Did You Turn The Other Cheek?

If you are a Christian Scientist don't sue for damages because of bodily injuries suffered in an automobile accident. At least, not in the court of Justice Paul Bonyne on Long Island.

Mrs. Lucy Kirk had been permanently injured in an automobile collision. A Christian Scientist, she had refused to accept the services of a doctor or surgeon, had relied entirely on a Christian Science practitioner. Still crippled, she had sued for damages.

Said Justice Bonyne in his charge to the jury: "If pains are not real, and fractures do not exist, obviously you men are in no position under the law to award damages that do not exist. If they are not real, according to the teaching of the departed patron saint of Christian Science, then, of course, she, the plaintiff, has no place here." After such a charge the jury naturally found for the defendant.

"Suppose an ordinary Christian, not a Christian Scientist," quipped Arthur Brisbane, "had appeared as plaintiff against a mob, saying: 'This man struck me on the side of the head, knocked me down, and compelled me to give him all my money. I want him punished, and I want damages.'"

"Would the justice have said to the plaintiff: 'You call yourself a Christian. Don't you know that Christianity teaches you, if you are struck on one cheek, to turn the other cheek? Did you do that? Don't you know that your Christian religion commands you to take all you have and give to the poor? Is it not evident that this highwayman was poor? If you were a sincere Christian, you would have turned the other cheek, to be knocked down again, and would have given him what money you had at home, as well as what you had with you. You have no standing in this court, because you call yourself a Christian and don't turn the other cheek, and don't take all you have and give to the poor.'"

"The case," Mr. Brisbane concluded, "should be taken to some higher court, in which the plaintiff might find that a particular religious belief, sound or otherwise, does not deprive her of justice under ordinary American law."

An Unusual Accident

The death of an eight-year-old child who was bitten by a shark in the ocean near Melbourne the other day is a tragedy of such disturbing proportions as to seriously dampen the ardor of all who love to go to the beaches throughout the warm summer months and swim in the invigorating surf.

The knowledge that somewhere beneath the surface of the green waves may be lurking a vicious barracuda or hungry shark ready to tear a limb from your body or rip open your side with his razor-like teeth is not conducive to frequent swimming expeditions or the full enjoyment of the bathing hour.

However, such accidents are rare. With many years experience in East Coast ocean swimming, we do not recall another single incident of a similar nature. We have seen human bones placed in a shark's open stomach and photographed, but for publicity purposes only. The shark didn't put them there.

As a matter of fact there is far more danger from drowning than from attack by sharks. The thing to be most careful about when in swimming is not to go out too far, not to get caught in undertows, not to step unexpectedly into holes, not to go in too soon after eating and fall victim to cramps.

And the danger of drowning, it seems to us, is greater if you do not go swimming than if you do. For if you don't go, you will never learn how to swim, and if you don't know how to swim you will be at a decided disadvantage should the occasion ever arise for its imperative use. It is usually too late to learn after the boat turns over.

By all means, go to the beaches and go in swimming. But be careful!

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

D. A. Caldwell has returned from an extended trip through the states of Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia, making the trip in his Ford car. He has been distributing sanford vegetables and had a most profitable and pleasant trip and returned with the Ford car in all the good.

D. L. Thrasher and Frank Miller have returned from a trip to Sarasota.

L. E. Phillips, the popular drug-gist of Sanford, is spending some weeks in New York City.

Sam Woodruff of Orlando was in the city a few hours yesterday, returning from his place near Osteen.

A delightful informal social affair was the theme of Tuesday evening at the parish house given by the young ladies of St. Agnes Guild to their friends.

F. A. W. Brown and Mother, Mrs. Ellen West Brown, have departed "The Tartan" for a time and have gone to spend the summer with relatives at Lake Wannago, Ashtabula, Wis.

W. W. Dresser arrived home Saturday from Watertown, N. Y. and is busy selling his watermelon crop.

The cleaning and dyeing authority said they had expended a lot of time and money in working out and enforcing their code, estimating the total at more than $350,000.

They had but fully 77 percent of the 11,000 plant owners and the 175,000 to 200,000 retail outlets "complying" with the trade practices, ready, willing and able to comply with the said trade practice provisions, with reasonable co-operation on the part of the government in enforcing compliance on the other 23 percent.

