as suspicious and such men are being stopped in the neighborhood of Dublin and searched. All the best known men of what is regarded as the revolutionary wing of the Sinn Fein are already in custody.

Stopping U. Boats
London, May 22.—The admiralty statement gives the losses to British, allied and neutral tonnage due to enemy action and marine rick in April as follows: "British, 220,807 tons; allied and neutral, 84,393; total 305,102. Clearance in and out of ports, 7,040,309 gross tons."

Launching on Fourth
Washington, May 23.—Every shipyard in the United States was asked by telegraph tonight to speed up production and make July 4th the greatest ship launching day in the history of the world. Some of the vessels will be destroyers for the navy, and others steamers for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, the launching being a significant reminder for overseas traffic under convoy which is playing so great a part in the world war.

Chairman Hurley is disposed to make the "liberty launchings" a series of notable celebrations in all yards, as a peculiarly fitting way to commemorate the signing of the declaration of independence. President Wilson may be asked to participate. C. M. Berry, County Agent.

Would Solve Many of Farmers' Problems

Tons upon tons of fine cabbage are going to waste in the fields around us today, yet in sixty days we will be shipping cabbage into Sanford at a high price. Give the farmers of Seminole county a cold storage plant and I will guarantee that we will keep this and adjoining counties supplied with cabbage, beets, potatoes, carrots, rutabagas, poultry, eggs, pork and the finest, frozen, silage-fed beef the year round.

Give us a cold storage plant and I will guarantee that the poultry flocks throughout the county will be increased a hundredfold within the year.

Farmers will not feed large flocks throughout the year only to strike a low market with the great bulk of their product as is the case with egg production here today. But if the farmer could put away the eggs in cold storage and not crowd the market when they come in abundance, he could demand a fair price throughout the year and we would not need to ship eggs into the state ten months in the year as we do now, and the business would grow and prosper. The same applies to broilers and fryers.

One of our county commissioners has just removed from a small cold storage plant at Winter Park the last of four hogs that he killed during the winter. He has had his own fresh pork for months for his family support and for his working people. Suppose Sanford had an up to date packing and storing plant ready to receive our corn and mated-fed hogs and silage-fed cattle. How long would it be before we completely eliminated Chicago and Kansas City beef from our markets and supplied half a dozen counties around us?

What's the matter with Sanford that she is not up and doing in this matter? She has every means necessary with which to do it except the will—and why not the will? We can go over the top in Liberty Loan and Red Cross drives all right but how about this great opportunity for Food Production and Food Conservation—an opportunity that is right at us and around us.

It is an injustice to farmers in the county outside of the Sanford district that they are not given the opportunities that a cold storage plant would offer them for poultry, eggs, hogs and cattle, and if there is any way to make a little more safe our gamble with the elusive celery crop in the Sanford district it is through cold storage for a certain time of enough of it to allow the markets to clean up during our gluts before loading more on the markets.

The writer had the opportunity eight years ago to conduct a demonstration of this by putting three cars of celery in cold storage for six weeks at Sanford and then shipping it to a distant market (Chicago). The celery came out of cold storage in as good a condition as it went in (and it was not first class, sound stock at that), arrived in Chicago in good condition and sold at the top of the market. I wish to say, however, that the room in which the celery was stored was not simply an ice storage room but was specially dried and dry cooled for the demonstration.

From that time on both the writer of this article and the editor of The Herald have repeatedly called the attention of the people of Sanford to this cold storage proposition which must come sooner or later, and WHY NOT NOW when patriotism as well as business demands an abrupt change from our present methods of farming and of food production and food conservation? A pre-cooling plant for vegetables and a municipal ice plant, such as is being successfully and profitably operated by Lakeland and other southern cities would be but a step further in the right direction, and cooperation among both growers and consumers in a stock company could accomplish this.

That Wonderful Serial

"The Woman in the Web" J. Frank Glendon revels in hard work and stunts in making pictures, but he is satisfied he earned his salary in the fourth episode of Vitagraph's serial, "The Woman in the Web," which will be seen in the Star Theatre on Tuesday. He escapes from pursuers by letting himself down the sheer face of a cliff, 100 feet on a rope, a decidedly risky performance which cost him most of the skin on his hands and neck. Then he is in a small boat with Hedda Nova, the star in the serial.

when a launch crashes into it, throwing them both into the ocean, and they have to do some real swimming to get ashore. He also has an opportunity to show his strength when he fights three husky fellows and throws them over his shoulders and thus saves the life of the princess.

There is action and punch in every chapter, and Miss Nova and Mr. Glendon and the supporting cast of trained athletes and riders are kept on the go every minute of the time.

The Smiling Douglass Fairbanks at the Star Wednesday

Young man goes the limit to get "His Picture in the Papers." Exciting chase after publicity.

