There was no immediate reaction to diplomatic developments at the United Nations and elsewhere on Guatemala's charge. It is the victim of aggression.

At an extraordinary session, the U. S. Security Council unanimously called for a cease-fire in Guatemala. The resolution proposed by France was accepted by all U. N. members not to act either side in the struggle.

The move came after the United States had turned the complaint over to the Organization of American States and demanded the council to act on the case.

An American woman correspondent in the Guatemalaian capital, broadcasting over the radio, reported yesterday the Guatemalan army had not been in the capital for several days. She said few troops were seen on the streets of the city.

Hotel headquarters have reported the capture of three teams in the Honduran border. According to reports, the teams were so said insurgent forces had cut the vital railroad from Puerto Barrios to Guatemala City.

At the United Nations, Guatemalan representatives continued the fall of Morales and Arana. They said the invaders have taken the town of Escuintla. Three were described as small towns, close together about 10 miles inside Guatemala.

A spokesman for the Guatemalan army said the Pan American Highway was aimed at Guatemala, a town of 5,600, some 15 miles north of Guatemala City. It lies 20 miles north of the El Salvador border.

Army-McCarthy Probe Comes To End With Mass Of Conflicting Testimony

WASHINGTON (AP) — The televised probe of the McCarthy Army probe started out with a tangle of conflicting charges and wound up with a mass of conflicting testimony.

The drama played out before a vast TV audience ranged far from the original outburst before the lights went out in the Senate caucus room last week.

The 26 days beginning April 22 in hearings and un-comparative testimony of charges made and denied of political infighting and weaknesses of men.

The bonfire antagonists were Joseph P. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and the subcommittee's chief counsel, Joseph P. Kamp.

When McCarthy testified, he said he had never known a man who has been unkindly, less kind or charming in his heart and mind than McCarthy.

Next to Stevens and McCarthy, Adams and Cain were the principal antagonists. Their testimony conflicted.

There was an Adams charge and Cain's denial that Cain had told him Stevens could be "wrecked" if he were sent overseas.

And there were Cain's charges and Adams' denial that Adams had offered to trade him information about homosexuals in the Army.

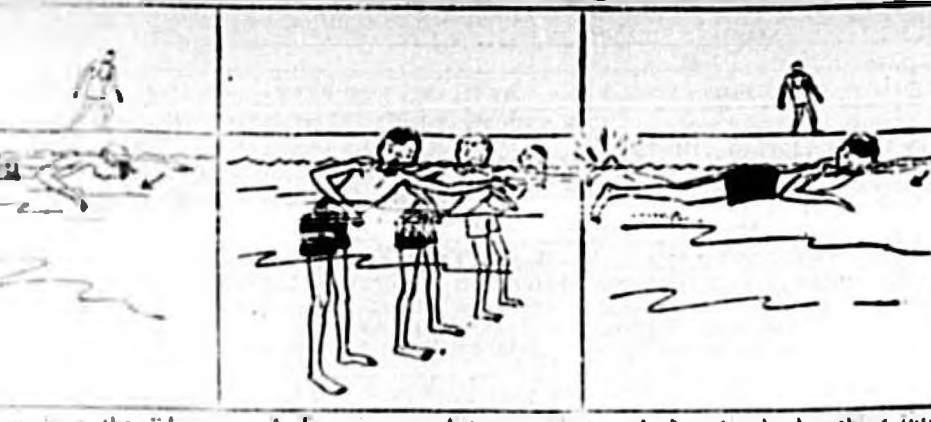

Another issue that riled the hearings was whether McCarthy had been unkindly to a man who had been unkindly to McCarthy.

employees. And they said McCarthy had only some minor news of information about the person.

The Army secretary testified that he did not need subpoena by anyone to reveal any information.

McCarthy said the Army had general sources from the FBI. He said he had never known a man who has been unkindly, less kind or charming in his heart and mind than McCarthy.

since "to prove the occurrence" of the Guatemalan delegate told the council his delegate had been invaded from Honduras Friday by mercenaries and bombed by P-51 planes of North American manufacture.

He claimed to have documentary proof linking the leader of the invasion, Guatemalan exile Carlos Castillo Armas, with Nicaragua and "the government of the North," an obvious reference to the United States.

He accused the U. S. State Department of defaming his government with its charges that it is Communist influenced, and said American bans on arms shipments to his country had left it defenseless.

He conceded that communists had "a certain support" in Guatemala but said even if it were outlawed "this campaign would find another pretext."

He charged the invasion had been sparked by the fruit company because his government is expropriating large tracts of company land under a land reform program.

He also produced the surprise charge that two fliers of U.S. citizenship had crash-landed yesterday after an attack on Guatemala in Mexico City, the Mexican air force chief of staff, Col. Carlos R. Berganza de Victoria, said he had no report of any such incident.

Senate 'Jury' In Probe Agrees To Reach Its Findings By Aug. 1

Strolling In Sanford

Mr. and Mrs. Irving I. Pryor have returned home after a vacation of two weeks with relatives and friends in the North. On June 12, they attended a 20-year reunion of the 1934 class of Wisconsin high school at Salisbury, Md. Mrs. Pryor had been secretary of the class and at the banquet she gave the roll call of 116 graduates. She was presented the award for having gone the farthest distance to the affair, a gift, and $5,000 in play money and a road map to assist her in getting home.

Boy In Danger Of Rabies Found

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—An 11-year-old Missouri boy who needs treatment for rabies was located here today and hurried to a hospital. The youth has been sought since Friday when he was reported by a skunk at his home at Blue Springs, Mo. He and his parents left on a trip to Key West before the skunk was found to be rabid. A Florida highway patrolman spotted the car of the Henry Zellners near Florida State University shortly before noon. Russell Zellner was taken for treatment immediately. The patrolman said the boy had to be found within two days if his life was to be saved.

County Commission Allocates $6,000 For Area Zoning

The Seminole County board of commissioners held its regular semi-monthly meeting this morning and voted to allocate $6,000 toward establishment of County zoning. The allotment, available from the State, is being used to plan zoning modeled after Leon County's.

Raymond Ball, spokesman for a committee appointed by the commission to investigate various forms of county zoning, reported that a Mr. Brannon, director of the Leon county zoning commission, had offered his services gratis to come into Seminole County and help with the preliminary planning necessary to establish zoning. Brannon further suggested, according to Ball, seeking the services of George W. Simons, a zoning consultant, to advise and help zone the various districts of the county. Simons' talents are tendered at approximately $60 per day.

The commission postponed a definite commitment until the money is available, but advised Ball to call on Mr. Brannon for a zoning director. Mr. Brannon feels that the first year of zoning is the most difficult, costing about $7,500 but will be the easiest for the second year, costing about 60 per cent of operational costs," Ball emphasized.

The commissioners adopted Mr. H. C. Dodd's motion to appropriate the $6,000 in the next budget. It has been the case for the past three years, the commission voted to appropriate $1,500 to the U. S. Geological Survey which is making an extensive study of water conditions in Seminole County. According to a confidential report in the hands of the members of the commission, the Geological Service is analyzing over 700 specimens from wells in all parts of the county.

