UPROAR CREATED WHEN MENTION IS MADE OF WILSON

Delegates Join in Paying Noisy Tribute to Memory of Late President Who Led His Party Through War

NEW YORK, June 25.—The name of Woodrow Wilson was mentioned again today at the Democratic national convention and sent the party's 1924 convention roaring on its way Tuesday.

Once again, as four years ago in San Francisco, a mighty chant of approval swept up from the crowded floor as his name fell from the lips of a party spokesman. But this time it was a greeting to a leader, dead and at peace amid his honors. Four years ago it was to a stricken, pain-racked chieflain imprisoned in the White House by his enemies.

UNDERWOOD IS FEELING GOOD OVER OUTLOOK

Herald's Special Correspondent at Convention Says Alabama Senator Is Strangely Optimistic Over Chances For His Nomination and For His Anti-Klan Plank to Be Adopted—Sidelights on Show Are Given as Convention Faces Struggle

By RUBY LEACH
Special Correspondent The Herald.
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, N. Y., June 25.—Oscar Underwood, aspirant to the presidential chair via the Madison Square Garden, was amazingly optimistic last night when he received the public informally at his camp at the Waldorf Astoria. The gossip floating about the lobbies to the effect that erstwhile Underwood satellites are now revolving about political constellations more amicable to the Ku Klux, made the Alabama single self-assurance the more surprising.

"Tell the people of Florida," he told me, when it came my turn to grasp his hand a minute, "that I deeply appreciate the support they gave me in the June primary. I shall always be grateful to them for that. Maybe I'll have to come out in this campaign and fight the battle field, and then I'll deliver this message myself to the Florida people."

I wanted to talk longer, but there were hundreds of persons in line behind me who were infected with the same desire and so I passed on.

Underwood reminded me of a pleasant excursion boat, comfortable, making day-trips up the Hudson, only sized amidships, that I saw McAdoo brought to my mind a long, narrow, white steamer, built for speed and deep sea.

Underwood will be nominated by Johnson of Birmingham. Governor Brandon of Alabama had planned to nominate him but he has refused since Underwood has taken a stand against the Klan. Everybody in national political circles knows Pat Murphy, just as everybody in Florida knows him. Mrs. Zoe Nauman of Miami and I followed Pat about last night and discovered that his name is an "open sesame" into the McAdoo world and innermost political sanctuaries.

"I've been here for some time with my ear to the ground," Pat said, "and I've come to conclusion that this is, to now, anybody's guess, the nomination of McAdoo."

Pat says that everyone asks all sorts of questions about Bryan and Florida. "Today's session showed me that peace will prevail in the convention and that no matter who wins the nomination the party will support him after hearing the great speech from Pat Harrison."

Lack of Electric Current Causes The Herald To Reach Its Readers Late

The Sanford Herald reaches its readers unusually late today. Ordinarily of press between 4 and 4:15 o'clock this paper was able to get the papers out until almost 7 o'clock. From 3:20 o'clock until 4:52 o'clock this office was entirely without electricity. This means that for one hour and 32 minutes, all the machines in the plant were idle while the operators stood around unable to do anything to get the paper out.

Unfortunately all newspapers are almost wholly dependent upon electricity for their motive power being able to operate the various machines which are required to assemble the paper. The Herald's troubles did not end when the current was turned on at 4:52 o'clock for the metal pots on the linotype machines, which are heated by electricity, had become cold and an additional 45 minutes were required to heat the metal sufficiently so that it could be cast into type.

So today's paper comes to you about three hours late. Moreover because it was so late, several stories had to be left out in order to get it to the readers before time to issue Thursday's paper. Speeches placing Al Smith, Oscar W. Underwood, James M. Cox and others in nomination for the presidency, were among the stories that were ruled out.

During the period when the "juice" was off, efforts were made to find out the cause of the power being cut, as well as to find out when it would be turned on again. These efforts, however, were of little help. The only reply that was forthcoming in answer to the question when the current would be on was "in just a few minutes."

After the current was finally turned on, Manager C. A. Byrd of the local Southern Utilities Plant, informed the office that the trouble had been caused by a short circuit, which in turn had been caused by a tree falling across wires at Magnolia Avenue and Sixth Street which tied up the current all over town. Here three wires supplying three different circuits in the city were thrown in one mass and the current was promptly cut off throughout the city.

Immediately, Manager Byrd declared, efforts were made to locate the source of trouble and when it was discovered work was started at once. In their work, the workmen of the plant were greatly handicapped because there was no telephone service to the company's plant on the east side of the city, said Mr. Byrd.

HARRY P. WALSH MAJORITY RULE WILL AGAIN BE TURNED DOWN BY COMMITTEE

Active Head of Florida Vegetable Corporation Is Chosen By Board To Serve In This Capacity Next Season

Harry L. Walsh, who has been general sales manager of the Florida Vegetable Corporation for the past three months, having succeeded F. D. Dutton when the latter resigned, will be retained in the personnel of the management for another year, it was learned today. Mr. Walsh was appointed for another year at a recent meeting of the board of directors of that organization.

News of Mr. Walsh's reappointment will set at rest rumors that there would be a change made in the personnel of the management or at least a change in the sales manager's office. It has been learned that the board was well pleased with Mr. Walsh's conduct of the affairs of the office and his reappointment, it was pointed out, comes as a manifestation of further confidence in him.

Mr. Walsh's many years of experience in the handling, packing and selling of fruit and vegetable products, makes him well fitted to handle the responsible position which he now holds. It is further stated that for 18 years he was in the produce business in Detroit, buying and handling perishable products of all kinds. For 10 years he was associated with R. B. Chapman in the production of celery and other vegetable products.

