Flu Fatal To 465 Throughout Nation

ATLANTA (UPI) — Influenza has killed 465 more people than expected this year in the United States, and federal health officials report the new flu strain that has swept Russia has now spread to Great Britain and the Philippines.

Smoke Delays Blast Probe

LIBERTY, Mo. (UPI) — Officials believe grain dust caused a few-min explosion and fire that killed three men and injured six others, but heavy smoke and heat is delaying a full investigation.

It was the fourth major grain company explosion in the past month. In December, grain explosions caused more than 50 deaths in Westwego, La., and Galveston, Texas, and a grain blast also occurred in Tupelo, Miss.

Vows Jobless March

SALISBURY, N.C. (UPI) — Civil Rights leader Ralph D. Abernathy says he will organize a march on Washington to demonstrate on behalf of the nation's unemployed and underemployed.

He said if jobs aren't found for black youth soon, the situation could become "explosive."

Resolutions: Social Projects

ATLANTA (UPI) — First Lady Rosalynn Carter, touring inner city neighborhoods of Atlanta, said Friday she would work to bring private industry into social projects which help the poor.

"I have a new project for 1978," said Mrs. Carter. "I am going to be working in the cities... with the private sector and with people in the communities."

WORLD IN BRIEF

Skyjacker Demanded $2 Million For Cancer

KARACHI, Pakistan (UPI) — A hijacker demanding $2 million for cancer treatment and threatening to blow up a Pakistani airliner unless he got the money was overpowered today by the airline's president and the flight crew.

Pakistan International Airlines Chairman Nur Khan was shot and wounded in the fray. The gunman — identified only as Nazir, a Pakistani in his late 30s from Punjab province who worked in a hotel in Sialkot — seized the twin-engine Fokker VFW Friendship turboprop with 42 hostages aboard Friday and threatened to blow it up unless he got $2 million in dollars and rupees.

Taiwan Sailor Executed

TAIPEI, Taiwan (UPI) — A Taiwanese sailor convicted of murdering two fellow crew members in a United States port was executed today by a firing squad, official sources said. The sources identified the man as Peng Lien, 45, who worked as a steward on a Liberia-registered freighter.

Turks To Vow: Keep Out

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI) — Turkey wants Secretary of State Cyrus Vance to keep out of its dispute with Greece over Cyprus and devote more time to improving strained Turkish-American relations.

"I don't think Mr. Vance would have time to be interested in some trouble spots like Cyprus and Turkish-Greek relations," Foreign Minister Gunduz Ozcum told the American secretary.

After Firing U.S. Attorney Marston

Bell Pledges Pursuit Of Investigations

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department will continue to probe the firing of U.S. Attorney David Marston, the Republican prosecutor who brought down Pennsylvania Democratic Gov. Dick Thornburgh on an ongoing corruption investigation.

Benjamin Civiletti, acting attorney general, said the Justice Department will not stop its investigation until it has a "reasonable basis" to believe a crime was committed.

'Historic' Storm Shades Of 'Siberia'

The Northeast resembled Siberia today. The snow-blizzard that struck Friday with more than two feet of snow, bringing commensal traffic to a virtual standstill, is the most intense yet recorded in the region during the night.

The storm left residents of the nation's most densely populated region with less than an inch of snow on the ground.

"It is a certainty that this was a storm of truly historic proportions," the National Weather Service said.

Mad R. Sain, a Tokyo businessman visiting Boston, said simply, "This is like Siberia."

Late Friday, snow accumulations had reached 20 inches in Rochester, N.Y.; 27 inches in Boston; 23 inches in Burlington, Vt.; 18 inches on eastern Long Island; and 14 inches in New York City.

At its peak, the storm was dumping snow at the rate of four inches per hour at Black Island, N.I.

"I've been here for seven years and this is the worst thing I've ever had to deal with," said airport spokesman Ron Brian in Boston. "We can't even get the runway cleared."

At least 51 people have died because of the weather this week, but there were fewer deaths than in the Northeast, where most fatalities resulted from ice storms that struck in the South and Ohio Valley during previous storms.

"The snow is blowing horizontally. We're moved in. People can't even get out of their streets," said Huntington, N.Y., resident Donald Mallon.