"The members of the trade," the letter to the President said, "are at a loss to understand why the one set of trade practices involving price regulation which have been found by the review board (The Darrow Board) to be free of any monopoly or monopolistic practices, should have been singled out for elimination, without hearing and against the considered judgment of officials of the National Recovery Administration, familiar with the conditions."

They said that where 25 percent of the members of local boards and their trade practices approved their trade practices for their own use that N.R.A. might approve them. A dozen applications from these local boards are pending, says he said.

He predicted continued improvement, although conceding there would be an occasional slump—"a kind of vacation"—and just as temporary.

Spry, tanned and giving no indication his 71 years were weighing heavily, Ford started observers by laying one hand on a four-foot rail and vaulting it.

He said he was "feeling fine," and revealed for the first time that an injury, caused by bumping into an automobile fender, was what sent him to the hospital for the first time in his life a year and a half ago. He underwent an operation then for hernia and a strangulated appendix.

Texas Mob Kills Negro Found With Young White Girl

(Kirbyville, Tex.,)—Two hundred white men last night took Son Griggs, 30, negro, from officers and hanged him after he had been seen in company with a 17-year-old white girl. The mob stopped an automobile of the officers as they were taking the negro to Orange for safekeeping, threw a rope around his neck, dragged him away, and hanged him. Seventeen shots struck him as he dangled in the air.

The crowd cut down the body and dragged it over the country behind an automobile, and then dumped it.

Both the negro and the white girl were jailed, and when the sheriff's office was warned the mob was going to break into the jail, officers decided to take him to Orange. The mob met the officers about seven miles out.

Farm Administration Reports On 51 U. S. Cities After Probe

WASHINGTON, June 21.—(AP)—On the basis of average unweighted prices for twenty-eight foods collected from fifty-one cities by the consumers' guide of the Farm Administration, New York is the most expensive city in the United States in which to eat.

Analysis of the latest prices collected show Washington, Newark, N. J., and Scranton, Pa., are above the average on twenty-four of the twenty-eight foods. These cities come close to New York, where prices are above the average on twenty-six of the foods.

Atlanta and Cleveland are well down the list, with only twelve foods in Atlanta above the average price and eighteen in Cleveland. Chicago, second largest city in America, has only one food more than Cleveland in the "above average" class.

Other cities with a large number of foods above the average price are New Haven, Conn., and Philadelphia, with twenty-one each, and Boston, Bridgeport, Conn., and Providence, R. I., with twenty-one each.

In the comparison of twenty-eight foods, Denver is the cheapest city in the United States in which to eat down and have a square meal. On a comparison of thirty-three foods Los Angeles is the cheapest.

Only five foods there are above the average price. Salt Lake City and Los Angeles are close to Denver, with only six foods above the average price.

Other low cost cities are Omaha,

New Orleans, Mobile, Milwaukee, Louisville, Kansas City and Houston, with seven foods above the average.

The twenty-eight foods on which prices are compared include milk, butter, cheese, breads, flour, cereals, meats, hens' eggs and a few fresh vegetables and fruits. When a comparison adding five kinds of canned fruits and vegetables is made there is a shift in the relative standing of some of the cities.

New York remains the most expensive but New Haven also has twenty-seven foods above average. Atlanta and Cleveland still remain well down the list. Houston, Mobile and New Orleans rank next.

Melbourne Youth Dies After Shark Bites Him

MELBOURNE, June 21.—(AP)—Richard Clark Best, Jr., 10, died at a hospital yesterday from deep wounds inflicted by what was believed to have been a man-eating shark while the child and his father were swimming at Indian Atlantic Beach Tuesday.

The lad was struck by the shark while wading in shallow water, and his father nearly did not know what had happened until the boy called, "Daddy, come quick, I have been bitten by a stinger."

Mr. Best rushed to his son, picked him up and saw him bleed and profusely.

He got into his car and raced to a hospital where blood transfusions were ordered.

Deep wounds about the hip and a long red scar across his abdomen indicated that the boy had been attacked by a shark instead of a dread barracuda as was first believed.

The great Babylonian banking houses of the Ephra family, founded about 600 B. C., invested large sums in mortgages on both farms and city properties.

