

SHS Freshman Team Excels

The Seminole High School freshman football team set goals at the beginning of the season to be student/athletes, be positive role models, and to go 6-0. The young Fighting Seminoles have pretty much accomplished the first two goals and now only Oviedo stands in the way of a perfect season.

Murder-suicide update

The Seminole County Sheriff's Office has established that Amy L. Lohrmann was shot and killed by her husband, John E. Lohrmann. John Lohrmann then shot himself. A handgun was used in the crime.

Based upon evidence at the scene, it appears Amy Lohrmann died before her husband did.

The couple was discovered around 9:20 Tuesday morning in their rented duplex at 222 Acorn Lane. Amy Lohrmann's co-workers had called the Sheriff's Office after she didn't show up for work.

Investigators are continuing their work on the case.

Sanford officers prepare for Anthrax scare

By Christopher Patton
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Hoping to ease residents' fears about possible bioterrorism incidents, the Sanford Police Department is educating its officers on the realities and myths of Anthrax.

Chief Brian Tooley said the training is a proactive move by the department to develop an approach to bioterrorism so decisions aren't based on misinformation.

"We want you (officers) to be reassured so you can assure the public,"

Department establishes task force to deal with incidents, misinformation

Tooley told his officers. He also warned his troops about the Anthrax "information overload" in the media.

According to Sgt. Marc Kovacs, the newly appointed Anthrax instructor, there is a lot of misinformation going around, and the educational session was designed to help dispel rumors, while at the same time reinforcing the facts.

Kovacs, who has prior knowledge of terrorism through his Coast Guard training, said he talked to the FBI, military contacts and the University of South Florida blowweapons center to compile his information about Anthrax.

A hyper-sensitivity to potential threats

— 30 Anthrax scares were reported just on Wednesday in Seminole County — not only puts a strain on the county's hazardous materials team, but also local police departments. Kovacs is working with other departments to provide solid information and procedures. In addition to training the Sanford officers, Kovacs has either presented or will be presenting the same information to the Sanford firefighters, Sanford airport employees, Seminole Community College's staff and mall security at the Seminole Towne

Sanford reopens historic stadium with a bang

By Dan Ping
Editor

SANFORD — The community reopened Historic Sanford Memorial Stadium with a bang Thursday night.

From the ear-splitting 21-gun salute by members of the Sanford Police Honor Guard to the 10-minute fireworks spectacular in left field, there was nothing quiet about the hour-long celebration.

"This is a marvelous way to celebrate this stadium," said Buddy Lake, a Sanford baseball legend of the 1930s and '40s. "We certainly didn't have anything like this when I played."

The celebration was the culmination of a two year, $2 million project that refurbished the former spring training home of the New York Giants. Lake, 88, thinks it should reconnect the city with some level of professional baseball.

"It sure ought to catch someone's eye," Lake said. "I don't know where you would find a better place to play baseball than in Sanford."

Mayor Brady Lessard couldn't agree more. He said the American Softball Association, which hosts the first tournament at the facility this weekend with some of the top teams in the country, has praised the city for its stadium.

"There's a saying that if you build it they will come," Lessard said. "I'm here to telling you that while we were rebuilding this stadium people were coming."

Lessard joked that his baseball career was never as celebrated as he once hoped. He noted however, that generations of Sanford youth would have an opportunity to play in a first-rate facility.

"My kids and your kids, they're going to come into this stadium and think they are at the World Series," Lessard said. "This is truly a night the entire community should celebrate. We're going to celebrate so many great events at this venue."

The renovation added seats to the stadium, as well as modern locker rooms and concession areas. A new facade was put on the stadium, and crews refurbished the steel support structure.

Sanford-based CPH Engineers Inc. oversaw the renovation of the stadium, and president Dave Gierach thanked the city for allowing his firm to be a part of the project.

"We felt this was a project that we could really put our heart into," Gierach said. "Sanford has a vision for the future and a respect for the past. This stadium is a great example of that."

Colleges develop plans to train more nurses

By Christopher Patton
Staff Writer

Long before Gov. Jeb Bush last week urged health officials to find a solution to the critical nurse shortage, Seminole institutions were consummating a plan of attack.

The nursing shortage stretches far beyond the shores of Florida — it is a national and international shortage, according to RN Cathy Allman of the Florida Hospital Association. In 2020, the United States will need 1.7 million nurses and supply is projected to be 600,000.

In estimating nursing vacancy rates for 2001, Allman reports 725 vacant positions in Central Florida and 9,000 vacant nursing jobs in Florida.

An aging Floridian population, hospitals caring for more patients and more career opportunities for nurses in other health care settings are just a few of the reasons the nurse shortage is so severe.

A collaborative effort between the University of Central Florida and Seminole Community College is tackling the problem head on.

"Fewer women are going into nursing," said Laura Aromando, department chair of SCC nursing programs.

"Women have more opportunities in technology, business and medicine. Another problem is current nurses are aging so they'll be leaving the work force. It's multiple factors leading to the shortage."

Seminole Wekiva Trail opens in Heathrow office park

By Michelle Jeria
Managing Editor

LAKE MARY — The newest section of the Seminole Wekiva Trail is officially opened.

City and county officials gathered Thursday along the new trail in Heathrow International Business Center for a ribbon cutting ceremony for the new section. The event was hosted by The Pizzuti Companies, the owner of the Business Center and major sponsor of the 225-mile trail.

"Our voters believe strongly in trails," Lake Mary Deputy Mayor Gary Brender said. "It's nice to see an office complex like this tie in with the trail system."

According to Ken Simback, Pizzuti senior vice president, plans for the trail section began two years ago with a telephone call from Seminole County Commissioner Randy Morris.

"It started with a phone call, and Randy Morris saying, 'Ken, this is what you can do for us now,'" Simback said.

The Pizzuti Companies agreed to donate more than $1 million in land and construction costs for the 14-foot wide asphalt surface trail that runs through the Heathrow International Business Center (HIBC). Although already in use by pedestrians, bicyclists and in-line skaters for some time, Thursday was the official opening of the trail section.

"Pizzuti is a type of company that believes in building community," Morris said.

The new link will help complete the public trail planned for a 14-mile stretch from Altamonte Springs to the Wekiva Protection Area near Sanford.

In August, the County Commission approved plans and funding for an Interstate 4 pedestrian overpass, which will connect the HIBC trail with the trail end on Rinehart Road, near the post office.

According to Morris, the I-4 overpass will be the first suspension bridge project for a Florida walking trail. The $3.5 million construction is planned to begin by the end of the year and should be completed by the end of 2002.

The Wekiva Trail is part of the county's 20-year trail system masterplan to construct more than 50 miles of paved and unpaved trails connecting Seminole to Volusia, Lake and Orange counties. The county's plan is also part of the state's trail system, which will eventually include 1,300 miles of trail within Florida.

Michelle Jeria can be reached at mjeria@seminole-herald.com or 407-322-2611.

SEMINOLE SUMMARY

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Senator gives the facts on swimming nude in Vermont

DEAR ABBY: I chuckled over your hot tub letters. When I was a young prosecutor in Vermont, an overly ambitious prosecutor in another county had someone arrested for skinny-dipping — basically out of sight of everybody — in a river. The local judge actually sentenced the "perpetrator" to jail, which caused an uproar.

Dear Abby

Subsequently, I got a call from the state police about a complaint of skinny-dipping. Apparently the officer arrived to find an older woman at a farmhouse on a dirt road with no water in sight. She said: "Don't worry. Go across that field and climb up through those woods about a mile and a half, and you'll find a stream where they are bathing naked. But go very quietly, because if they hear you, they'll put their clothes on!"

The trooper suggested that maybe he should check with me; I was the state's attorney at the time. I ensconced myself at my family's summer farm during the Fourth of July weekend and researched the issue. I began by reviewing old Norman Rockwell paintings, thoughtfully resurrected by the ACLU, showing such activities taking place allegedly in Vermont. (Along this line, I was unable to either confirm or refute the persistent rumor that Vermont's No. 1 politician, Calvin Coolidge, had also engaged in such activity in this state while subject to Vermont law.)

I also discussed — after grants of immunity — experiences of this nature enjoyed by some of Vermont's prosecutors, judges, law enforcement officers and sailboat operators. After checking the statute of limitations, I even reviewed past histories of some of my contemporaries during my teen-age years. Not to be outdone, each member of my office offered to investigate this matter in an undercover manner (so to speak).

It turned out that most Vermonters I talked to had engaged in such scandalous activity at some time in their lives.

Therefore, to guide any law enforcement officer so lacking in other criminal matters to investigate, I offered in all seriousness the following guidelines:

(1) In public areas and semi-public areas: Nude bathing is not acceptable. In such instances the officer receiving the complaint should order the person to dress. Failure to stay clothed should result in a summons to court.

(2) On private land out of view of the public: The state has no legitimate interest and swimmers should be left alone.

(3) In secluded areas sometimes publicly used (rivers, swimming holes, etc.): If no member of the public is offended, no disorderly conduct has taken place. If members of the public complain, proceed as in No. 1 above.

I understand that J. Edgar Hoover was infuriated at the thought of this young prosecutor in Vermont treating the matter so lightly.

SEN. PATRICK J. LEAHY, WASHINGTON, D.C.

DEAR SEN. LEAHY: You put the matter properly in perspective. That's only to be expected from someone whose home state shows such respect for the rights and personal freedoms of its citizens. My hat's off to you. (But that's all!)

P.S. I wonder why J. Edgar Hoover was infuriated. Rumor has it he was an undercover man himself.

Assault

Seminole deputies arrested Keith McCarthy, 38, of Lake Mary Thursday for two counts of assault, disorderly intoxication and resisting an officer with violence.

McCarthy had reportedly made threatening remarks to several residents while standing in the middle of E. Springtree Way in Lake Mary. McCarthy then allegedly kicked a deputy in the shin as he attempted to handcuff him.

Marijuana Possession

Sanford police arrested Rafael Soto, 19, of Sanford Thursday after officers found Soto parked at Lee P. Moore Park. Officers observed what appeared to be white smoke in the passenger compartment. A search of the vehicle revealed two cigars filled with suspected marijuana. Soto was charged with possession of not more than 20 grams of marijuana.

Property Damage

Sanford police arrested Maria Davis, 47, of Sanford after a 6th Street resident complained of Davis breaking her window. She was charged with criminal mischief by damaging property.

DUI

Sanford police arrested Donna Scognamiglio, 35, of Sanford Friday for driving under the influence and not having current car insurance.

Subject refused to take a breathalyzer test.

Sanford police arrested Iris Cruz, 38, of Sanford Friday for driving under the influence, attaching a registration plate not assigned to the vehicle and driving at night without headlights. Subsequent breathalyzer tests revealed a blood alcohol content of .225.

Sanford police arrested Gary Adkins, 34, of Sanford Thursday for driving under the influence and driving with a taillight out. Subject refused to take a breathalyzer test.

Shoplifting

Seminole deputies arrested Tony Eller, 46, of Sanford Wednesday at the Lake Mary Publix grocery store for shoplifting. Store security reportedly witnessed Eller concealing a pack of shrimp and then trying to exit the store. Also found in his left front pocket was a packet of seasoning. Found inside his vehicle was a 12-pack of beer and several packs of meats.

Drug Paraphernalia

The City/County Investigative Bureau arrested Michelle Blackburn, 33, of Sanford Wednesday at the Altamonte Springs' Ramada Inn after a subject advised two subjects were in a room smoking crack cocaine.

A search of the room produced a glass crack pipe, two packs of rolling papers and a plastic bottle modified into a smoking device. Blackburn was arrested for drug paraphernalia.

Retail Theft

Sanford police arrested Miguel Torres, 51, of Deltona Wednesday after Wal-Mart security witnessed Torres try to conceal several tools down his pants then leave the store. It was discovered Torres had removed two half-inch Stanley ratchets, one 3/8-inch Stanley ratchet and one Stanley 3/8-inch socket set. The total value of items is reported at nearly $70.

Cocaine Possession

Altamonte Springs police arrested Edward Blake, 20, of Sanford Wednesday after police found Blake driving without an issued driver's license. Police found .8 grams of cocaine and .6 grams of marijuana in the vehicle.