Acting on a letter from Miss Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration agent, $75 was allocated to a 4-11 Camp for Seminole County children. Commr. Dodd moved that the County buy a harrow to use in cleaning rights-of-ways and for use at the County Home. Cost was estimated at about $300 but the motion was defeated. "They're borrowing a harrow and the County ought to own one anyway," Dodd stated. He added that he didn't mind lending his harrow, but the County's ownership of one would be worthwhile.

Commr. Dodd further reported that Sheriff J. L. Hobby had requested him to look into the possibility of acquiring a fan for use in the County jail kitchen, but no action was taken when Commr. John Meisch suggested moving the "prisoners out to the Mayfair Inn where they can have a swimming pool." It was a short meeting, lasting only slightly over two hours.

Rec. Areas Swamped First Day

Jenkins, Aide Picked To Draft 'Balance Sheet'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The senatorial "jury" in the McCarthy-Army hearings agreed today to try for a verdict or verdicts by Aug. 1. Sen. Mundt-B-S-D, announced after a meeting of the hearings subcommittee that there was "a general recognition" that unless findings are reached within a week after Congress adjourns, it may be impossible to reach them until after the November election.

Mundt said the subcommittee had unanimously assigned Ray H. Jenkins, his special counsel, and Charles Maner, his aide, to draft "a balance sheet of testimony" to guide the subcommittee in writing the report.

The "balance sheet," Mundt explained, will list "salient points of controversy" between Sen. McCarthy and Army officials. The "pro and con" points made in testimony, and have an index where the pertinent evidence is to be found in the two million word hearing record.

The senator told a news conference that the subcommittee also agreed to consider a later meeting: 1. Whether a demand by H. Struve Hensel, assistant secretary of defense, for fuller vindication than he feels the subcommittee has given him, merits special consideration in writing the official report or verdict. 2. To ask the Defense Department why it has withheld for more than a year requested security clearance for two members of the regular staff of the Senate Investigations subcommittee which McCarthy heads.

Birds To Get Bird; Scarecrows To Go

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—Listen, birds: science is catching on to your fables. The director of the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station says something better than scarecrows is going to be used to scare you. Wilford M. Field of Gainesville, the director, says the new system will be to use your own recorded voice to set you flying from a field in 10 more years. There won't be any scarecrows, that says Field. Human beings have got to learn one thing: they won't send only your alarm clock over the loud speaker. If they send a mauling call by voice, you'll flock in instead. Field spoke before the Florida Poultry Assn. convention here yesterday.

Down South

By THURMAN SENSING
Southern States Industrial Council
 We had a Congressman from Tennessee in the early 1930s of the nation who was quite unlettered but who had lots of common sense. Among the things for which he is best remembered is his statement, "Be sure you're right, then go ahead."
 David Crockett's advice is good for an individual. It was especially good for a young nation feeling its way in the world—a new nation with a new government based on the philosophy and incentive to the individual.
 And the fact that this nation has matured and reached a position of preeminence among the nations of the world since Crockett's time does not lessen the value of his advice. Truth has not changed in the intervening years; freedom is just the same.
 The sad fact of the matter is, however, that now we have grown up a generation of our actions seem to be based on fear rather than on courage. This is wrong. We did not act that way when we were a young nation along the Atlantic seaboard and perhaps had some reason to be fearful. This nation was not built by men of that type.
 As for me, I am getting sick and tired of hearing some of our globe-trotters who talk a lot tell us that we are "losing face" in certain parts of the world, that we are losing esteem among certain people of the world, that we must do certain things and change our ways or other peoples in the world won't think as much of us as we formerly did.
 What has become of our ideals and principles and self reliance? When we once make up our minds we "are right," we should "then go ahead." Otherwise, we have no minds of our own; we are no longer the free and independent nation which our forefathers understood with "their property, their lives, and their sacred honor."
 It is true, of course, that when a nation gains a position of leadership in the world, it has the responsibility that must go with leadership. But leadership among the nations of the world does not mean that we must guide our conduct according to the thinking of these other nations. Neither does it mean that we must make over these other nations into our own image.
 It does mean—certainly from the standpoint of the underlying philosophy of our form of government here in the United States—that we should simply continue to set the nations and peoples of the world an example of what can be accomplished by a free people in a free nation. Then, if these other nations and peoples would like to emulate our accomplishments, they can go and do likewise; if they are not interested, that is their privilege.
 It would not be amiss to mention some practical applications.
 We hear that the nations of Western Europe are much disturbed and disgruntled with us because we allow to exist in this country that which has become known as "McCarthyism." Now, being a McCarthyan should be stamped out; maybe it shouldn't. But whether it should or should not is something for us to decide—not the peoples of other nations.
 We hear that the peoples of Asia say there is no use of our talking about democracy so long as we practice segregation in any form. So far as I am concerned, no one

Export Of Citrus Next Year Will Be More, Mutual Says

LAKELAND—Florida growers can look forward to an increased export market for the coming season which is expected to exceed this year's record breaking total of 2,298,239 boxes of oranges and grapefruit to date, according to information released recently by Florida Citrus Mutual.

Mutual said it has received a report from J. Henry Burke, citrus marketing specialist for the U. S. Government currently in Europe, in which he stated that from his observations, "Florida's export future looks very good."
 Burke said he has just completed a tour of the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, England and Switzerland during which he talked with many trade people and examined a large amount of Florida fruit.
 "This has certainly been the best export season Florida has ever had," he said. "Importers tell me on the average, loss by decay this season will be within commercial limits." Importers figure average commercial limits decay at five per cent or less.

Bob Rutledge, Mutual General manager, said figures from Mutual's Export Department reveal that Florida exports this year are the highest on record.
 To date, 1,700,081 boxes of oranges, fresh and processed, have been shipped to foreign markets along with 598,158 boxes of grapefruit, fresh and processed.
 Totals nearest this figure were achieved in 1934 when approximately 1,750,000 boxes of oranges and grapefruit, fresh and processed, were exported.
 Included in this season's record breaking shipments have been 925,000 boxes of fresh oranges and 160,000 boxes of fresh grapefruit.
 Other processed shipments, oranges and grapefruit (converted to boxes) have included: 522,640 single strength 24/2's; 23,186 single strength 24/2's blended; 141,110 24/2's grapefruit sections; 466,229 concentrate hot pack and 39,967 frozen concentrate.
 Last year's combined exports only totaled 987,045 boxes, Mutual said.

"This season's totals will, of course, be even higher when present and shipments in the next few weeks are included," Rutledge added.

has ever proved that there is any conflict between democracy and segregation—and I mean from the viewpoint of any race! But here again, maybe segregation should be abolished or maybe it should not. But whether it should or should not is something for us to decide—not the peoples of other nations.
 There are plenty of other examples, such as trading with Russia, recognizing Red China, pouring out our dollars to stop communism in other countries, etc., etc. But what we need to do is obtain the courage of free men, remain strong ourselves, adhere firmly to the principles and ideals on which our whole way of life is founded, and when we make up our minds we are right. "Then Go Ahead."

 A X Y D L B A A X E
 H L O N G F E L L O W
 One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, opposites, the length and position of the words are all clues. Each day the code letters are different.

Men Smokers, 50-70, Die Sooner Than Others, Cancer Society Says

SAN FRANCISCO—Cigarette smokers die sooner than other men aged 50 to 70 and they die mainly from heart attacks and cancer, an American Cancer Society study reported recently.

It finds an effect from cigarette on cancers other than lung cancer. Numerically, the biggest effect could be in heart disease, since far more people die of coronary disease than die of lung cancer.