In an interview this morning, Mr. Walsh told a representative of The Sanford Herald that he predicted a much more successful year next season for the growers in this section than they had last year. This, of course, means that the Florida Vegetable Corporation is expected to have a better season.

"During the past year this organization, but a little more than a year old, paid to truckers and growers near Sanford over $2,000,000," said Mr. Walsh. A gross income of approximately $200,000 was made by the corporation, he further stated. The operating expenses of the corporation were high, necessarily, during the first year of its operation, Mr. Walsh pointed out.

Underwood, McAdoo Placed in Nomination; Klan Fight Apparent

COUNTRY MUST RETURN TO THE IDEALS OF WILSON, SAYS WALSH

NEW YORK, June 25.—The American people will be on trial before the world in the coming presidential campaign, Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, declared today in an address upon assuming the permanent chairmanship of the Democratic National Convention.

The issue, he asserted, will be whether the American people will continue in power the party now in control of the government notwithstanding the scandals which have been disclosed in senate investigations.

"I cannot admit the accusation," Senator Walsh said, "that the American people are indifferent to the corrupting influence of corruption in office, high or low. But we shall see. They are on trial. If, notwithstanding what has transpired the party now in power in the nation is continued in control by the choice of the people of the United States, apparent or real, what judgment must be passed upon them by the world? They enjoy the distinction of having erected and maintained a government whose officers are as free from suspicion of venality as those of any nation on earth, and they will NOT, I venture to predict, forfeit it."

Senator Walsh said President Coolidge had historic warrant for his attitude, recalling that when the British House of Commons sought to investigate the Duke of Buckingham, Charles would not permit it.

"Charles lost his head," the senator added, "and Calvin Coolidge may profit politically by his example."

Declaring the Republican party to be impotent in the face of "an impending national calamity," Senator Walsh said that because of antagonisms within its ranks it had ceased to be an organization through which the business of the country can be carried on.

WATER OF THIRD WELL DRILLED IS OF FINE QUALITY

City Manager Receives Excellent Report on Sample of Water Sent to Jacksonville to Be Analyzed

City Manager W. B. Williams is in receipt of a letter from Joseph E. Craig, engineer, stating that the last sample of water from one of the city's new waterworks wells is an entirely soft water, much better than the water from the first well which was found to be a very desirable water. The second well drilled was nearer the location of the new waterworks plant than the first but produced a sulphur water similar to that of the first well of the Southern Utilities Company and was therefore undesirable. The third well is on the same property as the first and has proved to be the best yet drilled by the city.

According to the statement made by Mr. Craig there are about 70 parts per million of chlorides in the water from the third well, but this is not enough to have even the least harmful effect. Although a complete analysis has not yet been made he feels sure that the water will be as good as better than the water provided by the waterworks at Orange City, which is considered the best water provided by such a plant in the state.

Two additional wells are being drilled of which one is almost ready to be tested and the other has just been started, said Mr. Williams. Four wells will be retained by the city and in addition Lake Ada will be used to supply the same volume of water as may be supplied by one of the wells. Well No. 3 and Lake Ada will supply enough water for Sanford at present, Mr. Williams explained, but the city is looking out for the future and does not wish to be caught napping. He added that the (Continued on page 6)

Miss Ruby Leach Is Covering Sessions

Miss Ruby Leach, a newspaper woman of wide and varied experience, has been secured by The Sanford Herald to contribute daily articles on the happenings at the National Democratic Convention being held in New York.

Miss Leach was for several years connected with the Miami Metropolis and is widely known for her newspaper work. Her stories, written exclusively for The Sanford Herald, will consist in news from the convention in general.

JAMES PHELAN PLACES M'ADOO IN NOMINATION

California's Former Treasurer Department Head In His Speech To Convention Today

NEW YORK, June 25.—William G. McAdoo was placed in nomination for the presidency at the Democratic National Convention today by former Senator D. Phelan of California, with the declaration that he is the "natural leader of progressive thought and achievement."

Struggle Over Klan Plank Is Evident As the Nominating Speeches Are Begun

Walsh Formally Made Chairman

Uproar Grets Montana Man as he Begins Convention Speech

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, June 25.—Amid scenes almost without parallel in party history, the Democratic National Convention today began to grapple with two great issues before it—the nomination of a presidential candidate and the determination of the party's attitude toward the Ku Klux Klan.

Scarcely had the nomination speeches for president begun when the vast hall was thrown into chaos by a prolonged demonstration provoked by reference to the positive stand against the Klan taken by Underwood of Alabama.

The name of William Gibbs McAdoo was placed in nomination by Frank D. Phelan, of California, and that of Oscar W. Underwood was formally presented by Farnay Johnson, of Alabama.

Pent up fires of Democratic enthusiasm fed by rivalries that are moving beneath the surface found a tumultuous outlet again in the big convention hall. This time it was Senator Walsh, of Montana, Oil Committee proponent, who set the convention afire when he appeared on the platform to make an address as permanent chairman.

From the moment his selection for the place was announced the garden rang with cheers, and when he took over the gavel delegates snatched up state standards and began a howling parade in tribute to Walsh's public career in unaccustomed vigor.

Not a single voice was raised in protest or debate at any stage in the proceedings of the opening session. Picking their words and making their plans warily, party officials steered the conversation away from the dangerous passages that lie in its course and left it to the committees and to later sessions to develop the full force of the conflicting currents that are moving beneath the surface.