Official Program Of Mayors' Meet Issued By Wilson

JACKSONVILLE, June 21.—The official program for Friday's meeting of Florida mayors and other notables called by Governor Shultz to consider how Florida's highly rated exhibit at the Chicago Century of Progress Exposition will be continued there was made public Tuesday night by Lorenzo A. Wilson. He is chairman of the Florida World's Fair Commission which assumed the task of raising $100,000 to finance the exhibit throughout the fair.

Chief speakers at the session will be the Governor, W. C. Hodges, Tallahassee, president-elect of the incoming state senate and head of the commission last year, Mayor John T. Alton, Jr., of St. Petersburg, local attorney and Mr. Wilson.

The meeting will be called to order at the Hotel Seminole at 11 A. M. by Governor Shultz. Prior to that, at 10:30 o'clock, more than a score of representatives of downtown newspapers will assemble at the hotel to meet the Governor and Messrs. Hodges, Wilson and Alton. The latter will deliver a address of welcome to the visiting cities who will be here to cover the meeting before leaving the next morning for a nine days trip to Chicago to view and write for their publications about this state's exhibit. The trip was made possible through the generous donation of Alfred I. duPont, local capitalist and president of the Florida Advertising Council.

Proceedings of the session will be broadcast via WJAX through arrangements perfected yesterday with Jack Hopkins, station manager.

Responses to urgent invitations which went out to mayors of various Florida cities and scores of leading citizens of Florida have assured that there will be a rep-

SEABURY PLEADS FOR EQUITABLE WEALTH DIVISION

Noted Reformer Asks For Patience With Recovery Program

NEW YORK, June 21.—Samuel Seabury, called as the "father" of the reform waves which struck this metropolis, recently in delivering the commencement address at Rutgers University, pleaded for a more equitable distribution of America's wealth.

He pictured the nation struggling under an antiquated system of law and politics, while scientific invention had changed the face of our civilization. He urged patience with the New Deal in progress at Washington, declaring it inevitable that some mistakes would be made.

Broadly, he said, he was unhesitatingly convinced the destiny of the country in the bright future would be determined by the men of tomorrow, such as receiving their education recently. Seabury inveighed, to an extent, against scientists, because they had made no contribution to the science of government.

"I know of no group to whom I could refer for the solution of these problems than those who had."

FERA'S ESCROW SYSTEM SCORED BY TAMPA GROUP

Central Trades Body Says Workers Being Cut Off Relief List

JACKSONVILLE, June 21.—(AP)—The Central Trades and Labor Assembly of Tampa yesterday protested the payment of relief workers in installments under the escrow plan of the Florida Emergency Relief Administration.

Charles E. Silva, secretary of the assembly, telegraphed Administrator Julius F. Stone, Jr., charging "those refusing to accept their wages in installments are being cut off from relief."

"The Central Trades and Labor assembly protests this action on the part of local officials and insists that workers receive their wages in full at the end of each week and we respectfully request that you immediately handle the matter with proper officials with view of eliminating the practice."

Jerome A. Connor, executive officer, replied that the escrow system of paying wages in installments was necessary to carry on the FERA work program.

He said it was not the intention of the FERA to force any worker to accept split payments, nor to drop from relief rolls any who refused. Regional Administrator H. S. Riddle would be instructed to investigate the charge that force was being used and reported his findings to the state office, Connor said.

The executive officer added that acceptance of the escrow plan of pay by relief workers made it possible for the FERA to furnish employment for definite periods as well as to carry out the planned work program.

Under the plan, a relief client works for a period of at least a week at the prevailing wage for his type of labor. He is paid each week according to his needs and after this time but that the reductions were necessary in view of the decrease in operating funds of the department.

Plant City Growers To Get Freight Rebate

Tallahassee, June 21.—(AP)—The state railroad commission Tuesday announced that strawberry growers of Plant City and its vicinity would be refunded $102,141.54 with interest by the Railway Express Agency, Inc., as the result of a freight rate reduction ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The Express agency was ordered by the commerce commission to refund the money to H. W. Burch & Co., who will distribute it among the berry growers. The interest rate was set at 6 percent per year.

Eugene S. Matthews, chairman of the railroad commission, Tuesday said the rate reduction was the culmination of a long fight to obtain for Florida strawberry growers the same express refrigerator service and charges as have been given the berry shippers of Louisiana and other sections competing with Florida.

Matthews said the rates and refrigerator charges on strawberries from Florida to interstate destinations were now on a better basis than ever before.