Bill, hundreds of cars piled into snow drifts along Northeastern highways. A 15-car pileup, causing minor injuries, shut down busy Interstate 193, which bypasses Boston. Boston's Logan Airport closed at 4:30 a.m., and some flights, including school buses that were in rapid succession on the intensity of the storm became apparent. In New York, the snow exchanges opened two hours late to light traffic.

The weather bureau, however, Cross-country shivers troubled New York's streets, converted to quiet canyons by the lack of traffic. People formed human chains across Boston streets.

icy tracks were blamed for the collision of two subway trains in Boston that hospitalized 25 people. Another 40 complained of minor injuries.

In the Atlantic, gale-force winds slammed waves into and over the coastline, flooding coastal streets, sidewalks and basements. A 50-foot fishing vessel sank in heavy seas 50 miles off Portsmouth, N.H., but the four crewmen were rescued. An oil tanker heeled from its low and ran aground near Atlantic City, N.J., and an empty tanker ran aground in Boston Harbor.

Pennsylvania Gov. Milton Shapp, snowed out of Washington, announced a state of emergency declaration for his state, where 30 inches of snow had fallen and another foot was expected.

Ohio Gov. James Rhodes called out the National Guard and asked President Carter for a disaster declaration for 13 counties.

In North Carolina, ice and snow knocked down power and telephone lines, knocking out electricity to 114,000 homes and phone service to 20,000 centers.

The National Weather Service said still another winter storm was expected to originate over North Texas and Oklahoma today and produce up to 3 inches of snow. And, following the tracks of its predecessor, the storm was expected to head into the Northeast by next week.

Marston, said the action was "a clear signal to any corrupt politicians that all they have to do when they get in trouble is go and knock the prosecutor out."

Schwartz said he would call the Senate Judiciary Committee "to find out just what happened" when it holds confirmation hearings on Marston's resignation.

Sen. John Heinz III, R-Pa., called Marston a victim of a "ruthless purge."

Rep. Sam Mataro, D-N.Y., said he will ask the House Judiciary Committee "to do a thorough" during review of the Justice Department report.

Marston filed reports his dismissal was political and said Bell admitted as much.

Carter pledged during his presidential campaign to remove the office from politics.

"(Bell) did not deserve it," Marston said in reference to the alleged political motivation for his ouster. "He said, 'We have a system and we have to live within that system.' There was an criticism of me at all."

Leesburg (UPI) — Claude R. Kirk Jr. announced in off hand fashion Friday night that he is an independent candidate for governor.

The former governor — the only Republican to hold the office in modern times (1967-71) — confirmed to UPI later that he, in truth, is a serious candidate.

Hypnosis May Unlock Clues

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Searching for something to lead them to the killer of two Florida State University coeds, police hope to use hypnosis to probe the memories of three other girls who survived their attack.

One of the girls, Karen Chandler, Tallahassee, was released from the hospital Friday. Her scalp and face were battered, and an elbow and finger broken, but physicians said she suffered no brain damage.

Tourism Aids Jobless Drop

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida's unemployment rate fell slightly below the national average to 6.3 percent in December. Statistics released Friday show that employment went up in December by 70,000, attributable to increased holiday work and the beginning of the winter tourism season.

The national rate for December was 6.4 percent, as was Florida's November rate.

Tot 'Critical' After Shooting

APOPKA (UPI) — Three-year-old Tracy Gregory was in critical condition Friday after accidentally shooting himself in the head with a .38-caliber pistol he found at his aunt's apartment.

The youth, listed as critical at Florida Hospital in Orlando, accidentally shot himself Thursday night while playing with his 7-year-old cousin.

Divers Search Ocean For 'Bright Orange Fireball'

WEST PALM BEACH (UPI) — Fireball, meteor, meteorite or space junk — something big and fiery plunged into the ocean reportedly near shore and a group of divers planned to hunt for it today.

The time was about 10:30 a.m. Friday. The sun was shining brightly.

Officer John Johnson of the suburban Tequesta police department was driving across the Jupiter Inlet bridge, north of Palm Beach.

"I saw it coming down," he said. "It had a tail on it about 100 yards long. It was bright yellow. It was a bright orange fireball, about the size of an automobile."

Council Hears Of 'Sunshine'

Assistant State Attorney Randy Cramer told Winter Springs councilmen to let "good old-fashioned common sense" be their guide and to "avoid even the appearance of wrongdoing" to stay out of trouble with the sunshine law.

