A RIGHTEGUS H-CK

Sanford Citizen Dislikes the Idea of Passing Handbills
Editor Sanford Herald:

Dear Sir—You have been pointed out to me as a gentleman who loves to chat with his friends, so I was wondering if it made a difference with you what the subject was. I am not from Wichita, Kans., the cited city beautiful, but am like the Dutchman that claimed he could read the Bible with correct understanding when the subject was that of Daniel being cast into the lions' den. He said no one just close by is the meaning, so I am just close by City Beautiful. Interpret it as you may, Wichita that is or Sanford that is to be. An editor suggests for the good of all business men to be successful is to advertise. That truly means when coming from you that the suggestion is advertise in the city paper. And not to litter our streets with the handbills thrown everywhere. I tell you truly, my friend, this method of advertising is a sore proposition to me. I get my veranda all clean, along comes a boy with these bills that you have job printed. They throw dozens of them on my nice veranda, the wind sends them everywhere and then I pick up the litter from the overloaded trash wagon, placing all I can in the trash can. Along comes another boy, with one twist of his arm and my yard is a sight to see. If the business man would give you the same money you could put him a more attractive ad and every one would see it that is able to own a Herald. And another thing, my dear friend, I am kicking in earnest now, why cannot you suggest some way to help the ladies get rid of the unsightly billboards?

THAT BUILDING SITE

Government Calls for Bids for Suitable Postoffice Site

In this issue of The Herald appears an advertisement inserted by the treasury department, calling for bids or proposals to furnish a site for the federal building to be erected in this city. Only a few weeks ago The Herald published a dispatch stating that an appropriation of $70,000 had been voted by Congress for a public building in Sanford, and the second phases of the matter comes with this advertisement. Evidently the building is to be pushed more rapidly than in many other cases, as the call for proposals follows the appropriation bill more closely than is customary. Desirable or suitable sites are not plentiful, and those that are available have a high market value. It is of utmost importance, however, that this building be placed in a desirable and proper location, and the citizens should see that this is done, even if it is necessary to supplement, with contributions or otherwise, the price the government will pay.

Want Clean Sheets

Tallahassee, March 17.—Traveling men of Florida are up in arms against the rural hotel keepers of the state and have prepared a bill to compel the innkeepers to place on each bed in the hotel two clean sheets for each occupant instead of one clean sheet as has been the custom. Also they demand that sheets be long enough to cover their toes when in bed. Individual towels instead of the roller type are required in the bill to be introduced in the Legislature which meets next month. Two clean towels in each room also is required. Nothing is said about public combs or tooth brushes.

SANFORD'S BRICK ROADS

Causing Favorable Comment Throughout the South

Sanford's $200,000 brick roads bond issue has been disposed of to a Cincinnati firm and it is pleasing to note that a premium was obtained on the bonds, says the Times-Union. The issue was voted by people of the Sanford road district in its county and will be used for the paving of a considerable number of miles of road with brick. Contracts for the brick and the labor will soon be advertised for and awarded.
As remarked by a speaker at the last meeting of the Eustia Board of Trade, Sanford is the best advertised city in Florida when it comes to good roads. Every wide awake paper in the country has commented favorably upon the enterprise and progressiveness of this hustling city in floating a bond issue of $200,000 for the purpose, not of building more brick streets within its corporate limits, but outside in the country districts contiguous to the city.
It is to be assumed that if the one city of Sanford with 6,000 inhabitants can do such a notable thing, that part of Lake county on the east of the lakes, or the whole of the county for that matter, with a population of 18,000, could undertake brick roads and take the lead in Florida on the good roads proposition.
Will the Eustia Board of Trade pursue the subject introduced by Mr. Clark, or will it drop it and permit some other section to take advantage of the opportunity to become the pioneer?—Eustia Lake Region.

It Has Been Decided to Give Double Votes on all New Subscriptions Turned in Thursday and up to Friday Noon.

All Votes Held in Reserve Must be in the Ballot Box Friday Noon, Otherwise They Cannot be Counted.