Sanford Opry plans 'Tribute To America' for next Friday

Apology to Saudi prince overlooks abuses

The Honorable Cynthia McKinney
U.S. House of Representatives

Dear Rep. McKinney:

You've kicked up quite a dust storm with your letter to Saudi Prince Alwaleed bin Talal, in which you apologize for New York Mayor Rudy Giuliani's refusal to accept the prince's money. Many of your constituents find it odd that you have inserted yourself into a controversy that has so little to do with your role as a congresswoman from the Atlanta suburbs. Others are outraged that your fawning letter to the prince seemed to endorse his suggestion that the Sept. 11 atrocities were provoked by U.S. policies in the Middle East.

While I support your right as an American to say what you please, I urge you to reconsider your analysis. Mayor Giuliani was right to return the prince's $10 million donation. The prince's remarks accompanying the money were inappropriate, especially given the Saudi government's past support of Osama bin Laden.

Strange that your letter failed to mention that. Indeed, your analysis of conditions here and in the Middle East was disappointingly superficial. While you pointed out a lingering (though fading) racism in America, for example, you were oddly silent on the widespread human rights abuses that characterize rule by the House of Saud.

Were you a Saudi citizen who had publicly denounced government policy, you would now be in jail, since criticism of the royal family is forbidden. (As a Saudi citizen, you could not even run for elective office. Saudi officials are not elected and, in any event, it is quite unlikely a woman would be allowed to hold such a post.)

Like you, I am informed by the conscientious reports of Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch, organizations that, year after year, document abuses by governments the world over. In your letter, you mention their criticism of Israel's use of excessive force against lightly armed Palestinian demonstrators.

Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch have also issued scathing indictments of the brutality and tyranny of the Saudi government, pointing out that it allows no freedom of speech or assembly, no independent news media, no freedom of religion. Its minority Muslim group, the Shi'a, are harassed, and Christian ministers are frequently arrested.

The Saudi criminal justice system is savagely unjust; Amnesty has detailed detention without charge, refusal to allow access to attorneys, torture of prisoners and barbaric punishments, including beheadings and amputations.

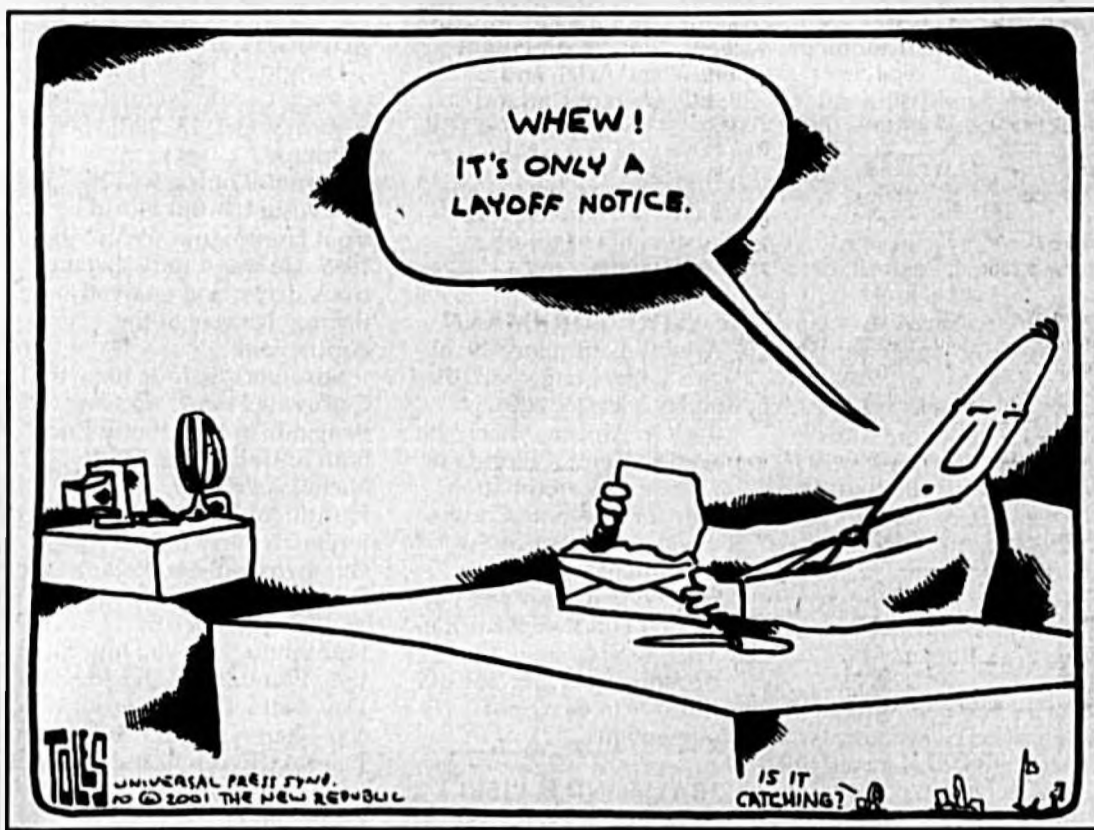

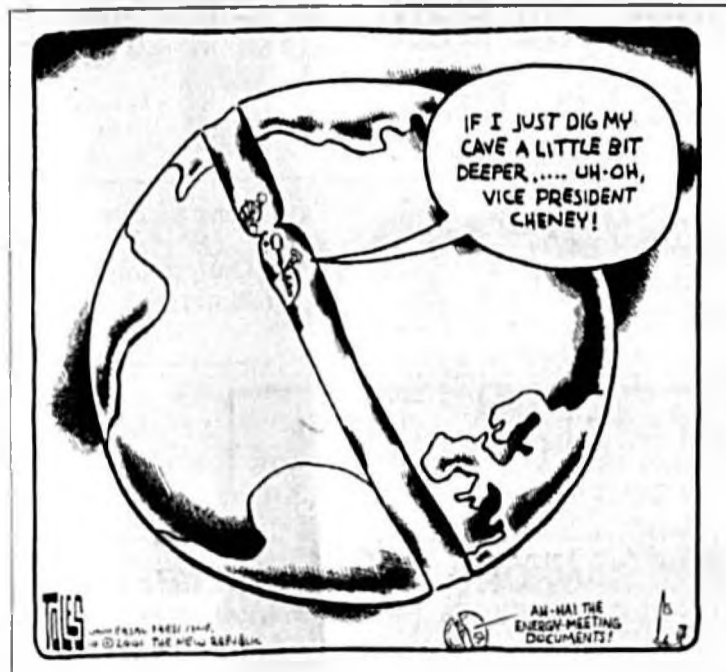

(By the way, as a public official committed to eliminating bigotry against gays and lesbians, you should know that one of the crimes for which the Saudi government executes citizens is homosexuality. Those convicted of that "crime" are beheaded in a public square.)

Are you aware of the abuses suffered by members of ethnic minority groups in Saudi Arabia, especially foreign women who are hired to do domestic work? Human rights groups have detailed case after case of domestic workers who were raped by their male bosses, denied fair wages and locked in the house — treated, in other words, like slaves.

Of course, Saudi women are routinely abused, too. While many are highly educated, they are prevented from holding most jobs. They are forbidden to drive. They may not leave the house unless accompanied by a male relative. They must always be covered from head to toe.

It is just bizarre that you — a professional woman, a tough-minded, independent thinker, an outspoken supporter of women's rights — would cozy up to a kingdom where women are treated like chattel. Perhaps you were unaware of the injustices perpetuated by the Saudi ruling family. Now that you have established a friendship with the prince, perhaps he will invite you for an extended visit so you can see for yourself.

Your View

Visitors wonder what happened to Sanford Chamber

To the editor:
My husband and I have vacationed in the Orlando area several times in the past few years, and we have always enjoyed visiting Sanford's antique shops. We also always stop by your downtown chamber of commerce to get information.

What in the world happened to your chamber of commerce? There was a young boy and girl who attempted to help us, but they knew nothing about Sanford and they couldn't even recommend a restaurant for us to eat lunch. A middle-aged lady in the center paid no attention to my frustration. We grabbed a few brochures, many of them we later realized were outdated.

What happened to the friendliness and professionalism we found during past visits to your chamber? What happened?

Walk raises more than $300,000 for cancer research

To the editor:
The American Cancer Society extends their sincere gratitude to the 4,300 people who participated in the third annual "Making Strides Against Breast Cancer" walk held at Church Street on Saturday, Oct. 13. Thanks to the commitment of the walkers and their supporters alike, the event raised more than $377,000.

The overwhelming success of this event translates into real-life, much-needed help for hundreds of women currently fighting breast cancer in our community. Breast cancer is the most common form of cancer among American women. One in eight women will be diagnosed with the disease. It is through the resolve of those who walk in support of this fight, that we have hope for a future in which this disease is eliminated.

Outstanding contributions from the Making Strides Against Breast

Cancer walk and other donations are greatly appreciated and may be mailed to the American Cancer Society at 1601 W. Colonial Dr., Orlando, Fla., 32804. For more information on services available through the American Cancer Society or to volunteer, call 1-800-ACS-2345, or visit the web at www.cancer.org and "click on Florida."

An open letter to Osama bin Laden

To the editor:
An open letter to Mr. Osama bin Laden:

After listening to the speech you gave on Sunday, Oct. 7, regarding America's fight on terrorism, I felt the need to write you as you seem to have some of your facts wrong. First, let me assure you that Americans are not living in fear! Not in the North, South, East, or West, and for that I thank God. We are very angry, but we are not the ones hiding in caves afraid to show our face. We are going to work, school, play, doctors, post office, etc., just as we always have, so if your goal was to instill fear, you have once again failed miserably.

Second, before you decide to wreak such havoc, you might want to review recent history. The reason we were in Saudi Arabia was at the request of the Saudis to help stop Iraq from invading the country. Oh, I'm sorry, I forgot that Saudi Arabia had the good sense to disown and exile you so you were probably on Iraq's side.

Third, as far as your claim that we are attacking Islam — make no mistake, Mr. bin Laden, we are not attacking Islam, we are attacking you and all the cowards who are financing and protecting you. The United States of America does not and will not ever persecute anyone for their religious beliefs. We have many people in the U.S. who practice the Islamic faith and prior to your intervention, did so freely and without fear of retribution. The only people you have managed to instill fear in are the people of the Islamic faith, and for this I am very angry. That you have managed to make even one person uncomfortable in practicing their faith is a sin that you will have to answer to God for and if that does not instill fear in you, it should!

In conclusion, Mr. bin Laden, let me reiterate how sorry I am for you that you have failed to accomplish your goals. May I suggest you take the time to reexamine them. You are an intelligent man, if you would just use the brains God gave you for good instead of evil.

Stick your head out of your hole, Mr. bin Laden. Come out of hiding and let us show you just how afraid we are!

Noreen Delaney
Sanford

Triplet responds to recent editorial

To the editor:
I would like to respond to your editorial in the Sunday, Oct. 10, issue (Promoting Sanford and its businesses ...).

I feel personally responsible for the success of the Sanford/Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and Ms. Angella Gordon as the new president/CEO since I took the lead role in the hiring of Ms. Gordon. Please let me take this opportunity to fill in the holes that you left out of your editorial.

Ms. Gordon made offers on five homes in the Sanford area. The day of her signing the contract for the home in DeLand, she made an offer on a home in Sanford, which the owner decided to take off the market that day, even though Ms. Gordon offered the listed price. Ms. Gordon states, "DeLand is the closest town that represents the same small-town charm and education options as Sanford." Ms. Gordon and her daughter decided on DeLand because the same developer who was in her Heathrow subdivision was developing this new community.

The editorial speaks highly of Ms. Gordon's capabilities to lead the Chamber but questions her commitment to Sanford. Without a commitment to the Sanford area, would she sit on the embattled Sanford Housing Authority board? Would she purchase a home and

Brown reiterates, there is a shortage in local giving

To the editor:
It is very true that giving to local agencies has reached a dangerous low as a great percentage of donations appear to be flowing north. We are certain that the director of the Christian Sharing Center in Longwood would agree that in your very welcomed editorial in the Oct. 14 edition of the Herald, you have made no distinction between her sharing center in Longwood and ours, the Sanford Christian Sharing Center. We are two very separate entities.