City Atty. Gary Mosney told the council there is a "fine line" between dissemination of information and decision-making" among the elected officials.

And former County Atty. Tom Freeman, who was indicted and later cleared of a sunshine law violation, said he believes he was in a "no-win position" on the sunshine law.

"I saw it coming down," he said. "It had a tail on it about 100 yards long. It was bright yellow. It was a bright orange fireball, about the size of an automobile."

ADDING THE FINAL TOUCHES

Workers at the new city hall in Sanford are putting the finishing touches on the $1.2 million project. Richard Quigley, assistant to the city manager, said the major portion of the remaining work involves landscaping, furnishing and construction of a parking lot. The work is on schedule, Quigley said, with all work on the complex to be completed by early March. "They're just tying up the loose ends," Quigley said.

It's Elementary, Watson...Six Under Leads

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Few athletes anywhere make more money than Tom Watson and he says he is going for his top bid in 1978.

But, he is as humble and full of joy as the day he first joined the PGA tour out of Oklawaha in 1962.

Watson has done more than that, winning seven tour events and $20,000 in what the PGA calls off-season money. If you add his occasional money and foreign events he has participated in, the figure now will over $1 million. And he has made it in six years.

On Friday Watson shot a 6-under-par 68 at Cypress Point to take his career record lead in the 100-player Pro-Am. He was celebrating a good day to be playing golf and watching everyone. I saw the president (Ford) and I talked with him a few minutes. The tournament is full of nice people like him. That's what the Pro-Am is — a chance to have fun and really enjoy all that money about golf. That's how I played my golf and maybe that's why I had so much success."

The 68 seemed more like a 60 or 65 the way most everyone else in the 100-player field. Most players had 60, eight had 70 and 14 had 75, an only 20 players shot par or less at Cypress Point. Pebble Beach and Spyglass Hill even through their rain were in effect.

Arnold Palmer, who played so well in the final round at Pebble Beach Monday to shoot the event, seemed up with a 76. Ford, who is playing to a 10-handicap, helped Palmer 10 shots and at the start of the second round today their team is only two shots off the lead set by Lee Trevino and Willie May. In this tournament, people pay close attention to the Pro-Am than they do the pro competition.

The former President was as pleased as he could be with his play.

"We sort of him and egged it and came out in pretty good shape," said Ford.

Jack Nicklaus, playing for the first time in four months, showed his rustiness, shooting a 77.

"I played like a guy who took four months off," Nicklaus said. "It will take some time to get my game back."

While Watson was comfortably out in front, the players closest to his three shots back were Larry Singler, Jerry McGee, Hale Irwin, Fuzzy Zoeller, Ben Crenshaw, Tom McClellan, Gil Morgan, Hubert and U.S. Open champion Robert Green.

These another that both were Ray Floyd, Steve Melnick, Bob Eastwood, Gobby Gilman, Tom Weiskopf, Bobby Nichols, and Dan Poley.

Field Goal NCAA Monster?

Atlanta (UPI) — College football reformers contend they created a monster when they popularized the field goal.

The ability of some of these newer-style kickers to hit from inside the end zone has revolutionized the game, says NCAA Rules Committee Chairman Harold Lohar.

"It was never the intent to have the field goal make such a drastic change. The field goal used to be a reward for a team that drove into the shadow of an opponent's goal post."

"Instead, we had some teams having to go into a goal line defense before the ball even crosses the line."

The cry for relief began in the Southeastern Conference where Lohar is conference commissioner. It came from those who were being kicked around by Arkansas' Steve Little, Texas' Russell Kirby (both of whom have kicked record 67-yards), and Texas A&M's Tony Franklin (who has hit from 69 yards out).

"I really don't know how the Southeastern Conference came up with three kickers like that at the same time," said Lohar. "But, if you watch them kick, you know these 60-yards they hit with such regularity are no flukes. They have exceptional legs and exceptional aim."

The reformers aren't about to outlaw the expert kickers. They're just about to outlaw the expert coaches who coach them before sending them to 70-yard contact from inside.

Under the new rule, a long-range field goal attempt was better than one that failed over the goal line. If it connected, it meant three points. If it missed, the opponent got the ball at the 20-yard line.

No more.

Since a long field goal in 1970 and your opponent gets the ball back at the spot where it was stopped, just like the pros.