Representative Forrest Lake and Mr. H. E. Tolar, of the Peoples Bank, will act as Judges.

- FIRST PRIZE—Player Piano, on display at The Herald office.
- SECOND PRIZE—$25.00 Brass Bedstead, purchased from and on display at the store of D. A. Caldwell & Sons.
- THIRD PRIZE—$22.50 Ladies' Watch purchased from and on display at Schaal's Jewelry Store, (new store) 123 West First Street.
- FOURTH PRIZE—$10.00 Ladies' Locket and Chain, purchased from and on display at McLaulin Jewelry Store.

Herewith The Herald gives the names of the gentlemen who will act as judges at the finish of its contest and to count the votes and award the prizes. The names of these gentlemen are a sufficient guarantee, if any is needed, that the contest will be marked by absolute fairness, and the interest of every candidate safeguarded.
The judges will take charge of the ballot box Friday noon at the close of the contest. The closing of the third bonus offer in the Herald contest Monday morning marked the highest point which the contest has reached. Many who did not take advantage of the first offer of extra votes availed themselves of the opportunity to secure bonus votes under that offer, with the result that today the number of contestants who may justly place themselves in the prize winning class is much larger than at any other time since the contest started.
This contest is going to be won by the candidates who know no such word as quit. The ones who fight out to the finish are the ones who will be handsomely rewarded at the close of the contest. Unnecessary discouragement at the finish has lost many a struggle. Some contestants are saturated with exaggerated and idle reports about the number of votes that others are holding in reserve. Put forth your best efforts during the final moments. Do your level best and rest content.

If you have a lead, keep it. Do not let your opponent draw you down to the struggle draws near a close.
The last will not be won until the last ballot is in.
As it has been decided to give double votes on all new subscriptions turned in Thursday, and Friday, it will be best for all contestants to see every one who has promised a subscription and turn them in on these days.

Nearby is the Crippen home which is having large porches built about it and being otherwise improved.

News Notes From Orlando

Orlando reached the high water mark of its progress and prosperity yesterday when the deposits in the State Bank passed the million mark. It was the first time in the history of Orlando or Orange county that deposits in any single institution have reached that point, and we are reliably informed that no bank between Jacksonville and Tampa is able to boast of such receipts. It is likely that the city council will take steps tomorrow night to bond the city for paying purposes. Permission will have to be secured from the legislature for the bonding privilege, as Orlando cannot, under its charter, bond directly for paying purposes. So that if the council does not take action on the issue tomorrow night, as it is supposed it will, such action will take the form of a petition to the legislature for the bonding privilege. A number of influential citizens of the city are making an urgent demand that the issue be taken up promptly, pointing to the fact that if this legislature fails to act upon the measure, Orlando cannot bond for paying for practically another three years. Meantime the old antiquated plan of "paying as you go" would have to be continued.

The Municipal League, an organization composed of the younger citizens and business men of Orlando spring into official life last night. Amid a downpour of rain a goodly number of this younger set assembled in the state of the Pierce Electrical Company, and after several short but enthusiastic speeches, the following permanent officers were elected: Dr. J. C. Howell, president; V. S. Starbuck, secretary; W. H. Palmer, secretary and C. P. Dow, treasurer. Those elected to serve as board of directors are LeRoy Giles, E. H. Bradley and T. P. Howes.

The boys who are interested in the organization of the new military company for Orlando will meet tonight in the Armory. Considerable work has been done on the personnel of the proposed company, and it is thought that the required number will be present, so that the organization may be completed at the meeting tonight.

J. P. Holbrook and H. R. Berry are planning to build a garage in the city. The actual construction work to be begun next week. It will be located on the Berry lot on Church street, adjoining the Holden Laundry.