In the Triangle play, "His Picture in the Papers," it looked easy for Pete Prindl (Douglas Fairbanks) to get his portrait displayed on the front pages of all the New York papers—yes, it looked almost too easy. Here's what the hero actually did before he put through the proposition, gained a half interest in his father's firm and was awarded the hand of the girl he loved: Wrecked an auto and went to the hospital, was thrown off a train, put out a champion middleweight and fought a losing fight with two husky policemen. At last he won by fighting off a band of yeggmen and saving a train from being wrecked.

In these days of strenuous advertising this comedy is interesting as showing how a man eager to attain notoriety may fall down time after time only to attain it when he is not looking for it. Fairbanks makes an attractive picture as a lively youth who prefers a good, juicy beefsteak to the dessicated foods that his rich father explains through the press. He also has a preference for boxing instead of pouring over books, so he gets in bad with his system loving father. With all these complications and many more this picture is interesting and pleasing throughout.

Picture Exposes Food Gamblers

With prides soaring and every household in the land feeling steadily mounting cost of living while the European countries are clamoring for more and yet more of our products, the entire thought of the country is centered upon the problem of conserving and distributing our food products, upon which vital factor hinges our life as a nation and even the issue of the present world war.

"The Public Be Damned," a Public Rights Film Corporation picture directed and written by S. E. Taylor deals with this tremendous issue and is a hearty indorsement of Herbert C. Hoover's food conservation policies. "The Public Be Damned" is coming to the Star Theatre soon.

"The Shell Game"

Picture theatregoers find much that is interesting in the Metro picture, "The Shell Game," starring Emmy Wehlen, which will be shown at the Star Theatre Friday. For those who have read Kenneth L. Roberts' "Secrets of Evening Post Story," "Good-Will and Almond Shells," this picture will have an added interest.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS

A BUNCH OF INTERESTING ITEMS FROM CORRESPONDENTS—EVENTS OF SEMINOLE COUNTY—EFFICIENT REPORTERS FOR THE HERALD

ELDER SPRINGS

Quarterly conference was held here last Saturday and Sunday. A big dinner on the grounds was greatly enjoyed on Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Wynn is spending some weeks with her sister, Mrs. Means of Jacksonville.

Mr. Leak of Orlando and Marvin Arnold of Conway attended conference here Saturday.

W. T. and C. C. Humphrey are gathering cattle at Winter Garden this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lord, Mrs. W. T. Humphrey and Mrs. M. E. Smith attended the Maitland Methodist picnic at Lake Howell Thursday.

Everybody is gathering blueberries and redbugs for winter pies. Rev. M. M. Lord assisted in a protracted meeting at Conway recently.

J. W. Wynn of Kissimmee was visiting home folks recently.

Mrs. B. J. Overstreet and Mrs. Horace Sanderson were the guests of their mother, Mrs. J. M. Wynn Sunday.

Mrs. E. C. Bowman and Mrs. L. Y. Bryan were entertained by Mrs. E. C. Smith Wednesday.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

Rev. Ericson expects to preach at Ethel next Sunday.

Axel Lundquist of Lake Mary was a caller Saturday evening at the home of H. G. Lundquist.

There have been some good rains this week.

A couple of Rev. Ericson's children have been ill with the bowel trouble which seems to be going around, in this case caused by eating plums, it is believed.

Country life has some compensations, such as plenty of fruit and peaches and strawberries at present. Let's eat all we can and save them for next winter.

E. W. Lundquist and his father, J. E., took an auto trip Saturday to Fort Meade for his wife and little son, Raymond, who have been visiting her parents, returning the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moody for the East Coast, expect to leave by boat Saturday for Pennsylvania; while Mrs. Bengtson will remain with her daughter, Mrs. Tyner for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lee and baby returned home Sunday after a pleasant visit with his parents on First street.

An enjoyable surprise party was gotten up last Saturday evening on Rev. Ericson and his estimable wife, this being their fifteen wedding anniversary. A large number of the community attended bringing with them the usual cakes and pretty presents of glassware. Mr. and Mrs. Fry of Windermere and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bertelson of Sanford were also present. The latter were also present at the Sunday services.

WEST GENEVA AVENUE

I see in the World today where two colored soldiers whipped twenty-four Germans and are wearing the French cross. One was Henry Johnson of Albany and Needham Roberts of New York, but both were wounded.

Mrs. Will Robinson, Miss Gladys Robinson and Mrs. J. E. Vaughn went out a blue berry picking and gathered more red bugs than berries. Also took a wetting rain. Came home cold and hungry. No more berry picking for me. I can find plenty to do at home without hunting berries and red bugs.

The rains are fine on the corn crop for it was needing it bad.

Everyone hunting a job should go to the berry patch. They'll get a week's work there at once, without asking for it.

Prohibitionists Win Again

Washington, May 23.—Prohibition advocates in the house yesterday won the first skirmish in a fight to force President Wilson to exercise his war time authority to prohibit the manufacture of light wines and beers as well as whiskey, the distilling of which ceased last September under a presidential proclamation.