Franklin (11-20), Kirby (7-36) and Little (6-4) each hit on less than 20 percent of their kicks from 60 to 70 yards out. If the new rule had been in effect in 1977, they would have given their opponents favorable field position more than half the time.

"That has to make a coach panic," said Lohar.

Lohar's committee discussed another change that is expected to handle the long-range kickers. It took away the "pat" footballs which some have been taking out on the field.

"I've always felt that was mainly psychological anyway," said Lohar.

In 1976, only one "almost new" football that conforms to NCAA standards and which have been checked by an official before the game will be allowed into play.

Field goals increased dramatically after the goal posts were raised from 10 and a half to 10 feet. In 1976 there were only 107 kicked. In 1977 that number had increased to 1,227 — a 13-fold rise.

"No other phase of the game has been so drastically affected," said Lohar. "Many of the college training and statistics records date back a decade or more. Field goal kicking has given far out of proportion."

It had been suggested that one way to curtail on field goal kicking would be to do away with the use of a kicking tee.

"We considered that," said Lohar. "But we felt that unchanged because college teams play on so many different types of fields that we felt it would not be equitable. It would give some kickers an unfair advantage."

The NCAA Rules Committee, concluding its annual meeting Wednesday, also announced a couple of changes that should have an impact on the college passing game.

Receivers forced out of bounds by a defender will be able to reverse the sideline and make a legal catch and quarterback who drops the football to avoid being tackled must have an eligible receiver in the target area.

Also, defensive teams will be penalized when crowds refuse to quiet down enough for a quarterback's signals to be heard. And when a quarterback jitters to signal the wrong play, he must either leave the field for a play or have his time charged with a time out.

"Most of our work this year was mainly housekeeping," said Lohar. "But we consider our action on field goals to be a major change, one that will be noticeable next season and, from all we've heard from around the country, one that will be popular with the fans."

DAWN WOODALL (34) HAS SQUEEZE PUT ON BY SPRUCE CREEK

Lyman Wins, Seminole Loses

Seminole County high school basketball teams felt both the elation of victory and heart of defeat from close games Friday night.

Lyman was a game at the buzzer as an apparent shut out by the buzzer by DeLand was ruled no good, 54-52. And Seminole didn't get a shot at the buzzer, falling to Seabrook, 51-48.

Elsewhere, Oviedo was knocked off by a tough Apopka outfit, 51-40; Lake Brantley spoiled Maitland, 79-73; Lake

Highland dumped Trinity Prep, 62-39; and Spruce Creek stopped Lake Howell, 60-56.

Referee Wil Robertson signalled the would-be winning shot by DeLand's Willie Graybeard as the unopposed pacer in the Five Star Conference with a 6-0 record. DeLand fell to 11-7 and 3-3 in loop play.

Late buckets by Mitch Hanson and Greg Thomas sparked Lyman in the last two minutes.

Seminole, still smarting from the loss for the rest of the season of Kenry Brown, got the guts to call it no good.

"The victory upped Lyman's record to 15-3 and left the Graybeards as the unquestioned pacer in the Five Star Conference with a 6-0 record. DeLand fell to 11-7 and 3-3 in loop play.

Late buckets by Mitch Hanson and Greg Thomas sparked Lyman in the last two minutes.

Seminole, still smarting from the loss for the rest of the season of Kenry Brown, got suberb performances from David Wiggins and Eric Hicks. However, Seabrook's balance took its toll.

Wiggins scored 20 points and Hicks 13. And Davis, Craig added 11 for the Seminoles.

What bothered Seminole coach Bill Payne was that his club had a fairly secure non-point lead in the fourth quarter. But Seabrook put together an 11-point string of unanswered points to claim the victory. (See LYMAN, Page 2B)

Borg Waits For Connors

BOCA WEST (UPI) — If Bjorn Borg had any doubts about leaving his bench on clay courts after three months away from the slow surface, he erased them in a hurry Friday.

Borg jumped to a 6-0 lead in the first set and then cruised to a 6-2, 6-4 win over Brian Gottfried in the first semi-final round of the $200,000 Papani Grand Slam tennis tournament.

Borg will play the winner of today's Jimmy Connors-Vilas Gerulaitis semi-final match Sunday for the winner's check of $125,000 — the largest in tennis.

Borg hadn't played on clay since last October in Spain and said he was surprised at how well he adapted to it.