The Sanford Christian Sharing Center has for 24 years fed and clothed the needy in northern Seminole County — more than 5,000 in 2000. We operated entirely with volunteers and exist through the generosity of local churches, civic groups, the general public and most importantly by the grace of God. We are the oldest agency of our kind in Seminole County.

So thanks for publicizing the local charitable needs in our community, but we'd like the public to know that the Sanford Christian Sharing Center is experiencing an increase in assistance requests and a decline in local donations. We serve the needy from our own building at 515 W. 25th Street weekdays from 9 a.m. to noon. Tax exempt donations may be sent to P.O. Box 762, Sanford, Fla., 32772.

Irene K. Brown
Volunteer Director

On the Street

The Herald asks people what they think ...

In the wake of a number of recent anthrax cases in the United States, public concern about the bacteria is growing. Reports of possible anthrax exposure have been rampant, and businesses are responding. Locally, several donut shops have taken powdered donuts off their shelves, and one national airline is no longer providing artificial sweetener to passengers. We asked people if they think the American public is overreacting to the anthrax reports.

Actually, I don't think people know what anthrax really is. People are scared because they think it is something that it is not. They don't know what it is, so they are scared.
Georgina Munoz
Sanford

Yes, I do think they are overreacting. It may not even be related to the terrorism. It could be another hoax by someone who is totally cruel.
Frank Colondres
Orlando

No, I don't think people are overreacting. We've got to be careful, especially since it is coming through the mail. You never know, so you have to be careful.
Michael Eason
Sanford

I do think people are overreacting, and that's what the people doing it want. We've gone crazy.
Raleigh Eddleton
Sanford

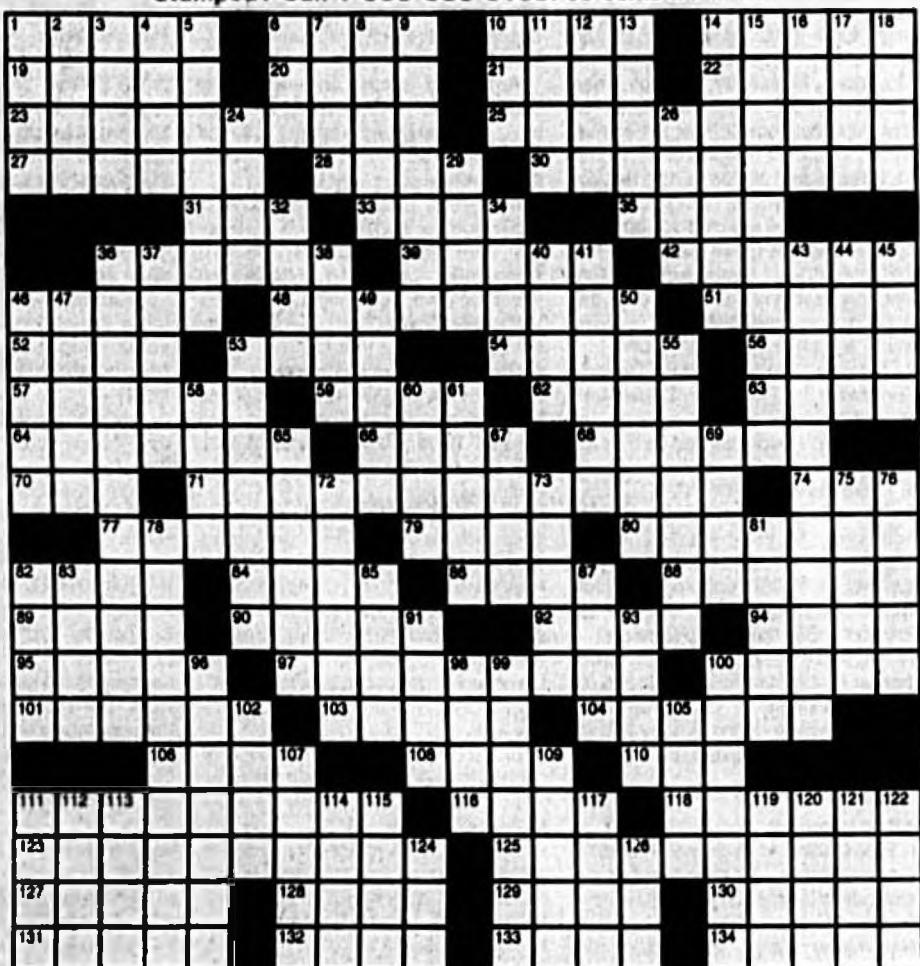

I think people are overreacting. If we shut down everything, then they have won. And, whoever it is doing this, they have won if we let them scare us.
Mary Eddleton
Sanford

Historic society members learn how to record their history

By Grace Marie Stinecoper Herald Correspondent

"Writing Your Family History" was the topic of the program presented by Christine Best at the recent Sanford Historical Society meeting held in the Sanford Museum. Chris is a Sanford native and the current president of the society. She is an excellent researcher and has co-authored "A History Of Monroe" with Charlie Carlson.

Christine began by stating writing your family history can be as simple or as elaborate as you'd like; the most important thing is to get it written. She stressed that your memories and information about your family are very important to your relatives and will be treasured by them.

She suggested that you begin with yourself, since your memories are history as they were happening. Interview your parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles right away, as they will not always be with you.

Basic facts are important, such as birth, marriage and death dates and places; but people's memories of events and how they reacted to them will help future generations know the real person.

Each attendee was given a list of several topics to expand upon when writing one's history, and Christine gave illustrations for each. Some of these were education, family traditions, medical history, friendships, occupations, pets, recreation, religion and personal characteristics.

Also, a list of historical events was given so reactions to them could be given by you or your ancestors. Some recent events included World War II, Korean War, Viet Nam, Cuban Missile Crisis, Apollo Moon Landing, Watergate Scandal, Persian Gulf and the recent terrorist attacks.

As each topic was presented, audience members contributed to the discussion with remembrances of their own, which made for a lively and interesting program.

The question was asked toward the end of the program, "What does one do with this history once it is written?" The obvious answer was to give copies to your relatives, even if they are only handwritten. Alicia Clarke, museum curator, suggested that copies be given to the museum and a file would be made for your family. These would be valuable information for future researchers.

It was brought out that October as "Family History Month" is about to become law. This bill, No. 160, sponsored by Sens. Oran Hatch and Robert Bennett, has just passed the Senate and is expected to be passed by the House soon.

During the business meeting, it was announced that a reception would be held at the museum on Dec. 15 to celebrate St. Lucia Day. This is a Swedish custom and plans are to invite Sanford's Swedish descendants to participate. It will also be open to the community. Teri Patterson, a descendant of the pioneer Vihlen family, will chair the event.

On Dec. 1 and Dec. 2, the Sanford Museum will be the headquarters for the Sanford Historic Trust sponsored Tour of Homes. Charlotte Smith, chair of this event, discussed the plans. The Society will be responsible for volunteers as docents.

The Society sponsored book, "A History of the Swedes in Seminole County" is in its final stages and will be published in time to promote at the above two functions. This has been researched and written by Charlie Carlson, Christine Best and Teri Patterson.

The Society's 2002 Historical Calendar, the 125th anniversary edition, was unveiled to the members and several signed out copies to sell. They will also be available at the Sanford Museum, Knights Shoe Store and the Seminole Herald.

A color photograph of a 1910 First Street scene is on the cover. Other pictures include Dorothy Sanford Gatchel sitting on a throne of celery in 1942 among admiring Boston Braves, mothers with babies during 1940 in front of Fernald Loughton Memorial Hospital, the Welbourne Block in 1913, Crown Paper workers, circa 1920, "Old Shad" and his wife in 1910, steelworkers installing the framework for the 1951 Memorial Stadium, and the Sanford House Hotel decorated for the visit of President Grover Cleveland in 1889.

The calendar was produced by Joe Hunt and Jay Jacobs with help from Alicia Clarke, Mike Jones and Grace Marie Stinecoper. It is dedicated to the memory of Dr. Vann Parker was an active member of the Society for many years, serving as vice president, treasurer and board member.

Troy Ray announced that there had been an ABC TV program recently on Jack Hanna, first curator of the Sanford Zoo. Views of the old zoo on Park Avenue were shown. Ms. Clarke stated that she would investigate getting a tape for the museum.

It was announced that at present, the society has 147 members and a nominating committee for 2002 officers was appointed.

Following the meeting, delicious refreshments provided by Barbara and Troy Ray were enjoyed by the members and guests attending.

SEMINOLE COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING OCTOBER 23, 2001 1:30 P.M.

Notice is hereby given that the Seminole County Department of Fiscal Services will conduct a public hearing on October 23, 2001, beginning at 1:30 p.m., or as soon thereafter as possible, in the County Services Building, 1101 East First Street, Sanford, Florida, Room 1028 (Board Chambers). The purpose of this public hearing is to amend Resolution Number 01-R-165, by adjusting Fiscal Year 2001/02 budgeted revenues and expenditures by $288, 157, 738 to reflect prior year cash balances, grants and associated projects, and to recognize budget for additional one-cent sales tax.

Additional information regarding the proposed amended resolution is available for public review 1101 East First Street, Sanford, FL 32771, Room 3325, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding holidays. Persons with disabilities needing assistance to participate in any of these proceedings should contact the Human Resources Department ADA Coordinator 48 hours in advance of the meeting at (407) 665-7941. Persons are advised that if they decide to appeal any decisions made at this hearing, they will need a record of the proceedings, and for such purpose they may need to ensure a verbatim record of the proceedings is made, which record includes the testimony and evidence upon which the appeal is based (Florida Statutes, Section 286.0105).

Get Ready For A Safe Halloween.

Parents and kids: follow these simple tips and you'll be sure to enjoy a spooky and safe night to trick-or-treating:

Never trick-or-treat alone. Always go in groups with adult supervision.	Don't wear costumes that are too confining or could make you trip	If wearing face paint, read the label and be sure it clearly says "non-toxic."
Don't eat any candy until you get home and have your parents inspect it.	Throw away any unwrapped or suspicious-looking candy.	Walk, don't run from house to house. Use the sidewalk as much as possible.
Make sure you can see and breathe clearly through masks.	Never go inside a stranger's house or car.	Carry a flashlight and wear reflective strips on your costume.

Nurses

According to Allman, the average age of a nurse is 48 years-old and within 10 years 40 percent of all RNs are expected to be over the age of 50.

To address the multiple factors causing the shortage, UCF and SCC are working together offering a wide array of solutions.

"We have an excellent relationship with UCF," Aromando said. "A SCC nursing student has an easy transition to UCF and probably can get their baccalaureate in about 18 months."

"Many of their graduates step right out of their program into ours," added Linda Hennig, coordinator of UCF's School of Nursing.

In addition to the easy transfer process, both institutions are also offering more flexible scheduling for nursing students. Included in the flexible scheduling is opportunities for nursing students to take some courses through the Internet.

"The web-based programs provides flexibility especially if they work or have family responsibilities," said Hennig. "The health care climate is such that they have to work overtime. The web classes allow them to go to class whenever they have time."

Both nursing instructors point out that the web classes do not translate into easier curriculum for students. Hennig suggests some students even learn more through Internet classes.

Medical centers across the nation are scrambling to fill nursing positions. In Central Florida, there is a need for 725 more nurses, while state numbers show a vacancy of 9,000 nursing jobs.

"In my honest opinion, I find discussions," Hennig said. "It breaks down the barriers of shyness. It gives them (students) the anonymity. I get to know my web students better than my students face-to-face."

SCC is also offering several curriculums to other professionals that might see nursing as an alternative career. Several of those courses include a paramedic to RN track and a nurse refresher course for those who might have studied nursing years ago, but decided on a different career.

"I think a lot of these people want these high-tech computer jobs because they want a lot of money, but there isn't that personal fulfillment," Aromando said. "If we can increase enrollment, it's a start, but people need to see nursing as a fulfilling career."

Both programs are also trying to market nursing careers to local high school students as a rewarding field.