Sitting is a committee of the whole the house adopted by a vote of 65 to 58, an amendment to the food production bill prohibiting the expenditure of any part of the $11,000,000 the measure carries until the President issues a proclamation prohibiting the use of intoxicating liquors of any kind. The amendment offered by Representative Randall of California's prohibition will come to a vote in the house before final passage of the bill and opponents expect to defeat it then.

Representative Chandler of Mississippi, democrat, in charge of the bill, and others vigorously opposed the Randall amendment.

"With an intensive campaign of spirit, into their barrels and sugar bowls of every family in America," said Mr. Randall, "the wholesale loss of food through the operation of the breweries nine-tenths of whose product is German owned and made, becomes a positive scandal."

Boys Want Tobacco

The Red Cross Commission in France is continually receiving requests from the commanding officers for supplying great quantities of tobacco for the use of the American Expeditionary Force in France. The efforts of your paper and other papers in the country to secure funds especially designated for the purchase of tobacco for our Army abroad has made it possible thus far for the Red Cross to respond to practically all of these requests for tobacco without it being necessary to expend any Red Cross funds for this purpose.

We have just received from our commission in France word that the amount of tobacco which we have been able to supply them with in the past is not nearly enough to answer the urgent calls which we are receiving and will receive in the future. I give below some extracts from recent cables received by commission bearing on this subject:

March 7th. Not over 300 cases tobacco in all our store houses. Last month distributed 1,000 cases.

March 13th. Have now distributed all newspaper tobacco and should have more. How much can we expect monthly?

March 23th. We need 175 cases newspaper tobacco a month for each army division.

April 15th. Divisional bodies our troops scattered detachments under training as well as sick and wounded, all make irresistible demand for more tobacco. Minimum needs 175 cases per month for each division. We must be able to supply such demand as we had this week when American aviator who recently brought down two Boche machines in one day walked miles in rain to get tobacco for himself and comrades.

We are depending on you and hope that it will be possible for you to increase your activities in this line to meet the increasing demand. The need is gaining as the number of our troops abroad grows. We sincerely hope that you can make your endeavors proportionate and that you will be able to furnish us with a large quantity to equal the needs as indicated to us from abroad.

Very truly yours,

H. D. Gibson,

General Manager A. R. C.

HUNGER IN GERMANY

May Be Valuable Aid To The Allies in War

London, May 23.—"I feel confident that the time is at hand when stark medieval famine will join the entente as a political and military ally against Germany and Austria," the correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs from Annemasse, in France, near the Swiss border.

The correspondent says he draws this conclusion from oral statements by an authentic witness whose observations extended up to the end of April. The great masses of the German and Austrian peoples, this informant declares are more than sick of the war. They think and talk of nothing but bread, and their morale is so low that the governments are fearful of bolshevik movements.

Among the incidents given in support of the story of terrible want is the case of two prisoners of war employed in the gas works in Vienna, who, he declares, were attacked by their fellow workers who ate part of their bodies. The Arbeiter Zeitung of Vienna demanded an investigation and the entire issue of the paper was confiscated in consequence. The affair was referred to in parliament, but was hushed up in the Vienna press.

The narrator said his family had been suffering practically ever since the war began. People faint on the street in great numbers. The health of many is such that they can hardly work, and things are getting worse every day. Even the soldiers do not have sufficient food. They are not only sick of war, but thoroughly apathetic regarding it. It is a common sight to see soldiers begging for food.

"Daily hunger, Prussian swindle," they say. The three worst months—June, July and August—are yet to come. Last year there was almost nothing to eat in the country but cucumbers and fruit. Typhus and dysentery were prevalent. People are shuddering at the thoughts of those three months now. As much as they love the people year at the risk of breathing the western life and the submarine campaign. The only thing they see is that America has been added to the list of their enemies.

Everyone made fun of President Wilson at first as a pedant, the correspondent adds, but people are now changing their tune and are afraid that America is in earnest.

D. A. R. Organize

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution are now organized in Sanford.

They held their preliminary meeting Saturday, May 11th, at the home of the organizing regent, Mrs. B. J. Starling on Magnolia avenue.

A committee was appointed to draw up the by-laws, with Mrs. Forrest Lake as chairman.

In compliment to Mrs. Starling, the chapter was named for one of her Revolutionary ancestors, Sallie Harrison.

The officers of the chapter were appointed as follows:

Mrs. W. H. Watson, vice regent.
Miss Fannie Reba Munson, recording secretary.
Miss Zoe Munson, corresponding secretary.
Mrs. Forrest Lake, treasurer.
Miss Brenda DeV. Morrison, registrar.

Mrs. Wm. Colbourne, historian. This chapter will co-operate with the Red Cross.

Those who have applied for membership as charter members of the Sanford chapter must have their papers perfected by July 4, 1918, at the very latest, as the charter will be closed on that date.

Zoe B. Munson, Recording Secretary.

"Like everyone, I am especially interested at this time in SAVING WHEAT and saving it in the most economical way; therefore, I use CALUMET BAKING POWDER because it has more leavening strength than most baking powders and is moderate in price. I find it especially successful and it brings no failures or waste. Use it with Corn-meal and other coarse flours."