Kiwanis Club Will Enter Sanford Girl In Beauty Contest

At the meeting of the Kiwanis Club this noon, held at the Montezuma Hotel, it was decided to enter a girl from this city in the beauty contest to be staged in Daytona the early part of July. President Dumas appointed Kiwanians Leno, Brownlee and Malnes as a committee to make the selection and represent the club in the matter.

A letter from the chairman of the athletic committee was read, challenging the Rotary Club to a series of baseball games. The reply from the Rotarians was also read in which they suggested substituting golf for baseball. To this the Kiwanis Club has declined on account of the fact that the membership of their club are young men who have not yet taken up what some termed an old man's game.

Dr. F. D. King, pastor of the Baptist Church, addressed the club speaking interestingly on the Muscle Shoals project and describing his visit to that spot.

Party Declarations of Principles Drafted

NEW YORK, June 25.—The actual drafting of a party declaration of principles today was in the hands of a subcommittee appointed early today after a platform committee of the Democratic National Convention had completed a lengthy hearing on numerous proposals.

Junior Chamber of Commerce Will Be Permanently Organized Tonight

A large number of the young men of this city are expected to be present tonight at 8 o'clock at the offices of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce when a permanent organization of a Junior body will be perfected and talks will be made by representatives of both the Jacksonville and Tampa Junior organizations.

A set of by-laws and probably a tentative draft of the constitution will be presented for the consideration of the organization. It was further stated by members of the organization who have been busily engaged since the last meeting with the task of drawing up these two important documents.

To Question Haywood About Liquor Seizure

NEW YORK, June 25.—An order was served on District Attorney Haywood today directing him to appear before Federal Judge Knox this afternoon to show the cause why he should not seize all liquor aboard Grand liner Berengaris scheduled to sail for England today.

McADOO LINES UP HIS SUPPORTERS FOR BITTER FIGHT

William Jennings Bryan Is First Visitor Today At Headquarters of Former Treasury Official

NEW YORK, June 24.—As the Democratic National Convention got underway today, McAdoo continued conferences with his advisors looking to strengthening his lines in the battle of ballots that is to come. William J. Bryan was the first caller of the day at McAdoo headquarters.

The former treasury head spent a busy day Monday. In two addresses to delegates to the convention, he renewed his assaults on the metropolitan press for what he characterized as unfair tactics and declared his confidence that victory for progressive democracy with himself as leader was as certain as though already recorded.

Both Mr. McAdoo and his campaign manager, David Ladd Rockwell, took cognizance of reports, published and spoken, that McAdoo is losing ground, and that much of his support will be dissipated after the first few ballots. The candidate for the presidential nomination "assured" delegates from far western states who marched to his hotel upon their arrival that a statement that they would "betray" their trust was a libel upon them and their states.

Mr. Rockwell in a conference with newspaper correspondents declared that McAdoo not only had not lost any delegates, but had gained some.

"And we have a reserve strength that will surprise you," he added. "All this talk of our losing ground is pure propaganda designed to influence vacillating delegates."

To Execute a Trust Speaking to the delegates from nine western states and Hawaii and the Philippines, Mr. McAdoo told them they had not come here to "betray, but to execute a trust."

"And I know that you are going to do it," he said, "and that every other Democrat in America is going to do it."

This declaration brought long cheers from the delegates and cries of "We are last ditchers." "You bet we are last ditchers," McAdoo shot back. "We are not only last ditchers but we are pathfinders for Democracy."

Mr. McAdoo's second address of the day was delivered at a luncheon given to women delegates to the convention by Mrs. J. Borden Harriman and Miss Carolyn Ruutz Rees. In it he declared that the convention must adopt a progressive platform and nominate a progressive candidate if democracy is to triumph.

Not Getting Square Deal Renewing his attack on the New York newspapers, he declared that he was "game," but added that his hearers knew he was not "getting a square deal" from the Metropolitan press.

While Mr. McAdoo was addressing delegates and conferring with a steady stream of visitors to his headquarters, his headquarters had prolonged conferences to work out details of convention organization and strategy. The McAdoo floor force will consist of 36 workers, three to each of the twelve zones into which the delegates space will be divided with Breckinridge Long, of Missouri, in charge under Mr. Rockwell.

Besides conferring with delegates and other visitors, Mr. McAdoo was closeted for some time with former Senator James D. Phelan, of California, with E. J. Meredith, former secretary of agriculture, and Carl Vrooman, former assistant secretary of agriculture and others regarding platform planks.

There was no pronouncement from McAdoo headquarters as to the candidate attitude toward abrogating the rule requiring a two-thirds vote of the delegates to nominate. Referring to this subject generally Mr. Rockwell emphasized that discussion of such abrogation had not originated in the McAdoo camp, but had initiated by George E. Brennan, the party leader in Illinois.

Would Defeat Party Out of the grip of pre-convention statements came those praising and assailing McAdoo's candidacy. Gov. Pat M. Neff, of Texas, who declined to become a delegate from his state declared that the selection of either McAdoo or Smith would mean defeat for the party.

"Smith is too wet," he said. "McAdoo is too oily."

"If we are to successfully meet on the field of political conflict the enemies of clean government," Gov. Neff said, "we must do it with a leader who has never been the attorney for the sinister, corrupt influences of this country."

The unfortunate division of our party at this moment between those two impossible candidates has caused the delegates to overlook temporarily the strength and virtues of many able and better fitted men, such as Davis, Copeland, Ralston, Baker and Bryan.