"It's a media blitz to say to the public that nursing is a wonderful career, so come to school and become a nurse," Aromando said.

The nursing programs have always been strong with many students, said both directors. SCC increased their enrollment from 55 to 66 freshmen this year and currently has 74 seniors, but Aromando said an even larger enrollment means more state funding.

SCC student publications earn several state awards

From Staff Reports

For the second consecutive year the Seminole Community College student newspaper, The Scribe, has taken top honors in the annual Florida Community College Press Association competition.

Editors of the 2000-2001 staff, Alex and Isaac Babcock, were honored with the first place General Excellence Small School Division award Oct. 12 at the FCCPA's annual convention in Orlando.

First place awards went to Isaac Babcock, Arl Robbins, Tiffany Brown, Erin Schroeder and Mike Riegel for design; Isaac Babcock for feature photo and general column; Al Sterling for ad layout; Alex Babcock for news story; Riegel for sports column; and Casey Garner for editorial cartoon.

Second place awards went to the staff for editorials; Isaac Babcock for feature story and humor; and Garner for comic strip. Riegel, the 2001 editor-in-chief also took home third place for sports writing.

The college's literary magazine, Mosaic, also won several awards including: first place for editing to editor Kim Jelcoat and photo editor Erin Schroeder; first place for fiction to Brandon Conrad; third place for staff page to Jeremiah Caret; and third place for fiction to Amanda Kelsey and Alice Friedman.

Nine of The Scribe's staff attended the conference which was attended by 16 of the state's 28 community colleges. Students participated in sessions on writing, editing, design, photography and graphics presented by professors and professionals.

Tom Pierce, faculty advisor to The Scribe and Mosaic, said of SCC's awards, "I'm extremely pleased and proud of their efforts; they've set a real challenge for this year's staff, but one I'm sure they welcome."

Anthrax

The Basics

Anthrax affects the body in three different ways: through an open cut in the skin, by digestion or by inhalation, which "by far is the biggest threat," said Kovacs.

Kovacs stressed that Anthrax bacteria is not contagious and a "hefty amount" — about 10,000 spores — is needed for infection. "Testing positive" for Anthrax only indicates someone has been exposed to the bacteria, but does not mean they have been infected with Anthrax, warned Kovacs. Wool sorters inhale 150 to 700 spores of anthrax an hour continually without danger, he pointed out.

"It settles quickly which makes it harder to suck up enough for infection," Kovacs said. "People not in the immediate area of a opened Anthrax package have very little risk of exposure."

"There's a lot of reasons why they use it as a terror weapon," he said. "They knew one case would create wide spread media attention. It's caused a big, big flurry in the news world, especially in light of what is going on. Problem is, the majority of the public will just watch the news and will not research into it themselves"

One little known fact about Anthrax is it doesn't come as a powder. They're mixing it with something to make it a powder, said Kovacs. Other facts are:

- Soap and water will remove the bacteria from skin.
- Bleach will not kill Anthrax
- Field tests for Anthrax exposure are inaccurate.

Kovacs said when Anthrax was created as biological weapon more than a half century ago, the general thought was it would be effective because infected people would have flu-like symptoms for 1 to 6 days after exposure. In addition, infected patients will feel better before severe symptoms will occur, said Kovacs.

However, Anthrax has proven to be extremely costly to mass produce and nearly impossible to deliver on a large scale. Those who are exposed to the bacteria can also be treated with antibiotics. That's another myth Kovacs warned his fellow officers about. Despite a run on the medicine Cipro, it's not the only drug that can treat Anthrax infections. Several antibiotics, including large doses of penicillin, are also effective.

New Procedures

The Sanford Police Department is receiving on an average of six Anthrax scares a day and to help address each and every one the department will be prioritizing cases.

Kovacs said calls about a suspicious unopened letter will be classified as a "no threat."

"You can't catch Anthrax through a closed envelope — it's no threat," he said. "Advise them to just throw it away."

Some items to be concerned with about suspicious letters, warned Kovacs, are:

- Mail from an unexpected or unfamiliar source.
- No return address
- Mail marked personal or confidential
- Strange stains or cellophane present
- Postmarks that don't match return addresses
- Excessive postage
- Wrong title with name.

Possible and credible threats will be handled accordingly, but Kovacs urged officers to "use a common sense approach" when assessing threats. He pointed out a recent scare at Seminole Community College where some powder was found in the women's bathroom. The powder turned out to be make-up, and Kovacs said it was hard to believe someone would just dump a pile of Anthrax in a bathroom anyway.

"It's amazing how upset people are," Kovacs said about the rash of Anthrax scares. "There is a lot of tension. We need to use common sense and be calm (at the Anthrax scenes). Even if it is Anthrax, people are not going to drop dead right there. It's treatable."

Sweet Harmony Chapter No. 388 celebrates 18th anniversary with musical banquet

The Order of Eastern Stars Sweet Harmony Chapter No. 388 recently celebrated its 18th anniversary.

A musical banquet held as one of the celebrations for the 18 years of service to God, and the community. Sanford Civic Center was the site for evening's musical activities, which began at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 13.

More than 250 guests of Eastern Stars gathered to enjoy an evening of musical treats and words of wisdom with Syberina M. Wynn presiding. Eloise W. Dillgard entertained the guests on the console with her renditions of various musical selections. She blessed the guests with her rendition of "Lord I Thank You For This Day." The Sweet Harmony Ladies, beautifully attired in their matching white two-piece suits with red corsages, marched in with lighted candles.

Marva Hawkins

Scripture and prayer was offered by Deacon Collier. Welcome and greetings were extended by city of Sanford representative Joyce R. McCoy. The occasion and history of Chapter No. 388 was given by Richard Vaughn. Musical selection was by the Earl Williams Trio, "Walk With Me Lord."

Visiting lodges and chapters were introduced by Lula Cummings.

The special treat of the evening was the performance by "Angels Of New Zion P.B. Church Praise Dancers." They performed to the renditions "We Shall Behold Him" and "The Battle Is Not Yours, It's The Lord," under the direction of Dorothy Holmes.

After a delicious dinner of chicken, barbecue pork, corn, green beans, rice, fruit, potato salad, okra, rolls, desserts and drink, the musical mini-concert was held by the Earl Williams Trio.

Eartha Melton, worthy matron of Sweet Harmony No. 388, gave words of thanks and remarks inviting the guests to the 18th annual worship celebration that was held on Sunday, Oct. 14, at Morning Glory Missionary Baptist Church, where Pastor Andrew Evans delivered the anniversary message. Music was rendered by the Morning Glory Choir No. 1. The Son's Of David served as ushers for the occasion. The theme of the 18th anniversary was "Courageous Women Stepping Out On Faith in the New Millennium."

Highlighting the anniversary was the crowning of Ms. Sweet Harmony No. 388, Juanita C. Redding.

"Building Stronger Relationships in the Body of Christ," was the theme of the second educational fellowship retreat held Oct. 12 and Oct. 13 at Camp Ithiel.

The retreat was sponsored by the Minister's Wives/Minister's Widows and Deaconess Council of the First South Florida Missionary Baptist Association. Dr. C.P. Epps was the moderator, Sister Charlie M. Wilder, president; the Rev. Daniel Savage III, advisor; and Sister Ruby Hendrix, educational chairperson.

101+ Crafters

Craft and gift lovers have a new haven in Sanford. Sharon Burr and her husband, Richard, have opened 101+ Crafters in the Wal-Mart shopping plaza. And, like the name implies, items made by local and national crafters can be found within the confines of the store.

"You never know what you will find," Sharon Burr said. "There are some really neat things here." Burr herself never knows what her store might offer during any given week. The artisans bring their items to the store and display them in their specified booth.

"That's what makes it fun," Burr said. "I never know what they are going to bring in." Burr doesn't limit her store to just crafts. Many booths are filled with items people buy wholesale and then sell, at a cost many customers will find surprisingly low. In 1994, the Burrs bought their first store, Longwood's 101+ Crafters, from a Chicago man. It was a decision neither regret. The store started having a loyal customer base, and people began to tell Burr how they would love to see her expand into northern Seminole County. Almost seven years later, the couple decided it was time to do just that.

"It was all about location, and when I heard about Super Wal-Mart, I decided this was a good place to locate," she said. "And, people are really excited we are here."

The store offers something for everyone. In one corner there are paintings and homemade soaps, in another there is jewelry and Mexican art. In one corner, Pat Jones-Petrick has a booth filled with English teas and scones, items usually hard to find in this area. "This is actually a gift store, and people can find really neat gifts," Burr said. "And, it helps people, who have items here, supplement their income."

The store is open Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 5 p.m., and it is currently stocked with a variety of fall home decorations and other items. Several booths are already getting ready for the holidays, and an array of Christmas ornaments and items can be found throughout the store. Burr said there is also space for additional people to rent booths. Prices begin at $65 per month and increase, depending on size. Anyone is welcome to rent space, as long as items are in good taste. The store is located at 3701 S. Orlando Drive and can be contacted at 407-327-1101.

Stadium

City Commissioner Whitey Eckstein was singled out for praise by several speakers during the ceremony. After years of deterioration, there were discussions of demolishing the facility. Eckstein convinced the city to not only save the stadium but return it to its former glory.

"When they began to talk of tearing the stadium down, Commissioner Whitey Eckstein said, 'No way,'" Lessard recalled.

"Whitey saved this ball stadium," said former mayor Larry Dale, whose administration began the renovations.

The stadium was originally built in 1951 for the New York Giants. It replaced the city's first stadium, built in 1926.

Lake played only one year in Memorial Stadium, dedicated to the city's veterans, but has plenty of memories of baseball in Sanford.

He got his start early on the celery fields in Lake Monroe, and as a teenager he threw papers for the Sanford Herald.

"I had the route from 1st Street to 25th Street on Laurel Avenue," Lake said.

Whether it was the Herald route or the hours of pitching in "scrub games," Lake went on to star at Seminole High School.

He earned a spring training try-out with the Boston Braves and pitched against Lou Gehrig. A recurring sore arm cost him his shot at the Majors, but time off in 1938 allowed him to recuperate. He went on to star for Sanford in the Florida State League, setting a number of league records.

"We had some good ball teams and colorful characters back then," Lake recalled.

On a trip home from Gainesville, Lake hit a deer with the team bus while driving through the Ocala National Forest. He said a teammate, Carl "Goose" Kettles convinced the team to put the deer in the back of the bus on top of the uniforms.

"When we got back to the stadium, Goose hung it up in the showers to skin it," Lake said. "Some of the guys couldn't believe he'd do that in the showers."

District play set to begin

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

SANFORD — It seems like only yesterday that the Fall Prep sports season was beginning, but believe it or not, it's already time for district tournaments.

First up is the district Golf Tournaments which will be played on Monday and Tuesday.

All of the Seminole Athletic Conference schools (Lake Brantley, Lake Howell, Lake Mary, Lyman, Oviedo, Seminole and Winter Springs) are in the 14-team Class 2A-District 4 along with DeLand, Deltona, Flagler Palm Coast, Mainland, New Smyrna Beach, Pine Ridge, and Spruce Creek.

The boys' tournament will be played on Monday starting at 9 a.m. at Tuscaawilla Country Club in Winter Springs.

The girls' meet will be on Tuesday starting at 8:30 a.m. at the New Smyrna Golf Club.

The top four teams and four individuals, if not a member of the top four teams, qualify for regionals.

The Lake Mary boys and Oviedo girls figure to be the favorites among local teams as they were the winner's of this week's SAC Tournament titles at Twin Rivers Golf Club.

The Rams, who had all five golfers shoot under 80 for 18 holes, were led by Bobby Valentine with a 72 and finished with a 301 total to best Winter Springs (306), Lake Brantley (308), Seminole (321), Oviedo (326) and Lake Howell (336).

The Bears' Joong Jo was low medalist with a 70, with Valentine, Lake Brantley's Berzovich (73), the Rams' Donaldson (75), and Seminole's Anderson (75).

The Lions repeated as girls' champions handily, finishing with a 326 to Lake Brantley's 382.

Amanda Smith and Sarah Davis not only led Oviedo with a 75 and 79, respectively, but also topped the individuals chart. The Patriots' Wolcott (83), Lake Mary's Fiorucci (84), and Lyman's Davis (85) rounded out the top five.