"I was surprised at my game. I didn't expect to play that well," the 21-year-old Swede said. "I'm playing very well and I'm surprised that I got used to the clay surface so very quick."

The game may have been decided in the third game of the first set. Borg had broken Gottfried's serve in the first game and held in the third.

With Gottfried serving again, the game went 10 points to 10. Borg got the advantage twice, but was victimized by a backhand passing shot by Borg the first time and by a double fault the second. Borg then won New York and had him just last week in Birmingham, Ala.

From then on it was all Borg, except for a brief flurry by Gottfried when he broke Borg's Wimbledon champion's serve to make it 3-3 in the second set.

"I normally start slow, but he never gave me a chance to get to my good. Everything I tried he had an answer for," Gottfried said.

It was the fourth time the two had played each other in the past year and Borg has won three.

Connors was favored in today's match with Gerulaitis, although the two never played each other last year.

If Connors wins and plays Borg Sunday, it will set up a repeat of last year's finale, won by Borg, 6-4, 7-6, 6-3. Borg also beat Connors in the Wimbledon finals last year, but Connors came out on top 6-4, 1-6, 6-4 in the Grand Prix Masters in New York two weeks ago.

Raiders On The Road, Visit St. Johns River

PALATKA — Seminole Community College's basketball team is down to the point in the season where they are all big ones.

And tonight's contest here against St. Johns River CC is no exception.

"They all count in division, and St. Johns has pulled its share of upsets, so I don't expect an easy time of it," said SCC coach Joe Bierling before the trip. "I do think that if we play to our potential, there aren't many teams in the state who can play with us."

SCC is 15-4 on the season and lost for the first place in Division 2. The Raiders' only loss came Wednesday in Jacksonville at the hands of Florida JC.

Following tonight's game, the Raiders have a Wednesday game coming up next week in Orlando against Valencia.

Tough Part At Philly Was In Getting There

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — First meet since his world indoor record was broken last week.

The man who shattered it — Olympic silver medalist Greg Joy — was one of a surprising few who managed to reach the city at all after the 10-inch snowfall.

For Waigwa, the 18 hours of airport sitting and cancelled and rerouted flights from El Paso, Tex. was worth it — he won the mile run and came within 20 seconds of breaking four minutes.

Not that it was easy to get in. "I had a seven-hour layover in Dallas," Waigwa said. "In St. Louis I was held over for two hours but I finally got in at 9 p.m. By the time I got here, my race was in 20 minutes and I had no idea how I was going to run it."

But the former NCAA mile champion did a fine job of adjusting, overtaking pacer Steve Paul Cummings with two laps to go and winning going away in a time of 4:58.20.

For Shanes, a 14-hour layover in Pittsburgh was no fun but he still managed a third-place finish in the high jump, in his

Manning's Agent Begins Pact Talks With Injuns

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Quarterback Rich Manning's agent, Ed Keating, began contract talks with Cleveland Indians' General Manager Phil Neri Friday.

Manning, who claimed free-agent status on a breach of contract grounds, missed the negotiations because of a nose injury.

The breach of contract claim involves a dispute over a 20 percent cut.

1978: Year Of Unusual So Far At SOKC

This appears to be the year of the unusual at the Seaside Olympic Kennel Club.

First, a professional game of pool was held on the first day of the year.

Second, when it did come to the fore, it is much more widely known.

The event is called "The Pool of the Year" and it is one of the more unique happenings at the Longwood golf and country club.

For 20 years the 54 holes did not come to it. It was only recently that the club had the event for the first time.

"I haven't seen it happen lately," said "Jack" years ago when our hands for the night would be well under way. And he was right—54 holes did not come to it.

"That was the good year," he had some to do in two parts. First, he started playing after 100 rounds—which meant it took over 100 rounds and 600 to hit.

JERRY COLLINS

Haden Vs. Griese On Monday Night

TAMPA (UPI) — It will be the first time since Tom Brady's last game that the Miami Dolphins take the field Monday night in the Pro Bowl at Tampa Stadium.

Haden, who has completed only two seasons in the NFL, will be making his Pro Bowl debut against the Miami Dolphins.

Griese, an 11-year pro, will be making his 10th Pro Bowl appearance.

Haden moved up and St. Louis Cardinals quarterback Jim Holt, who was third in the voting, joined the club.

Backing up Griese will be four-time all-pro Ken Stabler of the Oakland Raiders.