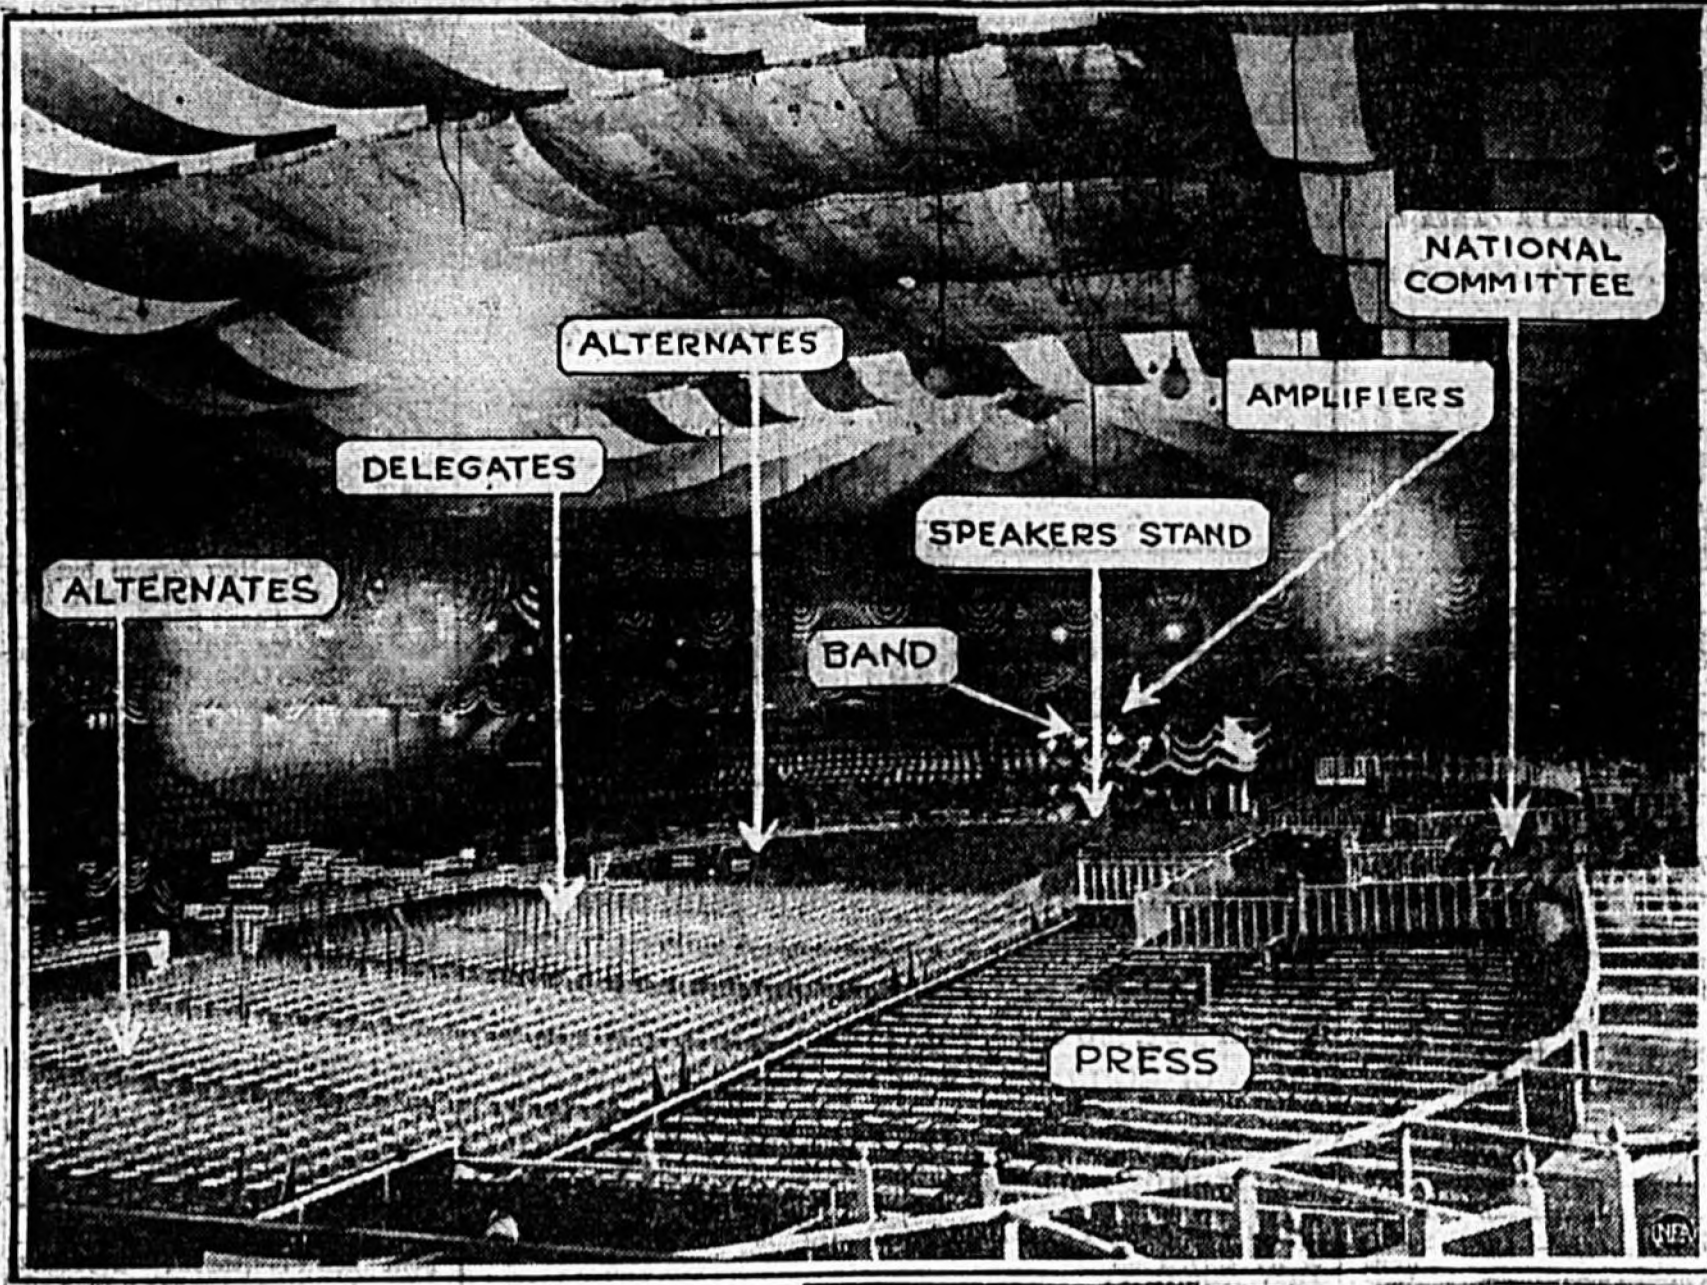

BUY HOME

It was learned today that T. H. Buchanan and wife recently purchased, through the Seminole Business Exchange, an attractive five room bungalow on Palmetto Avenue and Katie Street. It is understood that they will make it their home in the future.

PAT HARRISON IN KEYNOTE SPEECH SCORES COOLIDGE

removed the tariff jams in the channels through which our surplus products move. It might have visualized world conditions and courageously assumed the part befitting a great nation. It might have reduced living costs, redeemed pledges to the soldiers, followed a definite domestic program, and adopted a broad and statesmanlike foreign policy, but even then, it would have availed it nothing with its carnival of corruption.

"The least that the American people expect of their public servants is common honesty. They will forgive their passivity, overlook their indiscretions, and, too often, forget their impotency, but to them corruption is inexorable, graft is indefensible."

Referring to senate inquiries, Senator Harrison was unsparring in his criticisms of former Secretaries Denby and Fall, former Attorney General, and Charles H. McNary, former head of the Veterans' Bureau, and former Senator Newberry of Michigan. He paid high tribute to Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, prosecutor of the oil industry, and others connected with the various investigations.

"Decry them as you will, the American people know that it was these investigations conducted by Democrats but through Republican committees—that sent Albert B. Fall to Three Rivers a disgraced man. It was these investigations that compelled Edwin Denby's retirement from the cabinet. It was these investigations that drove Daugherty back to Washington Court House. It was these investigations that caused conspirators against their government to take their own lives rather than tell the truth. It was these investigations that pointed to the immoral orgy of Forbes and sickening scandals in the Veterans' Bureau. It was these investigations that put a Republican congressman behind the bars and lashed Newberry from the senate. It was these investigations that informed the American public that the first official act of Calvin Coolidge was the appointment of a private secretary who had traded and trafficked in public patronage."

It was these investigations that led a Republican senate to convict its own Republican national committee for "framing" a Democratic senator because he dared to do the right.

Comparing the investigations into Democratic and Republican administration, Senator Harrison said it was "not graft alone that offers in the two administrations such happy comparisons."