Trailing Oviedo and Lake Brantley in the team standings were Lyman (394), Lake Mary (438), Winter Springs (444), Seminole (527) and Lake Howell (547).

Girls Volleyball is next up with district tournaments beginning on Tuesday.

Class 6A-District 2 is being contested at Lake Brantley High School with the host Patriots taking on Seminole on Tuesday at 7 p.m.

The semifinals will be played on Wednesday (Oct. 24) with Lake Mary battling DeLand at 6 p.m. and the Lake Brantley/Seminole winner tackling No. 1 seeded Oviedo at 7:30 p.m.

The semifinal winner's will meet in the District Championship Match at 7 p.m. on Thursday.

Class 5A-District 6 will open with the semifinals at Winter Springs on Tuesday.

Lake Howell takes on Titusville at 5 p.m. and Lyman challenges the host Bears at 7 p.m.

On Thursday, Winter Springs and Titusville will meet for the Junior Varsity Championship at 5 p.m., with the Varsity Championship Match to be played at 7 p.m.

Both semifinal teams will advance to next week's

Defense leads Lake Mary to victory

LAKE MARY — Senior night at Don T. Reynolds stadium was sweet for Lake Mary's 22 seniors.

The Rams, wireless at home, notched a Class 5A District 3 victory in front of the home crowd by beating the Pine Ridge Panthers 35-7.

"This was a big win for our seniors," Coach Greg Stanton said. "This was our last home game, and our first home win. If we hadn't won this one, we would have had to go pretty deep in the playoffs to get another shot."

22 Rams celebrate Senior Night with 35-7 victory over Pine Ridge

The playoffs are a long shot for the Rams. The best Lake Mary can hope for is an at-large bid. If the Rams win at Lyman next week, they could finish tied for second, depending on how Mainland and Winter Springs finish the season. However, Lake Mary lost to both teams and would be denied a district slot in the playoffs. An at-large bid would require the Rams to win their last two games and a complicated mix of wins and losses by teams in Region 1.

"At this point, we have to concentrate on our games," Stanton said. "We can't worry about anybody else but ourselves. We could get in, but that's not in our control."

What was in Lake Mary's control was their manhandling of the Panthers. It was a pair of juniors who got the ball rolling on senior night. Derrick Grayson and Reggie Campbell have run well this year, and they each found pay dirt in the first half to put Lake Mary up 14-0 at intermission.

Not to be outdone by the underclassmen, senior Kris Kessler made his presence known early in the second half. The Ram linebacker also handles the kicking duties. After a booming kick-off, Kessler pounced on a Pine Ridge fumble to give Lake Mary the ball deep in Panther territory.

Spoiler role fits

Seminole pulls off 7-6 upset of Lake Brantley

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

SANFORD — Forced into the spoiler role after being eliminated from playoff contention by DeLand last week, Seminole used a strong defense to upset Lake Brantley 7-6 in a Class 6A-District 1 game at Thomas E. Whigham Stadium Friday night.

The loss was the third in a row for the Patriots (5-3), but more importantly was the second straight district loss for Lake Brantley, all but eliminating the defending champions from the playoffs.

If Mandarin (4-1 in district) beat Ed White (2-2) Saturday night, then Mandarin wins the No. 1 seed in the playoffs and Oviedo, also 4-1 in district, would get the No. 2 seed even if it loses to Seminole next week because the Lions beat the Patriots last week.

But if Ed White upsets Mandarin, then Lake Brantley is back in business because it has wins over both Mandarin and Ed White.

That scenario would also include the Patriots winning their final district game next Friday when they host Sandalwood (1-4 in 6A-1) at Tom Storey Field starting at 7:30 p.m.

The Fighting Seminoles broke a three-game losing streak and are now 4-4 overall and 2-3 in district and have the opportunity to play spoiler again next Friday, if Mandarin loses to Ed White, when they play the Lions at John Courier Field starting at 7:30 p.m.

Even mistakes couldn't beat Seminole this time as, unlike

Playoff run over for Lake Howell, Lyman

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

DAYTONA BEACH — What a difference a week can make. Just five days ago Lake Howell was alone atop the standings in Class 4A-District 5 and Lyman had come from nowhere to get into the thick of the race in Class 5A-District 3.

But today (Saturday) the Silver Hawks find themselves out of contention after dropping their second game of the week, 28-14 at Palm Bay on Thursday, and New Smyrna Beach (3-1 in district) bouncing Merritt Island 17-7 on Friday.

The Greyhounds saw their modest two-game winning streak mashed by Mainland, 55-7 at Daytona Beach Municipal Stadium Thursday night, and were eliminated when Winter Springs crushed Titusville 35-0 on Friday.

Lake Howell fell to 4-4 overall and 2-2 in the district and will host Merritt Island at Richard L. Evans Field next Friday starting at 7:30 p.m.

With two district victories in a row Lyman was in prime position to finish at least second in the district race if it could win its final two district contests.

The Greyhounds are now 2-6 overall and 2-3 in 5A-3 and will close out their district schedule by hosting Lake Mary at the Carlton D. Henley Sports Complex next Friday at 7:30 p.m.

For the second time this season a Seminole County squad saw Mainland quickly take it out of a game.

Earlier this season Lake Mary turned the ball over on its first three possessions and was down 21-0 just minutes into the game.

Bears to face Bucs at home Monday night

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

WINTER SPRINGS — Winter Springs will look to take a major step towards the playoffs when they host Class 5A-District 3 leading Mainland (4-0 in district, 6-1 overall) in a make-up game Monday night at the A. W. Epps Sports Complex.

The game was postponed on Sept. 14th because of Tropical Storm Gabrielle.

The Bears blanketed Titusville 35-0 Friday night to improve to 5-2 overall and 4-1 in 5A-3 and would clinch at least a tie for the district title with an upset over the Buccaneers. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Seminole freshmen go for undefeated season

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

SANFORD — The Seminole High School freshman football team set goals at the beginning of the season to be student/athletes, be positive role models, and to go 6-0.

The young Fighting Seminoles have pretty much accomplished the first two goals and now only Oviedo stands in the way of a perfect season.

This Wednesday evening (October 24th) at Oviedo's John Courier Field, the Tribe and Lion freshmen and junior varsity teams will meet in a doubleheader, with the ninth graders playing at 5 p.m. and the JV's at 7 p.m.

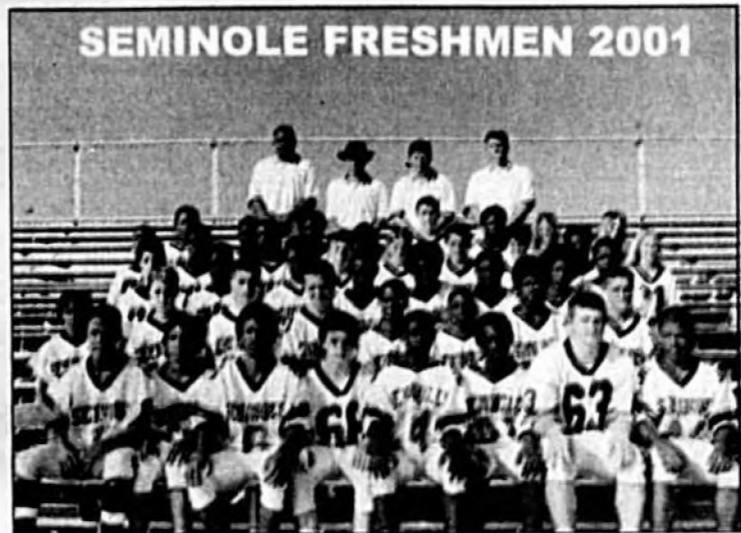

The contests are make-ups for games postponed because of the events of September 11th.

Tim Dycus, a Seminole High graduate himself who is serving as a head coach for the first time, had a good talent pool to start with as the six fastest runners from last year's Seminole County Middle School Track Meet and a few Honor Roll student's are on the squad.

"It's real nice to have athletes to start with," said Dycus recently. "But this has been a total team effort and the success is due to hard work on and off the field."

The Tribe opened the season with a 12-0 blanking of Winter

half came when Donta Poyser intercepted the first of his two picks on the night at the Lake Brantley 28 with 5:51 left in the second quarter.

Quarterback Darius Chaplin and fullback Deon Casey moved the ball 20 yards on five running plays, but on fourth and one from the 10, Seminole lined up for a field goal attempt.

But a hard count forced the Patriots to jump offside, giving the Tribe a first down at the five.

On third down, Chaplin barreled in from the two and after Matt Groover's extra point Seminole led 7-0 with 1:44 left before intermission.

The Tribe actually found the end zone again before halftime when Andre Raines returned a punt 52 yards. But the play was called back on a hold and the game went to halftime with the hosts on top 7-0.

Seminole looked like it might fall into its habit of giving away in the second half as the offense fumbled on the first play, giving Lake Brantley the ball at the 29.

The Patriots advanced the ball to the nine, but on fourth down tried a halfback pass by Oliver, but his toes was picked off by Justin McKinney in the end zone and the shutout was still intact.

The Tribe lost eight yards on two plays, so head coach Jim Bernhardt called for a quick kick by back-up quarterback Carl Harris, and the junior responded with a boot to the Lake Brantley 39.

The Patriots marched down the field behind Oliver, getting as far as the 12, but a pair of illegal procedure calls moved the ball back to the 22 as the fourth quarter began.

Poyser then picked off his second pass and things were looking good for the home team.

But a hold on a long run and an incomplete pass was followed by an interception by Lake Brantley's Steve Finch at the 30.

The Patriots returned the favor three plays later with a fumble recovered by Robbie Carr with 8:50 left and the Tribe tried to run some time off the clock.

Seminole did kill three minutes, but were forced to turn the ball over on downs when a fourth and seven play fell six inches short.

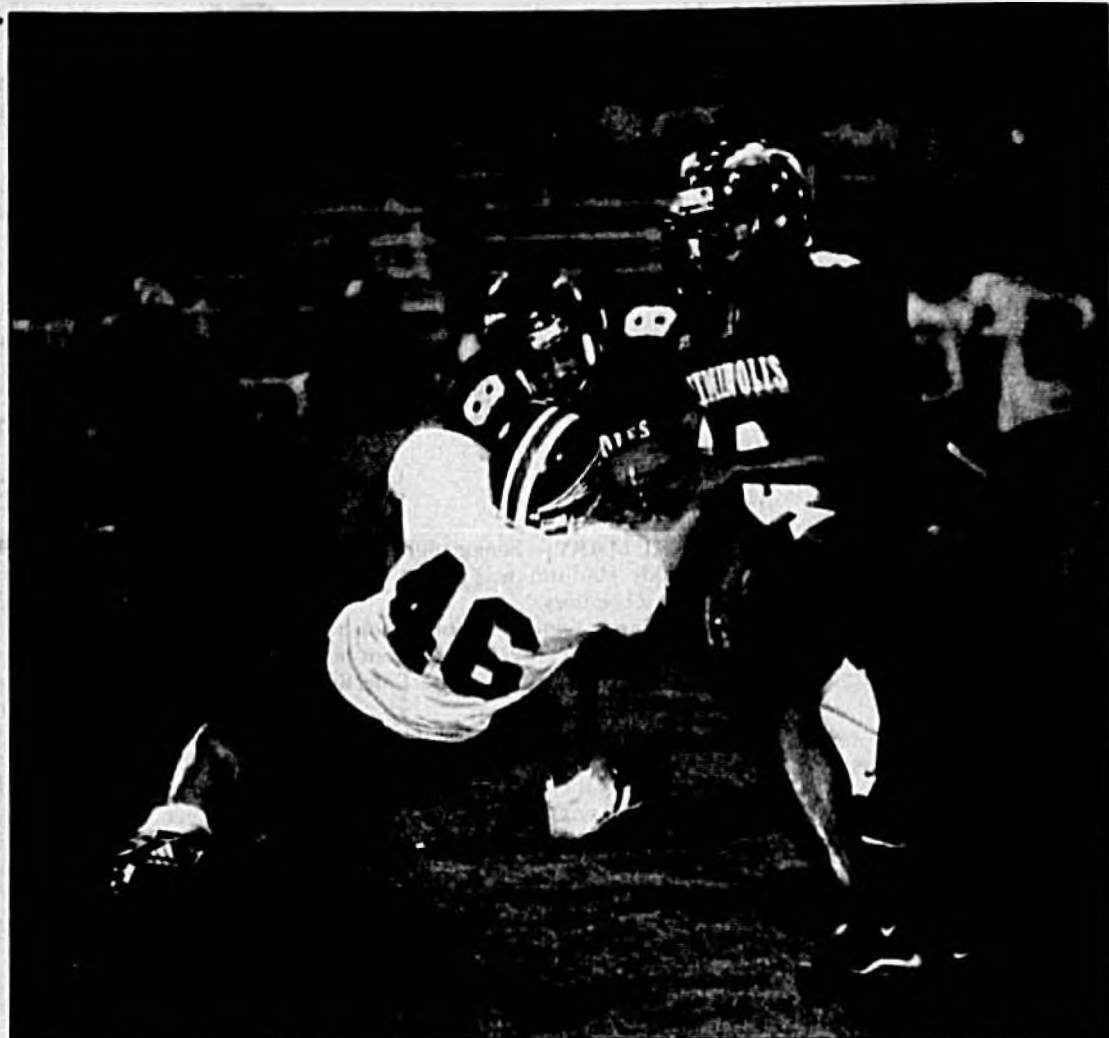

Lake Brantley took over on its own 19 and went 81 yards, with the help of two Tribe penalties, on seven plays, with quarterback Fabier Fernandez going 16 yards and Oliver finally breaking loose for a 31-yard touch-down gallop on back-to-back plays with 2:25 left.