Just what the effect of cigarette is upon men under 50 or upon women can only be guessed at until more studies are made, the authors of the report said.

The report is based upon interviews in 1952 with 187,766 healthy men aged 50 to 70 about their smoking habits, and a checkup upon causes of death of 184 of them who died within 20 months.

It shows the death rate—from all causes—among the cigarette smokers to be up to 75 per cent higher than among the men who never smoked.

For men who smoked a pack a day of cigarettes or more, the death rate from heart disease and cancer is at certain ages double that of nonsmokers.

The risk seems to rise the more cigarettes are smoked.

Smoking only a pipe or only cigars doesn't seem to affect the death rates except possibly for cancer in general, but this possicigars, some combinations of two or three, all in varying degree. Of those since died 745 had smoked as much as a pack or more of cigarettes daily for years. This was 319 more deaths than would be expected if these men had died at the same rate as the nonsmokers.

Of these heavy cigarette smokers, 334 fell victim to heart attack—163 more than would be expected to have done so. And 161 expected to have done so, 99 more than expected.

By Alice Ross Colver

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

TODD was both central and focal, she thought. And each night as he recounted his experiences of the day, she saw him the same. He was a man, fighting his battle like a man. Sometimes he came home feeling himself a victor, and sometimes he came home in a spirit of depressed and abject defeat.

By the end of the month Todd appeared one night with a small, absent smile on his face, and when Joan asked him what that was for, he said, in a tone of surprise, "You know, I'm so glad to have them like me and so eager to have them keep on liking me that—"

"You'll work that out, Todd?"

"His eyes rested on her face. 'You always sound so sure of me, Jo-Jo,' he said. 'It certainly helps make me feel sure of myself. Did I ever tell you that?'

"Not in so many words."

"Well, here they are, then. Better late than never."

A warm glow filled her heart. Surely now, she told herself, their future was assured. Todd was making good. He was happier than he had expected to be because he was making good. And on the night he was being paid they could—by living her rent-free—save money. All she had to do was patient. There was nothing to worry about now.

In the middle of November their first blow fell. It came when Joan and Todd were talking over Thanksgiving plans one Sunday afternoon. When she had the turkey dinner, she was asking. Her mother wanted it. But if her mother entertained the two family on this holiday, what about Christmas? It was too much of an undertaking for Todd's mother. She would Joan and Todd try to have everyone up here in their little apartment? Or should they combine with the Hunters down stairs where there was more room?

"Well, I think we'd better combine with Mother and Dad downstairs. And then he stopped abruptly and looked across at Joan with startled eyes, while his hand went down to his right side and pressed against a sudden sharp, stabbing pain there.

"What's the matter?"

"I don't know. I— He got up, his face drawn and twisted. Look, Jo, do call up Doc Rogers, will you? See if he's home. I know he's better than most. That was the first—but I thought— He dropped into a chair again, doubled over in his distress.

Joan flew downstairs to the Hunters' telephone. Yes, the doctor was at home. Yes, he would see Todd, certainly, though these were not his office hours. Could he get there all right or did he want the doctor to come to the apartment? Joan thought Todd could make it to the office, she told him. They would be right over.

Hanging up the receiver, she turned to face Todd's mother, who had limped out from the kitchen in alarm to find out what was going on. Joan said quietly, "Todd isn't feeling very well. Mother Hunter. We're going to see the doctor."

"Oh, my goodness! What do you think the matter is?"

"I don't know. It's probably just something he's eaten."

Alto did not believe this herself. No, was she surprised when, a little later, the short, jovial, roly-poly doctor, who was an old friend as well as the family physician, made his pronouncement.

"Acute appendicitis. We must get this young man to the hospital immediately."

Joan's head spun. An operation and the cost! She remembered that Todd had not taken out hospital insurance for them.

"What do you want me to do, doctor?"

"I guess there's not much you can do it's up to me. I've called the ambulance. That wasn't absolutely necessary, perhaps, but it's the quickest way to get there and— He turned as Todd came slowly out of the office, dressed again but moving carefully and with his face gray.

Joan moved swiftly to his side. "Well, we know the routine, darling, don't we?"

He nodded, his smile stiff. "The works," he turned to the doctor. "Guess I should have come to you a month ago, but I thought it was something that would pass."

The doctor grunted. "People think that too often. Be with you in a moment. And he disappeared. Through the half-closed door they heard him telephoning crisp, sharp orders. Rogers had finished there came the sound of the siren down the street and he emerged again, his black bag in hand.

"Well, here we go," he said cheerfully.

Todd on the stretcher. The doctor and the orderly beside him. Joan watched in too. The waiting room of the waiting room and the swift race through darkening streets to the hospital.

Todd said, "I'll be all right, home."

"Of course."

"Better call my folks. This will be something of a shock to Dad, as if he answers, be careful. His heart, you know."

"I know."

"And then— Bless him— he phoned and said to the doctor, 'Will I be fit to eat Thanksgiving turkey?'

"Next week? Sure thing. You can count on double helpings."

At the hospital Joan waited inside in the waiting room. She called Todd's mother and gave her the news, saying she would call again soon. Yes, she would wait here. Yes, they would let her stay. No, please don't bother to save supper. She wasn't hungry and did not know when she would be back. She would get something out of her own icebox later, if she wanted anything. And would Mother Hunter call Joan's mother and tell her the news? There was no many people waiting to use the phone at the hospital that Joan did not want to hold it longer.

American Legion Is To Be Commended For Activities Of Boys, Girls States

Hats off to the youngsters attending Boys State and who will attend Girls State at Tallahassee.

The former is sponsored by the American Legion and the latter, by the Legion auxiliary, together with local civic organizations.

Attending Boys State are Larry Bates, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce; Harold Pate, Lions Club; Joe Hunt, Kiwanis Club; Allen Maffett, Elks Club, and John Higgins, Rotary Club.

Those boys will be in Tallahassee until the end of Boys State activities Saturday.

Girls who will go to Girls State are Barbara Brown, sponsored by the Pilot Club; Mary Ann Strickland, Anna Miller Circle (Elks Club); Colleen Engerbreton, Woman's Club; Helen Alexander, Business and Professional Women's Club, and Terrell Jean Nelson, Legion auxiliary.

The activities of a mock state government are carried on by each group right in the Capitol building.

The Legion is to be commended indeed for its interest in young people by affording them the opportunity to study the workings of government first-hand.

Way Down South In Sanford, Florida

By C. R. Dawson, BSA., MS., COWBOYS—The last word in horseback equipment is a deluxe saddle which carries a built-in radio; the control panel is of tooled leather with dual volume control; batteries are accommodated in a matching saddle pocket on each side and a loop antenna is attached to the saddle skirts. The price? $395 for a nickel-silver-trimmed job; plain, it'll cost you $329. How many, Sir?

TREES—The income from Florida's forest lands is 323 million dollars.

When landowners realize that they must not only protect their present woodlands from wild fires but turn millions more of idle acres into living forests the income will be two or three times as great.

SCIENCE—Liquid helium, when it reaches a certain very low temperature, flows uphill. The $64.00 dollar question is why?