'I pledge allegiance to my flag and the Republic for which it stands; one nation indivisible, with Liberty and Justice to all.'

Speaking in advance The Herald predicts that Seminole county will go over the top on the Red Cross campaign.

A great battle is impending in the western front and on it hangs the fate of the civilized world.

An article in this issue on cold storage by County Agent Berry should be read and carefully considered by our citizens.

The candidates are coming in from time to time saying that they would like a nice mention but they cannot afford to spend any money on advertising.

Sanford will not mind changing to Eastern time which is one hour earlier than our regular time but we do not want the change made until we go back to the old time in October.

Two American negro troopers have been cited for bravery in the front line trenches and have received the cross of honor from the French commander of the allied forces.

RAPIDLY INCREASING PRODUCTION
We have become somewhat accustomed to seeing reports of big crops shipped from certain sections and each year as we see that the potatoes from the Hastings section have increased a hundred thousand barrels or more, the tomatoes from Dade county have gone over the top to the tune of another hundred thousand crates, lettuce and celery have made another startling increase at Sanford or in the Manatee section or strawberries are going into the market in scores of carloads from Plant City or Starke or Lawley or Lakeland, but every once in a while we are surprised to see an announcement from a heretofore unknown section, like the following from the Florida Advocate of last week, that makes a distinct impression on the public:
'Wauchula has shipped nearly one hundred and fifty thousand crates of vegetables this season; to be exact the shipments up to yesterday amounted to 148,348 crates, and

It is probable there will be no more solid carload shipments of beans or cucumbers this season. The growers have doubtless netted $2 or more a crate. The market opened strong, car loads selling for $3.25 or better a crate, and closed strong, good cucumbers or beans being worth $1.50 to $1.75 per crate.

Of course Wauchula is not entirely a new section, but it has only recently come into prominence as a producing center but now that it has reached the $300,000 class it must be reckoned with as a leader in trucking production.

It is not so many years ago that Miami, Hastings, Sanford, Plant City and other big producing centers were boasting of shipments aggregating a quarter of a million dollars and now they run up into millions. In the class with Wauchula there are scores of sections that have passed the quarter of a million figure in production and there are other scores that are just emerging from the hundred thousand dollar class, ready to step into the shoes of the Wauchula class, which will move on up to the half million dollar class, and so the endless chain continues to grow and increase and Florida proudly raises its head among the leaders of the nation with a record for progress and prosperity that will puzzle many of the older developed states to surpass.

New communities are springing up continually, the vacant spaces are gradually becoming occupied, money is being invested on every hand, profits are being made and put back into improvements and the people in the north who have not believed that Florida was seriously engaged in agricultural, horticultural and live stock development will have to acknowledge a changed opinion very soon.—Times-Union.

KILL THE ROOSTER SURE!

There is one regulation of the food administration which meets with our hearty and unanimous approval. We have endeavored to follow out loyally and faithfully all the suggestions and orders emanating from Mr. Hoover with regard to our diet, and in so doing have surprised our stomach with a great variety of supposed edibles. We have done this, if not with enthusiasm, at least without open complaint. If our overworked digestive apparatus gave signs at times of revulsion we silenced it with the thought that we were saving wheat for the allies.

But when the word was sent out to sell, or kill the rooster before June 1, a great wave of joy and contentment surged over our soul. At last Mr. Hoover had struck a chord to which our whole being throbbled responsive. Kill the rooster! Nothing could give us greater pleasure, except to be appointed the executioner, with the privilege of selecting the first victim. We've had him in our eye for these many days, and he has disturbed our dreams night after night. He's a great big, lordly fellow too as he struts in pompous majesty about our neighbor's yard, a thing of beauty, but far from a joy forever.

He has a most disgusting habit of tuning up his voice in the dead middle of the night and giving vent to a raucous roar that can be heard as far as the German long range gun with which they are bombarding maternity hospitals in Paris. At least we think it must be heard that far, for after two or three repetitions, preceded by a great flapping of wings, he begins to get answers from far and near, until it seems as if every rooster in the city was trying to be heard in the chorus. Kill the rooster? Sure, Mr. Hoover, glad to do anything to accommodate. Send authority by next mail.

But the indictments are not all in yet. Not content with waking the world at midnight, he begins the concert with renewed vigor at the first glimmer of dawn in the east the next morning, and the program is rendered all over again. When does the villain sleep? We know well when he don't, but when does he? Not at night, evidently, for he seems to consider it his religious duty to keep the world awake, and he is most punctilious in discharging that duty.

There is some excuse for the little brown hen who lays an egg in broad daylight and then indulges in a little boastful cackling over her achievement. She has done her full duty and wants all the world to know it. She is excusable for her modest announcement, but the rooster, Bah! He is nothing but a great, strutting, bombastic brute, who never laid an egg in his life, and sings his song at midnight with malice prepense. Let him sing his swan song at midnight on May 31, and ring his death knell the next day at dawn, and receive the plaudits of a grateful and sleepy world.—Tampa Times.