Tourist Hotel Again

Mr. Holly - I was wondering if anyone presented to our millionaire visitors, the proposition to build a tourist hotel in Sanford. As I understand it, the Sanford House corporation offers to donate that beautiful park, lying between the present hotel and the lake, to anyone who would build a tourist hotel, costing not less than 100,000. If it was properly presented to these thirty-five or forty wealthy men who visited us, I believe that every one of them would take stock in it. There is no better proposition in the state for a splendid investment, and these men know it. If it has not already been done, Why not The Herald take it up with them? It would be worth as much or more to Sanford than even county division.

WELL WISHER.

The regular meeting of the Cecilian Music Club will be held at the studio of Mrs. J. W. Powell at 3 o'clock.

We wish to thank all our dear friends for their kindness and sympathy during our loving mother's illness and death, and also for the many beautiful floral offerings sent by them on that occasion. J. T. LEE AND FAMILY.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Callehan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had back-ache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.

The new postmaster for Arcadia will be nominated by a primary election to be held April 22nd. This is undoubtedly the best way to make a selection where there are so many hungry Democrats crowding up to the pike counter.

And M. W. Lovell and R. J. Holly, the only two avowed candidates for the Sanford postoffice are both willing to leave the matter to a primary election. If there are any other candidates let them speak.

A man stepped up to the ticket seller of a moving picture show in Tampa and told the man at the door that his wife was in there with another man, and he intended to wait until they came out. After the reel which was then being shown, the manager interrupted the show long enough to make this announcement: "There's a tough guy outside waiting for his wife and the man who brought her here. I'd advise the pair to step out the back way." There was a hasty bustle and a man who claimed to count says there were fifteen couples shot out through the back door.

SIGNS OF SPRING

Having been requested to reproduce that beautiful and touching poem which appeared some time ago in the Moundville News, evidently written by some old timer who does not like the present order of things, it is herewith presented for the second time: "Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight; give us a girl whose skirts are not tight; give us a girl whose charms, many or few, are not exposed by too much peek-a-boo; give us a girl, no matter what age, who doesn't use the streets as a vaudeville stage; give us a girl not too sharply in view; dress her in skirts that the sun can't shine through.

To which the rascally poet of the Tampa Tribune makes this (un)feeling reply: "Oh what a sorrowful prudish wall comes from this shockable cynical male. Why should he rail at the natural thing that maidens, like flowers, come out in the Spring? As sweetest of roses they blossom and bloom, dispelling the winter's depression and gloom; and we'll wager this guy, like most rubbernecked men, would welcome the 'style' of the fig-leaf again.

MAY VOTE AWAY FROM HOME

Recently, in calling attention to the proposed bill of Representative Brown of this county in the next Legislature to make it possible for railroad men, commercial travelers and others away from home on election day to cast their ballots in general elections, we stated erroneously that such ballots would be sent by mail by the voter to his home precinct. We had not then seen the text of the bill and misunderstood this feature of it. The bill provides that under certain prescribed conditions and regulations such qualified voter, unavoidably away from home on a general election day, may cast his ballot at any voting precinct where he may present himself, for that purpose on the day of such general election. The full text of the bill contains provisions which carefully safeguard the ballot box against fraud or illegal voting of any kind, under such exceptional circumstances, and as the measure is manifestly an act of simple justice to a class of men fully entitled to vote, and prevented from doing so through no fault of their own, the bill is practically sure to become law. Gov. Trammell endorses it and recommends its enactment and we have heard of no opposition to it from any source.

And The Herald and the people of Sanford fully endorse the Brown bill, as our many railroad men here can fully attest to the merits of the bill. Another good feature of the bill is the big money amounts to more than one would imagine.

DISAPPOINTING, SURPRISING

Congressman Clark and others who went to see Postmaster General Burleson about appointments were shocked when they learned that the Republican postmasters who are now on the job will not be fired on account of their politics. Of course they were shocked, and it would not be stretching the imagination much to conclude that they were dumbfounded and considerably "hot" at the thought that they were loath to criticize the postmaster general it can be imagined that they had thoughts that would make the newspaper boys call "hot copy." The policy enunciated by Mr. Burleson is probably more disappointing and discouraging to the "original Wilson men" than others, but it must be admitted that other kinds of Democrats who had hopes of annexing a hunk of pie do not know exactly what to think about it and as are about as much disappointed as the despairing Republicans will be prised.