FARM HANDS—The Cleveland Indians have only 8 farm clubs and 6 of them won the pennants in their respective leagues in 1953. The Jax Beach Sea Birds, a farm club of Cleveland, are now leading the Florida State League play. Jax Beach has proved to be not so hot as a baseball town and there is good reason to believe the Sea Birds will be transferred to Sanford.

EGGS—Imagine an automatic machine that would sort eggs according to both shell and yolk colors, detect blood spots, and green rot, show up cracks and weak shells, and measure albumen quality—all without breaking the egg!

Well that is what the world is coming to—to please white-egg New York or brown-egg Boston, this machine can sort eggs into six groups varying from white to dark brown. It can even divide white eggs into six shades between chalk and cream.

AS OTHERS SEE US—It behooves every man who has not a yearly contract with his barber to shave himself once in awhile. This is not so much for economy's sake as to get a good look at himself.

MAY AND DECEMBER—A rumbler seat looks foolish in summer—in winter it really is.

THE STAG AT EVE HAD DRUNK HIS FILL!

Diagnosing Male Tumor

By HERMAN M. BUIDESON, M.D.
BECAUSE male sex glands are easily accessible, there is no excuse for the average man to ignore the protection of frequent examinations as a safeguard against early discovery of tumor growths.

In women, it is sometimes quite difficult to determine the existence of a tumor, due to the remoteness of their sex glands.

Tumors of the male sex glands, however, can be easily diagnosed because the layers of tissues over the testes, as they are known medically, are thin, and simple examination and feeling of the glands can detect an early tumor.

Symptoms of Tumor
Normally, the male sex glands or testes are about one inch long and a little less than an inch in other dimensions. Any increase in size or weight should arouse suspicion of a tumor. Pain is not common.

One of the usual symptoms that accompanies many types of growths of the male sex gland is enlargement of the breasts. Certain types of tumors will give off female hormones that cause the enlargement of the male breasts.

By measuring the amount of this hormone present, a physician can usually determine the possible outcome of the removal of a tumor. If it has spread from the male glands to other parts of the body, there will be no change in the amount of hormone given off.

Many tumors of the testes are sensitive to X-ray and radium. It is as important for a male to have periodic examinations of his glands as it is for a female.

If these tumors are detected, and treatment initiated early enough, the chances for survival are excellent. In those patients who have undescended male glands, a fairly common occurrence, the tendency for tumor growth is much greater than in those where the testis are situated in their normal location.

QUESTION AND ANSWER
Q: A: What are the symptoms of a ruptured disk?
A: When a ruptured disk occurs, the person may have complaints of severe backache and a sharp pain that travels down the back of one leg. Usually the pain is increased on coughing or effort. The symptoms depend on the location of the disk.

JAMES MARLOW Central Intelligence Agency Secret

WASHINGTON—This country's super spy outfit, the Central Intelligence Agency, is so secret that even Congress, which votes money for it, knows less about it than about any other major government agency.

Former President Truman set it up in 1947, with the approval of Congress, when it became clear Russia, the wartime friend, had become the peacetime enemy. Congress has let it operate behind a screen ever since.

Only five or six members know how much money Congress votes for CIA. The House has a whole doesn't know. The Senate is scattered and concealed among the appropriations for other agencies.

There have been guesses CIA spends between 500 and 800 million dollars a year. But even the number of CIA employees is secret. Guesses on this run from 2,000 to 30,000.

CIA officials do give some committees of Congress pieces of information. Because of the nature of its work the CIA can't, like the Labor Department, for example, lay all its cards on the table.

Such is publicly known of the CIA:

1. It does its work overseas, spy-

Directors Of FSL Expect Big Crowd For All-Star Tilt

Florida State League officials will be "shootin' for the moon" when the first half champions meet the All-Stars in Daytona Beach on the night of July 9. Loop directors are anticipating a sell-out crowd and are in hopes of setting a new attendance record, according to John Krider, loop proxy.

The largest crowd ever to witness a Florida State League All-Star game, 4,192 paid attendees, filed into Sanford's old municipal park in 1939 and saw Dale Alexander's Sanford wrecking crew blast the Stars, 13-8. The second largest group, 3,651, appeared in Gainesville in 1949, when the Stars defeated Gainesville, 6-2. Sanford holds the distinction of playing host to the third largest crowd also. Sanford's second honor came in 1952 when 2,762 fans saw a 3 to 2 victory by the North All-Stars over the South All-Stars.

The smallest crowd ever to attend a Florida State League All-Star game was in attendance at the initial game of the series in 1916 at Daytona Beach. City Island Park was the site and 374 fans paid their way into the stands. Last year there were 1,498 in Sanford for a game, which was delayed 45 minutes by rain and won by a scant 2 to 1 count by the North All-Stars over the Southerners.

Athletes Showing Well In Studies Announced By Uoff

GAINESVILLE, Fla.—Athletes at the University of Florida who completed outstanding scholastic records during the recently completed spring semester were listed today by Director of Athletics Bob Woodruff.

For Ross, Live Oak, who is attending the University on a football scholarship but because of an injury is serving as a student manager, led all athletic scholars with the excellent average of .87.

The University uses the honor point system of grading, with 4.0 equalling "A", 3.0 an "B", 2.0 an "C", and 1.0 equalling "D".

Of the 12 high athletes, scholastically, 11 are attending the university through football scholarships.

Guard Victor Agostini, Miami, was second high with 3.4, while Captain and Halfback Larry Scott, Pensacola, was next with 3.30.

The only non-football player on the list of top 12 was swimmer Ted Robinson, of Jacksonville, whose scholastic record for the semester was 3.3.

Others and their records were Tackle Jimmy Hatch, Live Oak, 3.1; Guard Ronald Luther, Ft. Worth, Tex., 3.1; Halfback Bob Davis, Belleville, Ill., 3.0; Fullback Mike Karaphillis, Tarpon Springs, 3.0; End George Sarris, St. Augustine, 3.0; Halfback Harry Wing, Gainesville, Fla., 2.9; Tackle Ross Winslow, Chula Vista, Calif., 2.7; and Guard Curt Haygood, Apopka, 2.6.

"We are inviting everyone to send in a ballot for their favorite players. Voters do not have to appear at parks on certain nights to have their ballots counted this year—all they will be asked to do is secure a ballot from the management for one of the six teams or write their selections on a sheet of paper and mail them to the FSL club nearest them," Krider emphasized.

"This type of balloting will probably provide the largest total vote ever compiled in the history of the game, thereby promoting interest. With sufficient interest in the balloting, we can promote this game and make it a record setter," he continued.

Radio stations, newspapers and other media around the league are assisting in distributing ballots and compiling totals. During the two week voting period, totals on the voting will be announced to keep fans posted on the progress.

HAL BOYLE

Drink Dependent Upon Mood

PARIS—It was twilight, my favorite hour in Paris, when I came to dear old Le Petit Pied Chaud, my favorite left bank sidewalk cafe, and sat down wearily in my favorite chair.

(This is the chair that has the worn seat marks of Ernest Hemingway reverently outlined with an indelible pencil each morning. The seat marks of Oscar Wilde are preserved on a mauve chair in the cafe around the corner.)

"Will m'sieu have a bit of his favorite wine?" inquired Macques, my favorite old sommelier (we call him "Mac"), who points poitirois for tourists in his off hours. Clean postcards, too—not a speck of dust on them.

I hesitated. In America what one drinks often determines how one lives. But to us sons and daughters of the left bank it is the other way around. How we feel determines what we drink. It is the difference between savagery and civilization.