"During these little more than three years," he said, "we have seen the present administration float along, tossed by every current fanned by every breeze, without purpose, program or policy. Upon a thousand issues they have hoisted the white flag of surrender."

Senator Harrison declared that nothing in "burlesque or opera bouffe" was comparable to the "scene recently enacted at Cleveland in the efforts of the Silent Sphinx of the Potomac to exile and expatriate those Republican senators who dared to oppose his mandate."

"They dared to vote an investigation of a number of the President's official family and they are penalized for their decency," he said.

"By every device known to trained camoufleurs, by every subtle process of legitemain the Republican nominee, in true Pharisaical fashion, sought to divorce himself from his former comrades in arms. The plan is obvious; the plot is futile. Neither the President nor his Plagiatifian army headed by General Butler and Sergeant

Stearns can conceal the ugly fact that the Cleveland convention was the most highly organized, base ridden and oleaginous ever held in America. The American people will not be deceived.

"The American people will know that they are dealing with a system; that even though Hanna, Quay and Penrose are dead, their spirits go marching on in the personages of the Three Musketeers of present day Republicanism—Butler, Stearns and Stemp."

Turning to a discussion of the Mellon tax proposal, Senator Harrison asserted that it was conceived in the interest of privilege.

"What is this Mellon that Mellon sought to cut?" he asked. "It would have given 1,200 of the 3,585,985 income tax payers in America 51 per cent of the total reduction."

The temporary chairman declared under the leadership of Simmons in the senate and Garner in the house, the Democratic tax reduction proposal triumphed, not because we were numerically strong, but because we were assuredly right."

Comparing the foreign policies of the American government under President Wilson and the Harding-Coolidge administration, Senator Harrison declared that the Wilson policy was "a policy of halting and weak."

Commending Presiding Harding for his proposal that America adhere to the world court, Senator Harrison said that President Coolidge had pledged himself to carry out Mr. Harding's policies and that yet from the day he assumed office he had made "only a bow" in that direction.

Senator Harrison declared that if returned to control of the government the Democratic party would have "neither pets nor puppets to protect or corrupt cabinet members to coddle."

"We will rigidly enforce the law," he said, "whether the violator be a bloated trust magnate, a congressional bribe taker, an embezzler of the public domain, or a disreputable bootlegger."