Why should Mr. Burleson be so generous? When have the Republicans tempered the winds to the shorn Democratic lambs in this fashion? When Mr. McKinley took the reins of government after Cleveland, the Democratic postmasters were given their walking papers in short order. They knew that they held political appointments and expected the change in the nation's politics to put them out. Out they went, and that was what they were expecting. The Republican postmasters of the country were given the jobs they hold on account of politics and they were expecting to lose their jobs on account of their politics. They were expecting to get the pink slip and doubtless it would be difficult to imagine their surprise when they learned that they will be allowed to hold over. The Bible says that he who lives by the sword shall die by the sword, but it is evident that Mr. Burleson does not believe that the postmaster who grows fat on his politics shall also be made lean by his politics.

It has generally been supposed that this is a party government. The people hold the party in power responsible for what the government does. The people get what they want by voting for the party that promises what they want. If the people are not satisfied with the government and if they do not get what they voted for their only recourse is to vote for the other party. If the party that is in power does not appoint members of its own party to the responsible governmental positions how can the party be held responsible for the government?

THE PROPER SPIRIT

Dade county has already been divided and is anxious to have other counties cut out of the large county, knowing as they do that the mother county and the younger counties will all do better in more compact areas. And Miami, the county seat is supporting the division measure. What a difference manifested in this broad spirit and the narrow minded efforts of Orlando politicians and office seekers to prevent a division of Orange county. The Lauderdale Herald sizes up the situation as follows:

On the first page we publish, as a feature, an editorial from the Miami Metropolis, which manifests such a fairness of spirit and such soundness of county economics as to make it worthy of even greater prominence than we are able to give. Miami has a grave question to solve in the matter of county bonds for local improvements, which neither Miami nor anyone else could expect Fort Lauderdale and vicinity, because of our local aspirations, to support, but which all residents who are nearer Miami than to any other prospective harbor, should support. Most truthfully does the Metropolis set forth the advantages of small counties in Florida, where the county and not the township system of local government prevails, but this is made doubly important in a country where the population is to be a dense one. No man can comprehend the depth of New River in its relation to the rapidly developing Everglades, extending eighty miles west from our very corporation limits, and fail to grasp the significance of our early future as a center of population and commercial activity. It is even now a serious inconvenience for Fort Lauderdale citizens but more still for the Everglades people, to get to Miami to transact their courthouse business. The Everglades are divided mainly into five and ten acre farms; the higher lands all along the East Coast are, likewise, in small tracts, and are rapidly being settled, so it is most probable that in a few years there shall be demands for further increase of counties, carved from these

We are cordially struck by the admirable spirit manifested by the Miami people in this matter. It is not material whether we are in one country or a dozen—the important consideration is how to work in the greatest harmony for the continued prosperity of the East Coast and Florida in general. That is of the deepest concern to all, and there is no occasion for jealousy or contention. No one locality can boost itself without a good hearty boost for his neighbor, likewise no one can knock his neighbor without welding the hammer on his own back. We are out for Everglades county, and whether we get it or not we are for the East Coast and every county in Florida.

Are you interested in whether you are to remain a part of the citizenship of Orange county?

Do you happen to know that the public advertisement published by Thomas Bates, secretary of the Sanford divisionists, goes just far enough in its description to come within the legal requirements to bring it before the State Legislature without actually saying where the proposed lines are to be?

Do you know that when the citizens of Apopka sought to know and wrote several letters of inquiry asking where the lines are to be that they received no reply from Thomas K. Bates until they mailed a registered letter and demanded an answer?

Do you know that the answer was that "no official status has been given any lines because no lines have been officially selected" and that Mr. Bates over his signature used these words, to-wit: "We have a committee on this most important question and as soon as it returns its report we will advise you of its decision" (?)