The Patriots lined up for the tying extra point attempt, but the snap was high and by the time the holder got the ball down, a Seminole defender was laying on the ball and the ensuing kick went sideways on the ground.

But somewhere during the play the Tribe was hit with a penalty, which was never signalled for what by the officials, and when the ball was moved half the distance to the goal, Lake Brantley took time out and decided to go for two and the win.

But again the snap was bobbled and Seminole fell on the ball, denying the attempt.

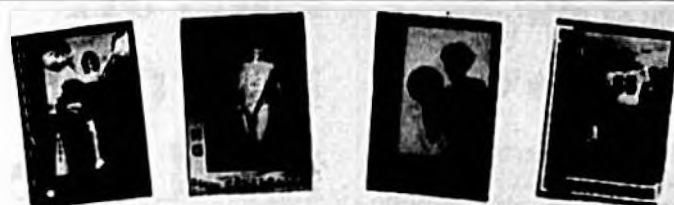

Chris White then fell on the on-side kick attempt and the Tribe was able to run out the clock.

Seminole's Julius Griffin (4) takes a pitch from quarterback Darius Chaplin (8) and eludes Lake Brantley's Chris Tirado.

regionals, with the district winner playing at home and the runner-up playing on the road. Seminole High School ended the regular season on an upbeat as both the junior varsity and varsity teams defeated Lyman at Bill Fleming Memorial Gymnasium on Wednesday. It was also Senior Night for the varsity team and the three Fighting Seminole seniors, Jessie Chick, Shekita Ferrell and Tiffany Georgi, contributed to a 15-3 and 15-9 thumping of the Greyhounds.

Chick, who has played volleyball all four years at Seminole and is a three-year varsity player for coach Beth Corso's Tribe, contributed six kills, four digs, two blocks and one ace to the team's 15 digs, 13 kills, 12 assists, nine aces, and five blocks.

Ferrell, who has only been playing for two years and is in her first year on the varsity, had three kills, two digs, and two aces, while Georgi, who has played volleyball for four years at SHS but is in her first season on varsity, added one dig.

Also contributing to the win were Amanda Howard (three blocks, three digs, three aces, two kills), Andrea Poloche (six assists, two aces, one dig), Sara Suddes (six assists, two digs) and Sarah Pegram (two kills).

Chick had picked up a singular honor over the weekend when she was named to the All-Tournament Team at the Winter Springs Invitational.

The Tribe lost in the Consolation Match to defending Class 6A State Runner-up Miami Sunset.

Seminole then took on Winter Springs on Tuesday and dropped a 15-4 and 15-12 decision to the Bears.

The team had 24 digs, 22 kills and two blocks with Poloche (15 assists, four digs, four aces), Chick (10 kills, one solo block), Pegram (eight kills, one dig, one solo block) and Howard (four kills, three digs) doing the damage.

Winter Springs (24-2) had bounced back from a loss to Lake Highland Prep in the finals of its own tournament with a 15-9 and 15-10 victory over Lake Mary on Monday.

Melina Jakubcin had 11 kills and Jen Forst seven kills for the Bears, while Angie Pressey had 13 kills and Hannah Biederman 10 kills for the Rams.

Oviedo (22-5), which finished fourth in the Winter Park Invitational after losing to Lake Highland and Merritt Island, got back into the win column with a 15-4 and 15-3 clubbing of Timber Creek. Bellamy led the Lions with five aces and three digs, while Holser chipped in with 10 kills.

In other prep action this week Lake Mary swept a swimming meet with Lake Howell on Tuesday, the boys winning 134-14 with Borsmann taking top honors in the 200 Individual Medley and the 500 freestyle, and the girls won 150-31 behind Goemmel who won the 50 freestyle and 100 breaststroke.

Seminole also swept a meet from Lyman on Wednesday, Robert Fuller leading the boys to a 95-78 triumph, and Corrie Seland pacing the girls in a 119-49 victory.

In boys volleyball, Lake Brantley dropped a three-game match to Apopka, 6-15, 15-7 and 15-11, on Wednesday.

Jessie Sadowsky hit a three-run home run as Lake Brantley defeated Lyman 10-2 in a Seminole Athletic Conference Slow Pitch Softball League game, but the Patriots dropped their other game to Lake Mary, 16-10.

Golden Knights ready for homecoming today

Special to the Herald

ORLANDO — Cooler temperatures and brisk breezes marked Wednesday's practice following Tuesday's full-padded, two and a half hour work out as the University of Central Florida continued preparations for this afternoon's (Saturday) homecoming matchup with Louisiana-Monroe.

This will be the third straight game at home for the Golden Knights, who have outscored their opponents 87-7 this season at the Florida Citrus Bowl. UCF has won its last six homecoming games and the Golden Knights were 55-0 winners over ULM in last season's homecoming game.

However, UCF head coach Mike Kruczek said that he fully expects the Indians to come into the game ready to play.

"They will come in here highly motivated to do something special," said Kruczek. "We need to come into the game with the right attitude, on time and ready to go toe-to-toe with those people or anything can happen.

"I'm amazed that they are 1-4, but they have played some good people. They are a lot better than people give them credit for."

Tailback Alex Haynes worked in a limited capacity during Tuesday's practice. Kruczek said that Haynes, who missed last week's game with a right hip pointer, would be a game-time decision. If Haynes is not able to play, senior Terrance Williams will get the start. Williams ran for 107 yards and three touchdowns in UCF's 63-0 win over Liberty last week.

Also on the injury front, linebackers Gerren Bray (left ankle sprain) and Elliot Shorter (left high ankle sprain) are both still slowed by injury and their playing status for the game will likely not be decided until game time.

The Golden Knights and Louisiana-Monroe kick off this afternoon at 4 p.m. at the Florida Citrus Bowl. The game mark's UCF's 22nd homecoming, and the Golden Knights are 14-7 all-time.

tory. Two plays later, Cameron Bateman crossed the goal-line to put Lake Mary up 20-0 just 37 seconds into the third quarter. Kessler's extra-point was no good.

Stanton was pleased with the play of his defense, which has played solid throughout the season.

"The defense has been playing well," Stanton said. "At times we've bent, but the defense has stepped up when it had to."

There was no bending against Pine Ridge. The D stuffed the Panthers on the next series, and Lake Mary was back in business at the Panthers' 39. Campbell and Lewis Hall moved the ball quickly down field, with Campbell blasted into the end-zone from five yards out with 6:57 in the third quarter. The Rams went for two and quarterback Mike Muzeka fired a strike to Grayson on a nice out pattern to make the score 28-0.

The defense once again rose to the occasion. Pine Ridge's Martin Reese picked up eight yards on first down, followed by a 24-yard gainer on a Justin Thomas to Matt Aldrich pass down the seam. But the Panthers stalled and on fourth down, Kessler and big Randy Jackson crashed into the backfield to throw Thomas for a seven-yard loss.

The Rams couldn't capitalize, and the Panthers recovered a Campbell fumble near midfield.

With the second-team defense spelling the starters, the Panthers were able to mount a drive behind the powerful running of Howard Lingard. Lingard, a cousin of NFL quarterback Jeff Blake, carried the ball six times during the nine-play drive, gaining 43 yards. Quarterback Aldrich sneaked it over from one yard out to give Pine Ridge its only touchdown. Tom Daley's extra-point was good.

Lake Mary's offense got a quick first down, but was forced to punt three plays later. John Coppinger got in on the senior night celebration soon after when he picked off a Thomas pass at the Lake Mary 43. An eight-play drive ended with Hall pounding over left side for the final touchdown. The key play came on a 27-yard run by Campbell to put the Rams in position. Kessler's extra-point was good.

Pine Ridge made a last-ditch effort to score, aided by two personal foul penalties on Lake Mary. With the ball on the 12-yard line, Coppinger thwarted the Panthers' efforts by breaking up three passes.

Lake Mary (4-4, 3-2) travels to Lyman next week for its final district game. Pine Ridge (3-5, 2-3) hosts Mainland.

Lions survive homecoming

Oviedo has 'great battle' with University

By Tony DeSommer
Herald Correspondent

OVIEDO — Lions and Cougars and bares... oh my. Or perhaps... kings and queens and streakers... oh no. Or maybe... offense and penalties and penalties... oh jeez.

Homecoming games are supposed to be memorable, but the Oviedo Lions may have outdone themselves Friday night, when they outlasted the University Cougars, 36-29, at John Courier Field.

The fact that the game had no bearing on district or conference standings apparently meant little to the two teams as they threw a little bit of everything at each other, right down to the last second.

"We always have great battles with University," said Oviedo coach Greg Register. "The kids on both teams played hard. The momentum switched sides so many times, I lost count in the first half."

In the first half, Oviedo led 14-0 and University had a 21-14 lead before the two teams walked off the field at the intermission knotted at 21-21. The Lions and Cougars combined to score 35 points in the second quarter.

During the intermission, Mia Boykin and Shawn Witherspoon were crowned homecoming queen and king by 2000 honorees Doris Hiller and Sammy Hughes. Boykin and Witherspoon then made the royal circuit in horse-drawn carriage as Poncho, the lion mascot from Tiger Eye Productions, looked on with carnivorous interest.

The second half featured an 89-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, a pair of two-point conversions, nearly 120 yards in penalties (not including a pair of offsetting penalties), and an au natural sprint by a pair of revelers attired in jock straps and a cowboy hat.

Senior Sam Jordan sent the Lion faithful home happy as he snapped a 29-29 tie with a 31-yard touchdown run with 1:20 left in the fourth quarter.

University kept the near-capacity crowd in the stadium until the last moment as quarterback Kyle Israel squeezed 11 plays (gaining 49 yards in the process) into the last 80 seconds, including a "Hail Mary" heave into the end zone on the final play.

Oviedo built its 14-0 lead on a 22-yard dive by Matt Ford and a 3-yard run by Billy Dreggors. University rallied to go up 21-14 on touchdown runs by Kyle Israel, Gabriel Torres, and James Ashbridge.

Will Harrison's 15-yard touchdown dash tied the score at 21-21 for Oviedo with 43 seconds left in the second quarter.

Jordan (who collected 131 returns yards, caught three passes for 58 yards, and had four carries for 74 yards) put the Lions back on top with an 89-yard kickoff return for a touchdown to open the third quarter.

Before the period was over, Torres re-tied the score with a 17-yard touchdown run, setting the stage for Jordan's fourth quarter heroics.

"Sam is a great offensive player," said Register. "He can run and catch. He's got a heart that's twice as big as his body."