"We will readjust tariff rates and reduce transportation charges. We will lay heavy penalties on bribery and punish election frauds. We will go to the relief of distressed agriculture and adopt such policies and pass such laws and restore permanently the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar."

"We will adopt a progressive reclamation policy. We will pursue the same high course that has ever inspired the leaders of Democracy, unterrified by those who threatened to destroy, unmoved by those who seek selfishly to control."

"Neither the cries of radicalism nor the threats of conservatism will swerve us from our fixed purpose. Democracy is the right way. It is the party that offers the safe middle course, patronizing no 'isms' and paying no tribute to no extremes."

motherly, matronly woman, not too cordial. Her daughter is gracefully slim and delightfully gracious, Mrs. Smith also spoke over the radio. Comments were broadcast by various New York women, journalists who bespoke Smith's popularity with local press.

This reception was given for visiting newspaper women and a Birmingham woman among myself were the only Southern women present. Since then Miss Gladys Baker of the Jacksonville Journal has arrived in city to write convention side lights.

John W. Martin, governor-elect of Florida, is here, stopping at the Vanderbilt. That New York press is unfair, that New York provides reactionary environment and that women represent the element in American society that can do more to help American Democracy than any other class was statement made by W. G. McAdoo at Colony Club luncheon for women delegates yesterday. This was McAdoo's third speech since arrival in city.

McAdoo's third speech since arrival in city was given at the Colony Club luncheon for women delegates yesterday. This was McAdoo's third speech since arrival in city.

I had oozed in as Mrs. D. A. McDougall's proxy not knowing press was not admitted, hence The Herald is getting an exclusive report that New York reporters were fairly panting for their tongues positively hung out hungrily when they begged me for it.

McAdoo was introduced to women as a man who had fought for suffrage and equal pay for equal work. He spoke of the great privilege of meeting with women and promised unselfish service and progress if he is given a chance to be president. He scored the New York newspapers.

"I've lived here 30 years and I know papers and how unfair they are. This is a reactionary environment. I do not say it in an unkind spirit. I like to face facts. If a reactionary platform and reactionary candidate is put up the Democrats will lose the election this fall. We've got to knock home run Democrats who amass great fortunes turn into Republicans. They think that party will give them protection."

Speaking of need for better party organization, McAdoo said that if every Democrat would give one dollar or 50 cents the party would have more than enough money to keep it cleanly organized and maintained. In conclusion he said: "The clarion call of a new crusade must be felt and followed regardless of sacrifice or predatory interest."

"Sure I love Miami and because I haven't been there for several years but expect to go there next winter," William Gibbs McAdoo told me during an exclusive interview yesterday afternoon. He said that he was delighted to know that Florida delegates are for him and that he is confident of getting the nomination. Commenting upon charges that his speeches have been radical, Mr. McAdoo said he proposed to carry campaign on through that line.

"We'll fight it through on this line if it takes all summer," he declared. "The situation here now what New York press would have you believe, for the city itself is not hostile at all. A majority of the people in this city welcome us here."

FIND MAN'S BODY RICHMOND, June 24.—The body of an unidentified white man possibly be that of Walter A. Synnor, sought in connection with the death of his wife here last Saturday, Tuesday was found in Halifax county, near south Boston late Sunday night. Richmond police have been notified.

OLD-FASHIONED.

(From the Detroit Free Press.)

"If you think you're worth more money why don't you ask for it?" "Well, I'm a little old-fashioned, I guess. I'm inclined to think that the boss himself will tumble to the fact if I give him time."

ENTHUSIASM IS SHOWN AT START OF CONVENTION

activities, added to the ever-growing pressure of the McAdoo and Smith workers, kept the delegates in such a whirl of excitement that the net result was only added bewilderment and uncertainty over the outcome.

picking a candidate, rather than continue the stalemate indefinitely by following blindly the advice of state conventions and primaries.

No Change in Victory Claims. The day's developments caused no change in the claims of victory emanating from the headquarters of both McAdoo and Smith, but there was no denying the growing show of optimism among the supporters of the favorite sons who for the present are cast into shadow by the towering strength of the two leaders.

The Indiana delegation, after a glance over the situation as it developed during the past few hours, reversed the previous decision of Democratic leaders of the state and decided unanimously to place the name of Senator Samuel M. Ralston formally before the convention. There was talk later of abandoning the decision, however, when some of the senator's friends suggested that his position would be weakened by bringing him forward at so early a stage in the fight—an opinion in which Thomas Taggart, the veteran Indiana leader, appeared to share.

Undeniably the day's hurried activities saw an increase in the tide of discussion over favorite sons and dark horses, and the delegates were given plenty of advice by the campaign workers about both the strength and the weakness of those proposed as compromise candidates. John W. Davis became a target of criticism both from some of the McAdoo partisans and some of those supporting Governor Smith, and as soon as Senator Ralston's name was brought forward afresh a counter-movement started to head off the boom before it had opportunity to reach any greater proportions.

LEADING PLANKS OF DEMOCRATS IN FOR DISCUSSION

which the rights of civil and religious liberty are guaranteed, but the Indiana plank would go much further. In fact the plank, which it will propose is identical with that adopted by the Indiana Democratic state convention except that the language is changed to make it a national party instead of a state party expression.

Senator Carter Glass of Virginia and other Wilson followers, who have insisted that the league of nations be denominated in the foreign relations provision, were reinforced with the arrival of Newton D. Baker and former Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska, who led the Wilson fight in the senate for ratification of the league covenant.