UNPRECEDENTED DEMAND IS MADE FOR SMALL COINS

Treasury Believes It Means Increasing Trend Of Business

WASHINGTON, June 21.—(AP)—An unprecedented demand for this time of year small change in silver, is taken as indicating an increased amount of business, especially of small business was reported recently by the treasury.

The demand, the treasury stated, had sprung up in the last few months.

"Shipments of subsidiary coins, including half dollars, quarters, dimes, nickels and cents, from the mints amounted to $3,603,000 from January of this year to May 31, which exceeds by more than $1,300,000 all the shipments in the same five months for the thirteen years prior to this year," said the statement.

"The extraordinary demand for 'change' has put the Philadelphia mint on a three-shift basis and coinage operations have been speeded up at the Denver and San Francisco mints.

"The greatest demand is for quarter-dollars. Shipments in 1934 from the mints of quarters alone up to May 31 have amounted to $1,465,000, while for the same months in the thirteen prior years shipments of quarters had amounted only to $435,000.

"Production of copper cents, of which $2,850,000 ($826,500) have been shipped since Jan. 1, is just keeping ahead of the demand of quarters there is a real shortage and orders are being rationed instead of being shipped in full.

"Last Friday night there was only $1,000 in quarters at the Philadelphia mint, but Treasurer Julian had orders for immediate shipment of $392,000 of them. A rush order from Detroit was filled by shipment from Denver, though ordinarily Detroit's supply comes from Philadelphia.

"The demand is also heavy for half-dollars. Although the treasury's records show $435,000 in half-dollars as having been shipped

Barnett Opposes Huge Bond Issue By City Of Jax

Unalterable Opposition To Proposed Issue of Nearly $2,500,000 Worth of Bonds For Program of City Improvements

JACKSONVILLE, June 21.—Unalterable opposition to the proposed issue of nearly $2,500,000 worth of bonds for a program of city improvements was expressed yesterday by Hon. H. Barnett, chairman of the board of the Barnett National Bank and a pioneer builder of Jacksonville.

Head of the oldest national bank in Florida and one whose name and that of his late distinguished father has been closely linked with the history of Jacksonville for many years, Mr. Barnett said yesterday during the course of an interview, "I do not think it advisable to incur any additional indebtedness now."

Mr. Barnett declared that there is no emergency existing which would justify an expenditure at once for any of the items listed on the ballot. Continuing along that line, he added, "It is difficult now for most of us to pay the present rate of taxation. Many business buildings are not renting today for enough to cover taxes and insurance. The owners must let these taxes become delinquent or else take the money from other sources."

"Tax collection this year have been good but upon investigation I find it is due almost entirely to the loans made by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, which requires all taxes paid when making a loan. Due to the very making a loan due to the very of the government there has been some improvement in business but with the many thousands in this city out of work no one can say we are permanently over the depression."

League Rate Shows U. S. Ranks Low In Recovery Progress

Washington, June 21.—Government statisticians who are engaged in compiling figures showing workless performed by various federal agencies, revealing that only three countries rank below the United States in industrial recovery.

Using figures for 1928 for comparison with current industrial production, the Monthly Bulletin of Statistics issued by the League shows that Germany, Chile, France, Japan, Norway, Great Britain and Sweden are leading the United States in industrial recovery. Only Belgium, Canada and Poland reported industrial production at a lower comparative basis than the United States.

With industrial production for 1928 considered at 100, the figures announced by the League for some of the principal countries, covering February reports, were: Germany, 90.6; Belgium, 66.6; Canada, 71.3; Chile, 121.4; United States, 73.0; France, 83.5; Japan, 125.7; Norway, 103.9; Poland, 61.1; Great Britain, 107.5; Sweden, 100.0.

Grocers Assailed For Booming Hugh Johnson

Chicago, June 21.—(AP)—The retail grocers' convention took back the booming it did Monday for General Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator.

Relieved by their code chairman, Charles Janssen of St. Paul, the grocers' members of the National Association of Retail Grocers—applauded their scolding.

"I was thoroughly disgusted," Janssen told the meeting, "when Administrator Johnson, who is doing all that his energy and brain can supply to drag us all from this business morass, was booed."

"If we had constructive efforts by men like President Roosevelt and General Johnson, who can we call upon to follow?"

"Outside of the President, I know of no man better fitted to direct the destinies of this nation than General Johnson."