"At the moment, Macques, I don't know which is my favorite wine," I confessed. "My mood is mixed."

"Perhaps m'sieu desires the crimson sacrament of Burgundy, or the southern wonder of Anjou," inquired Macques. "Does the luscious nectar of Bordeaux call to m'sieu, or the crunchy goodness of Alsace? Not perhaps, then, the classic of Cotes du Rhone?"

"Ah, no, Macques, I do not wish to be difficult, but their sounds fall upon my palate."

"I understand. It is possible that a nice drink of the pat' oie could be a source of a fountain of champagne."

"Indeed, it is," I said. "I could do with a little of that. You know how I feel about it. I've been drinking it for years."

"Now about selling me a couple

National League Bal Race Tight

NEW YORK—The National League batting race was as tight as its pennant chase today, with the Dodgers leading the Phillies dropped from second to third at 30. He's followed by Don Mueller of the Giants, 336; Ray Jablonski of St. Louis, 324; and Stan Musial, another Cardinal, with 331. Musial led off 12 points.

In the American League, Cleveland's Bobby Avila pinch-hit safely in his lone batting appearance last week and raised his average to .384. The 28-year-old Mexican second baseman is nursing a hand injury.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF
A HISTORIAN for the New York Central Railroad asserts that it was at Montrose, New York, back in 1870, that the line tried out the first device that enabled locomotives to pick up water without stopping. Employees soon referred to the process as "jerkling water," and consequently Montrose became known as a "jerk-water" town. Today, of course, a jerkwater town is any pleasant little place where somebody you don't like happens to live.

The wife of a big Wall Street trader gave their gangling, 13-year-old son a significant glance and told her husband, "Irving, you've been evading your duty long enough. It's high time you explained to your son the facts of life." Dreading every minute of it, Irving herded the lad into the study, cleared his throat nervously, and began, "My boy, I'm going to tell you all about the bulls and the bears."

YOU'RE TELLING ME!

By WILLIAM BRY
Central Press Writer
NEXT SEASON, according to a noted New York fashioneer, men's formal wear will be available in such new colors as "duck gray, yellow, pink and shades of blue." Shades of Beau Brummel, too!

In view of the above colorful news item it looks as though our faithful old black tax is doomed to become just a parking lot for minks.

A new racing car is only 32 inches high. That makes it about the biggest self-powered roller skate in the world.

It's explained that the reason Mikhail Botvinnik, world chess champion, didn't accompany the Russian team on its current visit to the U. S. is that he's too tired from a recent match. Golly, we always thought that the way to play chess was to completely relax at all times.

In Malaya hunters mistook a pal for a tiger, shot and wounded him. But he cuts out wearing striped suits.

A Guatemalan Communist leader has departed for Moscow for a rest. That's pretty drastic treatment so matter what ails him.

New York's state conservation department reports a type of black fly is eating up the destructive tent caterpillars. Looks like the crawlers will just have to pitch camp elsewhere.

Athletics Win Seven Of Nine After Settlement

CLEVELAND, (AP)—And so Eddie Jost and Gus Zernial were reconciled and the Philadelphia Athletics lived happily ever after.

The time element in that statement is somewhat exaggerated but the fact remains since Manager Jost reinstated Zernial in the A's lineup following their recent flareup, the A's have won seven of nine games.

Moreover, big Gus has been playing better than ever. He's hit safely five times in 10 trips to the plate. And he was largely responsible for three of the Philadelphia wins. Jost hopes he does as well against the first-place Cleveland Indians tonight.

Some second guessers are saying the Jost-Zernial tiff was one of the best things that could have happened to the sliding, hapless club.

Their row was a publicly-conducted affair 10 days ago. Gus and his manager were seen in the throes of an arm-waving hassle in front of the A's dugout in the early stages of a game with the Detroit Tigers.

Zernial was more than a little put out about being benched previously and the fact he was that night put into the sixth spot in the batting order instead of his customary cleanup position. The dispute ended with Gus being sent to the showers.

The next day Jost—after a conference with Zernial in the office of General Manager Barle Mack, announced Gus had been fined $350.

Mack said he guessed he'd have to go along with his manager.

Two days later, a much cooled-off Zernial stated publicly he was ready to take orders.

The 30-year-old Hodges took over with a total of 58,327 votes to Klusweck's 56,492.

Klusweck, the champion voter-getter last year, led in the start of the poll June 11.

Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals continued to lead individual voter-getters with a total of 71,414. Minnie Minoso of the Chicago White Sox was second with 66,435.

Softball League To Start Tonight With Doubleheader

A doubleheader will inaugurate play in the Seminole County Senior Softball League tonight at Ft. Mellon Park. Play will continue through August 10 and a playoff series between the leading contenders will follow immediately.

Tonight's action pits champion Wilson-Maler against FARRON 51 in the first game with Hobson Sporting Goods versus VC Five in the nightcap. National Guard, the loop's fifth entry, will wait out opening night play and face VC-5 in the Thursday wind-up finale.

The league will play each Tuesday and Thursday night.

TO FORGIVE IS DIVINE.

HILLISAL, Mich. (AP)—Hillisale College's baseball team wishes it could down this year's record book in ink eradicator. In 10 games the Dales committed 85 errors. Their record showed just four victories. A recent game humbled the Dales. They committed 11 errors and lost a 10-7 decision to Adrian.

Frankie Ryff, New Lightweight Flash, Ready For Step-Up

NEW YORK, (AP)—Frankie Ryff, a shiny new face in the lightweight division, is ready to step up in class after his impressive victory over Brian Kelly.

The 22-year-old New York lad, unbeaten in 12 pro fights, won a lopsided fight from Kelly last night at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway. He had the Niagara Falls, Ont., boxer on the floor in the eighth round.

Teddy Brenner, Eastern Parkway matchmaker, expects to pair Ryff with Orlando Zapata, the clever, high-ranked Cuban, or Ralph Duppa, the New Orleans schoolboy flash, in an Aug. 9 bout. He must wait that long because Ryff probably will have to take a six-week layoff as the result of an inch cut over his left eye.

Ryff is handled by Gus D'Amato, the manager of Floyd Patterson, unbeaten Olympic champ. "The kid is ready," said D'Amato. "He did a fine job on Kelly."

Referee Mark Conn and Judge Americo Zamora scored it 9-1. Sensational Judge Joe Epply 8-2. A crowd of 1,060 paid $2,430 to see the 31 favorite come through as expected with left hooks and left-right combinations.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—There are not likely to be any general expressions of regret from the rest of the American League at news that the Yankees are becoming seriously worried. A more popular reaction probably would be that it's about time. The five-time world champions are not universally loved and admired.

A spy close to the scene reports that there are unmistakable traces of gloom among the athletes as they head toward still another crucial series with the leading Cleveland Indians out West this coming weekend. He adds that, for the first time, Casey Stengel's high rollers are beginning to look over-learned and a little elderly under the burning sun.

It seems to have dawned suddenly upon the champs that the face is drawing toward the half-way mark and only five games separate first place with no slip in sight from any source, including their farm system. They never before have been in anything resembling their present plight since Stengel began his record-making managerial run.

