Iraqi Diary: Where can a soldier get a drink?

Editor's note: Staff Sergeant Charlie C. Carlson III, son of Sanford Historian Charlie C. Carlson II, is currently deployed in Baghdad, Iraq as part of the 549th Military Police Company. Carlson has provided a continuing journal of his experiences in Iraq, which the Heraid will publish over the next

May 15, 2003 We got up after a wonderful night of aleeping in the greasy machine shop of this factory. Me and a couple of other NCOs built an outhouse which looks pretty nice. We will use this as our latrine until there is something better. We got some pallets from the cigarette-making area of the factory and used those for the flooring. I went upstairs and found the rest of the Nightstalker gang having fun jump-who knows what else.

Sgt. Johnson was trying to throw a cord over one of the light fixtures and was using his pocket knife as a weight. He threw it up and it opened in mid-flight and came down and sliced his left ring finger. There was blood pouring out so we took him to ing around in a ruom filled with cig- the medic who put in four stitches.

Another guy had to leave on emergency leave to the states, but instead of flying him out of Baghdad airport they sent him on a convoy 300 miles to Doha, Kuwait to fly out of there.

I heard again that we may be extended one more time. This deployment is really messed up. Somebody did not plan well for this operation and at this point morale is

I took a real shower today, if you can call it a shower, it reminded me of the shower on MASH.

I guess all the lucky units are returning to the states to a glorified welcome home, most of those were not involved with the actual combet. The real warriors who did the fighting are still stuck here with no glory. We have definitely found out that the Way Home is Not Through Baghdad. I think that was just something to keep everybody hyped up in support this operation.

We are still eating MREs while the 2nd ACR, that we are attached to, has an MKT [Mobile Kitchen Trailer for hot meals. They say we are self-sufficient. I think that means we have to fend for ourselves.

It is very hot here, but at the present we are rationed two bottles of drinking water per day, but some-times must make it last for two days.

The mail system isn't very good, I'm still missing mail and packages that were sent over a month ago. I've yet to get your first letter. Isn't it odd that you cannot send pork products through the mail to us because it might offend the Iraqis, but we can level their whole country with bombs. I'm glad we didn't bomb why is it that people send cookies to combat soldiers while guys our age, who are safe on college campuses, get to drink beer? I can tell you that these grunts would rather have a six pack of beer, a carton of smokes, a can of Skoal and a Playboy magazine, and toilet paper. Don't forget to send some dry drink mix.

There seems to be no light at the end of the tunnel. We wonder if I will ever get home again to see my boys. Will we spend the next year living in the filthy machine shop of a cigarette factory, patrolling the not-so-safe streets of Baghdad, in urban combat with snipers taking pot shots at us?

I'm in charge of a patrol in our sector of Begndad. I worry mainly about some aniper taking me out or one of my soldiers getting shot. It would be much easier to worry about myself but I have other lives to be concerned with too. I have some young soldiers, good young men and women.

It amasse me how America sends its best young people to risk their lives and dis, while the lowities, drag dealers, minits, and street criminals still walk the streets back home to breed more of their kind. Sounds a little counter-productive to me.

We have good soldlers, black, white, Hispanic, male and female, they are all great warriors, smart, welltrained, and you'd be proud of them. I worry about their safety, and mine too, because there's a million hiding places in this urban environment, it isn't like the battlefield. Every window, door or alley way can harbor a potential threat. I have a scratch on my face from some concrete, I think a round hit a wall that I was behind and chipped off some concrete. It's minor. We suffer a KIA [killed in action] or wounded each day in this city. We try not to think about that, but that's not easy to do.

May 16, 2003 I'm in charge of three teams which make up the patrol. Each team has a female soldier who is a gunner or driver. Alpha team only has two soldiers, the leader and driver is a female, the gunner is a male soldier. Bravo team has a female gunner and C-team has both a female gunner and driver. These make up the Nightstallers.

When people talk about "our boys over here" they exclude the many female soldiers who are faced with the same risks. Of course there are no "boys" over here anyway, and I detest my soldiers being seferred to as "boys." I don't think most people know much about the army except what they see in movies or read in books.

I have led several mobile presence patrols of Nightstalkers in Baghdad's ghetto areas. I had a chaplain riding with me and we got out to take some photographs. I was away from the vehicle and realized how easy it would be for a sniper to take me and the chaplain out. It was in an area of tall apartment buildings and houses with dirt roads.

Yesterday, we were the RRF [Ready Reaction Force] at the JOC Boint Operations Canter located at the Irique Police Academy. Sgt. Daugherty was shot in the right arm the other day but is doing fine and has gone home. I'm trying to get two of my soldiers a browns star for treir raission of picking up prisoners during the war. I'm trying to find some of those playing cards that has the most wanted Irique on them. I guess those are only sold to civilians in the states, none of us in Baghdad has security.