Paired in the AFC starting backfield behind Griese will be former Pro Bowl linebacker Franco Harris of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Lyell Mitchell of the Baltimore Colts.

Not more, a favorite Dolphins target of Griese during the regular season, will be at wide receiver.

The NFL will counter with the league's top runner, Walter Payton of the Chicago Bears, who fell just short of the all-time rushing record held by O.J. Simpson.

Joining Payton will be hard-running Lawrence McCutcheon of the Rams, while Sammy Winder of the Minnesota Vikings will be at wide receiver.

All four quarterbacks will be passing into the teeth of the defense.

The NFL secondary boasts the Cowboys' Tom Landrum and Charlie Waters and Cliff Harris, with Oakland's Lawrence of the Atlanta Falcons and Doug White of the Cardinals at cornerback.

The AFC secondary will have Tommy Garber of the Cincinnati Bengals and Billy Thompson of the Denver Broncos at safety, and Mike Royer of the New England Patriots and Lamar Parrish of the Bengals at the corners.

If the game is to be decided by the kicking game, the responsibility will fall on the shoulders of punter Ray Guy of Oakland and field goal kicker Tom Lisk of the Colts for the AFC and on punter John Elway of the Broncos and field goal kicker Steve Horner of the Cowboys.

Gary Ward passed Ovide's 200-yard mark with 200 yards and 10 touchdowns in the game.

Ward's 200-yard performance was a record for the team.

Ovide's defense was unable to stop Ward's progress.

The game was a high-scoring affair.

School Marm True Native Of Longwood

Hettie Arnette McManara was born in Longwood and continues to live there.

"As far as I know, I'm the oldest native born citizen in Longwood at the present time. I'll be 82 on February 10," she said.

"The house was originally a two-story house, but in 1901, I had the first and second floors removed and this house was rebuilt from material from the old house," she said.

Hettie attended school in the old City Hall building, through the eighth grade.

"I was 16 years old, and decided I wanted to teach school. In those days, anyone who finished the eighth grade knew just about as much as when they got out of college today," she said.

Hettie was given a chance to teach in St. John's County, in a one-room schoolhouse. One of her students was a girl only a few months older than she, and they became close friends.

"My starting salary was $28.00 per month," she said. Hettie continued her own studies at night and during the summer, finally receiving her high school diploma. Then, she said, "I started on my college work, and got my BS Degree in education."

Today's students are not as proficient in handwriting or spelling, as those of a few decades ago, according to Hettie.

"They all could write a better hand and the reading really needs working on today! I don't think teachers do nearly as much work with the children now as we used to do. I don't know if it's in the training they get, but there's just something lacking," she said.

Continuing, Hettie said, "One problem concerns too many mothers away from home. Teachers are restricted, which doesn't help matters. You know, you can't teach a child unless he misses his mother."

Hettie remembers being criticized for loving and caring about her students. "I don't think you can love them too much. They often don't get enough at home!" she was heard to say.

Her teaching career included being teacher, principal and janitor of one school near Palatka. She was principal at Samuda, Osteen and Christmas, all two-teacher schools.

She returned to Longwood to teach at the old Lyman School, which included grades 1-12, teaching fifth and sixth grades for 25 years.

One of her former pupils, Mr. Nan Freeman, now a teacher at Sanford Grammar School, said, "I remember Mrs. McManara as a very sweet and understanding person. She was a good, considerate teacher and encouraged us all to read. I was always checking books out of the library."

Hettie retired from teaching in 1968. Since then, she keeps busy reading, crocheting and working in her flowers. "I also sew for myself and my sister-in-law," she said.

Laughing, she added, "I never cared too much for cooking!"

Living in Longwood these many years has brought many changes in the area. Said Hettie, "The past 18 years have seen the biggest growth and change. I think it's really grown too rapidly. I would like to see some of the old houses respected more."

Former pupils still keep in touch. "I have cards and letters with pictures that I've received that I really enjoy," she smiled.

Super Sunday Celebrated

An "All Family Super Sunday" party was held at the home of Shirley and George Purdie, 1930 Remondale. The six invited families brought covered dishes and the theme of the party was "not when you want to" during the Super Sunday.

Hettie and everyone had a good time, especially the kids. "We wanted to do something different this year," she explained. "We all had so much fun. There was a holiday feeling about the party."