It is not so much that the Yanks are falling to win their share. They have a matter of fact, won 14 of the 26 games they have played since June 2. But, during the same period, the torrid Indians have set a 15-5 pace, thus adding a full game to their advantage, and the Chicago White Sox have shown no signs whatever of faltering. This is an unusual experience for the champions, and it appears to have been a disconcerting one.

Our personal prophecies of doom for the Yankees places much significance in the fact that they no longer seem able to win doubleheaders. They have split nine in succession since they have played an accepted symptom of lack of pitching depth.

A close inspection of the record of Allie Reynolds, the veteran ace who must produce brilliantly if the Yanks are to pull out their series flag, does not hold forth any great promise. Though the Superchief holds a fine 8-1 victory record at this point, he is having his troubles. He has finished only 2 of 10 games he has started, and he has needed help in winning each of his last five decisions.

But for the comforting presence of Johnny Bain in his bullpen, Stengel plainly would be in poor shape.

Legion Team Goes To Winter Park

Legion Post 53 Junior baseball team journeyed to Winter Park this afternoon to open a four-week Legion summer play. The Campbell-Loring team initiated its season last week with a pair of victories over Leesburg, 10-6 and 5-0.

Coach Red Hires, who hurt on pitchers to handle the four successive games, tentatively planned to open with tricky Jim Hawkins and relieve him after four innings with Charlie Swann. "In this way," Hires said, "I can use them both again tomorrow night against Vero Beach." Post 53 will play the East Coast team in an exhibition affair preceding the Cardinal-Groveland tilt at Memorial Stadium tomorrow, entertain Winter Park in a return tour here Thursday and jaunt to Vero Beach Friday.

"It's a full week, and if we can't space Hawkins and Swann there's no telling who will have to try," Hires mused. "Pitching both of them three or four innings a game shouldn't hurt their effectiveness nor their pitching ability," he concluded.

Winter Park, in an attempt to post its first Legion win after a rain-out and a 7-1 drubbing by Orlando, was set to doubling the Sanford visitors with speedy Bobby Richmond, Richmond recorded no-hit high school victories this season.

Sanford Cardinals To Meet Groveland

Sanford's Cardinals, jubilant after posting a neat 3-1 win over the Vero Indians Sunday, will meet Groveland in a Legion competition tomorrow night at Memorial Stadium against Groveland.

The game, which is to be preceded by a exhibition game between Post 33's Legion team and Vero Beach, is expected to draw one of the largest turnouts of the season.

The regulations concerning the Seminole County Senior Softball League have been well calculated to create spectator and player interest in the diamond sport. No fuss, no bother. The rules have been laid down in a fashion which makes it quite clear that it is to be a fast, clear and interesting championship battle.

Of course, the playing rules are set down by the National Softball Association, the same ones that dominate play all over the United States. They are the regulations drawn up by league directors John Angel, Fred Ganas and Hugh Carlson, together with the team managers, that will insure a well-kept league organization.

The schedule has been broken down into two halves of play as will conclude with a championship playoff between the top four clubs. To avoid any late season, or even mid-season personal change which might affect the standings, a four-game lay-off will be enforced before the particular player may sign with another club. This is an excellent regulation and will discourage players with the "also-ran" from joining the front-runners, causing the weak to get weaker and the stronger to get stronger.

Toward hastening play, the rules call for the first game to get underway promptly at 7:30 p. m., no complete inning being allowed to start after 8:50 p. m. The second game is to start 15 minutes after the completion of the first, roughly at 9:15 p. m. No complete inning will begin after 10:10 p. m. in the nightcap. A game shall automatically be terminated if a team is 10 or more runs behind at the completion of four full innings, or any inning thereafter.

In order to avoid the tough, sluggish and splintered games which hinder spectator interest.

When play opens tonight, the defending champion, Wilson-Maler, will meet Sanford Navy's FARRON 51, an outfit of unknown potential. The second game of the twin-bill is between Robson Sporting Goods and a VC-5 nine. National Guard, the other entry, sits out opening night activity. Action is sure to be fast and furious out at Fort Mellon Park tonight, and, if the alertness of organization is any indication, interest will be high throughout the season.

Strange things do happen in sports and surely there will be a number of red faces around St. Paul, Minn., come July 21. It seems that Ed Furgol, the most envied golfer in the nation today by virtue of his win in the National Open Sunday, failed to qualify for the Professional Golfers' Association tourney at St. Paul beginning that date.

Following his dramatic sweep of the coveted open title, Furgol was asked if he planned to play in the PGA Championship and replied "How can I deny it?"

The sponsors of the National Open have just revamped their methods of exempting players from the necessity of qualifying and have lowered the maximum number of non-qualifiers from 10 to 18. It seems that a word to the wise would be sufficient and all of the major tournaments would allow winners of other major tourneys to compete without qualification.

Those are the people gaily fans pay to see and never forget that it is the fans that pay the way it any sport.

Learn to Swim---4

1. Floating face down is no way to rest for very long, because you can't breathe. It is now time to learn to float face up so you can breathe comfortably. Try it first by sitting on the bottom, laying the head back in the water and letting the feet rise.

2. Next, take one hand and then the other off the bottom. Do this gently and slowly and you will find that even though the heels still rest on the bottom you are to all intents and purposes really floating. A slight arm movement and your feet will begin to rise.

Resting on the Back

3. To float free in chest-deep water assume the same position. Lay the head back in the water, then move the arms gently a little farther back of the shoulders. If you have a fair margin of buoyancy this should bring the feet clear off the bottom.

4. If you have plenty of buoyancy, a little experimenting with the position of the arms, and by regulating the intake of air you will float in the horizontal position. If you lack that margin, however, you can rest comfortably with the body at a 45° angle.

State Pardon Board Turns Down Pleas Of Convicted Killers

TALLAHASSEE — Death warrants were in order today for three convicted killers after the State Pardon Board turned down their pleas for clemency.

The board, without comment, declined to commute to life imprisonment the death sentences against:

A. Elwood North, Lake Wales and Earl Masde undertaker who was accused of strangling Mrs. Betty Albritton, widow of a well-to-do rancher who had willed him all her property.

Orion Nathaniel Johnson, Negro who at the age of 16 years ten years ago killed Marion County Sheriff Edward Porter who had arrested him for theft of a dinner ticket.

George Bailey, who with another Negro was condemned to die for the robbery slaying of D. B. Port, sheriff county state operator near Tallahassee.

Acting Gov. Johns, who alone can send the men to the electric chair by issuing death warrants calling for their execution, told reporters:

"I'll issue them when we get around to it but the newspapers aren't going to pressure me into it."

He said he understood there are a dozen men awaiting death warrants and it is a duty he is going to carry out although "about 15" a day, "I have shirked because I fear it."

Warrants previously were issued for both North and Johnson but were withdrawn to permit them time to appeal.

North's conviction has twice been upheld by the state and federal supreme courts. Both courts

Living Costs Go Up Again

WASHINGTON, 18—The government reported today that living costs edged up three tenths of one per cent in May due to higher food prices.

The increase brought the index compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics to 115.9 per cent of the 1947-49 average, or the same level as was recorded for last August, November and February. In May of last year it was 114.6.

The increase meant a change in hourly wages for one million railroad workers whose pay rates are geared by labor contract to the May index. They had stood to lose one cent an hour if the May index was below 114.8.

The living cost increase between April and May was due chiefly to hikes in prices of the housewife paid at the corner grocery store.