Tonight, I'm going on night petrol with the 2nd Armored Cavalry. Two of their guys from our camp were killed. I'm being safe and careful.

The sounds of automatic fire is so common here it is the norm. When Bush said that the war was over, I thought to myself that I had made it alive and well. I should say that I am alive and well right now but this war is far from over.

I can't believe that I'm leading a squad in down-town Beghdad. I leave the wire with my 9mm locked and loaded. Everyone's M-16 and 9mm will be sad site: tus with a round in the chamber. I leave my M-16 here at base preferring instead to carry the shotgun. There are still some leftover Republican Guards and Fedaysen types out there shooting at U.S. personnel. We get waves and thumbs up from people on the street but can't tell whose friendly and who is not. There are pienty of anti-American issings here.

Next leave: Tea with the enemy, capturing an Iraqi general.

premiums, bringing the county's cost to approximately $1.47 million.

To keep the county's cost as low as possible - an 8.99 percent increase from the 2002-2003 premiums or a total of approximately $1.36 million the county would need to switch a portion of the cost burden to employees. If commissioners opt for this alternative, employees will be left with the brunt of a $5 increase for office visits and prescription drugs, an increase from $250 to $500 for Inpatient hospital stays and a $10 increase in urgent care visits. · "It's getting to the point that the average employee won't be able to go to the doctor, or get a prescription filled, because of co-pays," said Van Der Welde. "I'm concerned with our low paid employees. I'm not sure what they can and can't handle. We need to do what we can to protect our employees."

Neither plan would effect the monthly premium expense for employees since the county covers 100 percent of this fee. It would, however, have a drastic effect on the costs for spouses and children, since the county pays only 50 percent, leaving the remainder for the employee

Under the plan seeing a 16.5 percent increase, dependents increase will range from $26 to $65, based on the number of dependents and whether the employee is enrolled in an HMO or POS plan. However, the 8.99 percent increase would see a range increase of only $14 to

"We are still taking very good care of our employees," said Chairman Daryl McLain. "I don't know of any companies who pay 50 percent of the dependents costs.

"These benefits are well within the line of comparable benefits in the private sector," he added.

Colonial offers backpacks to students

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter Staff Writer

The Seminole County Eighth Annual Back to School Fair will take place at Milwee Middle School and Sanford Middle School Saturday.

More than 6,000 elemen-tary and middle school students and their parents from throughout Seminole County were invited to participate in the event based on their financial needs.

The fair is designed to give children, whose parents are unable to provide school supplies due to difficult financial situations, an opportunity to begin school on a level playing field with other children.

According to Mariene Baranowski of Seminole County Public Schools, more than 2,500 youth are expected at this year's fair.

The students will receive a backpack full of school supplies, a clothing voucher for new clothes and a book from Scholastic Book Fairs. In addition, free immuniza-tions, Scoliosis exams, and vision screenings, with glasses provided if needed, will

Foundation receives $50,000 grant

The Foundation for Seminole County Public Schools (SCPS) recently received a $50,000 grant from Progress Energy to fund college degrees and classroom teacher certifications for SCPS non-instructional employees or current teachers who are seek-ing certain subject certifications. The grant funds give aspiring teachers and/or teachers in County the existing Seminole opportunity to obtain certification in the areas of math, science, technology and computer science at Seminole Community College, the University of Central Florida or the institute of higher learning of their choice through The Progress Energy Technical Teaching Institute - a partnership between The Foundation and Progress Energy.

One hundred percent of the $50,000 grant goes toward the tuition fees charged by the institution where classes are taken.

Established in 1986, The Foundation for Seminole County Public Schools raises funds to further enhance the superior performance of students and teachers in Seminole County Public Schools. Money raised is used to support programs such as scholarships, classroom grants, and recogni-tion and rewards for students and teachers in Seminole County. For more information regarding The Foundation for Seminole County Public Schools, please call Tina Calderone at 407-320-0180.

Altamonte to receive great honor

The City of Altamonte Springs and Seminole County are gearing up for the Olympic Games in more ways than one. The United States Olympic Committee (USOC) has granted the official Olympic rings to the Merrill Park Softball Complex in Altemonte Springs.

The colours of the interlinked Olympic rines were chosen by the integrational Olympic Committee (IOC) to represent the union of the five continents and the meeting of the athletes from around the world at the Olympic Games. Today, almost a century after the flag's creation, the six colours, those of the rings (blue, yellow, black, green and red) and that of the white background which stands for peace, still maintain their symbolism and can be found in flags across the world. The Olympic rings will now be placed on the fields and on signage throughout Merrill Park, the stateof-the-art facility acclaimed as The Official USA Softball National Training Center - East Coast.

"We are ecstatic to work with Altamonte Sports and the City of Altamonte Springs whose community leaders and residents understand the value of our national team program and continue to support our teams as they prepare to win gold medals for the U.S. in Athens in 2004," said Ron Radigonda, executive director for the American Softball Association (ASA).