The Sanford Herald
Published every afternoon except Sunday at Sanford, Florida.
Entered as Second Class Matter, October 27, 1919, at the Postoffice at Sanford, Florida, under Act of March 3, 1879.

A Defense Of The Misunderstood Snob

Though candidly admitting it has never seen it done, yet The Herald is going to try to say here a few kind words for the creature called a Snob!
The poor Snob is receiving entirely too much approbrium. Epithets and other harsh words are applied to him and her as if there were not a meritorious quality in the Snob's entire make-up.

As Brisbane Sees It

A hen owns her egg. A little politics. The dollar mark flag. Tailless alligator, etc.
SUPPOSE YOU SAW a hen running away, carrying her own egg under her wing with a highly indignant rooster in pursuit, crying "Gimme back my egg," you would laugh at the rooster and say: "Why don't you lay an egg of your own? That egg belongs to the hen that laid it."

THE OLYMPIC GAMES MIAMI HERALD

The great stadium erected at Colombes for the Olympic field contests, which opens on July fifth, would hold several like the original at Olympia, where for a thousand years the youth of Greece contended for athletic supremacy. It is three hundred fifty meters long and two hundred fifty meters wide. It has a five hundred meter running track and provides seating capacity for sixty thousand spectators.

THE CAMPAIGN SPEAKER THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

The most curious feature of national campaigns is the campaign orator. We do not refer to the known public men who take to the stump in the cause of their party, but to the weird army of noodies who are employed by the speakers' bureaus to address and impress the electorate. This army springs up from nowhere and its pay, though modest per capita, must come to quite a sum in the total.

Dan Dobbins
As the candidate spreads bunk so will he lie.
The hardest thing about loading is buying cigarettes in China, and not enough in America.
They do not shake hands in China, and not enough in America.
A slap on the back is worth kicks in the pants.
The biggest things in life are small things.
Baseball fans blow almost as much as electric fans.
People who think too much of themselves do not think enough.

Killed On Other Kinds Of "Battle Fields"

We do a great deal of talking about the horrors of war. We lament in great sincerity the terrible death toll. We speak with sorrow of the loss of man-power to the world.
In the nineteen months that America lost 55,000 men on the battle field it lost 560,000 children less than five years of age.

TO YOURSELVES BE TRUE NEW YORK WORLD

The Democratic Party enters this week into a struggle for the possession of its own soul. On the result of that struggle will depend its title to leadership and its chances of victory.
Let there be no mistake about it: The campaign leading up to the elections in November is not going to be a sham battle. In Coolidge and Dawes the Republicans have a formidable ticket; behind that ticket will be found great wealth, great power and great resources.

ONE HUNDRED EXTRA "dry agents" arrived in New York to "dry up the city."

Some will dry up the city and some will "collect." One restaurant gentleman, notorious dealer in forbidden liquors, asked if prohibition agents bother him, replied: "Yes, they do, I had to give $200 to that one that just went out."

HERR SCHOMBURGK, an African explorer, is accused in a Berlin court of stealing from the Holy Grave in Liberia the sacred stone of the alligator without any toll.

Tribe of the African went coastwise shipped that sacred fetish for years, and want it back, to bring them luck.
Schomburgk says he bought the fetish for $5.
Only those NOT afraid to walk under a ladder or sit thirteen at a table have a right to laugh at the worshippers of the tailless alligator.

SENATOR PHELAN, of California, has a row with some good missionaries whose business is converting Asiatic heathens.

They accuse Mr. Phelan of falsehood, because he said one missionary, protesting against Japanese exclusion, is an agent of Japan.
That doesn't interest the public but THIS does. It's an admirable thing for missionaries to spend their lives sending Japanese to our HEAVEN, but this country does not want them to spend any part of their time reading Japanese or other Asiatic to THE UNITED STATES.
WHEN FIRE STARTS there is always something to feed it. The Japanese are printing savage cartoons about Uncle Sam "two headed," one face of the founder of Christianity, the other that of a soulless demon. Now two Japanese are found murdered near Los Angeles. The police say they were murdered by countrymen of their own. But, of course, in Japan it will be reported as an American outrage. It illustrates this fact: There should be no mixture of populations that produce such accusations. Asia and the Western World can and will be friends. But not on any basis of labor competition.

Florida, the head of the table.

Why not hold the next Democratic Convention in Florida?
This is a Democratic year if the right candidate is named. It must not be Smith.
If Smith isn't nominated by the Democrats it won't be the fault of the New York newspapers.

What would the New York papers do for news if Bryan wasn't in the big town?

Have you noted the influence certain Republican newspapers are trying to have with the Democrats?
After quarreling with her spouse, Iodine in an attempt to kill herself. That's what might literally be called "doing it up brown."

"We can't win on a beer keg," says Congressman Upshaw, candidate for vice-president.

But we would win in a walk with a glass of Welch's, would probably be Bryan's rejoinder.
A dark horse cannot win, avers Josephus Daniels, who heads North Carolina's delegation to the convention. Evidently working on the assumption that black always brings ill-luck.
The Tampa Times says if it remembers correctly that other campaign text of Jimmy Cox's was shot so full of holes that it must be a new one they are using in New York.
No serious attempt was made to change the two-thirds rule in the Democratic convention. When put to a vote Tuesday it was decided by those voting to follow the usual custom in naming a nominee.
The organization of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be perfected at a meeting tonight. An invitation has been extended to all those interested to be present at the meeting.
The construction of homes in Sanford is beginning. One individual has taken out building permits for five new houses. This is the spirit that will make Sanford a bigger city, capable of housing those who wish to live here.
Fort Lauderdale is to have a daily newspaper. Announcement has been made that within sixty days the Fort Lauderdale Sentinel will begin the publication of a daily issue. George G. Mathews is the editor of the Sentinel.
"America needs a Paul Revere, not a sphinx in the White House," declared Senator Pat Harrison sounding the keynote speech at the opening of the Democratic convention. McAdoo would answer the need admirably.
"We can't win on a beer keg" is the way William D. Upshaw, Representative in Congress from Georgia put it while speaking in the Calvary Baptist Church Sunday. "If the democratic party can win only by flourishing a demagogue or standing on a beer keg or a wine barrel, they know, they know, they know, as it will go down, into ignominious defeat, and ignominious oblivion."