Foods rose in 45 out of the 47 cities surveyed, averaging eight-tenths of one per cent higher in the month. Higher prices for meat, fresh fruits and vegetables, frozen juices and canned orange juice were reported.

Commissioner Ewan Clague of the Bureau of Labor Statistics said the May living cost increase didn't change his estimate that the country is experiencing considerable price stability, a condition he said he expects to continue for some months to come.

also have refused to set aside the Johnson conviction and death sentence.

In refusing clemency the board followed recommendations of the Pardon Commission which it had asked to investigate the cases.

It overruled an adverse commission recommendation, however, and granted a conditional pardon to Brown R. Haines who has served four months on a five-year sentence for accepting a $500 bribe while a member of the State Barber Board in 1949.

School To Instruct Driving Teachers Being Proposed

ORLANDO—An invitation for Central Florida high school teachers and police officers to attend a driver education course at Orlando Junior College was extended this week by Dr. Frank J. Pyle, president of the Orlando Rotary Club.

If enough applications are received for this "School for Teachers," the American Automobile Association will provide an expert instructor and arrange for a dual-control training car, according to Benson Barker of the Orlando AAA office.

Dr. Pyle issued his invitation by letter to high school principals, police chiefs and Rotary Clubs in seven counties and 23 cities and towns in Central Florida. He emphasized that dates for the course are Aug. 23 through Aug. 28.

Citing the current shortage of trained instructors, Dr. Pyle pointed out that there will be an even greater demand for them if the 1955 Legislature enacts a law making driving instruction available to high school students throughout the state.

He said AAA statistics show that high school students trained in driver education courses have 50 per cent fewer accidents than non-trained students.

Interested persons were advised to write Dr. Pyle, at 54 N. Orange Ave., or Benson Barker, 14 S. Main, both Orlando, for additional information about the course—a standard 16-hour course qualifying "graduates" to give such instruction to high school students.

Atty. Claude L. Gray, chairman of the Orlando AAA advisory board, and Walter M. Egger, Jacksonville, manager of the AAA's North Florida division agreed to co-operate with the Rotary Club in sponsoring the course.

B-47s Fly Non-Stop California To Japan

TOKYO, 18—Three American B-47s, built to carry the H-bomb, touched down today at the huge Yokota Air Base after a 6,700-mile nonstop flight from California.

It was the first flight to the Far East for the six-jet, swept-wing Boeing.

The stratojets were slightly more than 16 hours in the air from March Field, Calif. They were refueled in the air twice, over Hickam Field, Hawaii and over Midway in the Pacific.

President Summons GOP, Demo Leaders For Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower summoned Republican and Democratic congressional leaders and his chief military advisers to a series of huddles today to lay a solid foundation for his imminent talks with British Prime Minister Churchill.

Thirty key Senate and House members were scheduled to meet with the President and Secretary of State Dulles and to hear a report by Under-Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith on the deadlocked Geneva Conference.

These negotiations with the Communists on peace in Indochina are expected to figure largely in the Eisenhower-Churchill discussions which start Friday.

An hour and a half later, the National Security Council was ordered to a conference which the White House said was "necessary for the forthcoming Churchill-Smith talks."

Still later, Eisenhower arranged to see Dulles in a more private conference.

Eisenhower turned to another facet of this country's Far Eastern problems—the future of Japan—in a speech last night to the National Editorial Assn. He told a convention of editors of some 5,200 weekly newspapers that Japan is the "key to the defense" of the western Pacific.

"So it becomes absolutely mandatory for us," he said, "that Japan does not fall under the domination of the Soviets or into the hands of the Kremlin."

And, he said, Japan cannot live in the free world unless something is done to help her make her way. He suggested that Japan might go Communist if this country does not give her money and other help and the chance to trade not only with the West but with Red China as well.

Churchill and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden are due here Friday and will remain through Tuesday.

The trip was announced when it appeared the Geneva talks had failed, but evidence of the last few days indicating that an Indo-China peace might still be negotiated has created some uncertainty about the talks.

Smith, No. 2 man in the State Department, returned from Geneva yesterday. En route he saw French Premier Mendès-France. It was understood Smith returned with these impressions:

1. That the Geneva conference has demonstrated the Chinese Communists and the Russians alike have no intention of making any real concessions to obtain peace in Indochina.

2. That Eden believes the time has come for Britain to follow a much firmer policy regarding the (Continued On Page Three)

Light From A-Burst Can Cause Eyes To Explode, Doctors Say

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The light from an atomic explosion can cause fluid in the eyes to turn to steam and explode, four doctors from the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Field, Tex., reported today.

Rays from a bomb of the Hiroshima type can injure eyes 4 1/2 miles away, they told the American Medical Assn.

The physicians, Dr. Victor A. Brynes, Dr. David V. L. Brown, Dr. Heinrich W. Ross and Dr. Paul A. Gilbert, listed the effects of atomic light at the atomic tests on the Nevada desert. They used rabbits for subjects.

In exceptionally clear air and at night, when the eye is adapted to night vision, the light injured rabbit eyes as far as 6 1/2 miles away. Atomic light is the same as direct sunlight, but the first flash is

Des Moines In Peril From Massive Flood

DES MOINES (AP)—As hundreds of families fled their homes, volunteer workers labored furiously today to repel the biggest flood threat the Des Moines River ever has thrown at this city of 178,000.

As the river pushed rapidly toward a massive crest of 29 to 30 feet—three feet higher than any previously recorded here—the big question being asked on every hand was: Will the dikes, rebuilt and strengthened after the disastrous 1947 flood which claimed two lives and caused millions of dollars in property damage, hold against the angry waters?

If they do not, city officials warned, the flood-ravaged area might be flooded and more than 1,000 families left homeless.

"This city is faced with the worst flood situation in its entire history," Mayor Joseph N. Brewster said in proclaiming a flood emergency.

The Des Moines River, swollen by torrential rains, flows directly through the center of the city. It runs through a secondary residential district and past the business, commercial and railroad areas. The main business district is out of reach of the flooding.

More than a thousand volunteer workers turned out last night to help build the levees higher.

Two major trouble spots developed, both in southeast Des Moines. Water was pouring through a break in a levee left for a railroad track and workers were busy trying to plug the gap with sandbags.

Another break developed near the Scott Street bridge, where the Des Moines and Haccoun rivers meet. Debris piled against the bridge and the water coursing against the levee snawing away large chunks of dirt.

Four bulldozers were in action just north of the City Hall building, a half section of the dikes. If water came through there, city officials said, it might flood the City Hall, where flood headquarters is located.

The direct peril to Des Moines was the latest major development in a solid week of continuing flood crises throughout northwest and throughout northwest and north central Iowa.

The threat, however, had eased as Sioux City, where the emergency was declared ended yesterday, and at Mason City, in northern Iowa. Evacuees in both towns were moving back to their homes.

The crisis also had eased at Fort Dodge, Webster City, Boone and other central Iowa towns, but the most serious flooding since 1947 was expected at Waterloo and Cedar Rapids, in northern Iowa, on the Cedar River, Saturday and Sunday.

A new service station, Max's 66 Service opened a few days ago at the corner of 3rd St. and Park Ave., according to its owner-operator, Max Funder.

DeBary Post Office Will Be Advanced

On July 1 the DeBary Post Office will advance to the second class division. This office was established on Oct. 1, 1949, as a fourth class office with Walter Hani as acting postmaster.