CANNING FACTORIES IN FLORIDA

For more than ten years the newspapers of Florida have been advocating canning factories for the state, and now the cumulative effect of all this publicity is shown in the fact that more than a dozen canning factories are in operation in different sections of the state, besides hundreds of home canning outfits, which are operated by thrifty housewives and members of many canning clubs. At Delray and Florida City the Snyder Company has two big catsup factories in full operation and the tomato growers in those sections have found it profitable to sell a good portion of their crops to these factories. The Harbauer Company at Fort Lauderdale is shipping several cars of tomato pulp a week, 750 barrels having been made and shipped from Broward county tomatoes. Moore Haven is installing a big canning factory to can all kinds of vegetables. St. Augustine has recently placed a canning factory in operation. The St. Cloud cannery is to be reopened for business in a short time. Orlando has a factory that puts up marmalades and other fruit products and it enjoyed the distinction of shipping the first car of marmalade out of the state recently. The new canning factory of Palmetto is now in operation, canning tomatoes, and other vegetables will be handled later. This plant has a capacity of 10,000 cans a day.

And so it goes, all over the state, with new canning factories announced almost every week. When the first canning plants were installed in Florida, several years ago, the farms were so scattered that it was found impossible to secure a sufficient supply in any one section to keep the factory running steadily and profitably and that was the principal reason they failed to make a success. Then, too, with much less quantities of vegetables grown at that time, there was a stronger demand and higher prices in the northern markets and few farmers were willing to sell to the canning factories. The growers now find it more profitable to sell their later products to the canning factories for cash than to go to the expense of packing and shipping and take the chances of congested freight and express conditions and a crowded market.

Goods canned in Florida should be as good as the best and every person in Florida should make it a point to buy them wherever they can be found on sale and everywhere can be found on sale and every wholesale and retail dealer should give them preference over goods canned in the north and shipped in from outside. It has been estimated that $35,000,000 worth of canned goods have been sold annually in Florida and if this is so the home consumption alone will use up all the locally canned goods for some years to come.—Times-Union.

WE BEAT THE WORLD

Now that we are in this fight to stay until the kaiser and his red handed butchers are beaten it is with extreme satisfaction that Americans can look into their wonderful resources and take a pardonable pride in the fact that America is the greatest nation on the globe today. Russia and China with their millions of men are not to be considered among the man power nations of the world on account of their disintegration.

America can and will place five million men in the field in a few months and these all from the first draft or class one.

If it becomes necessary America can place ten million young men in the very flower of youth into the field.

Our grand total of men already in the army, and those physically fit who come under the specifications of Class 1 of the selective service regulations is over 4,300,000. And with every year there is that increment of 700,000 or 800,000 more coming into the draft age.

Not only can we put them into the field but we can arm and equip them and furnish boats for their transportation to France and convey them safely with boats and destroyers to keep off the subs. America is in the war to win and those wooden headed German junkies who smiled at America going to war will smile no longer, for the newspapers are actually telling the German people that 'a few American troops are seen on the front' and they will not only have been seen but they will be heard from and their presence felt before long.

Despatches today state that new American armies are now with the British army in northern France. This is not any part of Pershing's army but new men right from America.

We have the greatest country in the world today and the greatest army and navy and this fact will cause the kaiser many a sleepless night and eventually cause his downfall.

The eternal egotism and self-conscious swell headedness of the average German and especially the Prussian will take an awful tumble in matters military now and after the war we can show them a few things in merchant marine and foreign trade that will forever banish the small ideas they formerly held of America and things American.

And after the war it will never be 'made in Germany' again and German language will be a dead language in America. It will be America for Americans and if you are not a citizen you will be compelled to get out of this country and stay out.

THE LONG ARM OF MERCY

The Red Cross is the long arm of mercy.

It is the kindness of mankind organized. In man is an angel and a devil, a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. The Red Cross is the good, around, energized to thwart the bad.

It is the best antidote we know to the bane of war.

There are other charities, more or less helpful. The Red Cross is the mightiest of all charities, the love and pity of all men made supremely efficient.

If, as Mr. Emerson said, 'Sensible men and conscientious men all over the world are of one religion,' this is the expression of that religion.

The Red Cross is humanity united in service.

It asks no man's opinion; only his need.

Black or white, friend or foe, to the Red Cross there is no difference it only asks: 'Who is suffering?' And to him it goes.

The Red Cross is so efficient that governments recognized it; so pure in its purpose that whoever wishes will his fellow men, desires to help it; so clean in its administration that the most suspicious can find no fault in it.

The Red Cross not only seeks to alleviate the cruelties of war; it is the expression of those human sentiments that some day will put an end to war.

It is the impulse of Love, striving to overcome the impulse of hate.

It is mercy's so-operation struggling against war's rivalries.

It is the one society in which every man, woman and child, should be enrolled; for it knows no sects, no prejudices, no protecting opinions; the human being does not live that does not feel that the starving should be fed, the sick tended and the wounded healed.