While the children played, the adults watched the game and challenged each other to the outdoor activities made possible by the "unseasonable" rains which were overcast to Donald White for coming closer to the final score.

The people who attended with their children were Gretchen and Bill Meyer, Donald and Marjorie White, Mary and Tom Purdie, Ed and Ronnie Cramer, and Joan and Jack McManey.

Happy Birthday to Art Cramer! Art said he would not philosophize this year on growing older, adding he was to judge a man by how he celebrates it. Elizabeth, daughter of Christian and Daryl Krug, 23 Florida Ave., was dressed in a new white dress, her hair styled in a new fashion during the ceremony that was performed by Rev. Floyd P. Peterson. Her godparents were Mrs. Jean Strickland and Uncle Dale Krug.

Milton and Barbara Brantlett, 1404 Lake Dr., were very proud of their first grandchild during the ceremony. "She was really good. She didn't cry once," Barbara said proudly.

After the ceremony Elizabeth's parents held a reception in her honor at their home. Paternal grandparents are Mr. A. Joseph Krug of Lake Drive.

Visiting Ken and Doris Knapp was Ken's mother Mildred Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. Richard from River Falls, Wis. During their three week stay the women visited Sea World, Cypress Gardens and enjoyed shopping at Daytona Beach.

Doris said the biggest thrill the women had was picking their own oranges. "I think they tried to take back half of Florida," Doris said laughing. "They were 100 pounds overweight on the plane and it was all oranges!"

She added that this was Jamie's first Florida visit and she couldn't get over how friendly the people are here.

Kathy and Robert Chubbie entertained Kathy's parents John and Marion Brady from West Springfield, Mass. for a few days. Kathy said her parents enjoyed seeing their new granddaughter Paula for the first time. "They thought she was beautiful," Kathy remarked. The older two Chubbie girls, Jennifer and Debbie were naturally delighted with their grandparents visit and did not want them to return home.

The Bradys, who have vacationed in Florida before, also included a visit to the Raymond Duran family at New Smyrna Beach.

Doris and Della Kruger, 1404 Quoniam Drive, have been busy lately enjoying their many visitors.

Their eldest daughter, Jeannette Cook, from New Smyrna Beach, spent the holidays with the Krugers as well as helping them to celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary at a local restaurant.

Doris and Jeannette enjoyed visiting with the Duran family at New Smyrna Beach, and took a day's trip to Palm Springs to see her son and wife, Doris and Dean Richardson.

Traveling with Jeannette were Peggy Paige and Melissa Fry from Ft. Wayne, Ind. In addition to spending time at Atlantic Beach, the women enjoyed being guests at the Shore Palms home in Longwood.

With the departure of Jeannette came the arrival of the Kruger's granddaughters, Sally, and her new husband, John Dettmer, from Gretna, Ind.

Doris explained how delighted she was with their visit. "They came to visit with their honeymoon," she said. "They were married on my birthday and since we were unable to attend the wedding they decided to spend time with us here. We were so pleased."

The couple traveled very leisurely enjoying Daytona Beach and Disney World. Doris remarked that John thought our weather was warm and did quite a bit of sunning.

CIP PLANTS PERK UP PARK

Community Improvement Project (CIP) committee members, Jim Freeman, Mrs. Robert Krasa and Mrs. Walter Gierow inspect newly planted azalea beds in Fort Meade Park near the General Sanford Museum and Library at Sanford Parks and Recreation. Director Jim Jernigan waters the plants. CIP (sponsored by the Sanford Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club and the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce) donated 142 hardy azalea plants which were planted by a city crew to launch a park renovation project.

Tourist Club Calls For New Members

The Longwood Area Tourist Club, a group of senior citizens, held its monthly covered dish dinner on Jan. 12 at noon. Forty-five members attended.

On Jan. 25, the Tourists will be going on a tour of the Tupperware factory, after which they will hold a luncheon at Morrison's Cafeteria on International Drive, where they will go by bus to Ft. Christmas for a guided tour of the Fort.

On Jan. 26 at 1 p.m., the Tourist Club will hold the election of officers at the regular monthly business meeting.

All Longwood senior citizens interested in the Tourist Club are welcome to attend these meetings and dinners, which are held at Sunny Shady Park in Longwood, across from the fire department.

The Longwood Senior Club recently purchased a new TTY (Telephone Teletype) system. The electronic coupler connects through the telephone lines to a TTY system.