Oviedo (6-2) will host Seminole in a critical 6A-District 1 game next Friday night. A victory would clinch at least a share of the district title for the Lions.

Powell claims Governor's Cup at New Smyrna Speedway

Special to the Herald

SAMSULA — For the first time in the history of the Florida Governor's Cup last Saturday night, the Governor actually showed up as Jeb Bush was on hand to serve as Grand Marshall for the 2001 version of the event which was also Race #9 of the Race Car Engineering Sunbelt Super Series.

And the Governor, who was at the Florida State-Miami football game earlier in the day, saw a rarity for the series as James Powell III took the measure of the 32 car field, finishing ahead of Wildwood's Dick Anderson, who has dominated the Sunbelt Super Series so far, New Smyrna Speedway standouts David Rogers, B. J. McLeod, Jack Cook, and Travis Kittleson, Wildwood's Wayne Anderson, who was taking time out from the Hooter's Pro Tour, short-track specialist Morgan Hoover, and former NASCAR Winston Cup and Modified champion Gary Balough.

For Powell, who was the fastest qualifier, it was his second straight victory in the series and allowed him to move into second place in the points by Dick Anderson, one of the winningest short-track drivers in American history, who had trouble for the second straight race.

Dick Anderson had won the first three races, finished second in the fourth race, and then won three more races before finishing sixth at Sebring and 15th in the Governor's Cup.

Powell, who started to make his move in the standings when he finished second in Race #7 at Cordele, Georgia, crossed under the checkers ahead of Wayne Anderson, Rogers, who is third in points, Jonny Kay, and top rookie Billy Mowery.

In the support races, Orange City's Tank Tucker continued his domination of the Modified class, winning again over Rob Underwood, Bo Davis, Jerry Symons and Mark Vandevender.

Rick Turney picked up the victory in the Mini-Stock feature with Dale Casteel, Tim McPhail, Clay Joseph and Conrad Grenier completing the top five.

A large field of 20 cars showed up for the Super Stock race with Mike Wiecezorek crossing the finish line ahead of Bill Spade, Chris Peludat, Ted Helmes and Ron Whaley.

Tonight (Saturday, October 20th), New Smyrna Speedway gets back to regular division racing with heats and features in the regular FASCAR divisions of Super Late Model, Late Model, Modified, Mini-Stock, Sportsman, Super Stock and Strictly Stock.

Gates open at 5 p.m. and racing begins at 7:30 p.m. every Friday night at the track located at the corner of SR 44 and CR 419, between New Smyrna, DeLand and Daytona.

Orlando Speedworld will host a second straight week of heats and features in all of the regular FASCAR classes of Super Late Model, Modified, Mini-Stock, Sportsman, Super Stock and Strictly Stock next Friday night (October 26th) in preparation for the Super Late Model Triple Crown starting on November 2nd.

Gates open a 6 p.m. and racing begins at 8 p.m. every Friday night at the track located 17 miles east of Orlando between Orlando and Titusville on Highway 50 at the 520 Cocoa Cutoff.

Playoff

Such was the case on Thursday as Lyman failed to cover the opening kickoff and the Buccaneers recovered at the 19, from where senior Antonio Hamilton scooted in on the first play to give the Homecoming crowd something to cheer about just 10-seconds into the game.

Only 17 seconds later it was 14-0 as Ryan Davis picked off a Victor Johnson pass and stormed 25 yards into the end zone, giving Mainland a 14-0 lead with only 27-seconds gone in the game.

And that was just the beginning as the Greyhounds would turn the ball over 10 times, four interceptions, five fumbles and the one for not covering the kick-off, and Hamilton would have a career night, rushing for 277 yards on 20 carries and scoring five touchdowns on runs of 19-, 20-, 89-, six-, and 50-yards.

Lyman trailed 27-0 when the Greyhounds scored their only points on a 22-yard pass from Johnson to Travo Woods in the second quarter.

Woods provided the only offense for Lyman, rushing for a team-high 73 yards on 13 carries and catching two passes for 28 yards.

Mainland has now won six games in a row and stands 6-1 overall and 4-0 in the district and can clinch the district title with a win at Winter Springs on Monday (7:30 p.m. at the A. W. Epps Sports Complex).

Lake Howell gave a good showing for itself at the home of the defending Class 6A State Champions, but still suffered its third consecutive loss after such a promising start to the season. Palm Bay, which came into the game having outscored its opponents 180-26, was playing its third game in seven days, but it was worth it as the club is now 7-0 overall and 4-0 in the district to clinch the 4A-5 title.

The Pirates, ranked No. 2 in the Class 4A Florida Sports Writers poll and No. 3 in the Gatorade all classification Top 25, got a quick wake-up call when the Silver Hawks took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to score in six plays on John Williams' seven-yard run.

But Palm Bay scored three second-quarter touchdowns, on a seven-yard run by Joe Cohen, a nine-yard run by Dan Hornung and an 11-yard pass from Charles Kleinschnitz to Dontale Moffett, to take a 21-7 advantage.

Lake Howell got back into the game when Williams scored on a four-yard run on the first play of the fourth quarter, but would get no closer as Kleinschnitz and Moffett hooked for another touchdown pass of 26 yards late in the game.

Merlin loves creativity, so potential students can come dressed in costumes. There will even be a contest to pick the best one! First, second and third place ribbons will be awarded in five categories: under 2 years old; 2 to 3 years old; 4 to 6 years old; 7 to 9 years old and 10 to 12 years old. Costume judging will take place at 8 p.m.

There will be refreshments and treats for potential students during the Open House. The Open House is free to the public and is being sponsored by "Merlin's Academy" and by the Lake Mary Community Improvement Association.

Historical Commission Hosts Girl Scout Day

Historical Commission hosts Girl Scout Day

It was a first for the Lake Mary Historical Museum's Annual Girl Scout Day. Attendees for this year's event included Tiger Cub Scouts. The Tigers joined Brownie Girl Scouts for a tour of the museum. They also took a hike to the Lake Mary Cemetery and learned about the earliest settlers in Lake Mary. Then they learned how to play games of yesteryear; croquet, horseshoes and pickup sticks to name a few. When one Tiger Cub was asked what his favorite part was, he said "Everything!" Although the Tigers didn't get the "Listening to the Past" Try-It that the Brownies earned, they did get a Lake Mary Historical Museum Patch.

In the afternoon, Junior, Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts were at the museum. Juniors learned about the early Swedish settlers. They saw the kind of kitchen appliances that were available to people in the early days of Lake Mary. They also learned about Lake Mary's growth since it's founding and drew a picture of how they think Lake Mary will look in 50 years. Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts learned about genealogy and how to start their own study of their family history. As a start, each one began their own genealogy chart. The Juniors earned their "Local Lore" badge at Girl Scout Day, but the older girls have to wait a little longer for the "Heritage Hunt" Interest Patch. Older girls are required to do service for the Historical Commission. So, all of the girls have volunteered to help at Olde Lake Mary Days, scheduled for Saturday, March 2, 2002.

Girl Scout Day was the topic of discussion at the Lake Mary Historical Society Meeting on Oct. 11. Due to an insufficient number of volunteers from the Lake Mary Historical Commission, Society members were called at the last minute to help.

If you're interested in joining the Lake Mary Historical Society, they meet the second Thursday of every month at the Lake Mary Historical Museum. They will also have a booth at Holiday in the Park, the city's annual tree lighting festival, scheduled for Friday, Dec. 7 at 6:30 p.m. at Lake Mary City Hall.

Brodie, Peterson exchange vows

Jaime Helena Brodie and Aric O'Neal Peterson were married on Sunday, Aug. 12, in an outdoor ceremony held at the home of her mother. Joy McFarland officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Jaime and Aric Peterson with daughter, Makayla

The bride is the daughter of Jim Brodie of Sanford and Shari King of Oviedo.

The groom is the son of Victor Peterson Sr., of Sanford and Priscilla Wilson of Sanford.

A picnic reception immediately followed the ceremony. The guests also celebrated the first birthday of Makayla Alese Peterson, daughter of the bride and groom.

The couple enjoyed a wedding trip to Orlando. They are at home in Sanford. The groom is employed by Advantage Glass. The bride is a student at Seminole Community College.

yield large fruit and are resistant to a common plant disease called anthracnose. Other recommended varieties are Florida 90, Tioga, Douglas and Sequoia. Everbearing varieties are not recommended in Florida.

Culture

Strawberries should be planted in raised beds approximately six inches high. For a 100 square foot area, broadcast about 2 pounds of 6-6-6 fertilizer and incorporate it into the soil. Add the same amount of fertilizer in bands six inches deep and to the side of the beds. After the beds have been prepared, fertilized and well watered, cover each with a sheet of 1-1/2 mil black plastic. Place soil on the edges of the plastic to hold it in place. Then cut slits in the plastic to insert plants. Space the plants 12 inches apart in the rows.

Newly set plants will benefit from overhead sprinkling for two or three days. Sprinkling fills in the soil around the roots and keeps the tops from drying out.

Trickle irrigation is extremely well adapted for use with strawberries. Do not place the trickle lines directly over the fertilizer band to avoid leaching the fertilizer.

Where fertilizer deficiencies occur, soluble fertilizer may be applied through lines beneath the plastic.

Harvesting and Storing

The normal harvest period in Florida runs from December to May. Strawberry fruits are very perishable. Pick them when they are dry and properly ripened. Immature berries do not ripen later and over-ripe ones rot easily. After picking, keep them cool, as near to 32 degrees as possible. Commercially, strawberries are sold in "flats" which contain 24 pints and weigh 10 pounds.

Over-50 crowd meets weekly to Fox Trot, Jitter Bug and waltz the afternoon away

By Michelle Jeris
Managing Editor

Colin Sayer started dancing when he was 14. He was one of only two boys in his graduating class that knew how to Fox Trot and waltz, so when his classmates decided they wanted to learn how to dance, he put on his dancing shoes and became their instructor.

Seventy-two years later, the Sanford resident is a regular at the Over-50 Dances at the Sanford Civic Center. Nicknamed Twinkle Toes, Sayer makes sure everyone at the dance gets a turn on the floor.

"I try to dance with everyone who wants to dance," Sayer said. "And, I must be pretty good, because no one complains."

The Sanford dancing season began Wednesday after a summer hiatus. Sponsored by the Over-50 Club and the Sanford Recreation Department, the dancers meet each Wednesday from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Civic Center. For a $3 fee, anyone over 50 is invited to attend, and the only requirement is to wear proper dancing attire — no shorts or short skirts.

"It's two hours of dancing or just listening to the music," said Jim Gunster, president of the club. "You can even come and just enjoy the companionship and the refreshments."

Big Band music is provided by the Deltonans, and every kind of dance music is provided — from the waltz to the swing.

Gunster said about 100 people from the Orlando area attend the dance each week, and many are considered regulars, including Dottie Anthony of Sanford.

"I've been coming here for 11 years," Anthony said. "I come because I love dancing, the music is great and the people are wonderful. I thoroughly enjoy it all."

For more information about the Over-50 Dances, call 386-668-1615 or 407-302-1010.

The art of cultivating strawberries

Strawberries are both tasty and attractive and well suited to Florida's growing conditions. Even though the strawberry plant is a perennial it is treated as an annual in Florida. They are very popular in home gardens but they also provide a multi-million dollar crop for the state's commercial producers.

Al Ferrer

Planting
Strawberry plants can be set out throughout October but no later than mid-November. The cool nights and short days of winter stimulate the plant to produce flowers that develop into fruits that are ready for harvest in about a month. Plants set out in mid-October should produce ripe fruit by Christmas. Berry production and harvesting continue throughout winter and into spring. As the weather gets warmer and the days grow longer, the plants will stop producing berries and begin to form runners. These runners will take root and become new plants. However, for most home gardeners, it is more practical to discard the plants at the end of the season and purchase new plants in the fall.

Soils
Although strawberries can be grown in almost any type of Florida soil, they prefer a well-drained soil that can be kept moist but not wet. A sandy soil with considerable organic matter is the best. Strawberries have a shallow root system and will require supplemental irrigation.