Majestic and divine is this Long Arm of Mercy; it finds the fallen on the battlefield, it brings the nurse and the physician to the victim in the hospital; it leads the weeping orphans to a home; it feeds the starving, cares for the post smitten whom all others abandon, and pours the oil of help and pity into the bitter wounds of the world.

Where a volcano has wrought desolation in Japan, or a flood in China, or a hurricane in Cuba, or a famine in India, or a plague in Italy, or ravaging armies in Poland, Serbia or Belgium, there is the Red Cross, the Angel of God, whom the fury of men cannot banish from the earth; and to the ends of the earth, over all the ways of the Seven Seas, wherever is human misery, there is extended to bless and to heal, its long Arm of Mercy.—Dr. Frank Crane

Mrs. E. M. Galloway, the county director for Woman's work in the War Savings Campaign went to Tampa Tuesday and represented Seminole county at the conference called there by J. F. C. Griggs, state director War Savings in Florida.
This conference was called so that the several county chairmen in the Tampa zone could meet with the director and publicity manager, Guode M. Guerry, preparatory to putting on an intensive campaign to sell War Savings Stamps. This campaign is to begin at once and culminate on June 23th, when Seminole county expects to do herself proud on what will be proclaimed by President Wilson as National War Savings Day, and go 'over the top' in the War Savings Campaign.

Burdick-Stumon

The wedding of Miss Junnie Estelle Stumon and Mr. Earl Burdick was solemnized in the Church of the Holy Cross Thursday at high noon. The impressive marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur Sealing Peck, wearing the handsome ceremonial vestments of this sacrament.

The altar was beautiful with many lighted candles, white flowers and asparagus fern. The chancel rail was entwined with pink and white oleanders and green vines. Vases and bowls of roses and ferns were tastefully placed in the chancel and pulpit and quantities of other beautiful pink and white flowers were pleasingly arranged upon the lecturn and at the ends of choir stalls. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Fannie Stenbridge Munson.

The bride who never looked lovelier than on this occasion entered the church accompanied by her brother-in-law, Mr. W. Gwynn Fox, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the chancel steps by the groom.

There were no attendants and only members of the Saint Agnes Guild, intimate friends and relatives of the bridal couple witnessed the ceremony.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stumon and was very sweet and winsome in her modish tailored suit of dark blue serge with chic hat to match. She wore a corsage bouquet of roses and carried a prayer book.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Burdick left on the train for Tampa.

Out of town-guests were the parents and sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Burdick and Miss Mildred Burdick of Daytona, Fla.

The Upsala Church

Sanford, Fla., May 23, 1918. Mr. Editor:

Dear Sir—I wish to put in a few lines regarding attendance at the Upsala church. We are striving in this neighborhood to raise up this church again that fell down because of the destructive freeze of more than twenty years since. One week from next Sunday, which will be June 2nd, Rev. Mr. Brower will again preach for us after the close of Sunday school. Our Sunday school begins at 2 p. m. old time and 3 p. m. new time. It occupies one hour.

The Presbyterian church is owned by the Presbyterian Board of New York City. It goes by the name of a Presbyterian church. A few of about every denomination gather here.

The reverend gentleman, who has so kindly offered his services to help us comes out-between his regular services. We wish every one in this locality to avail themselves of this favor and privilege. These services are for the benefit of all and are certainly much needed. Said Voltaire, "If I can break down the churches I can break down Christianity." By all means then let us keep alive the churches.

Without the churches where should we find religion? Without religion what will become of morality? These are the basic principles of our national existence. If we lose these, history tells us we shall finally leave nothing but a record of dust and mounds of dust. Friends and neighbors, wing your autos to fill the house. (From our dear old man who is 81 years young).

CAMPAIGN WORKERS PARADE

Red Cross Drive Strengthened By Big Meeting

Under the direction of A. D. Parrish the Red Cross parade and celebration last Tuesday afternoon was a great success. With the Sanford Band, Home Guards, Red Cross nurses, mothers of soldiers and relatives, junior nurses, business men, Uncle Sam and Miss Liberty, Boy Scouts and all the various and sundry organizations that marched in the parade it was a grand sight to the people that lined the streets and ended at the band stand in Central park.

Here Chairman H. C. DuBose, Judge Housholder, A. D. Parrish William Shelley and Forrest Lake made addresses upon the work of the Red Cross and asked the help and financial assistance of the people. Mr. Lake also took occasion to present the Liberty Loan bond flags to Chairman L. A. Brumley of the board of county commissioners and to Mayor Davian for the city of Sanford.

Interspersed with the speeches the Sanford Band rendered several patriotic selections and the occasion was a great rally for the Red Cross drive that is being made this week. The workers are just as busy as ever and there has been no let up in their endeavor to put Seminole over the top before tomorrow night.

The official figures have not been given out by Chairman DuBose today but the sum is around $6000 now and with more in sight and Mr. DuBose and his assistants feel assured they will get Seminole's quota but they are also certain that it will take hard work to get it.