In other words. The legal advertisement is kept open for the proposed lines to be drawn and extended in certain directions at the will of the county breakers. Its committee without consultation of the citizens withhold the proposed lines irrespective of their wishes or rights in the matter.

Citizens of Apopka, Oviedo, Zellwood, McDonald, Tangerine, Longwood, Altamonte, Maitland, Chuluota, Christmas and elsewhere, it is full time you place yourselves emphatically, on one side or the other of this division fight. If you want to continue in Orange county, let there be no uncertain sound from your sections.—Orlando Citizen.

Keep quiet, Bro. Howard. You are becoming unduly excited and the first thing you know you will break out with hydrophobia again. The lines will be explained in The Herald next week and the map of Harney or Seminole or Wekiva or Sanford or Holly or Howard county whatever it may be called and we will tell you in advance that only three of the cities you have named will be in the new county. Please don't attempt to seduce any of our little sisters who are not in the new county by your deductions and seductions and get them unduly excited, because we don't want to spank any of them by extending the lines at this late date. Everything is lovely now and everybody is satisfied except the Orlando newspapers.

If Tommy Bates has needlessly alarmed the Orlando Citizen we shall have him shot at sunrise.

But, seriously, Bro. Howard, your point is not well taken and is absolutely out of order. Mayor Spencer and F. P. Forster, Chairman of the Division Committee met you and your president of the Orlando Board of Trade before the division movement had developed and respectfully asked for a conference about the lines and they were turned down and when the Board did meet Sanford's advances were repulsed without the common courtesy of a reply. The editor of the Citizen was present at both meetings and was one of the men who positively refused to listen to an amicable understanding about the lines, and your kick at this late date seems puerile and displays the weakness of the anti-divisionists. Neither Orlando or any other precinct outside the Harney county precincts have any voice in the matter and all this fuss and feathers of the Citizen will not stir up any county feeling for Orlando.

Other precincts feel about Orlando as we do—that she ought to be big enough to fight her own battles, and since Orlando has set herself up as dictator for the county let her continue the fight without asking and begging for assistance from other outside precincts.

And what has Orlando or any other precinct of the south end to do with county division? They refused to arbitrate with us at the beginning and it is our turn at the wheel now and our boat is on the flood tide.

West Side Cleaning

Several prominent gentlemen of the West Side have volunteered their services to clean up a vacant lot in their neighborhood...

Alderman Runge wears a Taft smile. He likes the way things are going in the West Side.

Cleaning-up Day is the chief topic of conversation with the West Siders, but it is not all talk.

A pertinent suggestion—Be sure to cut the grass on the edges of your sidewalks. High grass growing on the sidewalks ruins dainty gowns.

Already the West Sides are busy and the interest in Cleaning up Day grows more and more enthusiastic.

Be sure to tell your neighbors about April 2nd and don't forget the back yards.

Conductor is Killed.

Tampa, March 19.—(Special)—U. J. Berrier, a freight conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line, was run over and instantly killed in the Port Tampa yards last night by an engine driven by Engineer J. T. Johnson.

The engineer did not see Berrier and was not aware that he had run down the man until he was notified by telegraph as he was on his way to Sanford with his train.

No one saw the accident. Berrier's body was warm when picked up. He had received orders at the yard master's office to take out an extra freight and was on the way to his train when run down. His body was horribly mangled. The body was shipped today to his mother at Muckville, N. C.

HELD INTERESTING MEETING

County Division and Other Good Things Discussed at Length

The meeting held in the Star Theatre last Tuesday evening was well attended despite the inclemency of the weather and those who attended were rewarded by the many good things discussed at the meeting that are in store for Sanford in the near future.

Chairman Foster presided in his usual genial manner and introduced the following speakers: D. L. Thrasher, E. A. Douglass and J. N. Whitner.

The meeting was not altogether a county division meeting, but more of a ratification meeting, the ground being pretty thoroughly covered by the different speakers regarding the many improvements in the city and proposed new county of Harney.