"This prestigious designation cou-pled with the launch of the $1.2 milion master development plan, will put Merrill Park and Altamonte Springs on the map as a world-class sports venue," said Jason Weeks, director of Altamonte Sports.

B.J. McLeod who took the lead on the green. Following McLeod was Fleckinger, Wayne Parker, Guy Thomas and Brock Oglesby. Parker passes Fleckinger and takes over second looking towards McLeod. David Rogers passes Oblesby and takes over flith putting Oglesby sixth.

Just when it looks like clear sailing for a win for McLeod, on lap 16 Bobby Fleckinger brought out the yellow when he spun on the frontstretch. McLeod holds the lead on the restart followed by Parker, Rogers who has worked his way to third,

Thomas, and Oglesby.

Lap 19 the yellow is flown again when Fleckinger spun between turns 3 and 4. Not what McLeod needed for a win. On the restart, David Rogers passes McLeod and takes over the point. Parker and McLeod go side-by-side with one of the closest finishes for second that we have seen in a very long time. Rogers takes the checkered with Parker in second but an inch followed by McLeod, Guy Thomas and Brock Oglesby.

Coming to the checker, Fleckinger and Mike Finn spin. Finn makes the show when he crosses the finish line backwards and waves to the crowd who are giving him the high five for a great show.

Ben Hutto had the pole for the 15 lap Mini Stock feature but it was Ted "Mr Mini Stock" Vulplus who took the lead on the green and never looked back. Following Vulpius was David Castello, Rex Christensen, Tim "Missileman" McPhall, and Wayne Clark.

Castello slips back to fourth with Christensen in second and McPhail in third. Christensen and McPhail do some side-byside action for second with McPhail taking the postion and Christensen in third. On lap 14 after running a good race and fifth, Wayne Clark retires his No. 15 to the pits with Chris Jones taking over fifth. Vulpius takes the checkered followed by Tim "Missileman" McPhail, Rex Christensen, David Castello and Chris

Twenty three Strictly Stocks ran the 25 lap Special. Roger Benton sat on the pele and took the lead on the green followed by Eric Hodge, Bert Ward, Roger LaDieu, and Tim Edmondson. On lap 1, Jeremy Hovencamp brought out the yellow when he spun on the backstretch. Benton holds the point trut on lap 2, Thomas Dorman spun on the entrance to pit road and the yellow is flown again. Benton holds the point for the restart but it is Bert Ward who takes over the lead followed by Benton, Kerry Payne, Curtis Smith, and Tim

On lap 6, Mike Wofford and the No. 58 tangle in turn two. On the restart, Curtis Smith jumps to the lead followed by Ward. Benton, Payne and Edmiliated. 129 8, Hovencamp spins on the frontstretch and slightly hits the inside pit wall. Hovencamp gets the car going again and returns to racing. Smith holds the point on the restart but on lap 10, John Zimmerman brings out the caution when he is in the wall at the top of turns 1 and 2.

On the restart, Eric Hodge spun on the frontifretch geiting temporarily stuck in the mud but is able to get his car out and return to racing. Ward holds the point on the restart with Benton, Payne, Edmundson, and Barry Parks in the top five. The caution is flown again for a car that has spun at the bottom of turns 1 and 2.

Ward holds the point on the restart but on lap 13, Parks brings out the yellow when his tire goes down and he goes into the turn 1 wall. Parks is okay but done for the night. Ward holds the point for the restart fol-lowed by Benton, Payne, Edmundson, and

Lap 21 Eric Hodge brought out the last caution of the night when he spun between turns 3 and 4. Ward holds the point for the restart and takes the checkered followed by Benton, Hovencamp, Edmundson, and

AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR CHURCH

Dear Friends,

#20KIT

This area is truly blessed to have so many houses of worship, which have played such an important part in the development and continuence of this area's rich religious heritage.

Sharing the news of your church is not always easy with new people in the area, or residents who may not know about your church. We at the Seminote Herald want to help spread the good news of your congregation to our readers and visitors.

The Seminole Herald will publish a directory of worship for the area. This Publication will have profiles on area churches. Each church that chooses to participate will need to provide a written profile highlighting its history, worship achedule, paster or other pertinent information. The Herald will take a photograph of each church.

This special publication "Come Worship with Us" will publish in the Seminois Herald on Wednesday, September 10, 2005. The Deadline for copy is Monday, August 18, 2005.

The costs to publish your church's profile are as foliows:
Full-page - $275, 1/2 page - $160, 1/4 page - $95. Color may be added for an additional $175. We also have premium rates set for the center spread and back page of the adition.

It is certainly our hope that the information we will be sharing through this publication will be a blessing to you, your congregations and the area as a whole. To reserve space for your church profile, please call me at 407-322-2611, ext. 11, or small to dautton@seminoleherald.com

Vith our very best wishes,

en Sutton