Local Presbyterians Organize a Mission Church in Tennessee

The Sanford Presbyterian Church has for several years supported a mission station in the John Black neighborhood near Hartford, Tenn. The work is in charge of Miss Mary Andrews and Miss Zita Davidson. So well has this work prospered that a Presbyterian Church has been organized this year and plans are now on foot to build a church house. Architect Elton Moughton of Sanford has drawn plans for this new building.

The following committee of officers representing the Sanford Presbyterian Church will visit this mission station on July 1 to go thoroughly over the situation: L. A.
 Brumley, L. I. Frazier and H. C.
 DuBoise. The visit of this committee ought to be the means of stimulating new interest among the people of this church.

W.M.U. Holds Meeting At Baptist Church

A very interesting meeting of the W. M. U. was held Tuesday afternoon at the parlors of the Baptist Church.

The following program was rendered: Scripture reading by President; prayer by Mrs. M. M.
 Stewart; minutes read and approved; subject, Europe; prayer by Mrs. Walker; True Help for the Nation, Mrs. W. T. Wheelless; In Spain, by Mrs. Geo. Huff; In Hungary, by Mrs. M. M. Stewart;
 Romania, by Mrs. F. R. Savage;
 Russia and Siberia, by Mrs. P. P.
 Rines; short talk, by Mrs. W. C.
 DeCoursey; Palestine and Serbia, by Mrs. Glenn; talk on Kinship of Prayer, by Mrs. L. N. Hansen.

The meeting was closed by a prayer with Mrs. F. R. Savage.

Entertain St. Agnes Guild on Tuesday

The social meeting of the St.
 Agnes Guild, with Mrs. Ben Coleman and Mrs. Paul Biggers as hostesses, was a most enjoyable one Tuesday afternoon.

Nothing akin to the business of the Guild was mentioned and late in the afternoon the hostesses served ice cream and coffee.

A new member was welcomed by the Guild, Mrs. Royal is a new comer and the Guild is glad to have her as a member.

To Have Fireworks Display Over Water At Halifax Frolics

DAYTONA, June 24.—As an added feature of the Halifax Summer Frolics program, which will include a regatta, water polo and all-Florida aquatic contests, in the latter of which some of the leading professionals of America will give exhibitions, directors of the event of July 3, 4 and 5 have arranged for presentation of the finest fireworks display yet seen in Florida.

It will be staged over the Atlantic ocean off the world-famous Seabreeze-Daytona Beach motor race course and near the Glendon
 Hotel. The Florida Fireworks Company, recently established at Orlando, has been awarded the contract for the display. As this will be the initial Florida showing of the concern D. M. Aldrich, owner-manager, promises to Floridians and other visitors a display that will prove surprising. "I will give them the best they've ever seen in Florida," he said.

The Frolics "over" feature, will be staged on a higher plane than was originally anticipated by 30 representatives of civic organizations, who are promoting the annual event.

Miss Mary Doak Dies At Hospital Monday After a Long Illness

Miss Mary Doak, who has spent the past three winters with the H.
 J. Lehman, passed away Monday afternoon at the Fernand-Laughton Hospital, after a long illness.

Miss Doak, who came here from Crown Point, Ind., made many friends by her charming personality and she will be greatly missed by a wide circle of acquaintances.

After a short service by Dr.
 Brownlee at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lehman on Palmetto Avenue, Tuesday afternoon, the body was sent to her old home in Indiana.

Miss Doak is survived by an aged father who is very ill, and by one brother and other relatives. Mrs.
 Lehman accompanied the body to Crown Point.

Jap Customs Men Are Rude to Americans

YOKOHAMA, June 24.—American passengers on the steamship President Madison were subjected to a rigorous and rather discourteous customs examination when the vessel docked today until higher officials were informed of the change in methods and intervened and apologized.

Grass Widowers' Club Is Organized Tuesday

A very unique club was organized Tuesday night at the Presbyterian Manse. Qualifications for membership are very strict, allowing only those men to become members who are married but whose wives are away for the summer.

These charter members prepared a wonderful course dinner last night, each preparing the dish that their domestic life had taught them.

The members are G. W. McNeil, L. E. Frazier, (Miss) Doris J. Co-landers, F. V. Darline, D. C. Howard, H. C. DuBoise, E. D. Brownlee and Rev. P. W. DuBoise of Miami.

Food water is mostly a combination of marble dust and sulphuric acid and chips taken from the marble cathedral on Fifth avenue,
 New York, supplied 25,000,000 gallons of the drink.

Immigration Law May Affect Florida Much

MIAMI, June 24.—Dire results from Dade County farms and other industries employing negro labor are feared as a result of the new immigration law regulations affecting Florida which now employ thousands of Bahama negroes who are largely wilderness. Officials say that more than four thousand negroes from the Bahama come over each winter to harvest crops, returning in the spring.