If there are any who have not contributed or any who have and wish to give more bring it or send it down to the headquarters in the DeForest building or call up headquarters and they will send after it.

THOUGHT BULLARD WAS A 'NON-COM'

French Poliu Is Effusive In His Greeting of American General.

'GLAD TO SEE YOU, OLD CHAP'

Democratic Behavior of Officers Contribute to Popularity of American Troops in France—One Incident Set Forth.

American Field Headquarters.—Nothing has contributed more toward the popularity enjoyed by American troops in France than the democratic behavior of their officers. I witnessed a delightful sample of this the other day in the city in which Maj. Gen. Robert Lee Bullard has his headquarters. Privileged to accompany the general to a charity performance at the local theater, I was standing with him and two of his officers in the lobby during the intermission, when a "Poliu" hove into view. The Frenchman, who wore medals for valor and stripes showing he had thrice been wounded, had evidently consumed a goodly quantity of his country's wine. Afterward we learned that it was his first day out of hospital, and naturally he had celebrated a bit.

"Glad to See You, Old Chap!" "Ah, volin des Americanus!" he exclaimed joyously. "I'm indeed glad to see you old chap!" he went on, shaking the general's hand vigorously. "It's the first time I've met an American, though I heard a lot about you in hospital. Welcome to France! When are you coming into the trenches with us?"

With that he plunged into a long account of his experiences, delivered in very good English, which he said he had learned during a trip through the United States five years before. General Bullard listened smilingly and kept right on smiling even when the Poliu clapped him on the back and called him his "side partner" and invited him to have a drink.

"Another time, thank you very much," said the general. The soldier strolled off. In two minutes he was back again, but this time he drew himself up at attention and gave a flourishing salute.

All's Well That Ends Well. "Excuse me, sir," he said, "they tell me you're a general. Is that true?" "Yes, that's so," General Bullard replied, still smiling.

"Well, then, sir, all I can say is I beg your pardon. I thought you were a sergeant, sir, the same as I am. I'm not used to your American uniforms."

"What do you do at the front, sergeant?" the general asked. "I'm a machine gunner, sir." "And you've been to America?" "Yes, sir."

"Would you like to act as instructor to some of our machine gun men?" The Poliu was overwhelmed.

It must be explained that practically every man in the French army who speaks English has applied for one job or another with the Americans. And here was an American major general whom he had taken for a mere sergeant, inviting him to do what hundreds of French officers are vainly asking for!

"You bet your life I would," the Poliu fairly yelled, again seizing the general's hand.

"Come to my office tomorrow, then, and we'll see about it." The Poliu came.

CONQUEST AND KULTUR

The Germanization of America has gone ahead too far to be interrupted. Whoever talks of the danger of the Americanization of the Germans now here is not well informed or cherishes a false conception of our relations. . . . In a hundred years the American people will be conquered by the victorious German spirit, so that it will present an enormous German empire. Whoever does not believe this lacks confidence in the strength of the German spirit.—Letter of a New York German, Robert Thiem, to the All-deutsche Blatter, Sept. 20, 1902.

LEVEL FAMOUS CANTON WALL

Thousand-Year-Old Landmark In China Gives Way to Modern Trolley Line.

San Francisco.—The thousand-year-old walls of Canton, China, which withheld many an onslaught of Tartar brigands, are being torn down to make way for a trolley line.

The Chinese are substituting the American bathtub for the usual dip in the river.

This information was brought to this country by Gen. Chiang Ting Tau of the Chinese army, who is in the United States to inform the war department of the extent to which China intends to operate against Germany.

General Chiang says that the survey for the road between which the ancient Canton walls are crumbling has already been completed. It will be a belt system and will follow the line on which the walls were erected.

Hide Gold in Biscuits. San Francisco.—A Chinese, who was leaving for the Orient, showed the customs inspector a tin box full of biscuits, which he said he was taking along to eat on the way across. The inspector opened one of the biscuits and found a $20 gold piece. Altogether nearly $500 was found in the biscuits.

IT'S OUR WAR NOW

By Henry Russell Wray of the Vigilantes.

Do the work that is offered you, even if you think you are fixed for a bigger job. WE ARE AT WAR.

Loyalty in these days should consist of acts, not mere words. IT'S WAR.

The only place for a "cronker" now or tomorrow, is his groundhog hole. Nobody wants to see or hear him in the open, now or after the war.

Show consideration for other workers, so as to make it easier for them to do their bit for OUR WAR.

We are fighting for the lives of our own and for those who believe in justice and decency. It is time the masked German barbarians were thoroughly licked, and then branded forever. IT'S WAR TO THE FINISH.

Every courtesy should be shown to the woman conductor. She is filling her position better probably than you could, and perhaps the one she has released, and the one you have sent over there are fighting side by side.

Soft words and soft gloves are not known by Germans. Damning truth and bare knuckles they may comprehend.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger. In time of kidney danger, Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective. Plenty of Sanford evidence of their worth.