Varieties
Strawberries are sensitive to day length and temperature and it is important to select varieties adapted to Florida conditions. Varieties like Dover and Florida Belle

Lord Wedgwood to present free seminar

In his only Florida appearance this year, Lord Wedgwood, the international spokesman for the world renowned English ceramics company that bears his name, will present an entertaining free seminar, "Great Style for Real Life," beginning at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 24, at Burdines in Altamonte Springs.

At the event, Lord Wedgwood will sign purchasable pieces that include limited edition selections from the Prestige collection that will be available only during his appearance. Seating is limited. For reservations, call 407- 830-2351.

As an authority on the art and industry of English pottery making, Lord Wedgwood offers practical knowledge on the features and characteristics that distinguish fine dinnerware, tabletop and decorative ceramics. During his presentation, he will dispel the myths that surround the use of china and demonstrate how enduring styles mix with today's eclectic home.

The Prestige collection is the top-of-the line Wedgwood that showcases the company's master craftsmanship at its best. From this collection, Wedgwood has included a Britannia Triumphant statue that is one of only 25 available. It sells for $17,500. Also available will be an Octagon Teaset of Pale Blue Multi-Jasper that is one of 100 in a limited edition. It sells for $3,500.

In addition, customers can purchase items from the Sarah's Garden collection and a Catherine Service Dessert Plate, among other Wedgwood pieces.

The Wedgwood brand has a long and illustrious heritage of creating finely crafted bone china and earthenware products dating back to 1759 when Josiah Wedgwood founded the company in Staffordshire, England.

Today the company is still based in the Midlands region of Britain where 11 generations of skilled artists and craftsmen have produced wares in the Wedgwood tradition.

A direct descendant of Josiah, Lord Piers Anthony Weymouth Wedgwood was born in 1954 and served in the House of Lords for more than 20 years as the fourth Lord Wedgwood of Barlaston, which is the headquarters for Wedgwood. In addition to his Parliamentary achievements, Lord Wedgwood has enjoyed a successful military career where he received the rank of Captain in the Royal Scots, Royal Regiment Division.

Burdines Altamonte is located at 451 Altamonte Avenue.

New school to open in Lake Mary

A brand new school is scheduled to open in Lake Mary! The school, "Merlin's Academy of Magic and Alchemy", will hold an Open House on Saturday, October 27 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Lake Mary Community Building on Country Club Road.

During your visit to the Open House, you will be able to meet some of the excellent teachers who will be on staff. This is no ordinary school! It will be teaching classes that are out of the ordinary for very special students. Your child will be able to learn navigation, naval warfare and map-making from the dead, that is, Dread Pirate Purplebeard. Dr. Frankenstein will lead your children to a greater understanding of anatomy, with a special emphasis on the re-attachment of dead limbs.

Ancient history will be one of the many subjects your child will learn to excel at. And who better to teach ancient history than someone who has lived it! This class will be instructed by none other than Queen Nefertiri. The Queen will also be teaching mummification for extra credit. Think cooking might bore your precious child? Not when three witches team up to teach them how to cook up potions, cast spells and place hexes.

Most of the emphasis on education at Merlin's is on the mind. But the body won't be ignored. Superior physical education classes will be taught by the Dungeonmaster. And there'll be playground activities with a little help from the Blair Witch.

Other teachers attending the Open House include: Professor Beeblebrox, Astronomy, Rocketry, Physics and the Dissection of Inferior Species; the Voodoo King, Curses (General and Specific) and Calling Up

Bridge Social

Members of the Bridge Social of the Sanford Woman's Club were glad to see October roll around so they could leave the hot summer behind for a season of playing bridge. Hostesses, Shirley Milis and Betty Bruestle, served a light luncheon, at the Milis home on Oak Avenue.

"The members were in good spirits and ready to play cards," Shirley said.

Wilma Heaton won high score, with Thelma Smith running a close second.

Other players enjoying the hospitality and lovely Indian Summer day were: Helen Ernest, Rose Edith Jacobson, Libby Prevatt, Terri Millikan, Wanda Ross, Zelda Siskind, Frances Mitchell, Carol Dennison, Mary Dale Jones, Yvonne Portais, Carrie Greene and Carolyn Cornelius.

Happy Birthday

Jeri Kirk will be remembered by Herald readers as a lovely, gracious civic leader who enjoyed working for her hometown. Several years back, Jeri developed Alzheimer's Disease and moved away from Sanford.

According to her son and his wife, Attorney William L. Kirk Jr. and Nancy, Jeri is "doing real well."

She recently moved to a new location just in time to celebrate her birthday on Oct. 22. For those who may like to send Jeri a card, her address is: Chancellor Park, Sarah's Garden, 217 Boston Ave., Altamonte Springs, FL 32701

O'Brien's story featured on 'Beyond Chance'

The story of Tyler J. O'Brien, son of Shain and Marcy O'Brien formerly of Sanford, will air on Lifetime's "Beyond Chance," 11 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 20.

Tyler survived a serious stroke when he was 3 years old. The television show will also discuss his family, including his grandfather, Bob Gaudreau, who was a Sanford resident.

Gaudreau was a math teacher at Jackson Heights Middle School in Oviedo for 22 years. In 1998, he was diagnosed with lung cancer.

According to family members, Gaudreau made a "deal" with God to spare Tyler and take him. Tyler recovered, but Gaudreau died on Nov. 25, 1999. He lived long enough to see his grandson recover.

Today, Tyler is a first-grader at Lakeland Christian School, where he excels in academics and play soccer.

High-stepping Happy Hooper still tap dancing at 80

You could have knocked Doris Duxbury over with a feather when she and her husband, Al, arrived at the Casselberry Elks Club for what she thought was a cozy foursome celebration. As it turned out, it was her 80th birthday and she was the surprised guest of honor.

Doris is a dancer with the Happy Hoofers Dance Troupe who secretly arranged the party. Evelyn Chester, director and choreographer of the troupe, and her husband, Tony, invited the Duxburies to dinner. When the foursome walked in they were greeted by a loud "Happy Birthday" from the entire troupe of Happy Hoofers.

"What an evening," Doris said. "I'll never forget it. How can I possibly thank everyone? I was utterly flabbergasted."

In addition to a wonderful evening of excellent food, dancing and unbridled camaraderie, Doris received an orchid corsage, several gift certificates and a framed verse written by Elda Nichols:

The verse read:

*Nifty Lady
So Doris is 80 — let's give her a hand,
She dances like crazy when she hears a band,
Her age doesn't matter — she looks really great,
She's been teacher and mom and has a cute mate,
Now that she's 80, don't count her out yet,
She'll be dancing at 90 — on that you can bet!*

Doris has lived in the same house in Sanford for 78 years. She has been dancing her way into the hearts of area audiences with the hoofers for 10 years. Regular readers will remember her as the owner of the Duxbury Dance Studio in Sanford and later as a teacher and assistant principal in the Seminole County school system. She also is assistant to Evelyn Chester with the dance troupe.

With such a passion for dancing and activities with Seminole County Retired Educators Association, Doris still has time for her family. She and Al are the parents of three sons: William, of Orlando, and Jim and Tom of Sanford. And there are six grandchildren to spoil.

The Happy Hoofers perform at retirement centers, nursing homes and civic organizations.

Sorority Tours Mission

Ken and Terri Reinalda of Sanford's New Tribe Mission recently hosted a combined meeting of Laureate Gamma Delta and Preceptor Delta Delta chapters of Beta Sigma Phi. According to Marty Colegrove, "The meeting was not only enlightening, but gratifying as well."

She said host Ken began the meeting with a tour of the printing facilities at the New Tribe Mission Headquarters on First Street in Sanford. He explained that the facility has the potential of printing and distributing 56,000 publications monthly. It was noted that the operation has the capability of printing the Holy Bible in English as well as in tribal dialect for use by New Tribes missionaries. The facility handles all areas of printing from layout to the final bound product packed and ready for mailing.

Ken further explained the structure and meaning of New Tribes Mission which is non-denominational and is based on the principle that God uses the gifts, talents and abilities of many individuals working together to accomplish His purposes. Ken said career missionaries must complete extensive training including a minimum of two years of Bible college and, another two years in culture and language acquisition courses followed by survival training. It is only at this point that teams travel to remote tribal areas around the world where they teach the Bible in tribal dialect.

After the tour of the printing facilities, the group retired to the Central Headquarters, the former luxurious Mayfair Hotel. Marty said, "Members were absolutely enthralled as the building has been restored and furnished with authentic antiques."

Marty continued, "The original chandelier winked a warm welcome as guests entered the foyer and saw the antebellum staircase."

Throughout the tour, memories were shared of long-ago grand proms and opulent formal balls. Hostess Terri served an array of delicacies in the former ballroom which has been converted to a chapel and reception room.

Attending the tour were: Lisa

Doris Duxbury and her husband, Al, arrived at the Casselberry Elks Club for what she thought was a cozy foursome celebration. As it turned out, it was her 80th birthday and she was the surprised guest of honor.

Experience Summerville Senior Living

A Whole New Level of Senior Care.

Church News

Team Revival
 Victory Temple of God Inc., located at 601 Pine Ave., in Sanford, will host its "Youth Annual Diocese Assembly Tag Team Revival" Monday, Oct. 22, through Friday, Oct. 26. It will start at 7:30 p.m. nightly.

The theme of this year's event is "Eyes On The Prize." The speakers will be from Victory Temple's Ministerial staff. Coordinator is Elder Robert T. Bradley Sr., and pastor is Bishop R.L. Hillery. The church invites the community to "come out for a magnificent week of ministry."

For more information, call Bradley at 407-321-8864 or 407-324-0506.

Walk For Life

The Accept Pregnancy Center in Longwood will host a "Walk for Life," fundraiser on Saturday, Oct. 27, from 8 to 10 a.m. The walk will be held at Lake Eola in Orlando. Money raised from the event will enable the center to assist women in crisis pregnancies.

Youth groups are encouraged to attend. Groups or individuals may also raise funds by walking in their own community.

For more information or pledge packets, call the center at 407-339-1544.

Courtyard Concert

First United Methodist Church of Downtown Orlando will host a concert in the courtyard 7:30 p.m., Friday, Nov. 9.

The event will include the Rock of Ages Praise Band. It is a free concert with dessert and coffee provided.

The church is located at the corner of South and Magnolia. For more information, call 407-849-6080.

Bach's Lunch

Cathedral Church of St. Luke, located at 130 N. Magnolia Ave. in downtown Orlando, will host organ improvisations by Mark Ferguson Thursday, Oct. 25, beginning at noon.

The 30-minute concert is free and will be followed by a box lunch. The cost of lunch is $5.

For more information, call 407-849-0680.

Pumpkin Patch

The Community United Methodist Church youth group invites the public to come and share in its annual Pumpkin Patch. Pumpkins arrived on Wednesday, Oct. 3, and will be on sale through Oct. 30. About 4,000 pumpkins arrived on Oct. 3, with an additional 4,000 arriving later.

In addition to the patch, a fully stocked Pumpkin Store will be available. If it looks like a pumpkin or has anything to do with pumpkins, the store probably has it in stock. North Carolina jams, jellies and pickles are also on sale. Also, Georgia walnuts and pecans are available. Hand crafted items are on display and for sale, and from time to time, homemade pumpkin pies and other treats will be offered.

Each weekday morning, the patch will be filled with preschoolers who will have story time with Grandma Pumpkin. Around 900 children are expected to attend.

For more information, call the church at 407-831-3777. The church is located at 4921 S. Highway 17-92 in Casselberry, just north of the 436 intersection.

Fall Festival

Tuskawilla United Methodist Church, located at 3925 Red Bug Lake Road in Casselberry, will host its sixth annual Fall Festival and Pumpkin Patch 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 20. The event will include craft and vendor booths, rides and games for children, a cake walk, the church's popular "Food Court," entertainment, and hundreds of pumpkins.

Community Marketplace The Community School of Lake Mary is sponsoring a Community Marketplace and Holiday Craft Show from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 10.

The event will be held at First Baptist Church of Winter Park, located at 1021 N. New York Ave. on the corner of New York and Beloit, across from the golf course.

For detailed directions, please call The Community School at 407-645-2343.