At that time, there were fewer than 150 people living in DeBary, but there has been very rapid growth since that time and now the population is about 1,400. Mr. Hani now is the regular postmaster and has an assistant to help handle the volume of mail in and out. There are two deliveries daily.

Joel Field Postmaster In Sanford 10 Years

By PETE OSBORNE

You wouldn't know the Sanford post office if you hadn't seen it for 10 years. Physical improvements to the building include a new roof, a fluorescent lighting system throughout, and a complete land-scaping of the lawn. Field was commissioned by former president Franklin D. Roosevelt as Sanford postmaster.

The bespectacled, mid-mannered, gray-haired gentleman speaks modestly of the "vast number of changes which have taken place during his administration. "Of course, though we've doubled our manpower, you must remember the increase in the area which we serve in the city proper, we have added Goldborough, Highland Park, Franklin Terrace, Wynwood, Buena Vista, Mayfair, Bel-Air and Fairview. All of these subdivisions are now served by city carriers," the postmaster points out.

Field, who first came to Sanford in 1944, has several city carriers among his 25-employee staff. One of the first things you notice upon entering his office is the certificate of commendation awarded by then president Franklin Roosevelt. It immediately above the certificate is a reproduction of the famed un-

U. S. Firm In Stand On Issue

Warning Given To Guatemala

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States today firmly opposed Guatemala's request that the U. N. Security Council meet at once to act against the Central American fighting.

U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., the council president for June, last night warned Guatemala against becoming a "cat's paw" of the Soviet conspiracy to meddle in the Western Hemisphere.

Lodge said the council by a 10-1 vote Sunday had shown "it emphatically believed that the Organization of American States was the place to try to settle the Guatemalan problem. The Soviet Union cast the negative vote, a veto, killing the move to refer the issue to the regional organization."

Despite the Lodge statement, Guatemala, headed by a 10-1 vote Sunday had shown "it emphatically believed that the Organization of American States was the place to try to settle the Guatemalan problem. The Soviet Union cast the negative vote, a veto, killing the move to refer the issue to the regional organization."

Castillo Arriola wrote that in defiance of the council's ceasefire call voted last Sunday, "the aggressive acts have continued against the neighboring countries of Honduras and Nicaragua, and on the ground from airfields and centers of operation situated outside Guatemalan territory."

The letter renewed Guatemala's charges that neighboring Honduras and Nicaragua were aiding the "mercenary forces" invading Guatemala, and asked the council to compel the two countries to cease all aid or consent for such aggressive acts.

The same charges against Honduras and Nicaragua will be discussed later today by the five-nation Inter-American Peace Commission in Washington.

Honduras' aid is expected to deliver the Guatemalan request for a council meeting to Lodge some time today for action.

Should Lodge refuse to call a meeting, the other 10 council members could force one by asking for it. Other non-Communist delegates on the council, however, showed no disposition last night to act against his opposition.

Lodge's statement said he saw no reason to believe that the Soviet Union would support the Guatemalan plea to refer the regional organization. "Those who continually seek to agitate the council to act against the United States," he said, "are the real culprits in this matter."

Envoys Of Three Countries Agree On Plan For Defense

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—The foreign ministers of Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands agreed today on an alternative plan for common defense in case the European Defense Community fails to materialize, the Dutch Parliament was told.

The nature of the alternative was not disclosed. Defense Minister Cornelis Staf told Parliament the Benelux countries do not consider a direct military tie-in with West Germany an adequate solution, but hinted German troops would have to figure in the new plan. He said the northeastern flank of the Netherlands could not be defended effectively without German help.

Staf said the foreign ministers of the three Benelux countries agreed unanimously on the alternative program in a meeting in Luxembourg.

Informal sources indicated the ministers discussed EDC in the light of a congressional agreement aimed at halting American military aid to prospective partners in the six-nation pact which have not ratified EDC. France and Italy have yet to act. The pact has been approved by West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Little Info Is Given In Report

Anti-Red Leader Moves His Base

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—The Honduran government said last night mysterious planes had bombed a town in Honduras. The report touched off speculation that invaded Guatemala may be striking back at the neighbor from whose soil Guatemalan rebels launched their drive against President Jacobo Arben Guzman's regime.

The Foreign Ministry said the planes bombed the town of Santa Rosa de Copan, key road junction 21 miles from the Guatemalan frontier. The terse announcement made no mention of casualties, but of many planes in the raid.

Guatemala has accused Honduras and Nicaragua of being the bases for land and air aggression against its government. It says the two countries have challenged Guatemala to prove the charges.

Guatemala pressed demands in New York early today for a second urgent session of the U. N. Security Council, charging Honduras and Nicaragua were continuing to aid the invaders. Council President Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. of the United States led the Organization of American States, and the U. N., Guatemala could appear a "cat's-paw" for a Soviet conspiracy to meddle in the Western Hemisphere.

Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, leader of the anti-Communist Guatemalan forces, moved his headquarters last night from Honduras to Equiquil, about six miles inside the homeland.

The insurgent leader said his invading troops are "not fighting the Guatemalan army or the Guatemalan people, only the Communist government" of leftist President Arben.

He said he was not passing the fight further because he does not and "cannot" expect a breakdown. He said there had been no heavy battles with federal troops so far, but that there have been several minor skirmishes and some casualties.

Reports from various points last night told of scattered light action. Guatemala City reported a rebel plane strafed the California Standard gasoline tanks there and harassed a military encampment at the edge of the capital.

Informal sources in El Salvador said an airlift of U.S. citizens out of Guatemala would begin today, dispatches from Guatemala City made no mention of evacuation plans. There are some 1,200 North Americans in the country.

In Mexico City, Guatemalan Ambassador Roberto Alvarado Fuentes said "Arben's forces scored three victories yesterday. He said he had learned in a phone call from his capital that they had routed the rebels at Guatan and Atiquilpa, near the Honduran border, and had counterattacked at the big port city of Puerto Barrios, a prime rebel target.

A rebel communique said anti-Communist forces have captured three Guatemalan villages and knocked out two of them near the vital rail town of Zacapa.

The rebels also claimed to have cut the Pan American Highway in Guatemala near the El Salvador border. Reports from El Salvador said the highway was closed at the border point.

Private advices from Guatemala said the town of Panama, near (Continued On Page Three)

Tobacco Industry Views Report Of Cancer Body As 'Preliminary'

NEW YORK (AP)—Further study and experimentation are necessary, the tobacco industry says, to pin down the causes of cancer and heart disease.

It views as "preliminary" the new report of the American Cancer Society indicating cigarette smoking cuts the life span.

The tobacco industry's attitude was made public yesterday in a statement issued through Dr. Clarence Cook Little, newly appointed director for a scientific committee set up to study the effects of tobacco on health.

Dr. Little termed "of vital interest" the findings of the scientists who made the study for the cancer society but took the position that more proof is needed. "The present dramatic situation emphasizes the need for greatly extended, amplified and diversified basic research on the relation of various habits of the different types of human beings to their health and well-being throughout their life cycles."

"The cancer and development of cancer and of cardiovascular diseases are complex problems, offering the greatest existing challenge to creative scientific thought and to further experimentation wisely conceived, patiently executed and fearlessly and impartially interpreted in our search for the truth."