The coupler is based in the home of a deaf person enabling him to use the telephone by transmitting typed messages to another person who has a TTY system.

As the coupler is costly, the Longwood Senior Club is in the process of organizing a fund-raiser to purchase more TTY systems for the six needy families of the Longwood area.

Library Gets City Nod

The Altamonte Springs Library is now operated by the City with an appointed advisory board and a regularly assigned librarian.

Librarian Mrs. Florence Courney, announces that the library is open Monday and Wednesday from 9:30-5 p.m. and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The library is closed Sunday and holidays.

She advised that Altamonte residents may receive a card for just 25 cents per family; nonresidents are charged $5.00.

Library books may be checked out for a period of 14 days with the option to renew. Books may be renewed either by bringing them in, or better yet, by calling the library during hours of operation on Tuesday, Thursday or Saturday.

The library would appreciate donations of any type of book. Paperbacks are very popular with library users.

Don't Address Her By Her First Name

DEAR ABBY: I would like to express my irritation over a practice I've noticed becoming more and more popular.

It's the way doctors, nurses, dentists and clerks address all patients by their first names regardless of their age, sex or marital status.

Some very young people to be sure, but I think it's rude, unbecomingly familiar, disrespectful and demeaning.

Once inside, the doctor also uses the patient's first name. It's not as though they didn't know the patient's age, because it's on the card which the attendant is usually holding in his hand.

I have noticed that in nursing homes they routinely call the elderly individuals by their first names as though they were 16 years old. I think it's rude, unbecomingly familiar, disrespectful and demeaning.

PLEASE COMMENT.

DEAR MAD: Although the practice of addressing elderly people by their first names may seem harmless, it is in fact a subtle insult. It is a way of saying, "You are old and I am not."

HOROSCOPE

For Sunday, Jan. 22, 1978

YOUR BIRTHDAY
Jan. 22, 1978
Unusual career opportunities could suddenly pop up this coming year in your area of expertise. Looking for the "hidden" careers may be an unproductive venture.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
Testing your own limits, you are justifiably proud of any achievement that you may be made to your own, but it could mean the big money is to be had. Find out more about yourself by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph Letter. Mail 50 cents for each and a long, self-addressed envelope to Astro-Graph, P.O. Box 69, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10101. Be sure to specify your birth sign.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)
A proposal today might look very good on paper but it could have a hidden agenda. Be sure to get the details of first glance.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
It may be necessary to make a quick decision today that affects your household without first consulting your mate. He or she may not really see the wisdom of your choice.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)
You will not lack clever ideas today, but the manner in which you implement them may not be on par with your brainpower. Proceed in an important as concept.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
Early in the day you may

For Monday, Jan. 23, 1978

YOUR BIRTHDAY
Jan. 23, 1978
A more independent you will emerge this coming year. In situations where you previously relied upon others, you will now find the strength to do it on your own.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
Feeling free to make your own choices is of utmost importance today, yet you may try to deny this same privilege to one with whom you are closely associated. Like to find out more of what lies ahead for you? Send for your copy of Astro-Graph Letter by mailing 50 cents for each and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Astro-Graph, P.O. Box 69, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10101. Be sure to specify your birth sign.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)
There may be extra responsibilities to contend with today. If your frame of mind is resistant, you'll make them doubly difficult.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
Socially, you may encounter someone today who has a very friendly personality. Each of you could feel challenged, and you'll meet in a representative way.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)
Persons in authority who throw their weight around are determined to you today. Don't be guilty of the same offense to others.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
As a defense for weak arguments you may use anger for a cover-up today. If you keep your eye out of the picture you'll find it's an unnecessary headache.

CANCER (June 21-July 21)
An interesting situation could develop today where you may feel you are the giver and not the taker. The accused might hold the same view. Each could be right.

LEO (July 22-Aug. 22)
Your leadership qualities are very pronounced today. In one-to-one relationships, use them for pulling together.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
In competitive matters with friends today, the activity doesn't take precedence over the relationship. It's better to lose a few points than a pal.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
Drive and ambition are commendable traits when properly channelled. Satisfying work today, the prize won't be worth the price.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Today you might run into someone who'll make it a point to challenge your expertise. It could be a humbling experience.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Materially motivated actions could cause you frustration and dissatisfaction today. Security is not guaranteed through mere possession or a faster bank account.