Canal Was a Lemon

It appears evident that the state of Florida was handed a lemon in the matter of the construction of the canal from Jacksonville to Miami.

President Wilson was urged by Representative Underwood to postpone the date of the extra session of congress at least one week.

Division and Deep Water.

The two great subjects before the people of this section are so great, also, that they are almost inseparable.

There are riches yet untold awaiting the success of these two projects, all along the line from Sanford to the proposed deep water.

In the upper farming countries the farmer who is owner of low lands—although subject to overflow every three to five years—is considered very fortunate by his neighbor on the high land.

I remember a farmer with a small tract of low land who could furnish many of his neighbors on the high lands in corn, oats, etc., almost any year, and he was supposed to grow only what his farm consumed.

Another who said he hadn't room on the ground on which he grows corn to stack it after it was gathered. In this, the new county, there are thousands of acres of land that overflow once only in about five years.

You may ask, what has Deep Water subject to do with County Division?

I say much indeed, with the deep water or a canal to the deep water the locks can be used to control the high waters in this section to such an extent the finest and most fertile low lands beginning at Sanford, from two to five miles wide all through Beck Hammock, Cameron City, around the lake to Oviedo, through Black Hammock away down into the peninsula of Geneva, back through the vast waste acres of Lake Harney, and so on.

We can do it without even trying.

Corn, oats and hay could be shipped through this canal to the deep water, thence to the world. Should you drop a pumpkin or watermelon seed in these low lands after they are thoroughly prepared, you'd better run for your life or the vines may entangle your feet and your escape be very difficult.

preciate the bountiful gifts nature has bestowed upon us. We are without the shadow of a doubt, one of the most fortunate people on the globe and with so little effort on our part we can make our country the richest of the rich.

And new comers find with us, "Life in Sanford, Harney County, is worth living."

P. S. Fortson.

Spoke on Child Labor

At the Congregational church last Sunday, during both morning and evening hours, Rev. Harry P. Vaughn of New York city, a member of the National Child Labor committee, addressed appreciative audiences. In the morning he spoke of the challenge of the child and his right to protection.

"Sense of Humor" St. Louis Times:—"A Vice President with a sense of humor should prove far more valuable than one with any sort of equipment. Indeed, it is just possible that Vice President Marshall may succeed in demonstrating that a secondary partner in the work of running the Government is worth while."

"First Guard of Honor" Denver Times:—"Thomas R. Marshall is the first Vice President in the history of the country to have a special guard of honor."

"Mere Spectator" Spokane Chronicle:—"He is a mere spectator except in the case of a tie vote on an important question in the Senate. In the councils of the administrative end of the government he has no place unless unofficially and by courtesy of the President."

"No Peanuts" Savannah News:—"Vice President Marshall seems to have found the 'open door' policy not exactly to his liking. He compared himself to a monkey in a cage, with the difference that nobody offered the Vice President peanuts."

"Senate Duties" Tacoma News:—"The inaugural address of Vice President Marshall, with fitting discrimination, is devoted to the Senate and its duties, and after frankly telling the Senators that their actions have not always met approval sets up a standard of national honor that the Senate would do well to follow."

"Baseball Fan" Cleveland Leader:—"Even if Vice President Marshall can't be in the spotlight in Washington he will be in the sunlight. He is a baseball fan and likes the bleachers."

"Not Much" Kansas City Star:—"There was not much of the ideal in Vice President Marshall's inaugural, nor was there any too much of the sensibly practical."

"Brief and Pointed" San Antonio Express:—"Vice President Marshall's address was brief but pointed, and the burden of it was intelligent administration of public affairs, responsive to every reasonable demand of the people without disturbing any of the checks and balances of our system of government."

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS. DO YOU know of anyone who is old enough to read, who has not seen that sign at a railroad crossing? If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to keep those signs at every crossing? Maybe you think, Mr. Merchant, "Most everybody knows my store, I don't have to advertise." Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars." Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world. The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business. If it pays to run a few ads round about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time. It's just business, that's all, so ADVERTISE IN THIS PAPER