Mrs. G. H. Tomlinson, 206 Palmetto Ave., Sanford, says: "I was in bad shape from kidney complaint some few years ago. When I swept the floor sharp pains caught me across my kidneys and nearly drove me wild. I was so nervous I couldn't stand still any length of time and my kidneys didn't act as they should. Specks floated before my eyes and blurred my sight. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box and they brought speedy relief. Three boxes rid me of this trouble and I recommend them at every opportunity."

National War Savings Day
In every city, town and school district in the United States this day will be observed as National War Savings Day and as a day on which the citizens will take measure of their ability to save and serve the government. It is expected that President Wilson will issue a proclamation naming this day officially and that Governor XCatts will also issue a proclamation to the same end and the mayors of all cities will proclaim it.

State Director J. F. C. Griggs and Manager of Publicity Goode M. Guerry have just returned from a conference at Cincinnati, presided over by the national chairman, F. A. Vanderlip, in which the details for this national war savings day were decided upon.

It is expected that a sufficient amount of pledges will be secured on this day to complete the quota for every state in the Union, which is based at Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per capita for every man, woman and child.

Florida has raised but about one-twentieth of its quota thus far and many other states have not done even this well, so it was decided that an intensive campaign is necessary. Only one state in the Union has completed its quota--Nebraska. Missouri is very near to its quota and Mississippi is the only southern state that has reached as high as 50 per cent of its quota.

The national committee has come to the conclusion that there is a wide-spread error as to the purpose and intent of the War Savings plan, the general belief being that it was designed for women, children and the small wage earner. This campaign that is to be waged in June is aimed especially at the grown up people. The men of business in all walks of life. Men who are able to purchase War Savings Stamps and do so both with Thrift Stamps. It is figured that Thrift Stamps have already been so widely circulated that it is no longer necessary to continue the campaign to intensify their sale, as it is realized there must be a large percentage of citizens who are willing and able to purchase the full amount of stamps that the law permits any one person to hold.

The plan provides that in this country, as in all other countries there will be meetings in every community and every district will be assigned its quota to be raised and it is hoped that at these meetings every community will go "over the top" just as it did in the Liberty Loan.

Chicken Livers
An old hen has a much larger liver than you in proportion to weight or food eaten. Then it follows that they get bilious just like you do. They are grouchy, cross, unhappy. Start the liver and make it happy. Then the bill will be as all the other young and get a package of B. A. Thomas' Turkey Powder. Feed it occasionally. See your hens perk up--hear them sing--look for eggs. Your money back if it fails. L. Allen Seed Co., Sanford, Fla. 73-tfc

BACK TO GERMANY
If They Like The Kaiser Then Get Out
Mr. W. W. Jordan, of 1207 South Florida avenue hands us a recent copy of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, in which appears an editorial based on the suggestion of Mr. Jordan's brother to United States Senator McKellar that all German sympathizers be sent back to Germany. This appears the best solution of the matter we have heard yet, and so it appeared to the Senator, who referred the suggestion to the War Department. The editorial follows:

"Mr. J. P. Jordan has struck at the crux of the solution of the propaganda against America by the pro-Germans.

"Mr. Jordan writes to Senator McKellar and suggests that an expatriation bill be passed by Congress that all persons who sympathize with Germany will be sent to Germany free of charge. The allies would guarantee safe conduct.

"Mr. Jordan assumes that the Kaiser would be willing to take these back. This assumption is violent. The Kaiser has a serene contempt for any German who has taken up citizenship in any other country, but the law would put the issue squarely up to the pro-Germans and they could prove their faith by their deeds.

"As a matter of fact not one in a thousand Germans would go back. The vast majority of the people of German blood in this country came to America to escape persecution, oppression and robbery under the form of the law. In this country they have prospered and they are content.

"The most rabid pro-Germans are those who have never been in Germany or left there when they were so young that they know nothing about conditions.

The naturalized German who came to this country after spending his young manhood in Germany wants no more of the Kaiser. He renounced him just as the baptized child renounces the devil and all of his pomps."--Lakeland Telegram.

An Indian Dawn.

Unusual Economy Without Sacrifice
THE Chandler Six has always been famous for its economy of operation--economy without the sacrifice of reserve power, without the sacrifice of roadability, without the sacrifice of beauty of design.
Thousands of Chandler owners all over America tell of gasoline mileage of fifteen to seventeen miles per gallon.
Tire mileage of seven thousand to nine thousand miles per set of tires is commonplace among Chandler owners.
Chandler owners and Chandler dealers say that the service upkeep of the Chandler car is much less than that of other good cars which they have owned or sold.
In the ownership of a Chandler Six you will possess a really great automobile--great not merely from the standpoint of economy of operation and maintenance, but, even more important, from the standpoint of mechanical excellence and daily performance.
The Chandler motor, designed and built in our own factory, distinguishes the Chandler chassis, marked throughout by its simplicity and its sturdiness. The life, pick-up, get-away and endurance of this motor will astonish you quite as much as it pleases you.
Bodies of most attractive design and of unusual comfort are mounted on the Chandler chassis.
